commonplaceness in [1] manner, the re, 21 " [1] " 2 Q-1's of [1] manner

RECEPTION ROOM is a room of approximately 100 sq. ft. used for the reception of guests and for the storage of mail and other documents. It is located on the first floor of the building.

similar room or rooms for the use of under graduates

commons, n pl [I komʌnz, 2 kʌmʌnz] See common (I) 1 The common people (see common (II), 3) 2 a Provision to be shared in common, hence, allowance of food, rations Plr short commons, in sufficient food, b (Oxford and Cambridge) portion of food supplied at a fixed charge a commons of bread, butter, beer &c , o com pany eating at a common table, survives only in Doctors' Commons. o v

Common Serjeant, n Law officer of City of London who sits as judge at Central Criminal Court, and in Lord Mayor's Court commonwealth, n [1 kominwelth, 2 kōna: welp], fr common (1) & wealth 1 An independent political community, the body politic, the state for the good of the commonwealth 2 A republic, specif (cap) period during which Cromwell was Protector 3 (cap) Title granted to Federated States of Australia commotion, n [1 kumshān, 2 kəmuʃən], fr Lat commotiō (em), 'violent movement, disturbance, excitement', fr commoti (um), PP of commovere, 'to move violently, disturb, stir', fr com- & movēre, 'to move' See motion Violent motion, agitation, tumult, disturbance a (in nature) commotion of the waves &c, b (in polit and social affairs) riot, rising, noisy fuss, c (of the mental or physical organism) excitement, upset commotion of the nerves, spirits &c communal, adj 1 kōmunāl, 2 kīmjunāl], fr L Lat communiālis, fr commūna, fr Lat commūnis See common (I) 1 Belonging to the community, common, public communal property 2 Specif (India) of the different religions or racial communities, in a district, esp of Hindu and Moslem communal voting, elections &c, communal disturbances &c communism, n [1 kómúnizm, 2 kó mjúnizm] Prec & -ism System in which communes, or small political units, have considerable legislative powers delegated by the central government communalist, n [1 kəmmunalist, 2 kəmmjunalist] communal & -ist One who lives under, or who favours, communalism communalistic, adj [1 kəmmunalistik, 2 kəmjunalistik] Prec & -ic Connected with, characterized by, communalism communalization, n [1 kómünalízáshun, 2 kómjunelanzífan] Next word & -ation Transference of property to a community communalize vt [1 kómünalízshun, 2 kómjunelanzífan] communalize, vt trans (1 lémúnaliz, 2 lomyúnaliz) communal & -ize To make over to, vest (property) in, a community commune (1), n (1 lómún, 2 lómýn) Fr, fr 1. Lat commūna fr Lat commūnis See common (1) 1 (in France and some other countries as Belgium, Italy, Spain) A small political unit, district under the government of a mayor and a municipal council, with considerable degree of independence of central government 2 Spécif, Paris Commune, municipality of Paris, which, in 1793 and 1871, overrode and overthrew the supreme government of the country, bringing about revolution and terrorism communio (II), vb intrans {1 lómün, 2 lómýün}, more rarely {1 lómün 2 lómýün} fr communio, fr Lat communicare. See communicate (followed by with) To hold intimate and familiar converse communibabitu, n {1 lómündikab hiti, 2 lómýr-dikab hiti} Next word -ity 4 Capicity, capability, c' being communicated 2 The quality of frankness' openness c' speech communibab'itene c' communicable adj. (1) communis abl, 2 lūm parit abl for l. lat communis abilis, fr Lat. communis fr. See communicate. Capable of being communicated; transferable, imparted. From one person to another (of thought, states of mind, etc.) b (of material things) c (of social transmission), capable of being transmitted.

communicant, adj & n [1 kumúnikant; 2 komyúnikant], fr Lat communícant (em), Pres Part of communícare See communicate 1 adj Communicating, esp (anat) communicant with (of nerves and arteries) 2 n. a Specif, one who communicates at the celebration of Holy Communion, b one who imparts information communicate, vb trans & intrans [1 humūnikāt, 2 komjūnikeri], fr Lat communīcāt (um), P.P. of communīcāre, 'to share with others, have in common, impart', fr communis, 'common to several' See common (I) A trans 1 To impart, transmit, hand on, to another, or to others (always non-material things) to communicate news, opinions, ideas &c 2 To pass on, transmit (a disease) B intrans 1 (followed by with) To hold social intercourse with, to impart, or interchange, thoughts, ideas, opinions &c by speech or writing to communicate with one's friends, communicate by telegram 2 (of apices, rooms, houses) To be connected with each other by means of a passage, opening, or other mode of access this garden communicates with the next by a gate, three rooms communicating, adjoining each other and having doors between 3 Special, to receive the Sacrament at Holy Communion.

communication, n [1 kumūnikāshun, 2 komyūnikēshən], fr Lat communicatio- (em) See communicate & -ion 1 The act of communicating, the imparting or interchange of ideas, opinions, sentiments &c, correspondence to be in communication with 2 That which is communicated, a letter, a message, information imparted by speech, writing &c to receive a communication 3 a A means of communicating communication between England and Iceland is rather slow, there is no direct communication between the two wings of the house, b specif (mil) means of communication of every sort between an army in the field and its base, e.g. roads, railways, bridges, telegraph wires &c, known collectively as lines of communication communication-cord, n Cord running through railway carriages, by pulling which passengers can communicate with the guard while the train is travelling communicative, adj [i kumunikativ, 2 kumunikativ] communicato & -ivo Inclined to communicate, ready to converse with, and to impart information to others, talkative, reverse of reserved communicatively, adv Prec & -ly Free-spokenly communicativeness, n See prec & -ness Quality or habit of being communicative communicator, n [1 kumunikátor, 2 komyún-lits] communicate & -or Person who, thing which, communicates, specif, part of telegraph instrument, contrivance on trains for calling guard communism 1 (1 kumnyun, 2 kamnyun), for Lat communio (em), 'fellowship, a common share or interest', for communis, gen common (I) -ion 1 a Common participation in something 2 fellowship, close a id intimate relations between two or more persons, c intimate, heart searching introspection to hold communion with oneself, d specif, organized religious body holding the same specific tenets, and having the same hierarchy religious communion, to be of the same communion 2 (esp) a Celebration of the Eucharist, at which the p-ple communica-tively Comm 1927, b specif, individual act of partaking to wale one's sister Communion Communion cup n That which contains the wine at Ifole Communion a chalice communionist, n {1} kum'yun-ist, 2 komyun-in-ist communion'-ist. One who holds a specific and strict theory regarding Holy Communion

Commun. on service n a A celebration of their Communion, b the prescribed order, or office, for this

Communion table, n Altar at which Holy Communion is celebrated communiqué, n [1 kómúnká, 2 kemyún-ike] Fr, P.P of communiquer, lit 'something communicated' See communiqué Official bulletin, or statement, containing information on a matter of public concern communism, n [1 kómúnizm, 2 komyún-izm], fr Fr communisme, fr commun & -ism See common (I) Theory that all should possess and enjoy property in common, and that individual ownership should be abolished, the most extreme form of socialism, as established in Russia, under the 'Soviet' system of government, the so called 'Dictatorship of the Proletariat' communist, n & adj [1 kómúníst, 2 komyún-íst] See pro & -ist a n One who holds the doctrine of communism; b adj, communistical communitistic, adj [1 kómúnístik, 2 komyún-ístik] communist & -io Pertaining to communism and communists, pervaded by, based on, according to, communism communitarian, n [1 kómúnítárian, 2 kóm-júnítárian] community & -arian Member of a community practicing communism community, n [1 kómúnítá, 2 komyún-ístá], fr Lat communitas (em), 'fellowship', fr commúnus See common (I) & -ity 1 a A society of people living in proximity to each other, in one locality, under same conditions of life, and having some common bond of organization, political or religious, which makes them a more or less closely knit unit, b a society of people with common interests, occupations, or fads, who live a common life, (by extension) c the community, the public 2 a Sharing by all alike, common possession or enjoyment community of goods, wealth &c, b possession of a common character or nature community of race, religion &c communization, n [1 kómúnízášun, 2 kóm-junázášun] See next word & -ation Act of rendering anything common property communitize, vb trans [1 kómúníz, 2 kóm-junáz], fr Lat commún-(is), see common (I), & -ize To make into common property, to make public commutable, adj [1 kómútábl, 2 kám-jútábl], fr Lat commutábilis, 'subject to change, changeable', fr commutáre, see commute, & -able Capable of being commuted commutation, n [1 kómútášun, 2 kóm-jútášun], fr Lat commutáshn-(em), 'a changing', fr commutáre, see commute & -ation 1 The act of commuting, exchanging, or substituting one thing for another, esp the substitution of one kind of payment for another, or money for service owed, &c commutation of tithes 2 (law) A reduction of the penalty imposed by sentence of a judge, esp commutation of the death penalty (to penal servitude for life) commutative, adj [1 kómútáti, 2 kám-jútáti] See pro & -ive Pertaining to substitution, interchangeable, mutual commutator, n [1 kómútáti, 2 komyú-ístá] See pro, commute, & -or Device for altering direction or polarity of electric current, in a dynamo it converts alternating into direct current and collects it commute, vb trans [1 kámút, 2 kámjút], fr Lat commutáre, 'to change entirely, to exchange (in trade)', fr com- & mutáre, 'to change'. See mutable To exchange, substitute, a one kind or mode of payment for another to commute a pension &c, b one punishment for another, a lesser for a greater to commute the death penalty (to imprisonment for life) commuter, n [1 kómúter, 2 kemyúte] Pro & -er a Commutator, b (in U.S.A.) a season-ticket holder comorse, adj [1 kómós, 2 kóumous], fr Lat comorsus, fr coma, 'hair', fr Gk lóma, 'hair' See coma (II) & -ose (bot) Hairy compact (I), n [1 kómákti, 2 kómpekti], fr Lat compactum, 'an agreement', fr com- pactum, P.P of compactiscor, 'I make an agreement with', fr com- & pactiscor, 'make a bargain' See pact Agreement, bargain, understanding between parties compact (II), adj [1 kumpákti, 2 kámpekti], fr Lat compact-(um), P.P of compactare, 'to fix or fasten together, unite', fr com- & pangere, 'to fasten, fix' This vb is fr same base as pactiscor, 'settle, fix up', the latter expressing 'fixing, settlement', of non-material things, the former of material things also See impinge, impact, paot, & pax 1 a Closely and firmly, tightly, put together, hence, b lying within small compass, fitting neatly together, c dense, firm (in texture), solid, d (fig. of persons) well-knit 2 (of style) Concise, condensed, terse compactad, adj [1 kumpáktad, 2 kámpektad], fr obs vb compact See pro Closely stowed, firmly packed together. compactad earth &c, 'A box whose streets compacted lie' (Geo Herbert) compactly, adv [1 kumpákti, 2 kámpekti] compact (II) & -ly a In a compact, closely packed condition, b succinctly, tersely compactness, n [1 kumpáktines, 2 kámpektines] compact (II) & -ness Quality of being compact compages, n [1 kómpejéz, 2 kámpejdéz] Lat, 'fastening, joint, fabric, framework', fr pag-*, base of pangere. See compact (II) Framework, structure of many parts joined together compaginate, vb trans [1 kumpájúit, 2 kámpejdúit], fr Lat compágmat-(um), P.P of compáginare, fr Lat compáge, genit compáginus, 'fastening, connexion' Op pro To join or fit together compagination, n [1 kumpájúishun, 2 kámpejdúishun] See pro & -ion. (obs) Something fixed together companion (I), n [1 kumpányun, 2 kámpején], fr O Fr compainon, Mod Fr compaignon formed vb suff -ion, fr Low Lat compánies, 'company taking meals together', fr com- & pánis, 'bread' Foretymol of the last see panification, also food. 1 a One who is associated with, supports and accompanies, another, on a journey, expedition, or enterprise the companions of the Conqueror, companion-in arms, b associate, confederate in, sharer of companion in crime, companion of his misery &c, c permanent associate, friend, mate, spouse a faithful companion for forty years, d one being, or found, casually, and fortuitously, in another's company my companion in the railway carriage was a total stranger to me, e sociable, friendly, cheerful, amiable person, esp one who shares another's tastes and interests a first-rate companion, a poor companion, not much of a companion 2 Specif, a woman who lives with another at the latter's charge, as friend and helper in the household 3 (esp) a Member of lowest grade of an order of knighthood Companion of the Bath &c, b member of a grade in orders, which have lower grades, as Companion of British Empire. 4 a thing that matches another, the other of a pair companion vase, portrait &c 5 (fig) Title of handbook, esp of an educational or religious type, a guide 'The Young Sugar-Broker's Companion' companion (II), n Ital (camera della) compagna, 'store-room', also Da. Kompagne. See pro (naut) Framing or skylight on quarter-deck through which light passes to the cabins &c below companion (III), vb trans See companion (I) To act as companion to, accompany companionable, adj [1. kumpányunabl, 2 kámpejénabl] companion (I) & -able Suitable to be, having qualities of, a good companion, sociable, easy to get on with companionableness, n Pro & -ness Quality of being companionable companionably, adv companionable & -ly In a sociable, friendly manner companion-hatch, n Covering of companion way companion-hatchway, n Opening in deck of a ship leading below companion-ladder, n One leading down companion hatchway companionship, n [1 kumpányunshp, 2 kámpejénshp] companion (I) & -ship 1 a Friendly, intimate association, social fellowship to enjoy the companionship of a person, b (esp) rank of Companion of an Order of Knighthood 2 (print) Group of composers working under a foreman companion-way, n companion (II) & way Staircase leading from deck of a ship to cabins &c below company, n [1 kámpáni, 2 kámpani], fr O Fr compainie, fr L Lat compánia See companion (I) 1 a The state of being associated, gathered together, or as assembled, with others in friendly social intercourse, Plur to keep, bear, a person company, remain with for companionship, to part company (with), discontinue association, b group of persons so assembled, spent, number of persons invited for a festive occasion, guests, a party to have company present, to see a great deal of company, c social gifts and qualities, capacity for companionship to find a person poor company, to like his company 2 a Any collection or gathering of persons, esp with common purpose or bond 'the glorious company of the Apostles', b specif (military unit) one fourth of a battalion, commanded by a major or captain, (also attrib) company commander, company sergeant-major &c 3 Habitual associates to keep good, bad, company, get into bad company Plur to err in good company, to share views held by persons of repute 4 a Association of persons formed for trading purposes East India Company, joint stock and limited liability company, b party of actors playing together under common management a theatrical company, c the crew, hands, on a ship ship's company comparability, n [1 kómparáblitá, 2 kám-paráblitá] Next word & -ity (rare) Com- comparable, adj [1 kómparábl, 2 kámper-ábl], fr Lat comparábilis See compare (I) & -able Able or fit to be compared (with or to), as a having certain points of resemblance, or, b having the same degree, or kind, of merit Plur this is not at all comparable to (with) that, is not nearly so good comparative, adj [1 kumpárativ, 2 kám-párativ], fr Lat comparátivus, 'suitable for or pertaining to comparison', fr comparáti (um), P.P of comparáre. See compare (I) & -ive 1 a Involving, based on comparison, esp on the comparison of resemblances and differences in a particular branch of study or science comparative philology, comparative anatomy, b having the power of making comparisons the comparative faculty 2 Judged by comparison, relative to something else, not absolute, qualified by comparison with some other thing or state, hence moderate comparative merits, in comparative comfort, with comparative ease 3 (gram) Comparative degree of an adjective, or adverb, form with suffix -er, or the uninflected form preceded by more healthier, more generous, expressing an enhancement of the quality expressed by simple, positive form of adj &c Also as n the comparative comparatively, adv Pro & -ly To a degree estimated by comparison with something else, relatively, by comparison comparatively well done, it might have been worse done, comparatively clever, rich &c, clever compared to a stupid person, rich compared with a poor one &c compare (I), vb trans & intrans [1 kumpár, 2 kámpeá] Fr comparer, fr Lat comparáre, 'to put together (lit), to bring together, match, compare', fr com-, & pár, 'equal' See par, peer, n a trans. 1 To put or bring together two or more persons or things, in fact or in thought, and contrast them, in order to discover and note points of resemblance and of difference, followed by with 1 I have compared these handwritings and find no resemblance between them, 2 to compare a translation with the original Phr not to be compared with, nothing like so good 2 To observe and express the resemblance of one thing to another, to represent as similar, followed by to Milton's verse has been justly compared to organ-notes 3 (gram) To inflect an adjective or adverb so as to form the comparative and superlative degrees compare 'good' B intrans To be capable, or worthy of comparison with, be regarded as having similar or equal qualities or merits with few writers can compare with Scott as creators of romance. Phr imported meat does not compare with English, is not nearly so good compare (II), n, fr preo Same as comparison, 4 (archaic or poet) Found chiefly in such phrases as beyond, without, past, compare, lovely beyond compare, so lovely that none can equal, none can be compared with (her &c) comparison, n [1 kompārison, 2 kompārison], fr O Fr comparaison, fr Lat comparatiō (em), 'a bringing together, comparison', fr comparare. See compare (I) & -ion 1 The act of comparing to make, establish, a comparison between Phr in comparison with, compared with, if a comparison be made 2 Statement, expression, of a likeness perceived between one person or thing and another, simile, illustration Phr comparisons are odious 3 Relative likeness, resemblance, degree of merit, between two persons or things 4 Possibility of comparison, existence of such degree of resemblance or equality between two persons or things as to warrant comparison there is no comparison between 5 (gram) Act of inflecting adj and adv to form comparative * and superlative degrees compartment, n [1 kompārtment, 2 kompārtment], fr Fr compartment, fr Low Lat compartmentum (um), fr Lat compartiri, 'to divide something with one, to share', fr com- & partiri, 'to share, divide', fr part (em), 'part' See part Part of anything separated off from the rest by partitions of any kind specif a division in a railway carriage forming complete unit, with doors, and windows, and seats for limited number of persons, b water-tight compartment in a ship, one capable of being completely closed so as to form an air chamber if water penetrates to other parts of vessel, Phr to be, lie &c in water-tight compartments, shut off from, unrelated to, other persons or things, c division of the brain containing localized centres of sensation, nr of control of movements &c d (fig) group of ideas, facts &c, existing or retained in the mind apart from and unrelated to, others compass (I), n [1 kūmpas, 2 kūmpas], fr Fr compas, fr L Lat compassus, 'pair of compasses', fr com- & passus, 'step' See pace & pass a Circle, circumference, boundary or enclosing line to fetch a compass, go round, hence, bounds, reach, extent, range, in various senses, esp b (fig, of time and space) within the compass of a lifetime, c range of mental or physical powers a feat beyond my compass, d due limits, moderate bounds to keep one's desires &c within compass e (mus) range of voice, range demanded of the voice in a song compass (II), n See preo a Mariner's compass, instrument provided with magnetic needle on a pivot which always points north, and which hence enables the relative position of the other points of the compass to be found, b compasses (pair of), instrument with two legs, connected at the top by a movable joint, used for describing circles, measuring distances between points &c compass (III), vb trans, fr Fr compasser, 'to measure, contrive' See compass (I)

1 To stretch round, go round, to enclose, encircle hem in Obsolete in this sense, and superseded by encompass, except in PP (archaic) compassed about, surrounded 2 To attain, accomplish to compass one's purpose &c 3 (in bad sense) To plot, scheme for, design, contrive, scheme to bring about to compass the death of compassable, adj [1 kūmpasabl, 2 kūmpasabl], fr compass (III) & -able Capable of being compassed, attainable compassion, n [1 kūmpāshun, 2 kūmpāshun], fr Fr compassion, fr Eccles Lat compassiō (em), 'fellow feeling, sympathy' See com- & passion Sympathy, pity with desire to help, relieve, or spare Phr to have, take, compassion upon, pity and help compassionate (I), adj [1 kūmpāshunat, 2 kūmpāshunat], fr compassion & -ate Filled with compassion, sympathetic, full of pity, tender hearted compassionate (II), vb trans [1 kūmpāshunāt, 2 kūmpāshunāt], fr compassion & -ate To regard or treat with compassion, take pity upon compassionately, adv [1 kūmpāshunatli, 2 kūmpāshunatli], fr compassionate (I) & -ly In a tender-hearted, pitying manner compassionateness, n See preo & -ness Compassionate halut of mind, habitual compassion compass-plane, n encompass (I) & plane (II) Carpenter's plane with convex under side for planing round surfaces compass-saw, n See preo & saw (III) Fine saw for cutting curves compatibility, n [1 kūmpātibiliti, 2 kūmpātibiliti], fr compatibilis & -ity State of being compatible, capacity for existing alongside something else, or of agreeing with someone else compatibility of two statements, possibility of both being true, compatibility of temper, possibility of agreement compatible, adj [1 kūmpātibl, 2 kūmpātibl], fr, fr Med Lat compatibilis, fr L Lat compatior, 'I suffer with, feel pity', fr com- & Lat patior, 'I suffer', q v under patient Able to coexist with, not incompatible, consistent (with) compatibly, adv Preo & -ly (followed by with) In a compatible manner, agreeably with compatriot, n [1 kūmpātriot, 2 kūmpātriot], fr Fr compatriote See com- & patriot One having the same native country as another, fellow countryman compeer, n [1 kūmpēr, 2 kūmpēr], fr ME compeir, fr compar, fr Lat compar, 'equal to another', com- & Lat pār, 'equal' See peer An equal, in standing and age, esp such when associated with one, a comrade compel, vb trans [1 kūmpel, 2 kūmpel], fr Lat compellere, 'to drive together, force, constrain', fr com- & pellere, 'to push, strike, drive, impel', the PP is pulsum, wh form of the base occurs also in Lat pulsare, 'beat, strike, set in violent motion', & pulsus, 'a pushing, beating', see pulsate, pulse (I), the base is found in Gmc in OE fealdan, 'to fold' &c, see fold (I), in felt (I) (made by pressing), & in the second element of anvil 1 To force, constrain, oblige (a person), by physical or moral force, to do as one wishes 2 To obtain, secure, by physical or moral authority, to enforce in compel submission, obedience, silence &c 3 To cause to submit or yield, to bring into subjection to compel a person to one's will compellable, adj [1 kūmpēlabl, 2 kūmpēlabl], fr compel & -able Capable of being compelled compelling, adj [1 kūmpēhng, 2 kūmpēhng], fr Preo Part of compel That which compels, esp of moral suasion, irresistible, winning a compelling force, (fig) compelling manner &c compellingly, adv Preo & -ly In a compelling manner compensations, n [1 kūmpēnsi, 2 kūmpēnsi], fr Lat compensatiō, 'abridged, short', fr compendi (um), see compendium, & -ous Containing much matter in a small space, full but concise compensatingly, adv Preo & -ly Concisely, briefly compensatiousness, n See preo & -ness Fullness combined with conciseness compendium, n [1 kūmpēndium, 2 kūmpēndium], pl -ums, learned pl a Lat, lit 'a weighing together, a laying up, storing', hence, 'a saving (of space &c)', a shortening', fr com- & pendere, 'to weigh', orig 'to hang for weighing', & fr some have as pendere, 'to hang' See pendant As in the adj compensatious, the joint ideas of abridgement, and fullness are expressed in the n, so that it may mean a summary (in treatise form) of knowledge &c, with either the idea of completeness, or that of conciseness uppermost, the word may therefore be said to mean a an epitome, b a comprehensive account, or treatise, n a treatise both comprehensive and concise compensate vb trans & intrans [1 kūmpēnsāt, 2 kūmpēnsāt], fr Lat compensāt (um), PP type of compensare, 'to weigh together, to weigh one thing against another, to counterbalance', fr com- & pendere, freq of pendere, 'to weigh' See preo & pensive A trans 1 To give an equivalent to in return for (esp for injury, loss &c), make up to a person for a loss &c, counterbalance a loss with gift or payment to compensate a soldier for disablement, compensate one for loss of time &c 2 (mechan) To counteract variation of movement &c, as of a pendulum, balance of a watch &c B intrans (of actions or circumstances) To make amends, make up for, esp in such phrases as nothing can compensate for the loss of a mother compensation, n [1 kūmpēnsāshun, 2 kūmpēnsāshun], fr Lat compensatiō (em), lit 'a weighing together, a balancing of accounts, a rendering of an equivalent', fr compensare See compensate & -ion 1 A act of compensating to make compensation for &c, b something given to make up for, to counterbalance, loss injury &c he received £100 a year as compensation for the loss of his eye 2 (mechan) Process of counteracting variation. compensational, adj [1 kūmpēnsāshunāl, 2 kūmpēnsāshunāl], Preo & -al Of the nature of compensation, as, by way of, compensation compensative, adj [1 kūmpēnsātiv, 2 kūmpēnsātiv], fr compensate & -ive Pertaining to compensation compensator, n [1 kūmpēnsātor, 2 kūmpēnsātor], fr compensate & -or Mechanical device for neutralizing or counteracting deviations from required speed or direction of movement in parts of a machine compensatory, adj [1 kūmpēnsātorī, 2 kūmpēnsātorī], Preo & -y Affecting compensation compensatory payment &c, b specif, compensatory lengthening, term in general use in philology, denoting a lengthening of a vowel or consonant which is observed to take place when some sound has been lost, e.g. the long vowel in OE lāp, 'tooth', is said to be due to compensatory lengthening, on the loss of nasality of the vowel, the earlier form being lāp* The term is apt to mislead as to the nature of the process, since it introduces an erroneous idea of a sound deliberately made to the vowel for some injury which it has suffered compete, vb intrans [1 kūmpēt, 2 kūmpēt], fr Lat compete, 'to strive together for' (post-class meaning), fr com- & petere, 'to go, travel, fly, go towards, attack, demand', & finally 'to seek' The base pet* in its primary sense 'go, fly', has numerous derivatives, see in particular pen (III) (fr petena*), feather, the Gk propter &c, & a secondary meaning, petition 1 Followed by with a (of persons) to put oneself against another or others, engage in a contest with, he a party together with another or others in an attempt to gain possession of something which both or all want to compete with others or another for a prize, for the hand of a lady, for mastery &c., b (of things) to be so near in quality to something else, or so like it in kind, as to make it uncertain which is preferable a new dictionary must be very good if it is to compete with the many already in the market 2 Used absolutely a (of persons) to engage in, enter into a contest to obtain something the prize was open to all, but few competed, b (of things) to come up to approximately the same standard of merit, be of same kind, challenge comparison with each other and claim preference these two books though on the same subject are addressed to such different publics that they do not compete at all competence, -cy, n [1 kòmpetens(s), 2 kòmptans(s)], fr Fr competence, fr Lat (post class) competentia, 'agreement', fr Lat competere (class meaning), 'to coincide, agree, to be capable, competent' See pro 1 a Adequacy, sufficiency, of intellect, or skill, to perform a particular task or duty I doubt his competence for such a post, b intellectual ability, or manual skill in general a well-meaning fellow but with no great competence in any direction 2 Adequacy of means of livelihood to enjoy a modest competence 3 (law) Legal authority or jurisdiction competent, adj [1 kòmpetent, 2 kòmptant], fr Fr competent Lat competent (en.), Pres Part of competere See competence 1 (of persons) Capable, well qualified for what one undertakes a competent teacher &c 2 (of mental attainments) Adequate, sufficient, fulfilling all requirements a competent knowledge 3 (law) a (of a judge, or court) Legally authorized, having jurisdiction Ecclesiastical Courts are not competent to deal with criminal cases, b (of acts) permissible, legally allowable it is perfectly competent for me to refuse to consider such a point at all competently, adv Pro & -ly In a competent manner competition, n [1 kòmpetishun, 2 kòmptishun], fr Lat competitio-(em), (1) 'an agreement', (2) 'rivalry' (fr different meanings of competere) See competere & competence 1 A the act of competing, friendly strife, rivalry, between persons for an object which both want to be in competition with others for a prize &c., b (of things) state of making rival claims to superiority of any kind great competition for public favour exists between various makes of machines 2 A contest, trial of strength, skill, knowledge, between two or more rivals, a match or series of matches boxing competition, chess competition &c Phr competition-wallah, Anglo-Indian term for a person who secures an appointment, esp in Indian Civil Service, by competitive examination competitive, adj [1 kòmpetitiv, 2 kòmptitiv], fr Lat, P P type compitit (um) & -ive See compote Of or pertaining to competition, based on competition, by competition competitive examination competitively, adv Pro & -ly By, in, competition competitor, n [1 kòmptitor, 2 kòmptitor], Lat competitor See competitive & -or One who competes, a rival, a claimant compilation, n [1 kòmplishun, 2 kòmptishun], fr Lat compilatio-(em), 'a pillaging, plundering', fr compilare See compile & -ation 1 The act or process of compiling 2 That which is compiled, mass of material brought together from many sources, esp a book composed of material taken from others a dictionary is largely a compilation from the works of others compile, vb trans [1 kòmpl, 2 kòmptail], fr Lat compilare, 'to plunder, pillage', (fig) 'to plagiarize', fr com-, 'for second element see pillage' In sense of 'bring together', prob influenced by pile, 'heap' To collect together from various sources, a in general sense, b to put together, in a more or less new form, literary, historical, and other material already existing in scattered works to compile a dictionary, guide-book, an anthology &c complacence, -cy, n [1 kòmplásens(s), 2 kòmplásens(s)], fr Mod Lat complacencia (Fr complaisance), fr Lat complacere (em), Pres Part type of complacere, 'to please', fr com- & placere, 'to please' See placate, fr eogn placare, 'appease' a Quiet, tranquil satisfaction, untroubled serenity of mind, b self satisfaction complacent, adj [1 kòmplásent, 2 kòmplásent], fr Lat complacere (em), Pres Part type of complacere, 'to please' See complacence Self satisfied complacently, adv Pro & -ly In a complacent manner complain, vb intrans [1 kòmplán, 2 kòmplein], fr Fr complaignre, fr L Lat complangere, 'to beat the breast, bewail', fr com- & Lat plangere, 'to strike, beat, beat the breast or head as a sign of grief, to lament' See plain (IV) & plaint 1 To utter expressions of discontent, dissatisfaction, objection, regret, pain &c., to utter a grievance, to blame, find fault, to grumble to be always complaining 2 Complain to, address a complaint to someone 3 Complain of, a make an accusation against a person, b (of things) to find fault with, grumble at, declare that one is annoyed by to complain of the beds, the food &c., c specif, to declare that one is suffering from a disease or pain to complain of indigestion complainant, n [1 kòmplánant, 2 kòmplánant] Pro & -ant 1 One who complains 2 (law) The person who complains, who brings the action in a law case complaint, n [1 kòmpláint, 2 kòmpláint], fr Fr complainte See com- & plaint & complain 1 Expression of resentment, discontent, regret &c., utterance of grievance, murmuring, fault finding to be full of complaints about one's food 2 Formal accusation to lodge, make, a complaint against a person 3 Cause, subject, ground, of resentment, discontent &c., a grievance to have no complaint to make 4 Bodily ailment, disease that common complaint, a cold complaisance, n [1 kòmplázans, 2 kòmplázans], Fr See complacence Easy-going habit of mind, desire to please, or to oblige, courtesy, civility complaisant, adj [1 kòmplázant, 2 kòmplázant] Fr See pro & complacent a Disposed to please, courteous, b yielding to the wishes of others, accommodating, compliant complement (I), n [1 kòmpliment, 2 kòmpliment], fr Lat complémentum, 'that which fills up or completes', fr complere, 'to fill up' See complete (II) 1 That which fills up or completes, that which is required to make up a deficiency, to make something also perfect or complete 2 (gram) Complement of the predicate, word or words completing the predicate 3 (of men, provisions &c.) Number, quantity, amount, required to fill or make complete, full allowance, specif (navy) the full number of officers and men allowed to a ship 4 (math) The complement of an angle, its deficiency from 90°, the amount by which it falls short of 90° Cp supplement complement (II), vb trans [1 kòmpliment, 2 kòmpliment], fr pro To make complete, form a complement to complemental, adj [1 kòmplimental, 2 kòmplimental], fr complement (I) & -al Serving as a complement complementally, adv Pro & -ly By way of, as, complement complementary, adj [1 kòmplimentari, 2 kòmplimentari], fr complement (I) & -ary Serving as a complement, helping to constitute a whole Specif (opt) complementary colour, that which combined with a given colour produces white complete (I), adj [1 kòmplét, 2 kòmplét], fr Lat completus (um), P P type of complere, 'to fill up' See complete (II) 1 a Filled up, entire, perfect, with no part or element lacking a complete set, b various extended uses a complete stranger, one altogether, entirely, strange, a complete ass, a thoroughgoing fool (op perfect in same sense), complete surprise &c 2 Finished, brought to an end, brought to a state of perfection or fulfilment my work is now complete 3 Accomplished, consummate complete master of fence &c complete (II), vb trans, fr Lat complere, P P of complere, 'to fill up', fr com- & plere, 'to fill' For account of base plē* see plenum, full 1 To finish, bring to an end or to a state of fulfilment to complete a task, the builders have completed the house 2 To make whole, make perfect this good news completes my happiness completely, adv [1 kòmplétli, 2 kòmplétli], fr complete (I) & -ly To a complete degree, entirely, thoroughly, utterly completeness, n See pro & -ness The state or quality of being complete, thoroughness, perfection completion, n [1 kòmpléshun, 2 kòmpléshun], fr Lat complētio-(em), 'a filling, a fulfilment', fr complere See complete (II) & -ion Act or process of completing, stage of being completed the completion of a task, plan, an undertaking, an education, to reach completion complex (I), adj [1 kòmpleks, 2 kòmpleks], fr Lat complex (um), P P type of complecti, 'to fold or twine together, to clasp around, encircle, to comprise, include', fr com- & plex (um), P P type of plectere, 'to plait, interweave, twist', cp also Lat plicare, 'fold, wind together' These are all fr plek-, 'fold', c variant of the base pel, 'strike, press' &c See compel, also ply (I), & plait (II) 1 Composite, complicated, consisting of two or more closely connected or interwoven parts, elements, strands &c, not simple complex machinery, but chiefly of non material things, intricate, difficult to understand in all bearings complex argument, idea, conception &c 2 (gram) A complex sentence, one containing a principal clause and one or more subordinate clauses complex (II), n Lat complexus, 'an embrace, encompassing' See pro 1 A whole made up of interwoven, interconnected parts, elements &c 2 (psycho analysis) Collection of ideas, chiefly emotional, repressed and therefore subconscious, and resulting in an abnormal mental condition, which, by questioning &c, can be brought to the consciousness and explained, especially by elucidation of their origin and reason of repression complexion, n [1 kòmplekshun, 2 kòmplekshun], fr, fr Lat complexio-(em), 'combination, close connection', fr complexus & -ion See complex (I) 1 a Originally the combination of humours in certain proportions, which were supposed to determine the temperament and bodily habit, hence, b the temperament, bodily habit, constitution itself (Obsolete now in these senses, which occur however, in our older literature) Now limited to the colour and texture of the face (some times including those of hair and eyes) a pink and white complexion, good, bad, sallow &c complexion 3 (fig) General appearance, character, condition, of outward affairs the mother wears a strange complexion, what you say puts a very different complexion on the incident complexity, n [1 kòmpléksiti, 2 kòmpléksiti], fr complex (I) & -ity State or quality of being complex, intricate complexly, adv [1 kòmplekshli, 2 kòmplekshli] See complex (I) & -ly In a complex manner, intricately compliance, n [1 kumpljans, 2 kəmpljəns] comply & -ance 1 The act of complying with, a yielding to a request, wish, desire, proposal &c 2 A disposition to yield or give way to others, complaisance, submission, (often in bad sense) subservience base compliance &c complacency, n [1 kumpljənsi, 2 kəmpljənsi] Preco & -y Complaisance compliant, adj [1 kumpljant, 2 kəmpljənt] See comply & pliant Ready to comply, to fall in with another's wishes &c, yielding, submissive Used by Milton in sense of flexible, easily bent compliant boughs complicacy, n [1 kəmplikən, 2 kəmplikəsi] See complicate & -cy The state or quality of being complex or intricate complicate (I), vb trans [1 kəmplikət, 2 kəmplikət] fr complicit (um), P P of Lat complicitare, 'to fold together', fr com- & plicare, 'to fold' See complex (I) To make complex, intricate, involved, produce awkward combination of circumstances, esp to complicate matters, add new element of difficulty complicate (II), adj, fr Lat complicitum, P P of complicare See prec 1 Complex, involved, intricate (rare, usually complicated) 2 (bot) Conduplicate complicated, adj [1 kəmplikətid, 2 kəmplikətid] fr P P of complicate (I) Consisting of parts or elements intricately combined, complex, difficult to analyse, solve, or understand a complicated machine, puzzle, a complicated business &c complication, n [1 kəmplikəʃən, 2 kəmplikəʃən] complicate (I) & -ion 1 The act or process of complicating, a state of being complicated, a number of things (facts, events &c) or parts mixed up or involved in an intricate or a confusing manner, tangle, also b mental and moral confusion 2 Specif (med) a fresh element, symptom, or disease which arises during illness, and makes this more difficult to treat complicative, adj [1 kəmplikətɪv, 2 kəmplikətɪv] complicate (I) & -ive Tending to complicate complicity, n [1 kəmplikəsi, 2 kəmplikəsi] fr Fr complicité, fr L Lat complicit, stem of complex, 'one mixed up with another, participant, confederate', & -ty See complex (I) & complicate The act or state of being concerned with another in an action (usually in bad sense), state of being an accomplice, partnership in crime &c complicity in wickedness compliment (I), n, [1 kəmpliment, 2 kəmpliment] fr Compliment, fr Ital compliment, 'fulfilment of duties of politeness' &c Variant of complement 1 A An expression of polite admiration, urbano, flattering tribute to a person, b a courteous act, expressing admiration and esteem to pay a compliment, to do a person the compliment of inviting him &c, I take it as a compliment to be asked to speak. Phr left handed compliment doubtful compliment, one that contains an element of irony or malice 2 Polite, formal greeting ceremonious expression of regard &c to send one's compliments to a person, give him my compliments, the compliments of the season (at Christmas &c) compliment (II), vb trans [1 kəmpliment, 2 kəmpliment] fr preco To pay a compliment to, to express admiration esteem, respect &c for a person or his (her) achievements to flatter to congratulate a person on an achievement quality &c to compliment a lady on her appearance, a man on his courage, speed &c complementary, adj [1 kəmpliməntəri, 2 kəmpliməntəri] complement (I) & -ary n (of uttered expressions) Expressing civilised regard admiration &c, covering one's own compliments, b (of persons) fr to pay one's compliments to be too complimentary flatter & expressing admiration, to be complimentary about a person's work &c Special uses a complimentary dinner, one held as a compliment to a person, to show regard or admiration for him, complimentary tickets (for theatre &c), sent gratis by manager complan(e), n [1 kómplan, 2 kómplan] The n unexplained, unless it be due to influence of mat(t)ins M E & Fr comple, fr Lat complere (hira), 'completed' Often complans, wh lends some strength to the suggested influence of mat(t)ins The last service in the day in the Christian Church complot, n [1 kómplot, 2 kómplot] Fr See com- & plot (archaic) A plotting together, conspiracy compluvium, n [1 kómplúvium, 2 kómplúvium] Lat See com- & pluvial (class archit) The opening over the atrium of a Roman house, admitting light and air comply, vb intrans [1 kumpli, 2 kəmplat] fr Ital comply, fr Lat complere, 'to fill up' See complete The meaning has been affected by ply & pliant 1 (followed by with) a To adopt a course of action at the wish, or command, of another to comply with one's request, b to act in conformity with to comply with the rules 2 (used absolutely) To yield, consent, agree threats, commands, entreaties were useless, he would not comply compo, n [1 kómpos, 2 kómpos] Abbreviation of composition. Term applied by builders and tradesmen to various patent plasters &c component, adj & n [1 kómponent, 2 kómponent] fr Lat component (em), Preco Part of componere, 'to put together', fr com- & ponere, 'to put, place' See compound (II) 1 adj Composing, constituting, forming part of, a whole, esp component part 2 n. Constituent element, ingredient, or part comport, vb trans & intrans [1 kómport, 2 kámport] fr Fr comporter, 'to admit of, allow, endure', see comporter, 'behave', fr Lat comportare, 'to carry, bear, or bring together', fr com- & portare, 'to carry, bear' See port (IV) 1 trans (reflex) To behave, conduct, oneself to comport oneself decently 2 intrans To be compatible with, be fitting, agree, accord with comportment, n [1 kómportment, 2 kómportment] Preco & -ment Behaviour, demeanour, deportment, (rare, and usually replaced by deportment) compose, vb trans [1 kómpos, 2 kámpos] fr Fr composer, op Lat compos (itum) &c, P P of componere, 'put together, draw up, write' See com- & pose (I), also depose (I) 1 (of constituent parts or elements, material and non-material) To make up, constitute, result in, form by being put together colours and forms properly arranged compose a picture, mere facts, baldly stated, do not compose a good book. 2 A To put words together so as to form sentences, construct, create, literary work in prose or verse, to write as author to compose a poem, a sermon &c, b (mus) to create and put into musical form to compose an opera, (absol) to engage in, practise, musical composition he is not only a teacher of music, he composes i.e. writes music, c (of artistic work generally) to think out a design, arrange a scheme of colour or form to compose a picture, i.e. plan it out as distinct from painting it 3 (print) To set up (type), set up in type (a piece of printing) 4 n To calm, allay, settle adjust to compose a dispute, b to compose oneself, restrain excitement, recover calmness c (of mental or emotional states) to arrange put in order, restore from confusion, or excitement, to a condition of repose &c suitable to a particular purpose to compose one's thoughts, mind, d (of dead body) to arrange in decent position 'By foreign hands it's decent limbs composed' (Pop, 'Unl Lady', 52) restore (the features) to calm expression to compose one's features composed, adj [1 kómposd, 2 kámposd] fr P P of preco Calm, in mind and bearing, self-possessed, tranquil, free from agitation of mind composedly, adv [1 kómposdli, 2 kámposdli] Preco & -ly In a composed manner, calmly, without agitation composedness, n [1 kómposdnes, 2 kámposdnes] See preco & -ness Composure composer, n [1 kómposər, 2 kámposər] compose & -er a One who composes, specif b one who composes music composing, adj [1 kómposɪŋ, 2 kámposɪŋ] fr Pres Part of compose Tending to compose, soothe, or calm, mind or body, specif, composing medicine, draught &c, a sedative composing-stick, n Compositor's tray in which he arranges the type in lines, with open side and adjustable end composite (I), adj [1 kómposit, 2 kámposit] fr Lat compos (um), P P of Lat componere, 'to put together' See component & compose 1 Made up of various distinct parts or elements, specif (of candles) made of stearine or stearic acid 2 (archit) Exhibiting several styles blended, specif (of an order) blending the Ionic and the Corinthian orders 3 (bot) Belonging to the order Compositae, in which the florets are clustered together to form a single head, as in the daisy, tansy &c composite (II), n, fr preco 1 A A thing made up of various parts, b specif, composite candle 2 (bot) Flower belonging to order Compositae composition, n [1 kómpozɪʃən, 2 kámpozɪʃən] Fr, fr Lat composition (em), 'a putting together', fr compos (um), P P type of componere See component, compose 1 Act of putting together, composing, construction, of various kinds, a the building or fusion of separate words into a compound word, b the construction of sentences, the art or practice of writing, c the art or practice of composing a piece of music, d (print) setting up of type 2 The thing composed, a a piece of music or writing, a literary or artistic production, used specif of an essay, translation &c done as an educational exercise, b a compound, mixture of substances made to represent a real or simple substance 3 Arrangement, grouping of the parts, of a work of art so as to produce the best effect the composition of a picture. 4 The constituent parts or elements of which anything is made up, formed, composed a (of material things) the composition of a pudding, of soils, gases &c, b mental and moral constitution not a spark of generosity in his composition 5 A Agreement to terms or conditions for settlement of a dispute or cessation of hostilities, the terms of settlement, a compromise, b legal agreement with creditors to pay so much less than is actually due compositive, adj [1 kómpozɪtɪv, 2 kámpozɪtɪv] composite & -ive a Capable of forming constituent part, of being compounded, b connected with, involving, composition compositor, n [1 kómposɪtər, 2 kámposɪtər] Lat, 'one who orders, arranges, disposes', see composite (II) & -or (print) One who sets up type compos mentis, adj [1 kómpos ments, 2 kámpos ments] Lat, 'having power over the mind', fr compos, composui, fr com- & pot, see potent, & mens, mentis, 'mind', see mental (law) In one's right mind sane, also in Phr non-compos, insane compost (I), n [1 kómpost, 2 kámpost] O Fr composte, fr Lat compost (um), P P of componere. See component & compose A composition mixture, specif, a fertilizing mixture manure for soils compost (II), vb trans See preco To treat with compost, put compost into composure, n [1 kómposɪər, 2 kámposɪər] fr composo & -ure Calmness, tranquillity, serenity, peace of mind, expressed by calm manner and demeanour computation, n [1 kómpútáshun, 2 kómpoutei[sh] com- & potation A drinking or tipping together compote, n [1 kómpót, 2 kómpout] Fr, fr O Fr compote. See compost (I) stewed fruit in syrup compound (I), vb trans & intrans [1 kumpound, 2 kómpound] ME compounen, to mix, fr Lat compōnere See component, compose The final -d is extraneous as in sound, & as in the now vulgar gound A trans 1 To form or make up a composite whole by putting together parts, elements, ingredients &c, to mix ingredients to compound a medicine 2 a To settle, adjust, by agreement, b to discharge an obligation, debt &c, on terms different from those originally stipulated, esp (i) to settle a subscription &c by paying a lump sum instead of paying by instalments, (ii) to discharge a debt by partial payment 3 (law) To forbear prosecution, condone an offence for money, esp in the Phr to compound a felony B intrans To perform the acts mentioned in 2 above to compound with one's creditors compound (II), adj & n [1 kómpound, 2 kómpound], for compounded, PP of prec 1 adj Made up of several ingredients, parts, or elements, not simple compound word, one composed of two or more words, compound interest, interest on interest accruing from capital compound householder, one whose rates, by agreement, with landlord, are included in rent and paid by landlord 2 n Anything composed of a mixture of elements, parts, a compound substance compound (III), n Prob fr Malay kampong (in India, China &c) An enclosure in which a house or factory stands, esp the walled or fenced enclosure round a European house comprador, n [1 kómpradör, 2 kómpradör] Port 'buyer', fr L Lat comparatōr-(em), fr Lat PP comparatū-(um) & -or See compare (in China or Japan) Native factor or agent employed in a European bank or commercial office comprehend, vb trans [1 kómprehénd, 2 kómprehénd], fr Lat comprehendere, 'to seize, grasp' (lit and fig), fr com- & prehendere, 'to seize' See prehensile 1 To take in, embrace, include, within a certain compass or scope, comprise 2 To grasp with the intellect, to understand to comprehend a question, meaning comprehensibility, n [1 kómprehensibilitá, 2 kómprehensibilitá] Next word & -ity Quality of being comprehensible comprehensible, adj [1 kómprehensibil, 2 kómprehensibil], fr Lat comprehensibilis, fr comprehens (um), PP of comprehendere, & -ible See prec Capable of being understood, intelligible comprehensibly, adv Prec & -ly In a comprehensible manner comprehension, n [1 kómprehénsion, 2 kómprehénsion], fr Lat comprehénsion-(em), 'a seizing (fig), perception', fr comprehens-(um), PP of comprehendere, & -ion See comprehend 1 The act or result of grasping facts, ideas &c with the mind, the power or faculty of comprehending, understanding 2 The act or state of taking in, comprising, or including, inclusion comprehensive, adj [1 kómprehénsiv, 2 kómprehénsiv], fr Lat comprehens (see prec) & -ive See comprehend Comprehending, embracing, or including, a great number of objects or a wide range of thoughts, ideas &c, wide in scope, including a great deal (lit and fig) a comprehensive term, a comprehensive survey, a comprehensive church comprehensively, adv Prec & -ly In such a manner as to comprehend, include comprehensiveness, n See prec & -ness Faculty, quality, of being comprehensive compress (I), vb trans [1 kómpres, 2 kómpres], fr O Fr compresser, fr L Lat compressare, fr Lat compress (um), PP of comprimere, 'to press or squeeze together', fr oom- & premere, 'to press' See press (I) a To put pressure upon, press or squeeze together, to press or squeeze into smaller space (of solid matter, air, gases), b (fig, of non-material things) to pack densely, condense so as to cause to occupy a relatively short time or space experience of a lifetime compressed into a short period, to compress one's thoughts, language, style compress (II), n [1 kómpres, 2 kómpres], fr Fr compress, fr Lat compressus See prec (surg) a Soft pad of folded material for bringing pressure to bear on any part of the body, esp an artery, b a wet bandage, covered with oil-silk, applied to inflamed part of the body compressed, adj [1 kómprest, 2 kómprest], fr PP of compress (I) a Pressed together, compressed lips, b reduced in size or volume, condensed compressed air, reduced in volume by pressure, c (fig, of thought, style &c) made concise, terse compressibility, n [1 kómpresibilitá, 2 kómpresibilitá], fr next word & -ity Capacity for undergoing compression compressible, adj [1 kómpresibil, 2 kómpresibil], fr compress (I) & -ible, Capable of being compressed, soft and yielding compression, n [1 kómpreshun, 2 kómpreshun], fr Lat compressiō-(em), 'a pressing together', fr. PP type of comprimere, & -ion See compress (I) a (lit) The act of compressing or state of being compressed, condensation, b (also fig) of expression of thought in language uttered or written compressor, n [1 kómpresur, 2 kómpresur] compress (I) & -or Anything serving to compress, specif, eg a a muscle, b mechanical device for compressing air compress, vb trans [1 kómpres, 2 kómpres], fr Fr compris, PP of comprendre, fr Lat comprehendere, comprehendere See comprehend To include, contain, consist of, be composed of 'Who's who' comprises biographical notices of persons both famous and obscure compromise (I), n [1 kómpromiz, 2 kómpromiz], fr Fr compromis, fr compromettre, fr Lat compromissum, 'a mutual engagement to abide by the award of an arbiter', PP of compromittere See com- & promise a Arrangement, reached between parties in a dispute of any kind, in which each side gives up something, and makes concessions in the direction of the other side's claim, opinions, principles &c, b in ordinary affairs, a mutual working agreement between parties whereby each, as a rule, surrenders something which he considers important, so that neither is satisfied compromise (II), vb trans & intrans See prec A trans 1 To settle (dispute, differences) by mutual concessions to compromise a lawsuit 2 To imperil the safety, jeopardize interests of, by rashness or folly the position of the whole army was gravely compromised by premature activity, b to bring under suspicion, incur risk of scandal, by indiscreet conduct to compromise one's own, or another's, reputation, c (also reflex) to compromise oneself, incur suspicion, place oneself in an ambiguous position B intrans To make a compromise, to make a settlement by mutual concessions we shall have to compromise on this point, or lose everything comptroller, n [1 kóntrolér, 2 kóntrolér] See controller Official spelling for controller, q v, in certain titles, esp comptroller of accounts, an official who examines the accounts of collectors of public money compulsion, n [1 kómpúshun, 2 kómpúshun] Fr, fr Lat compulsión-(em), fr compuls-(um), PP type of compellere, 'to drive, force' See compel The difference of vowel is the result of the Aryan process known as gradation. This act of compelling, constraint imposed by physical force, threats, or by legal or moral authority, coercion to act under compulsion compulsive, adj [1 kómpúshiv, 2 kómpúshiv] Lat compuls (see prec) & -ive Of the nature of, implying, compulsion compulsive action, a compulsive measure compulsively, adv Prec & -ly By, under, compulsion compulsorily, adv [1 kómpúshunli, 2 kómpúshunli] Next word & -ly On account of compulsion compulsory, adj [1 kómpúshun, 2 kómpúshun] Lat compuls & -ory See compulsion 1 (of actions) Enforced by compulsion compulsory payment, education &c 2 (of agents) Compelling, exercising compulsion, coercive compulsory measures compunction, n [1 kómpúnkshun, 2 kómpúnkshun], fr Lat compunctiō-(em), fr compunct (um), PP type of compungere, & -ion, 'to prick, sting', fr. com- & pungere, 'to prick' See puncture, pungent, point a Qualm of conscience, regret, for wrong done in the past, hesitation, scruple, concerning action in process of being, or about to be, done, b also in much weaker sense, of more or less trifling hesitation, regret, or scruple concerning an action which at worst is an error of judgment, involving no moral wrong he ate up the whole pie without the slightest compunction compunctious, adj [1 kómpúnkshun, 2 kómpúnkshun] See compunction & -ous Causing compunction, pricking or stopping of the conscience 'That no compunctious visitings of nature Shall e my fell purpose' (Shakespeare) compunctiously, adv Prec & -ly With compunction compurgation, n [1 kómpúrgáshun, 2 kómpúrgáshun], fr Lat compurgatiō-(em), fr compurgare, 'to purify wholly', fr com- & purgare, 'to make clean, purify' See purge & -ation (legal hist) Complete, purging and doing away of an offence with which a person was charged by the oath of compurgators who solemnly swore that he was innocent The older name for this process was wager of law, abolished in 1833 compurgator, n [1 kómpúrgátör, 2 kómpúrgátör] Med Lat See prec & -or (legal hist) One who under Anglo Saxon law took an oath that an accused person was innocent of the crime charged against him computable, adj [1 kómpútábil, 2 kómpútábil] compute & -able, Capable of being reckoned computation, n [1 kómpútáshun, 2 kómpútáshun], fr Lat computatiō-(em), fr computat (um), PP of computare See compute 1 The act or process of computing or reckoning 2 The result of reckoning, the amount computed, a totting-up, estimate computative, adj [1 kómpútáshiv, 2 kómpútáshiv] Lat computat-(see prec) & -ivo Given to computation compute, vb trans & intrans [1 kómpút, 2 kómpút], fr Lat computare, 'to sum up, reckon', fr com- & putare, 'to think' See putative 1 trans To determine by calculation, to count, reckon, estimate, the number, amount &c 2 intrans To make calculation, reckon comrade, n [1 kómrád, 2 kómrád], fr Fr, camarade, Span camarada, 'a chamber-fellow', fr Lat camara, camera, 'a vault', fr Gk kamara, 'anything with a vaulted or arched covering' See camera, chamber Companion, mste, associate comradeship, n [1 kómráshup, 2 kómráshup] comrade & -ship A condition of being a comrade, b friendly relation existing among comrades, c companionship, fellowship Comtism, n [1 kómtizm, 2 kómtizm], fr Auguste Comte, French philosopher, d. 1857, founder of the system Positivism Comtist, n [1 kómtíst, 2 kómtíst] Prec & -ist Positivist con-, pref Form of com-, used before all consonants except b & p, l, m & r con (I), vb trans [1 kón, 2 kón] Variant of can (I), wh in OE appears as cann & conn. The meaning is derived fr that found also in OE by the side of 'am able'. The infin cunnan means 'to be able', & 'to know'. To peruse, scrutinize, examine carefully, to study in order to learn by heart, commit to memory to con a lesson, often to con over con (II), vb trans, fr conā, fr Fr conduire, lead, guide, Lat conducere See conduct. (nant) To direct the course of (a ship) See also conning-tower con (III) Ital prep, 'with', fr Lat com- Used in muso in such phrases as con espres stone, 'with expression' &c, or, gen., as con amore, 'with enthusiasm, eagerly' con (IV), adv & n Abbr of Lat contra, 'against' a adv, pro and con, 'for and against', b n, vote, argument, against the pros and cons conacre, n. [1 'kónākər, 2 'kónēkə] For cornacre. See corn & acre In Ireland, the subletting of small portions of a farm, already tilled, for a single crop conation, n. [1 'kónásjən, 2 'kónējən] fr Lat cōnātiō (em), 'endeavour, effort', fr cōnāt (um), PP of cōnāre, 'to attempt, try, endeavour' Prob fr cōven-*, fr co-, the base ven-* &c, 'to wish, strive', q v under win. (psychol) Faculty or power of directing the will to effort, physical or mental.

conative, adj [1 'kónatɪv, 2 'kónēatɪv] See prec & -ive Of, tending to, conation.

concatenate, vb trans [1 'kónkátināt, 2 'kónkátinēt] fr Lat concatēnāt (um), PP type of concatēnāre, fr con- & cātinā, 'a chain, series of events linked together' See catenary & chain. (fig, of events) To link together, to unite as in a series of links, or chain concatenation, n. [1 'kónkátinášən, 2 'kónkátinášən] prec & -ion. (chiefly fig) a Act or process of concatenating, b series, group, combination, of events, happening in succession, and apparently causally connected, concatenation of events, circumstances concave, adj & n [1 'kónkāv, 2 'kónkēiv] fr Lat concavus, 'hollow, arched, curved' See cōn- & cave Hollow, curved inwardly concavely, adv prec & -ly In concave shape or form.

concavity, n. [1 'kónkāvɪtɪ, 2 'kónkēvɪtɪ] See prec & -ity Curved, vaulted surface, considered from inside concavo-, pref [1 'kónkāvō, 2 'kónkēvōv] fr concave, in compounds, as concavo convex, of surfaces, concave on one side, convex on the other conceal, vb trans [1 'kónsēl, 2 'kónsəl] fr O Fr conceler, fr Lat concellāre, fr con- & cēlare, 'to hide', fr Aryan base kel-*, 'hide, cover', cogn. w OE helan, 'hide' &c See cell, colour, also hall, holster A To hide, cover, keep from sight (of material objects), (reflex) to conceal oneself, b to withhold knowledge of, to keep secret (facts, information &c) to conceal the truth concealment, n. [1 'kónsəlment, 2 'kónsəlment] prec & -ment 1 a The act of concealing, hiding, or keeping secret (material and non material things), esp as deliberate and wilful act concealment of birth, a criminal offence, b state of being concealed to remain in concealment 2 A hiding place, a retreat or shelter from observation concede, vb trans [1 'kónsēd, 2 'kónsəd] fr Lat concedere, 'to go away, to give way, yield', fr con- & cede 1 To surrender, grant, admit to be true, let pass undesputed to concede a point in argument 2 To grant, as a right or privilege conceit (I), n. [1 'kónsēt, 2 'kónsēt] M.E. conceit, formed fr conceive, on anal of deceit, also influenced by concept. 1 a (rare, archaic) Form of concept, b fanciful and rather trivial idea or notion, a quaint, humorous, or witty fancy poetry full of artificial conceits 2 a Personal judgement, opinion, esp in the phrase in one's own conceit in his own conceit, b exaggeratedly favourable opinion of oneself or one's belongings to be full of conceit Phr to be out of conceit with, to be no longer pleased with.

conceit (II), vb trans, fr prec Formerly used in sense of to imagine, suppose, which is now obs, survives in PP as a rare literary archaism in sense of conceive (mentally), produce by imagination, imagine a well conceited play &c conceited, adj [1 'kónsētid, 2 'kónsəd] conceit (I) & -ed. Filled with exaggerated sense of one's own merits and importance, vain conceitedly, adv prec & -ly In a conceited manner conceivability, n. [1 'kónsēvəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 'kónsēvəbɪlɪtɪ] conceivable & -ity Possibility of being thought of, of imagined, hence prob ability, possibility, likelihood conceivable, adj [1 'kónsēvəbl, 2 'kónsēvəbl] conceive & -able Capable of being mentally conceived, capable of being understood by the mind, credible, possible conceivableness, n. prec & -ness Conceivability conceivably, adv [1 'kónsēvəblɪ, 2 'kónsēvəblɪ] conceivable & -ly According to what can be conceived by the mind conceive, vb trans & intrans [1 'kónsēiv, 2 'kónsēiv] M.E. cōnceive, fr O Fr conceivre, conceivre, fr Lat concipere, 'to take to oneself take in, perceive, conceive, understand', fr con- & cipere, 'to take', q v under captive A trans 1 (physiol) To generate by process of conception, become pregnant with to conceive a child 2 a To take into, form, in the mind to conceive an affection, a dislike for &c, b to devise, form to conceive an idea, purpose &c, c to apprehend, grasp, understand, take in full meaning of I conceive you, your meaning (archaic), d to formulate in the mind, think out, and express a badly conceived scheme B intrans 1 (physiol) To carry out process of conception 2 To grasp with the mind, understand I cannot conceive what he meant 3 To imagine, suppose, be under the impression (that) I conceive that an unselfish devotion to one's country is the first of civic virtues concelebrate, vb intrans [1 'kónsēlebrāt, 2 'kónsēlebrēt] See con- & celebrate To celebrate Mass together See next word concelebration, n. [1 'kónsēlebrášən, 2 'kónsēlebrášən] con- & celebration Celebration of Eucharist at which two or more priests take part, in Latin Church, a newly ordained priest and the bishop concentrate, vb trans & intrans [1 'kónsəntreit, 2 'kónsəntreit] con- & Lat centrum, 'centre', see centre, & -ate A trans 1 (of material things) To bring together to, or direct towards, a single place or centre, to unite into one body or force to concentrate a military force 2 (of non material things) To devote, direct, to a single object or purpose to concentrate one's attention, one's effort &c 3 (chem) To increase the strength of a liquid or ore by reducing its volume, to condense, to intensify in strength, or to purify, by getting rid of foreign material to concentrate acid by evaporation B intrans a To converge towards, meet in, common centre, to consolidate in a place the troops concentrated at Southampton, b (followed by on, upon) to fix efforts and attention on single point or object, to devote oneself chiefly or exclusively to to concentrate upon a particular subject of study, a single purpose &c concentrated, adj [1 'kónsəntreitəd, 2 'kónsəntreitəd] PP of prec a (mil) Concentrated fire, firing directed upon a particular point, b (chem) produced by concentration concentration, n. [1 'kónsəntrejšən, 2 'kónsəntrejšən] concentrate & -ion. 1 Act or process of concentrating (in any sense) power of concentration 2 Anything concentrated concentration of troops, of energy concentrative, adj [1 'kónsəntreitəv, 2 'kónsəntreitəv] concentrate & -ive Tending to concentrate, characterized by concentration

concentrativeness, n. prec & -ness State of being concentrative

concentrator, n. [1 'kónsəntreitətr, 2 'kónsəntreitətr] concentrate & -or One of various mechanical devices, eg ring of wire round cartridge case to prevent too much spreading of the shot

concentre, vb trans & intrans [1 'kónsəntər, 2 'kónsəntər] fr Fr concentrer See con- & centre a trans To draw, bring, together at a common centre or focus, cp Milton, 'Paradise Lost' 'In thee concentering all their precious beams', b intrans, to come together, meet, in, or have a common centre or focus, formerly for concentrate concentric, adj [1 'kónsəntrik, 2 'kónsəntrik] fr Fr concentrique See prec & -ic (of circles, spheres &c) Having a common centre

concentrically, adv [1 'kónsəntrikəlɪ, 2 'kónsəntrikəlɪ] prec & -al & -ly In a concentric manner, with a common centre

concentricity, n. [1 'kónsəntritɪtɪ, 2 'kónsəntritɪtɪ] concentric & -ity State of being concentric concept, n. [1 'kónsept, 2 'kónsept] fr Lat concept (um), PP of concepere, 'take in by the mind, perceive, understand' See conceive (philos) Any idea, a general notion conception, n. [1 'kónsepsjən, 2 'kónsepsjən] Fr conception, fr Lat conceptionem, 'a comprehending, conception of offspring', fr concept (um), PP type of concepere See conceive 1 a (physiol) Process of the fertilization of the ovum, and the beginning of the growth of the embryo in the womb, b fact of being conceived, Immaculate Conception, doctrine that the B V M was not conceived in sin 2 The act or faculty of forming ideas &c in the mind great powers of conception 3 The thing conceived, idea, notion, picture &c formed of something by the mind, a plan or invention of the mind a great, a clever, conception, an actor's conception of his part Phr to have no conception of

conceptive, adj [1 'kónseptɪv, 2 'kónseptɪv] concept & -ive Pertaining to conceiving, capable of conceiving

conceptual, adj [1 'kónseptʃəʊəl, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəl] Lat conceptu (s), 'a taking, gathering, conception of offspring', see concept, & -al Pertaining to conception (in physical and psychol. senses), pertaining to concepts

conceptualism, n. [1 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪzəm, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪzəm] conceptual & -ism Medieval philosophical doctrine concerning the reality of things perceived by the senses, asserting that universals have reality, but only in the mind, cp nominalism and realism

conceptualist, n. [1 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪst, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪst] conceptual & -ist Believer in doctrine of conceptualism

concern (I), vb trans [1 'kónsərɪn, 2 'kónsərɪn] fr Fr concerner, fr L Lat concernere, 'to regard, have regard to', in class Lat, 'to mix together as in a sieve', fr con- & cernere, 'to sift', (fig) 'to distinguish, observe, perceive, see distinctly' The orig base is ker-, kri- &c, 'to separate out, distinguish', & occurs in several languages in both lit & fig sense, cp Lat cribrum, 'sieve', cp crabiform, certus, 'well separated, distinguished, perceived', see certain, in Gk kriō, 'distinguish, judge', kritēs, 'judge', see critic, crisis, in O H G riūra, 'coarse sieve', O E hrīdder, hrīddel, 'sieve' See riddle (III) 1 a To relate to, have reference to, have connexion with, to be of importance to, apply to, affect the interest of attend to what concerns you, b to affect the mind painfully, cause anxiety to to be concerned about the future &c, c filled with concern, anxiety, misgiving 2 (reflex, followed by with, in, about) To interest oneself in, occupy oneself with, take trouble about a matter to concern oneself about one's own affairs, concern oneself with public work &c concern (II), n., fr prec 1 a That which concerns or relates to one, something which

concentrativeness, n. prec & -ness State of being concentrative

concentrator, n. [1 'kónsəntreitətr, 2 'kónsəntreitətr] concentrate & -or One of various mechanical devices, eg ring of wire round cartridge case to prevent too much spreading of the shot

concentre, vb trans & intrans [1 'kónsəntər, 2 'kónsəntər] fr Fr concentrer See con- & centre a trans To draw, bring, together at a common centre or focus, cp Milton, 'Paradise Lost' 'In thee concentering all their precious beams', b intrans, to come together, meet, in, or have a common centre or focus, formerly for concentrate

concentric, adj [1 'kónsəntrik, 2 'kónsəntrik] fr Fr concentrique See prec & -ic (of circles, spheres &c) Having a common centre

concentrically, adv [1 'kónsəntrikəlɪ, 2 'kónsəntrikəlɪ] prec & -al & -ly In a concentric manner, with a common centre

concentricity, n. [1 'kónsəntritɪtɪ, 2 'kónsəntritɪtɪ] concentric & -ity State of being concentric

concept, n. [1 'kónsept, 2 'kónsept] fr Lat concept (um), PP of concepere, 'take in by the mind, perceive, understand' See conceive (philos) Any idea, a general notion conception, n. [1 'kónsepsjən, 2 'kónsepsjən] Fr conception, fr Lat conceptionem, 'a comprehending, conception of offspring', fr concept (um), PP type of concepere See conceive 1 a (physiol) Process of the fertilization of the ovum, and the beginning of the growth of the embryo in the womb, b fact of being conceived, Immaculate Conception, doctrine that the B V M was not conceived in sin 2 The act or faculty of forming ideas &c in the mind great powers of conception 3 The thing conceived, idea, notion, picture &c formed of something by the mind, a plan or invention of the mind a great, a clever, conception, an actor's conception of his part Phr to have no conception of

conceptive, adj [1 'kónseptɪv, 2 'kónseptɪv] concept & -ive Pertaining to conceiving, capable of conceiving

conceptual, adj [1 'kónseptʃəʊəl, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəl] Lat conceptu (s), 'a taking, gathering, conception of offspring', see concept, & -al Pertaining to conception (in physical and psychol. senses), pertaining to concepts

conceptualism, n. [1 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪzəm, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪzəm] conceptual & -ism Medieval philosophical doctrine concerning the reality of things perceived by the senses, asserting that universals have reality, but only in the mind, cp nominalism and realism

conceptualist, n. [1 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪst, 2 'kónseptʃəʊəlɪst] conceptual & -ist Believer in doctrine of conceptualism

concern (I), vb trans [1 'kónsərɪn, 2 'kónsərɪn] fr Fr concerner, fr L Lat concernere, 'to regard, have regard to', in class Lat, 'to mix together as in a sieve', fr con- & cernere, 'to sift', (fig) 'to distinguish, observe, perceive, see distinctly' The orig base is ker-, kri- &c, 'to separate out, distinguish', & occurs in several languages in both lit & fig sense, cp Lat cribrum, 'sieve', cp crabiform, certus, 'well separated, distinguished, perceived', see certain, in Gk kriō, 'distinguish, judge', kritēs, 'judge', see critic, crisis, in O H G riūra, 'coarse sieve', O E hrīdder, hrīddel, 'sieve' See riddle (III) 1 a To relate to, have reference to, have connexion with, to be of importance to, apply to, affect the interest of attend to what concerns you, b to affect the mind painfully, cause anxiety to to be concerned about the future &c, c filled with concern, anxiety, misgiving 2 (reflex, followed by with, in, about) To interest oneself in, occupy oneself with, take trouble about a matter to concern oneself about one's own affairs, concern oneself with public work &c concern (II), n., fr prec 1 a That which concerns or relates to one, something which affects one, something which is part of one's business it's no concern of mine, (pl) one's own concerns, one's own particular business, b interest, share in to have a concern in a business & 2 Anxiety, misgiving to feel concern about, to see with concern 3 Business, group of activities a flourishing concern concerned, adj [1 kunsérnd, 2 kánsánd], fr P P of concern (I) 1 a Occupied with, busy with, employed in to be concerned in writing a book (see concern (I), 2), b involved in, affected by (often in bad sense) concerned in the crime, I am not concerned, it doesn't affect me 2 Troubled, worried, anxious a concerned air, to be much concerned about concerning, prep [1 kunsérning, 2 kánsánŋ], fr Pres Part of concern (I) In regard to, with relation to, regarding, about concernment, n [1 kunsérment, 2 kánsáment] concern (I) & -ment 1 (rare in all senses) That in which one is concerned or interested 2 Importance, moment a matter of concernment 3 State of being concerned or occupied, participation 4 Anxiety, solicitude, concern concert (I), n [1 kónsért, 2 kónsét] Fr concert, fr Ital concerto, fr concertare, 'arrange, agree, accord', op also Fr concertier in same senses Skeat suggests derivation fr Lat concertare, 'dispute, contend' (con- & certus, see certain), through intermediate sense of 'arrange dispute, bargain, agree', op Span concertar, 'bargain' This has verisimilitude but is questioned by some 1 Agreement of persons or movements, accordance, concord, unison, harmony to act in concert, to proceed in concert &c, the Concert of Europe, of agreement between the European powers, as before the Great War, esp on matters concerning the Balkans, Near East &c 2 Specif (mus) musical entertainment at which vocalists and instrumentalists perform either singly or in combination concert grand, a grand piano of largest size and powerful tone for use at concerts, concert-pitch (tuning of musical instruments), rather higher than usual concert (II), vb trans [1 kunsért, 2 kánsát], fr Fr concertier, fr Ital concertare, 'to accord together' See prec To devise plans &c, together, agree in common, arrange by mutual agreement concerted, adj [1 kunsérted, 2 kánsátid], fr P P of prec 1 Planned or arranged in common by several parties, agreed to by those so acting to take concerted action 2 (mus) Arranged in parts for voices or instruments concertina, n [1 kónsértína, 2 kánsértína] Invented word fr concert (I) (mus) Portable musical wind instrument furnished with a bellows worked by the hands, the notes of which are produced by fingering keys concerto, n (Engl imitation of Ital) [1 kónchártó, 2 kónfjártóu] Ital See concerto (I) (mus) Musical composition for solo instrument with orchestral accompaniment concession, n [1 kónsésbun, 2 kánséfán] Fr, fr Lat concessio-(em), fr concess (um), P P type of concedere, see concede, & -ion. 1 Act of yielding or conceding what is asked 2 a Anything so yielded or granted a concession to public opinion, b specif, a privilege or property granted by a government a concession of land, rights to trade &c concessionaire, n [1 kónsésbunár, 2 kánséfáné], or as Fr Fr Person to whom concession is made, esp one granted mining, trading, or such rights, by a government concessive, adj [1 kónsésiv, 2 kánsésiv] fr Lat concessivus See concession & -ive 1 Implying concession 2 (gram) Expressing concession concessive clause, a subordinate adverbial clause introduced by the conjunctions though, although &c concoctism n [1 kónchéttizm, 2 kónfjéttizm] See concoct & -ism. The use of fanciful or ingenious turns of expression in literary style conchetto, n, pl concetti [1 kónchétó, -ò, 2 kón-tjettóu, -i] Ital, fr Lat concepto, dat of conceptum See concept & concept A fanciful turn of expression, a conceit conch, n [1 kóngk, 2 kóngk], fr Lat concha, 'shell', fr Gk logkhē, logkhos, cogn w Scrt śankhā, & Lett senze, 'mussel', also Lat conchus, 'a liquid measure', wh, however, may be borrowed fr Gk lōgkhē 1 a Large marine shell, now esp a spiral univalve shell, b (Roman myth) shell used by the Tritons as a trumpet 2 (archit) Dome of semi-circular apse, from its shape concha, n [1 kóngka, 2 kóngkə] Lat, 'a shell' See prec 1 The outer part of the ear, esp the central cavity of the outer ear 2 (archit) conch conchiferous, adj [1 kóngkiferus, 2 kóngkifərus] See prec & -ferous a (zool) Having a shell, b (geol) shell-bearing conchoid, n [1 kóngkoid, 2 kóngkoid] conch & -oid 1 (math) A plane curve, for transecting a plane angle 2 (geol, mineral) A conchoidal surface conchoidal, adj [1 kóngkoidl, 2 kóngkoidl] Prec & -al (geol, mineral) Having a surface fracturing with depressions like one valve of a bivalve shell or conch conchological, adj [1 kóngkólógikl, 2 kóngkólódzík] conchology & -ic & -al Pertaining to conchology conchologist, n [1 kóngkólójist, 2 kóngkólédziet] conchology & -ist Student of conchology, collector of shells conchology, n [1 kóngkólój, 2 kóngkólédzít], fr Gk lōngkhos, see conch, & -logy Science or study of shells and molluscs concerge, n [1 kónsárzh, 2 kánsəz] Fr Origin unknown (in France) a Doorkeeper, janitor, head-porter, of hotels, public offices &c, b person in charge of a set of apartments, lodgings, or flats concliar(y), adj [1 kónsliar(i), 2 kónsliə(r)] fr Lat conciliū, 'meeting, assembly, council' See council & -ar Pertaining to an ecclesiastical council conciliate, vb trans [1 kónsliət, 2 kánsliet] fr Lat conciliā (um), P P type of conciliare, 'to bring together, make friendly, win over', fr conciliū, 'a meeting, assembly' See council a (of persons) To overcome the indifference or hostility of, pacify, mollify, propitiate, to gain the esteem, good-will, or favour of, win over, b (of apparently incongruous things) to make compatible, reconcile (archaic) conciliation, n [1 kónsliášun, 2 kánsliéfan] Prec & -ion The act of conciliating, adjustment of differences &c court of conciliation conciliative, adj [1 kónsliatív, 2 kánsliatív] conciliate & -ive Conciliatory conciliator, n [1 kónsliátur, 2 kánslietə] conciliate & -or One who conciliates, a peacemaker conciliatory, adj [1 kónsliátur, 2 kánslietə(r)] Prec & -y Tending, inclined, to conciliate, conciliative conciliatory measures, manner &c concomitancy, n [1 kónsliát, 2 kánsliet] fr Lat concomitiā (em), 'fitness, elegance, neatness', fr concominus, 'well adjusted, neat, elegant', etymol obscure Harmony, elegance, or neatness of literary style or of discourse concoise, adj [1 kónsís, 2 kánsís], fr Lat concoisus, 'divided, concise', P P of concidere, 'to cut to pieces', fr con- & caedere, 'to cut', qv under cassura, cement Brief but expressive, terse, pithy (of speech, style of writing &c), (also of persons) given to concise expression concisely, adv Prec & -ly In a concise manner conciseness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being concise, terseness in speaking or writing concoise, n [1 kónsízun, 2 kánsízan], fr Lat concoisus-(em), 'separation into divisions', fr conciis-(um) & -ion See concise 1 A division, schism, faction 2 Conciseness conclave, n [1 kónklāv, 2 kónkləv] Fr, fr Lat conclāve, 'a room that can be locked up', fr con- & clāve, 'a key' See clavicule 1 a The apartments which form the meeting-place of cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church for election of Pope, b the assembly of cardinals for this purpose Hence 2 Any private or secret assembly to sit in conclave, to be engaged in a secret meeting conclude, vb trans & intrans [1 kónklūd, 2 kánklūd], fr Lat concludere, (p) 'to shut up together', (u) 'to end, close', fr con- & claudere, 'to shut'. See claustral & close (I) A trans 1 To bring to an end, close, finish to conclude a speech, argument &c 2 To bring about as a result, to effect, settle, arrange to conclude a treaty, bargain &c 3 To draw an inference, argue consider as proved by what has gone before from what you say I conclude that &c B intrans To come to an end the meeting concluded in uproar conclusion, n [1 kónklúzshun, 2 kánklúzshun] Fr, fr Lat conclūsio (em), fr conclūs (um), P P type of concludere, & -ion See conclude 1 a Act of concluding or ending; Phr in conclusion, lastly, b end, termination, close 2 Final result, outcome, up shot the conclusion of the whole matter 3 Arrangement, settling the conclusion of peace, of a treaty &c 4 Something believed in consequence of investigation or thought, reasoned judgement, inference, deduction Phrs to draw conclusions, to come to a conclusion &c, infer, foregone conclusion, some thing already decided on and not to be altered by argument &c, to try conclusions with, pit oneself against 5 (log) The proposition deduced from the premises of a syllogism conclusive, adj [1 kónklúziv, 2 kánklúziv] Fr conclusif, Lat conclūs-(see prec), & -ive That which settles, decides, convincing, final conclusive evidence, proof conclusively, adv Prec & -ly Decisively, finally, convincingly conclusiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being final and decisive concoct, vb trans [1 kónklókt, 2 kánklókt], fr Lat concoct-(um), P P type of concoquere, 'to cook together', fr con- & coquere, 'to cook' See cook (I) a To invent or prepare by mixing together different ingredients of food or drink to concoct a new dish, hence, b (fig) to devise, plan, invent, make up to concoct a story, a plot &c concoction, n [1 kónklóshun, 2 kánklóshun] concoct & -ion. 1 Act of concocting (lit and fig) 2 That which is concocted (lit and fig) concoctive, adj [1 kónklóktiv, 2 kánklóktiv] See prec & -ive (obs) Pertaining to concoction Used by Milton in sense of tending to ripen, maturing 'concoctive heat' (P L 'v 437) concolorous, adj [1 kónkálur, 2 kánsálur] See con- & colour & -ous (not hist) Uniform in colour, esp of the wings of certain butterflies and moths concomitance, -cy, n [1 kónkómítans(i), 2 kánkómítans(i)] fr L Lat concomitantia See concomitant 1 Accompaniment, coexistence 2 Specif (eccles) the existence of the whole of both the body and blood of Christ in each element of the Eucharist concomitant, adj & n [1 kónkómítat, 2 kánkómítant], fr con- & comitant (em), Pres. Part. of comitari, 'to accompany', fr comit (em), comes, 'companion' See count (III) 1 adj Going together with, accompanying concomitant circumstances 2 n An accompanying thing, an accompaniment, an attendant fact or circumstance a bad temper is often a concomitant of indigestion concomitantly, adv Prec & -ly As an accompaniment, together with concord, n. [1 kóngkord, 2 kóngkòd], fr Fr concorde, fr Lat concordia, 'an agreement together, union, harmony', fr concoro, adj, 'of the same mind', fr con- & cor, cordis, 'heart' See cordate 1 Moral agreement, harmony, between persons in opinions, views, interests &c, agreement between things, suitability 2 (mus) Pleasing combination, harmony, of tones heard simultaneously 'Concord of sweet sounds' (Shakespeare) 3 (gram) Syntactic agreement between words in person, number, gender, and case concordance, n. [1 kunkórdans, 2 kunkórdans] Fr, fr L Lat concordantia See concordant 1 Agreement, harmony, concord to be in concordance, in concordance with your wishes &c 2 Specif, a book which gives an index of, and references to, the principal words used in a work, or by an author, alphabetically arranged, and with full context cited a concordance of Shakespeare, of the Bible &c concordant, adj. [1 kunkórdant, 2 kunkórdant] fr Lat concordant (em), Pres Part of concordare, 'to be of one mind, to agree together', fr concoro See concord. Agreeing, harmonious, consistent, consonant (followed by with, or absol) concordantly, adv. Prec & -ly In concordance, in agreement, consistently concordat, n. [1 kunkórdat, 2 kunkórdat] Fr, fr Lat concordatum, PP of concordare See concordant A (eccles) hist 1 A formal agreement between the Pope and any secular government for the settlement and control of ecclesiastical affairs, 2 a friendly agreement which settles disputed points between individuals or parties concourse, n. [1 kóngkors, 2 kóngkòs], fr Fr concours, fr Lat concursum, a running together', fr concur (um), PP type of currere, 'to run together', fr con- & currere, 'to run', q v under course, courser 1 A running or moving together, a confluence of things 2 An assembly of persons, a crowd, throng concrecence, n. [1 kónkrétsns, 2 kónkrétsns], fr Lat concrecentia, fr concrecent-(em), Pres Part of concrecere, 'to grow together' See concrete A growing together, coalescence, a growing together of cells or other organisms concrete (I), adj. [1 kónkrét, 2 kónkrít], fr Lat concretus, 'grown together', PP of concrecere, 'to grow together', fr con- & crecere, 'to grow' See crescent 1 Formed into one mass, hence, existing in material form, having a real existence, real a concrete fact 2 (gram, of a noun) Denoting a thing, not a quality, state, or action, reverse of general or abstract 3 Made of concrete, see concrete (II), 2 concrete (II), n, fr prec 1 A concrete thing See concrete (I), 1 2 Composition of gravel or sand and cement, used in building concrete (III), vb trans & intrans See concrete (I) 1 [1 kónkrét, 2 kónkrít] a trans. To bring or unite together into a mass, cause to coalesce, b intrans, to grow together, coalesce, become concrete 2 [1 kónkrét, 2 kónkrít] To cover with concrete, as a pavement &c concretion, n. [1 kunkrétshun, 2 kunkrétshun] See concrete (I) & -ion. 1 The process of growing together, coalescence 2 A mass formed by the union of various parts adhering to one another, a concrete mass, (esp geol) a mass formed of solid particles 3 Specif (pathol) a calculus formed in a cavity of the body stone calcareous concretions concretionary, adj. [1 kunkrétshun, 2 kunkrétshun] Prec & -ary 1 Pertaining to, or formed by, concretion 2 Containing concretions, (geol) concretionary deposits, chemically formed deposits, generally from springs containing lime or iron concretive, adj. [1 kunkrétiv, 2 kunkrétiv] concrete (I) & -ive. Tending to concretion.

concubinage, n. [1 kóngkúbun, 2 kóngkúbimdz] See concubine & -age A Co habitation of a man and a woman without marriage, b condition of a concubine concubinal, adj. [1 kóngkúbinal, 2 kóngkúbinal] concubine & -al. Pertaining to concubinage or to concubines concubinary, adj. [1 kóngkúbinari, 2 kóngkúbinari] Next word & -ary Connected with concubinage, born from such a connexion concubine, n. [1 kóngkúbín, 2 kóngkúbín] Fr, fr Lat concubina, fr concubere, 'to be with', fr con- & cubare, 'to lie, he down' This vb appears to be fr a base meaning 'to bend, curve' &c, as in Lat cubitus, 'elbow', fr Gk kubitón, cogn w Goth hupa, OE hype, OHG huf, q v under hip (I), & Gk kúphós, 'bent, crooked' See cube & cubicle A woman who lives with a man outside lawful wedlock concupiscence, n. [1 kónkúpisens, 2 kónkúpisens] Fr, fr Lat concupiscencia, fr concupiscere, 'to long for, desire', fr con- & cupere, 'to desire' See cupidity Sexual desire, lust concupiscent, adj. [1 kónkúpisent, 2 kónkúpisent] fr Lat concupiscens (em), Pres Part of concupiscere, see prec Inflamed by sexual passion, ardently desirous concur, vb intrans [1 kunkér, 2 kunkér] fr Lat concurrere, 'to run together, to happen at same time', fr con- & currere, 'to run' See course, courier 1 To meet in one point, to coincide, happen together (of circumstances &c) everything concurred to make him happy 2 To agree, be of same opinion all will concur in this opinion with the speaker, in condemning the practice concurrence, n. [1 kunkurans, 2 kunkúrans] concur & -ence, & see next word Agreement or union in action or opinion (gen the latter), assent concurrent, adj & n. [1 kunkurent, 2 kunkúrnt] fr Lat concurrunt (em), Pres Part of concurrere. See concur 1 adj a Running together, meeting at angle point concurrent lines, b acting together, c agreeing together in opinion, d existing and taking effect at same time 2 n That which concurs, a concurrent circumstance, a joint or contributory cause concurrently, adv. Prec & -ly With concurrence, unitedly, at same time, in agreement concuss, vb trans [1 kunkus, 2 kunkús] fr Lat concuss (um), PP type of concutere. See next word 1 To shake, stir, agitate (usually fig) 2 To cause concussion (of brain) to, to render unconscious by a blow on the head, usually in P.P. concussed concussion, n. [1 kunkushun, 2 kunkúshun] fr Lat concussio (em), 'a shaking', fr concuss (um), PP type of concutere, 'to shake violently', fr con- & qualere, 'to shake' See quash. 1 Agitation commotion, shock, caused by violent collision of two bodies concussion of the air 2 Specif (med) injury to an organ caused by heavy blow, fall &c, esp concussion of the brain concussive, adj. [1 kunkúshiv, 2 kunkúshiv] See prec & -ive Tending, likely, to concuss or render unconscious condemn, vb trans [1 kúndém, 2 kúndém] fr Lat condemnare, 'to sentence, doom, accuse, blame', fr con- & damnare, 'condemn' See damn. 1 To disapprove of, censure, blame, reprove, upbraid to condemn a person for his conduct, to condemn conduct, behaviour 2 To pronounce unfit for use to condemn meat as unfit for human food &c, b to pronounce forfeited (of ships, cargo &c) 3 To pronounce legal judgment against inflict legal penalty on, to doom to condemn a man to death, to imprison &c, Plur condemned cell that in which person under sentence of death is placed, b to find guilty, convict a person of crime charged against him in spite of the evidence he was not condemned, o (fig, of a physician) to pronounce a person to be suffering from mortal illness he recovered, though several doctors had condemned him, d (fig) to give appearance of guilt his shifty looks were enough to condemn him, apart from the other facts condemnable, adj. [1 kúndemnabl, 2 kúndemnabl] fr Lat condemnabilis See prec. & -able Blamable, culpable condemnation, n. [1 kúndemnashun, 2 kúndemnashun] fr Lat condemnatio (em) See prec & -ation 1 The act of condemning, censure, blame to incur one's condemnation 2 a Judicial conviction, act (by a judge) of adjudging guilty and of dooming to punishment &c, b fact of being judicially condemned (of an accused person) condemnatory, adj. [1 kúndemnashun, 2 kúndemnashun] Lat condemnator, 'an accuser'. See prec & -ory Expressing or implying condemnation condemnatory statement condensability, n. [1 kúndensashiliti, 2 kúndensashiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being condensable condensable, adj. [1 kúndensahl, 2 kúndensahl] condense & -able Capable of being condensed condensation, n. [1 kúndensashun, 2 kúndensashun] See next word & -ation. The act of condensing or state of being condensed, in various senses a of chemical or physical processes, reduction to a denser state, as of gases to a liquid form, steam to water &c, b (fig) abbreviation, compression, putting tersely (of ideas &c, as expressed in words) condense, vb trans & intrans [1 kúndens, 2 kúndens] fr Lat condensare, fr con- & densare, 'to make dense, press together'. See dense A. trans 1 To make dense, make compact, to compress into a smaller compass, to abridge 2 (chem and phys) a To reduce into a denser form (by pressure, cold &c), esp to reduce from gas or vapour to liquid, b (fig) to compress one's words, put what one has to say in small space, c (of rays of light) to concentrate, intensify

B intrans To be reduced into a denser form, to become more compact condenser, n. [1 kúndenser, 2 kúndensér] Prec & -er Person who, thing which, condenses, in various purely technical senses, as for reducing gas &c to liquid state, for concentrating rays of light &c, specif (elect) apparatus consisting of two or more conducting plates separated by a non conducting substance, known as a dielectric (q v), its function is to receive and retain an electric charge from an alternating current, the charge being in proportion to its capacity condescend, vb intrans [1 kúndesénd, 2 kúndesénd] fr Fr condescendre, fr L Lat condescendere, fr con- & descendere, 'to stoop' See descend 1 a (in good sense) To behave with humility, by consenting to perform offices, or accept positions, of a more lowly character than those to which one is entitled by one's merits, attainments, rank &c, the Saviour condescended to dwell as a man among men, b (in unfavourable sense) to stoop to unworthy actions, to lower oneself, demean oneself, by undignified or low conduct to condescend to accept bribes, to condescend to flattery 2 To behave with affability in one's social relations with inferiors although retaining, and to some extent expressing in manner, a full consciousness of superiority the great man seemed to be condescending all the time he was speaking to his guests condescending, adj. [1 kúndesénding, 2 kúndesénding] fr Pres Part of prec. Showing condescension, (in good sense) modest and humble, with courtesy and gentleness towards inferiors, (in unfavourable sense) affable with a suggestion of conscious superiority, patronizing a haughty and condescending manner condescendingly, adv. Prec & -ly In a condescending manner condescension, n. [1 kúndesénshun, 2 kúndesénshun] fr Lat condescensio-(em), fr cond-

scens-(um), P P type of condescendere, & -ion. See condescend. The act of condescending, (in good sense) affability, graciousness, courtesy to inferiors, (in unfavourable sense) a manner which betrays consciousness of being superior to one's surroundings.

condign, adj. [1 kundin, 2 kandain], fr Fr condigne, fr Lat condignus, 'wholly deserving, worthy', fr con- & dignus, 'worthy'. See dignity. Deserved, adequate, esp suitable, adapted, to a fault or crime. Ohelley, condign punishment.

condignly, adv. Free & -ly. Deservedly, adequately.

condiment, n. [1 kondiment; 2 kondament], fr Lat condimentum, 'spice, seasoning', fr condire, 'to preserve, pickle, spice'. Origin obscure. Very doubtfully connected w Gk tenthes, 'a dainty feeder', fr base kandh-*. The obvious connexion is w condere, 'put together, store up' &c, but the difference of conjugation raises doubts. Seasoning for food, anything spicy, high-flavoured or pungent, used as a relish, as mustard, pepper &c.

condition (I), n. [1 kundishun, 2 kandishan], fr Lat conditio-(em) for condicio-(em), 'stipulation, agreement, situation, rank, circumstances', connected w condicere, P P -dictum, 'agree upon' &c, fr con- & dicere, 'point out, tell' &c, as in indicate &c. See dictum. 1 State or manner of being, state in which a person or thing exists, esp in regard to external circumstances, and to health, strength &c. the horse, the man's person, was in a horrible condition. Phrs in good condition, (of food) fit to eat, (of persons or animals) healthy, plump, strong in, out of, condition, in good, bad, health. 2 Rank, position, estate, station. humble condition of life. Phrs to change one's condition, speak, to marry, a man of condition, man of rank. 3 (in pl) External circumstances, limiting factors, concomitants under existing, favourable, conditions. 4 A stipulation, something imposed as a provision, of restriction, essential qualification in an agreement, failing the fulfilment of which something else will not take effect. to impose conditions, to make it a condition that, the conditions are very severe &c. Phr on condition, provided (that).

condition (II), vb trans, fr prec. 1 a (rare). To impose conditions, stipulate, b to produce a certain state or condition, to determine the circumstances which condition our lives. 2 To bring into good condition or state of health (of horses, cattle &c).

conditional, adj. [1 kundishunal, 2 kandishanal]. condition (I) & -al. 1 Containing or depending upon a condition or conditions, not unqualified. a conditional promise, a promise conditional on circumstances being favourable. 2 (gram) Conditional clause, one expressing a condition.

conditionally, adv. Free & -ly. With, under, conditions, with qualifications.

conditioned, adj. [1 kundishund, 2 kandishand]. condition (I) & -ed. 1 Placed under, subject to, certain conditions, restrictions, modifying factors, or circumstances. the degree of happiness we enjoy is conditioned partly by our temperament, partly by external circumstances. 2 In a specific state of bodily or moral condition. ill-conditioned, well-conditioned.

condolatory, adj. [1 kundolatri, 2 kandolatri], fr condole, w adj. suff on anal. consolatory, the base of former being in Lat condole, see next word. Condoling, expressing condolence.

condole, vb intrans [1 kundól, 2 kandól], fr Lat condolere, 'to suffer severe pain, suffer with another', fr con- & dolere, 'to grieve, suffer'. See dole (III). To express sympathy with, lament in company with another, as for a common sorrow or loss.

condolexice, n. [1 kundólens, 2 kandólens]. Fr, fr Lat condolens (em), Pres Part of condolere, & -ia. See condole & -ence. Expression, exhibition, of sympathy with another in sorrow &c. (often in pl) present my condolences to &c. condominium, n. [1 kondóminium, 2 kondóminium], fr con- & dominium. See dominion. Joint title or sovereignty, as over a state shared by two or more powers.

condonation, n. [1 kondónashun, 2 kondónashan], fr Lat condonatio (em), 'giving away'. See condone & -ation. The act of condoning, overlooking, an offence against one, specif. of offences against marriage vow, by injured party.

condone, vb trans [1 kundón, 2 kandón], fr Lat condonare, 'to give up, pardon, forgive', fr con- & dónare, 'to give'. See donate. To overlook, forgive (an offence &c), specif. (law) of matrimonial infidelity.

condor, n. [1 kondór, 2 kandó]. Span, fr Peruvian canhur. A large American vulture found in the Andes.

condottiere, n. [1 kondotyárá, 2 kandotyére]. Ital, fr condotto, fr Lat conduci (um), P P type of conducere, in sense of 'to hire', see conduct, & suff fr Lat -arius, see -ary. Captain of a band of military adventurers and mercenaries in the Late Mediaeval period.

conduce, vb intrans [1 kundúsá, 2 kandúsá], fr Lat conducere, 'to bring together, to contribute (to)', fr con- & ducere, 'to lead'. See duct & cp conduct (II) (chiefly of events, circumstances, actions). To help to produce, tend to bring about, promote the possession of health often conduces to happiness; revolution generally conduces to much subsequent misery.

conducive, adj. [1 kundúsiv, 2 kandúsiv]. Free & -ive. Tending to promote, contributive to conducive to health.

conducively, adv. Free & -ly. In a conducive manner.

conductiveness, n. See prec & -ness. Tendency to conduce or contribute to.

conduct (I), n. [1 kundukt, 2 kandukt]. L. Lat conductus, 'defence, protection, escort', fr P P of conducere, 'lead, draw together', fr con- & ducere, 'lead' &c. See duct, cp conduct. 1 The act or method of conducting, direction, guidance, management. the conduct of a war, of a business &c. 2 Escort, guide, convoy (obs except in Phr safe conduct). 3 Manner of carrying, managing, ruling, oneself from a moral point of view, behaviour good, bad, conduct &c.

conduct (II), vb trans & intrans [1 kundukt, 2 kandukt], fr Lat conduct-(um), P P type of conducere. See prec. 1 To lead, guide, escort. to conduct a person to a seat, a party up a mountain. 2 a To direct, manage, carry on. to conduct a campaign &c, b specif. (mus) to direct performance, by indicating time, expression &c, both of players and music itself. to conduct an orchestra, conduct an opera, (also absol) he conducts at all the chief concerts. 3 (reflex) To conduct oneself, to behave. 4 (phys) a trans. To serve as a medium for, to transmit (heat, electricity &c), b intrans, to act as a conductor (of heat, electricity &c).

conductibility, n. [1 kunduktibilitá, 2 kanduktibilitá]. See next word & -ity (phys). Capacity of conducting (a current, heat &c).

conductible, adj. [1 kunduktibil, 2 kanduktibil]. conduct (II) & -ible. A. Capable of conducting (heat &c), b capable of being conducted.

conduction, n. [1 kundúksun, 2 kandúksan], fr Lat conductio-(em), 'bringing together'. See conduct (II) & -ion. a (phys) Transmission, conductivity (of heat &c), b transmission of, act of conducting, liquid through a channel.

conductive, adj. [1 kundúktiv, 2 kandúktiv]. conduct (II) & -ive. Having the quality or power of conducting (heat &c). conductivity, n. [1 kundúktiviti, 2 kandúktiviti]. Free & -ity. Property of transmitting (heat, electric current &c). conductor, n. [1 kundúktur, 2 kandúktó]. L. Lat, 'a carrier, transporter', fr Lat,

'one who hires (a thing), a farmer, lessor'. See conduct (II). Some of the senses through Fr conducateur (of persons) 1 A leader, guide. 2 A manager, director (esp mus), the director of an orchestra. 3 Official, generally a ticket-collector, in charge of public street conveyance, train &c (of things) 4 (phys) A substance or body having special property of transmitting (heat, electricity &c). wood is a bad conductor. Cp lightning-conductor.

conductorship, n. [1 kundúkturashup, 2 kandúkturashup]. Free & -ship. Office of conductor in senses 1, 2, or 3, esp 2.

conduct, n. [1 kundit, 2 kandit]. Variant of conduct (I). Fr, fr L Lat conductus, 'escort, conduct'. A natural or artificial channel which conveys water or other liquid, an aqueduct, canal &c.

conduplicate, adj. [1 kundúplikat, 2 kandúplikat]. con- & duplicate (bot). Doubled and folded together lengthwise, of petals and leaves.

condyle, n. [1 kundíl, 2 kandíl]. Fr condyle, fr Lat condylus, fr Gk kondylos, 'knuckle', cogn w Sert kandaf, 'bulb', kandukaf, 'ball' (anat) Ball at the end of a bone which forms joint with socket of another bone.

condyloid, adj. [1 kundúloid, 2 kandúloid]. condyle & -oid. (anat) Shaped like a condyle.

cône, n. [1 kón, 2 kowá], fr Lat cónus, fr Gk kónos, (1) 'a pine cone, fir cone', (2) 'the cone or peak of a helmet', cogn w Sert kónaf, Lat cón, O E kūn, 'whetstone', see kone, Sert kónaf, 'sharp'. 1 A solid body with circular base, tapering to a point or apex, anything having this shape; such, specif., as the signal hoisted as warning of bad weather, similarly shaped part in couplings, bearings &c, specif. the frunt of conifers, such as the fir, pine &c. 2 (geom) A surface described by a moving straight line, generator, passing through a fixed point, vertex, intercepted by a fixed curve, director. See cones.

coley, n. See coxy.

confab, n. [1 konfab, 2 kónfab]. Abbr fr confabulation (colloq) Familiar, intimate, talk or discussion.

confabulate, vb intrans [1 konfabúlat, 2 kandfabúlat], fr Lat confabulatio (um), P P type of confabulari, 'to converse together', fr con- & fabulari, 'to speak', fr fabula. See table. To talk, discuss, argue, familiarly and intimately together.

confabulation, n. [1 kunfabúlashun, 2 kandfabúlashan]. Free & -ion. Familiar discussion.

confabulatory, adj. [1 kunfabúlatr, 2 kandfabúlatr]. See prec & -ory. Pertaining to, of the nature of, confabulation.

confection, o & vb trans [1 kunfékshun, 2 kandfékshun]. Fr, fr Lat confectio (em), fr confect (um), P P type of conficere, 'to make up together, to prepare', fr con- & facere, 'to make'. See fact. 1 n A preparation of fruits &c with sugar, a sweetmeat, preserve, b an elaborate, fashionable woman's garment. 2 vb To make, prepare, as sweetmeats, costumes &c. confectionary, adj. [1 kunfékshunr, 2 kandfékshunr]. Free & -ary. Of the nature of a confection.

confectioner, n. [1 kunfékshuner, 2 kandfékshunr]. confection, vb, & -er. One who makes and sells sweetmeats, cakes, pastry &c, a pastrycook.

confectionery, n. [1 kunfékshunr, 2 kandfékshunr]. Free & -ry. Sweet pastry, cakes, jellies, and sweetmeats of all kinds.

confederacy, n. [1 kunféderasi, 2 kandféderasi]. See confederate & -cy. 1 A league, alliance. 2 a Body of confederate persons, often in sense 3, b body of separate persons united for certain purposes, each having more independence than in a 'federal' state, esp used of the Southern States in the American Civil War. 3 Conspiracy, collusion of two or more persons to commit an unlawful act confederate (I), adj [1 kúnfederat, 2 kúnfederát], fr Lat confederatus, fr con- & federatus, 'leagued together', fr foedus, foederis, 'a league, treaty' See federal 1 United in a confederacy or league, banded together by treaty 2 (Am hist.) The Confederate States of America, those of the South which seceded from the Union (1860-1865) confederate (II), n, fr prec 1 a Person or nation united with others in a confederacy or league, ally, b (usually in bad sense) a companion, an accomplice, in crime 2 (Am hist.) An adherent to the cause of the Confederate States confederate (III), vb trans & intrans [1 kúnfederát, 2 kúnfederát] See prec 1 trans To bring into alliance, or confederacy, (also reflex) to ally oneself, with 2 intrans To come into alliance with, to form a confederacy confederation, n [1 kúnfederáshun, 2 kúnfederátshun] See confederate & -ion a Act of confederating, b a league, alliance (esp of princes, nations, states), a confederacy confer, vb trans & intrans [1 kúnfár, 2 kúnfít], fr Lat conferre, 'to bring together, contribute, consult, bestow', fr con- & ferre, 'to bring, bear'. See -ferous, & bear (I) 1 trans a To grant, bestow (a title, benefit, favour &c upon a person), b to compare, collate (archaic except in imperat) confer remarks on next page &c, usually abbreviated of 2 intrans (followed by with) To consult, deliberate, discuss with, talk over business with to confer with one's advisers &c conference, n [1 kúnferens, 2 kúnferens], fr Fr conference, fr Mod Lat conferentia Prec & -ence. Formal deliberation in common with others, interchange of opinions, discussion conferment, n [1 kúnfármént; 2 kúnfármént] confer & -ment The act of bestowing (a title, degree, gift, privilege, favour &c) conferable, adj [1 kúnfárábl, kúnfárábl, 2 kúnfárábl, kúnfárábl] confer & -able Capable of being conferred confess, vb trans & intrans [1 kúnfés, 2 kúnfés], fr Fr confesser, Low Lat confessare, formed fr Lat confess (um), PP type of confiteri, 'to confess', fr con- & fateri, 'to confess, acknowledge', fr Lat base fá, 'to speak', qv under fame 1 trans a To acknowledge, own, admit to confess a fault, crime &c, b (colloq with weakened meaning) as I confess I was surprised to hear it, o (i) (of a penitent) to make formal admission of (sins) to a priest, (u) (of a priest) to hear confession of to confess a penitent 2 intrans a To make an admission of guilt he confessed before he was hanged, b specif (eccles) to declare and enumerate one's sins to a priest in order to receive sacramental absolution to confess regularly before hearing Mass confessant, n [1 kúnfésant, 2 kúnfésant], fr Fr confessant, Pres Part See confess One who makes confession to a priest (Rare) confessed, adj [1 kúnfésed, 2 kúnfésed], fr PP of confess Admitted, avowed, evident a confessed thief Phr to stand confessed as, be revealed confessedly, adv [1 kúnfésedli, 2 kúnfésedli] Prec & -ly By (general) admission, confession confession, n [1 kúnfeshun, 2 kúnfeshun] Fr confession, fr Lat confessionem See confess & -ion 1 Acknowledgement avowed, admission 2 a Acknowledgement of belief, profession of faith, declaration of religious creed, doctrine &c confession of faith, b a particular creed or religion 3 Specif (eccles) the act of confessing sins to a priest in order to receive absolution, a in church, in common with others as a congregation public confession, b alone in private auricular confession, to go to confession, (of a priest) to hear confession, c any, one of several forms of public confession in the Book of Common Prayer the Confession 4 (law) In confession and avoidance, plea admitting certain facts but alleging others which traverse them confessional, adj & n [1 kúnfeshunal, 2 kúnfeshunal], fr prec & -al 1 adj Pertaining to a confession of faith 2 n, a enclosed place screened off from rest of church, in which priest hears confessions, b system and practice of confession to a priest confessionary, adj & n [1 kúnfeshunari, 2 kúnfeshunari] confession & -ary a adj Pertaining to auricular confession, b n, confessional confessionist, n [1 kúnfeshunist, 2 kúnfeshunist], fr Fr confessioniste confession & -ist Adherent of a certain creed or confession confessor, n [1 kúnfésur, kúnfésur, 2 kúnfésa, kúnfésa] confess & -or 1, a One who confesses, b specif (eccles) one who suffers persecution or death for his religion 2 A priest who has a mission to hear confession, and give absolution confetti, n pl [1 kúnfeti, 2 kúnfeti] Ital confetti, pl confetti, 'sweetmeats' See conffection Small round pieces, originally of plaster, now of coloured paper, used by revellers at carnivals to pelt each other, or thrown at departing bridal pair after a wedding confidant, n (fem confidante) [1 kúnfidánt, 2 kúnfidánt] confide & -ant One to whom another confides his most intimate affairs and thoughts, a trusted bosom friend confide, vb intrans & trans [1 kúnfid, 2 kúnfid], fr Lat confidere, 'to trust', fr con- & fidere, 'to trust' See fidelity 1 intrans (followed, by, in) a To entrust secrets, intimate affairs to, take into one's confidence, b to put trust in, rely upon (rare) 2 trans a To tell, impart, as a secret confide one's troubles to a friend, b to hand over, entrust to, give into keeping of to confide a task to a person's charge confidence, n [1 kúnfidens, 2 kúnfidens], fr Lat confidentia See prec & -ence 1 a Feeling of certainty, strong hope, or conviction that circumstances are as one wishes, belief that a person may be trusted, relied on to have confidence in the future, to place every confidence in a person's honesty, skill, judgement &c, b similar feeling about one self and one's abilities, self-reliance to be poor but full of confidence, self confidence 2 Something told, confided, to another as a secret, something which a person wishes to keep private I have no wish to hear confidences 3 Act of confiding, trusting, or state of mind in which trust and reliance are felt and exhibited Chastity in Phrs to take a person into one's confidence, tell him a secret, to tell something in confidence, as a secret, in strict confidence, not to be revealed on any account confidence man, n One who practises the confidence trick confidence trick, n Swindle worked by prebating on the confidence or trust of credulous and not too scrupulous persons confident, adj [1 kúnfidént, 2 kúnfidént] Lat confident (em), Pres Part of confidere See confide 1 (of persons) a Having feeling of certainty, convinced, fully persuaded, esp that circumstances are favourable confident of success, confident that everything will go well, (but also gen) confident one is mistaken, b (transferred from feelings to the objects or circumstances which provoke them) 'Neter glad, confident morning again' (Browning), c (of noo maternal things) exhibiting, expressing, inspired by confidence a confident manner, confident smile, a confident attack &c 2 a Having confidence in one's own abilities, skill &c, self-reliant, b overweeningly confident in oneself, cock sure, conceited a very confident, uppish young man confidential, adj [1 kúnfidenshal, 2 kúnfidénsal] Prec & -ial 1 a Communicated in confidence, secret a confidential communication, b (of persons) inclined to impart confidences, to take another into confidence to become confidential with strangers 2 Enjoying confidence, entrusted with secrets, trustworthy confidential clerk, servant &c confidentially, adv Prec & -ly a In confidence, under promise of secrecy to tell something confidentially, b privately, intimately, in such a way as to show confidence, or by way of imparting confidences to speak confidentially to a person confidently, adv [1 kúnfidéntli, 2 kúnfidéntli] confident & -ly With confidence, assurance, in a confident manner configuration, n [1 kúnfigúráshun, 2 kúnfigúreshun], fr Lat configuratio (em) See configure & -ation 1 Relative disposition of inequalities of surface, contour, figure, form, shape 2 (astrol) Relative position or aspect of planets configure, vb, trans [1 kúnfigúr, 2 kúnfigúr], fr Lat configurare, 'to form from or after, something', fr con- & figura To shape, give contour or configuration to confine (I), n [1 kúnfin, 2 kúnfin], fr Fr confins, pl, fr Mod Lat confines, pl adj, fr Lat con- & fins (pl fines), 'end, limit, boundary' See final (usually pl) a Boundary, border, limit within the confines of his kingdom, b (fig) borderland between different feelings, ideas &c confine (II), vb trans & intrans [1 kúnfin, 2 kúnfin], fr Fr confiner, 'to border on or after', fr Ital confinare, fr Lat con- & fins See confine (I) 1 trans a (followed by to) To keep or restrain within limits, to restrict, limit (esp oneself to something) to confine oneself, one's remarks, to, b (followed by within, in) to keep shut up within limits, to imprison to, confine a prisoner in a cell Phr to be confined to one's room, unable to leave it from illness, confined to barracks, as punishment of soldier for breaches of discipline &c 2 intrans (obs) To confine with, to have common boundaries, be adjacent to, border on, touch confined, adj [1 kúnfind, 2 kúnfind], fr PP of prec 1 a (of space) Limited, narrow, oppressively small and restricted room in so small a house was very confined, b (fig, of spiritual restrictions) hampered, fettered 'cabin'd, cribb'd, confined' 2 (specif. of women) To be in act of giving birth to a child to expect to be confined on such a date, expect child to be born then, about to be confined, going to have a child 3 Conspated.

confinement, n [1 kúnfinémént, 2 kúnfinémént] fr confine & -ment 1 a State in which liberty and power of movement are hindered or prevented to live in confinement, to be placed under confinement, specif, to be put in prison or in a lunatic asylum, close confinement, solitary confinement, imprisonment under conditions of complete separation from others, b (fig) sensation of being kept in, restricted in action &c by surroundings, or conditions of life to feel the confinement of an office 2 (specif of women) The giving birth to a child, delivery confirm, vb trans [1 kúnfírm, 2 kúnfírm], fr O Fr confermer, Fr confirmer, fr Lat confirmare, 'to make firm', fr con- & fírmare 'to make firm', fr fírmus, see firm (I) 1 To make firm, to establish more firmly, a (of persons) to encourage, make more determined and resolute, add conviction to to confirm a person in his decision, opinions &c, b (of opinion, purpose, determination &c) to fortify fix more firmly later events served to confirm his previous determination, c (of statements, rumour, evidence) to render certain, corroborate the reported disaster is now confirmed 2 To ratify, sanction, make valid to confirm a treaty, an appointment &c 3 (eccles, of a bishop) To admit to privileges of Holy Communion by imposition of hands in Confirmation.

connoot & -ivo serving to connect, as means of connexion Connective tissue, a wide term including all the tissues which enclose and connect the various organs of the body.

connectively, adv Prec & -ly In a connective manner, by connexion connection, connection, n [1 kənɛkʃən, 2 kənɛkʃən] fr Lat con(n)ectio (em), 'a binding together, close union, conclusion, logical sequence, a sentence', fr connex (um), PP type of connectere, & -ion See connect The spelling w x is historically correct, & is based on the Lat, the other, due to the influence of connect, is also common 1 Relation, association a (causally, of events, actions &c) the connection between crime and insanity, b (of relation in thought and logic) connection between ideas, Phr in this connection, with reference to what is being discussed or considered, c specif (of trains, boats &c) correspondence in hours of arrival and departure to run in connection, so as to meet, catch, a good connection of trains &c 2 a (of personal and social relations) Association, intimacy, union, bond of union to live in close connection with members of one's profession, Phrs to form useful connections, to make powerful friends, to form a connection, often said of intimacy between a man and a woman, b specif, sexual union, Phr to have connection with, c a relative, member of one's family (by blood or marriage) 3 a Body of persons associated in a religious organization the Methodist Connection, b body of clients, customers of a business undertaking Phr to establish a connection, form a clientèle 4 Anything which connects hot water connections, pipes &c conning-tower, n [1 kɒnɪŋ təʊə, 2 kɒnɪŋ təʊə] Pres Part of con (II) The armoured, protected station in a warship from which the steering &c is directed connipshun fit, n [1 kɒnɪʃən fɪt, 2 kɒnɪʃən fɪt] Origin unknown (slang, U.S.A.) A fit, paroxysm, of anger, hysteria &c connivance, n [1 kənɪvəns, 2 kənɪvəns], fr Fr connivance, fr Lat conniventia See connive & -ance Tacit assent to, acquiescence in, the wrong doing of another connive, vb intrans [1 kənɪv, 2 kənɪv], fr Lat connivere, 'to close the eyes, to blink', to leave a crime unnoticed, overlook errors, fr con-, & nivere, 'to close the eyes, to blink', to leave a crime unnoticed, wh, however, only occurs uncompounded in nivens, 'winking' The base is kniv-*, cogn w Goth knēvan, 'to bend downwards, incline', & knūvis, 'humble', O H G knēger, Mod Germ neigen, 'to bend down, incline' Lat nidare, 'to move the eyelids up and down', is fr same base, for nig lare*. The orig meaning is 'to move, to move downwards', the Lat sense being specialized See nictitate Generally connive at, to leave error or wrongdoing in another unnoticed to pass over bad behaviour or crime in silence, to acquiesce in The word implies tacit and approving assent to another wrong doing, or actual encouragement and assistance The English Phr to wink at, keep one's eyes closed to, a fault &c, exactly corresponds with original Lat'm meaning connivent adj [1 kənɪvənt, 2 kənɪvənt] Lat connivens (em), Pres Part of connivere. See con- Used in lit sense (biol, of parts of animals and plants) Inclining towards each other, converging connaisseur, n [1 kənɪsɜːr, 2 kənɪsɜːr] Fr, fr L Lat con-scritor (em) fr conscribere, 'to get to know, become acquainted with' See cognoscible (lit) One who knows - one having special or expert knowledge, esp in art stuc matter or things involving aesthetic taste accoutrements pictures triviale, triviale &c connote, vb trans [1 kənɒt, 2 kənɒt], fr Lat con- & notāre (em), PP type of notāre, 'to mark' See connote To connote connotation, n [1 kənɒtəʃən, 2 kənɒtəʃən] Prec & -ion Imp' cat on, specif (logic) sum total of qualities or attributes implied in a term, esp denotation connotative adj [1 kənɒtə'tɪv, 2 kənɒtə'tɪv] To connote & -ive Having connotation connote, vb trans [1 kənɒt, 2 kənɒt], fr Lat connotāre, 'to mark together', fr con- & notāre, 'to mark', fr notā, 'a mark' See con- & note (of words) To suggest, indicate, imply, to include in the meaning, imply in addition to the primary meaning, (popularly) to mean connubial, adj [1 kənʊbiəl, 2 kənʊbiəl], fr Lat connubialis, 'pertaining to marriage', fr connubium, 'marriage', fr con- & nūbere, 'to marry' The etymological connexion between this vb & nūber, 'cloud, veil', is now denied, in wh case the word does not mean 'to cover with a veil' as a bride, as was formerly taught See nuptial a Of, connected with, the marriage state, conjugal, b connected with spouses connubiality, n [1 kənʊbiəli, 2 kənʊbiəli] Prec & -ity State of being connubial, something characteristic of the marriage state connubially, adv [1 kənʊbiəli, 2 kənʊbiəli] See con- & -ly In the manner of married persons conoïd, adj & n [1 kɒnoɪd, 2 kɒnoɪd], fr Gk kónoidēs, 'cone shaped' See cone & -oid, a adj Resembling a cone, cone-shaped, b n, cone shaped object conquer, vb trans & intrans [1 kɒŋkə, 2 kɒŋkə], fr O Fr conquerre, fr conquerer, fr Lat conquerere, conquerere, 'to seek, search out with care', L Lat 'to conquer', fr con- & querere, 'to seek' See query A trans 1 a To overcome by force, deprive of power of resistance, overpower, defeat to conquer the enemy, a people &c, b to subjugate, overrun and take possession of a country, land &c by force, to gain or acquire by force 2 (fig, of non material things) To subdue, overcome, get the better of to conquer bad habits, passions, difficulties &c B intrans To gain the victory, to prevail 'To conquer or to die' conquerable, adj [1 kɒŋkərəbl, 2 kɒŋkərəbl] Prec & -able Capable of being conquered conqueror, n [1 kɒŋkərə, 2 kɒŋkərə] See con- & -or A One who conquers, b specif (Engl hist) The Conqueror, William of Normandy conquest, n [1 kɒŋkwɛst, 2 kɒŋkwɛst] M E, fr A-Fr conquiste, Low Lat conquisto, fem of PP of conquirere See conquer 1 a The act or process of conquering, defeating, subjugating, chiefly used of a country and its inhabitants, b specif, The Conquest, that of England by the Normans in 1066, c (feudal law) acquisition of property by purchase 2 That which is conquered or acquired by conquest the conquests of Napoleon 3 a The act or process of gaining the affections, capturing the favour or fancy of a person, Phr to make a conquest of, win the affections &c of, b person whose affections or favour are captured consanguine, adj [1 kɒnsəŋɡwɪn, 2 kɒnsəŋɡwɪn] See next word Consanguineous consanguineous, adj [1 kɒnsəŋɡwɪnɪəs, 2 kɒnsəŋɡwɪnɪəs] fr Lat consanguineus (ue), fr con- & sanguis (is), 'blood' See sanguine & -ous Having the same blood, belonging to same family, related by descent consanguinity, n [1 kɒnsəŋɡwɪnɪti, 2 kɒnsəŋɡwɪnɪti], fr Fr consanguinité, fr Lat consanguinitas (em) consanguine & -ity Relationship by blood and common descent conscience, n [1 kɒnsɪəns, 2 kɒnsɪəns] Fr, fr Lat conscientia, 'consciousness, knowledge feeling, sense, sense of right and wrong, moral sense', fr conscient (em), Pres Part of conscire, 'to be conscious of' fr con- & scire, 'to know' See science The knowledge of one's own thoughts and actions as right or wrong, the moral faculty of distinguishing right from wrong, sense of right and wrong a good, clear, bad, guilty, conscience. Phrs (colloq) in all conscience, surely, (colloq) to face the conscience, be so callous as to, (vulg slang) my conscience, meaningless exclamation, (law) conscience clause, one granting exemption from provisions of an Act &c on ground of conscientious scruples, esp in religious matters Conscience money, money paid in discharge of a claim (esp income tax) formerly evaded To make a matter of conscience, to act according to the promptings of conscience, to have scruples about conscienceless, adj [1 kɒnsɪənsləs, 2 kɒnsɪənsləs], fr con- & -less a (of persons) Lacking conscience, unscrupulous, b (of actions) evincing lack of scruples on part of him who commits them conscientious, adj [1 kɒnsɪənsɪəʃəs, 2 kɒnsɪənsɪəʃəs], fr Fr conscientieux, -euse, fr L Lat conscientiosus, fr Lat conscient, Pres Part stem See conscience & -ous 1 (of persons) Having keen sense of moral obligations, power of discriminating between right and wrong, and strong bias towards the former, obedient to the dictates of conscience, scrupulously, punctiliously, honest and upright Conscientious objector, in the Great War, one who claimed exemption from military service by alleging moral scruples against fighting for his country against her enemies 2 (of actions, conduct &c) Characterized, animated by, expressing, a lively regard for the dictates of conscience, exhibiting strong sense of duty conscientiously, adv Prec & -ly In a conscientious manner conscientiousness, n See con- & -ness

The quality of being conscientious conscious, adj [1 kɒnʃəs, 2 kɒnʃəs], fr Lat conscious, 'knowing, aware of', w change of suff to -ia See conscience & -ous 1 Having the faculty of knowing that one can know, think, and feel, having the power of thought man is a conscious being 2 a Possessing knowledge of (whether derived from sensuous impressions or moral experience), alive to, aware of, cognizant of (followed by of before a n) conscious of his own merits, guilt, folly &c, conscious of pain, cold, discomfort &c, (followed by that before a vb) conscious that his strength was failing, that he had been a fool, b (pred) in possession of one's mental faculties, awake, alert he was conscious to the last consciously, adv Prec & -ly In a conscious manner, with knowledge of one's own thoughts or actions consciousness, n See con- & -ness 1 The state of being conscious, a state possessed by all sentient beings of being able to perceive and feel we do not credit stones with consciousness, b the whole body of perceptions, thoughts, and feelings possessed by any organism, esp by man such things as speculations on man's destiny hardly enter the consciousness of savages 2 a Perception of, capacity for perceiving, external objects through the senses, and thought and ideas by the mind, awareness of external circumstances and of mental processes, knowledge consciousness of a person's presence, of what is going on, consciousness of danger, of evil, of guilt &c, b possession of one's mental faculties, power to take in through the senses, and to understand, knowledge of one's existence and of that of external world to lose consciousness, become unconscious, regain, recover, consciousness, after temporary loss through illness or injury conscribe, vb trans [1 kɒnskɪb, 2 kɒnskɪb], fr Lat conscribere See next word To enlist soldiers &c by conscription (oba) Replaced by conscript conscript (1), any & n [1 kɒnskɪpt, 2 kɒnskɪpt], fr Lat conscript (um), PP of conscribere, 'to write together, to enrol, enlist', fr con- & scribere, 'to write' See scribe 1 adj a Enrolled by conscription, compelled by law to serve the State, esp as a fighting man, b (Rom antiq) conscripti, the senators of ancient Rome 2 n a person compulsorily enrolled to serve the State, esp as a soldier or sailor, contrasted with one who enlists voluntarily conscript (II), vb trans [1 kúnskript, 2 kúnskript], fr prec To enrol by compulsion for State service, esp one of the fighting services conscription, n [1 kúnskrípsjún, 2 kúnskrípsjún] Prec & -ion System of enlisting men compulsorily for State service, esp for the army or navy consecrate (I), adj [1 kúnsekkrát, 2 kúnsekkrát], fr Lat consecrāt(-um), PP type of consecrāre, 'to dedicate, consecrate', fr con- & sacrāre, 'to set apart as sacred', fr sacer, 'holy, sacred' See sacred Consecrated, devoted, dedicated, sacred consecrate (II), vb trans See prec 1 (general sense) To set apart as sacred, dedicate, devote, to some use, purpose, or person to consecrate one's life, talents, energies &c to some object, 'Rose Aylmer a night of memories and sighs I consecrate to thee' (Landon) 2 Specif (eccles) to perform one of the spiritual functions of a bishop, a to set apart a man as, and make him, a bishop or archbishop, by imposition of hands and utterance of proscribed words, 'Receive thou the Holy Ghost &c for the office of bishop' &c, b to dedicate some object (a building, place, oil &c) to the service of God, and impart to it a sacred character, by proscribed words and acts 3 To render holy, sanctify, hallow 'Principles consecrated by time' (Burke) consecration, n [1 kúnsekkráðinn, 2 kúnsekkráðinn], fr Lat consecrātion(-em), see prec & -ion Act or process of consecrating in any sense, a devotion, dedication, of anything to a purpose &c the consecration of one's life to study &c, b out by which, and ceremony at which, a bishop consecrates persons or things in specific sense the consecration of bishops, c process of making sacred or venerable the place had undergone a kind of consecration from the continuous presence of great men during long ages consecrator, n [1 kúnsekkráttur, 2 kúnsekkráttur] consecrate (II) & -or One who consecrates consecratory, adj [1 kúnsekkrótur, 2 kúnsekkrótur] See prec & -ory Pertaining to the act of consecration, dedicatory consecratory, n [1 kúnsekkráttur, 2 kúnsekkráttur], fr Lat consecrārium, 'that which follows logically, a conclusion, inference', fr con- & sequi, 'to follow after eagerly', fr con- & sequi, 'to follow eagerly', freq of sequi, 'to follow', & -ary See sequel, sociable (rare) Something which follows logically from something else, a corollary consequence, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Lat consequētia(-em), 'an effect, consequence', fr consequi, 'to follow' See consequent a A following or sequel, logical sequence, sequence of events, b (gram) sequence of words, tenses &c consecutive, adj [1 kúnsekúttur, 2 kúnsekúttur] Lat consecūt(-um), PP type of consequi, 'to follow', & -ive See sequel, sociable 1 Following in regular order, successive, following without an interval or break 2 (gram) Expressing the idea of consequence consecutive clause consecutively, adv Prec & -ly In a consecutive manner, following continuously, without break consecutiveness, n See prec & -ness Property of following in natural succession, esp of logical sequences in ideas or expression consequence, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] See con- & senescere a Process of growing old together, b general decay through old age consensual, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Next word & -al 1 (physiol) of involuntary movement Accompanying, correlated with, voluntary movement 2 (law, of contracts &c) Made by mutual consent consensus, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Lat, 'agreement, unanimity', fr consens(-um), PP type of consentire. See next word Agreement, unanimity, in feeling, opinion consent (I), vb intrans [1 kúnseint, 2 kúnseint], fr O Fr consentir, fr Lat consentire, 'to feel together, to agree with, determine in common', fr con- & sentire, 'to feel' See sense (followed by to before a n, or by infin) a To agree not to resist, or prevent to consent to a suggestion, proposal, b to acquiesce in, agree to, permit to consent to another's action, c to be willing to undertake, agree to do to consent to give a lecture consent (II), n, fr O Fr consentie See prec 1 (of a number of persons) Agreement, community of feeling and opinion, unanimity Sir Joshua was by common, general, consent the first English painter of his day 2 (of one person) Assent, acquiescence, leave, permission nothing can be settled finally without my consent, to obtain a person's consent, to withhold one's consent Phrs silence gives consent, (legal) age of consent, that of which consent is held valid by the law consentaneity, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Lat consentāne(-us) & -ity See contemporaneous Quality of being contemporaneous consentaneous, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Lat consentāne(-us), 'agreeing, suited, fit', fr consentire, & -ous See consent (I) Agreeable or accordant to, suited to, consistent with consentaneously, adv Prec & -ly In accordance with, consistently with consentaneousness, n See prec & -ness Quality or state of being consentaneous consentient, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Lat consentient(-em), Pres Part of consentire See consent (I) Agreeing, disposed to acquiesce or consent consequence, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Fr consequence, fr Lat consequentia See consequent & -oe 1 Event which follows upon something else which is, or appears to be, the cause, a result, outcome of what has gone before the consequences of an action Phr in consequence (of), as a result (of) 2 Something which follows logically from a train of reasoning, or statement, logical result, conclusion it follows as a logical consequence that 3 Importance, consideration, value of no consequence, not important, Phr person(s) of consequence, of social (or other kind of) importance consequent (I), adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Fr consequent, fr Lat consequent(-em), Pres Part of consequi, 'to follow', fr con- & sequi Cf consecutive Following as a result a of events and actions, b of logical reasoning consequent (II), n, fr prec That which follows, or results from, a cause, the natural effect of what has gone before consequential, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Prec & -al 1 Following as a consequence, on what has gone before, resultant consequential alterations in wording of a document, those made necessary by others already made, (law) consequential damages, those incidental to the whole case, and arising out of it, though not those directly claimed 2 (of persons) Assuming and displaying on air of consequence, self important, pompous consequently, adv Prec & -ly 1 Arising as a consequence, because consequential, 2 In a self important, pompous manner consequently, adv & conj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] consequent (I) & -ly As a consequence, therefore conservancy, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] See conserve (I) & -ancy a Body of persons appointed by authority to control and protect forests or water-ways, to ensure rivers against pollution &c, esp Thames Conservancy, b official control and preservation of forests and rivers conservation, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Lat conservātion(-em), 'a keeping, preserving', fr conservare. See conserve (I) & -ation a The act or process of conserving, preservation, b specif, conservancy, official protection, superintendence of forests or rivers, c specif (phys) conservation of energy, doctrine that total amount of energy in the universe can neither be increased nor diminished, though it be constantly transformed from one form of energy into another conservatism, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] See next word & -ism a Disposition, tendency, to preserve or maintain what is established, opposition to sudden, ill considered change, b (specif, of political doctrine) principles of the Conservative party conservative, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Fr conservatif, -ive, fr Lat conservāt(-um), PP type of conservare, & -ive See conserve (I) 1 a Having power to preserve, tending to preserve, b attached to, desirous of preserving, existing conditions against sudden innovation, unwilling to change habits and mode of life the British working man is thoroughly conservative in his habits 2 (specif, of political doctrine) Solicitous to preserve the institutions and traditions of the past, where experience has proved their value, opposed to wanton destruction of institutions, to rash change or sudden innovation, Conservative party, English political party favouring the maintenance of existing institutions and forms of government

3 Popular use, conservative estimate, a moderate or cautious estimate, purposely low conservative (II), n a Preservative, that which preserves from injury or change a Person who is conservative in tastes and habits, b (cap) one holding political doctrine of conservatism, member of the Conservative party conservatoire, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] (Engl. Fr pronunciation) Fr, fr Low Lat conservatorium, 'place for conserving and fostering' Variant of conservatory Public academy where instruction is given in music and other arts in France conservator, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Lat, 'protector', See conserve (I) & -ate & -or a A preserver, protector, b official guardian, keeper (of a museum &c), c member of a conservancy conservatory, n [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Variant of conservatoire, fr Low Lat conservatorium See next word a Glass house in which young, tender, or exotic plants are reared and protected from the weather, one in which plants are grown and matured earlier than under purely natural conditions conserve (I), vb trans [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Fr conserver, fr Lat conservare, 'to keep in existence, preserve', fr con- & servare, 'to save, keep, protect', see serve, servile, 'to follow after eagerly', fr con- & sequi, 'to follow eagerly', freq of sequi, 'to follow', & -ary See sequel, sociable (rare) Something which follows logically from something else, a corollary conserve (II), n, fr prec Fr, 'preserved fruit, jam' (often in pl) Preserved, candied fruit, jam consider, vb trans [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun], fr Fr considérer, fr Lat considerare, -atum, 'to look at closely, think of attentively', perh orig a term of astrology or astrology, fr con- & sidus, sidus, 'star', q v under sidereal 1 To turn over in the mind, contemplate carefully, reflect, meditate upon to consider a matter in all its aspects, also absol consider carefully before coming to a decision 2 a (of events, circumstances &c) To have regard to, reckon with, take into consideration there are many points in the argument which have not been considered Phr all things considered, taking everything into account, b (of persons) to show solicitude, consideration for, pay regard to to consider others, the feelings, susceptibilities &c of others 3 a To regard as, deem, set down as to consider a man (to be) a fool, very clever &c, b to hold, be of opinion, come to the conclusion to consider that one has been badly treated considerable, adj [1 kúnsekúðshun, 2 kúnsekúðshun] Prec & -able 1 (of persons) sidereb] Prec & -able 1 (of persons)

Worthy of being considered, noteworthy, important, distinguished, to become a considerable personage 2 (of size, measure, distance, number, amount) Rather large, a considerable weight, heavy, considerable distance, a long way, considerable expense, great cost considerably, adv Prec & -ly Much, a great deal considerably larger, considerably less, much less considerate, adj [1 kunsiderat, 2 kensiderat] consider & -ate Thoughtful for, solicitous, regardful of, given to considering, the feelings of others considerately, adv Prec & -ly In a considerate manner considerateness, n See prec & -ness Thoughtfulness for others consideration, n [1 kunsiderashun, 2 kensiderashun] fr Fr considération, fr Lat consideratio (em) 'contemplation, reflection' consider & -ation 1 Act of considering, careful deliberation, pondering, meditation, reflection to bestow anxious consideration upon, to give (a problem &c) one's careful consideration 2 Fact or thing regarded as being the cause of, or as furnishing a motive for, an action several considerations have weighed with me in coming to a decision, on, under, no consideration could I consent, in consideration of, taking into account in consideration of previous good conduct 3 A compensation, reward, bribe the kind of man who would do anything for a consideration, b (law) in full valuable consideration, act, such as a payment, forbearance from doing something, or promise to do or forbear, offered and accepted as inducement for making a contract, the essential condition of all contracts except those under seal 4 Thoughtfulness, tender solicitude for others, thoughtful regard for to show great consideration for one's friends considered, adj [1 kunsiderd, 2 kensiderd] P P of consider Well thought out, deliberated, thoroughly pondered, weighed, reflected upon to give a considered opinion, judgement considering, prep [1 kunsidering, 2 kensidering] fr Pres Part of consider In view of, taking into account, making allowance for a hearty old man considering his years, (colloq) that's not so bad considering (ie 'the circumstances') consign, vb trans [1 kunsin, 2 kensin], fr Fr consigner, fr Lat consignare, 'to mark with a seal, attest', fr con- & signum, 'a seal or stamp' See sign 1 To hand over, deliver over, commit, entrust to consign a letter to the post, consign something to a person's care, to consign one's soul to God, (fig) to consign something or someone to the Devil 2 (commerce usage) To transmit, send goods specifically addressed, to be delivered to a person or trading company consignable, adj [1 kunsinabl, 2 kensinabl] fr Fr consignable & -able Capable of being consigned, esp in commercial sense consignation, n [1 kunsinashun, 2 kensinashun] Lat consignatio (em), 'a written proof', fr consignat (um) P P type of consignare, & -ion. See consign. Act of consigning goods consignee, n [1 kunsinē, 2 kensinē], fr Fr consigné & -ee Person to whom anything, esp goods, is consigned consignment, n [1 kunsinment, 2 kensinment], fr Fr consign & -ment The act of consigning, b thing consigned, esp (trades men's word) collection of goods for trading, sent to, and received by a trader a new consignment of autumn hats consignor, n [1 kunsinor, 2 kensinor] Fr consign & -or One who consigns, esp in commercial sense consignee, n [1 kunsinē, 2 kensinē] See consignment. Act or fact of consigning, consigning, concurrence consilient, adj [1 kunsilient, 2 kensilient] This compound not found in class Lat, but evidently made on anal of resilire, 'to spring back' (see resilient), fr con- & salire, 'to leap', q v under salient Coincident, concurring consist, vb intrans [1 kunsist, 2 kensist], fr Lat consistere, 'to make to stand, to stop', fr con- & sistere, 'to place' &c, a redupl form of stare, P P statum, 'to stand' See stand (I) & state (I) 1 a (followed by of) To be composed of, be made up of, to have as parts or elements most books consist of several chapters, man consists of body, soul, and spirit, our dinner consisted of three courses only, b (followed by in) to comprise, contain, as an essential ingredient or element happiness consists largely in being easily pleased 2 (followed by with) To be capable of existing with, or alongside of, to be congruous with great learning sometimes consists with remarkable obtuseness consistence, -cy, n [1 kunsistens(t), 2 kensistens(t)] Prec & -ence, -cy 1 A Degree of density, mode in which the elements are arranged the consistency of a pudding, of a liquid, b a dense consistency, solidity train oil has much greater consistence than petrol 2 (always consistency) Quality of being consistent, a (of persons) consequence, capacity of a congruous line of thought, logicity, b (of mental processes and their expression) congruity, relevancy, logical sequence consistent, adj [1 kunsistent, 2 kensistent] consist & -ent 1 (of actions, thoughts &c) Congruous, agreeing with itself or with something else, compatible, in accordance with 2 (of persons) Acting and living in accordance with professed principles consistently, adv Prec & -ly In a consistent manner consistory, n [1 kunsistun, 2 kensistun], fr Fr consistoire, fr L Lat consistorium, 'a place of assembly, place where the council of the Roman Emperor met, the council itself' See consist & -ory (eccles) a Ecclesiastical tribunal or court, composed of the Pope and cardinals, the College of Cardinals, b bishops' ecclesiastical court of a diocese, in English Church, c (Presbyterian Church) body of presbyters, the court next above kirk-session consociate, vb trans & intrans & n [1 kunseshiēt, 2 kenseshiēt], fr Lat consociat (um), P P type of consociare, 'to associate with', fr con- & sociare, 'to associate', fr socius, 'a companion' See social a vb To associate, bring into alliance, unite, b n, an associate (Rare) consoleable, adj [1 kunsolabl, 2 kensolabl] console & -able Capable of being consoled, comforted consolation, n [1 kunsolashun, 2 kensolashun] Fr, fr Lat consolatio (em) See console (I) & -ation 1 The act or fact of consoling, of affording relief in grief or disappointment 2 Something, some act, which affords moral comfort, mitigating fact or circumstance, fact, source, of solace, in grief or disappointment religion was his chief consolation in affliction Phr consolation race, in which those previously unsuccessful compete, consolation prize, given to a competitor who has just missed success consolatory, adj [1 kunsolatun, 2 kensolatun] See prec & -ory Tending to console, of a kind which gives consolation console (I), vb trans [1 kunsol, 2 kensol], fr Fr consoler, fr Lat consolari, 'to comfort greatly', fr con- & solari, 'to comfort' See solace To bring moral comfort to, make amends for, provide means of mitigation in, grief, disappointment, loss console (II), n [1 kunsol, 2 kensol] Fr, 'a bracket', esp in archt Origin doubtful (archt) A bracket supporting a shelf, cornice, window head &c, often in form of a highly carved scroll, and forming part of a general design console table, n One whose top is supported on consoles or carved scrolls, esp a narrow table with such supports, and curved legs, placed as a fixture between windows, or beneath a mirror consolidate, vb trans & intrans [1 kunsolidat, 2 kensolidat], fr Lat consolidat (um), P P type of consolidare, 'to make firm, to make thick', fr con- & solidus, 'firm, solid' See solid A trans 1 a To make strong and solid, (esp fig of non-material things) to establish firmly, assure stability of to consolidate one's power, influence, position in society &c, b (specul mil) to make (a position) safer and easier to hold, strengthen 2 To unite, combine, several things, hitherto distinct and separate, into one (of territories, estates, companies, debts, legal actions) B intrans To become firm, to pass from a liquid to a solid condition consolidated, adj [1 kunsolidatēd, 2 kensolidatēd], fr P P of prec Specif a consolidated annuities, government securities funded, first in 1761, at 3%, now at 2½%, usually known as consols, b Consolidated Fund, fund established in 1787, into which the main part of the revenue is paid, and out of which are paid interest on national debt and charges other than supply charges, voted annually consolidation, n [1 kunsolidashun, 2 kensolidashun] Lat consolidatio (em), 'an establishing of ownership' See consolidate & -ion Act or process of consolidating consols, n pl [1 kunsolz, kensolz, 2 kensolz, kensolz] Short for consolidated annuities British Government stock to put all one's money in consols consomme, n [1 kunsōmā, 2 kēsōmē] Fr, P P of consommer See consommé A clear, rich meat broth or soup consonance, n [1 kōnsōnans, 2 kōnsōnans] Fr consonance, fr Lat consonantia See next word Agreement, congruity consonant (I), adj [1 kōnsōnant, 2 kōnsōnant] Fr, fr Lat consonant (em), Pres Part of consonare, 'to sound with, to harmonize', fr con- & sonare See sonant Agreeing, consistent, in keeping with consonant (II), n, fr prec The name is due to the erroneous view that a consonant can only be sounded along w a vowel 1 (phon) A sound in speech, produced either a by a complete momentary stoppage of the air stream in some part of the mouth cavity, or by the lips, as it passes from the lungs, or b by a partial stoppage or constriction, sufficient to produce a distinct and perceptible friction Those sounds accompanied by complete stoppage are called stops, those occurring during constriction of the mouth passage are variously called open consonants, fricatives, spirants, or continuants 2 (popularly) A letter or symbol which expresses a consonantal sound consonantal, adj [1 kōnsōnantl, 2 kōnsōnantl] Prec & -al Resembling, having the nature and character of, a consonant consort (I), n [1 kōnsort, 2 kōnsōrt] Fr, fr Lat consort (em), consors, 'sharer, comrade', fr con- & sort (em), 'lot, condition' See sort 1 a Dignified term for spouse of either sex, esp of spouse of a royal personage, b specif, the spouse of a reigning monarch, who may be given the title of king-consort, queen consort 2 A ship sailing in company with another for mutual protection consort (II), vb intrans [1 kunsōrt, 2 kensōrt], fr prec a (followed by with) To associate with, frequent company of, b to be congruous, to go well with, he in keeping with pride does not consort well with poverty consortium, n [1 kōnsortium, 2 kōnsōrtium] Lat, 'fellowship, partnership' See consort (I) An agreement between several powers or national banking interests to give joint financial assistance to another power conspicuous, adj [1 kōnspekʃɪk, 2 kōnspekʃɪk] con- & specio Having, belonging to, same species conspicuous, n [1 kōnspekʃus, 2 kōnspekʃus] Lat, 'look, view, power of seeing', fr conspicere (um), P P type of conspicere, 'to look at',

See con- & species a General view, comprehensive survey, b a summary, synopsis conspicuity, n [1 kɒnspekʊti, 2 kɒnspek-juːti] See next word & -ity. Quality of being conspicuous conspicuous, adj [1 kɒnspekʊəs, 2 kɒnspek-juəs], fr Lat conspicu-(us), fr conspicere, 'to look at', & -ous See con- & species 1 Clearly visible, easily seen, standing out from surroundings a conspicuous landmark, several conspicuous errors Phr conspicuous by absence, calling attention by not being where expected 2 (of persons) Remarkable, attracting attention, a by reason of beauty, outstanding qualities of character or intellect conspicuous among a distinguished company, b by some eccentricity of appearance or behaviour to make oneself conspicuous, to behave strangely, noisily &c conspicuously, adv Prec & -ly In a conspicuous manner conspicuousness, n See prec & -ness

Quality of being conspicuous (in any sense) conspiracy, n [1 kɒnspraɪ, 2 kɒnspraɪs] ME, fr Lat conspirat-(um), PP type of conspire, see conspire, & -acy Lat conspiratio means 'a breathing together, agreement, unanimity', hence 'plot' &c 1 The act of conspiring, agreeing to act in common, (gen for a bad purpose) 'sedition, privy conspiracy, and rebellion' 2 An agreement between two or more persons to act in common to effect some unlawful purpose, a plot the Gunpowder Conspiracy Phr conspiracy of silence, (innocent sense) agreement not to comment on or discuss something, esp publicly, (bad sense) determination to hush up what ought to be revealed conspirator, n [1 kɒnspraɪtə, 2 kɒnspraɪ-tə], fr Fr conspirateur, fr Lat conspirat-(um), PP type of conspire, & -or See next word One who conspires, person taking part in a conspiracy conspire, vb intrans & trans [1 kɒnspraɪ, 2 kɒnspraɪs], fr Fr conspire, fr Lat conspire, lit 'to breathe together, harmonize, agree, act in concert; to plot together', fr con- & spire, 'to breathe, blow' See spirant, spirit 1 intrans To join with another, or with others, in secret, to devise means for effecting, and to effect, a particular purpose, esp a crime, and, specif, treason against a person or institution to conspire against the throne, the State 2 trans (rare) To plot together to bring about, devise to conspire a crime conspire, vb trans [1 kɒnspraɪ, 2 kɒnspraɪs], fr Fr conspuer, fr Lat conspuer, 'to spit on', fr con- & spuer, 'to spit', see sputum (very rare) To express strong dislike, detestation of a person or policy, and demand disappearance of former from power and abandonment of latter constable, n [1 kɒnstəbl, 2 kɒnstəbl] ME, fr O Fr conestable, fr Low Lat comes stabuli, 'count of the stable', fr stabulum, 'stable' See count (III) & stable (II) 1 Policeman, also police constable Special constable, one sworn in by the justices of the peace to act on special occasions Phr to outrun the constable, get into debt 2 Special uses a Constable of France, chief officer of the household under the early French kings, later, commander-in-chief of the army, b High Constable of England, a high officer of State, whose office, abolished in 18th cent, has been revived temporarily on special occasions, c Chief Constable, head of the police in a city or a county constabulary, adj & n [1 kɒnstəbʊləri, 2 kɒnstəbʊləri] fr Low Lat constabularius See prec & -ary 1 adj Connected with, consisting of, constables constabulary force 2 n Organized body of police of a city &c constancy, n [1 kɒnstənsi; 2 kɒnstənsi], fr Lat constantia, 'steadfastness, firmness', fr constare See next word Firmness, steadfastness a of purpose, b of affections esp between the sexes constant (I), adj [1 kɒnstənt, 2 kɒnstənt], fr Lat constant-(em), Pres Part of constare, 'to stand firm', fr con- & stare, 'to stand' See stand (I) & state (I) 1 a Continuous, unceasing, continuing constant trouble, noise, complaints, b (esp of external conditions) unvarying, lasting unchanged it is important in scientific experiments that all the conditions should be constant 2 a (of the mind, will, purpose) Firm, steadfast, well established, resolute, determined, b (of affections and inclinations, esp between the sexes) enduring, firmly fixed, unwavering, faithful, contrasted with fickle a constant lover, wife &c, c (also in relation to other objects) constant in one's devotion to learning constant (II), u, fr prec (math and phys) A term, quantity, or factor which does not vary Constantia, n [1 kɒnstənsiə, 2 kɒnstənʃiə] Kind of wine, fr name of a place near Cape Town, South Africa constantly, adv [1 kɒnstəntli, 2 kɒnstəntli] constant (I) & -ly a Continually, continuously to be constantly employed at one job, b frequently, at repeated intervals I am constantly being asked to recommend books on philology constellate, vb trans & intrans [1 kɒnstelət, 2 kɒnsteləst], fr Lat constellatus, 'studded with stars', fr con- & stella, 'a star', & -ate See stellar To form into a constellation, to cluster constellation, n [1 kɒnsteləʃən, 2 kɒnsteləʃən], fr Lat constellatō-(em) Prec & -ion 1 (astron) Grouping of the stars at a person's birth, which was supposed to influence his life and fortunes 2 (astron) a A group of fixed stars, formerly believed to have some relation to, and named after, a mythological personage or animal, b part of the heavens in which such a group occurs, c (fig) group of distinguished persons, as a constellation of genius &c consternation, n [1 kɒnstərnəʃən, 2 kɒnstərnəʃən], fr Lat consternatō-(em), 'dismay, alarm', fr consternat (um), PP type of consternare, 'to stretch upon the ground, over- come, overwhelm with terror, to perplex' Not fr con- & sternere, 'to strew', q v under stratum The source of sternare is doubtful, but it is perh cogn w Gk ptōromai, 'be scared', & O HG stornēn, 'to be thunder-struck' Surprise and alarm, dismay, horror arising from realization of danger or evil constipate, vb trans [1 kɒnstɪpət, 2 kɒnstɪpət], fr Lat con- & stipātum, PP of stipare, 'to pack, press, stuff, cram', cogn w Gk stipho, 'a heap firmly pressed together', Scrt stidyatē, 'becomes hard', & more remotely w Goth stains, 'stones' &c See stipend & stone To render the bowels sluggish or costive (Chiefly in PP) constipation, n [1 kɒnstɪpəʃən, 2 kɒnstɪpəʃən], fr Lat constipatiō (em) Prec & -ion Condition of inactivity of the bowels, in which defaecation is irregular and difficult constituency, n [1 kɒnstɪtʃənsi, 2 kɒnstɪtʃ-ənsi] See next word & -ency 1 a Body of persons who have votes for a parliamentary candidate in a given borough or parliamentary area, b place &c represented in Parliament 2 Body of customers, clients &c constituent (I), adj [1 kɒnstɪtʃənt, 2 kɒnstɪtʃənt], fr Lat constituent (em), Pres Part of constituere See constitute 1 Forming part of, being an element in, helping to compose, whole, component 2 (of electors to Parliament &c) Having power to elect 3 Having power to make or revise a constitution constituent (II), n, fr prec 1 That which constitutes a formative element, composing part 2 a One of the body of electors to Parliament, b a resident voter in a parliamentary district constitute, vb trans [1 kɒnstɪtʃt, 2 kɒnstɪtʃt], fr Lat constitu-(um), PP type of constituere, 'to place or set together, establish, construct', fr con- & statuere, 'to cause to stand, to place, set up' See stand (I) & state (I) 1 To appoint to, give authority to hold (an office or function), make the issue of a writ or patent constitutes a man a peer 2 a To set up by authority, establish to constitute an acting committee, b to enact, bring into force (a law &c) 3 To compose, make up, go to the making of, form (esp in non-material sense) her vivacity constitutes her main charm, I am not so constituted that I can accept insults lying down constitution, n [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃən, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃən] Fr, fr Lat constitutō-(em), 'constitution, disposition, nature' See prec & -ion 1 The act or process of constituting, appointing, establishing, enacting &c 2 Structure, fabric, mode in which, aggregate of elements of which, anything is composed 3 a The sum of bodily qualities and functions in an individual, esp those inherited from his forebears, which determine his general health, power of resisting disease, prospects of reaching old age &c a good, strong, poor &c constitution, b sum of intellectual and spiritual characteristics which determine an individual's general moral character and mental powers the constitution of one's mind and character 4 (polit) a The body of written laws, and unwritten customs, embodying the principles which underlie and determine the mode of government of a nation, State, or society, b mode of organization of a society, institution, association 5 (hist) Decree, ordinance, enacted by authority, esp one governing ecclesiastical matters the Constitution of Glarendon constitutional (I), adj [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəl, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəl] Prec & -al 1 Inherent in, arising from, connected with, affecting, the physical or mental constitution a constitutional weakness, ailment, peculiarity &c 2 Pertaining to, derived from, in accordance with, the constitution of a State, society &c constitutional powers, constitutional government, law, constitutional monarch, one who rules subject to and whose powers are limited by the constitution constitutional (II), n, fr prec A walk, exercise, esp for the sake of one's health

constitutionalism, n [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlɪzəm, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlɪzəm] constitutional (I) & -ism a System of government by a constitution, b adherence in practice to the principles of a constitution, c doctrine that constitutional government is the best form constitutionalist, n [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlɪst, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlɪst] See prec & -ist a One who adheres strictly to the principles of a given constitution, b a believer in constitutionalism constitutionalize, vb trans [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlaɪz, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəlaɪz] See prec & -ize To give a political constitution to, make constitutional constitutionally, adv [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəli, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊʃənəli] constitutional & -ly In accordance with the or a (political) constitution constitutive, adj [1 kɒnstɪtʃʊtɪv, 2 kɒnstɪtʃʊtɪv] constitute & -ive Having power to constitute, establish, enact, constitute constrain, vb trans [1 kənstreɪn, 2 kənstreɪn] ME constrainen, fr O Fr constrindre, fr Lat stringere, 'to draw or bind together, to fetter, restrain', fr con- & stringere, 'to bind, tie' See strain (I) a To bring influence, pressure, force, to bear upon a person, use compulsion towards a person in order to get him to do something, b (in pass) to be, feel, constrained to, to be, feel compelled constrained, adj [1 kənstreɪnd, 2 kənstreɪnd] PP of prec (of manner) Embarassed, self-conscious, reverse of easy a constrained manner

constrainedly, adv [1 kənstreɪndli, 2 kənstreɪndli], fr prec & -ly In a constrained manner constraint, n [1 kunstránt, 2 kənstrént], fr O Fr contrainte. See constrain 1 Compulsion to act under constraint 2 Self-consciousness, awkwardness of manner, embarrassment to feel, show, constraint constrict, vb trans [1 kunstríkt, 2 kənstríkt], fr Lat constrict (um), P P type of constringere. See constrain To draw together, contract, compress, cramp constricted, adj [1 kunstríktid, 2 kənstríktid] P P of prec a Narrowed, drawn together, b (of moral conditions) cramped, limited a constricted outlook constriction, n [1 kunstríktshun; 2 kənstríktshən] See constrict & -ion a Compression, drawing together, b sensation of tightness constriction of the chest constrictive, adj [1 kunstríktiv, 2 kənstríktiv] See prec & -ive Tending to constrict constrictor, n [1 kunstríktér, 2 kənstríktér] See prec & -or 1 (anat) Muscle that constricts, narrows, or closes an orifice, or which compresses an organ of the body 2 Serpent which kills its prey by crushing it in its folds, cp boa constrictor constricte, vb trans [1 kunstríkt, 2 kənstríkt], fr Lat constringere See constrain To constrict, contract, to cause to contract constringency, n [1 kunstríngens, 2 kənstríng(ə)ns] See next word & -cy Act or process of constringing constringent, adj [1 kunstríngent, 2 kənstríng(ə)nt] Lat constringent (em), Pres Part of constringere See constrain Tending to constrict, causing constriction construct, vb trans [1 kunstríkt, 2 kənstríkt], fr Lat construct (um), P P type of construere, 'to heap or pile together, to build', fr con- & struere, 'to pile up, build' See structure a (of material things) To put and fit together separate objects, elements, materials in such a manner, and according to such a design, as to produce a new thing, having a definite shape, and adapted for a desired purpose, to build, form to construct a house, shed, bridge, engine &c, b (of non material things) to design, plan out, frame, make, some rational and coherent unity from a number of thoughts and ideas to construct a theory, an argument, a sentence, the plot of a novel or play &c construction, n [1 kunstríktshun, 2 kənstríktshən], fr Lat construction (em), 'a joining together, a building, fit connexion in discourse' construct & -ion 1 The act or process of constructing the construction of a bridge is a slow process 2 Some material thing constructed or built o fimsy, solid, beautiful, construction 3 (gram) Syntactic arrangement and relation of words in a sentence the absolute construction in Latin & Interpretation, explanation, meaning esp to give a good, bad, construction on (words conduct &c) constructional, adj [1 kunstríktshunál, 2 kənstríktshunál] Prec & -al. Relating to, arising from, the mode of construction a constructional defect (in a building, play &c) constructive, adj [1 kunstríktiv, 2 kənstríktiv] construct & -ive 1 a (of persons) Able to construct, possessing faculty of construction, b (of things) resulting from construction, displaying ability to construct on part of the maker, c (of mental action) tending to build up something new, formative, creative 2 Pertaining to the structure of a building structural 3 Not directly expressed but depending on interpretation and inference based on this, constructive crime, an act held to imply criminality, and the commission of a crime, though not in itself a criminal act constructively, adv Prec & -ly In a constructive manner constructor, n [1 kunstríktér, 2 kənstríktér] construct & -or One who constructs construe, vb trans & intrans [1 kunstrú, 2 kəstrú] ME construe, fr Lat construere, 'to build up, set in order', is used in present-day sense, to construe a clause, occurs in 'Piers Plowman' A doublet of construct 1 trans a To analyse a clause or sentence closely, so as to bring out the syntactic structure, b to do this for a foreign language by rendering its constructions into a more familiar language, to translate 2 intrans a To carry out the process of construing he knows his Latin grammar indifferently, and cannot construe easily, b to admit of this process, to be capable of being construed the sentence does not construe 3 (fig) trans To place an interpretation upon words or actions, understand them to have a certain meaning a quite innocent remark was unfairly construed and aroused suspicion consubstantial, adj [1 kənsəbstənshəl, 2 kənsəbstənshəl] con- & substantial Having the same substance Theological expression used especially of the Persons of the Holy Trinity consubstantiality, n [1 kənsəbstənshəlít, 2 kənsəbstənshəlít] Prec & -ity State of being consubstantial consubstantiate, vb intrans & trans [1 kənsəbstənshíet, 2 kənsəbstənshíet] con- & substantiate a To unite, b to cause to unite in one common substance consubstantiation, n [1 kənsəbstənshíetshun, 2 kənsəbstənshíetshən] Prec & -ion (theol) The doctrine that after consecration of the elements in the Eucharist, the substance of these exists alongside of that of Christ's body and blood custom, n [1 kənswítud, 2 kənswítud] O Fr, Mod Fr consuetude, fr Lat consuetudo, consuetudinis, 'custom', fr consuetum, P P type of consuere, 'to accustom, to be accustomed', fr con- & suere (um), P P of suere, suere, 'to be wont, to accustom oneself', & -tude The vb meant orig 'to make one's own', fr a base sue* &c, 'own', op Gk ethos, 'custom, habit', fr sueðh*, Lat suere may actually be fr sueðh* ko Op further Lat suavis, fr sueðh*, 'mate, companion, intimate', & Goth sweis, 'own', odj, O E sweð, 'own, own dear' &c, & Lat suus, 'own', fr suos*, O Slav svoy, 'one's own' See also suu, & op desuetude Custom, usage, habit customary, adj & n [1 kənswítudínarí, 2 kənswítudínarí] Lat consuetudinarius See prec & -ary 1 adj Customary customary law 2 n A manual of customary observances, ritual &c consul, n [1 kənsəl, 2 kənsəl] Lat The etymol. is very uncertain, but the word is perh. connected w consilium, 'a council', see counsel & consult 1 (Roman hist) The title of the two chief magistrates of the Roman Republic, elected annually Hence, 2 (Fr hist) the title of the three chief magistrates of the French Republic (1799-1804) 3 A person appointed by a State to look after matters connected with its commercial affairs, and those of its subjects, in a foreign country consular, adj [1 kənsulár, 2 kənsulár] fr Lat consularis Of or pertaining to a consul, or a consul's duties consulate, n [1 kənsulát, 2 kənsulát] fr Lat consulatus, 'the office of consul' 1 a Office of a consul, b period of tenure of a consular post, c house, or building, in which a consul conducts his official business, often a consul's residence 2 Specif, period during which consular government lasted in France (1799-1804) consulship, n [1 kənsulshíp, 2 kənsulshíp] See consul & -ship a The post of consul, b period during which this is held consult, vb trans & intrans [1 kənsult, 2 kənsult] fr Lat consultare, reflect, consider maturely, take counsel, deliberate, pay regard to, fr consul (um), P P of consultare, 'to consider, reflect, take counsel, to ask the opinion or advice of' Wolfe suggests that the word orig meant 'to assemble, bring together', & that the sense of 'to consider' arose fr the use of the Phr consultare senatum, 'to summon the senate' If this be so, the vb consultare is fr con- & the base seen in Gk helein, 'to take', O Ir eelh, 'possession', Goth sohan, 'to give', see sell, & cp consul 1 trans a To seek information or advice from (a person or other source of information) to consult a doctor, one's friends, a dictionary &c, b to consider, pay regard to, show solicitude for to consult one's own interests, the feelings, convenience, of oneself or another 2 intrans To deliberate, confer, with another I can't decide finally until I have consulted about the matter consultant, n [1 kənsultánt, 2 kənsultánt], fr Lat consultant (em), Pres Part of consultare. See consult 1 One who consults another 2 A consulting physician consultation, n [1 kənsultáshun, 2 kənsultáshən], fr Lat consultation (em), deliberation, consideration, an inquiry, fr consultare. See consult & -ation 1 The act of consulting 2 Deliberation, a meeting of two or more persons to deliberate on a matter, a conference, e g of doctors upon a puzzling case consultative, adj [1 kənsultatív, 2 kənsultatív] fr Lat consultat (um), P P type of consultare, & -ive Having function of giving advice when consulted, advisory a consultative committee consulting, adj [1 kənsultíng, 2 kənsultíng], fr Pres Part of consult (of persons) Possessing expert scientific or technical knowledge, and acting in advisory capacity in different cases which require special handling and treatment consulting surgeon, engineer consume, vb trans & intrans [1 kənsúm, 2 kənsúm], fr Lat consumere, 'to take up, use up, eat, devour, waste, squander, destroy', con- & sumere, 'to take up, lay hold of', wh is itself fr sub-umere*, 'to take, receive, obtain', q v undert sub- & exempt A trans 1 a To do away, destroy, cause to disappear (material objects) the flames consumed the whole building, b (fig) to squander, waste, fritter away, use up to consume one's fortune, one's life, time 2 To take to oneself, receive into one's system, eat, devour he consumed the best part of a leg of mutton at a sitting 3 (of action on mind and feelings) To penetrate deeply, possess entirely, absorb the mental or emotional faculties (esp in pass constructions) to be consumed with envy, hatred, excitement &c B intrans (gen followed by away) To waste away, undergo dissolution or destruction to consume away with grief consumedly, adv [1 kənsúmmedli, 2 kənsúmmedli] Prec & -ed & -ly To an extreme or excessive degree (archaic) consumer, n [1 kənsúmer, 2 kənsúmer] consume & -er One that consumes; specif (econ) one who uses economic material, contrasted with producer consummate (I), vb trans [1 kənsúmát, 2 kənsúmát], fr Lat consummāt (um), P P type of consummare, 'to accomplish, finish, complete, make perfect', fr con- & summus, 'highest, topmost, utmost' See summit a To bring to completion or perfection, to accomplish, complete, finish, b specif, to complete (marriage) physically consummate (II), adj [1 kənsúmát, 2 kənsúmát], fr Lat consummātum, P P of consummare. See prec Brought to the last point of perfection, complete consummate skill, taste &c, a consummate master of his craft &c consummately, adv Prec & -ly Completely, perfectly, to a point of perfection consummation, n [1 kənsúmáshun, 2 kənsúmáshən], fr Lat consummation (em), 'an ending, completing' See consummate (I) & -ion, op Fr consumation a Completion (of a work), attainment (of object desired and aimed at), b specif, physical completion of a marriage continuation, n [1 kantunúshum, 2 kantunúshum] Lat continuatio (em), 'an unbroken series', fr continuati (um), PP type of continuare, & -ion See continuo 1 A Act of continuing, b state of being continued 2 Unbroken existence, prolongation, continuance, a (of action) the further continuation of misrule must be prevented, b (of a state, system &c) the continuation of the good health of the army must be secured, the continuation of the monarchy in the direct line 3 A Resumption, carrying further towards completion after an interruption the continuation of the subject will be proceeded with in the next lecture, b the part of anything which follows the earlier instalments and forms part of the completion, sequel, further instalment the next number of the magazine will contain a continuation of the story 4 Something added to another thing as an extension or prolongation, eg to build a continuation to a room, the continuations of riding breeches, that part below the knee which is worn inside the boots or gaiters continuative, adj [1 kantunúshuv, 2 kantunúshuv] fr Lat continuativus, 'serving to connect the discourse' See prec & -ive Expressing continuance, specif (gram) serving to connect the parts of a sentence continue, vb intrans & trans [1 kantunú, 2 kantunú] fr Lat continuare, 'to make continuous, to join, connect', fr continui (ue), 'holding together, unbroken', fr continere, 'to hold together, bind, connect', fr con- & tenere, 'to hold' See tenable A intrans 1 To go on, extend, be prolonged, reach this path continues for miles 2 To remain in existence, last, persist, a (of a state or condition) lawlessness continued for years, b (of an action or process) to be carried out during a period of time, to be prolonged the king's reign continued, (of persons) c to persist in, maintain, a course of action or line of conduct to continue in the faith of one's fathers, in well-doing, d to remain at or in a place, position, office &c to continue in power, in command, at one's post &c, e to remain in a frame of mind, or state of body to continue obdurate, continue ailing 3 (of persons and things, followed by an infin) To keep up certain course of action or movement unbrokenly, or repeatedly at frequent intervals, to go on doing something he continued to live at home, he continued to cause his parents grief anxiously, 'the door continued to bang all night'

B trans
1 A To keep on with, prolong duration of anything his father continued his allowance for several years, b to pursue farther, extend to continue one's walk for several miles 2 To take up again, and go on doing, something the carrying on of which has been interrupted, to resume to continue one's remarks from where one left off, to continue a story in the following number of a magazine 3 To allow to remain, retain, in a post to continue an old servant in office continuity, n [1 kantunúti, 2 kantunúti] Lat continuitas (em), cp fr continuité See prec & -ity A Quality or state of being continuous, b unbroken series, succession, c close proximity in space, cohesion, d close relationship, logical sequence, of ideas continuous, adj [1 kantunúas, 2 kantunúas] fr Lat continuus, 'joining or connecting with something, hanging together (in space or time), uninterrupted, unbroken' See continuo & -ous A (of events) Occurring in an unbroken sequence a continuous series of calamities, b (of actions or processes) going on without intermission or cessation continuous laughter, coughing, continuous development, eruption &c continuously, adv prec & -ly In a continuous manner, without cessation continuouslyness, n See prec & -ness State or fact of being continuous continuum, n [1 kantunúum, 2 kantunúum] Lat neut form of continuus, see continuous

A whole, the structure of whose parts is continuous and not atomic, see also space-time confine, n [1 kántlin, 2 kántlain] Etymol obscure Space a between the strands of a rope, b between casks stowed side by side contorniate, n & adj [1 kántorniat, 2 kántorniat] fr Ital contorniato, PP of contorniare, 'to make a circuit or outline', fr contorno, 'circuit, outline' See con-, tour & turn (numis) a n Bronze medal with a deep furrow round the edge, b adj, having a furrow of this kind contort, vb trans [1 kántort, 2 kántort] fr Lat contorti (um), PP type of contorquere, 'to twist' See con- & tort To twist, pull awry, to distort, a (esp of muscular action) to contort one's features, limbs &c, b (fig) to wrest a word or expression from its ordinary meaning contorted, adj [1 kántorted, 2 kántorted] fr PP of prec Unnaturally twisted, twisted, pulled, awry contortion, n [1 kántorshun, 2 kántorshun] fr Lat contorsio (em), 'a whirling round, intertwining' contort & -ion The act of contorting, twisting awry, distortion, esp of face or body contortionist, n [1 kántorshunist, 2 kántorshunist] prec & -ist An acrobat who twists his body and limbs into unnatural postures contour (I), n [1 kántoor, 2 kántue] Fr, 'outline', fr contourner See con- & tour 'a The outline of a surface, b lines or colours representing this on a map or painting Also attrib Contour line, a line, esp one drawn or shaded on a map, connecting the points of a surface having the same elevation, as of a mountain Contour map, one which shows contours of surface of a given area contour (II), vb trans, fr prec 'a To indicate a contour of, by lines, shading, or colour, b to serve as a contour for contouring, adj [1 kántorshun, 2 kántorshun] Fr, PP of contourner, 'to turn, twist' Cp contour (her) Turned about (of an animal facing sinister side of shield) contra-, ptef Lat, 'over against, facing' In compounds expresses hostile opposition From con-, w compar suff, as in Lat alter, fr divus 'other', op -ther Against, (mus) opposite to contra, adv, prep & n [1 kontra, 2 kontra] See prec A adv To the contrary pro and contra, b prep, against, in opposition to, c n, a contrary vote, opinion &c pro & contra Gen abbrev con contra-account, n A Opposite, credit side of an account, b account, bill which can be set against another's account or bill contraband, n & adj [1 kóntraband, 2 kóntraband] Fr contrabande, Ital contrabando, fr contra- & bando, 'ban, edict' See ban (II) 1 n A Illicit trading, smuggling, b goods bought or sold in contravention of excise laws, c contraband of war, goods which during war time may not be supplied by neutrals to belligerents 2 adj Forbidden by law, (of merchandise) contraband goods, trade contrabandist, n [1 kóntrabandist, 2 kóntrabandist] fr Span contrabandista, cp prec, & -ist A trafficker in contraband goods, a smuggler contrabass, n [1 kóntrabás, 2 kóntrabás] See contra- & bass (I) (mus) Largest and deepest-toned instrument of the viol kind, double-bass conception, n [1 kóntrasépsun, 2 kóntrasépsun] Formed fr con- & ception Practice, method, of preventing or avoiding conception, birth control conceptive, adj & n [1 kóntraséptiv, 2 kóntraséptiv] See prec & -ive A adj Preventing conception, b n, device, drug &c for preventing conception contract (I), n [1 kóntrakt, 2 kóntrakt] O Fr contract, Fr contract, Lat contractus, 'an agreement', fr PP of contrahere, 'to draw together, to conclude a bargain' &c

See con- & tract 1 A An agreement of a solemn and binding character between two (or more) parties or states &c to do or not to do something, b a bargain or compact (in business matters &c) respecting work to be done, goods to be supplied &c, at a fixed price &c, c the work carried out under a contract, d any agreement, undertaking, promise &c between private persons 2 Specif a a formal act whereby two persons enter upon marriage relation, b betrothal 3 Document embodying the terms of an agreement or contract 4 Also contract bridge, a form of the game of bridge, a modification of auction bridge contract (II), vb trans & intrans [1 kóntrakt, 2 kóntrakt] fr Lat contract (um), PP type of contrahere, 'to draw together, collect, draw close, tighten, shorten, a bridge, contract, draw in, restrain' See prec For further meanings in Lat see next word A trans 1 A To draw up, brace, tighten to contract a muscle, b to cause to wrinkle, to knit together to contract one's forehead, eyebrows &c 2 To limit, reduce in size or length, a to abridge, put into smaller compass to contract what one has to say into a short space (rare or obs), b to narrow, cause to shrink, diminish mental capacity to contract one's mind, faculties, by disease, c (gram) to shorten, abbreviate, a word by leaving out letter or syllable, a sentence by omission of a word

3 A To take, acquire, catch to contract a disease, a habit, b to incur, become liable for to contract debts, responsibilities B intrans 1 To draw together, shrink, become smaller in bulk, more compact (opposite of swell, dilate) wood contracts as it dries, the heart contracts by muscular action contract (III), vb trans & intrans Same as prec in origin, but almost completely isolated fr it in meaning, being connected w contract (I), its usage being derived fr a further sense of Lat contrahere (PP contractum), 'to make a contract, conclude a bargain' 1 trans To enter into relations with another person, state &c, which are a based upon a formal contract, eg to contract an alliance, a marriage (with), b (1) to establish a bond of union with another person based upon agreement in feeling, tastes &c, (u) to establish, strike up to contract a friendship for or with a person, (u) (in pass) to be contracted to, to be betrothed to 2 intrans To enter into an agreement, make a contract or bargain to do something to contract to allow goods to pass into a country on certain terms, to contract to build a bridge for ten thousand pounds Contract out of (an agreement &c), to free oneself from its terms, undertakings, and restrictions contracted, adj [1 kóntrákted, 2 kóntrákted] fr PP of contract (II) A Drawn together, wrinkled a contracted brow, b (gram) shortened, by omission of letters or syllables, c (of the mind, ideas, &c) narrow, limited, illiberal contractile, adj [1 kóntráktíl, 2 kóntráktíl] fr contract (II) & -ile A tending to contract, having the power of contracting, capable of contraction, producing contraction contractile tissue &c, b specif (of wings of insects) capable of being folded close to the body contractility, n [1 kóntráktílit, 2 kóntráktílit] fr contractile See prec & -ity The quality or power of contracting or shrinking, esp of living muscle &c contraction, n [1 kóntráktshun, 2 kóntráktshun] fr Lat contraction (em), 'a drawing together' See contract (II) & -ion together 1 A Process of contracting, shrinkage, drawing of iron in cold, b shortening, drawing up of a muscle &c, c of the eyebrows, c shortening of a word by omission of syllable or syllables, or of letters in written form, d form of word so shortened 2 Process a of acquiring disease &c; b of incurring liabilities &c contractive, adj [1 kɒntraktɪv, 2 kəntraktɪv] contract (II) & -ive Tending to contract, having the function of contracting contractor, n [1 kɒntraktər, 2 kəntraktər] 1 (fr contract (III) & -or) a One who makes, enters into, a contract, specif b one who contracts to carry out building or engineering operations &c on specified terms, c one who undertakes to supply goods according to terms of a contract army clothing contractor &c 2 (fr contract (II), physiol) Muscle that contracts contractual, adj [1 kɒntraktʃʊəl, 2 kəntraktʃʊəl] contract (I) & -al Op Fr contractuel Having the character of a legal contract fracture, n [1 kɒntraktʃər, 2 kəntraktʃər], fr Lat fractura, 'a drawing together', (esp in archit) 'a contracting of a pillar' Cp Fr fracture See contract (II) & -ure 1 (med) A state of permanent contraction of the muscles 2 (archit) Tapering of a column contradict, vb trans [1 kɒntrædɪkt, 2 kəntrædɪkt], fr Lat contradict (um), P.P of contradicere, 'to speak against' See contra- & diction 1 a To deny the truth of, assert the opposite of, a statement to contradict a report, statement &c b to assert the contrary of what a person says, to gainsay him, to deny the words of (a person) 2 (of what is asserted) To be inconsistent with, opposed to the two accounts contradict each other contradiction, n [1 kɒntrædɪkʃən, 2 kəntrædɪkʃən], fr Lat contradictio (em), 'a reply, counter argument' See contra- & diction 1 a Act of contradicting, b an assertion which contradicts another, denial, opposition 2 Inconsistency, incompatibility, fact of being contradictory (of acts, occurrences, statements) Phr contradiction in terms, statement which contradicts itself contradictory, adj [1 kɒntrædɪktɔəri, 2 kəntrædɪktɔəri] contradict & -ious a (of persons) Fond of contradicting, inclined to contradict, capious, b (of style of conversation) full of contradiction, of denial of truth of statements made by others contradictiously, adv Free & -ly In a contradicting, eviling manner contradictiousness, n See pre- & -ness Fact or state of being contradictory contradictorily, adv [1 kɒntrædɪktɔəri, 2 kəntrædɪktɔəri] contradictory & -ly In a contradictory manner contradictoriness, n [1 kɒntrædɪktɔəri, 2 kəntrædɪktɔəri] Next word & -ness Quality of being contradictory contradictory, adj & n [1 kɒntrædɪktɔəri, 2 kəntrædɪktɔəri], fr L Lat contradictorius, 'containing an objection or contradiction' See contradict & -ory 1 adj Tending to contradict, containing, involving, contradiction, logically opposed or inconsistent contradictory statements 2 n a An assertion, proposition, which denies, b a thing which is opposed to another contradistinction, n [1 kɒntrædɪstɪŋkʃən, 2 kəntrædɪstɪŋkʃən] contra- & distinction Distinction by contrast, esp in Phr in contradistinction from contradistinguish, vb trans [1 kɒntrædɪstɪŋgɪʃ, 2 kəntrædɪstɪŋgɪʃ], fr contra- & distinguish To distinguish things from one another by contrasting them contralto, n & adj [1 kɒntræltə, 2 kəntræltə] contra- & alto 1 n (mus) a The part sung by the highest male or lowest female voices (usually the latter), between tenor and soprano, b female voice of deep tone and quality, c woman with a voice of this kind 2 adj (mus) Of or pertaining to, having quality of, contralto contralto voice contraposition, n [1 kɒntrəpəzɪʃən, 2 kəntrəpəzɪʃən], fr contra- & position 1 Opposition, contrast antithesis 2 (log) Also called immediate inference, a g every Jew is an Oriental, therefore no non-Oriental is a Jew contraption, n [1 kɒntrəpʃən, 2 kəntrəpʃən] Manufactured word (colloq) A contrivance, a new-fangled device (term of contempt) contrapuntal, adj [1 kɒntrəpʊntəl, 2 kəntrəpʊntəl], fr Ital contrappunto, 'counter point', & -al See counterpoint (mus) contrapuntist, n [1 kɒntrəpʊntɪst, 2 kəntrəpʊntɪst], fr Ital contrappuntista See pro- & -ist (mus) One skilled in counterpoint contrariant, adj [1 kɒntrəɪənt, 2 kəntrəɪənt], fr O Fr, fr L Lat contrariatus, 'to oppose', fr Lat contrarius See contrary Opposed, contrary to (Rare) contrariety, n [1 kɒntrəɪəti, 2 kəntrəɪəti], fr O Fr contrariété, fr L Lat contrarietas (em), 'opposition', fr contrarius See contrary a Opposition, antagonism, b an inconsistency, discrepancy contrarily, adv [1 kɒntrəɪəli, 2 kəntrəɪəli], fr contrary (I) & -ly (colloq) In a contrary manner, perversely contrariness, n [1 kɒntrəɪəni, 2 kəntrəɪəni] See pre- & -ness (colloq) Perverseness, perversity contrarious, adj [1 kɒntrəɪəs, 2 kəntrəɪəs], fr O Fr contrarius, L Lat contrarius, fr contrarius See contrary & -ous (archaic or obsolete) a (of persons) Contrary, perverse, b (of things) adverse, unfavourable contrariwise, adv [1 kɒntrəɪwɪz, 2 kəntrəɪwɪz], popularly [1 kɒntrəɪwɪz, 2 kəntrəɪwɪz], fr next word & -wise a On the contrary, on the other hand, b in the opposite direction, manner, conversely, c perversely, contrarily contrary (I), adj [1 kɒntrəri, 2 kɒntrəri] fr O Fr contrarie, fr Lat contrarius, (of places) 'lying over against, opposite', (of other objects) 'opposed' See contra- & -ary 1 In opposition to, contradicted by, having an opposite tendency or character contrary to all experience, contrary to custom and tradition 2 a Opposed to one's interests contrary to one's hopes, wishes &c b unfavourable contrary weather &c 3 Opposite in direction 4 (log) Contrary propositions, those which are mutually exclusive, contrary terms, extreme opposites within the same class, e g hot and cold 5 (colloq) [1 kɒntrəri, 2 kəntrəri] Perverse, cantankerous, given to making difficulties (of persons and their dispositions) contrary (II), n fr pre- 1 The contrary, the exact opposite Phrs on the contrary, on the other hand (esp emphasizing a denial), to the contrary, to the opposite effect (contradicting something that has been said, assumed, arranged &c) unless I hear to the contrary 2 Object, fact, or quality that is the exact opposite of something else (often in pl) Phr by contraries, by way of opposition, contrary to expectation 3 (log) A contrary term or proposition contrary (III), adv See pre- In opposition to, against to act, go, contrary to one's interests &c contrast (I), vb trans & intrans [1 kɒntræst, 2 kəntræst], fr Fr contraster, Ital contrastare, 'to oppose', fr Lat contra (see contra-) & stare, 'to stand' See stand (I), state (I) 1 trans To compare objects or ideas with others in such a way as to put into relief the differences in quality or character exhibited severally by the things or ideas compared. The word is often used rhetorically to indicate that one thing compares unfavourably with another contrast the character of Charles I with that of Cromwell 2 intrans To form a contrast, to show a distinct difference when compared with something else the bright green of the larch in spring contrasts agreeably with the sombre green of the yew contrast (II), n [1 kɒntræst, 2 kəntræst] Fr contrast, fr Ital contrasto See pre- a Differences observable between objects or ideas when these are compared, b the objects &c which exhibit such differences, c act of contrasting, of placing side by side objects or qualities in such a way as to cause the differences between them to tell Contrast is often established between objects or qualities belonging to some general class, e g colours, sensations &c contrate, adj [1 kɒntrət, 2 kɒntrət] See contra- & -ate (lit) Opposite, specif (horol) designating one of the wheels in the works of a watch, which has the teeth at right angles to its surface contravallation, n [1 kɒntrəvələʃən, 2 kəntrəvələʃən], fr Fr contravallation fr contra- & Low Lat vallatio (em), 'an intrenchment', akin to vallare, 'to surround with a rampart', op vallum, 'a rampart', see vallum, ong an earth wall set with palisades, also vallus, 'a stake', all cogn w Goth vallus, 'a staff', & ultimately w OE weall, q 'under wall' Series of trenches or other fortifications thrown up round a beleaguered place by the besieging force contravene, vb trans [1 kɒntrəveɪn, 2 kəntrəveɪn] Fr contravene, L Lat contravenire, 'to oppose', fr contra- & venire, 'to come' The latter is for older *g'emjō & is cogn w Goth luisman, OE cuman See venue & come 1 To go against, act contrary to, infringe contravene a law &c 2 a To oppose, attack, contradict, dispute (a statement, principle), b to conflict with (of facts or events) contravention, n [1 kɒntrəveɪʃən, 2 kəntrəveɪʃən], fr contra- & venire (um), P.P of venire, 'to come' & -ion See pre- Act of contravening, infringement, violation contratempus, n [1 kɒntrətemp, 2 kɒntrətemp] Fr, 'mishep', fr contra (Lat contra-) & tempus, 'time' See tempus An unlucky or untoward accident, an inopportune or embarrassing occurrence, a hitch contribute, vb trans & intrans [1 kɒntribjūt, 2 kəntribjūt], fr Lat contribuere (um), P.P type of contribuere, 'to bring together, to add, join' See con- & tribute A trans 1 To give, furnish, money, supplies or other help, esp to a common fund for charitable, pious, patriotic purposes &c to contribute time and money to relieving the poor 2 a To furnish, supply, help of an intellectual kind to contribute suggestions, ideas, b to add to knowledge by research to contribute new information 3 To write and get ready (literary productions) for the press to contribute articles to scientific journals B intrans 1 (of persons) To contribute to, to give to a common stock, fund &c 2 To contribute to a newspaper &c, to write articles &c for publication in it 3 To have a share in, help to bring about, be partly responsible for didn't contribute to his downfall contribution, n [1 kɒntribjʊʃən, 2 kəntribjʊʃən] Fr, fr Lat contributio (em) See pre- & -ion 1 a The act of contributing, b that which is contributed (in all senses) 2 Tax imposed for support of an army, esp on inhabitants of occupied territory for maintenance of army in the field Phr to lay under contribution, subject to such a tax contributor, n [1 kɒntribjʊtər, 2 kəntribjʊtər] See contribute & -or One who contributes, a by giving money &c for a specific object, b by sending articles to journals, specif, one who habitually writes for the same journal contributory, adj [1 kɒntribjʊtəri, 2 kəntribjʊtəri] contribute & -ory a Connected with contribution, or contributors, b having character of a contributor, or a contribution, c based on, involving, contributions a contributory scheme of insurance, one to which the beneficiaries contribute contrite, adj [1 kɒntrɪt, 2 kɒntrɪt], archaic and poet [1 kɒntrɪt, 2 kɒntrɪt] fr Fr contrit, Lat contritus, 'bruised', P.P of contrere, 'to grind, bruise' See con- & trite 1 Broken in spirit, having a sense of sin, deeply sorrowful for sin, penitent 'A contrite heart' (Psalm li) 2 (of actions) Showing a contrite spirit, proceeding from remorse for sin contritely, adv. Preo & -ly In a contrite manner or spirit, with contrition.

contriteness, n See preo & -ness Contrition, state in which contrition is felt contrition, n [1 kuntrishun, 2 kuntrishən] Fr, fr Lat contritio(-em), 'a grinding'

See preo & -ion State of being contrite, genuine sorrow for sin as displeasing to God, contrasted with the inferior state of attrition contrivance, n [1 kuntrivans, 2 kuntrivəns] Next word & -ance 1 Act of contriving, planning, devising by his contrivance 2 A thing contrived, a a plan, artful scheme, project, artifice, device, b an invention, mechanical device contrive, vb trans & intrans [1 kuntriv, kuntriv], ME contrive, -trove, -treve, fr O Fr contriver, Fr contriver, fr con- & O Fr trover, 'to find' See con- & trover 1 trans To fashion, make by using ingenuity or skill, to invent, devise, plan to contrive a hidden post of observation, to contrive a meal against poison gas 2 intrans To bring about, effect, manage to do, something, a (implying achievement after effort) he contrived to arrive in time after all, b (implying misdirected effort) he contrived to make a mess of the whole thing, c specific (colloq) to manage household affairs cleverly and economically, Phr to cut and contrive, to make a small income suffice by careful management, d to scheme, plan control (I), n [1 kuntról, 2 kuntról], fr Fr contrôle for contrôle, 'copy of a roll, a counter register, scrutiny', fr Lat contra- & rotulus, 'a roll' See roll (I)

1. (of moral influence) a Power, authority to direct and govern, superintendence parental control, b restraint, discipline, means of restraint, check, curb. beyond control, out of control, c physical and mechanical guidance, direction & of machines, e.g. pl, controls, means whereby machines are directed 2 A standard for comparing and testing, means of checking and verifying inferences deduced from experiment, also attrib a control experiment 3 (spirit) A spirit supposed to direct the utterances and actions of the medium control (II), vb trans, fr Fr contrôler, fr O Fr contrôller, 'to keep copy of roll of accounts', fr contrôle, 'counter register'

See preo 1 To check, regulate, esp of financial affairs, e.g. expenditure, payments, accounts &c 2 To dominate, command, curb, hold in check, a oneself and others, b passions, thoughts, emotions &c 3 To test, verify, by comparison with recognized authority or standard (French usage, hardly fully naturalized, though used in English) controllable, adj [1 kuntrólabl, 2 kuntrólabl] Preo & -able Able to be controlled controller, also comptroller, n [1 kuntróler, 2 kuntróler] See preo & -er The alternative spelling is due to confusion w. Fr comptier, 'to reckon', & obs Fr compte, n, see count (I) 1 One who controls, specif, person who regulates expenditure, esp a public official who does this for the army, navy, king's household &c 2 Mechanical device for regulating speed, movements &c of machines controllership, n Preo & -ship The office of a controller controversial, adj [1 kóntrovérsiəl, 2 kóntrovérsiəl], fr L Lat contrōversialis, 'pertaining to controversy' See controversy & -al a Relating to, subject to, liable to provoke, controversy a controversial matter, clause, speech &c, b (of persons) fond of, given to, controversy, disputatious controversialism, n [1 kóntrovérsializəm, 2 kóntrovérsializəm] Preo & -ism Habit of controversy, controversy controversialist, n [1 kóntrovérsialist, 2 kóntrovérsialist] See preo & -ist One given to, or who engages in, controversy controversially, adv [1 kóntrovérsiəli, 2 kóntrovérsiəli] controversial & -ly In a controversial manner.

controversy, n [1 kóntrovérsi, 2 kóntrovérsi], fr Lat contrōversia, 'a civil lawsuit, dispute', fr contrōversus, 'turned against, disputed', fr contrō- (op contra-) & versus, P.P. of vertere, 'to turn', q.v. under verse, version a (preceded by indef art) Dispute, debate, discussion, upon some question regarding which differences of opinion exist, the ultimate facts not being decisively ascertained, b discussion, argument generally, also in sense of heated dispute, quarrel Phr beyond controversy, indisputable, no longer subject of discussion, certain controvert, vb trans [1 kóntrovért, kóntrovért, 2 kóntrovért, kóntrovért] See preo a To dispute, bring arguments against (persons or statements), b to deny (statements, arguments) contumacious, adj [1 kóntumáshəs, 2 kóntuméshəs], fr Lat contumā(-em) &c, 'insolent, unyielding, obstinate', esp 'refusing to appear in a court of law in obedience to a lawful summons', & -ious, con- & base tum- as in Lat tumēre, 'to swell'. See tumid

Resisting authority, obstinate, stubborn, disobedient, esp regardless of orders of a judicial court contumaciously, adv Preo & -ly In a contumacious manner contumaciousness, n See preo & -ness Contumacy contumacy, n [1 kóntumási, 2 kóntumási], fr Lat contumācia, 'obstinacy', esp 'obstinate disobedience to a judicial order'. See contumacious

Quality or state of being contumacious, stubborn and perverse resistance to authority, esp wilful disobedience to the orders of a court of law contumelious, adj [1 kóntuméliəs, 2 kóntuméliəs], fr O Fr contumeliosus, Lat contumeliosus, 'full of abuse, insolent', see contumely & -ous Insolent and abusive contumeliously, adv Preo & -ly In a contumelious manner contumely, n [1 kóntuméli, 2 kóntuméli], fr O Fr contumelia, Lat contumelia, 'abuse', connected w contumacia See contumacy a Haughty, contemptuous insolence, in speech or manner 'The proud man's contumely' (Shakespeare), b reproach, disgrace contuse, vb trans [1 kuntúz, 2 kuntúz], fr Lat contūs(-um), P.P. type of confundere, 'to beat, bruise', fr con- & tundere, 'to beat, thump', q.v. under stunt (I) & cp toil (II) To bruise without breaking the skin confusion, n [1 kuntúshən, 2 kuntúshən], fr Lat confusio(-em), 'a crushing, bruising' Preo & -ion (med) a Process of causing a bruise, b condition of being bruised, c a bruise conundrum, n [1 kunándrum, 2 kunándrum] Origin unknown a A riddle, puzzle, b a puzzling question, one which is difficult or impossible to answer, a problem convalesce, vb intrans [1 kónvalés, 2 kónvalés], fr Lat convalescere, 'to regain health', fr con- & valere, 'to grow strong', incept of valere, 'to be strong, be well' See con- & valiant To recover gradually from effects of illness or disease, to get better convalescence, n [1 kónvalésens, 2 kónvalésens] Fr, fr Lat convalescentia, 'a regaining of health' See preo a Process of gradually recovering health and strength after illness, b bodily condition during this process convalescent, adj & n [1 kónvalésent, 2 kónvalésent], fr Lat convalescent(-em), Preo Part of convalescence. See convalesce

Op Fr convalescent 1 adj a Recovering from illness, partly restored to health and strength convalescent patient, b of or pertaining to convalescence or convalescents a convalescent hospital, a hospital for convalescents 2 n A person recovering from illness convexion, n [1 kunvékshən, 2 kunvékshən], fr Lat convectio(-em), 'a carrying or bringing together', fr convect(-um), P.P. type of convectere, 'to carry or bring together', fr con- & vehere, 'to carry' See vehicle & -ion

Process of transmitting; specif, mode of transmitting heat or electricity by the movement of heated or electrified bodies, such as liquids or gases Distinct from conduction or radiation convective, adj [1 kunvéktiv, 2 kunvéktiv] See preo & -ive a Having the power of conveying, b connected with convection convenance, n, semi-Fr pronunciation [1 kónvenans, 2 kónvenans] Fr (gen pl) [1 kónvenansis, 2 kónvenansis] The accepted principles of manner and conduct, propriety in these, conventional respectability convene, vb trans & intrans [1 kunvén, 2 kunvén], fr Lat convénire, 'to come together, assemble'. con- & venire, 'to come', q.v. under venue & the Engl cogn. come

1 trans a To cause to come, call, together, summon, convoke, esp to convene a meeting, council &c, b to summon (a person) before a tribunal 2 intrans To come together, assemble convenor, n [1 kunvénér, 2 kunvénér] Preo & -or One who convenes, specif, member of a committee or deliberative body who is specially appointed to fix dates of meetings, and to issue notices of meetings convenience, n [1 kunvénjens, 2 kunvénjens], fr Lat convenientia, 'agreement, fitness, suitability' See convenient & -ce 1 The quality of being convenient, conformity to one's wishes and requirements, suitability

2 Personal comfort, well-being, freedom from discomfort, material advantage, condition favourable and suitable to one, Phr at one's (own) convenience, where and how one chooses, to suit, await, a person's convenience, consult his wishes as to manner, time, place &c, a marrage of convenience, one affording material advantage 3 Convenient state or condition of things, an advantage it is a great convenience to have a doctor so near 4 A Any useful appliance or utensil suited to one's needs, specif, a privy, b (pl) material comforts a house full of conveniences of every sort Phr to make a convenience of a person or his property, to use him or it to suit one's own purposes and so as to trespass on his kindness, &c convenient, adj [1 kunvénjənt, 2 kunvénjənt], fr Lat convenient(-em), 'suitable', Preo Part of convénire, 'to be suitable', lit 'to come together', hence, to occur opportunely with some other event. See con- & venue & come a Suitable, possessing, exhibiting, the conditions which promote comfort, ease, freedom from trouble and difficulty of any sort, easy to use, suitable, well adapted for use. convenient time, house, tool, method, place &c, b suited to a particular season and set of circumstances, hence, seemly, proper, pertinent 'To do those things which are not convenient' (Rom 1:28) (archaic) conveniently, adv Preo & -ly In a convenient way, opportunely convent, n [1 kónvént, 2 kónvént] Lat convētus, 'a coming together, assembly', fr P.P. type of convénire. See convene

The A-Fr form covent, op Fr covent, survives in Covent Garden 1 A community of monks or nuns, generally the latter, living according to a rule, under a superior, and devoting themselves to a religious life, education of the young &c Phr to go into a convent, to become a professed nun

2 Building or set of buildings occupied by such a community conventicle, n [1 kunvéntikl, 2 kunvéntikl], fr Lat convēticulum, 'small assembly, place of meeting', dimin of convētus See preo 1 Formerly, a prohibited meeting of a religious sect other than the Church of England, esp of Puritan Nonconformists in Scotland, England, and of Covenanters in Scotland

2 Small building used for religious services by Nonconformists, (generally used contemptuously) convention, n [1 kónvénshun, 2 kónvénshən] Fr, fr Lat conventio (em), 'an assembly, a meeting, an agreement, compact', Fr convent (um), PP type of convenire See convene & -ion 1 A Formal meeting of delegates and representatives of dioceses and transatlantic political, religious, or other public affairs, b (specif, Engl hist) the meetings of parliament in 1660 and 1688, which assembled without the king's writ or summons 2 Formal agreement or compact between sovereigns or states 3 A Generally accepted standard of conduct and behaviour, common consent and agreement, embodied in fixed usage and custom, b custom and usage, rule of conduct, or manners, based on, and embodying this general concurrence of opinion, c (pl) accepted, standard leads, method of play, as set bridge and other card games conventional, adj [1 kónvénshunəl, 2 kónvénshənəl] fr Lat conventionalis, 'of or pertaining to an agreement', pres & -al Connected with, governed by, convention, specif a (of persons) depending upon convention, habitually shaping conduct, manners, opinions, ideas &c, in accordance with the fixed standards of convention, bound and limited by these, b (of human action) directed, dictated, by convention, arising from desire to conform to accepted standards rather than from natural impulses, o (of art &c) based on the standards of the schools, following accepted methods in technique, design &c, not spontaneous and original conventionalism, n [1 kónvénshunəlizəm, 2 kónvénshənəlizəm] Pres & -ism Adherence to conventional practice in opinions, conduct, behaviour &c conventionalist, n [1 kónvénshunəlist, 2 kónvénshənəlist] conventional & -ist One who follows convention in conduct &c, or in artistic practice conventionality, n [1 kónvénshunəlitə, 2 kónvénshənəlitə] conventional & -ity 1 Adherence to convention, esp in social formalities, b specific exhibition of such adherence conventionalize, vb trans [1 kónvénshunəlaiz, 2 kónvénshənəlaiz] conventional & -ize To make conventional, in art, to portray according to conventional rules &c, to follow convention in treatment conventionally, adv [1 kónvénshunəli, 2 kónvénshənəli] conventional & -ly In a conventional manner conventiary, adj [1 kónvénshunəri, 2 kónvénshənəri] convention & -ary Acting under a convention or contract, based on terms laid down in a special agreement, esp of certain kind of land tenure, and tenants holding under this conventional, adj & n [1 kónvénshənəl, 2 kónvénshənəl] fr Med Lat conventionalis, 'of or pertaining to a convent' See convent & -al 1 adj Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, a convent, specif (cap) connected with a branch of the Franciscans 2 n A member or inmate of a convent, specif (cap) member of branch of Franciscans converge, vb intrans & trans [1 kónvərg, 2 kónvərdʒ] Lat convergere, 'to incline towards one another' con- & verge (II) 1 intrans (of lines, roads &c) To come nearer and nearer together, and finally to meet at a given point Also (fig. of ideas actions) to be directed towards single point 2 trans To cause to converge convergence, -cy, n [1 kónvərgens(i), 2 kónvərdʒəns(i)] Pres & -ence, -cy Process, or fact of converging convergent, adj [1 kónvərgənt, 2 kónvərdʒənt] converge & -ant Converging, tending to converge conversible, adj [1 kónvərsəbl, 2 kónvərsəbl] converse (I) & -able 1 Easy in conversation easy and pleasant to talk to, b fit for, suitable for, marked by, conversation or social intercourse 'The evening was quiet and conversable' (Jane Austen) conversableness, n Pres & -ness Quality of being conversable conversably, adv See pro & -ly In a conversable manner conversance, -cy, n [1 kónvərsəns(i), 2 kónvərsəns(i)] See next word & -ance & -cy State of being accustomed, familiarity, acquaintance, (followed by with) conversant, adj [1 kónvərsənt, 2 kónvərsənt] fr Lat conversant (em), Pres Part of conversare, 'to turn round, over, frequently', in pass 'to live with', see converse (I) Having familiar association with, knowledge of, being acquainted with, informed concerning conversant with a subject, more rarely, with a person conversation, n [1 kónvərsəshun, 2 kónvərsəshən] Fr, fr Lat conversatio (em), 'frequent abode in a place, intercourse, conversation' See converse & -ation 1 Familiar communication with another in speech, talk 2 Familiar association, social intercourse (archaic and lit) 3 Criminal conversation (crim con), sexual association, as ground for divorce, under the old ecclesiastical law conversational, adj [1 kónvərsəshunəl, 2 kónvərsəshənəl] Pres & -al 1 (of persons) Fond of conversation, ready and willing to converse 2 Connected with conversation, appropriate to conversation, colloquial conversational style conversationalist, n [1 kónvərsəshunəlist, 2 kónvərsəshənəlist] Pres & -ist One addicted to conversation, a ready, interesting, amusing talker conversationally, adv [1 kónvərsəshunəl, 2 kónvərsəshənəl] conversational & -ly 1 In a manner suitable to conversation, colloquially, b in conversation conversations, n [1 kónvərsətəshən, 2 kónvərsətəshən] Ital, 'conversation'. Even ing party, esp social gathering in the evening, one given by, or for, a learned society, or for party of distinguished visitors converse (I) vb intrans [1 kónvərs, 2 kónvərs] fr Fr converser, fr Lat conversari, 'to associate with', fr con- & versari, orig 'to be turned', hence, 'to live, remain', fr versare, 'to turn often', intrans of versare, 'to turn' See con- & version. A To talk, have conversation with a person, b converse with (person), to hold social intercourse with, frequent society of (archaic or liter) converse (II) n [1 kónvərs, 2 kónvərs] fr pres (archaic or poet) a Familiar discourse, conversation, b familiar social intercourse converse (III), adj & n [1 kónvərs, 2 kónvərs] fr Lat conversus, PP of convertere, 'to turn about, turn towards' See convert 1 adj Reversed in order or relation, opposite, contrary 2 n Something related to another thing in a converse manner, a that which is exactly opposite in character to something else, b a statement produced by transposition of the antithetical terms of another statement he is rich but not happy, is the converse of he is happy but not rich conversion, n [1 kónvərsən, 2 kónvərsən] Fr, fr Lat conversio (em), 'a turning round' See con- & version, also convert (I) 1 Process of converting, alteration, changing, turning, a from one physical state or condition to another the conversion of n solid into n liquid, b from one spiritual or intellectual state from one set of opinions, beliefs &c, to another the conversion of the Tory party from Free Trade to Protection was not yet an accomplished fact, specif change of religion, act of changing over, or being changed from one religion to another the conversion of St Paul, conversion of the Jews (to Christianity), change from heathenism to Christianity conversion of the heathen, d (gen theol usage) awakening of the soul and spiritual faculties to a sense of religion in general, and to realization of God 2 (law) Appropriation of property belonging to another conversion of public money to one's own use conversive, adj [1 kónvərsiv, 2 kónvərsiv] Fr conversif, fr Lat converter (um), PP type of convertere, see convert & -ive a Caus ing, having function of conversion, b specif (gram) of Hebrew conjunction va written with the letter vav to convert a future into a past sense vav conversive convert (I), vb trans [1 kónvərt, 2 kónvərt] Fr converter, fr Lat convertere, 'to turn round' See con- & version 1 To change, transmute, a thing a from one physical state to another to convert water into steam; b from one character or use to another to convert a stable into a pigsty, convert a number of fields into n park, c specif (finance) to change a form of security into one of another kind of equivalent value 2 a To affect a spiritual or intellectual change, cause to alter opinions, religious and moral beliefs &c, persuade to adopt new opinions and beliefs &c to convert a Free Trader to Protection; b to convert a Jew to Christianity; c a Roman Catholic to Protestantism, a heathen to belief in God, b to awaken from indifference to a sense of religion, to turn from sin to righteousness Phr to become converted, to receive spiritual light &c 3 (law) To appropriate property from its owner's use to one's own 4 Various specific and technical senses implying alteration, adaptation &c, of material objects and substances to different character or use convert (II), n [1 kónvərt, 2 kónvərt] fr pres A person converted from one set of opinions, practice, party, religious creed &c, to another, esp one converted to a different form of religion, or to a religion of any sort from none at all convertibility, n [1 kónvərtəbiliti, 2 kónvərtəbiliti] convertible & -ity State or quality of being convertible convertible, adj [1 kónvərtəbl, 2 kónvərtəbl] Fr, fr L Lat convertibilis See convert (I) & -ible Capable of being converted in any sense convex, adj [1 kónvəks, 2 kónvəks] fr Lat convexus, 'vaulted, arched', fr con- & base in vehere, 'to draw' &c See vehicle This is the old etymol in favour of wh Walde rejects several more recent & attractive suggestions Having the surface curving outwards Reverse of concave convexity, n [1 kónvəksiti, 2 kónvəksiti] Lat convexitas (em), op Fr convexe, fr pres & -ity State or quality of being convex convexly, adv [1 kónvəksli, kónvəksli, 2 kónvəksli, kónvəksli] convex & -ly Curving outwards convexo-, pref [1 kónvəksə, 2 kónvəksə] Form of convex used in compounds, convexo-concave &c convey, vb trans [1 kónvə, 2 kónvə] fr O Fr conveyer, convoier, 'to escort', Fr convoyer, Ital conviare, fr Lat con & via, 'a way' See con-, via (I), & cp voyage 1 To carry, transport, from one place to another 2 To serve as a means of conveying, conducting, to transmit (esp sound, smell &c) a pipe conveys the hot water from the boiler to the bath 3 (fig, of non material things) To impart, communicate, make known to convey meaning, ideas, information &c 4 (law) To make over formally, esp of real property, by a conveyance conveyance, n [1 kónvəns, 2 kónvəns] Pres & -ance 1 Act or process of carrying, in all senses 2 The object or means whereby a person or thing is conveyed; a vehicle of any kind, hence, specif, a carriage 3 (law) a The transfer of real property or title, b legal document or deed by which the property or title is conveyed conveyancer, n [1 kónvənsər, 2 kónvənsər] Pres & -er Lawyer who draws up documents for the conveyance of property conveyancing, n [1 kónvənsɪŋ, 2 kónvənsɪŋ] conveyance & -ing (law) a The business of a conveyancer, b that branch of law which deals with titles to property and their conveyance

- conveyor, n [1 kunvæð, 2 kanvæð] convey & -er One who, that which, conveys, specify, any mechanical device or apparatus for moving heavy weights, large quantities of goods &c, as a coal-conveyor
- convict (I), n [1 kónvikt, 2 kónvikt], fr Lat convictus, P P of convicere, 'to prove guilty' See convince a Person found guilty, convicted, of a crime by a court of justice, b such a person undergoing penal servitude
- convict (II), vb trans [1 kunvikt, 2 kanvikt] See prec a To prove, find, guilty of a crime, formally, after trial in a court of law, b (fig) to bring guilt home to one, to convince of wrongdoing, esp in such a phrase as to be convicted of sin, by one's conscience
- conviction, n [1 kunvikshun, 2 kunvikshun], fr Lat convictio (em) See convict (II) & -ion 1 Act of convicting, proving or finding guilty of a crime the conviction of the prisoner was expected 2 Act of convicting or bringing certainty to the mind, hence, settled opinion, assured belief, specify, conviction of sin, by one's own conscience
- convictive, adj [1 kunviktiv, 2 kanviktiv] See convict (II) & -ive Tending to convict or convince
- convince, vb trans [1 kunvins, 2 kanvins], fr Lat convincere, 'to overcome, beat down by argument, to prove wrong, convict of crime, to prove, show clearly, esp to prove (statement &c), wrong', fr con- & vincere, 'to conquer, overcome, defeat, to get the better of, outdo, prevail over, win, gain, to demonstrate conclusively'. See discussion of Lat. base vinc-, vic-, under vincible & victor 1 To bring certainty to the mind by proof or argument, to create, establish, conviction in the mind, overcome by demonstration, satisfy the reason that something is or is not true, exists or does not exist to convince a person that one is sincere, or of one's sincerity, to convince a person that there is no danger, of the safety of travelling by aeroplane &c, of the truth of Christianity, to convince oneself of the wisdom of a course of action &c 2 a To persuade, prove to, a person that he is wrong to convince a man of error, to exhort, create, moral conviction in the mind of another to convince a man of sin
- convincible, adj [1 kunvinsibl, 2 kanvinsibl] Prec & -ible A able to be convinced, b open to conviction
- convincing, adj [1 kunvinsing, 2 kanvinsing], fr Prec Part. of convince Carrying conviction, compelling belief a convincing argument, a convincing speaker &c
- convincingly, adv Prec & -ly In a convincing manner
- convincingness, n See prec & -ness The property, quality, of being convincing
- convivial, adj [1 kunvivial, 2 kanvivial], fr Lat convivialis, 'festal, pertaining to a feast', fr convivium (um), 'a feast', fr con- & vivere, 'to live', q.v. under vivacious & vital a Of or relating to a feast or a merry-making, b (of persons) festive, sociable, jovial, fond of merry making, c betraying effects of excessive merry-making, slightly intoxicated
- convivialist, n [1 kunvivialist, 2 kanvivialist] Prec & -ist A convivial person
- conviviality, n [1 kunvivialiti, 2 kanvivialiti] convivial & -ity Feasting, merry-making, sociable jollification
- convivially, adv [1 kunvivial, 2 kanvivial] convivial & -ly In a convivial manner
- convocation, n [1 kónvókáshun, 2 kónvókáshun], fr Lat convocatio (em) See convolve & -ation 1 The act of calling together the convocation of Parliament 2 An assembly of persons, formally called together to transact public business Specify (cap) a (Ch of Engl) synod of the clergy of the province of Canterbury or of York, b term applied to specific legislative bodies of the Universities of Oxford and Durham, c (freemasonry) Chapter meeting of Royal Arch Masons Grand Convocation, a meeting of Grand Chapter
- convocational, adj [1 kónvókáshunal, 2 kónvókáshunal] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, a convocation or to Convocation
- convolve, vb trans [1 kunvók, 2 kanvók], fr Fr convolver, fr Lat convolvere, 'to call together', fr con- & vocare, 'to call' See con- & vocal, vocation To call together, to summon to assemble, esp to summon by authority a formally constituted body
- convolute, adj [1 kónvóldt, 2 kónvóldt], fr Lat convolutus (um), P P of convolvere, 'to roll together, roll round' See con- & volute (of flowers and leaves, also of whorls of shells) Rolled or wound up
- convoluted, adj [1 kónvóldit, 2 kónvóldit], fr P P of prec (zool) Coiled, twisted, eg of a ram's horn &c
- convolution, n [1 kónvóldshun, 2 kónvóldshun] See convolute & -ion 1 A rolling, coiling, or twisting together 2 Fold, coil, whorl, something having folds or coils
- convolve, vb trans & intrans [1 kunvólv, 2 kanvólv], fr Lat convolvere, -volutum, 'to roll' See con- & volute a trans To roll up together, intertwine, b intrans, to write about, intertwining one, or one part, with another
- convolvulus, n [1 kunvólvúls, 2 kanvólvúls] Lat, 'bindweed', lit 'twisting thing', dimin fr convolvere See prec (bot) Bindweed, plant with white, pink, or blue flowers and long, climbing, tough, elastic stems which twine up the stems of other plants in a tangled mass and tend to throttle them
- convoy (I), vb trans [1 kunvói, 2 kanvói], fr Fr convoyer, O Fr convoier, convoier, dialectal variant of convoy To accompany in order to protect, (esp of a warship) to escort a merchantman or other non-fighting ship on a voyage in war-time
- convoy (II), n [1 kónvoi, 2 kónvoi] See prec a A warship which conveys a merchantman &c, b the ship conveyed
- convulse, vb trans [1 kunvúls, 2 kanvúls], fr Lat convulsus (um), P P type of convellere, 'to tear up, pull up, shake', fr con- & vellere, 'to pluck, pull, twitch', see vellitate The base vel* is prec cogn w Lat vellere, vulnus, 'a wound' (see vulnerable), & w. Lat vellere, vultus (see vulture) 1 To shake, agitate, violently, a (of physical disturbance) the ground was convulsed by an earthquake, b (fig, of emotional or political excitement and agitation) to disturb violently, cause unrest in the wretched country was convulsed with civil strife 2 To cause sudden and violent contractions or spasms of nerves and muscles, a from pain, disease &c to be convulsed with toothache, colic &c, b by powerful emotion to be convulsed with laughter, anger &c
- convulsion, n [1 kunvúlsun, 2 kanvúlsun] Lat convulsio (em), see prec & -ion Violent and sudden agitation, disturbance, commotion &c, a convulsion of nature, eg an earthquake, volcanic eruption &c, b series of spasmodic movements of the body, caused either by physical disease, affecting nerves and muscles, or by emotional excitement to fall into a fit of convulsions, a convulsion of laughter, mirth &c, c social and political uproar, turmoil civil convulsions and riots
- convulsive, adj [1 kunvúlsiv, 2 kanvúlsiv] Fr convulsif, see convulse & -ive Attended with, exhibiting, having character of, convulsions of any kind convulsive movements, convulsive laughter &c
- convulsively, adv Prec & -ly In a convulsive manner, with convulsive movements
- cony, coney, n [1 kóni, 2 kóni] ME coning, conia, conia, O Fr conin, conin, connil, fr Lat cuniculus, 'rabbit', prob an Iberian word The animal became known to the Romans through the Spaniards 1 A rabbit (archaic) 2 (Bib) Small short-eared, ungulated animal of Palestine and Syria, the hyrax, living in clefts of rocks 3 (also cony seal &c) Trade name for various imitation furs made from dyed rabbit skin
- cony-catch, vb trans Prec & catch (obs) To deceive, cheat
- cony-catcher, n Prec & -er (obs) A cheat
- coo (I), vb intrans & trans [1 koo, 2 koo] Of imitative origin 1 intrans a (of doves and pigeons) To utter a soft, characteristic, murmuring cry or sound, b (of babies) to utter a sound expressive of satisfaction, some what resembling that made by doves, c (of grown persons) to speak softly and caressingly Plr to bill and coo, to make love by soft words and caresses 2 trans To say or utter cooingly to coo one's words cooingly
- coo (II), n, fr prec The gentle, liquid sound made by doves or pigeons, any similar sound uttered by human beings
- cooe, cooe, n & interj [1 koo, 2 koo] Of imitative origin Cry or call used by white men in Australia, adopted from the aborigines
- cook (I), n [1 kook, 2 kuk] OE cōc, borrowed fr Low Lat cocus, Lat coquus An early loan-word w subsequent lengthening of vowel Th word must have been borrowed in W Gmc, cp O H G & Mod Garm koch, wb, however, has the orig short vowel Lat coquus & coquere, vb, go back to earlier gugue-, wb stands for Aryan pel- (w q by assimilation of first to second cons, op quingue, 'five', fr penk-*, see quinque-), Sort palat, 'be cooks, bakes', pakvað, 'cooked, ripe', O Slav pek, 'I bake, roast', & pelá, 'beat' Cp also Gl peasé, 'I soften, ripen, boil, cook, digest', fr pel-*, see the Gl base under peptic, pepsis See also concoct, decoct One who prepares food for the table, esp by baking, roasting, boiling it &c
- cook (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To prepare food for the table by subjecting it to heat in various ways Plr (fig) to cook one's goose, settle his affairs, spoil his plans 2 (fig) To concoct, to prepare something fraudulently for any purpose, to falsify, tamper with, fake to cook accounts, also cook up (a story, account &c) 3 To subject to great heat to be cooked alive in the tropics B intrans To undergo the process of cooking some early apples cook quite well in August
- cooker, n [1 kóoker, 2 kúke] cook (II) & -er 1 An apparatus, esp a stove, for cooking food 2 Varieties of fruit, esp of apples, pears, plums, which are grown for cooking, contrasted with dessert apples &c
- cookery, n [1 kóokeri, 2 kúkeri] cook & -ery The art or practice of cooking Also attrib cookery book, one containing instructions for preparing food
- cook-house, n An outdoor or detached kitchen, as in a camp &c
- cook-shop, n One where food is cooked and sold, an eating house
- cooky, n [1 kóokie, 2 kúki] cook & -y, but op Du loekje, dimin of loek, 'cake', see cake A small, thin, sweet cake, esp a home made cake of this sort (A Scottish & American usage)
- cool (I), adj [1 kool, 2 kool] OE & ME cōl, fr same base as cold, w different vowel grade See also gelid (general sense) Having a degree of temperature higher than cold and lower than warm, moderately cold 1 A contrasted with excessive heat, giving a pleasurable sensation of freshness and absence of warmth a cool evening after a hot day, the house is nice and cool, b having lost excessive heat, having sunk to a degree of temperature bearable to the touch the coffee isn't cool enough to drink yet, don't touch the iron till it has got cool, (of the human body) o not excessively hot, of a normal temperature, contrasted with the heat of fever the fever has left him, and he is quite cool, d not too hot to be pleasant, contrasting comfortably and agreeably with extreme heat in the shade and get, keep, cool 2 Not tending to induce sensation of warmth, tending to promote pleasantly low temperature of the body, having an appearance suggesting thus a cool frock, hat &c 3 (fig. of moral or emotional condition) a Not ardent or passionate, moderate, apathetic, lacking cordiality cool in one's affections, rather a cool croaker, a cool reception, b not excited, calm, unruffled, unperturbed, deliberate, collected cool amid dangers and difficulties, a cool head, c displaying inadequate attention to conventional propriety, looking deference and consideration for others, casual, calmly impudent, deliberately audacious I call that pretty cool behaviour, he's a little bit too cool for me Phrs a cool customer, a cool fish, cool cheek, great impudence 4 (colloq. of a sum or amount) Stated deliberately, in its entirety, with no deductions or qualifications to lose a cool thousand, a cool twenty miles farther 5 (hunting, of scent) Weak, faint cool (II), n, fr prec Something that is cool, esp cool air, place, time &c, coolness in the cool of the evening, the cool of the forest &c cool (III), vb intrans & trans O E coolan, 'to grow cold', 'to make cold' is ellan in O E, preserved as leal in some dialects 1 intrans a (lit) To grow cool, lose heat your porridge will soon cool in the draught, b (fig) to be some less ardent, zealous, affectionate, angry &c his affection for her had cooled, my anger has cooled, also cool down in same sense 2 trans a To make cool the rain has cooled the air, Phrs Keep your breath to cool your porridge, don't waste your words, to cool one's heels, be kept waiting, b (fig) to reduce ardour, enthusiasm, anger &c that will cool your eagerness for you cooler, n [1 kooler, 2 kula] Prec & -er A vessel in which anything is cooled or kept cool wine, butter, cooler cool-headed, adj Calm, imperturbable, having clear, calm, judgement, not liable to be disconcerted or flustered coolie, coolly, n [1 kooli, 2 kuli] Anglo Indian Parh fr kuli, name of a race or caste in Western India who performed manual offices, on the other hand, in S India kuli means 'hire, wages' in Tamil Used among Europeans in India, Mesopotamia, China, and Straits Settlements &c for a hired native servant, esp a bearer or porter cooling card, n [1 kooling kard, 2 kuling kard] Prob derived fr an obs card game Something that dashes one's hopes and expectations (obs) coolly, adv [1 kooli, 2 kuli] cool (I) & -ly In a cool manner, (in all senses) coolness, n [1 koolness, 2 kulinis] See prec & -ness 1 A state of being cool, b sensation of moderate cold 2 A absence of ardour, enthusiasm &c, specif b absence of cordiality, esp owing to difference of opinion, hence, disagreement, falling out there is a slight coolness between us coolth, n [1 koolth, 2 kulp] cool (I) & -th, new formation on anal of warmth, etc Coolness coomb, combe, n [1 koom, 2 kum] O E cumb, peak of Celt origin, op W cwm, perh cogn. w cup, see also cyrnbal A deep, narrow valley, a valley on the side of a hill coon, n [1 koo, 2 kun] For racoon a A racoon, b a negro Ooon song, negro melody Phr (slang) a gone coon, a person who is done for, ruined, as good as dead coop (I), n [1 koo, 2 koo] M E cope, prob loan word fr Lat cupa, 'cask, tub' See cup a Kind of wooden cage with back and sides of boarding and front of wooden bars, used esp for sitting hens, or those with broods of chickens, b apparatus of wicker for catching fish, a pot coop (II), vb trans, fr prec a To put or keep (hens &c) in a coop, b to confine (persons) within narrow bounds, in small stuffy room &c esp to coop up, coop in coooper, n & vb trans [1 koo, 2 koo] M E copper, prob fr Low Lat cuparius, see coop (I) 1 n One who makes and mends barrels and casks 2 vb trans To repair, patch up, cask &c cooperage, n [1 koo, 2 koo] Prec & -age The work of a cooper, place where he works co-operate, vb intrans [1 koo, 2 koo] co-operat, fr co- & operate a (of persons) To act together, work with another for, help to accomplish, a common purpose, b (of things) to combine in producing an effect co-operation, n [1 koo, 2 koo] co-operat, fr co- & -ion A act of co-operating, of working together to the same end, b (econ) association of a number of persons for a common benefit, esp in carrying on some branch of trade or industry &c, the profit being shared as dividend among the members co-operative, adj [1 koo, 2 koo] co-operat, fr co- & operate a connected with co-operation, b practising co-operation co-operative society co-opt, vb trans [1 koo, 2 koo] co-opt, Lat co-optare, 'to choose, elect' See co- & optare, 'to desire, choose, demand', connected w Lat optare, 'thinking', optinere, 'opinion, conjecture', optinere, 'to enquire, deem' See optine, option. To add a person who is not an ex officio member to a committee, or other deliberative body, by election by the votes of those who are already members co-optation, n [1 koo, 2 koo] co-optat, fr co- & optare The act of co-opting, position of being co-opted co-ordinate (I), adj & n [1 koo, 2 koo] co-ordinat, Lat co-ordinat (um), P P of co-ordinare, 'set in order, regulate' See co- & ordain 1 adj a Having equal rank, order, with, not subordinate to, b specif (gram) of clauses of a compound sentence, op subordinate 2 n a A co-ordinate thing, b (math) any one of a system of magnitudes used in determining position of a point co-ordinate (II), vb trans [1 koo, 2 koo] co-ordinat, fr co- & ordain 1 To make co-ordinate, to bring into logical and organic relation (of ideas &c) 2 To bring into such relation that all the things co-ordinated take part in a common action, to adjust, cause to harmonize co-ordinate hand and eye co-ordinately, adv [1 koo, 2 koo] co-ordinat, fr co- & ordain In a co-ordinate manner co-ordination, n [1 koo, 2 koo] co-ordinat, fr co- & ordain co-ordinate (II) & -ion The act of co-ordinating, or state of being co-ordinate co-ordinative, adj [1 koo, 2 koo] co-ordinat, fr co- & ordain Tendency to co-ordinate coot, n [1 koo, 2 koo] M E cote, op Do let Etymol doubtful Water bird of rail family, Fulica atra, much resembling a duck, having a white spot on the head, hence name bald coot, and Phr as bald as a coot cop (I), n [1 kop, 2 kop] O E copp, 'summit', cogn w Germ kopf, 'head', O H G kopf & chupf, 'cup', prob derived ultimately fr Lat cupa, 'tub, oak' See cup The word has developed considerable diversity of meaning Orig 'a hollow vessel, a drinking vessel', & hence, 'a round thing', w special application, on the one hand 'a head', on the other 'rounded top of a hill, a hill' In Engl Place Names, coyt, copped means 'pollarded, having had the head cut off', e.g. Copthorn, earlier copped thorn Cp O E coppede, in same sense, used of trees 1 A mound of earth thrown up in excavating, b a small hill 2 Round mass of thread or yarn, wound on a spindle cop (II), vb trans Origin uncertain. (vulg slang) a To catch, arrest, to detect in the act of committing an offence Phr to cop (him, her &c) at it, b in Phr to cop it (school boy slang), to catch it, i.e. to receive punishment cop (III), n fr prec (vulg slang) 1 Act of detecting or catching Phr a fair cop, said by criminals when caught and arrested in the act of committing an offence 2 A police man See copper (III) copaliba, n [1 kopiba, 2 kopiba] Span, fr Brazil copaiba An oily resin obtained from the copaliba and other tropical trees found in S America, and in West Indies, used medicinally in diseases of mucous membranes copaliba, n [1 kopiba, 2 kopiba] See prec (bot) Genus of South American trees yielding copaliba copal, n [1 kopal, 2 kopal] Mexican copalli, 'resin' A resin used in varnish, obtained from living S or Central American trees, or dug up in fossil condition coparcenary, n [1 koparsenari, 2 koparsenari] co- & parsonary Inheritance by descent of lands by two or more persons in common, co-heirship, as by co-heiresses, on an intestacy, or under a custom, as of gavelkind coparcener, n [1 koparsener, 2 koparsener] co- & parsoner Joint heir or heiress of an estate in coparcenary copartner, n [1 kopartner, 2 kopartner] co- & partner A fellow partner; b specif, employe having a share in the profits of a business or industry in addition to his salary or wages copartnership, n [1 kopartnership, 2 kopartnership] fr prec & -ship a Condition of being associated with another or others in trade or business, b system of trading in which the employes of a firm have a share of the profits copartnery, n [1 kopartner, 2 kopartner] copartner & -y (rare) Copartnership cope (I), n [1 kop, 2 kop] M E cope, Med. Lat cappa, also cappa See cape (I) 1 (eccles) Vestment resembling a long cloak, without sleeves or armholes, worn by the clergy of a cathedral on ceremonial occasions, in processions &c, and by a bishop when visiting the cathedral of his diocese 2 (fig) Something which covers like a cope, hence, the arch of the sky, canopy of heaven the cope of heaven 3 Coping, q v cope (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To dress in a cope or cloak, b (archit) to put a coping on (a wall &c) 2 intrans To hag or arch over like a coping (obs) cope (III), vb intrans, fr O Fr couper, colper, to strike, Fr couper, 'to cut', fr O Fr coup, colp, 'blow', Fr coup See coup (always followed by with) To deal successfully with a difficult situation, or with a violent and unruly person to cope with a difficulty, cope with a crowd copeck, n [1 kopek, 2 kopek] Russ kopeika Parh dimin. of kope, 'lance', applied to the coin fr the fact that it bore a figure of Ivan IV holding a lance The Slav words for 'lance' are cogn w Gk kopia, 'sacrosanct knife' &c, & kopanon, 'sword', kopid, 'strike, cut', q v under comma On the other hand, kopeika is possibly a Mongol word Russian copper coin, the hundredth part of a rouble copepod, n [1 kopepod, 2 kopepod], fr Gk kope, 'handle of an oar, haft of sword' (q v under captive), & -pod (zool) A minute marine crustacean, order Copepoda, forming a great part of the plankton of the ocean copier (I), n [1 koper, 2 kope], fr Du koop, 'to buy, bargain', wh is cogn w O E capan, w same meaning See cheap Gen horse cop, a horse dealer, esp one of doubtful honesty copier (II), n, fr Du koop, 'trading vessel' See prec word. A vessel stocked with grub and supplying it to the North Sea fishermen while adrift Copernican, adj [1 kopernikan, 2 kopernikan] (astron) Copernican system or theory, that propounded by Copernicus (1473-1543), who first taught that the sun is the centre round which the earth and other planets revolve copestone, n [1 kópstón, 2 kópustoun] cope (I) & stone More gen, coping-stone, q v coping, n [1 kópíng, 2 kópíng] cope (I) & -ing (archit) a Covering course of a wall, or parapet, eaved, and projecting to carry off water, b ledge, overhanging top, of a wall, to give protection to wall-fruit coping-stone, n Prec & stone a Course of stones along the ridge of a roof, b (fig) final, and completing act in a piece of work, climax of an achievement, finishing stroke, crowning touch copious, adj [1 kópíus, 2 kópíus], fr Lat cópius, 'well supplied, plentiful', fr cópiā, 'plenty, abundance', fr oo- & ops, genit opis, 'power, might, wealth', wh is cogn w Lat opus, 'work, labour, exertion', & -ous See opera & optimism, cp copy 1 (of material things) Plentiful, abundant in amount or quantity a copious repast, copious harvest 2 (of non-material things) a Full, abundant copious material, notes (e.g. for a book, speech &c.), copious information; b (of expression, diction, style) exuberant, profuse (often with sense of excess) a copious vocabulary, copious eloquence, c (of persons) a copious writer, preacher &c copiously, adv Prec & -ly In a copious manner copiousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being copious, a abundance, plenty, exuberance, b excess of quantity, too great fullness and abundance copper (I), n & adj [1 kóper; 2 kópa] O E coppr, fr L Lat cupr, Lat cuprum Earlier cuprum, 'Cyprian brass', Gk kupron, (Cyprus being a chief source of copper for the ancients), borrowed fr Lat in W Gmo period, cp O H G kupfar, Mod Germ kupfer 1 n a A reddish malleable ductile metal which is a good conductor of heat and electricity, b a coin of small value made of copper or of bronze, e.g. a penny, halfpenny, or farthing, c a large vessel made of copper, esp one used for boiling clothes in a laundry 2 adj Made of copper a copper kettle &c copper (II), vb trans, fr preo To cover with sheets of copper copper (III), n, fr cop (II) & -er (slang) A policeman; lit 'one who cops or catches' copperas, n [1 kóperas, 2 kóperas] M E coperose, cp couperose, fr Lat cupra- (as in cuprum) & -erum, adj suff See copper (I) & -ose (chem) Sulphate of iron, green vitriol copper beech, n Variety of beech tree with copper coloured foliage copper-bit, n Soldering tool with a copper point copper-bottomed, adj [1 kóper bótum, 2 kópa bótum] (of ships) Having a bottom sheathed with copper, (hence by transf), thoroughly seaworthy, sound, also fig copperhead, n [1 kóperhed, 2 kóperhed] A poisonous North American snake copper-nose n A red nose caused by excessive drinking copperplate, n & adj [1 kóperplát, 2 kópa-plát] 1 n A plate of polished copper on which a picture, design, or writing is engraved or etched, b impression from this Phr to write like copperplate, very neatly, forming every letter perfectly 2 adj Resembling an impression from a copperplate, beautifully formed, esp of writing copper-smith, n A worker in copper, one who manufactures copper utensils coppery, adj [1 kóperi, 2 kóperi] copper (I) & -y Like copper, esp in colour or taste coppico, n [1 kópís, 2 kópís] O Fr coppes, 'out wood', fr L Lat colpescio, cp L Lat colpus, 'a stroke', fr Gk kolaphos, wh is connected w Gk plás 'smash, break' Possibly related to Lat culpa, 'a fault'. See cataclasma, culpable also copse & op copse, n A wood of small trees, with underwood, which is cut periodically copra, n [1 kópra, 2 kópra] Malayalam kopra, 'coco nut', through Port. Kernel of the coco-nut, broken up and dried in the sun, and exported to Europe for the sake of the oil which is extracted by pressure, and used in manufacture of margarine, candles, and soap copro-, pref Form of Gk kópro, 'dung', used in composition Cp Sort kalpi, 'manure' coprolite, n [1 kóprólít, 2 kóprólít] Prec & -lite, 'stone'. Fossil dung coprology, n [1 kóprólój, 2 kóprólédzj] copro- & -logy Treatment of obscene subjects in literature or painting coprophagous, adj [1 kóprófagús, 2 kóprófagús] copro- & -phagous, 'eating' Dung eating, of class of beetles copse, n [1 kóps, 2 kóps] Another form of copice A copice copsewood, n [1 kópswood, 2 kópswud] Small wood out from a copse copsey, adj [1 kópsi, 2 kópsi] copse & -y a Covered with copse, b like a copse Copt, n [1 kópt, 2 kópt], fr Cophocoptos, fr Gk Aiguphos, 'Egyptian' Egyptian Christian Coptic, adj & n [1 kóptík, 2 kóptík] Prec. & -ic a adj Pertaining to the Copts, b n, the language of the Copts copula, n [1 kópúla, 2 kópúla] Lat cópula, 'that which binds together, a band, link', for earlier co apula* For pref see co-, the second element is a dimin fr Lat cp-, 'to join', see apt 1 (gram and log) The word, generally a form of verb to be, which connects subject and predicate 2 (anat) A connecting bone, cartilage &c copulate, vb intrans [1 kópúlat, 2 kópúlat], fr Lat cópulāt(-um), PP type of cópulāre, 'to fasten or bind together', fr cópula See preo To join, used especially of sexual union copulation, n [1 kópúlatshun, 2 kópúlatshun] Lat cópulātshun (em), fr preo & -ion a Act or process of uniting, joining together, esp b sexual union copulative, adj & n [1 kópúlatív, 2 kópúlatív] Fr copulativ, -ive, fr Lat cópulātívus See copulate & -ive 1 adj a (gram) Having function of connecting, (of conjunctions and certain intrans verbs), b relating to, connected with, sexual union 2 n A copulative word copulatory, adj [1 kópúlatúr, 2 kópúlatúr] copulate & -ory Pertaining to copulation copy (I), n [1 kópi, 2 kópi], fr Fr copie, fr Lat cópia (see copious), 'abundance, plenty, power, ability, opportunity, means' Our sense is fr the last mentioned, in Phr dare cōpiam legendi, 'to give means of reading' 1 a An imitation or reproduction of anything copy of a picture, another's style &c, b transcript of an original document copy of a letter Phr rough copy, first draft of a document, fair copy, final form of a document transcribed from former 2 One of a number of specimens of the same book, or other published document a copy of 'Paradise Lost', to have several copies of a book 3 (law) Transcript of manorial roll, recording the admissions of tenants to land, under the tenure known as copyhold (q v) 4 That from which a copy or reproduction is made, a model to write, paint, from a copy 5 a Manuscript sent to be printed the printers demand copy at once, b anything, a story or event, suitable to form subject-matter for an author or journalist copy (II), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr copier, fr L Lat cōpiāre. See preo A trans 1 To make a copy, or transcript of (a document &c) 2 To reproduce by imitation the work of another to copy a picture 3 To imitate (a person) in manner, behaviour, speech &c, to take a person as a model and example. 4 To imitate the manners and behaviour of another copy his virtues but not his follies B intrans (with from or absol) To make a copy, to imitate copy-book, n One containing letters, words, sentences engraved to serve as models for persons learning to write, having spaces between the lines in which the imitation of what is engraved is written below it Phr copy book morality, maxim, trite, superficial teaching such as used to be found in copy-books copyhold, n [1 kópíhóld, 2 kópíhóld] copy (I) & hold (II) (law) a Tenure of land on a manor 'at the will of the lord and according to the custom of the manor' So called because the conditions under which the land was held were laid down, and copied in the manor rolls, b land held in this way copyholder, n [1 kópíhólder, 2 kópíhólder] Prec & -er 1 (law) Tenant of land by copyhold 2 Assistant of a printer's reader, who holds the MSS, while reader corrects proof copyist, n [1 kópúst, 2 kópúst] copy (I) & -ist a A copier, transcriber, b one who imitates another, esp a slavish imitator with out initiative of his own copyright, n, adj, & vb trans [1 kóprít, 2 kóprít] copy (II) & right 1 n The exclusive right of an author, artist, composer, or his assignees, to reproduce his works, whether literary, dramatic, pictorial, or musical, in a material form, during a certain period, fixed by law 2 adj Subject to, protected by, copyright 3 vb To protect (a literary or artistic work) by copyright coquet, vb intrans [1 kókót, 2 kókót], fr Fr coqueter, lit 'to behave like a cock, to swagger, strut', fr coq, 'a cock' See cock (I) 1 (of women) To act towards the other sex in such a way as to attract, and gain admiration, to flirt (followed by with, or, more rarely, absolutely) 2 (fig, followed by with) To pay superficial and brief attention to an idea, proposal, subject &c, to concern oneself with it temporarily, as a matter of only passing interest, without considering it seriously, to dally coquetry, n [1 kókétr, 2 kókétr], fr Fr coquetterie See preo & -ry a Behaviour of a flirtatious, alluring kind, designed to win admiration, light conduct dictated by vanity and love of admiration, b affected gaiety, facile prettiness of appearance, such as that displayed by a coquette coquette, n [1 kókét, 2 kókét] Fr See coquet a Woman who tries to attract the other sex from vanity and love of admiration, a female flirt, b crested humming bird coquetish, adj [1 kókétish, 2 kókétish] Prec & -ish a Exhibiting coquetry, having the manner and air of a coquette, b smartly attractive, engagingly pretty coquettishly, adv Prec & -ly In a coquettish manner, smartly, attractively coquito, n [1 kókétó, 2 kókétó] Span, dimin of coco (palm) Palm tree which grows in Chile, the sap and seeds of which are sweet and edible cor-, pref Form of com- used in compounds when the second element begins w r coracle, n [1 kórakl, 2 kórakl], fr W corrag, dimin of corrag, currag, 'trunk, carcase, boat' Cp also Gael curach, 'boat of wicker work' Primitive type of boat, still used on lakes and rivers in Ireland and Wales, consisting of a wicker framework covered with hides &c coracoid, adj [1 kórakóid, 2 kórakóid], fr Gk Loracoides, 'shaped like the beak of a crow', fr Lóraz, Lóral(-os), 'crow', & -oid, Lóraz is fr Aryan lorh-*, cp Lat cor-, 'crow' The word is prob of imitative origin & cogn w O E hrac, 'rook', O H G hruck The base, w different formative element, is seen also in Lat crep, 'crack, creak, clatter' &c See corbel & crepitata (anat. and zool) Coracoid bone, pertaining to a process or bone of the shoulder girdle of vertebrates, extending from the shoulder joint towards the breast-bone, it is well developed in birds and most reptiles, in man and other mammals it is only a rudimentary process, coracoid process So called from fancied resemblance in shape to a crow's beak.

coral, n & adj [1 kóral, 2 kóral], fr O Fr coral, fr Lat corallum, corallum, fr Gk kordallion, borrowed fr Hob góral, 'a small stone' 1 n a Marine polyp or zoophyte related to the sea anemones, found in tropical seas, which extracts the lime from the water and builds up a limy substance, which acts as a skeleton or support, within or around itself, b white or red hard substance formed by the coral organism, which assumes various fantastic and often beautiful forms, according to the shape of the organism which secretes it, many corals are hard and of dense texture, and are capable of being carved and polished to make personal ornaments, a piece of polished coral specially shaped and adapted for babies to bite on when cutting teeth, d ovaries of a lobster which, when boiled, resemble red coral in colour and to some extent in texture 2 adj a Made of coral, b like coral (red or pink) in colour coral-island, n. Island, as in Pacific, formed of coral corallum, n [1 kóralin, 2 kóral n], fr coral & -in. Poisonous dyestuff (red or yellow) made from phenol and oxalic and sulphuric acids. Named from resemblance of red corallin to red coral in colour coralline (I), n [1 kóralin, kóralin, 2 kóralin, kóralin], fr coral & -ine. Coral like seaweed or animal coralline (II), adj [1 kóralin, 2 kóralin] Made of, resembling, (red) coral in colour corallite, n [1 kóralit, 2 kóralit] coral & -ite a A fossil coral, b (zool) coral skeleton of a single polyp coralloid, adj [1 kóraloid, 2 kóraloid] coral & -oid Like coral in form and appearance coralloid root, one branching like coral coral-reef, n One slowly built up by the activities of the coral organism coral snake, n A small venomous snake, Elaps, of America, of bright coral red colour with black markings coral-tree, n Name of some East and West Indian trees with bright coral red flowers and seeds cor anglais, n [1 kor éngglá, 2 kór églai] Fr, 'English horn' (mus) The English horn or tenor oboe coranto, n [1 korántó, 2 korántó] Span, lit 'running', op Fr courante See current a A lively dance in triple time, b music for this corban, n [1 kórban, 2 kóban] Hob górbán, 'offering (to God)', cogn w Arab qurbán, 'victim, sacrifice' (Bib) Something dedicated to God as an offering and therefore not to be used for other purposes corbel, n & vb trans [1 korbl, 2 kóbl] O Fr corbel, fr corbeau, 'raven', fr Low Lat corbellum (b for v), dimin of Lat corvus, 'raven', w wh is cogn OE hræfn, 'raven', OHG hraban, ON hráfn, further, O Slav svraka, Russ soroka, 'magpie' The base of all these is Aryan kor-, kr, 'creak' &c, q v under coracoid See also raven 1 n (archit) a Support or bracket of stone projecting from the face of a wall to carry some structural feature, b short timber placed lengthwise under a girder or beam, also called corbel block 2 vb (archit) To furnish with a corbel or corbels, to support by a corbel corbel arch, n (archit) Span of masonry made by projecting each successive course until the two opposing top ones are joined by a cap stone corbelling, n [1 kórbeling, 2 kóbeling] corbel & -ing Corbel work, series of corbels corbel table, n (archit) Row of corbels supporting a parapet or cornice, usually having a small arch between each pair of corbels corbie, n [1 kórbí, 2 kóbi] In M Scots, fr O Fr corbin, 'raven', dimin of O Fr corb, fr Lat corvus See corbel (Scots) A raven, carrion crow corbie-steps, n. pl (archit) Series of step-like projections on either side of gable cord (I), n [1 kord, 2 kóð] M.E. corde, fr Fr, fr Lat chorde, fr Gk chorde, 'gut, string of musical instrument' See chord. 1 Thick string or thin rope 2 (onot) Applied to various structures which resemble cords, o g spinal, spermathe, cord &c, vocal cords &c 3 Cord like rib on cloth, ribbed fabric, esp in corduroy, cords (pl), hreaches made of such cloth 4 A measure (128 cub ft) of wood cut for fuel, formerly measured with a cord cord (II), vb trans, fr pre To bind, fasten, with cord or rope, esp to cord a box Also to cord up (a box &c) cordage, n [1 kórdij, 2 kóðidj] Fr cordage Pre & -age Collection of cords or ropes, systematized group of cords, esp those of a ship's rigging cordate, adj [1 kórdát, 2 kóðeit] Lat cord (is), cor, 'heart', & -ate The base kor-, ker, 'heart' is found in several branches of Aryan speech Cp Gk kardia, O Ir críde, O Slav srđice (fr Aryan krd*), op also Goth haurd, OE hrore, q v under heart, Lat crēdere, 'to believe', is also fr same base, see crood Heart shaped (of a leaf, shell &c) corded, adj [1 kórded, 2 kóðid], fr PP of cord (II) a Bound, tied up with cords, b made of, provided with, cords, o (of cloth &c) ribbed Cordellor, n [1 kórdeliš, 2 kóðalio] Fr, fr cordell, 'small cord', dimin of cords, 'rope', & -ior See cord (I) 1 a (ecoles bist) Franciscan friar, from his girdle of knotted cord, b a political club, during the French Revolution, meeting in the Church of the Cordeliers in Paris 2 Rope making machine cordial (I), adj [1 kórdial, 2 kóðiel], fr L Lat cordialis, fr Lat cord (is), cor, 'heart', q v under cordate, & -ial 1 Connected with the heart considered as the seat of life, or of the affections and feelings, hence, a vital 'Cordial spirits' (Milton) (obs), and b having quality of reviving, giving fresh life and strength cordial medicine, drink &c 2 (of manner, states of mind, feelings, and expression of these) a Hearty, friendly, cheerful a cordial smile, welcome, grasp of the hand &c, b deeply and strongly felt, sincere cordial liking, dislike &c cordial (II), n, fr pre, 1, b a A medicine or drug which stimulates the heart's action, b a warming, invigorating drink, esp one of aromatic spirit cordiality, n [1 kórdialiti, 2 kóðieliti] Pre & -ity a Warm, strong feeling, esp of liking, approval, affection, b expression of such feeling in manner, actions, or words cordially, adv [1 kórdial, 2 kóðiel] cordial (I) & -ly In a cordial manner, heartily, sincerely, emphatically to approve, dislike &c cordially cordillera, n [1 kórdiljára, 2 kóðiljára] Span, fr cordilla, dimin of cuerdo, 'rope, cord' See cord (I) Any one of a system of parallel mountain ranges, esp of such in S and Central America &c cordite, n [1 kórdit, 2 kóðant], fr oord (I) & -ite So called from its appearance A smokeless explosive, composed principally of nitroglycerin and gun cotton cordons, n, Engl pronunciation [1 kórdon, 2 kóðon, kóðj] Fr, fr corde See cord (I) 1 Course of stone projecting from surface of a wall, string course, specul (fort) projecting coping of the scarp wall of a fortification 2 a (mil) Chain or circle of military posts to prevent passage into or out of a particular place or area, b a continuous circle of persons entirely surrounding or screening a place or person cordons of police, c sentinel cordons, guards preventing ingress to or egress from an infected area 3 Broad ribbon of an Order (esp a foreign Order) worn across the shoulder 4 (hort) Fruit tree (esp apple, pear, gooseberry) with all its branches pruned back to a single stem, from which the fruit buds grow, usually trained against a wall or supported by a wire frame cordons bleu, n [1 kórdon blé, 2 kóðj blé] a The blue ribbon worn formerly by the knights of the Holy Ghost, the highest Order in France under the Bourbons, hence, b a person of eminence or distinction, applied facetiously to a first class cook cordovan, n [1 kórdovan, 2 kóðovan], Span Cordovano, adj, 'of Cordova' a adj Belonging to Cordova, esp cordovan leather, b n, the leather itself corduroy, n & adj [1 l órduroi, 2 kóðeroi] Proh fr Fr corde du roi, 'king's cord' 1 n a A kind of coarse, tough, ribbed cotton stuff, with a pile like velvet, used chiefly for making trousers for labourers, b (pl) hreaches, trousers, made of corduroy 2 adj Made of corduroy corduroy road, n In USA, road with logs laid across it for use in marshy ground cordwain, n [1 kórdvān, 2 kóðvoin] Vonant of cordovan. Spanish leather, formerly used in making shoes cordwainer, n [1 kórdwāner, 2 kóðwōner] 15th cent cordwainer, O Fr cordoanier, 'a shoemaker', op Fr cordonnier, lit 'a worker in Cordovan leather' Chaucer has Cordovane as name of the leather, op M.E. Cordovan, Cordewan Member of ancient trade guild, the Corduaners' Company, one of the London Livery Companies core (I), n [1 kór, 2 kó] O Fr & Mod Fr cor, 'o horn', also 'corn on the foot' Lat cornu (see corn (III)), hnt associated later w O Fr cor, Mod Fr coeur, 'heart' See cordate 1 Central or innermost part of a thing core of a rope, central strand, core of root, part removed by boring, core of an abscess, corn, central hard part &c 2 The hard central portion in certain fruits (apple, pear, quince &c) containing the pips or seeds 3 Various technical usages from 1, as a (eloot) a bar of soft iron, as an intensifier in an induction coil, b (foundry) internal mould & (fig) The inmost part, heart, substance, yith, gist of a subject &c true to the core, rotten to the core, the very core of a subject core (II), vb trans, fr pre To take out the core of to core on apple co-relation See correlation. co-religionist, n [1 kó reljūnist, 2 kóu rikdžemat] co- & religion & -ist One of the same religion Coreopsis, n [1 kóreopsis, 2 kóriopsis], fr Gk kória, 'hog', (part cogn w aoaria), & opsis, 'sight, appearance' (see optio), fr shape of seed A genus of brightly coloured flowering plants of the aster family co-respondent, n [1 kó respóndent, 2 kóu respóndent] co- & respondent (law) Man charged with committing adultery with another's wife (the respondent) in a divorce suit corf, n [1 kori, 2 kófi] fr Du lorf, op Germ korb, 'basket', both loan words fr Lat corbis, 'basket', itself proh a Celt loan word, op M Ir corb, 'carnage, waggon', orig one w a wicker body Perh ultimately cogn w Lat curvus (see curve) & crātis, 'wicker work' See crate, cart, cradle 1 Floating cage or basket for keeping fish alive in water 2 Large basket formerly used for hauling up coal from the mine to the pit head coriaceous, adj [1 kóriášus, 2 kóriášjæs], fr Lat coriaceus, 'of leather', fr corium, 'leather', on wh see corium, corioz Consisting of or resembling leather, leathery, tough coriander, n [1 kóriándér, 2 kóriwānde], fr Fr coriandre, fr Lat coriandrum, fr Gk koriannon koriandron (bot) Umbelliferous plant the aromatic fruits (known as seeds) of which are used medicinally as a digestive Corinthian, adj & n [1 kórinthian, 2 kórinp ien], fr Gk Place Name Corinth & -ian. 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, Corinth, b specif, Corinth an column one of the three types in ancient Greek architecture, having slender, fluted shaft and capital decorated with carved acanthus leaves 2 n a Inhabitant of Corinth, b espec, pl Corinthians, St Paul's Epistles to the Corinthians, c (obs) a gay spark, man about town

Corinthianesque, adj [1 kórinthianésk, 2 kórinthianésk] Preo. & -esque (archit) Resembling the Corinthian style

cortum, n [1 kórum, 2 kóriem] Lat. 'hide, leather', cogn w Lat cortex, 'hark', outside Lat the base is found in various words in Gmc & Slav, eg OE hár, 'hair' (see hair), & heorpa, 'deer skin'; the orig meaning seems to have been 'hide, thick skin', fr corum comes Fr cuir, 'leather'. The base is ultimately k^{er}-*, 'to make, shape'. See cortex & cuirass n Body armour of overlapping leather flaps, b (enat) lower, vascular layer of skin covering the body cork (I), n [1 kórk, 2 kórk] Span corcho, prob through Arab fr Lat quercus, 'oak', op Span & Port alcorgue, 'shoe with cork sole'. According to Meyer-Lübke the word has no connexion w Lat cortex, 'hark, rind' (of trees and plants) 1 a Specif, name given to the outer bark of the cork oak, species of evergreen or holm oak, Quercus suber, a light, tough, oleistic substance used for a large number of purposes, b (hot) applied to bark of trees and outer protecting covering of the stems of woody plants 2 (preceded by def or indef art) Portion of this substance cut into suitable shape and size to form a stopper for wine, medicine, and other bottles Burnt cork, charred cork used for blackening the face in theatricals &c cork (II), adj, fr preo Mado of cork a cork carpet, cork sole &c cork (III), vb trans, fr cork (I) 1 To place a cork in a bottle, stop up by means of a cork 2 To impart taste of cork (to wine), chiefly in PP See corked 3 To blacken (the face &c) with burnt cork to cork one's face, eyebrows &c corkage, n [1 kórkj, 2 kórkj] cork & -age 1 Process of corking or uncorking of bottles 2 Charge made by unkeeps on every bottle of wine or spirits purchased elsewhere than in the hotel, opened and consumed by guests in the hotel corked, adj [1 kórk, 2 lókt] cork (I) & -ed 1 (of bottles &c) Stopped with a cork 2 (of the face and hands &c) Blackened with burnt cork 3 (of wine) Having taste derived from the cork, esp when this is decayed corker, n [1 kórk, 2 kórk] cork (III) & -er (slang and colloq) 1 Argument, circumstance, which appears to settle a question and to put a stop to further discussion 2 An audacious, vivid person, who startles and impresses, whether favourably or the reverse, by his personality 3 A daring, preposterous lie corkscrew, n & adj [1 kórkakrú, 2 kórkakrú] 1 n Instrument for drawing corks from bottles, consisting of a piece of steel twisted into a spiral, sharply pointed at one end and having a handle projecting at right angles on both ends of the other end 2 adj Twisted into a spiral like a corkscrew cork screw curls, a corkscrew path corkwood, n [1 kórkwood, 2 kórkwood] The light, porous, buoyant wood of the evergreen corkwood tree, a native of Central America corky, adj [1 kórk, 2 kórk] cork (I) & -y 1 Like cork: a corky taste 2 (colloq) Vivacious, buoyant, slittish corn, n [1 kórn, 2 kórn] fr Gk kórnós, 'the trunk of a tree with the boughs lopped off', fr different gradation of the base in keir, 'I cut off', for k^{er} jō* The base occurs w variously differentiated meaning in Lat carō, corn-, 'flesh', see cornal, & in cortex, corium (hot) A solid bulb, that is, a subterranean plant stem which bears buds at the summit, while roots sprout from its base A corn is of different structure from the true (tunicated) bulb, which consists of a number of fleshy overlapping scales cornmo-, pref, fr Gk kórnós, 'trunk', see preo, used in scientific terminology to indicate the principal line of descent cormorant, n [1 kórmurant, 2 kómarant], fr Fr cormoran, fr Lat corvus marinus, 'sea-raven' See corvine & marine A large, voracious sea-bird found round coasts of Britain, and most parts of the world, hence (fig), a greedy person, a glutton corn (I), n [1 kórn, 2 kón] In O & ME, & all Gmc languages, OHG & Mod Germ korn, Dn Loren, ON korn, Goth kurno, all fr Gmc kurna-*, fr Aryan g^{er}no-, g^{er}en- &c, wh meant 'to grow old, to mature', or some thing of the kind, op Gk gerōn, 'old man', gēras, 'old age', Sert jyrdi, 'becomes rotten, old' &c Closely cogn w corn, are Lat grānum, 'grain, small kernel' (see grain (I)), O Slav srino, 'oorn', Lith šrūse, 'a pea' See also kernel 1 a (coll) Seeds of cereal plants (wheat, barley, rye, oats, maize), grain, b specif, oats, esp as food for horses, o in English usage, when applied to human food, wheat, in American usage, maize 2 A single seed, a grain, of wheat, barley &c, also a grain of pepper 3 Cereal plants of any kind when growing, or after being cut, including the stalks and ears, before the grain is separated out to cut the corn, a field of corn, sheaf of corn corn (II), vb intrans, fr preo a (of cereals) To form grain, undergo swelling of the ear, also to corn up, b to sow land with, put into, oorn corn (III), n, fr O Fr corn, Mod Fr cor, 'hard swelling', fr Lat cornu, 'a horn', exactly cogn w OE, OHG horn, Goth haurn (see horn), op further Sert efga-m, 'horn' a Hardened and thickened skin, often causing painful swelling, esp on a toe, Phr (fig) to tread on a person's corns, offend him by saying something contrary to his opinions and prejudices, corn plaster, a plaster to cure corns, b painful affection on forefoot of horse, due to bruising of the soft tissues corn (IV), vb trans Porh fr corn (I) meaning to sprinkle with salt, peppercorns &c To preserve meat by pickling and salting corned beef, beef so preserved and canned corn-beetle, n Small beetle which infests corn in the store cornbrash, n [1 kórnbrash, 2 kórnbrash] Coarse chalky soil, so called from its corn-growing qualities corn-chandler, n Retail dealer in corn, oats, hay &c corn-cob, n a Head, ooh, of Indian corn or maize upon which the grains grow, b pipe of which the bowl is made of a corn ooh corn-cockle, n Weed with purplish red flowers, a species of campion, which grows among the corn corn-crake, n [1 kórnkrāk, 2 kórnkrāk] A common European bird, Oxy pratensis, of the rail family, which frequents cornfields, the male of which has a loud harsh cry which he utters continuously for hours at night, also called land rail cornea, n [1 kórnē, 2 kórnē] Fem of Lat corneus (adj), 'horny', fr cornu, 'horn' See corn (III) Tough outer membrane protecting the eyeball cornel, n [1 kórnēl, 2 kórnēl] O Fr cornille, L Lat cornolum, 'cornel tree' So called fr hardness of the wood, fr Lat cornu, 'horn'. See corn (III) Tree with very hard wood, such as the dogwood tree cornelian, n [1 kórnēlian, 2 kórnēlian] Fr corneline, fr Lat cornu, 'horn' See preo Variety of reddish brown or white chalcedony, a semi-precious stone, the name is derived from transparent, supposed horny appearance when the stone is broken.

corneous, adj [1 kórnēus, 2 kórnēus], fr Lat corneus, 'horny' See corn (III) & -ous Horny, horn-hke.

corner (I), n [1 kórnē, 2 kórnē] O Fr corner, L Lat cornersum, fr Lat cornu,

'horn', in sense of a point See corn (III) 1 Meeting-place of two converging lines, sides, or surfaces, edge, angle corner of a street, house, table &c Phr to turn the corner, to pass round the corner into another street, (fig) to pass a crisis safely, to cut off a corner, to take a short cut 2 Enclosed angle formed by meeting walls of a room, sides of a box &c to stand, put a child, in the corner (of a room), as a punishment, to drive (a person) into a corner (fig), put him into a difficult, or embarrassing position, a tight corner, awkward situation 3 A hidden, remote, out of the-way place a dark, odd corner Phr (fig) hole and corner (transaction), underhand, 'chady' 4 Quarter, region, part the four corners of the earth 5 Specif a (commer) method of controlling prices of an article of commerce by purchasing, and holding, all the available supply a corner in wheat &c, b (Assoc football) corner-kick corner (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To force or drive into a corner, (lit and fig) bring to bay, put in awkward position 2 To make a corner in an article of commerce See preo 5 cornered, adj [1 kórnērd, 2 kórnērd], fr PP of preo Placed in difficult position, brought to bay corner-kick, n (Assoc football) Kick from the corner, allowed when the ball has been kicked by opponent over his own goal line corner-man, n Performer who sits at the end, and plays a prominent part, in a troupe of nigger minstrels corner-pins, n Skittle pins numbered 7 and 10 corner-stone, n a Stone forming a corner of the foundation of a building, b (fig) some thing indispensable, of primary importance, bears the corner stone of a philosophical system cornet, n [1 kórnēt, 2 kórnēt] O Fr dimin of corn, 'horn' See corn (III) 1 (mus) a Brass wind-instrument of the trumpet class with valves or pistons, also cornet à pistons, b person who plays this instrument in an orchestra, o solo cornet, echo cornet, names of organ stops 2 Cone shaped paper wrapper, also, cone shaped wafer for holding ice-cream 3. (mil) Generally cornet of horse, formerly fifth commissioned officer in cavalry troop who carried the colours (obs) cornetcy, n [1 kórnēti, 2 kórnēti] Preo & -cy (mil, obs) The commission or rank of a cornet corn-exchange, n Place where corn dealers transact their business corn-field, n One in which corn is growing corn-flour, n Finely ground meal made from maize, rice, or other kinds of grain corn-flower, n Any of several varieties of plants which grow among corn, esp a blue flowered kind, Centaurea cyanus, often cultivated cornice, n [1 kórnīs, 2 kórnīs] Fr, fr Ital, prob derived fr Lat cornu, 'cornu, cornice', See corona 1 (archit) A carved moulding round top of a building, b moulding, generally of plaster, round walls of a room below the ceiling 2 (mountaineering) Layer of snow overhanging crest of a ridge corniced, adj [1 kórnīst, 2 kórnīst], fr preo & -ed. Having a cornice corniferous, adj [1 kórnīferus, 2 kórnīferus], fr Lat cornifer, 'having or bearing horns', corn (III) & -iferous (of geol epoch) Producing or containing hornstone, or hornlike nodules of chert which occur in the lime stones

Cornish, adj & n [1 kórnish, 2 kórnish] 1 adj Of, coming from, Cornwall, per taining to Cornwall, its inhabitants, or the Celtic dialect formerly spoken there 2 n Celtic dialect spoken in Cornwall till the eighteenth century corn law(s), n Law or group of laws regulating trade in corn, specif those, repealed in 1846, which imposed very heavy duty on importation of corn.

cornopean, n [1 kórnopean, 2 kónópsean]

Another name for the musical instrument usually known as the cornet, q v cornstalk, n [1 kórnostawk, 2 kónstólk] a stalk of corn, as of wheat or maize, b (colloq) an Australian, esp used of Australian cricketers, the Cornstalks cornstone, n [1 kórnostén, 2 kónstoun] See corn (I) & stone (geol) Variety of red and green limestone occurring as the base of Old Red Sandstone cornucopia, n [1 kórnuhópia, 2 kónju-kópia] L Lat cornucopia, fr Lat cornu 'horn' & copia 'plenty' See corn (III) & copious 1 (class. mythol) The horn of the goat Amalthea, which suckled Zeus Hence 2 a ornament in moulding and sculpture &c, representation in painting, representing a goat's horn with fruit, flowers, and corn flowing from it, b (fig) abundance, plentifulness, overflowing supply cornuted, adj [1 kórnut(id), 2 kónjút(id)], fr Lat cornutus, 'horned', fr cornu, 'horn' See corn (III) a Having horns, b horn-shaped.

corolla, n [1 kóróla, 2 káróla], fr Lat corolla, 'little crown', fr corón la*, fr coróna, 'a crown', w dimin. suff See corona (bot) The cup-like form composed by the inner series of leaves, or petals of a flower corollary, n [1 kórólári, 2 kárólári], fr Lat corollarium, 'money paid for a garland, a gift, gratuity', in later philos writings, 'a deduction' See pre & -ary a An additional inference which follows as a natural sequence from a proposition which has already been proved, b natural consequence, result corona, n [1 kóróna, 2 káróna] Lat, 'crown', borrowed fr Gk kórónē, 'anything bent or curved', op also Gk kórónē, adj 'crooked', & as n 'anything curved, a wreath', oogn w Lat curvus, 'bent, curved' &c See curve 1 a Luminous circle round or near sun or moon, b luminous envelope surrounding the sun, seen in total eclipse round the edge of the disk of the moon 2 a Crozier suspended from roof of a church to hold tapers, b (archit) the flat, vertical part of a large cornice 3 (anat) a Upper surface of the skull, b the crown of a tooth coronach, n [1 kórónagh, 2 káránj] Gael, fr corach, 'with, together', & ra(n)ach, 'walling, shreking' a (among Scotch Highlanders) A dirge, lament for the dead, sung, or played on the bagpipes, b (among the Irish) keening, or wailing uttered at funerals coronal (I), n [1 kórónal, 2 kárónal], fr L Lat coronula, adj See corona & -al a A crozier (of gold, gems &c) for the head, diadem, b a wreath, garland (of flowers &c), for the head coronal (II), adj [1 kórónal, kórónal] Same as pre 1 (astron) Of or pertaining to a crown or corona, q v 2 (phon) Old name for sounds uttered with the tip of the tongue turned upwards and backwards, better called inverted sounds, e g the r sound in many provincial dialects of the south of England 3 (anat) Of, pertaining to, the corona of the skull, esp coronal suture, separating the frontal bone from the parietal bones coronate, vb trans [1 kórónat, 2 kárónest], fr Lat coronatus, PP of coronare, 'to crown', fr coróna, 'a crown' See corona To place crown on head of, to crown coronated, adj [1 kórónated, 2 kárónestid] Pre & -ed. Crowned, having a crown, esp of birds &c, crested.

coronation, n [1 kórónashun, 2 káróneshun] coronate & -ion. The act or ceremony of crowning a sovereign, coronation-oath, that taken by a sovereign at coronation, promising fidelity to the laws and constitution of his country coroner, n [1 kóróner, 2 káróna], formerly [1 kórúner, 2 kárúna] A Fr coroner, fr O Fr coron, 'crown' & -er See crown.

1 (legal hist) An officer charged with keeping records of crown pleas in a county, and looking after revenue thence accruing, also of private property of the crown, now only surviving in duty of the present day coroner to make inquiry in cases of treasure trove

2 An officer of a county or borough whose business is to hold an inquiry or inquest as to the cause of death of persons who have died, as the result of a crime, or accident, or, as it is supposed, from other than natural causes coronership, n [1 kórónership, 2 káróneship] Pre & -ship a Office of a coroner, b period of holding such office coronet, n [1 kórónet, 2 kárónet], fr O Fr coronette, dimin of corone, 'crown', fr Lat coróna See corona 1 A small crown worn by persons of various rank in the peerage, and by princes of the blood other than the sovereign himself 2 An ornamental female head-dress, in form of a coronet, often of gold and jewels, b (poet) chaplet, or garland for the head. 3 Horny, upper part of horse's foot where the hoof joins the skull coroneted, adj [1 kóróneted, 2 kárónetid] Pre & -ed Wearing a coronet, belonging to the peerage coronoid, adj [1 kórónoid, 2 kárónoid], fr Gk korónē, 'crown', op coracoid & -oid (anat) Curved, shaped like a crown's beak (used of processes in the bones of the lower jaw, or of the forearm below the elbow) corozo, n [1 kórózō, 2 kónouzou] South American word South American tree, bearing corozo nut, from which vegetable ivory is made corporal (I), adj [1 kórpóral, 2 kárpárel], fr Lat corporalis, fr Lat base corpor, 'body' See corpus Of, or connected with the human body corporal punishment, bodily pain, esp by whipping, deliberately inflicted corporal (II), n, also corporas, fr L Lat corporalis (palla), 'body cloth' See pre (ooles) Fine linen cloth covering the altar during Mass, upon which the consecrated elements are placed, and with which they may be covered, communion cloth Hence, (archaic) corporal oath, esp solemn one sworn upon the corporal cloth or other sacred object corporal (III), n, fr Fr caporal, Ital caporale, fr capo, fr Lat caput, 'head' See capital (I) 1 (mil) Lowest non-commissioned officer, ranking immediately below sergeant and above a lance corporal Corporal of horse, sergeant in the Household cavalry, corporal major, sergeant major in the same Phr The Little Corporal, nickname of Napoleon 2 (nav) Ship's corporal, petty officer who assists the master-at arms corporality, n [1 kórpóraliti, 2 kárpáreliti], fr L Lat corporálitas (em), abstract n, fr corpor, 'body' See corpus (I) & -ity State of having a body, material existence, bodily substance corporeal, adj [1 kórpórat, 2 kárpárel], fr Lat corpóratu, 'embodied', PP of corpórare, 'to form into a body', fr corpor (u), 'body' See corpus a Of a number of persons, legally united in a body, for transaction of business, and forming a single entity in law a corporeal body, b shared by all members of a body regarded as a single unity, e g members of a committee, of a cabinet &c corporeal responsibility, c of, belonging to, a corporation or group of persons united as above corporeal property corporation, n [1 kórpórasun, 2 kárpárelshun], fr L Lat corporátio (em), 'an assuming of a body, incarnation', fr corpórat (um), PP of corpórare, 'to form into a body, furnish with a body', & -ion See corpus 1 A Combination or group of persons regarded for legal purposes as a unit, b specif, civic authority, body of persons elected to carry on the public business of a city or town, a city council, consisting of Mayor, aldermen and councillors, c (USA) limited liability or joint stock company

2 (colloq) Large and prominent abdomen.

corporative, adj [1 kórpórativ, 2 kárpáreliv], fr L Lat corporátivus, adj, 'pertaining to the forming of a body' See corporate & -ive Belonging to, connected with, a corporation corporator, n [1 kórpóratúr, 2 kárpárelur], corporate & -or Member of a corporation.

corporeal, adj [1 kórpóreal, 2 kárpárel], fr Lat corpóreus, 'belonging to the body', fr corpus, 'body', see corpus, & -al a Connected with a body or with material nature; bodily, physical, as opposed to spiritual; b specif (law) corporeal hereditament, property, something tangible, as land, bullion &c, as distinct from rights over land &c corporeality, n [1 kórpórealiti, 2 kárpáreliti] Pre & -ity The state of being corporeal, corporeal existence corporeally, adv [1 kórpórealh, 2 kárpárelh] See pre & -ly In bodily form, in the body corporeity, n [1 kórpóriti, 2 kárpáreliti] Lat corpor- (see corpus) & -ity Existence in the body, material existence corposant, n [1 kórpórant, 2 kárpórant], fr Port corpo santo, 'body body', fr Lat corpus sanctum, or = corpus sancti, 'body of a saint' Luminous electrical discharge observable sometimes in stormy weather at the top of flagstaffs, ships' masts, or trees also called St Elmo's fire corps, n [1 kór, 2 ká], pl [1 kórs, 2 kás] Fr corps, fr Lat corpus, 'body' See corpus Body of persons associated in some way Specif 1 (mil) a the largest tactical unit of an army, consisting of two or more divisions, in Fr corps d'armée, army corps; b separate department or branch of the army, as Army Service Corps, branch that has charge of commissariat, Army Ordnance Corps, Army Veterinary Corps &c 2 Applied to various groups of persons a corps de ballet, the dancers in a ballet collectively, b Corps Diplomatique, all persons associated with an embassy or legation in a foreign country, the diplomatic service generally, ambassadors, minister plenipotentiary, attachés, secretaries of legation &c corpsa, n [1 kórs, 2 káps] Variant of corps ME corps, fr O Fr, fr Lat corpus The pronunciation shows earlier borrowing than corps, wh has approximately the Mod Fr sounds, variant is corse Dead body, usually of a human being Still applied by Spenser to the living body Corpsa candle, a luminous appearance sometimes seen in churchyards and marshy places, b thuk candle lighted and placed near a dead body confined, or laid out for burial corpulence, n, also corpulency [1 kórpulens(i), 2 kárpulens(i)] Fr, fr Lat corpulentia, 'grossness or fleshiness of body', fr corpus, 'body' See corpus Excessive stoutness of body, fatness, obesity corpulent, adj [1 kórpulent, 2 kárpulent] Fr, fr Lat corpulentus, 'fleshy, fat' See pre (of persons only) Having great or excessive bodily bulk, stout, fat, obese corpus, n [1 kórpús, 2 kápas] Lat, 'body', base corpor, fr corpos*, genit corpore Cogn w Sert kép, 'form, beauty', Gk. práptis, gen in pl, práptides, 'diaphragm, heart, intelligence', for képp*, in Gmc op OHG href, OE hraf, 'womb, abdomen' (see midriff) The whole group is perhaps connected w Aryan base kér*, 'to shape, form, make', op Sert kárit, 'he makes' See corium & create 1 A Dead body of man or animal (rare), b (anat) part of an organ of the body, having a solid and more or less homogeneous structure 2 Collection of writings or documents, esp the whole collection of writings of a particular country, age, or type the corpus of Latin poetry, corpus of English Common Law 3 The principal or capital sum or a fund, as distinct from the interest. 4 (law) Corpus delicti [1. dílikti, 2 dílikti] Lat, 'body of the crime', the essential acts and facts which constitute a crime and breach of the law.

Corpus Christi (Day), n [1 kórpús kristí, 2 kóps kristai] Lat., 'Body of Christ' Festival in honour of the Eucharist, held on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, when the Host is carried in procession corpusele, n [1 kórpúsl, 2 kópsl], or corpúscule [1 kórpúskül, 2 kópskúl], fr Lat corpúsculum, 'a little body', dimin., see corpus & -cule Minute body, atom, particle, specif 1 (biol) a small particle of protoplasm having a specific structure and function, esp b a constituent particle of the blood the red, white corpuscles 2 (phys) An atom of electricity, electron corpúscular, adj [1 kórpúskúlar, 2 kópskúlar] Preo & -ar Consisting of corpuscles, connected with corpuscles corral, n & vb trans [1 koráhl, 2 kordl] Span, fr. corro, 'enclose', fr Lat currere, 'to run' See courier, course 1 n Pen or enclosure for horses, cattle &c, enclosure for capturing wild animals, defensive enclosure formed hastily of waggons and camp equipment, op kraal. 2 vb To confine in a corral, to make a corral for correct (I), adj [1 kurekt, 2 karekt], fr Lat correctum, PP type of correre, 'to make straight, set right', fr cor- & regere, 'to lead straight' See cor- & re- root and words referred to there 1 In accordance with facts, or reasoning, true, accurate, exact, right correct statement, inference, calculation &c 2 In accordance or conformity with a recognized and accepted standard of rules, customs, morals, manners, behaviour, taste, dress &c Phr to do, to say, the correct thing, do or say something suitable to the circumstances, say what is expected correct (II), vb trans, fr preo Generally, to set right, make correct Specif 1 (of products of human activity) to set right, improve by removing errors and making accurate to correct a translation, to correct mistakes, blunders, in an exercise, a book, a printer's proof &c 2 a To reprove, admonish (persons), point out errors of &c, censure with view to improvement to correct a child for disobedience &c, b to punish for errors, misconduct &c 3 (of diseases or physical defects) To counteract, neutralize, cure to correct acidity in the system, to correct curvature in a child's spine &c 4 (of mechanical devices, instruments &c) To alter or adjust, modify action of, so as to bring into accordance with required standard to correct the timing of a watch &c correction, n [1 kurekshun, 2 karekshun] Fr, fr Lat correctio-(em), 'a making straight, improvement, correction' correct (I) & -ion Act or process of correcting (in all senses) Phrs to speak under correction, with consciousness that what one says may not be quite accurate, house of correction, a prison or bridewell correctional, adj [1 kurekshunal, 2 karekshenal] Preo & -al Of, pertaining to, correction, leading to correct correctitude, n [1 korektitúd, 2 korektitúd] Fr Not fully naturalized in English Use perh due to influence of rectitude. Correctness of conduct corrective, adj & n [1 kurektiv, 2 karektiv], fr Fr correctif See correct & -ive 1 adj Tending to correct, serving to neutralize or mitigate what is pernicious, to rectify what is amiss 2 n Thing which does this, a corrective agent correctly, adv [1 kurektli, 2 karektli] correct (I) & -ly In a correct manner, accurately, without any mistake, b in accordance with a standard of conduct, style, taste &c to behave, speak, correctly correctness, n [1 kurektines, 2 karektinis] See preo & -ness State of being correct, accuracy, exactness, b conformity to a standard corrector, n [1 kurektur, 2 karekte] Lat See correct (II) & -or One who, or that which corrects in any sense, specif a one who punishes for correction, b corrector of the press, a proof-reader correlate (I), vb intrans & trans [1 kórelát, 2 kórelát] cor- & relate 1 intrans (followed by to) To have a mutual relation 2 trans (followed by with) To put a thing in relation with another, to connect together by showing mutual relation correlate (II), n, fr preo Either of two reciprocally related things, esp one of such things as are so connected that one directly implies the other correlation, n [1 kóreláshun, 2 kóreláshun] correlate (I) & -ion. A Mutual or reciprocal relation, b act or process of showing existence of such relation between things correlative, adj & n [1 kórelatív, 2 kórelatív] correlate & -ive 1 adj a Having, or involving, reciprocal relation, b (gram) having and expressing a mutual relation, applied to certain pairs of words and expressions, commonly used together, such as either — or &c 2 n. A correlative word or thing correlatively, adv Preo & -ly By, in correlation, reciprocally correspond, vb intrans [1 kórespónd, 2 kórespónd] See cor- & respond. 1 a (followed by with or to) To be in conformity, or agreement with, to equal, come up to, to fit, suit the reality does not always correspond with one's expectations, the description did not correspond with the thing itself, the house exactly corresponds to my requirements, b to be equivalent to, represent the broad lines on the map correspond to roads 2 (followed by with and name of person) To communicate with, in writing, write letters to, esp habitually Also absol we rarely meet though we correspond regularly, i.e. write to each other correspondence, n [1 kórespóndens, 2 kórespóndens] Fr See preo & -ence 1 (of things) Act or condition of agreeing, being in conformity with, or of being equivalent to, something else phonetic notation implies as great a correspondence between sound and symbol as possible 2 a Communication between persons, esp when habitual, by means of writing, b the total number of letters that one habitually writes and receives to have a large, regular correspondence, c the letters exchanged between two or more persons, esp when collected for publication Correspondence column, one reserved in a newspaper for letters to the editor correspondent (I), n [1 kórespóndent, 2 kórespóndent] cor- & respondent 1 a One who writes letters to another, specif b a person paid to write regularly to a newspaper contributing information, criticism on some particular subject, or from some particular place or scene of action &c, c one who writes occasionally to the editor of a newspaper, without payment, in order to make public a personal view, to ventilate a grievance, or make suggestions which he believes to be of value on a matter of public interest &c 2 (commerce) A person or firm having regular business relations with another correspondent (II), adj Same as preo Corresponding corresponding, adj [1 kórespónding, 2 kórespónding], fr Pres Part of correspond 1 Standing in a similar relation, agreeing with, being equivalent to 2 Carrying on a correspondence by letters a corresponding member (of a learned society &c), an honorary, non resident member who is not a member of governing body corridor, n [1 kóridór, 2 kóridó] Fr, fr Ital corridore, Span corredor, 'a runner', hence, 'a long running line, a gallery', fr Lat currere, 'to run' See courier &c 1 a Long passage in large building (as hotel, school &c) from which rooms open, b narrow passage from end to end of a railway coach, into which the compartments open, hence, corridor train, a train whose coaches are connected so that the corridor is continuous. 2 (polit geog) A narrow strip of country passing through a foreign state, either neutralized or belonging to another state, as from an inland state to a seaport; as the Danzig Corridor, from Poland, through Germany to that port corrie, n [1 kóri, 2 kóri] Gael. corrie, 'cauldron'; cogn w Sort carús, OE hwer, ON hver, 'ketle', Goth hwarma, 'cranium' (Socks) Hollow in the side of a mountain, a small valley corrigendum, n [1 kórijéndum, 2 kórijéndum] Lat, 'to be corrected', fr corrige. See correct (I) Something to be corrected, esp in a printed book, (gen m pl) corrigenda, list of corrections of errors in the text, printed after completion of printing of book itself, and added before publication corrigible, adj [1 kórijibl, 2 kórijíbl], fr L Lat corrigibilis, fr Lat corrige, 'to correct' See preo a (of errors) Capable of being, liable to be, corrected, b (of persons) submitting to correction corrival, n [1 kórivál, 2 kóruvél] cor- & rival A rival, competitor corroborant, adj & n [1 kórbórant, 2 kórbórant], fr Lat corroborant (em), Pres Part of corroborare See next word. 1 adj a Tending to corroborate, confirmatory, b (med) invigorating, tonic 2 n a Fact which corroborates, b tonic medicine corroborate, vb trans [1 kórbóráb, 2 kórbóráb], fr Lat corroborat (um), PP type of corroborare, 'to strengthen', fr cor- & robore, 'to strengthen', fr robur, 'hard wood, oak, strength' See robust To strengthen, make more certain, bear out, confirm, a statement, theory &c, by producing or discovering fresh evidence in support of it corroboration, n [1 kórbóráshun, 2 kórbóráshun] Fr, fr Lat See preo & -ion. A The act of corroborating, b that which corroborates, confirmation of statement, theory, suspicion by additional facts corroborative, adj [1 kórbóratív, 2 kórbóratív] Fr corroboratíf corroborate & -ive Tending to corroborate, confirmatory corroborator, n [1 kórbórátor, 2 kórbórátor] corroborate & -or One who corroborates corroboratory, adj [1 kórbórátorí, 2 kórbórátorí] corroborate & -ory Corroborative corroboree, n [1 kórbóré, 2 kórbóré] Native word Festivity held by Australian aborigines, on moonlit nights, consisting of dances representing deeds of war and the chase, and events of tribal history corrode, vb trans & intrans [1 kórdé, 2 kórdé] Fr corroder, fr Lat corrodere, 'to gnaw to pieces', fr cor- & rodere, 'to gnaw' See rodent & rat 1 trans a To eat away gradually, as though by gnawing, to wear away (used of action of rust, acids &c), b (fig) of evil passions, sorrow &c corroding hate, care &c 2 intrans To wear, waste away, to diminish through action of rust, or chemical agents corrosion, n [1 kórdshun, 2 kórdshun] Fr, fr L Lat corrosio-(em), fr corro (um), PP type of corrodere. See preo & -ion. Process or action of corroding, or being corroded, gradual eating away, esp by chemical action (also fig) corrosive, adj & n [1 kórvív, 2 kórvív] Lat corros (um) & -ive See preo 1 adj Tending to corrode, producing corrosion (lit. and fig); corrosive sublimate, biobloride of mercury, a poisonous but powerful antiseptic 2 n A corroding substance or agent corrosively, adv Preo & -ly By a process of corrosion, as though by corrosion corrosiveness, n See preo & -ness The property of corroding or being corrosive corrugate, vb trans & intrans [1 kórigát, 2 kórigát], fr Lat corrugat (um), PP type of corrugare, fr cor- & rūgare, 'to wrinkle', fr rūpa, 'a wrinkle', q v under rugose, correct -ak, n [1 kévak, 2 1&nl] Tu w-rl A small yellowish fox of Central As Port. correct, or Span comb's, fr Lat comb's cosmetics n cosmetic adj Designed to beautify the complexion or hair, n, substance in form of a lotion, ointment, or powder applied to the skin or hair with the object of improving their appearance cosmic, adj [1 kózmik, 2 kózmik], fr Gk. kosmós, 'connected with the world' See cosmos & -ic A Pertaining to the universe or cosmos as a whole, to its laws and order cosmic philosophy, that concerned with the evolution of the universe, hence, b harmonious, orderly, opposed to chaotic, o conveying a sense of vastness, universal, grandiose cosmical, adj [1 kózmukl, 2 kózmikl] Free & -al Cosmic cosmically, adv Free & -ly. According to the laws of the universe cosmism, n [1 kózmizm, 2 kózmizem] See cosmos & -ism The theory and philosophy of the evolution of the universe cosmist, n [1 kózmist, 2 kózmist] See pre & -ist Student of cosmism cosmo-, pref Form of Gk. kósmos, 'universe', used in composition See cosmos cosmogonic(al), adj [1 kózmogónik(l), 2 kózmogónik(l)] cosmogony & -ic & -al Pertaining to cosmogony cosmogonist, n [1 kózmogónist; 2 kózmogónist] Next word & -ist Student of cosmogony cosmogony, n [1 kózmogóni, 2 kózmogóni] See cosmo- & -gony A The origin of the universe, manner in which it came into existence, b a theory, or account, of this process cosmographer, n [1 kózmográfér, 2 kózmográfér] See cosmography & -er One concerned with cosmography cosmographic(al), adj [1 kózmográfik(l), 2 kózmográfik(l)] cosmography & -ic & -al Pertaining to cosmography cosmography, n [1 kózmográf, 2 kózmográf] See cosmo- & -graphy A Description of the universe, or world as a whole, in all its parts, b science which treats of these and of the interrelations of each cosmological, adj [1 kózmológik, 2 kózmológik] cosmology & -ic & -al Pertaining to cosmology cosmologist, n [1 kózmológist, 2 kózmológist] Next word & -ist One concerned with, versed in, cosmology cosmology, n [1 kózmológ; 2 kózmológ] See cosmo- & -logy Metaphysical speculation regarding the nature of the universe as an ordered whole, formed upon a definite plan cosmoplastic, adj [1 kózmoplasztik, 2 kózmoplasztik] See cosmo- & plastic Pertaining to the plastic, formative force which moulds the universe cosmopolitan, adj & n [1 kózmopólitán, 2 kózmopólitán] fr cosmo- & Gk. politis, 'citizen', fr polis, 'city' See political 1 adj a Common to all parts of the world, b at home all over the world, free from narrow provincial or national bias, prejudice, or other limitations 2 n One who is at home everywhere, a citizen of the world cosmopolitanism, n [1 kózmopólitánizem, 2 kózmopólitánizem] Free & -ism The condition, character, of a cosmopolitan cosmopolitanize, vb trans & intrans [1 kózmopólitániz, 2 kózmopólitániz] cosmopolitan & -ize To make, or become, cosmopolitan cosmopolite, n & adj [1 kózmopólit, 2 kózmopólit] fr Gk. kosmopolites See cosmopolitan cosmopolitism, n [1 kózmopólitizmus, 2 kózmopólitizmus] Free & -ism Cosmopolitanism cosmopolitical, adj [1 kózmopólitik, 2 kózmopólitik] fr cosmo- & political Connected with universal politics cosmorama, n [1 kózmoráma, 2 kózmoráma] fr cosmo- & Gk. hórāma, 'that which is seen, a view, spectacle', fr horáō, 'I see' Gk. hor- is fr Aryan '*hor-, 'to see', & is cogn w O E wer, 'observant, cautious' &c See ware (II), wary &c An exhibition of views of different parts of the world seen by means of mirrors and lenses cosmoramic, adj [1 kózmorámik, 2 kózmorámik] Free & -ic Pertaining to a cosmorama.

COBALT

cosmos, n [1 kózmós, 2 kózmós], fr Gk. kósmos, 'good order, decency, set form, government', hence 'the world or universe', viewed as an ordered and orderly system Cp kosmós, 'I order, arrange, rule, govern, adorn, embellish' &c, kósmos, 'well-ordered, regular', fr base kóna-*, perh cogn w Goth hana, O E hān, 'company, band', orig 'an ordered, well-arranged band', & perh w Lat censere, 'reckon, take into account, think' See censor, Hanse 1 The world or universe as a perfect and well-ordered whole, as opposed to chaos 2 Hence, any harmonious and well-ordered system

Cossack, n [1 kószak, 2 kószak] Russ kosol, of Central Asian origin, fr lawál, 'adventurer, vagabond', Turkish qazax, 'a predatory horseman, a free-booter'. Race of mixed Tartar and Slavonic origin, having a military organization and supplying cavalry to the Russian army under the Empire cosset, vb trans [1 kóset, 2 kóset] Perh fr O E cot-seta, 'cottage dweller' See cot (I) & sit Used formerly as a n, applied to a pet lamb reared by hand & not by its dam To fondle, pet, pamper cost (I), vb intrans [1 kawat, kost, 2 kóst, kóst], fr O Fr coſter, coſter, fr Lat conſtrā, 'to stand together, to stand at', hence, 'to cost', fr con- & ſtāre, 'to stand', q v under state (I) & stand (I) 1 a To cause or involve the expenditure of money, the payment of a certain price, in order to obtain possession or use of to cost five pounds, a lot of money, too much &c, b to involve expenditure of mental effort to cost much careful thought 2 (of action or conduct) a To result in the loss of something to cost a man his life, fortune, peace of mind, health &c, b to result in some misfortune, injury, disadvantage to cost many sleepless nights, anxious moments &c 3 (commere) To estimate cost of producing an article cost (II), n, fr pre 1 Price to be paid for a thing in order to purchase it, the price paid for a thing purchased Phr cost price, actual price of production, or that at which a commodity can be bought wholesale, opposed to sale price 2 (pl, law) Expenses of a law-suit 3 (fig) Expenditure or sacrifice of time, labour, energy, money, health &c, in order to obtain or achieve something, hence, loss, detriment, suffering at great cost of life, at a heavy cost Phr at all costs, no matter what the cost may be, to count the cost, weigh all circumstances, at the cost of, at the expense of, to one's cost, to one's loss or detriment costal, adj [1 kóstal, 2 kóstal], fr L Lat costalis, fr Lat costa, 'a rib', & -al, op O Fr coste, Mod Fr coste, the only certain cogn is O Slav koſti, 'bone', & various related forms in Slav languages Of or pertaining to the ribs or region of the body enclosed by or near them costard, n [1 kóstard, 2 kóstard] Perh connected w O Fr coste, 'rib', see pre, in reference to the ridges on the surface 1 A large English variety of apple 2 (arohaio and humorous) The head costate, adj [1 kóstát, 2 kóstát], fr Lat costatus, 'having ribs', fr costa, 'a rib', & -ate See costal Having ribs, ribbed, marked with rib like ridges costean, vb intrans [1 kóstén, 2 kóstén], fr Corn cothas stean, 'dropped tin' See stannary (mun) To bore through soil down to underlying rock, to determine existence, or course, of a mineral deposit coster, n, short for costermonger [1 kóstér-(munge), 2 kóstér-(munge)] Ong costard-monger, 'fruit-seller' See costard & monger One who sells fruit and vegetables &c, by hawking them in a barrow through the streets costive, adj [1 kóstiv, 2 kóstiv], fr O Fr costiv, fr Lat constipatus, PP of constipare, 'to press closely together'. See constipate A Constipated, having difficulty in evacuating the bowels, b (fig, of mental state) unable to express thoughts and feelings, barren, jejune, excessively re served in manner costiveness, n See pre & -ness State of being costive costliness, n [1 káwtlínés, kóstli-, 2 kóstlínés, kóstli-] costly & -ness The state or quality of being costly, dear in price costly, adj [1 káwtli, kóstli, 2 kóstli, kóstli] cost (II) & -ly A Of great cost, expensive, dear in price, hence b valuable, splendid, gorgeous costmary, n [1 kóstmári, 2 kóstmári] O E cost, fr Lat costos, Gk. kóſtos, 'oriental aromatic plant', & Mary (the Virgin) Garden plant with star-shaped flowers, with aromatic leaves, used as a pot herb, and formerly for flavouring ale costume (I), n [1 kóstüm, 2 kóstüm] Ong 'customary dress', fr O Fr, through Ital, fr Lat consuetudo, consuetudinis, 'custom' See oustom 1 A Style, fashion, or mode of dress peculiar to a people, nation, class, period &c Highland costume, academic costume &c b clothes or garments generally, esp such as are worn externally her costume was simple and expensive 2 Dress worn by actors in a play representing the life of a former period of history a costume piece, a dramatic production in which the costumes are a reproduction of the dress of the period portrayed, a costume ball, a fancy dress ball 3 Now used chiefly of women's dress, sport, a dress designed as a unity, e g coat and skirt of the same material costume (II), vb trans, fr pre To dress, provide with a costume costurier, n [1 kóstürmer, 2 kóstürmía], fr Fr costurier Free & -ier Tradesman who makes, designs, and supplies costumes Tradesman's word for dressmaker cosy, adj & n [1 kózi, 2 kóuzi] Perh fr Norw koselig, w. much the same meaning 1 adj. Comfortable, snug 2 n Also tea cosy, thickly lined covering put over a teapot to keep it hot cot (I), n [1 kot, 2 kot] O E & M E cot, 'cottage, house, dwelling' History and origin unknown A small shelter or hut, sheep-cot &c, b (poet) humble dwelling, cottage cot (II), vb trans, fr pre To put (sheep) in a cot cot (III), n [1 kot, 2 kot] Hind. khat, 'light bed' 1 (Anglo-Ind) A light bedstead. 2 (naut) Bed swung from the beams, for officers and sick persons 3 n A small bed for a child, larger than a cradle, b bed so children's hospital cot (IV), n Abbr of cotangent cotangent, n [1 kótántent, 2 kótántént], fr co- & tangent (maths) Tangent of complement of an angle cote, n [1 kót, 2 kóut], fr M E cote &c, in fleeced form of cot (I) A shelter, shed &c for domestic animals or birds as, a dove cote &c co-temporary, adj & n [1 kó tómporan, 2 kóu tómporan] Contemporary co-tenant, n [1 kó ténant, 2 kóu tenant] See co- & tenant A joint tenant coterie, n [1 kóteri, 2 kóuteri] Fr, 'association of villagers or country people', fr cotier, 'cottage' See cot (I) A circle, set, group of people associated by some common interest, sympathies, tastes &c, b a social clique co-terminous, adj [1 kó térmínus, 2 kóu tórmínus] Conterminous couthurns, n [1 kóthérnus, 2 kóupínus] Lat couthurnus, fr Gk. Lotharnos Etymol. unknown The high boot or buskin worn by tragic actors on the Athenian stage and later on the Roman stage hence (fig and poet) tragedy, or lofty style suitable for this.

co-tidal, adj [1 kó tidal, 2 kóu tidál] See co- & tidal Co-tidal line, a line on a map showing the places along the coast at which the high-water mark is reached at one and the same time.

cotillion, n. [1 kótiliun, 2 kótiljan], fr Fr cotillon, 'a petticoat', also a dance. A lively dance, the chief interest in which is the method of choosing partners by men and women alternately, which is done by various ingenious devices, b the music for such a dance.

cotoneaster, n. [1 kótóméster, 2 kótó-máste], fr Lat cotonea, 'quince' (bot). Genus of small trees or shrubs, allied to medlar and hawthorn, with pink flowers and clusters of bright yellow or red berries.

co-trustee, n. [1 kó trústé, 2 kóu trásti] Joint trustee.

cotta, n. [1 kóta, 2 kóte] L Lat, 'tunic'. See coat (accles) Short surplice, sleeves w or with short sleeves.

cottage, n. [1 kóty, 2 kótide] In ME, fr Med. Lat collagium. See cot (I) & -age. 1 The small house of a villager or labourer. 2 A small country or suburban house of superior kind, cottage loaf, a loaf of bread consisting of two round parts, the smaller on the top of the larger, cottage piano, a small upright piano, cottage pie, minced meat, covered with a layer of mashed potatoes and baked in a pie dish.

cottager, n. [1 kótyer, 2 kótídze] cottages & -er. A person who dwells in a cottage, b specif, one of the humbler, working class, inhabitants of a village.

cottar, n. [1 kóter, 2 kóte], fr Med. Lat collarius, fr cota, fr cot (I). 1 A cottager, specif, a Scotch peasant attached as permanent labourer on a farm and living in a cottage on the farm. 2 One holding land by a peculiar tenure, a cottier, q v.

cotter, n. [1 kóter, 2 kóte] Origin unknown. Wedge, bolt & for securing parts of machinery. cotter pin, pin to keep cotter in position.

cottier, n. [1 kótier, 2 kóte] cot (I) & -ier. A cottager, specif, an Irish peasant holding a cottage under cottier tenure. Cottier tenure, that by which land, or a house, falls to the highest bidder of those competing for it.

cotton (I), n. [1 kótn, 2 kótn], fr Fr, fr Span cotón, fr Arab quṭun. 1 A plant of mallow family, genus Gossypium, grown in many parts of Asia, Africa, and America, b the soft, downy, seed hairs of this which are long and strong, and being used for a large number of purposes in the manufacture of textiles, are a most important article of commerce. 2 A yarn or thread made from these hairs, b specif, thread of this kind used for sewing. a needle and cotton, needle threaded with cotton, ready for sewing. 3 Cloth of various kinds, woven from cotton thread.

cotton (II), adj, fr prec. Made of cotton.

cotton (III), vb intrans, fr cotton (I), lit 'to adhere together like cotton'. A To take to, take a fancy to a person, feel in sympathy with, become friendly with him. I don't cotton to him at all, am not favourably impressed, don't like him. Phr to cotton up to become friends with &c, b to be favourably impressed with a proposal, idea &c, to accept it as sound, be prepared to adopt it.

cotton-cake, n. Cake, used as cattle food, made from compressed cotton seed, after extraction of the oil.

cotton-gin, n. Device for separating the seeds from the cotton hairs.

cotton-grass, n. A species of sedge, the fruit of which contains long, white, silky hairs, resembling those of cotton plant.

cottonocracy, n. [1 kótn okraz, 2 kótn-ákrasi], fr cotton (I), on anal. of aristocracy. The leaders, the wealthy members, of the cotton industry in Lancashire.

Cottonopolis, n. [1 kótn opolis, 2 kótn ópolis] Manchester, as centre of the cotton trade.

cotton-plant, n. Plant which bears cotton, genus Gossypium.

cotton-press, n. A machine for pressing cotton into bales.

cotton-seed, n. Seed of the cotton plant, yielding oil and cotton-cake.

cotton-spinner, n. -Manufacturer of cotton yarn.

cotton-tail, n. American rabbit, with a white, downy tail.

cotton waste, n. Remnants left from manufacture of cotton used for making inferior cloth.

cotton-wood, n. A species of poplar found in North America.

cotton-wool, n. Downy mass consisting of the hairs of the cotton plant after cleansing and removal of seeds, used in pecking fragile articles, and, when treated with antiseptics, for surgical dressings.

cottony, adj. [1 kótuni, 2 kótani] cotton (I) & -y. A Downy, having texture and appearance of cotton hairs, or cotton wool, b (of woollen cloth) of inferior quality, resembling cotton rather than wool in texture and touch.

cotton yarn, n. Thread spun from cotton hairs, ready for weaving.

cotyledon, n. [1 kótíledun, 2 kótílden] Lat, fr Gk. kotylidón, 'a cup like hollow, socket, navelwort', fr kotulē, 'a small cup', cogn w Sort kotulalē, 'cavity', Lat calculus, dimin of calinus, 'deep vessel for cooking, pot, dish', fr the Lat, Gmc talil*, Goth kahls, 'kettle', was borrowed, fr wb Gmc typo comes also OE cietel &c (see kettle), O Slav kotulu, 'cauldron', was borrowed fr Gmc sources (bot). 1 The first leaf or leaves found in a plant developing from seed, b (cap) large genus of herbaceous plants, natives particularly of S Africa, much cultivated as bedding plants on account of their bright flowers.

cotyledonous, adj. [1 kótíledunus, 2 kótíldenás] Prec & -ous. Having cotyledons.

cotylod, adj. [1 kótílod, 2 kótíloid], fr Gk kotylē, 'cup' (see cotyledon) & -oid. Cup-shaped, specif, of a deep joint-cavity, e.g. that of hip bone.

couch (I), n. [1 kóuch, 2 kaut] Fr, fr vb coucher, 'to lie, to lay'. See couch (II). 1 A An article of furniture on which a person may lie down to rest or sleep, a kind of sofa, b (chiefly poet or lit.) a bed. to retire to one's couch, a couch of pain, fever, &c, c any place of rest for man or beast, as a grassy bank, the lair of a wild animal &c. 2 Various specific and technical uses a (military) mass or heap of grain, piled or spread out to germinate, b (painting) preliminary coat of colour or size &c.

couch (II), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr coucher, O Fr cotcher, 'to lie down', op Ital colcare, fr Lat collocare, 'to place, station, arrange, dispose'. See collocare. A trans 1 (pass) To lay (oneself) down, only in PP. where couched at ease, the white fine glimmer (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam'). 2 To bring, put (a lance, spear) into the position suitable for attack. 3 To put (a thought, request, refusal) into words, written or uttered. a demand couched in arrogant style, to couch one's refusal in polite terms & (surg.) To perform operation on cataract in the eye by pushing down the crystalline lens with a needle. B intrans. 1 To lie down, make one's bed or lair. 'Ere we own a usurper we'll couch with the fox' (Scott). 2 To crouch ready for springing; lie in hiding, lie in ambush.

couch (III), n. Couch grass, q v.

couchant, adj. [1 kóuchant, 2 kautjant] Fr Pres Part of coucher. See couch (II) (her) Lying down with head up. a lion couchant.

couch-grass, n. Variant of quitch. Weed in form of coarse grass, with creeping roots.

cougar, n. [1 kóugar, 2 kúga] Fr couguar, fr native (Hirazi) guagu ara. Large tawny quadruped, Felis concolor, of the cat tribe, resembling a jaguar, but smaller and without spots, found in parts of America, the puma.

cough (I) vb intrans. [1 kowf kof, 2 káf, kof] ME coken & OE collhetan, op Mod Germ leuchen, M.H.G. lúchen, 'to pant'. Origin doubtful. To make a sudden noise caused by a spasm of the vocal chords, or by forcibly driving air through the vocal chords to clear the throat or upper air passage by this means. Cough out, trans, to eject, get rid of phlegm, or other foreign substance from throat by means of coughing. Cough up, trans, a to throw up phlegm &c from air passages by means of coughing, b (fig, vulg) to blurt out something, utter some statement with a certain reluctance.

cough (II), n, fr prec. a (single action) A spasm of the vocal chords, caused by disease, or temporary irritation, accompanied by a sudden and violent expulsion of air from the lungs, also deliberate action of clearing throat by driving air forcibly through the vocal chords. to give a slight cough, b permanent or temporary affection of the lungs, or mucous membrane of throat, or oesophagus, which results in frequent fits of coughing. to have a bad cough. Phr (colloq) churchyard cough, very severe one.

cough-drop, n, also cough-lozenge. One with medicinal properties, taken to relieve a cough.

could, vb. [1 kood, 2 kud] Past tense of can, OE cúpe, ME coude, the i was introduced into the spelling (& even into the pronunciation of 16th & early 17th cent) through the anal. of should & would.

coulisse, o. [1 koolés, 2 kúlis] Fr, 'passage &c, fr coulir, 'flow, glide'. See percolate. Space at the back, and at the sides of the scenes on stage of a theatre.

colour, n. [1 kóliwar, 2 kólwá] Fr, 'a strainer', fr coulir, 'flow', see prec. Mountain gully (from supposed resemblance in shape to a strainer).

coulomb, n. [1 koolóm, 2 kúlóm], fr name of the French scientist, O A de Coulomb (1736-1806) (elect) Unit of quantity in electrical measurements, being the quantity transferred by one ampere in one second.

coulter, also culter, n. [1 kóltér, 2 kúlta] OE culler, fr Lat culler, 'a ploughshare, a knife', fr Aryan base kel*, 'strike, beat' &c, cp Lat percellere, 'beat down, upset, strike', also clades, 'slaughter' &c, see cataclasm & words there referred to, perb OE holegn, holly, is fr same base, meaning 'that which stabs, pricks'. Blade, fastened in front of the share of a plough, which makes vertical cut in the furrow slice.

coumarin, n. [1 kóumarin, 2 kám n] Fr coumarine, fr native name in Guiana. A crystalline substance with vanilla flavour obtained from the seeds of the Tonka bean.

council, n. [1 kóunsil, kounsil, 2 kánsil, káunsil] O Fr cuncile, fr Lat concilium, 'a calling together, meeting, public assembly for political purposes', op Lat conciliare, 'call together, bring together, unite, connect' (see conciliate), fr con- & base seen in Lat calare, 'call out, convoked'. See clamour, claim clear, class. Formerly confused w counsel, fr O Fr cunseil, wh is quite unconnected. (gen sense) A body of persons convoked by authority for deliberative or executive functions. Various specific uses, e.g. a (eccles) assembly of Bishops of the whole Church, formerly convoked by Pope and Emperor, to discuss and define the doctrine of the Christian Church. General, Ecumenical, Council, b body of persons elected to represent a diocese, or parish, and to discuss matters connected with the well being of the Church, c (constitut hist) applied to important deliberative and consultative bodies variously constituted, and having different specific functions in different states. Privy Council, Council of State &c, d (county and municipal) body of persons elected to carry on the business of a county, city, district &c, e council of war, conference of generals in the field, called by commander-in-chief, generally in emergency, to deliberate upon strategic and tactical problems (also fig) discussion of plan of action in ordinary life.

deceive by passing it off as genuine, esp of coins, antiques, writings &c, b assuming the appearance of, spurious, imitated, feigned (of persons, qualities &c) counterfeit virtue, grief &c 2 n a thing made to resemble, or which resembles, something else, a forgery, b one who pretends to be what he is not, an impostor, cheat counterfeit (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To imitate, reproduce by mimicry to counterfeit another's voice, manner &c, b (of persons) to simulate, make pretence of to counterfeit sorrow 2 To make something in imitation of (something else) with intent to defraud, to forge to counterfeit coins, handwriting &c counterfeiter, n [1 kóunterfétér, 2 káuntsefta] Prec & -er One who counterfeits, esp coins, bank-notes &c counterfoil, n [1 kóunterfoil, 2 kóuntsefol] See counter- & foil That part of a bank cheque, postal order, receipt &c, containing a note of date, amount, name of payee, retained when the cheque &c is detached.

counterfort, n [1 kóunterfórt, 2 kóuntsefórt] fr Fr contrefort See counter- & fort A buttress supporting a wall, terrace &c counter-irritant, n [1 kóunterirítant, 2 káuntaíritót] counter- & irritant (med) Substance applied to the skin to produce irritation and blistering in order to relieve inflammation elsewhere, and more deeply seated counter-irritation, n [1 kóunterirítashun, 2 káuntaíritéshon] counter- & irritation. Effect of counter irritant counter-jumper, n [1 kóunterjúmpér, 2 káunta dzámpa] counter (I), b, & jump (colloq) One who serves behind the counter of a shop, shop assistant countermand, vb trans & n [1 kóuntermánd, 2 káuntamánd] See counter- & mandate 1 vb To revoke, cancel, an order 2 n Order revoking or cancelling a previous order countermarch, n & vb intrans [1 kóuntermárch, 2 káuntamárf] counter- & march (mil) 1 n March of a body of troops, backwards, over ground over which it has advanced, retrogression 2 vb To march backwards or in reverse order counter-mark, n [1 kóuntermárk, 2 káunta mák] fr contre-marque. See counter- & mark (I) 1 Second mark placed on goods as extra proof of genuineness &c, or security against fraud 2 Specif, hall mark on plate, in addition to maker's mark countermine, n & vb trans & intrans [1 kóuntermín, 2 káuntamín] counter- & mine (II) 1 n, a (mil) A mine made to meet and destroy an enemy mine, b (nav) a mine or torpedo sunk to explode the enemy's mines, c (fig) plot to circumvent a sower plot. 2 vb To mine, direct, a counter-mine (against enemy mine) counter-paly, adj [1 kóunterpáli, 2 káunta péli] counter- & paly (I) (her) Paly, divided fesswise with tinctures alternating or counterchanged counterpane n [1 kóunterpán, pn, 2 káuntapén, pn] O Fr contrepane for cushie, fr Lat cushia, 'bed cushion pillow, mattress', & paneo, 'pricked', meaning 'embroidered' (see quilt & point) but confused w fr corne, see contra- & jar 'clo's shirt' (fr Lat corne 'piece of cloth', q v underpanno), owing to counterpanes being often made in squares of different colours. Lat cushia is com. v & v lure 'buddle' other cognates are doubtful. O'er covering for a bed fl. & over the bedclothes counterpart n [1 kóunterpárt, 2 káuntepárt] counter- & part (I) 1 a Thing exact corresponding to another esp by having certain complementary qualities as in agreement it, b the corresponding part of an intricate a duplicate copy of a document &c 2 Person exactly resembling another or performing a similar, or corresponding function counter-passant, adj [1 kóunter pásant, 2 káunta pásant] fr Fr contre-passant counter- & passant (her) Going in different directions (of two animals on a shield) counterplot, n & vb intrans [1 kóunterplót, 2 káunteplót] See counter- & plot. a n A plot to defeat another plot, b vb, to form a counterplot counterpoint, n [1 kóunterpóint, 2 káuntepóint] fr O Fr contrepoint counter- & point (I) (mus) a (in mediaeval music) Addition of notes to a given melody, note against note, b (in modern music) free part-writing counterpoise (I), n [1 kóunterpóiz, 2 káuntepóiz] fr O Fr contrepois See counter- & poise 1 a A weight that balances another, b (fig) a counterbalancing force, power, influence, which largely neutralizes another, an equal force or power acting in opposition 2 State of equilibrium counterpoise (II), vb trans, fr prec To act as a counterpoise to (lit and fig) counter-reformation, n [1 kóunterrefórmáshun, 2 káunta refórméshon] counter- & reformation Movement directed against a reformation, which seeks to destroy it and its effect, specif, that of the Papacy, in answer to the Protestant Reformation counter-revolution, n [1 kóunterrevólúshun, 2 káunta rívolúshon] counter- & revolution Political movement directed against a revolution which has taken place, or against revolutionary tendencies counterscarp, n [1 kóunterskárp, 2 káuntaskárp] fr contrescarpe counter- & scarp (fort) The outer slope or wall of a ditch countersign, n & vb trans [1 kóuntersín, 2 káuntasín] counter- & sign (I) 1 a (mil) A secret word or phrase given to a sentry, as means of identification, password, b (Freemasonry) secret sign given on receiving one from another mason 2 vb To put signature to (a document already signed by someone else) countersink, vb trans [1 kóuntersínk, 2 káuntseínk] See counter- & sink. To sink the head of a screw, bolt &c, level with surface of wood by bevelling away outer edges of the hole in which the screw is fixed counter-tenor, n [1 kóunterténur, 2 káunta téna] counter- & tenor A high tenor voice, b the part sung by such a voice, between treble and tenor countervail, vb trans & intrans [1 kóuntervái, 2 káuntavái] fr O Fr contrevailre, fr Lat contrevailre, 'to be effective against' See counter- & vallant 1 trans To counter-balance 2 intrans To have equal or compensating effect or power against, esp countervailing duties, in a tariff counterweigh, vb trans [1 kóunterwá, 2 káuntawá] counter- & weigh. To counterbalance counterweight, n [1 kóunterwáit, 2 káuntawáit] counter- & weight A weight equivalent to another, a counterbalance counterwork n [1 kóunterwérk, 2 káuntawák] counter- & work (fort) Rampart, ditch &c, raised to oppose a similar work on part of the enemy countess, n [1 kóuntaes, 2 káuntis] ME, fr O Fr comtesse See count (III) a (English title) Wife or widow of an earl, lady to whom an earldom has descended, b (foreign) wife widow, or daughter of a count counting-house, n [1 kóunting háus, 2 káunting háus] fr count (I) & house Office in which the financial business of a mercantile firm, large shop &c, is transacted countless adj [1 kóuntles, 2 káuntis] count (II) & -less Too numerous to count, hence very numerous counterside adj [1 kóuntáísa, 2 káuntáísa] As if fr l'í of a vb to count, wh is hardly used country & -side Accustomed to the country, and imbued with the ways and habits and outlook of one who lives in the country, approved to countryed or country-bred country, n [1 kúntri, 2 kántri] ME, fr O Fr contré, fr Low Lat contrita, 'land lying over against', fr Lat contrā See contra- 1 a Land, territory, with definite boundaries, with distinctive name, occupied by a particular race, or nation, the countries of Europe, the wine of the country, b the population of such an area, the nation as a whole the country would never countenance a war of aggression Phr to go to the country, hold a general election 2 Native land, country of one's birth Nelson's last words were, 'God and my country', to fight for ling and country 3 a Tract, area, of land, esp considered with reference to its physical and geographical features, type of soil, character of landscape &c fine, undulating, wooded, country, good hunting country, unknown, unfamiliar, country &c, b (fig) province of knowledge, range of ideas &c this subject is quite unknown country to me 4 Rural district, continuous area of land which is open, not built over, contrasted with town or suburbs to live in the country, to leave the country and move into the town, life in the country is utterly different from that of a town country cousin, n One unaccustomed to towns and town life, who is struck with wonder by all he sees in town, and feels bewildered by the novelty of his surroundings country-dance, n Rural dance, generally one in which men and women stand in circles, in squares, or in rows facing one another country gentleman, n Landed proprietor, squire, who lives on his estates, usually one given up to rural pursuits and business country-house, n One in the country, surrounded by grounds, gardens, park &c countryman, n [1 kúntrimán, 2 kántrimán] a A country dweller, esp of humbler classes, b a compatriot country party, n Political group representing agricultural, as against industrial interests country-seat, n House and demesne, of some size, residence of landowner countyside, n [1 kántáísa, 2 kántáísa] Rural district, neighbourhood countrywoman, n [1 kúntriwóman, 2 kántriwóman] a Woman living in the country, esp of humbler classes, b a compatriot county (I), n [1 kóunti, 2 káunti] fr O Fr comté, fr Lat comitatus, 'an escort, retinue, the imperial retinue, court, a company' Cp comitatus, 'to accompany' See count (III) 1 a The domain of an earl or count, b an earl or count himself op Scott's ballad 'County Guy' (archaic) 2 A territorial division of a State or kingdom for administrative purposes, a shire home counties, the six counties nearest to London. County Palatine See palatine 3 a The inhabitants of a county, b county families county (II), adj, fr prec Of or pertaining to a county county borough, n One of over 60,000 inhabitants, now ranking as an administrative county county council, n Elected public body which administers county business county court, n & vb trans a n A local civil court, with jurisdiction usually limited to amounts not exceeding £100, mainly used for collection of debts, b vb, to sue (person) in a county court county family, n One with inherited territorial possessions, and a residential seat in a county county town, n The chief town in a county; one in which county business is transacted comp n [1 kóp, 2 kúp] fr, 'a stroke, blow', fr Low Lat colpus, fr Lat colap/us, fr Gl. kolaphos, a blow with the fist, a box on the ear, cp Gl kolaphus, 'to blow, cut' &c, prob belong to the same group as Lat clava, 'club', see claviform, further related to Lat culpa, 'fault, crime' See supplices & culpable A successful stroke of business, a lucky move to make, pull off, a great coup Coup d'état, (polit.) a sudden change in the political affairs of a country, effected by unconstitutional methods Coup de grâce, finishing stroke (lit and fig) Coup de main, a surprise attack Coup d'œil, a glance, a rapid general survey Coup de théâtre, a theatrical hit, hence, any showy or sensational trick or surprise coupe, n [1 kōpā, 2 kūpē] Fr, PP of couper, 'to cut', used as a n 1 A four-wheeled closed carriage for two, with a box outside for the coachman, b closed two-seater motor-car 2 A half-compartment at the end of a railway carriage with seats on one side only couple (I), n [1 kūpl, 2 kāpl] Fr, O Fr couple, fr Lat cōpula, 'a band, bond' See cōpula 1 A short thong for holding two dogs together, esp for hunting Phr (lit and fig) to go, hunt, run, in couples 2 a Two things or persons of the same class or kind a couple of pears, couple of persons &c, specif b two persons closely associated in interests and occupation, esp when found together a couple of roques, couple of players 3 Specif a a married pair a good old couple, b an engaged pair, c a pair of partners in a dance couple (II), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr coupler, O Fr copler, fr Lat cōpulāre See préc A trans 1 (lit) To join, link, fasten together, to connect (railway carriages &c) together 2 a To unite or join (two persons in marriage), b to mate (two animals) together 3 a To associate things or ideas together in the mind or in speech to couple the name of Oxford with the idea of learning, b to associate (the names of) two persons together in the mind, to attribute to them close relations or attachment it is not fair to couple his name with that of Miss Z B intrans a To come together, to unite, join, b (of animals) to perform the sexual act, c to marry coupled, adj [1 kūpld, 2 kāpld], fr PP of préc Joined together, in various senses (of hounds) fastened together by a thong, (of persons) married &c, specif (orchestral) coupled columns, those placed near together in groups of two coupler, n [1 kūplər, 2 kāplər] couple (II) & -er a One who or that which couples, b mechanical device for connecting things couplet, n [1 kūplət, 2 kāplət] Fr, dimin of couple See couple (I) Two lines of verse of the same length, united by rhyme, heroic couplet, one of ten syllables to each line coupling, n [1 kūplɪŋ, 2 kāplɪŋ] couple (II) & -ing 1 Act of joining together 2 a Contrivance for connecting parts of machinery, b specif, link(s) connecting two railway carriages coupon, n [1 kōpōn, 2 kūpō] Fr, 'piece out off', fr couper, 'to cut', see coupe Detachable portion of a sheet of paper or cardboard Used in various specific senses, e.g. a one detached from a bond, entitling holder to interest at proper time, b a ticket entitling holder to place in a theatre &c, c part of a newspaper advertisement to be cut off and used as a form of entry for competition, application for free sample or specimen of goods advertised &c courage, n [1 kūrɪ, 2 kārɪdʒ] ME, fr O Fr, also in Mod Fr In ME the word means 'heart' as the seat of emotions & affections, as well as having present meaning O Fr cœur, fr Lat cor, 'heart', see cordate, cardinal, & -age That quality of mind which enables one to face dangers, difficulties, threats, pain &c, without fear, bravery, boldness, intrepidity, pluck Phrs to take, pluck up, muster up, lose, courage, courage of one's convictions, (colloq.) Dutch courage, that produced by strong drink, therefore not genuine or lasting courageous, adj [1 kūrəjəs, 2 kārədʒəs], fr O Fr corageus Préc & -ous (of persons and actions) Possessing, showing, giving proof of courage, the reverse of cowardly, brave, plucky, fearless courageously, adv Préc & -ly In a courageous manner courageousness, n See préc & -ness

Courage

courier, n [1 kūrɪər, 2 kūrɪs] Fr, ME courour, 'runner', O Fr coreor, Low Lat curratōrem, fr Lat currere, 'to run', fr curs*, op PP cursum, cogn w OE hros* (fr hros), OHG hros, 'horse' See horse Base means 'to move swiftly' a Person employed to arrange all the details of journey, esp for those travelling abroad, who accompanies the traveller or party, and takes tickets and seats, looks after luggage, secures rooms in hotels &c, b an express messenger, c name given to several newspapers course (I), n [1 kōrs, 2 kōs] (1) Fr cours, fr Lat cursus, -is, 'a running, course, journey &c', (n) Fr cours (fem n), fr Lat cursus, PP of currere, 'to run' See préc 1 a The act or process of moving from one point to another, continuous moving onward, progress, onward trend the course of life, b (of time) passage, duration in the course of a year Phr in due course, at the proper, natural time or season 2 a The path that is traversed, channel, line, along which onward movement (esp of water) takes place watercourse, course of a river, the stars in their courses, b specially marked out and prepared ground for running competitions race-course, or for certain games golf course &c 3 Specif, line of movement followed in a journey or voyage, direction a ship's course, your proper course is from London to Dover, and so on 4 Mode of action, conduct, behaviour 5 A connected series of acts or events, implying gradual progress in treatment, which together form a unity a course of lectures, of instruction, continuous concentration of the mind for the purpose of learning course of study 6 Each division of, kind of food, dish, served at a meal a dinner of five courses 7 (fig) a The natural process and path or line of development the course of a disease, the course of true love, the course of an argument, b orderly or customary sequence of events, as the course of nature, Phrs in due course, in the natural, legal, or proper order, a matter of course, the natural thing, of course, in the regular order, as was to be expected, naturally 8 (archit) A continuous layer of stones or bricks on same level, along a surface of building 9 (naut) a One of the sails that hang from the lowest yards of a ship, b a point of the compass course (II), vb trans & intrans 1 trans a To hunt, pursue closely, specif b to follow game with hounds, esp hares with greyhounds, by sight and not by scent, c (poet) to traverse The bounding steed courses the dusty plain (Pope) 2 intrans a To run swiftly, race the blood courses through the veins, b to take part in coursing coursier, n [1 kūrɪər, 2 kūrɪs] Fr coursur, fr Low Lat cursarius See course (II) & courior (poet) A swift, spirited horse, a war-horse, a horse generally coursing, n [1 kūrɪŋ, 2 kūrɪŋ] course (II) & -ing The sport of chasing game, esp hares, with hounds that hunt by sight instead of by scent court (I), n [1 kōrt, 2 kōt] ME curt, court, fr O Fr cort, court, fr Lat cort-em, fr co-horti-em, 'enclosure, yard, pen' &c, fr co- & the base seen in Lat hortus, 'garden', Gk khōrtos, 'feeding-place', cogn w Goth gards, 'house', OE geard, 'fence, enclosure, dwelling' (see yard (II)), also w OJ gyrdel, 'belt' (see girdle) See further under cohort, hortus siccus 1 a Unroofed space, partially or entirely enclosed by walls or buildings, and often paved, a courtyard, b paved yard enclosed by small houses, esp one in poor part of a town 2 A large mansion, stately and important dwelling, originally one with a large entrance courtyard 3 a Space roofed, enclosed, and marked for tennis or croquet, b one partially enclosed with walls for the game of fives, c lawn, measured and marked out for lawn tennis, d one of the subdivisions in this 4 a Household of a sovereign, b sovereign and his family, the officials and other persons who compose his household, c state gathering of the sovereign, great officers of State, the notables, and others who come to pay their respects to the sovereign to hold a court, go to, be presented at, court 5 a Place, building, hall, where justice is officially administered, or where inquests and inquiries are held by judges, civil, military, or ecclesiastical, or by magistrates, coroners &c law court, police court &c, b assembly of judges, magistrates &c, or a single one of such persons, sitting in discharge of their or his judicial functions division of the court, contempt of court Phr (fig) to put oneself out of court, to behave or speak in such a way that one is not considered entitled to a hearing 6 Assiduous attention, deferential homage, ingratiating courtesy bestowed upon a person of either sex with a view to enlisting his or her favour and interest, b specif, by a man upon a woman in order to engage her affections to pay (one's) court to court (II), vb trans, fr préc 1 a (of persons) To pay court to, to treat with particular respect and deference in order to secure favour and esteem, b specif (of a man) to woo, seek to win affections of (a woman), c to try to gain (esteem, regard &c), seek by deference or flattery to court a person's approbation, d (fig) to take the best way to get, to behave, act, in such a way that one will probably meet, be overtaken by (gen of something unfavourable) to court a rebuff, to court disaster, defeat &c court-baron, n (legal hist) A manorial court, having jurisdiction over the tenants, esp the copyholders court-card, n Formerly coat-card The king, queen, or knave of any suit in playing cards court-dress, n Dress worn at a court of the sovereign courteous, adj [1 kōrtəs, kārətəs, 2 kōtəs, kārətəs] ME cortais, cortais, cortais, fr O Fr cortis, cortis, cortis, fr O Fr cortis, cortis, Mod Fr courtois court (I) & -ous (lit) Having the bearing and manners of a king's court, hence, n (of persons) having manners at once dignified, urbane, and considerate, polite, with deference and good breeding, b (of manners, speech &c) evincing, expressing, these qualities courteously, adv Préc & -ly In a courteous manner courteousness, n See préc & -ness Exhibition of courteous behaviour courtesan, -zan, n [1 kōrtəzan, 2 kōrtəzan], fr Fr courtesane, fr Ital cortigiana or Span cortesana See court (I) Woman who sells her favours courtesy, n [1 kōrtəs, kārətəs, 2 kōtəs, kārətəs], fr ME cortaisie, cortaisie, cortaisie, fr O Fr cortaisie, cortaisie, Mod Fr courtoisie courteous & -y 1 The politeness which springs from good breeding and kindness of heart, courteous behaviour or disposition 2 Favour, indulgence, acquiescence, as distinct from strict legal right by the courtesy of Courtesy title, one assumed, according to custom, by a person and conceded to him by use and wont, to which he has no strict legal right, e.g. second and lower title of father, by eldest sons of dukes, marquises, and earls, honourable, by all children of viscounts and barons, and so on court-guide, n Directory, originally containing the names of those who had been presented at court, now of the more wealthy classes of a town or district, or of those living in the better parts of these court-hand, n Special form of handwriting, used in legal documents, official records & courtier, n [1 kórtsh, 2 kórtsh] court (I) & -ier a One habitually associated personally with a sovereign or other royal personages, who is accustomed to the ways and manners of courts, b one having the ingratiating and deferential manners supposed to be characteristic of courtiers court-leet See leet courtliness, n [1 kórtlines, 2 kórtlines] courtly & -ness The quality of being courtly, dignity and urbanity of manner and bearing courtly, adj [1 kórtli, 2 kórtli] court (I) & -ly a (of persons) Dignified, stately, in manner and bearing, b (of manners) exhibiting a polished dignity court-martial, n & vb trans court (I) & martial 1 n Trial of a sailor or soldier of any rank, conducted by naval or military authorities, for offences against naval or military law 2 vb To try by court-martial court-plaster, n court (I) & plaster So called from being formerly used by court ladies to make patches for the face Kind of protective stoking plaster applied to cuts & sores courtnship, n [1 kórtshup, 2 kórtshup] court (I) & -ship a Process of wooing or courting a woman with a view to matrimony, b period during which the process lasts courtyard, n [1 kórtyard, kórtyard, 2 kórt-yád, kórt-yád] court (I) & yard Large paved space forming approach to a castle or large mansion, having an entrance gate, and enclosed partly by the building itself, partly by other walls built for the purpose cous-cous, n [1 kóús kóús, 2 kús kús] Arab kuskus A North African dish of meat and steamed flour, esp semolina, seasoned with herbs cousin, n [1 kúzn, 2 kázn] Fr, fr Lat consobrinus, 'the child of a mother's sister, a cousin by the mother's side, a cousin' (in any degree), consobrinus, 'a cousin by the mother's side' This word is fr earlier sweatinas*, fr sweser*, 'cousin', wh normally becomes swor in Lat, & adj suff -ino- Cp exactly similar formation in O Slav sestrinú 'pertaining to a sister', wh goes back to sestrin* See further under sister 1 a The child of an uncle or aunt first cousin, cousin german, second cousin, the child of a parent's first cousin, first cousin once removed, the child of a first cousin, b c more or less remote kinsman, or kinswoman, by blood or marriage Phr to call cousin with, recognize kinship with 2 Title used by a sovereign in writing to, or naming in a formal document, another sovereign, or a peer of his own country cousinhood, n [1 kuznhood, 2 káznhud] cousin & -hood Cousinship cousinly, adj [1 kuznik, 2 káznli] cousin & -ly Like or pertaining to that of a cousin cousinly affection cousinship, n [1 kuznship, 2 káznship] cousin & -ship The relation of cousins covade, n [1 kóvóvhd, 2 kúvóvhd] Fr, 'a brood' See covoy Custom practised by some primitive peoples, whereby, when the wife is lying in, the husband also lies up and feigns delicate health cove (I), n [1 kóv 2 kóv] OE cofa, 'a chamber', ME cove, 'den', cp ON lofi, 'shed', & OHG loben, 'cabin, pig sty' Origin of these uncertain 1 A small sheltered bay, a sheltered recess in cliffs by the seashore 2 (archit) A concave moulding, arch, cap of ceiling or inner roof cove (II), vb trans, fr prec (archit) To arch over, build in a concave form, to slope inwards cove (III), n fr Gipey kora, 'thing, creature', orig a remote demon (slang) Applied familiarly to a male person of any age, equivalent to fellow, chap a run cove, queer fellow coved, adj [1 kóvd, 2 kóvd], fr PP of cove (II) (archit) Provided with, in form of, a cove a coved roof, ceiling coven, n [1 kúven, 2 kávan] O Fr covenant, 'assembly', lit 'a coming together' See next word An assembly or gathering of witches, esp to celebrate a Sabbath covenant (I), n [1 kúvenant, 2 kávinant], fr O Fr covenant, fr coveur, Mod Fr convenir, 'to agree', fr Lat convenire See convene, convenient 1 A solemn and binding undertaking to do something or get something done Various specific uses 2 (law) A contract sealed and delivered containing a definite undertaking, a particular clause in a contract in which an undertaking is given 3 (Bib) The promise of God to the Jews land of the covenant, Canaan 4 (hist) The Solemn League and Covenant, an agreement signed in 1643 between the Scots and the English Parliament, for the preservation of Presbyterianism covenant (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec a intrans To make a covenant, b trans, to grant or promise by covenant covenanted, adj [1 kúvenanted, 2 kávinanted], fr P.P. of prec a Bound by, b secured by, a covenant

Covenantant, n [1 kúvenanter, 2 kávinanter] covenant (II) & -er Adherent of the Solemn League and Covenant

Coventry, n [1 kóventri, kúventri, 2 káventri, káventri] A town in Warwickshire, origin of Phr unknown To send to Coventry, to refuse to speak to, or avoid social intercourse with, to ostracize cover (I), vb trans [1 kúver, 2 kávr] ME couveren, Leuener, kúveren, fr O Fr couvrir, cuvrir, Mod Fr couvrir, fr Lat coopere, 'to cover wholly, overwhelm', fr co- & operire for ob tere* 'to cover, cover over' This word is an old compound fr ob (see ob-), 'against, over', & base uer-*, 'to shut, cover over, protect' & See apartent This base occurs in Lat vestibulum, 'enclosed space' & (see vestibule), & in the Sert compounds apa-tyrni, 'be uncovers, opens', & api-tyrni, 'covers, shuts', further, in O Slav vrši, 'to shut', Goth ueryan, 'to ward off, forbid', O H G ueryan, O E uerian, 'guard, protect', & O E wēr, 'a weir, dam', see weir A 1 a To place, draw, stretch, one substance or thing over, or in front of, another to cover a wall with paper, the seat of a chair with leather & b to superimpose one thing upon another so that it exactly corresponds with it in extent as much as will cover a sixpence, c to spread, extend over, lie upon floods, snow, covered the ground 2 a To place something over or in front of another so as to afford protection to cover a rick of hay with a rick sheet, to cover one's head, (fig) to cover the retreat of an army, Phrs pray be covered, put your hat on, to remain covered, to keep one's bat on, b to protect from a blow or injury by standing, or placing oneself in front of another he covered his wife from the assassin's blows with his own body 3 a To conceal by covering to cover one's face with one's hands, cover one's bare shoulders with a shawl, Phr to cover one's tracks, (lit) to conceal one's footprints, (fig) conceal one's actions, whereabouts & c, b (fig, of non material things) to dissemble, hide, pass off to cover one's shame, confusion, annoyance & 4 To protect financially, be sufficient to meet one's liabilities to cover one's expenses, be security for to cover an overdraft, to protect by insurance my policy covers me against loss from fire, my loss is covered by insurance 5 a To traverse in space go a certain distance travel to cover a distance, so many miles, b (fig) to include in one's treatment of a subject, take in, deal with, pass in review his studies covered a wide field, this book covers the subject adequately 6 To sprinkle thickly, coat, splash bedaub you are covered with dust, a passing motor covered me with mud 7 (usually in pass) To be covered with, a to abound in, have a great number or amount of trees covered with fruit, a face covered with freckles, pimples & c, (fig) covered with blushes, b to have as a natural coat or marking young chicks are covered with down, cats are covered with fur, the breast of a thrush is covered with speckles, o to swarm with, be infested with covered with flies, blackbeetles & c, d (fig, of non material things) to overwhelm, overcome covered with shame, confusion & c 8 (reflex) To cover oneself with, to be involved in, to acquire, bring upon oneself, to cover oneself with glory, with ignominy & c 9 (of remarks, instructions, clauses, provisions & c) To be adequate to, allow, provide for, take cognizance of the rules are supposed to cover all cases, the circumstances are covered by this clause 10 To point a firearm at, keep under the range of a firearm to cover with a revolver & c 11 (of stallions) To cover a mare, copulate with 12 (of a sitting hen) To cover eggs, to sit upon in such a way as to hatch B Followed by an adverb Cover in (a hole in ground & c), to fill in with earth Cover over, to overpread so as to cover completely to cover over a hole in the roof Cover up, to cover thoroughly, wrap up cover (II), n, fr prec 1 Anything specially made or adapted a to envelop, or act as a covering or casing for something cover for a chair, b something made to fit on to the top of a vessel and close it, a lid a cover for saucepan, kettle & c, o something made to fit over another thing to preserve it from dust, a case & c, or to keep contents of a vessel hot a glass cover (o.g. for a stuffed bird), a cover for a book, in paper covers, a metal cover (for a dish or plate) Phrs under the same cover, of several letters & c placed and sent in same envelope, from cover to cover (of books), from first to last page 2 Place laid for a person at a meal, including knives, forks, spoons, napkin, glasses 3 Anything which protects and hides, a (troops) wood, hollows in the ground, rocks & c, b (game, foxes & c) woodland, plantations, gorse bushes & c, o anything which obscures vision under cover of darkness, night, clouds of smoke 4 (fig) Pretence, disguise under cover of friendship 5 (commerce) Sum of money deposited as guarantee or security for possible loss through fall in prices 6 (cricket) Cover point covered-way, n [1 kúverd wá, 2 kávrád wéi] a Roofed passage in the open, corridor, with sides open to the air, b (fort) protected corridor or way below the top of the counter-scarp covering, n [1 kúvrang, 2 kávrang] cover (I) & -ing Anything which covers or protects trees provided a leafy covering & c, sheath, case membranous covering of the lungs covering letter, n One sent along with another document, often in less formal terms than this, which it accompanies by way of introduction or explanation covering party, n (mil) Detachment of soldiers sent to protect others while at work digging trenches, wiring & c coverlet, n [1 kúverlet, 2 kávrlet] ME coverlyte, fr A-Fr, op Mod Fr couvrelet, fr cuvrir, see cover (I), & lit, fr Lat lectus, 'bed' For the base lec-* & c, see lie (I), lay (I), lair The outermost covering of a bed a counterpane coverlid, n Variant of prec cover-point, n (cricket) n Position behind point, b fielder occupying this position covert (I), n, gen pronounced [1 kávr, 2 kávr], but sometimes w final -t In ME fr O Fr, the PP of cuvrir, means 'covered place' See cover (I) & (II) 1 A shelter, esp a wood, thicket & c, which shelters game, foxes & c Phrs to draw a covert, search covert for game or a fox, break, cover (f) (of game & c), to come out from a covert, 2 1 A class of bird wing, tail-covert covert (II), adj See preo Always pronounced w final -t 1 (only fig, of non-maternal things) Veiled, partly hidden, but implied, disguised, (reverse of overt) a covert threat, onset, glance 2 (low) In phr feme covert, a married woman, lit one covered or protected by her husband covert-coat, n covert (I) & coat Light overcoat covertly, adv [1 kúverth, 2 kávetli] See covert (II) & -ly In a shy, cautious, surreptitious manner coverture, n [1 kúverohur, 2 kávetse] O Fr a covering, shelter (obs), b (law) The status of a married woman See covert (II), 2 covert, vb trans [1 kúvet, 2 kávt] ME cousten, A Fr couster, Mod Fr convoyer (w n, as though fr con-), fr Low Lat cupidare, formed fr Lat cupidus, 'eager, desirous', fr cupere, 'to desire' See Cupid To hanker after, desire ardently, wish to possess, esp to desire unlawfully something which is unattainable, or another person's property covetableness, adj [1 kúvetabl, 2 kávtabl] Preo & -able That may be coveted or desired covetous, adj [1 kuvetns, 2 kávtse] Preo & -ous a Having a tendency to covet, the habit of coveting, b filled with desire for something (in innocent and bad sense), o anxious to have more than one is entitled to, avaricious, greedy, grasping covetously, adv Preo & -ly In a covetous manner covetousness, n See preo & -ness The estate, or habit, of being covetous covey, n [1 kávi, 2 kávi] fr O Fr couée, Mod Fr couée, 'a brood', fr O Fr cove, Fr couter, 'to sit or brood on, to hatch', fr Lat cubare, 'to lie down' See concubine, ouficle A Brood of young partridges, b (facet) family of children, set of persons covyn, n [1 kávin, 2 kávin] ME covin(e), 'a trick, a sleight', fr A Fr & O Fr covin, covine, fr Mod Lat convensum, 'convention, agreement' See convens, convenient, convention, covenant (low) Unlawful collusive agreement, conspiracy between two or more persons to the prejudice of another coving, n [1 kóvng, 2 kóvng] fr cove (I) & -ing (archit) a A cove or series of coves, arched roof of a building, b curved sides of a fireplace cow (I), n [1 kou, 2 kau] OE cū, ME cow, OHG kuo, Mod Germ kuh, ON kýr, cogn w Surt gāus, 'ox', Gk bōis, Lat bōs, 'ox' (see bovine), all fr Aryan gʷōu-* The Lat form is Umbrian, the true Lat wd be uōs* Cp O Slav gověda, 'ox', O Ir bō, 'cow' 1 a The female of any animal of the ox tribe, espec b familiar domestic female of this kind, usually kept for its milk 2 Female of various other animals the male of which is called the bull, e g the moose, elephant, rhinoceros, whale, seal, walrus &c cow (II), vb trans Sound, op ON Luga, 'to tyrannize over' To take the spurt out of, to subdue, frighten, by threats or violence coward, n & adj [1 kóward, 2 kóward] fr O Fr coward, coward, coart, fr coe, cove, 'tail' & -ard, op Ital codardo, fr coda, 'tail', fr Lat cauda Prob orig one who turns tail, or shows his tail See caudal 1 n One who lacks courage, a craven, poltroon 2 adj a Destitute of courage, faint-hearted, pusillanimous, b (her) of a hon borne on a shield with his tail between his legs cowardice, n [1 kówardis, 2 kówardis] O Fr cowardise Preo & -ice Lack of courage, faint heartedness, pusillanimity cowardliness, n [1 kówardlins, 2 kówardlins] Next word & -ness Cowardice cowardly, adj & (rarely) adv [1 kówardli, 2 kówardli] oward & -ly 1 adj a (of persons or animals) Lacking courage, b (of words, actions &c) befitting a coward, proceeding from fear of danger &c, mean s cowardly lie, cowardly conduct 2 adv. Like a coward cowbane, n [1 kóubān, 2 káubēn] See cow (I) & bane Water hemlock cowboy, n [1 kóuboi, 2 káuboi] One in charge of cow, spec (USA, Canada &c) a cattle herder, a mounted employee of a ranchman in charge of grazing cattle cow-catcher, n [1 kón kácher, 2 kau kátse] (USA) A strong frame fixed in front of a railway engine for picking up, or removing obstructions from the line cower, vb intrans [1 kóner, 2 káus] ME coueren, in present sense, fr ON kúra, 'to doze, lie quiet' a To crouch, sit huddled up, esp as from cold, misery, or fear, b (fig) to shrink tremblingly, and fearfully, from another's anger, threats, blows &c cow-heel, n Dieh consisting of the foot of a cow or ox, stewed down with onions and other seasoning cowherd, n [1 kóuhārd, 2 káuhārd] One who tends or herds cowe at pasture cow-hide, n Leather made of the hide of a cow, also, a whip made of this cow-house, n Shed or stable in which cows are kept when not out at grass cowish, adj [1 kóush, 2 káush] cow (I) & -ish Like a cow, heavy, slow, and clumsy in movement cowl (I), n [1 kóul, 2 kául] fr OE cugel, 'túle, hood', loan-word fr Lat cucullus, 'hood', the origin of wh is doubtful 1 Hood fixed to long outer garment worn by monks, which can be drawn over the head 2 Device of metal, shaped like a cowl, fixed on the top of a chimney-pot, to increase draught, and prevent smoke coming back into the house cowl (II), n ME, fr O Fr cuel, dimin of cure, 'tub', fr Lat cúpellu, dimin of cúpa, 'a tub, cask, vat' See cup, cupel, cupola (archaic and rare) A large tub for carrying water, esp one borne on a pole between two persons cowlike, adj [1 kónlik, 2 kóulak] cow (I) & -like Resembling a cow, esp in being fat, and having large, mild eyes cowl-staff, n ME cuel staf cowl (II) & staff (archaic and rare) Pole on which a cowl for water is carried cow parsley, n Wild chervil cow parsnip, n Wild parsnip cow-pox, n Disease consisting of small pustules on cow's udders, the matter from which, when applied to a scratch on a human being, gives him a mild form of the disease, and renders him immune from small-pox, the medical term is Vaccinia cow-puncher, n [1 kón púncher, 2 kau pánse] (colloq) Man who herds cattle, esp at docks when they are landed from a ship cowrie, n [1 kóuri, 2 káuri] Hind lauri Small shell used instead of a coin in Western Africa and in parts of Southern Asia cowshed, n [1 kóshed, 2 káshed] Cow-house cowship, n [1 kóuship, 2 káuship] fr OE cū slyppe, 'cow-dung', fr cū, 'cow' & slyppe, 'slime', fr slyg*, op slop (I) Common plant of primrose family, Primula veris, bearing sweet-smelling yellow flowers in clusters, and growing freely in English meadows and pastures in early summer cox, n & vb trans [1 koks, 2 kóks] For coxswain a n Person who steers a racing boat, b vb, to act as cox, steer racing boat coxa, n [1 kókka, 2 kálksa] Lat, 'hip', cogn w Surt Laika, 'armpit', OHG hacha, 'bend of the knee', see cuisse Hip joint, espec, first segment of the leg of an insect coxal, adj [1 kóksal, 2 kálksal] Preo & -al Of, pertaining to, the coxa coxcomb, n [1 kókskóm, 2 kókskóm] For coxcomb See cock (I) & comb (I) 1 Red cap of a professional jester, with notched ridge like the comb of a cock. 2 A foppish, conceited, swaggering fellow coxcombical, adj [1 kókskómik, 2 kókskómik] Preo & -ic & -al Resembling characteristic of, a coxcomb, conceited, foppish coxcombry, n [1 kókskómri, 2 kókskómri] coxcomb & -ry a The behaviour of a coxcomb, conceit, affectation, b specific example of this, foppishness coxswain, n [1 kókswān, kóksn, 2 kóksweín, kóksn] fr earlier cocksweain, fr cock (see cockboat) & swain Cp boatswain a Sailor in charge of a ship's boat and crew, who generally steers; b one who steers a racing boat, usually abbreviated cox cozy, adj [1 kózi, 2 kózi] Variant of cooky (schoolboy's word) Cheeky, giving oneself airs of importance unjustified by one's position and achievements, conceited coy, adj [1 koi, 2 koi] fr O Fr coi, coy, coi, fr Lat guetus, quiet Shy, modest, retiring, demure, affecting to repel advances coyly, adv Preo & -ly In a coy manner coyness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being coy, shyness, modesty, reserve of manner coyote, n [1 kóyóti, kóyót, 2 kóyóti, kóyót] Mex koyul North American prairie wolf, Canis latrans coypu, n [1 kóipú, 2 kóipú] Native name South American water rodent, Myocastor, with valuable fur, known as nutria coz, n [1 kus, 2 kas] Abbreviation of cousin (archaic and obs) cozen, vb trans & intrans [1 kuzn, 2 kázn] Cp Fr cousiner, 'to claim relationship for advantage' See cousin (archaic) a trans To come the cousin, pretend to be a relative, in order to get something out of a person, hence, to cheat, defraud, deceive, to beguile, hoodwink (a person), b intrans To act deceitfully, to cheat crab (I), n [1 krah, 2 krah] OE crabba, ME crabbe, w cognates in most Gmc tongues, ON krabbi, Swed krabba, Mod Germ Krabbe, related to OHG krebitz, Mod Germ krebs, 'a crab' See crayfish 1 A Popular name for short-tailed crustaceans of which there are many varieties The common crab is flat and rounded in shape, reddish-brown in colour, with powerful pincer-like claws, Phr to catch a crab, to thrust one's oar so deeply into the water in rowing that one cannot get it out in time for the next stroke, b species of body louse 2 (astron) The crab, Cancer, one of the signs of the zodiac See cancer 3 One of various machines with claws for seizing and hoisting heavy weights 4 (pl, rare or obs) Lowest throw at dice 5 (colloq) Used vantage, drawback crab (II), vb trans, fr preo Cp Fr crab & Du krabben, 'to scratch, claw, behave like a crab' a To speak ill of, find fault with, pick holes in, disparage (a person or thing), b to carp at, object to, try to thwart (an action) crab (III), n In ME Perh connected w preo, referring to the sourness and gripping qualities of the fruit There is, however, an Engl dial word crab, & Swed dial krabba, 'crab apple' a A small, sour, wild apple, b the tree producing this fruit crab-apple, n crab (III) & apple Fruit of the crab crabbed, adj [1 krahid, 2 krahid] fr PP of crab (II), or crab (III) & -ed a (of persons, speech, expression &c) Cross grained, harsh, bitter, disagreeable, b (of handwriting, style &c) cramped, awkward, stiff, difficult to read crabbedly, adv Preo & -ly In a crabbed manner crabbedness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being crabbed crablike, adj [1 krahlik, 2 krahlik] crab (I) & -like Like a crab, esp crab like motion, gait &c, devious, circuitous, zig-zag crab-louse, n See crab (I) & louse Species of body louse crab-pot, n Wicker basket, buoyed and anchored in the sea, for catching crabs pained with great pain Specif a a form which attacks swimmers from exposure to cold, b writer's cramp, partial paralysis of the finger muscles, due to constant use cramp (II), n Same as prec in origin, re-borrowed fr Du Kind of rivet, consisting of an iron bar with points turned up, let into masonry to increase its stability by binding it firmly together cramp (III), vb trans, fr prec (I & II) 1 To affect with cramp 2 To fasten together with a cramp 3 (fig) To restrict action, to cripple, confine, hamper, physical or mental activity cramped, adj [1 krampt, 2 krampt], fr PP of prec a (of space) Restricted, limited, b (fig, of mental powers) lacking breadth, confined, contracted, narrow, c (of handwriting) badly shaped, ill-formed, difficult to read cramp-fish, n The electric ray or torpedo fish cramp-iron, n An iron cramp, used in masonry crampion, n [1 krampon, 2 krampon] Fr, connected w cramp (I) a A grappling-iron, b (pl) iron spikes worn on shoes for climbing over ice cran, n [1 kran, 2 kran] Origin unknown Provincial word, measure for herrings, 37½ gallons cranche, n [1 kranč, 2 kranč] crane (I) & -age a Use of a crane, b price of hire of a crane cranberry, n [1 kranberi, 2 kranberi] First element is crane, cp Mod Germ Kranich beere Small red acid berry growing on a low bush crane (I), n [1 kran, 2 kran] OE cran, cp O Du cran, O HG chran-ich, cogn w Gk geranos (cp geranium), O Slav žer av, op Lat grūs, 'crane', genit grūs-, also Lat garrulus, 'talkative, chattering', & garrir, 'to chatter' (see garrulous) 1 A tall, slender wading bird, Grus communis, with long legs, neck, and bill 2 (so named from fancied resemblance to the bird) A machine for raising heavy weights crane (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 To stretch out the neck to its full length (like a crane) 2 To raise the neck 2 To raise weight by means of a crane crane-fly, n The daddy-long-legs crane's bill, n Species of wild geranium cranial, adj [1 kranial, 2 kranial] cranium & -al Of, or pertaining to, the cranium cranio-logical, adj [1 kranio-logical, 2 kranio-logical] See cranio-logy & -ic & -al Connected with cranio-logy cranio-logy, n [1 kranio-logy, 2 kranio-logy] See cranium & -logy The science which deals with the shape, size, proportions, and other characteristics of (human) skulls, esp as an indication of race cranio-metric, n [1 kranio-metric, 2 kranio-metric] See cranium & -meter Instrument for measuring skulls cranio-metry, n [1 kranio-metry, 2 kranio-metry] Prec & -y The science of the measurement of skulls cranium, n, pl crania [1 kranium, -ia, 2 kranem, -ia] Med Lat, fr Gk kranion, 'the skull', connected w Gk kra-, 'the head, top, summit of anything' The word is further connected w Gk keras, 'horn', & Lat coronium, 'brain' (see coronium), & w O HG hirn, 'brain', Mod Germ hirn See further under cervine, cervical That part of the animal's bony skeleton which contains the brains, the skull crank (I), n [1 krank, 2 krank] ME crank, connected w OE vb, crincan (also crangan), 'to bend, double up, sink down' (esp in battle) The Prot is crane See crinkle & cringo Ultimate meaning is 'twist, turn'. 1 Part of a machine projecting at right angles to a shaft, whereby motion is imparted to a wheel or disk 2 (fig) Turn, twist, a (of wit or speech) a quaint conceit 'Quips and cranks and wanton smiles' (Milton), b a twist or kink in the mind, an eccentricity of thought, opinions, habits, behaviour, a fad, c a person having an odd eccentric mind or behaviour, a faddist crank (II), adj, fr prec (of a building) Tottory, shaky, unsteady, (also fig, of persons) in poor health, frail crank (III), vb trans, fr crank (I) a To bond, b to fasten with a crank, to cause to move by means of a crank, (often with up) to crank up an engine crankily, adv [1 krankli, 2 krankli] crankily & -ly In a cranky manner crankiness, n [1 krankness, 2 krankness] Next word & -ness Condition of being cranky (in any sense) cranky, adj [1 kranki, 2 kranki] crank (I) & -y 1 (of machinery, buildings &c) Out of order, out of gear, shaky, unsteady 2 (colloq, of persons) a In poor health, shaky, b cantankerous, cross, c eccentric, crazy, full of whims and fads 3 (of roads &c) Full of twists and turns, tortuous crannog, n [1 kranog, 2 kranog] Ir crann, 'a tree, beam', cp W prenn, 'tree stump', fr k'remn*, whence also Gk premnion, 'tree-stump' Ancient Irish or Scottish lake-dwelling cranny, n [1 kran, 2 kran] ME crani, 'chink', fr crani, 'notch', fr Romance crēna, fr Lat crēna* See crenel A small opening, fissure, orifice, chink, crack in a rock or wall crape, n [1 kräp, 2 kräp] Fr crêpe, O Fr crêpe, 'curled', fr Lat crispus See crisp a A thin, gauze like-crimped material or cloth, of black silk, used for mourning garments, b band of this worn round hat or arm as sign of mourning craps, n pl [1 krap, 2 krap], fr Fr craps, craps, 'game of dice' (USA) A gambling game played with two dice crapulence, n [1 krapulens, 2 krapulens], fr Lat crāpula, 'drunkenness, debauch, and the consequent sickness', fr Gk krapulē, 'a debauch, sickness, or headache resulting from a debauch', etymol doubtful Sickness caused by excessive drinking, drunkenness crapulent, adj [1 krapulent, 2 krapulent], fr Lat crāpulentus, 'very much intoxicated', fr crāpula See prec Connected with, arising from, crapulence crapulous, adj [1 krapulus, 2 krapulus], fr L Lat crāpulosus See prec words & -ous Crapulent crash (I), vb intrans, rarely trans [1 kras, 2 kras] Imitative, but perh associated w some Sound. word such as Swed krasa, 'to break' See crase a intrans 1 a To fall suddenly and violently, esp with a loud noise, used of sudden falling in general, but particularly of fragile, brittle objects, crockery &c, b specif (of aircraft) to fall suddenly through engine failure, breaking of essential part of machinery &c, c (fig) to collapse, be ruined, come to serious grief the whole financial scheme crashed disastrously 2 Crash down, to run, slide, descend rapidly with much noise the avalanche crashed down the mountain-side 3 Crash into (of vehicles &c in collision), to run into with violent, noisy impact the runaway engine crashed into the goods train B trans To cause to crash to crash an aeroplane &c crash (II), n, fr prec 1 a A loud, sudden noise as of heavy, brittle objects falling and smashing, b a noise resembling this crash of thunder, of artillery &c 2 a A noisy violent impact resulting from collision or fall, b specif, the sudden, accidental fall of aircraft 3 (fig) a Run, failure, esp in financial affairs, b sudden social run due to outbreak of a scandal crash (III), n. Origin unknown. Coarse linen cloth

crasis, n [1 krāsus, 2 krāsus] Gk krāsis, lit 'a mixing, blending', fr base k'rā*, as in Gk kerannāmi, 'I mix', op also Gk krātēr, 'bowl for mixing wine and water' (see crater), fr this base come also Sort krānē, 'mix, cook', krāyati, 'cook, roast', & also OE hrinan, 'to touch', & hreran, 'stir, shake' Contraction of two vowels, esp of the last and first of two words in combination, e.g. Lat cōpia, 'plenty', fr co opia, see copious crass, adj [1 kras, 2 kras], fr Lat crassus, 'solid, thick, dense, fat', fr k'rāt* to, fr base k'rāt* &c, 'twist together, plait', expanded fr k'er* &c, 'to hand', see curve, op Lat crāvis, 'basket-work'. See further on this base under crate (of mental state) Gross, coarse, hence, nter, complete, esp crass ignorance, crass stupidity &c crassitude, n [1 krāsītūd, 2 krāsītūd], fr Lat crassitudo, 'thickness, density' See prec & -tude Gross stupidity, denseness, obtuseness crassly, adv [1 krāsli, 2 krāsli] crassly & -ly In a grossly stupid manner, completely crassness, n [1 krāsnes, 2 krāsnes] See prec & -ness State, condition, of being crass, gross stupidity

-crat, suff [1 krat, 2 krat] See -cracy, as in autocrat, plutocrat &c cratch, n [1 krac, 2 krac] ME crache, crache, fr Fr crèche, 'crib, manger' Gmc loan word, O HG (Frankish) krappan See crib A rack for fodder crate, n [1 krāt, 2 krāt] Lat crātis, 'wicker-work, a hurdle' The base k'rāt* &c is found in Lat crassus, 'thick' (see crass), & further in Goth haurde, 'door' (orig, apparently, 'a wooden gate'), O HG hurt, 'basket work', O E hyrdel, 'hurdle' See further under hurdle A case or hamper of basket-work, or of light boarding, used for packing, carrying, or sending fragile objects, such as glass, crockery &c crater, n [1 krāter, 2 krāter] Lat, 'bowl for mixing wine', fr Gk krātēr (see crasis), 'a large bowl for mixing wine and water' a Bowl shaped mouth of a volcano, b (mil) hole in the ground, somewhat resembling this in shape, caused by explosion of a mine or heavy projectile crateriform, adj [1 krāteriform, 2 krāteriform] Prec & -form Shaped like a crater cravat, n [1 kravat, 2 kravat] Fr cravate, orig 'a Cravat' The word was applied to an article of dress worn by these people, some of whom were in French service in the 17th cent Old-fashioned form of neck tie, in form of a piece of lace, silk, linen &c, worn by men about the neck, folded flat and kept together by a brooch or pin crave, vb trans & intrans [1 krāv, 2 krāv] LO E cravian, ME crāven, fr Scand, op ON kręfa Etymol doubtful 1 trans To ask humbly and insistently for, to beg, entreat, beseech, implore to crave one's pardon 2 intrans Crave for, to have a persistent and intense longing for craven, n & adj [1 krāven, 2 krāven] Etymol doubtful a n a coward, a poltroon, one devoid of spirit and courage, b adj, cowardly, faint-hearted cravenly, adv Prec & -ly In a craven, cowardly, manner craving, n [1 krāvng, 2 krāvng] crave & -ing Intense and persistent longing, strong desire, passionate yearning a craving for pleasure, drink, affection &c crawl, n [1 kraw, 2 kraw] ME crave The expected form craga* is not found in OE Note, however, Du krag, 'neck, collar', & Mod Germ kragen, 'collar', prob cogn w Gk brakh (thos), 'throat', wh is fr k'rakh*, & brakhem, 'to gulp down' Bird's crop crawfish, n [1 krawfish, 2 krōfish] Variant of crayfish crawl (I), vb intrans [1 krawl, 2 krawl] Spelt cral in Spenser, prob Scand, cp ON kralla, 'to paw, scabble with the hands', Swed dial kraffa, 'creep on hands and knees', & Dan. krode, 'to creep' 1 a To creep, move by dragging the body along the ground (of worms &c.), b to move along on hands and knees (of young children), c to move by wriggling the body along the earth (of human beings trying to avoid observation, or passing through steep or otherwise difficult ground) 2 To move about slowly and feebly, often crawl about, applied to the weak, uncertain gait of sick or infirm persons 3 (fig) To abase oneself before another, to act in a servile manner in order to curry favour 4 To abound in, swarm with, crawling things the ground was simply crawling with insects 5 To have a tickling sensation in the surface of the skin, as though crawling things were moving on it crawl (II), n, fr prec a The act of crawling, b a slow or feeble pace to go at a crawl, to walk, drive &c very slowly, c a racing otter in swimming with head kept low in the water crawler, n [1 krawler, 2 krdlō] crawl (I) & -er a Person or animal that crawls, b (fig) a servile, abject time server or flatterer, c (pl) baby's overalls used for crawling about on the floor crawly, adj [1 krawli, 2 krdlī] crawl (II) & -y (colloq) Having a creepy sensation on one's body crayfish, n [1 krāfish, 2 krēfīš] Adaptation of ME crevis &c, fr O Fr crevisse, Mod Fr craysses, wh is fr OHG krebitz, 'crab' See crab a Fresh water crustacean resembling a small lobster, found in streams, b the spiny lobster, the sea crayfish crayon, n & vb trans [1 krāon, 2 krēon] Fr, 'pencil', orig 'a chalk pencil', op Fr craye, Lat crēta, 'chalk', lit 'Cretan earth' 1 n a Thin short stick of soft, oily chalk, clay, or charcoal, used in drawing, b a drawing executed in this material, also crayon drawing, c carbon point in an electric lamp 2 vb To draw with crayon craze (I), vb trans [1 krāz, 2 krēz] ME crāsen, fr Scand source, op Swed krasa, 'to break', slā & kroso, 'break to pieces', Fr craser, 'to crash', is fr same source See crash. The orig meaning, 'to shatter' &c, is now obs Nearest survival in specific sense in 2 1 To render insane, cause mental derangement in 2 To produce crackled effect in glaze of pottery craze (II), n, fr prec a An exaggerated fondness, irrational enthusiasm a craze for stamp collecting, b a popular fashion, a page aerial gliding was the latest craze crazed, adj [1 krāzd, 2 krēzd] fr PP of craze (I) 1 (of persons) a Insane, b greatly excited crazed about, madly enthusiastic, exaggeratedly fond of 2 (of pottery glaze) Crackled crazily, adv [1 krāzli, 2 krēzili] crazy & -ly In a crazy manner craziness, n [1 krāznes, 2 krēzīnis] Next word & -ness The state of being crazy, madness, folly crazy, adj [1 krāzi, 2 krēzi] craze (I) & -y 1 (of persons) a Mentally deranged, lacking balance, b excited, enthusiastic, c crazy about, rendered unreasonable by exaggerated fondness for 2 (of a structure) a Dilapidated, riotous, shabby, on sound a crazy building, ship &c, b crazy poem, one formed of irregularly shaped pieces creak (I), vb intrans & trans [1 krēk, 2 krāk] ME crelen Imitative word, allied to O Du krelen, 'creak' Cp also crack & croak 1 intrans To emit a shrill, dry, harsh, grating sound, like that of a piece of rusty metal or other dry material, grating upon another piece, esp of rusty hinges, ill fitting gates, doors, new cheap boots &c 2 trans To cause to creak to creak a chair creak (II), n, fr prec A sharp, harsh, dry noise, caused by friction of rusty metal, or any dry hard substance, moving upon another under pressure creakily, adv [1 krēkli, 2 krākili] See next word & -ly With a creaking noise creaky, adj [1 krēki, 2 krāki] creak & -y Apt to creak, omitting a creaking noise cream (I), n [1 krēm, 2 krīm] ME crēme, O Fr crème, Mod Fr crème, Lat crema, fr Gk khristina See chrisim 1 a The rich oily element in milk which rises to, and floats upon, the surface, the foundation of butter, b any substance resembling cream in consistency 2 A table dish containing or resembling cream in consistency, mixed with other ingredients and flavoured see cream, chicken cream &c 3 (fig) The best, choicest part, fine flower, of anything, as the cream of society, the cream of the story, of the joke, the climax, point 4 Colour resembling that of cream, opacif, a horse of this colour cream (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To remove the cream from (milk) by skimming 2 intrans a (of milk) To form into a cream, b (of other liquids) to form into a thick foam or scum cream-cheese, n cream (I) & cheese A soft rich cheese made of unskimmed milk and cream cream-coloured, adj Of the colour of cream, yellowish white creamier, n [1 krēmer, 2 krīms] cream (II) & -er Any kind of instrument for skimming cream off milk creamery, n [1 krēmari, 2 krīmari] fr Fr crémère cream (I) & -ery a An establishment where cream is separated from milk, and where butter is made from it, b shop where milk, cream, and butter are sold cream-laid, adj Trade term for a smooth, glossy, cream coloured paper cream of tartar, n [1 krēm uv tartar, 2 krīm av tīta] So called because the crystals form on the surface of the liquid in process of purification Purified and crystallized potassium bitartrate, used in medicine and cookery cream-wove, adj Trade term for a cream-coloured wove paper creamy, adj [1 krēmi, 2 krīmi] cream (I) & -y Resembling cream in consistency, texture, or colour crease (I), n [1 krēs, 2 krīs] Etymol doubtful 1 a A line, mark, or ridge made upon cloth or similar material by folding and pressing a fold, rumple, specif b straight ridge or fold deliberately made by pressing down the front or trousers 2 Line of whitening on a cricket pitch, which defines the position of the batsman or bowler crease (II), vb trans & intrans See prec 1 trans To impart a crease or creases to cloth, whether by design or accident to crease one's trousers (deliberate), b to crease one's clothes, to make irregular lines, folds, wrinkles, in them by careless folding or wear 2 intrans To fall into creases, become wrinkled this material creases very easily creased, adj [1 krēst, 2 krīst] crease (I) & -ed Full of, covered with, creases, specif a deliberately folded, as the front of trousers, b irregularly wrinkled and tumbled, as clothes &c which have been badly folded create, vb trans [1 krēat, 2 krētī] fr Lat creā (um), PP type of Lat creāre, 'to make, produce, create', lit 'cause to grow', fr Aryan base ker*, kar* &c, 'to grow', fr wh comes also Lat corpus, & crevere, 'to grow, arise, spring' &c (see creascent), further cognates are Gk lóros, 'strapping', lótrē, 'maiden', lit 'growing creatures', in Gmo, Goth haltra, OHG herta, OE leord, 'herd' (see herd), & OE hyrst, OHG horst, 'wood thicket, growing wood', see hurst 1 a (of the Divine act) To produce from nothing, call into being cause existence of to begin God created all things, b (of processes of nature and social causes) to bring about, cause to exist new forms of life are created by the forces of evolution 2 (of human activity) a To produce, construct, something new and original in thought or imagination to create an epic, drama, system of philosophy &c, b specif (of an actor) to create a part, character, conceive, and express it in action in an original way, c (of human material activity) to make, produce, as an organic whole, by bringing together materials already existing into proper order and relation to create an army, an empire a cathedral &c (gen used in this sense of work of some magnitude), d to bring into existence by legal action to create a peer, an office of State &c, e to confer a new status, dignity, rank, on a person to create a man a peer, baronet &c 3 To give rise to, produce, cause to exist, or to become apparent, something not previously in existence, a (of non material things) to create a feeling of surprise, an awkward situation &c, b (of material things) to create a sensation of cold, a painful itching &c creatin(e), n [1 krēatin, 2 krētin, in] fr Gk krēat, stem of krēas, 'flesh' See account of base of this & its derivatives under crude (chem) A white crystalline substance found in the blood and soft tissues of vertebrates creation, n [1 krēashun, 2 krēishun] fr Fr création, fr Lat creātion (em) See create & -ion 1 a The act of creating or causing to exist, specif (with cap) the act of God in bringing the universe and life into existence, b all that God created, man and the whole universe the whole creation, the whole universe, all living creatures 2 a The human mental act or process of producing a new work of thought or imagination the creation of great poetry, b something produced by the operation of the human mind, specif, by the imagination of a poet or other artist a creation of genius, c act of instituting or making an office, rank &c by a legal decree the creation of a peerage &c, the rank &c thus created his peerage was a creation of yesterday, d (1) act or process of making, producing, some new material thing the creation of an empire, a new city, (2) specific use act of designing an article of wearing apparel, and the garment designed the latest Paris creations, e process of producing, giving rise to something, by the agency of natural or social forces the creation of new species by an evolutionary process, the creation of social unrest by economic conditions creationism, n [1 krēashunizim, 2 krēishunizim] Prec & -ism 1 (theol) The doctrine that the origin of species and that of matter is due to special acts of creation by God 2 (theol) The doctrine that a new soul is created for every human being that is born creationist, n [1 krēashunist, 2 krēishunist] creation & -ist - An adherent of creationism creative, adj [1 krēativ, 2 krēitīv] create & -ive 1 Having the power to create (in varying senses) a of the Almighty, b of human beings, c of natural forces 2 Connected with, pertaining to, creation creatively, adv Prec & -ly In a creative manner creativity, n See prec & -ness Quality or faculty of creating creator, n [1 krēatur, 2 krēista] Lat See create & -or a Specif, the Creator, God in His aspect of maker of the universe, b one who creates (in any sense) creature, n [1 krēcher, 2 krītja] ME, fr Fr, fr L Lat creatura, 'a thing created' See create & -ure 1 (archaic) A created thing, as distinct from something self-existent these thy creatures of bread and wine, we are all God's creatures 2 Specif, a living being, a a human being a good creature, a lovely creature (woman), a poor creature, (1) contemptible human being, (2) now gen. expressive of pity, patronage, contempt, and sense of superiority on the part of speaker poor creature, b one of the lower animals dumb creatures 3 One who from interested motives, or sense of obligation to another, is embarrassed to him, and entirely at his service for all purposes, good or bad, an unscrupulous tool of another & (humorous) The creature, strong spirits, esp whiskey Often epitaphic, from the Irish pronunciation 5 As adjective in creature comforts, material comforts and luxuries creaturely, adj Preco & -ly Pertaining to creatures crèche, n [1 krāsh, 2 kreiʃ] Fr, 'oradole' Variant of cratch Public institution in which young children are cared for during the day while the mothers are at work credence, n [1 krédens, 2 krédans], fr Med Lat crédentia, fr Lat crédent(-em), Pres Part of credere, 'to trust, believe' See creed 1 Belief, esp reliance on the testimony of others to give credence to, to believe 2 (ecoloc) A small table in a church by the side of the altar on which the bread and wine are placed ready for the Eucharist Also credence table credentials, n pl [1 krédénshalz, 2 krédén-folz] See preco & -al Documents, written or other testimonials, which furnish evidence to others of a person's identity, genuineness, respectability of character, competence, knowledge, and other qualities necessary, to be established for his particular purpose credibility, n [1 krédibiliti, 2 krédibílisti] See next word & -ity State or quality of being credible credible, adj [1 krédibl, 2 krédíbl], fr Lat crédibilis, 'worthy of belief', fr credere, 'to believe', & -ible See creed A (of persons) Worthy to be believed, trustworthy, b (of statements) capable of being believed, possible to believe credibly, adv Preco & -ly In a manner deserving, commanding, belief, from a reliable source to be credibly informed that &c credit (I), n [1 krédit, 2 krédíst] Fr, fr Lat créditum, 'what is believed', PP of credere, 'to believe' See creed 1 Belief, credence to give credit to a person's statements 2 Personal honour, integrity, trustworthiness a man of the highest credit 3 Some person, circumstance, quality, act, which reflects honour upon a person, and confirms or enhances his reputation he is a credit to his parents 4 Reputation, prestige, honour, gained by acknowledged merit to have the credit of one's discoveries, to add to one's credit; to give a person credit for being a sensible man, Phre very much to his credit, to do one credit 5 (commerce) Trust and confidence based upon belief in a person's, a corporation's, or a state's promise to pay, in the future, within a certain time, and his or its ability to do so as being financially solvent to have unlimited credit, to purchase goods on credit 6 A sum standing in a person's favour in a banking account, b (book-keeping) that part or side of an account in which are entered all sums received in favour of the account, contrasted with debit Letter of credit, banker's letter authorizing the agents in other places to make payments to holder, up to a certain sum credit (II), vb trans, fr preco 1 To believe, attach credence to, accept as reliable (a person or statement) 2 To credit (a person) with a quality, or with having done something, to give him the credit of possessing or doing it, to attribute or ascribe it to him 3 (book-keeping) To enter on the credit side of an account to credit an amount to a person, to credit a person with an amount, to place it in his favour on credit side of the account creditable, adj [1 kréditabl, 2 krédítabl] Preco & -able Bringing credit, redounding to (a person's) honour a creditable performance, an action creditable to him who performed it creditably, adv Preco & -ly In a creditable manner, with credit, without disgrace creditor, n [1 kréditer, 2 krédítr] Lat, 'a trustor, a lender' credit (II) & -or 1 One to whom a debt is owing 2 (book-keeping) The debit side of an account, abbreviation Cr credo, n [1 krédō, 2 krédow] Lat, 'I believe' See creed A The Apostles' or the Nicene Creed, which in Latin begin 'credo, 'I believe', b a musical setting of the Creed credulity, n [1 krédúlit, 2 krídúlit], fr Lat crédulitas (em), 'trustfulness, easiness of belief', fr credulus See next word & -ity Quality of mind which renders a person prone to believe what he hears without sufficient evidence, liability to be imposed upon, foolish, unjustified trustfulness credulous, adj [1 kréjoolus, krédúlus, 2 krédzulus, krédjules], fr Lat credulus, 'believing too easily, too confiding', fr credere, 'to believe' See creed A (of persons) Ready to believe on slight evidence, easily imposed upon, b (of things) easily believed by the credulous (archaic and rare) credulously, adv Preco & -ly In a credulous manner credulousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being credulous creed, n [1 kréd, 2 kríd] OE creda, fr Lat crēdo, 'I believe', Sort, has trad-āha, 'trust' The word is possibly a compound of two Aryan bases, k'erd*, k'rd*, k'rd*, 'heart' (see cordate & heart), & dhe*, 'to place' See do 1 A brief formal summary of the essential articles of Christian faith or doctrine, esp the Apostles' Creed, Nicene Creed, and the Athanasian Creed, Phr to know one's, or the Creed, refers specifically to the Apostles' Creed Hence, 2, any formula, or system of religious or other beliefs or principles creek, n [1 krék, 2 krík] ME cryke, perh of Scand origin, cp ON kríki, 'bay', Swed kriki, or fr a L Germ source, cp Du kreei, Fr crigue, must be fr the ON A narrow inlet of water, near the seashore, or in the bank of a river creel, n [1 krél, 2 kríal] Late ME crelle, 'basket', fr O Fr creil, prob L Lat craticulum, dimin of crāte, 'wicker-work' See crate A wicker basket for carrying fish creep (I), vb intrans [1 krép, 2 kríp] OE creopan, ME crepen, ON krjupa, Du kruspen The base has not been definitely identified outside Gmc, but it may be cogn w that in griffin Cp orpyple The general sense is the same as crawl 1 a To move along with the body near to the ground, go on hands and knees, said of progressive movements of babies, insects and small animals as mice, squirrels, also of some kinds of birds moving about on trees looking for insects, b (of plants) to grow along the ground, a wall, or other surface, as ivy, a vine &c 2 a To walk cautiously, stealthily, without making a noise to creep about on typoe, b to move about feebly and shakily like a sick or old person 3 (fig) a Esp of time, age &c, to come on gradually and almost unobserved, followed by upon old age comes creeping upon one unnoticed, b of other things which appear unobserved 4 (fig) To fawn, cringe, to insinuate oneself by servile behaviour to creep into a person's favour 5 To have a sensation as though insects were creeping over one, to feel creepy, (but gen fig) to shudder, feel fear, repugnance, horror &c, esp in Phr to make one's flesh creep 6 (naut) To drag in deep water with a creeper creep (II), n, fr preco 1 (colloq in pl) The creeps, feeling of shrinking, shuddering horror 2 a (geol) A gradual movement of loose rock material, b (min) a slow rising of the floor of a gallery 3 An opening in a hedge &c, for animals to pass through creeper, n [1 kréper, 2 krípa] creep (I) & -er 1 One that creeps, esp an insect or reptile 2 Name of various small birds as Tree Creeper, Wall Creeper &c 3 (bot) A plant which creeps along, or beneath, the ground or climbs up a wall by means of tendrils, as the Virginia creeper 4 A An instrument with iron hooks for dragging the bottom of a body of water, a grapnel, drag, b (pl) spikes or nails fitted to boots for climbing or walking on ice creep-hole, n [1 kréphöl, 2 kríphoul] A hole or retreat into which one may creep to hide creeping, adj [1 kréping, 2 krípíng] fr Pres Part of creep (I) 1 a (of insects &c) Moving with crawling movement creeping things, b (of plants) tending to run along the ground creeping plants 2 Slow, feeble a creeping gait, movement 3 Fawning, cringing a creeping sycophant creepy, adj [1 krépi, 2 krípi] creep & -y Tending to give one the creeps, producing horror, fear, and disgust creepy-crawly, adj [1 krépi kráwli, 2 krípi królí] Creepy creese, n See cris cremate, vb trans [1 krémát, 2 kríméti], fr Lat cremāt(-um), PP type of cremare, 'to reduce to ashes, consume by fire' The word is amplified fr base Ler-* &c, 'to burn', seen also in Lat carbo, 'coal' (see carbon), & in Gk. kéramos, 'potter's clay, a tile' (see ceramio), Peranannus, 'I mix, cook', krátis, 'bowl', & krasis, 'a mixing' See crasis To burn up, consume entirely by fire, reduce to ashes, esp to dispose in this way of a human body after death, in a specially constructed furnace Used also of burning of rubbish and waste matter generally in an incinerator cremation, n [1 krémáshun, 2 kríméʃən] Lat cremātiō (em), 'a turning' See preco & -ion Act, process, of cremating, specif, that of burning a human corpse cremationist, n [1 krémáshuníst, 2 kríméʃəníst] cremation & -ist One who believes in cremating dead human bodies instead of burying them cremator, n [1 krémátur, 2 kríméti] cremate & -or A One who cremates, b special furnace for cremating crematorium, n [1 krématónum, 2 kríméʃtórəm] Invented Lat word fr crematory A Public institution where human corpses are cremated, b one where refuse is consumed crematory, n & adj [1 krématurí, 2 kríméʃtórí] cremate & -ory an A crematorium, b adj, pertaining to cremation crème de menthe, n [1 krām de mōnt, 2 krém dā mánt] Fr, lit 'cream of mint' A sweet, thick, greenish liqueur flavoured with peppermint Cremona, n [1 krémóna, 2 krímóna] An ancient and valuable make of violin, made at Cremona in Italy crenate(d), adj [1 krénát(d), 2 krémát(d)] Ital crena, 'a notch', & -ate See crenel Notched, indented, scalloped, esp a (bot, of a leaf) Having its margin cut into even and rounded notches, b (physiol) of shrunken blood corpuscles, having toothed edges crenation, n [1 krénáshun, 2 kréméʃiō] Preco & -ion. Condition of being crenate, esp of leaves and blood corpuscles crenate, n [1 krénashur, 2 kréost[ə]] crenate & -ture A crenate formation crenel(le), n [1 krénel, 2 krénal] O Fr crenel, fr Med Lat crenellum, dimin of Romance crēna, 'notch', fr Lat crēna*, fr base Ler-* 'to cut', wh occurs also in Lat caro, 'flesh', orig 'piece of flesh, portion cut off' See carnal - A One of the gaps between the raised parts in the castellation on a battlement, b any structure or ornament resembling these in form crenel(late)(d), vb trans & adj [1 krénolát(d), 2 krénolést(d)] Preco & -ate a vb To furnish with crenels, b adj, having crenels crenellation, n [1 krénéláshun, 2 krénéléʃən] Preco & -ion A The act of crenellating, b crenellated work creole, n & adj [1 kréól, 2 kríoul] Fr, fr Span criollo, 'native of America or W Indies', word made by negroes, perh contraction of Span criadillo, dimin of criado, 'educated, instructed, bred up', PP of criar, 'to create' The sense was orig 'little nursing' (Skeat) See create 1 n Used in two different senses a person of pure European descent born in the W Indies or

Mauritius or S American states; b a half-caste, person half negro, half European 2 adj Belonging to, connected with, springing from, n creole in either sense creosote, n [1 kréost, 2 kréosot] Word of mod. scientific manufacture, fr Gk kréas, genit kréas, 'flesh', see crude, & sós, 'I save' With the latter ep Gk éolér, 'saviour', & w a different grade of vowel, saos, 'safe', fr base tuo*, tuó*, teuó*, &c, 'to swell', hence 'to be strong' See tumid Only, dark brown, strongly smelling liquid, obtained from wood tar, and used as an antiseptic, and as a preservative for wood which is exposed to the weather crêpe, n [1 kráp, 2 krép] Fr, orape Dressmaker's word for certain fabrics which resemble crêpe, esp crêpe de chine, a material of this kind made from silk crepitant, adj [1 krépítant, 2 krépítant], fr Lat crepitant (em), Pres Part of crepitare See next word Having or making a crackling sound crepitat, v trans [1 krépítat, 2 krépítat], fr Lat crepitat (um), P P of crepitare, 'to rattle, crack, crackle', frag of crepère, 'to crack', the word is prob of imitative origin fr Aryan itself, op Lat corvus, 'raven', corvus, 'crow', prob fr same base (see carvine), Sort krépít, 'to lament' See also under raven, coracoid 1 To emit a series of sharp, frequent, crackling sounds, to crackle Specif 2 (of certain hostiles &c) To discharge a defensive fluid accompanied by a slight explosive sound crepitation, n [1 krépítashun, 2 krépítatshun] Proc & -ion a crackling crackling sound, esp (med) of sound made by ends of broken bone rubbing together, or of breathing as heard in pneumonia, b act of crepitating (see prec 2) crepitus, n [1 krépítus, 2 krépítas] Lat, 'rattling, clashing, crackling' &c See crepitante (med.) Sound made by sudden discharge of wind from the bowels crepon, n [1 krépon, 2 krép] Fr See crêpe Crêpe of firm texture crept, vb [1 krépt, 2 krép] Pret & P P of creep M E crepe, now wk. form, cp O E str Pret crēp, M E crēp crepuscular, adj [1 krepuskulár, 2 krepuskulár] fr Lat crepusculum, 'twilight, dusk', dimin formation fr creper (adj), 'dusky' The etymol of the latter is doubtful, but if, as has been suggested, er is fr en, then it might be connected w Gk kréphas, 'dark' the Lat representing a dial (Sabine) form w p for Aryan bh a Of, pertaining to, resembling, twilight, dim, glimmering, specif b (of animals, as bats &c, and insects) active, flying, in the evening or just before the dawn crepuscule, n [1 krépuskú, 2 krepuskú] Fr, fr Lat crepusculum, 'twilight' See prec Twilight crescendo adv, adj, & n [1 kreshéndé, 2 kreshéndou] Ital, Pres Part of crecere, 'to increase, grow', fr Lat See creoscent a (mus) A direction signifying increase of loudness, b (fig, gen as adv) signifying increasing intensity of feeling or action Abbreviation cre(c) cresecent (I), n [1 kréseent, 2 kreseent], fr Lat cresecent (eri), 'growing, increasing' Pres Part of crecere, 'to grow' This word is fr base kr-* &c, 'to grow' See create 1 The shape of the waxing or waning moon, properly the moon in the first quarter, but applied to the moon in any stage which exhibits this shape 2 Anything curved in the shape of the moon in early or late stages a (her) a charge consisting of the figure of the crescent moon with the horns pointing upward, b the emblem of the Turkish Empire, hence (fig) the Turkish power c the Mohammedan religion contrasted with Christianity Phr the Cross and the Crescent, Red Crescent, Turkish and Moslem equivalent of the Red Cross 3 A row of houses built in a semi-circle, or approximately in form of a crescent crescent (II), adj See prec a Shaped like a crescent, b increasing in size, growing (poet) crezol, n [1 kréol, 2 kréol], fr creosote & -ol (med) A caustic liquid obtained by distillation of coal tar, an essential constituent of the antiseptic lysol, q v crease, n [1 kres, 2 kres] O D crēse, crease, & M E crease, O H G krasso (whence Fr cresson), Mod Germ kresse, 'watercress', Klings suggests a connection between the O H G n & chresan, 'to creep' The name of various plants, with hot tasting edible leaves, often used and referred to in combination with mustard, which is sown alongside of crease, the tender leaves of which are used together with it in salads &c cretset, n [1 kréset, 2 kréset], in M E, fr O Fr crassa, 'grease', fr Low Lat crassia, fr crassus, 'thick' Cp crease An iron vessel for holding burning oil, pitch &c, hung aloft and used as a torch crest (I), n [1 krest, 2 krest] M E fr O Fr cresta, fr Lat cresta, 'tuft on the head of animals, cock's comb' Connected w Lat crassa, 'hair of the head', wh is for crania, parh also w crispus, 'curly' (see crisp & ornite), Goth af-krisjan, 'to shake off', & O E hrisan, 'to rattle, creak' 1 a Tuft of hair or feathers on head of animal or bird, comb of a cock, b distinctive device, tuft, carrying &c, anciently worn on a helmet, c (poet) the helmet itself, d (her) distinctive device (see b) borne above the shield on a coat of arms family crest 2 The top, highest point, of a thing, a of a hill, mountain, cave Phr (fig) on the crest of the wave, at the highest point, most favourable moment of one's fortunes, b the arched neck of a horse and the maac upon it, c (anet) bony ridge at the top of the head of primitive races occipital crest crest (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To furnish, adorn, with a crest, b to mount to the top or crest of to crest a hill, wave &c 2 intrans To rise into, form, a crest, esp of waves (rare and poet) crested, adj [1 krésted, 2 kréstid] prec & -ed Having a crest (in all senses) a golden-crested wren, crested noddie &c crestfallen, adj [1 kréstfawlen, 2 kréstfólen] crest (I) & fail a (lit) With drooping plume or crest, hence, b dejected, dispirited, depressed, and disappointed cretaceous, adj [1 krétáshus, 2 krétásas], fr Lat cretaceus, adj, 'chalk like', fr créta, 'chalk', & -aceous See crayon a Having the qualities of chalk, chalky, babooning in, full of, chalk, specif o (geol) belonging to the last Mesozoic period or system between the Jurassic and Tertiary cretic, n [1 krétk, 2 krétk], fr Lat creticus (see pde), 'Cretan (foot)', fr Oréla, 'Creta' (class pros) Metrical foot consisting of a short syllable between two long ones cretification, n [1 krétífikashun, 2 krétífikashun] See next word Process of converting something into chalk cretify, vb trans [1 krétífai, 2 krétífai] fr Lat créta, 'chalk' (see crayon), & -fy To convert into chalk, to impregnate with salts of lime cretin, n [1 krétn, 2 krétn] Fr, cretin, dial form fr Lat christianus, Christian, hence, 'human being' in sense of 'just human' a Person afflicted with cretinism, b an idiot, mean spirited person cretinism, n [1 krétinizm, 2 krétinazim] prec & -ism Disease arising from deficiency of the thyroid gland, which results in stunted physical development, and idioecy, often accompanied by goitre and deformity cretonne, n [1 kréton, 2 kréton] Fr cretonne, fr Cretoa, a village in Normandy A strong unglazed cotton cloth, having a pattern printed on it, used in upholstery crevasse, n [1 krévás, 2 krévás] Fr See next word A deep cleft, specif, in the ice of a glacier crevice, n [1 krévis, 2 krévis] M E & O Fr crevice, Mod Fr crevasse, fr crater, 'to break, burst', fr Lat crepère, 'to creak, crack' See orepitate A narrow opening, crack, split, chink, fissure in the earth, a rock, a building &c crew, n [1 krú, 2 krú], formerly crue, fr O Fr accru, accruere, 'augmentation, reinforcement', fr P P of accroître, 'to increase', fr Lat crecere, see creoscent 1 a The whole body of those employed in working a ship or boat, b (in restricted sense) excluding the officers of the ship officers and crew 2 A group or company of persons associated, bound, seen together, (gen in derogatory sense) gang, set, mob a noisy, disreputable crew crewel, n [1 krúel, 2 krúel] Earlier creal, crule, perh fr O Fr escrouelle (de laine), 'shreds of wool', fr Low Lat scrifella, Lat scrifula 'pug' See scrofula The connexion in sense between the Fr & Lat words is not easy to see, though accepted by Meyer Lübke Worst yarn for tapestry and embroidery crewel-work, n Embroidery on canvas with coloured threads crib (I), n [1 krib, 2 krib] O E & M E cribb, O E krubba, O H G krippha, Mod Germ krippe, Swed krubba, Dan krybbe, 'amb, manger' Cp cratch Relationships outside Gmo doubtful 1 a A manger or rack for fodder, b a stall for oxen (archaic) 2 A hut, a small room, a small house a snug crib 3 A child's cot with high sides to prevent inmate from rolling out 4 A wicker basket, esp a wicker salmon trap 5 (min) A heavy framework for shoring up sides of a mine shaft 6 (cards) In cribbage, the crib comprises the cards given to the dealer to use in scoring and discarded for that purpose by the other players 7 (colloq) A plagiarism, hence, n literal translation of a foreign or classical author, esp one dishonestly used by schoolboys 8 (slang) A house, shop &c, esp in thieves' cant to crack a crib, break into, burgle, a house crib (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To confine within a small space, as in a crib, to cram 'Cabin'd, cribb'd, confin'd' (Shakespeare) 2 To furnish (a stall, stable, cowshed &c) with cribs 3 (colloq) To plagiarize literary work, to appropriate passages or ideas without acknowledgment from another's work to crib one's best things from others B intrans (esp of schoolboys) a To make secret and dishonest use of literal translations of classical authors, b to copy a translation, exercise &c from a schoolfellow and show it up as one's own to crib out of another's exercise book cribbage, n [1 kribij, 2 kribidj], perh fr crib (I) A card game for two, three, or four players, the points made in this game are scored on a cribbage board, by pegs stuck into holes cribbing, n [1 kribing, 2 kribing] crib (II) & -ing Action expressed by the vb 'to crib', specif, crib biting crib-biting, n (voter) A habit among some horses of hitting the manger or other object, at the same time sucking in air cribriform, adj [1 kribriform, 2 kribriform], fr Lat cribrum, 'sieve', & -form The Lat n is fr base kr-, krē &c, meaning 'to distinguish, separate out, disarrimate, sift' &c Cp Lat cernere (fr crn*), 'distinguish', see concern, certus, 'certain', see certain, Gk krínō, 'I separate, distinguish, decide, judge', kríōs, 'judge', see critic Perforated like a sieve crick, n & vb trans [1 krik, 2 krik] Variant of creek, w orig meaning of 'bend, crook' 1 n A sharp, painful wrench or strain in a muscle or joint 2 vb To strain or wrench a joint or muscle so as to produce a crick to crick one's neck cricket (I), n [1 krikot, 2 krikot] M E, fr O Fr crigue Imitative, connected w creak A small brown winged insect, Gryllus, crimoline, n [1 krlinlən, 2 krlinəl] Fr, fr Lat crinis, 'hair' (see crinite), & lin, fr Lat linum, 'flax, a thread'; see linum, linen 1 Device consisting of a light round steel frame end stiff fabric, originally of horse hair, formerly used for producing a large bulging or swelling, in women's skirts 2 Framework of timber and wire netting used as a protection against torpedoes on warships crin-, pref meaning 'ram-headed'; fr Gk kriōs, 'a ram, battering ram', cogn w Gk kérus, 'a horn', & Homeric kérusē, 'horned' See cerato- & hart. crisophynx, n [1 krifəfɪŋks, 2 kraiəfɪps] Prec & sphynx. Ram headed sphynx cripple, n & vb trans [1 kripl, 2 kripl] OE cripel, ME oripel, cripel &c., 'lame, paralysed person', fr krīp-īl*, fr base kreup-*, as in OE creopan See creep 1 n A lame, or otherwise maimed, person, one who has lost the use of a limb, one who is disabled 2 vb a To lome, to disable, b (fig) to impair, weaken to cripple one's activities, usefulness &c crippled, adj [1 kripld, 2 kripld] Prec & -ad Maimed, disabled, impaired crisis, n [1 krais, 2 kraïsis], Lat, fr Gk krisis, 'a separating, putting apart, a decision', fr krinō, 'I separate, decide, judge'. Same base in crizine, ortice, orbiform, oertan, riddle (III) 1 The decisive moment, or stage, a in affairs, life, late, politics, b turning point in a disease Hence, 2, any difficult, dangerous, infelicit situation, combination of circumstances financial crisis &c crisp (I), adj [1 krisp, 2 krisp] ME crisp, crype, 'curly'. Cp Lat crispare, 'to curl, to set in trembling motion', fr Lat crispus, 'curled' OHG herpan, 'to pluck'. The base is perh orig the same as that in Lat crinis, 'hair', see crinito 1 A curly, tightly curled (esp of hair), b (bot.) curled or wrinkled (of cabbage leaves) 2 Dry and brittle, liable to break easily crisp toast, biscuit &c 3 (fig uses) a (of style) Sharp, clear, incisive, b (of manners, utterance) brisk, decided, c lively, sparkling crisp repartee, d inducing briskness, fresh and bracing crisp air crisp (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To curl, to form into ringlets (of hair) 2 To make (pastry, toast &c) crisp B intrans 1 A To form into curls, or short, tight folds, b (of surface of water) to ripple 2 To become crisp (of toast &c) crispete, adv [1 kripit, 2 kripet], fr Lat crispitum, PP of crispāre, 'to curl, wave'. See crisp (I). Having a crisped, curled appearance crispation, n [1 krip-i-shun, 2 kripitʃən] Prec & -ion 1 Act of crisping or curling, state of being curled &c 2 A slight spasmodic contraction of the muscles or skin crisply, adv [1 krippli, 2 krippli] crisp (I) & -ly In a crisp manner crispiness, n [1 kripsnes, 2 kripsnis] See prec & -ness Quality of being crisp crispy, adj [1 krispi, 2 kripiti] crisp (I) & -y a (poet) Crisp, curly (of hair), b sharp, short (of crust, toast &c) criss-cross (I), n [1 kris kras, 2 kris krɔ̃] For earlier Chriss-cross 1 (archaic) Al-o cross row for Christ cross row, name of a child's alphabet on a horn book, from the cross which was placed at the beginning 2 A child's game, naughts and crosses, played on paper or slate, with squares made by drawing lines crossing each other 3 Mark made by crossing of two lines criss-cross (II), adj, adv, & vb trans, fr prec 1 adj Marked with crossed lines 2 adv Cross wise, in opposite directions 3 vb To mark with crossed lines crestate, adj [1 krestət, 2 kresteti] fr Lat crestatus, 'having a crest or tuft', fr crux, 'cross', 'tuft or crest on the head of animals'. See crest. Crested (of birds and animals).

the skull or head, (by extension) the head to break a man's crown, b the top of a hat, o (archit) the highest part of an arch, d (anat) that part of a tooth which projects beyond the gum, e (naut) the end of the shank of an anchor where the arms join it crown (II) vb trans, fr prec 1 a To place a crown upon a man's head, thus investing him with the kingly office to crown (person), crown (him) ling, b to honour, reward, in allusion to the ancient crowning of victors with wreaths to crown a person with glory 2 a To occupy the head of, to top, cap, surmount a hill crowned with wood, a tower crowned with a spire, b (fig) to put the finishing touch to the end crowns the work 3 (draughts) To place one piece upon another, when it reaches a certain line on the board, to indicate that it is a 'king' 4 Specif (dentistry) to crown a tooth, to cover it with gold or other material as a protection

Crown Colony, n One belonging to the British Empire which is governed direct from the Colonial Office crowner, n [1 krónær, 2 krónæ] See coroner (archaic, now vulg, or provincial) Coroner, as in Phr coroner's quest, an inquest crown glass, n Thick glass used for window panes, blown in a special manner, so as to leave a knot in the centre crown imperial, n A An emperor's crown, b a species of tall garden lily crown-law, n That of criminal prosecutions crown prince, n Heir apparent to a throne, esp in North Europe (Sweden, Denmark &c and formerly in Prussia and Bavaria) crown princess, n The wife of a crown prince crown-wheel, n A wheel with cogs or teeth set in its rims at right angles to its plane, as in a watch crow-quill, n A small steel pen used for fine writing, lithography, tracing &c crow's-foot, n Various things shaped like the foot of a crow speak 1 (mil) a cistrop 2 Usually pl, crow's-feet, series of wrinkles, which diverge from outer corner of human eye in old age crow's-nest, n A small protected platform on mast head of a sailing vessel for the lookout man.

crozier See crosier crucial, adj [1 króshál, króshual, 2 krúh], [krúh], fr Lat crucis 'cross', & -al See crux Fr crucio, used of surgical incisions, means 'cross-shaped' 1 (surg) Cross-shaped crucial incision 2 A relating to final and supreme trial, or decision, decisive, critical crucial test, experiment &c, b of the nature of a crux, severe, difficult crucial period, question crucian carp, n [1 króshán kárp, 2 krúh], [krúh] Fr carousse, fr Lat coracinus, 'species of river fish', fr Gk lorakinos, 'young raven', also 'a kind of poroh' (fr its colour), fr lóraz, 'orow' See base *kor, 'orok', in corvus, rook A species of carp cruciate, adj [1 króshát, króshuát, 2 krúshát, krúshet] Formally might be fr Lat cruciatus, PP of cruciare, 'to crucify, torture', fr crux, 'cross' (see crux), but the word is prob a new formation fr cruci & -ate, w special meaning Cross shaped, specif (bot) having leaves or petals in the form of a cross crucible, n [1 króshibl, 2 krúshibl] Low Lat crucibulum, 'a hanging lamp', also 'a melting pot' The etymol is doubtful, but Shest suggests crucis, 'cross shaped', fr a type of lamp w four wicks coming fr arms in form of a cross The suff is doubtless on the anal of Lat thuribulum, 'censer' (see thurible) Cruci- here might possibly be a neo Lat word akin to Fr cruche, 'earthenware pot' &c, wh is fr Gmc, op ON krulla, 'pot', OHG krug, Mod Germ krug See crook (X) A melting-pot of earthenware, platinum &c, for melting substances which require great heat to dissolve, crucible steel, a very fine, hard steel, used for making tools, b (fig) a severe, searching test cruciferous, adj [1 króshíferus, 2 krúshíferus], fr L Lat crucifer, 'cross bearing', & -ous See crux & -ferous (bot) Belonging to the Cruciferae, a natural order of plants with flowers of four petals arranged as a cross, which includes the cabbage, turnip &c crucifix, n [1 króshífiks, 2 krúshífiks] Fr, or direct fr L Lat crucifixus, 'one fixed to the cross', fr Lat crux, stem cruci-, 'cross', & fixus, PP of figere, 'to fix' See crux & fix (I) A religious emblem consisting of sculptured or moulded figure of the Saviour upon the Cross crucifixion, n [1. króshífíksion, 2 krúshífíksion], fr L Lat crucifixionem (em) crucifix & -ion 1 a The act of crucifying or hanging a person upon a cross, specif, the crucifying of Christ, b a pictorial representation of this 2 The state of being crucified, death on a cross, specif, the death of Christ 3 (fig) Great suffering or affliction cruciform, adj [1 króshíform, 2 krúshíform] Lat base, cruci-, 'cross'. See crux & -form Cross shaped; esp built in the form of a cross, as churches with transepts crucify, vb trans [1 króshíf, 2 krúshíf] Fr crucifier, fr Low Lat crucificare* for crucifigere, 'to fix to a cross'; See crux & fix (I) a To fasten to a cross, to put to death by nailing to a cross, b (fig) to subdue, mortify, by a severe, ascetic mode of life esp to crucify the passions, evil desires &c crude, adj [1 króud, 2 krúid] fr Lat crūdus, 'raw, hard, undigested (of food)', unprepared, undressed (of hides &c), harsh, oruel; connected w Lat cruo, 'gore, thick blood', crūdilis, 'oruel' &c A large group of Gmc words, of vb OE hrēan, 'raw' (see raw), is an example, are related, possibly also Gk kratas, 'raw flesh', & Gk krúds, 'to', krustallós, 'ice', see crystal See also crust, crust 1 (of physical condition) a Rough, bitter to the taste (poet and archaic) 'I come to pluck thy berries harsh and crude' (Milton), b in a natural state, raw, not cooked, not refined or prepared for use crude flesh; crude oil, sugar &c, o (rare, of food) not digested, (of fruit &c) unripe 2 (fig, of non material things) a Ill conceived, badly arranged, not thought out, immature crude theories, methods, statements, b lacking finish or grace, unpolished crude manners, o (of colours) harsh, garish, unharmonious, d undigested, not softened down, bald, bare crude facts, necessities crudely, adv Prec & -ly In a crude manner crudeness, n Sea prec & -ness Quality of being crude crudity, n [1 króshúdti, 2 krúshúdti] Fr crudité, Lat crūdītāt (em), lit 'indigestion' See crude & -ity 1 a The state or quality of being crude, rawness, b that which is crude 2 That which is crude, undigested, lacking finish or polish &c cruel, adj [1 króshel, 2 krúshel] Fr, fr Lat crūdēlis, 'hard, unmerciful, fierce', fr crūdus See crude 1 a (of persons) Disposed, willing, to cause pain to others in body or mind, taking pleasure in giving pain to others, hard-hearted, unfeeling, b (applied to inanimate objects) causing pain and suffering a cruel wound, blow 2 (of actions, words &c) Designed to cause, causing, pain or distress 3 Exhibiting results of the cruelty of man or circumstances, hence, painful, distressing a cruel sight, cruel suffering, cruel fate 4 As adverb, (colloq, and vulg) as mere intens, a very, extremely cruel cold, very cold, b excessively and badly, esp in vulg Phr I hurt myself something cruel cruelly, adv Prec & -ly In a cruel manner cruelty, n [1 króshelti, 2 krúshelti] fr. O Fr cruellē, fr Lat crūdēlītāt (em), fr. crūdēlis See cruel & -ty 1 a The quality or state of being cruel or hard-hearted, inhumanity the cruelty of man, b an act, or treatment, which springs from this quality of mind, and inflicts pain upon others, a cruel action he died by the cruelty of his enemies 2 a Suffering not deliberately inflicted by man, but arising from natural circumstances the cruelty of his sufferings, b severity of circumstances which causes suffering the cruelty of fate crust, n [1 króshit, 2 krúshit] A-Fr, dumm of O Fr crus &c, 'earthen pot' Of Gmc origin, op OHG krug, 'pitcher' &c See crook (I) 1 a A small glass bottle holding vinegar, oil &c at table, b a collection of several of these, a crust stand 2 (ecoles) A small vessel for holding wine or water for use at the Eucharist crust-stand, n Small receptacle, of silver or baser metal, with a handle for lifting, designed to hold several crusts cruse (I), vb intrans [1 króuz, 2 krúz] fr Du kruizen, 'to cross, traverse', fr kruis, 'cross' See cross (I) & crux To sail on the sea in a ship; esp a to sail about from place to place on business or pleasure, b (of war vessels) to traverse the sea in scouting for the enemy or in pursuit of the enemy's mercantile marine &c cruse (II), n, fr prec a A sea voyage of any kind a long cruse, four years' cruse, b a sea voyage from place to place, or in constantly changing directions, whether undertaken on business or pleasure, o sea voyage of a war-vessel for scouting, commerce destruction &c cruiser, n [1 króuzer, 2 krúza] cruiser (I) & -er A war-vessel adapted for cruising, formerly a privateer, now a man of war less heavily armoured than a battleship and therefore having greater speed crumb (I), n [1 kram, 2 kram] OE cruma, ME crūme, crumms, perh cogn w Lat grūmus, 'little heap, or hillock of earth' With this Walde also compares OHG krumun, 'to scratch with the nails', further Gk grípōs, 'hooked, curved', esp of the nose, see griffin Boissac also quotes Albanian grime, 'crumb of bread' The orig idea expressed by the base is, according to Walde, 'scratching with the bent fingers', & according to Boissac, 'to rub, wear away' 1 a very small piece rubbed or broken off some thing, esp a small portion of bread, (of non material things) a trifling amount a crumb of comfort, crumbs of information 2 The soft, spongy part of bread made the crust crumb (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To break, rub into crumbs (of bread) 2 (colloq) To cover, dress, or thicken with crumbs crumb brush, n Curved brush for sweeping crumbs off a tablecloth crumb cloth, n One spread over a carpet, esp under a dining table to preserve the carpet crumble, vb trans & intrans [1 krambl, 2 krambl] Freq fr crumb 1 trans To rub or break into small morsels, reduce to crumbs to crumble one's bread, also crumble up 2 intrans a To fall into small pieces, decay crumbling walls &c, bones long since crumbled to dust, b (fig, of non material things) to disintegrate, come to nothing, pass away, become ruined the great empires of the past have crumbled and fallen, my dearest hopes have crumbled to nothing, also crumble away crumbly, adj [1 kramblh, 2 kramblh] Prec & -ly Apt to crumble, easily crumbled, brittle, friable crumbly soil &c crumby, crummy, adj [1 kram, 2 kram] crumb (I) & -y 1 a Full of crumbs, soft, b full of crumbs, soft 2 (vulg and obs) slang, of women Plump, well covered crump, n [1 kramp, 2 kramp] crump (army slang) A heavy, bursting shell crumpet, n [1 krampet, 2 krampet] Earlier crumped, as through PP of to crisp, 'to make crisp' Cp crimp a sort of thin sticky, doughy, flabby, unrefined &c of flour, usually toasted and plentifully buttered and eaten hot, b (vulg slang) the head, brain, esp in Phr barry on the crumpet, foolish, crazy crumple, vb trans & intrans [1 krúmpł, 2 krúmpł] Cp OHG krump, 'crooked', & see cramp & crimp 1 trans a To roll, crush up roughly and carelessly, so as to make creases or folds to crumple one's clothes, b crumple up, to roll or crush up by squeezing in the hand, esp of a dry material such as paper, c (fig, applied to persons) to overwhelm, reduce to helplessness, overcome to crumple up an opponent 2 intrans a To become creased, fall into wrinkles this cloth crumples very easily, b to crumple up, to fall, collapse, bend under a strain the wall, wings of an aeroplane, crumpled (up), he simply crumpled up under the blows he received, c to collapse, give way, be crushed, morally to crumple up under a mental shock &c crunch (X), vb trans & intrans [1 krúnsh, 2 krán(b)] Imitative word of same order as scrunch A trans 1 To crush, shatter, crack, chew up noisily with the teeth, esp some hard, brittle substance, such as toast, biscuit, small bones &c 2 To grind hard dry ground under foot or wheel, so as to make crushing, creaking sound B intrans To carry out action of chowing noisily, of treading heavily on gravel &c, or of hurting noisily through hard brittle material crunch (II), n See prec a The act of crunching, b a crunching noise

crupper, n [1 krúper, 2 krápe] ME croppere, O Fr croppiere, Fr croupière See croup(e) 1 That part of a horse's hind quarters between the saddle and the root of the tail 2 Leather strap in driving harness, from the back of the saddle, having a loop which passes under the horse's tail, to keep the saddle in position crural, adj [1 krúral, 2 krúral] Lat crúralis, adj, fr Lat crúr, base of crús, genit crúris, 'leg, shank, shin' Etymol on certain (anat) Connected with, belonging to, the leg crusade, n & vb intrans [1 krúśád, 2 krúśád], fr Fr croisade, Span crusada, Ital crociata fr Med Lat cruciata, fr PP of cruciare, 'to mark with a cross' See crux & cross (I) & -ato 1 n a Military expedition, undertaken by Christian kings and peoples in the Middle Ages, sanctioned by the Pope, with the object of recovering the Holy Sepulchre and Holy Land from the Mohammedans, b a holy war with a religious object, c any enterprise or agitation inspired by moral, religious, or political fervour, against a public scandal or abuse a crusade against drunkenness, Bolshevism &c 2 vb To take part in a crusade crusader, n [1 krúśáder, 2 krúśáder] Preo & -er One engaged in a crusade, specif, one who took part in the crusades of the Middle Ages cruse, n [1 krúś, 2 krúz] ME crúse &c Etymol uncertain Perh fr ON krús, 'pot' (arabais) A vessel (jar, pot, or cup) for holding water, oil, honey &c Phr widow's cruse (in allusion to 1 Kings xvii 16), an inexhaustible source of supply crush (I), vb trans & intrans [1 krush, 2 kras] O Fr croiser, 'to break', fr Gmo, cp ON freysta, 'to squeeze, press', Goth krustan, 'to gnash the teeth', op also Goth krusts, 'gnashing of teeth' A trans 1 a To compress, esp something frail or brittle, with force between two resisting bodies, so as to shatter, break in, bruise to be crushed by a heavy wagon &c, b to crush a black beetle with the foot &c, c specif, to press, squeeze, so as to distort shape, alter natural consistency, or force out contents to crush grapes (for wine), nuts (for oil), corn &c, c to cause to become creased, impart wrinkles to (a dress piece of fabric &c), Phr (obs) to crush a bottle of wine, open and drink it 2 To pulverize by mechanical means, such as pounding or grinding to crush quartz 3 (fig) a To subdue, overcome, suppress (a rebellion, opposition &c), b overwhelm completely, annihilate, destroy, reduce to impotence (a military force &c), c (of moral effects) to disconcert, abash, render confused (of persons), to destroy, damp, extinguish (hopes, aspirations &c) B intrans 1 To become crushed she crushes very easily 2 (of a crowd of persons) To press, squeeze, flock in crowds into to crush into a small room C Followed by adverbs Crush up, a to reduce to powder to crush up sugar, b to squeeze up into a ball in the hand to crush up a piece of paper Crush down, a to press down by weight to crush down growing plants, b to pulverize, reduce to small particles crush down stone into cement, c to suppress forcibly, put down to crush down opposition overwhelm by strong emotion crush (II), n, fr prec 1 The act of crushing 2 a A dense, tightly packed crowd of people, b specif (colloq) a crowded social gathering, a reception, large party crush-hit, n (obsolesc) One with folding springs, made to collapse and lie flat, an opera hat gibus crushing, adj [1 krúshug, 2 kráshug] crush (I) & -ing In various senses, mostly fig a Overwhelming annihilating a crushing defeat, b tending to disconcert, abash, silence a crushing answer, rebuff &c, c tending to prostrate, unnerv &c a crushing sorrow crush-room, n (obsolesc) Large room at a theatre, to which the audience may resort during intervals, foyer crust (I), n [1 krust, 2 kras] ME, fr O Fr croûte, fr Lat crústa, 'the hard surface of a body, the rind, shell, crust' &c, cogn w a considerable group of Gk words relating to ice, frost &c, op krúos, n, 'icy cold, chill, frost', krúeros, 'icy, chilling', krúmds, 'frost', krustanésaihai, 'to be congealed with cold, freeze' The orig sense of the n would appear to be 'film of ice' Cp further O E hruse, 'the earth, ground', orig 'crust of the earth', OHG hroso, 'crust, ice' The remoter connexion of these words w Lat crust, 'blood from a wound', crúds, 'raw' &c (see crude & cruel) is doubtful See crystal 1 a The hard outer part of bread, a dry, hard piece of bread, b (fig) bread considered as support of life, livelihood to earn one's crust, one's living 2 Baked outer covering of a pie, made of flour, water and fat 3 The hard exterior surface, shell, or covering of anything, various specific uses, a a seab on the skin, b the outer portion of the globe the crust of the earth, c a hardened outer surface over a layer of snow, d a filmy deposit from wine formed on the inside of the bottle crust (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To cover with a crust, b intrans, to form into a crust

Crustacea, n pl [1 krústásia, 2 krústesma] Neut pl of New Lat crustáceus, adj, 'pertaining to the crust or shell', fr Lat crústa, 'crust, shell' See crust (I) (zool) Name of a large class of salt or freshwater animals, such as crabs, lobsters, shrimps, crayfish &c, all of which have a hard outer shell, and are segmented, many having a pair of fore limbs furnished with pincers crustacean, adj & n [1 krústáshan, 2 krústesha] Preo & -an a adj Of or pertaining to the Crustacea, b n, an animal of this class crustaceology, n [1 krústásíoloi, 2 krústesíladzi], fr Crustacea & -logy The study of crustaceans crustaceous, adj [1 krústášus, 2 krústesha] See crustacean & -ous a Crust like, specif b (zool) crustacean crusted, adj [1 krústed, 2 krústed] crust & -ed a Having, covered with, a crust, specif b (of wine) having deposited a crust c (fig) ancient, venerable, heavy crusted habits crustily, adv [1 krústih, 2 krústih] crustily & -ly In a crusty manner crustiness, n [1 krústines, 2 krústines] crusty & -ness State of being crusty crusty, adj [1 krusta, 2 krásti] crust (I) & -y 1 a Of the nature of crust, crust like, hard, b (of bread) having a hard thick crust 2 (fig, of persons, manners &c) Harsh, irritable, easily roused to anger crutch, n [1 kruch, 2 krat] O E crytt, 'crotch, staff, crutcher', ME crucche, 'cymol doubtful', perh related to OHG kruchan, Mod Gorm kruechen, 'to creep' 1 a Device for enabling partially lamed persons to walk, consisting of a stout staff, with a padded cross piece which goes under the arm so that the weight of the body can rest upon the crutch, which supports it and takes to some extent the place of the leg or legs, (often pl) pair of crutches, b (fig) c support, prop the crutch of my declining years 2 One of several mechanical devices with forks (chiefly naut) somewhat resembling a crutch 3 Fork, crotch

Crutched Friars, n [1 krúthed frierz, 2 krástjd frasz] Lat 'crossed friars' a A minor order, formerly in England (1244-1856), which bore the sign of the cross on its habit Called also Crouched Friars and Crooked Friars, b ancient site of the monastery in London crux, n [1 krúks, 2 kras] Lat crux, genit crucis, 'a cross', also 'torture, trouble' See cross (I) Prob fr same base as curve etc Something difficult to explain, a hard question, knotty point, puzzle (cp crucial) cry (I), vb intrans & trans [1 kri, 2 kras] ME crien, O Fr & Mod Fr crier, fr Lat quiritare, 'to raise a plaintive cry, to wail, scream' &c This word was derived in an anot (popular) etymol fr Quirités (Romans in civil capacity), & its orig meaning was said to be 'to invoke the help of a Roman citizen. A more probable explanation is that wh identifies the word w quiritare, quiritare, 'to squeak like a pig', regarding this as an imitative word, & connecting it w Lat queri, 'to complain, bewail', & querulus, 'full of complaints' See quarrel, querulous A intrans 1 (of men and animals) To utter an articulate sound by means of the vocal organs, to make the sound characteristic of a baby, or of a particular animal 2 (of men) To utter words with a loud voice in such a way as to attract attention, to call out 'the voice of one crying in the wilderness', to cry aloud, 'No', he cried 3 To express grief or pain by audible lamentation, to shed tears with or without sound; utter sobs, to weep Phrs (trans) to cry one's eyes, one's heart, out, weep bitterly, cry oneself to sleep, weep until one falls asleep B trans 1 To advertise, announce, by calling out to cry one's wares, to cry the news all over the town &c, Phr to cry quits 2 Various literary or obsolete Phrs I cry you pardon, mercy &c, to cry shame upon C Followed by adverbs or prepositions Cry down, trans, to disparage, belittle, decry Cry for, trans, a to ask for, demand loudly, earnestly, with insistence, b to weep in order to obtain, until one obtains Cry off, in trans, to retire, retreat from a bargain, decline to do something Cry out, a trans, to call out, shout (names, words &c), b intrans, to utter a loud cry Cry to, unto, to call upon for help to cry to God, pray to Him for help Cry up, trans, to praise highly cry (II), n, fr prec Used as a cri in 13th cent Engl 1 An inarticulate vocal sound, whether loud or soft, uttered a by human beings, esp by young children, b by animals or birds as their characteristic call or note Phr in full cry (of a pack of hounds), yelping all together in pursuit of their quarry, (fig) in hot pursuit 2 A loud sound made by the human vocal organs, whether articulate or the reverse, expressing pain, anger, fear, joy, or other emotion, or being a call for help Phrs a far cry, a long distance, an abrupt transition, great contrast, within cry of, within hearing, to be deaf to a person's cries, to disregard his entreaties, refuse to help him, cultivated, adj [1 kùltiváted, 2 kùltivóted], fr PP of preo 1 (of soil) a Tilled, prepared for seed, b (of land) habitually worked, in a state of cultivation, contrasted with pasture land or waste land 2 (fig, of persons, mind, manners &c) Highly trained and developed; polished, refined a cultivated man, mind, a cultivated taste cultivation, n [1 kùltivásbun, 2 kùltivéifən] cultivate & -ion 1 The act of cultivating (lit and fig) engaged in the cultivation of the land, of the mind 2 a (of land) Condition of being cultivated, b (fig) polish, high state of development and refinement cultivator, n [1 kùltivátor, 2 kùltivertə], fr cultivate & -or a Person engaged in cultivating the land, b mechanical device for breaking up the land cultrate, adj [1 kultrát, 2 káltreit], fr Lat cultratus, fr culter, 'knife' See coulter & -ate Shaped like a pruning-knife, sharp-edged cultriform, adj [1 kultriform, 2 káltrifòm], fr Lat cultri, stem of culter See preo & -form Cultrate cultural, adj [1 kùlchural, 2 káltjərel] Next word & -al Of, pertaining to, culture culture, n [1 kulchur, 2 káltjə] Fr, fr 1 at cultura, 'a cultivating, agriculture, care, culture' See cult & -ure 1 Rearing of animals and plants, production of articles of commerce which are due to animal or vegetable activities or functions culture of silk, cotton &c 2 Education, training, development of mental and bodily faculties and qualities 3 The result of mental training, refinement of taste, keenness and balance of intellect and judgement, elegance of manners cultured, adj [1 kùlchərd, 2 káltjə] Preo & -ed Possessing culture, esp of the mind cultured, n [1 kulvər, 2 kálvə] OE culfre, ME colver, culver, fr Lat columba, 'dove' See columbine (I) Wood-pigeon culverin, n [1 kùlverin, 2 kálvarin], fr Fr culverine, fr couleuvre, 'snake', fr Lat colubrinus, 'snake-like' See colubrine A long slender cannon for long range firing, first used during the 16th cent culvert, n [1 kùlvərt, 2 kálvət] Late 18th cent Origin uncertain Large iron pipe, or channel of masonry, for conveying a flow of water under a roadway cumber, vb trans & n [1 kúmbər, 2 kámbə], fr O Fr combrer, fr Low Lat cumbus, 'a heap', akin to Lat cumulus, 'a heap' See cumulus 1 vb To hinder, trouble, or burden with something useless, to hamper to cumber oneself with a lot of luggage 2 n That which cumbers, encumbrance, hindrance cumbersome, adj [1 kúmbərsəm, 2 kámbərsəm] cumber & -some Burdensome, heavy; unwieldy, clumsy cumbersomely, adv Preo & -ly In a cumbersome manner cumbersomeness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being cumbersome cumbrous, adj [1 kúmbɹus, 2 kámbɹəs] cumber & -ous Heavy, clumsy, inconvenient, tending to cumber cumbrously, adv Preo & -ly In a cumbrous manner cumbrousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being cumbrous cumin, cuminum, n [1 kúmin, 2 kámin] Lat cuminum, Gk kuminum, fr Heb kam-môn An umbelliferous Eastern plant, with aromatic seeds, valuable as a carminative cummer, n [1 kúmer, 2 káma] Also in Scots, kimmer, fr Fr commère, godmother, gossip'. (Scots) A woman companion, gossip cummerbund, n [1 kúmerbund, 2 káma-band] Hind, fr Pers kamarband, 'loun-band' (Anglo-Ind) Piece of cloth or silk worn round the waist inside the clothes for warmth, or outside for ornament cumulate, vb trans & intrans [1 kúmulát, 2 kúmjuləst], fr Lat cumulat-(um), PP type of cumulare See accumulo & cumulus To accumulate (Rarely used) cumulate(d), adj [1 kúmulát(ed), 2 kúmjuləst(ed)] Preo & -ed Heaped up cumulation, n [1 kúmuláshun, 2 kúmjuləshən] cumulate & -ion Accumulation cumulative, adj [1 kúmulatív, 2 kúmjuləstív] cumulate & -ive Heaped up, increasing in strength, force, value &c, by successive additions cumulative proof, evidence &c Special uses: a cumulative voting, a system of voting in which each voter has as many votes as there are candidates, and can either give them all to one candidate or distribute them as he pleases, b cumulative preference shares, shares entitling the holder to arrears of interest before other shareholders receive interest on current year cumulatively, adv Preo & -ly In a cumulation, by accumulation cumulo-stratus, n [1 kúmuló strátus, 2 kúmjulós strátəs] See cumulus & stratus A cloud in which the structure of the cumulus is mixed with that of the stratus, the cumulus being often flattened on top and overhanging its base cumulus, n [1 kúmilus, 2 kúmjuləs] Lat, 'a heap' The first syll is cogn w Goth haufe, 'high', OE hæh See high Specifically, one of the main classes of clouds in the form of rounded, piled up masses cuneate, adj [1 kúniát, 2 kúniést], fr Lat cuneat (um), PP type of cuneare, 'to drive in a wedge, to furnish with wedges, to form into the shape of a wedge', fr cuneus, 'wedge', wh is perb cogn w O Ir cenn, W penn, 'head, top of a hill', O Slav kanit, 'to drive, goad on' Cp also culex, fr base meaning 'point, spear' &c Wedge shaped cuneiform, adj & n [1 kúniform, kúnišfòm, 2 kúnišfòm, kúnišfòm] See preo, fr Lat cuneus, 'wedge', see preo & -form a adj Wedge shaped, specif, cuneiform characters, letters in which the old Assyrian and Babylonian inscriptions are written, so called from their shape, b n, as in written in cuneiform cunning (I), n [1 kúnɪŋ, 2 kánɪŋ] ME cunning, conning &c, 'skill, experience, knowledge', vbl as fr base cun, 'to know', O E cunnan, 'to know, be able' See can (I), auxil, con (I) 1 (of physical qualities) Skill, dexterity, archness except in such Phr as my hand has lost its cunning 2 (of mental qualities) Slyness, astuteness, subtlety cunning (II), adj, orig Preo Part of cunnan, 'to know', w normal substitution of -ing for earlier ende &c See preo & can (I), auxil 1 Skilful, dexterous a cunning workman (archaic) 2 Wily, designing, artful, crafty 3 (USA, colloq) Attractive, pretty, pleasant, nice cunningly, adv Preo & -ly In a cunning manner, esp craftily cup (I), n [1 kúp, 2 kəp] OE cuppe, fr Low Lat cuppa, 'cup', Lat cūpa, 'vat, cask', op Gk kúpē, 'goblet', also cogn w OE hif, 'beehive' See hive The fundamental sense of the base is 'to bend outwards, swell out, bulge' &c, and a large number of words in various Aryan languages have been connected w it. See under coop, comb, cupit, cubicle &c 1 a A small drinking vessel, esp a vessel of gold, silver, pottery, porcelain &c, specif, one of porcelain with a handle, used together with a saucer, for drinking tea, coffee, cocoa, &c also loving cup, b the contents of such a cup, a cupful to drink two cups (of tea), c (specif eccles) the chalice containing the wine used at the Eucharist Specif Phr to withhold the cup (from the laity), to communicate only in one kind 2 A rather large vessel, usually of silver or gold, given as a prize in racing, games, athletics to win the cup 3 Transferred from wine cup, to contents of this, wine, hence, excessive indulgence in this to be too fond of the cup Phr in one's cups, intoxicated 4 (fig) That which falls to one as one's portion in life, fate, experience a bitter cup, his cup (of happiness, misery &c) was full 5 Cup shaped object, whether concave or convex, eg a hollow in the ground, valley with hills all round, b (bot) the calyx of a flower, the woody outer case of an acorn, c (anat) the socket of certain bones cup (II), vb trans, fr preo (surg) To perform the operation of cupping, q v cupbearer, n [1 kúpbərer, 2 kápbərə] cup (I) & bearer Person charged with duty of serving wine at ceremonial banquets, esp an officer in a prince's household cupboard, n [1 kúbbəd, 2 kábbəd], fr cup (I) & board. The present pronunciation is old, & the word appears without a p in the early 16th cent A set of shelves with doors in front of them, either in a recess in a wall, or as a separate piece of furniture with top and bottom, sides and back Cupboard love, affection, or the show of it, which is not disinterested, but assumed from ulterior motives, esp specif, demonstrativeness on part of a child who hopes to be rewarded by the gift or a sweetmeat or other delicacy—from the store-cupboard cupel, n [1 kúpel, 2 kúpel], fr Fr coupelle, fr Low Lat cūpella, 'cup', Lat cūpella, 'a small cask', dimin of cūpa, 'cask' See cup A shallow vessel, used in assaying precious metals cupellation, n [1 kúpeləshən, 2 kúpeləshən] Preo & -ation. The process of assaying in a cupel cupful, n [1 kúpfúl, 2 kápfúl] cup (I) & -ful As much as a cup will hold, contents of a cup

Cupid, n [1 kúpid, 2 kúpid], fr Lat Cupido, 'the god of love', personification or cupido, 'desire, love', fr type cupidum, fr cupere, 'to desire' Cp O Slav lypiti, 'to boil' The base is lewep*, whence comes also Scat képyati, 'boil, bubble up, become agitated', & further, fr different grade, Lat torpor, 'steam', see vapour, & Gk kapnós, 'smoke', cp also hope a (Rom mythol) The god of love, the son of Venus, hence b a lovely little boy, c allegorical pictorial representation of Cupid as god of love, as a beautiful little boy, with wings and a bow and arrow, often in pl cupids, d the passion of love cupidity, n [1 kúpiditi, 2 kúpiditi], fr Fr cupidité, fr Lat cupiditas (em), 'desire', fr cupidus, 'longing, desirous' See preo Excessive desire, esp for wealth and possessions, greed of gain, avarice cupola, n [1 kúpola, 2 kúpala] Ital, fr Low Lat cūpula, cuppula, fr cūpa, cuppa, 'cup' Cp Lat cūpula, dimin of cūpa, 'cup' See cup (I) 1 (archit) A rounded roof like an inverted cup, generally projecting and separate in structure from the other roofing, a small dome 2 A furnace for melting iron and other metals, also called cupola furnace 3 A dome shaped revolving turret, which protects heavy guns on a war ship 4 (anat) A dome shaped organ or process cupping, n [1 kúping, 2 kúping] cup (II), -ing (surg) The operation of drawing blood &c to or through the surface of the skin, by forming a partial vacuum over a given area by means of a cupping glass, some times accompanied by scarification with minute lancets cupping-glass, n Glass vessel in shape of a cup, used for forming a vacuum into which a portion of the surface of the skin is drawn in the cupping operation cupreous, adj [1 kúprəs, 2 kúprəs] fr Lat cupreus, fr cuprum, 'copper', & -ous See copper Of or resembling copper cupric, adj [1 kúprík, 2 kúprík] Lat cupr-, 'copper', see preo & -ic (chem), of certain compounds Containing copper as bivalent element, as cupric oxide cupriferos, adj [1 kúpriferos, 2 kúpriferos], fr Lat cuprum, 'copper', see copper, & -ferous (chem) Containing copper cuprite, n [1 kúpɹɪt, 2 kjúprɪt] See prec & -ite (mineral) Red oxide of copper, ruby copper cuprous, adj [1 kúpɹus, 2 kjúprɹus] See cuprio & -ous (chem) Containing copper as univalent element, as cuprous oxide cupola, n [1 kúpúl, 2 kjúpyúl] Variant of cupola a (bot) A kind of small onp &c, surrounding the whole or the base of certain kinds of fruit, e.g. that of the acorn, of the hazel nut, b (zool) A cup shaped snoker, acastulum cur, n [1 kár, 2 kɛ] Early M.E. kur dogge, curre &c, Soand, cp ON kurra, 'to grumble, murmur', Mod. Swed dial kurra, 'house dog', so called fr his growl 1 A dog of no particular breed, a mongrel, esp a snap-pet, ill tempered dog 2 (fig) A low, mean-spirited, ill bred, cross grained fellow curability, n [1 kúrabilít, 2 kjúrabílít] See next word & -ity State, quality, of being curable curable, adj [1 kúrabl, 2 kjúrabl] cure (II) & -able Able to be cured curacao, -caa, n [1 kúrasə, 2 kjúrasə] The name of a Dutch island in the Caribbean Sea where this drink was first made Spontaneous, syrupy, sweet liqueur, with strong taste of orange curacy, n [1 kúras, 2 kjúras] See curate & -acy The office and occupation of a curate curare, ourari, n [1 kúrári, 2 kjúrári] Native name, also urare, ururai &c Poison obtained from bark of certain trees, having some of the properties of strychnine, used by the Indians of S America for poisoning arrows curarine, n [1 kúrárén, 2 kjúrárin] Free & -ine (chem) An alkaloid extracted from curare curarize, vb trans [1 kúráriz, 2 kjúráraiz] curare & -ize To poison with curare curassow, n [1 kúrasə, 2 kjúrasə] fr Curacao island See above Large orested South and Central American bird resembling a turkey curate, n [1 kúrat, 2 kjúrit], fr Low Lat cúritus, 'one who is charged with the care of souls', op Fr curé, fr Lat cúra, 'care' See cure (I) In the Church of England an assistant priest to an incumbent or a parish Formerly called a vicar, which word is now usually applied to the incumbent himself, if he is not a rector, or a curate in charge Curate in charge, here the word is used in its old sense, one in permanent charge of a parish, other than a rector or vicar The term still survives in some parishes and designates a status equivalent to that of vicar curative, adj & n [1 kúratív, 2 kjúratív], fr Fr curatif, see See cure (II) & -ato & -ive adj Having the property of curing diseases or other ills, b n means used as a cure of diseases &c curator, n [1 kúrátur, 2 kjúratə] Lat, 'a manager, overseer, guardian, trustee' See cure & -ato & -or 1 a One to whom care or charge of anything has been officially entrusted, esp the keeper or custodian of a museum, public collection of pictures &c, b special (in Oxford) one of several persons to whom the general management and supervision of some university institution or collection is entrusted by the university 2 (Scotts law) A trustee guardian, appointed by the Court of Session for a minor or person of defective mind curatorship, n [1 kúrátəɹɪp, 2 kjúratəɹɪp] See curator & -ship A The office of a curator, b period of such office curb (I), n [1 kərb, 2 kál] fr Fr courbe, adj 'fr La' courbe, 'bent curved' See cure & -o 1 a chain or strap fastened to the bit, a passing under horse's chin, which presses upon this when the horse's reins are drawn tight, and acts from the leverage of the bit as an additional check b (C) a check rein, part of a bridle, a curb violence, to passion &c 2 A hard swelling on the back part of a horse's hind leg, usually causing lameness For architectural usage see kerb curb (II), vb trans, fr prec a To hold in (a horse) by means of a curb, b (fig) to restrain, subdue, keep in check to curb one's temper, desires, tongue &c curb roof, n One with a double slope, the lower one being the steeper curbstone, n See kerb curcuma, n [1 kékúma, 2 kálkuma] Arab kurkum Plant with bright coloured flowers and tuberous roots, which are used as a condiment in curry powder, see turmeric curd, n [1 kárd, 2 kád] M.E. crud & curd, fr base wh occurs in OE cridan, 'to press, crowd' See crowd The thick substance, the basis of cheese, which separates from milk under the action of any acid substance, distinguished from whey, the watery part of milk curdle, vb intrans & trans [1 kárdl, 2 kád] Preo & -le 1 intrans a (of milk) To become separated into curd and whey by the action of acid, b to become thick like curd, c (fig, of the blood) to become congealed the night made my blood curdle 2 trans a To cause (milk) to curdle by exposing to acid action, b (fig) to cause the blood to curdle through fright &c terror curdled his blood curdy, adj [1 kárdi, 2 kád] curd & -y Like curd, full of curd cure (I), n [1 kýr, kúr, 2 kýð, kýu] In M.E., fr O Fr, fr Lat cúra, 'care, trouble, attention, management, charge, medical attendance, healing, cure' The O Lat is cúra (for the vb), wh points to Aryan o as the vowel, r may be for -s, in wh case Lat cúr stands for hous, wh in Gmc wd be hase*, wh possibly appears in Goth us haisl, 'very poor, in great want', lit 'uncared for' Beyond this the etymol is obscure 1 The pastoral care of souls, a spiritual charge to obtain, regain, a cure 2 a (med) A remedy for disease, a healing substance, or treatment which does away with the disease and restores health a certain cure for headaches, corns, coughs &c, real is the best cure for epilepsy, b a course of medical treatment designed to heal and restore health to undergo a cure, the hot water, grape, cure &c, c act or process of healing a disease, fact of being cured no doctor would guarantee his cure 3 (fig) Remedy for, or against, moral and social evils a cure for unemployment, for homesickness, despondency &c cure (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr curer, 'to take care, to heal', Mod Fr 'to take care of, clean' (curer les ongles &c), fr Lat cūrāre, 'to take care of, to heal' See prec The word has very largely taken the place of the older heal A trans 1 a To heal, make well, restore to health to cure a patient, b to remove, provide a remedy for, disease or ill health to cure disease, pain &c 2 (fig) a To provide a remedy for persons suffering from mental, moral, or social evils and ailments to cure a man of bad habits, b to do away with the evils themselves to cure drunkenness, social discontent, mental worry &c 3 To preserve from corruption by salting, drying pickling to cure bacon, fish, hides &c B intrans To effect a cure in various senses to kill or cure cure (III), n Perh abbr of curious (obs slang) A strange, eccentric, rather comical person, a queer fish curé, n [Eogl 1 kúr, 2 kjúra], fr [kyre] a parish priest, fr Low Lat cúrus, en trusted with a cure of souls' See curate a parish priest in France curless, adj [1 kúrls, 2 kjúls] cure (I) & -less Incapable of being cured curer, n [1 kúre, 2 kjúre] cure (II) & -er One who preserves meat, fish &c by salting, drying &c, esp leazer, fish curer curette, n & vb trans [1 kúret, 2 kjúret] fr, fr curer, to cure' See cure (II) 1 a A surgical instrument shaped like a small spoon with sharp edge, used in operations for cataract, removal of growths &c 2 vb To operate on (person), remove (growths &c), by means of the curette curfew, n [1 kékú, 2 kál] M.E. co(u)rfew &c, lit 'cover fire', A Fr couver fu, curfew, O Fr cove feu See cover & focus a (Engl Med hist) The ringing of a bell at 8 P.M., or other fixed hour, as a signal to the inhabitants of a town &c to extinguish all lights and cover fires, b the bell which gave the signal 'The curfew tolls the knell of parting day' &c (Gray), c the hour at which the bell was rung curia, n [1 kúria, kúra, 2 kúra, kjúra] Lat, prob an ancient compound fr co, 'together' (see comm-), & viro, 'man, men' See virile 1 a Each of the tribal subdivisions which composed the political divisions of ancient Rome, b the Roman senate house 2 The Papal court, in full Curia Romana, collectively, term for all the government departments of the Vatican 3 (hist) The mediæval judicial council or court of justice of the king the Curia Regis curio, n [1 kúriə, 2 kjúriə] See next word Object which presents some unusual and interesting features commending it to collectors, from its beauty, antiquity, or rarity curiosity, n [1 kúriəstí, 2 kjúri: kjúəriəstí] M.E., 'carefulness', fr O Fr curiosete, curiosité, fr Lat cúridental (em), 'desire of knowledge, curiosity' See next word & -ity 1 a A desire to obtain knowledge, get fresh information, find out things, learn something new, b (in a derogatory sense) desire to find out things that do not concern one, inquisitiveness 2 A curiosity, a rare, strange, and interesting object, a curio curious, adj [1 kúriəs, 2 kjúriəs] M.E., fr O Fr curios, curios, fr Lat cúriosus, 'careful, diligent, eager, inquisitive' See cure (I) & -ous 1 The older senses, a (of mental activities and attributes) careful, b (of things) showing the result of care and attention, highly wrought, are now largely obsolete in popular usage, though surviving in a few contexts, even in literary style they are distinctly archaic, a curious research, inquiry, curious industry, attention, knowledge &c, b curious design, workmanship &c Probably by many people the word in these connexions is understood in the sense of No 2 2 Of a rare or remarkable character, presenting exceptional features, arousing interest and attention, causing surprise, strange, odd, hard to explain a curious sight, spectacle, sound, a curious view to take, a curious coincidence Phr it's a (very) curious thing (that) &c, it is strange, remarkable (also of persons) Unlike most other people in appearance or character, hard to understand, odd, peculiar a curious fellow, a curious looking man 3 (of persons) a Anxious to know, desiring to be informed, anxious to find out things Phr I am should be, curious to know if &c, b (in bad sense) inquisitive, given to prying into matters which do not concern one curio is neighbour, curious eyes curiously, adv Preo & -ly a In a curious manner, b (as simple intensive) to the point of strangeness, very she was curiously ugly, a curiously bad accent curiousness, n See prec & -ness 1 (archaic or obs, see curious, 1) Carefulness, skill, ingenuity, of design &c 2 The state of being exceptional, remarkable &c, see curious, 2 3 Inquisitiveness (Rare) curl (I), n [1 kúr, 2 kál] Not in OE M1 lira crulle, adj, 'curly', ep E Frs krul, krulle, 'a curl' The present form, w metathesis, is nearer to Scand. type, op Norw & Dan lurk, 'a curl', prob related to Mod Frs bull, 'closely twisted' further connexions have not been identified 1 a A lock of hair which rolls up on itself and forms a little, spiral ringlet, b in pl, curls, curly hair, hair in general 2 Various applications to things suggesting a twist, spiral, or curl, in form curl of smoke, of a wave, curl of the lips, scornful sneer 3 The state of being curled hair in curl 4 Disease in potatoes in which the leaves curl up curl (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To twist, roll, press into spirals or curls to curl the hair, moustache, b to cause to roll over like a curl a light breeze curled the waves 2 Curl up, a to roll something up by bending the edges, b (fig) to render powerless, cause to collapse physically or mentally this blow completely curled him up B intrans 1 To roll into, assume the form of grow in, curls hair curling thick round the forehead 2 Curl up, a to roll, coil up the leaves curl up in the frost, b (of persons and animals) to roll up, lie hunched up for sleep, c to collapse, suffer severe shock. 3 To assume shape of a curl or spiral (of smoke, waves &c) 4 To play at curling, see curling (I) curled, adj [1 kɜːld, 2 kɪld], fr PP of prec a Having curls, curly, wavy, b specif, curled hair, horsehair prepared for stuffing cushions &c curler, n [1 kɜːlər, 2 kɪlə] curl (II) & -er a Device for curling the hair; b specif, one who plays at the game of curling, see curling (I) curlew, n [1 kɜːli, 2 kɪli] ME, fr O Fr curlew, prob imitative Name of two birds with the same frequent, loud, shrill, characteristic cry, a a large wading bird of the snipe family, genus Numenius, with long, curved bill, frequenting estuaries and the seashore, but breeding on moors; a small species is known as jack-curlew or whimbrel, b an inland bird, the stone curlew or 'thunk-knee', genus Oedipodius, with short bill, frequenting chalky downs curliness, n [1 kɜːlɪnəs, 2 kɪlɪnɪs] curly & -ness The state of being curly, or of having curly hair curling (I), n [1 kɜːlɪŋ, 2 kɪlɪŋ] curl (II) & -ing, so called fr the movement of the arm in swinging the curling stone A Scotch game, like bowls, played on ice with special, heavy, round, flat, polished pieces of granite held by an iron or wooden handle curling (II), adj, fr Pres Part of curl (II) a (of the hair) Inclined, tending, to curl, b used for curling (hair) &c Curling irons, curling tongs, instruments for curling the hair curl-paper, n Piece of paper in which a lock of hair is tightly rolled for several hours to make it curl into a ringlet curly, adj [1 kɜːli, 2 kɪli] curl (I) & -y a (of the hair) Curling, tending to curl, b (of persons) having curls, (of other objects) having a considerable curve a chair with curly legs curmudgeon, n [1 kɜːmɪdʒən, 2 kɜːmɪdʒən] Etymol unknown In the first edition of his Dictionary Johnson doubtfully suggests as the origin of the word, cœur méchant, giving as the source of the suggestion 'an unknown correspondent', Ash, the compiler of an English Dictionary a little later, misunderstood this & boldly explained the word as derived fr 'Fr cœur, "unknown", & méchant, "a correspondent"'! A churlish, cross grained, surly, ill-tempered, cantankerous fellow curmudgeonly, adj Prec & -ly Having the manners of a curmudgeon currant, n [1 kɜːrənt, 2 kɜːrənt] For 'raisins of Corauntz', Fr raisins de Corinthe. 1 A very small, sweet, dried grape from the Levant 2 Juicy fruit of several species of Ribes, known as red, white black, currants currency, n [1 kɜːrənsi, 2 kɜːrənsi], fr Lat current-(em), Pres Part of currere, 'to run' See courier, course, curriole & -ency 1 (lit) a flowing, passage, state of flux (obs & rare) 2 State of being current, common habitual use, general acceptance the currency of a word or phrase, in common currency 3 a That which circulates, specif, money, as coinage or notes used as common medium of exchange, coin of the realm, b total amount of coinage or notes in circulation 4 Estimated value as commonly accepted to accept a person at his own currency current (I), adj [1 kɜːrənt, 2 kɜːrənt], fr O Fr current, corant, Pres Part of currere, corre, fr Lat current-(em), 'running, flowing', Pres Part of Lat currere, 'to run' See prec & courier, course 1 a (of non-material things) Passing, handed on, from person to person current reports, rumours, opinions etc, b (of material objects) passing from hand to hand, in general or everyday use, in general circulation current money Plus current coin, (i) money in daily use, legal tender, (u) (fig) commonly accepted opinions &c current beliefs, superstition 2 a (of time) Now passing the current month &c, b belonging to the current time, present the current issue of a magazine &c current (II), n, fr prec 1 a Continuous flow, or movement, of a body of water or air, or of part of such a body through the main bulk a strong current in the river, a violent current of air, b flow of water or air in a particular direction which way is the current?, c movement of electricity through or along a conducting body 2 (fig) a (of tides) Passing, passage onwards, b (of events, opinions) tendency, trend currently, adv [1 kɜːrəntli, 2 kɜːrəntli] current (I) & -ly In a current manner, commonly, generally curicle, n [1 kɜːrɪkl, 2 kɜːrɪkl] See next word A light open carriage, now obsolete, with two wheels, drawn by two horses abreast curriculum, n [1 kɜːrɪkʊləm, 2 kɜːrɪkʊləm] Lat, 'a race, race-course, chariot for racing', fr currere, 'to run' See current (I) A fixed course of study, training &c in a university or school currier, n [1 kɜːriə, 2 kɜːriə] ME coriour, curiour, fr O Fr corier, fr Lat corarius, fr corium, 'hide, leather' See cuirass, corium. The ME form is by some derived fr O Fr concreur, fr vb concrere, 'to prepare', but although it may have been later confused with this, it can hardly be separated fr the Lat words above cited See curry (I) One who dresses and cures tanned leather currish, adj [1 kɜːrɪʃ, 2 kɜːrɪʃ] cur & -ish Like a cur, having the qualities of a cur, cross grained, quarrelsome, churlish, ill-bred currishly, adv Prec & -ly In a currish manner, churlishly currishness, n See prec & -ness The qualities of a cur curry (I), vb trans [1 kɜːri, 2 kɜːri] It seems probable that this word is a back-formation fr this n currier On the other hand, O Fr has conreder, 'prepare', later conreer, correier The latter was mixed up w courroyer, 'to dress leather', fr corium, 'leather', & conreer was also used in the same sense It is impossible to separate currier fr corium, & just as difficult to separate curry fr the former For origin of O Fr conreer see corn- & the second element in array 1 To dress tanned leather 2 To rub down and dress (the coat of a horse &c) with a curry-comb and brush Phr to curry favour (ME, fr O Fr, favel, used by Latimer, 'a chestnut horse'), to seek to ingratiate oneself with a person by flattery &c curry (II), n & vb trans, fr Tamil lari, 'sauces' 1 n Indian dish of stewed meat, fish, game &c, dressed with highly flavoured sauces made of various condiments Curry powder, Indian preparation of turmeric and other hot and strong condiments used for making curry 2 vb To turn into a curry, make a curry from to curry a fowl

curry-comb, n See curry (I) & comb Semioircular strip of flexible metal, with teeth, held by a handle, used for scraping and cleaning horses' coats curse (I), n [1 kɜːrs, 2 kɪrs] LOE (11th cent) & ME curs The origin is very doubtful, the connexion w an old form of cross

wh. has been suggested offers many difficulties Weekley proposes to derive the word fr O Fr coros, or Norman curuz, 'wrath', Mod. Fr corrouce This A-Fr form of this vb is curser, w wh op the LOE cursean The O Fr form is courroucier, wh is fr Low Lat corruptiare, see corrupt 1 The calling down, invoking, of divine or supernatural anger or vengeance, involving death, misfortune, destruction, upon a person or thing, malediction to call down, lay, a curse upon 2 A blasphemous utterance, an impious word or expression, a profane exclamation expressing anger or malvolence, an oath, imprecation 3 A source, cause, of misfortune, misery, ruin he is a curse to his family, drink is a curse to many Phr curse of Scotland, mine of diamonds curse (II), vb trans & intrans See prec A trans 1 a To call down divine or supernatural wrath or vengeance upon, to lay under a malediction, place under a ban, b (eccl) to place under excommunication. 2 To swear at, direct blasphemous, impious remarks to, express omity towards, to complain of with violent expressions of resentment to curse the day one was born, one's own folly &c 3 To bring misfortune, misery, ruin, upon, to afflict, torment, esp in construction to be curse with B intrans To utter blasphemous imprecations, give vent to profane swearing to curse and swear curse, adj [1 kɜːrsd, 2 kɪrsd] Prec & -ed 1 a Deserving strong reprobation, execrable, hateful, b (used colloquially with very little significance, as an intens) a cursed nuisance, c (colloq) [1 kɪrsd, 2 kɪrsd], perverse, contrary a cursed boy 2 (archaic and obs, gen outst) Malvolent, ill-tempered curse, adv [1 kɜːrsdli, 2 kɪrsdli] Prec & -ly In a cursed manner curse, n [1 kɜːrsdnəs, 2 kɪrsdnəs] curse & -ness 1 Fact, condition, of being cursed 2 (colloq and facet) [1 kɪrsdnəs, 2 kɪrsdnəs] Perversity, contrariness curse, adj & n [1 kɜːrsɪv, 2 kɪrsɪv], fr Low Lat cursius, fr Lat currere, currum, 'to run', op Fr curse See courier, current & -ive a adj (of handwriting in MSS) Curse hand, running hand, with the letters formed, curved, and connected by strokes, contrasted with uncial, b n, handwriting of this type cursorily, adv [1 kɜːrsɪrɪli, 2 kɪrsɪrɪli] cursor & -ly Hastily, carelessly cursoriness, n [1 kɜːrsɪrɪnəs, 2 kɪrsɪrɪnəs] See next word & -ness The quality of being cursory cursor, adj [1 kɜːrsɪrɪ, 2 kɪrsɪrɪ], fr Low Lat cursorius, 'hasty', & adv cursorie, 'hastily', fr currere, 'a runner' See curative, courier, current Hasty, hurried, passing, hence superficial, careless a cursory inspection, glance &c curst, adj [1 kɜːrst, 2 kɪrst] See curse curt, adj [1 kɜːrt, 2 kɪrt], fr Lat curtus, 'shortened, mutilated, broken, mean, incomplete' From base *(s)ter-, 'to cut', connected w Lat caro, 'flesh, (orig) skin of flesh', see carinal, Sort krdhu, 'shortened, maimed', O Slav krdak, 'short', cogn w O HG curr, 'short' See short Short, brief, truncated, (obvly applied to verbal style, mode of address &c) brief and incomplete to the point of discourtesy a curt answer curtail, vb trans [1 kɜːrtəl, 2 kɪrtəl] Earlier (16th cent) curtail, prob influenced by Engl tail, & supposed to have relation to docking a tail, possibly also, as Skeet suggests, by Fr tailler, 'out' M Fr curtaill, 'horse of middle size', M Ital cortado, 'a horse without a tail', in wh. sense Florio uses Engl curtail This first element in Lat curtus, 'short', see curt, the second, apparently fr Gmc wald, 'strength' &c, apparently fr Gmc wald, 'to abbreviate, O HG wald, see wield, a To abbreviate, out short, shorten, make shorter than was originally intended, (chiefly of non material things) to curtail a lecture, speech, a holiday to, b to reduce, cut down to have one's pay curtailed curtailment, n. [1 kɜrtálmənt, 2 kɜrtálmənt] Prec & -ment The act or result of curtailing curtain (I), n. [1 kɜrtán, 2 kítán] ME curtin &c, fr L Lat cortina, 'little court, enclosure', dunn of Lat cort, as in co(h)rt, acc co(h)rti (em) See court (I) 1 Sheet of cloth, or other material, suspended so as to keep out sun or draught, hung so as to draw over a window or door, b so as to draw round a head, c so as to divide one part of a room from another Phrs to draw a curtain over, (fig) to say no more about something, conceal it, to lift the curtain, (fig) to reveal something, give information about it, to draw the curtains, draw them across a window &c, so as to hide it from the room, shut out light or draught 2 Sheet of heavy material, often fire proof, raised and lowered by pulleys, to divide the stage in a theatre from the auditorium. Phrs the curtain rises, the play, act &c begins, (fig) the story opens, the curtain falls, the play, act &c ends, (fig) the story ends, life comes to an end &c 3 Various things which cover or protect like a curtain, e.g. curtain of fire, artillery barrage, curtain of cloud, smoke &c, specif also curtain-wall, that part of a rampart and wall, in fortification, which lies between two projecting towers or bastions curtain (II), vb trans, fr prec To cover, protect, by a curtain to curtain a window, curtain off, to divide, shut off, by a curtain, to curtain off part of a room, an alcove &c curtain-lecture, n. Scolding given by a woman to her husband in private curtain-raiser, n. Short play performed while some of the audience are taking their seats, just before the opening of the principal play curtana, n. [1 kɜrtána, -áhna, 2 kítána, kítána], fr Anglo Lat curtana (spada), 'curt-tailed (sword)'. See curt Sword without a point earned in front of English sovereigns at their coronation as symbolical of mercy cursies, n. [1 kɜrtíes, 2 kítíes] Variant of courtesy (law) Life estate enjoyed by husband in lands of a deceased wife, when there has been issue tenant by cursies curtilage, n. [1 kɜrtíli, 2 kítíli] O Fr curtil, curtilage, fr curtil, 'little court' See court (I) & -age Portion of land immediately surrounding a dwelling house, esp one forming part of the same enclosure as the house curtle axe, n. [1 kɜrtl áks, 2 kítl áks] (archaic) Variant of cutlass curtly, adv. [1 kɜrtli, 2 kítli] curt & -ly In a curt manner, abruptly (of speech &c) curtness, n. [1 kɜrtnes, 2 kítnes] curt & -ness The quality of being curt cursies, -sy, n & vb intrans [1 kɜrtíes, 2 kítíes] Variant of courtesy 1 n Movement of the body implying recognition or respect, made by women and girls. A Conspiring generally of a slight, jerky, momentary bending of the knees to drop a cursies, b in a more formal shape, as to royalty, a slow, sweeping movement, with a forward inclination of the body from the waist, together with flexion of the knees a drawing backwards of the whole body, and a gradual rising to the upright position to make one's cursies to the queen (of a woman) to be presented at court 2 vb To make a cursies curtle adj. [1 kɜrtl, 2 kítl] Lat. cella curtilis, chair inlaid with ivory used by the highest magistrates in ancient Rome Curtilis is fr curtilis, 'chariot, triumphal car' &c See curtilage, courier, course Car in Phr curtle chair, magisterial or official seat.

curtature, n. [1 kɜrtatʃər, 2 kítatʃər] fr Lat curvatura fr curvus, as in P.P. of curvare, 'to bend, curve' (see curve), & -ture Act of curving, condition of being curved curved, n. [1 kɜrtv, 2 kítv] fr Lat. curvus, 'bent curved', e.g. w O Slav kriv, 'crooked', Lith kreivas, 'twisted, crooked', W corvyn, 'eddy', & related to a large group of words fr same base, ter(e)*, 'twist, turn', w various formative elements See further under circus, crass, crate, crux, cart, crown, hurdle, & perch crisp 1 (geom) A line of which no part is straight 2 a A rounded bend, one which has no angles, b curved part of anything a curve in the road curve (II), vb trans & intrans Lat curvāro See prec a trans To cause to bend, impart a curve to, b intrans, to assume the form of a curve curvet, n & vb intrans [1 kɜrvət, 2 kítvət], fr Ital corvella, dunn of coria, 'a curve', fr Lat curvus, see curve (I) 1 n Graceful, bounding action of a horse, in which he raises both fore legs and leaps forward from the hind legs while the fore legs are still in the air 2 vb (of a horse) To execute the motion of a curvet, (also of the rider) curvetting on a horse

curvi-, pref Form of curve (I), used in compounds curvilinear, -ar, adj. [1 kɜrvilíneal, -ar, 2 kítvíníneal(l)] Prec & Lat linea, 'line', see line Consisting of, bounded by, enclosed in, curving lines cuscus (I), n Variant of cous-cous cuscus (II), n. [1 kúskus, 2 káskas], fr Pers khas khas Fibrous, scented root of an Indian grass, used for making fans, screens &c cuscus (III), n. [1 kúskus, 2 kúskus] Native Moluccan name A genus of tree-living marsupials, Phalangiers, of the East Indian Archipelago, with grey or spotted fur cushat, n. [1 kúshat, 2 káshat] O E cúscote, 'wild pigeon, ring dove', L M E couschote Skeat suggests that the first element refers to the bird's note, and that the second means 'the shooter, darter', fr scólan, 'shoot'

Seeshoot Wood-pigeon, ring dove (Archaic or poet) cushion (I), n. [1 kúshun, 2 kúshən] M E quissen, fr A-Fr quissen, O Fr cusson, cousin, as though fr Low Lat cozinum, fr coza, 'hip bone' Thus the word orig meant a rest for the hips or thighs See coxa & cuisse 1 A bag or case of cloth or other fabric stuffed with some soft elastic material such as feathers, wool, horsehair &c, used to lie, sit, or kneel upon 2 Applied to various objects somewhat resembling this, either in shape or in function, by acting as pads, shock receivers &c, e.g. a soft pad of any kind to fill out a space or support something e.g. for a woman's hair, b the resilient, rubber lining of the inner sides of a billiard table, c the frog of a horse's hoof, d steam left in the cylinder of a steam engine acting as a buffer to the piston &c cushion (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To supply, fit with, cushions, to protect from shock or injury by means of cushions or padding 2 (billiards) To leave (a ball) against a cushion cushiony, adj. [1 kúshuni, 2 kúshni] cushion (I) & -y Resembling a cushion, soft cushy, adj. [1 kúshi, 2 kúfi] Origin doubtful, said to be of Anglo Indian origin, fr Hind khushi, 'pleasant' (slang) Easy, soft, pleasant to find a cushy job cusp, n. [1 kúsp, 2 kásp], fr Lat cusps, 'a point' The relations of the word are very uncertain, but it may be cogn w O E hosp, 'contumely, insult', wh is fr Gmc. hūspa* 1 (archit) A projecting point where two inner curves in Gothic tracery meet 2 (astron) Either point of the crescent moon. 3 (geom) The point at which two branches of a curve have a common tangent 4 A sharp point, esp that at the end of a leaf cuspidal, adj. [1 kúspídál, 2 káspídál], fr Lat cuspid, stem of cusps, & -al See prec Ending in a cusp or point.

cuspidate(d), adj. [1 kúspídət(ed), 2 káspídət(ed)] fr Lat cuspid L M E P.P. of cuspidare, 'to make pointed' See prec & cusp Having a sharp or pointed end, esp of leaves.

cuspidor, n. [1 kúspídər, 2 káspídər], fr Port. cuspidera, fr cuspir, 'to spit' American refined name for vulgar object, a spittoon cuss (I), n. [1 kus, 2 kas] Variant of curse (I) Chiefly in vulgar Phr not to care a cuss cuss (II), n. A person Either short for customer (cp queer customer &c) or in sense of a cantankerous, shrewish person, same as prec, with sense as in curled cussed, adj. [1 kúsed, 2 kásid] See cursed.

Perverse, contrary

custard, n. [1 kústard, 2 kástard] Proh a form of Lat crustārium, 'having a crust', M E crustate, crustade, cp O Fr crustade, 'something covered with a crust' See crust A mixture of sweetened milk and eggs, cooked and eaten hot or cold with fruit &c Also baked custard or custard pudding custard-apple, n. West Indian fruit with a soft yellowish pulp, Anona custodial, adj & n. [1 kústódíal, 2 kástódíal] custody & -al a adj Relating to custody, b n, receptacle for relics custodian, n. [1 kústódían, 2 kástódían] custody & -an a One who has the care or custody of anything, b specif, the keeper of a public building &c custody, n. [1 kústodi, 2 kástadi], fr Lat custodia, 'a keeping of guard, watch, guard, care', fr custod (em), 'a guardian' The base is considered by Walde to be cogn w. that in Gk akoud, 'I hear', fr a kous* jd (see acoustic), & Goth hauzan, O E hieran, 'to hear', see hear & oave (III) 1 Care, guardianship, duty of guarding, keeping, taking care of a father has the custody of his child 2 Specif, guardianship of persons exercised by officers of the law, detention by the police, imprisonment to be in custody, in charge of the police to take (a person) into custody, to arrest custom, n. [1 kústəm, 2 kástəm] M E & O Fr custume, costume &c, fr earlier costumne, fr costudine, Lat consuetudinem (acc), fr con- & suetu, as in P.P. of suetere (for sueð-sk*), 'to become accustomed', inchoative fr suerē, 'to be accustomed, to be wont', the fundamental sense is 'to follow one's own ways', op Lat suius (fr sue-woe*), 'one's (his, her) own, belonging to oneself (himself &c)', cp sui From the base sue-* is derived also Gk ethos (fr sueðhos*), 'custom, usage, habit' (cp ethical), ethos, 'accustomed place, abode, habit' (cp ethos), also Scrt avasthā, 'custom, habit, habitual home', & in spite of the absence of w. Goth. sida, O E sidu, O H G situ, 'habit, custom, behaviour' 1 A Usual habit, established practice, use and wont, b any specific instance of this in individuals or communities 2 Support given to a trader by dealing with him, purchasing his goods to withdraw one's custom 3 Customs, duties paid on foreign goods customable, adj. [1 kústəmabl, 2 kástəmabl] Prec & -able Liable to customs taxable as an import customary, adj & n. [1 kústəmari, 2 kástəmari] See prec & -ary 1 adj A Usual, habitual, according to custom customary practice &c, b (of land and tenants, tenure) held by, holding according to, made legal by virtue of custom 2 n Collection of customary laws, esp of a manor customer, n. [1 kústumer, 2 kástuma] custom & -er a One who deals (esp habitually) with a trader, one who buys from a trader, b (colloq) general, slightly derogatory, term for a person, equivalent to fellow, chop &c, esp in Phrs queer, crotchard, rough, tough customer custom-house, n. An Office where business connected with duties on imports is transacted, b (of a seaport) office where, in addition to above vessels are cleared custos, n. [1 kústos, 2 kástos] Lat, 'keeper' See custody Keeper, guardian, esp in Phr Custos Rotulorum, 'keeper of Rolls', an cutlet, n. [1 kútlét, 2 kátlet] O Fr costelette, lit. 'little rib', dimin fr coste, 'rib', Lat costa, Mod Fr colette See costal Small rib bone with meat attached, small chop mutton cutlet, veal cutlet, small slices of lean meat without any bone, usually served fried in egg and bread crumbs cut-off, n. [1 kútawf, 2 kát 5f] See cut (I) C, & off. That which cuts something off or shortens it, esp device a in engine which shuts off steam from the cylinder during the piston-stroke, b in magazine rifle which prevents the automatic passing of cartridges into the breech chamber cut-out, n. [1 kút out, 2 kát out] See prec & out. Device a for automatically stopping or cutting off an electric current when above a certain force, a circuit-breaker, b for shutting off the exhaust in a motor car &c cutpurse, n. [1 kútpɜs, 2 kátɜs] (archaic, obsolete) A pickpocket, from a type of thieving formerly in vogue, when purses were hung by straps from the girdle, and were liable to be detached by cutting cutter, n. [1 kuter, 2 kátə] out (I) & -er 1 A one who cuts, espec. a tailor's cutter, one who cuts out clothes, glass-cutter &c, b machine or tool for cutting, e.g. grass-cutter, moving machine, paper cutter, paper knife &c. 2 (naut.) A type of sailing vessel, rigged somewhat like a sloop, with a deep keel to ensure stability cut-throat, n. & adj. a n One who cuts throats, a murderer, a bloodthirsty ruffian, b adj, murderous, cruel, ruffianly cutting (I), vbl n. [1 kúting, 2 kátɪŋ] out (I) & -ing 1 Act of process carried out by, one who cuts the cutting of riding breeches is a highly skilled work 2 Some thing cut off, down out &c, specif. a an excavation, a tunnel, channel, out through a hill &c roadway cutting, passage for transport through rock or earth to avoid excessive change of levels, b portion of a growing plant, cut off and struck in the earth to form a new plant, c excerpt from a newspaper, an article, notice &c, out out, or snipped off to be preserved newspaper cutting, press cutting cutting (II), adj, fr prec Part of cut (I) 1 Able to cut, made for cutting the cutting edge of a knife 2 Inflicting a sensation of cutting, piercing a cutting wind, b (fig) tending to wound, liable, intended, to inflict pain of mind, making a cutting remark, c keen, shrewd, penetrating a cutting glance cuttingly, adv prec & -ly In a cutting manner, esp in senses 2, a and b above cuttle bone, n. [1 kútl bɔn, 2 kátl bɔwn] See next word Shelly internal bone of cuttle fish, used as food for small cage birds, also ground fine and used as polishing powder cuttle-fish, n. [1 kútl fɪʃ, 2 kátl fɪʃ] The present form apparently borrowed fr a H.G. source, cp Mod. Germ. Kuttelfisch Late ME has cutel & codul, the latter being the genuine Engl form fr OE cutdula. This is prob cogn. w Germ kutteln, 'guts, bowels', I.G. kutt, & also w OE codd (see cod (II)), wh is fr the same base as Lat botulus, 'a sausage', for grot*, see botulus cuttlefish, n. [1 kútl fɪʃ, 2 kátl fɪʃ] A marine animal of the cephalopod class, having long tentacles, a sac from which a black fluid is squirted, known as 'sepia', and hard internal shelly bone, b (loosely) a squid, which has no internal bone cutty, adj & n. [1 kútl, 2 kátl], fr cut (I) & -y 1 adj Cut short, short, originally a Scots or M English usage see cutty pipe, short clay pipe, cutty coat, stool in Presbyterian churches on which a woman under censure for immoral conduct was seated to receive admonition 2 n. A cutty pipe cutwater, n. [1 kútwatɜ, 2 kátwɔtə] a Forepart of a ship which cuts the water, b pointed part of a pier of a bridge facing upstream, dividing the stream so that it passes under the arches cutworm, n. [1 kútwɜm, 2 kátwɜm] Caterpillar which eats off young cabbage plants

-cy, suff. [1 al, 2 sɪ], used to form abstract nouns Fr -ie, Lat -ia, -ia, or Gk. -ia, -ia, -ia Used after nouns ending in n, captaincy=ship, after some ending in h, wholecy, also idocy cyanate, n. [1 elanət, 2 əsɪnəɪt] See next word & -ate (chem) A salt of cyanic acid cyanic, adj. [1 aɪnɪk, 2 sɪnɪk], fr Gk. kyanos, 'a dark-blue mineral substance', origin unknown, prob a loan-word. a Blue in colour, b espec, pertaining to, containing, cyanogen. Cyanic acid, volatile acid liquid, compound of oxygen and cyanogen.

cyanide, n. [1 aɪnɪd, 2 sɪnəɪd] See prec & -ide (chem) A salt of hydrocyanic acid, usually known as 'prussic acid', esp cyanide of potassium, used in chemical extraction of gold from ore by the cyanide process cyanos-, pref. Used in compounds (see cyanic), meaning 'blue', in chemical terminology cyanogen, n. [1 aɪnɔʃən, 2 sɪnəʊdʒən] prec & -gen (chem) A poisonous gas, a compound radical of nitrogen and carbon, forming with hydrogen, hydrocyanic acid See cyanide cyanosis, n. [1 aɪnɔsɪs, 2 sɪnəʊsɪs] See prec & -osis Pathological condition in which the surface of the body becomes blue through lack of aeration cycad, cycas, n. [1 aɪkəd, -as, 2 aɪkəd, -as] Etymol. doubtful, prob fr Gk. kikáz, acc pl of kikáz, 'an Egyptian palm tree' Kind of palm tree the trunk of which yields sago, also called sago palm cyclamen, n. [1 aɪkləmen, 2 aɪkləmen] Gk. kuklamínos, through Mod Lat See cycle Plant with rounded, dark green leaves and graceful flowers of various colours on slender, curved stalks cycle (I), n. [1 aɪd, 2 aɪkl] L Lat cyclos, fr Gk. kúkklos 'a ring, round, circle', cogn. w Sort lakra-, 'wheel', both showing redupl forms of base kel-*, 'turn, drive', wh is seen also in OE hwēol, fr hwehula-*, & hweogol See cylinder & wheel & words there referred to 1 A An interval of time within which a series of events or phenomena of regular recurrence takes place or appears the cycle of human life, of the seasons, b an age, immense period of time 'a cycle of Cathay' (Tennyson) 2 Group of poems (romances) connected with some central heroic figure or some great event the Arthurian cycle of Romances 3 (colloq) Abbreviation of bicycle cycle (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To pass through a cycle, recur in cycles 2 To ride a bicycle cyclic, cyclical, adj. [1 aɪklɪk(l), 2 aɪklɪk(l)] cycle (I) & -ic & -al 1 Belonging to, recurring in, a cycle or cycles 2 Connected with a cycle of poems esp cyclic poets, epic poets, succeeding Homer, dealing with same subject as the Iliad cycling, vbl n. [1 aɪklɪŋ, 2 aɪklɪŋ] cycle (II) & -ing Act of riding a bicycle cyclist, n. [1 aɪklɪst, 2 aɪklɪst] cycle (I) & -ist One who rides a bicycle cyclo-, pref. Form of cycle, fr Gk kúkklos, 'circle' &c, used in compounds General meaning, round cycloid, n. & adj. [1 aɪklɔɪd, 2 aɪklɔɪd] cycle (I) & -oid 1 n. A transcendental curve generated by the revolution of a circle along a straight line 2 adj. Circular, occurring in circles cycloidal, adj. [1 aɪklɔɪdl, 2 aɪklɔɪdl] prec & -al. Pertaining to a cycloid cyclometer, n. [1 aɪklɔmɪtɜ, 2 aɪklɔmɪtɜ] cyclo- & -meter 1 Instrument for measuring circles 2 Instrument for recording the number of revolutions of a wheel cyclone, n. [1 aɪklɔn, 2 aɪklɔn] Gk kuklón, 'moving in a circle, whirling round', prec Part. of kuklón, 'circle round, whirl', fr kúkklos, 'circle' See cycle (I) A storm of wind rotating with violence round a calm centre, a tornado cyclonic, adj. [1 aɪklɔnɪk, 2 aɪklɔnɪk] prec & -ic Connected with, arising from, a cyclone cyclop(a)edia, n. [1 aɪklɔpɛdɪə, 2 aɪklɔpɛdɪə] Gk kuklos, 'circle' (see cycle), & paideia, 'bringing up of a child, education', fr país, 'child, boy', see pedagogue Abbreviation of Encyclopaedia a A work giving information upon all subjects and branches of knowledge, b one dealing with all branches and aspects of some particular department of knowledge cyclopaedic, adj. [1 aɪklɔpɛdɪk, 2 aɪklɔpɛdɪk] prec & -ic Relating to a cyclopaedia, having the character of a cyclopaedia, hence, all embracing, universal cyclopaedic knowledge

Cyclopean, adj. [1 aɪklɔpɛən, 2 aɪklɔpɛən] Lat Cyclopaeus, fr Gk Kuklópeios, & -an See Cyclops 1 Pertaining to, resembling, the Cyclops, gigantic, vast, esp Cyclopean task, labour &c 2 (archit) Pertaining to, referring to, a primitive style of construction in which enormous blocks of stone were used, fitted together without mortar, supposed to have been built by the Cyclops

Cyclops, n. [1 aɪklɔps, 2 aɪklɔps] Lat (pl opes), fr Gk kuklōps, 'round eye', fr kúkklos, 'circle' (see cycle), & ops, 'eye' See optic 1 A one of a fabulous race of one-eyed giants supposed originally to have inhabited Sicily, b a person with only one eye 2 Minute crustacean, with a single large, median eye cyclostoma, n. [1 aɪklɔstɔm, 2 aɪklɔstɔm], fr cyclo- & Gk stoma, 'mouth' See stomach (zool) Any one of a class, Cyclostomata, of fishes, of a low order of vertebrates, including the lampreys and hag fishes cyclostyle, n. [1 aɪklɔstɪl, 2 aɪklɔstɪl] cyclo- & style Device for multiplying copies of a written document, consisting of a pen with a toothed wheel which makes small holes in the paper

cyder See oider

cygnet, n. [1 aɪsɪnɪt, 2 aɪsɪnɪt] Earlier cignet, fr cygne, Lat cygnus, 'swan', fr Gk kuknos, 'swan', & dimin suff -et The word orig means 'the white bird', cp Sort quid, 'brilliant, white' A young swan.

cylinder, n. [1 aɪlɪndɜ, 2 aɪlɪndɜ] O Fr cylindre, fr Lat cylindrus, fr Gk kuklindros, 'roller, a roll', cp also Gk kuklindros, 'to roll, roll along, to wallow', & kuklōs, 'curved, crooked, crippled' Gk kuklōs is fr Aryan kel-, the reduced grade of the base kel-, kel-, kel-, kel-*, 'curve, turn' &c This base occurs in a large number of words, cp Lat colus, 'distaff', O Slav loilo, 'wheel', Gk pólos, fr kelos*, 'that on which something turns, pivot, axis' (see pole (III)) The base is redupl in Gk kuklos, 'circle', fr keloklos* (see cycle), & O E hwēol, 'wheel', fr Gmc hwehelo*, Aryan keloklo* see wheel

1 A body of which both ends are circular and equal in size, having long and perfectly straight sides, so that the circle of one end is contained in a parallel direction towards that of the other end, a roller shaped body 2 Any one of many objects having this form, esp a chamber of this shape in which the piston works under the pressure of steam, explosion of gas &c cylindrical, adj. [1 aɪlɪndrɪkl, 2 aɪlɪndrɪkl] prec & -ic & -al Having shape of a cylinder cylindroid, n. & adj. [1 aɪlɪndrɔɪd, 2 aɪlɪndrɔɪd] cylinder & -oid a n Object shaped like a cylinder, b adj, shaped like a cylinder cylix, n. [1 aɪklɪks, 2 aɪklɪks, 2 aɪklɪks] Gk kuklɪx, 'drinking cup' Another grade of the first syll is seen in Gk kalux, 'cup, calyx of a flower', see calyx The base kel-, kol &c, means orig 'hide, protect' See cell, also hall, occult Ancient Greek drinking vessel in form of a shallow, flatish bowl, with two handles, set upon a short stem and foot cyma, n [1 síms, 2 sdíms] Gk kúma, 'anything swelling or swelled, a wave', connected w Gk luein, 'to become pregnant'; & Lat cavus, 'hollow' See cave (I) & op cynic The moulding of a cornice formed in two curves with a hollow between

cymar, n [1 símar, 2 sdímar] Fr amarre, fr Ital amarra Variant of chumero a woman's loose garment, b bishop's robe, chumero

cymbal, n [1 símbal, 2 símbal] Fr cymbale, Lat cymbalum, fr Gk kúmbalon, fr kúmbē, 'a hollow cup or vessel', cogn w. W cwm, 'valley' See coomb(e) & cup. (usually pl) Thin, flatish, slightly hollowed plate of brass held in the hand and struck against another similar to it held in the other hand, when a harsh penetrating note is emitted, used as an accompaniment to other instruments in an orchestra cymbalo, n [1 símbalo, 2 símbalo] Ital cim, cembalo See preo Stringed instrument played with hammers, a kind of dulcimer cymbiform, adj [1 símbiform, 2 símbiform] Gk kúmbē, 'hollow vessel, boat' See under cymbal & -form Shaped like a boat cymboccephalic, adj [1 símboccephalik, 2 símboccephalik] Next word & -ic (lit) Boat-headed, having a long boat-shaped skull cymboccephaly, n [1 símboccephali, 2 símboccephali] Gk kúmbē, 'boat' (see cymbal), & Gk kephalē, 'head', see cephalic Shape of skull consisting in retreating forehead, and great length cyme, n [1 sím, 2 saim] fr Lat cyma, 'young sprout of a cabbage', fr Gk kúma, 'anything swollen' & o See cyma Mode of blossoming in which several stalks, of varying lengths, each surmounted by a single flower, spring from a common stem, contrasted with umbel cymograph, kymograph, n [1 kímograf, 2 kaimograf], more rarely [1 símograf, 2 saimograf] See next word & -graph Apparatus comprising a revolving cylinder on which curves or graphs representing electric waves & o may be traced cymometer, n [1 símómeter, 2 saimómeter] fr Gk kúma, 'wave' See cyma & -meter Instrument for measuring other waves in wireless telegraphy or telephony cymophane, o [1 símófan, 2 saimófan] fr Gk kúma, see preo, & phain (esthai), 'to appear', see phantasm An opalescent, wavy variety of opalescence cymoscope, n [1 símóskóp, 2 saimóskóp] See preo words & -scope Instrument, device for detecting etheric waves in wireless telegraphy or telephony, a detector, whether crystal or thermionic valve

Cymric, adj [1 kímrik, 2 kímrik] W. Cymru, Wales Welsh cynanche, n [1 sínángkē, 2 saínángkē] fr Gk lunaglkē, lit 'dog's collar, sore throat' See guany General medical term for diseases affecting the throat, tonsils & o cynic, n [1 sínik, 2 sínik] Fr cynique, fr Lat cynicus, fr Gk kúniks, lit 'like a dog', fr kúon, genit kúonē, 'dog'; this is cogn w Sert kan, Lat canis (see canine), Lith szims, Goth hunds, O E hund (see hound) Some etymologists connect this word w the base kew-*, 'to swell', either in the sense of 'powerful', as in Sert šavras, 'strong' & o, or in sense of 'young animal', op Sert šikus, 'young of an animal', Gk kuos, 'foetus', & luein, 'become pregnant', see cyma & cavo (I) With such an assumed transference of meaning op bird Osthoff has suggested a connexion w the base pel-, 'cattle', in a reduced form (p)k'u-, w the orig sense of 'watch-dog, guardian of cattle' See this base under pecuniary 1 (Cap) Member of a school of Greek philosophers who taught that the essence of virtue was self control Later they came to be regarded as representing a gloomy revolt against current philosophy and social customs 2 A captious, sneering, fault-finding person, esp one who attributes human conduct to low motives of self-interest cynical, adj [1 sínikl, 2 sínikl] Free & -al Having the character and opinions of a cynic cynically, adv Free & -ly In a cynical manner cynicism, n [1 sínisizm, 2 sínisizm] cynic & -ism A opinions of a cynic, b cynic's habit of mind, c particular expression of this cyno-, pref Form of Gk kúon, 'dog', used in compounds, fr the gent type kund- See cynic cynoccephalic, adj [1 sínoccephalik, 2 sínoccephalik] Pref & cephalic Dog headed, dog-faced, esp of baboons cynoglossum, n [1 sínouglossum, 2 sínouglossum] fr cyno- & Gk glōssa, 'tongue', see gloss (I) One of a large class of flowering plants of the borago tribe cynosure, n [1 síneshoor, -sūr, 2 sínouš, -sūš] Gk kúnsoura, 'dog's tail', also name of the Little Bear, the constellation See cyno- For the second element, oord, 'tail', see uro- (II) 1 The Little Bear 2 An object which draws attention, attracts notice and admiration 'The cynosure of neighbouring eyes' (Milton) cypher, n See cipher cy pres, adv, adj [1 sé prē, 2 sí prē] Fr, 'nearly, as nearly as may be'. (law) Applied to the construing of wills, esp in cases of charitable trusts, where any verbal ambiguity exists, when this is equitably interpreted as near as possible, agreeably with the testator's intentions cyress (I), n [1 sípres, 2 sdípres] M E cyress, O Fr cyress, fr Lat cyprissus, cupressus, fr Gk kuparissos, 'the cyress tree' Prob Semitic, yerk fr Heb gōpher, see gopher (II) 1 An ornamental, pinaceous, coniferous, evergreen tree with dark foliage, b (poet) this tree, or branch of it, as a symbol of mourning cyress (II), n, also cyress lacon M E cyress, 'fine gauze', also 'valuable cloth of gold, or other material', O Fr Cyress, the island of Cyprus A thin, fine cloth or crapo

Cyprian, n [1 sípran, 2 sípran] Lat Cyprius, 'inhabitant of Cyprus', & -an, fr Gk Kúproi, 'Cyprus' This island was the birth-place of Aphrodite, goddess of love, and famous for the rites of her worship (obs) A loose-living person, esp a light woman cyprinid, n [1 síprinud, 2 síprinud] fr Gk kuprinos, 'carp'. See carp Any fish of the family Cyprinidae, which includes the carps, barbels, chubs, tenches & o, having soft fins and living in fresh water

Cypriote, n [1 síprót, 2 síprout] See Cyprian A native of Cyprus cyprinopodium, n [1 síprinopodium, 2 síprinopodium] New Lat, fr Gk Kúpris, 'Aphrodite, Venus' (see Cyprian), & pod (em), pēs, 'foot', see pedal (bot) A genus of orchids, including 'lady's slipper' & o.

Cyrenaic, adj & n [1 sínénik, 2 sínénik] fr Gk Kúrnaiós, 'of Cyrene', town in N Africa a adj Pertaining to the hedonistic school of philosophy, founded by Aristippus of Cyrene, 4th cent a c, b n, member of this school

Cyrillic, adj & n [1 sírilik, 2 sírilik] fr St. Cyril Applied to the alphabet, founded on the Greek, invented by St Cyril, and used by the ancient Slavonic Church The ancient liturgy and the remains of the gospels in what is variously called Old Church Slavonic, Old Bulgarian, are written in this alphabet, and modified forms of it are used in writing Mod Russian and Bulgarian cyst, n [1 síst, 2 síst] Gk kustis, 'the bladder, a bag, pouch' This word is connected w & derived fr a variant of the base meaning 'cover, hide' & o, discussed under cutis, & the other words there referred to 1 (med) A closed membranous sac within a tissue of the body, containing pus or morbid matter 2 A hollow cavity containing liquid secretion, not necessarily morbid cyst-, cysto-, pref Forms of above used in compounds, often referring specifically to the urinary bladder cystic, adj [1 sístik, 2 sístik] cyst & -ic a Pertaining to a cyst, b pertaining to the urinary bladder cystiform, adj [1 sístiform, 2 sístiform] cyst & -form Having shape or character of a cyst cystitis, n [1 sínístis, 2 sínístis] cyst & -itis Inflammation of the bladder cystoid, adj [1 sístoid, 2 sístoid] cyst & -oid Resembling a cyst cystotomy, n [1 sínístotom, 2 sínístotom] cysto- & -tomy Operation of cutting open the bladder, esp for stone

-cyste, suff [1 síst, 2 -sist] meaning cell in biol sense, fr Gk kútos, 'hollow vessel, jar' & o, skun, see cutis, as leucocyte, phagocyte & o cyto-, pref See preo cytology, n [1 sínítoloi, 2 sínítoloi] Pref & -logy (biol) Study of the structure, functions, growth, and life history of cells cytoplasm, n [1 sínítolasm, 2 sínítolasm] cyto- & plasm The protoplasm of the cells of plants or animals czar, n [1 zār, zār, 2 zār, zār] Russ, fr Lat Caesar Title of the Emperor of the Russians czardas, n [1 zárdas, chírdasch, 2 zárdas, chírdás] Hungarian n National dance of Hungary, b music for this czarevitch, n [1 záhrevich, tsáhrevich, 2 záh-, tsáhrevitš] Russ, 'son of a czar'

The reigning czar's eldest son czarevna, n [1 záhrevna, tsáhrevna, 2 záh-, tsáhrevna] Russ Czar's daughter czarina, n [1 záhřina, tsáhřina, 2 záhř-, tsáhřina] Through Germ czarr, fr Russ Czar's wife, the Empress of Russia czaritsa, n [1 záhřitsa, tsáhřitsa, 2 záhř-, tsáhřitsa] Russ Form used in Russ. Empress of Russia

Czech, Czech, n & adj [1 chek, 2 tšek] Pol. form of Bohem Czech 1 n a Bohemian, b Bohemian language 2 adj Of, pertaining to, Bohemia, its inhabitants or language Czechoslovakia, n [1 chékšelóvákia, 2 tšekšelóvákia] Republican state formed of a union of the Czechs and Slovaks after the Great War.

D

D, d [1 dā, 2 dī] the fourth letter of the English and other languages, as in Phoenician, Greek, and Latin For use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary Specif a (math) a fourth unknown quantity; b (mus) second note of the major scale, o (Roman numerals) D=500, properly half of M=1000, formerly written CIO, d the fourth of any series of objects etiam D & o dab (I), v trans [1 dab, 2 dāb] M E dabben, 'elap, strike' Scand, op Norw dabba, 'tap with the foot' Connected w dub & tap (III) 1 To touch suddenly and lightly, esp give a series of slight, hesitating taps to, esp with sponge, brush & o to dab one's eyes with a handkerchief, attempt to dry by repeated slight touches 2 Dab on, to put on moisture, paint &c with a series of light, jerky strokes dab (II), n M E dabbe, fr preo 1 Quick, light tap or blow 2 Something dabbed on dab of paint, slight amount dab (III), n. Etymol unknown A kind of small flat-fish or flounder dab (IV), n. Etymol unknown (colloq) A skilful, dexterous person, one learned in some particular subject a dab at tennis, at Greek dabble, vb trans & intrans [1 dabl, 2 dəbl] Freq of dab (I), op Du dabbelen 1 trans To dip in and out of water, splash about in water 2 dabble one's hands in the river 2 intrans a To dip one's hands or feet in and out of water, splash about, b (fig) dabble in, to engage in (a study, pursuit &c), half-heartedly, without going into it very deeply to dabble in Anglo-Saxon, in politics &c dabbler, n [1 dābler, 2 dābla] Preo & -er One who dabbles, (esp fig) one who engages in a pursuit or studies a subject in a superficial, incomplete manner dabchuck, n [1 dābchuk, 2 dəbʃʃik] fr dab (I) & chuck A kind of small water-bird, the Little Grebe da capo, adv [1 dā kəpō, 2 də kəpō] Ital, 'from the head or beginning' Musical direction, D C, to repeat from the beginning dace, n [1 dās, 2 dais] M E dar, darce, fr O Fr dars, dart See dart (I) A small river fish, genus Leuciscus, belonging to the carp family dachshund, n [1 dak-ʰoond, dahks hoont, 2 dəksʰund, dəksbunt] fr Germ dachs, 'badger', & hund, 'dog' The first element, according to Klinge, is perhaps cogn w Lat texere, 'to build' (see textile), the animal being named fr its underground home Lat tarsus, 'badger', is borrowed fr Gmo For the second element, see hound A breed of dog with a long body, short crooked legs, a long muzzle and large, drooping ears dacont, n [1 dakont, 2 dəkont] Hind dākhil, 'robber' One of a gang of robbers (in India, Burma) daconty, n [1 dakont, 2 dəkont] Hind dākhil, 'gang robbery' Robbery by armed bands (in India, Burma) lacr-, dacryo-, pref [1 dākn, dāknō, 2 dēkn, dēknō] Form fr Gk dakruon, 'tear' cogn w Lat lacrima, see lachrymal & tear Used in physiological terminology, as dacryocyst, cyst in a lachrymal gland &c, dacryoma, tumour of the same, &c dactyl, n [1 daktul, 2 daktul] Gk daktulos, 'a finger, a metrical foot, dactyl' according to Boussoq, fr daktulos*, fr dak-tu-las* (see tonth), w sense of something pointed, projecting Cp M H G znh, a spike, prong, O H G znhlo, fr Gmc lent-lo* A metrical foot, consisting of one long syllable followed by two short syllables, or nne stressed followed by two unstressed dactylic, adj & n [1 daktik, 2 dəktik] fr Gk daktulos, 'pertaining to a finger' dactyl & -ic a adj Composed of, pertaining to, dactyls, b n, a dactylic verse dactylodiglyph n [1 daktulogif, 2 dəktulogif] fr Gk daktulos, 'finger ring', fr daktulos, 'finger' (see dactyl) & gluphō, 'I engrave, carve', fr Aryan glubh-* Cp (fr base w different grade of vowel gleubh*) Lat olub ere, 'to fix', glūma, shell, husk, fr glubh ma*, O H G khoban, 'split, cleave', OE cleofan See cleave, glume A An engraver of rings, b the engraver's name inscribed on a ring dactylography n [1 daktulograf, 2 dəktulograf] See pre & -graphy Art of engraving rings and precious stones dactylogram, n [1 daktulogram, 2 dəktulogram] See dactyl & -gram A finger-print dactylography, n [1 daktulograf, 2 dəktulograf] See dactyl & -graphy The use or study of finger prints for purposes of identification dactylology, n [1 daktulolōj, 2 dəktulolōj] See dactyl & -logy The study or use of the finger alphabet, communication of ideas by means of the fingers, for the deaf and dumb dactylorhiza, n [1 daktuloriza, 2 dəktuloriza] fr Gk daktulos, 'finger' (see dactyl), & rhiza, 'a root' See rhizo- A disease attacking the roots of certain vegetables, esp turnips, causing them to fork and harden, finger and toe disease dad, daddy, n [1 dād, -i, 2 dəd, i] Cp W dad, dad, 'father' Father (a child's word) daddy-long-legs, n [1 dādī lōng lēgz, 2 dādī lōg lēgz] A flying insect, with long thin legs and filmy wings, the crane fly dado, n [1 dādo, 2 dədo] Ital dado, 'die, cube pedestal' See die (I) a The part of a pedestal between base and cornice, b the lower part of the walls of a room, when decorated differently from the upper part by being panelled, or differently coloured The dado is usually separated from the upper part by a moulding daedal adj [1 dēdī, 2 dēdīl] fr Lat daedalus, fr Gk daidalos, 'cunningly wrought', fr daidalos, 'to work, form, skilfully', formed by reduplication fr base dj*, fr del*, dol*, to out' &c, whence also Scr dalati, 'bursts', dalayati, 'splits open', dalam, 'part', Lat dolare, 'to drip, bew, cut out', O Ir delb, 'figure, form', Lib dahs, Russ dolj, O Prussian dellius, 'part', O N kalga, 'outtag', M H G zoll, 'cylindrical piece of wood', zoll, 'inch' O E ðol is prob fr this base See tnil Ingenious, skilfully made, highly elaborated, intricate, various daedalian adj [1 dēdālian, 2 dēdālian] fr Gk Daidalos & -ian See pre Pertaining to, resembling the work of, Daedalus, the mythical architect who built the labyrinth for Minos, king of Crete, intricate, highly wrought daemon, n [1 dēmon, 2 dīman] fr Gk daimōn See demon In original Greek sense, a tutelary divinity, inspiring spirit the daemon of Socrates daemonic, adj [1 dēmōnik, 2 dīmōnik] Preo & -ic Of, possessed, inspired by, a daemon daffodil, n [1 dāfodil, 2 dāfədil] M E affodille, affadille, fr Low Lat affodillus, asphodelus, fr Gk asphodelos, 'a plant of the lily family' The origin of the d- is obscure The suggestion that it stands for th (the) is very improbable See asphodel 1 A bulb-rooted spring flower, wild and cultivated, usually yellow, or yellow and white, the narcissus 2 The colour of a daffodil, pale, bright, yellow daffodilly, daffadownilly, n [1 dāfodil, dāfədundil, 2 dāfədil, dāfədundil] See pre The daffodil daff adj [1 dāft, 2 dəft] M E dāft, 'mild, gentle, stupid', O E (ge)dāfte, 'gentle, meek', op O E gedafman, Goth gadaban, 'be amiable, becoming' For development of meaning, cp simple & silly See also dett, fabrio (provino) Foolish, weak-minded mad dag, n [1 dag, 2 dæg] Origin doubtful An old form of long pistol dagger, n [1 dāger, 2 dāge] M E dagger, lit that which tears, fr vb daggen, 'to slit, tear in pieces', op dagge, 'a strip of cloth', Fr dague, 'dagger' 1 A weapon, consisting of a handle and a short, pointed, two edged blade, used for stabbing Phrs at daggers drawn, on terms of hostility, to look daggers at a person, to look at with an expression of hatred and hostility 2 (typog) A symbol of reference (?) shaped like a dagger daggle, vb trans [1 dēgl, 2 dēgl] Scand Cp Sved dagg, 'dew', & -lo See dow To trail through mud and wet 'Nor like a puppy, dogged through the town' (Pope) dago n [1 dāgo, 2 dāgo] fr common Span proper name Diego=James Contemptuous term for a Spaniard, Portuguese, or Italian, also generally for a person of dusky complexion and dubious origin daguerreotype, n [1. dagtrōtp, 2 dəgrā-tātp] fr name of inventor of process, Louis Daguerre (1789-1851) Portrait produced by an early method of photography, in which the picture is fixed on a chemically treated metal or glass plate dahabiah, dahabieh, n [1 dāhhahbēa, 2 dā-hābēa] Arab dahabīya A sailing boat used on the Nile, chiefly for passengers dahlia, n [1 dālia, 2 dēlija] fr A Dahl, the name of a Swedish botanist A composite herbaceous plant, a native of Mexico, now much cultivated in Europe, having brightly and variously coloured double or single flowers Dail Eireann, n [1 dāwl ēran, 2 dēl ēran] Ir, 'Assembly of Ireland' The lower house of Parliament in the Irish Free State daily, adj, adv, & n [1 dāh, 2 dēli] M E daily, O E dæglīc day & -ly 1 adj & adv Happening, appearing, every day a daily event to happen daily Phr daily bread, one's livelihood, way one earns one's living 2 n A newspaper published every day daismo, n [1 dūmō, 2 dūmōu] Jap & Chin da, 'great', myō, 'name' Ancient hereditary noble of Japan daintily, adv [1 dāntih, 2 dēntih] fr dainty & -ly In a dainty, refined, fastidious, graceful manner daintiness, n [1 dāntines, 2 dēntines] See pre & -ness The quality of being dainty (in various senses) dainty, adj & n [1 dānti, 2 dēnti] M E deinte, 'dignity, value', fr O Fr deinte, deintel, fr Lat dignitāt (em) See dignity 1 adj a (of persons or things) Refined, elegant, delicate, in appearance, taste &c, b affectedly fastidious, esp regarding choice of food 2 n Something agreeable to the taste, a choice morsel of food dairy, n [1 dāri, 2 dēari] M E deierie, fr deie, 'dairymaid' & -ery M E deie, fr O N deiga, cogn w O E dæg, 'dough' See dnugh a The building or room in which milk and cream are kept and made into butter and cheese, b a shop for the sale of dairy produce dairy-farm, n Farm devoted to the produce of milk and butter dairying, n [1 dāri ing, 2 dēari ing] fr dairy & -ing The business of a dairy farm dairymaid, n [1 dārimād, 2 dēarimād] Woman in charge of, or working in, a dairy dairymen, n [1 dāriman, 2 dēariman] a Man working in a dairy, b dealer in milk, cream, butter, and eggs dais, n [1 dās, 2 dēis] M E deis, 'dais' (w transferred meaning), fr O Fr deis, 'table', fr Low Lat discus, 'table', fr Lat discus, 'a quart, dish, disc' See disk A raised platform at one end of a room, esp the high table in a dining hall daisied, adj [1 dāzid, 2 dēzid] fr daisy & -ed (of a meadow &c) Having daisies growing in it, thickly dotted with daisies daisy, n [1 dāzi, 2 dēizi] O E dagessege, M E dais eye, dais ie, the day's eye, daisy See day, eye 1 a A small composite flower, genus Bellis, esp the common daisy, B. perennis, with a yellow centre surrounded by white, pink tipped petals, growing wild, esp among grass, b one of several varieties of flower resembling the daisy, as the Michaelmas daisy, species of aster, ox eye daisy, chrysanthemum 2 (slang) Something first rate, capital, or charming daisy-chain, n Garland, festoon, of daisies fastened together by inserting the stem of one through a slit in that of another daisy-cutter, n (colloq, slang) a Horse which does not pick its feet up off the ground as it moves, b ball at cricket which keeps low on the ground dāk, dawk n [1 dāwk, 2 dōk] Hind (in India) a Relay of men or horses for transport of mails or passengers, b post, mail dāk-bungalow, n Travellers' rest house in India dalai-lama, n. [1 dāl' lāma, 2 dāl' lāma] Tibetan See lama The Grand Lama, chief Buddhist priest of Tibet dale, n. [1 dāl, 2 dāl] ME dāle, OE dāl, 'a valley' Cp O H G tal, O N dāl, Goth dāl Cogn w Gk thalos, 'a circular vault, dome', thalamos, 'a room', O Slav dolā, 'ditch', Aryan dhol-*, 'something bent, a bending', whence 'a hollow, concave or convex surface' See dell, thalamus A valley, low ground between hills dalesman, n. [1 dālzman, 2 dālzman], fr prec & man. a One who lives in a valley (esp in N of England), b specif, a small freeholder in the northern dales dalle, n. [1 dal, 2 dāl] Fr, 'elah', pl 'gutter, trough' (Canada & USA) a A flat paving stone; specif b (pl) a rapid as it flows over flat rocks dalliance, n. [1 dahans, 2 dālans] ME dallance, dalliance See next word & -ance a Childish, trifling, hesitating action, futile amusement, b amorous toying dally, v. intrans [1 dāl, 2 dāl] ME dalen, A-Fr daler, 'ohat, pass time in equal converse', etymol doubtful a To trifle, behave in a futile manner, to linger, hesitate in action, delay, b to trifle, toy, interchange amorous caresses with, c (fig, of mental action) to consider, entertain to dally with an idea

Dalmatian, n. [1 dalmāshun, 2 dalmāshun], fr Dalmatia, on the eastern shore of the Adriatic, & -an A kind of dog, white with black spots, formerly kept as a carriage dog dalmatic, n. [1 dalmatik, 2 dalmatik] ME dalmatik, fr Fr dalmatique, fr Lat dalmatica (tunica), a long tunic of Dalmatian wool A loose vestment with wide sleeves and open sides worn a by deacons at the celebration of Mass, b by bishops, under the chasuble, c by a king or emperor at his coronation dal segno, adv. [1 dal sēnyō, 2 dāl sēnyō] Ital, lit 'from the sign' Musoal direction to go back to repeat from a sign daltonism, n. [1 dāwtōnizm, 2 dōltēnzizm], fr the name of a chemist, John Dalton (1766-1844), who was colour-blind, & -ism Colour-blindness dam (I), n. [1 dam, 2 dām] ME dam, shortened form of dame a (of animals) and b (archaic, fig, of persons) Mother dam (II), n. Not in OE, but widespread among Gmo languages ME dam Cp M H G dam, O Frs & Mod Dn dam, O N dām, op Goth faur-dagman, 'to shut off, stop up' Skeat suggests connexion w Gk thāmos, 'heap', wh is phonetically irreproachable The last word is gen believed to be cogn w OE dōm, 'judgement, dominion, glory, fame' &c See doom & deem The simplest form of the base is dhe-* &c, 'act, place, make' See theme a An embankment, built across a river or stream to arrest its flow and raise its level in order to form a reservoir &c, b water obstructed by a dam dam (III), v. trans, fr prec (lit & fig) To obstruct, confine by a dam, also dam up damage (I), n. [1 dām, 2 dām] ME damage, fr O Fr damage See dam & -age 1 a Harm, injury, hurt, to property, person, reputation, Phr to do damage, break, spoil, things, (fig) to cause trouble, b (colloq) cost, price, amount to be paid for anything what's the damage? I'll stand the damage, will pay 2 (law, in pl) Money claimed, or ordered by a court to be paid, as compensation for injury, libel &c to claim, pay, damages damage (II), v. trans, fr prec, op O Fr damager 1 a (of material things) To cause injury to, impair usefulness, diminish beauty of, lessen value, spoil to damage property, my luggage was damaged in transit, pictures damaged by fire &c, b (colloq, of human beings and their persons) his nose was rather damaged by the blow, 2 (of non-material things, character, reputation &c) To blacken, cause loss of, stain.

damageable, adj. [1 dāmijabl, 2 dāmīdžabl] Prec & -able Capable of being damaged damascene (I), n. [1 dāmasēn, 2 dāmasēn] See damson A kind of small plum damascene (II), v. trans, fr Fr, fr Lat Damascēnus, 'of Damascus' See damask. To ornament steel or other metal, by incrusting or inlaying, with patterns in gold or silver wire, or by giving a wavy appearance, esp to the blades of swords, resembling that of watered silk, chiefly in P P damascened damask (I), n. [1 dāmask, 2 dāmask], fr place name Damascus 1 A material of silk, linen &c, with a raised or flat pattern woven into it 2 Steel made in, or like that made in, Damascus, decorated by a pattern of wavy lines 3 The colour of the damask rose damask (II), adj, fr prec a Made of damask in senses 1 of 2 damask cloth, steel, b of the colour of a damask rose, rosy pink damask (III), v. trans, fr prec To adorn with ornamental patterns like those of damask linen or steel damask rose, n. A pink rose brought originally from Damascus dame, n. [1 dām, 2 deim] ME dōme, fr O Fr dame, fr Lat domina, 'the mistress of a household', item of domin us, 'lord', prob fr a form domen-*, fr base dom- as in Lat dom us, 'a house' See doma 1 a A lady, woman in authority, mistress of a household, now archaic as a title, except in such Phrs as Dame Nature, Dame Fortune &c, b (facetious) an old dame, old woman, c (archaic) a schoolmistress, formerly applied to a lady in charge of a house at Eton 2 The legal title of the wife of a baronet or knight, or (recently) of a woman who has personally received an order of knighthood, always with Christian name Sir George and Dame Alice X, Dame Ellen Terry &c dame-school, n. A school for small children, kept by a woman dammar, n. [1 dāmar, 2 dāmō], fr Malay damar Resin used for varnishes, obtained from various East Indian and Australasian trees darn (I), v. trans [1 dam, 2 dām] ME damnen, Fr damner, fr Lat damnāre, 'to injure, cause loss to, condemn', fr damnum, 'harm, loss', fr dapnom*, cogn w Gk dapanē, 'cost, expense', Lat daps, 'a feast, esp a sacrificial feast', Sort dāpayat, 'he distributes', O N tafn, 'sacrificial animal' Aryan base dāp-, dāp-, 'to distribute', extended fr dāp(i), dāp(i), 'di', 'share, divide', wh appears in Gk daiomai, 'I share, take part in', daitē, 'meal, feast', Sort dāyālē, 'to share', dāti, 'out, reaps' The sense of injury & loss has developed fr the idea of compulsory expenditure Cp condemn & see further under time & demon 1 To condemn or consign to eternal punishment 2 Interjectionally as an oath, expressing annoyance, disappointment, anger, a (absol) oh damn! b (followed by object) damn it all, damn this dictionary &c Phr to know, do &c, damn all, nothing at all, c to utter oaths, swear to curse and damn 3 To ruin, destroy reputation, possibility of success of to damn a play, a person's prospects &c, 'down with faint praise' (Pope) damn (II), n, fr prec a An oath, consisting of utterance of the word, b swearing generally, o a trifling amount not to care a damn, probably for dime damnable, adj. [1 dāmnaibl, 2 dāmnaibl], fr damna (I) & -able a Deserving damnation, detestable, horrible a damnable heresy, b (colloq) expressing disapproval, displeasure the dinner was damnable damnable, adv. Prec & -ly a In a damnable manner, detestably, b (colloq, as mere intens) very damnable hot, damnable sorry &c damnation, n. & interj [1 dāmnašun, 2 dāmnašun], fr Lat damnatio (em) See damn (I) & -ation 1 a The act of condemning, state of being condemned, to eternal punishment, b ruin, destruction, confounding of hopes of success, condemnation (of a book, play, &c) 2 (interj) Oath of same value as damn!

damnatory, adj. [1 dāmnatari, 2 dāmna-tari], fr Lat damnātorius, fr damnāt (um), P P type of damnāre. See prec & -ory a Causing condemnation damnatory evidence &c, b uttering sentences of condemnation the damnatory clauses (in the Athanasian Creed) damned, adj. [1 dāmd, 2 dāmd], fr P P of damn (I) 1 Condemned to punishment or destruction, specif, the damned, souls undergoing eternal punishment, the torments of the damned 2 a Odious, detestable, execrable, b (colloq) as almost meaning less expletive none of your damned nonsense Also as adverb in approximately same sense a damned silly remark damnable, adj. [1 dāmnik, 2 dāmnik], fr Lat damnicus, 'injurious, pernicious' See damny & -ic Causing injury, harmful damnification, n. [1 dāmnikāshun, 2 dāmnikāshun] See next word & -ation The act of injuring, causing loss to, the state of being injured damny, v. trans [1 dāmnik, 2 dāmnik], fr O Fr damnyfier, fr Lat damnyfiere, 'to injure' See damn (I) & -fy (rare) To cause loss or damage to damning, adj. [1 dāmning, 2 dāmning], fr Prec Part of damn (I) Causing, tending to cause, condemnation damning evidence, a damning statement

Damocles, n. [1 dāmoklēz, 2 dāmoklēz] In Phr Sword of Damocles, an ever present, imminent, threatening danger, from story of Damocles, courtier of the tyrant Dionysius of Syracuse, over whose head at a feast a sword hung by a thread damozel, n. [1 dāmōzel, 2 dāmōzel] (archaic, poet) Variant of damself damp (I), n. [1 damp, 2 dāmp] Cp Du damp, Germ dampf, 'steam' Further relations wh might be suggested are very doubtful 1 Moisture, humidity, vapour 2 a Harmful exhalations rising from the ground, b specif, noxious gas in coal mines choke damp, fire damp 3 (fig) Depression, feeling of dejection, discouragement, esp to cast a damp over, depress damp (II), adj, fr prec Containing a small amount of moisture, slightly wet, often applied to superficial moisture damp (III), v. trans, fr damp (I) 1 To moisten, make slightly wet 2 a To hinder combustion of a fire by checking supply of air with ashes &c, often damp down, b (fig) to depress, discourage to damp a person's spirits 3 (mus) To check vibration of (string of an instrument) Damp off, intrans, (of flowers and shoots &c of plants) to perish, wither off from midrow damp-course, n. Layer of damp proof material, as slate &c in wall of a house, to prevent damp rising from the ground dampen, v. trans & intrans [1 dāmpen, 2 dāmpen] damp (I) & -en 1 a trans (rare or familiar) To make damp, b intrans, to become damp 2 (fig, of action on the mind) To cast a chill, blight over, depress (the spirits &c) dampier, n. [1 dāmpier, 2 dāmpier], fr damp (III) & -er 1 Anything which makes damp, specif a pad or roller for wetting adhesive stamps, b (fig) something which depresses the mind, spirits &c thing which depresses the mind, spirits &c to cast a dampier on a party &c 2 A sliding iron plate for closing or opening the flow of a stove, furnace &c, so as to regulate the combustion 3 A contrivance for checking the vibration of the wires of a piano &c, usually consisting of a felt pad, applied by pressure on a pedal 4 (Austral) A thinish cake made of flour and water, cooked in hot ashes or before a fire dampish, adj. [1 dāmpuk, 2 dāmpuk], damp (II) & -ish Slightly damp damply, adv [1 dāmp, 2 dāmp] damp (II) & -ly In a damp state dampness, n [1 dāmpnes, 2 dāmpnes] damp (II) & -ness The state of being damp, humidity damp-proof, adj Capable of resisting damp damsel, n [1 dāmsl, 2 dāmsl] M E damsel, O Fr damiselle, Mod Fr demoiselle, 'young lady', fr Low Lat dominella, dimin of domina See dame A young girl, maiden damson, n [1 dāmsn, 2 dāmsn] M E damasin (plumme), O Fr damasene, 'plum of Damasus' A small, purple, very sour plum, b the tree bearing this kind of plum damson-cheese, n Prec & cheese A preserve of solid consistency, without juice, made of damsons dan, n [1 dan, 2 dān] See dan (I), fr Lat dominus (archaic, poet) Master, sir Don Quixote dance (I), vb intrans & trans [1 dāns, 2 dāns] M E dancen, dauncen, fr O Fr danser, fr Gmc source, op O H G dansōn, 'to draw along, as in a dance', cogn w Goth (at) þinsan, 'to draw towards' Prob fr the Aryan base ten-* &c, 'stretch', as in Lat tendere, 'to stretch', P P tensum, 'stretched out', see tense, & tenuis, 'thin'

See tensus & thin A intrans 1 A To move along, or leap, with a series of rhythmic steps and movements of the body, esp to a musical accompaniment, b to spring lightly about with swift, buoyant, irregular movements, not according to any rhythm, to caper about 2 to dance for joy, to dance with rage, be furiously angry 2 (of light manly objects, of shadows &c) 'To be moved, stirred, wafted into rapid, irregular motion leaves dancing in the wind, moes dancing in the sunbeams, shadows dancing on the grass &c B trans 1 A To execute rhythmically steps of a particular kind to dance a jig, waltz, b in Phr to dance attendance upon, to give one's society constantly to, attend frequently and with solicitude 2 To lift up and down, swing, dandle to dance a child on one's knee dance (II), n, fr prec 1 A series of rhythmic steps and movements of the body made in dancing Phr to lead a person a dance, to put difficulties in the way of, hinder by troublesome distractions, lead here and there in a vain pursuit Dance of death, representation of death carrying off all classes of men, frequent in mediaeval art St Vitus's dance, nervous disorder, chorea, characterized by convulsive movements of the muscles 2 A particular form of dance, such as a waltz, fox trot, quadrille &c folk dance &c 3 A musical air, intended as an accompaniment to a dance 4 A social gathering, party of pleasure, organized for dancing dance-music, n Music composed primarily as an accompaniment to dancing dancer, n [1 dāhoser, 2 dāns] See dance (I) & -er One who dances, specif, a professional who executes elaborate and graceful steps, and movements of the body, as a public entertainment dancetty, dancetté, adj [1 dāhnsté, 2 dānsé] As if fr dance (I), but corrupt of Fr danché, 'indented', fr dent, 'tooth' See dent- (her, of bars or fences) Indented dancing, n [1 dānsing, 2 dāns] dance (I) & -ing Art, practice, of dancing, or the dance ballé dancing, step dancing dancing dervish, n A dervish belonging to a particular order, Mevlevites, who practise a ritual whirling dance dancing-master, n Teacher of dancing dandelion, n [1 dāndellon, 2 dāndellan] fr Fr dent de lion, 'lion's tooth', fr the indented leaves See dent- & lion. A common plant, Taraxacum officinale, considered by gardeners as a troublesome weed, with bright yellow composite flowers, deeply indented leaves, and hollow stems containing a bitter, milky juice dander, n [1 dānder, 2 dānde]. Etymol.

unknown Temper, anger, in Phr to get one's dander up, to rouse to anger dandical, adj [1 dāndikl, 2 dāndisikl] See dandy & -ic & -al Like a dandy, dandified

Dandie Dinmont, n [1 dāndi dīnmont, 2 dāndi dīnmont], fr name of a character in Scott's Guy Mannering A breed of Scotch terriers with short legs and bluish grey or yellowish rough hair dandify, vb trans [1 dāndif, 2 dāndisif] See dandy & -fy To make up, dress out, like a dandy, make affected, esp in P P a dandified appearance, foppish dandle, vb trans [1 dāndl, 2 dāndl] Cp Flomish dandere, 'to bounce a ball', Ital dandolare, 'dandle', & Fr dondiner, 'wolk with swaying or swagging gait', are prob fr same Gmc base To rock, toss, dance up and down, and fondle (a child) in one's arms or on one's lap dandruff, n [1 dāndruf, 2 dāndraf] Etymol doubtful Scurf, small scales of dead skin formed on the head among the hair dandy (I), n [1 dāndi, 2 dāndi] Originally a Scots word Perh fr name St Andrew, pronounced [sən dāndru] in Scotland a A man who devotes an excessive amount of attention to his dress and personal appearance, a fop, a rather finicky, fastidious person, b (in favourable sense) a well- and carefully dressed man dandy (II), adj, fr prec Finely, foppishly dressed, smart dandy (III), n Perh fr dandy (I) a A kind of one masted sloop, b light, two wheeled spring cart dandy (IV), n Corrupted form of dengue dandy-brush, n First element peh dandruff A brush with strong whalebone bristles, used to clean horses' coats dandyish, adj [1 dāndish, 2 dāndis] dandy & -ish Like, pertaining to, a dandy dandyism, n [1 dāndiizm, 2 dāndi:izm] dandy & -ism Excessive and fastidious solicitude for smartness of dress and appearance, foppishness

Dane, n [1 dān, 2 dēn] Dan Daner, pl, op O E Dene 1 A native of Denmark 2 (also Great Dane) A breed of large, smooth coated dogs dane-geld, n [1 dāngeld, 2 dāngeld] See prec & yield (just) A tax on land, originally imposed in the 10th cent, as payment to the Danes, or to support a military force against them

Danelaw, -lāgh, n [1 dānlaw, 2 dānl] O E, fr Dane & lagu, see law (just) A Danish law as prevailing in England at Danish Conquest, b part of NE England under this law, after Treaty of Wedmore danger, n [1 dānjer, 2 dēndža], w changed meaning fr M E danger, 'power, control, resistance', O Fr danger, 'power, domination', fr Low Lat dominarius*, 'power', fr dominus, 'a master, lord' See dominate, domine 1 Exposure to risk of death, injury &c, peril his life is in danger, the dangers of a journey 2 Something involving risk of injury, menace, cause of peril a danger to health, to peace &c 3 Position of signal giving warning of danger at danger, (also attrib) danger-signal &c dangerous, adj [1 dānjurus, 2 dēndžeres] Prec & -ous a (of circumstances) Fraught with danger, unsafe, causing, or involving risk, exposure to death, injury, &c, perilous a dangerous illness, journey &c, b (of persons or animals) likely to do physical or moral injury, unreliable a dangerous man, dog &c Phr To look dangerous, to appear angry, and to be about to make a disturbance dangerously, adv Prec & -ly In a dangerous manner, so as to involve exposure to danger dangerously ill, dangerously near the edge dangerousness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being dangerous danger-signal, n (lit and fig) A sign of danger, impending, or to be avoided dangle, vb intrans & trans [1 dānggl, 2 dānggl] Scand, op Swed dial dangla, 'to swing', & in different grade, O.N dangla, 'dangle, swing about' A intrans 1 To hang and sway loosely, as a weight at the end of a cord an eyeglass dangling from a ribbon 2 Dangle after, to follow, hang about, hover round, to court in desultory fashion

B trans 1 To cause to hang and swing loosely to dangle a toy before a child, b (fig) to display as an attraction, tempt with to dangle bright prospects before a person, before his eyes

Danish, adj & n [1 dānish, 2 dēn] Dane & -ish a adj Belonging to Denmark, b n, the language of the Danes dank, adj [1 dāngk, 2 dāngk] M E dank, op Swed dänka, 'to moisten', perh connected with damp Harmfully, disagreeably damp dankness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being dank dap, vb intrans & trans & n [1 dap, 2 dap] Etymol doubtful 1 vb a (fishing) To allow the bait to fall or dip gently into the water, b (of ball) to bounce 2 n Bounce of a ball

Daphne, n [1 dāfni, 2 dāfni] Gk daphnē, 'laurel' Etymol unknown Genus of flowering shrubs, including the mezereum dapper, adj [1 dāpor, 2 dāp] M E daper Cp Du dapper, O H G tapfar, 'firm, strong, brave', fr Gmc dap*, 'closely knit, compact', cogn w O Slav dobri, Russ dobry, 'good' Aryan base dhe* &c, 'to make fitting, suitable, fit together' See deft & theme Neat and smart in appearance, active and smart of movement (usually applied in small persons) dapple, vb trans [1 dāpl, 2 dāpl] The suggested etymologies are more ingenious shots a To mark with spots or splodges of different colour, or shade of colour, generally in P P and applied to horses and deer, b (referring to spots of light and shade caused by sunlight coming through leaves), to variegate dappled shade dapple-grey, adj & n M E dappel gras, a adj (of horses) Marked with a different shade of grey, b n, a horse of this colour darbies, n pl [1 dārhz, 2 dābz] Origin unknown (slang) Handouls

Darby and Joan, n [1 dārb and jōn, 2 dārb and jōn] An old, devoted, happy married couple, probably from characters in an 18th cent poem dare, vb intrans & trans [1 dār, 2 dār] O E Pret-Pres dear(f), infin duron, M E dar, 3rd sing pres of durren, 'dare' Cp O H G (ge)hurren, Goth (ga)darsan, fr Aryan base dhrs* Cp Gk tharsē, 'I am of good courage', tharsos, 'boldness', fr the same base, Sort dhrēnēti, dharapā, 'to dare', Lith dreiti, 'I dare', O Slav drāziti, 'bold' The present day form is a new formation fr the old Pret Pres The form he dars (without e) is a survival of the old Pret Pres He dars is a new formation 1 intrans To have the courage or audacity for some action, be brave enough to do something he darsn't fight, he won't dare to deny it Phrs I dare say, believe possible or probable, don't you dare to touch me, don't have the impudence to 2 trans A To challenge, provoke to an action, implying that the challenged party cannot, or has not the courage to, do it I dare you to jump that stream, b to attempt, venture to do, have courage for, to face he will dare any danger dare-devil, n See dare & devil A bold, careless, reckless, foolhardy person dare, n [1 dārk, 2 dārk], fr Gk darekēda, as supposed to have been first coined by Darius the Great, or direct fr Pers dārā, 'king' Ancient Persian gold coin daring (I), adj [1 dāring, 2 dāring] Pres Part of dare a (of persons) Having courage, brave, foolhardy a daring adventurer, b (of actions) requiring courage on the part of those who perform them a daring attempt, a impudent, audacious a daring robbery old, the days of Queen Elizabeth, Phr to end one's days, to die, b speed, time of flourishing, prosperity my day is done, feudalism has had its day, Phr every dog has his day, everyone has some chance of success, -c an indefinite, unspecified, point of time, past or future the other day, some day day-bed, n A long couch, on which one can lie at full length, an early form of sofa day-blindness, n A defect of sight which makes the sufferer unable to distinguish objects by daylight day-boarder, n One who remains at school all day, and has at least one meal there, but returns home to sleep day-book, n Book in which commercial or other transactions are recorded as soon as they take place day-boy, -girl, n One who attends school daily, while living at home daybreak, n [1 dābrāk, 2 dēibrēik] The dawn, first appearance of the sun at beginning of the day daydream, n [1 dādrēm, 2 dēidrim] A reverie, musing, a visionary hope daydreamer, n [1 dādrēmer, 2 dēidrima] One who has daydreams day labour, n Work paid for by the day day labourer, n One who works and is paid by the day daylight, n [1 dālit, 2 dēilavt] The light of the sun, natural, as distinguished from artificial light; light, as distinguished from darkness or night Phrs (fig) to see daylight to understand, arrive at the solution of a problem, let daylight into, give publicity to daylight-saving, n Scheme for taking full advantage of the hours of daylight in summer, adopted in England in 1916, it consists in advancing the clock one hour, thus beginning work an hour earlier at a certain day, and putting it back again at the end of the period, which is known as Summer Time day-lily, n A garden flower, with long narrow leaves and trumpet shaped, yellow or brownish-red flowers, the petals fall in a few hours daylong, adj [1 dālong, 2 dēilōg], fr day & long Lasting throughout the day day-owl, n A kind of owl which sometimes hunts by day day-school, n a One attended daily by children living at home, contrasted with boarding-school, b one where classes are held during the day, opposed to night-school, evening school day-spring, n The dawn, break of day, (also fig) beginning day-star, n The morning star, one rising before the sun daytaller, dataller, n [1 dātāl, 2 dēitāl] day & province form of taller See tale One who works and is paid by the day, esp of coal-miners daytime, n [1 dātim, 2 dēitaim] The period between sunrise and sunset, time of daylight daze (I), vb trans [1 dāz, 2 dēiz] ME dāsen, 'to stupefy, grow dim, dizzy', fr ON dasa, 'be sluggish', op OE dwāse, 'stupid', 'to become stupid', dwāse, 'foolish, stupid', perh cogn w Lat furere, 'to rage', if this be derived fr base dhucen-* See discussion under fury, cp dastard & dazzle To stupefy, stun, bewilder, as by a sudden blow or shock daze (II), n, fr prec State of being confused, bewildered dazedly, adv [1 dāzedli, 2 dēizdli], fr PP of daze (I) & -ly In a dazed, bewildered, stupefied manner dazzle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dāz, 2 dēiz], fr daze (I) & -le 1 a To render partially blind, deprive temporarily of capacity for clear sight, cloud the vision, by exposing the eyes to excess of very brilliant light to be dazzled by the sun, glare of headlights &c, b to confuse the sight of, prevent from distinguishing objects such as ships correctly, by painting them in a particular fashion, as in the Great War 2 (of moral objects) To overpower, to obscure the judgement of, with the sight of exceptional beauty, splendour, or with hopes of success, wealth &c dazzled by the lady's beauty, by the prospect of fame dazzle (II), n, fr prec A Process of dazzling, b brilliance, that which dazzles dazzling, adj [1 dāzliŋ, 2 dēizliŋ], fr Pres Part of dazzle (I) Having the power to dazzle, of great brilliance or beauty dazzlingly, adv Prec & -ly In a dazzling manner de-, pref, fr Lat prep dē, 'from, away from' &c, in composition it has in Lat the force of a 'down, away', as in decedere, deduct &c, b 'deficiency', as in delect; c 'negation', as in despair, d 'deprivation', as in decapitate, e 'over', as in dealt, dealt, 'cover with white', see daub, f (intens) expressing 'completeness', as in defunct, g giving bad sense, deceive, delude. De- in Engl usage is sometimes fr Fr dé, O Fr des, wh is fr Lat dīs, 'asunder, apart', as in decompose. deacon, n [1 dēkun, 2 dikan] ME diacone, OE diacon, fr Lat diāconus, fr Gk diakonos, 'a servant, a minister of the church, deacon', op Gk eg-lōnēin, 'to be quick, active, diligent', & eg-lōnēin, 'to hasten' The etymol. of the base lon- is unknown See dia- (in the Anglican and Roman churches) A person ordained to an order of the ministry below that of priest, b (in the Presbyterian Church) a layman ordained and appointed to attend to the secular affairs of the church, c (in the Early Church) one of a special class of church workers appointed to minister to the poor, d (in some dissenting bodies) an assistant to the regular minister deaconess, n [1 dēkanēs, 2 dikanēs], fr prec & -ess (in the Early Church and some modern churches) A woman with duties similar to those of a deacon, b a professed member of one of certain religious orders deaconhood, n [1 dēkanhūd, 2 dikanhūd] deacon & -hood The office of, state of being, a deacon deaconry, n [1 dēkanri, 2 dikanri] deacon & -ry Office of deacon, the body of deacons collectively deaconship, n [1 dēkanšip, 2 dikanšip], fr deacon & -ship The office of a deacon dead (I), adj [1 dēd, 2 dēd] OE dead, ME dēde, deade, OHG ttā, O Frs dād, OS dēd, ON daufr, Goth daups With this, fr daw-*, is associated by gradation Goth dwans, 'mortal', fr dew-* These represent an Aryan dhaw*, dheu-*, respectively, wh may also be the base of Lat fūnus, fōnus, 'burial', if this be for fowenos*, fr dhaw* See funeral, die (II), & death 1 a (of plants and animals) No longer living, deprived of, having lost, life dead flowers, faded, withered, Phr as dead as mutton, as a door nail, as a nut, quite dead, b (of inanimate objects) having never lived, not possessing, or having possessed, life and power of feeling, or of voluntary movement dead matter Hence, 2, resembling death in any of its qualities, silence, immobility, coldness &c a dead sleep, dead calm, dead weight &c, dead finger, numbed, made insensible by cold &c 3 a Absolute, complete dead certainty, dead level, dead failure, dead stop, dead heat (in race), equality at finish, b sure, certain, unfailing a dead shot, on the mark 4 a (of language) No longer spoken as ordinary medium of communication in a community, b (of customs &c) no longer used or practised 5 Lacking vitality, liveliness, spirit, vigour, a (of human character) dull, lifeless, without animation, b (of sound) dull, heavy, not resonant, lacking a ring, c (of colour) dull, neutral, without brilliance or warmth, d (of surface of ground &c) not fast, very slow 6 a dead pitch 6 (in various games, of the ball) Not in play dead (II), adv, fr prec Thoroughly, completely, absolutely dead tired, the wind was dead against us, dead ahead.

dead (III), n, fr adj 1 (coll) The dead, those who are dead 2 The dead of night, middle of the night when all is dark and silent dead-alive, adj Dispirited, monotonous, depressed, depressing dead-beat (I), adj (colloq) Exhausted by fatigue dead-beat (II), n & adj a n Movement without recoil, watch escapement working in this way, b adj, (in machinery, clockwork) moving without recoil, making a momentary stoppage without oscillation dead-centre, n In crank motion, that position in which the crank and the connecting rod are in a straight line, so that no force is exerted dead-drunk, n So drunk as to be incapable of movement, speech &c deaden, vb trans [1 dēdn, 2 dēdn] dead (I) & -en 1 (of action on mind and feelings) To deprive of alertness, sensibility, feeling, render numb, insensible to deaden one's affections, taste &c. 2 (of action on sense) To diminish intensity, muffle deaden perception, a sound, pain 3 (of bright surfaces) To remove, or cloud, lustre, diminish brilliance, or reflecting power to deaden the polish on a table &c dead-eye, n (nant) A block with three holes, used for tightening the shrouds of a ship dead ground, n Ground which is out of view or range of fire from guns &c deadhead, n [1 dēd hed, 2 dēdhed] 1 Person who attends a theatre, concert &c with a complimentary ticket for which he pays nothing 2 A feeble person with no individuality, principles, courage, or energy, who contributes nothing to counsel or action dead heat, n A race in which two or more competitors reach the winning-post together dead-house, n A mortuary dead-letter, n 1 An undelivered, unclaimed, postal packet 2 A law, regulation, still unenforced, but no longer enforced dead-letter office, n Department of General Post Office to which undelivered letters are sent dead-lift, n Lift, or pull, on a dead-weight, lift made with main strength dead-light, n Strong metal cover or shutter over a port-hole or cabin window on board ship, to keep out water &c in a storm deadliness, n [1 dēdliŋ, 2 dēdliŋ] deadly & -ness Quality of being deadly deadly, adj [1 dēdli, 2 dēdli] dead (I) & -ly 1 (lit and fig) Tending to cause death, fatal deadly poison, blow &c, speed, deadly sin, that which merits eternal damnation, unless repented of and pardoned 2 Im placable, virulent, inspired by hatred a deadly enemy, combat 3 Excessive, insupportable deadly dullness Phr (colloq) perforably deadly, highly objectionable, intolerable deadly (II), adv, fr prec 1 In a manner, to a degree, resembling death deadly pale, etc 2 (colloq) Excessively, to a high degree deadly dull deadly nightshade, n [1 dēdli nītsād, 2 dēdli nītsād] Popular name of the belladonna plant, Atropa belladonna dead march, n A funeral march, a solemn music for a funeral, specif the Dead March, that in 'Saul', by Handel deadness, n [1 dēdnēs, 2 dēdnēs] See dead (I) & -ness a The state of being dead, b listlessness, lack of animation and vivacity dead-nettle, n Variety of flowering herb, having leaves like those of the stinging-nettle, but devoid of a sting dead-point, n Dead centre dead-pull, n Dead-lift dead-reckoning, n (nant) Calculation of a ship's position from distance run by log, and courses steered by compass, instead of by astronomical observations dead set, n. 1 A dog's position in pointing to indicate the presence of game 2 A Direct and deliberate attack on particular person or body of persons, b determined attempt to carry out some action, or to achieve some desired object to make a dead set of a person, (1) to attack him directly with violence, (2) to attempt pertinaciously to win his confidence, become intimate with him, influence him dead wall, n. A blank wall with no openings of any kind dead-water, n. Still, motionless water, state of tide when there is least rise and fall dead-weight, n. Heavy, inert mass of any thing dead-wind, n. A head wind directly against a ship's course deaf, adj [1 dēf, 2 dēf] ME deef, def, OE dēof, OHG ioub O Fris dāf, OS dōf, ON doufr, Goth dauba, 'deaf, dull, stupid', cogn w Gk ruphlos for ruphlos*, 'blind, dim, obscure', O Ir dub, 'black', Aryon base dhubh*, dhubh* & durbh is possibly fr same base 1 A Wholly without the sense of hearing, b having an imperfect sense of hearing, Phrs deaf as a post, as an adder, quite deaf, to turn a deaf ear to, refuse to listen 2 Inattentive to, heedless of deaf to all appeals, to oblige & to deaf-and-dumb, adj Permanently unable either to hear or to speak, usually from birth deafen, vb trans [1 dēfn, 2 dēfn] deaf & -en a To deprive of the power of hearing, make deaf, esp by loud noise, b to render a sound or musical note inaudible, or less audible, c to make walls, or floor, of a room impervious to sound deafening (I), adj [1 dēfning, 2 dēfning], fr Pres Part of pres (of sounds) a Tending to deafen, b tending to make clear hearing difficult or impossible, hence, c very loud, producing great volume of sound deafening cheers, applause & to deafening (II), n deafen & -ing Material used in building to render walls and floors impervious to sound deafest, vb trans [1 dēafest, 2 dēafest] ist, fr de- & afforest To disafforest deafly, adv [1 dēfū, 2 dēfū] See deaf & -ly Without hearing, as though deaf deaf-mute, n Deaf and dumb person deaf-muteism, n Pres & -ism Condition of being a deaf mute deafness, n [1 dēfnes, 2 dēfnes] deaf & -ness Inability to hear deal (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dāl, 2 dāl] OE dēlan, 'to divide, share', ME dēlen, 'deal, take part', fr Gmc dailjan*, fr dail*, 'part', op OHG teilon, O Fris dila, Goth dailjan See further under dole (I) deal (II), A trans 1 To give, distribute, deliver esp to deal o blow, to strike a blow, to deal o blow o, a to strike, attempt to strike (a person), b to inflict a moral injury, wound, grave, c to destroy (hopes &c) 2 Specif, to deal cards, to distribute proper number to each player B intrans 1 To deal with (all), patronize a tradesman, give one's custom to, buy from him to deal with, at, a particular shop 2 To deal in, traffic, make a business of buying and selling certain goods to deal in diamonds, hay &c 3 To deal with, a (of affairs) to take in hand, take measures regarding, act in a certain way settle, arrange, manage to deal with a matter, with on emergency, b (of persons) to conduct oneself, behave towards to deal fairly with, to deal effectively with a burglar, c to discuss, argue about, treat to deal with a subject 4 Specif, to distribute cards in a game it is your turn to deal deal (III), n OE dēl, 'part', fr dēl*, ME dēle See dole & deal (I) A quantity, amount (only in certain phrases) there's a deal of sense in what you say, a good deal, o great deal deal (IV), n, fr deal (I) 1 A business transaction, esp one in which concessions are made on both sides, a bargain a four square deal Phr to do a deal with, come to terms with, make a compromise 2 Act of distributing cards to players whose deal is it?, my deal &c deal (IV), n, & adj, fr LG dēle, 'board', op OHG tille, Mod Gern tille, cogn w OE pile, 'structure of planks, flooring' See thill 1 n A plank of fir wood, (technically) one at least 7 in. broad, and not more than 3 in. thick, hence, b fir or pine timber

2 adj Made of deal or fir a deal table dealer, n [1 dēler, 2 dēler] See deal (I) & -er a One who deals, or traffics, in merchandise, b the dealer, player whose turn it is to distribute the cards dealing, n [1 dēling, 2 dēling] See deal (I) & -ing a Conduct, behaviour, towards others honest, crooked, dealing, b (often in pl) intercourse, commerce, transactions with others to have (no) dealings with dealt, vb [1 delt, 2 delt] Pres & PP of deal (I) deambulation, n [1 dēambūlāshun, 2 dēambūlāshun] Lat deambulatio (em), 'a walk' See de- & ambulatory, amble A walk, a strolling about deambulatory, adj [1 dēambūlātōri, 2 dēambūlātōri] See pres Wandering from place to place dean (I), n [1 dēn, 2 dēn] ME dēne, fr O Fr dean, fr L Lat deānus, 'a superior set over ten (monks)', prob fr decem, 'ten' See decumal, ten, & op doyen 1 (ecclies) The head of the chapter of a cathedral, who is also responsible for the upkeep of the fabric, for the services, and generally for the management of business connected with the cathedral

Rural dean, clergyman appointed by a bishop to act, under an archdeacon, as the officer responsible for the business of a division (group of parishes) of the diocese 2 (in most universities) The head of a faculty 3 (at Oxford) A fellow of a college with disciplinary duties over the undergraduates 4 Dean of Arches, chief judge of the Ecclesiastical Court of Arches, in province of Canterbury dean (II), n A valley See dene (I) deanery, n [1 dēnəri, 2 dēnəri] See dean (I) & -ery a The office of a dean, b the official residence of a dean, c that division of a diocese under the jurisdiction of a rural dean Also rural deanery deanship, n [1 dēnshup, 2 dēnshup] fr dean (I) & -ship The office of a dean dear (I), adj [1 dēr, 2 dēr] OE dēore, dýre, 'precious, beloved', ME dēre, OHG hure, O Fris dore, OS dauri, ON dýrr Kluge suggests connexion w MHG douern, 'to last', fr dairōn*, a Lat loan word, fr dairēre, 'to hold out, endure' See this word under durable 1 A Precious, beloved, engaging the affections his dear mother, this dear land, Phr for dear life, as though one's life were in danger, b possessing engaging qualities, inspiring affection, charming, attractive he is a dear fellow, a dear little thing, c as a polite form of address in letters Dear Sir, Dear Mrs Tomlins &c 2 A Costing much money, sold at a high price bread is dear this winter, too dear for me, more than I can afford, or want to pay, b (of objects) sold at a price in excess of value furs are very dear in this shop, c (of those demanding prices) a dear shop, one where excessive prices are charged, d (of prices) too high, excessive in relation to value of goods o pound is very dear for a pipe

dear (II), n, fr pres a A dear, beloved person sweetheart o shepherd and his dear, b an affectionate mode of address, c a charming, delightful, amiable person what he a dear?

dear (III), adv, fr dear (I) At a high price, at too high a price to buy cheap and sell dear Phr (fig) to pay dear for one's experience, sins, errors &c dear (IV), interj, fr dear (I) In the Phrs Oh, dear!, dear me!, expressing sorrow, regret, impatience, wonder, contempt.

dearly, adv [1 dērli, 2 dērli], fr dear (I) & -ly a With much affection, fondly to love one's children dearly, b at a high price, expensively, (esp fig) experience has been dearly bought dearness, n [1 dérnes, 2 dérnes], fr dear (I) & -ness State of being dear, esp in price dearth, n [1 dērth, 2 dērth] ME dērthe, op OHG hurida, 'value, honour', OS durtha, 'value', ON dýrd Not found in OE, but formed later on anal of warmth &c

See dear (I) & -th Dearth orig meant 'dearness in price' Scarcity, want, lack; esp dearth of food, in time of dearth, of famine deary, dearie, n [1 dēr, 2 dēr] See dear (I) & -y (colloq, usually as vocative) Dear one, beloved death, n [1 deth, 2 dēp] OE dēap, ME dēath, OHG toz, O Fris dēth, ON daup, Goth daupus, fr Gmc stem daw* See dead (I) & die (II) 1 a The complete and permanent cessation of all vital functions in a living creature, the end of life, Phrs evildeth, deprivation of civil rights, to put to death, to kill, to have killed, at death's door, in danger of death, in at the death (of a fox or other hunted animal), (fig) present at the last of a series of events, tired, bored, sick &c to death, to extremity, b (fig, applied to non material things) destruction, termination, sweeping away the death of one's hopes 2 The state of being dead to be still in death, united in death, in death they were not divided Phrs poor, silent, as death, worse than death, very bad, to hang on like grim death 3 The cause of death rashness will be his death, epidic, a plague, pestilence, Black Death, a plague of 14th cent Phrs will be the death of, (1) cause to die, (2) (fig) afflict painfully, cause grief to, to catch one's death (of cold) 4 Manner of dying to die a hero's death 5 Period of date at which a person dies, taken as a chronological landmark the estates passed to the son on his father's death, most of Horace Walpole's letters were not published till long after his death 6 Allegorical pictorial representation of a personification of death Dance of Death death-adder, n A very poisonous snake of Australia with a spotted tail death-agony, n The last agony or struggle before death takes place deathbed, n [1 dēthbed, 2 dēphed] The bed in which a person dies, close of life on one's deathbed, dying deathbell, n [1 dēthbel, 2 dēphel] A bell rung or tolled to announce a death, the peering bell deathblow, n [1 dēthblō, 2 dēphlow] A stroke, blow, which causes death, b moral shock having fatal results, o an action or event which destroys, sweeps away the deathblow to one's hopes death-duty, n Tax paid by a man's heirs on the property which he leaves at his death, a general term for the various duties so levied deathless, adj [1 dēthles, 2 dēphis] See death & -less (lit and fig) Not liable to die, immortal deathless fame deathlessly, adv Pres & -ly In an immortal manner deathlessness, n See pres & -ness The quality of being immortal deathlike, adj [1 dēthlik, 2 dēphloik] death & -like Resembling death deathly, adj & adv [1 dēthli, 2 dēphi], fr death & -ly a adj Resembling death, b adv, in a manner resembling death death-mask, n Cast in clay of a person's face taken immediately after death death-rate, n The percentage of deaths among the population of a certain place during a stated period death-rattle, n Sound heard in the throat of a dying person death's-head, n 1 a A human skull, b a model or picture of this 2 A large kind of hawk moth, Acherontia atropos, with markings resembling a skull on its thorax death-trap, n Something liable to cause death, a dangerous object or circumstance death-warrant, n A Official document authorizing an execution, b (fig) pronouncement, action, or event which destroys prospect of life or happiness death-watch, n A small beetle, Anobium, which burrows into and destroys the timber of a house or room, and makes a ticking sound, popularly supposed to portend a death débâcle, n [1 dâhâkl, 2 dâbâkl] Fr n, fr de- & bâcler, 'to bar, close up', Low Lat baoulare, fr baculum, 'a stick, staff', see bacillus 1 a The breaking up of ice in a river, b (geol) a violent flood, carrying with it masses of rock &c 2 (fig) A sudden, overwhelming disaster, a reverse, downfall debar, vb trans [1 debâr, 2 dibâ] de- & bar (II) To prevent from enjoying, deprive of right, or privilege, to do something, or go somewhere to debar a person from voting, accepting an invitation, entering a house &c debarik, vb intrans & trans [1 dehârk, 2 dibârk] See de- & bark (V) Cp disembark a intrans To land from a ship, go ashore, b trans, to put (persons or things) ashore from a ship debarikation, n [1 debârkâshun, 2 dibârkâshun], fr prec & -ation Act or process of landing, or being landed, from a ship debarikment, n [1 dehârkment, 2 dibârkment], fr debarik & -ment Debarikation debase, vb trans [1 dehâs, 2 dibâs] See de- & abase A To lower the character of, detract from dignity or moral worth of, render base, b to lower the value of, specif, to debase the coinage debased, adj [1 dehâst, 2 dibâst], fr PP of prec A Morally or physically base, degraded, degenerate, b lowered in value debased coinage, c (her) inverted, reversed debasement, n [1 debâsmant, 2 dibâsmant], fr debase & -ment Act or process of debasing, the state of being debased debasings, adj [1 dehâsing, 2 dibâsing], fr Pres Part of debase Degrading, corrupting, esp in moral sense debatable, adj [1 debâtabl, 2 dibâtabl] See next word & -able A That can be debated, open to question, b (lit & fig) disputed, being contended for debatable ground debate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 debât, 2 dibât] ME debaten, O Fr debatre, fr de- & L lat batere, 'to strike, beat' See battle, batter (I) A trans 1 To contest in words, argue, discuss thoroughly, thrash out to debate a question, a point 2 To reflect on, consider, ponder to debate a matter in one's mind B intrans A To engage in discussion and argument, debate they were still debating when the house rose, b to be engaged in, think over in, reflection I am just debating whether to go or stay Phr to debate with oneself debate (II), n, fr prec 1 a Discussion of a measure, bill, subject raised in Parliament or other legislative assembly or at a public meeting rules of debate, to open the debate, b (pl, the debates) printed official report of these in parliament 2 Controversy, discussion, argument to hold debate with oneself debater, n [1 debâter, 2 dibâter] debate (I) & -er One who debates, controversialist, disputant a skilful debater debating society, n [1 debâting sosieté, 2 dibâting sosieté] Society for holding debates on subjects of interest and controversy, conducted on parliamentary principles for practice in public speaking &c debauch (I), vb trans [1 debawoh, 2 dibôt] Earlier debosch &c, fr O Fr déboucher, 'to entice from work' The second element is doubtful, but cp Fr ébauche, 'rough sketch, something roughed out', perh fr Gmc ball, 'block of timber' (see balk (I)), O Fr bauche, 'workshop' (timber-yard?) In this case deboucher wd mean orig 'to dis balk', or, as Skeat suggests, 'to take away framework of a building before it is finished'. An earlier suggestion was that the vb meant orig 'to entice away from the workshop' Meyer-Luhke denies connexion between bauche & Gmc ballo a To lead astray, seduce from right conduct or sound morals, to corrupt, b specif, to lead a woman astray, seduce her debauch (II), n, fr prec (with indef art) Specific instance of licentious, immoral conduct, a gross example of sensual indulgence, a drinking bout debauched, adj [1 debâwcht, 2 dibôt] fr PP of debauch (I) Dissipated, given to intemperance or sensual indulgence debauchee, n [1 dehâwshé, 2 debôshé] Fr debauch, PP See debauch & -ee Debauched, dissipated man debauchery, n [1 debâwchern, 2 dibôt] fr PP of debauch & -ery Intemperance, sensual indulgence, dissipation debtenture, n [1 debênchur, 2 dibên] fr, fr Lat debentur, 'these (sums) are owing', the 3rd para pl of debere, 'to be owing', as first word of the certificate debt 1 Certificate of stock held, money invested in a trading company &c, on condition of payment of interest at a guaranteed rate, such interest being a first charge on its property and assets 2 (orig sense) Custom-house certificate entitling an importer of goods to the repayment of all or part of the import duty when the goods are re-exported debentured, adj [1 debênchurd, 2 dibên] fr prec & -ed (of duty-paid goods) Entitling the owner to repayment of import duty on re-exportation debile, adj [1 débîl, 2 dibâil], *fr Lat débilis, 'weak, without strength', fr de-, 'from, decline from', & *bil-, fr Aryan base bel-, cogn w Sort balam, 'strength, force', baligân, compar baligâh, 'stronger, strong est', Gk compar & superl belôn, belistoi, 'better, best', O Slav bolis, Russ bolshii, 'greater', see Bolsheviki. (archaic) Weak, infirm debilitate, vb trans [1 debilitât, 2 débilitât], fr Lat debilitât (um), PP of debilitare, 'to maim, weaken' See prec To render weak, feeble, infirm debilitating, adj [1 dehlitâtung, 2 débilitâtung], fr Pres Part of prec Tending to debilitate, having a weakening, enervating effect a debilitating climate &c debilitation, n [1 debilitâshun, 2 débilitâshun] See debility & -ation. The process of making feeble, weakening, the state of being enfeebled debility, n [1 débîliti, 2 débîliti] See debile & -ty Weakness, lack of power, feebleness of health debit (I), n [1 débîit, 2 débîit] Lat debit(-um), fr PP type of debere. See debt A Entry in an account recording a sum of money owing, contrasted with credit, b that side of an account on which such entries are made Also debit-side debit (II), vb trans, fr prec To enter a sum as owed on a person's account to debit a person, debit his account, with five pounds, to subtract such a sum from that standing to his credit debonair, adj [1 debonâr, 2 débônâr], fr O Fr de bonne air, 'of a gentle, pleasing disposition' (of persons and manners) Genial, affable, easy, sprightly, (of moods) cheerful, happy, jocular, blithe debonairly, adv Proo & -ly In a debonair manner debonch, vb intrans [1 debôuch, debôush, 2 dibawt, dibôt], *fr Fr déboucher, 'open out, pour out', fr de- & bouche, 'mouth', fr Lat bucca, 'the cheek, especially when puffed out in eating, speaking &c', see buccal a (of rivers and streams) To flow out, emerge into an open or wider space (at the mouth) a stream debouches into a larger river, and this into the sea, b (of troops) to march out from narrow space, valley &c into open ground* debouchment, n [1 debôuchment, debôushment, 2 dibôt/mant, dibôt/mant] Proo & -ment A Process of debouching, b mouth of a river, place where troops debouch débris, n [1 dâbrê, 2 debri] Fr (pl), 'scattered, broken remains of something which has been destroyed', *fr O Fr dé briser, 'to break down, shatter', possibly fr a Celt bris, cp O Ir briasm, 'I break', cogn w O E berstan, 'to burst, break' See burst a A collection of scattered, broken remains, fragments of something which has been destroyed, rubbish fallen from a ruined building &c, b specif (geol) accumulation of broken fragments of rock &c at the base of a mountain or cliff debrused, adj [1 dehrôuzd, 2 dibrôuzd] O Fr débrusier, 'to shatter' de- & bruiser (har) A charge crossed by an ordinary, usually by a bend

debt, n [1 det, 2 det] *ME dette, O Fr dette, fr Lat debitum, 'what is due, debt, obligation', fr PP type of debere, 'to owe, to be under obligations', fr dê habere. See de- & habit Something, material or non material, owed, and bound to be paid, to another, or others, liability, obligation debt of ten pounds, debt of gratitude Phrs debt of honour, one, as a sum lost in gambling, not recoverable by law, debt of Nature, death, to pay one's debt to Nature, to die, to be in a person's debt, owe him something, a bad debt, one which one will never recover debtor, n [1 deter, 2 deta] Proo & -or 1 One who is under material or moral obligations to another, specif, one who owes money Contrasted with creditor 2 (book keeping) Abbreviation Dr, left or debit side of an account début, n [1 dâb, 2 deb] Fr, 'first stroke in certain games, first steps in a career, beginning', perh fr but, 'aim, goal' &c See butt (II) A person's first appearance in society, or as a performer in public to make one's début débutant(e), n [1 dâbûtahn(t), 2 debûtâ(t)] Fr, fr prec One, especially a woman, who makes a first appearance in society, or as a performer in public, specif, a girl about to be, or having recently been, presented at Court deca-, deca-, pref, fr Gk dêka, 'ten' *Cogn w Sort dâka, Lat decem, Lith dešimt, O Slav deset, Goth tashun, O E tien &c, Aryan base dek- See ten, decimal (in compounds) decachord, n [1 dékâkord, 2 dékâkôrd] Gk deka, 'ten' & chordos, 'ten stringed' Proo & Gk Ancient Greek harp with ten strings decadal, adj [1 dékâdî, 2 dékâdî] Next word & -al Having to do with a decade, consisting of, arranged in, groups of ten decade, n [1 dékâd, dékâd, 2 dékâd, dékâd] also decad, Fr, 'collection of ten', fr Gk dékad-, '10' See deca- & -ado A group or series of ten things, b specif, period of ten years decadence, decadency, n [1 dékâdens(t), 2 dékâdens(t)] Fr, fr Low Lat decadentia, 'falling down' See de- & cadence & -ency (only of non-material process) A falling to a lower level, deterioration, process of sinking to lower ideals of morality, art &c, state of possessing such lower ideals decadent, adj & n [1 dékadent, 2 dékadent] See prec & -ent 1 adj In a state or process of decadence, deteriorating 2 n One belonging to, reflecting, the characteristics of a period of decadence decadently, adv Proo & -ly In a decadent manner decaagon, n [1 délagon, 2 dekgan], fr Med Lat decagonum See deca- & -gon (geom)

A ten sided plane figure decagonal, adj [1 dékâgonal, 2 dekgan] fr prec & -al Of a decaagon, having ten sides decagram(me), n [1 dékâgram, 2 dékâgram] deca- & gramme A weight of ten grammes.

decalcification, n [1 dēkalkifikašun, 2 dī kalsifikatsi] do- & calcification. Process of removing lime from substances decalcify, vb trans [1 dēkalsifi, 2 dīkalsifoi] See de- & calcify To remove lime from (esp bones) decalitre, n [1 dēkalitr, 2 dēkalit] deca- & litre A measure of capacity, equal to ten litres decalogue, n [1 dēkalog, 2 dēkalog], fr Gk dekalogos, 'ten words, precepts' See deca- & logos The Ten Commandments Decameronic, adj [1 dēkamērōnik, 2 dēkē mērōnik], fr Ital Decamerone, title of work by Boccaccio, 1353, comprising 100 tales supposed to be told during 10 days of the plague in Florence, fr Gk dēka, 'ten', see deca- & hēmera, 'day', see sphēmera Resembling, like the tales of, Boccaccio's 'Decameron' decametre, n [1 dēkamētr, 2 dēkamit] See deca- & metre Measure of length, equal to 10 metres decamp, vb intrans [1 dēkəmp, 2 dīkəmp], fr Fr décamp, 'to raise camp, to run away', de- & camp 1 To break camp, leave a camping ground. 2 To depart with swiftness and secrecy, run away, clear out decampment, n [1 dēkəmpmēt, 2 dīkəmpmēt] See de- & -ment The act or process of decamping decanal, adj [1 dēkənal, 2 dīkənal], fr Lat decan (us), 'dean', & -al See dean (I) Connected with, belonging to, a dean, or the office of dean decandrous, adj [1 dēkəndrus, 2 dīkəndras], fr deca- & Gk andros (ds), genit of andros, 'man', & -ous See androgynous (bot) Having ten stamens decanagular, adj [1 dēkəngūlar, 2 dēkəngulār] deca- & angular (geom) Having ten angles, as a decagon decani, n [1 dēkəni, 2 dīkəni] Genit of Lat decanus, 'dean', see dean (I) a Lit, 'of the dean', applied to each side of choir, where, in a cathedral, the dean sits, also to the singers who sit there, b (mus direction) to be sung by the decani, in contrast to cantoris decant, vb trans [1 dēkant, 2 dīkant], fr Fr decanter, fr de- & Lat cantarus, 'a large drinking vessel', fr Gk kantaros, 'a beetle', and, fr some resemblance in shape, 'a two handled cup', etymol dubious To pour liquid gently from one vessel to another without disturbing the sediment, esp wine from the bottle into a decanter decantation, n [1 dēkantatsun, 2 dīkantatsi] fr prece & -ation The process of decanting or being decanted decanter, n [1 dēkantēr, 2 dīkantēr] decant & -er A vessel into which liquid is decanted, specif, an ornamented glass bottle or flagon, with a slender neck, into which wine is decanted for use at table decaphyllous, adj [1 dēkəfilus, 2 dēkəfilas] See deca- & phyllo- & -ous (bot) Having ten leaves, applied to the floral envelope, or perianth of flowers decapitate, vb trans [1 dēkapitāt, 2 dīkapitēt], fr Low Lat decapitāt (um), PP type of decapitare, 'to cut off the head', fr de- & caput, stem of caput, 'head' See capital To cut off the head, to behead decapitation, n [1 dēkapitatsun, 2 dīkapitatsi] See de- & -ion The act or process of beheading or being beheaded decapod, n & adj [1 dēkapod, 2 dēkapod], fr deca- & -pod (zool) 1 n A member of an order (Decapoda) of crustaceans with five pairs of legs on the thorax, including the lobsters, shrimps &c 2 adj Having five pairs of legs, belonging to the above order decapodal, decapodous, adj [1 dēkapodol, 2 dīkapodol], fr deca- & -al & -ous Having ten feet and five pairs of legs decarbonate, vb trans [1 dēkərbōnat, 2 dīkərbōnat] See de- & carbonate To remove carbon dioxide from.

decarbonization, n [1 dēkərbōnatizatsun, 2 dīkərbōnatizatsi] fr next word & -ation The process of decarbonizing, or of being decarbonized decarbonize, vb trans [1 dēkərbōniz, 2 dīkərbōniz] See de- & carbonize To deprive of carbon or carbonic acid decastich, n [1 dēkastik, 2 dēkastik] See deca- & stichos, 'line of verse', see stichic A poem of ten lines decastyle, n [1 dēkastil, 2 dēkastil], fr deca- & Gk stulos, 'a pillar' See stylo (II) (archit) A portico or colonnade with ten columns decasyllabic, adj & n [1 dēkəsillabik, 2 dēkəsillabik] See deca- & syllabic 1 adj Having ten syllables, with lines of ten syllables 2 n A verso line of ten syllables deceasylable, n [1 dēkəsillabl, 2 dēkəsillabl] See deca- & syllable A line of ten syllables deceatholize, vb trans [1 dēkətholiz, 2 dīkətholiz] de- & catholize To deprive of its Catholic nature decay (I), vb intrans [1 dēkə, 2 dīkē], fr O Fr deceir, 'to fall', fr Low Lat dēcadere, fr de- & Lat cadere, 'to fall' See endonce 1 intrans To become decomposed, rot, fall to pieces, disintegrate, through age &c, b (of non material things) to deteriorate, gradually lose good qualities, vigour, power &c 2 Often in PP as adj, rotten, declined, ruined decayed teeth, a decayed family decay (II), n, fr prece The state or process of decaying, a (of material process) decomposition, rot, disintegration the decay of the teeth, b (of non material things) decline, deterioration, loss of power, vigour, prosperity &c decay of a state, family &c, to be in, fall into, decay decease (I), n [1 dēse, 2 dīse] O Fr deces fr Lat decessus, 'a departure, going away, retirement, death', fr PP of decidere, 'to depart' See de- & caeso, codo (esp legal) Death, departure from life decease (II), vb intrans, fr prece To die deceased, adj & n [1 dēsest, 2 dīsest] PP of prece a adj Dead, having ceased to live, b n, (esp in legal use) the deceased, the dead person deceit, n [1 dēst, 2 dīst] O Fr deceite, PP of deceivre See deceive a The act of deceiving, causing a person to believe what is not true, misrepresentation of facts, b the quality of being deceitful deceitful, adj [1 dēstfūl, 2 dīstfīl], fr prece & -ful a (of persons) Given to deceiving, treacherous, b (of actions, words &c) uttered with the intention of deceiving, giving a false impression, deliberately misleading, o (of appearances) misleading, deceptive, giving false impression deceitfully, adv Prece & -ly In a deceitful manner deceitfulness, n See prece & -ness The quality of being deceitful, duplicity deceivable, adj [1 dēseivabl, 2 dīseivabl], fr next word & -able Able to be, liable to be, deceived deceive, vb trans & intrans [1 dēsev, 2 dīseiv] O Fr deceivre, fr Lat dēcipere, 'to beguile, deceive elude', fr de- & capere, 'take' See de- & captive 1 trans To cause to believe what is not true, by words, actions &c, to mislead wilfully, delude, give a false impression to to be deceived by appearances (also reflex) To persuade oneself of something which is not true, to be under a delusion 2 intrans To use or practise deceit words meant to deceive decelerate, vb trans & intrans [1 dēselērat, 2 dīselērat] See de- & accelerate 1 trans To decrease the speed or velocity of, as a machine, engine &c 2 intrans To move at less speed, with less velocity deceleration, n [1 dēselēratsun, 2 dīselēratsi] See de- & -ion a Act, process, of decelerating, b state of being decelerated

December, n [1 dēsēmbər, 2 dīsēmbə] Lat December, 'the tenth month', of the old Roman year, fr decem (eco deca- & ten) The origin of the ending -ber is obscure The twelfth and last month of the year decemvir, n [1 dēsēmvīr, 2 dīsēmvīr], fr Lat decemviri, 'a body or commission of ten men' See deca- & virile A member of a council, ruling body, of ten, esp of that appointed in Rome in 451 a c to draw up a code of laws decemviral, adj [1 dēsēmvīral, 2 dīsēmvīral] See de- & -al Having to do with a decemvir decemvirate, n [1 dēsēmvīrat, 2 dīsēmvīrat] See de- & -ate a Office of the decemvirs, b a body of ten in authority decency, n [1 dēsēnsi, 2 dīsēnsi] Fr decence, fr Lat decencia, 'decency' See decent & -cy a The quality of being decent, propriety, what is seemly and becoming things performed in decency and order, b freedom from immodesty, decorum on offence against, breach of, decency, o (colloq) kindness, generosity, of nature, and in manner he had not the decency to say 'Thank you' decennary, n [1 dēsēnari, 2 dīsēnari], fr Lat decenn (se), 'of ten years', fr decem, 'ten', & annus, 'year' See deca-, ten, annual & -ary A period of ten years decenniad, n [1 dēsēniad, 2 dīsēniad], as prece & -ad Period of ten years, decennium decennial, adj [1 dēsēniāl, 2 dīsēniāl] Lat decenni, as prece, & -al Consisting of, happening every, ten years decennially, adv Prece & -ly Every ten years decennium, n [1 dēsēnium, 2 dīsēnium] Lat See prece words Decennium decent, adj [1 dēsēnt, 2 dīsēnt], fr Lat decens (em), 'becoming, seemly' &c. Prece Part of impers decet, 'it is seemly, is fitting' Cp Lat decus, 'honour, ornament' (see decorato, decorous), Scrt dhakayoti, 'blessed, gracious', dhakati, 'is apt, proper, pleasing', dhakā, 'apt, clever' The Aryan base is deh-, dek-, 'to seem good' &c See docile & dexter 1 Suitable, fitting, seemly, becoming, proper, well adapted to an occasion or situation to live in decent conditions, surroundings, to go to church in decent clothes 2 Modest, delicate, chaste, exhibiting an exact propriety in speech, thought, conduct decent in conversation, stories which were not always decent 3 (colloq) Of very wide application and often vague signification, a (of persons) exhibiting kindness, good nature, generosity &c, b (of things) satisfactory, pleasant, attractive, adequate, reaching a reasonable standard of excellence a very decent fellow, quite a decent house, cigar, sermon, to make a pretty decent headmaster decently, adv Prece & -ly a In a decent manner, becomingly, suitably decently housed, clothed, to behave decently, b (colloq) kindly, generously, handsomely to treat a man decently, to speak very decently about a man's services &c decentralization, n [1 dēsēntalizatsun, 2 dīsēntalizatsi] See next word & -ation a Act of decentralizing, b state of being decentralized decentralize, vb trans [1 dēsēntaliz, 2 dīsēntaliz] de- & centralize To remove (government, power, organization) from one centre, or point of concentration, to divide and distribute it among other or local centres of administration deception, n [1 dēsēpsun, 2 dīsēpsun], fr Lat deceptio (em), fr PP type dēcept (um), of dēcipere, 'to deceive' See deceive 1 a The act of deceiving to practise deception, on a decept at the deception of the public, b state of being deceived public deception was complete 2 An action, process, or phenomenon which deceives the intelligence or the senses, whether designed to do so or not, either an illusion or a fraud a clever deception deceptive, adj [1 desəptiv, 2 disəptiv] See prec & -ive Liable, designed to deceive, or mislead, creating a false impression deceptively, adv Prec & -ly In a deceptive, misleading manner deceptiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being deceptive dechristianization, n [1 dēkristʃənizəʃən, 2 dīkristʃənizəʃən] See next word & -ation Depriving, being deprived, of Christianity dechristianize, vb trans [1 dēkristʃəniz, 2 dīkristʃəniz] de- & Christianize To deprive of Christianity deci-, pref, fr deci-, shortened fr Lat decimus, 'tenth', fr Lat decem, 'ten' (see deca-), used in the metric system to denote $\frac{1}{10}$ of the given unit, e.g. decigramme, decimetre &c decidable, adj [1 desɪdəbl, 2 dɪsɪdəbl] Next word & -able Capable of being decided decide, vb trans & intrans [1 desɪd, 2 dɪsɪd] fr O Fr decider, fr Lat decidere, 'to cut off', fig, 'to decide, determine, settle', fr dē-* (see de-) & cadere, 'to cut, hew, to strike, hit, to strike down, kill' See this base under cement, the chain of meaning is 'to cut, to divide, to put on one side, compare one with another, distinguish, discriminate, pass a judgement' Cp Mod Germ entscheiden, 'to decide', & OE ge-scead, 'separation, distinction, discrimination', connected w scēdan, 'divide, separate' &c See shed (II) A trans 1 A To make up one's mind about, judge between possibilities to decide a point in one's own mind 2 A To bring a contest, dispute, to an end, by using influence, giving help to, supporting one side, and thus causing it to win to decide a battle by sending in fresh troops, b to cause a discussion, argument, point at issue, to be settled in a particular way the case was decided in favour of the plaintiff B intrans a To make up one's mind, come to a conclusion to decide to sell one's house, to decide on a course of action, b to form a judgement, determine, make a choice in favour of, express a preference for, one thing or course of action as against another to decide between two alternatives, to decide, to have decided, in favour of, against, the plaintiff decided, edj [1 desɪdɪd, 2 dɪsɪdɪd], fr PP of prec 1 Unhesitating, expressing a definite opinion, determined, not vacillating a (of things) to give a decided answer, a man of decided opinions, b (of persons &c) a decided and obstinate character 2 Distinct, clearly marked, unambiguous, definite a decided difference decidedly, adv Prec & -ly a Firmly, definitely, without hesitation to speak, answer, decidedly, b certainly, unquestionably decidedly better deciduous, adj [1 desɪdʃʊəs, 2 dɪsɪdʃʊəs], fr Lat deciduus, 'falling down, deciduous', fr decid (see) 'to fall off, down', fr dē cadere*, & -ous See de- & cadence (of trees and shrubs) Shedding their leaves every year, not evergreen, (of deer's horns) shed each year decigramme, n [1 dēɪgrəm, 2 dɪɪgrəm] deci- & gramme (metric system) The tenth part of a gramme decilitre, n [1 dēɪlɪtə, 2 dɪɪlɪtə] See deci- & litre (metric system) The tenth part of a litre decillion, n [1 desɪljən, 2 dɪɪljən] Formed fr deci- w the ending on anal of million, billion &c A million raised to the tenth power decimal (I), adj [1 desɪməl, 2 dɪɪməl] Low Lat decimalis, 'connected with a tenth or tenths', fr Lat decimus, 'tenth', op Sort decimas See deca-, ten, & -al

1 (arith) Based on the number 10 or $\frac{1}{10}$, proceeding by multiples of 10, a decimal notation, the system of notation based on the ten digits, b decimal arithmetic, that based on decimal notation, c decimal fraction, one whose denominator (not expressed) is ten or a power of ten, d decimal point, a dot used to indicate a decimal fraction 2 Decimal classification, a system of library classification and cataloguing, in which the field of knowledge is divided into ten classes, each divided and subdivided in tens 3 Decimal system, one in which weights and measures are reckoned in powers of ten, decimal coinage, the system of having all coins or monetary unit ten times, or one-tenth of, the value of the one above or below it in value decimal (II), n, fr prec A decimal fraction Circulating decimal, one in which a certain series of figures is repeated, in the same order, to infinity Recurring, repeating, decimal, one in which one figure is repeated to infinity decimalism, n [1 dɪsɪməlɪzəm, 2 dɪsɪməlɪzəm] See decimal & -ism a The use of a decimal system for reckoning weights, measures, coinage, b advocacy of use of this decimalist, n [1 dɪsɪməlɪst, 2 dɪsɪməlɪst] See prec & -ist One who advocates the use of a decimal system decimalization, n [1 dɪsɪməlɪzəʃən, 2 dɪsɪməlɪzəʃən], fr next word & -ation The process of reducing, being reduced, to decimals decimalize, vb trans [1 dɪsɪməlɪz, 2 dɪsɪməlɪz] See decimal & -ize To reduce to a decimal fraction, to terms of a decimal system decimally, adv [1 dɪsɪməli, 2 dɪsɪməli], fr decimal (I) & -ly By means of decimal fractions decimate, vb trans [1 desɪmət, 2 dɪsɪmət], fr Lat decimā (um), PP type of decimare, 'to select by lot every tenth man for punishment' See decimal (I) & -ate a To kill every tenth man, selected by lot (esp in ancient Rome), as a punishment for a large body of troops, prisoners &c, hence (in wider sense), b to reduce numbers of, kill, weed out, eliminate, by violent means a considerable proportion of a group of individuals the army was decimated by sickness decimation, n [1 dɪsɪməʃən, 2 dɪsɪməʃən], fr prec & -ation The act or process of decimating, or of being decimated decipher, vb trans [1 dɪsɪfə, 2 dɪsɪfə] See de- & cipher a To turn from a cipher into ordinary language or writing 'Pepys's Diary' was easily deciphered, b to make out, interpret, read, make sense of, what is undistinct, nearly illegible, or written in unfamiliar symbols to decipher a manuscript, an inscription in hieroglyphics, a badly written letter &c decipherable, adj [1 desɪfərəbl, 2 dɪsɪfərəbl] See prec & -able That can be deciphered decipherment, n [1 dɪsɪfəmənt, 2 dɪsɪfəmənt] See decipher & -ment a The act of deciphering, b solution of a cipher decision, n [1 desɪʒən, 2 dɪɪʒən], fr Fr, fr Lat decisiō (em), 'decision, settlement', fr decis (um), PP type of decidere See decide & -ion 1 A Judgement, determination, choice, arrived at after comparing two things, the several claims of two or more parties, or several possible courses of action to arrive at a decision, b specif (law) the ruling, on points of law, given by a judge when sitting officially in a court of law the decision will be promulgated in due course 2 Quality of being able to come to a decision, ability to decide, to make up one's mind, rapidly and finally, firmness, resolution to lack decision (of character), a man of decision decisive, adj [1 dɪsɪsɪv, 2 dɪsɪsɪv] See prec & -ive 1 A Tending to decide, or to terminate a contest, argument &c one way or another the arrival of reinforcements was decisive in winning the battle, b tending to influence the course of events. this battle was decisive of the whole campaign 2 A Tending to influence judgement decisive evidence, b tending to enable a particular decision to be formed this fact is decisive for me decisively, adv Prec & -ly In a decisive manner the evidence of this witness weighed decisively decisiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being decisive decivilize, vb trans [1 dɪsɪvɪlɪz, 2 dɪsɪvɪlɪz] See de- & civilize To render uncivilized, deprive of civilization deck (I), vb trans [1 dek, 2 dek] Not Engl Proh borrowed fr M Du decken, 'to cover' The Engl equiv is thatch 1 A To adorn, add some form of decoration, trimming, to (a house, dress &c), b to give an appearance of gaiety to to deck a street with flags, a room with flowers &c, also deck out, to deck oneself out with jewels, dress up, (often used in poet) to deck (a lady's) head with flowers &c 2 To construct a deck in, cover with a deck (a ship) deck (II), n Same as prec M Du dek, 'a cover, deck of a ship' 1 A wooden covering built across a ship, extending from side to side and over the whole or part of its length, often qualified as main, upper, lower deck &c, esp quarter deck Phr clear the decks (for action), prepare for action (lit and fig) 2 Deck of cards, a pack, so called because the cards cover one another deck-cabin, n Cabin on the deck of a ship deck-cargo, n Cargo carried on the deck of a ship instead of in the hold deck-chair, n A light chair, easily portable, used on passenger ships, in a garden &c -decker, n [1 deker, 2 deke] deck (II) & -er Ship of so many decks three decker &c deck-hand, n A man employed on deck of a vessel, for cleaning, handling cargo &c deck-house, n A small building, or shelter &c, on deck of a ship deckle, n [1 dekl, 2 dekl], fr Mod Germ deckel, 'cover, dunn of deck' See thatch. (in papermaking) A device for determining the size of the sheet in cutting the paper deckle-edge, n The rough edge of hand made paper deckle-edged, adj Having rough, untrimmed edges declaim, vb trans & intrans [1 deklaɪm, 2 dɪklaɪm] Lat declāmāre, 'to practise speaking aloud, to bawl and bluster' See de- & claim 1 trans To utter, repeat (poetry &c), as though to an audience, loudly and in a manner aiming at rhetorical effect to declaim verses 2 intrans To speak in a rhetorical manner, as though addressing an audience Declaim against, protest against, attack violently in words declamation, n [1 deklaɪməʃən, 2 dɪklaɪməʃən] See prec & -ation a The act of declaiming, process of being declaimed, b the art of declaiming, of speaking in public in a clear, pointed, dramatic manner, c a speech uttered with dramatic or rhetorical effect declamatory, adj [1 deklaɪmətəri, 2 dɪklaɪmətəri] See prec & -ory a Having to do with, of the nature of, resembling, declamation, b (in unfavourable sense) rhetorical, showily phrased and uttered, without being sound in argument declarable, edj [1 deklaɪrəbl, 2 dɪklaɪrəbl] See declare & -able a That can be declared, b specif (of contraband) doable, which ought to be declared as such declarant, n [1 deklaɪrənt, 2 dɪklaɪrənt] See declare & -ant (legal) One who makes a formal declaration declaration, n [1 deklaɪrəʃən, 2 deklaɪrəʃən] Lat declārātiō (em), 'a making clear', fr declārā (um), PP of declārāre, 'to make known' See declare & -ation 1 The known 2 That which is declared act of declaring 2 That which is declared (before a (law) solemn statement, affirmation (before a magistrate), b statement of a claim, a declaration of war, formal announcement by a government of its intention to engage in war with another power declarative, adj [1 deklaratív, 2 dikhlaratív], fr Lat declārāt, as in prec & -ive Having nature of a declaration.

declaratory, adj [1 deklārator, 2 dikhlarator], fr Lat declārāt, as in prec & -ory Declaring, explanatory, making a clear statement.

declare, vb trans & intrans [1 deklār, 2 dikhlar], fr O Fr declāre, fr Lat declārāre, 'to make clear, manifest' to announce, proclaim, fr de- & clārū See clear A trans 1 To make known by words, signs &c, affirm, proclaim, to make a statement about, announce in words to declare the result of a contest, election &c, he declared that he had eaten nothing all day, to declare oneself king, proclaim by a formal, public announcement

Phr to declare (a bargain) off, to announce it to be no longer binding, to declare war (upon), announce formally the beginning of a state of hostility (against another country &c), (also fig) to declare war on disease &c. 2 To make a formal statement about, speak (of dutiable goods at a Custom-House) admit that one has such in one's possession she did not declare all the silk stockings she had bought in Paris 3 Specif (cards) to announce that one holds (certain cards) announce (a certain suit) as trumps 4 (reflex) Declare oneself, show oneself in one's true colours, show what one really is or thinks B intrans 1 To make a declaration; to affirm positively

Phr well, I declare!, exclamation of surprise 2 Declare for, agree, to announce oneself in favour of not in favour of 3 Specif (cricket) to declare an innings closed declared, adj [1 deklārd, 2 dikhleed], fr P.P. of prec Revealed, avowed, not secret a declared adviser declaredly, adv [1 deklāredli, 2 dikhleedli]. Prec & -ly Avowedly, confessedly declasse, adj [1 dikhlaiss, 2 dekleess], fr 'unclassé' Having lost caste or class, having gone down in the world.

declension, n [1 dekleishun, 2 dikhlejshn], fr declinatio or fr Lat declinatio (em), 'falling away, bending aside', fr declināre (um), P.P. true of declināre. See decline & -ion 1 (lit) The act or process of declining, falling away (rare, chiefly fig of non material conditions and things) deterioration, falling away from, descent to something inferior, lapse declension from virtue 2 (gram.) A The inflexion of nouns, pronouns, and adjectives, b a class of nouns &c inflected in a particular way declensional, adj [1 dekleishunāl, 2 dikhlejshnāl] Prec & -al. Belonging to connected with, declensions declensional endings declinable, adj [1 deklinabl, 2 dikhlejabl] See decline & -able (gram.) Capable of being declined, or inflected declination, n [1 dekleishun, 2 dekleishn], See decline & -ation. A (lit) A sloping away from deviation, b (astron) angular distance of a heavenly body from celestial equator, c (of compass magnetic needle) variation from the true meridian of a place declinator n [1 deklināter, 2 dekleine tē] See prec & -or Instrument for measuring declination (in astron &c) declinatory, adj [1 deklinātor, 2 dikhlejator] See prec & -ory Pertaining to declination, b expressing refusal declining decline (I) vb intrans & trans [1 deklin, 2 dikhlin] 1 To decline 'avoid, eschew', O Fr decliner fr Lat declinare, 'to bend down turn aside, to derive from', fr. to avoid shun' prec 'to defect (a part of speech)' fr de- & clināre 'to bend' The transitive is found in large group of words, as declinable element, & c declivity (lit) The steepness of a hill &c, &c, &c under (II), also in different formative elements ladder, ladder (I) The fundamental meaning is 'to slope' A intrans 1 A To slope, bend downwards (rare in lit sense), b to deteriorate, go back from a standard of excellence, stage of development, pitch of strength formerly existing the arts have declined among us, his health, intellect, courage &c, slowly declined, c to diminish, be reduced in amount, seventy the fever has sensibly declined, the birth rate has been declining for some years 2 To refuse to do something or go somewhere to decline to answer questions B trans 1 (rare in lit sense) To cause to slope, bend downwards to decline one's head on one's breast 2 To refuse, reject, express one's non acceptance of, by gesture, in writing, in uttered speech to decline an invitation, a proposal &c decline (II), n, fr prec a (fig) Gradual falling away; weakening, deterioration the decline of faith, art, civilization &c, b diminution, approaching end, smking to a close decline of, or in, strength, decline of life, specif c a wasting disease, phthisis, consumption to fall into a decline.

declinometer, n [1 deklinometer, 2 deklinomēter] See decline & -meter An instrument for measuring declination of magnetic needle (phys) declivitous, adj [1 deklivitus, 2 dikhlivitas] See next word & -ous Having a downward slope; rather steep declivity, n [1 dekliviti, 2 dikhliviti], fr Fr, fr Lat declivitas (em), fr de- & clinus, 'a slope, hill, height', fr Hleio*, cp Goth hlau, 'grave-mound', OHG hleu, OE hlēu, hlēu, 'tomb, mound hill', fr Aryan base Hleu-*, Hleu- &c For forms of the same stem w different vowel grades & different formative elements, see decline, lud, lean (II), ladder A Ground sloping downwards, a gentle hill, viewed from above, b the downward slope of ground declivous, adj [1 deklivus, 2 dikhlivus] See prec & -ous (esp bot and zool.) Having a downward slope declutch, vb intrans [1 deklutsh, 2 dikhlutsh] See de- & clutch. (of a motor, engine &c) To take out the clutch, remove connection between engine and wheels &c decoat, vb trans [1 dekokt, 2 dikhokt] Lat decoct (um), P.P. of decoquere, 'to boil down' See de- & cook also connect To boil down, extract essence from by boiling decoction, n [1 dekokshun, 2 dikhokshn], fr Lat decoctio (em) See prec & -ion A The process of decocting, b essence extracted by decoction or boiling decode, vb trans [1 dekod, 2 dikhoud] See de- & code To translate (a letter telegram &c) from a code into ordinary language decollate, vb trans [1 dekolat, 2 dikhleat] Lat decollat (uri), 'beheaded', P.P. of decollare, fr de- & collum, 'neck' See collar To behead, cut off the head of.

decollated, adj [1 dekolated, 2 dikhleatid] P.P. of prec. (esp of shells) With the point worn or broken off decollation, n [1 dekolashun, 2 dikhlejshn] See decollate & -ion. The act or beheading, process of being beheaded (esp of the putting to death of martyrs) decollation of St John decollate(e), adj [1 dekolat, 2 dekolte] Fr See prec words a (of dress &c) Leaving neck and shoulders bare, b (of person) wearing such a dress decolour, vb trans [1 dikhlar, 2 dikhlar] See de- & colour To remove colour from, bleach decolourant, n [1 dikhlarant, 2 dikhlarant] See prec & -ant. A substance that removes colour (from material &c) decolouration, n [1 dikhlarashun, 2 dikhlarashn] See prec & -ation. Removal of colour decolourization n [1 dikhlarizashun, 2 dikhlarizashn] See next word & -ation The act of decolouring, process of being deprived of colour decolourize, vb trans [1 dekuluriz, 2 dikhlariz] See decolour & -ize To remove colour from decomplex, adj [1 dekompleks, 2 dikhmpleks] See de- & complex Composed of complex parts, doubly complex decompose, vb trans & intrans [1 dekompoz, 2 dikhmpoz] de- & compose 1 trans a To cause to disintegrate, to resolve into constituent elements, b to cause to decay, rot 2 intrans a To break up into constituent parts, b become rotten, decay decomposite, adj & n [1 dekompozit, 2 dikhmpozit] See de- & composite a adj Made by compounding a substance, itself a compound, with another substance, b n, a substance so compounded decomposition, n [1 dekompozishun, 2 dikhmpozishn] de- & composition A The act or process of resolving, being resolved, into constituent parts, b the process of decaying, state of being decayed decompound (I), adj & n [1 dekompond, 2 dikhmpound] de- & compound (esp bot) a adj Formed of parts already compounded, b n, substance so compounded.

decompound (II), vb trans [1 dekompond, 2 dikhmpound], fr prec To make compound parts or substances into a further compound deconsecrate, vb trans [1 dekonsekrat, 2 dikhonsikret] de- & consecrate To remove character formerly imparted by consecration, devote (building, churchyard) to secular uses, secularize deconsecration, n [1 dekonsekrashun, 2 dikhonsikreshn] Prec & -ation Act of deconsecrating, state of being deconsecrated decontrol vb trans & n [1 dekontrol, 2 dikhontrol] de- & control 1 vb To take out of control, to remove control from, esp of Government control of certain trades, industries &c 2 n Removal of control decorate, vb trans [1 dekorat, 2 dekarat], fr Lat decorat (um), P.P. of decorare, 'to decorate, adorn', fig, 'to honour, distinguish', fr decor, stem of decus, 'ornament, embellishment, glory, dignity' See decent 1 A To adorn, add some special form of ornamentation to (esp flags, flowers &c) as a sign of rejoicing, or to celebrate some great event &c to decorate a town for a royal visit, to decorate a house for Christmas, b specif, to decorate a room, house &c, to paint, paper it, c to be, act as, an ornament to, adorn, make more gay, beautify &c the aim of that tiger now decorates my hall 2 (applied to persons) To show honour to, dignify, by bestowing an order of knighthood, and the badge of this a medal &c to decorate a person with the Order of the Bath decorated, adj [1 dekoratid, 2 dekaratid] P.P. of prec 1 A Adorned, b having an order or decoration Specif 2 (archit) belonging to a period of English Gothic, between Early English and Perpendicular decoration, n [1 dekorashun, 2 dekarashn] See decorate & -ion. 1 The act of decorating, the state or process of being decorated 2 A Something used for purpose of decorating, that which beautifies, a particular style of ornamentation b a medal, badge, or insignia of an order, or other honourable distinction conferred in recognition of services rendered to one's country

Decorative Day Memorial Day

decorative, adj [1 dekorativ, 2 dikhlevativ] See decorate & -ive Performing the function of decorating giving an artistic effect, tending to beautify decoratively, adv Prec & -ly In a decorative manner decorativeness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being decorative decorator, n [1 dekorator, 2 dekarator] decorato & -or One who decorates specif, one who makes a business of painting, papering, and generally doing up houses &c decorous adj [1 dekórus, 2 dikóras] fr Lat decorus, 'becoming, seemly, proper, adorned, elegant, fine', & -ous, fr same base as decent & decorate (of behaviour, appearance, dress &c) In accordance with what is becoming, seemly, sober, appropriately dignified decorously adv Prec & -ly With propriety of manner, soberly, becomingly decorousness n See prec & -ness The quality of being decorous decorticate vb trans [1 dekörtikát, 2 dikörték] de- & cortic, stem of cortex, 'bark, rind', & -ate To strip off the bark, outer covering, of decorum n [1 dekórum, 2 dikóram] Lat, noun of adj decor-us See decorous Proper and seemly behaviour, the requirements of good taste, social conventions &c decoy (I), n [1 dekói, 2 dikói] Used in 18th cent Coined fr de- & Du looi, 'a cage, lure', wh itself is borrowed fr Lat cava, 'excavated place, enclosure, den, cage' See cage (I) 1 A device for leading wild birds, esp ducks &c, into a snare, a lure, b (fig) something or somebody used as an attraction for luring, enticing, a person into a dangerous or compromising position 2 An enclosed place, as a piece of water, into which birds can be lured to facilitate their capture decoy (II), vb trans, fr prec (lit and fig) To lead into a position of danger by means of some special allurement &c decoy-duck, n A bird trained to lead others into such a place or position that they can be caught or shot easily (also fig, of persons) decrease (I), vb intrans & trans [1 dekrét, 2 dikris] fr O Fr decrease, PP type of decroître, fr Lat decrēscere, 'to grow less, diminish' See de- & crescent 1 intrans (of material and non-material things) To become smaller, grow less, diminish in size, volume amount, degree 2 trans To cause to grow less, make smaller decrease (II), n [1 dekrēs, 2 dikris] fr prec A lessening, growing smaller, the act or process of decreasing, the state of being decreased decrease of a swelling, decrease in population, in (or of) income &c decreasingly, adv [1 dekrēsigh, 2 dikrisigh] fr Pres Part of decrease & -ly In a manner showing gradual decrease decree (I), n [1 dekrét, 2 dikr] O Fr decree, fr Lat dēcrētum, 'a decision, decree', neut of PP of dēcernere, 'to pronounce a decision, determine' See de-, certain, concern, & critic 1 (law) A Decision, judgement, pronouncement, formal order, of a court of justice, tribunal, high authority to issue a decree, decree nisi (divorce court), decree of divorce, becoming absolute after a fixed period, unless sufficient cause to the contrary is shown, b an order made by a legislative body 2 a (theol) Fixed and eternal purpose of God which determines all events and conditions, b law made by a council of the church determining a point of doctrine or morals, c (fig) anything fixed and unalterable a decree of nature, fate &c decree (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec a intrans To command, decide on, issue an ordinance, formal order, to the effect that to decree that, b trans, to order, enjoin to decree an annual observance decree, n [1 dekrēmēt, 2 dekrēmēt] fr Lat decrēmēt(-um), 'diminution, decrease' See decrease & -ment The process of decreasing, amount lost by gradual decrease, waste &c, opposed to increment decresimeter, n [1 dekrēmōtor, 2 dekrēmētō] See prec & -meter Instrument for measuring dampening of oscillation in wireless telephony decrepit, adj [1 dekrépit, 2 dekrépit] fr Lat decrepitus, orig 'noiseless, moving noiselessly, worn out, very old, infirm', fr de- & crepitus, 'a noise, creaking, crash', PP of crepere, 'to rattle, clatter, crash', & Lat crepundia, 'a child's rattle', Sort hypatē, 'to chatter' A probable cogn is OE hræfn, 'a raven' See crepitate, raven (I) a (of persons) Worn out, enfeebled, by age or illness, tottery, moving about with difficulty, frail, b (of things) shaky, ramshackle, worn out by age and usage decrepitate, vb trans & intrans [1 dekrépitāt, 2 dekrépitēt] See de- & orepitate a trans To bring (salt, mineral &c) to such a high degree of heat that it crackles, b intrans, (of salt and other minerals) to crackle when exposed to extreme heat decrepitation, n [1 dekrépitāshun, 2 dekrépitāshun] Prec & -ation Act of decrepitating, crackling through exposure to heat decrepitude, n [1 dekrépitūd, 2 dekrépitūd] See decrepit & -tude The state of being decrepit in the last stage of decrepitude decrecendo, adv, adj, & n [1 dekrēséndō, 2 dekrēséndō] Ital See de- & crescent (direction in mus) (To be played) with gradual reduction of loudness or resonance, a passage so played decrecent, adj [1 dekrésent, 2 dekrésant] See de- & crescent Growing smaller, diminishing, waning, esp of moon decretal, n [1 dekrétl, 2 dikrítl] Fr decretale, fr L Lat decretale, neut adj, fr decretū, 'pertaining to a decree', fr decretū (um) & -al See decree, discern a A decree given by a high authority, esp a decree made by the Pope on a point of ecclesiastical law, b (in pl) a compilation of papal decrees, forming part of the canon law of the Roman Catholic Church decretalist, n [1 dekrétalst, 2 dikrítalst] Prec & -ist One learned in the decretals decretist, n [1 dekrétst, 2 dikrítst] See prec & -ist Decretalist decretive, adj [1 dekrétiv, 2 dikrítiv] See decretal & -ive Pertaining to, having force of, a decree decretory, adj [1 dekrétōri, 2 dikrítōri] See decretal & -ory a Having the character of a judicial decision or decree, b established by such pronouncement decrial, n [1 dekríal, 2 dikrías] decri & -al The act of decriing decrustation, n [1 dekrústāshun, 2 dekrústāshun] See de- & crust & -ation Act or process of removing a crust, opposed to incrustation decry, vb trans [1 dekrí, 2 dikrías] See de- & cry To cry down, to disparage, detract from credit or reputation of decuman, adj [1 dekúman, 2 dekjuman] fr Lat decumānus, decimānus, 'pertaining to the tenth part', fr decima, 'tenth part', fr decem, 'ten' See deci-, deca-, decimal 1 (of waves) Lit the tenth, an extra large and powerful wave, from idea that every tenth wave was of such a character 2 (from Lat decumana porta) Of the principal gate of a Roman legionary camp, by which were the quarters of the 10th cohort of the legion decumbence, n [1 dekúmbens, 2 dikám-bens] See next word & -ce The state of being decumbent decumbent, adj [1 dekumbent, 2 dikám-bent] fr Lat decumbent(-em), Pres Part of decumbere, 'to lie down' See de- & base under cubicle Lying, recumbent, specif (bot, of stems and shoots) resting on, lying along, the ground decumbently, adv Prec & -ly In a decumbent, prostrate, position decuple (I), adj & n [1 dekjupl, 2 dekjupl] fr Lat decuplus, 'tenfold' See deca- & double a adj Tenfold, b n, a number, amount, ten times as large as a given number or amount decuple (II), vb trans, fr prec To increase to an amount ten times as large decursion, n [1 dekrúshun, 2 dikrúshun] Lat decursio(-em), 'chief of a decuria, or company of ten', in Roman army, fr dec-, (decem), 'ten', w ending like that in centuria, see centurion, century An officer in the Roman army, commanding ten men.

decurrency, n [1 dekrúrens, 2 dikárens] See next word & -cy (bot) The state of being decurrent decurrent, adj [1 dekrurent, 2 dikárent] Lat, fr Pres Part of dēcurrere, 'to run down' See de- & current (I) Running, extending, downward, specif (bot, of a leaf) extending down the stem, whence it springs, and forming a projection along this decursive, adj [1 dekrérsiv, 2 dikársiv] Lat dēkurs(us), 'a running down, descent', & -ivus See de- & cursive Running, extending, downwards, decurrent decursively, adv Prec & -ly In a decursive manner decussate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dekusát, 2 dikáset] fr Lat decussat(us), PP type of decussare, 'to divide crosswise in form of X', fr decuss-, 'the number ten, the figure X', fr decem, 'ten' See decaten (of lines, rays of light &c) To intersect at right angles, as in the form of X decussate (II), decussated, adj See prec Crossing at right angles, specif (bot, of a pair of leaves on a stem) growing at right angles to those below and above it dedicate, vb trans [1 dedíkāt, 2 dedíket] fr Lat dedicāt(-um), PP type of dedicare, 'to declare, announce, give out, to set apart, consecrate, to dedicate, inscribe (a book &c)', fr de- & dicare, 'to show, tell' de- & diction & -ate a To devote, set apart, solemnly, often with prescribed forms and ceremonies, consecrate, to a sacred purpose to dedicate a building to God, dedicate one's life to God, b to devote, give up, to a particular cause or purpose dedicate one's life to work, to pleasure, dedicate one's spare time to one's children, (also reflex) to dedicate oneself to business &c, c to inscribe, address, in a complimentary paragraph, (a book &c) to a person as a mark of admiration, gratitude, esteem &c dedicatee, n [1 dedíkātē, 2 dedíketē] Prec & -ee One to whom anything, as a book, is dedicated dedication, n [1 dedíkāshun, 2 dedíkēshun] See dedicate & -ion 1 A act of dedicating, b state of being dedicated 2 In sorption, as at beginning of a book &c, dedicating it to a particular person dedicative, adj [1 dedíkātiv, 2 dedíketiv] See dedicate & -ive Dedicatory dedicatory, adj [1 dedíkātōri, 2 dedíketōri] See dedicate & -ory Connected with, implying, serving as, a dedication - epistle dedicatory deduce, vb trans [1 dedúš, 2 didjús] fr Lat dēducere, 'to lead, bring, down, to lead forth, conduct, to deduct, divert', to derive, trace down', fr de- & ducere, 'to lead' See duke, & op deduct a To trace down from, show succeeding stages of (a line of descent &c), b to infer, arrive at a logical judgement, by process of deductive reasoning deducible, adj [1 dedúshib, 2 didjúshib] Prec & -ible That can be deduced, inferred deduct, vb trans [1 dedukt, 2 didákt] fr Lat deduct(-um), PP type of deducere See deduce To remove, take away, subtract, a part from a sum of money to deduct 5% from a year's salary for insurance deduction, n [1 dedúkshun, 2 didákshun] Lat dedúkshō(-em), 'leading away, drawing off' Prec & -ion 1 A the act or process of deducting; b that which is deducted, amount subtracted 2 A the act or process of deducing, b the conclusion, inference, reached by deducing Op induction deductive, adj [1 deduktiv, 2 didáktiv] See deduct & -ive By deduction, based on deduction, deductive reasoning, method by which certain particular consequences or applications are deduced from general principles deductively, adv Prec & -ly By methods of deduction, by deductive reasoning deed, n [1 ded, 2 did] Common Gmc OE dād, ME dāde, fr W Gmc dād-*, cp OHG zāt, OS dād, also ON dād, Goth (ga)dēps, Prim Gmc form dād*, fr Aryan dhē* t, for the base dhē*, dhō*, dhā*, 'pnt, place'. See do, fact, thesis. 1 Some thing done, performed, carried out, an action a good, evil, deed, the deeds of a hero, deeds done in this life will meet with due reward, or punishment, hereafter. 2 Actual fact, reality, esp in Phrs in word and in deed, in very deed, op indeed. 3 A legal document under seal, settling forth something that has been done, a grant, agreement &c., b specif, document embodying a grant or conveyance of, and establishing a title to, land, title deed. deed-poll, n See deed, poll (III). A deed as of gift &c, executed by one party only, so called because the paper on which it is written is *poll*ed, or cut straight and not indented, contrasted with indenture.

deem, vb trans [1 dēm, 2 dīm] OE dēman, ME dēme, 'to judge, condemn, think, believe', op O Frs dēma, ON dēma, Goth dōmjan, fr Prim Gmc dōm*. See doom. The old meanings 'to pass a legal judgement upon, condemn', are now expressed by to doom (to death) and condemn respectively. 1 To judge, consider, believe, hold a particular opinion to deem a proposal good. 2 To hold the opinion, believe (that) I deem that this will never be proved, to deem it wise to.

deemster, n [1 dēmster, 2 dīmster] OE dēmestre, fem, 'she who deems, judges', ME dēmester, 'judge', deem & -ster. One of the two chief justices of the Isle of Man. deep (I), adj [1 dēp, 2 dīp] Common Gmc deup*, OE dēop, ME dēpe, OS diop, OHG tuif, Goth drups. Aryan dheubh*, dheubh* appears to be represented outside Gmc only by Lith dūbe, 'deep, hollow', dube, 'ditch, tomb'. 1 A Reaching, extending, far down wards from surface, or from a given level a deep river, deep snow, deep bed of clay, Phr in deep water, in difficulties, b penetrating far below surface a deep wound, a deep hole in the ground, a deep mine, c situated, placed, at a remote distance below the surface a deep spring of water, gold was found deep in the ground, d of such a depth ten foot deep &c. 2 (of certain objects viewed only as surfaces) Broad, wide, having considerable vertical extension a deep fringe, border, hem, extending laterally, a deep ledge, shelf &c. 3 (transferred meanings) a (of the mind) Profound, capacious, possessing grasp, reverse of superficial a deep intellect, b (of mental states and activities) thoroughly immersed in, penetrated with, absorbed by, having the mind occupied with deep in thought, meditation, deep in a book, deep in study, c (fig, of persons) artful, cunning, concealing real feelings and motives he's a deep one. 4 Other special applications a (of emotions) intense, strongly felt deep grief, gratitude, delight, a deep mystery, secret, hard to understand, or find out, Phr deep Romany, the purest form of Gipsy language, only intelligible to, or spoken by, those who have a profound knowledge of the tongue, b (of effects on senses, of sight or hearing) (of colours) intense, rich in pigment deep brown &c., (of sounds) resonant, low in tone a deep groan, a deep voice, one capable of uttering deep sounds.

deep (II), n, fr prec 1 (poet) a The sea in the cradle of the deep, the great deep, the mighty deep, b the mysterious, unfathomable depths of being, of the universe 'When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home' (Tennyson). 2 (naut) The space between two fathom marks on a lead line. deep (III), adv OE dēiope. See deep (I). Deeply, far down, to, at, a great depth to dig deep, be buried deep, drunk deep, copiously. deep-dyed adj [1 dēp dīd, 2 dīp dand] doep (II) & dye (II) (chiefly fig) As it were stained with guilt, thoroughly had a deep-dyed villain, cp dye (I).

deepen, vb trans & intrans [1 dēpen, 2 dīpen] See deep (I) & -en. A. trans

1 a To make deeper, extend downwards, increase distance from surface deepen a ditch, a channel, b to make broader to deepen a hem. 2 (of mental action, effect on emotions and senses) to make deeper, to intensify to deepen an impression, to deepen one's knowledge, depression was deepened by news of fresh disaster, to deepen a colour. B intrans (lit) a To become deeper the river channel is deepening, b (fig, of material and non material processes) to increase in intensity the darkness deepens, his voice has deepened, anxiety deepens with suspense.

deep-felt, adj deep (III) & felt (III) Felt with intensity.

deeping, n [1 dēping, 2 dīping] See deep & -ing. Section of a drift net, a fathom deep. deep-laid, adj deep (III) & laid. Cunningly and secretly devised, carefully planned, and capable of evading detection or suspicion deep laid plot, schemes.

deeply, adv [1 dēpli, 2 dīpli] deep (I) & -ly. To a considerable depth, profoundly, intensely, strongly, with all senses of deep to dig deeply, to feel deeply &c.

deep-mouthed, adj deep (I) & mouthed. (of dogs) Having a deep, resonant bark or bay.

deepness, n [1 dēpnēs, 2 dīpnēs] See deep (I) & -ness. The quality of being deep, depth, degree of depth.

deep-rooted, adj deep (III) & rooted a (lit) Having deep roots, b (fig) firmly established, not easily removed or eradicated deep rooted objection, habit, prejudice.

deep-sea, adj Pertaining to the deeper parts of the sea, as distinct from the shallower water near land deep sea fishing, dredging &c. deep-seated, adj deep (III) & seated (of feelings, causes, diseases) Firmly established, penetrating far below the surface, not slight or superficial.

deer, n [1 dār, 2 dīa] OE dēor, 'beast, animal', ME dere, cp OHG hor, OS dier, ON dīur, O Frs dīar, Goth drus, Prim Gmc form deuz*, fr an Aryan base dhēus*. The orig meaning of the base is 'smoke, steam, breath' &c. Deer is therefore the 'breathing, living, creature', beast, for dhēus*, is also fr a variant of this base, as also dust (Gmc) & fume (Lat). The name of several genera forming a family (Cervidae) of ruminants, characterized by having solid antlers, which are shed and renewed every year, cp fallow deer, red deer, reindeer &c. The application of the word to animals of all kinds, as in O and ME and in Shakespeare's 'Alice and rats and such small deer', has long been obsolete.

deer-fence, n Fences surrounding a deer park, too high for the deer to leap.

deer-forest, n Uncultivated land on which deer and other game are preserved.

deer-hound, n One of a breed of large dogs used for hunting deer.

deer-lick, n Salty spring or marsh, to which deer come to lick the ground.

deer-mouse, n A small American rodent.

deer-neck, n (of a horse) A thin, badly shaped neck.

deer-park, n One in which deer are preserved.

deer-skin, n a The hide of the deer, b leather made from this.

deer-stalker, n a One who hunts deer by stalking, b old fashioned kind of cap.

deer-stalking, n The art or sport of hunting deer by stalking.

deface, vb trans [1 dēfās, 2 dīfēs] fr Fr défacier. See de- & face a To spoil the appearance of, mar, disfigure, b specif (of engraved inscriptions &c) make indistinct, illegible, by injury to the surface of, to obliterate.

defaceable, adj [1 dēfāsabl, 2 dīfēsabl] Prec & -able. Capable of being defaced.

defacement, n [1 dēfāsmēt, 2 dīfēsmeot] deface & -ment. a The act of defacing, state or process of being defaced, b some thing that defaces.

de facto, adv [1 dē fāktō, 2 dī fāktow] Lat, 'in fact, in deed'. See de- & fact. In actual fact, contrasted with de jure. defalcate, vb intrans [1 dēfāwlāt, 2 dīfāl-kēt] fr dēfalcāt (um), PP type of Med Lat dēfalcāre, 'to cut off, lop' (branches &c), hence fig, 'to reduce, lessen, deduct', fr Lat de- & falc (em), stem of falx, 'a sickle'. See falcion (rare). To take for one's own use, to embezzle, money which one holds in trust for others, to show deficiency in funds entrusted to one, owing to one's misappropriation of them.

defalcation, n [1 dēfāwlāshun, 2 dīfālēt[ən]] See prec & -ion. a The act of defalcating, misappropriation of property, embezzlement; b amount misappropriated, deficiency due to embezzlement.

defamation, n [1 dēfāmāshun, 2 dīfēmēt[ən]] See defame & -ation. Injury done to a person's reputation by or through slanderous statements esp defamation of character.

defamatorily, adv [1 dēfāmātōrī, 2 dīfēmētōrī] See next word & -ly. In a manner liable to defame, or injure a person's reputation.

defamatory, adj [1 dēfāmētōrī, 2 dīfāmātōrī] fr Fr, fr Lat dīfāmāt (um), PP type of dīfāmāre, 'to defame'. See next word & -ory. Tending to defame, intended to injure a person's reputation defamatory libel, statement.

defame, vb trans [1 dēfām, 2 dīfēm] ME dēfāme, dīfāme, fr O Fr dīfamer, fr Lat dīfāmāre, 'to spread an evil report'. See dis- & fame. To injure, asperse, the character and reputation of, by evil speaking, by malicious statements &c. defamingly, adv [1 dēfāmīngh, 2 dīfēmīngh] Frs Part of prec & -ly. In a defamatory manner.

default (I), vb intrans & trans [1 dēfāwlīt, 2 dīfālīt] ME dēfau'en, fr O Fr défaul, 3rd ang pres of défaulir, 'be wanting', fr de- & Lat fallere, 'to deceive', see false, fault, fail. 1 intrans a To fail in performance of a duty, b fail to carry out an obligation, esp of financial nature, c fail to appear to a court of justice &c when legally required to do so. 2 trans (law) To enter (a person) as a defaulter who fails to appear in a court of law to which he was summoned to appear.

default (II), n ME, fr O Fr défaute, see prec. 1 A Failure to perform a certain duty or obligation, esp of legal or financial nature, b failure to appear in a court of law when required Phr judgement by default, judgement given for plaintiff in a lawsuit when defendant fails to appear. 2 Absence, lack, deficiency Phr in default of, in the absence of, for want of (thing required).

defaulter, n [1 dēfāwlītēr, 2 dīfālītēr] default (I) & -er. One who defaults, specif. a one who fails to pay his debts, esp on stock exchange, member who fails or is unable to pay claims and is therefore 'hammered', b one who does not account for money in his charge who defalcates, c one who fails to appear when summoned before a tribunal.

defeasance, n [1 dēfēzāns, 2 dīfēzāns] fr O Fr défeasance, 'undoing, defeat', fr défaire, fr de- & Lat facere, 'to do'. See defeat 1 (lit) Defeat still used by Spenser, but now obsolete in this sense. 2 a The act of annulling, making null and void, b provision in a legal instrument, embodying a condition, which if carried out would invalidate the document.

defeasibility, n [1 dēfēzībīlītī, 2 dīfēzībīlītī] See next word & -ity. The state of being defeasible.

defeasible, adj [1 dēfēzībīl, 2 dīfēzībīl] See defeasance & -able. Capable of annulment. defeat (I), vb trans [1 dīfēt, 2 dīfīt] ME dēfēten, fr O Fr défeite, PP of défeire, fr Lat dēficere, 'forsake &c', fail, be wanting', fr dē & facere, 'make' &c. See de- & defect, fact, feat. a To vanquish, conquer, overthrow, get the better of,

(an opponent) in a contest of any kind to defeat the enemy in a battle, another candidate in a parliamentary election &c, b (of effect on non-material things) to bring to nothing, frustrate to defeat one's plans, hopes &c defeat (II), n, fr preco 1 a Act of defeating an opponent, conquest the general was decorated in recognition of his defeat of the enemy, b process of being defeated, overthrow the enemy retired after his defeat by our general 2 Frustration, destruction the defeat of one's hopes &c defeatism, n [1 derékizm, 2 difitizem] Preco & -ism, fr Fr défaitisme State of mind, principles, actions &c of those who accepted the defeat of their own country, esp in the Great War, as inevitable, and acted accordingly defeatist, n [1 deféist, 2 difitist] See preco & -ist Adherent of, believer in, defeatism defeatism, vb trans [1 deféichur, 2 difitja], fr obs n, O Fr défaiture, 'unmaking, disfigurement', fr O Fr PP desfer &c. & -ure See defeat (I) To mar, spoil appearance of, make unrecognizable defecate, vb trans & intrans [1 defékāt, 2 difékāt], fr Lat defēcāt (um), PP type of defēcāre, 'to strain, free from dregs'; fig, 'to purify, make clear' See de- & facere 1 trans (lit and fig) To purify, clarify, by removing dregs, impurities &c 2 intrans (lit and fig) a To give off, cast out, extraneous matter, impurities &c, specif b to void excrement from the bowels.

defecation, n [1 defékāshun; 2 difikōshun] See preco & -ation. a The removal of extraneous matter, purification, b specif, act of passing excrement from the bowels defect, n [1 defékt, 2 difékt], fr Lat defect-(um), PP type of deficere, 'to fail, abandon, be wanting', fr de- & facere, 'to do' See fact (of material or non material things) Something wanting, a fault, imperfection; shortcoming a defect in one's character, a defect in the mechanism defection, n [1 defékshun, 2 difékshun], fr Lat defectiō (em), 'a failure, deficiency, eclipse, desertion, revolt' See preco & -ion The act of falling away from, deserting, a cause, leader &c, failure in duty, abandonment of allegiance defective (I), adj [1 deféktiv, 2 diféktiv] defect & -ive 1. Having defects, lacking something essential, not complete or perfect, faulty a (of material things) a defective machine, engine, boiler &c, b (of moral and intellectual states and qualities) defective intelligence, memory, defective moral sense 2 (gram, of verbs) Not having all the parts necessary to form a complete conjugation defective (II), n, fr preco Specif, person who is mentally or morally wanting, or deficient, an imbecile defectively, adv defective (I) & -ly In a defective manner, imperfectly defectiveness, n. See preco & -ness The state of being defective defence, n [1 defens, 2 difens] ME defense, fr O Fr, fr Lat defens (um), PP type of defendere, 'to ward off, repel' See defend 1 a Act of defending, protecting, shielding, a person or thing against attack, Phr art of self defence, boxing, b (in moral sense) vindication, justification to make no defence against accusations, a defence of poetry 2 That which defends, protects machine guns are an excellent defence against attack, (mil) a line of defence, series of strongly held positions, b defences (of a town &c), specif, fortifications, entanglements, guns &c 3 (law) Case stated in favour of person accused of crime, or of defendant in a trial in a court of justice the defence was weak, the case, counsel, for the defence. Defence of the Realm Acts, various Acts of Parliament, passed during the Great War, giving the Government certain powers of control in various matters, usually abbreviated D O R.A. defenceless, adj [1 defénsles; 2 difénsles] Preco & -less Without means of defence, unable to defend oneself, open to attack defencelessly, adv Preco & -ly In a defenceless manner defencelessness, n See preco & -ness The state of being defenceless defend, vb trans [1 defend, 2 difend] ME defenden, fr O Fr defendre, fr Lat defendere, 'to ward off, keep away, to watch over, protect', fig, 'to support, maintain', fr de- & fendere*, 'to strike' (op offend), fr. gʰen-d-* or gʰen-dh-* Cogn w Gk thenein, 'to strike', for khenjo*, fr Aryan gʰen-jō*, cp Strt ghanth, 'they strike', hant, 'he strikes'. Cp also Gk phnoo, 'murder', fr gʰon-*, Strt ha tas, 'to kill', fr gʰn-. Cp also Prim. Gmc gunjō, 'war' (fr gʰen-jō*), whence OE gū, fr gunj*, O HG gund; O HG gundjano, 'banner' (see gonfalon), O Ir gōnim, 'I strike' See lend. 1 (of material action) To shield against an attack, ward off an attack from, protect, keep from harm, prevent capture of to defend a person, one's country, a fortified post 2 (of moral action) a To protect (oneself or others) against attack in word, to stand up for, argue in favour or support of, repel charges &c against, b to justify, vindicate, plead reasonableness, justifiability of (actions, opinions, principles) 3 (law) a (of counsel) To state a case for a person accused of a crime when he is tried in a court of law, endeavouring to establish his innocence by weakening or rebutting evidence brought against him; and adducing other evidence in his favour, b (of accused person, or defendant in civil action) to defend the case, to plead not guilty and endeavour through counsel to secure acquittal, to deny plaintiff's allegations, and fight the case defendant, n [1 defendant, 2 difendant] Fr, fr Pres Part of defendre See preco & -ant. The one defending a case, specif, person against whom an accusation is brought in a criminal trial; one who is prosecuted, or against whom a claim is made, the person sued, in a civil case defender, n [1 defender, 2 difender] See defend & -er One who defends, Defender of the Faith, hereditary title borne by British monarchs, originally bestowed on Henry VIII by the Pope defensibility, n [1 defensibilti, 2 difensibilti] See next word & -ity The quality of being defensible defensible, adj [1 defénsabl, 2 difénsabl] See defence & -ible a (mil) Capable of being defended against attack by armed forces, b (of conduct &c) capable of being morally justified, justifiable on rational grounds defensibly, adv Preco & -ly In a defensible manner, justifiably to act defensibly defensive (I), adj [1 defénsiv, 2 difénsiv], fr Fr, fr Med Lat defensivus See defence & -ive a Specif (mil) resisting attacks, protecting (contrasted with offensive) defensive warfare, b adapted to, prepared for, defence, expecting and prepared to repel attacks to take defensive measures, to assume a defensive attitude defensive (II), n, fr preco a Specif (mil) the defensive, the condition in which an army gives up attacking, and merely defends itself from, and holds its positions against, attack, b (of moral attitude) position of defence, state of being prepared to resist attack, and repel charges, esp in Phr to be, act, on the defensive defensively, adv defensive (I) & -ly In a defensive manner, so as to secure defence defensory, adj [1 defénsori, 2 difénsori] See defence & -ory Adapted to defence, defensive defer (I), vb trans & intrans [1 defer, 2 difér] Shows confusion between prefixes de- & dis-, cp next word ME deferret, fr O Fr differre, fr Lat differre, 'to carry in different directions, disperse, to spread abroad, publish, to defer, put off'; intrans,

'to differ', fr dis- & ferre, 'to carry', see -ferous, op differ 1 trans To put off, delay, postpone, set apart for performance &c at a later date to defer action, payment, a visit &c Phrs deferred annuity, one of the first payments of which is to be made after a specified interval, or after a specified event, deferred pay, part of a soldier's pay reserved for payment at a later date, deferred shares, the whole or part of the interest on which is reserved for payment, later than on prior shares, 2 intrans To delay, postpone action, procrastinate defer (II), vb intrans [1 defer, 2 difér], fr Fr déferre, fr Lat differre, 'to carry away', fig, 'to hand over, refer, transfer', fr de- & ferre, 'to carry', see -ferous To yield, submit to, give the superior place to to defer to another's opinion, judgement, he defers to his wife in everything deference, n, [1 diférens, 2 déférans] See preco & -ence The act of deferring to another, respect, recognition of superiority, submission to opinion, will, of a person to show deference to, treat with deference Phrs in deference to (your wishes &c), showing respect, consideration for, submitting to, with all due deference to (you &c), polite formula when expressing difference of opinion deferent, adj [1 diférent; 2 déférant] Lat diferent-(em), Pres Part of differre, 'carry down, away' See defer (II) 1 (anat) Carrying fluids &c away from a particular part or organ 2 (rare) Deferential deferential, adj [1 diférenshál, 2 déférénshál], fr Lat diferent (em), as in preco, & -al Showing, expressing, deference, respectful deferentially, adv Preco & -ly In a deferential manner deferment, n [1 diférmant, 2 diférmant] See defer (I) & -ment The act of deferring, of putting off, state of being deferred defendalize, vb trans [1 defidáliz, 2 difidáliz] deluz & -fudal & -ize To deprive of feudal character defiance, n [1 defians, 2 difians] ME defiaunce, O Fr defiance defy & -ance The act of defying, state of being prepared to defy, or resist, a challenge to a contest Phrs bid defiance to, set at defiance, act in due obedience to, without regard for, set at naught, in defiance of (orders &c), without regard for, going directly against, in spite of defiant, adj [1 defiant, 2 difiant] See defy & -ant Expressing defiance, challenging, boldly disobedient defiantly, adv Preco & -ly In a defiant manner deficiency, n [1 defishens, 2 difishens], fr Lat deficientia, 'lack, want', fr deficient-(em), Pres Part of deficere, 'to be wanting' See deficient & -cy a State of incompleteness, shortage, lack a deficiency of intellect, of food &c, b amount or sum by which some thing is deficient or falls short a deficiency of several tons, of ten pounds &c deficient, adj [1 defishent, 2 difishent], fr Lat deficient-(em), Pres Part of deficere, 'to be wanting' See defect Wanting, lacking, incomplete, inadequate, in amount, quality, degree &c, defective deficient in ammunition, faith &c, mentally deficient, unbecile deficiently, adv Preco & -ly In an incomplete, insufficient manner deficit, n [1 défist, défist, defist, 2 défist, dífist, dífist], fr Fr, fr Lat deficit, 'it is wanting', 3rd sing pres of deficere, 'to fail, fall short, be wanting' See defect Short age, amount by which credit side of an account falls short on balancing accounts, excess of expenditure over receipts, of liabilities over assets de fide, pred adj [1 dé fids, 2 dí fids] Lat, 'according to faith' See fidelity Required to be held as an article of faith defilade, vb trans [1 difilád, 2 difilád] Fr, fr defiler, 'to unthread', & -ade See de- & enfilade & cp desile (II) (mil) To protect (fortifications &c) against enfilading fire defilading, n [1 defilading, 2 defilading] Pres Part of preo (mil) The source or act of constructing fortifications so as to with stand, give protection from, enfilading fire, or from fire from neighbouring heights defile (I), vb trans [1 defil, 2 defil] O E fylan, afylan, 'to make foul, defile', fr fylan*, cp O E fyl, foul, M E afilen, affilen, etc., also defoulen, 'to pollute' Mod Eng defile, is fr M E de fīlen The Lat or Fr pref de- to an Engl word is due to a M E confusion between this & defoulen, O Fr de fouler, 'trample under foot, insult' There is no relation either in meaning or form, apart fr the pref, between the Eng & Fr words a (chiefly in moral sense) To render unclean, sully the purity of, to pollute to defile sacred things, to defile the mind, imagination, b (in physical sense) chiefly in Phr to defile a river, i e pour sewage &c into it defile (II), vb intrans [1 defil, 2 defil] fr Fr defiler, 'to unthrust', fr de- & file (III) See defilade, enfilade (esp mil) To march in files, in single file defile (III), n [1 defil, 2 defil] fr prec A narrow valley, or outlet from a mountain a pass (through which troops can march only in narrow files) defilement, n [1 defilment, 2 defilment] See defile (I) & -ment The act of defiling, b state of being defiled, c that which defiles definable, adj [1 definabl, 2 definabl] define & -able That can be defined, stated, explained, with precision definably, adv Prec & -ly In a definable manner define, vb trans [1 defin, 2 defin] fr O Fr definire, fr Lat definire, 'to limit, set bounds to', fig, 'to mark out, determine, to explain or limit by definition', fr de- & finire, 'to enclose within boundaries, set a limit to, finish' See finish 1 (of material things) To show clearly, mark distinctly the visible limits or outlines of a well defined footprint, his profile was sharply defined against the light 2 (of non material things) To determine, and state precisely, the limits of, describe in exact terms to define one's meaning, duties, position &c 3 Specif (of words, terms &c) to state precise meaning, describe manner of application, and explain various special uses, to limit and make clear the different significations and implications borne by a word definite, adj [1 definit, 2 definit] fr Lat definit (um), PP of definire See prec 1 Clearly defined, precise, having exact, well-marked, limits, a exactly determined, finally appointed to make an appointment for a definite time and place, b having a clear, precise meaning, unambiguous, unqualified, positive a definite answer, statement, opinion 2 (gram) Definite article, the word the definitely, adv Prec & -ly In a definite manner, clearly, plainly, unambiguously definiteness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being definite definition, n [1 definshun, 2 definshun] See definite & -ion 1 The act of defining, state or process of being defined Hence, 2 A clear statement about a thing, account of its exact limits or nature, espec, a brief explanation of the precise meaning of a word 3 A clearness of outline, distinctness, b power of a lens (telescope, photograph &c) to show an object clearly, with distinct outlines definitional, adj [1 definshunal, 2 definshunal] fr prec & -al Pertaining to a definition definitive, adj [1 definitiv, 2 definitiv] fr Lat definitivus, explanatory, definitive See definito & -ive Making a precise statement conclusive, obviating any further need for argument or inquiry, final definitively, adv Prec & -ly In a definitive manner deflagrate vb trans & intrans [1 deflagrat, 2 deflagrat] fr Lat deflagrare (um), PP type of deflagrare, 'to be consumed, burnt up', fr de- & flagrare, 'to blaze' See flagrant, flame a trans To burn away, to blaze suddenly and fiercely, b intrans, to burn rapidly and fiercely, blaze up deflagration, n [1 deflagrashun, 2 deflagrashun] Lat deflagratio (em), 'burning up, conflagration' Prec & -ion The act or process of deflagrating deflagrator, n [1 deflagrator, 2 deflagrator] See deflagrate & -or (elect) A device or instrument for causing combustion deflate, vb trans [1 deflat, 2 deflat] fr de- & Lat flāt (um), PP type of flāre, 'to blow' See flatus & blow (I) a To remove, let out, air or gas from anything such as a pneumatic tire, balloon &c which is inflated, distended, b to reduce an inflated currency, opposite of inflate deflation, n [1 deflāshun, 2 deflāshun] See prec & -ion The act of deflating, state or process of being deflated deflect, vb trans & intrans [1 deflekt, 2 deflekt] fr Lat deflectere, 'to bend aside, downwards', fr de- & flectere, 'to bend' See flex a trans (lit and fig) To cause to turn aside, deviate, to change the course, direction of to deflect course of a bullet, rays of light, a person's thoughts, b intrans, to deviate, turn aside, from a straight line, or from natural course deflective, adj [1 deflektiv, 2 deflektiv] See deflect & -ive Able to deflect, tending to cause deflection deflector, n [1 deflektor, 2 deflektor] See deflect & -or That which causes deflection, specif, a device for ensuring the proper mixing of air and gas for burning in a lamp &c deflexion, also deflection, n [1 deflekshun, 2 deflekshun] Lat deflexio (em) See prec & -ion The act of deflecting, state or process of being deflected deflorate, adj [1 deflorat, 2 deflorat] fr L Lat deflorat (um), PP type of deflorare, 'to deprive of flowers' See de- & flora (bot) Having shed its flowers and pollen defloration, n [1 deflorashun, 2 deflorashun] Lat defloratio (em), 'plucking of flowers, deprivation of virginity' See prec & -ion The act of deflowering depriving of virginity deflower, vb trans [1 defleur, 2 defleur] fr O Fr defleur, fr L Lat deflorare, 'to strip of flowers, spoil', fr de- & Lat flōr w, genit of flōs 'a flower' See flora & flower To ravish, deprive of virginity defluent, adj [1 defloocent, 2 defluent] See de- & fluent Flowing downward defoliate, vb trans & adj [1 defoliat, 2 defoliat] See de- & foliate (I) (bot) a vb To remove leaves from, b adj, deprived of leaves defoliation, n [1 defolshashun, 2 defolshashun] Prec & -ion The act of stripping of, shedding, leaves deforest, vb trans [1 deforest, 2 deforest] See de- & forest To disforest, to clear land of forest, or trees deform vb trans [1 deform, 2 disform] fr Fr deformer, fr Lat deformare, 'to deform, disfigure', fig, to disgrace', fr de- & formare, 'to form, shape' See form (II) (lit and fig) To change shape or character of, for the worse, to spoil the shape of, make misshapen, spoil beauty of a deformed man, foot &c a deformed idea of poetry &c deformation n [1 deformashun, 2 deformashun] See prec & -ation (of material and non material process) Act of altering for the worse, of deforming, state or process of being altered for the worse, opposite of reformation deformity, n [1 deformita, 2 disformita] fr O Fr, fr Lat deformitas (em) See de- & form (I) & -ity 1 The state of being deformed. 2 Something misshapen, specif a some part, organ, limb, feature of the human or animal body, or some part of a plant, which is badly or abnormally shaped, b a moral defect, vice, of the character defraud, vb trans [1 defrawd, 2 disrawd] fr O Fr defrauder, fr Lat defraudare, 'to cheat, defraud', fr de- & fraudare, 'to cheat', fr fraud* (em), 'deceit, fraud' See fraud To deprive (a person or society) of due and lawful rights, to withhold from another anything to which he is lawfully entitled, by illegal, dishonest, unjust means, to cheat, specif, to swindle out of money (Also used absol, esp in legal phrase with intent to defraud) defray, vb trans [1 defrai, 2 disrai] O Fr desfrayer, 'to pay costs', cp O Fr fray (ts), 'cost', fr Lat dis & Low Lat fredum, 'fine, composition, cost' This is a Gmo loan-word, cp O H G fridu, 'peace, fine paid for breach of peace' The O E cogn is frid(u), 'peace, truce', wh is cogn either w Lrt prizum, 'price' (see precious & price), or w free To pay, supply money for payment, bear cost of to defray the expenses, cost, of something defrayal n [1 defrāal, 2 disfrāal] Prec & -al The act of defraying, payment defrayment, n [1 defrāment, 2 disfrāment] Defray & -ment Defrayal defrock, vb trans [1 defrok, 2 disrok] See de- & frock To deprive of the status symbolized by a special dress, espec, to deprive of ecclesiastical status, unrock deft, adj [1 deft, 2 deft] M E deft, O E (geðæfle, 'meek, gentle' (see daft) Cp O E (geðefian, 'to put in order, make smooth', gedæflice, 'fitly, suitably', gedafen, 'fitting, suitable', O N dafna, 'to be capable, strong', Goth gadaban, 'to be suitable' Cp also O Bulg dobri, 'beautiful, good', doba, 'suitability, fitness, opportunity', (pojdoba, 'grace', dobli, 'strong', Lith dabnis, 'to adorn', dabrus, 'elegant', Aryan base dha bh*, dho bh*, 'to make fitting, make beautiful', for lengthened grade cp Goth ga dōbe, 'suitable' The same base w a different formative element, dha b*, 'to make fitting, suitable, fit to gether', appears in Lat faber, 'artificer' (see fabric), O H G laphar, 'firm, strong, brave', orig 'well fitted together, firmly knit' Cp dapper a (of persons) Skilful, neat, dexterous (esp in the use of the hands), b (of hands, movements &c), c (of work) showing skill, also requiring skill to accomplish, competent deftly, adv Prec & -ly In a deft, skilful, manner deftness n See prec & -ness The quality of being deft defunct, adj & n [1 defungkt, 2 disfunkkt] fr Lat defunctus, PP of defungere, 'I finish, have done with', hence, 'to die', fr de- & fung i, 'to perform' See function a adj Dead, deceased, b n, a dead person, the defunct defy, vb trans [1 defi, 2 disfi] fr Fr defier, fr O Fr desfier, fr assumed Low Lat dis fidare*, 'to distrust', fr dis- & Low Lat fidare, 'to trust', fr fidus, 'trustworthy, faithful', cp fides, 'trust, faith', see fidelity Cogn w Goth beidan, 'await, expect', O E bīdan, 'await, undergo' See bide 1 To challenge be prepared to resist, be ready to fight against 2 a (of persons) To resist, set at naught, be in open disobedience to to defy one's parents, the law &c, b (of things) to resist, defeat, offer great difficulties to the problem defies solution, the door defies all attempts to open it degeneracy, n [1 degenerasi, 2 disdegenerasi] See next word & -cy The state of being degenerate degenerate (I), vb intrans [1 dejenerit, 2 disdegenerit] fr Lat degenerat (um), PP type of degenerare, 'to become unlike one's race degenerate', fr de- & gener (us), stem of genus, birth, descent, race' See genus To decline from a higher to a lower stage of development, inferior degree of excellence &c degenerate (II), adj & n [1 dejenerat, 2 disdegenerat] fr Lat degeneratus See prec.

- a adj Having sunk below a former stage of development, degree of excellence &c (physical or moral), having reverted to a lower type, b n, person or thing which is degenerate, specif, a person displaying physical, moral, or mental deficiency, abnormality, depravity &c
- degeneration, n [1 dejonərəʃən, 2 dɪdʒənərəʃən] See degenerate (I) & -ation a The act or process of degenerating, state of being degenerate, b specif (pathol) change in the structure of a tissue through disease
- degenerative, adj [1 dəʒəneɪtɪv, 2 dɪdʒəneɪtɪv] See degenerate (I) & -ive Causing degeneration
- deglutition, n [1 dəglʊtɪʃən, 2 dɪglʊtɪʃən] fr Fr, fr L Lat deglūtīo (um), P P type of deglūtīre, fr de- & Lat glūtīre, 'to swallow'. See glut (I) The act of swallowing
- degradation, n [1 dəɡrə'deɪʃən, 2 dɪɡrə'deɪʃən] See degrade & -ation 1 a The act of degrading, state or process of being degraded, b state or condition of misery, equalor, involving loss of self-respect, moral character 2 a (biol) Typical state which shows degraded forms of genera or species, b (chem) splitting off of elements of a complex compound, reducing it to a more simple compound, c specif (geol) the wearing down of earth-surfaces, rocks &c by natural agents (weather, water &c)
- degrade, vb trans & intrans [1 dəɡrəd, 2 dɪɡrəd] fr O Fr degrader, fr L Lat degradare, fr de- & gradus, 'a step'. See gradus 1 trans a To bring down from a higher to a lower position, reduce rank of, esp as punishment, b to reduce to a condition of physical or moral degradation, to debase, disgrace it degrades a man to have to act against his principles 2 intrans To sink to a lower position, lose rank, become degraded
- degraded, adj [1 dəɡrədɪd, 2 dɪɡrədɪd] fr P P of prec In, having sunk to, a low position, mean, base
- degrading, adj [1 dəɡrə'dɪŋ, 2 dɪɡrə'dɪŋ] fr Pres Part of degrade Causing degradation, debasing
- degradingly, adv Prec & -ly In a degrading manner
- degrease, n [1 dɪɡreɪs, 2 dɪɡrɪs] ME degre, fr O Fr degre, fr Low Lat degradare, fr de- & Lat gradus, 'a step, pace, position, station, rank'. See gradus 1 Amount, extent, of, stage reached, or exhibited, a of proficiency, progress degrees of goodness, skill, by degrees, gradually, b intensity to a high degree, Plur hot &c to a degree, very hot, c nearness to a common ancestor degrees of consanguinity 2 Status, position, rank, a (to society) a man of low degree, b (in universities) rank, status, and title conferred, marking a stage of proficiency in studies the degree of master, doctor &c, c (in free masonry) one of the various stages in the Craft, master, entered apprentice &c, title conferred on those who have reached one of these stages 3 One of several units of measurement (of angles, arcs, temperature &c) degrees of latitude, imaginary lines drawn round the globe parallel to the equator, at fixed intervals, degrees of longitude, imaginary lines drawn round the globe, passing through the poles, and intersecting the equator at right angles & mark of measurement, division (esp of mathematical or meteorological instruments), for measuring arcs, angles &c 5 (gram) Degree of comparison, positive comparative, superlative degree, modification of forms of adjectives, either by addition of suffixes er, est, or by using more, most, in front of the adjective, to express increasing intensity in the quality denoted by this
- depression, n [1 dəɡreɪʃən, 2 dɪɡreɪʃən] Lat, fr depress (um), P P type of degradare, 'to descend', fr de- & gradus, 'to take steps, walk', fr gradus, 'step'. See gradus a going down, specif, a diminution in rate of taxation on sums below a certain amount.
- depressive, adj [1 dəɡreɪsɪv, 2 dɪɡreɪsɪv] Lat depress, as in prec, & -ive Pertaining to depression, specif, of method of taxation
- degust, vb trans [1 dɪɡʊst, 2 dɪɡɪst] Lat degustare, 'to taste' de- & gustare, q v under gust (II) (rare) To taste, sample flavour of, thoughtfully, and with relish to degust a glass of wine, a cigar &c
- degustation, n [1 dɪɡʊstəʃən, 2 dɪɡɪstəʃən] Prec & -ation Act of degusting or tasting
- dehiscence, n [1 dɪhɪsɪs, 2 dɪhɪsɪs] fr Lat dehiscere, 'to burst open', fr de- & hiscere, 'to open slightly', inceptive of hi-, 'to open, gape'. See hiatus (bot, of seed-vessels and anthers) To burst open
- dehiscence, n [1 dɪhɪsɪs, 2 dɪhɪsɪs] Prec & -once (bot) a The process of dehiscing, b the manner in which a seed-vessel or anther opens to discharge seeds or pollen
- dehiscence, adj [1 dɪhɪsɪsɪnt, 2 dɪhɪsɪsɪnt] See dehiscence & -ent (bot) Having the habit of dehiscing
- dehortation, n [1 dəhɔrtəʃən, 2 dɪhɔrtəʃən] fr Lat dehortari (um), P P type of dehortari, 'to dissuade', fr de- & hortari, 'to incite, urge'. See hortation. Dissuasion from, warning against
- dehortative, adj [1 dəhɔrtatɪv, 2 dɪhɔrtatɪv] See de- & hortative Serving for dissuasion, intended to dissuade
- dehumanize, vb trans [1 dəhʊmənɪz, 2 dɪhʊmənɪz] See de- & human & -ize To deprive wholly or partially of human qualities
- dehydrate, vb trans [1 dəɪdʁə'teɪt, 2 dɪhə'treɪt] See de- & hydrate, vb (chem) To remove water from
- dehydrogenize, vb trans [1 dəɪdʁə'nɪz, 2 dɪhə'drə'nɪz] See de- & hydrogen & -ize (chem) To deprive of hydrogen
- dehypnotize, vb trans [1 dəɪp'nɔtɪz, 2 dɪhɪp'nɔtɪz] See de- & hypnotize To arouse from a hypnotic state, free from effects of hypnotism
- decade, n [1 dɪkə'deɪt, 2 dɪkə'deɪt] fr Lat decas, 'a god', & -ade See deity 1 The act, crime, of killing a god, b one who kills a god
- deceive, vb trans [1 dɪkɪ'teɪt, 2 dɪkɪ'teɪt] fr Gk deiknōs, 'able to prove', (of arguments) 'direct', fr deiknōs, 'capable of proof', fr deiknōs, 'I show'. See under diction, digit, & words there referred to, & -ic (log) Proving by direct demonstration
- deification, n [1 dɪfɪ'keɪʃən, 2 dɪfɪ'keɪʃən] See deify & -ation a The act of deifying, of regarding, and venerating as a god, b state of being deified
- deiform, adj [1 dɪfɔrm, 2 dɪfɔrm] fr Mod Lat deiformis, fr Lat deus, 'a god' (see deity), & -form Having the form of a god
- deify, vb trans [1 dɪfɪɪ, 2 dɪfɪɪ] fr O Fr deifier, fr L Lat deificare, fr deus, 'a god' (see deity), & -fy To exalt to the rank of a divinity, make a god of, to look on, worship, as a god
- deign, vb intrans & trans [1 dɪn, 2 dɪn] ME deinen, fr O Fr deigner, fr Lat dignari, 'to deem worthy, to deign', fr dignus, 'worthy'. See dignity 1 intrans a To do something, behave in a way, which involves a gracious and voluntary descent from a position of recognized superiority, to condescend the king deigned to accept an address of welcome, to grant a private audience &c, b (ironic) he is so important now that he doesn't deign to acknowledge his old friends, c to stoop, lower oneself, sacrifice dignity by doing something I do not deign to reply to such impertinence.
2 trans To condescend to do, or make to deign an answer
- deignation, adv [1 dɪ'ɡneɪʃən, 2 dɪn'ɡneɪʃən] Lat See deity & grace By the Grace of God
- deimos, n [1 dɪ'mɔs, 2 dɪ'mɔs] See deimos &c. See deimos &c.
- deism, n [1 dɪ'zɪm, 2 dɪ'zɪm] fr Fr déisme, fr Lat type dei, fr de (us), 'god' (see deity), & -ism Form of philosophical belief which accepts the existence of some form of Divine Being, but repudiates revelation, and religious dogma
- deist, n [1 dɪ'st, 2 dɪ'st] fr Fr See prec & -ist An adherent of deism
- deistic(al), adj [1 dɪ'stɪk(l), 2 dɪ'stɪk(l)] See prec & -ic Pertaining to deism
- deity, n [1 dɪ'ti, 2 dɪ'ti] fr Fr déité, fr Lat deitā (em) (see -ty), fr deus, 'a god', fr dēos*, fr dēuos*, cp div us, 'divine', fr dīw*, fr dēw*, fr dēw*-i (see divine), cp also Oscan deiva, 'goddesses', Umbrian deveia, 'divine', Sert dēva & 'a god', dēh, 'goddess', Lith dēvas, Lett dēvs, O Prussian dēvas, 'a god', OHG zio, ON Týr, OE Tīw (see Tuesday) The orig idea is 'the shining, glorious one', other grades of the Aryan base dēwo* & dēwo*-i, 'shining', are dēwejo*, dēweo*, dēw*, dēw*, whence Lat dīv (see dies non) Cp further names Jupiter & Diana, Gk dios, 'divine' (fr dīw* jos), Zeus, Sert dāv nyd, 'celestial'. The base dēwo* &c is expanded fr dēj* & 'to shine', wh appears in Gk deikelos, 'shines', dēlos, 'clear, evident' (fr dēja* los) &c, Sert dī, 'to shine'. There is a possible remoter connexion w Lat dīcere, 'to say', orig 'to show, make clear', Gk deiknōs, 'I show' (see diction), Goth taikna, OE tācen, 'sign' (see token, teach) 1 a The state of being a god, godhead, divinity, b a god pagan deities 2 Specif, the Deity, God, the Supreme Being
- deject, vb trans [1 dɪdʒekt, 2 dɪdʒekt] fr Lat deject (um), P P type of dejacere, 'to throw down, drive off', fig, 'to deprive of, cause to relinquish', fr de- & jacere, 'to throw'. See jet (III) (of effect on the mind)
To cause to be gloomy, unhappy, to depress, cast down the spirits of
- dejecta, n [1 dɪdʒektə, 2 dɪdʒektə] Lat, neut pl of P P of dejacere See prec Droppings, excrement
- dejected, adj [1 dɪdʒektɪd, 2 dɪdʒektɪd] fr P P of deject Cast down, depressed, in low spirits
- dejectedly, adv Prec & -ly In a dejected manner
- dejection, n [1 dɪdʒekʃən, 2 dɪdʒekʃən] See deject & -ion a The state of being dejected, cast down, lowness of spirits, b (med) excrement, evacuation of the bowels
- dejeuner, n [1 dəʒɛ'nɔ, 2 dəʒɛ'nɔ] Fr See dine Breakfast, as on the Continent, taken about midday, equivalent to English luncheon
- de jure, adv [1 dəʒʊr, 2 dɪdʒʊr] Lat de jure, abl of jūs, 'law, right'. See de- & jus By right, rightfully, op de facto
- delaine, n [1 dɪ'læn, 2 dɪ'læn] Fr de laine, 'of wool', fr Lat lana, 'wool'. See lanate & wool A dress material made of a mixture of wool and cotton
- delate, vb trans [1 dɪlət, 2 dɪlət] fr Lat delat (um), P P type of deferre (see defer (II)), 'to bring down, carry away', (law) 'to indict, inform against'. Delatus is fr de- & latūs (P P of ferre, 'to carry'), fr latum* See tolerate & thole To inform, lodge in formation, against a person
- delation, n [1 dɪləʃən, 2 dɪləʃən] fr Lat delatō (em), 'denunciation, accusation'. See prec & -ion The act of informing against a person, accusation by an informer
- delator, n [1 dɪlətər, 2 dɪlətər] Lat See prec & -or An informer
- delay (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dɪlɪ, 2 dɪlɪ] ME delaten, O Fr delater, fr Lat delātare, 'to expand, enlarge, extend, prolong', fr dilat (um), P P type of deferre, 'to scatter, disperse, to put off, defer'. See defer (I), & dilate, & cp delate 1 trans a To retard, make slow the train was delayed by frost, b to postpone, put off, defer, cause to wait to delay action 2 intrans To linger, dawdle, postpone action, be slow delay (II), n, fr prec The act of delaying, state of being delayed, postponement, tardiness del credere adj [1 del kräden, 2 del krédare] Ital, lit 'of trust' See de- & cred (law) Pertaining to an agent, del credere agent, who guarantees the solvency of a buyer dele vb trans [1 dēlé, 2 dēli] Imperat of Lat dēlēre, 'to wipe out, efface' See delete (typog direction) Take, blot, out, omit (letter, word &c) indicated, usually indicated by underlining word or passage and writing de in margin of proof delectable, adj [1 delectabl, 2 dīlektabl], fr O Fr, fr Lat delectabilis, 'delightful, agreeable', fr dēlectare, 'to delight, attract' See delectation & -able & cp delight delectation, n [1 dēlektāshun, 2 dīlektēsən] fr Lat dēlectatō (em) (see -ation), fr dēlectāre, 'to charm, delight, attract', orig 'to entice, allure', fr lācere, 'to entice', cogn w Lat laqueus, 'noose' See lace (I) delectus, n [1 delectus, 2 dīlektēs] Lat, fr dēlectus PP of dēligere, 'to pick out, choose', fr de- & legere, lect-(um), 'to choose' See lecture A collection of passages from Latin authors used as a school reading book delegacy, n [1 dēlēgasi, 2 dēlēgasi] See delegate & -cy Body of delegates delegate (I) vb trans [1 dēlēgāt, 2 dēlēgēt], fr Lat dēlēgāt (um), PP type of dēlēgāre, 'to send remove, from one person to another, to transfer commit to', fr de- & legare, 'to appoint as deputy' - See legate A To appoint (a person) as representative, entrust with performance of duties, business &c, b to entrust, commit (authority, duties &c) to a deputy delegate (II), n [1 dēlēgāt, 2 dēlēgēt], fr O Fr dēlegat, fr Lat dēlēgāt (us) See prec One appointed as a deputy, representative delegation n [1 dēlēgāshun, 2 dēlēgēsən] Lat dēlēgātō (em) See delegate (I) & -ion. A The act of delegating, appointment of deputies, representatives, entrusting (of authority &c) to deputies, b body of delegates, esp one deputed and sent by their own government to undertake diplomatic or commercial negotiations with a foreign power delete, vb trans [1 delēt, 2 dīlēt] fr Lat delē-(um) PP type of dēlēre, 'to blot out, efface', fig 'to efface obliterate' The form dēlēre &c is apparently a new formation fr dēlēre, perf of dēlinere, fr linere, 'to daub, smear' (esp of smoothing down the wax on a writing tablet), hence 'to erase' cogn w linare, 'to smear, anoint' See linament (lit. and fig) To erase remove, obliterate to delete a clause, word letter &c deleterious, adj [1 dēlētrīus, 2 dēlētrīōs] L Lat dēlētrius, fr Gk dēlētrios (&-ous), fr dēleōman, 'I harm, wound', etymol doobitl Harmful, injurious (physically or morally) deleteriously adv Prec & -ly In a harmful manner deleteriousness n See prec & -ness State of being deleterious or harmful deletion n [1 dēlēshun, 2 dīl[ə]shun] See delete & -ion. Act or process of deleting, blotting, or striking out, state of being deleted delf delf n [1 del(t), 2 dēl(t)] A kind of fired earthenware made at or imitating that made at Delft in Holland deliberate (I) adj [1 dēlibrat, 2 dīlibrat] fr Lat dēlibratus See next word. A Intentional, thought out beforehand premeditated, not sudden impulsive b slow and careful in action c deliberate speech &c deliberate (II) vb in trans & trans [1 dēlibrat, 2 dīlibrat] fr Lat dēlibrāt (u) PP type of dēlibrāre, 'to think over, weigh in one's mind' to take counsel about reflect, resolve determine', orig dēlibrāre*, fr de- & libra, 'scales', also 'something weighed, a pound' See libra 1 in trans To consider carefully, reflect, ponder, to think matter over thoroughly from all sides, take counsel (with oneself or others) 2 trans To consider, weigh in one's mind, reflect upon, discuss deliberately adv [1 dēlibrath, 2 dīlibratli] deliberate (I) & -ly In a deliberate manner deliberateness, n [1 dēlibratnes, 2 dīlibratnes] See prec & -ness The quality of being deliberate in thought or action deliberation n [1 dēlibrāshun, 2 dīlibrēsən] deliberate (II) & -ion A Act of deliberating, careful reflection, consideration of a question from all points of view, b slowness and carefulness in action, movement, speech &c, deliberateness deliberative, adj [1 dēlibrativ, 2 dīlibrativ] See deliberate (II) & -ive Connected with, displaying, deliberation, having the power and duty of deliberation a deliberative body, assembly deliberatively, adv Prec & -ly With deliberation delicacy, n [1 dēlikasi, 2 dīlikasi] See delicate & -acy 1 a (of material objects) Having the qualities of slenderness and fineness, of shape and proportion delicacy of carving delicacy of feature, b (of the mind and emotions and their activities) refinement, sensitiveness, subtlety, fastidiousness delicacy of feeling, of thought, taste, c (of colours) not crude, not intense or highly pigmented, easily faded or sullied delicacy of tint d (of situations involving human relations) difficulty, tendency to cause friction, ticklishness a position, negotiations, of extreme delicacy 2 a Weakness, liability to disease, defectiveness in physical stamina, lack of robustness delicacy of health, constitution, b specific form of bodily weakness, unhealthiness a delicacy of the lungs 3 A choice, highly prized article of food, a luxury of diet all the delicacies of the season delicate, adj [1 dēlikat, 2 dīlikit] Fr dēlikat, fr Lat dēlikatus, 'delightful, charming, voluptuous, soft, tender' Etymol doubtful, but prob connected w Lat dēlicus, 'weaned from the mother', fr de-, 'from', & the base lac, 'milk' See lacteal & -ate The orig sense according to this wd be 'just weaned', therefore 'tender, easily destroyed' 1 a (of material objects) Highly, cunningly, wrought delicate tracery, workmanship, well proportioned, well moulded, combining slenderness, shapeliness and frailty a delicate figure, delicate features, b nicely adjusted, sensitive, easily put out of gear a delicate instrument, c (of colour) not crude, not strongly pigmented, easily faded or injured a delicate shade of blue 2 (of animate beings) a (their faculties and senses) Highly sensitive, responsive to stimuli, keenly perceptive, finely organized a delicate sense of hearing, a delicate touch, b (of moral qualities and their expression) refined, chaste, free from coarseness, decent a delicate mind, conversation which is not over delicate, Phr a delicate hint slight, unobtrusive 3 (of situations involving human relations) difficult to handle, ticklish tending to friction and disagreement a delicate stage in the negotiations 4 Frail in health not robust, liable to become diseased delicious adj [1 dēlishus, 2 dīlish] fr O Fr dēlicius, fr L Lat. dēliciosus, fr Lat dēlicia, 'charm, delight, pleasure', fr dēliques*, fr laqueus 'a noose' See elicit & lace (I) Highly charming and delightful, very agreeable, affording intense pleasure and satisfaction to the senses or the mind a delicious perfume, taste, coolness &c, a delicious book, story deliciously, adv Prec & -ly In a delicious manner deliciousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being delicious delict, n [1 dēlikit, 2 dīlikit], fr Lat dēlictum, 'a fault of omission', hence 'a fault, crime generally', fr PP type of dēlinquere, 'to fail, be wanting, commit a crime', fr de- & linquere, 'to leave' See relinquish. A crime, offence, against the law delight (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dēlit, 2 dīlit] M E dēliten, fr O Fr dēlister, fr Lat dēlectāre, 'to charm, delight' See delectation The Mod Engl spelling is due to the anal of light &c a trans. To charm, please, give great pleasure to, be a source of enjoyment to to delight the ear, to delight the heart, b intrans, to find great pleasure in, derive much enjoyment from, take delight in to delight in music delight (II), n, fr prec A Great pleasure, b a cause, source, of great pleasure delighted, adj [1 dēlitid, 2 dīlitid], fr PP of delight (I) Filled with delight, glad, joyous delightedly, adv Prec & -ly With delight, very gladly delightful, adj [1 dēlitfūl, 2 dīlitfūl] delight (II) & -ful Productive of delight, very pleasing, (of persons) charming, winning, of fascinating manners delightfully, adv Prec & -ly In a delightful manner, so as to cause delight delightsome, adj [1 dēlitsum, 2 dīlitsum] delight (II) & -some (archaic) Causing delight delimit, vb trans [1 dēlimīt, 2 dīlimīt], fr de- & limit To define the limits of, fix boundaries of delimitate, vb trans [1 dēlimītāt, 2 dīlimītāt], fr Lat dēlimītāt (um), PP type of dēlimītāre, 'to mark out' See prec & -ate To fix the boundaries of delimitation, n [1 dēlimītāshun, 2 dīlimītēsən] fr prec & -ation. A Act of delimitating, b that which bounds and constitutes a limit delineate, vb trans [1 dēlinēāt, 2 dīlinēāt], fr Lat dēlinēāt (um), PP type of dēlinēāre, 'to sketch out' See de- & line & -ate. a To trace in outline, to depict, draw, b (fig) to describe in words delineation, n [1 dēlinēāshun, 2 dīlinēēsən] Prec & -ation. (lit and fig) A The act of delineating, b result of this, portrait, picture, whether in words or lines delinquency, n [1 dēlingkwensi, 2 dīlingkwensi] fr Lat dēlinquentia, 'a fault, crime' (rare), fr dēlinquere, 'to fail, be wanting, commit a fault' See delict & -ency Fault, offence, omission of duty delinquent, n [1 dēlingkwent, 2 dīlingkwent] See prec & -ent One who neglects a duty, one who commits a fault, a criminal deliquesce, vb trans [1 dēlikwēs, 2 dīlikwēs], fr Lat dēliquescere, 'to melt away, dissolve', fig 'disappear' (very rare), fr de- & liquescere, 'to melt, become liquid' See liquoscent To become liquid deliquescence, n [1 dēlikwēsens, 2 dīlikwēsens] Prec & -ence The process of melting becoming liquid, property of becoming liquid in air deliquescent, adj [1 dēlikwēscent, 2 dīlikwēscent] See prec & -ent In process of melting, becoming liquid delirious, adj [1 dēlirius, 2 dīlirius] See delirium & -ous a (of persons) In a state of delirium, with a mind disordered by illness, strong excitement &c, b (of speech &c) wild, incoherent from illness &c deliriously, adv Prec & -ly In a delirious manner, wildly, incoherently delirium, n [1 dēlirium, 2 dīlirium] Lat. dēlirium, 'madness, delirium', fr dēlirāre, orig 'to turn aside from the furrow', hence 'to deviate, leave the straight line', and fig 'to become deranged, be delirious', fr de- & lira, 'the earth thrown up between two furrows', hence a furrow', lira is prob fr earlier lira*, fr an Aryan base, leis*, leis*, lis*, 'a ridge of earth, rut, track' In the Slav languages the meaning is specialized as 'land turned up by the plough, cultivated ground', O Bulg lěha, O Prussian lyao, 'tilled field', Lith lyšė, 'hed (in a garden)'. In Gmc the sense 'track, track' has become prominent, cp O H G (wagan) leisa, 'rut, track made by a cart', M H G leis, 'track', Mod Germ (geleise) 'track', cp also Goth laists, 'track', O H G leist, 'track, footprint', hence 'shoemaker's last', O E lēst, 'footprint, last' (see last (IV)). From the idea of 'track, track', came the sense 'to follow a track, trail', hence, 'to hunt out, discover', & eo 'to learn, teach', cp Goth leis, 'I know', laision, 'teach', O H G lēran, 'teach', lirnen, 'learn', O E leornian, 'learn', qv under learn, cp also Goth leis, O E, O H G leis, 'owning'. Thus delirium is the state of being 'off the track'. Powerful disturbance of the mind, temporary madness, or mental disorder, produced by illness, or nervous shock &c, characterized by incoherent speech and illusions of the senses, specif, delirium tremens (colloq abbreviation DT), violent delirium, caused by persistent and excessive drinking of alcoholic beverages, accompanied by tremblings of the hands &c and terrifying visual hallucinations.

delitescence, n [1 dəlitēsens, 2 dilitēsens], fr Pres Part of Lat delitescere, 'to hide, be hid', fr de- & latescere, 'to be concealed', fr latēre, 'be hidden'. See latent. The state of being delitescence.

delitescence, adj [1 dəlitēsent, 2 dilitēsent] See prec & -ent Not manifest, unrevealed, inactive, quiescent (specif, med of symptoms of disease).

deliver, vb trans [1 dəlivər, 2 dilvər], fr Fr delivrer, fr Low Lat deliberare, fr de- & Lat liberare, 'to set free'. See liberate. 1 To set free, relieve, save (from danger, captivity, suffering, death, sin &c). 2 a To give up, hand over, distribute, esp to deliver letters &c, (law) to present formally (deeds &c), b to pronounce, utter (a speech, sermon &c), c (reflex) to deliver oneself of (an opinion &c), d to strike, aim (a blow &c). 3 a (of medical attendant) To help a woman in childbirth, b (pass, of woman) to be delivered of a child, to give birth to.

deliverance, n [1 dəlivərəns, 2 dilvərəns]. See prec & -ance. 1 The act of delivering, rescue, release, liberation. 2 The formal pronouncement of an opinion.

delivery, n [1 dəlivəri, 2 dilvəri], fr O Fr delivere, fem PP of delivrer. See deliver. 1 The act of delivering, specif a the distribution of letters &c by post office officials, regular, periodic, performances of this act the early delivery, b (law) the formal transfer of a deed &c; c manner of uttering a speech, sermon &c a good, poor, delivery, d (in cricket &c) mode of releasing ball from the hand in bowling. 2 Process of being delivered of a child.

dell, n [1 dəl, 2 dəl] O E dell, fr Prim Gmc dalō*, op dale, fr dalo* A small wooded hollow, small nook or valley.

Della Cruscan, adj & n [1 dəla kraskan, 2 dələ kraskan] Ital crusca, 'siftings, bran'. 1 adj Of, pertaining to, the Italian Accademia della Crusca, established in Florence in 16th cent, for 'sifting' the Italian language and purifying it. 2 n Member of this body.

Della Robbia, adj [1 dəla rōbya, 2 dələ rōbya] Della Robbia ware, a kind of enamelled glazed terra cotta ware, moulded with reliefs, as made by Luca della Robbia, d 1485, his family and pupils.

Delphic, adj [1 dəlfik, 2 delfik], fr Gk Delphos. Pertaining to Delphi, in ancient Greece, seat of Apollo and his oracle. Delphic oracle, a Delphic utterance, one like the ambiguous answers given by the oracle.

Delphinium, n [1 dəlfiniəm, 2 delfiniəm] Latinized form of Gk delphinion, 'larkspur', fr shape of flowers, supposed to resemble a dolphin. A genus of herbaceous plants, including the larkspur.

delta, n [1 dēlta, 2 dēlta] Gk name for fourth letter of alphabet, formerly expressing sound of [d], fr Heb dōlet a The fourth letter of the Greek alphabet Δ, δ, hence b the triangular tract of alluvial ground at the mouth of a river that enters the sea by two or more branches, specif, the Delta, that of the Nile.

deltaic, adj [1 deltāik, 2 deltāik] See prec & -ic Forming a delta.

deltoid, adj & n [1 dēltoid, 2 dēltoid] See delta & -oid a adj Shaped like a delta, triangular, b n, the muscle that lifts the upper arm (from its shape).

delude, vb trans [1 dəlūd, 2 dilūd], fr Lat dēludere, 'to mock, deceive, play false', fr de- & ludere, 'to play, amuse oneself, to mock, ridicule', cp ludus, 'a game, pastime', fr O Lat ludos, prob cogn w Gk ludros, 'harmful', Aryan base loid*, leid*, lid*. See ludicrous. a To deceive, beguile, to mislead deliberately and intentionally, b to delude oneself, to deceive oneself, persuade oneself into believing what one wishes to believe, without sufficient evidence.

deluge (I), n [1 dəljū, 2 dēljū], fr Fr, fr Lat diluvium, 'a flood, inundation', op Lat diluvare, 'to wash away'. See diluent, alluvion, lavo. A great flood, torrential rush of water, specif, the Deluge, the great flood mentioned in Genesis, b (fig) an overwhelming rush (of words, questions &c).

deluge (II), vb trans, fr prec (lit and fig) To inundate, pour over, overwhelm with, or as with, a flood of water to deluge with rain, deluge with invitations &c.

delundung, n [1 dəlundung, 2 dilándung] Native Malay name A variety of civet of the Malay Archipelago.

delusion, n [1 dəljūzun, 2 diljūzun], fr Lat dēlusiō-(em), 'a deceiving, deluding', fr dēlus (um), PP type of dēludere, & -ion. See delude. a The act of deluding, that which deludes, b mistaken belief, resulting from an error of judgement or of perceptive senses, c specif, persistent belief in something which has no existence in fact, a symptom of mental disorder or insanity.

delusive, adj [1 dəljūsiv, 2 diljūsiv] See prec & -ive Tending to delude or deceive, not real, illusory.

delusively, adv Prec & -ly In a delusive manner.

delusiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being delusive.

delve (I), vb intrans & trans [1 dəlv, 2 dəlv] ME delven, OE delfon, op O Frs delva, OS (be)delban, O H G (grif)elfon, Gmc delb*, Aryan base delb* bh, 'to dig, penetrate downwards', perh, w different formative elements, cogn w Gk theluma, 'the foundations, elements of things'. Archæo, now replaced by dig. Old strong vb w Pres d(e)alf, now weak. 1 intrans a To perform act of digging, to dig assiduously, to burrow, often in Phr to dig and delve, b (fig) to immerse oneself in study of, make researches into a subject, or collection of objects, to look deeply into to delve into a language, into a set of documents, to delve among the relics of antiquity. 2 trans To dig (the ground), penetrate by digging.

delve (II), n [1 dəldf, 2 delf], fr prec A depression, dip, hollow.

demagnetization, n [1 dəmagnitizashun, 2 dimagnitizashun] Next word & -ation. A the act of demagnetizing, b state or process of being demagnetized.

demagnetize, vb trans [1 dəmagnitiz, 2 dimagnitiz] See de- & magnetize. To remove magnetic property from.

demagogic, adj [1 dəmagogik, 2 dəmagogik] See next word & -ic Pertaining to a demagogue and his methods.

demagogue, n [1 dəmagog, 2 dəmagog], fr

Gk dēmagōgēs 'a leader of the people, a factious orator, leader of the mob', fr dēmos, 'people' (see demos) & agōgos, 'a guide, leader', redupl form of base ag*, lengthened grade of Aryan base ag*, ag*. The full grade appears in Lat ago, 'to put in motion'. See agent, act, & words there referred to. One who stirs up by oratory and leads, or attempts to lead, the people, esp one who appeals to popular emotion, rather than to reason, a political agitator.

demagoguery, n [1 dəmagogi, 2 dəmagogi] See prec & -y The principles and practices of a demagogue.

demand (I), vb trans [1 dəmand, 2 dīmand], fr Fr, fr Lat demandare, 'to give in charge, in trust', hence to order, command', fr de- & mandare, 'to give in charge, entrust, order'. See mandamus. 1 trans a (of persons) To ask in an emphatic, peremptory manner, ask for boldly, as a right, to require to demand an interview, an immediate answer, payment &c, b (of things) to need, require, call for, make essential an operation demand ing great care. 2 (with dependent clause) To make a demand to demand to be told.

demand (II), n, fr prec. 1. A An urgent request, peremptory question, b a bill, claim, that must be satisfied. 2 (polit econ) The requirements of consumers, contrasted with supply. Phr to be in great demand, much sought after.

demandable, adj [1 dəmandəbəl, 2 dīmandəbəl] demand (I) & -able That can be demanded.

demandant, n [1 dəmandant, 2 dīmandant] demand (I) & -ant (law) Plaintiff.

demarcate, vb trans [1 dəmarkāt, 2 dīmarkēt] Formed fr next word (lit and fig) To mark, trace out, fix, the boundaries of.

demarcation, n [1 dəmarkāshun, 2 dīmarkāshun] Fr, fr Span demarcacion, fr de- & marcar, 'to mark'. See mark (II) (lit and fig) Boundary line, limit, distinction, the act of setting or marking a boundary a line of demarcation.

demarch, n [1 dəmark, 2 dīmark] Gk dēmarchos See deme & arch- 1 (in ancient Greece) Ruler, head-man of a deme. 2 (in mod. Greece) Mayor.

demarche, n [1 dəmarksh, 2 dīmarksh] Fr, lit 'movement aside', fr de- & marcher, march (IV). Term used in diplomacy for a change or deviation from an existing policy in foreign relations, a fresh line of policy, esp after one of strained relations.

dematerialize, vb intrans & trans [1 dəmatērializ, 2 dīmatērializ] See de- & materialize. 1 intrans To give up, abandon, material form, to become a spirit. 2 trans To deprive of, cause to give up, material form.

deme, n [1 dēm, 2 dīm] fr Gk dēmos, see domos. A township in ancient Greece.

demean (I), vb reflex [1 dēmən, 2 dīmən] al E dēmēnen, 'to manage', fr O Fr dēmener, fr de- & mener, 'to lead', fr L Lat mnāre, 'to drive (cattle), drive with blows and threatening ones', fr Lat mnāre, 'to threaten', orig 'to put out, overhang, project'. See minatory, mount (I) (reflex, archaic) To behave, conduct, comport oneself demean yourselves like men.

demean (II), vb reflex. Prob often associated w prec Formed fr de- & mean (III) on anal of debase (reflex) To lower, degrade, oneself, act in such a way as to lessen one's dignity to demean oneself by doing &c. demeanour, n [1 dēmānər, 2 dīmānər] ME demenure. See demean (I) & -ure. Mod suff on the anal of honour, flavour &c. Behaviour, bearing, manner of conducting oneself, deportment.

dement, vb trans [1 dēmēt, 2 dīmēt], fr Lat dēmētare, 'to drive mad, madden, bewitch', fr dēmēt (em), 'mad, raving', fr de- & mens, 'mind'. See mental. To drive (a person) out of his senses, cause to become mad, usually in P.P. demented, oved as adj to be, to become, demented, go mad;

(colloq.) in sense of crazy with worry, much wrought up it will drive me demented dementedly, adv [1 deméntedli, 2 damén tidli] PP of prec & -ly In a wild, crazy manner dementi, n [1 dāmóntē, 2 demāta] Fr, fr dementir, 'to give the lie to, to contradict', fr de- & Lat mentiri, 'to lie', q v under mendacious Term of diplomacy, an official contradiction, denial of some statement, rumour &c dementia, n [1 deménsha, 2 dimenja] Lat, fr démētē (em) See dement Insanity, characterized by gradual weakening of all the faculties, senilis dementia, of extreme old age, precocious dementia, also dementia praecox, of adolescence démérit, n [1 demérit, 2 dumerit], fr Lat démérit (um), PP of démériter, 'to deserve' See de- & merit Want of merit, fault, defect, a bad quality or feature démériterious, adj [1 deméritórnus, 2 dimeritórns] See prec & -ory & -ous (rare) Deserving ill, blameworthy, reverse of meritorious

démersal, adj [1 dēmēral, 2 dūmīal], fr obs vb démerser, 'to immerse, plunge in water', fr de- & Lat mers (um), PP type of mergere, see merge, & -al Sunk, immersed, a of fish caught by trawl or lime, not by drift net, b of eggs of fish which develop below the surface demesne, n [1 demān, demén, 2 dāmēn, dūmīn], fr O Fr demesne See domain The -s is due to confusion w O Fr mesnee 'household', fr Lat mansōnem See mansion Landed property kept in owners' hands for his own use, not let to tenants, specif, park and gardens surrounding the house the royal demesne, land held by the Crown, (law) to hold in demesne, have in one's possession (estates) demi-, pref, fr Fr, fr Lat dīmidius, 'half', dīmidium, 'a half', fr dis- & medius, um, 'middle' See modium Half, partial démigod, n [1 demigōd; 2 demigōd] demi- & god a A hero who has been deified, b the son of a god and a mortal, c (fig) person who is supposed to possess high heroic qualities, beauty, and virtue démijohn, n [1 demijōn, 2 demidžān] Prob fr Fr dame Jeanne, ie Dame Jeanne, as personification A large narrow necked bottle with a covering of wicker work demi-lune, n [1 dēmi lūn, 2 demī lūn] Fr See demi- & lune a A half moon, b crescent-shaped fortification demi-monde, n [1 dēmi mōnd, 2 demī mōnd] Fr, 'half world' Class of females of dubious social standing and dingy or tarnished reputation, demi mondaine, lady of this class demi-rep, n [1 dēmi rōp, 2 demī rōp] Abbr for demi- & repute Person, esp woman, of doubtful character and suspected immorality démisable, adj [1 demizabl, 2 dimizabl] See demise (I) & able (of property &c) That can be demised, conveyed, transferred démise (I), vb trans [1 demiz, 2 demaiz], fr next word a To leave as a legacy, convey, grant by a deed, lease &c, b to give up, transfer (an estate &c) to another by death démise (II), n, fr O Fr démise PP of démétre, 'to send away, dismiss' - reflex 'to abdicate' See desist 1 The act of demising, conveyance of property 2 a The laying aside, and transmission, of an estate, hereditary office &c, by death, esp demise of the Crown, on death of the sovereign, hence, b (by trans) death démisemiquaver, n [1 demisēmikwāver, 2 demisēmikwāve] demi- & semiquaver a A note in music, half the length of a semiquaver, b written or printed symbol representing this note démisson, n [1 demishun 2 dimisjən], fr Fr démisson, fr Lat dissimulatio (em), w change of pref., fr Lat dissimulatio, 'a sending forth' See de- & mission The act of demitting, resignation, abdication, of an office démitt, vb trans & intrans [1 demit, 2 dimit], fr O Fr démétre, fr dis- & Lat mittere, 'to send' See mission a trans To resign, give up (an office), b intrans, to resign office, abdicate, the word usually implies voluntary relinquishment démurge, n [1 dēmūrj, 2 dīmāidž], fr Gk dēmourgos, 'a skilled workman, the maker of the world, creator', fr dēnios, 'belonging to the people' (see demos), & ergon, 'work', earlier uergon* See energy & erg, & op work. a In some ancient Greek states, a magistrate, b (in Gk. philos) the creative spirit or agent who fashioned the world démurgio, adj [1 dēmūrjik, 2 dīmāidžik] Prec & -io Pertaining to the creative spirit démuvolt, n [1 dēmuvolt, 2 demivolt], fr Fr démuvolt, fr demi- & volt, 'a leap' See vault (III) (of a horse) A bound into the air with forelegs raised démobilization, n [1 dēmōbīlīzāshun, 2 dīmōbīlīzāshən] See next word & -ation The act of demobilizing, state or process of being demobilized démobilize, vb trans [1 dēmōbīliz, 2 dīmōbīliz] See de- & mobilize a To disband, break up, dismiss (forces &c), b to discharge (an individual) from the army, at the end of a war, or campaign democracy, n [1 demokrasī, 2 dimokrasj], fr Fr démocratie, fr Lat, fr Gk dēmokratia, 'democracy, popular government' See demos & -cracy a A form of government in which all classes, including the lowest, have a voice in government, directly, or through their chosen representatives, hence, b a state having this form of government, c the lower classes, the people démocrat, n [1 demokrat, 2 demekrast], fr Fr démocrate, fr prec a One who upholds the political rights of the people, one who supports, believes in, democracy, b (cap) member of one of the two great political parties of the U.S.A., contrasted with Republican democratic, adj [1 demokrátik; 2 dēmokrátik] See prec & -ic a Pertaining to, based on, democracy, believing in the rights of the people, b of pertaining to, the political party, Democratic Party, in U.S.A. democratically, adv [1 demokrákāl, 2 demekrákāl] Prec & -al & -ly In a democratic manner democratism, n [1 demokratizm, 2 dīmokratizm] See democrat & -ism The doctrines of democracy democratize, vb trans [1 demokrátiz, 2 dīmokratiz] See democrat & -ize To make into a democracy, introduce democratic principles into démogorgon, n [1 dēmogōrgon, 2 dīmogōgon] Gk dēmos, 'people' (see demos) & gorgos, 'terrible' (see Gorgon), prob fr some Oriental name, assimilated to the Gk. by popular etymol (Gk. mythol) An unknown, terrible, and sinister deity démographic, adj [1 dēmográfik, 2 dīmográfik] See next word & -ic Pertaining to demography demography, n [1 dēmográfi, 2 dīmográfi] See demos & -graphy Statistics of births, deaths, diseases &c, in a community démouille, n [1 dēmūwāzel, 2 demwāzel] Fr, 'young lady' See damsel 1 (archaic) Young lady 2 a A kind of craze, of Northern Africa, with long feathers and white plumes above the eyes b name of various kinds of dragon fly démolish, vb trans [1 demolish 2 dīmólif], fr Fr démolir (see -ish), fr Lat dēmōliri, 'to pull down, destroy', fr de- & moliri, 'to construct', fr mōles, 'mass' See mole (II) a (lit and fig) To overthrow, pull down, destroy, make an end of - démolish a building, argument &c, b (colloq) to consume first, eat up to demolish three eggs for breakfast démolition, n [1 demolishun, 2 dēmólifən], fr Fr, fr Lat dēmōlitiō (em), 'a tearing down, demolishing', fr dēmōlū (um), PP type of dēmōliri See demolish & -ion The act or process of demolishing, state of being demolished, esp of the pulling down of buildings demon, daemon, n [1 dēmaun, 2 dīmēn], fr L Lat daemon, 'a spirit, genius', (cooles) 'an evil spirit', fr Gk daímōn, lit 'distributor, dispenser (of destiny)', hence 'a god, a god or goddess of inferior rank; a tutelary spirit, genius, an evil spirit', fr Aryan base dā-, dā-, dā-*, op Gk daímōn, 'I distribute' See damn & time & op daemon & demon 1 (in ant mythol.) a spirit supernatural being, ranking between gods and men, b a familiar, inspiring spirit, a genius the demon of Socrates, usually spirit daemon 2 a A spirit of evil, devil, hence, b a wicked, malignant, and destructive person, personification of wickedness a regular demon demonization, n [1 dēmōnīzāshun, 2 dīmōnīzāshən] Next word & -ation Act of demonizing, state of being demonized demonize, vb trans [1 dēmōnītiz, 2 dīmōnītiz] See demon & -ize To deprive currency of its standard value demoniac, adj & n [1 dēmōnak, 2 dīmōn-ak], fr L Lat daemoniacus, fr Gk daimōnios, 'pertaining to a demon' (see demon), & -ac 1 adj a Resembling, pertaining to, a demon, b under the power of a demon, possessed by an evil spirit 2 n A person under the influence of a demon demoniacal, adj [1 dēmōnakāl, 2 dīmōn-akāl] See demoniac & -al a Pertaining to demons, of the nature of demons, b possessed by a demon, evil spirit, maddened demoniacally, adv Prec & -ly In a demoniacal, frenzied, manner démone, daemonic, adj [1 dēmōnik, 2 dīmōnik], fr Lat, fr Gk daímōnikos, 'possessed by a demon' See demon & -ic demonism, n [1 dēmōnizm, 2 dīmōnizm] See demon & -ism Belief in demons and in their power to influence human life demonist, n [1 dēmōnist, 2 dīmōnist] See demon & -ist Adherent of demonism démouze, vb trans [1 dēmōnz, 2 dīmōnz] See demon & -ize To convert into a demon, represent, conceive of, as a demon demonocracy, n [1 dēmōnokrasī, 2 dīmōn-krasj] See demon & -cracy The rule of demons demonolatry, n [1 dēmōnolatri, 2 dīmōn-olatri] See demon & -latry The worship of ghosts, demons, and of malign spiritual powers demonologist, n [1 dēmōnológist; 2 dīmōn-ológist] See next word & -ist. A student of demonology demonology, n [1 dēmōnológj, 2 dīmōn-ológj] See demon & -logy The study of popular beliefs in demons and their influence demonstrability, n [1 dēmōnstrābiliti, 2 dīmōnstrābiliti] Next word & -ity The quality of being demonstrable démonstrable, adj [1 dēmōnstrābl, dēmōnstrābl, 2 dīmōnstrābl, dēmōnstrābl], fr Lat dēmōnstrābilis See demonstrate & -able Capable of being demonstrated, proved demonstrably, adv [1 dēmōnstrābl, 2 dīmōnstrābl] See prec & -ly In a manner that can be demonstrated demonstrate vb trans & intrans [1 dēmōnstrāt, 2 dēmōnstrēt], fr Lat dēmōnstrāt (um), PP type of dēmōnstrāre, to point out, indicate, fig 'to show, prove', fr de- & monstrāre, 'to show, point out' See monster 1 trans To show, prove by evidence and argument 2 intrans a To make a manifestation or demonstration of feelings, sympathies opinions, b specif (mil) to give evidence of, make a manifestation of force, readiness to fight &c demonstration, n [1 démonstrášun, 2 démonstrášun] See preo & -ation The act of demonstrating, specif a a practical lesson, an exhibition of method, instruction by actual example, b clear and logical explanation or setting forth, c manifestation, open expression, of feelings by words or gestures, d expression of public feeling by acts, e.g. processions, mass meetings &c, e (mil) exhibition of force, either to show readiness for war, or to deceive the enemy, as to one's real intentions demonstrationist, n [1 démonstrášunist, 2 demonstreshnist] See preo & -ist One who takes part in a public demonstration, as an expression of opinion on a political or social question demonstrative, adj [1 demonstrativ, 2 demonstrativ] See demonstrate & -ive 1 a Showing clearly, pointing out (esp gram) demonstrative pronoun, adjective, b proving logically, tending to prove 2 a (of persons, character &c) Given to outward expression of feelings, expressing inward feeling, b (of feelings &c) expressed openly, with complete lack of reserve demonstratively, adv Preo & -ly In a demonstrative manner demonstrativeness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being demonstrative demonstrator, n [1 demonstrátor, 2 demonstretor] See demonstrate & -or One who demonstrates, specif a a teacher who does practical scientific work with pupils, esp a junior teacher in a laboratory assisting a professor demonstrator in anatomy, b one who takes part in a public demonstration demoralization, n [1 demoralizášun, 2 demoralizášun] See next word & -ation a Act or process of demoralizing, b state of being demoralized demoralize, vb trans [1 demoraliz, 2 demoraliz] fr Fr demoraliser See de- & moral & -ize a To injure morally, weaken moral character of, b to undermine, weaken, self-control, discipline, courage of, to dishearten, disorganize demos, n [1 demos, 2 dimos] Gk dēmos, 'a division of a country, district, township', hence 'the people of a country, inhabitants', esp 'the common people, lower classes' Cogn w Sort ddt, 'to reap, gather in harvest, to share', & Gk dēmōn, lit 'disturber' See demor The common people, lower classes, esp in bad sense, considered as an irresponsible, uncontrollable mob

Demosthenic, adj [1 dēmōsthenik, 2 dēmōsthenik] Pertaining to or resembling the Athenian orator, Demosthenes, eloquent demotic, adj [1 dēmōtik, 2 dēmōtik] fr Gk dēmōtikós, 'for the people, in common use' See demos & -ic Popular, belonging to the people, specif, of the popular form of writing in Ancient Egypt, as distinct from hieratic demulcent, adj & n [1 dēmulsent, 2 dīmálsent] fr Pres Part (see -ent) of Lat dēmūlcere, 'to stroke down', fig, 'to soften', fr de- & mūlcere, 'to stroke', fig 'to soothe, soften, alleviate, caress, cajole', prob cogn w Lat mūlcere, 'to treat roughly, to beat', & w Lat mūltus, orig 'a punishment', hence 'a pecuniary penalty, a fine', see mūlt Cogn also w Gk bláptem, 'to injure', blabē (by assimilation fr mápl*), 'injury', Sort mīlāš, 'wounded', Aryan base mīl-, the orig meaning seems to have been 'to touch, stroke', subsequently differentiated into 'touch lightly, caress &c', & 'touch, handle, roughly', hence 'punish' &c The same base mīl-, mel-*, w a different suff, appears in Lat mūlgere, 'to milk', Gk amēlgein, 'to milk' See milk a adj Tending to soothe, softening, b n, a soothing substance (ointment or medicine)

démur (I), vb intrans [1 démur, 2 dīmá] fr O Fr demurer, 'to tarry, linger', fr Low Lat dēmorare, fr Lat dēmorari, 'to linger, delay, to retard, detain', fr de- & morari, 'to delay, tarry, to detain, hinder' See moratory a To hesitate, object, have scruples about, raise objections to (a proposal) démur to, also absol, b (law) to enter a demurrer démur (II), n, fr preo Hesitation, expression of objections, esp in Phr without demur démure, adj [1 démur, 2 dīmá] fr de- & O Fr mure, meur, fr Lat māurus, 'ripe, mature, fit, seasonable, powerful, vigorous' See mature a Modest, sober, staid, b affecting coyness and gravity of demeanour démurely, adv Preo & -ly In a demure manner démureness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being demure démurable, adj [1 dēmúrabil, 2 dēmárahil] See démur (I) & -able (law) Of a character to warrant entering a demurrer démurage, n [1 démurj, 2 dīmárádž] See démur (I) & -age a Undue delay, detention, of vessels in port, of railway trucks at junctions &c, b compensation, allowance, for this, c fee charged by railway companies and others on account of property left on their premises by the owners démurrer, n [1 démúrér, 2 dīmárá] fr O Fr demorer (infin), used as n See démur (I) (law) A pleading by a party in a lawsuit that the case should be stopped, that the other (opposing) party should not be allowed to proceed, on the ground that the latter's case is insufficient in law to maintain his claim, or alleging some other legal flaw Phr to put in a demurrer demy, n [1 dēmí, 2 dīmá] See demi- 1 A size of paper (22½×17½ in) 2 The holder of a demyship, q.v., at Magdalen College, Oxford demyship, n [1 dēmíship, 2 dīmáship] Preo & -ship Peculiar type of scholarship at Magdalen College, Oxford, having originally half the value of a fellowship and held by graduates of the university who were unable through poverty to continue their studies without assistance den, n [1 den, 2 den] O E denn, 'a den, lair of wild beast', op NHG tenne, 'a threshing floor', Du dénne, 'a floor', OHG tan (esi), 'a wild ass', lanna, 'fir', MLG dan, 'forest', Prim Gmo dan jō*, dan wō* The word is difficult to trace outside Gmo, & its orig meaning is doubtful It is perhaps cogn w Sort dhan-vanaš, 'fruit tree', & w Gk thamnos, 'thicket, copse' (cf than m-ae*) 1 a Retreat, lair, hiding-place of a wild animal, b cage for wild beasts in a menagerie or zoological garden 2 Dismal, small, squalid room 3 (colloq) Small private room, such as a study or workshop denarius, n [1 dēnarius, 2 dēnariis] Lat dēnarius, 'containing ten', esp 'a silver coin, containing orig 10 asses', fr dēm, 'ten each', fr dek-s-no*, fr dec em, '10' (onanal of dēm fr ser m*), see deci-, & -ary Ancient Roman silver coin, worth about 9d Hence English d as symbol for pence denary, adj [1 dēnarj, 2 dēnarij] fr Lat dēnarius, 'containing ten', a coin of the value of 10 asses See preo Tenfold, increasing by tens denationalization, n [1 dēnashunalizášun, 2 dēnashunalizášun] Next word & -ation a The act or process of denationalizing, b state of being denationalized denationalize, vb trans [1 dēnashunaliz, 2 dēnashunaliz] de- & nationalize 1 a To deprive of national rights, b to overthrow from rank of an independent nation 2 To remove from possession of a nation denaturalization, n [1 dēnachunalizášun, 2 dēnachunalizášun] Next word & -ation The act or process of denaturalizing, state of being denaturalized denaturalize, vb trans [1 dēnachunaliz, 2 dēnachunaliz] See de- & naturalize a To remove natural qualities of, alter characteristics of, b to deprive of naturalization, remove rights of citizenship denature, vb trans [1 dēnáchur, 2 dēnétj] fr Fr denaturer See dis- & nature To alter natural character of, make unfit for food, by adulteration &c to denature alcohol, render it unwholesome and unpleasing by addition of a substance which gives it a nasty taste dendri(i)-, dendro-, pref, fr Gk dendron, 'a tree', fr dendrewon*, perh by haplogly fr dendo drewon*, fr dend-* for gwend-, gnd-, 'wood' (op Sort gada, 'cimb'), & drew on*, 'a tree', cp Goth triu, O E trēow, 'a tree', & see tree, dryad Of a tree, of trees dendriiform, adj [1 dendriiform, 2 dendri-fom] See preo & form Having the appearance of, shaped like, a tree dendrite, n [1 dēndrit, 2 dēndrast] fr Gk dendritēs, 'of a tree' See dendri- & -ite Mineral with markings resembling trees or plants dendritic, adj [1 dēndritik, 2 dēndritik] See preo & -ic Having branched markings resembling trees or plants dendro- See dendri- dendrodont, n [1 dēndrodont, 2 dēndrodont] dendro- & Gk odont-, 'tooth', q.v. under dent- A kind of fossil fish, the teeth of which show branching lines dendroid, adj [1 dēndroid, 2 dēndroid] dendro- & -oid Resembling a tree dendrolite, n [1 dēndrolit, 2 dēndrolit] dendro- & -lite A fossil plant dendrologist, n [1 dēndrologist, 2 dēndrolodžist] See next word & -ist A writer on, student of, dendrology dendrology, n [1 dēndrologj, 2 dēndrolodžj] dendro- & -logy The study of trees dendrometer, n [1 dēndrometer, 2 dēndromit] dendro- & -meter Instrument for measuring the height and diameter of trees dene (I), also dean, n [1 dēn, 2 dīn] O E denu, ME dēne, 'a valley', cogn w den Small valley, hollow in a hill or down dene (II), n Perh fr Eastern form dēne of O E dýne* (only in compounds), derivative of dūn, 'a hill, mound' See down (II). A low sandy tract of land near the sea denegation, n [1 dēnegášun, 2 dēnigeshun] fr Lat dēnegāti-(um), P P type of dēnegāre, 'to deny, to reject, refuse' See deny & -ation The act of denying, denial, refusal dene-hole, n [1 dēn hōl, 2 dīn hōl] Elym uncertain, perh fr Dane Ancient artificial cave found in the oshik hills of Kent and Essex dengue, n [1 dēnggā, 2 dēnggē] Span, 'stiffness', prob corrupt of African native name Cp Swahili dinga An infectious, tropical and subtropical fever, accompanied by pains in the joints and eruption on the skin deniable, adj [1 deniabl, 2 dēnábábl] See deny & -able Capable of being denied denial, n [1 denial, 2 dēnái] See deny & -al a The act of denying, contradiction, refutation of statement to issue a strong, flat, denial, b refusal, withholding denial of justice, esp self denial, abstention from what gives one pleasure denier, n [1 dēnier, 2 dēnā] O Fr denier, fr Lat Denarius (archaic) A copper coin of small value denigrate, vb trans [1 dēnigrāt, 2 dēnigrētj] fr Lat dēnigrāt (um), P P type of dēnigrāre, 'to blacken thoroughly', fig 'to defame', fr de- & nigrāre, 'to be black, to blacken' See negro To blacken, (in fig sense) to cast aspersions on the character of, defame denigration, n [1 dēnigrášun, 2 dēnigrēj] See preo & -ation Defamation, blackening of character denim, n [1 dēnim, 2 dēnim] fr Fr serge de Nîmes, 'serge of Nîmes', town in south of France A coarse cotton drill, used for making overalls &c denitrate, vb trans [1 dēnitrāt, 2 dēnitrētj] de- & nitrate To remove nitric acid from.

denitration, n [1 dēnitrāshun, 2 dīnāstrē-jən] Proc & -ion Process of removing nitric acid denitrify, vb trans [1 dēnitrīfī, 2 dīnāstrīfī] See de- & nitrify To denitrate denizen (I), n [1 dēnzən, 2 dēnzən] fr O Fr denizen (used in London Records to denote traders within the city franchise, contrasted w foreign, 'without'), fr dēnz, 'in', & ez, seo -an Dēnz, 'in' (Mod Fr dans), is fr Lat dē (see de-) & ritus, 'within, from within', fr in (see in), the snfl tus expressing place whence a An inhabitant, a person, animal &c living in a particular place, country, region a denizen of the woods &c, b one admitted to the rights and privileges of an inhabitant, an alien admitted by naturalization to citizenship denizen (II), vb trans, fr prec a (usually pass) To admit to the rights of an inhabitant, to settle, establish as inhabitant, b (of land, a country &c) to supply with inhabitants, settle denominate, vb trans [1 dēnōmīnāt, 2 dīnōmīnēt], fr Lat dēnōmīnāt-(um), PP type of dēnōmīnāre, 'to name specifically', fr dē- & nōmīnāre, 'to name, give a name to' See nominare To name, call, give a name to, designate denomination, n [1 dēnōmīnāshun, 2 dīnōmīnē-jən] See prec & -ation 1 The act of naming, a name Hence, 2, the name of a particular class or kind Specif, a particular religious body 3 (enth) Units of measures of weight, length, money &c To reduce feet and inches to the same denomination denominational, edj [1 dēnōmīnāshunāl, 2 dīnōmīnē-jənāl] Proc & -al Of, connected with, having character of, under the direction of, a particular religious body, or church denominational schools, religious teaching denominationalize, vb trans [1 dēnōmīnāshunālīz, 2 dīnōmīnē-jənālīz] Proc & -ize To make denominational, devote to the principles or interests of a particular class, or sect denominative, adj [1 dēnōmīnātīv, 2 dīnōmīnētīv] See denominate & -ive a Giving, having function of, a name, b (log) possessing certain attributes which determine the name denominator, n [1 dēnōmīnātor, 2 dīnōmīnētōr] See denominate & -or (arith) That which names the class, the divisor, the lower number in a vulgar fraction denotation, n [1 dēnōtāshun, 2 dīnōtē-jən], fr Lat dēnōtāshōn (em), 'a marking or pointing out' See denote & -ation 1 a The act, process, of denoting, b that by which anything is denoted, name, designation, grapho symbol &c 2 The meaning, exact force of a word. Specif 3 (log) the number of objects to which a word or term refers, compared with connotation denotative, adj [1 dēnōtātīv, 2 dīnōtētīv], fr Lat dēnōtāt (um), PP type of dēnōtāre, 'to mark out, specify', & -ive See denote Having the function of denoting, indicating, naming denotatively, adv Proc & -ly In a denotative manner denote, vb trans [1 dēnōt, 2 dīnōut], fr Fr denoter, fr Lat dēnōtāre, 'to set a mark on, to point out, specify, designate, to stigmatize', fr dē- & nōtāre, 'to mark, to make a note of, to observe, note, to indicate, signify' See note (II) a To mark indicate, distinguish, by a sign or symbol, b (of a mark, sign, letter, word &c) to be a symbol of, to express, mean denouement, n [1 dēnōwōmōn, 2 dēnōwūm] fr, fr denouer, 'to untie, unravel', fr dē- & Lat nōdāre, 'to furnish with knots, to tie in a knot', fr nōdus, 'a knot, a knob, node', fig 'a knotty point, difficulty' See node The final situation, unravelling, last stage of development of a plot, final revelation, in play, book &c, climax of a series of events.

denounce, vb trans [1 dēnōnās, 2 dīnōnās], fr O Fr denoncier, fr Lat dēnūntiāre, (esp legal) 'to make an official announcement of', hence 'to announce, declare, to threaten, denounce', fr dē- & nūntiāre, 'to declare, report, make known', to inform against, do nouns', fr nūntius, 'one who brings news, a messenger, reporter' See nuncio 1 a (of action towards persons and their acts) To make a public accusation against, cry out against, to call down vengeance upon, b (archaic, of punishments &c) to announce as being deserved to denounce judgement, vengeance, against 2 To declare (a treaty &c) at an end, repudiate it denouncement, n [1 dēnōnsmēt, 2 dīnōnsmēt] Proc & -ment Denunciation de novo, adv [1 dē nōvō, 2 dīnōvō] Lat, lit 'from that which is new' See de- & novus, 'new' See novel & cp new All over again, afresh dense, adj [1 dēns, 2 dēns], fr Lat densus, 'thick, with parts crowded closely together, not close, crowded', (of speech) 'condensed, concise', fr dēnt* eo, or dēnt* to, Aryan base dēnt*, dēnt* &c, 'close together, compact, thick' Op Gk dasy, 'thick' (see dasy-), fr dai* us, fr dēnt* us a Packed tightly together, compact, thick, with its parts crowded together, impenetrable a dense crowd, a dense forest, a dense fog, b (fig) thick in mind, difficult to penetrate with ideas, very stupid, slow of understanding densely, adv Proc & -ly In a dense manner, thickly, closely denseness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being dense densimeter, n [1 dēnsimēter, 2 dēnsimētōr], fr Lat dēns (us) See dense & -meter Instrument for measuring the density or specific gravity of a substance density, n [1 dēnsitī, 2 dēnsitī], fr Lat densitāt (em), 'thickness, density' See dense & -ity a The quality of being dense, stupidity, b (specif, phys) the proportion of mass to bulk or volume specific gravity dent (I), n [1 dēnt, 2 dēnt] ME dent, 'a blow', dialectal variant of dunt, OE dymt, S Eastern dent, 'a stroke, blow, bruise' A slight irregularity, depression, in a hard surface made by a blow, or by pressure dent (II), vb trans, fr prec To impart a dent to dent-, denti-, pref, fr Lat dēnt is, gent of dēns, 'a tooth', hence 'a point, spiko', fig 'envy, ill-will' Aryan base dēnt*, dēnt*, dēnt* eo, Op Gk odōn, odont-, Scrt dant am (acc), dant (gent), O Ir dēnt, O HG zand, Goth tunp us, OE tōp (see tooth), Lat dēntis Cogn also w OE tūsc (see tusk) The full base was dēnt*, dēnti-* &c, a particular formation fr ed-*, 'to eat', cp Lat edere, 'to eat' See eat, edible Of a tooth, pertaining to teeth dental, adj & n [1 dēntāl, 2 dēntāl] See prec & -al a edj Having to do with the teeth, or with dentistry dental surgeon, a dentist, b adj & n, (phon) of certain consonantal sounds formed by placing point of tongue against, or near, the upper teeth, such sounds as [t, d, n, p, θ] dentate, adj [1 dēntāt, 2 dēntēt] See dent- & -ate (of leaves) Having tooth-like projections and V shaped indentations dentation, n [1 dēntāshun, 2 dēntē-jən] See prec & -ion. (bot) a Quality of being dentate, b one of the projections on the edge of a leaf denticle, n [1 dēntīkl, 2 dēntīkl], fr Lat denticulus, 'a small tooth', hence (archit) 'projecting bracket' See dent- & -cule a A small tooth, b a pointed projection, c (archit) a denticul denticular, adj [1 dēntīkūlār, 2 dēntīkūlār] See prec & -ar Shaped like a small tooth.

denticulate (d), adj [1 dēntīkūlāt (ed), 2 dēntīkūlēt (ed)], fr Lat denticulāt (um), 'having small teeth' See denticle & -ate & -ed. Furnished with small tooth like projections denticulation, a [1 dēntīkūlāshun, 2 dēntīkūlājən] Proc & -ion The quality of being denticulate, indentation, notching dentiform, adj [1 dēntīfōrm, 2 dēntīfōrm] See dent- & form Tooth shaped dentifrice, n [1 dēntīfrīs, 2 dēntīfrīs], fr Lat dēntīfriciūm, 'powder for rubbing the teeth', fr dēnti- & a formation fr baso fric, 'rub', cp fricare, 'to rub' See friction. Trade, or shop word for tooth-powder, or paste dentigerous, adj [1 dēntījērūs, 2 dēntīdž-ārūs] See dent- & -gerous Having teeth, lit tooth bearing dentil, n [1 dēntīl, 2 dēntīl], fr O Fr dentille, dimin of dent, 'tooth', fr Lat dent (em), 'tooth' See dent- (archit) One of a series of small square projecting blocks in the moulding of a cornice dentil-cornice, n A cornice ornamented with dentils dentilingual, adj [1 dēntīlīgīgūwāl, 2 dēntīlīgīgūwāl] See dent- & lingual (phon) Of certain consonantal sounds formed by the point of the tongue against, or near, the upper teeth dentil-moulding, n One consisting of dentils dentine, n [1 dēntīn, 2 dēntīn] See dent- & -ine Hard substance, having the character of bone, of which the chief mass of the teeth is composed dentist, n [1 dēntīst, 2 dēntīst] See dent- & -ist Medical men who devote special attention to the care of the human teeth, who deals with diseases of the teeth, extracts and stops teeth, and fits artificial teeth when necessary dentistry, n [1 dēntīstrī, 2 dēntīstrī] Proc & -ry The art and practice of a dentist dentition, n [1 dēntīshun, 2 dēntī-jən], fr Lat dēntīshōn (em), 'teething', fr dēntī (um), PP type of dēntire, (of children) 'to cut teeth', fr dēnt (em), 'a tooth' See dent- & -ion. a The process of development and cutting of teeth, teething, b the type, mode of arrangement, and number, of the teeth in man or in animal species, c the teeth of any individual collectively dentoid, edj [1 dēntōīd, 2 dēntōīd] See dent- & -oid Having the form of a tooth.

denture, n [1 dēntīr, 2 dēntjē] dent- & -ure (dentist's word) A set of teeth, esp of false teeth denudation, n [1 dēnūdāshun, 2 dēnūdē-jən] Lat dēnūdātīōn (em) See denude & -ation a Act or process of denuding, b specif (geol) process of removing outer soil &c from, of uncovering, rocks by action of natural forces, erosion denudative, adj [1 dēnūdātīv, 2 dēnūdētīv].

denude & -ative Tending to denude denude, vb trans [1 dēnūd, 2 dēnūd], fr Lat dēnūdāre, 'to lay bare, strip', fig 'to reveal, disclose', fr dē- & nūdāre, 'to make naked', fig 'to disclose, expose', fr nūdus, 'naked' See nude a To uncover, make bare, strip, deprive of natural covering a country denuded of vegetation, b to deprive of a quality, possession &c -denuded of all decent feelings, of hope, -denuded of every farthing he possessed denunciation, n [1 dēnūnshāshun, 2 dēnūnshē-jən], fr Lat dēnūnshātīōn (em), 'an announcement, declaration' See denounce & -ation a The act of denouncing, b specific instance of this denunciative, adj [1 dēnūnshātīv, 2 dēnūnshētīv], fr Lat dēnūnshāt (um), PP type of dēnūnshātire, 'to announce officially, to menace, threaten' See denounce & -ive Expressing, having character of, a denunciation, denunciatory denunciatory, adj [1 dēnūnshētōr, 2 dēnūnshētār] See prec & -ory Denunciative deny, vb trans [1 dēnt, 2 dēnt], fr O Fr denier, fr Lat dēnegāre, 'to deny, gainsay, to reject, refuse', fr dē- & negāre, 'to say no, deny, refuse' See negate 1 To declare (a statement, implication &c) to be

- tales, to contradict, gainsay, challenge truth of - to deny a statement, the truth of what is said, to deny that a statement is true. 2 a To refuse (a person his request), decline to grant (a request &c) he can deny his son nothing, I denied him what he asked, b (reflex) to withhold from, abstain from, practise abstinence to deny oneself every luxury, the pleasure of doing something &c; also absol 3 To disavow, disown, repudiate Peter denied his Master, to deny one's faith, country &c
- deodand, n [1 dēodand, 2 dīodand], fr Lat deo dandum, 'to be given to God', fr deus (see deity), & gerundive of dare, 'to give' See date (I) (Engl law) An object, animal &c, which had accidentally caused the death of a human being, and was on that account forfeited to the Crown, to be applied to pious purposes This practice was abolished in 1846
- deodar, n [1 dēodar, 2 dīodā] Hind deodar, fr Sert deus dara, 'divine tree'; fr dēva, 'divine' (see under deity), dāru, 'wood, tree' See tree A kind of cedar, native of the Himalayas, but growing readily in Europe
- deodorant, adj & n [1 dēodorant, 2 dīoudarant] See deodorize & -ant 1 adj. Having the power of deodorizing or destroying bad smells 2 n. Substance which does this, deodorizer
- deodorization, n [1 dēodorizāshun, 2 dīoudarazet[ən]] Next word & -ation The act or process of deodorizing
- deodorize, vb trans [1 dēodoriz, 2 dīoudaraz], fr de- & Lat odor, 'a smell', see odour, & -ize To remove odour from, specific to destroy bad smells by applying some chemical substance as powder, liquid &c with a stronger and more pleasant smell
- deodorizer, n [1 dēodorizar, 2 dīoudaraza] Prec & -er Substance which deodorizes, a deodorant
- deontological, adj [1 dēontolōjīk, 2 dīontolōjīk] See deontology & -ic & -al Pertaining to deontology
- deontologist, n [1 dēontolōjst, 2 dīontolōjīst] Next word & -ist A student of deontology
- deontology, n [1 dēontolōjī, 2 dīontolōjī], fr Gk deont, Pres Part stem of dei, 'one ought, it behoves one', impers, fr dēō, 'I need, have need of', op Sort dēōs, 'want, need' See deuterology The theory of moral obligation
- deo volente, adv [1 dēō vōlēnt, 2 dīou vōlēnt] Abbr D.V. [dī vī] Lat, God willing, if God permit
- deoxidize, vb trans [1 dēōksīz, 2 dīoksidīz] See de- & oxidize a To remove oxygen from, b to reduce from the state of an oxide
- deoxygenate, vb trans [1 dēōksījenāt, 2 dīoksidīnēt] See de- & oxygen & -ate To deoxidize
- depart, vb intrans [1 depārt, 2 dīpāt], fr O Fr departir, fr de- & Lat partire, 'to share, divide, distribute, to separate' de- & part (II) 1 (archaic and poet, except in railway time-tables) To go away from, leave a place, (of person) take one's leave it is time to depart, to depart hence, the fever departed from him, (also of trains) departs 6.30, leaves the station at 2 To take leave of life, to die, esp in such a colloq Phr as poor old Jones has departed at last, set phrase on tombstones, otherwise archaic to depart this life 3 Depart from a to deviate from ordinary conduct, habit, custom, adopt different course to depart from tradition, from one's ordinary mode of life, usual behaviour &c, b to alter, make a change in to depart from one's previous intentions, plans &c, Phr to depart from one's word, promise &c, to go back on, break, it
- departed (I), adj [1 depārted, 2 dīpātēd], fr P P of prec (archaic and poet) Vanished, having passed away, no longer in existence departed joys
- departed (II), n, fr. prec The departed the dead (sing and pl)
- department, n [1 depārtmēt, 2 dīpāt-mēt], fr Fr département See depart & -ment Part of a whole, separated off, self-contained, and distinct from other parts in character and function 1 (of material things) a Department of state, special branch of administration or legislature &c, b or a business concern, section dealing with particular aspects of the business shipping, export, retail department &c; c (in France) a principal administrative area the Department of Seine et Oise &c 2 The office, or building in which the affairs of a department of the state, of business &c are conducted, or where particular kinds of goods are sold This way to the accountant's department, the fancy goods department &c, department store, in American usage, a large, general retail shop, in which all sorts of goods are sold 3 (of non-material things) a department of thought, speculation, learning &c, branch, aspect, line, of philosophy or study
- departmental, adj [1 depārtmēntl, 2 dīpāt-mēntl] Prec & -al Pertaining to a department, or to departments, not affecting the whole a question of departmental administration, orders &c
- departmentalism, n [1 depārtmēntalizm, 2 dīpāt-mēntalizm] Prec & -ism Strict adherence to departmental rules of administration, usually depreciatory, red tape
- departmentally, adv [1 depārtmēntali, 2 dīpāt-mēntali] See prec & -ly According to, by, a department or departments
- departure, n [1 depārčur, 2 dīpātčə] See depart & -ure 1 The act of departing, going away, starting, setting out she went on his departure from home Phr to take one's departure, go away 2 Deviation, turning aside, divergence, from habit, custom, established conditions &c departure from ancient ways, from tradition &c Phr a new departure, change of method, new course of action &c, 3 (naut) The distance travelled by a ship due east or west of starting-point
- depasturage, n [1 depāshchurī, 2 dīpāst[ər]ariz] Next word & -age a Pasturing of cattle, b right to pasture cattle
- depasture, vb trans [1 depāshchur, 2 dīpāstčə] See de- & pasture a (of cattle) To graze on (land), b (of persons) to use (land) for pasture, to put (cattle) to feed on land
- depauperate, vb trans [1 depāwperāt, 2 dīpāperēt], fr Med Lat depauperāt-(um), P P type of depauperare, 'to make poor, impoverish' de- & pauper & -ate To impoverish, weaken, reduce strength of
- depauperation, n [1 depāwperāshun, 2 dīpāperāshən] See prec & -ation Impoverishment
- depauperize, vb trans [1 depāwperīz, 2 dīpāparīz] See de- & pauper & -ize To get rid of, free from, paupers or poverty
- depend, vb intrans [1 depēnd, 2 dīpēnd], fr O Fr dependre (pendre by anal w pendre, fr pendere, 'to pay'), fr Lat dependere, 'to hang from, hang down', fig 'to be dependent on, derived from, governed by', de- & pendere, 'to hang, be suspended, to float, hover', fig 'to rest, depend upon, to be in suspense, be doubtful' See pendant 1 (archaic and rare) To hang down, be suspended a picture depends from a hook 2 (followed by on or upon) a To be supported by, rely on for support to depend on what one can earn, b to put trust in, rely upon, be sure of a man to be depended on, you can't depend upon a cheap gun, c to be contingent on, governed, conditioned, by, connected with, to vary in accordance with happiness depends partly on external circumstances, partly on one's own character, much depends upon the issue of the battle 3 Law (of a suit) to be pending, awaiting final settlement
- dependable, adj [1 depēndabl, 2 dīpēndēbl] See prec & -able Able to be depended on.
- dependableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being dependable
- dependably, adv dependably & -ly In a dependable manner
- dependant, n See dependent (II)
- dependence, n [1 depēndens, 2 dīpēndēns] depend & -ence 1 The state of being dependent on, of being supported by, others, living at expense of others he refused to live in dependence on anyone 2 a Trust, confidence, reliance to place dependence in (a person &c), b (rare) of that on which one can depend his brains were his only dependence
- dependency, n [1 depēndēns, 2 dīpēndēns] See depend & -ency a That which is dependent on, subject to, something else, b esp a state subordinate to, governed in last resort by, another state
- dependent (I), adj [1 depēndēt, 2 dīpēndēt] depend & -ent 1 Depending, contingent on, governed by 2 a (of persons &c) Relying for support dependent on one's parents, one's earnings &c, b (of financial position) not independent, subordinate, depending on other persons
- dependent (II), dependant, n, fr. prec One who is supported by another, a retainer, vassal, subordinate
- dephlogisticated, adj [1 dēflogīstīkātēd, 2 dīfēdžīstīkātēd] See de- & phlogistic & -ate & -ed (old chem) Deprived of phlogiston, esp dephlogisticated air, name first given to oxygen by its discoverer Priestley
- dephosphorization, n [1 dēfōsforīzāshun, 2 dīfōsforīzēt[ən]] Next word & -ation Process of removing phosphorus
- dephosphorize, vb trans [1 dēfōsforīz, 2 dīfōsforīz] See de- & phosphor(o)- & -ize To remove phosphorus from
- depict, vb trans [1 depīkt, 2 dīpīkt], fr Lat depīct (um), P P type of depingere, 'to portray, sketch, paint, to describe, represent, to embroider', fr de- & pingere, 'to represent in a picture, to paint, colour, to adorn, decorate' See picture a To present a visual image of (an object or event), to draw, paint, sculpture, b to describe (an object or event) in words
- depiction, n [1 depīkshun, 2 dīpīk[ən]] Prec & -ion a The act, process, of depicting, b the drawn, painted, sculptured representation of something, verbal description of anything
- depicture, vb trans [1 depīkchur, 2 dīpīkčə] de- & picture (II) To represent, depict
- deplete, vb trans [1 depīlāt, 2 dīpīlēt], fr Lat depīlāt (um), P P type of depilare, 'to pull out the hair, pluck feathers, of', fr de- & pilus, 'a hair' See pile (VII) To remove hair from
- depletion, n [1 depīlāshun, 2 dīpīlēshən] Prec & -ion The removal of hair
- deplatory, adj & n [1 depīlātōrī, 2 dīpīlātōrī] deplete & -ory n adj. Having effect of removing hair, b n, substance which does this
- deplensish, vb trans [1 depīlēnsh, 2 dīplēn[ən]] fr de- & O Fr -plenir, 'to fill', fr Lat plenus, 'full' See plenish & -ish, & op replenish To remove contents from, reduce contents of, empty
- deplete, vb trans [1 depīlēt, 2 dīpīlēt], fr Lat depīlēt (um), P P type of deplere, 'to empty out, draw off, exhaust', fr de- & plere, 'to fill', Aryan base pel-* 'to fill' See plenish, op complete, replete a To let out contents of, empty, reduce amount of, diminish, exhaust a depleted gas-bag, to deplete one's resources, b specif (med) to relieve congestion
- depletion, n [1 depīlēshun, 2 dīpīlēshən] Prec & -ion a The act or process of depleting, b state of being depleted
- depletive, adj [1 depīlētīv, 2 dīpīlētīv] See deplete & -ive Tending to deplete
- depletory, adj [1 depīlētōrī, 2 dīpīlētōrī] See deplete & -ory Depletive deplorable, adj [1 dɒpləɪəbl̩, 2 dɪpləɪəbl̩] deplorable & -able Of a nature to cause grief, or regret, lamentable, to be regretted, disastrous deplorably, adv Prec & -ly In a deplorable manner, to a deplorable degree deplore, v trans [1 dɪplɔɪ, 2 dɪplɔɪ] Fr deplore, fr Lat dēplōrāre, 'to weep bitterly, wail, to bewail, lament', fr dē- & plōrāre, 'to cry out, cry aloud, to wail, lament', perh imitative See implore, flow a To lament, regret, disapprove, condemn to deplore what has happened, b to feel remorse for to deplore one's former sins and errors deploy (I), v trans & intrans [1 dɪplɔɪ, 2 dɪplɔɪ], fr Fr deployer, fr O Fr dēplēier, 'to spread out' See display (mil) a trans To extend, open out (troops &c), b intrans, to spread out, extend from column into line deploy (II), n, fr prec The act of deploying deployment, n [1 dɪplɔɪmənt, 2 dɪplɔɪmənt] deployment (I) & -ment The act or process of deploying deplume, v trans [1 dɪplʊm, 2 dɪplʊm], fr Fr deplumer See dē- & plumē To pull the feathers out of, pluck depolarization, n [1 dɪpɒləraɪzəʃən, 2 dɪpɒləraɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation a The act or process of depolarizing, b state of being depolarized depolarize, v trans [1 dɪpɒləraɪz, 2 dɪpɒləraɪz] See dē- & polarize 1 a (elect) To destroy the polarity of, b (opt) to deflect, change, the polarization of (rays &c) 2 (fig) To disturb, destroy, upset (convictions &c) depose, v trans & intrans [1 dɪpəʊn, 2 dɪpəʊn], fr Lat dēponere, 'to lay down, set down, put aside, to plant, to entrust, give up, to resign', fr dē- & ponere, 'to put, place, to set up, erect, to appoint, to allege, maintain, to propose' See position (esp in Scots law) To give evidence as a witness in court of law, make statement under oath, to depose deponent (I), adj [1 dɪpəʊnənt, 2 dɪpəʊnənt] See prec & -ent (gram) Deponent verb, in Latin or Greek, originally reflexive, and having a passive form, but active meaning, so called from the idea that these verbs had laid aside their original passive force deponent (II), n, fr prec 1 (law) A person who makes a deposition under oath, in words or writing 2 A deponent verb depopulate, v trans & intrans [1 dɪpɒpjuːlət, 2 dɪpɒpjuːlət], fr Lat dēpopulāt (um), PP type of dēpopulārī, 'to lay waste, plunder', fig 'to waste, destroy, dissipate' See dē- & populate a trans To diminish, drive out, or destroy, population of (an area), b intrans (rare), to become depopulated depopulation, n [1 dɪpɒpjuːləʃən, 2 dɪpɒpjuːləʃən] Prec & -ation a Destruction of population, b decline in population deport (I), v trans [1 dɪpɔɪt, 2 dɪpɔɪt], fr Fr deporter, fr Lat dēportāre, 'to carry off, take away', fr dē- & portāre 'to carry' See next word. To expel, cast out, to carry away, esp to send (persons) out of the country as a punishment, or as undesirable aliens, to banish deport (II), v reflex, fr O Fr deporter, fr dē- & Lat portare, 'to bear, carry, bring, to import, imply, to endure' See port (IV) (obs) Deport oneself, to behave, conduct, demean, oneself deportation, n [1 dɪpɔɪtəʃən, 2 dɪpɔɪtəʃən] See deport (I) & -ation The act or process of deporting, state of being deported, expulsion from a country sentenced to deportation deportment, n [1 dɪpɔɪtmənt, 2 dɪpɔɪtmənt] See deport (II) & -ment 1 (of persons) a Carriage of the body, mode of holding oneself in standing and walking, b manner of behaving, conduct, bearing, demeanour 2. (chem) Manner in which a substance reacts to chemical treatment deposable, adj [1 dɒpəzəbl̩, 2 dɪpəzəbl̩] See depose & -able Capable of being, able to be, deposited depose, v trans [1 dɪpəʊz, 2 dɪpəʊz], fr Fr deposer, fr dē- & poser, 'to place, put, lay down' This word & Ital porre &c are fr Lat ponere, 'to pause, halt, rest', wh in the Romance languages acquired trans force, & then came to mean 'to cause to rest, to lodge, to place' This vb thus took the place of Lat ponere, 'to place', see depose, position, & pose Thus compose, depose, impose &c derive their second element fr ponere (see pause), although the sense is exactly that of Lat ponere, fr ponere The influence of this vb & its PP positum has contributed largely to the change of meaning of the old ponere 1 To remove, oust (a person) from office, specif to remove from position of king, to dethrone 2 To give evidence on oath, as a witness in a court of law, to depose deposit (I), v trans [1 dɪpəzɪt, 2 dɪpəzɪt], fr Lat dēposit (um), PP of dēponere, 'to lay down, to entrust, give up' See depono & cp prec 1 To place, lodge, bring and leave behind, specif a (geol, of a stream &c) to cover with leave as, sediment to deposit soil; b (of birds, insects, fish) to lay (eggs) 2 To entrust for safe keeping, put in charge of, esp to place money or valuables in a bank for security 3 To make a part payment in advance, for goods, or on opening negotiations for a purchase, as a guarantee of future completion of purchase or bargain deposit (II), n, fr prec Something deposited, specif 1 a (geol) solid matter, sand, clay &c held in solution in water and left behind as a coating, or stratum, when the water subsides or dries up, b any thin coating or sediment of solid matter contained in a liquid and deposited upon the sides, or at the bottom, of a vessel, e.g. of a winehottle 2 a Money paid into, entrusted to, a bank, upon which small rate of interest is received, Phr to have, place, money on deposit, b sum of money paid in advance, in business transactions, as a guarantee of good faith.

depository, n [1 dɪpəzɪtəri, 2 dɪpəzɪtəri], fr Lat dēpositarius, 'one who receives a deposit, a trustee, a depositor' See prec & -ary a Person receiving a deposit, b also used for depository deposition, n [1 dɪpəzɪʃən, 2 dɪpəzɪʃən] See depose (I) & -ation 1 The act of depositing, state of being deposited, removal from power 2 (special use) a Taking down of the Saviour from the Cross, b painted or sculptured representation of this 3 State made under oath, sworn testimony, see depono depositor, n [1 dɪpəzɪtɔr, 2 dɪpəzɪtɔr] Lat See deposit (I) & -or a Person who makes a deposit in a bank &c, b person who, or apparatus which, spreads or deposits a substance, such as plaster depository, n [1 dɪpəzɪtɔr, 2 dɪpəzɪtɔr] See deposit (I) & -ory a A place in which things are deposited, a storehouse, b (fig) he, his mind, is a depository of learning

depor n [1 dɪpə, 2 dɪpəʊ] Fr dépôt, fr Lat dēpositum See deposit 1 A place in which goods are deposited, storehouse, headquarters for supply of goods &c 2 (mil) a Regimental headquarters, b part of regiment (usually some of the officers and new recruits) stationed at headquarters while the remainder is on active service 3 (USA) Railway station depravation, n [1 dɪprəvəʃən, 2 dɪprəvəʃən], fr Lat dēprāvātō (em), 'a distorting, corrupting' See deprave & -ation. a The act, process, of depraving, state of being depraved, moral corruption, b (without a moral significance) degeneration, deterioration of any kind deprave, v trans [1 dɪprāv, 2 dɪprāv], fr Lat dēprāvare, 'to distort, disfigure', fig 'to pervert, corrupt', fr dē- & prāvare, 'crooked, misshapen', fig 'pervert, vicious'

See pravity To pervert, corrupt the morals or character of depraved, adj [1 dɪprávd, 2 dɪprévd], fr PP of prec Morally corrupt, perverted, vicious, degenerate depravity, n [1 dɪprávti, 2 dɪprávti] See deprave & -ity a Moral perversion, viciousness, b specif (theol) natural tendency of man to sin deprecate, v trans [1 dɪprekæt, 2 dɪprekæt], fr Lat dēprecāt (um), PP type of dēprecārī, 'to avert by prayer, to pray for, intercede for', fr dē- & precārī, 'to pray, request, beseech' See pray 1 (archaic) To pray, plead, against, seek to prevent, avert, by prayer or entreaty 2 To feel and express disapproval of, argue against the speaker strongly deprecated such rash assumptions, public alarm is much to be deprecated at the present moment deprecatingly, adv [1 dɪprekætɪŋli, 2 dɪprekætɪŋli] Prec Part of prec & -ly So as to express hope of averting by entreaty, disapprovingly deprecation, n [1 dɪprekəʃən, 2 dɪprekəʃən], fr Lat dēprecātō (em), 'a warding off by prayer, a prayer for pardon' See deprecate & -ion The act of deprecating, pleading against, disapproval deprecative, adj [1 dɪprekətɪv, 2 dɪprekətɪv] See deprecate & -ive Expressing deprecation, deprecatory deprecatory, adj [1 dɪprekətɔr, 2 dɪprekətɔr], fr Lat dēprekātōr, dēprekātōr See deprecate & -ory Deprecative depreciate, v trans & intrans [1 dɪpreʃiət, 2 dɪpreʃiət], fr Lat dēpreciāt (um), PP type of dēpreciārī, 'to lower the price of', fig 'to make little of, to disparage', fr dē- & pretium, 'money, that for which something is bought, worth, value, price' See price 1 trans a To lower, diminish the value of, as by rough usage, hard wear, b (fig) to undervalue, disparage, make little of 2 intrans To decline in market value, or in price, to lose quality, or efficiency, as through hard wear depreciatingly, adv [1 dɪpreʃiətɪŋli, 2 dɪpreʃiətɪŋli] Prec Part of prec & -ly In a manner expressing depreciation, disparagingly to speak depreciatingly of depreciation, n [1 dɪpreʃiəʃən, 2 dɪpreʃiəʃən] See prec & -ion 1 The process of depreciating, decline in value Specif a reduction in value of property &c through ordinary wear and tear, b allowance made for this in valuations &c 2 (fig) Disparagement, under estimation depreciatory, adj [1 dɪpreʃiətɔr, 2 dɪpreʃiətɔr] See depreciate & -ory (lit and fig) Tending to depreciate a tendency to reduce value (of objects), b tending to lessen the repute, credit &c (of persons) depreciatory remarks depredation, n [1 dɪpreɪdəʃən, 2 dɪpreɪdəʃən], fr Fr, fr Lat dēpredātō (em), 'a plundering', fr dēpredāt (um), PP type of dēpredārī, 'to rob, plunder, pillage', fr dē- & predārī, 'to plunder, spoil, rob', see predatory, & -ion a Act of laying waste, incursion, plundering, robbery, a specific action of this kind, a theft, a encroachment, inroad, as of the sea on the coast depredator, n [1 dɪpreɪdətɔr, 2 dɪpreɪdətɔr], fr Lat dēpredātōr, 'a robber, plunderer' See prec & -or One who robs, plunders, despoils depress, v trans [1 dɪpreʃ, 2 dɪpreʃ], fr O Fr depresser, fr Low Lat depressare*, fr depress (um), PP type of dēprimere, 'to press down, weigh down, to plant deep, sink deep', fig to depress, deject, to depreciate' See de- & press (I) 1 a (of physical action) To press down, bring into a lever position by pulling or pressing, b (fig) to reduce vigour of, weaken to depress the action of the heart 2 (of action on mind or emotions) To discourage, damp the spirits or courage of, make depressed depressant, adj & n [1 doprésant, 2 doprésant] See pre & -ant (med) 1 adj. A tending so as to depress or lower mental, nervous, or other physical activity, lowering, b sedative, quaternary 2 n Drug, such as various alkaloids, that acts in such a manner depressible, adj [1 doprésabl, 2 doprésibl] See depress & -ible That can be, liable to be, depressed depressing, adj [1 doprésing, 2 doprésing] fr Pres Part of depress Specif tending to depress, discourage, lower the spirits, dismal, gloomy depressingly, adv Pre & -ly In a depressing manner, so as to cause depression depression, n [1 dopreshun, 2 dopreshun] See depress & -ion 1 (of material things) A hollow, dip, concavity, in a surface a depression in the ground 2 (of non material things) A lowness of spirits, gloom, dejection of mind to suffer from depression, b slowness, inactivity, lack of vigour (in trade &c) 3 (nat sc) a (meteor) Lowering of atmospheric pressure, indicated by fall of mercury in barometer, b (astron) angular distance of a heavenly body below horizon depressor, n [1 dopréssor, 2 dopréssor] See depress & -or (anat) Muscle which draws down some part of the body Also depressor muscle deprivable, adj [1 doprévabl, 2 doprévabl] See deprive & -able Liable to suffer deprivation deprivation, n [1 doprévashun, 2 doprévashun] See next word & -ation 1 Act of depriving, of dispossessing, specif (eccles) removal from a benefice, dismissal from office 2 Condition of being deprived of something, sense of loss, bereavement deprive, vb trans [1 dopriv, 2 dopriv] fr O Fr depriver, fr de- & Lat privare, 'to bereave, rob, to free, release' See private (I) 1 a To take something away from a person or thing, prevent use or enjoyment of to deprive a man of his tools, of all hope, of the comforts of his home, of his reason, life &c, to deprive a house of light and air, b to shut off from, dobar from, keep out of to deprive a person of his rights, of permission to enter the house, of the pleasure of one's society &c 2 Specif (eccles) to remove, suspend, from enjoyment of a benefice, from possession of an office or dignity de profundis, adv & n [1 dé profundis, 2 dé profundis] Lat, 'from out of the depths', first words of Psalm 130, in Vulgate See de- & profund 1 adv Out of the depths of sorrow or misery, of cry of despair &c 2 n a (w def art) The 130th Psalm, b (w indef art) any cry of despair or misery, in speech or writing depth, n [1 depth, 2 depp] Cp OE diepe, dēpe, dēopness, later dēppe, formed fr dēpe, 'deep', on anal of hēhpe, 'height', fr hēah, &c ME dēppe, cp Goth diupja See deep & -th 1 Condition of being deep, or at a great distance below surface 2 a The property of being intellectually or morally profound, abstruse, recondite, difficult of comprehension a mind, book, of no great depth, b intensity, fervour depth of feeling, affection &c, c (of colour) strong tone, considerable amount of pigment, intensity, warmth, richness, d (of musical notes) low pitch 3 a Degree of distance below surface, measurement from the surface downwards the depth of the pond is ten feet, a foot in depth, Phr out of one's depth, in water too deep to touch bottom, (fig) beyond one's knowledge, or mental abilities, b degree of distance from front to back, esp of a shelf, c breadth, width, esp of a border, hem, fringe &c 4 (gen pl) Something that is deep, specif a deep olism, abyss, b (poet) deep waters, the sea Phr in the depth(s) of despair, woe, poverty &c, lowest, most intense degree 5 a (of seasons) A central point, the middle of a continuous period in the depth of winter, b the depth of the country, area remote from towns depth charge, n Explosive charge, timed to explode at certain depth below surface of the water, for use against submarines depurate, vb trans [1 dépûrât, 2 dépûrât] fr de- & Lat pûrâre (um), PP type of pûrâre, (very rare) 'to purify by religious rites', fr pûrus, 'clean, pure, natural, unadorned, pure, chaste' See puro (rare) To free from impurities, purify deputation, n [1 dépûrâshun, 2 dépûrâshun] See pre & -ation The act or process of purifying deputative, adj [1 dépûtrâtiv, 2 dépûtrâtiv] See deputate & -ive Tending, serving, to free from impurities, purifying deputation, n [1 dépûtrâshun, 2 dépûtrâshun] See depute & -ation 1 The act of deputing 2 A group of persons appointed to act as deputies or representatives depute, vb trans [1 dépûtr, 2 dépûtr] fr Lat dépûtrâre, orig a gardening term 'to prune, cut back, cut off, to think of, consider, to esteem, count as', fr de- & pûtrâre, 'to trim, prune, to cleanse, to put in order, settle, reckon up, to consider, reflect, to judge, think, behave' See putation a To appoint one or more persons to act as representative of others, entrust them, as agents, with certain duties and functions, b (of duties, functions &c) to transfer, delegate, performance of to others deputize, vb intrans [1 dépûtriz, 2 dépûtriz] See next word & -ize To act as a deputy for deputy, n [1 dépûtr, 2 dépûtr] fr Fr dépûtré, PP of dépûtré See depute & -y 1 One who acts for another and takes his place in performance of duties, one to whom another's functions and duties have been deputed, one who represents another by his presence on a special occasion 2 Parliamentary representative in France &c, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, the lower house of the Legislature deracinate, vb trans [1 dérâsinât, 2 dérâsinât] fr Fr dérâcinier, fr de- & Low Lat radicina, dimin of radix, 'a root', hence 'that on which something rests, a foundation, foot', fig 'basis, origin, source' See radix, radical, & -ate (lit and fig) To pull up, tear out, by the roots, extirpate entirely derail, vb trans [1 dérâil, 2 dérâil] fr Fr dérâiller See de- & rail (IV) (railway and tram) To cause to leave the rails (usually in pass) the engine was derailed derailment, n [1 dérâilment, 2 dérâilment] See pre & -ment The process of derailing, state of being derailed derange, vb trans [1 dérâinj, 2 dérâinj] fr Fr déranger, 'put out of order, disturb', fr de- & ranger, 'to put in order, put into position', see rango (I) 1 To put into disorder, upset, disturb, disorganize 2 (of action on the mind) To upset mental balance of, disturb mentally, cause to become insane, esp to be, become, (mentally) deranged derangement, n [1 dérâinjment, 2 dérâinjment] See pre & -ment A the act of deranging, specif b the process of becoming, state of being, mentally deranged derate, vb trans [1 dérât, 2 dérât] de- & rate (I) To relieve (industries &c) from the burden of local rates by an Act, known as the Derating Act, 1929

Derby, n [1 dârbî, 2 dârbî] fr the name of the founder, the 12th Earl of Derby (1780) A horse race for three year olds, held annually at Epsom, usually on the first Wednesday in June, known as Derby Day derelict, adj & n [1 dérêlikt, 2 dérêlikt] fr Lat dérêlict (um), PP type of dérêlinquere, 'to forsake, abandon, to bequeath', fr de- & relinquere, 'to leave behind, to bequeath, to forsake, abandon, to resign, relinquish' See relinquish a adj Abandoned as worthless, b n, something which has been abandoned as worthless and useless, esp of ship at sea, also extended to things or persons that are old and worn out dereliction, n [1 dérêliktshun, 2 dérêliktshun] fr Lat dérêlictio (em), 'an abandoning, neglect, disregarding' See pre & -ion 1 a The act of abandoning, state or process of being abandoned, specif b neglect, failure to carry out a task &c, remissness a dereliction of duty 2 Land permanently exposed by retreat of the sea deride, vb trans [1 dérîd, 2 dérîd] fr Lat dérîdere, 'to laugh to scorn, mock at', fr de- & ridere, 'to laugh, smile' See risible a To mock, ridicule, laugh scornfully at, (more commonly) b to have, and express, contempt for, to hold of small account derision, n [1 dérîzhun, 2 dérîzhun] fr Lat dérîsiôn (em), 'a mockery, derision', fr deris (um), PP type of dérîdere, 'to laugh to scorn' See deride 1 a The act of deriding, ridicule, contempt an object of derision, b state or process of being derided to hold in derision, to be in derision 2 (arabes) That which is derided, object of derision derisive, adj [1 dérîsiv, 2 dérîsiv] See pre & -ive a Expressing ridicule, mocking, ironical derisive laughter, b deserving derision, unavailing, futile, inadequate derisive attempts derisively, adv Pre & -ly In a manner expressing derision, mockingly derisory, adj [1 dérîsôrî, 2 dérîsôrî] See derision & -ory Derisive, ironical derisory applause, laughter derivable, adj [1 dérîvabl, 2 dérîvabl] derive & -able Capable of being derived derivation, n [1 dérîvâshun, 2 dérîvâshun] See derive & -ation 1 Process of deriving or being derived 2 a That from which something is derived; source, origin, esp and specif b the etymology, origin, of words, process of tracing back to earliest form and primary meaning derivative, adj & n [1 dérîvativ, 2 dérîvativ] See next word & -ative a adj Not original, secondary, derived from something else, b n, that which is derived from, developed out of, capable of being traced back to, something else derive, vb trans & intrans [1 dériv, 2 dériv] fr Fr dérivier, fr Lat dérivare, 'to turn or draw off (liquid), to disperse', fig 'to divert', fr de- & rivus, 'a small stream' See river A trans 1 To obtain, get, draw, from, as a source or origin to derive one's fortune from trade, one's character from one's father &c 2 To trace source or origin back to to derive a family from the Conqueror, to derive a word from such and such a base, to show the gradual path of development from a given starting-point B intrans Derive from, to have as source, to spring, be derived, from English derives in the main from the common Germanic stock derma(a), n [1 dêrm(a), 2 dâm(a)] fr Gk dêrma, 'skin', connected w dêrô, 'I flay', & -ma Cp Gk dôrd, 'skin', Sort dêrîs, 'leather', related to dêrîd, Prot (dârdura, 'to split in pieces', Lith (nu)dirtas, 'flayed', Goth (dêrî)hrim, 'to tear to pieces', O H G (ir)zeran, OE teran, 'to tear' (see tear (I)), O Slav dêrj, Lith dêrj, 'to flay' The skin, esp the true skin, or inner layer below epidermis

-derm, suff, meaning 'skin, covering' &c, fr pre Cp ectoderm &c dermal, adj [1 dêrmal, 2 dâm(al)] derma(a) & -al Pertaining to the skin & -al Pertaining to the skin dermatologist, n [1 dêrmatîst, 2 dâm(tîst)] fr derma(a) & -logist A specialist in the treatment of diseases of the skin dermatology, n [1 dêrmatîstîk, 2 dâm(tîstîk)] fr derma(a) & -logy The study of the skin dermatitis, n [1 dêrmatîstîs, 2 dâm(tîstîs)] Gk dermat (see pre) & -itis Inflammation of, eruption on, the true skin dermatologist, n [1 dêrmatîst, 2 dâm(tîst)] Gk derma(a) & -logist A specialist in the treatment of diseases of the skin dermatography, n [1 dêrmatîstîgrafi, 2 dâm(tîstîstîgrafi)] See dermatology & -graphy Anatomical description of the skin dermatoid, adj [1 dĕrmatoid, 2 dāmatoid] See dermato- & -oid. Resembling, made of, skin dermatologist, n [1 dĕrmatolōjist, 2 dāma, tladjist] See next word & -ist Skin specialist, student of the (human) skin and its diseases dermatology, n [1 dĕrmatolōji, 2 dāmatoj ledži] See dermato- & -logy Special study of the skin, its diseases &c dermato-skeleton, n [1 dĕrmatō ekēlōton, 2 dāmatosekēlōton] dermato-&-skeleton. The hard outer covering of crustaceans and of many insects &c dermic, adj [1 dĕrmik, 2 dāmik] See derm(a) & -ic Dermal dermo-, pref, fr derm(a) Same as dermato- dermier ressort, n [1 dārmā resōr, 2 dāma nēs resō] Fr, dermier, 'last', fr O Fr derrenmier, see darren, & ressort, see resort (II) Last expedient, resource derogate, vb intrans [1 dĕrogāt, 2 dĕrogēt], fr Lat dērogat (um), P.P type of dērogare, 'to repeal (part of a law), restrict, to remove, detract from, to disparage' See de- & rogation To take away, remove (a merit, good quality) from, to lessen, detract from to derogate from a man's reputation derogation, n [1 dĕrogāshun, 2 dĕrogēshun] See de- & -ion. Injury to, lessening, harming (of dignity, authority &c) derogatory, adj [1 dĕrogatōri, 2 dĕrj-gatōri] See derogate & -ory Tending to lessen, impair, disparage, discredit actions derogatory to one's dignity &c derrick, n [1 dĕrik, 2 dĕrik], fr name of a haugman in early 18th cent a (obs) Galleys, b a kind of movable crane, apparatus for hoisting heavy weights, esp on to or from a ship derring-do, n [1 dĕring dō, 2 dĕrj dō] Used by Spenser as n, through a misunderstanding of Chaucer's 'In dorryng dōn that longyth loe knyght', 'm daring to do that which &c' Revived by Scott See dare & do (I) Rockless courage, valiant action derringer, n [1 dĕrjŋr, 2 dĕrjŋdz], fr name of inventor A small pocket-pistol with short barrel and large bore derwish, n [1 dĕrvish, 2 dāvij] Pers darvish, 'poor' 1 A member of a Mohammedan order of mendicant monks, vowed to a life of poverty dancing, howling, derwish 2 One of the fanatical followers of the Sndan ese Mahdi descant (I), n [1 dĕskant, 2 dĕskānt], fr O Fr descant, fr Low Lat descantus, fr dis- & cantus, 'a melody, song' See chant (in ant mus) A song, melody, speef, a variation on the main air in plain song, sung or played as an accompaniment to it, an early form of counterpoint descant (II), vb intrans [1 dĕskānt, 2 dĕskānt], fr O Fr descantier, fr Low Lat discantare, fr dis- & cantāre, 'to sing' See prec a (mus) To sing, play, the descant to the main air, b to talk at length, hold forth, enlarge upon a topic in conversation descend, vb intrans & trans [1 dĕsĕnd, 2 dĕsĕnd], fr O Fr descendre fr Lat dēscendere, intrans, 'to come down, sink', fig 'to lower oneself', fr de- & scandere, 'to climb, go up' See scan A intrans 1 a To take a downward course, move downwards, proceed, fall, to lower level come down to descend from a hill top, a balloon descended in our field b to incline slope downwards the hill descends by a gradual slope to the plain 2 a (of persons) Descend from, to derive descent from, have as ancestor he descends, is descended, from the Conqueror, b (of property, and physical and mental qualities) to pass by inheritance, be transmitted the land descends to the eldest son, parental characters descend to offspring 3 (only in Pres Part) Descending scale, diminishing in number, extent, pitch &c B trans 1 to traverse, pass along, or over, from higher to lower point in space, go down go downwards into to descend a hill, a flight of elavrs, to descend a mine. C Followed by prepositions Descend to, (fig) a to come down, stoop, lower oneself to something to descend to fraud, b to come, pass on to descend to particulars Descend upon, a to attack suddenly, fall upon to descend upon an unprotected village, a sleeping enemy &c, b (fig) (i) to visit suddenly and unexpectedly to descend upon one's friends with a large party, (ii) to alight on, etrko his master's anger descended upon him descendable, adj [1 dĕsĕndabl, 2 dĕsĕndabl] descend & -able That can be conveyed as inheritance, passed on to an heir descendant, n [1 dĕsĕndant, 2 dĕsĕndant] descend & -ant A person, animal, or thing descended from another as ancestor or prototype descendible, adj [1 dĕsĕndibl, 2 dĕsĕndibl] descend & -ible Descendable descent, n [1 dĕsĕnt, 2 dĕsĕnt], fr O Fr descenta, fr descendre See descend 1 The act of descending, especif a (physical) a going or coming down a descent with a parachute, b a downward slope, gradual fall, incline the land slopes to the sea by a gradual descent, c (fig) a descent from the sublime to the ridiculous 2 A sudden attack, invasion a descent upon a village 3 A Ancestry, lineage a distinguished, ancient, descent, b inheritance to acquire a title by descent, c transmission descent of property in female line, descent of ancestral characters describable, adj [1 dĕskribabl, 2 dĕskribabl] Next word & -able That can be described describe, vb trans [1 dĕskrib, 2 dĕskrob], fr Lat dēscribere, 'to write down, copy, to draw, sketch', fig 'to represent, describe', fr de- & scribere, 'to write' See scribe 1 To state, depict, in speech or writing what a person, object &c, is like, give an account of, enumerate characteristic features of to describe a man, a landscape &c 2 (geom) To mark out, draw to describe a circle, a triangle description, n [1 dĕskripshun, 2 dĕskripshun], fr Lat dēscript (um), P.P type of dēscribere See describe & -ion 1 The act or process of describing 2 An account, enumeration, recital, report, of the characteristics, appearance, chief qualities, of a person, or thing a description of a landscape, a storm, a person's appearance &c, no one answering to that description 3 A group, class of things possessing well marked features in common, sort, kind no clothes of any description, a man of that description, a speech of the poorest description descriptive, adj [1 dĕskriptiv, 2 dĕskriptiv], fr Lat dēscript (um) See prec & -ive a Serving to, intended to, describe descriptive writing &c, b given to, skilled in, describing a descriptive writer descriptively, adv Pres & -ly In a descriptive manner descri, vb trans [1 dĕskri, 2 dĕskru], fr O Fr descrier, fr Lat dēscribere, 'to inquire carefully, investigate', fr dis- & querere, 'to seek, inquire' See query To make out, be able to see, perceive distantly, discern, (poet) to see desecrate, vb trans [1 dĕskrāt, 2 dĕskreit], fr de- & Lat secrat (um), formed on anal of consecrate To violate the sacredness of, profane, to deprive of sacred character desecration, n [1 dĕskrāshun, 2 dĕskreitshun] Pres & -ation A The act or process of desecrating, b state of being desecrated desert (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dĕzert, 2 dĕzīt], fr O Fr deserter, fr Low Lat dēserire, fr desert (um), P.P type of dēserere, 'to forsake, abandon', fr de- & serere, 'to join' See series 1 trans a To give up, abandon, forsake, leave neglected (esp that which has a claim on one) to desert one's post, ship, family &c, b to fail, leave his self-assurance deserted him 2 intrans Specif (mil. and nav) to leave, abscond from service, in the army or navy, without permission.

desert (II), adj [1 dĕzert, 2 dĕzāt], fr O Fr deserte, P.P of deserter See prec Uninhabited, waste, desolate a desert island, a desert place &c desert (III), n [1 dĕzert, 2 dĕzāt], fr prec. a A wild, waste, uninhabited place or region, a wilderness, especif, tract of arid country covered with sand, b (poet, archaic) lonely, retired, quiet place, the country, as contrasted with the busy town 'In vain to desert thy retreat is made' (Pope), c (fig) arid, unfruitful, dull subject or mind desert (IV), n [1 dĕzārt, 2 dĕzīt], fr O Fr desert, P.P of deservir See deserve 1 Merit, qualities deserving praise or reward to recognize real desert when one meets it, his desert is small 2 What is deserved, earned, by qualities, character, conduct, whether reward for good, or punishment for evil, esp to meet with, obtain, one's deserts deserter, n [1 dĕzīrtēr, 2 dĕzītēr], fr desort (I) & -er a One who deserts, abandons, forsakes, a person or cause having a claim on him, especif b one who deserts from the army or navy desertion, n [1 dĕzīrshun, 2 dĕzītshun], fr desert (I) & -ion 1 The act of deserting, especif a from army or navy, b of a wife and children by husband, as ground for judicial separation &c 2 State of being deserted.

deserve, vb trans & intrans [1 dĕzĕrv, 2 dĕzīv], fr O Fr deservir, fr Lat dēservire, 'to serve diligently, be devoted to', fr de- & servire, 'to serve' See serve 1 trans. a To earn, become entitled to, have a claim to, by reason of qualities, actions &c to deserve a reward, deserve to be punished &c, b to claim, be of such a character as to justify, be worthy of, warrant &c to deserve attention. 2 intrans To be worthy of, to merit to deserve well, ill, of a person deservedly, adv [1 dĕzĕrvdli, 2 dĕzīvvdli], fr P.P of prec & -ly In accordance with what one deserves, justly to be deservedly praised, punished deserving, adj [1 dĕzĕrvjng, 2 dĕzīvjng]. Pres Part of deserve Having merit, worthy of reward, help &c a deserving case.

deshabille See dishabille desiccate, vb trans & intrans [1 dĕ, dĕskāt, 2 dĕ, dĕskait], fr Lat dēscāt (um), P.P. type of dēscāre, 'to dry up completely', fr de- & scāre, 'to make dry, drain', fr siccus, 'dry', see siccative 1 trans a To dry up, extract all moisture from, b specif, to reduce to powdered form by extraction of moisture desiccated milk. 2 intrans. To become completely dry desiccation, n [1 dĕ, dĕskāshun, 2 dĕ, dĕskāshun] See prec & -ation A Act or process of desiccating, b state of being desiccated.

desiccative, adj [1 dĕskātiv, 2 dĕskātiv]. See desiccate & -ive Tending to dry up, remove moisture from a substance desiderate, vb trans [1 dĕsiderāt, 2 dĕsiderēt], fr Lat dēsiderat (um), P.P type of dēsiderare, 'to feel the want of' See desire (I) To recognize as missing, yet necessary, to feel lack of, and desire to acquire, or supply desiderative, adj & n [1 dĕsiderativ, 2 dĕsiderativ] See prec & -ive a adj Expressing desire, (esp gram, of verbs) expressing a desire to perform a particular action, as esurio, 'I desire to eat, am hungry', b n, (gram) a desiderative verb desideratum, pl desiderata, n [1 dĕsiderātum, 2 dĕsiderāt(m)] Lat neut P.P of dēsiderare See desire (I) Something felt to be lacking, and therefore deemed as necessary, an acknowledged want design (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dĕzjŋ, 2 dĕzjŋ], fr Fr dēsijner, fr Lat dēsijgnāre, 'to mark out, define, to portray, depict', fig 'to indicate, point out, to appoint, elect', fr de- & signāre, 'to mark out, mark with a token' See sign A trans 1 (of mental act) a To plan out, construct a plan or scheme for, conceive main outline of to design a book, musical composition &c b to select, destine, intend (a person or thing for a particular purpose) to design one's son for, to be, a soldier, to design a room as a billiard-room 2 (of physical act) To make, draw a plan of, to invent pattern for a material object to design a mode of decoration, a rock garden, dress &c 3 intrans To construct designs, to be a designer design (II), n, fr pres 1 (of non-material things) A scheme, plan, something planned out in one's mind, specif a the general outline, construction, of a work of art or literature, b set, deliberate, purpose or intention by design and not by accident, c nefarious, sinister, intention or purpose against, scheme for injuring to have designs on, against, a person 2 (of material things) a Sketch, plan, pattern, or scheme drawn out, for some object to be constructed a design for a dress, building &c, b qualities of inventiveness, sense of proportion, suitable arrangement of parts &c, for beauty or use, exhibited by any constructed work a picture, building, lacking design, a machine of excellent design &c designate (I), vb trans [1 désignât, 2 désignent], fr Lat dēsignā(um), PP type of dēsignāre, 'to mark out, to indicate, appoint, elect' See design (I) a To point out, indicate, mark out, show clearly, b to nominate for appointment to an office, select for special duty &c designate (II), adj [1 désignat, 2 désigné] - See pres Appointed to an office, designated bishop designate designation, n [1 désignâshun, 2 désignâshun] See designate (I) & -ion a The act of designating, state of being designated, nominated, appointed, b that which marks out, distinguishes, esp particular, distinctive name designedly, adv [1 dézinedli, 2 dizáinidli] PP of design (I) & -ly According to plan, of set purpose, by design, contrasted with accidentally designer, n [1 déziner, 2 dizáine] design (I) & -er a One who designs, esp one who invents plans from which things are constructed, decorated &c, b (in bad sense) a schemer, sinister, underhand, plotter designing, adj [1 dézining, 2 dizáining] fr Pres Part of design (I) Artful, scheming, having sinister and interested motives for one's actions desilverize, vb trans [1 désilveriz, 2 desilveriz] fr de- & silver & -ize To remove silver from (esp lead) desinence, n [1 désinens, 2 desinens] fr Lat dēsinerē, 'to cease, desist, to end, terminate', & -ence, dēsinerē is fr de- & inere, 'to set down, leave, to allow, permit', cogn w Gk εἰς (fr ewjō*), 'I allow, let alone', Aryan base s₂-, s₁-, 'to leave, leave off, cease', other cognates are Sort u-syah, 'stops, ceases, rests', sūtā, 'conclusion, close', also Lat se-rus, 'late' (see since), se-lere, 'to be silent' (see silent) See also seed, sow (II) (rare) a End, discontinuance, b grammatical termination, suffix desipience, n [1 désipiens, 2 désipiens] fr Lat dēsipientia, fr dēsipere, 'to act foolishly', fr de- & sapere, 'to taste, have a sense of taste, to have sense, be wise', see sapient, & -ence Foolish trifling, silliness desirability, n [1 dézirabilita, 2 dizáirabilita] See next word & -ity The quality of being desirable desirable, adj [1 dézirabl, 2 dizáirabl] See desire (I) & -able To be desired, provoking desire, worth having desirableness, n Pres & -ness The quality of being desirable desirably, adv See pres & -ly In a desirable manner desire (I), vb trans [1 dézir, 2 dizáie] fr Fr désirer, fr Lat dēsiderāre, 'to feel the want of', etymol doubtful, usually referred to de- & sider-(s), sider, 'star', cp consider

1 To wish, long for ardently, hanker after, yearn for, feel strong craving for 2 To express a wish, to request, command that a person should do something I desire you to go at once, please desire Mr Jones to come in desire (II), n, fr pres 1 a Strong longing, craving, appetite, powerful wish to obtain, or enjoy something to have a desire for a glass of beer, Phr to have no desire for, or to do, not to want, to prefer not to, b specif, sexual appetite 2 Wish, hope, which has been expressed, request in accordance with your desire(s), I enclose a cheque &c 3 That which is earnestly longed for, object of desire the World's Desire desirous, adj [1 dézirus, 2 dizáirus] See piec & -ous Feeling a desire for, having a wish to obtain, or to do something desirous of success, desirous to succeed desist, vb intrans [1 dézist, 2 dizáist] fr Fr, fr Lat dēsistere, orig 'to stand aside, to abandon, etop, leave off', fr de- & stare, 'to cause to stand, place, to cause to appear (esp in a law-court), to stop, arrest, fix in position, to stand fast', redupl form of base sta-*, wh appears in Lat sta-re, 'to stand' See state (I), stand (I), stance To stop, cease, discontinue action, construction a to desist from doing, from attempts &c, b it is no good, so you had better desist &c desk, n [1 desk, 2 desk] ME deske, 'a desk, table, pulpit', fr Low Lat desca, 'a desk, table', fr Lat discus, 'a quort', hence (fr the shape) 'a kind of dish' See disk. a One of various kinds of pieces of furniture, in the form of a table to write at, sometimes made to ebt with a movable flap knee-hole, roll-top, desk Phr to sit at the desk, be engaged in writing, employed as a clerk, b portable box of wood, either polished and bound with brass, or covered with leather, and fitted with a lock, for holding writing materials, letters, and documents desman, n [1 désman, 2 désman] Swed, 'musk' A small mole like aquatic mammal, of Ruana and Pyreneas desolate (I), vb trans [1 désolat, 2 désolent] fr Lat dēsolat(um), PP type of dēsolare, 'to make solitary, strip of inhabitants', fr de- & solus, 'alone, lonely, forsaken, solitary, (of places) unfrequented' See sole (IV) a To lay waste, devastate to desolate a country &c, to make lonely (a home, hearth &c), b to make lonely, sad, leave forlorn (a person, a heart) desolate (II), adj [1 désolat, 2 désolent] See pres a (of land &c) Waste, uninhabited, desert, dismal, b (of buildings, home) neglected, forsaken, wretched, c (of persons) forlorn, lonely, abandoned desolately, adv Pres & -ly In a desolate manner desolateness, n See pres & -ness The state of being desolate desolation, n [1 désolâshun, 2 désolâshun] See desolate & -ion a The act of desolating (a country &c), b the state of being desolate, loneliness, misery despair (I), vb intrans [1 déspâr, 2 déspâr] ME desperren, desperren, fr O Fr desperer, fr Lat dēsperâre, 'to be hopeless, have no hope of', fr de- & spërâre, 'to hope', fr spërâ, 'hope' The orig meaning has been conjectured as 'to draw a breath of relief', or 'to hold one's breath from anticipation, excitement' &c, & that this word is cogn w Lat spirâre, 'to breathe, blow' See spirant, spirit To lose hope, be entirely without hope, to expect no improvement in circumstances (with of and absol) to despair of success, his life was despaired of despair (II), n, fr pres a Entire absence of hope, hopelessness, Phr the depths of despair, b that which causes despair to be the despair of one's friends despairingly, adv [1 déspâringli, 2 déspâringli] Pres Part of despair (I) & -ly In a manner expressive of despair.

despatch See dispatch desperado, n [1 déspêradô, 2 déspêradou] O Span, adj, fr Lat dēsperâsus See desperate A ruthless, reckless, villain, an unscrupulous ruffian desperate, adj [1 dépêrit, 2 dépêrit] fr Lat dēsperâsus, 'hopeless, despaired of' See despair (I) a Beyond hope, extremely serious, with no prospect of amelioration a desperate state of affairs, his condition is desperate, b wildly reckless, violent with the strength of despair, driven to extremity a desperate struggle, a desperate criminal desperately, adv Pres & -ly In a desperate manner desperateness, n See pres & -ness The state of being desperate desperation, n [1 dépêrdishun, 2 dépêrdishun] fr Lat dēsperâtion(em), 'hopelessness, despair', fr dēsperâre, 'to despair' See despair (I) & -tion. a The state of being desperate, b recklessness due to despair, c (colloq) state of considerable excitement, irritation, violent rage to drive a person to desperation, make him very angry despicable, adj [1 dépikâbl, 2 dépikâbl] fr Fr, fr L Lat dépiciâbilis, 'despicable', fr dépiciere, 'to look down on, to despise', fr de- & specere, 'to look at', see despise, & -able Worthy of being despised, mean, contemptible despicably, adv Pres & -ly In a despicable manner despise, vb trans [1 dépiz, 2 dépiz] ME despien, fr O Fr despiu, fr despire, 'to despise', fr dépiciere, 'to look down on, to despise', fr de- & specere, 'to look at', see despise, & -able Worthy of being despised, mean, contemptible despite (I), n [1 déspit, 2 déspit] fr O Fr déspit, fr Lat dēspectus, 'a looking down, view from above', fig 'scorn, contempt', fr PP type of dépiciere, 'to look down on, despise' See despise, spite a Malice, spite, scorn, contempt, Phr in spite of, notwithstanding, in spite of, b (arohan) malicious act, injury to act in one's own despite despite (II), prep, fr pres Notwithstanding, in spite of despite our efforts &c despiteful, adj [1 déspitfûl, 2 déspitfûl] See despite (I) & -ful (arohan) Spiteful despitefully, adv Pres & -ly (arohan) Spitefully, maliciously despoil, vb trans [1 déspôil, 2 déspôil] fr O Fr despoiller, fr Lat dēsphôire, 'to rob, plunder', fr de- & spôire, 'to strip of clothing', hence in general, 'to rob, despoil', See spoil (II) To deprive by robbery, plunder, strip, bereave, take away by force despoliation, n [1 déspôlishun, 2 déspôlishun] fr O Fr despoliation, Lat dēsphôia(um), PP of dēsphôire, 'to rob' See de- & spôlation The act or process of despoiling, the state of being despoiled.

despond (I), vb intrans [1 déspônd, 2 déspônd] fr Lat dēspond(ere), 'to promise, pledge', esp 'to promise in marriage, to give up, devote to, resign, to lose courage', fr de- & spondere, 'to promise, bind oneself, to vow' See sponsion, respond To be depressed, dejected, to lose hope and courage despond (II), n, fr pres (obs) State of discouragement, dejection, despondency Phr slough of Despond (Bunyan, 'Pilgrim's Progress') despondency, n [1 déspôndensi, 2 déspôndensi] despond (I) & -ency The state of being despondent, dejection of mind and spirits despondent, adj [1 déspôndent, 2 déspôndent] despond (I) & -ent Inclined to despond, lacking in hope and courage, dejected, gloomy, despairing despondently, adv Pres & -ly In a despondent manner despondingly, adv [1 déspôndingli, 2 déspôndingli] Pres Part of despond (I) & -ly Despondently despot, n [1 désot, 2 désot] O Fr, fr Gk despōtēs, orig 'lord of a household', hence 'a master, owner, lord', esp 'an absolute ruler'. The first element is prob fr dēus*, 'a house', cp, Lat domus, 'house'. See domus & words there referred to. The second element is fr same word as Gk pōtēs, 'lord, husband', wh stands for pōtēs*, op Lat pōtēs, 'capable, powerful' &c, also potius, 'to be master', & posse, 'to be able', cogn w, Goth faps, 'lord'. See potent, power, possible. 1 One who governs with absolute and uncontrolled authority. 2 One who abuses his power as a ruler, a tyrant.

despotic, adj [1 despōtik, 2 despōtik], fr Gk despōtikos, 'pertaining to a master, exercising despotic power, tyrannical'. See prec & -ic. Pertaining to a despot, having absolute power, hence, b tyrannical.

despotically, adv [1 despōtikali, 2 despōtik ali] Prec & -ly In a despotic manner, as a despot.

despotism, n [1 despōtizm, 2 despōtizm] despot & -ism. A Government by a despot, b methods of despotic government, tyranny, c state governed by a despot.

despotist, n [1 despōtist, 2 despōtist] despot & -ist. One in favour of despotism.

desquamate, vb trans & intrans [1 déskwamēt, 2 déskwamēt], fr Lat dēsquā māt (um), PP type of dēsquāmare, 'to scale, peel off', fr de- & squāma, 'scale', etymol doubtful. A trans To cause to peel, throw off, skn. B intrans (of skn) To peel off in scales.

desquamation, n [1 déskwamēshun, 2 déskwamēshun] Prec & -ion. The process of desquamating.

desquamatory, adj [1 déskwamatori, 2 déskwamatori] See prec & -ory. Causing desquamation.

dessert, n [1 dezērt, 2 dixāt], fr O Fr desserte, fr desservir, 'to clear the table', fr Lat dis- & servire, 'to be a servant to, serve'. See serve. A course, consisting of fruit, sweets &c served at the end of dinner.

dessert-spoon, n A spoon of medium size, holding about twice as much as a teaspoon.

destination, n [1 destīnāshun, 2 destīnēshun] See next word & -ation. The place to which a person or thing is going, or being sent, place or spot which one aims at reaching.

destine, vb trans [1 déstan, 2 destīn], fr O Fr destiner, fr Lat destinare, 'to fasten securely, to fix, determine, appoint, to aim at', fr de- & stānare, 'to place firmly', fr Aryan base stā*, 'to stand'. See stand (I) estate (I), & words there referred to. See also obstinately. To determine the future of, decree, intend, fore ordain (of decrees of God, Fate, and result of circum stances) destined never to meet, destined for the Church.

destiny, n [1 déstini, 2 déstini], fr O Fr destinee, fr Lat destināt (um), 'a mark, aim, a design, purpose', fr PP of destinare, 'to fix securely, to appoint, destine'. See prec & -ion. Pre ordained fate, course of life, appointed lot. a strange, a fortunate, destiny, b personification of the force or power which determines fate, Providence.

desist, adj [1 déstīt, 2 déstīt], fr Lat dēstīt (um), PP type of dēstītere, 'to set down, to leave, desert, forsake, to dis appoint, defraud', fr de- & stātere, 'to cause to stand, put, place, to determine, decide'. See statute. A In want, in estate of poverty, deprived of means of support. to be left destitute, also as noun, the destitute, a (followed by of) without, lacking in, not possessing. destitute of good feeling &c.

destitution, n [1 déstītshun, 2 déstītshun] fr Lat dēstītūshō (em), 'a forsaking'. See prec & -ion. The state of being destitute, forsaken, unrelieved want, absolute poverty.

destroyer, n [1 destrōier, 2 destrōier] O Fr destruer 'a war horse', fr Low Lat destruere, 'lod by the hand'. See dexter & -ary (archaic) A war horse, charger.

destroy, vb trans [1 destrōi, 2 destrōi] M L destruere, destruere, fr O Fr destruere, fr Low Lat destruere, fr destruere (um), PP type of destruere, 'to pull down, tear to pieces', fig 'to ruin, weaken', fr de- & struere, 'to pile up, to build, construct'. See structure, construct (of action on both material and non material things). To bring to nothing, ruin, pull, crush, to pieces, sweep away, annihilate. to destroy a town, a cobweb, a person's plans, hopes, dreams &c. destroyable, adj [1 destrōiabl, 2 destrōiabl] Prec & -able. Capable of being destroyed, destructible.

destroyer, n [1 destrōier, 2 destrōier] destroy & -er. One who, that which, destroys. Specif (nav, also torpedo boat destroyer) a class of small fast warships carrying torpedoes, used for attacking torpedo boats and submarines.

destructibility, n [1 destruktibiliti, 2 destruktibiliti] See next word & -ity. The quality of being destructible.

destructible, adj [1 destruktibl, 2 destruktibl], fr Lat destruere (um), PP type of destruere, 'to pull down, pull to pieces'. See destroy & -ible. Capable of being destroyed, liable to destruction.

destruction, n [1 destruktshun, 2 destruktshun], fr Lat destruere (em), 'a pulling down, destroying', fr destruere (um) (see prec) & -ion. A the act or process of destroying, state of being destroyed, ruin, b that which destroys, causes ruin, downfall of. overconfidence was his destruction.

destructive, adj [1 destruktiv, 2 destruktiv] See prec & -ive. A Tending to destroy, harmful, b given to destroying, aiming at, liable to cause, destruction.

destructively, adv Prec & -ly In a destructive manner.

destructiveness, n See prec & -ness. Quality of being destructive.

destructor, n [1 destruktōr, 2 destruktōr], fr Lat destruere (um) (see destruction) & -or. That which, who, destroys, specif, a furnace for destroying rubbish.

desuetude, n [1 désuētūd, 2 désuētūd] fr Fr, fr Lat dēsuetūdō, 'disuse, discontinuance', fr dēsuet (um), PP type of dēsuescere, 'to discontinue, give up use of', fr de- & suescere, 'to become accustomed to', fr sues, 'to be accustomed', lit 'to make one's own', fr Aryan base sue*, 'one's own, pertaining to oneself'. Cp Gk ethos, 'habit, custom', fr sue*, op Scrt sudhā, 'custom'. See ethic & sui, & op consuetude. The state of being disused, of being no longer practised, discontinuance. to fall into desuetude (of a custom, practice &c). desulphurization, n [1 désulfurizāshun, 2 désulfurizēshun] See next word & -ation. The act of desulphurizing.

desulphurize, vb trans [1 désulfuriz, 2 désulfuriz] See de- & sulphur & -ize. To remove sulphur from.

desultory, adv [1 désultōri, 2 désalteri] desultory & -ly In a desultory manner.

desultorness, n [1 désultōrnes, 2 désalteri] See next word & -ness. Quality of being desultory.

desultory, adj [1 désultōr, 2 désalteri], fr Lat dēsultōrius, 'pertaining to a circus rider', fr dēsultōr, 'one who leaps, vaults', esp 'a circus rider', fr dēsult (um), PP type of dēsultare, 'to loop down', fr de- & salire, 'to spring, leap, bound'. See salient (of mental or physical activity). Passing abruptly from one activity to another, disconnected, not continuous, unmethodical, aimless.

desynonymize, vb trans [1 désanōnimiz, 2 désinōnimiz] See de- & synonym & -ize. To cause (words) to become differentiated in meaning.

detach, vb trans [1 detāch, 2 detāch], fr Fr détacher, fr de- & Romance tacca, 'a nail', fr Gmo tal*. See tack (I). a To unfasten, separate, b (mil. and nav) to despatch (ship or body of troops) on special service.

detachable, adj [1 detāchabl, 2 detāchabl] Prec & -able. Capable of being detached, unfastened.

detached, adj [1 detācht, 2 detācht] PP of detach. a (of concrete objects) Separate, distinct, standing alone, not directly connected with something else. a detached house, b (of mental states) unbiased, impartial, not swayed by exterior influences, impersonal. a detached mind, view, opinion.

detachedly, adv [1 detāchēli, 2 detāchtli] Prec & -ly In a detached manner.

detachment, n [1 detāchment, 2 detāchment] detach & -ment. 1 The act or process of detaching, state of being detached, esp of mental states, mental isolation, aloofness, dissociation from surroundings. an air of detachment. 2 That which is detached, specif (mil and nav) a number of troops, ships &c detached from main body for special service.

detail (I), vb trans [1 detāil, 2 detāil], fr Fr détailler, fr de- & tailer, 'to cut'. See tally, tailor. 1 To make a minute and particular report of, relate full details of. to detail one's adventures. 2 (mil) To select, appoint, for special service. detail men for fatigue duty &c.

detail (II), n [1 detāil, 2 detāil], fr prec 1 a A section of a whole, particular fact, single subordinate part, item, Phrs in detail, minutely, in all particulars, to go into details, b small, unimportant, insignificant circumstance. a mere detail. 2 (art and archit) Subordinate part, single section, in a scheme of decoration, construction &c, manner of treatment of this.

detain, vb trans [1 detāin, 2 detāin], fr O Fr détenir, fr Lat dētinere, 'to keep back, restrain, detain', fr de- & tenere, 'to have, hold, keep, to maintain, to restrain'. See tenable. a To keep back, hinder, prevent (persons) from proceeding. to be detained by business, b to withhold, retain possession of, keep (things), c (law, specif) to hold (a person) in custody, keep under arrest.

detainer, n [1 detāiner, 2 detāiner] Prec & -er (law) A wrongful detention of goods, b writ authorizing the detention on another charge of a person already under arrest.

detect, vb trans [1 detekt, 2 detekt], fr Lat dētekt (um), PP type of dētegere, 'to uncover, expose', fig 'to discover, to reveal', fr de- & tegere, 'to cover, to shelter, protect', fig 'to conceal'. See tegment & thatch. 1 To expose, bring to light, discover. to detect a person in a dishonest act. 2 To receive a mental or sensuous impression of the presence of, discover, discern, perceive existence of. I could detect no sign of disease.

detectable, adj [1 detektabl, 2 detektabl] Prec & -able. Capable of being detected.

detection, n [1 detekshun, 2 detekshun] detect & -ion. The act or process of detecting.

detective, edj & n [1 detektiv, 2 detektiv] detect & -ive. 1 adj Aiding in, serving for, detection, dealing with detection. a detective force. Detective story, general term for a class of stories in which the interest is centred in a crime and the detection of the perpetrator. 2 n a A police officer engaged in the special work of investigating criminal cases, esp one who belongs to the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) at New Scotland Yard, b any person who undertakes to do such work. private detective.

detector, n [1 detektōr, 2 detektōr] detect & -or. One who, that which, detects, specif, any of various devices or apparatus, as in wireless telephony, for converting the electric waves into a form that can be heard in the receiver, as a crystal, valve, detector.

detent, n [1 detēt, 2 detēt], fr Lat detent (um), PP type of detinere, 'to keep back, restrain, detain'. See detain. (mechan) A catch which locks and unlocks wheels in machinery. esp a catch for regulating the striking of a clock.

devold, adj [1 devold, 2 devold] Short form of P P of M E devolden, 'to put away, get rid of', fr O Fr devoldier, fr dis- & vide, vide See vold (followed by of) Lacking in, empty of, without a country devold of inhabitants, devold of sense, devold of duty, fr devoir, 2 devu Fr, 'duty', fr devoir, O Fr dever, 'to owe', fr Lat dēbere, 'to owe, to be under obligation, be indebted', fr dē habere, 'to have something from another person' See de-, habit, debt, due A Duty, obligation, service, b (pl) acts of civility, polite attentions to pay one's devoirs to devolute, vb trans [1 devolūt, 2 devolūt] fr Lat devolūt (um), P P type of devolvere, 'to roll down, to fall headlong' See devolve To transfer, delegate, (work &c) to others devolution, n [1 devolūshun, 2 devolūshun] fr Low Lat devolutiō(-em), fr devolūt (um) See prec & next word 1 Gradual descent through successive stages, esp a transmission of property by direct descent, b (biol) deterioration of species by gradual change, reverse of evolution 2 The act of devolving, delegation (of power or authority, duty, work &c) devolve, vb trans & intrans [1 devolv, 2 devolv] fr Lat devolvere, 'to roll down, to fall headlong', fig 'to have recourse to, fall back on', fr de- & volvere, 'to roll, roll along, turn about', fig 'to turn over in the mind, consider' See volute, volturne 1 trans To transfer, delegate, devolve devolve work, duty &c on a representative 2 intrans (followed by upon) a (of functions, duties, responsibilities &c) To pass to, fall to be performed by too much work devolves upon the second in command; after Nelson's death the supreme command devolved upon Collingwood, b (of property) to pass by inheritance or succession

Devonian, adj & n [1 devōnian; 2 devōnion] 1 adj a Belonging to Devonshire, b (geol) pertaining to strata lying between the Silurian and Carboniferous 2 n Native or inhabitant of Devonshire devote, vb trans [1 devōt, 2 devōut] fr Lat devōt (um), P P type of devovere, 'to vow, devote (to a deity)', hence (in general sense) 'to dedicate, give up, to devote to the gods of the infernal regions, to curse', fr de- & vovere, 'to vow, promise sacredly, to wish' See vote, vow A To give up, disabate, set apart to devote one's life to art, devote time to study, one's money to charity, b (reflex) addict oneself to, give oneself to devote oneself to amusement devoted, adj [1 devōtēd, 2 devōutēd] P P of prec (of persons) a Given up to, engrossed by devoted to sport, hence, b fond of, deeply attached to, a person or thing a devoted husband, wife, mother &c, (also absol) she seems very devoted, fond of son, husband &c, Phr devoted head, doomed, destined, to destruction devotedly, adv Prec & -ly In a devoted manner, with devotion devotedly attached devotee, n [1 devōtē, 2 devōutē] devote & -ee A person devoted to a service, pursuit, or cause, or person, a zealous holder, votary a devotee of religion, music, learning &c devotement, n [1 devōtēment, 2 devōutēment] devote & -ment (rare) The act of devoting, state of being devoted devotion, n [1 devōshun, 2 devōshun] fr Lat devōtiō(-em), 'a devoting, consecrating, exorcism, sorcery, enchantment', hence 'a spell' See devote & -ion 1 a Condition of being devoted to a person or thing, strong affection, unselfish attachment and self surrender the devotion of a mother for her child, also, passionate devotion to golf &c, b unwavering adherence, zealous, conscientious attachment to duty, moral obligations &c 2 Religious worship, adoration, pl, devotion, religious observances, prayers devotional, adj [1 devōshunal, 2 devōshunal]

Prec & -al. Connected with devotion, used in devotion devotional literature devotionalism, n [1 devōshunalizm, 2 devōshunalizm] See prec & -ism An addition to excessive formal devotions devotionally, adv [1 devōshunali, 2 devōshunali] devotion & -ly In a devotional manner devour, vb trans [1 devōūr, 2 devōūr] M E devōūre, fr O Fr devorer, fr Lat devorare, 'to swallow, gulp down, to engulf, swallow up, to seize upon', (of books) 'to read eagerly', fr de- & vorare, 'to swallow greedily, to overwhelm, swallow up, to putkus with eagerness' See voracious 1 a (of man and animals) To eat, eat ravenously, hungrily, and greedily to devour one's dinner, the lion devours his prey, b (of fire, postulates &c) to consume utterly, destroy 2 (fig) a (of persons) To take in, absorb mentally, read with eagerness to devour a book, b to gaze, look, at intently, keenly, eagerly his eyes devoured the well-known scene, c (of powerful emotion) to overwhelm, possess utterly, move deeply devoured by curiosity, anxiety devouringly, adv [1 devōūringh, 2 devōūringh] fr Prec Part of prec & -ly (chiefly fig) As though devouring, with ardent longing to gaze devouringly at devout, adj [1 devōūt, 2 devōūt] M E devōūt, devout, fr O Fr devōūt, fr Lat devōūt (um) See devote 1 a (of persons) Reverently attentive to religious duties, devoted to religion, pious, good, b (of actions &c) expressing reverent devotion 2 Devoted, intense, earnest a devout admirer &c devoutly, adv Prec & -ly In a devout manner devoutness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being devout dew (I), n [1 dū, 2 dū] O E dēaw, M E dēw, dēu, dēaw, O Fr dau, O H G tāu, fr Gmc dauzja* (whence also O N dagg), cogn & Lat favōsus for dhouōsus*, 'mild, west wind', cp Scrt dāwātē, 'to run, flow', dāwāt, 'a spring, stream', Gk thēō, fr dheōō*, 'I run, flow, move quickly, whirl' See furze 1 Moisture in the atmosphere, condensed on cold, exposed surfaces during the night, and appearing as small drops of water 2 (poet) Anything resembling or suggestive of some quality of dew, a freshness, power of refreshing &c the dew of youth, b appearance, form, eg tears, mountain dew, whisky, esp illicitly distilled whisky dew (II), vb trans, fr prec A To wet with, or as if with, dew, to bedew, b to condense, fall as dew dewan, n [1 dūwān, 2 dūwā] Arab dawān A finance minister in India, also the prime minister of one of the native, independent states of India dewberry, n [1 dūbēri, 2 dūbēri] A fruit resembling the blackberry, with slightly larger drupes, and more acid taste dew-claw, n A rudimentary toe, or thumb, on the inside of a dog's leg, rather higher than the other toes, and not touching the ground dew-drop, n A drop of moisture condensed in the form of dew dew-fall, n Evening, the time when the dew is forming dewily, adv [1 dūbi, 2 dūbī] dewy & -ly Like dew dewiness, n [1 dūīnē, 2 dūīnē] dewy & -ness. Condition of being dewy, wetness, moisture, from dew dewlap, n [1 dūlap, 2 dūlap] M E dēw-lappe dew & lap (I) a A thick fold of skin hanging from the throat of cattle, b a similar formation in other animals, c (colloq and vulg) flesh below human chin when fat and puffy dewless, adj [1 dūlē, 2 dūlē] dew & -less. Without dew, not dewy dew-point, n The temperature to which exposed surfaces must be lowered before dew can condense upon them dew-pond, n Ancient artificial pond, as often found on Sussex downs, which always contains water, probably fed by the dew from surrounding area draining into it, or by night mists dewy, adj [1 dū, 2 dū] dew (I) & -y 1 a Covered with, moist with, dew, characterized by dew dewy eye (poet), a dewy night, b (poet, of eyes) wet with tears 2 (poet) Resembling dew, in oblong gently and refreshingly dewy slumbers &c dexter, adj. [1 dēkster, 2 dēkster] Lat dexter, 'on the right', hence 'skilful, adroit, favourable, propitious' Formed w compar suff -er-ōs fr base deks-*, 'on the right side', cp Umbrian desframe, 'on the right', Gk deksteros, 'on the right' Cp also, w different suff, Gk dekos, 'on the right, propitious, skilful', Scrt dāksina, 'on the right, southwards', also 'skilful', Lat dextrin, 'the right hand', O Ir deas, 'to the right, southwards', Goth lathana, 'right', O H G rezo, 'right', rezoza, 'the right hand' The base del-* is expanded fr del-*, 'to seem good, be suitable' (see decent), the right hand or side being considered the stronger, more propitious For the Lat suff -er-ōs see -ther, other, either On the right-hand side, (her) the dexter side of a shield is that on the left of a person looking at it, opposed to sinister dexterity, n [1 dēksteriti, 2 dēksteriti] fr Lat dexteritū(-em), 'skilfulness, handiness' See prec & -ity 1 a Skill, dexterity, adroitness in action and movement, specific in manual acts, b intellectual adroitness, facility 2 Habitual use of the right hand in preference to the left dext(e)rous, adj [1 dēkster(e)rus, 2 dēkster(e)rus] dexter & -ous 1 a Skilful, neat, expert in movements and actions, esp in the use of the hands, b ready, adroit, quick, in mental activities 2 Using the right hand in preference to the left dext(e)rously, adv Prec & -ly In a dexterous manner dext(e)rousness, n See prec & -ness Dexterity dextrin, n [1 dēkstrin, 2 dēkstrin] See next word & -in(e) An adhesive substance, gum, made from starch, used on back of postage stamps &c, and for sizing paper, stiffening cotton fabrics &c dextro-, pref, fr Lat dextrā, dat of dexter Towards the right, esp in chemical terms with reference to substances which cause the plane of a polarized ray of light to rotate from left to right dextrose, n [1 dēkstrōs, 2 dēkstrōs] dextēr & -ose Starch sugar, obtained from starch or dried grapes or other fruits, the crystals of which rotate polarized light to the right, contrasted with laevulose dextrous, adj See dexterous dēy, n [1 dē, 2 dē] Fr, fr Turkish dāi, lit 'uncle on mother's side', title used by the janissaries of a commander a The title of the chief of the janissaries in Algiers, when a Turkish province, hence, b title used by the French of the Turkish Governor of Algiers until its conquest dhobi, n [1 dōbi, 2 dōbi] Hind. A low-caste Hindu, employed as a laundry man in India dhole, n [1 dōl, 2 dōl] Hind The wild dog of India and Central Asia, hunting in packs dhuti, n [1 dōti, 2 dōti] Hind The narrow loin cloth worn by Hindu men dhow, n [1 dōu, 2 dōu] Etymol unknown An Arabian coasting vessel with a broad stern, one mast, and large lateen sail dhurrie, dhurry, n [1 dūrri, 2 dārri] fr Hind dari An Indian cotton fabric with fringed ends, used for curtains &c di- (I), pref Form of Lat dis-, used in compounds, expressing idea of separation, occurring before the consonants b, v, m, d, l, z, s, confused in O Fr & M E w de-

di- (II), pref used in chemical terms, Gk di, 'twice, double', used in composition. Cp Gk diá, 'twice', fr Aryan dwi-s*, 'twice, double', op Lat bis (O Lat dius), 'twice' (see bi-), Sert diás, O.N twis var, 'twice', M H G zwei, 'twice', Aryan base dwei-, dwi-, dwi*, 'two', op Sert dwitíyās, 'the second', Lat bi (pēs) (see biped), O E twi (fē), 'two footed', fr Aryan type dwei-* comes Lat bi (diurnus), 'two days', Goth twiŕfa, O H G zweifal, 'doubt', O H G zweig, 'branch' (see twig), fr dwi-*, Gk diáds, 'twofold' (fr dwi* jos), Sert dwadé, 'double', O Bulg dwój, 'double', Goth twaddjē (fr dwi* jē), O.N twegga, O H G zweio, 'of two', O S tuēne, 'two' (fr Gmc twa* n-, Aryan dwi* n-) For other forms of the base see two, dual. Two, twice, double.

di- (III) = dia-, before vowels

dia-, pref Gk diá, prep, 'through, throughout (of place and time)', through the agency of, by means of, used in Gk, also, as pref expressing a motion through, h separation, c pre-eminence. Gk diá is prob fr dwa-, fr base das, parallel w dwi* s, dwi*, see di- (II), the orig sense having been that of parting asunder, separating, fr this meaning was derived that of 'penetrating into', then 'through, throughout, across' (both of motion & of rest). Found as pref in Gk words, & in scientific terms formed fr Gk.

diabase, n [1 diábās, 2 diabēse] Fr, fr Gk diabazō, 'crossing over, passage through' (see dia- & basis), prob fr line of cleavage Cp dolomite (mineral) A crystalline granular rock, greenstone, whinstone, or trap diabetes n [1 diabētēs, 2 diabētiz] Gk diabētēs, 'diabetes', fr dia- & bēizē, 'a walking, moving, flowing', apparently same base as in diármōn, 'a dancer', fr bēi* os, 'a step', cogn w Gk baizein, 'to go', see base (I); op. Sert gairam, 'foot' A disease characterized by excessive production of sugar in the system and abnormal secretion of urine diabetic, adj & n [1 diabētík, 2 diabētik] See prec & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to, suffering from, diabetes 2 n. A diabetic patient diablerie, n [1 děáblierē, 2 děáblārē] Fr, fr diabler, fr Lat, fr Gk diabolos, 'an accuser, the devil', see devil (I), & -ry A The work of devils, sorcery, b fascination, witchery diabolic(al), adj [1 diabolik(l), 2 diabēblik(l)] fr Fr, fr Gk diabolikós, 'malignant, devilish' See devil (I) & -ic & -al A Pertaining to, resembling, the devil a diabolic grin, b devilish, fiendish diabolical cruelty diabolically, adv Prec & -ly In a diabolical, devilish manner, fiendishly diabolism, n [1 diabolizm, 2 diabēbalizm] See prec words & -ism A Worship of the devil, or of demons, b qualities, nature, resembling that of the devil diabolize, vb trans [1 diáboliz, 2 diabēbaliz] See prec & -ize To make into, represent as, a devil diabolo, n [1 děábolō, 2 děábolow] Invented word, fr Gk diá- & bolē, 'a throw', cogn w ballen, 'to throw' See ballistics Game which consists in balancing, and whirling upon a string held by sticks attached to either end, a kind of wooden reel, and throwing it across to another player who catches and returns it, and so on, until one or other player misses his catch and drops the reel diacoustic, adj & n [1 diakawstik, 2 diaklástik] fr dia- & caustic a adj Of a kind of caustic curve formed by refraction, b n, a diacoustic curve diachylon, diachylum, n [1 diáklulon, -um, 2 diaklēlon, -um] Med Lat diachylum, 'a plaster made of the juices of herbs', fr Gk diá-, 'from, by means of', & klulon, 'juices' See chyle Sticking plaster made up with olive oil and oxide of lead on a linen backing diagonal, adj [1 diákonál, 2 diakónal] fr L Lat diagonalis (w) See diagon & -al Pertaining to a deacon diacomete, n [1 diákonat, 2 diakónat] fr L Lat diakonai (us) See diakon & -ate a The office of a deacon, b period of tenure of this office, c body of deacons, deacons collectively diacoustic, adj [1 diakónstik, 2 diaklástik] See dia- & acoustic Of, pertaining to, the refraction of sound through various mediums diacoustics, n pl, fr prec Branch of acoustics dealing with such refracted sounds diacritic, n & adj [1 diakritik, 2 diakritik] fr Gk diakritik (ós), 'marking separation, able to distinguish' See dia- & critic a n (lit) Distinguishing mark, special mark placed over or under a letter to express some special phonetic value, as 'á', 'b' adj, also diacritical, pertaining to, of nature of, a diacritic diachronic, adj [1 diaktinik, 2 diaktinik] See di- (III) & Gk aktis, 'a ray' See actinic. Capable of transmitting the actinic or chemical rays of the sun diadem, n [1 diádem, 2 diadēdm] fr O Fr, fr Lat diadēma, 'a royal head dress', fr Gk diadēma, 'a head band, fillet, one emblematic of royalty', fr dia- & dēm, 'something bound on', of Sert dēma, 'a bond', & fr reduced grade dē*, Lat re dē ire, 'to crown' a A fillet, crown, worn on the head as a sign of royal power, b crown, wreath of flowers &c betokening distinction of some kind, c royal power, sovereignty diademed, adj [1 diádemd, 2 diadēdm] Prec & -ed. Wearing a diadem, crowned diacresis, n [1 diákreis, 2 diakrēsis] fr Lat, fr Gk diakresis, 'division into parts', (rhet) 'division of a subject into heads', (gram), 'separation of a diphtong into two syllables', fr di- (III) & kreis, 'I take, seize upon' Etymol unknown Cp aphaeresis (in print and writing) A mark, generally two dots, placed on the second of two consecutive vowels, to indicate that it forms separate syllable from the first e.g. cooperate.

diagnose, vb trans [1 diagnōz, 2 diag-nōuz] fr next word To ascertain the nature of a disease by observing the symptoms diagnosis, n [1 diagnōsis, 2 diag-nōsis] Gk diagnōsis, 'a distinguishing, discriminating' (esp of medical diagnosis), 'a resolving, decision', fr dia- & gnōsis, 'an inquiry, investigation, knowledge' See gnosis A Accurate investigation and discrimination by means of data, special b the identification of a disease from its symptoms, a summary of the symptoms of a disease diagnostic, adj & n [1 diagnōstik, 2 diag-nōstik] fr Gk diagnōstikós, 'able to distinguish' See prec & -ic 1 adj Characteristic, distinguishing, forming basis of diagnosis 2 n A Symptom of a disease, b pl, branch of medicine dealing with symptoms diagnostician, n [1 diagnōstisban, 2 diag-nōstisban] Prec & -ian. A student of diagnosis diagonal (I), adj [1 diágonal, 2 diagēgonal] fr Lat diagonalis (w), fr Gk diagōnos, 'from angle to angle', fr diá- & gōnis, 'an angle, a joiner's square' See gon 1 Extending between two opposite angles of a rectilinear figure diagonal line 2 Going from corner to corner, oblique 3 Crossed by oblique lines, or markings esp diagonal cloth diagonal (II), n, fr prec A straight line drawn between opposite angles of a rectilinear figure the diagonals of a parallelogram diagonally, adv Prec & -ly In a diagonal manner, obliquely, from corner to corner diagram, n [1 diágram, 2 diagram] fr Fr diagramme, fr Gk diagramma, 'something marked out by lines, a plan, geometrical figure, a written list, an edict, decree, the musical scale' See dia- & -gram a (geom.)

A figure drawn to assist in demonstrating a theorem &c, b a plan, figure, to illustrate a statement, explanation &c, c graphic representation of statistics, proportions &c by means of lines, geometrical figures &c a diagram showing the relative population of European countries, relations of the Aryan languages &c diagrammatic, adj [1 diagramatik, 2 diagramatik] fr Gk diagrammat-, stem of diagramma, see prec, & -ic Pertaining to, in the form of, a diagram diagrammatically, adv [1 diagramatikali, 2 diagramatikali] See prec & -al & -ly By means of a diagram diagrammatize, vb trans [1 diagramatiz, 2 diagrammatiz] See diagrammatic & -ize To put into the form of, represent by, a diagram diagraph, n [1 diágraf, 2 diagrāf] See dia- & -graph Instrument for drawing enlarged copies of drawings, maps &c dial (I), n [1 dial, 2 diál] fr Low Lat diál (w), 'pertaining to the day, daily', fr Lat diēs, 'a day', & -al See diēs non 1 The face of a sundial, clock, or watch, on which the hours are marked, and the time is indicated by the shadow of the style or gnomon, or by hands moved by spring and cog-wheels 2 Any flat, round plate, resembling a clock-face, showing, by means of moving pointers, the measurement of weight, consumption &c, e.g. on weighing machine, gas meter &c 3 (slang) A human face dial (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To measure by means of a dial dialect, n [1 diálekt, 2 diaklēkt] fr Lat diálect (w), 'a manner of speaking, dialect', fr Gk diálēkt (w), 'talk, discourse, discussion, language, articulate speech, the language of a district, local speech', fr diálegomai, 'I talk with, discourse upon, discuss', fr diálegem, 'to pick out, to distinguish', fr dia- & legen, 'to collect, to pick out, select, enumerate, to say, speak' See legend, lecture, logos Type, form, variety, of speech spoken by a particular community, either in a definite region or area (Regional Dialect), or among a given class (Gloss Dialect), distinguished to a greater or less degree from other forms of speech by differences of pronunciation, grammatical forms, syntax, idioms, vocabulary There is no essential distinction between a dialect and a language, but it is often convenient, and the usual practice, to apply the former term to subordinate varieties of speech, in use among comparatively small communities, and the latter, to the speech of whole peoples or nations, esp to that type (itself a dialect in the stricter sense) which is the vehicle of the main body of the people's literature No language constitutes an absolute unity in its spoken forms, but is differentiated into several sub-varieties or dialects dialectal, adj [1 diálēktal, 2 diaklēktal] See prec & -al. a Pertaining to a dialect, of a dialect, b (less correctly) pertaining to dialectic dialectally, adv Prec & -ly In dialect, in a dialectal manner dialectic (I), adj [1 diálēktik, 2 diaklēktik] Dialect & -ic 1 Pertaining to dialectic

2 Confused with, and used for, dialectal dialectic (II), n, fr O Fr dialectique, fr Lat dialectica, 'dialectics', fr Gk diálēktik, 'the art of discussion by means of question and answer, of evolving truths by logical discussion' See dialect & -ic Also pl, dialectics, the critical analysis of mental processes, art of logical discussion and disputation dialectical, adj [1 diálēktikl, 2 diaklēktikl] Prec & -al. 1 Pertaining to dialectics

2 Pertaining to dialect, dialectal dialectically, adv Prec & -ly By dialectic dialectician, n [1 diálēktisban, 2 diaklēktisban] See dialectic (II) & -ician One who is proficient in dialectics dialectology, n [1 dialektoloji, 2 dialektolodži] See dialect & -logy The study of dialects, or subordinate varieties of speech. diaklage, n [1 dialaj, 2 dialajdž], fr. Gk. diaklagé, 'change', fr dia- & allos, 'other'. See allo- (musical) A dark green laminated form of pyroxene, with irregular planes of fracture dialing, n [1 dialing, 2 dialing] dial (I) & -ing a Construction of dials, b measurement of time &c by dials dialogic, adj [1 dialóyik, 2 dialóydzik], fr Med Lat dialogus (us) See dialogue & -ic Pertaining to, in the form of, dialogue dialogist, n [1 dialóyist, 2 dialóydzist] See next word & -ist (rare) a A writer of dialogue, b a speaker in a dialogue dialogue, n [1 dialóg, 2 dialóg], fr Fr, fr Lat dialogus, 'a conversation', fr Gk diálogos, 'a conversation, dialogue' See dia- & logos 1 Conversation, talking, intercourse by means of the spoken language 2 Representation of conversation in writing, in drama, novels &c dialyse, vb trans [1 dialíz, 2 dialéiz], fr dialysis (chem) To separate crystalline from non-crystalline or colloid substances in a mixture by filtering through parchment in a dialyser dialyser, n [1 dializer, 2 dialéizaz] Prec & -er (chem) A drum with membranous or parchment bottom, in which substances can be subjected to dialysis by placing it in water, the colloid substances remaining, the crystalline filtering through into the water dialysis, n [1 dialísis, 2 dialéisis] Gk. dialysis, 'a separating, dishanding, dissolution' See dia- & -lysis (chem) Separation of crystalline from non-crystalline or colloid substances in a mixture by a dialyser dialytic, adj [1 dialítik, 2 dialéítik], fr Gk dialutikos See dia- & -lytic. Of, pertaining to, dialysis diamagnetic, adj & n [1 diamagnétik, 2 diamagnétik] See dia- & magnetic a adj Exhibiting diamagnetism, b n, substance, such as bismuth, which does this diamagnetically, adv [1 diamagnétikali, 2 diamagnétikali] Prec & -al & -ly By diamagnetism diamagnetism, n [1 diamagnetizm, 2 diamagnetizm] See dia- & magnetism The property of certain substances to tend to take up a position at right angles to direction of the magnetic current diamantiferous, adj [1 diamantiferos, 2 diamantiferos] fr Lat diamantiferos, w Anglicized ending See diamond & -ferous

Diamond bearing See diamond & -bearing diameter, n [1 diaméter, 2 diaméter], fr O Fr diametre, fr Lat, fr Gk diametros, 'the diagonal of a parallelogram, the diameter of a circle', fr dia- & -meter

1 A straight line passing through the centre of a geometrical figure (esp figure bounded by curves) and extending from side to side 2 Measurement through the centre of a solid, transverse measurement, thickness the diameter of a tree trunk 3 Unit of measurement of magnifying power of lenses diametral, adj [1 diamétral, 2 diamétral] See prec & -al Pertaining to a diameter diametrical, adj [1 diamétrik, 2 diamétrik], fr Gk diamétrik (ds), 'diametrical, diagonal', & -al See diameter & -ic 1 Pertaining to a diameter, diametral 2 (lit and fig) Exactly opposite, as are the two ends of a diameter, directly contrary diametrically, adv Prec & -ly (lit and fig) Exactly, directly, absolutely diametrically opposite, opposed diamond (I), n [1 diamond, 2 diamond] ME diamond, fr O Fr diamant, fr L Lat diamant (em), acc of adamas, fr Lat, fr Gk adamas, 'adamant, the hardest metal, the diamond'. See adamant 1 A precious stone composed of crystallized carbon, usually colourless and of great brilliance, the hardest substance known, Phrs a diamond of the first water, of the most precious kind; black diamond, (i) a dark-coloured diamond, (ii) coal, rough diamond, (i) an uncut diamond, (ii) a worthy but uncultured person, diamond cut diamond, of persons who are a match for each other, esp in cunning, diamond wedding, sixtieth anniversary of wedding 2 A tool with a small diamond fixed at the end, used for cutting glass 3 A plane figure with four equal or nearly equal sides, and with two acute and two obtuse angles, b (at cards) a card marked with red figures of a diamond, (pl) the suit, Phr a small diamond, one of the cards of lowest value in the suit 4 (typog) One of the smallest sizes of type diamond (II), adj, fr prec 1 A made of, set with, diamonds diamond brooch &c, b rich in, producing, diamonds diamond clay, field, mine &c 2 Shaped like a diamond a diamond window-pane diamond (III), vb trans, fr diamond (I) To set with, adorn with, diamonds, or with something resembling them in appearance diamond-back, n A kind of moth diamond-drill, n Species of rock drill set with diamonds diamond-field, n Land in which diamonds are found diamondiferous, adj [1 diamondiferus, 2 diamondiferus] See diamond & -ferous Yielding diamonds diamond-point, n 1 A tool tipped with a diamond, used in engraving 2 (railway) Oblique intersection of two sets of rails diamond-snake, n One with diamond-shaped markings, found in Australia diamond-wise, adv Obliquely, in the shape of a diamond

Diana, n [1 diana, 2 diana] Lat, earlier Disiana, see deity for etymol 1 Roman goddess, equivalent of Greek Artemis, esp of the moon, and the chase 2 A huntress, lady who hunts diana monkey, n A West African species of monkey, with a white crescent shaped mark on its forehead and white fringed cheeks

Dianthus, n [1 dianthos, 2 dianthos] Invented word, fr Gk Dios, genit of Zeus, & anthos, 'flower', see anther (hot) Genus of flowering plants which includes the pinks, carnations &c diaspason, n [1 diaspázon, 2 diaspéizon], fr Gk diaspázon, 'the octave scale', fr diá & páson, 'through all (the strings)', fr dia- & páson, 'all' See pent- 1 a (mus) All the voices or parts combining in harmony, b a passage of music containing a splendid burst of harmony 2 The full range, compass, of a voice or instrument 3 One of two principal stops of an organ, extending through the whole scale of the instrument diaper (I), n [1 diaper, 2 diaper], fr O Fr diapre, diapre, fr Byzantine Gk diapros, fr Gk dia- & aspros, 'white', also 'rough', Lat asper, 'rough, uneven, harsh, bitter, rough, violent, fierce' See asperity

1 A linen material woven with diamond pattern, b napkin or towel made of this 2 Ornamental design consisting of a series of diamond-shaped figures diaper pattern diaper (II), vb trans, fr prec To ornament with a design of diamond shaped figures diaphanous, adj [1 dianfános, 2 dianfános], fr Med Lat diaphanous, fr Gk diaphanós, 'transparent', fig. 'manifest, distinct', fr dia- & phainemai, 'to show, make visible, cause to appear' See phantasm & -ous Allowing the light to pass through, transparent, translucent diaphoresis, n [1 diaforésis, 2 diaforésis] Gk, fr dia- & phorein, 'to carry' See -ferous & -phore (med) Perspiration, esp when profuse and artificially produced diaphoretic, adj & n [1 diaforétik, 2 diaforétik], fr Gk diaphorétikos See prec 1 adj Producing, inducing, profuse perspiration 2 n Substance, drug &c which does this diaphragm, n [1 diafrám, 2 diafrám], fr Gk. diáphragma, 'a barrier, partition', esp. 'the midriff muscle', fr dia- & phragma, 'a fence, paling', ep Gk phrázein, fr phra-, 'to protect, fence round', cogn. w Lat farcire, 'to stuff', see farce (II), & frequens, 'thronged, thickly pressed together' &c See frequent 1 (anat) The muscular wall separating the thorax from the abdomen 2 A partition wall, barrier, a in certain kinds of shell fish, b in some musical instruments 3 (opt) A disk with a circular hole in the centre for cutting off part of a ray of light diaphragmatic, adj [1 diafragmátik, 2 diafragmátik], fr Gk diaphragmatikos (os), genit of diaphragma, 'diaphragm' See prec & -ic Pertaining to the diaphragm

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diarchy, n [1 diarkia, 2 diarkia], fr Gk diarkh-, 'double, dual', & -archy, on anal of monarchy, see arch-, the irregularly formed dyarchy is common and should be avoided

diathermic, adj [1 diathērmik, 2 davəpāmik], fr Gk diathērmos (see), 'thoroughly warm', & -ic. See dia- & therm. Diathermanous diathesis, n [1 diathesis, 2 daiθēsīs], Gk diathesis, 'an arrangement, putting in order, composition (of a work of art &c)', the act of disposing of, selling, physical condition, state'. See dia- & thesis (med). Bodily constitution which predisposes to certain diseases, or kinds of disease.

diatom, n [1 diatōm, 2 daiatōm], fr Gk diatomos (see), 'a cutting through, severance', fr dia- & tomos, 'cutting, thing cut, section'. See tomos. A microscopic marine or freshwater vegetable organism, consisting of one cell.

diatomaceous adj [1 diatōmāshus, 2 daiatōmāshus] Prec & -aceous Abounding in diatoms.

diatomic, adj [1 diatōmik, 2 daiatōmik] See di- (II) & atom & -ic (chem) Consisting of two atoms.

diatonic, adj [1 diatōnik, 2 daiatōnik], fr Fr diatonique, fr Gk diatonikē (see), 'pertaining to the diatonic scale', fr diatonos, 'the diatonic scale, with intervals of a tone'. See dia- & tonos (I) (mus) a (of scales). The regular major or minor, h (of harmonics). Composed in the ordinary major or minor key without chromatic variations.

diatribe, n [1 diatribē, 2 daiatribē], fr Fr diatribe, fr Lat, fr Gk diatribē, 'a wearing away' (esp of time), 'a pastime, amusement, labour, occupation, delay, waste of time', fr diatribēin, 'to rub, to rub away, consume', to spend time, to delay, hinder, waste time', fr di- & tribein, 'to rub, wear out by rubbing', ep tribos, 'a beaten track, a rubbing, attrition, practice, use', Lat tri vi, pref of terere, 'to rub'. See tribulation & trite. Wordy attack, speech consisting of vituperation, invective uttered against a person, party, or policy.

diazocompounds, n [1 diāzō kōmpounds, 2 daiāzōu kōmpounds] See di- (II) & azo- (chem) Organic compounds derived from aromatic hydrocarbons with character istic grouping of two nitrogen atoms.

dib, n [1 dib, 2 dib] Etymol. dubious, possibly variant of dab (I). 1 A knuckle bone, as used in an old child's game. 2 (pl, dibs) a Boos counters, used in playing cards &c, hence b (slang) coin, money he's after the dibs, anxious to get money.

dibasic, adj [1 dibāsik, 2 daiabāsik] See di- (II) & basic (chem, of acids) Having two atoms of hydrogen replaced by bases.

dibble (I), dibber, n [1 dibl, dibber, 2 dibl, dibba] L.E.E. debylle, prob connected w dab. A pointed tool of wood or iron, for making small holes in the ground for planting seeds, potatoes &c. dibble (II), vb trans, fr prec To plant with a dibble to dibble in (potatoes &c).

dicast, n [1 dikast, 2 dikast], fr Gk dikastēs 'a judge, an Athenian jurymen', fr dikazein, to judge, give judgement on', fr dike, 'right, custom, usage, law, justice, lawsuit, trial', fr reduplicated grade dik-, of Aryan base deik-, dok-*, 'to show, point out'. See diction. (Gk. antiq.) A judge, a member of the highest Athenian court.

dicastery, n [1 dikastrī, 2 dikastrī] fr Gk dikastrion, 'a court of justice, the court, judges'. See prec (Gk. antiq.) Body of judges or dicastis.

dice (I), n [1 dis, 2 dais], pl. of dio (I).

dice (II), vb intrans See dio (I). To play with dice.

dice-box n Deep, narrow box of leather or thin wood, from which dice are thrown.

dicer n [1 dicer, 2 dais] See dico (II) & -er One who plays at dice, a gambler.

dichlamydeous adj [1 dikhlamēdous, 2 dai dikhgamus, adj [1 dikhgamus, 2 dikhgamus] See next word & -ous (bot) Characterized by dichogamy.

dichogamy, n [1 dikhgami, 2 dikhgami], fr Gk dikhō, combining form of dikhō, 'in two, apart, separate' (fr di- (II) & adv suff ghō*, ep Sert (vntō) ha, 'every time') & -gamy (bot) The maturing of the stamens and pistils in a plant at different times, preventing self fertilization.

dichotomic, adj [1 dikōtōmik, 2 dikhōtōmik] See dichotomy & -ic. Dichotomous dichotomous, adj [1 dikōtōmus, 2 dikhōtōmus] See dichotomy & -ous (bot) Branching regularly in pairs.

dichotomously, adv Prec & -ly In a dichotomous manner, by dichotomy.

dichotomy, n [1 dikōtōmi, 2 dikhōtōmi], fr Gk dikhō, 'in two, asunder', see dichogamous & -tomy 1 (log) Division into two classes, one positive, the other negative. 2 (bot) A mode of branching by repeated bifurcation.

dichroic, adj [1 dikhroik, 2 daiikhroik] See dichroism & -ic Characterized by dichroism.

dichroism, n [1 dikhroizām, 2 daiikhroizām], fr Gk dikhros (see), 'two coloured', fr di- (II) & khros, 'the skin', hence 'the colour of the skin complexion', hence 'colour'. See chroma & -ism The property of certain crystals of exhibiting different colours when looked at from different angles.

dichromatic, adj [1 dikhromatik, 2 daiikhromatik] See di- (II) & chromatic Having two colours, esp (zool) of certain species of birds and insects which exhibit two phases of colour.

dichromic, adj [1 dikhromik, 2 daiikhromik], fr Gk dikhromos (see), 'two coloured', & -ic See di- (II) & chroma (of colour-blind vision) Able to distinguish two of the three primary colours.

dickens, n [1 dikenz, 2 dikinenz], fr 18th cent, prob variant of Dickon, short for Richard (colloq) The devil, as mild expletive, in Phr what the dickens &c.

dicker (I), n [1 diker, 2 dika], fr L.G. decker, 'group of ten things', fr Lat decuria, 'a company, group, of ten, a division, class', fr decem, 'ten'. See decu- (commerce) Ten, a group, set, of ten, esp ten hives.

dicker (II), vb intrans, fr prec To haggle, bargain, chaffer.

dicky (I), dicky, n [1 diki, 2 diki] Etymol. doubtful. (slang) 1 A false shirt front. 2 Small seat for servant at back in old-fashioned horse-carriage, also dicky-seat, also a small extra folding seat at back of a two seater motor car.

dicky (II), adj Origin doubtful. (slang) Shaky, unsteady, tottery, weak, uncertain in health &c very dicky on his pins, (of business concerns &c) unsound, liable to fail.

dicky-bird, n Child's word for a bird.

dicotyledon, n [1 dikōtilēdon, 2 daiikhōtilēdon] See di- (II) & cotyledon (bot) A plant with two cotyledons, or seed leaves.

dicotyledonous, adj [1 dikōtilēdonous, 2 daiikhōtilēdonous] Prec & -ous (bot) Having two cotyledons.

dicrotic, adj [1 dikhrotik, 2 daiikhrotik] fr Gk dikhrotos, 'a double beat', fr di- (II) & khrotos, 'to beat, strike', & -ic The base is krot-, kret-, ep the nasalized form in O.E. krindan, O.N. krinda, 'to strike' (med, of the pulse) Doubly pulsating with two beats of the artery to one of the pulse.

dicrotism, n [1 dikhrotizm, 2 daiikhrotizm] See prec. & -ism. (med) Condition in which there is a dicrotic pulse.

dictagraph see dictograph.

dictaphone, n [1 diktāfōn, 2 diktāfōn] fr dictate & -phone Trade name for a kind of phonograph into which letters &c are dictated, the receiving cylinder is transferred to a machine which reproduces the sound to a typist.

dictate (I), n [1 diktāt, 2 diktēt], fr Lat dictāre (um), 'something dictated', neut PP of dicere, 'to declare, repeat', to dictate'. See next word. An order, command, direction, a prompting that must be obeyed esp the dictates of reason, conscience, fancy, prudence &c.

dictate (II), vb trans & intrans [1 diktāt, 2 diktēt], fr Lat dictāre (um), PP type of dicere, 'to say often, to declare repeatedly, to say aloud (for writing), to make, compose', fr dicere (um), PP type of dicere, 'to say'. See diction. 1 To read or utter aloud something intended to be written down by another to dictate a letter, a passage to be taken down &c. 2 To command with authority, give orders for, prescribe to dictate terms to a vanquished enemy. 3 In trans 1 To dictate letters &c to dictate to one's typist, to a class &c. 2 To make authoritative suggestions which have almost the form and force of commands, direct, lay down the law to refuse to be dictated to.

dictation, n [1 diktāshūn, 2 diktētshūn] See prec & -ion. 1 The act of dictating, commanding to do something at another's dictation. 2 That which is dictated, read aloud specif, passage dictated to be taken down as an exercise in spelling.

dictator, n [1 diktātōr, 2 diktētōr] Lat, 'an extraordinary magistrate at Rome, granted temporarily absolute power'. See dictate (II) & -or One who dictates, speaks, one who assumes or is granted absolute power as an absolute ruler.

dictatorial, adj [1 diktātōriāl, 2 diktētōriāl] See dictator & -al. 1 Pertaining to a dictator. 2 Resembling the characteristics of a dictator, imperious, tending to give orders and insist on their being carried out, inclined to urge one's own opinions and to expect them to be accepted.

dictatorially, adv Prec & -ly In a dictatorial manner.

dictatorship, n [1 diktātōrshīp, 2 diktētōrshīp] See dictator & -ship The office, tenure of office, of dictator. Phr the dictatorship of the proletariat, centralization of all political and economic power in the hands of the proletariat or working classes, one of the main tenets of Communism as practised, or supposed to be practised, in Russia.

diction, n [1 dikhshūn, 2 dikhshūn], fr Lat dictiō (em), 'a saying, speaking, a speech, an oracular utterance', fr dicere (um), PP type of dicere, 'show, tell', fr deik-*, & -ion, ep Sert dikhshūn, 'inscription, direction', fr dik-* 'The base deik-, dok-, dik-*, 'to point out, indicate, tell, speak', is a very fruitful one. Cp Gk deiknāi, 'I show, point out', deikhōn, 'exhibition' &c, Sert dikhshūn 'he shows' &c, O.E. deon, 'to show', fr deihan*, Goth gataihan, O.H.G. zihan, 'to show', further w Aryan grade deik-* (nd) Goth taikna 'sign', O.E. tacn (see token), & Goth laivjan, 'to show', & O.E. litan, fr lithjan*, see teach. The same base occurs unstressed in Lat -dex, as in index, judez, judge &c. See index, judge, judicial. Cp also dictic & dict 1 Choice of vocabulary in speaking and writing, characteristic vocabulary used by a speaker or writer. 2 Specif poetic diction, characteristic choice of words for use in poetry, such words and phrases as are not normally used except in poetry.

dictionary, n [1 dikhshunari, 2 dikhshunari], fr Med Lat dictionarium. See diction & -ary 1 A book containing an alphabetical list of the words or a selection of the words, of a language with either, an explanation and definition of each word in the same language or b a list of words from another language corresponding as nearly as possible to it in meaning. 2 French English dictionary, a book giving a brief definition as a mere label for each word, and a full account of the history of each word, as far back as possible, with illustrative cognates from other languages as etymological dictionary. Hence 2. A book

rekening
diēt (I), u [1 diēt, 2 dāwt], fr Mod Lat diēla, perh fr next word through confusion w/Lat diēs, 'a day', or perh fr Gk diata, 'arbitrar, arbitration', prob fr diā- & 'ōi-
'share, divide', cp Gk diastē, 'lot, fate', fr 'ant ja, 'to destine'. A third possibility is that diēt (I) is a specialized form of diēt (II), fr Gk diata, in the sense of 'dining room, summer house' &c, hence 'hall, meeting-place', hence 'assembly'. An international assembly, conference, b a parliamentary, administrative, assembly, eg in Denmark, Sweden &c difference of advantage which one party in an agreement has over others differential tariff &c 3 (mechan) Exhibiting, char acterized by, producing, different motions, amounts of pressure &c differential screw, motion &c, differential gear, system of gear wheels connecting two shafts or axles, permitting one to revolve at a different speed from that of the other differential (II), n, fr pro a (math) The infinitely small degree of difference between two consecutive values of a variable, b (mechan) a differential gear differential calculus, n [1 diferénshál kál kúlus, 2 diferénshál kálkúlus] (math) The method of analysis for ascertaining the value of the differential differentially, adv [1 diferénshál, 2 diferénshál] differential (I) & -ly In a differential manner, by way of differentiation differentiate, vb trans & intrans [1 diferen shát, 2 diferénshát], fr Med Lat differētiāt (um), P P type of differētiāre. See differentia & -ate A trans 1 To perceive a difference, be able to distinguish, discriminate, between I am unable to differentiate one from the other 2 (of characteristics) To constitute a difference, serve to distinguish between the characteristic treatment of certain original consonants differentiates clearly the O E G from the other W Gmc dialects 3 To produce differences in, cause to become unlike, to develop differently in some special way O E and O S had been differentiated in the Continental period B intrans (of several individuals) To become different, grow apart, unlike, acquire fresh characteristics languages tend to differentiate more and more from the ancestral type as time goes on differentiation, n [1 diferenshíshabun, 2 diferenshísháun] See pro & -ion a The act or process of differentiating, b process of becoming differentiated, c state of being differentiated differently, adv [1 diferenshál, 2 diferenshál] different & -ly In a different manner diffide, adj [1 diffidél, 2 diffidél] Mod Fr, 'difficult' (in various senses) (of persons) Diffidit, 3 difficult, adj [1 diffikl, 2 diffikl] Lat diffícilis, 'difficult, hard to do, to understand', (of character) 'morose, hard to manage, obstinate', fr diff- & facilis, 'easy', see facile The ending -ut shows the word to be a new formation fr difficulty In M E the Fr form difficile is used 1 (of physical action) Hard to do, a laborious, involving great effort, needing exercise of strength and force, b demanding great skill, delicacy of handling and touch, careful and minute adjustment &c 2 (of mental action) Hard to understand, demanding intellectual effort, requiring concentrated attention 3 a (of persons) Not easy to deal with or approach, exacting, hard to please, touchy, easily offended, b (of circumstances, situations) awkward, hard to contend with, oppressive, vexatious Scully, n [1 diffikl, 2 diffikl], fr Fr, fr Lat diffícultāt (em), 'difficulty, trouble, distress, obstinacy, moroseness' See diff- & faculty 1 The quality of being difficult, of requiring effort, of being hard to do, or to understand &c a task of difficulty, to wall with difficulty, to find difficulty in understanding 2 a Something which is physically or intellectually difficult hard to do or understand a task presenting many difficulties, to face, overcome, every difficulty, b objection, demur, cavilling, obstruction to raise, make, difficulties, put difficulties in the way 3 State of financial embarrassment to be in difficulties diffidence, n, [1 diffidens, 2 diffidens], fr Lat diffidentia, 'want of confidence, distrust, diffidence' See next word & -ce The mental state of being diffident, want of self-confidence, or self assertion, modesty, shyness diffident, adj [1 diffident, 2 diffident], fr diffident (em), Pres Part type of Lat diffidere, 'to distrust, be hopeless, despair', fr diff- & fidere, 'to trust, confide in', fr fid us, 'to be depended on, reliable, trusty, certain, sure' See fidelity & -ent Lacking self confidence, reluctant to assert one self, shy, reticent diffidently, adv Pro & -ly In a diffident manner, without self assertion diffidence, n [1 diffidens, 2 diffidens] See next word & -ence The state of being diffident, shyness diffident, adj [1 diffident, 2 diffident], fr Lat diffident (em), Pres Part type of diffidere, 'to flow away, to melt away, disappear', fig 'to be lost in, given up to', fr diff- & fidere, 'to flow, stream, pour, to proceed, move on, to pass away, vanish, to be diffuse' See fluent Fluid, flowing in different directions, melting, becoming liquid diffraction, vb trans [1 diffrakt, 2 diffrakt], fr Lat diffract (um), P P type of diffringere, 'to break, shatter', fr diff- & frangere, 'to break, shatter, shiver, to grind, crush', fig 'to weaken, diminish' See fraction a (opt) To break up a ray of light into separate parts, deflect, modify by diffraction, b also to break up sound-waves &c diffraction, n [1 diffrákshun, 2 diffrákshun] Pro & -ion a The deflexion, breaking up or modification, of a ray of light when passing by the edge of an opaque body or through a narrow slit, forming dark and light or differently coloured bands, b similar process or phenomenon in sound-waves and electricity diffraction, adj [1 diffráktiv, 2 diffráktiv] diffraction & -ive Causing diffraction diffractionally, adv Pro & -ly In such a manner as to cause diffraction diffuse (I), adj [1 diffús, 2 diffús], fr Lat diffús (um), P P type of diffundere, 'to pour forth, spread, to scatter, spread about' See diff- & fuse (I) a (of speech, style, verbal expression) Lacking conciseness, straying from the point, wordy, b (of persons) tending to ramble, lacking power of concise expression, verbose, long winded diffuse (II), vb trans & intrans [1 diffús, 2 diffús] See pro 1 trans a To shed out spread abroad, send, give out, cause to spread in different directions (i) (of non material things) to diffuse learning, kindness, a sense of well being &c, (u) (material things) to diffuse light, heat, odour &c, b (phys) to cause (gases &c) to mix by diffusion 2 intrans (of fluids) To mix by diffusion diffusely, adv [1 diffúsl, 2 diffúsl] diffuse (I) & -ly In a diffuse manner diffuseness, n [1 diffúsnés, 2 diffúsnés] diffuse (I) & -ness a Quality of being diffuse, b specific instance of this diffusibility, n [1 diffúzibílité, 2 diffúzibílité] See next word & -ity Property of being diffusible diffusible, adj [1 diffúzibíl, 2 diffúzibíl] See diffuse (II) & -able Capable of being diffused diffusion, n [1 diffúzhun, 2 diffúzhun] diffuse (II) & -ion a The act or process of diffusing, state of being diffused, circulation, dissemination, b specif (phys) the intermingling of two fluids (gases, liquids &c) not caused by external force diffusively, adv [1 diffúzl, 2 diffúzl] diffuse (I) & -ive Tending to spread, circulate, be diffused diffusively, adv Pro & -ly In a diffusive manner diffusiveness, n See pro & -ness Quality, or property, of being diffusive dig (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dig, 2 dig] M E (14th cent) diggen, perh O Fr diguer, 'to make a dike, build an embankment, to hollow out the ground', fr digue, 'dike, wh is prob fr a LG stem *dīl, as in dike In spite of its comparatively late appearance & rather doubtful origin, the word has completely ousted the orig Engl delva A trans 1 To break up ground with a spade or trowel to dig the ground, a to break up ground in a similar way with hands, claws &c, b to make by digging dig a trench, hole, ditch, well &c, c to break through, force a way through, by digging to dig one's way out, d to remove from ground by digging to dig potatoes 2 (fig) To make laborious search for, in, investigate carefully to dig (out) the facts from books, dig out the truth somehow 3 (colloq) To poke, push, thrust at, nudge to dig a person in the ribs B intrans a To perform the act of digging in the earth &c with a spade to dig for gold, b to perform a similar act with hands, claws &c C Followed by prepositions Dig in, a to mix with, put below surface of soil by digging (of manure &c), b to entrench, protect by digging a trench to dig oneself in, c to thrust, push by a violent movement to dig one's spurs into a horse Dig into, to penetrate by digging Dig out, a (a hole) make one by digging, b (of something which has gone, been put, below the ground) to reveal, expose, remove from ground by digging to dig out a fox, badger &c Dig up, a (in the ground) to remove by digging something (potatoes &c) grown in the ground, b to break up fallow or unplanted land to dig a field up dig (II), n, fr pro (colloq) a A poke, nudge a dig in the ribs, b (fig) a sarcastic comment, taunt, levelled at a person a dig at one's opponents digamist, n [1 digamist, 2 digamist] See digamy & -ist One who marries for the second time, as distinct from bigamist digamma, n [1 digáma, 2 digáma] Gk digamma, fr di- (II) & gamma, fr its shape, wh was that of double P or gamma The symbol, or letter (F), expressing the original Aryan, and Primitive Greek sound [w], still written in the oldest Greek inscriptions, but very early disused in all dialects, as the sound itself disappeared digamous, adj [1 digamus, 2 digamus], fr Lat, fr Gk digamos, 'twice married' See next word & -ous Pertaining to a second marriage digamy, n [1 digami, 2 digami], fr Lat, fr Gk digamia, 'second marriage' See di- (II) & -gamy Second marriage, having a second husband or wife, contrast bigamy digestive, adj & n [1 digéstrik, 2 digéstrik], fr di- (II) & Gk gastr (ga), genit of gastér, 'the belly, anything bulging or swollen', & -io See gastro (anat) a adj (of a muscle) Having two swollen ends, b n, (also digestive muscle) the muscle that depresses the lower jaw digest (I), vb trans & intrans [1 di, digést, 2 di, digést], fr Lat digest (um), P P type of digere, 'to carry in different directions, divide, spread about, sort', hence 'to distribute food to the different parts of the body, to digest, to arrange, put in order' dis- & gerent A trans 1 (of physiological process) To convert (food) by chemical action in the mouth, stomach, and bowels, into a substance which is capable of assimilation and absorption by the blood 2 (of psychological process) a To take in, absorb, assimilate in the mind, to make part of one's knowledge, part of one's stock of ideas, and general mental equipment to digest a mass of facts, series of books &c, b (fig) to tolerate, put up with, bear without resentment or regret, (a slight, insult, loss &c), to accept without morosity (a statement &c) this conduct is more than I can digest 3 (chem) To render (a substance) soluble by exposure to heat or moisture, and cause it to be absorbed by a liquid B intrans To undergo digestion, assimilation, absorption, physiological or chemical digest (II), n [1 digest, 2 digest], fr Lat digesta, neut pl of P P type of digere. See pro a A concise summary, condensed and abridged but exhaustive statement, esp of a code of laws, b specif, the Digest, summary of Roman laws compiled by order of Justinian, also the Pandects of Justinian

- digest, n [1 dijéster, 2 didžéstá] digest (I) & -er One who, that which, digests, specif (in cookery) a large vessel for long, slow process of cooking
- digestibility, n [1 dijéstibilitá, 2 didžéstibilité] See next word & -ity The property of being digestible
- digestible, adj [1 dijéstibl, 2 didžéstibl] digest (I) & -ible Capable of being digested
- digestibly, adv Proo & -ly In a digestible form
- digestion, n [1 dijésokun, 2 didžéstáfan], fr Lat. digestio-(em), 'digestion of food, division, classification' digest (I) & -ion 1 (physiol) a Process of digesting, state or process of being digested, b capacity for digesting food easily and thoroughly a good or bad digestion 2 (mental) a Process of intellectual absorption, b capacity for this
- digestive, adj & n [1 dijéstiv, 2 didžéstiv] digest (I) & -ive 1 adj a Pertaining to digestion, b aiding in, promoting, digestion 2 n Substance which aids or promotes digestion
- digestively, adv Proo & -ly In a digestive manner or state
- digestiveness, n See proo & -ness State, quality, of being digestive
- diggable, adj [1 digabl, 2 digabl] See dig (I) & -able Capable of being dug
- digger, n [1 diger, 2 digo] dig (I) & -er 1 a One who, that which, digs, specif b one who digs for gold, also gold-digger 2 Burrowing wasp, also digger-wasp 3 (pl) A tribe of Indians in western North America, who live mainly on roots
- diggings, n [1 digunz, 2 diginz] dig (I) & -ing 1 Area in which gold is dug, gold-field 2 (colloq) Lodgings
- digit, vb trans [1 dít, 2 davt] O E dihtan, 'compose, write'; M E dihten, 'to prepare, set in order, guide, dispose', sp O E G dihtón, 'to make poetry', fr Lat dicāre, 'to say, declare, repeat, to dictate, to make, compose' See dicāte Obs ill revived by Scott (archaism and poet, usually in PP) To prepare, array, adorn, dress 'With blushing rose-buds gaily digit'
- digit, n [1 dijit, 2 didžit], fr Lat digit-(us), 'a finger, a toe, an inch', prob fr earlier diktus*, fr base dik-, reduced grade of base dek-, dok-*, 'to show, point out' See dictio See too for similar development in meaning 1 a A finger, hence, b (zool) a finger or toe, o the breadth of the finger, about three quarters of an inch 2 (arith) One of the numbers or figures from 0 to 9 3 (astron) A twelfth part of the diameter of the sun or moon (term used to express amount obscured in an eclipse)
- digital, adj & n [1 dijitl, 2 didžitl] See proo & -al 1 adj Pertaining to the fingers 2 n One of the keys of an instrument such as the organ or piano
- digitalin, n [1 dijitálin, 2 didžitálin] See next word & -in A poison obtained from the leaves of the foxglove
- digitalis, n [1 dijitális, 2 didžitális] Mod. Bot Lat, fr digit & -al, prob suggested by the Germ finger-(huf), 'thumb', popular name for the foxglove a A genus of plants, including the common foxglove, b a poisonous, medicinal drug obtained from the purple foxglove, used to increase blood-pressure in diseases of the heart
- digitate-(d), adj [1 dijitat, -ated, 2 didžitat, -etid] See digit & -ate & -ed, a (zool) Having separate fingers or toes, not web-footed, b (bot) having long finger-like divisions or lobes
- digitation, n [1 dijitáshun, 2 didžitáshun] See proo & -ion State of being digitate(d)
- digitigrade, adj & n [1 dijitigrád, 2 didžitigrád], fr Lat digit-(us) (see digit) & gradus, 'step' See gradus (zool) a adj Walking on the toes, without placing the whole of the foot on the ground, b n, a digitigrade animal
- diglyph, n [1 dighl, 2 daiql], fr Gk diglyphos, 'doubly indented', fr di- (II) & glyphé, 'carving' See deotyloglyph (archit) An ornamental double groove on a tablet &c
- dignified, adj [1 dignifid, 2 dignifaid] PP of next word Possessing and exhibiting stateliness, dignity, of bearing and character
- dignify, vb trans [1 dignifi, 2 dignitas], fr O Fr dignifier, fr L Lat dignificare See dignify & -ty a To do honour to, make noble, show worthiness of, render illustrious, exalt 'Rejudge his acts, and dignify disgrace' (Pope), b to confer an appearance of honour upon, esp by giving a high-sounding name he dignifies his few books by the name of library
- dignitary, n [1 dignitari, 2 dignitari] See next word & -ary (esp eccles) A person holding a high and dignified office
- dignity, n [1 dignita, 2 digniti], fr O Fr, dignete, fr Lat dignitas-(em), 'worth, merit, grandeur, rank, power', fr dignus, 'suitable, becoming, proper', fr deknos* (w. l. voiced by assimilation to fell n), fr Aryan base dek-, dok-, 'to seem good' See decent 1 a (of the mind and character) Serenity, loftiness, elevation; b (of manner, bearing &c) calm stateliness, placid, unruffled grace 2 a An office or position which carries with it respect and deference, high repute, estimation a place of the highest dignity, to uphold the dignity of the Bench, b a specific honour conveying exalted rank to the holder to confer the dignity of a peerage
- digraph, n [1 digráht, 2 ddigráht], fr di- (II) & -graph Combination of two letters representing a single sound, e.g. sh in ship
- digress, vb intrans [1 digrés, digrés, 2 dagrés, digrés], fr Lat digress-(um), PP type of digredi, 'to step aside, depart, to deviate, digress', fr di- (I) & gradi, 'to step, walk', fr gradus, 'a step', See gradus (more rarely) a To leave the direct line or course, turn aside, stray, usually b (fig, of verbal expression) to depart from the main theme, turn aside temporarily to a different subject, to wander, be diffuse
- digression, n [1 digréshun, digréshun, 2 dagréshun, digréshun], fr Lat digressio-(em), a departing, epestrating, fig 'digression' See digress & -ion The act of digressing, temporary departure from chief subject in speech or writing
- digressive, adj [1 digrésiv, digrésiv, 2 dagrésiv, digrésiv] See digress & -ive a (of mode of expression) Departing from, leading away from, the main subject, divagating, b (of persons) given to digression
- digressively, adv Proo & -ly In a digressive manner, as a digression
- dihedral, adj [1 dihédral, 2 daihdral], fr di- (II) & Gk hédra, 'a seat, chair, base' See -hedral Having two plane faces
- dikast See dicast
- dik-dik, n [1 dik dik, 2 dik dik] Native name of a very small antelope, genus Madoqua, of NE Africa, with long hairy nose
- dike (I), dyke, n [1 dik, 2 daiik] M E dik, fr O N dik, 'a dike, ditch' See ditch 1 A ditch, watercourse 2 a An embankment, bank, esp one built up to prevent low country from being flooded, b (fig) a protective barrier the dikes have burst, revolution is overwhelming us 3 (geol) Igneous rock, forced, while in a melted state, into fissures of other rock
- dike (II), vb trans, fr proo To protect (land &c) by constructing dikes, supply with dikes
- dike-reeve, n See proo & reeve A superintendent of the dikes, drainage &c, of the lens
- dilapidate, vb trans & intrans [1 dilapidát, 2 dilapidet], fr Lat dilapidat-(um), PP type of dilapidare, 'to demolish, lit 'pull out the stones of a structure', fr di- (I) & lapidare, 'to throw stones at', fr lapid, 'stone' See lapidary, lapis lazuli a trans To bring into, cause to fall into, a state of disrepair, to ruin, b intrans, to fall into bad condition, become in need of repair, decay, deteriorate
- dilapidated, adj [1 dilapidáted, 2 dilapidetted], fr PP of proo a (of buildings) Fallen into decay, tumbling down, ruinous, tottery, b of various ruinous things dilapidated fortune, furniture, c (of human beings) untidy, dishevelled, shabby, down-at heel
- dilapidation, n [1 dilapidáshun, 2 dilapidetshun] dilapidate & -ion 1 a Process of becoming, state of being, dilapidated, b specif, the decay, deterioration, wear and tear of ecclesiastical property (buildings &c) while held by a particular incumbent, (pl) particular objects thus dilapidated to pay for dilapidations 2 The act of causing dilapidation
- dilatability, n [1 dilatábilítá, 2 dilatébilité] See next word & -ity The property of being dilatible
- dilatable, adj [1 dilatábl, 2 dilatébibl] dilate & -able Capable of dilation
- dilation, n [1 dilatáshun, 2 dilatetshun], fr Lat dilatatio-(um), PP type of dilatāre, 'to enlarge, widen, expand' (lit and fig), see next word & -ion The act or process of dilating, state of being dilated, expansion
- dilate, vb intrans & trans [1 dilát, dilát, 2 dilatét, dilatét], fr Lat dilatāre, 'to widen, enlarge, extend', fig 'to expand', fr di- (I) & lat-us, 'broad, wide, extensive, copious, diffuse' See latitude 1 intrans a To grow larger, swell out, expand in all directions, b (fig) dilate upon, to speak or write at length, enlarge to dilate upon a subject 2 trans To cause to expand, make grow larger, enlarge, widen
- dilatation, n [1 dilatáshun, dilatáshun, 2 dilatetshun, dilatetshun] See proo & -ion Dilation
- dilatator, n [1 dilatator, 2 dilatetia] See dilate & -or An agent causing dilation, specif (anat) a muscle that dilates an organ
- dilatatorily, adv [1 dilatatoril, 2 dilatetiril] fr dilatatory & -ly In a dilatatory manner
- dilatatoriness, n [1 dilatatorines, 2 dilatetirines] Next word & -ness The quality of being dilatatory, tardiness
- dilatatory, adj [1 dilatatori, 2 dilatetiri], fr Lat dilatātorius, 'dilatatory', fr dilat (um), PP type of differre, 'to spread about, part around, to publish, divulge, to put off, delay' See defer a Slow in getting things done, loitering, inclined to inaction and delay, b (of action) belated
- dilemma, n [1 dilema, dilema, 2 dilema, dilema] Lat, fr Gk dilemma, 'a double proposition, dilemma', fr di- (II) & lemma, 'something received, income, receipts', (in log) 'an assumption', fr labb* na, cp Gk lambdanein, 'to take, seize', fr labb*, cp Gk laphtron, 'something seized, booty' Aryan base labb*, labb*, 'to take, seize', cp Scrt. labbhat, labbhaté, 'seizes', labb labbis, 'possession' Cp lemma a (log) Choice, in argument, between two alternative difficulties to be put into a dilemma, on the horns of a dilemma, b (in gen) a difficult, perplexing situation, one surrounded by obstacles, choice of evils
- dilettante, pl dilettanti, n & adj [1. dilitanti, -s, 2 dilitanti, -i] Ital, fr dilettore, fr Lat dilectare, 'to delight, engage, attract' See dilectation & -ant 1 n An amateur lover of art and letters without deep knowledge of any subject 2 adj Amateur, unprofessional, superficial
- dilettantish, adj [1 dilitantish, 2 dilitentish] Proo & -ish Given to dilettantism, superficial
- dilettantism, n [1 dilitantizm, 2 dilitentizm] Proo & -ism Amateur dabbling in art and letters, superficial knowledge of a subject
- diligence (I), n [1 diliyans, 2 dilitians], fr Fr, fr Lat diligentia, 'carefulness, scrupulous attention, economy, frugality' See diligent & -ous The quality of being diligent, industry, careful application to work, constant, pertinacious effort diligence (II), n [1 dilihzháns, 2 dilihzhás] Fr Same as prec Ironically so called fr its habitual sloveness A public stago coach conveying passengers and luggage (esp in France and Switzerland), foreign public motor coach diligent, adj [1 dilihént, 2 dilihéánt] fr Fr, fr Lat diligent (em), Pres Part type of diligere, 'to value highly, love' Prob fr dis lego*, 'I trouble about a matter', fr same base as in Gl. algae, 'to concern oneself', algos, 'pain, trouble', see -algia, & op religion & neglect a (of persons) In dourous, working with careful and persistent effort, b (of work, manner of work &c) carried out with care and concentrated effort, painstaking, laborious diligently, adv Prec & -ly In a diligent manner dill, n [1 dil, 2 dil] ME dille, dile, OE dile, op OHG tilh An annual herb, Anethum, belonging to the parsley family, having umbelliferous yellow flowers, the seeds of which yield a strongly smelling oil which is used as a carminative for colic and wind, dill water, medicine obtained by steeping these seeds, or by diluting the oil, used as an infant's medicine to cure wind &c dilly-dally, vb intrans [1 dilih dáli, 2 dilih dáli] Redupl form of dally To hesitate, waste time in vacillation diluent, adj & n [1 dilúent, 2 dilúhént] fr Pres Part of Lat diluere, 'to wash away, dissolve, to temper, dilute, to weaken, remove', fr di- (I) & luere, 'to wash' See alluvion & lava 1 adj Used for diluting, having the property of diluting 2 n That which dilutes, specif (med) a remedy used to increase the fluidity of the blood dilute (I), vb trans [1 dilút, 2 dilúhút] fr Lat dilui (um), PP type of diluere, 'to wash away, dissolve, dilute' See prec a To make thinner, weaker, or more fluid, by the addition of another substance or fluid, b (fig) to weaken force of, alter general character of, by mixture with something different dilute (II), adj [1 dilút, dilút, 2 dilúhút, dilúhút] fr Lat dilui (um), as prec Weakened, thinned down (lit and fig) dilution, n [1 dilúebun, 2 dilúhúfan] See dilute (I) & -ion 1 a The act, or process, of diluting, state of being diluted, b (lit and fig) weakening, watering down, by dilution 2 Something which has been diluted diluvial, adj [1 dilúvial, 2 dilúhúvial] fr L Lat diluvialis, fr diluvium, see alluvion, deluge, & -al a Pertaining to a flood, specif that of Noah, b produced by an unusual deluge, esp by the deluge caused by the melting of the great northern ice sheet, diluvial deposits, formations, accumulations of debris carried down by the floods of the diluvial epoch diluvialist, n [1 dilúvialist, 2 dilúhúvialist] Prec & -ist One who explains certain geological phenomena as due to the Deluge diluvian, adj [1 dilúvian, 2 dilúhúvian] See next word & -an Pertaining to a flood of human epoch, (geol) a division of the Quaternary period, characterized by large deposits of debris from the floods from the great northern ice sheet diluvium, n [1 dilúvium, 2 dilúhúvium] Lat, a flood, deluge', fig, 'destruction', fr di- (I) & grade 'in of base 'lou &c, to wash, wash away', whence Lat lavare, 'to wash' (fr loue*-) See lave & deluge (geol) A solid accumulation of debris, a deposit due to a powerful action of water din (I), adj [1 dim, 2 dim] OE dimm, 'dim, obscure', ME din (m), O Frs dim, ON dimmr, OHG timber, 'gloomy, obscure', cogn w O Ir deim, dark, obscure', & w Gk themérōs, 'grave, serious', Aryan base them*, 'gloomy, obscure' 1 a (of light) Faint, lacking in brightness, partially obscured, b (by trans, of objects) not clearly seen, indistinct, shadowy. o (of sight, eyes) unable to see clearly, defective 2 (of sounds) Indistinct, faint, not clearly heard, esp from being far away 3 (fig, of mental impressions and ideas) Faint, vague, not clearly defined a dim idea, the memory of it has grown dim dim (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To cause to grow, make, dim, b to outshine, cause to seem dim, render dull by comparison the light of a candle is dimmed by that of the sun 2 intrans To grow dim, fade, become indistinct dimas, n [1 dim, 2 dim] ME dime, fr Fr dime, fr O Fr disme, 'a tenth part, tithe' See decimal (USA) n A silver coin of the United States, worth ten cents (one tenth of a dollar) Phr not care a dime, probable origin of that which now substitutes damn for last word, b used attributively, for something very cheap and inferior a dime museum, novel &c dimension, n [1 diménshun, 2 diménfan] fr Lat dimensio (em), 'a measuring', fr dimens (um), PP type of dimensio, 'to measure out', fr di- (I) & mens, 'to measure, to go through, traverse, to judge, consider' See measure (I) 1 Measurement of extent in any one of three single directions, as length, depth, breadth &c 2 (math) Extension of above meaning to include any number of additional dimensions, eg n dimensions, a fourth dimension &c, see also space-time 3 (pl) a Extent of measurement in all three directions the dimensions of a room, hence b size, capacity a house, a bowl &c, of considerable dimensions, (of non-material things) importance, scope a scheme of vast dimensions dimensional, adj [1 diménshunal, 2 diménfan] Prec & -al Having measurement, capable of being measured Used in compounds one dimensional (applied to a line), two dimensional, with measurement in two directions, three dimensional space, that of length, breadth, and depth &c dimensionless, adj [1 diménshunles, 2 diménfanles] dimension & -less (of a point) Having no dimensions, without length, breadth, or height dimorous, adj [1 dimorus, 2 dimores] fr di- (II) & Gk méros, 'a part, lot', & -ous Op Lat merere, 'obtain, acquire, deserve', lit 'to receive one's share' See merit (bot and entom) Having, consisting of, two parts, joints, members dimeter, n [1 diméter, 2 diméto] fr Lat, fr Gk dimētrōs, 'having two measures', fr di- & mētron, 'a measure' See -meter A verse consisting of two measures dimidiate, adj [1 dimidiát, 2 dimidiént] fr Lat dimidiatus (us), PP type of dimidiare, 'to halve, divide into halves', fr Lat dimidiare, 'through the middle, half', fr dis medios* See dis- & medium Divided into halves, split into two equal parts diminish, vb trans & intrans [1 diminish, 2 diminish] Fr diminuer, 'reduce', not fr Lat diminuere, 'to lessen' &c, but new formation fr di- (I), intens & minish a trans To cause to grow smaller, lessen, reduce, b intrans, to become smaller, be reduced in quantity, grow less diminishable, adj [1 diminishabl, 2 diminishabl] Prec & -able That can be diminished diminished, adj [1 diminished, 2 diminished] PP of diminish A lessened, reduced, brought lower Phr to hide one's diminished head, to feel shamed or abashed, op Milton, 'at whose sight all the stars Hide their diminished heads' (PL II 34.5), b (mus, of intervals) lessened by one chromatic semitone diminishingly, adv [1 diminishingly, 2 diminishingly] Pres Part of diminish & -ly In a diminishing manner, growing gradually smaller diminuendo, n. & adv [1 diminuendó, 2 diminuendó] Ital, fr Pres Part of diminuere, fr Lat diminuere, 'to lessen, make smaller', fr di- (I) & minuere, 'to make smaller, to chop in pieces, to detract from, impair, to alter, modify' See minute (II) (mus) 1 n A gradual decrease in the volume of sound, reduction of loudness, b a passage to be played or sung with such a gradual decrease 2 adv Getting gradually softer, opposed to crescendo diminution, n [1 diminúshun, 2 diminúshun] fr Lat diminutio (em), also diminutio (em), 'a lessening, diminishing', fr diminui (um), PP type of diminuere, 'to lessen, take from' See prec & -ion The act, or process, of diminishing, state of being diminished, gradual lessening in size, quality, amount &c my resources show a considerable diminution diminutival, adj [1 diminútivl, 2 diminútivl] See next word & -al Pertaining to a diminutive diminutive, adj & n [1 diminútiv, 2 diminútiv] See diminution & -ive 1 adj a Very small, tiny, minuscule, b (gram) expressing diminution, smallness in size, often expressed by special suffix, eg -let 2 n. (gram) A word thus formed, to express diminished size, minuteness diminutively, adv Prec & -ly In a diminutive manner diminutiveness, n See prec & -ness The state of being diminutive dimissory, adj [1 dimisori, 2 dimissori] fr L Lat dimissorius See dismiss & -ory Giving leave to depart, (esp eccles) letter dimissory (from the bishop of a diocese) dinuity, n [1 dimity, 2 dimity] fr Ital dimito, fr Low Lat dimittum, fr Gk dimittōs, of double thread', also as n, 'dimity', fr di- (II) & mitos, 'a thread, warp thread, string (of a lyre)', etymol unknown A strong cotton material with raised patterns, usually white, used for curtains &c dimly, adv [1 dimly, 2 dimly] dim (I) & -ly In a dim manner, faintly, indistinctly diminish, adj [1 dimish, 2 dimish] dim (I) & -ish Fairly dim, partially obscured dimness, n [1 dimnis, 2 dimnis] dim (I) & -ness The state of being dim dimorphic, dimorphous, adj [1 dimorfik, fus, 2 dimorfik, -fes] fr Gk dimorph- (os), 'two formed' (fr di- (II) & morphē, 'form, shape'), & -ic, -ous See morphology (bot, chem, zool) Exhibiting dimorphism dimorphism, n [1 dimorfizm, 2 dimorfizem] See prec & -ism (biol) Difference of structure, colour &c between members of same species dimple (I), n [1 dimpl, 2 dimpl] Not found till 16th cent, perb cogn w OHG dimphilo, Germ Stimpel, 'a pool' a A rounded hollow, slight depression in surface of the flesh, esp in cheek, chin, arms &c, b a slight depression in the ground, surface of water &c dimple (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To form, produce, show, dimples in the wind dimples the surface of the lake, b intrans, to become dimpled, show, form, dimples to dimple with laughter dimply, adj [1 dimpl, 2 dimpl] fr dimple (I) & -y Having dimples, full of dimples din (I), n [1 din, 2 din] OE dyne, ME dine, ON dynr, fr Prim Gmc dun* t, op OS, M Du done, fr Prim Gmc dun* o, perb. cogn w Gk thúnos, attack', Sort thén oti, 'to shake violently', fr Aryan base dhén*, 'to be violent, attack fiercely', w the meaning specialized in Gmc to 'sound caused by violent blows', op dant The base is perb extended fr dhew* a-, dhew* a-, 'to move rapidly' See dew, dull, fury, fume Loud, continuous, clamour or clatter, confusing noise din (II), vb trans & intrans ME dinsen, OE dynian, op Oð dynja, OS dunan See prec. 1 trans To express, repeat, with insistent clamour, or with persistence to diphthongization, n [1 diphthongizatsiun, 2 diphthongizatsiun] See next word & -ation (philol.) Development of a diphthongal pronunciation from what was originally a single vowel, e.g. i sound in O.E. wif [i] has become Mod. [aɪ] diphthongize, vb trans [1 diphthongiz, 2 diphthongiz] See diphthong & -ize To develop a diphthong from a single vowel sound diplo(-), pref, fr Gk diplos, 'double', fr di- (II) & pl*, ep Lat du pl us, 'double' (see double), reduced form of base pel* & c, 'to bend' See pliant, fold (I) (in scientific terms) Double, in two separate parts diploblastus, ndj [1 diploblastik, 2 diploblastik] See prec & first element in blastoderm & -io (biol.) Having two germ layers only, as a jelly fish &c diplocardiac, adj [1 diplokardiak, 2 diplokardiak] diplo- & cardiac (biol.) Having the heart double or divided, as in mammals and birds diplocoelus, n [1 diplokoelus, 2 diplokoelus] fr diplo- & Gk dollos, 'beam bar, shaft', fr the double bony bars protecting the blood vessels beneath the long tail. For the second element see dogma A gigantic, North American extinct dinosaur, with enormous tail and neck and domblute head diploma, n [1 diplōma, 2 diplōma] Lat diplōma, 'a state letter, a document granting a privilege', fr Gk diplōma, 'a folded paper, a letter of recommendation, a letter of licence, privilege' &c, fr Gk diploos, 'double' See diplo(-) 1 An official document, a charter granted by the State 2 A certificate granted by an authority to confer an honour or privilege, esp a certificate given by a university or other learned body attesting the holder's proficiency in a certain branch of study a diploma in architecture, in education &c diplomacy, n [1 diplōmasi, 2 diplōmasi], fr Fr diplomatie See diploma The specialized meaning has come from the idea of a state document 1 The art and business of conducting and managing affairs of state, esp those concerned with international relations 2 A skill in this science, hence, b tact and skill in dealing with people adroitness in managing situations involving clash of human relations and interests diplomated, adj [1 diplōmad, 2 diplōmad] diplōma & -ed Holding a diploma diplomat, n [1 diplomat, 2 diplomat], fr Fr diplomate, back formation fr diplomatique See next word A person professionally employed in the management of state business, esp of international relations, b a person of tact and skill in dealing with affairs and people diplomatic, ndj [1 diplōmatik, 2 diplōmatik], fr Fr diplomatique, fr Mod Lat diplomaticus, fr Gk diplōmatik, stem of diplōma (see diploma), 'a folded state letter', & -io 1 A pertaining to diplomacy diplomatic service, that connected with embassies in foreign countries, b (of persons) skilled in conducting and managing human relations, adroit, tactful, c (of conduct, actions, words &c) tactful ingratiating, conducive to easy, pleasant, smooth running of business 2 A Relating to the minute study, and to the deciphering of documents, hence, b (of printed text) printed directly from the manuscript without emendations &c diplomatically, adv [1 diplōmatikali, 2 diplōmatikali] prec & -al & -ly In a diplomatic manner diplomatics, n [1 diplōmatika, 2 diplōmatika] See diplomatic, 2 The science of dealing with, and effectively using, manuscripts of determining their age, authenticity, and place of origin from internal evidence diplomatist, n [1 diplōmatist, 2 diplōmatist] diplomat & -ist Diplomat diplomatize, vb intrans [1 diplōmatiz, 2 diplōmatiz] diplomat & -ize To carry on diplomatic negotiations dipnoi, n pl [1 dipnoi, 2 dipnoi], fr Gk dipnoos, 'doubly breathing' See di- (II) & pneuma, (zool.) A group of fishes, able to breathe water and air by means of lung like organs, living in muddy pools &c which dry during hot weather Also called lung fishes or mud fishes dipolar, adj [1 dipolar, 2 dipolar], fr di- (II) & polar Having two poles, as a magnet dipolarize, vb trans [1 dipolariz, 2 dipolariz] prec & -ize To magnetize a bar of iron dipper, n [1 dipper, 2 dipper] See dip (I) & -or Something that dips, or is used for dipping, specif a n kind of diving bird, b a one shaped vessel with a long handle, used for ladling liquid, c a member of an American sect of Baptists, d popular name of the Great Bear or Charles's Wain dipsomania, n [1 dipsomani, 2 dipsomani], fr Gk dipso, dipsa, 'thirst', & mania The etymol of the first element is unknown A form of insanity, consisting of an irresistible craving for alcohol dipsomaniac, n [1 dipsomaniak, 2 dipsomaniak] See prec & mania A person afflicted with dipsomania

Diptera, n [1 diptera, 2 diptera], fr Lat, fr Gk diptēr (as), 'with two wings', (of a temple) 'with a double peristyle', fr di- (II) & ptērōn, 'a feather, wing', hence 'anything resembling a wing' See ptero- An order of insects which have two wings only, popularly known as flies dipteral, ndj [1 dipteral, 2 dipteral] See prec & -al 1 (of insects) Dipterous 2 (archit) Built with two peristyles dipterous, ndj [1 dipterus, 2 dipterus] See Diptera & -ous a (entom.) Belonging to the order Diptera, b (bot, of seeds) two-winged diptych, n [1 diptik, 2 diptik], fr Gk diptukha, 'a double tablet, fr diptukhos, 'folded double', fr di- (II) & ptukhē, 'a fold, layer, plate, a cleft, gully, a writing-tablet', perb dissimilated fr phthukh*, fr Aryan bhithugh*, bheugh*, 'to fold', cp Goth bragan, 'to bend' See how (I) 1 Ancient writing tablet folded in the middle, made usually of wood coated with wax. 2 A painting or carving on two tablets seen neated with hinges dure, ndj [1 dir, 2 dais], fr Lat durus, 'fearful, terrible, ill omened, cruel' Cp Zend dvaēhda, 'menace', Gk deudō, 'terrible' The Lat form is fr older des rus*, w dialectal (prob Umbrian) d (instead of b) fr Aryan dū, Aryan base dwer*, dvor*, 'to fear' See dinosaur Dreadful, terrible, disastrous, (also poet dureful) direct (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dirēkt, 2 dirēkt], fr Lat directum, PP type of dirigere, 'to put into a straight line, set straight, draw up, to aim, direct, to guide, arrange', fr dir- (I) & regere, 'to put or lead in a straight line, to guide, lead, to control, correct' See rectum, regent, right A. trans 1 A To guide, control, manage, regulate affairs or progress of to direct a business, a campaign &c, b to take the lead in a piece of work and give instructions to those carrying it out to direct the building of a house 2 To cause to turn in a particular direction concentrate on a particular object to direct one's eyes, attention, efforts &c towards an object 3 A To address, make remarks &c to a person, whether orally or in writing to direct one's remarks observations (to), b to write, put a name and address on (a missive &c) to direct a letter, envelope, parcel 4 To point out the way to a place, instruct which road &c to take can you direct me to the butcher's B intrans To perform the act of directing direct (II), adj, fr Lat directus See prec 1 A Straight, undeviating, as short as possible the direct road, route, hence, b not turned aside, deflected, intercepted, or interfered with on the way a direct hit, the direct rays of the sun, c (general) lineal, traced continuously from father to son direct descent, descendant, d (fig.) Immediate, without intermediate agent direct influence, direct tax, direct action, that taken by a large group of workmen, by means of an immediate strike &c, without reference to ordinary trade union methods or parliamentary action &c, e (in contrasting) exact, diametrical the direct opposite 2 (fig.) Straightforward, unhesitating, going straight to the point a direct question 3 (gram, of speech) In the words actually used by the speaker direct (III), adv, fr prec In a straight line without interrupting journey, not going round about to go direct to London, the train goes there direct direction, n [1 dirēkshun, 2 dirēkshun], fr Lat directiō (em), 'a making straight, an aiming, guiding' direct (I) & -ion 1 The course taken by a moving object, path along which movement proceeds, point towards which movement or progress tends, towards which one turns, looks &c in the direction of London, from all directions, (also fig) reforms in many directions 2 A Management, control, guidance to work under the direction of another, b body of persons who control, manage, board of directors, directorate 3 A An order, expression of wishes, instruction to give directions, b information, description, instruction, how something should be done, used &c - full directions inside, (of machine medicine &c) 4 Address (on a letter &c) direction finder, n Wireless aerial so constructed as to indicate direction from which wireless signals are coming directive, adj [1 dirēktiv, 2 dirēktiv] direct (I) & -ive Intended, tending, to direct, having the function of directing directly, adv [1 dirēktli, 2 dirēktli] direct (II) & -ly 1 (of space) In a direct manner, straight, undeviatingly to look directly at, go directly towards, a person 2 (of manner) Immediately, without intervening conditions, circumstances to be directly affected 3 (of time) a Immediately, now, at once, b in a short time, very soon 4 (colloq, as conj) As soon as I will come directly I have finished directness, n [1 dirēktnes, 2 dirēktnes] direct (II) & -ness The quality of being direct (in various senses), esp a of going straight to the point, downrightness directness of manner, speech, b act of concentrating the glance straight nt directness of look, c quality of being unimpeded, of coming straight from the source directness of information directoire, n & adj [1 dirēktwar, 2 dirēktwā], fr Lat directorium See directory a n French Revolutionary Government of 1795-99, b adj, belonging to this period specif, applied to furniture and style of decoration of the period director, n [1 dirēktor, 2 dirēkte] direct (I) & -or One who, that which, directs specif a one who guides, instructs, governs controls a director of studies, b a member of the board of management of a commercial company directorate, n [1 dirēktorat, 2 dirēktariv] See prec & -ate A The office of director, b board of directors of a commercial company &c directorship, n [1 dirēktorship, 2 dirēktorship] director & -ship A The office of director, b period of tenure of this office directory (I), adj [1 dirēktori, 2 dirēktori] direct (I) & -ory Guiding, giving instructions, advising directory (II), n, fr prec 1 That which directs, specif a book of instructions, a book of devotions, b a book containing lists of names and addresses of persons arranged alphabetically, or according to some other specific plan, of inhabitants of a county, town &c, list of telephone subscribers,

1 To remove weapons from, to deprive of weapons, or of means of attack 2 (fig) To conciliate, to allay suspicions of, appease anger or hostility, to render friendly by one's conduct, words &c to disarm criticism, to be disarmed by a person's frankness and candour B intrans (of nations) To reduce or abolish military or naval equipment, reduce means of attack and defence disarmament, n [1 disar'ment, 2 disar'ment] dis- & armament a The action of reducing the scale of naval or military equipment of a nation, of diminishing its striking power, b act of removing offensive and defensive equipment from a ship &c, c the state of being disarmed disarrange, vb trans [1 disar'anj, 2 disar'endz] dis- & arrange To put out of order, put into confusion, disturb, upset arrangement of to disarrange a person's plans, hair, furniture &c disarrangement, n [1 disar'anjment, 2 disar'endzment] See prec & -ment The act of disarranging, state of being disarranged, disorder disarray (L), vb trans [1 disar'aj, 2 disar'ej] dis- & array a To put into disorder, disturb, throw into confusion, b (archaic, poet) to remove clothes of, undress disarray (IL), n, fr prec The state of being disarrayed, disorder, confusion disarticulate, vb trans [1 disartik'ulāt, 2 disartik'ulejt] dis- & articulate To take to pieces, separate at the joints disarticulation, n [1 disartik'ulāshun, 2 disartik'ulejshun] Prec & -ation The act of disarticulating, state of being disarticulated disaster, n [1 dizaster, 2 dizastā] M E, fr O Fr desastre, lit 'hostile star, fate', hence 'calamity', fr dis- & Lat astrum, fr Gk astron, 'a star' See astral a Calamity, misfortune, b event causing severe distress or ruin, a blow, stroke of ill fortune disastrous, adj [1 dizāstrus, 2 dizastras] See prec & -ous Causing, fraught with, disaster, calamitous disastrously, adv Prec & -ly In a disastrous manner disavow, vb trans [1 disavon, 2 disavdu] fr Fr désavouer dis- & avow To reject, deny belief in or approval of, repudiate disavowal, n [1 dizavonāl, 2 dizavauāl] dis- & avowal Refusal to acknowledge, repudiation disband, vb trans & intrans [1 disband, 2 disband] dis- & band (I) a trans To bring to an end as an organized force, to break up (troops &c), b intrans, (of troops &c) to scatter, disperse disbar, vb trans [1 disbar, 2 dishd] dis- & bar (I) To dismiss, expel from the bar, to deprive of status of barrister, by authority of the Benchers of an Inn of Court disbarment, n [1 disbarment, 2 dishdment] See prec & -ment The act of disbarring, state of being disbarred disbelief, n [1 disbelif, 2 dishillf] dis- & belief Absence of belief disbelieve, vb trans & intrans [1 dishelēv, 2 dishillv] dis- & believe 1 trans a To be unable or unwilling to believe a statement, or doctrine, to hold that a statement or doctrine is untrue, to withhold credence from to disbelieve a story, b to place no reliance in a person in respect of what he says, to refuse to believe him to disbelieve a witness 2 intrans To have no belief in, refuse to place credit in to disbelieve in a person, in what he says disbeliever, n [1 dishelēver, 2 dishillvā] Prec & -er One who disbelieves, specif, in religious doctrines disbench, vb trans [1 disbēnch, 2 dishentf] dis- & bench To deprive of the privilege of a Benchers, i.e. of membership of an Inn of Court disbranch, vb trans [1 disbrānh, 2 dishratf] dis- & branch To remove branches from.

disbud, vb trans [1 dishūd, 2 dishād] dis- & bud To remove buds from, in order to increase the growth of the buds and shoots left disburden, vb trans [1 dishērdn, 2 dishādn] dis- & burden To relieve of a load esp (fig) to disburden one's mind (of) disburse, vb trans & intrans [1 dishurs, 2 dishās] fr O Fr desbourser dis- & boursa a trans To give, pay out, spend (money), b intrans, to make payments of money disbursement, n [1 dishērsment, 2 dishārsment] See prec & -ment Expenditure, payment of money disc See disk

discalceate, discalcented, discalced, adj [1 diskalsiāt(ed), diskālat, 2 diskalsient(id), diskālst] fr Lat discalceatus, 'barefooted', fr dis- & PP type of calceare, 'to furnish with shoes', fr calceus, 'a shoe' See calceolaria (of members of religious orders) Unshod, barefooted, or wearing sandals discard (I), vb trans [1 diskard, 2 diskdd] dis- & card (II) (lit) 1 To throw away cards as valueless in the game Hence 2, to give up as being of no more use, abandon, throw aside, reject something one has formerly held someone for whom one had affection &c discard (II), n Usually [1 diskard, 2 diskād], fr prec a The act of discarding at cards, b card so thrown out discern, vb trans [1 dishērn, 2 dishān] fr Fr discerner, fr Lat discernere, 'to divide, separate, to distinguish, discern, to determine, decide', fr dis- & cernere, 'to sift, to distinguish, perceive, to understand, to judge, decide' See certain & concern a To perceive, make out clearly, distinguish, by means of the senses, esp by the sight to discern a distant object, b to distinguish with the mind, to make out to discern no difference, to discern the meaning of discernible, adj [1 dishērnibl, 2 dishānibl] See prec & -ible That can be discerned discernibly, adv Prec & -ly In a discernible manner, perceptibly discerning, adj [1 dishērnjng, 2 dishānjng] Prec Part of discern Having keen perception, discriminating, gifted with insight discernment, n [1 dishērnment, 2 dishānment] See discern & -ment Keenness of mental perception, faculty of discrimination, insight, sagacity, penetration discernment of character discerptibility, n [1 dishērpibiliti, 2 dishāpibiliti] See next word & -ity (rare) The quality of being discerptible discerptible, adj [1 dishērpibibl, 2 dishāpibibl] fr Lat discerpt(um), PP type of discerpere, 'to pluck in pieces, to scatter, disperse', fr dis- & carpere, 'to pluck, gather, to graze on', fig 'to snatch, gather, to slander, to cut to pieces, divide, to pass over, sail through' See carpel (rare) That can be severed, pulled to pieces discerption, n [1 dishērpsun, 2 dishāpsun] fr Lat discerptio (em), 'a tearing in pieces' See discerptible & -ion (rare) The action of tearing to pieces, disunion, the state or process of being pulled apart discharge (I), vb trans [1 disharj, 2 dishādj] fr O Fr descharger See dis- & charge 1 To take, or send, out contents of, specif a to fire (a gun &c), b to remove electricity from (substance charged with it)

2 To give or send out, emit, eject a sewer discharges its contents, chimney discharges smoke &c specif a (of a ship) to unload, remove (cargo &c), b (of a wound, abscess &c) to emit matter, 3 a To dismiss, release, allow to depart from service, regular attendance &c (i) in good sense, to discharge a soldier, a patient from hospital, a prisoner &c, (ii) in bad sense to discharge a servant for misconduct, b to relieve from the order of a court discharged bankrupt & (fig) a To perform, carry out (duty &c), b to pay, make payment for (a debt &c) discharge (II), n, fr prec 1 The process of discharging the discharge of a gun &c 2 The act of giving or sending out, a (of cargo), unloading, b (of an abscess &c) emission of matter, that which is discharged from an abscess &c 3 a Dismissal, release from duty, service &c, b testimonial to character and capacity given to discharged person, c order of release from order of a court to get, apply for, one's discharge in bankruptcy & Performance, carrying out discharge of one's duties discharger, n [1 dishārjor, 2 dishādjā] discharge (I) & -or One who, that which, discharges, specif (elect) a contrivance for removing electricity from a substance that has been charged with it discharging-arch, n [1 dishārjng arch, 2 dishādjng dtj] fr Prec Part of discharge (I) & arch (archt) Arch built over the lintel of a door to relieve the weight of masonry above it disciple, n [1 dishipl, 2 dishapl] fr O E discipul, fr Lat discipulus, 'a learner, pupil, an apprentice', (eccl) 'a follower of Christ', fr discipere, 'to take in mentally, to learn', fr dis- & capere, 'to take, receive' See under captive & -ule a A follower, adherent, of any particular school or leader of religion, thought, learning, art &c Specif b an early follower of Christ, esp one of the twelve Apostles discipleship, n [1 dishiplshp, 2 dishaplshp] Prec & -ship The office or position of a disciple, period of being a disciple disciplinable, adj [1 dishiplnabl, 2 dishiplnabl] disciplines (II) & -able (rare) Capable of being brought under discipline disciplinary, adj [1 dishiplnal, 2 dishiplnāl] discipline (I) & -al Pertaining to discipline disciplinarian, n [1 dishiplnarian, 2 dishiplnarian] See next word & -an One who maintains and enforces discipline disciplinarily, adv [1 dishiplnari, 2 dishiplnari] See next word & -ary Pertaining to discipline, involving mental and moral training discipline (I), n [1 dishipln, 2 dishipln] fr Lat disciplina, 'instruction, teaching, knowledge, science' See discipline & -ine 1 a Systematic training, exercise, development and control, of the mental, moral, and physical faculties school discipline, the discipline of hard work, of orderliness, b system of instruction and control inculcating submission to established authority, obedience to command of superiors, self-control, orderly behaviour military discipline, people nowadays need not more liberty but more discipline, to enforce discipline 2 Result of disciplinary control and training a command of the mental, moral, and physical faculties, b orderliness of behaviour, submission to properly constituted authority 3 Particular mode of imparting discipline, training, control, a (intellectual) a branch of learning, methods of a given study, b (moral) punishment, chastisement, c (eccl) penance, mortification discipline (II), vb trans, fr prec To provide discipline in any sense, to control, train mentally, morally, and physically disciplular, adj [1 dishiplular, 2 dishiplulā] See discipline & -ar Pertaining to a disciple disclaim, vb trans & intrans [1 dishlām, 2 dishlām] fr O Fr desclamer See dis- & claim 1 trans a To give up claim to, renounce right in, b to repudiate, disavow (responsibility &c) 2 intrans (rare) To make a disclaimer disclaimer, n [1 dishlāmer, 2 dishlāmā] Prec & -er (law) Denial, disavowal, repudiation, renunciation, as of a claim, title, interest &c disclose, vb trans [1 dishlōz, 2 dishlōuz] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light, disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light,

disclosure, n [1 dishlōsh, 2 dishlōush] fr O Fr desclor, PP type of desclorere, fr dis- & Lat claus (um), claudere, 'to shut' See close (I) & (III) (of material and non-material things) To reveal, bring to light, show, by removing something that covers or conceals to disclose a hidden treasure, a secret &c disclosure, n [1 disklózhur, 2 'disklózha] See prec & -ure 1 The act of disclosing, 2 the state of being disclosed; 3 something that is disclosed, a revelation discobolus, n [1 diskóbolus, 2 diskóbalas] Lat discobolus, 'a quoit thrower', fr 'Gk diskobolos, 'a quoit-thrower', fr diskos, 'a quoit' (see disk), & -bolos, 'a throwing', cp bolé, 'the stroke of a missile', ballean, 'to throw' See ballistics ('archaeol') 1 A quoit thrower, 2 Greek statue of a quoit-thrower discoid, adj [1 diskoid, 2 difekoid] disk & -oid Having the form of a disk discolo(u)ration, n [1 diskilurashun, 2 diskiluré[un]] See next word & -ation The act or process of discolouring, state of being discoloured discolour, vb trans & intrans [1 diskúlar, 2 diskálé] fr O Fr descolorer, fr dis- & Lat colorare, 'to colour' See colour (II) 1 trans To alter, spoil, or destroy, the colour of 2 intrans To become discoloured, to be stained, tarnished discomfit, vb trans [1 diskímfít, 2 diskámfít] fr O Fr desconfir, 'defeated', fr L Lat disconfect (ue), fr Lat dis- & confect (um), PP type of conficere, 'to prepare, execute, to produce, effect, to wear out, consume' See confection a (archaic) To defeat, get the better of; 2 to upset the plans of, disconcert, put out of countenance discomfiture, n [1 diskímfíshur, 2 diskámfítja] Prec & -ure The act of discomfiting, state of being discomfited discomfort (I), n [1 diskúmfurt, 2 diskámíst] fr OE descomfor See dis- & comfort Want of comfort (mental or physical), absence of ease and well-being, inconvenience, hardship discomfort (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To cause discomfort to discommode, vb trans [1 diskumód, 2 'diskamódé] fr dis- & obs 'commode, fr Lat commodare, 'to make fit or suitable, to accommodate, to bestow, lend', fr commodus, 'fit, perfect, proper, convenient' See commode To trouble, disturb, cause inconvenience to discommon, vb trans [1 diskómon, 2 diskúmen] dis- & common 1 To enclose common land, thus depriving it of its character, cause it to cease to be common land 2 a (Oxford and Cambridge Universities, archaic) To deprive (a tradesman) of the right to the custom of undergraduates, 2 to withdraw the right of commons discompose, vb trans [1 diskúmpóz, 2 diskámpouz] dis- & compose To disturb the calmness or self-possession of discomposedly, adv [1 diskúmpózedh, 2 diskámpózedh] PP of prec & -ly In a discomposed manner discomposingly, adv [1 diskúmpózingh, 2 diskámpózingh] Prec Part of dis- & compose & -ly In a manner causing discomposure discomposure, n [1 diskúmpózhur, 2 diskámpózha] discompose & -ure Ruffled state of mind, absence of calmness and composure, embarrassment disconcert, vb trans [1 'diskúnsért, 2 diskánéít] See dis- & concert (II) a (action on persons) To upset balance and self-possession of, discompose, embarrass, 2 (of 'plans' &c) to 'disturb, upset, throw into confusion disconcertment, n [1 diskúnsértment, 2 diskánéítment] Prec & -ment State of being disconcerted disconnect, vb trans [1 diskunékt, 2 diskánékt] dis- & connect To sever connection between (two things), to separate disconnected, adj [1 diskunékted, 2 diskánékted] PP of prec a (esp of thought and its expression) Separated, having connexion severed, not properly related or coordinated, 2 (of events) unrelated by cause and effect, not dependent one on the other disconnectedly, adv Prec & -ly In a disconnected manner to speak, think, disconnectedly disconnectedness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being disconnected disconnexion, less correctly disconnection, n [1 diskunéktshun, 2 diskánekshun] dis- & -ion 'An act of disconnecting, state of being disconnected, 2 disconnectedness disconsolate, adj [1 diskónsolat, 2 diskónsalít] fr Med Lat disconsolatus, fr dis- & Lat consolatus (um), PP type of consolare, 'to console, comfort, to alleviate, soothe' See console (I) Without comfort or consolation, refusing to be consoled, forlorn, sad disconsolately, adv Prec & -ly In a 'disconsolate manner discontent (I), n [1 diskúntént, 2 diskántént] dis- & content (III) Want of content, dissatisfaction discontent (II), vb trans, fr prec To make dissatisfied, to cause to lose pleasure in, fail to please (chiefly in PP as 'adj') to be discontented with one's lot discontentedly, adv [1 diskúnténtedh, 2 diskánténtedh] PP of prec & -ly In a discontented, dissatisfied manner discontentedness, n [1 diskúnténtednes, 2 diskánténtednes] See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being discontented discontentment, n [1 diskúnténtment, 2 diskánténtment] See discontent (II) & -ment The state of being discontented discontiguous, adj [1 diskúntígúns, 2 diskántígúns] dis- & contiguous Not lying side by side, not touching, with space intervening discontinuance, n [1 diskúntínúans, 2 diskántínúans] See discontinue & -ance The act of discontinuing, state of being discontinued, interrupted, cessation discontinuation, n [1 diskúntínúashun, 2 diskántínúashun] See next word & -ation Discontinuance discontinue, vb trans & intrans [1 diskúntínú, 2 diskántínú] fr Fr discontinuer, fr Med Lat discontinúare, fr dis- & Lat continúare, 'to join together, unite, to continue, to perform successively' See continue a trans To stop, cease, break off, interrupt, intermit to discontinue a habit, one's visits, dining at the club &c, 2 intrans, to cease, come to an end publication will discontinue discontinuity, n [1 diskúntínúíta, 2 diskántínúíta] dis- & continuity The quality of being discontinuous, 'lack of continuity, absence of logical or other sequence discontinuity of ideas discontinuous, adj [1 diskúntínúús, 2 diskántínúús] dis- & continuous a (of events or actions) Not continuous, suffering 'interruption, intermittent, 2 (of extension in space) not unbroken, separated by intervening spaces discontinuously, adv Prec & -ly Not continuously discord (I), n [1 diskórd, 2 'diskórd], fr O Fr discord, see next word 1 Absence of friendly feelings, want of spiritual harmony, disagreement, opposite of concord 2 (in mus) Combination, or simultaneous sounding, of notes which do not harmonize discord (II), vb intrans [1 diskórd, 2 diskórd] fr O Fr discordare, fr Lat discordare, 'to be at variance, differ, to be out of harmony', fr discord (em), discors, 'at variance, disagreeing, unharmonious, distinct, different', fr dis- & cord (em), 'heart' See cordate (rare) a To disagree, be at variance with, 2 (in mus) to be out of harmony, not to harmonize, to jar on the ear discordance, n [1 diskórdans, 2 diskórdans] See prec & -ance Want of harmony, disagreement, a in feelings, 2 in musical notes discordant, adj [1 diskórdant, 2 diskórdánt] discord (II) & -ant a (of feelings) Not in agreement, jarring, 2 (of sounds) not harmonious, unmusical, unpleasant discordantly, adv Prec & -ly In a discordant manner discount (I), n [1 diskáunt, 2 diskáunt], fr 16th cent Fr descompte See next word

Reduction made from a whole, specif 'a sum deducted from price of goods when payment is made at, or shortly after, time of purchase, any deduction from price, b sum deducted from bill of exchange &c, by a person advancing money on it, to cover amount of interest payable on it until it is due Phr 'at a discount, below par, having gone down in value, hence, easy to obtain discount (II), vb trans [1 diskáunt, 2 diskáunt], fr O Fr descompter, descomter, fr Med Lat discomputare, fr dis- & Lat computare, 'to sum up, reckon up' See compute a To advance money, or to receive money in advance, in payment for (a bill of exchange &c not yet due), 2 to depreciate, lessen value of, put a lower value on my gains were largely discounted by my subsequent losses, c (of mental process) to believe only part of a statement, allow for exaggeration, inaccuracy &c 1 discount is great deal of what I hear discountable, adj [1 diskáuntabl, 2 diskáuntabl] discount (II) & -able That can be discounted discountenance, vb trans [1 diskáunténans, 2 diskáunténans] dis- & countenance (II) To refrain from sanctioning, refuse one's support to, approval of, to disapprove, discourage, attempt to prevent discourage, vb trans [1 diskúry, 2 diskáridé] fr O Fr descourager See dis- & courage 1 To deprive of spirit and confidence, dishearten, instil hesitation or doubt into 2 a (effect on persons) To attempt to dissuade from doing something to discourage a person from doing, 2 (effect on action) to attempt to prevent, thwart, to put obstacles in the way of to discourage all attempts at study discouragement, n [1 diskúryment, 2 diskáridémant] Prec & -ment a The act of discouraging, state of being discouraged, 2 something that discourages discouragingly, adv [1 diskúryngih, 2 diskáridéngih] Prec Part of discourage & -ly In a manner tending to discourage discourse (I), n [1 diskúrs, 2 diskáls] fr Fr discours, fr Lat discursus, 'a running to and fro', (in L Lat) 'a conversation, discourse', fr dis- & cursus, 'a course, journey, passage, progress, direction' See course 'a formal speech or lecture to an audience, 2 (more rarely) a written treatise, 2 in formal talk, conversation discourse (II), vb intrans [1 diskúrs, 2 diskáls] fr prec Followed by upon, or absolute, a To hold forth, lecture, preach, make a formal speech, harangue, 2 (more rarely) to treat in writing, c to converse to discourse together discourteous, adj [1 diskúrtús, 2 diskártús] fr dis- & courteous III mannered, ill bred, lacking in courtesy discourteously, adv Prec & -ly In a discourteous manner discourtesy, n [1 diskúrtés, 2 diskártés] See dis- & courtesy a Quality of being 'discourteous, bad manners, ill-breeding, offensive behaviour, rudeness, 2 specific example of this, a discourteous action, speech &c discover, vb trans [1 diskúver, 2 diskávré] fr O Fr decouvrir, fr Med Lat discooperire See dis- & cover (I) 1 (archaic) To reveal, make known, expose, to 'show (something unknown to others) to discover a secret to unknown friends 2 a To find out (esp something previously unknown) to discover radium, 2 to realize, become aware of, the existence of to discover a plot, a new country &c discoverable, adj [1 diskúverabl, 2 diskávréabl] Prec & -able Capable of being discovered discover, adj [1 diskúvrt; 2 diskúvrt], fr O Fr decouvert, PP of decouvrir See discover (law) Without a husband (of spinster or widow) discovery, n [1 diskúvri; 2 diskúvri] fr discover, on the anal of recovery 1 n The act of discovering, b something that is discovered to make a discovery, to find (out) something 2 (rare) Act of revealing of making (a secret &c) known 3 (law) Disclosure of documents, facts, in answer to interrogatories, affording evidence affecting the rights of a party in an action claiming them discredit (I), n [1 diskredit; 2 diskredit] dis- & credit (I) 1 Loss of credit or reputation - to bring discredit on oneself 2 Something harmful to reputation, something involving loss of credit and renown 3 Lack of confidence or belief in; doubt to throw discredit on discredit (II), vb trans dis- & credit (II) 1 To refuse credit to, erode, confidence in to discredit all that is said 2 To bring into discredit, disrepute, damage reputation of, destroy confidence in - his behaviour discredits him hopelessly with the public discreditable, adj [1 diskreditabl; 2 diskreditabl] Preco- & -able. Damaging, bringing discredit upon; harmful to reputation, causing loss of confidence or belief; discreditable conduct, behaviour &c discreditably, adv Preco- & -ly In a discreditable manner discreet, adj [1 diskret; 2 diskret], fr O Fr discret, fr L Lat discretus, 'discerning', fr discretio (em), 'discernment'. See discretion a (of persons) Judicious in action, speech, manner, avoiding even the appearance of evil, b (of action or speech) judicious, careful, prudent, unimpeached discreetly, adv Preco- & -ly In a discreet manner

discrepancy, n [1 diskrepansi; 2 diskrepansi] See next word & -y a The quality of being discrepant, inconsistency, b specific instance of inconsistency, contradiction, in consequence, in speech or action discrepant, adj [1 diskrepant; 2 diskrepant], fr Fr, fr Lat discrepant (em), Preco- & -ant of discrepare, 'to differ in sound, to vary, differ', fr dis- & crepare, 'to rattle, clash, to chatter' See crepitate (of several things) Contradictory, inconsistent, at variance, not agreeing or fitting one with another discrepantly, adv Preco- & -ly In a discrepant manner discrete, adj [1 diskret; 2 diskret], fr Lat discret (um), PP type of Lat discernere, 'to divide, separate, to distinguish, to determine, decide' See discern & discreet Separate, disunited, discontinuous, unrelated discreteness, n Preco- & -ness Quality of being discrete discretion, n [1 diskrešun; 2 diskrešun] fr Lat discretio (em), 'separation, distinction, judgement, discernment', fr discret (us) See discrete & -ion a Discernment in estimating a situation, and shaping one's behaviour to suit it, b prudence, carefulness, circumspection in word and deed, fear of taking risks, Phr discretion is the better part of valour, unnecessary risks should not be run, b freedom of choice, ability to make decisions, liberty to act according to one's own judgement to use one's own discretion, Phr within one's discretion, left to one's judgement, to surrender at discretion, unconditionally, without making terms, years of discretion, ago at which one is capable of choosing one's own course of action discretionary, adj [1 diskrešunari; 2 diskrešunari] Preco- & -ary Determined, regulated, only by one's discretion discreetness, n [1 diskrešun; 2 diskrešun] Preco- & -ness Quality of being discreet discreetly, adv Preco- & -ly In a discreet manner

critical, adj [1 diskrit; 2 diskrit], fr Lat criticus, 'to divide, separate', fr crisis, 'to divide, separate' Cp Gk kritos, 'to separate, distinguish' (see critic), Lat cernere, 'to divide, separate, to recognize, perceive' (see concern, certain); Lat cribrum, 'sieve' (see cribriform, riddle (III)) The base (e)kri-* &c is an expansion of the base (s)ker-*, 'to out' See cortex, carpal, scribo A intrans 1 To perceive differences, distinguish (between): to discriminate between A and B 2 To distinguish by different treatment, mark out, select, for special treatment, make distinctions, treat differently to discriminate in favour of A, against B B trans 1 To distinguish carefully, mark differences in to discriminate A from B 2 To serve as a distinction, distinguish his great stature discredited him from his followers discriminating, adj [1 diskrimināting; 2 diskrimināting] Preco- & -ating Part of preco- & -ating (of persons and faculties) Able to make, perceive, minute distinctions, able to discern subtle differences, perceptive discriminating taste, a discriminating palate 2 Same as discriminative discriminatingly &c discrimination, n [1 diskrimināšun; 2 diskrimināšun] discriminate & -ion 1 The act of discriminating 2 Capacity for discriminating, ability to perceive subtle distinctions, perception discriminative, adj [1 diskriminativ; 2 diskriminativ] discriminate & -ive a (of persons &c) Observing, able to perceive, distinctions, differences, b (of objects, qualities &c) distinguishing, serving to distinguish, characteristic discrown, vb trans [1 diskron; 2 diskron] dis- & crown To take the crown from, deprive of kingship discursive, adj [1 diskursiv; 2 diskursiv], fr Lat discurs (um), PP type of discurrere, 'to run to and fro, run about, to traverse, hasten through, to discourse of, speak at length on', fr dis- & currere, 'to move quickly, to run, hasten, fly' See course & current & -ity (of persons and modes of expression) Dealing with wide range of subjects and ideas, rambling in various directions, wandering from one point to another discursively, adv Preco- & -ly In a discursive manner discursiveness, n Preco- & -ness The quality of being discursive discus, n [1 diskus; 2 diskus] Lat fr Gk diskos, 'quoit' See disk The quoit, of stone or metal, thrown in ancient Greek athletics, cp discobolus, and revived as one of the contests in modern Olympic games discuss, vb trans [1 diskus; 2 diskus], fr Lat discuss (um), PP type of discutere, 'to shatter, dash to pieces, to scatter, disperse, dissipate', fig 'to dispel, disperse, frustrate', fr dis- & quatere, 'to shake, agitate, to wield, brandish, to beat, strike, shake, shatter', fig 'to agitate, excite' See quash 1 To debate, examine (a subject, problem &c) critically, from various points of view, considering pros and cons, to elucidate, separate and appraise the various sides or aspects of a question in their relations and bearings, either a by disputation, and argument, between several persons in conversation or public debate, or b in written treatise or lecture 2 (journalistic use) To eat or drink with appreciation discuss a roast duck, bottle of wine &c discussible, adj [1 diskusibl; 2 diskusibl] Preco- & -ible Capable of being discussed discussion, n [1 diskúšan; 2 diskúšan] fr Lat discussio (em), 'a shaking, examination, disquisition' See discuss & -ion a The act or process of discussing, state of being discussed a question under discussion, b debate on, critical examination of, a problem &c disdain (I), vb trans [1 dizdān; 2 dizdān], fr O Fr desdaigner, fr Lat disdignare, 'to scorn, refuse, reject', fr de- & dignus, 'suitable, fitting, worthy' See deign, dignity a (of persons and things) To look down upon, treat with contempt, scorn to disdain flattery and flatterers, b to be too proud to do something, to consider it beneath one's dignity to disdain to notice an insult disdain (II), n, fr preco- & -ing a Feeling of scorn, contempt, attitude of personal superiority to a person, thing, or action, b expression of the feelings in manner, looks &c, haughty, lofty, contemptuous aloofness disdainful, adj [1 diskáfnol; 2 diskáfnol] Preco- & -ful (of persons, state of mind and expression of this) Haughty, scornful, contemptuous disdainfully, adv Preco- & -ly In a disdainful manner disease, n [1 dizēz; 2 dizēz] O Fr desaise See dis- & ease (I) 1 Abnormal condition constituting a deviation from a sound state of health, characterized by disturbance, derangement, or impairment of functions; a in the human body or mind, b in animals and plants, c (fig) in social or other institutions, contrasted with health 2 A specific form of disturbance or derangement of physical, mental, social, functions, which exhibits characteristic symptoms, often, in the case of physical ailments, accompanied by the presence of specific parasitic organisms in the blood or tissues diseased, adj [1 dizēd; 2 dizēd] Preco- & -ed Suffering from disease, impaired, stunted, blasted, by disease dismark, vb intrans & trans [1 disembar; 2 disembar], fr Fr dismarker See dis- & embark a intrans To land, go ashore from vessel, b trans, to put (persons and goods) ashore from a vessel dismarkation, n [1 disembaršun; 2 disembaršun] Preco- & -ation a Act of landing, b process of being landed, from a vessel dismarrass, vb trans [1 disembaras; 2 disembaras] dis- & embarrass To rid, free, oneself or others from a cause, or source, of annoyance, hindrance, trouble, burden dismarrassment, n [1 disembarasment; 2 disembarasment] Preco- & -ment The act or process of dismarrassing, state of being dismarrassed dismbodyment, n [1 disembodyment; 2 disembodyment] Next word & -ment The act or process of disembodying, state of being disembodyed dismbody, vb trans [1 disembody; 2 disembody] dis- & embody 1 To separate from the body, to set free from concrete form a disembodied spirit 2 To disband, break up (body of troops) dismbogue, vb trans & intrans [1 disembo; 2 disembo], fr Span dismbogar, fr dis- & embogar, 'to enter, put into, the mouth', fr em, 'in' (see in-), & boca, 'mouth', fr Low Lat bucca, 'mouth', fr Lat bucca, 'cheek' See buccal (of a river) 1 trans To discharge (its waters) at its mouth 2 intrans To pour, empty itself into sea, lake &c dismbosom, vb trans & refl [1 disemboz; 2 disemboz] dis- & ombosom a trans To reveal, make known, b (reflex) to unburden (oneself) of a secret dismbowel, vb trans [1 disembovel; 2 disembovel] dis- & embowel To remove the entrails of, to eviscerate, gut dismbroil, vb trans [1 disembroil; 2 disembroil] dis- & embroil To free from embroilment, disentangle dismchant, vb trans [1 disenchant; 2 disenchant], fr O Fr desenchanteur See dis- & enchant To set free from a spell, to disillusion, dispel glamour from dismchantment, n [1 disenchantment; 2 disenchantment] Preco- & -ment The act of disenchanting, state of being disenchanted, disillusionment discumber, vb trans [1 disenkumber, 2 disankamba] dis- & enumber To free from a burden, from something that hinders disendow, vb trans [1 disendou, 2 disinddu] dis- & endow To deprive of endowments, esp to deprive a Church or other institution of its endowments and funds disendowment, n [1 disendowment, 2 disinddument] Preo & -ment A the act of disendowing, b state of being disendowed disenfranchise, vb trans [1 disenfranchiz, 2 disenfrant[iz]] dis- & enfranchise To disenfranchise disengage, vb trans [1 disengd, 2 disengdz] dis- & engage To unfasten, set free, release disengaged, adj [1 disengjd, 2 disengdzd] P P of prec (esp of persons) At liberty, to receive visitors &c disengagement, n [1 disengjment, 2 disengdzment] disengage & -ment A act of disengaging, b state of being disengaged disentail, vb trans [1 disentail, 2 disentail] dis- & entail To out off the entail of (property &c) disentangle, vb trans & intrans [1 disentangl, 2 disentangl] dis- & entangle 1 trans A to undo, unravel, untwist, extricate from confusion, set free, b (fig) to free from confusion, perplexity, complications, set in order 2 intrans (lit and fig) To become clear of entanglement, untwist disentanglement, n [1 disentanglment, 2 disentangldment] Preo & -ment The act of disentangling, state of being disentangled disenthrall, vb trans [1 disenthrawl, 2 disenthrawl] dis- & enthrall To set at liberty, free from slavery disenthralment, n [1 disenthrawlment, 2 disenthrawlment] Preo & -ment Release from slavery disentomb, vb trans [1 disentomb, 2 disentomb] dis- & entomb To remove from a tomb, disinter disestablish, vb trans [1 disestablish, 2 disestablish] dis- & establish A to break up, upset an established state of things, displace a person from an established position, b specif, to alter constitutional position of an institution, esp of a national Church, by abolishing its connexion with the State disestablishment, n [1 disestablishment, 2 disestablishment] Preo & -ment The act or process of disestablishing, state of being disestablished, specif, disestablishment of the Church disfavour (I), n [1 disfavor, 2 disfavra] dis- & favour (I) A dislike, disapproval to regard a person with disfavour, b state of being out of favour, of being in disgrace, under a cloud to fall into disfavour disfavour (II), vb trans dis- & favour (II) To regard with disapproval, consider unfavourably disfigure, n [1 disfigurdshun, 2 disfigurdshun] See next word & -ation A the act of disfiguring, state of being disfigured, b something that disfigures, a blemish See disfigurement, which is more used disfigure, vb trans [1 disfigur, 2 disfiga] fr O Fr desfigurer, fr dis- & Lat figurare, 'to form, fashion, to imagine, to pronounce, utter' See figure To spoil the shape or appearance of, to mar, cause a blemish in, to render unsightly, to detract from excellence or value of disfigured, adj [1 disfigurd, 2 disfiged] fr P P of prec A Rendered ugly, having lost comeliness, symmetry, destroyed, marred a face much disfigured by scars, b impaired in quality, made inferior, spoilt a book gravely disfigured by the verbosity and inelegance of its style disfigurement, n [1 disfigurdment, 2 disfigurdment] disfigure & -ment A (rare) act of disfiguring, b that which disfigures, a blemish, defect disforest, vb trans [1 disforest, 2 disforest] dis- & forest A to clear of trees, b to disafforest, q v disfranchise, vb trans [1 disfranchiz, 2 disfrant[iz]] dis- & franchise To deprive of rights of citizenship, specif, of right to vote at parliamentary or other elections disfranchisement, n [1 disfranchizment, 2 disfrant[izment]] Preo & -ment The act of disfranchising, state of being disfranchised disfrock, vb trans [1 disfrok, 2 disfrok] dis- & frock To deprive of clerical status, to unfrock disgorge, vb trans & intrans [1 disgorg, 2 disgord], fr O Fr degorger See dis- & gorge A trans 1 A to throw out, eject, from, or as from, throat, b to pour forth, as a river its waters, c (fig) to give up, surrender (something wrongfully seized) to disgorge ill-gotten gains B intrans A To pour forth (of a river) to disgorge into a lake, b to perform the act of making restitution the law will soon make him disgorge disgrace (I), n [1 disgras, 2 disgras] fr Fr disgrâce, fr Ital disgrazia, fr Med Lat disgratio, fr dis- & Lat gratia, 'favour, esteem, mark of favour, kindness, courtesy, gratitude, charm, joyfulness' See grace (I) & Loss of honour, favour, reputation, disrepute, discredit, shame to bring disgrace on one's family, b state of being held in low esteem, disfavour, consequent upon worthlessness of character, discreditable conduct &c to be in disgrace, c person guilty of discreditable conduct, action or circumstance which is shameful, thing which is discreditable to those who made it or selected it, by being bad, shabby, ugly or useless, something which is all or any of these, considered as a source of discredit, shame, reproach, disrepute you are a disgrace to your country, such cruelty is a disgrace to humanity, to civilization, this carpet is a disgrace to the house disgrace (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To bring shame, reproach, upon, cause loss of honour to to disgrace one's name 2 To degrade, remove ignominiously from favour or status a cowardly officer must be publicly disgraced disgraceful, adj [1 disgrasful, 2 disgrasful] disgrace (I) & -ful Involving shame, reproach, dishonour, discreditable, shameful disgracefully, adv Preo & -ly In a disgraceful manner disgracefulness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being disgraceful disgruntled, adj [1 disgruntld, 2 disgruntld] fr dis- & obs grunf, freq form of grunt, & -ed Discontented, disappointed, displeased, sulky disguise (I), vb trans [1 disgiz, 2 disgorz] fr O Fr desguiser See dis- & guise 1 To change appearance or outward character of, conceal identity by causing to appear different from accustomed form or character, and like someone, or something else a to disguise oneself, to dress up, wear strange clothes, a wig, false beard, or other aids to concealment, b to disguise oneself as (a policeman), to make oneself look like (a policeman), c (of things) a door disguised as a bookcase 2 To conceal, give impression of (mental states & activities) being other than they really are to disguise one's sorrow beneath a careless manner, to disguise one's intentions, feelings disguise (II), n, fr prec (lit and fig) Something assumed for the purpose of concealing identity, alteration of appearance, manner assumed to hide feelings &c Phr a blessing in disguise, good fortune that is not at first apparent disgust (I), n [1 disgust, 2 disgust], fr Fr, fr dis- & Lat gustus, 'a tasting, a relish, light dish, a taste, flavour, a foretaste, sample' See gust (II) (moral and physical) Strong feeling of aversion, repugnance, loathing, nausea disgust (II), vb trans, fr Fr, fr dis- & Lat gustare, 'to taste' See prec To cause, provoke, disgust in, to excite strong distaste, aversion, loathing (physical or moral) disgusted, adj [1 disgusted, 2 disgustd], fr P P of prec A Provoked, to filled with, loathing and aversion, b disappointed, angry disgustedly, adv Preo & -ly In a manner expressing disgust disgustful, adj [1 disgustful, 2 disgustful] disgust (I) & -ful Causing disgust, offensive, disgusting disgusting, adj [1 disgusting, 2 disgusting], fr Pres Part of disgust (II) Liable to cause disgust, causing loathing and repugnance, nauseating, revolting, sickening disgustingly, adv Preo & -ly In such a manner as to excite disgust, also (colloq) as mere intensive disgustingly rich &c dish (I), n [1 dish, 2 dish] M E disc, disch, O E disc, op Germ tsch, 'table', fr Lat discus, 'a quoit', hence (from the shape) 'a dish, a dial' See disk A A flat-bottomed shallow vessel, of earthenware, porcelain, glass, or metal, with a rim round the edge, or with raised sides, for holding food vegetable dish, meat dish &c, hence b amount of food served in a dish a dish of fish, of beans &c, (archaic) a dish of tea, a cup of tea, c specific kind of food, or food prepared in a particular way a plow, elaborate, dainty dish, Phr standing dish, one habitually served, made dishes, prepared from many ingredients dish (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 A To put into a dish, usually dish up, serve up food for table, also b (fig) to present to a person's attention to dish up an old story 2 (colloq) To upset, spoil, thwart, circumvent, bring to naught (plans, devices &c), to check, disconcert, the author of such to dish one's opponents, the publication of the letter dishd all his chances dishabille, n [1 dishabell, 2 dishabell] Fr déshabillé, P P of déshabiller, 'to undress' State of being partially undressed, or half dressed, usually in dishabille dishabituate, vb trans [1 dishabituat, 2 dishabituat] dis- & habituate To disaccustom, cause one to give up, get out of a habit, usage, practice dishallucination, n [1 dishallucinashun, 2 dishallucinashun] dis- & hallucination Act or process of destroying an hallucination, dishallucination disharmonious, adj [1 disharmounus, 2 disharmounus] disharmony & -ous Not harmonizing, discordant disharmonize, vb trans [1 disharmoniz, 2 disharmoniz] dis- & harmonize To destroy the harmony of, make into a discord, make to disagree disharmony, n [1 disharmun, 2 disharmun] disharmony & -ous Went of harmony, discord dish-cloth, n Cloth used for washing or drying dishes and crockery dish-cover, n Cover of metal, china &c sitting on to dish to keep contents hot dishhearten, vb trans [1 dishartn, 2 dishartn] dis- & hearten To deprive of confidence or courage, to render despondent and dissatisfied with oneself and one's work. dishheartenment, n [1 dishartment, 2 dishartment] Preo & -ment The act of dishheartening, state of being dishheartened disherson, n [1 disherson, 2 disherson], fr O Fr disheritanceun, fr dis- & Lat hereditas (um), P P type of hereditare, 'to inherit', & -son See hereditary (archaic) A The act of disinheriting, b state of being disinherited dishveiled, adj [1 dishveild, 2 dishveild], fr O Fr deschevelé (& -ed), fr dis- & chevel, 'hair', fr Lat capillus, 'hair' See capillary A (of hair) in disorder, ruffled, b (of persons) untidy, with clothes, hair &c, in disorder, unkempt dishonest, adj [1 dishonest, 2 dishonest], fr O Fr deshoneste, fr Lat deshonestus, 'on becoming, improper' See de- & honest

a. (of persons) Lacking honesty, inclined to claim, or appropriate, more than one has a right to, not upright and straightforward in one's dealings with others, inclined, accused, tempted, to defraud others, or to steal their property, b (of notions and utterances) (1) intended to deceive others, deliberately misleading, (2) designed to secure property or privileges unjustly, c (of work) hastily, carelessly, perfunctorily, carried out, done so as to deceive by specious appearance of being better than it really is, d (of thought) timid, not pushed to logical conclusion, shirking difficult facts, avoiding undesired conclusions dishonestly, adv Prece & -ly By fraudulent means, in a dishonest manner dishonesty, n [1 dišonesti, 2 dišonesti], fr O Fr deshonesté See dis- & honesty a Quality of being dishonest, b act, word, thought, done, said, conceived, in a dishonest way, for purpose of deceiving or defrauding a piece of dishonesty dishonour (I), n [1 dišonor, 2 dišone], fr O Fr deshonor See dis- & honour

1 a The state of being disgraced, ignominy, b absence, loss of honour, shame, c feeling and expression of disrespect, insult, in dignity offer him no dishonour 2 That which brings dishonour and disgrace, d creditable, disgraceful, person or thing dishonour (II), vb trans, fr O Fr des honorer, fr Lat deshonorare, 'to dishonour' See dis- & honour (II)

1 To treat in a disparaging manner, offer indignity to 2 a To bring shame upon, cause loss of credit or honour to, b to violate the chastity of 3 To refuse to pay or perform, to repudiate to dishonour a cheque, to dishonour one's word, promise dishonourable, adj [1 dišonorabl, 2 dišonorabl] dis- & honourable a (of persons) Lacking honour, uprightness, honesty, not honourable, b (of actions &c) springing from discreditable, mean, base, motives, bringing dishonour, of a nature to sully the character and reputation dishonourableness, n Prece & -ness State or quality of being dishonourable dishonourably, adv See Prece & -ly In a dishonourable manner dishorn, vb trans [1 diš horn, 2 dišhorn], dis- & horn To remove the horns of dish-water, n Water in which plates, dishes &c have been washed disillusion (I), vb trans [1 dišilúzbun, 2 dišilúzn] dis- & illusion To free from illusion, reveal truth and reality to disillusion (II), n, fr prece The state or process of being disillusioned disillusionize, vb trans [1 dišilúzhuniz, 2 dišilúzhuniz] dis- & illusion & -ize To disillusion disillusionment, n [1 dišilúzhunment, 2 dišilúzhunment] disillusion & -ment a The act or process of disillusioning, b the state of being disillusioned disinclination, n [1 dišinklímáshun, 2 dišinklímáshun] dis- & inclination Absence of desire for, feeling against, unwillingness, reluctance, dislike to have a disinclination for work, a disinclination to meet people disincline, vb trans [1 dišinklin, 2 dišinklin] dis- & inclina To make unwilling, render reluctant disinclined to accept disincorporate, vb trans [1 dišinkorporát, 2 dišinkorporát] dis- & incorporate To break up, destroy corporation of, cause to cease being corporate disinfect, vb trans [1 dišinfékt, 2 dišinfékt] dis- & infect To destroy infection, remove germs of disease from (a wound, room &c) disinfectant, adj & n [1 dišinfektant, 2 dišinfektant] Prece & -ant a adj Able to destroy infectious disease germs, b n, substance used for disinfecting disinfection, n [1 dišinfekáshun, 2 dišinfekáshun] disinfect & -ion The destruction of disease germs, act of disinfecting, process of being disinfected.

disingenuous, adj [1 dišinénúšus, 2 dišinénúšus] dis- & ingenuous Insincere, actuated by concealed motives, not candid or straightforward, dishonest disingenuously, adv Prece & -ly In a disingenuous manner disingenuousness, n See prece & -ness The quality of being disingenuous disinherit, vb trans [1 dišinherit, 2 dišinherit] dis- & inherit (ohs sense, 'to make one's heir') To deprive of right to inherit, to remove from position of heir disinheritance, n [1 dišinheritáns, 2 dišinheritáns] Prece & -ance a The act of disinheriting, b state of being disinherited disintegrate, vb trans & intrans [1 dišintegrát, 2 dišintegrát] dis- & integrate a trans To cause to divide, split up, resolve into parts or elements, b intrans, to break up, cease to be a unity, resolve into separate parts or elements, hence, to fall into decay, fall to pieces disintegration, n [1 dišintegráshun, 2 dišintegráshun] Prece & -ion The act or process of disintegrating disintegrator, n [1 dišintegrátor, 2 dišintegrátor] disintegrate & -or Agent causing disintegration disinter, vb trans [1 dišintér, 2 dišintér] dis- & inter (lit and fig) To dig up what is buried or hidden, unearth, bring to light disinterested, adj [1 dišintrested, 2 dišintrested] dis- & interest & -ed (of person, action, speech &c) Not influenced or actuated by not expressing, personal interests, without selfish motive disinterestedly, adv Prece & -ly In a disinterested manner disinterestedness, n See prece & -ness Quality of being disinterested disinterment, n [1 dišintérmént, 2 dišintérmént] disinter & -ment The act of disintering, exhumation, unearthing what is buried or hidden disject, vb trans [1 dišjekt, 2 dišjekt] Lat disiect (um), PP type of disjicere, to throw asunder, scatter, 'fr jacere, 'to hurl' See dis- & jection & jet To hurl asunder, fling apart, scatter, disperse disjecta membra, n [1 dišjektá membra, 2 dišjektá membra] Lat, 'scattered limbs, portions' See prece & member Scattered fragments disjoin, vb trans [1 dišjoin, 2 dišdžoin], fr O Fr dejoindre, fr Lat disjungere, 'to disunite, separate' (lit and fig) dis- & join To disunite, sever connexion of disjoint, vb trans [1 dišjoin, 2 dišdžoint], fr O Fr dejoin, PP of dejoindre See prece To take to pieces, separate at the joints disjointed, adj [1 dišdžointed, 2 dišdžointed], fr PP of prece a (of a body) (1) Having the limbs separated at the joints, (2) loosely jointed, or seeming so, b (of thought and expression) lacking coherence, without logical connexion and sequence, broken, disconnected disjointedly, adv Prece & -ly In a disjointed manner, without logical sequence to speak, think disjointedly disjointedness, n See prece & -ness The quality of being disjointed disjunction, n [1 dišjúnkshun, 2 dišdžúnkshun], fr Lat disjunction (em), 'a separation', (philos) 'an opposition of two propositions' dis- & junction Separation into parts, disconnection, severance disjunctive, adj [1 dišjúnktiv, 2 dišdžúnktiv] fr Lat disjunctiv (us), fr disjunct (um), PP type of disjungere, 'to disunite, separate' See disjoin a Disuniting, causing or involving separation, b specif (gram) disjunctive conjunction, one expressing an opposition of ideas between those contained in the clauses or words it connects, as either or disk, disc, n [1 dišk, 2 dišk] fr Lat disc (us), a quot', hence from the shape, 'a dish, disk of a sundial', fr Gk. diskos, 'a quot', fr 'disk elos, op disken, 'to throw', disk tuon,

'a thread, net', etymol uncertain a Plane surface enclosed by a circle, b a round, apparently flat, figure the sun's, moon's, disk, c a round, flat, thin sheet or portion of metal, wood &c, d a discous or quot dishke (I), vb trans [1 dišk, 2 dišk] See dis- & like (III) Not to like, to feel aversion to, rather weaker than delect dishke (II), n, fr prece Feeling of aversion, antipathy, weaker than delectation dislocate, vb trans [1 dišlokát, 2 dišlakest], fr Ved Lat dislocat (um), PP type of dislocare, fr dis- & Lat locare, 'to put, place, dispose' See locate 1 To put out of place, specif (med, of the two parts of a joint) to put out of joint to dislocate one's knee, shoulder &c 2 (fig) To disturb so as to interfere with smooth and normal working to dislocate traffic, business, trade &c dislocation, n [1 dišlokáshun, 2 dišlakešun] Prece & -ion a The act or process of dislocating, b state of being dislocated dislodge, vb trans [1 dišloj, 2 dišlódž], fr O Fr desloger See dis- & lodge (II) To remove from position, overthrow, upset from place, expresses idea of upsetting, removing, a person or thing from his or its permanent and normal position to dislodge a stone from a building, b to remove, drive out, person, animal, thing which occupies a position temporarily the enemy were easily dislodged from the hill dislodgement, n [1 dišlójment, 2 dišlódžment] Prece & -ment Removal from position, ejection disloyal, adj [1 dišlójál, 2 dišlójál] fr O Fr desloyal See dis- & loyal Unfaithful, untrue, not fulfilling the obligations of allegiance, friendship &c, repeat, not loyal to one's king disloyalist, n [1 dišlójalist, 2 dišlójalist] Prece & -ist One who is on principle disloyal (to government &c) disloyally, adv [1 dišlójál, 2 dišlójál] fr disloyal & -ly In a disloyal manner disloyalty, n [1 dišlójált, 2 dišlójált] disloyal & -ty The quality of being disloyal, faithlessness to allegiance dismal, adj [1 dišmal, 2 dišmal], fr O Fr n dis mal, 'unhappy day', fr Lat dis mali, 'ill omened days' See dis non & mal- (of places, rooms &c) Having depressing effect on the spirits by reason of being dark, bleak, bare, lonely &c, b (of the mind and spirits) lacking vivacity, depressed, gloomy, sad, c (of persons, voice, expression of countenance &c) evincing, exhibiting, a dismal state of mind &c, d generally, expressing or promoting a dismal state of mind dismally, adv Prece & -ly In a dismal manner dismalness, n See prece & -ness The state or quality of being dismal dismantle, vb trans [1 dišmántl, 2 dišmántl], fr O Fr desmanteller dis- & mantle (II) a To remove furnishings from, strip of appointments and equipment to dismantle a house, room &c, b specif, to dismantle a ship, fort, remove and destroy means of defence and offence dismask, vb trans [1 dišmahsk, 2 dišmahsk] dis- & mask To reveal, disclose dismast, vb trans [1 dišmahst, 2 dišmahst] dis- & mast To take away, throw down, tear out, the masts of a ship, as by storm, gun fire, or by other deliberate act dismay (I), vb trans [1 dišmá, 2 dišmá] Prob fr O Fr, fr dis- & Gmc magan*, 'to be strong' See may (I) To fill with apprehension, consternation, to alarm, discourage dismay (II), n, fr prece Consternation, fright, apprehension dismember, vb trans [1 dišmémber, 2 dišmémber] fr O Fr desmembrer See dis- & member To take to pieces, tear asunder, divide up, separate into portions dismemberment, n [1 dišmémberment, 2 dišmémberment] Prece & -ment Parting, taking to pieces.

disquisitional, adj [1 diskwizʃənəl, 2 diskwizʃənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, a disquisition disrate, vb trans [1 disrāt, 2 disreit] dis- & rate (I) (nant) To reduce to a lower rating disregard (I), vb trans [1 disregard, 2 disregd] dis- & regard To ignore, pay no attention to, to give no heed, or consideration to, to take no account of to disregard a remark, sign, entreaty, we may disregard this item in estimating expenses disregard (II), n, fr prec Want of attention, ignoring, indifference disrelish (I), n [1 disrelish, 2 disrēliʃ] dis- & relish (I) (rare) Disfavour, want of liking, aversion to regard a person with disrelish disrelish (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To dislike, feel repugnance to, aversion for disrepair, n [1 disrēpār, 2 disrēpē] dis- & repair (II) Condition of dilapidation, state of shabbiness, disorder, or partial ruin, into which buildings fall from neglect and lack of repair disreputable, adj [1 disrēpūtəbəl, 2 disrēpūtəbəl] dis- & reputable Not of good repute, not respectable, degraded, dissipated, in appearance or character disreputableness, n Prec & -ness Condition of being disreputable disreputably, adv See prec & -ly In a disreputable manner disrepute, n [1 disrēpūt, 2 disrēpūt] dis- & repute Want of repute, disfavour, the state of having lost reputation, fame, vogue disrespect, n [1 disrēspēkt, 2 disrēspēkt] See dis- & respect Want of respect, lack of deference, impoliteness to show, treat with, disrespect disrespectful, adj [1 disrēspēktfūl, 2 disrēspēktfūl] Prec & -ful Wanting in respect, not showing fitting deference or consideration for another's position or character disrespectfully, adv Prec & -ly Rudely, in a disrespectful manner disrespectfulness, n See prec & -ness Want of respect disrobe, vb trans & intrans [1 disrōb, 2 disrōub] dis- & robe a trans To remove clothes, covering of, undress, b intrans, to take off one's clothes, undress, specif, to take off official robes disroot, vb trans [1 disrōt, 2 disrūt] dis- & root To dig up by the roots, remove disrupt, vb trans [1 disrūpt, 2 disrāpt] Back formation fr next word To break up, break to pieces, shatter, usually of act of destroying an institution or state disruption, n [1 disrūpʃən, 2 disrāpʃən], fr Lat disruptum (um), P P type of disrumpere, 'to break to pieces, to sever, sunder', fr dis- & rumpere, 'to break, burst, tear, to annul, interrupt', see rupture, & -ion Act or process of disrupting (a state, institution &c) the disruption of the Russian Empire &c the schism which took place in the Scottish Church in 1843 disruptive, adj [1 disrūptiv, 2 disrāptiv], fr Lat disruptivum (see prec) & -ive Causing disruption dissatisfaction, n [1 dissatsifəkʃən, 2 dissatsifəkʃən] dis- & satisfaction The state of being dissatisfied, displeasure, disapproval, discontent, feeling that one's expectations or requirements have not been fulfilled to express great dissatisfaction at the way the work had been done dissatisfied, adj [1 dissatsifd, 2 dissatsifd], fr P P of next word a (followed by with) Not satisfied with, not pleased with, disappointed in, b esp when used attributively, discontented, inclined to repine at one's circumstances a thoroughly dissatisfied person dissatisfy, vb trans [1 dissatsifi, 2 dissatsif] dis- & satisfy To fail to please, not to fulfil expectations formed dissect, vb trans [1 disēkt, 2 disekt], fr Lat dissectum (um), P P type of dissecare, 'to cut in pieces', fr dis- & secare, 'to cut, cut off, to tear, wound, to divide, cleave' See section. 1 a To cut up, to cut in pieces, divide, carefully and minutely, specif b (anat) to cut, divide up, a dead body of man, or animal, or a plant for the purpose of studying its structure in detail 2 (fig) To divide, analyse, a problem, statement, argument, theory &c minutely and carefully, into various parts, and examine and study it thoroughly in all its aspects dissecting-room, n [1 disēktɪŋ ru:m, 2 disektɪŋ ru:m] Room (in school of medicine &c) where bodies are dissected by students of anatomy dissection, n [1 disēksən, 2 disektʃən] dissect & -ion a The act of dissecting, state or process of being dissected, b a specimen, part of a body, which has been carefully dissected a beautiful dissection of a head and neck dissector, n [1 disēktər, 2 disektə] dissect & -or One who dissects, demonstrator of anatomy who instructs by dissection of dead body disseize, vb trans [1 disēz, 2 disiz], fr O Fr disseisire See dis- & seize (law) To deprive, dispossess, of estates, esp wrongfully disseizin, disseisin, n [1 disēzin, 2 disizin], fr O Fr disseisine See dis- & seizin (law) Act of disseizing, state of being disseized dissemble, vb trans & intrans [1 disēmbəl, 2 disēmbəl] Through the influence of resemble, fr obs dissembli, dissemble, fr O Fr dissembler, fr Lat dissemblare, 'to disguise, hide, conceal', fr dis- & simulare, 'to copy, imitate, to assume, pretend, counterfeit' See simulate a trans To conceal, disguise, to make (a thing, feeling &c) appear different from its real nature to dissemble one's emotion, anger &c, b intrans, to carry out the act of concealing one's feelings, motives, act in such a way as to do this, and to give wrong impression of one's feelings, to deceive we must dissemble dissembler, n [1 disēmbəl, 2 disēmbəl] Prec & -er One who deceives by concealing his real motives, emotions &c, a hypocrite disseminate, vb trans [1 disēmināt, 2 disēminet], fr Lat disseminātum (um), P P type of disseminare, 'to scatter seed', hence 'to spread abroad, disseminate', fr dis- & seminare, 'to sow, to beget, to plant, propagate' See semen To scatter, spread abroad, as seed, esp (fig) to disseminate the teaching of the Gospel, sedition &c dissemination, n [1 disēminəʃən, 2 disēminəʃən], fr Lat disseminātio (em), 'a scattering of seed, disseminating' Prec & -ation Sowing, scattering abroad (esp fig) disseminator, n [1 disēminātor, 2 disēminetə] disseminate & -or. One who disseminates dissension, n [1 disēnsən, 2 disenʃən], fr Lat dissensio (em), 'dissension, disagreement, discord', fr Lat dissensum (um), P P type of dissentire, 'to disagree, differ in opinion, to be unlike' See next word & -ion Difference of opinion, disagreement, falling out, quarrelling, strife dissent (I), vb intrans [1 disent, 2 disent], fr Lat dissentire, 'to disagree, differ in opinion, be unlike', fr dis- & sentire, 'to perceive by the senses, to feel, experience, to observe, notice, think, believe' See sentiment a To disagree, hold a different opinion to dissent strongly from what has been said, b specif, to hold views differing from those taught by the established church dissenting ministers, chapel, not belonging to the Church of England dissent (II), n, fr prec a Disagreement, difference of opinion to express strong dissent, b specif (often with esp) non-acceptance of the doctrines of the established church, non-conformity Dissent is strong in Wales dissenter, n [1 disēntər, 2 disēntə] dissent (I) & -er a One who dissents, specif b one who refuses to accept the doctrines and discipline of the Church of England, a nonconformist dissentient, adj & n [1 disenshent, 2 disēntjənt], fr Lat dissentientem (em), Pres Part type of dissentire See dissent (I) & -ent a adj Disagreeing, expressing a different opinion without a dissentient voice, b n, one who disagrees, one who expresses disagreement the motion was passed with only two dissentients dissempment, n [1 disēpment, 2 disēpment], fr Lat dissepimentum (um), 'a partition', fr dis- & sepimentum, 'a hedge, enclosure', fr sepire, 'to hedge in, fence in, to enclose, surround, to impede' See septum & -ment (bot) A partition, dividing wall dissert, vb trans [1 disārt, 2 disāt], fr Lat dissertum (um), P P type of dissere, 'to discuss, examine, discourse on', fr dis- & serere, 'to join, bind together, to plait, entwine, to connect, combine, compose' See series To write a treatise, pronounce a discourse on a particular subject, esp dissert upon dissertate, vb intrans [1 disērtāt, 2 disērtet], fr Lat dissertātum (um), P P type of dissertare, 'to discuss, argue, debate, a matter', fr dissertum (um) See prec To dissert dissertation, n [1 disērtəʃən, 2 disērtjən], fr Lat dissertatio (em), 'a spoken discourse' See prec & -ation A written or spoken formal discourse on a particular subject, esp a treatise written as a prescribed exercise for a university degree disserve, vb trans [1 disērv, 2 disārv] dis- & serve To do harm to, injure in interests of, treat badly disservice, n [1 disērvs, 2 disārvs] dis- & service Disobliging or harmful action, an ill turn dissever, vb trans [1 disōver, 2 disēvə] dis- & sever To cut apart, separate disseverance, n [1 disōverəns, 2 disēvərəns] Prec & -ance Separation, cutting apart dissidence, n [1 disidəns, 2 disidəns], fr Lat dissidentia, 'difference, diversity' See next word & -ance Dissent, refusal to agree dissident, adj & n [1 disidənt, 2 disidənt], fr Lat dissidentem (em), Pres Part type of dissidere, 'to sit apart, be remote, to disagree, be at variance, to be unlike', fr dis- & sedere, 'to sit' See sedentary a adj Disagreeing, of a different opinion, b n, one who disagrees, a dissident dissight, n [1 disīt, 2 disāit] dis- & sight (rare) Something which is unsightly, an eyesore dissimilar, adj [1 disimilə, 2 disimilə] dis- & similar Not resembling, unlike, having different qualities, properties, appearance &c (followed by to) dissimilarity, n [1 disimiləriti, 2 disimiləriti] dis- & similarity Want of resemblance, unlikeness, difference dissimilarly, adv [1 disimilərlī, 2 disimilərlī] dis- & similarly In a dissimilar manner, in a different way dissimulate, vb trans [1 disimilāt, 2 disimilēt], fr Lat disimulāre (re), 'unlike, differ ent', see next word & -ate, on the anal of assimilate (philol) To develop differences in two originally similar sounds, occurring in same word dissimulation, n [1 disimiləʃən, 2 disimiləʃən] See prec & -ation. The process of dissimulating, difference caused by this dissimilitude, n [1 disimilitūd, 2 disimilitūd], fr Lat dissimilitūdinem (nem), 'unlike-tude', fr disimilis, 'unlike', fr dis- & similis, 'like, resembling' See similar dissimilitude, n [1 disimilitūd, 2 disimilitūd], fr Lat dissimilitūdinem (nem), P P type of Lat disimulāre, 'to disguise, conceal, keep secret' See dissemble a trans To conceal, dissimulate, by assumed feelings &c. b intrans, to conceal one's feelings, motives &c, deceive, dissemble dissimulation, n [1 dišimulashun, 2 dišimju-leſen], fr Lat dissimulatio (em), 'a concealing, disguising, dissimulation' See pre- & -ation A The act of dissimulating, b that which is dissimulated dissipate, vb trans & intrans [1 dišpät, 2 dišpät], fr Lat dissipat (um), PP type of dissipare, 'to scatter, disperse, put to flight, to demolish, destroy, to squander', fr dis- & späre, supäre, 'to throw' The : of the compounds is perh unrounded fr [y], earlier [n], before foll plr consonant, prob cogn w Lith supli, 'to swing, rock', O Bulg stepiti se, 'to shake', rasypati, 'to dissipate' The Aryan base is prob sup*, sup*, 'throw', cp Sert isapiti, 'throws' A trans 1 To scatter, drive away, dispel a (lit) the wind dissipates the clouds &c, b (fig) to dissipate gloom, sorrows &c 2 To waste by extravagance, in wantonness, debauchery, or frivolity &c to dissipate one's fortune, time &c B intrans 1 To pass away, vanish clouds dissipate before the wind 2 To engage in frivolous or dissolute occupations so many temptations to dissipate and idle dissipated, adj [1 dišpätid, 2 dišpätid], fr PP of pre- (of persons) Given to dissipation, hence, debauched, wild, dissolute dissipation, n [1 dišpätshun, 2 dišpätſen] dissipate & -ion 1 Dispersion, driving away, scattering a dissipation of darkness, clouds, grief, double &c, b extravagance, wasteful expenditure dissipation of time, fortune, property, money, energy 2 Trivial and frivolous gaiety and amusement, intemperance, debauchery to waste one's energies in dissipation dissociable, adj [1 dišdſhiabl, 2 dišdſhiabl], fr Lat dissociabilis, 'dividing, separating, incompatible' See dissociate & -able Capable of being dissociated dissociate, vb trans [1 dišdſhiäliz, 2 dišdſhiäliz] dis- & social & -ize To render unsociable, make averse to society dissociate, vb trans [1 dišdſhiät, 2 dišdſhiäet], fr Lat dissociat (um), PP type of dissociare, to disunite, to set at variance, fr dis- & sociare, to associate, unite together, fr socius, a companion' See social 1 To separate, break union between, think of as distant it is difficult to dissociate the man from his office, one must dissociate these two ideas 2 (reflex) To repudiate connexion, disavow participation in or agreement with to dissociate oneself from others, from the opinions first expressed, from what has been said &c dissociation, n [1 dišdſhiäshun, 2 dišdſhiäſhan] Pre- & -ation Act of dissociating, state of being dissociated, severance of connexion, keeping distinct dissociative, adj [1 dišdſhiätiv, 2 dišdſhiätiv] See dissociate & -ive Tending to cause dissociation dissolubility, n [1 dišdſlſblit, dišdſlſblit, 2 dišdſlſblit, dišdſlſblit] See next word & -ity The property of being dissoluble dissoluble, adj [1 dišdſlſbl, dišdſlſbl, 2 dišdſlſlſbl, dišdſlſbl], fr Lat dissolubilis, 'that can be dissolved' See dis- & soluble 1 Capable of being dissolved, or disintegrated 2 (of non material things) Capable of being annulled, made void in the eyes of the Church no marriage is dissoluble dissolute, adj [1 dišdſlüt, 2 dišdſlüt], fr Lat dissolut (um), PP type of dissolvere, 'to separate, disunite, dissolve, to abolish, annul' See dissolve Lax, unbalanced, in conduct and morals dissolutely, adv Pre- & -ly In a dissolute manner

dissoluteness, n See pre- & -ness The quality of being dissolute, immoral conduct and mode of life dissolution n [1 dišdſlſhun, 2 dišdſlſhan], fr Lat dissolutio (em) 'dissolving, destroying, interruption disconnection, fr dis- solu-(um), PP type of dissolvere, 'to dissolve, loosen, break up' See dissolve

1 a The act or process of dissolving, b state of being dissolved 2 (fig) a The undoing of a bond dissolution of marriage, partnership &c, b dismissal, breaking up, of an assembly, esp dissolution of Parliament, before a General Election, cp prorogation, c the final disintegration of vital functions and powers, death dissolvable, ndj [1 dišdſlſvabl, 2 dišdſlſvabl] Next word & -able Capable of being dissolved dissolve, vb trans & intrans [1 dišdſlv, 2 dišdſlv], fr Lat dissolvere, 'to loosen, disunite, separate, to abolish, annul' dis- & solvo, op dissolution A trans 1 To break up into parts, cause to disintegrate, cause to melt, cause to pass from a solid to a liquid state to dissolve salt in water, sun dissolves ice Phr dissolved in tears, shedding floods of tears 2 a To dismiss, disperse, terminate, end to dissolve Parliament, b to annul, cancel, declare null and void to dissolve a marriage, a business partnership B intrans 1 To melt down, liquefy, decompose, disintegrate snow dissolves in the sun, sugar dissolves in water 2 a To vanish gradually from sight, fade away, become faint the vision seemed to dissolve before our eyes, b (of Parliament) to disperse, end, terminate dissolvent, adj & n [1 dišdſlvont, 2 dišdſlvont] Pre- & -ent a adj Having the property of dissolving substances, b n, substance which causes another to dissolve dissonance, n [1 dišonans, 2 dišonans] See next word & -ance 1 (mus) a Combination of notes that do not harmonize, discord, b a chord requiring resolution 2 (fig) Lack of moral harmony, disagreement, clash of wills or temperaments dissonant, adj [1 dišonant, 2 dišonant], fr Lat dissonant (em), Pres Part type of dis- sonare, 'to disagree in sound, to differ, disagree' See dis- & sonant 1 (mus) Not harmonizing, discordant, harsh, ill sounding 2 (fig) Exhibiting disagreement in desires, opinions, temperaments, incompatible in character, unharmonious dissonantly, adv Pre- & -ly In a dis-sonant, unharmonious manner dissuade, vb trans [1 dišwäd, 2 dišwäd], fr Lat dissuadere, 'to advise against, resist, oppose by argument', fr dis- & suadere, 'to recommend, urge, persuade' See suasion 1 To advise against, endeavour to persuade (a person) not to do something, to urge arguments against some proposed action with a view to inducing a person not to do it I should strongly dissuade you from leaving the university too soon 2 To succeed in persuading against doing something, to induce a person to relinquish intended action, divert him from his purpose I am thankful that I was dissuaded from the attempt dissuasion, n [1 dišwäſhon, 2 dišwäſhan], fr Lat dissuasiō (em), 'advice against an action', fr dissuade (um), PP type of dis- suadere 'to advise against' See dissuade & -ion The act of dissuading, advice against dissuasive, adj [1 dišwäsiv, 2 dišwäsiv] See pre- & -ive Tending to, intended to, dissuade

dissuasively, adv Pre- & -ly So as to dissuade

dissyllabic also disyllabic, adj [1 dišlābik, 2 dišlābik] See dis- (II) & syllabic (of words or metrical feet) Having, consisting of, two syllables dissyllabically, adv [1 dišlābikah, 2 dišlā-bikah] See pre- & -al & -ly As two syllables dissyllable, disyllable, n [1 dišlābl, 2 dišlā-bl], fr Fr See dis- (II) & syllable A word of two syllables dissymmetrical, adj [1 dišimétrikl, 2 dišimétrikl] dis- & symmetrical a Not symmetrical, b symmetrical in opposite directions, e.g. right and left hand gloves dissymmetry, n [1 dišimétrī, 2 dišimétrī] dis- & symmetry a Lack of symmetry, b symmetry in opposite directions distaff, n [1 dištāf, 2 dištāf] OE distef, ML distaf, distestaf See staff, & cp ML Q disse 'flax prepared for spinning', cp duzen Stick on which wool, flax &c is wound for spinning, portion of spinning wheel used for this purpose Phr the distaff side, maternal side, female line distal, adj [1 dištāl, 2 dištāl], fr distant w suff on anal of central &c (anat) At the end and remote from attachment to body distal end of a bone, limb Contrasted with proximal distance (I), n [1 dištans, 2 dištans] Fr, fr Lat distantia, 'distance, remoteness, difference' See distant & -ce (general sense) Remoteness, difference Various shades of meaning 1 Remoteness in space, a the space, long or short, which intervenes between two points, or two distant objects we usually reckon distance in miles, b the amount of space between two objects, degree of remoteness one from the other what is the distance from here to London?, the distance must be very great, Phr striking, hauling, distance, that degree of distance at which one can strike or hail effectively, c a great or considerable amount of space between two objects to live at a distance, in the distance, far away (from here), a good distance off, a long way, it is quite a distance from here, no distance at all Phrs to keep one's distance, keep a way from, court no familiarity, to keep a person at a distance, treat him coldly, without cordiality, refuse to become intimate with 2 Pictorial representation of different degrees of distance a from the beholder, b between different objects represented in the same picture 3 Remoteness in time A long period, considerable amount of time to look back over a distance of forty years, at this distance of time 4 (of degree of similarity) Unlikeness, marked difference how great is the distance between the art of the Egyptians and of the Greeks, the distance between the culture of the lowest savages and that of primitive man is but slight 5 Degree of remoteness in blood relationship there is some distance between the two branches of the family distance (II), vb trans, fr pre- To put space between two objects, to get in advance of, outstrip, in physical or intellectual contest to distance one's pursuers, rivals &c distant, adj [1 dištānt, 2 dištānt], fr Lat distant (em), Pres Part of distāre, 'to stand apart, to be remote, distant', fr dis- (I) & stāre, 'to stand' See stand (I), state (I) 1 (of space) a Far off, remote (in space or time) a distant view, b at a distance of some miles distant 2 (of degree of similarity) Faint, not easily perceived a distant likeness resemblance 3 (of manner) Without cordiality, cold, not inviting intimacy a distant politeness, to be rather distant 4 (of blood relationship) Not close, derived from remote ancestor a distant cousin, kinsman distantly, adv Pre- & -ly In a distant manner (in all senses) distaste, n [1 dištäst, 2 dištäst] dis- & taste (I) (followed by for) Dislike, aversion, repugnance a distaste for hard work distasteful, adj [1 dištästfūl, 2 dištästfūl] Pre- & -ful Provoking distaste, exciting aversion, repellent distastefulness, n Pre- & -ness The quality of being distasteful distemper (I), vb trans [1 dištemper, 2 dištemper], fr O Fr destemper, fr Med.

Lat distemperare, fr dis- & temperare, 'to combine in due proportion, qualify, temper', See temper (I) (chiefly adjectivally in PP) To disturb, put out of order, upset balance of, esp a distempered mind distemper (II), n, fr pre- a (archaic) Illness, abnormal condition of mind or body, b now, specifically and more commonly, an inflammatory disease in dogs, c (fig) social discontent, disorder, unrest distemper (III), n Same as distemper (I).

Cp O Fr destremper, later destremper, 'to steep, soak, moisten with water' &c, & Mod Fr trempier, 'soak, dye'. A special preparation of colouring matter, size &c applied to the interior walls of houses &c, also, tempera distemper (IV), vb trans, fr preo To coat with distemper distend, vb trans & intrans [1 disténd, 2 disténd], fr Lat distendere, 'to stretch out, extend, to swell out, extend', fr dis- & tendere, 'stretch'. See tend (II), tendon, & tense (II) 1 (obs) To stretch out (trans & intrans) 2 a trans (of a hollow, elastic body, bladder &c) To fill out, inflate, blow out, cause to swell, b intrans, to become unnaturally or excessively inflated, or blown out, as by pressure of air &c from within distensibility, n [1 distensibiliti, 2 distensibiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being distensible distensible, adj [1 disténsibl, 2 disténsibl], fr Lat distensibilis, P P type of distendere, 'to extend, to distend'. See distend & -ible Capable of being distended distension, n [1 distenshun, 2 distéofen] See prec & -ion Act or process of distending, state of being distended, inflation distich, n [1 distik, 2 distik], fr Lat distichon, fr Gk distikhon, 'a distich', fr di- (II) & stikhos, 'a line'. See stichic (pros) Group of two lines, a couplet distichous, adj [1 distikus, 2 distakus], fr Lat, fr Gk distikhos, 'of two lines'. See prec & -ous (bot) Arranged in two rows distil, vb trans & intrans [1 distil, 2 distil], fr Lat distillare, destillare, 'to drip, trickle down, to distil', fr di- (I) & stillare, 'to drip, trickle'. See still (V) A trans 1 To give out in drops, to oase to trickle, to exale 2 To evaporate liquid and condense it again 3 A To extract the essence or spirit of a substance by evaporation and condensation, b to manufacture by evaporation and condensation, as whisky, scent &c 4 (fig, of non-material things) To extract essence, capture spirit of to distil wisdom, poetry B intrans To fall in drops, to trickle, come forth slowly distillate, n [1 distilat, 2 distilét], fr Lat distillat(um), P P type of distillare, 'to trickle, drip, to distil'. See prec & -ate Essence or spirit procured by distilling distillation, n [1 distilashun, 2 distiléfen] Prec & -ation Act or process of distilling distillatory, adj [1 distilatori, 2 distilétari] distillate & -ory For, used in, distilling distiller, n [1 distiler, 2 distile] distil & -er Person who distils, esp alcoholic spirit whisky distillers distillery, n [1 distileri, 2 distileri] distil & -ery A place where distilling (esp of whisky, gin &c) is carried on distinct, adj [1 distíngkt, 2 distíngkt], fr Lat distinct(us) 'separate, distinct, marked at different points, adorned, spangled', fr P P of distinguere, 'to separate, divide; to distinguish, discriminate, to punctuate, to adorn'. See distinguish 1 Separate, not connected, not confused with something else, individual, independent, having separate existence; different, not the same Old English and Old Frisian, though closely related, are perfectly distinct dialects, these two ideas must be kept distinct one from the other, to have a distinct line of one's own 2 a Well marked, clear, easily seen, capable of being perceived distinct writing, the earth's shadow on the moon was quite distinct, the inscriptions on the rock are no longer very distinct, b definite, well defined, unmistakable a distinct improvement 3 (poet and archaic) Adorned, variegated distinction, n [1 distíngkshun, 2 distíngkfen] Prec & -ion 1 The act of keeping distinct, of distinguishing to make, draw, a distinction between two things, a distinction without a difference 2 That which distinguishes, characteristic feature, point of difference, individuality I can see no distinction between the two cases 3 a (1) Quality of mind, bearing, character, which raises its possessor above the ordinary, and singles him out as a superior and lofty spirit to possess unadvised distinction of manner, character &c, (u) expression of such qualities in literary or artistic style, b a mark of favour and approbation bestowed by public authority as a reward for, and recognition of, services rendered loaded with distinctions from king and countrymen 4 Condition of being distinguished, of possessing distinction or distinctions, eminence, repute to have the distinction of being associated with such a great man, a writer of distinction distinctive, adj [1 distíngktiv, 2 distíngktiv] distinct & -ive Serving to distinguish, marking a difference, making distinct distinctively, adv Prec & -ly In a distinctive manner distinctiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being distinctive distinctly, adv. [1 distíngkth, 2 distíngkth] distinct & -ly In a distinct manner (in all senses), a clearly, unmistakably distinctly visible, to speak distinctly, b unambiguously, definitely, beyond possibility of doubt it must be distinctly understood that, &c, he was told distinctly to remain where he was, (colloq) that is distinctly annoying distinctness, n [1 distíngktnes, 2 distíngktnis] See prec & -ness The property or quality of being distinct distingué, adj [1 distánggá, 2 distánggá] Fr, P P & adj, 'distinguished' Having an air of distinction distinguish, vb trans & intrans [1 distínggwish, 2 distínggwish], fr Lat distinguere, to separate, to distinguish, discriminate, to punctuate, to adorn, & -ish The Lat vb is fr a base stig-*, 'to prick, mark', w infixed nasal Cp stigma, stuck (I), instigate A trans 1 a To perceive, make out clearly, discern to distinguish a distant object, b to perceive differences or distinction between I can hardly distinguish one from the other, they are so much alike 2 To be a mark of difference, act as distinguishing feature, be a characteristic of, to give individuality to each rank in the army is distinguished by a special badge 3 a To bring credit and distinction on, make famous, prominent: (1) to distinguish oneself in one's profession, (u) (ironical) to make oneself notorious he distinguished himself by deeply offending everyone present, b to mark out for peculiar favour, honour by commendation Milton from his youth was distinguished by many famous men B intrans To make distinctions, exercise discrimination you are confusing things, let us distinguish distinguishable, adj [1 distínggwishabl, 2 distínggwishabl] Prec & -able Capable of being distinguished distinguishably, adv Prec & -ly In a distinguishable manner distinguished, adj [1 distínggwisht, 2 distínggwist], fr P P of distinguish In various senses, esp a marked by, exhibiting, innate distinction a distinguished appearance, manner, style &c, b possessing, having acquired, distinctions, recognized as having performed meritorious service, as having remarkable attainments, hence, celebrated, famous a distinguished writer, career &c Distinguished Service Order, abbr DSO, an order established in 1886 for officers in army and navy for distinguished service in presence of the enemy distort, vb trans [1 distort, 2 distót], fr Lat distorti(um), P P type of distorguere, 'to turn different ways, to twist; to torture', fr dis- & torquere, 'to turn, twist, bend'. See torque 1 To twist out of normal shape, pull awry, to alter, spoil the shape of his face was distorted by fury 2 (of non-material things) To pervert, give false impression of, mis state, misrepresent. to distort the truth, to distort facts to suit one's argument, a distorted version of the story distortedly, adv [1 distortédli, 2 distótédli] P P of prec & -ly In a distorted manner distortion, n [1 distóreshun, 2 distótshun] distort & -ion 1 Act or process of distorting, twisting, misrepresenting his countenance underwent a sudden horrible distortion

2 Something distorted, a a twist, deformation. a distortion of the face, limbs &c, b perversion, misrepresentation, travesty a distortion of the truth &c distortionist, n [1 distóreshunist, 2 distótshunist] Prec & -ist An acrobat who twists his body into unnatural shapes, a contortionist distract, vb trans [1 distrakt, 2 distrákt], fr Lat distrahi(um), P P type of distrahere, 'to pull apart, separate by force; to distract, perplex', fr dis- & trahere, 'to draw, pull'

See tract (I) (lit) To pull apart, draw aside (only of mental processes) 1 a To take, divert, the mind, thoughts &c away from some fixed object of contemplation reading distracts the mind from grief, b to direct the mind, turn it aside from its proper, immediate, object I cannot work if my attention is being distracted by constant interruptions

2 To attract the thoughts in various directions, a to perplex, puzzle, bewilder, confuse my thoughts are distracted by so many different duties and occupations, b to perplex the mind, draw it from its normal balance to the point of madness her mind had been distracted by grief Phr to drive distracted, (u) render mentally unbalanced, make mad, (u) to bewilder, cause extreme perplexity to distracted, adj [1 distráktéd, 2 distráktéd], fr P P of prec Extremely disturbed in mind, frantic through grief, worry &c; mad distractedly, adv Prec & -ly In a distracted manner distractingly, adv [1 distráktíngli, 2 distráktíngli] Prec Part of prec & -ly In a manner calculated to distract distract, n [1 distrákshun, 2 distrákshun], fr Lat distraction(em), 'pulling apart, dividing' See prec & -ion 1 a The act or process of distracting, b state of being distracted 2 (in favourable sense) Something that attracts and holds the mind and attention pleasantly, amusement, diversion, recreation not to have enough distractions

3 Bewilderment, confusion of mind, madness to be driven to distraction Phr to lose to distraction, love passionately distrain, vb intrans [1 distráin, 2 distréin], fr O Fr destrandre, fr Lat destringere, 'to stretch out, to engage, detain', fr di- (I) & stringere, 'to draw tight, bind, squeeze, to touch lightly, to compress, abridge'. See strain, stringent, strict To seize goods in payment for money due, or in order to force debtor to pay to distrain upon a person, his goods, for rent distrainee, n [1 distráin, 2 distréin] Prec & -ee A person whose goods are seized in payment of a debt distrainment, n [1 distráinment, 2 distréinment] distrain & -ment The act of distraining distrant, n [1 distránt, 2 distréint], fr O Fr destrant, P P of destrandre. See distrain The act or process of distraining distract, adj [1 distráit, 2 distréit] Fr (P P of distraire), fr Lat distractum, see distract Absent-minded, preoccupied distracted, adj [1 distráit, 2 distréit] M E distrahit, distract, 'distracted', fr Lat distractus, 'divided; perplexed'. Variant of prec Confused in mind, bewildered, perplexed by doubt and anxiety, mad distress (I), n [1 distres, 2 distres] M E distresse, distresse, fr O Fr destrare, fr Low Lat districha*, fr Lat distrahi(um), P P type of destringere, 'to draw tight, bind, squeeze, distract, harass'. See distrain

1 (of mental state) A sorrow, grief, affliction distress of mind, b that which causes sorrow

&c his conduct was a great distress to his father 2 (of physical state) Extreme discomfort, malaise, pain, exhaustion the horse, runner, showed signs of distress 3 (of external conditions) a Great poverty, misery, lack of means of support to relieve distress, b danger, difficulty, imminent peril a ship in distress 4 (law) a Right of landlord to distrain on goods of tenant for non payment of rent, b distraint distress (II), vb trans, fr O Fr. distresser, fr Low Lat. districāre. See prec a To afflict, cause distress, sorrow, to most distressing news, Phr to distress oneself, to feel anxiety, become anxious, allow oneself to be worried b to exhaust by physical exertion, cause bodily pain the horses were much distressed during the last few hours of the march distressful, adj [1 distressful, 2 distressal] distress (I) & -ful a Suffering distress, b causing distress distressfully, adv Prec. & -ly In a distressful manner.

distress-gun, n One fired by a ship in distress, as call for help distressingly, adv [1 distressingly, 2 distressingly] Prec Part. of distress (II) & -ly So as to cause distress distributable, adj [1 distributable, 2 distributable] Next word & -able Capable of being distributed, available for distribution.

distribute, vb trans & intrans [1 distribūt, 2 distribūt] fr Lat distribūt (um), P.P type of distribere, 'to divide, distribute' See dis- & tribute A trans 1. To dispense, administer to distribute justice 2 a To hand out, allot, (material objects) among a number of persons to distribute money, blankets, to the poor, b to deposit at various places to distribute circulars, letters, at a number of houses 3 To spread out, so as to cover a specified area to distribute manure over a field 4 (typog) To break up type that has been used for printing and put back each letter into its proper compartment in the cases 5 (log, chiefly in P.P) To use a term in its fullest extent, so that it stands for everything to which it can be applied distributed middle term B intrans To perform the act of distribution 'To do good and to distribute, forget not' distribution, n [1 distribūshun, 2 distribūshun] Prec. & -ion. 1 The act or process of distributing, condition of being distributed. 2 (log) The use of a term in the widest sense applying it to all objects denoted by it. 3 (polit econ) A Process of distributing commodities from producers to consumers, b apportionment of profit from a commodity among the various interests, land, labour, capital, which co operate in its production 4 Mode in which, and extent to which, anything is distributed, precise way in which things occur in particular places and areas certain types of animal and plant life have a very wide distribution in Europe, the distribution of dialect features, the distribution of a particular sound in a given t.p. of English 5 In what words it is used distributional adj [1 distribūshunl, 2 distribūshunl] Prec. & -ul Pertaining to distribution.

distributive adj & n [1 distribūtiv, 2 distribūtiv] distributive & -ive 1 adj a Carrying out act or process of distribution, involving distribution b implying reference to each member of a group or class not to class as a whole 2 n A distributive pronoun or adjective distributively adv Prec. & -ly Severally, inivid shly, separately district (I) n [1 distrikt, 2 distrikt] fr Mod Lat districtus 'district' fr Lat districus (um), P.P type of districare 'to stretch out in different directions' &c. See distrahere district (II) 1 A defined tract of land part of a country marked out for some specific purpose, usually administrative, territory over which a particular official, or official body, has jurisdiction, specif, administrative division of a province, county, city, parish, also attrib, as rural, urban, district council &c 2 (in general sense) Region, area, part of a country district (II), vb trans, fr prec To divide up into districts district visitor, n A person working as a clergyman's assistant in a particular part of a parish.

distrust (I), n [1 distrust, 2 distrust] distrust (I) Want of confidence doubt, suspicion.

distrust (II), vb trans. distrust (II) To feel distrust concerning, lack confidence in, be suspicious of distrustful, adj [1 distrustful, 2 distrustful] distrust (I) & -ful Animated by distrust, unwilling to place reliance on, doubtful, suspicious distrustfully, adv. Prec. & -ly In a distrustful manner, with distrust and suspicion disturb, vb trans [1 disturb, 2 disturb] fr O Fr distorber, fr Lat disturbare, 'to drive asunder, throw into disorder, to frustrate', fr dis- & turbare, 'to agitate, confuse', fr turbo, 'an uproar, tumult, a crowd, mult' See turbid 1 (of material and non-material things) To interrupt, interfere with, alter, the normal condition, to break up state of order, calm and quiet a to disturb the surface of a lake, ruffle it, to disturb the good order of a house, of the furniture &c, disarrange it; b to disturb one's thoughts, reflections, train of ideas, one's serenity of mind, break in upon, interrupt, o to disturb one's plans, one's work, d to disturb the peace, cause uproar, social unrest &c 2 (law) To disturb the freehold, to break up, dig, the ground, esp for the purpose of removing a growing tree &c disturbance, n [1 disturbance, 2 disturbance] Prec & -ance 1 The act of disturbing 2 a Something that disturbs, b result of disturbing, confusion, interruption, uproar specif, to cause a disturbance, provokes breach of the peace. 3. (law) Act of hindering a person from enjoyment of his rights disunion, n [1 disūnion, 2 disūnion] dis- & union (of non material process) a Rupture of union, severance, breaking of connecting bond - disunion of Church and State b disagreement, discord, dissension disunite, vb trans & intrans [1 disūnit, 2 disūnit] dis- & unite a trans, To sever connexion between, cause to separate, destroy union of, b intrans, to become separate disunited, adj [1 disūnit, 2 disūnit] fr P.P of prec a (of physical condition) Not united separate, disconnected, b specif (of human relations) differing in opinions and purpose, at variance disuse (I), vb trans [1 disūz, 2 disūz] dis- & use (II) To cease to use, to use no longer (esp in P.P) disuse (II), n [1 disūz, 2 disūz] dis- & use (I) The state of not being used - to fall into disuse, become rusty from disuse.

disyllabic &c See dissyllabic &c ditch (I), n [1 dich, 2 ditch] OE dīc, ME dich O Fris dīk, MHG tīch, ON dīk prob cogn w Gk thēgēn 'to sharpen', Lat. figere, 'to fix, fasten, drive in', Bret. der 'digger'. Aryan base dhāy*, dhīg*, dhig*, 'sharp, pointed' The word seems to have been applied in Gmc to the sloping mound formed by earth dug out of a hollow, then to the hollow itself. Cp dike a narrow channel, dug in the ground, for covering or draining off water, b a larger excavation on reembling this in shape, for d'fence &c Phr to die in the ditch, de'ced position (lit. or fig) to the last natural watercourse resembling a ditch ditch (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec To make, mend, clear ditches ditcher, n [1 dicher, 2 ditcher] Prec & -er Man who makes and mends ditches, usually hedger and ditcher ditching, n [1 diching, 2 ditching] ditch (I) & -ing (not Pres Part) Art, occupation, of making and mending ditches, esp in Phr hedging and ditching ditch-water, n Stagnant water Phr dull as ditch-water, intensely dull dithelism, n [1 dithēlism, 2 dithēlism] See di- (II) & theism Dualism, belief in the existence of two gods or ruling principles dithyramb, n [1 dithyram, 2 dithyram] fr Lat, fr Gk dithyrambos, 'dithyramb', poem in honour of Bacchus' Etymol unknown. a In Ancient Greek sense, b any wild chant or song of a highly emotional character dithyrambic, adj [1 dithyrambik, 2 dithyrambik] Prec & -ac Of the nature of a dithyramb ditany, n [1 ditan, 2 ditan] ME delane, delany, fr O Fr ditain, fr Lat dictamnum, fr Gk. di'tam(n)on, named after Mount Dicte in Crete A small perennial herb, producing a fragrant oil, once used as a tonic ditto, n [1 dittō, 2 dittō] Ital, fr Lat dicto, dat. of dicere, P.P of Lat. dicere, 'to say' See dictum 1 Lat (as has been) said; used in English in sense of 'the same', to avoid repetition of word paid to Messrs Jones & Co, ditto to Messrs Brown Abbreviation Do Phr to say ditto to, say the same as, agree with. 2. (slang, pl) Dittos, suit of clothes made all of the same pattern of cloth dittograph, adj [1 dittografik, 2 dittografik] See next word & -io Pertaining to, caused by, dittography dittography, n [1 dittografi, 2 dittografi] fr Gk dittōs, 'double, twofold', fr dittōs*, cp di'tha, 'donbly, separately', fr di*, 'two' (see di- (II)) & a suff -grā*, as in Suff (grā), 'every time' For the sort see -graphy The mechanical and unintentional repetition of a letter or letters by a copyist ditty, n [1 diti, 2 diti] ME dite, fr O Fr dite, fr Lat dictā (um), P.P type of dicere, 'to say often; to prescribe, order, to compose' See dictate A short, simple song, or poem intended to be sung ditty-bag, -box, n Etymol unknown. Sailor's soldier's receptacle for holding needles, cotton, and odds and ends diuretic, adj & n [1 diūretik, 2 diūretik] fr Lat, fr Gk di-ourētikos, fr di- (II) & ourēn, 'to make water', & -io See urine a adj Promoting the secretion of urine, b n, anything, esp a medicine, having this effect diurnal adj [1 diūnal, 2 diūnal] fr Lat diurnālis, 'daily', fr diurnus, 'daily', formed fr di (ē), 'a day', on the anal of nocturnus, 'nightly' See diem, diem, diem, & cp journal a Of, or belonging to the day opposed to nocturnal 'this diurnal star' (the sun) (Milton), b daily, taking place every day 'earth's diurnal course' (Wordsworth), c (hot and cool) lasting, living, for a day diurnally, adv Prec & -ly By day, daily diva n [1 diva, 2 diva] Ital, fr Lat diva, 'a goddess', fem form of divus, 'a god', fr divo* See deity, divine A principal woman singer, prima donna.

divagate, vb intrans [1 divagāt, 2 divagāt] fr Lat divagāt (um) P.P type of divagari, 'to wander about', fr di- (I) & vagari, 'to wander, ramble, to spread, be diffused' See vagary a To wander about, stray, b to ramble, digress in speech, become diffuse and wordy stray from point.

divagation, n [1 divagāshun, 2 divagāshun] Prec & -ation. A wandering, straying, digression divalent adj [1 divālent, 2 divālent] See di- & valent (chem) Having a valency of two, combining with two radicals, bivalent divan n [1 divān, 2 divān] Pers divān 'collect out of books, a council' 1 n Oriental (esp Turkish) court of justice or state council, b the room in which such councils are held 2 A long, low, cushioned seat against the wall of a room 3 A saloon where coffee and cigars are consumed, b high flown name for a tobacconist's shop, cigar divan divaricate (I), vb intrans [1 divārikāt, 2 divārikēt], fr Lat divāricāt-(um), PP type of divāricāre, 'to spread asunder', fr di- (I) & vāricāre, 'to stand with legs apart', fr vāricus, 'with feet apart, straddling', fr vārus, 'crooked, bent outwards or inwards' See varus To divide into branches, fork out, diverge divaricate (II), adj See prec (hot and zool) Spreading apart, branching, divergent divarication, n [1 divārikāshun, 2 divārikēshun] See prec & -ation Branching, forking dive (I), vb intrans [1 div, 2 dav] OE dyfan, 'to dip, plunge', ME diven, 'to dive', w added sense of OE dūfan, 'to sink, plunge', op ON dýfa, Gmc dub*(ja)-, fr Aryan dhubh-*, 'to go down into water', prob oogn w deep, dip 1 Specif a to plunge into water head foremost, b to go suddenly beneath surface of water when swimming 2 To go under water, often in specially made dress, for some specific purpose, eg for salvage work, to seek sponges, pearls &c 3 a To make a rapid, plunging movement on land, go headlong, hurl oneself, plunge suddenly into something to dive into the bushes, dive down an alley &c, b to thrust one's hand, suddenly and rapidly, into a bag, pocket, cupboard &c, in order to find or extract something 4 (fig) To immerse oneself deeply, especially for a brief space, in the study of a subject, or in a hook.

dive (II), n, fr prec a A specific act of diving into water &c, b an underground or basement room in a restaurant, inn &c, where some speciality is sold an oyster dive diver, n [1 diver, 2 dave] dive (I) & -er 1 One who dives, specif a one who works under water for some special purpose, eg collecting pearls, sponges &c, b one professionally engaged in diving in a specially contrived helmet, into which air is pumped through tubes, and a waterproof suit covering the rest of the body except the hands 2 One of several kinds of water birds diverge, vb intrans [1 divérj, divérj, 2 diváidj, diváidj], fr di- (I) & Lat vergere, 'to bend, turn, incline' See verge (II) a To divide, go in different directions, separate, b to become different, vary from an original form, c (of several sets of opinions &c) to differ, tend in different directions divergence, -cy, n [1 divérjens(i), 2 diváidjens(s)] prec & -ence & -cy The process of diverging, deviation, difference divergent, adj [1 divérjənt, 2 diváidjənt] See diverge & -ent Going in a different direction, deviating, branching off divergently, adv prec & -ly In different directions divergingly, adv [1 divérjəŋli, 2 diváidjəŋli] prec Part of diverge & -ly So as to exhibit divergence divers, adj [1 diverz, 2 dávəz], fr O Fr, fr Lat divers (um), PP type of divertere, 'to turn different ways, part, separate, to deviate, differ', fr di- (I) & vertere, 'to turn' See version (archaic) Several, different, various in divers manners and places diverse, adj [1 divers, divərs, 2 divás, divás] Variant of prec Dissimilar, of different kinds, varied diversely, adv prec & -ly In different way dissimilarly diversification, n [1 divərsifikāshun, 2 divásifikēshun] See diversify & -ication Process of diversifying, state of being diversified diversified, adj [1 divərsifid, 2 divásifid] fr PP of diversify Presenting variety of form, colour, features &c, varied the country was diversified by undulations, woodland &c diversiform, adj [1 divərsifərm, 2 divásifərm] See diverse & -form Of several shapes diversify, vb trans [1 divərsifi, divərsifi, 2 divásifai, divásifai] fr O Fr diversifier See diverse & -fy To produce variety in, vary the form and appearance of, to break monotony of diversion, n [1 di-, divərsən, 2 di-, divásən], fr Med Lat diversion (em) See diverse & -ion 1 The act of diverting, turning aside, giving a different direction to something 2 a The distraction of attention, a turning of the mind to a different object, specif (mil) b the drawing of an enemy's attention from a particular point, by an attack, or demonstration, at another point 3 That which diverts the attention agreeably, recreation, amusement diversity, n [1 divərsiti, 2 divásiti] fr O Fr diversité, fr Lat diversitāt (em), 'diversity, difference, disagreement' See diverse & -ity 1 State of being different, unlikeness, variety, difference, a in outward form, appearance, structure, b in mental and moral character, thoughts, opinions &c 2 (poet) Variegation, difference in colour 'Blushing in bright diversities of day' (Pope) divert, vb trans [1 divért, 2 davít], fr O Fr divertir, fr Lat divertere, 'to go in different ways, separate, to deviate, differ', fr di- (I) & vertere, 'to turn' See vertex, version 1 (of physical action) To turn aside, cause to proceed in another direction to divert the course of a stream &c 2 (of action on the mind &c) a To distract, turn aside, give another bent to, the thoughts, attention &c, b specif, to occupy the mind agreeably, to amuse, entertain to be greatly diverted by a play &c diverting, adj [1 divértəŋ, 2 davítəŋ] fr prec Part of prec Causing amusement, entertaining divertingly, adv prec & -ly In a diverting manner divest, vb trans [1 divést, divést, 2 davest, divest], fr O Fr divestir, fr dis- & Lat vestire, 'to clothe', fr vestis, 'garment' See vest (I) 1 To strip, take off, remove, a (reflex) to divest oneself of garments, to undress, b to divest a person of his coat &c, to take it off him 2 (fig) a (reflex) to surrender to divest oneself of one's wealth &c, b to dispossess, deprive of, remove from possession of to divest a person of his office, rank, honours &c divestiture, n [1 divéstitshur, 2 davéstítshə] See prec & cp investiture Divestment divestment, n [1 divéstment, 2 davéstment] divest & -ment a The act of divesting, b state of being divested divide (I), vb trans & intrans [1 divid, 2 divíd], fr Lat dividere, 'to force apart, separate, to distribute, apportion, to separate, distinguish', fr di- (I) & videre*, 'to see apart, separate, divide', op Lat vidua, 'widow', further Scrt vindhāt, 'becomes empty, is wanting in', viddhas, 'merced', vidhuraś, 'separated' Cogn w QHG vis an, 'to avoid', Aryan uoidh* so, & w different grade, O HG uiso, Mod Germ weisen, 'orphan', Aryan uoidh* so See further under widow a trans 1 To separate, split up into parts to divide a cake into several pieces 2 (followed by with, between, or among) a To share out, cut up and apportion to divide something among, or between, several persons, to divide with another, give him part and take part oneself b (fig) to apportion time, energy &c, in several directions to divide one's time between work and play 3 (followed by from) to set apart, arrange in separate groups to divide the sheep from the goats 4 To intervene between two objects, or two parts of same thing, to part, separate, serve as a separating line, barrier, or boundary a road, a river, a palmyra, divides the two portions of the estate, to divide the hair in the middle 5 (of non-material processes) a To set at variance, antagonize, cause disagreement no quarrels shall divide us, opinions are divided on the point, Phr a house divided against itself, b to cause one to hesitate in mind between two decisions, incline now to this course, now to that 'This way and that dividing the swift mind' (Tennyson), my mind is divided on the point 6 To cause members of a deliberative body to vote on a motion, thus dividing it into those for, and those against I shall divide the house on this point 7 (math) To find out how many times one number is contained in another B intrans 1 To separate, split up, cease to be one, and become several 2 (of Parliament and other deliberative bodies) To separate for voting, to vote for or against, a motion the house then divided, Divide! Divide!, cry to indicate that enough has been said, and that the vote should now be taken divide (II), n, fr prec Something that divides, esp (in USA) a watershed Phr the Great Divide, death divided, edj [1 divided, 2 diváidj], fr PP of divide (I) (in vhl senses) Specif (phon) divided consonant, one formed by contact of part of the tongue with upper teeth, gums, soft or hard palate, in such a way that the air stream is allowed on either side, or one side, of the point of contact, thus producing different types of l-sound, popularly called liquid consonant dividend, n [1 dividend, 2 divídend], fr Fr dividende, fr Lat dividendum, 'to be divided' See divide (I) 1 a Interest payable on money invested, trading company's profits Phr to declare a dividend, to announce that one will be paid, b amount divided among creditors from the estate of a bankrupt, c amount of profit on purchases repaid to members of a co operative society 2 (math) Number to be divided by another dividend-warrant, n Certificate entitling holder to receive payment of dividend divider, n [1 divider, 2 divídj] divide (I) & -er One who, that which, divides, specif, dividers, compasses for measuring or marking off distances divi-divi, n [1 divi divi, 2 divi divi] Native name South American and West Indian plant whose seeds are used in tanning and leather dressing dividual, adj [1 divídual, 2 divídjuəl] Lat dividu-(us), 'divided, separate', & -al. Separate, divisible divination, n [1 divínāshun, 2 divíneshun], fr Fr, fr Lat divination-(em), 'the power of foreseeing' divine (III) & -ation a The act of divining, faculty of discovering, or foretelling something still unknown, by supernatural means, b a prediction divine (I), adj [1 divín, 2 diváin], fr O Fr divin, fr Lat divinus, 'belonging to a deity', fr deiv m-, fr deiv os, 'a god' See deiv m-, fr deiv os, 'a god' 1 a Belonging to, like, having the nature of, God, or a god, devoted to God, b granted by God divine right (of kings) 2 (hyperbolic) Supremely excellent the divine Shakespeare, often (vulg colloq) meaning no more than very good, pleasing, agreeable what divine weather, muffins &c 1 divine (II), n, fr prec a One learned in, a student of, theology, b (colloq) a clergyman divine (III), vb trans, fr O Fr diviner, fr Lat divinare, 'to foresee, to foretell', fr divin (us), 'divine' See divine (I) a To foretell the future, make a discovery, by supernatural means, b to discover by conjecture or intuition to divine a person's intention &c divinely, adv [1 divínli, 2 diváinli] divine (I) & -ly In a divine manner, in a manner supremely excellent diviner, n [1 diviner, 2 diváin] divine (III) & -er One who divines, specif, a water finder, one who professes to discover underground springs by means of a divining-rod, also water diver or diver diving-bell, n. [1 dīvɪŋ bɛl, 2 dɔɪvɪŋ bɛl] Apparatus lowered into the water, in which persons can remain under water, being kept dry, and supplied with air pumped through tubes from above diving-dress, n. Suit of special clothes, used by divers, with weighted boots and air tight helmet through which air pipes enter divining-rod, n. [1 dīvɪnɪŋ rɒd, 2 dɔɪvɪnɪŋ rɒd] Forked twig of green hazel or withy, with which some persons appear to be able to discover water or metals below the ground, the 'rod' is held by both hands, and touches when held over water divinity, n. [1 dɪvɪnɪti, 2 dɪvɪnɪti], fr O Fr divinité, fr Lat divinitas (em), 'divinity, divine quality' See divino (I) & -ity 1 The property of being divine, of being God the divinity of Christ 2 A divino being the Divinity, God, a divinity, a heathen deity 3 The scientific study of theology divinity calf, n. (book binding) Dark brown calf leather, so called from being formerly used in binding theological books divinization, n. [1 dɪvɪnɪzəʃən, 2 dɪvɪn aɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation Deification divinize, vb trans [1 dɪvɪnaɪz, 2 dɪvɪnaɪz] See divino (I) & -ize (rare) To raise to the rank of a god, deify divisibility, n. [1 dɪvɪzɪbɪlɪti, 2 dɪvɪzɪbɪlɪti] See next word & -ity The quality of being divisible divisible, adj [1 dɪvɪzəbəl, 2 dɪvɪzɪbəl], fr Lat divisibilis, 'divisible' See next word & -ible A capable of being divided into parts, b (math, of numbers) exactly containing another number a certain number of times, without leaving a remainder division, n. [1 dɪvɪʒən, 2 dɪvɪʒən], fr Lat divisiō (em), 'the act of dividing, process of being divided', fr di vɛ (um) (fr weidh* to), PP type of dividere, 'to divide' See divide (I) 1 The act, or process of dividing, state of being divided, a (of material things) separation, distribution &c, b (of mental processes) disunion, difference of opinion, antagonism, opposing interests &c, sections of a community so divided. 2 (part &c) Separation of members into two groups for voting, act of voting on a motion. 3 (math) Process of dividing one number by another 4 Something that divides, a partition, barrier 5 Something that is divided from a whole, a section of country distinguished for administrative or parliamentary purposes, b (mil) three, or four, brigades, commanded by a major general, forming a complete unit, with cavalry and artillery &c, three or four of which form an army corps, c (nav) group of four war vessels, as unit of a squadron or fleet, d class, as in a school, government department, prison &c divisional, adj [1 dɪvɪʒənəl, 2 dɪvɪʒənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to a division divisionally, adv Prec & -ly By division, or divisions divisor, n. [1 dɪvɪzər, 2 dɪvɪzə] See division & -or (math) The number by which another is divided divorce (I), n. [1 dɪvɔrs, 2 dɪvɔs], fr Fr, fr Lat divortium, a separation, point of separation, dissolution of marriage', fr divortere, divertere, 'to turn different ways, to separate, to turn aside' See divert, vortex. 1 Legal dissolution of marriage contract between husband and wife 2 (fig) Separation severance, of connexion and relation the divorce between religion and science divorce (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To get rid of, separate oneself from (wife or husband) by obtaining a legal dissolution of marriage 2 (fig) To separate, disunite, tear asunder, sever connexion between to divorce one's conduct from one's principles divorceable, adj [1 dɪvɔrsəbəl, 2 dɪvɔrsəbəl] Prec & -able Capable of being, liable to be, divorced.

divorcee, n. [1 dɪvɔrsɪ, 2 dɪvɔsɪ] divorce (II) & -ee A spouse who is divorced from the other divorcement, n. [1 dɪvɔrsəmənt, 2 dɪvɔs mənt] divorce (II) & -ment The act, or process, of divorcing, state of being divorced divot, n. [1 dɪvɒt, 2 dɪvɒt] Etymol unknown (Scots) a piece of turf for burning, b (golf) piece of turf cut out by club of player when striking the ball divulgar, n. [1 dɪvʊlɡəʃən, 2 dɪvʊlɡɪʃən] Next word & -ation The act, or process, of divulging, state of being divulged divulge, vb trans [1 dɪvʊlʒ, 2 dɪvʊlʒɪ], fr Lat divulgare, 'to make known, publish', fr di- (I) & vulgare, 'to make common or universal, to make known, spread abroad' See vulgus To make known, reveal, communicate, allow to transpire to divulge a secret, news &c divulgement, n. [1 dɪvʊlɡmənt, 2 dɪvʊlʒmənt] Prec & -ment The act of divulging, state of being divulged divulgence, n. [1 dɪvʊlʒəns, 2 dɪvʊlʒəns] divulgo & -ence Act of divulging, divulgement divan See döwan

divan, n. [1 dɪvən, 2 dɪvən] Origin unknown (mil colloq) A mess tin or cooking pot.

divan, vb trans [1 dɪvən, 2 dɪvən] Cp LG diven, 'dax prepared for spinning', Gmc div-* 'prepare, make ready or fit', cp distaff To dress gaily, adorn, deck dizzily, adv [1 dɪzli, 2 dɪzli], fr dizzy & -ly In a dizzy manner, in such a manner as to cause dizziness dizziness, n. [1 dɪzɪns, 2 dɪzɪns], fr next word & -ness The state of being dizzy dizzy (I), adj [1 dɪzi, 2 dɪzi] OE dysig, 'foolish', ME dis, 'stupid, foolish', op M Do deusig, OHG disig, also Dao dōsig, 'drowsy', Gmc dis*, 'to be foolish, irrational, out of one's mind', Arya base dheues*, dheus*, dhus*, 'to be mad, to rage', cp Gk thuide, 'a Bacchant' (fr thus* is, fr dhus*) For the base dheue*, &c see boast, fume &c 1 a Suffering from vertigo, giddy, b perplexed in mind, bewildered. 2 Causing dizziness, liable to make dizzy a dizzy height, a dizzy whirling dizzy (II), vb trans, fr prec To make dizzy, confuse, bewilder do (I), vb trans, intrans, & auxil [1 dɒ, 2 dʊ] ME dōn, OE dōn, cp OHG tuon, OLG dōn, duan, O Frs dua, Gmc dō* The Aryan base dōh*, dhe*, dhe*, 'to place, put', has numerous derivatives in the Indo Gmc languages Cp Sert (dādhāti, 'place', Gk tithēmi, 'I put, place, make, cause to become, maintain', Lat (ab)dere, 'to place apart, remove', (er)dere, 'to believe, trust' (see creed), (per)dere, 'to waste, lose' (see perdition), O Slav děja, Lith dėti, 'place', Gael dèd, 'placed' With suff -al dohal*, dheh*, 'to make, construct', Lat facere, 'to make, do' (fr dhe* l.), fieri, 'I made' (fr dhe* l.), Gk idēai, 'box', Sert dādhā, 'receptacle' With participial suff t, dhot*, dhet* Sert dhitat, 'the act of placing', Gk thesis, 'the act of placing' (see thesis), Goth (ga)dēpa, OHG ka (see deed) With suff -m dhem*, dhom*, 'something that is placed, fixed', Gk thēma (> dhem*), 'law' (see theme, anathema), thēm elia, 'foundations', Sert dhdman, 'law', Goth doma OHG tuom, 'judgement' (see doom)

A trans 1 Uses once common, now obsolete a To put, to place, bring to a given position or state they did him in prison &c, now only in archaic and obsolescent phrase to do to death, b to procure the carrying out of a certain action, to get, have, it done (do, followed by infin, comparable to Fr use of faire, and former Engl use of let) he did him kill, had him killed 2 a To carry out action so as to affect something, bring action to bear on something, occupy oneself with, accomplish, to perform, execute get something to do, to do one's work, duty, what shall I do next?, to do a good deed, to do the best one can, Phr to do things well, handsomely, on a grand scale, shabbily &c, b to perform, execute, carry on as one's regular occupation he ought to do something at his age, he can find nothing to do just now, to do reviewing, lecturing, charring &c, c (in P P) to complete, finish his work is done, some is still unfinished but most is already done, Phr to have done with, to give up, forsake, cease from doing, make an end of doing, see done, adj 3 a To bestow, confer to do homage, reverence, justice to, Phrs to do one good, do a good turn to, b to involve, be source of, bring about, procure for that does you great credit, honour &c, c to inflict upon, afflict with to do one harm, an injury 4 To perform some specific act in regard to a thing or person arising naturally from one's particular relation to it or him, or from the actual circumstances of the moment, in many special senses, e.g. to do the flowers (in a room), arrange them in vases, with water, &c to do one's hair, brush it, make it tidy, to do one's correspondence, answer one's letters &c, every one is being vaccinated here, hadn't you better be done too? 5 To cook food, cook food thoroughly mind you do the beef thoroughly, I like my meat very well done, take out the vegetables and do them a little longer Phr done to a turn, perfectly cooked. 6 To visit a place as a sightseer, go round it and inspect all the objects of interest you can't do Oxford properly in a day, to do the British Museum, National Gallery &c 7 (colloq) To cheat, deceive, swindle, get the better of I'm afraid you've been done, he did me over that bargain, I don't want you to feel that I'm doing you Phr (vulg) to do in the eye, do brown, cheat badly 8 To suit, be convenient to, be adequate for purpose if I might stay the night, that would do me very well, will this racket do you? 9 To play the part of, act in capacity of I saw Irving do Hamlet many years ago, he does the host admirably 10 (colloq) a To treat, behave to, entertain to do a man well, handsomely, b (reflex) to do oneself well, proud, indulge oneself, live luxuriously 11 To perform, complete, a journey, traverse a certain distance to do twenty miles a day on foot, to do the distance, journey, in an hour &c B intrans 1 To act, engage in some form of activity to do and die, let us be up and doing Phrs to hate to do with, be concerned with, associated with, have dealings with, have nothing to do with him, or his schemes, that has nothing to do with the question, is not related to it 2 a To suit, be fitting, to be tolerable, or tolerated this will never do, it doesn't do to be rude to strangers, b to be good enough, adequate for a particular purpose, to suffice this sort of work won't do for me, these boots will hardly do for riding in, that will do, enough of that, desist! 3 a To thrive, flourish, prosper, succeed, in career, profession &c he is doing very well at the Bar &c, b to maintain good health, improve in health, make progress towards recovery mother and child are both doing well, the patient is better, he will do now, c (of plants) to thrive, flourish, grow well azaleas won't do where there is hme in the soil C Do as auxiliary verb 1 In declaratory sentences such constructions as I do think, I did hope &c, for I think, I hoped, are now only used in poetry, unless when the idea is strongly emphasized and the chief stress is placed on do, did, e.g. I do think you ought to go, I am strongly of the opinion &c, I did hope he would have behaved properly, I hoped very much &c, he did eat a lot, do come and stay, as pressing invitation Also absol in earnest entreaty, referring to an action already mentioned surely you can stay the night, now do 2 In negative sentences such constructions as I see not, he came not, are now archaic, obsolete, or poetical, in ordinary speech the construction used is I do not (don't) see, he did not (didn't) come. The negative is only placed directly after a verbal form in the auxiliary, and old irregular verbs such as dare, can. 3 Interrogative sentences hear you? I told I you? (now archaic and poet), ordinary construction do you hear, did I tell you? Auxiliaries, and can, dare, alone have the old construction can you?, are you?, dare you? 4 Rhetorical inversions after adverbial phrases, well do I remember it, never did I see such a fool, sometimes used, for sake of emphasis, for I remember it well, I never saw such a fool. D Followed by prop or adv Do away, trans, to remove, obliterate, do away with, intrans, get rid of, to kill. Do for, intrans, a to finish off, run, to kill, b to perform service for, look after wants of, specif, to act as housekeeper. Do in, trans (colloq), to murder. Do out, trans, clean out, wash, sweep away dust &c. do out a room, a stable &c. Do to, intrans, to treat, deal with, behave to what have they done to you, do to others as you expect them to do to you. Do up, trans, a repair, smarten up, renovate, decorate do to the house up, b to arrange in order, place on, arrange round, head do up one's hair, c to button up, fasten with hooks and eyes &c. do up a bodice, dress, d (in P P) exhausted, worn out quite done up after the journey. Do with, intrans, a to get on with, tolerate, endure I can't do with him or with his insolence, b to be satisfied with can you do with cold boiled mutton for dinner?, c (facetious) to be glad to have, be ready to take, to need you could do with a square meal, I dare say, I could do with a good night's rest. Do without, intrans, to manage, carry on without, to dispense with, deny oneself can you do without tobacco for a week?, we must do without a holiday this year. do (II), n, fr preo (colloq) 1 A swindle, fraud, deception he was a fool not to see that the scheme was a do from the start. 2 An elaborate entertainment, a festive gathering, party we've got a do on to night. 3 (in pl) Action, transaction, share, in Phr far do's, play fair, share and share alike. do (III), n [1 dō, 2 dōu] (mue) First of the syllables used in solmization, q v, the first tone of the scale. doable, adj [1 dōabl, 2 dōabl] do (I) & -able Able to be done. doat See dote. dobbin, n [1 dobin, 2 dōbin], fr Robin, Robert Name for a horse, usually for a patent, old farm-horse. Doctism, n [1 dōctizm, 2 dōctizm], fr Med Lat doctae & -ism, fr Gk dokein, 'to seem', to have an appearance of, to adopt an opinion, to believe', fr Aryan base dōk-, dēk- &c, 'to seem good'. See dogma, dooile, decent. Heresy of the Doctae, prevalent in 2nd cent AD, which denied the reality of Christ's human body. doch-an-doris, n [1 dōgh an dōris, 2 dōgh an dōris] Gael doch, 'drink', an, 'the', dorus, genit of dorus, 'door'. A parting drink, stirrup-cup. docile, adj [1 dōsil, 2 dōsil], fr Fr, Lat docilis, 'docile, easily taught', fr docere, 'to teach, inform, show', & -il(e). The stem dōk-, 'to cause to appear', is a form of the Aryan base dēk-, dōk-* &c, 'to seem good, to appear', op Lat dece, 'it befits' &c. See decent, decorous, & words there referred to (of men and animals) Capable of being taught, of learning, tractable, easy to manage, amenable to training and discipline. docuely, adv Prec & -ly In a docile manner. docuity, n [1 dōsiliti, 2 dōsiliti] docile & -ity Quality of being docile. dock (I), n [1 dok, 2 dok] OE doce, ME doce. A coarse weed, genus Rumex, with large leaves and small green flowers. dock (II), n Cp Du dokke. Origin obscure. An enclosure (in sea or river) where ships are loaded, repaired &c, often with gates through which the water can be let in or out. Dry-dock, graving-dock, one with water excluded, floating-dock, enclosure with walls floating in the water, and with contrivances for pumping out the water, wet-dock, containing water about level with high tide. dock (III), n Perh same as preo. Enclosed space reserved for prisoner on trial in criminal court. Phr to be in the dock, to be the person tried, the suspected criminal as distinct from others in court. dock (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr dock (II) a trans To bring (a ship) into dock, b intrans (of a ship), to come, go, into dock. dock (V), n. ME dok, fr ON dokkr, 'tail'. The solid part of an animal's tail. dock (VI), vb trans ME doeken, fr preo 1 To clip off, cut short, esp to shorten an animal's tail. 2 To cut down, out off enphases, lessen, diminish, a salary, wages, allowance of money &c, also b of food, c honours, triumph, possessions, and attributes generally, d (law) to dock the entail, to break the entail. dockage, n [1 dōky, 2 dōkidz] dock (II) & -age a Accommodation given to a ship in a dock, b money payable for such accommodation. dock-dues Same as dockage, b. dockster, n [1 doker, 2 dōke] dock (II) & -er Labourer who works in a dock. docket (I), n [1 dōket, 2 dōkit] Late ME Etymol unknown 1 (law) Brief abstract of a legal judgement. 2 A label attached to a bale of goods, with instructions where and to whom they are to be delivered, b memorandum attached to a document, containing abstract of its contents. docket (II), vb trans, fr preo To enter on a docket. dockize, vb trans [1 dōkiz, 2 dōkiz] dock (II) & -ize To build docks in (a river, harbour &c), to transform (a river) into a series of docks. dock-master, n Superintendent of a dock or dockyard. dockyard, n [1 dōkyard, 2 dōkjād] Series of docks with equipment for ship building and repairing, store-houses &c. doctor (I), n [1 dōktor, 2 dōktā], fr Lat doctor, 'a teacher', fr doct (um), PP type of docere, 'to teach, show, tell', & -or See docile & decent 1 Teacher, learned man, specif, one of the early fathers and teachers of the Christian Church. 2 One who holds the highest degree in any faculty of a university. Doctor of Divinity, of Civil Law, Medicine &c. 3 (popular) A medical practitioner, whether a Doctor of Medicine or not better send for the doctor, going to see a doctor. 4 A kind of artificial dark green fly for fishing. doctor (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a (rare) To confer the degree of doctor on, b to address as, by title of, doctor. 2 To give medical treatment to, b to mend, repair something (machinery &c) which is out of order. 3 To adulterate (food, wine &c), specif, to put drugs in a person's drink, also doctor up, b to make fraudulent alterations in, falsify to doctor accounts, evidence &c. B intrans (rare) To practise medicine. doctoral, adj [1 dōktoral, 2 dōktēral] doctoor (I) & -al Pertaining to, coming from, a doctor or teacher, authoritative. doctorate, n [1 dōktorit, 2 dōktērit] doctor (I) & -ate The degree and status of a university doctor. doctorial, adj [1 dōktōrial, 2 dōktōrial] doctor (I) & -ial Doctoral. Doctors' Commons, n, fr the commons, or common table of the society. A Ancient Society or College of English Civil Lawyers, dissolved in 1857, b the original site of hall and buildings of the society, in which, later, certain courts were held. doctinaire, n & adj [1 dōktinār, 2 dōktinār], fr Fr See doctrine & -ary 1 n A narrow-minded person who urges the application of doctrines to which he holds, with extreme obstinacy, without considering their practicability, or applicability to particular cases. 2 adj Resembling, belonging to the character of, a doctrinaire, aggressively obstinate in pressing impracticable doctrines. doctrinal, adj [1 dōktināl, 2 dōktināl; 2 dōktināl, dōktināl] doctrine & -al Having to do with, based on, doctrine, specif, that of the Christian Church. doctrinally, adv Prec & -ly In accordance with, from the point of view of, doctrine. doctrinarian, n & adj [1 dōktinārian, 2 dōktinārian] doctrine & -arian Doctrinaire. doctrinarianism, n [1 dōktinārianizm, 2 dōktinārianizm] Prec & -ism The holding of doctrinarian principles. doctrine, n [1 dōktin, 2 dōktin], fr Fr, fr Lat doctrina, 'teaching, instruction, science, learning'. See doctoor & -me 1 Something that is taught, instruction. 2 A principle of belief, b body of religious, political, or scientific teaching and principles. doctourism, n [1 dōkturizm, 2 dōkturizm] Prec & -ism Exaggerated, unreasoning belief in some particular doctrine. docturist, n [1 dōkturist, 2 dōkturist] See prec & -ist. Believer in some particular doctrine. document (I), n [1 dōkūment, 2 dōkyument], fr O Fr, fr Lat document (um), 'an example, pattern, warning, specimen', fr base doc-, as in docile, & -ment. A Something written, b inscription, or other writing, which conveys information, and which is relied on as evidence for establishing facts, c human document, set of facts or incidents which throw light on human nature. document (II), vb trans, fr preo a To bring written evidence in proof of, b to supply with documentary evidence. documentary, adj [1 dōkūmentari, 2 dōkyumentari] document (I) & -ary In the form of a document, written. documentation, n [1 dōkūmentāshun, 2 dōkyumentāshun] document & -ation The use of documentary evidence, the supplying of such in a book or article. documented, adj [1 dōkūmentēd, 2 dōkyumentēd], fr P P of document (II) Supported by, supplied with, documentary evidence. dodder (I), n [1 dōder, 2 dōde] ME doder. Cp MHG tozer, NHG dotter. A parasitic, twining plant, with thread-like stem and fine scales in place of leaves. dodder (II), vb intrans See next word, meaning perh first, to be lopped, like a tree, then to be old and feeble, like a tree that has lost its head from age, hence, to walk and behave like a feeble old man. a To walk or move shakily, from age or weakness, to tremble, shake, totter, also to dodder along, b to ramble on in speech in a feeble, foolish, confused manner, to talk nonsense, c to be in a state of intellectual decrepitude. doddered, adj [1 dōderd, 2 dōded] Cp archaic & provino dod, 'clip, lop off' (of trees) Pollarded, shrouded, with top lopped. dodder-grass, n Quaking grass. dodderly, adj [1 dōder, 2 dōderi], fr dodder (II) & -y A tottery, shaky, m-firm, in the gait, b foolish, weak-minded, foolishly loquacious. dodeca-, pref, fr Gk dōdeka, 'twelve', fr dō-, 'two', fr dwō-*, see dual, & deca-Twelve. dodecagon, n [1 dōdēkagon, 2 dōudēkagon] Prec & -gon A plane figure with twelve sides. dodecahedron, n [1 dōdēkahēdron, 2 dōudēkahēdron] dodeca- & -hedron. Solid figure with twelve faces. dodecasyllable, n [1 dōdēkassylabi, 2 dōudēkassylabi] dodeca- & syllable A verse-line of twelve syllables. dodge (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dōj, 2 dōdz] Origin unknown. Used in late 16th cent in sense of 'to turn, wheel about'.

A traza 1 To avoid (a blow), escape from (pursuit), by twisting or turning quickly aside or in an unexpected direction 2 (of moral activities) To evade (difficulties and problems) by finesse, cunning, ingenious intellectual juggling 3 intrans To practise bodily or moral dodging, to twist aside, to shuffle, behave disingenuously, evade the truth dodge (II), n See preo 1 a The act of bodily dodging, (colloq) b trick, deception, quibble, evasion of the truth, c (in innocent sense) plan, method, device a good dodge for remembering names 2 (colloq) An ingenious contrivance a dodge for catching flies dodger, n [1 doger 2 dodža] dodge (I) & -er One who dodges, a dishonest, shuffling, dissembling rogue, a trickster dodgy, adj [1 dopi, 2 dodži] dodge (II) & -y a (of persons) Given to dodging, artful, dishonest, b (of things, colloq) ingenious, tricky, intricate dodo, n [1 dodō, 2 doudou], fr Port doudo, 'stupid' An extinct bird, rather larger than a swan, short-legged and clumsy, with rudimentary wings, formerly found in Mauritius doe, n [1 dō, 2 dou] O.E. dā, M.E. dō, possibly a loan word fr Lat dāma, 'deer', apparently fr Aryan dām*-, 'horned animal', cp O Ir dām (alland), 'stag', Corn da, 'deer', Bret. dawad, 'sheep', Gk damidēs, 'young bull' Female of fallow deer, also female of rabbit, rat, mouse, and ferret

Doe, John, n (legal hist) The name of fictitious plaintiff in old action for ejectment, the defendant being a fictitious Richard Roe doer, n [1 dōer, 2 dōa] do & -er a One who does something, one who acts he is a doer, not a talker, b one who acts or behaves in a specified way a doer of good, of evil, an evil doer, c (of plants) a good doer, one which flourishes and thrives, a bad doer, one difficult to rear and make grow, which tends to die or dwindle doeskin, n [1 dōskin, 2 dōuskin] doe & skin 1 The skin of the doe 2 a Fine leather made of this, b material made in imitation of this doff vb trans [1 dof, 2 dof] Contrasted fr do & off a To take off, remove, esp the hat, (less commonly) to remove other garments, b (of non material things) lay aside, give up, abandon to doff one's grand airs, professorial manner &c dog (I), n [1 dōg, 2 dag] M.E. dogge, O.E. dogga Cp M Du dogge, etymol. unknown 1 a A common, domesticated, carnivorous mammal, Canis familiaris, of which many varieties exist, Phrs to give, throw, to dog, throw away, as something of no value, to go to the dogs, be ruined, to rain cats and dogs, rain very heavily, to lead a dog's life, be continually harassed, to die a dog's death, the death of a dog, die in shame and misery, dog in the manger, one who neither makes use of a thing himself, nor will permit others to do so, to let sleeping dogs lie, not to stimulate activities that may prove dangerous, to treat a person like, worse than, a dog, give a dog a bad name and hang him, a person who has once got a bad reputation gets no credit for anything he does, b one of several allied varieties of quadruped, belonging to family Canidae, living in a wild state, as the wolf, jackal &c, c (i) specif, thomale of the domestic and other varieties of the species, (ii) applied also to male ferret and other animals, (often attrib) dog wolf, dog fox, dog-ferret &c 2 Applied to human beings a a worthless, abandoned, misnamed person, a term of abuse, Phr a dirty dog, b (slang affectionate or facetious) a fellow, young spark, licky, gay, dog 3 (pl) Metal supports on a bench for holding logs 4 (astron) a Either of the two constellations, Canis Major or Minor, the Greater or Lesser Dog, b (pl) also the Hunting Dogs, Canes Venatici, constellation near the Great Bear dog (II) vb trans, ir preo a To follow closely as a dog does, follow in tracks of, be at the heels of to dog a person's footsteps; b (fig. of misfortune, disaster &c) to attend closely, pursue relentlessly dogaresa, n [1 dōgaresa, 2 dōugarasa] Ital, fam of dogs See dog Wife of the doge of Venice or Genoa dogate, n [1 dōgāt, 2 dōugent], fr Fr, fr Ital dogato See dog & -ate The office of doge dog-bane, n A perennial herb, with a fibrous stem, producing a milky juice, used medicinally dog-berry, n The fruit of the dogwood, q v dog-biscuit, n Special kind of thick, hard biscuit, composed of meal and small pieces of meat, for feeding dogs dog-box, n Part of a railway van used for conveying dogs dog-brier, n The dog rose dog-cart, n A high, two or four wheeled carriage with two seats back to back, and an enclosed space below in which sporting dogs could be carried dog-collar, n a A collar worn by a dog, b a high, stiff collar, fastened behind, as often worn by the clergy dog-days, n The hottest part of the year, during part of July and August, formerly specif, that time of the year when Sirius, the dog star, rises and sets with the sun doge, n [1 dō, 2 doudž], fr Fr, fr Ital, fr Lat dux, abl of dux, 'a leader' See duke The chief magistrate in the ancient republics of Venice and Genoa dog-eared, adj (of a book) Having the corners of the leaves turned down and crumpled dog-faced, adj Having a face like a dog, applied to a species of baboon dog-fish, n The name of several small species of shark, notable for their voracity dogged, adj [1 dogged, 2 dōgd] See dog & -ed. Obstinate, stubborn, persistent, not yielding to pressure Phr it's dogged (that) does it, resolution and concentration can overcome difficulties doggedly, adv Preo & -ly In a dogged manner doggedness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being dogged, tenacity, obstinacy dogger, n [1 doger, 2 dōg] Etymol. doubtful A kind of two masted Dutch fishing boat, used in the North Sea doggerel, n & adj [1 dōgerel, 2 dōgarrel] Etymol. unknown a n. Rough, inartistic, jingling verse, b adj (of verse), careless, irregular, meaningless dogginess, n [1 dōgness, 2 dōgniss] See doggy & -ness a Quality of being like, or devoted to, dogs, b odour of dogs doggy, adj [1 dōgish, 2 dōgish] dog & -ish Like a dog, surly, with uncertain temper doggy, adj [1 dōg, 2 dōg] dog & -y a Belonging to, resembling, a dog, b fond of dogs dog-latin, n Incorrect, barbarous Latin dog-lead, n A chain, or leather strap with a swivel, for leading or fastening a dog dogma, n [1 dōgma, 2 dōgma], pl dogmas, occasionally, following Gk, dogmata [1 dōgmata, 2 dōgmata] Gk dōgma, 'an opinion, an ordinance' cp Gk dōkein, 'to believe', dōkimos, 'acceptable', fr Aryan base dōk*-, dek*-, dh*-, to seem good, to be acceptable, to accept', also in concrete sense, 'that which receives or holds', cp Gk dōlanē, 'box, fork', dōlē, 'beam, shaft', cp diplodocus See decent, docile 1 a Something laid down by authority of the Church as true, not necessary to be believed, b such principles and essentials of doctrine collectively 2 An opinion, body of opinions, enunciated as true, held with tenacity, and strongly insisted upon by those who believe them philosophic, scientific, dogma dogmatic, adj [1 dōgmātik, 2 dōgmāstik], fr Lat, fr Gk dōgmātikos, fr dōgmat (see) gent of dōgma (see preo), & -ic 1 Pertaining to concerned with, Christian dogma dogmatic theology 2 a (of persons) Arrogant, insistent, positive, and emphatic in expressing opinion, dictatorial, b (of expressions of opinion) authoritative, positive, as though precluding any possibility of doubt dogmatically, adv [1 dōgmātikali, 2 dōgmāstikali] Preo & -al & -ly In a dogmatic manner dogmatics, n [1 dōgmātika, 2 dōgmāstika] Systematic study of essential dogmas of Christianity, branch of learning dealing with these dogmatism, n [1 dōgmātizm, 2 dōgmāstizm] See dogmatic & -ism The practice of dogmatizing, dogmatic, positive, quality or state of mind dogmatist, n [1 dōgmātist, 2 dōgmāstist] See next word & -ist a A person who dogmatizes, one who attaches great weight to dogma, b a student of Christian dogma dogmatize, vb trans & intrans [1 dōgmātiz, 2 dōgmāstiz] See dogmatic & -ize a trans To formulate, express, as a dogma, b intrans, to assert an opinion positively and emphatically, to express an emphatic, unqualified opinion, to lay down the law dog-rose, n The common wild rose dog's-eared, adj Dog-eared dog-shore, n Heavy piece of timber used as prop for a ship before launching dog-skin, n Leather made of the skin of a dog dog's letter, n Old name for R, on account of the trilled sound which it expressed, called in Latin littera canina dog's-mercury, n A perennial, low growing herb, with small green flowers dog-star, n Popular name for Sirius, the principal star in the constellation Canis Major dog-tired, adj Very tired, dead-beat, worn out by fatigue dog-tooth, adj (archit) A moulding, consisting of a series of pyramid shaped projections, characteristic of the later Norman and Early English styles dog tooth moulding, pattern dog-violet, n Scutellus, wild violet dog-watch, n (nant) One of the two two-hour watches, from 4 to 6 or 6 to 8 p.m. dogwood, n [1 dōgwood, 2 dōgwud] One of several varieties of cornel, a flowering shrub dolly, n [1 dōli, 2 dōlil], fr name of inventor of material Small round or square piece of linen or cambric, often fringed and decorated, used for putting under a finger bowl, or other vessel, on a table doin, n [1 dōbing, 2 dōbān], fr do & -ing (in pl) Actions, activities, deeds, behaviour, conduct he gave an interesting account of his doings in Africa, we shall one day receive the just reward of our doings on earth doit, n [1 dōit, 2 dōit], fr Du duit, a small coin worth about 1/16 of a penny A coin of trifling value, only in Phr not worth a doit doited, adj [1 dōited, 2 dōitid] Origin unknown Crazy, foolish dolce far niente, n Engl [1 doleh fār niente, 2 doltis fār niente], Ital. [dōl'fē fār niente] Ital, lit 'sweet doing nothing'. Condition of agreeable inactivity doldrums, n [1 dōldrumz, 2 dōldremz] Etymol. dubious, perh allied to dull A provincial word a Low spirits, depression, Phr to be in the doldrums, depressed, glum, b (nant) region of sea near the Equator, usually calm, with little wind.

dole (I), n [1 dōl, 2 doul] O.E. dāl, 'part, division', M.E. dol, Gmo dau-*, cp deal (I), O.E. dēl, fr Gmo dail-* Cp also Gk dailō, O.E. deil, 'part' 1 (archaic and obs) That which is given out, apportioned, hence, fate 2 Something given or paid out a charitable gift form of assistance, b something distributed in small, limited shares, c expect, weekly payment received by an unemployed workman, under various Insurance Acts, from funds to which the State, the employers, and the workmen themselves have contributed, and also, when the contributions have been exhausted, from state funds to go, be, on the dole.

any stimulant given to a horse before a race, hence, any narcotic or other harmful drug, b (fig) something which dulls or blunts or deceives the conscience dope (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To apply dope or varnish to 2 (colloq) a To give dope or drug to to dope a horse, dope oneself with cocaine &c, b (fig) to allay conscientious scruples by plausible lies, to hoodwink doper, n [1 dōper, 2 dōpə] Prec & -or One who dopes (a horse &c) doppel-gänger, n [1 dōpl gēnger, 2 dōpl gēpə] Germ, lit 'double walker' See double & gang The phantasm or wrath of a living person, apparition of oneself, as a warning of death or disaster.

dopper, n [1 dōper, 2 dōpə] S Afr Dn, = 'dipper' Member of the Dutch Reformed Church of S Africa dor, n [1 dōr, 2 dō] O E dora, 'humble-bee', ME dore, cp also provino Engl dumble-dore, fr Gmc durān-*, op Lett (dum)durs, 'drone', (den)durs, 'a whimpering child', fr derārethar, 'he ories' Cp also Gk thorubos, 'confused noise', Aryan base dher-, dhor-, dhr-*, 'to make a noise' Perh allied to drone & dream A humming, droning insect, the dor-beetle dorado, n [1 doráhdō, 2 dorádōu] Span, fr Lat deauratus, PP of deaurare, 'to gild', fr de- & aurum, 'gold' See aurum Brilliantly coloured sea-fish, Coryphaena, often wrongly called a dolphin, its colours change and fade when dying dor-beetle, n The coolohafer Dorcas (society), n [1 dōrkss edseti, 2 dōkss edseti], fr name of the woman whom St Peter raised from the dead, and who made garments for the poor Meeting, society, of charitable ladies who assemble at regular intervals and sew, knit, and otherwise make clothes for the poor dor-hawk, n Provincial name for the night-jar or goat-snoker

Dorian, adj & n [1 dōrian, 2 dōriən], fr Lat, fr Gk Dōrios (&-an), 'belonging to Doris' 1 adj Belonging to, pertaining to, a Doris, one of the districts of ancient Greece, or b the race which about the 10th cent BC invaded Greece from the north, conquering the earlier inhabitants of Laconia, Crete, and other regions 2 n A An inhabitant of Doris, b member of the Dorian race

Doric, adj & n [1 dōrik, 2 dōrik] Gk Dōrīkos See preo & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to Doris or the Dorians, a (archit) Doric order, the first of the three Greek orders of architecture, the columns of which are distinguished by being thick in proportion to the height, by having a plain capital, by the absence of mouldings at the foot, and by broad, shallow flutings, b (of dial) unpolished, rough, rustic 2 n A The Doric dialect, hence, b unpolished provincial dialect to speak one's native Doric

Dorize, vb trans & intrans [1 dōriz, 2 dōraiz], fr Gk dōrizein To make or become Doric or Dorian in language, customs &c

Dorking, adj & n [1 dōrking, 2 dōrkɪŋ] Name of town in Surrey a adj Of a breed of domestic fowl, b n, fowl of snob breed dormancy, n [1 dōrmansi, 2 dōrmənsi] See next word & -ancy The state of being dormant, quiescence dormant, adj [1 dōrmant, 2 dōrmənt] O Fr dormant, Pres Part of dormir, fr Lat dormire, 'to sleep' Cogn w O Slav drēmati, 'to sleep, doze', Gk drathōn, 'slept', fr drm-dhom*, Aryan base derēm-, dorm-, drm-* &c, 'to sleep' 1 a Remaining in a state of inactivity (of hibernating animals, and of seeds during winter), b (fig) inactive, undeveloped, not used dormant faculties &c, c not used, not acting, quiescent to lie dormant, d (of peerage and other dignities) not claimed, often used wrongly for one in abeyance 2 (her) Figure of animal represented as lying asleep dormer, dormer-window, n [1 dōrmer; 2 dōmə], fr O Fr dormeur, fr Lat dormitorium, 'sleeping-room', fr dormit (um), PP type of dormire, 'to sleep' See preo & -ory A vertical window in a sloping roof dormitory, n [1 dōrmitori, 2 dōrmətəri], fr Lat dormitorium, 'sleeping-room' See preo A sleeping apartment for a number of persons, often divided into cubicles, esp used of such rooms in schools and institutions dormouse, n [1 dōrmous, 2 dōməus] Possibly fr O Fr dorm (see dormant) & mouse Small hibernating animal resembling a mouse, and intermediate between this and a squirrel dormy, adj [1 dōrmi, 2 dōmə] Origin unknown (of a golf player) Leading by as many holes as still remain to be played dorsal, adj & n [1 dōrsal, 2 dōrsəl] Lat dorsalis, pertaining to the back, fr dorsum, 'back' See dors(o)- a adj Pertaining to, on, near, the back dorsal fins &c, b n, a doersal, q v dorsally, adv Preo. & -ly By, along, the back dors(o)-, pref Form of Lat dorsum, 'back', used in compounds, prob cogn w deorsum, 'turned away', fr dēvorsum*, fr de- & vors (um), PP type of vertere, 'to turn' See vortex & version OI, or on, the back chiefly in anatomical terminology, as dors abdominal, of back and abdominal region, dorso-lateral, of back and side, dorso ventral, having upper and lower parts alike dorter, dortoir, n [1 dōrtér, 2 dōtə] O Fr, fr L Lat See dormitory & op dormer The dormitory or sleeping quarters of a monastery dory (I), n [1 dōn, 2 dōri], fr Fr dorée, fr Lat deauratus, 'gilt' See dorado Sea-fish of a yellow colour, with delicate, edible flesh Also John Dory.

dory (II), n Origin doubtful Light, flat-bottomed ship's boat, used by the cod-fishers of Newfoundland and N America dosage, n [1 dōsɪ, 2 dōsɪdʒ] See next word & -age 1 The act or practice of dosing 2 The amount of medicine to be taken at one time dose (I), n [1 dōs, 2 dōuz] Fr, fr Gk dosis, 'a gift', fr dōs* is for dōs* is, fr Aryan base dō*, dā*, 'to give', w PP snif & See date (I), donation A Amount of medicine administered, or ordered to be taken, at one time, b (fig) a portion, something administered a dose of flattery Phr to have a regular dose of anything, too much dose (II), vb trans, fr preo To administer medicine to doze, n & vb intrans [1 dōz, 2 dōz] Origin unknown (low slang) a n A bed, b vb, to go to bed, to sleep dossal, n [1 dōsal, 2 dōsəl] Fr, fr Med Lat dossale, dorsale, fr Lat dorsum, 'back', &-al Cp dorsal A cloth hung at the back of the altar, behind the altar, varying in colour according to the Church's seasons doss-house, n Place where a hed can be obtained for a night at a small cost, specif, a common lodging-house dossier, n [1 dōsɪ, 2 dōsɪ] Fr, 'collection of documents', fr dos, 'back', fr Lat dorsum, 'back' See dors(o)- A collection of documents and records containing information concerning some particular person, event, or incident.

dot (I), n [1 dot, 2 dɒt] O E doht, 'speck, head of a hair' 1 a A very small rounded mark made with pen, pencil &c, esp point placed over i, o, y, or used as diacritical mark dot and dash, short and long symbols &c, as in Morse telegraphy and signalling, b (mus) point placed after a note or rest, indicating increase of length by one-half 2 Anything resembling a dot in size or appearance the ship became a mere dot on the horizon dot (II), vb trans, fr preo a To mark with a dot to dot an s, (mus) dotted note, one marked with a dot, denoting that its length is increased by a half, Phm to dot one's s's, to behave with circumspection and punctiliousness, dot-and go one, noise made by a wooden leg, hence, man with a wooden leg, his walk as adj, limping, to dot a man one, strike him. b to make, trace, by means of dots (esp in PP) a dotted line, c to diversify as by dots, to scatter here and there on to dot houses over the countryside, a field dotted with sheep dot (II), n [1 dot, 2 dɒt] Fr, 'marriage portion', fr Lat dot (em) in same sense, fr base dō*, 'to give' See donation & dowry Woman's marriage portion, dowry dotage, n [1 dōtɪ, 2 dōtɪdʒ] See dote & -age Feebleness of mind and body due to old age, senility to be in one's dotage, to be very old, to grow foolish dotard, n [1 dōtard, 2 dōtərd] See next word & -ard A foolish, doddering old person, one afflicted by senility dote, doat, vb intrans [1 dōt, 2 dɒt] ME dohen, cp M Du doten, O Fr (re)doter, fr LG 1 To be in one's dotage, be weak and unbalanced in mind, to show signs of senility 2 Dote upon, be deeply attached to, have extreme fondness for, to love blindly doting, adj [1 dōtɪŋ, 2 dōtɪŋ] fr Pres Part of preo Loving, devoted, filled with fond solicitude a doting husband dotingly, adv Preo & -ly In a doting manner dotterel, n [1 dōtrel, 2 dōtrel] See dote & -rel. A kind of plover, coloured fawn, brown, and black, supposed to be very stupid, and to allow itself to be caught easily dottle, n [1 dōtl, 2 dōtl] dot (I) & -le Wad of tobacco left in a pipe after smoking dotty, adj [1 dōtə, 2 dōti] dot (I) & -y 1 Marked with dots, dotted about 2 (slang) Weak in the head, partially mad, queer in mind and behaviour douane, n [1 dōuən, 2 dūdā] Fr, fr Arab duwān See divan A custom house at a frontier between two countries double (I), adj [1 dʌbl, 2 dābl] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat duplus, 'double, twofold', op also duplex, cogn. w Gk (di)plōt, 'double' The first element is fr Lat duo, 'two' (see dual), the second fr Aryan base pel-, pl, 'fold', wb appears in Goth twai fl s, O H G zwei-fal, 'double', & w suff in Goth (ain) faip, 'single', O H G en-falt &c, Gk (di)plastos, 'double' See fold, -fold, diploma, plat, plexus, simple 1 (of amount) Twice as much, multiplied by two, as much again a double share, portion, my income is double what it was, to do double work, double width 2 (of quality) Twice as good, valuable, strong, thick, powerful &c, a (non-material) the worth and beauty of this poem are double those of the author's earlier work, b (material) double ale, double Gloucester (cheese) &c 3 (of use and function) a Intended, serving, for two persons or things double bed, double harness, b acting, performing a movement, twice double lock, c intended for, serving, two different purposes to pay a double debt, to have a double advantage, to perform a double service 4 (mode of arrangement, form) a Consisting of two, composed of a pair, having two identical parts, double row, double doors, a knife with a double edge, ship, box, with a double bottom, gun with a double barrel, a double stem; a double flower, blossom, one having greatly increased number of petals, b having, consisting of, two layers, thicknesses, folded in two a double coat of paint, a double lining, blanket 5 (of moral & intellectual processes and their expression in word or action) Two fold, having two, different, aspects or bearings, a (in bad sense) deliberately expressing one thing and meaning, or doing, another, one more, deceitful, treacherous to wear a double face, a double character, double dealing, conduct, b (in innocent sense) capable of two different interpretations, ambiguous a double meaning, significance.

double (II), adv, fr prec a Twice over, twice as much to pay double, to cost double what it did before, b in a pair, in (a) couple(s), as two to ride double (two on same horse), to see double, of a drunken man double (III), n, fr double (I) & (IV) 1 (from double (I)) a Twice the amount to take the double of what one has a right to, b specif, a slow, level run of about twice the speed of ordinary walking or marching to advance at the double 2 A duplicate, person or thing exactly resembling another to meet one's double 3 (tennis) Game played with two a side mixed doubles, played by two men and two women 4 A copper coin used in Guernsey, equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of a penny 5 (from double (IV)) A rapid twist, turn, dodging, a act of doubling back on one's tracks double (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr doubler, fr Lat duplāre, 'to double', fr duplus, 'double' See double (I) A trans 1 To multiply by two, increases an amount to twice as much as it was to double one's fortune, state, offer &c 2 (of an actor) To double the parts of, not two characters in same play 3 To bend, fold over, superimpose one thickness of something on another to double a blanket, shawl &c Phr to double one's fists, close, elench, as for fighting 4 (naut) To sail round, turn the corner of to double Cape Horn B intrans 1 To be come double in amount or size (also reflex.) 2 To move in double time, run 3 To turn back, dodge, sharply, in running to escape pursuit C Followed by preposition or adverb Double back, a trans, to draw, fold back, b intrans, to run rapidly back on one's tracks in avoiding pursuit Double in, trans, to fold, turn, tuck, something inwards Double up, 1 trans, a to fold, roll, up, b to cause (a person) to curl up, hunch himself together, with pain &c, o (fig) to cause (a person) to collapse with shock of grief &c, 2 intrans, a to be capable of being rolled, folded up the rug won't double up neatly, b (of persons) to curl up, collapse double axe, n Axe with two blades and edges double-barrelled, adj a (of a gun) Having two barrels, b (fig) having two meanings, capable of being taken in two ways, ambiguous a double barrelled compliment double-bass n [1 dubl bās, 2 dābl bēis] Largest of the fiddles, much larger than a 'cello double-bedded, adj [1 dābl béded, 2 dābl bédid] Containing two beds, containing a double bed double-breasted, adj [1 dābl brested, 2 dābl bréstd] Of a body garment, having two rows of buttons and button holes, so that it can be folded across and fastened either side double cross, vb trans (slang, of thieves, swindlers &c) To betray, cheat, swindle (one another) double-dealer, n. One who speaks and behaves differently according to circumstances, who says one thing and means, or does, another, a dissembler double-dealing, n & adj a n Decent, duplicity, b adj, deceitful, insincere double-decker, n Ship with two decks double Dutch, n. (colloq) An unintelligible language, language one does not understand double-dyed, adj [1 dābl did, 2 dābl dāid] a Having been twice immersed, steeped in dye to secure greater permanence of colour, b (fig) (1) steeped in iniquity double dyed villain, (u) thoroughly imbued with certain opinions, habits &c; thorough-paced a double dyed Tory double eagle n. a (her) An eagle with two heads b gold coin of the USA, value 10 dollars double-edged, adj [1 dābl éjd, 2 dābl éjdid] a Having two sharp edges, b (fig, of an argument &c) cutting both ways, telling against, as well as for double entendre n [1 dābl ontoudr, 2 dābl étidar] Fr, 'twofold sense' Statement, phrase, capable of a double interpretation, esp of one innocent, and another malicious, or improper meaning double-entry, n System of book keeping, in which each transaction is entered on the 'debtor side of one account and on the credit side of another double-faced, adj. Hypocritical double-first, n University degree with first-class honours a in two parts of the examination, b in two different examinations, c in examinations in two different subjects or Honour Schools In Oxford the phrase implies a first class, eg in both Classical Honour Moderations and in the Classical Final Honour examination or Greats double-lock, vb trans To turn the key twice, so as to shoot second bolt, to fasten with special security doubleless, n [1 dāblēs, 2 dāblinis] double (I) & -ness The quality or state of being double double-quick, adj & adv a Especially quick(ly), b in double time, at the double double-reef, vb trans To take two reefs in a sail double star, n Two stars very near together, only distinguishable from one another by means of a telescope double-stop, vb intrans (violin playing) To place fingers so as to form note on two strings and play on both at the same time doublet, n [1 dublet, 2 dāblit] Fr See double (I) & -et 1 (archaic) Close fitting garment covering the upper part of the body 2 One of several words derived ultimately from same source, but coming into a language through different channels, from different dialects, or at different periods, and differentiated in form and often in meaning, eg frail and fragile; hospital, hotel, hotel &c (3 pl) Two birds killed by shots, fired in rapid succession, from one double barrelled gun double time, n March step, fastest next to an actual run.

doubling, vbl n [1 dubling; 2 dābling], fr double (IV) & -ing 1 Action of one who doubles, a act of multiplying by two the doubling of one's income, b act of daring back, dodging, in evading pursuit &c he escaped his pursuers only by remarkable turnings and doublings 2 (her, in pl) Linings of robes of state &c and of mantles in coats of arms doubleton, n [1 dublton; 2 dāblton] fr Fr doubleton, fr Span doblón See double (I) & -oon Obsolete Spanish gold coin, of varying value, properly a double pistole, worth about a guinea doublet, n [1 dābltūr, 2 dābljūs] Fr, 'lining' Lining, specul, ornamental lining, esp of leather, of binding of a book doublely, adv [1 dubli, 2 dābli] double (I) & -ly To twice the extent, or amount doubt (I), vb intrans & trans [1 dout, 2 daut], fr O Fr douter, fr Lat dubitare, 'to hesitate in opinion, be uncertain, to reflect, deliberate', freq formed fr O Lat dabat, 'he is doubtful', fr dubius, 'doubtful' See dubious A intrans 1 a To hesitate, waver, be uncertain, in opinions or convictions, specif b To have difficulty in believing religious doctrine, to feel uncertain about the truth of revealed religion I would like to believe, but my reason makes me doubt 2 To have misgivings, hesitations, qualms, as to what to do, feel uncertain as to what has happened, or what will happen I doubt whether you ought to accept, I doubt very much whether I shall be able to come, I don't doubt that you are honest, I doubt if that was intended to mean what you think it means B trans 1 a To hesitate, be unable to believe, to disbelieve, attach no credit to, call in question the existence of something, that something has happened, the truth of a statement to doubt the existence of God, one's own existence, to doubt the evidence of one's senses, to doubt a person's honesty, b to entertain suspicions about a person's honesty, straightforwardness, loyalty I refuse to doubt so old a friend, you surely don't doubt me. 2 (archaic) To fear, be afraid, dread, have evil anticipations concerning to doubt the arrival of bad news at any moment.

doubt (II), n, fr O Fr doute, fr prec 1 (of mental attitude or condition) Lack of firm conviction, absence of certainty, inclination towards disbelief 'There lives more faith in honest doubt, Believe me, than in half the creeds' (Tennyson), to be in doubt what one ought to do 2 Condition of uncertainty in events and circumstances the issue of the fight was still in doubt 3 Specific case in which proof is lacking, a misgiving, feeling of hesitation in the mind on which side truth lies - to have grave doubts about something, my doubts are dispelled Phrs (there is) no doubt, without doubt, it is certain, certainly, to give a person the benefit of the doubt, believe the best of him, until the reverse is proved doubtful, adj [1 doubtful, 2 dautfəl]. Prec & -ful 1 a (of persons) Feeling, filled with, doubt, not convinced, uncertain I am doubtful what I ought to do; to be doubtful of the wisdom of an action, b (of statements &c) expressing or provoking doubt, not dispelling uncertainty a doubtful reply Phr a doubtful blessing, something which may or may not be such. 2 (of events, circumstances, of things in relation to human action) a Unsettled, undecided, hanging in the balance the outcome of the struggle was long doubtful, b fraught with foars, misgivings, obscure a doubtful future, to pursue a doubtful path (fig). 3 a (of persons and actions) Giving rise to doubt as to integrity, suspicious, not definitely felt to be above suspicion, shady a doubtful character, reputation, Phr in doubtful taste, bad taste, b (of places) squalid, disreputable, sinister a doubtful neighbourhood doubtfully, adv Prec & -ly In a doubtful manner (in various senses) doubtfulness, n See prec & -ness The state of being doubtful doubting, adj [1 doutng, 2 dautng], fr Pres Part of doubt (I) Feeling doubt, especially feeling dread, hesitation, apprehension a doubting heart doubtfully, adv See prec & -ly In a doubting manner doubtless, adj & adv [1 dōntles, 2 dautlis] fr doubt (II) & -less 1 adj (rare) Feeling no hesitation, fear, apprehension. 2 adv a Without doubt, certainly, b probably I shall doubtless see you tomorrow douce, adj [1 dōse, 2 dūs] Fr, 'fem of doux, 'sweet, gentle', fr Lat dulcis See dulcet Scots word, sometimes used in English; sedate, gentle.

douceur, n [1 dōsēr, 2 dūsā] Fr, 'sweetness, a favour' See prec Gratitude, tip, a bribe douche (I), n [1 dōosh, 2 dūs] Fr, fr Ital doccia, 'water pipe', fr Lat ductus, 'a conduit' (cp aqueduct), fr PP type of dūcere, 'to lead, draw, conduct' See duct & duke a A jet or shower of water passing through perforated ducts of metal, and directed upon some part of the body, b bath, injection by this means Phr to throw a cold douche upon, (fig) to damp, extinguish, enthusiasm for support of any scheme &c douche (II), vb trans, fr prec To apply a douche to dough, n [1 dō, 2 dōu] OE dāg, ME dōg, dōgh, don, cogn w OHG teig, ON deigr, Goth daigs, cp Goth digra, 'strength, solidity, abundance', ON durr, 'stout, large' Cogn w GL teikhos, 'wall', orig 'clay wall' (see paradise) Sert dēsh, 'body, figure', dēhi, 'earthwork', dēlim, 'smear over, stick together', Goth deigan, 'to smear', Lat fingere (w mixed n), 'to form, model, fashion, to touch, stroke', Aryan base *dheigh-, *dheugh-, *dheigh-, 'to form out of clay, to smear, cement' Cp also Lat fīgura, 'something formed, figure'

Fr figure, fiction, fictile, effigy, duff 1 Thick mass of uncooked flour, or meal, moistened with water, milk &c, kneaded ready for making into bread 2 (slang, esp U.S.A.) Money.

doughboy, n [1 dōboi, 2 dōboi] 1 Small, boiled suet dumpling 2 (slang, U.S.A.) American soldier doughiness, n [1 dōmes, 2 dōwnis] doughy & -ness State or consistency resembling that of dough doughnut, n [1 dōnut, 2 dōnut]. Small oake made of dough mixed with eggs and sugar and fried in deep fat doughtily, adv [1 dōtūh, 2 dautīh] doughty & -ly In a valiant manner doughtiness, n [1 dōtūnes, 2 dautīnis] Next word & -ness The quality of being doughty, valour, stoniness of heart doughty, adj [1 dōtū, 2 dautī] OE dohhtig, dyhtig, ME duhtig, op MHG duhtic, 'powerful, capable', fr base in OE dugan, 'be valiant', pret dēag, OHG tonc, Gothic teug, 'it is suitable, useful', cogn w Gk teukhein, 'to make, form, produce', Aryan base dheugh-, dough-, 'to make suitable' (arohao) Bold, valiant a doughty warrior, doughty deeds doughy, adj [1 dōi, 2 dōui] dough & -y A resembling dough in appearance or texture, b (fig) dull, heavy, in the intellect

Douglas spruce, n, also fir, pine [1 dūglas sprōs, 2 dūglas sprūs], fr David Douglas, a botanist, who introduced it to Great Britain in 1827 A tall, N American conifer, with spreading branches and flat needle-like leaves and pendulous cones, producing a valuable hard timber

Doukchobors, n pl [1 dōkōbōrs, 2 dōkōbōz], fr Russ, lit 'spunt fighters' The name given by the Orthodox Church to a non-conformist sect, styling themselves the 'Universal Brotherhood', having much in common with the Quakers doum, n [1 dōom, dōum, 2 dūm, dāum] Arab dum, dāum A palm tree of Upper Egypt, bearing fruit about the size of an apple dour, adj [1 dōor, 2 dū] Scots, perh fr Lat durus, 'hard' See durable Cold, aloof, stern, forbidding, in manner and character dourly, adv Preo & -ly In a dour, stern manner dourness, n See preo & -ness State, quality, of being dour douse, dōuse, vb trans [1 dōus, 2 dāus] Etymol unknown, not connected w dōuse (II) 1 To dip, plunge, in water, to throw water over 2 a (nant) To lower suddenly (a sail), b (colloq) to extinguish a light to douse the glim, put out the light dove, n [1 dōv, 2 dāv] OE dūfe (only in compound), ME dūve, OHG tūbo, Gothic tūbo, perh connected w OE dūfan, dūfan, 'to dive' (see dive), in allusion to the flight of the bird 1 One of many varieties of pigeon, all of which have characteristic murmuring cry ring-dove, rock dove, turtle-dove &c 2 A symbol of peace, b a name of, and symbol for, the Holy Ghost 3 A term of endearment dove-colour(ed), n & adj Soft, pinkish grey dove-cot(e), n [1 dāv kot, 2 dāv kat, kot] A small house containing a series of nesting-boxes for pigeons, often set on a pole, or against the upper part of a building Phr a flutter in the dove-cot, excitement among quiet people dove-eyed, adj Having innocent and gentle eyes like those of a dove dove-like, adj Like a dove, gentle, tender dove's-foot, n. A kind of wild geranium dovetail (I), n [1 dōvtail, 2 dāvteīl] See dove & tail, named fr shape of tenon A method of joining planks, timbers &c together, by fitting wedge shaped projections ('tenon') in one piece into cavities of corresponding shape ('mortise') in another dovetail (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans A To join together by means of dovetails, b (fig) to fit (facts, points of information &c) together 2 intrans (lit and fig) To dovetail in(to), to fit together closely, be easily lunked up dowager, n [1 dōuajer, 2 dōuadē], fr O Fr douagere, fr O Fr douage, 'dower' See dower, endow, & -age & -er A widow who has received a dower from her husband, esp title given to the widow of a prince, nobleman &c to distinguish her from the wife of her husband's heir dowager duchess, queen-dowager &c dowdily, adv [1 dōudih, 2 dōudīh] dowdy & -ly In a dowdy, unfashionable manner dowdiness, n [1 dōudines, 2 dōudinis] Next word & -ness Quality of being dowdy dowdy, adj & n [1 dōndi, 2 dōudi] ME doude &c, 'slut', op ducks 1 adj a (of woman) Ill-dressed, with no elegance or smartness, b (of dress) unfashionable, clumsy, badly made, lacking style 2 n A dowdy woman dowdysish, adj [1 dōndi-ish, 2 dōudi-ish] Preo & -ish Inclined to be dowdy, somewhat dowdy dowel (I), n [1 dōwel, 2 dāwil] Cp LG dowel, Mod Germ döbel, 'plug' Pin or peg of wood, iron &c, without a head, for joining two pieces of wood &c together dowel (II), vb trans, fr preo To fasten with dowels dower (I), n [1 dōwer, 2 dāus] ME douere, douaire, fr O Fr douaire, fr Low Lat dōitrum, fr Lat dōt (em), dōt, 'marriage portion, a property, talent', & -ary The form dōt is fr dōs*, fr Aryan base dō-*, 'to give', op donation & dot (III) 1 A Widow's share of husband's property, jointure, b property brought by wife to husband, dowry 2 Natural gift, talent, endowment dower (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To provide with a dower 2 To bestow upon, give talent to, endow with dowerless, adj. [1 dōwerles, 2 dāwerles] dower (I) & -less Without a dower or portion dowlas, n [1 dōulas, 2 dāulas], fr the name of the town of Douglas, near Brest, in Brittany Kind of coarse calico down (I), n [1 dōun, 2 dāun] Scand, ME doun, fr ON dūnn, further connexions obscure 1 A The fine, soft plumage under a bird's feathers, b a young bird's first coat of soft plumage, Phr as soft as down 2 Any light, fine, soft, fluffy substance resembling down, e.g the soft hair on newborn infants and young animals such as the rabbit, that first appearing on a boy's face, the hairy coat of some plants, fine fibre attached to some seeds, such as those of thistle, dandelion &c down (II), n OE dūn, 'hill', ME dūne, of Celt origin, cp Ir dūn, 'fortified hill, fort, town' Prob cogn w OE tūn, 'enclosure, estate, village' &c See town 1 Bare, open, uplands, esp (in pl) the chalky hills of Southern England South Downs, North Downs &c 2 The Downs, part of the Straits of Dover, inside the Goodwin Sands down (III), adv OE of dūne, dūne, lit 'from the hill' See preo Engl alone of the Gmo languages uses this particular word to express the varied ideas now associated with it, and the noun from which the adv &c has been developed is an early loan-word fr Celtic Such a method of expressing the ideas of rest at, & motion to, a lower position may be paralleled fr other languages, op Goth dalap, 'down', lit 'towards the valley'; fr dol, 'valley', & Fr aval, 'down stream', also lit 'towards the valley', fr Lat ad vallem Generally, down expresses lower position, whence, inferiority, decrease nearness in time &c contrasted with up A Expressing relations in space

1 (with vbs expressing motion) a descent from higher to lower position to go, come, glance (the eye) down, sink, run, fall, pull down, Phrs down on (a man &c), severe with, hostile to, to come down on, censure, punish, to put down, stop, abolish, abuses &c, b movement from upright to recumbent position to tumble, be knocked, lie down, Phrs down!, order to dog, lie down!, down with!, let us abolish (lit and fig), c movement from inland towards sea to go down to the coast, d of a river, from sources towards mouth to flow down, d movement from place of more to one of less importance to go down from town, down to the country, speak, to go down from Oxford, from the University, to leave, permanently or temporarily 2 (with vbs, expressing continuance in position) a In a low or lower position, lowered, recumbent on the ground to leave the blinds down, several trees are down, down on one's back, to hit a man when he's down, also fig Phr, to show severity, unkindness, to one already unfortunate, to get to have, something down (on paper), written, (will suit me) down to the ground, thoroughly, b sloping, hanging, projecting, downwards down on the left side, of anything which is supposed to stand at given height, Phr down at heel, having worn out boots, shabby generally B Expressing decrease of degree, intensity, amount, bulk &c 1 A Decrease of violence, abatement, subsidence &c the gale, wind, storm, has died, gone, down, b (of intensity) the temperature is down, less hot 2 A Deterioration of quality the excellence of many articles made in this country has gone down of late years, b decline in social position, importance, standing, reputation &c to come down in the world, Phrs down and out, ruined and helpless, to put a man down, snub him, shout down, refuse a hearing to, and drown what another says, o (of physical or moral state) (i) exhausted, enfeebled, worn out she is thoroughly down (in health), and must be fed up, (u) depressed, out of spirits, Phrs down on one's luck, down in the mouth 3 Decrease in amount, number the birth rate is very much down, the yield of corn is down compared with last year 4 Decrease in bulk to boil down, wear down, grind down C Expressing relation to completion of action 1 Nearer to the end, remoter from start to read from the beginning down to chapter 5 &c, I have done down to the end of letter D &c 2 Implying unsuccessful accomplishment to track, run down at last, to catch what one is seeking or pursuing Phr to run down a person, disparage him D (of relations in time) Expressing greater remoteness from past, nearness to present down to the time of Elizabeth, I now come down to the day before yesterday, to look down through the ages, from the past down (IV), prep, fr preo A Relations in space 1 (of motion) a Along, from higher to lower position, in descending direction, along the course of down the hill &c, b down the river, stream, in the direction in which it flows, o down wind, in the direction it is blowing, d to go down the road &c, along, away from given point 2 (of rest) a At a lower position or point to live further down the river, b at a remoter point a station down the line. B Relations in time Passing through from remoter to nearer point down the ages, years down (V), adj, fr down (III) (of direction) Downward, descending, going down (in various senses) on the down grade, the down train, one from London, down side, that on which down trans pass down (VI), vb trans, fr preo (colloq) a To bring, put down, to lower, knock down, to suppress, defeat, baffle to down one's opponent, press, defeat, baffle to down one's opponent; b to place, lay down to down (VII), n, fr down (V) 1 Lower position, lack of prosperity In Phr ups and downs of life, fate &c 2 (colloq) Dislike of, grudge against, a person In Phr to have a down on someone downcast (I), ndj [1 dounkəst, 2 dounkast] down (III) & cast a (of eyes, look &c) Looking downwards, b depressed, damped in spirits, discouraged down-cast (II), n (min) A ventilation shaft down-draught, n A downward current of air downfall, n [1 dounfawl, 2 dounfɔl] a The act of falling, descending, something which falls, a heavy fall of rain, snow &c, b (fig) overthrow, ruin, destruction downhearted, adj [1 dounhɑ:rted, 2 doun-hɑ:rtɪd] In low spirits, dejected, despondent downhill (I), ndv [1 dounhɪl, 2 dounhɪl] In a downward direction, from a hill or slope, towards the foot Phr (fig) to go downhill, to go from bad to worse, deteriorate in fortunes, character, health downhill (II), adj [1 dounhɪl, 2 dounhɪl] Having or following a downward slope downiness, n [1 dounɪnes, 2 dounɪnes] See downy (II) & -ness The quality of being downy

Downing Street, n [1 dounɪŋ, 2 daʊnɪŋ] Named after Sir George Downing, d 1654 Street leading from Whitehall to St James's Park, London, in which are the official residence of the Prime Minister, No 10, and that of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, hence, as synonym of the Cabinet or Government of the day an unpleasant shock to Downing Street
downpour, n [1 dounpɔ:, 2 daʊnpɔ:] Heavy fall of water, esp of rain downright, ndj & ndv [1 dounrɪt, 2 daʊn-rɪt] ME dun rɪht See down (III) & right 1 adj a Straightforward, frank, blunt, honest, definite n downright sort of man: b out and out, absolute, unqualified downright nonsense 2 adv Absolutely, really, thoroughly to be downright unpleasant &c downrightness, n [1 dounrɪtnes, 2 daʊnrɪtnes] Prec & -ness The quality of being downright downstairs (I), ndv [1 dounstɑ:z, 2 daʊnstɑ:z] Notion of stairs often lost To, or at, a lower floor of a house he is waiting downstairs, to go downstairs by lift downstairs (II), adj [1 dounstɑ:(z), 2 daʊnstɑ:(z)] On a lower floor, esp on the ground floor a downstairs room down-trodden, adj [1 daʊn trɒdɪn, 2 daʊn-trɒdɪn] Kept in subjection, tyrannized over, oppressed downward, adj [1 dounwəd, 2 daʊnwəd] OE dūnwæard See down (IV) & -ward.
 1 Passing from a higher to a lower level or position downward slope, movement 2 Proceeding from an earlier to a later point of time 3 Tending, declining, passing towards a lower state of excellence, in state of deterioration downward career downward(s), adv In a downward direction downy (I), ndj [1 dounɪ, 2 daʊnɪ] down (I) & -y 1 Like down in texture and appearance 2 (slang) Astute, wideawake, beneath an appearance of innocence, knowing a downy old bird downy (II), adj down (II) & -y (of country) Resembling, having character of, downy, undulating downy, n [1 dounɪ, 2 daʊnɪ] ME douwere, fr O Fr douaire. See dower (I) & -y a Woman's marriage portion, b (fig, poet) A natural gift, endowment dowse (I). See douse dowse (II), vb intrans [1 dous, 2 daʊs] Apparently Corn, etymol unknown To seek water by means of a divining rod dowser, n [1 dounsɜ:, 2 daʊsɜ:] Prec & -er One who dowses, water finder dowsing-rod, n [1 dounɪŋ rɒd, 2 daʊnɪŋ rɒd] Divining rod.
doxology, n [1 dɒksɒlədʒi, 2 dɒksɒlədʒɪ], fr Med Lat, fr Gk dōxa, 'a notion, an opinion, honour, glory', & -logy The form dōxa is fr earlier dokia*, fr Gk dokēin, 'to think, believe' See dogma, decent Hymn of praise, specif, liturgical formula beginning Gloria be to the Father &c, sung at the end of canticles and psalms doxy (I), n [1 dɒksɪ, 2 dɒksɪ] Final syllable of orthodoxy See prec (colloq) An opinion, doctrine, theory orthodoxy and every other doxy doxy (II), n Origin unknown Cant term for sweetheart, female tramp or beggar doyen, n [1 dɔ:ɪən, 2 dɔ:ɪə] Fr, 'dean, senior member of a body', fr Lat doctus See doctanal & doan Senior member of a body or profession doze (I), vb intrans [1 dɔ:z, 2 dɔ:z] Cp Dan dōse, 'to be drowsy', dozing, 'sleepy', prob cogn w OE dyssig See dizzy To sleep lightly and intermittently, be half asleep doze (II), n, fr prec A short, light sleep dozen, n [1 du:zn, 2 da:zn] ME dozaine, fr O Fr dozaine, fr Lat duodecim, 'twelve' See duodecimo 1 a (used as numeral ndj) Twelve things of one kind one, three, twelve &c, dozen eggs, bottles of wine &c, after several, many, in pl. followed by of several dozens of port &c, b a collection or group of twelve things of the same kind I'll take a dozen of them Phr baker's dozen, thirteen 2 (colloq) An indefinite number dozens of people dozily, adv [1 dɔ:zɪlɪ, 2 dɔ:zɪlɪ] dozy & -ly In a dozy, drowsy manner doziness, n [1 dɔ:zɪnes, 2 dɔ:zɪnes] See prec & -ness Condition of being dozy, drowsiness dozy, adj [1 dɔ:zɪ, 2 dɔ:zɪ] doze & -y Inclined to doze, drowsy, sleepy drab (I), adj & n [1 dræb, 2 dræb] Perth fr Fr drap, 'cloth' See draps 1 adj a Of a dull, dingy fawn or brown, mud colour, (fig) b gloomy, dingy, undiversified, monotonous, colourless a drab existence 2 n A pale, dull brown to paint the walls a useful drab drab (II), n Celt, op Ir drabog, 'salut' a A low, shatterly, untidy woman, b (archaic) a prostitute drabbet, n [1 dræbɪt, 2 dræbɪt] Fr drap, 'cloth', & -et See draps A coarse, unbleached linen material drabble, vb intrans & trans [1 dræblɪ, 2 dræblɪ] ME drablen, LG loan word a intrans To splash about in, flounder through, mud and water, b trans, to make wet and muddy by dragging through mire &c Dracaena, n [1 dræ'si:na, 2 dræ'si:na], fr Gk drakaina, fem of drakōn See dragon a Genus of flowering, lilaceous trees and shrubs, one of which, the dragon tree of the Canary Islands, is of large size and yields dragon's blood, b name given to an allied genus of cultivated shrubs with beautiful foliage drachm, n [1 dræm, 2 dræm] See next word & dram A Drachma, b n weight See dram drachma, n [1 drækmə, 2 drækmə] Lat, fr Gk drakhmē, 'an Attic weight, 66½ grains, a silver coin', orig 'a handful', op dragma, 'a handful of corn, a shaft', driz, 'handful' (fr drakh*), drasman (fr drakh-so*), 'clutch, grasp, seize' Cp also O Slav pojdragiti, 'border', ON targa, OE targe, 'shield', org 'rim of shield' (see target), OHG zarga, 'enclosure' 1 a Ancient Greek silver coin, worth about 93d, b the modern Greek monetary unit and coin, equivalent to the franc 2 Unit of weight in ancient Greece, about 2 dwt 7 grains Troy Draco, n [1 dræko, 2 drækou] Lat See dragon 1 (astron.) The Dragon, a northern constellation between the Great and Little Bear 2 (zool) A genus of small flying lizards dracomann, adj [1 drækɒmən, 2 drækɒmən], fr the name of the Aethiopian Drakōn (see dragon), who introduced a code of laws in 621 n o (of laws) Of extreme severity, harsh draconic, ndj [1 drækonɪk, 2 drækɒnɪk] See prec & -ic Draconian, harsh draff n [1 draɪf, 2 draɪf] ME draff, 'dregs', cp M Du, Swed draf, N HG trüber, 'husks', Cp ON drafi, 'curdled milk', fr drabh, 'dregs, yeast', OE drof, OHG truobn, 'troubled, sad', Goth drōþjan, OE drēfan,

 'to trouble', Lith drimbs, 'to fall in clots', Gk trēphein, 'to curdle (milk)', to feed, nourish', thrōmbos, 'a clot' Aryan base dhrecbh*, dhrebh*, 'to thicken', expanded fr dher*, dhr*, 'firm' Sea furt, trophic, thrombosis Sediment, refuse, esp from malt after brewing wash for feeding pigs draft (I), n [1 draɪft, 2 draɪft] Variant spelling of draught See also draw 1 A body of men detached from a larger body for a special purpose 2 A roughly executed outline, plan, scheme, for book, document, picture, machinery &c 3 a An order for payment of money by a bank &c, b the drawing of money in this way draft (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To select and send (mon) from a larger body, to be dispatched on special duty 2 To prepare, draw up in outline, a rough plan, sketch, scheme for something to be constructed, written &c, specif, to draw up outline, or finished plan, for a Bill to come before Parliament
drafting, vb n [1 draɪftɪŋ, 2 draɪftɪŋ] Prec & -ing a Act of drawing up an outline or draft of a Bill &c, b way in which a Bill &c is drafted the drafting of this clause is very obscure draughtsman, draughtsman, n [1 draɪftsman, 2 draɪftsmən] 1 One who prepares drawings, plans &c, as in architecture or engineering 2 One who prepares, draws up a scheme for, a document, piece of writing, specif, one who drafts a Bill for Parliament &c parliamentary draftsman drag (I), vb trans & intrans [1 drag, 2 drag] Scand, ME dragen, cp Swed dräga, cogn w OE dragon See draw A trans To pull roughly, to pull along (esp something heavy, for which effort is required), pull with force Various specific meanings a To harrow (fields), b to trail along the ground to drag one's feet, c to use grappling irons, nets &c to search for something under water to drag the pond, d (colloq) to drag up (a child), to bring up, in a rough and careless manner, Phr (of a ship) to drag its anchor, draw it from sea-bottom B intrans a To trail, be pulled along, eg a ship's anchor when it has not taken hold, to walk with dragging feet, b (lit and fig) to produce sensation of dragging, tugging a dragging pain, anxiety dragging at one's heart strings, o to be tedious, hang heavy, pass slowly and tediously the performance dragged, time drags, one's life drags on, d to go too slowly, not be up to time the choir dragged behind the organ in the last hymn drag (II), n, fr prec 1 Something that is dragged, specif a a four wheeled private coach with seats on top, b an appliance for dredging, for bringing things up from under water, c a heavy harrow, d (i) a strong-smelling object dragged along or across country for several miles, to make an artificial trail for hounds, (ii) a hunt at which n drag is used 2 a Something that drags, or hinders progress, esp iron shoe fixed on wheel to act as brake, b (fig) something that hinders, cripples, impedes, a burden n drag on one's resources, career &c draggled, vb trans & intrans [1 draglɪ, 2 draglɪ] drag (I) & -le 1 trans
 To trail (skirts &c) through mud and mire 2 intrans To be dragged, trail, in the mud. draggled, ndj [1 dragldɪ, 2 dragldɪ], fr PP of pres Shabby and dirty, crumpled and stained, as from being dragged through mud &c a draggled appearance draggle-tail(ed) n & adj [1 drágl tál(d), 2 drágl tál(d)] a n A slovenly, ill-dressed woman, esp one with drooping, muddy skirts, b adj, having skirts dragging untidily on the ground, slatternly drag hunt, n Hunt in which no fox or hare is chased, but in which hounds follow a scent artificially made See drag (II) drag-net, n A net dragged along the ground to catch small birds, or through the water to catch fish dragoman n [1 drágoman, 2 drágaman] fr, fr Arah targuman, 'interpreter'. See Targum An interpreter in Arabic, Turkish, Persian, also a guide, in the East dragon, n [1 drágon, 2 drágon] fr, fr Lat dracon(-em), draco, fr Gk drakōn, 'a dragon, a large serpent', lit 'the sharp-sighted one', cp Gk derkōma, 'look at', Aryan base derk-, drl- &c, 'to see'. Other cognates are O Ir derc, 'eye', Goth (ga)larhyan, 'make distinct', O E torht, O H G zorah, 'bright, clear'. 1 a A fabulous monster, represented as a winged reptile, with scales, four legs and claws, and breathing out fire and smoke St George and the dragon, b (her) a representation of this monster (in various forms), cp Wylern the red dragon of Wales, c (fig, from legend of dragons guarding treasure) a fierce, vigilant female companion or chaperon of a young girl 2 (Bib) Term used in A V to translate various Hebrew words as the dragon, that old serpent, which is Satan (Rev xx 2) 3 (astron) The constellation Draco, qv 4 (zool) a a giant lizard of Komodo, island in Malay Archipelago, b a small lizard, genus Draco, of the East Indies, which flies through the air by means of membranes along its sides, c a special breed of domestic pigeon 5 Name of an old short musket or carbine used by cavalry See dragoon dragonet, n [1 dragunet, 2 drágonet] fr, dimin of dragon Name of a small, very brightly coloured sea fish, allied to the goby, with large, spined fins dragon-fly, n A brightly coloured, iridescent insect, having a large head, long slender body, and two pairs of strong, filmy wings, capable of a very rapid, darting flight dragonnade, n [1 dragunád, 2 drágonéd] fr, 'attack by dragons' See dragoon & -ade 1 (hist, usually pl) Persecution of French Protestants by Louis XIV, who quartered regiments of dragons on the Protestant villages, with orders to terrorize the inhabitants 2 Rapid mounraion earned out by armed forces dragon's-blood, n Red, resinous substance exuded by certain kinds of East Indian palm fruit, also obtained from the dragon-tree, used for colouring varnishes, lacquer &c dragon's head, -tail, n (astron) Ascending or descending node of the moon or planet, indicated by the symbols Υ , \cap dragon-tree, n A very tall tree, genus Dracaena, of the Canary Islands, which yields dragon's-blood dragoon (I), n [1 dragún, 2 drágún] fr dragon, 'carbine', so called as breathing fire See dragon, 4 a (ong) A mounted infantryman, armed with a carbine called a 'dragon', b a soldier belonging to certain regiments of cavalry, c a rough, fierce, terrifying man dragoon (II), vb trans, fr preo To discipline by severe, harsh, measures, enforce rigid discipline upon drag, n [1 drál, 2 dreil] Not found in O E, though it might well have existed in the form dragel*, or dregel*, the first element being drag, as in O E dragan, 'to draw' (see draw), & the second the common formative, dimin snff -al The word drag(e), 'drag-net', actually does occur, formed fr same base, see drag A suggestion has been made that the Mod drag is a compromise between draw & drag 1. A line and hook used in trolling, weighted to keep the latter at desired depth 2 Adjustable part of the beam of a plough drawn (I), vb trans & intrans [1 drán, 2 drein] O E dráhnian, 'to strain, strain out', M E drēnen, dreinen The O E base drāh- is in gradational relation to that in O E drágan, 'to become dry', & drýge, adj, 'dry' See dry A trans 1 (of action on land &c) a (of human action) To draw excess of water, or other moisture, away by cutting channels, or placing pipes &c to carry it off a farmer must drain his land, b (of action of river, watercourses, pipes &c) to carry away water from land the river drains the whole countryside, c (by extension) to carry off impure matter from a wound by tubes 2 (of action on water &c) to carry it away, a to make channels &c to carry it, b (of a river, pipes &c) to receive water and carry it away, allow it to flow through and away the river drains the water from the whole countryside, c (by extension) to cleanse, free, a wound from matter by allowing this to flow out through tubes Also drawn away, in above senses implying rather more complete action or process 3 (fig) To drink up a (of effect on liquid) to consume, swallow down to drain a pint of wine, b (of effect on drinking vessel) to swallow the contents of to drain a pint pot of wine Phrs to drain dry, to the dregs, drink up completely, (fig) to drain the cup of sorrow to the dregs, experience direct misfortune, grief &c 4 (fig) a To deprive of resources, impoverish to be drained of one's wealth, b to withdraw, carry away, exhaust (money, treasure, resources &c) 5 (recent, from draw (II)) To supply (a city, house &c) with drainage system (esp in P P) well, badly, drained B intrans 1 (of liquid) a (often drawn away) To flow, trickle, slowly away, to drip away the water will soon drain away, b (fig) his life was slowly draining away, he was bleeding to death 2 (of land or other substances containing liquid) To allow this to escape, undergo process of being drained this field drains into the river drain (II), n, fr preo 1 Artificial channel along which water flows, pipe, ditch &c for conveying superfluous water away from land or from buildings 2 (in pl) System of sewers and pipes leading through and from a house or town for carrying off sewage and water something wrong wth the drains again 3 A tube for drawing off inflammatory matter from a wound, abscess &c 4 (fig) A cause of exhaustion, constant exhausting demand, strain, on strength, time, resources &c a great drain on my purse, health 5 (colloq) A small quantity of liquid, esp a small drink, a mouthful drainage, n [1 dráin, 2 dréinidz] drain (I) & -age 1 The act of draining, process of being drained, specif a system of draining, carrying off of water from land, b system of sewers and pipes which carry away liquid impurities from a house or city, c process or system of draining off matter from a wound &c 2 Water, sewage &c carried off by draining drainage-basin, n The area drained by one river or river system drainage-tube, n A small piece of tubing, rendered aseptic, inserted in a wound for draining off pus drainer, n [1 dráner, 2 dréna] drain (I) & -er A device for draining away liquid, esp in domestic economy drain-pipe, n A large pipe, usually of earthenware, used for draining buildings drake (I), n [1 drák, 2 draik] Not in O E in present sense O E draco, 'dragon', is fr Lat (see dragon), & drake may be same word w transferred meaning M E drile wd. be normal development of draca, but it may have a continental origin, cp L G drak & O H G entrache, prob fr ant, ent, 'duck'. The male of the duck Phr ducks and drakes, see duck (I) drake (II), n O E draca, M E dráke, 'dragon', fr Lat draco See dragon 1 A kind of may fly, used as bait in river-fishing 2 A an obsolete form of cannon of small size, b a Norseman's beaked war galley drám, n [1 drám, 2 drám] See drachm 1 A unit of weight, a (avoudupois) $\frac{1}{4}$ of an ounce, b (apoth) $\frac{1}{2}$ of an ounce 2 (of liquids) a $\frac{1}{2}$ of a fluid ounce, hence, b a small quantity of spirit Phrs fond of a dram, addicted to drink, drum-drinker, one who drinks spirits frequently drama, n [1 drahma, 2 dráma] L Lat, fr Gk dráma, 'a deed, action represented on the stage, drama', fr drás, 'do, perform an action', & -m cp Gk (a)drandé, 'not strong, feeble', drástēros, 'active', Lith darai, 'to do', darbas, 'work', Aryan base, derā*, drā*, dra*, 'to do, to work, be active' See drastic, dromedary 1 A composition for performance on the stage 2 The composition or performance of stage plays considered as an art 3 A series of striking and interesting events marked by an interplay of human passion dramatic, adj [1 dramatik, 2 drémətik], fr Gk dramatikos, fr drámat (os), genit of dráma See preo & -ic 1 Pertaining to, connected with, the drama oramic performance 2 a (of events &c) Resembling a drama in being characterized by interesting and arresting human action, and the interplay of passions and characters, b (of manner, mode of speech &c) sudden and striking, exhibiting unexpectedly some play of human passion, revealing some interesting aspect of character, creating an interesting situation dramatically, adv [1 dramatikali, 2 drémətikali] See preo & -al & -ly a In a dramatic manner, b in a manner deliberately adopted and not natural to oneself dramatis personae, n pl [1 drámatís personé, 2 drémətís personé] Lat The characters in a given play, list of these dramatist, n [1 drámatist, 2 dréməstist], fr Gk drámat (os), genit of dráma (see drama), & -ist A writer of plays dramatization, n [1 drámatizashun, 2 drémətəzəshun] Next word & -ation The art or act of dramatizing, that which is dramatized dramatize, vb trans [1 dramatiz, 2 drémətaiz] See dramatist & -ize To put (a story, series of events &c) into the form of a play dramaturge, n [1 drámatərg, 2 drémətádz], fr fr, fr Gk drámatourgos, 'a maker of plays', fr drámat (see drama) & erg (on), 'work' See ergon & work A dramatist dramaturgic, adj [1 drámatyrik, 2 drémətidzik] Preo & -ic Relating to the writing of plays dramaturgist, n [1 drámatərist, 2 drémətidzist] dramaturge & -ist Dramaturge dramaturgy, n [1 drámatərgi, 2 drémətidzi] dramaturge & -y The art of composing dramas, and of producing them on the stage drank, vb [1 drangk, 2 drənk] O E, M E dranc Prot of drink drape, vb trans [1 dráp, 2 dreip], fr O Fr draper, fr drap, 'cloth', Low Lat drappum, the origin of wh. is unknown a To hang (a fabric, cloak &c) over something and arrange it so that it falls in loose folds to drape a mantle round the shoulders, b to cover (some thing) with piece of fabric, loose garment &c, so that the latter hangs in folds to drape the figure, oneself, wall &c draper, n [1 dráper, 2 dréips] M E draper, fr O Fr draper See preo & -er The old form still survives in the family name Draper Formerly a maker of, now a dealer in, cloth and other woven materials, and in articles made from these, esp a person who has a shop where these things are sold to go to a draper's, to his shop drapery, n [1 dráperi, 2 dréipəri], fr O Fr draperie See drape 1 a The series, collection, of folds into which a soft material falls when thrown over, or gathered round, something, b the fabric, garment & which drapes, and forms folds round, something Both also in pl draperies 2 a The representation of drapery in painting or sculpture, b the technique of the artistic treatment of drapery by the painter or sculptor 3 a The trade of a draper, b a draper's wares collectively, c place where draper carries on business, a draper's shop Also drapery establishment, drapery stores drastic, adj [1 drástik, 2 drástik], fr Gk drastik (es), 'violent, active', op drástikos, 'active', drástēs, 'a labourer', drasteos, 'to be done', & see drama a Having a powerful effect, acting with force, esp to apply drastic remedies (lit and fig), b thorough going to make drastic alterations drastically, adv [1 drástikali, 2 drástikali] See prec & -al & -ly In a drastic manner drat, interj [1 drat, 2 drat], fr 'od rot, the first, unstressed, vowel being dropped, & that of second syll being unrounded, as in plat (of ground) for plot God for God & Low, but mild, expletive about equivalent to bother, confound, dash drat it, drat you, hothere it, confound you draught (I), n [1 dræht, 2 dræht] O E draht, M E draht, dræht n H G dracht, O N dracht, Gmc *drach, 'to draw', 'to draw' See dratt, dra, dræht 1 a The act of drawing, Phr draught of draught, horse, ox &c for drawing cart &c, b the drawing of liquid from one vessel into another Phr on draught, (of beer &c) from a cask that has been opened 2 Something that is drawn, specif a amount of liquid drunk at one time a draught of water &c, Phr, to drink at a, one, draught, drink right off without stopping, (also fig) a draught of happiness, b dose of medicine mixed and prepared ready for drinking black draught, a strong purgative medicine, a mixture of opium and magnesia, c amount of water a ship draws, the depth of water required to float her, d current of air passing through a confined space, e.g a room, chimney &c 3 Same as draft (I) 4 (pl draughts, from pieces being drawn or moved) Game played by two people on a chess board, with 24 flat, wooden disks (draughtsmen), 12 black and 12 white a side, known as checkers in USA draught (II), vb trans, fr prec To draft draughtboard, n [1 dræhtbɔrd, 2 dræhtbɔrd] Board marked in alternate black and white squares for game of draughts draught-horse, n Powerful, heavy type of cart-horse, capable of pulling heavy weights draughtiness, n [1 dræhtɪnəs, 2 dræhtɪnəs] draughty & -ness The state of being draughty draughts, n See draught, 4 draughtsman, n [1 dræhtsman, 2 dræhtsman] 1 Draftsman, q.v. 2 One of the pieces used in the game of draughts draughtsmanship, n [1 dræhtsmanʃɪp, 2 dræhtsmanʃɪp] See & -ship Skill in the work of drawing, preparing plans &c draughty, adj [1 dræhtɪ, 2 dræhtɪ] draught (I) & -y Exposed to, letting in, currents of air Dravidian, adj & n [1 dravidian, 2 dravidian], fr Sert Drāvida, a district of southern India. a adj Pertaining to the non Aryan races of southern India, b n, the language of the Dravidian races draw (I), vb trans & intrans [1 draw, 2 drɔ], O E dragan, 'to draw', M E dragen, drægen, dra'en, cogn v O N draga, 'to draw' O Frs draga, 'to carry', O H G iragan, Gotth dragan, 'to carry', Gmc *drag Cp O N arag, 'grazing scrapings', iradag excuratio, O Swed draga, 'sledge' There are no certain cognates outside Gmc See drawl, drag, draught, redge A trans To cause an object to move from one position to another by the exertion of force usually towards, in the direction of the agent exerting force if stationary, or after and with it if in motion, opposed to push Various specific meanings 1 To pull towards one by a movement of hand or arm to draw a book towards one, to draw rein, pull up a horse, stop, a to extract by pulling (cork, tooth, sword from sheath &c), Phrs to draw the sword, engage in hostilities, declare war at daggers drawn, openly hostile, to draw the teeth of, make harmless, to draw a knife, take out and threaten to attack with it, to draw stumps, (at cricket) pull them up, as sign of end of game, b to pull a bow string in order to shoot off an arrow, Phrs to draw the long bow, to exaggerate, romance, to draw a bow at a venture, make a chance allusion or remark which hits the mark, c to take out by means of a hooklet to draw water from a well, d (1) to attract, cause to be directed towards one to draw the enemy's fire, to draw attention to, (u) to allure, excite affection, admiration, in to draw an audience, to feel drawn to someone, 'Beauty draws us with a single hair' (Pope), e to remove entrails of (chicken &c), hanged, drawn, and quartered, medieval punishment of traitors 2 To drag along, a to pull along after one to draw a cart, train &c, b to cause to move along with one's hand to draw a curtain (over a window), Phr to draw a veil over, refrain from revealing, c to lead, induce to accompany one to draw a person aside 3 To take, breathe (air) in, Phrs to draw breath, pause for rest, to draw one's first breath, be born, draw one's last breath, die 4 To obtain, cause to appear, specif a to procure, receive, derive to draw salary, money from a bank &c, (mil) to draw rations, b (of non material things) to draw inspiration, information, from, c to deduce, arrive at by logical process to draw an inference, a conclusion 5 a To cause to flow to draw blood, draw beer from a cask &c, Phrs draw it mild, don't exaggerate, don't overdo it! &c, draw first blood, make the first attack, b to elicit, compel to draw tears, applause &c, c to obtain by lot or chance to draw a blank, a prize (lit and fig), d to provoke, excite, irritate, cause to express opinion, wish &c to draw a person on a subject, not to be drawn 6 a To draft, write in formal order draw a deed, bill of exchange, cheque &c; b to formulate to draw a distinction 7 (of muscular action) To distort, pull away, strain a face drawn with pain, a drawn look. 8 To search, (covert &c) for game, a fox Phr to draw blank, fail to find fox &c in covert, also fig 9 (of a vessel) To sink in the water to a certain depth a ship drawing 20 feet 10 To finish a contest, match, game &c without either side having won the game was (left) drawn. 11 To extract strength by infusion to draw tea 12 To delineate, sketch out a design, or picture, with a pen, pencil, or brush to draw a line, picture, portrait &c Phrs to draw the line, set limits, to draw the line at, not to tolerate, draw a parallel (between), point out resemblance, to draw it fine, leave a narrow margin. 13 (of wire) To manufacture by drawing metal rods through series of holes of graduated size B intrans 1 (of tea &c) To become stronger by infusion leave the tea to draw 2 To permit the passage of a current of air the chimney draws well 3 To be in the habit, be capable, of producing pictures &c with pen, pencil, or brush to draw very badly 4 To cast lots we'd better draw for partners 5 To end a game without deciding winner play to win, not draw 6 To unsheathe a sword draw, and defend yourself! 7 To approach, come towards to draw near, nigh, to draw to a conclusion, to draw level, to come up to, attain equal position. C Followed by various prepositions and adverbs Draw away, to get in advance of Draw back, a trans, to cause to move backwards, b intrans, to retreat, go backwards, to hesitate, back out Draw down, trans, n to cause to descend, pull down draw down the blind, draw down the curtains (to end play, also fig), b to bring upon one to draw down anger &c Draw in, trans, a to pull in, Phr to draw in one's horns, become more cautious, b outcall, redouble to draw in one's expenditure, intrans, a to become shorter the days are drawing in; b to make curtailment in expenditure time to draw in Draw off, a trans, to cause to flow out or away (surplus water &c), b intrans, to move away Draw on, a trans, to pull on or over to draw on a pair of boots; b intrans, to make demands on to draw on one's imagination, capital &c, c to oppress winter is drawing on Draw out, trans, a to pull, stretch out, lengthen, b to remove something from somewhere to draw out a sovereign from one's purse, u to elicit confidences from, induce to talk a little flattery will draw him out, d to map out, plan, set out in writing to draw out a scheme; intrans, to extend, last a long time the speech drew out interminably Draw round, intrans, to come, move, gather, round to draw round the fire, the table &c Draw up, a trans, to set in regular order troops, a document, &c, b to draw oneself up, assume an erect attitude, c intrans, to stop the carriage drew up before the door draw (II), n, fr prec 1 The act of drawing, specif a drawing of lots, lottery, b end of game with winner undecided 2 Something that draws, specif a something that attracts, allures the new play proved a great draw; b a remark intended to provoke retort drawback, n [1 drɔwbæk, 2 drɔwbæk], fr draw (I) & back (IV) 1 Something that interferes with comfort or progress; a disadvantage to succeed in spite of drawbacks. 2 Amount of duty paid on imported goods, remitted on their exportation drawbridge, n [1 drɔwbriʃ, 2 drɔwbriʃ] A light bridge made to be raised or lowered at will by chains and pulleys a one thrown across a moat, before gate of castle or fortified town, b one spanning a small river, canal &c, and raised to permit passage of vessels Drawcansir, n [1 drɔwkənsɪr, 2 drɔwkənsɪr], fr character in Duke of Buckingham's play 'The Rehearsal' (1672) Blustering bully, a person who is a course to his own side as much as to the other drawee, n [1 drɔweɪ, 2 drɔweɪ] draw (I) & -ee The person on whom a bill of exchange &c is drawn drawer, n [1 drɔwə, 2 drɔwə] draw (I) & -er 1 A lidless box with a handle at one side, made to slide in and out of frame work in table, cupboard &c Chest of drawers, article of furniture consisting of a flat-topped framework, enclosing a set of drawers one below the other 2 (pl) A two legged undergarment fastening round the waist drawing, n [1 drɔwɪŋ, 2 drɔwɪŋ] draw (I) & -ing 1 The art of process of tracing lines and curves of various forms to make a design, or picture, by means of a pen, pencil, brush, on paper or other material Phr out of drawing, incorrectly drawn, with wrong perspective &c 2 A picture thus produced o drawing of a head, a tree &c drawing-board, n A flat piece of wood on which paper, canvas &c is stretched for drawing or painting drawing-pin, n A small tack with a large flat head for holding paper &c in position on a drawing board, notice board &c drawing-room, n Contraction fr withdrawing room See withdraw 1 A room in which guests are received and entertained, the room to which people withdraw after dinner 2 A formal reception at court, at which ladies are presented, a Court, which is now the term used; contrasted with levee drawl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 drawl; 2 drɔl] Scand, cp O N dralla, 'to loiter', fr *drag la Same base as drag & draw 1 intrans To speak with exaggerated slowness, with the sounds unduly prolonged. 2 trans To utter in this way to drawl a prayer Also drawl out drawl (II.), v, fr prec A manner of speech characterized by an exaggerated slowness of utterance drawing, adj [1 drawing, 2 drawing], fr prec Part of drawl (I) Dragging, slow a drawing way of speaking drawingly, adv prec & -ly In a drawing manner drawn, vb [1 drawn, 2 dron] OE dragan. ME drāwen PP of draw (I) drawplate, n [1 drawplāt, 2 drōplot] Plate with holes or dies, through which wire is drawn in course of manufacture draw-well, n A well from which water is drawn with a bucket dray, n [1 drā, 2 drei] ME dreya, op OE dræg(e), 'drag-net', fr drag-*, cp dragan See drail & draw (I) A low, flat, heavy cart, usually with four wheels, used for the conveyance of heavy goods dray-horse, n Strong horse for pulling a dray drayman, n [1 drāman, 2 drōman] The driver of a dray dread (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dred, 2 dred] ME drēden The OE vb drēdan only occurs in compounds, on-drēdan, 'to dread', of-drēdd, 'afraid', no other Gmc language has such a form as drēd & uncompounded The most probable explanation is that the word is a very old W Gmc compound of ond- (see and), & Gmc rēd, 'counsel, advice' & OE on-drēdan, then, would be for ond-rēdan, cp OS an- & and drēdan, & OHG un-rēten, 'to fear', orig 'to set the mind against', op Mod Germ entraten, 'to do without' The final d of the pref was, as it were, detached, & prefixed to rēd, whence the later formation of drēdan & ME drēden The uncompounded drēdan occurs in the 11th cent See read (I) a trans To fear, feel terror at, be afraid of, esp to look forward to with misgiving, be apprehensive of to dread the coming of winter, to dread the damp for one's rheumatism, 'Teach me to die, that I may dread The grave as little as my bed' (Bishop Ken's Evening Hymn), b intrans, to feel fear and misgiving, to have fear and anxiety for the future be stout of heart and do not dread dread (II), n ME drīd(e), 'fear, doubt', fr prec Anxious terror, awe, timid, shrinking fear, anticipation of evil, apprehensiveness of something which may happen to have a dread of being asked to speak in public Phr to be, live, in dread of, be constantly apprehensive of something which will or may come dread (III), adj, fr old PP of dread (I) (archaic and poet) Inspiring solemn terror, awesome the last dread moment, dread summons (eg to execution) dreaded, adj [1 drēded, 2 drēdid], fr PP of dread (I) Looked forward to, anticipated with terror the dreaded moment had at last arrived dreadful, adj [1 drēdfool; 2 drēdfel], fr dread (II) & -ful 1 Inspiring fear, terror, horror, terrible a dreadful monster, dreadful pain, a dreadful face, story, voice &c 2 (colloq, in much weakened sense) Unpleasant, tiresome a dreadful bore, penny dreadful cheap, sensational story of crime and bloodshed dreadfully, adv prec & -ly a In a manner exciting terror, b (colloq, in weakened sense, as more intense) a dreadfully long lecture, bad coddling, very, too, long, very bad dreadnought, n [1 drēdnawt, 2 drēdnst] dread (I) & nought 1 A very thick cloth used for heavy coats 2 a (cap) Name of the first of a type of 20th-cent battleship, with high speed and main armament of heavy guns all of the same calibre, b any battleship of this type, super-Dreadnought battleship larger and more heavily armed than the original Dreadnought class dream (I), n [1 drīm, 2 drīm] OE drēm, 'joy, bliss, mirth, revelry, melody', verb 'dream', ME drēm(e), 'joy, minstrelsy, sound, dream, vision', OHG troum, 'dream', OLG drīm, 'song, mirth', ON draumr, 'dream' Although in form the present day word is normally descended from the OE, the Later ME & present-day sense is derived from the ON The connexion of the two meanings is at first not clear, but, unless we dispute the orig identity of the OE & OLG on the one hand & the ON & OHG words on the other, both meanings are established in the old W Gmc languages, & since one is found in ON also, it is probable that both senses existed in Prim Gmc It is further probable that we may connect these words w OS bi drōgan, 'to deceive', OHG trōgan, 'to lie', & w the close cognates of these, ON draugr, OS gi-drōg, 'phantom', see also fraud In this case we have to assume an Aryan dhrow-* & w a formative element -m in one case (drēm &c) & gh in the other (draugr &c) It is unnecessary to assume w Kluge that Gmc draum-* (whence drām, trōm, traum & draumr mentioned above) stands for drāwma-* The ideas of 'deception, lying vision, phantom, dream', are closely connected, & this development of meaning presents no difficulty. Cp further Sort dhruś, 'deception', & other Sort words therewith associated From the base dhrew* & etymologists derive also Gk thrēmata (for dhrewo*), 'to shout', & thrōs (for dhrowo*), 'sound of voices, murmur', & thrūlos, 'murmur, sound, rumour' (With this sense of the base we connect dar & drone) If this be sound, we have an orig base wh has been specialized in two different ways, both developments of meaning being preserved in Gmc The chain must have been something like this (1) Sound, shout, rumour, lying rumour, lie, deception, deception of the sight, a phantom, deceptive vision, a dream (2) Sound, shout, shout of revelry, melody &c, joy, mirth, bliss Thus the double development of meaning appears to be harmonized 1 A illusion of the senses, especially of the sight, and, less often, of the hearing, occurring in sleep, in which the mind imagines the sights and sounds are clearly perceptible by the senses, a vision of the night, b (poet, by extension) sleep in general to go to one's dreams, go to bed, to sleep, Phr the land of dreams, sleep, c an abstracted preoccupied state of mind, in which one is immersed in one's own thoughts, and scarcely alive to outward realities to be, to live, go about, in a dream 2 A An unreal, imaginary, baseless impression, something that has never happened or existed, which one believes to be real, b a visionary hope or aspiration, upon which one has dwelt with longing for its fulfilment it has long been a dream of mine to retire and live by the sea, to realize all one's dreams, one's fondest dreams 3 Some thing, or person, set of circumstances, so beautiful and enchanting as to seem only possible in the unreal world of dreams my life at sea was simply a dream of delight, she looked a perfect dream, one long dream of happiness dream (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To have dreams during sleep to dream that one was in France, to dream of home. Phr I shouldn't dream of (doing) such a thing &c, under no circumstances would I do, allow &c, such a thing 2 a To have aspirations, hopes, ideals, longings, for the future to dream that one will be happy and rich some day, b to have an unfounded, baseless, impression, conviction of the existence, or occurrence of something I never said anything of the sort, you must be dreaming B trans 1 (in very few constructions) To have the experience of dreaming to dream a dream, dreams, you must have dreamt it, the usual construction is intrans to dream of, about, something 2 Dream away one's time, life, the hours, to spend in dreams dreamer, n [1 drēmōr, 2 drīmā] prec & -er 1 One who dreams 2 One who forms visionary schemes, an impractical person.

dream-hole, n Porh in old sense of 'mirth, revelry' See dream (I) A hole left in the fabric of a tower, or steeple, to admit light, and let sound, as of bells, issue dreamily, adv [1 drēmlik, 2 drīmlik] dreamy & -ly Like one in a dream dreaminess, n [1 drēmness, 2 drīmness] dreamy & -ness The state of being dreamy dreamland, n [1 drēmland, 2 drīmland] a An imaginary country seen in dreams, flights of fancy or imagination, b sleep dreamless, adj [1 drēmles, 2 drīmles], fr dream (I) & -less Without, unbroken by, dreams dreamless sleep, night, &c dreamlessly, adv prec & -ly Without dreaming dreamlike, adj [1 drēmlik, 2 drīmlik] dream (I) & like (I) a Like a dream, b unreal, shadowy dream-world, n A beautiful, unreal world of the imagination, or one seen in dreams dreamy, adj [1 drēm, 2 drīm] dream (I) & -y 1 (of persons) Given to, preoccupied with, immersed in, waking dreams, in fanciful visions, inattentive to ordinary external affairs 2 (of things) Resembling things seen or heard in dreams vague, shadowy, elusive dreamy eyes, &c drear, adj [1 drēr, 2 drēm] Shortened fr dreary (poet) Inspiring gloom, mellow, holy, dismal thoughts, in the mind the landscape drear drearily, adv [1 drērlik, 2 drēmlik], fr dreary & -ly Sadly, dully dreariness, n [1 drērness, 2 drēmness], fr dreary & -ness The state of being dreary, a (of persons and character) lack of spirits and animation, dullness, b (of things and circumstances) quality of causing dismallness of mind, inspiring melancholy dreary, adj [1 drēr, 2 drēm] OE drērig, 'blood-stained, weeping, sad', fr drēr, 'blood', ME drēr, 'sad', OHG trūne, 'sad', orig 'that which falls, drips', cogn w OE drōsan, 'to fall', dryte, 'fall, ruin', Goth drūsian, OLG drōsan, 'to fall, drip' This appears to be the orig sense of the base, whence the meaning 'that which falls', whence 'dripping blood', 'falling dew, rain, tears', hence 'sadness', op also Goth drau(h)na, 'piece, mouthful', MHG trōr, 'dew, rain', Lith drusla, 'salt', Lett druska, 'piece, crumb' Further cognates uncertain, op dross, drowse, & drop n (of things) Inspiring melancholy, causing depression of spirits, gloomy, tedious, b (of persons) inspired by these feelings, dismal, lugubrious dredege (I), n [1 drēj, 2 drēd] Prob coined w draw, the OE form wd. be drēgja*, fr drāzga* A device for scraping up material from bottom of river or sea, in order to clear a channel, or to collect oysters and other organisms dredege (II), vb trans & intrans 1 trans (usually with up) To bring to the surface from under water by means of a dredge to dredge (up) mud, oysters &c, b to clear out, deepen (a channel &c) by means of a dredge 2 intrans To use a dredge to dredge for oysters dredege (III), vb trans, fr ME draggē, 'sweetmeat', fr O Fr draque, fr Lat tragēma, 'dessert, confectionery', fr Gk tragēma, 'preserved fruits, sweetmeats', cogn w Gk trōgein, 'chew, gnaw, nibble', trōgē, 'dessert', trōgē, 'a hole made by gnawing, a mouse hole, a hole' Perb allied to OE purh, 'through', Goth paira &c See through Aryan base trōg*, trōg*, 'to gnaw, nibble, make a hole in' To sprinkle to dredge flour over meat, sugar over cake &c, meat with flour &c dredger (I), n [1 drējer, 2 drēd] dredge (I) & -er A boat carrying a dredge dredger (II), n dredge (II) & -er A sprinkler, metal box, case with perforated lid flour-dredger &c dree, vb trans [1 drē, 2 drī] OE drēgan, 'to endure, suffer, accomplish', ME drēzen, Goth. drugan, 'to endure military service'. See drudge (archaic) To suffer, endure. Now only in Phr to dree one's weird, suffer, work out one's fate dreg, n [1 dreg, 2 dreg] Scand, ME dreg, fr ON dreggjar, 'dregs', op Swed drägg, 'dregs'. Connected w trachea (usually in pl dregs) Sediment left after liquid is poured off, worthless refuse to drink to the dregs, (also fig) dregs of society, lowest, most worthless class dreggy, adj [1 dregi, 2 dregi] Preo & -y Containing dregs or sediment drench (I), n [1 drench, 2 drench] OE drenc, 'drink, potion', ME drench See next word. A medicinal draught, now esp one administered to a horse or cow drench (II), vb trans OE drencan, 'to give to drink, to drown', ME drenchen, 'to drown, plunge in water', fr drankjan*, fr the Preo type of driecan, 'to drink' See drink (I) 1 To administer a medicinal draught to, esp to a horse or cow 2 To make thoroughly wet, to soak thoroughly, in water or other liquid drenched with rain &c drencher, n [1 drēcher, 2 drētʃə] Preo & -er That which drenches a device for administering a drench to horse or cow b (colloq) a soaking shower of rain &c dress (I), vb trans & intrans [1 dres, 2 dres] ME dressen, 'to direct, set in order, prepare, equip, dress', fr O Fr dresser, fr Med Lat directiare*, fr Lat directus, 'straight' See direct (I) A trans To put into order, arrange, dispose suitably, prepare Various specific meanings 1 (mil) To put into a straight line (troops) &c 2 To set in order, arrange, smooth, brush &c to dress one's hair 3 To give particular treatment to a to wash, bandage &c, apply remedies to to dress a wound &c, b to prepare, make suitable for some special purpose to dress leather, stone, ground, food &c 4 a To cover with, put, clothes upon to dress oneself, a child &c, b to provide with clothes to dress one's daughter on £100 a year, c to adorn, decorate, make attractive to dress a shop window &c, (also poet) 'and all her eillen flanks with gurlands dressed' (Keats)

B intrans 1 (mil) To get into line, form a straight line with others to dress by the right 2 a To put on clothes, array oneself get up and dress quickly, specif, to put on evening dress, Phrs to dress for dinner, we don't dress (for dinner), b to choose, provide oneself with, clothes, to put on one's clothes, dress oneself in a particular way to dress well, badly &c C Followed by preposition or adverb Dress down, trans, a to rub (a horse) down, b (fig) to administer a scolding, or a thrashing to Dress out, to adorn, deck. Dress up, a trans, to adorn, clothe elaborately, b intrans, to put on a costume as a disguise, to appear in masquerade dress (II) n fr preo 1 That which is worn as a covering for the body, attire, clothing, garments, esp outer garments, full dress, most elaborate (uniform &c) worn on special occasions, evening dress, that worn for dinner &c, morning dress, ordinary clothes, as distinct from those worn in the evening 2 (preceded by article) Outer garment worn by woman, girl, or infant, a frock a nice dress, a new dress 3 In extended sense covering, outward adornment trees put on their spring dress dress-circle, o The lowest gallery in a theatre, in which it is customary to wear evening dress dress-coat o Black swallow tailed coat, worn by men in evening dress dresser (I), o [1 drēser, 2 drēse] dress (I) & -er One who dresses, specif a one who dresses shop windows, b one who dresses wounds in hospital, assistant to a surgeon at an operation, c one who dresses leather, d attendant in a theatre who assists in the dressing of actors and actresses, and looks after costumes &c dresser (II), n. ME dressour, dressure, fr O Fr dresser, fr dresser, 'to direct, dress' See dress (I) A kind of kitchen table or sideboard, fitted with a broad flat shelf, with drawers, onboards, or other receptacles below, and narrower shelves above, for china &c dressiness, n [1 drēsines, 2 drēsins] dressy & -ness Condition, quality, of being dressy, smartness of clothes and appearance dressing, n [1 drēsing, 2 drēsɪŋ] dress (I) & -ing 1 Arrangement, preparation, adjusting, making fit or suitable for some special purpose, esp in compounds hair-dressing, window-dressing &c 2 Something used in dressing Various specific meanings a A sauce used as an additional relish for food, esp for fish and salad, b remedies, bandages &c, applied to a wound, c manure, fertilizing agency, applied to ground a dressing of lime, d substance used to stiffen silk, cotton &c, during process of manufacture 3 (colloq) Usually dressing down, a thrashing, rating, scolding to give a person a good dressing down dressing-bag, -case, n A light, portable case or bag of leather &c, fitted with pockets, straps &c, for holding brushes, bottles &c dressing-bell, n Bell rung to indicate the hour for dressing, esp for putting on evening-dress, changing for dinner &c dressing-gown, n A loose gown, long coat like wrap, worn while one dresses, or in one's dress dressing-jacket, n Loose, short, sleeved coat worn by women while dressing dressing-room, n Room for dressing in, distinct from, and often opening out of, bedroom dressing-table, n Table fitted with looking-glass for use while dressing dressmaker, n [1 drēsmaiker, 2 drēsmaika] One who makes clothes for women and children dressmaking, n [1 drēsmaiking, 2 drēsmaikɪŋ] a The art or process of making clothes, b the business of a dressmaker dressy, adj [1 drēsɪ, 2 drēsɪ] dress (II) & -y (vulg) a (of persons) Fond of, in the habit of wearing, actually wearing smart, fashionable, and showy clothes, b (of clothes) smart, elaborate, fashionable, suitable for smart or ceremonial occasions drew, vb [1 drō, 2 drū] OE drēow, ME drēw Pret of draw drey, n [1 drā, 2 drē] Origin doubtful A squirrel's nest dribble, vb intrans & trans [1 drɪbl, 2 drɪbl] Freq of obs drēb, a variant of drip 1 intrans a To flow out, flow, drop by drop, trickle, specif b to allow saliva to flow from the mouth (said of babies) 2 trans a To cause or allow to flow in drops, b (football) to take (ball) up the field by means of repeated short kicks, keeping the ball close to one and under control dribbler, n [1 drɪblər, 2 drɪblər] Preo & -er One who dribbles, esp at football a neat dribbler driblet, n [1 drɪblət, 2 drɪblɪt] See preo & -let A small portion, amount, esp in Phr by driblets, little by little, a small quantity at a time dried vb [1 drɪd, 2 draɪd] Pret & P.P of dry (II)

drift (I), n [1 drɪft, 2 drɪft] ME drifte, 'the act of driving, something that is driven, a herd', cogn w M Du drift, OHG drift, ON drífi See drive (I) 1 Act of driving, state or process of being driven, esp a slow current in the sea, caused by the wind, b amount of deviation in a ship's course, caused by currents, c (of currents) rate of movement 2 (of mental process) Tendency or trend in a mode of thought, reasoning &c, meaning, upshot of what is said &c the drift of an argument, speech,

I don't understand your drift 3 Something that is driven, a a heap (of snow, leaves &c) piled up by wind, sea &c, b (geol) deposit (of sand, gravel, shells &c) transported by moving water, see &c, c (min) horizontal boring, d ford in S African river 4 (in non material things and affairs) State of being driven, impelled, directed, determined, by circumstances, fate, chance, rather than by deliberate and volitional action my mind is in a state of drift, a policy of drift drift (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo A intrans 1 a To float along (upon water) with the tide, current, wind &c to drift out to sea, b to drift down the river, Phr to drift apart, (fig) to become estranged, b to be driven, piled up by wind to form a drift the snow, fallen leaves, have drifted 2 (fig) To be carried, to move, along gradually and unconsistently by force of circumstances, tendencies &c to drift into war, the country is drifting towards bankruptcy, to be merely drifting, not directing one's affairs by exertion of will B trans a (of action of water currents) To cause to float, drive, in particular direction the tide has drifted the boat out to sea, b (of action of wind or water) to cause to become heaped up the wind has drifted a mass of snow in front of the door driftage, n [1 drɪftɪŋ, 2 drɪftɪdʒ] drift (II) & -age A Amount of drifting, esp of a ship, b something that has drifted, esp wreck, seaweed &c thrown ashore by the tide drift-anchor, n A wooden structure, resembling a raft, thrown out from a ship to keep her head to the wind during a storm drifter, n [1 drɪftər, 2 drɪftər] drift (II) & -er 1 One who, that which, drifts 2 Boat carrying drift nets drift-ice, n Broken ice carried along in masses by currents of wind and water drift-net, n Large fishing net suspended between two boats, or supported by corals or buoys, allowed to drift with the tide drift-wood, n Wood cast ashore by the tide drill (I), n [1 drɪl, 2 drɪl] Perh fr Du dril, 'boring tool', fr drillen, 'to bore', prob cogn w OE pyrel, 'hole' See thrill & nostril Instrument for boring through hard substances, wood, stone, metal &c, by means of a revolving point and cutting edge, worked by hand or mechanically drill (II), vb trans, fr preo To pierce, bore hole in, to bore (a hole) with a drill drill (III), vb trans & intrans, fr Du drillen, prob fr preo, fr the primitive idea of shaking, brandishing, a boring tool, thence of flourishing a weapon 1 trans a To train (persons) by causing them to carry out at repeated intervals a systematic series of bodily movements and to maintain certain bodily postures to drill troops &c, b to subject to a rigorous mental discipline to drill schoolboys in Latin grammar 2 intrans (esp mil) To undergo a training in, and carry out a systematic series of, physical exercises Gentlemen Cadets at Sandhurst drill for hours every day drill (IV), n, fr preo System of physical discipline consisting of certain bodily movements, postures &c, esp that used in the army in training bodies of troops to stand and march in line, to wheel in regular formation &c drill (V), n Perh same as drill (I), but origin obscure 1 Narrow furrow made in the ground to receive seeds 2 A machine for making furrows and sowing seed in them drill (VI), n, fr preo a To sow (seed) in narrow trenches, or on ridges, b to sow seeds in rows, in trenches &c, on (land) drill (VII), n, fr Germ drilich, 'tucking', fr Lat trilic (em), 'triple twilled', fr trix & licum, 'a thread of the web' See oblique Coarsely woven, twilled material of linen or cotton drill (VIII) or dril, n Native name A kind of baboon found in Guinea, smaller than the mandril, and without the coloured patches characteristic of that animal drip-stones, n Projecting mouldings placed along upper part of building, and over doors, windows &c, to prevent rain running down and injuring walls, mullions &c, often highly ornamented and forming important architectural feature drivel (II), u, fr prec Stupid, nonsensical talk, statements, expressions, devoid of sense romedary, u [r] 1 2 dromed, dromedarij, fr O Fr dromed, fr L Lat dromedarius, fr Lat. dromad (19), dromas, 'a camel', & -ary, fr Gk dromas, genit dromados, 'running', a runner, a dromedary', cp Gk dromaios *l*melos', dromedary', cogn u Gk (*dē*droma, 'run', dromedary' Cp also Gk drosipiti, dromas, 'course' Cp also Gk drosipiti, fugitive', apo-drosipiti, 'to run away', escape', dromados, 'fight', Sert driti, 'to run', dromati, 'to run', drosipiti, 'to cause to run'. Arayan base u dēri, 'dri', dri, tē-tē-zun, *n*erh. identical w the base dēri.

to run , per. 12/12/12

dra*, 'to work, be active'. See drama arabian riding camel, with one hump and a high speed of motion dromond, n [1 dromond, 2 dromond] M.E dromond(d), fr O Fr dromont, fr Byzantine Gk drómōn, fr dromos, 'running, race' See preo Large, fast sailing mediaeval ship -dromous See -drome & -ous Suff signifying 'running, going' (esp of fish), as anadromous &c drons (I), n [1 drōn, 2 droun] M.E drōne, O.E drūn, drān, 'drone (bee)', as though fr Gmc drain*-, drum*-, but cogn w N.H.G drōne, O.L.G pl drum, O.H.G treuo, 'drone', OS drān, drēno, Gmc drūn* dran* The O.E form is perh borrowed fr OS Aryan base drhēn*- &c, 'to make a noise', op Gk dual thrōnāz, 'a drone', thrōnos, 'a durg', (ten) thrēnē, 'wasp', amhrēne, 'drons', Sort dhranat, 'resounds', Goth drunja, 'sound', M Ir drēsacht (fr drēns*), 'a creaking sound', whence also Lat drēsāre, (of a swan) 'to cry' The base drhēn*- &c is expanded fr dher*-, dhr*-, 'to make a noise' See dor, dream 1 a The male of the honey bee, which does no work, b (fig) an idler, one who depends for existence on the work or bounty of others 2 A low, deep, humming sound, such as that produced by bees, any similar sound drone of a song, voice 3 a One of the largest tubes of the haggipes, producing a deep, vibrant, note, b sound, note of this pipe drone (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A. trans To utter in a dull, monotonous tone to drone (out) the psalms B intrans 1 a To produce a deep, humming sound (of bees and other insects, of moving machines &c), b to sing or speak in a dull, slow, spirit-less, monotonous voice 2 To live idly drongingly, adv [1 drōngingh, 2 drōngingh] Pres Part of preo & -ly In a droning voice droop (I), vb intrans & trans [1 droop, 2 droop] fr M.E droopen, fr O.N drōpa, 'to droop, sink', cogn w drop 1 intrans a To sink, hang, down slightly, project forward and downwards her head drooped de-jectedly, branches that droop over the water, b to flag, pine, wilt, to show signs of weakness, lack of proper nourishment &c plants droop from drought, children droop in great heat, o (of the spirits &c) to droop with sorrow, loneliness &c 2 trans (rare) To lower, cause to hang down to droop the head droop (II), n, fr preo Process or condition of drooping a droop of the left eyelid drooping, adj [1 drooping, 2 drooping], fr Pres Part of droop (I) Tending to flag or droop drooping boughs, drooping eyelids, spirits &c droopingly, adv Pres & -ly In a weak, drooping manner drop (I), n [1 drop, 2 drop] O.E dropa, 'drop', M.E drope, cogn w O.N dropi, O.H.G troppo, O.L.G dropo, also w O.E drōpan, 'to drop, drip', whence provo Engl dreep Cp, w different formative element, Gk trūphos, 'piece', & trūphē, 'softness, luxury', fr Aryan dhruh*-, dhreuh*-, &c Cp also Gk thrūptēin, 'to break', thrūmma, 'fragment', Lett drubascha, 'fragment' See drop, & remoter cognates under dreary 1 a A small globular mass of liquid, clinging to some point or edge, falling, or about to fall a drop of rain, dew &c, specif b amount of liquid contained in a drop, considered as a measure two drops of guinine, the drops, medicine to be measured out in drops, c a small quantity of liquid a drop of tea, water, brandy &c Phrs to take a drop too much, get drunk, a drop in the bucket, ocean &c, trifling amount compared with the whole 2 Anything resembling a drop in form or size, a (of jewels) a diamond, pearl &c set as a pendant, ear ring &c, (also attrib) a drop pearl &c, b a small round sweetmeat acid, chocolate, drops The following senses are now formations from verb 3 a The distance between a higher and lower object, esp considered as a space through which a person or thing is about to fall, fall, descent a drop of ten feet from the window to the ground, b specif, length of rope allowed in hanging a man by the public executioner, c act of allowing oneself or something else, to fall, act of so falling an easy drop, d (football) a drop kick 4 Some mechanical device contrived to fall when required, e.g. a curtain made to fall in front of the stage at a theatre, b movable piece of pendent metal which covers keyhole of a door, drawer &c, c part of a platform held in position by a bolt, and which falls downwards on hinges when this is withdrawn, used for hanging criminals 5 Decrease in amount, degree drop in prices, in temperature drop (II), vb trans & intrans O.E dropian See preo A trans 1 To allow, cause (liquid) to fall drop by drop to drop honey Phr to drop a tear over, lament, regret 2 To allow to fall down, esp by releasing hold of, a to permit to slip from one's hands, whether by accident or design to drop a book, a baby, to drop a catch, ball (at cricket), Phr to drop a brick, say or do something which causes offence, embarrassment &c, b to release from jaws, beak, claws, and allow to fall, or escape the tiger hawk &c dropped his prey, c to fail to pronounce or write to drop one's h's, a feller 3 (of various actions implying release, causing, allowing, to descend) a To drop anchor, lower, allow to slide, into the sea, b to drop a stitch (in knitting), let it slip off the needle, c to drop one's purse, let fall and lose, Phr to drop money over a transaction, to lose it, d to cause (a ball) to fall as if dropped from above to drop ball over a player's head, to the back of the court, on to the green, e (Rugby football) to score (goal) by drop kick 4 a To set down, permit to alight from a vehicle I'm driving your way, so I'll drop you at your door, b to part company with one whom one is walking with we may as well walk as far as my house together, and you can drop me there 5 To cause to fall by a blow, a shot &c to drop a couple of birds 6 To dispatch a written message, letter &c (from idea of dropping it into the post) to drop a line, a post card to 7 a To give up, bring to an end, break off, relinquish, the acquaintance of to drop one's friends, to drop a person, b to cease to pursue, or to practise to drop one's studies, to drop (the habit of) smoking Phr to drop the subject, cease to consider, have no more to do with it 8 To utter casually, to let fall, make an observation to drop a hint, suggestion, a remark 9 To reduce force, intensity, pitch, or sonority of to drop the voice at the end of a sentence 10 (of mares, cows, ewes) To drop their foals, calves, lambs, to give birth to prematurely B intrans 1 (of water or other liquid) To fall in drops, fall drop by drop, drip rain drops from the clouds &c 2 To fall down suddenly to the ground to drop as if one had been shot Phrs to work, go, till one drops, work &c to the utmost of one's capacity, to point of exhaustion, ready to drop, very exhausted, worn out 3 To lower oneself gradually with hands and arms, and allow oneself to fall gently to the ground at a lower level to drop from a window sill into the garden 4 a To droop, fall below a given level, sink below a given straight line, or desired position the hinges of the door have dropped slightly, b to open, become lowered from a joint his jaw dropped 5 To become reduced in amount, degree, intensity, tone prices, temperature, wind, storm, the voice &c drop(s), become smaller, less hot, less violent, less loud 6 To cease to be considered or discussed dealt with to let a subject, matter, drop C Followed by various prepositions and adverbs Drop behind, to come to a position in the rear (of) Drop down (stream), to go with the current Drop in, intrans, (colloq) to make a casual visit, drop in on, pay sudden, casual visits to (person) Drop on, trans, (fig) to single out for blame, to scold, rate soundly Drop off, a to go away, become fewer my audience has dropped off latterly, b to decline, diminish his practice has dropped off Drop out, intrans, to cease to take part in affairs and activities, cease to count, to drop out of things drop-curtain, n Painted curtain lowered from a roller, in front of the stage of a theatre drop-hammer, n Kind of mechanical hammer used in forging steel, consisting of heavy weight let drop upon the metal to be forged drop-kick, n (Rugby football) One in which the ball is kicked as it touches the ground after being dropped from the hands held out in front of player, opposed to punt droplet, n [1 droplet, 2 droplet] drop (I) & -let A small drop dropping fire, n [1 dropping fir, 2 dropping fire] (mil) Discharge of small arms at frequent, irregular intervals droppings, n [1 droppings, 2 droppings] See drop (II) & -ing What is dropped, specially of dung of animals drop-scene, n Drop-curtain dropsical, adj [1 dropsical, 2 dropsical] See dropsy & -ic & -al a Affected with dropsy, b resembling dropsy in appearance, unnaturally swollen dropsically, adv Pres & -ly In a dropsical condition dropsy, n [1 dropsy, 2 dropsy] M.E dropsie, fr O Fr idropesie, fr Lat hydrōpsia, fr Gk hydrōps, 'dropsy', fr hudrō, 'water'.

 See hydrō- An unnatural collection of watery fluid in the cavities or tissues of the body dropwort, n [1 droppwert, 2 droppwilt] drop (II) & wort A perennial plant, genus Spiraea, having small, pendulous, white flowers, it grows in meadows and resembles the meadowweet, b the water dropwort, q.v.
Drosera, n [1 drosera, 2 drōsera], fr Gk. droseros, 'dewy', fr drōsos, 'dew' Etymol doubtful (bot) A genus of insectivorous plants, the sundew droshky, droshky, n [1 drōshka, 2 drōshki], fr Russ drozhki, dimin of drogi, 'wagon', fr droga, 'wooden bar between front and back axles', prob cogn w Lith džiti, 'to harden', O Slav držati, 'to hold', Sort držba, 'firm', perh cogn w Lat fortis, O Lat fortius See firm, furt Light, low, four-wheeled open carriage used in Russia, also a light two wheeled carriage resembling a victoria, formerly used in Germany, esp as a cab plying for hire drosmometer, n [1 drosmometer, 2 drosmōmeter], fr Gk drōsos, 'dew', see Drosera, & -meter Instrument, apparatus, for measuring the fall of dew dross, n [1 dross, 2 dross] O.E & M.E drōs, 'dregs, dirt', O.H.G (gs) troas, M.L.G drus, op N.H.G drusen, 'husks, dregs'; Da droesem, origin uncertain, possibly cogn. w dreary 1 A waste matter, refuse, rubbish, b specif, scum of foreign matter which rises to the surface of molten metal 2 (in spiritual sense) Something worthless, something possessing no real value, earthly joys contrasted with heavenly treasures drossiness, n [1 drōsiness, 2 drōsiness] Next word & -ness The state of being drossy drossy, adj [1 drōm, 2 drōm] dross & -y.
 Worthless, containing or composed of rubbish, resembling dross drought, n [1 dront, 2 draut] O.E dragop; M.E drūke, droughte, op L.G drūge, M.Du. drooghe See dry (I) 1 a Excessive dryness, want of moisture, esp in the atmosphere and soil, b dryness of body, desire for drink, thirst 2 Spell of dry weather lasting long enough for the land to become parched. droughtiness, n [1 droughtiness, 2 droughtiness] Next word & -ness Condition of being droughty droughty, adj [1 drought, 2 drought] drought & -y Affected by, suffering from, drought drove (I), vb [1 drōv, 2 drōv] O.E draf, M.E drēf Pret of drive (I). drove (II), n [1 drōv, 2 drouv] OE drāf, drāf, 'drove, herd, band', ME drōve, drōf Cp MHG treip, fr that grade of drifan, 'drive', wh occurs also in Pret sing See prec & drive Herd or flock of sheep or cattle, considered as associated, or moving, together drover, n [1 drōver, 2 drōvra] See prec & -er One who drives cattle, esp to market drown, vb intrans & trans [1 droun, 2 draun] ME drounen, ON drukna, Swed drukna, drukna Tho OE word is druncman Related to drink, op drunk A intrans To lose one's life by suffocation in water, usually to be drowned B trans 1 To suffocate to death in water to drown a kitten Phr eyes drowned in tears, suffused in 2 To cause oneself to forget sorrows &c by drinking to drown one's cares in wine 3 To muffle sound, render inaudible his voice was drowned by the coughing of the audience drowning, n [1 drōuning, 2 drōunig] Prec & -ing Act, process, of being drowned death by drowning, save from drowning drowse (I), vb intrans & trans [1 drouz, 2 drauz] fr OE drūsian, 'to be languid', prob cogn w OE drōsan, 'to fall' See dreary 1 intrans To doze, sleep lightly, be half asleep 2 trans a To make sleepy, b to pass (time) in drowsing, dozing. to drowse away one's time drowse (II), n, fr prec A doze, half sleep, sleepiness, sluggishness drowsily, adv [1 drōuzli, 2 drāuzli] See drowsy & -ly In a drowsy, sleepy manner drowsiness, n [1 drōuznes, 2 drauznes] Next word & -ness The state of being drowsy, inclined to sleep drowsy, adj [1 drouzi, 2 drauzi] drowse & -y a Inclined to sleep, sleepy, lethargic, b inducing sleep, soporific drab, vb trans & intrans [1 drub, 2 drab] Possibly of Scand origin, op Swed drabba, 'to hit' a trans To beat with a stick, belabour, b intrans, to give repeated blows, to stamp to drub with the heels drubbing, n [1 drubing, 2 drābig] Prec & -ing A beating drudge (I), n [1 druɟ, 2 dradž], fr OE drycg* (unrecorded, but op the OE personal name Drycgelm), fr the base dreug*, drug*, as in OE drēogan, 'carry out, perform, a duty, or service' &c See dree An over-worked toiler, one compelled to perform laborious, monotonous tasks, a slavish menial, subject to the tyranny of a master drudge (II), vb intrans, fr prec To work like a drudge, to labour incessantly and slavishly at drudgery, n [1 drūjern, 2 drādžeri] drudge & -ery Hard, dull, wearisome, mechanical, slavish toil drudgingly, adv [1 drūɟli, 2 drādžli] Prec Part of drudge (II) & -ly Laboriously, like a drudge drug (I), n [1 drug, 2 drag] ME drogge, drugge, fr Fr drogue, origin uncertain, possibly fr. a Gmc source (cp Du droog, 'dry'), in wh case the orig sense wd be 'dried herbs' 1 a Any substance, whether vegetable or mineral, used for medicinal purposes Food and Drugs Acts, against adulteration of such, b (in a sinister sense) a medicinal substance improperly used, and taken in excess so that it has a deleterious effect, esp narcotic drugs 2 Unsalable goods, something no longer salable because too abundant Phr a drug in the market drug (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To mix drugs with, add drugs to, something intended for consumption, specif b to add a deleterious, esp a narcotic drug to food or drink 2 a To administer a drug to (a person), b specif, to administer a dangerous amount of a drug, esp of a narcotic drug to B intrans To be in the habit of taking drugs, esp to be in the habit of taking an excessive and harmful quantity of drugs, or of a drug drugget, n [1 drūget, 2 drāget], fr Fr droguet Origin doubtful Coarse woollen material, used chiefly for floor-coverings druggist, n [1 drūgist, 2 drāget] drug (I) & -ist A tradesman who sells drugs and medical appliances, an apothecary, pharmaceutical chemist druid, n [1 drōuid, 2 drōuid], fr Fr, fr Lat Druidae, 'Druids', fr O Celt druid, fr drui-* 'know', drui-* 'much, very, strong', & uid-* 'know', For the latter element see wit, for the former, see dryad, tree 1 a A member of the ancient Celtic priesthood which included prophets, priests, poets, judges, and magicians, b hence, official of the Welsh Eisteddfod 2 Member of a kind of mutual benefit society, founded in 18th cent druidess, n [1 drōuides, 2 drōuidis] Prec & -ess A female druid druidic(al), adj [1 drōuidik(l), 2 drōuidik(l)] See druid & -ic & -al Pertaining to the druids or to their rites druidism, n [1 drōuidizm, 2 drōuidizm] druid & -ism The religious system of the ancient Celts of Gaul and Britain drum (I), n [1 drum, 2 dram] Cp Du trom, NHG trommel, prob imitative 1 a A musical instrument, consisting of parchment stretched over the openings of a cylindrical or hemispherical framework, played by beating with a padded stick, of various types, as side drum, kettle drum &c, b (pl) the drums and players of such in an orchestra or band drums and fifes, c sound of or as of a beaten drum 2 One of various things resembling a drum in shape, a hollow cylinder on which cables are wound, b box for packing preserved fruit &c, c the tympanum, or membrane dividing the inner and outer ear 3 (archit) a The vertical wall which supports a dome or cupola, b one of the cylindrical blocks which form the shaft of a column, c the solid part of the capital of a Corinthian column 4 (archaic and obs) Evening party, rout, op kettle drum drum (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To play on a drum to drum a tune, Phrs to drum out, expel (from regiment) with accompaniment of beaten drums, drum up, summon by beating drum, b to make a sound by thumping, rapping, upon a resounding medium to drum the table with one's fingers &c 2 To beat into a person's mind by constant repetition to drum Latin into a boy, or into a boy's head B intrans a To play the drum, b to thump, rap, continuously to drum with one's heels on the floor, c (of birds &c) to produce a sound like that of a drum, by beating of wings &c

drum (III) See drumkin

drum-fire, n Rapid, persistent, heavy gunfire, esp as concentrated on a particular objective, as a line of trenches &c drum-fish, n A large sea fish which produces a loud drumming sound drum-head, n drum (I) & head The parchment stretched over the opening of a drum Phr drum-head court-martial, one summoned hastily in an emergency, usually on a field of battle, or on the line of march drum(hu), n [1 drūm(hu), 2 drām(hu)], fr O Ir drum, 'back, ridge', & -ling Cp Gael trum, 'back, ridge', Bret adren, 'behind' (geol) Long ridge formed by glacial drift drum-major, n Sergeant in command of regimental drummers drummer, n [1 drūmer, 2 drāme] drum (II) & -er 1 One who plays the drum, esp one who plays the drum in a military band 2 (USA) A commercial traveller, as going about drumming up custom or customers

Drummond light, n [1 drūmund lit, 2 drāmnd lit], fr name of inventor, Thomas Drummond, 1797-1840 Lame light drumstick, n [1 drumstik, 2 dramstik] a Stick with padded knob at one end for beating a drum, b (from its shape) the lower part of the leg of a cooked chicken drunk (I), adj [1 drūngk, 2 drāngk] OE druncen, ME drunke(n) PP of drunk a Overcome by strong drink, inebriated, Phrs to get drunk, to become inebriated, as drunk as a lord, as a fish, very drunk, dead drunk, unconscious from drink, b deeply affected, and slightly unbalanced, temporarily, in mind, by some powerful emotion drunk with success, happiness &c drunk (II), n, fr prec 1 a Case of drunkenness brought before a magistrate, b the person there charged with drunkenness, c a drunken man 2 (slang) A drinking party drunkard, n [1 drūnglard, 2 drāngkad] See drunk (I) & -ard One habitually given to drunkenness drunken, adj [1 drūngken, 2 drāngken] See drunk (I) & -en Old PP of drunk Attrib adj 1 a Intoxicated, in a state of inebriation a drunken man, b given to getting drunk a drunken old ruffian 2 Characterized by, arising from, drunkenness a drunken brawl, frolic &c drunkenly, adv Prec & -ly In a drunken, intoxicated manner drunkenness, n See prec & -ness The state of being drunk, intoxication, inebriety drupaceous, adj [1 drūpāshus, 2 drūpē-] [as] Next word & -aceous (bot) Pertaining to, producing, drupes drupe, n [1 drūp, 2 drāp], fr Lat drūpa (olive), 'an over-ripe olive', fr Gk druppē, 'an over-ripe olive' (bot) A fruit, consisting of a hard kernel containing the seed, surrounded by a soft, fleshy pulp, e.g. plum, peach, cherry drupel, n [1 drūpl, 2 drāpl] See prec & -el A little drupe, such as one of the juicy grains of the raspberry, blackberry drupelet, n [1 drūplet, 2 drāplē] drupe & -let. Drupel druse (I), n [1 drūz, 2 drūz] Germ druse, fr Czech drůza, 'piece of crystallized ore' A space or chunk in rock, studded with small crystals

Druse (II), n, fr the name of the founder of sect, Ismail al-Farazi, 11th cent Member of a Mohammedan sect inhabiting the mountains of Lebanon in Syria dry (I), adj [1 dri, 2 dra], OE dryge, ME dryze, drye, op LG drige, M Du droogh OHG truchen, Mod Germ trocken, 'dry', ON draugr Further cognates unknown 1 Looking in, free from, moisture, opposed to wet Phrs as dry as a bone, bone dry, absolutely dry, with dry eyes, free from tears, unmoved 2 In special connexions a dry land, contrasted with the sea, b dry bread, toast, without butter &c, c dry goods, cloth, linen &c, as distinct from groceries, meat &c 3 Various specific meanings a (of climate, weather) not rainy, showing a low rainfall, b (of a well) not yielding water, (of a cow) not yielding milk, c (of men) thirsty, in need of drink, dry work, a kind causing thirst, d (of wine) containing little sugar, unsweetened, astringent, e USA, under a law prohibiting sale and consumption of alcoholic drink America has gone dry, a dry town, state, political party &c 4 (of non material things) a dry boat, lecture &c, unenlivened by emotional appeal, unimaginative, not exciting interest, arid, b dry humour, quiet, undemonstrative, keen, quaint, c dry facts, plain, unadorned, undisguised dry (II), vb intrans & trans, fr OE drygan, trans 'to dry, to wipe off', fr dryge, 'dry' See prec A intrans To become dry, to give up, lose, moisture by dripping or, the evaporation clothes hung up to dry, the lawn will soon dry in the wind Dry up, a (of a stream, well) to cease to yield water, b (of other wet objects generally) to become completely dry, c (fig) to become barren of ideas, become intellectually or spiritually unproductive, d (colloq, slang) to stop speaking. Phr oh! dry up!, stop talking, making a noise &c B trans 1 a To extract moisture from the sun dries the grass, b to cause moisture to evaporate from, by exposing to heat, air &c to dry herbs, to dry clothes by the fire &c 2 To remove moisture from by wiping, specif, to dry oneself, one's hands, after washing, to dry one's eyes, wipe tears away, to dry one's tears, wipe away, (fig) cease to mourn dry (III), n, fr dry (I) Dry weather, drought, dryness (to arrive) in the dry, without experiencing rain, without a wetting dryad, n [1 driad, 2 driad], fr Lat Dryades, fr Gk druides, 'dryads', sing druid, fr drus, genit druid, 'an oak', a tree' Cp Gk drumós, 'forest', Sort druvids, 'firm, sure', O Pruss druvi, 'faith', Sort druvids, 'wooden vessel', O Slav druvi, 'wood' Cp also Sort drumid, 'tree', dru sad, 'perched on a tree', Celt dru, 'very' (as intens), Druides (fr dru uid*, 'very wise'), see druid, OE trum, 'firm' (see trium) For other forms of the base see tree, & words there referred to A spirit of the trees, a forest nymph dryasidust, n & adj [1 driazidust, 2 driazidust] a n. (with cap) Intolerably pedantic, dull and uninteresting learned man, b adj, possessing the qualities of such a man dry battery, n. Electric battery composed of voltaic cells containing absorbent matter and sealed to prevent leakage dry bob, n At Eton, one who plays cricket, as opposed to wet bob, one who rows dry dock, n Dock, from which water can be entirely drawn leaving vessel on stocks for repair &c, a graving dock Phr to go into dry dock, to be laid up for repairs &c dryer, drier, n [1 drier, 2 drier] dry (II) & -er That which dries, esp substance mixed with paints, varnishes &c, to hasten the process of drying dry-fly, n Artificial fly used in fishing, which is not immersed in the water but thrown so as to appear to hover on surface, and which is dined by waving in the air before next cast dry-fly fishing, n. That practised with a dry fly dryish, adj [1 driah, 2 driah] dry (I) & -ish. Partly, fairly, dry dryly, dryly, adv [1 driili, 2 driili] dry (I) & -ly (esp fig) In a dry manner dry masonry, n That built without use of mortar, or other adhesive matter, between the stones dry measure, n Measure of bulk, used esp for grain dryness, n [1 driines, 2 driines] dry (I) & -ness The state of being dry dry-nurse (I), n A Nurse who looks after an infant without suckling it, b (fig) one who teaches another with great care, helping him over every difficulty dry-nurse (II), vb trans To look after, take charge of, instruct &c, as a nurse does an infant See prec b dry plate, n Photographic sensitized plate coated with a film which does not require to be immersed in solution before exposure dry-point, adj, n, & vb intrans a adj A needle for copper plate engraving without the use of acid, b n, an engraving produced with this, c vb, to use a dry point dry-rot, n A Fungal disease attacking wood and reducing it to powder, b hence, concealed degeneration, unsuspected decay of character, stability &c drysalter, n [1 driawiter, 2 driawiter] dry (I) & salt & -er Dealer in dried and salted produce, also in pickles, tinned goods, oils &c drysaltery, n. [1 driawiteri, 2 driawiteri] dry & -y The shop or trade of a drysalter dryshod, adj [1 driahod, 2 driahod] With dry feet, without getting one's feet wet dry wall, n One constructed without use of mortar between the stones.

dry walling, n Act and art of constructing dry walls, length of dry wall dual, adj & n [1 düal, 2 düal], fr Lat duālis, 'containing two', fr duo, 'two', & -al Cp Gk duo, duo, Sort duo(u), duo(u), m, di, duel, f, O Ir dau, dä, m, di, f, W dau, m, dwy, f, Lath dü (fr dvi*), m, dvi (fr dvi*), f, O Slav düva, dva, m, düvi, di, f, Goth lwa, nout, O N lwa, O E lā Aryan base duwō*, duō* For Gmc forms see two See further bi-, di-, dis-, dubious, duple, duplex, twi-, twig, twin 1 adj a Pertaining to, expressing the number, two, double, twofold, having two parts dual control, personality &c b (gram) applied to a special form of a noun, pronoun, adjective, or verb, used to denote two persons or things only 2 n (gram) The dual number dualin, n [1 düahn, 2 düahn] Preo & -in A kind of dynamite, an explosive made of sawdust, nitro, and nitro glycerol dualism, n [1 düalism, 2 düalism] dual & -ism. a The state of being twofold, double, duality, b any religious or philosophical system based on the conception of the twofold nature of the universe, as consisting of two principles, e.g. mind and matter dualist, n [1 düalist, 2 düalist] dual & -ist A believer in some form of dualism dualistic, adj [1 düalistik, 2 düalistik] Preo & -ic Having to do with, based on, dualism duality, n. [1 düähli, 2 düähli] dual & -ity The state of being twofold, double, having a twofold nature dualize, vb trans [1 düähiz, 2 düähiz] dual & -ize To make into two, regard as two dually, adv [1 düäh, 2 düäh] dual & -ly In a dual form or manner dub (I), n [1 dnb, 2 dab] Province & Engl Origin obscure A small pool dub (II), vb trans ME dubben, 'dab, adorn', Late OE dubban, 'dub (knight)' Perh fr O Fr aduber, 'to adorn, equip with arms' Origin unknown 1 To lay a sword on a man's shoulders in conferring knighthood, to make a knight to dub a man knight 2 To designate as, confer a name, nickname, title, upon to dub a man a knave dub (III), vb trans Perh same as prec To dress, rub, with grease &c to dub leather, boots, a dry fly &c dubbin, n [1 dübin, 2 dübin] Preo & -ing Specially prepared adhesive and penetrating grease for softening and waterproofing leather, esp boots and gaiters dubious, n [1 dübius, 2 dübius] fr L Lat dubiosus (em), 'doubt, uncertainty' See doubt & dubious Hesitancy, uncertainty, doubtful feeling dubious, adj [1 dübins, 2 dübins] fr L Lat dubiosus, 'doubtful', fr dubius, 'doubtful, vacillating, fluctuating', fr du, 'two' (see dual), -ius is either fr the stem bhi*, 'to be' (see be- & future), or fr the stem bhē*, 'to seem, appear' (see phantasm) Orig meaning wd be 'double seeming' 1 (of persons) a (obscurely predicatively) Feeling, doubt, hesitancy, uncertainty to be dubious what to do, of a man's honesty, about the weather, b inspiring doubt, of doubtful antecedents and character, with implication of shadiness and disreputability, Phr a dubious character, a shady individual, see doubtful, c unknown, whose identity can only be surmised 'His death was destined in a barren strand, A petty fortress, and a dubious hand' (Dr Johnson 'Vanity of Human Wishes', 219-20) 2 (often material things and circumstances) a Bearing more than one interpretation, one at least, unfavourable a dubious compliment, b liable to turn out either well or ill, of uncertain value or sense a dubious blessing (the result is still dubious dubiousness, n See prec & -ness The state of being dubious, uncertainty dubitation, n [1 dübitashun, 2 dübitashun], fr Fr, fr Lat dubitation (em), 'doubt, uncertainty', fr dubital (um), P P type of dubitare, 'to waver, doubt, be uncertain', freq fr O Lat dubai, 'he doubts', fr dubius 'doubtful' See dubious & -ation (rare) The act of doubting, state of being doubtful, hesitancy, uncertainty dubitative, adj [1 dübitativ, 2 dübitativ], fr Lat dubitativus, 'doubtful' See prec & -ive a Doubting, hesitancy, b expressing doubt, hesitation dubitatively, adv Preo & -ly Doubtingly, with hesitation ducal, adj [1 dükl, 2 dükl], fr Fr, fr L Lat ducalis, 'belonging to a leader', fr duc (em), dux, 'a leader', & -al. See duke Pertaining to, suitable for, a duke, resembling a duke in position, wealth &c ducally, adv Preo & -ly In a ducal manner, as befits a duke ducat, n [1 dukat, 2 dakat], fr Fr, fr Ital ducato, 'duchy', fr Lat ducatus, 'military command' See duchy The coin was first struck in the Duchy of Apulia in 1140 A coin of gold or silver worth about nine shillings, formerly issued in several European countries, esp the coin as struck in Venice in 13th cent, and money of account, later known as sequin duce, n. [1 dücebä, 2 dütje] Ital, 'leader, chief', fr Lat dux, see duke A leader, chief, esp in Phr il duce, 'the chief', of Benito Mussolini duchess, n [1 düches, 2 dät[is]], fr Fr duchesse, fr Low Lat ducessa See duke & -ess a The wife, widow, of a duke, b a woman who holds, in her own right, the sovereignty of a duchy duchy, n [1 düchi, 2 dät[is]], fr O Fr duché, fr L Lat ducalis, 'military command', fr duc (em), dux, 'a leader', & -ate See duke The dominions ruled over by a duke who is a sovereign prince the Duchy (or Grand Duchy) of Luxembourg &c Duchy is not the same as dukedom, in Great Britain there are only the Duchy of Lancaster and that of Cornwall, which are appanages of the Crown of England, but which possess a certain administrative independence and courts, the latter is held by the Prince of Wales for the time being, Lancaster, held by the Crown, provides the Chancellor of the Duchy, who is a member of the Government of the day, the delectable Duchy, Cornwall duck (I), n [1 dük, 2 dak] OE dūce, 'duck', lit 'the diving bird', ME duke See next word 1 A Generic name of a web footed, short legged, broad beaked water bird, both wild and domesticated, Phrs like a duck in a thunderstorm, with eyes turned up and a languishing look, like water off a duck's back, without making any impression, (to take to something) like a duck to water, naturally, without any difficulty, duels and drakes, a game, consisting of making a flat stone skip over the surface of water, to play ducks and drakes with (money), spend extravagantly, a lame duck, disabled person, ship &c, b the female of the species, 'as distinguished from drake', c the flesh of the duck, as a food a slice of duck 2 a A term of endearment, b an attractive, delightful person she's a perfect duck 3 (cricket &c) The score of zero, for duck's egg duck (II), vb intrans & trans ME duken, 'to dip, duck', cp M L G dūken, M Du. dūken, duiken, M H G tauchen, 'to dip, plunge, duck' The vb is not recorded in OE, but duce (see prec) is fr same source A intrans 1 To stoop, crouch down suddenly and rapidly, to lower the head, or the whole body, suddenly and rapidly as though to avoid a blow, or missile, or to escape observation 2 To dive suddenly below surface of water, to thrust one's head under water, this is doubtless the primary meaning, though now become secondary B trans A To lower suddenly by a rapid movement to duck one's head, b to thrust under water suddenly and rapidly, to immerse suddenly in water. children have to be ducked in the sea in order to accustom them to the feel of the water duck (III), n, fr prec a A sudden downward jerk, swift lowering of the head or whole body, b a sudden dip under or into water duck (IV), n. Prob fr Dn doek, 'linen cloth' Cp also ON dúkr, 'cloth, towel', & Mod Germ tuch, 'cloth' a A kind of coarse linen or cotton cloth, used for clothing by sailors and by others in the tropics, b (pl) trousers made of this material duck-bill, n 1 Variety of rod wheat 2 Duck-billed platypus duck-billed platypus, n [1 dák hild plátipus, 2 dák hild plátipus] Australian, oviparous mammal, the ornithorhynchus, with a broad, flat beak like a duck's, and webbed feet duck-boards, n pl Flat pieces of board or plank laid across swampy ground, in waterlogged trenches &c, to afford a dry footing ducker, n [1 dúker, 2 dákə] duok (II) & -er A diving bird, esp the dabchick duck-hawk, n The marsh-harrier ducking, n [1 dákking, 2 dákking] duak (II) & -ing a An immersion in water, b a thorough washing however received to fall into the sea and get a good ducking, the rain came down in sheets and gave us a regular ducking ducking-stool, n A seat at the end of long pole, which acted as a lever, used formerly for punishing scolds and other objectionable women, by plunging them suddenly into a pond &c by its means duck-legged, adj Having short legs, which impart a waddling gait like that of a duck duckling, n [1 dákking, 2 dákking] duck (I) & -ling A young duck duck-pond, n A pond for, or used by, tame ducks duck's-egg, n, fr the resemblance of the figure 0 to the shape of an egg (orokot) Batsman's failure to score in an innings duck-shot, n Shot of special size for shooting wild duck duckweed, n [1 dákweid, 2 dákwid] One of several species of small plants growing on the surface of ponds, so called because they are eaten by water-birds ducky, adj & n [1 dúki, 2 dákə] duck (I) & -y (colloq) Term of endearment, equivalent to dear, darling &c duct, n [1 dúkt, 2 dákə] fr Lat duct (us), 'a leading, conducting', fr PP type of ducere, 'to lead, conduct, draw' See duke a tube or channel for conveying fluid, a (in animals) channel conveying secretions from glands &c, b (in plant tissues) canal holding water, air &c

-duct, enff Same as prec In compounds aqueduct, viaduct

ductile, adj [1 dúktíl, 2 dáktil] Fr, fr Lat ductilis, fr base duct (see prec) & -ile 1 a (of metals) Capable of being drawn out into a thread or wire, capable of being worked, malleable, b (of clay &c) plastic, easily moulded 2 (of character) Capable of being influenced, easily moulded, tractable, docile ductility, n [1 dúktílit, 2 dáktilít] See prec & -ity The quality of being ductile ductless, adj [1 dúktles, 2 dáktilés] duct & -less Not possessing ducts, without a duct, specif (anat) ductless glands, those which, as the thyroid, thymus, spleen &c, have internal secretions which drain direct into the veins and lymphatics, certain of these have endocrine secretions, see endocrine duad, n [1 dúd, 2 dad] Origin doubtful, perhaps connected w codder &c (slang) a A shell which does not explode, b something which is not a success, which does not fulfil its purpose, a failure, disappointment, also of persons dude, n [1 dúd, 2 djúd] Origin unknown (American slang, not used in English) A foppish, dandified fellow dugeon (I), n [1 dújn, 2 dádžn] Origin sense 'boxwood' A-Fr dygeon, L M E dogeon, Early Mod dujgm Origin doubtful (arabico) The hilt of a dagger.

dugeon (II), n Origin unknown Offended feelings, anger, resentment, esp in Phr in high dugeon dud(h)een, n In England, where the word is only known from dictionaries, or looks on Ireland, it is pronounced in any way suggested to the speaker by the spelling, in Ireland, where the word is known to most, though only used jokingly, the pronunciation is, or used to be [1 dóbáhn, 2 dóbín] Origin of first element doubtful, -een is a dimin A short or small tobacco pipe, a tobacco pipe duds, n pl [1 dúdz, 2 dadz] Scand, L M E dudde, 'cloth', fr ON dubi, 'awaddling-clothes', op duða, 'to wrap up'. (slang) Old, shabby clothes, wearing apparel generally due (I), adj [1 dú, 2 djú] M E due, fr O Fr deu(t), fr L Lat debitum, Lat debitum, 'owed', P P of debere, 'to owe' See debt, debit 1 (of debts, sums of money) Owning (now) payable, (only pred) his wages are due, the debt is due 2 (of non-material obligations) Fitting, proper, adequate, deserved, proper to be given, shown, observed the obedience due to parents, the respect due to learning, with due ceremony, with due regard to, for Phrs in due course, in proper time, it is due to him to say &c, fair, just, required by justice, with all due respect to you 3 (pred only) Appointed, timed, for a certain time, date the mail is due tomorrow, when is the train due? 4 Caused by, to be attributed to as cause &c his death was due to negligence, the tendency to believe that all our social ills are due to the Government of the day, due to is often incorrectly used as a preposition, 'owing to' the shares fell rapidly, due to unfounded rumours, correctly, the fall of the shares was due to &c due (II), adv, fr prec (of direction, before names of points of the compass) Exactly, directly the wind is due east, to sail due south due (III), n, fr duo (I) a (of monetary debts) That which has to be paid, toll, fee, esp a charge levied by legal authority, (in pl) harbour dues, b (of non-material debts) that which must be rendered according to custom, justice, desert respect and homage are a sovereign's due. Phrs to give a man his due, to give the devil his due, to do justice even to the underwearing duel (I), n [1 dúel, 2 djúil] fr Fr, fr Mod use of O Lat duellum, 'war, fight', fr duo, 'two', Class Lat bellum See holloose & dual Contest between two persons or parties, specif a formally conducted fight between two persons armed with lethal weapons, each of whom tries to kill or injure the other, b the duel, custom, system, which permits such fights, c an intellectual contest between two persons or parties a duel of wits duel (II), vb intrans, fr prec To fight a duel duelling, n [1 dúeling, 2 djúiling] Prec & -ing Act of fighting a duel, practice of fighting duels, (also attrib) duelling pistols duellist, n [1 dúelist, 2 djúilíst] See duel & -ist One of the combatants in a duel, one skilled in fighting duels a famous duellist duenna, n [1 dúēna, 2 djúēna] Span duēña, fr Lat domina, 'mistress' See dame a An elderly woman in charge of young girls in a Spanish family, hence, b a chaperon duet, n [1 dúet, 2 djúét] fr Ital duetto, dimin of duo, 'duet', fr Lat duo, 'two'. See dual a A musical composition for two performers, vocal or instrumental, b (facetiously) a conversation in which only two people take part.

duettist, n [1 dúétíst, 2 djúétíst] Prec & -ist Performer in a duet duff (I), n [1 dúf, 2 dáf] Dial form of dough, op enough (sailor's word) Boiled oat pudding, usually plum duff duff (II), vb trans Perh a back-formation fr duffer (slang) a To make old goods look like new, to fello, b to steal cattle and change the branding mark (Not a common word) duffel, duffle, n [1 dúd, 2 dad], fr the town Duffel, near Antwerp a A thick, woollen frieze cloth with soft thick nap, b change of clothes, collectively, kit, for camping out.

duffel grey, adj Of the colour of duffel duffer, n [1 dúfor, 2 dáfə] Origin doubtful 1 (obs or archaic) a A pedlar, a seller of cheap rubbish, b one who fakes sham valuables, jewels, pictures &c 2 Something that is useless, worthless, and spurious 3 (most usual sense) a A thick-witted, slow, dull fool, one who is too stupid to understand or to learn, b a clumsy person, one unskilled at any game dug (I), vb [1 dúg, 2 dog] Pret & P P of dig dug (II), n Cp Swed dugga, Dan digger, 'to suckle' A tent of female mammals, no longer applied to human female breast.

ångong, n [1 dógong, 2 djógong], fr Malay word Herbivorous aquatic mammal, about 8 to 12 ft long, known also as the sea-cow, it resembles a miniature whale dug-out, n [1 dóg out, 2 dág out] P P of dig & out 1 Canoe made from a hollowed out tree trunk 2. A rough cavity or hole, dug in a hill-side or in the ground, roofed with logs, turf &c, for shelter against bombs and gun-fire 3 (slang) A person who has retired from his profession, but whose services are utilized on emergency, applied during Great War to military and naval officers who were brought out of retirement and entrusted with military and naval duties duiker, n [1 dúker, 2 dákə] S Afr Du, lit 'diver' See duck (II) A small S African horned antelope, so called from its habit of diving into and disappearing in thick scrub or bush duke, n [1 dúk, 2 djúk] fr O Fr duc, fr Lat duc (sm), acc of dux, 'leader, chief, commander', wh shows the reduced grade of the base of Lat ducere, 'to draw, carry along, lead', O Lat ducere, fr duci, 'to lead', op the cogn O E toga (in here toga, 'army-leader'), fr Gmc tugo*, weak grade of teu-*, wh is seen in O E teon (fr teoh-an*), 'to pull, tug, draw', op Goth tuhan, O H G moan, Mod Germ ziehen, 'to draw', Herzog, 'duke' Thus the Lat n & vb are respectively the exact cognates of the OE words 1 (obs or liter) A military leader, captain, commander 2 (in Germany before the Great War) Also grand duke, Grossherzog, an independent sovereign prince, not entitled 'king', as Grand Duke of Baden &c 3 (in other countries, including British Isles) A highest hereditary rank in the peerage, b person holding that rank 4 (low slang) The dukes, fists dukedom, n [1 dúkdom, 2 djúkdom] Prec & -dom a (Great Britain) The rank and status of a duke, b dominions of a duke who is a sovereign prince, a duchy Dukeries, n pl [1 dúkeriz, 2 djúkeriz] See duke & -ery Area in Nottinghamshire in which are several large estates owned by dukes.

Dukholders See Doukholders

dulcet, adj [1 dúiset, 2 djúiset] fr O Fr doucet, dimin of doux, 'sweet', influenced by Ital dolcetto, fr Lat dulcis, 'sweet', Gk. glúkēs, 'sweet', wh is for dul-* &c The base is perhaps imitative in origin & suggestive of the sound made in sucking honey fr the comb Cp glycerine a (esp of sounds) Sweet, melodious, pleasing 'a dulcet symphonies and voices sweet' (Milton, P.L. 712), b sweet to the taste 'She tempers dulcet creams' (ib v. 347).

dulcification, n [1 dūlsifikāshun, 2 dālsifikāshun] See not word & -fication The act of dulcifying, state or process of being dulcified dulcify, vb trans [1 dūlsifi, 2 dālsifi], fr Lat dulcificare, 'to sweeten', fr dulc (us), 'sweet' See dulcet & -fy (lit and fig) To sweeten, free from acidity &c dulcimer, n [1 dūlsimer, 2 dālsimer], fr O Fr doulcimer, fr Ital dolcemele, fr Lat dulcis, 'sweet' (see dulcet), & Gk melos, 'song, melody', see melody A an old musical instrument, consisting of metal strings stretched over a hollow sounding board, played by being struck with leather covered hammers, b the ancient Jewish dulcimer, a kind of harp

Dulcinea, n [1 dūlsinea, 2 dālsinea] Name of Don Quixote's mistress A lady love, endowed by her admirer with every virtue and charm of mind and person dull (I), adj [1 dūl, 2 dāl] OE dyl* is not found, but on the near cogn OE dol, 'foolish, dull witted', ME dulle, 'dull, stupid', OLG dol, OHG tol, 'mad', connected w Goth dunla, 'foolish', OHG gizuelan, 'to be perplexed' This word seems to have had primarily a mental application, and the various other senses appear to have been developed from this, contrary to the usual process See further under dwell 1 a (of the mind) Obtuse, slow at understanding, dense, stupid, b (of persons) possessing this kind of mind 2 Making no appeal to the imagination, incapable of arousing interest, lacking liveliness of thought or fancy, tedious a dull sermon, book &c Phr as dull as ditch water, very dull 3 a (of the senses) Slow in perception, blunted, not keen, incapable of receiving clear or vivid impressions dull sight, hearing, senses of touch, b (of things affecting the senses) Incapable of producing clear and vivid impressions, dim, indistinct, cloudy, vague, not intense a dull light, colour, sound, clang, a dull pain &c 4 In various senses implying absence of some quality desired or expected a lack of keenness, sharpness a dull razor, edge, b lack of clearness, brightness dull weather, a dull day, a dull mirror, c lack of briskness, activity trade is dull dull (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a (of action on the mind) To render obtuse, to make slow at receiving impressions, to olog, etopify an intelligence dulled by mechanical labours, b (of effect on mental activities and emotions) to render less intense, reduce force of sorrow is dulled by the passage of time 2 a (of action on the senses) To blunt, to render unfit for perceiving, to impair efficiency of to dull the sight by over strain, b (effect on sensations) to calm down, mitigate, soothe to dull pain by narcotics, to blunt, diminish in intensity, impair pleasure is dulled by anxiety of mind 3 (of effect on inanimate objects) a To lessen, remove, keenness, render unfit for cutting to dull a razor's edge, Phr to dull the edge of appetite, pleasure &c, to reduce, spoil, b to make cloudy, diminish brightness of to dull the surface of a mirror B intrans (rare) a To become dull, b to produce, cause, dulling effect dullard n [1 dūlard, 2 dālad] dull (I) & -ard A dull, heavy, slow witted person dullish, adj [1 dūlish, 2 dālish] dull (I) & -ish Inclined to be, rather, dull dullness, n [1 dūlnes, 2 dālnes] dull (I) & -ness The state of being dull (in all senses) dully, adv [1 dūli, 2 dāli] dull (I) & -ly In a dull manner dulse n [1 dūls, 2 dāls] Geol dulseag An edible seaweed, brownish red in colour, found on the coasts of Ireland and Scotland duly adv [1 dūli, 2 dāli] due (I) & -ly In a fit and proper manner, at the proper time duma, n [1 dūma, 2 dāma] Russ, 'thought, care, deliberative assembly, council', op

Russ dumat, 'hobnob, think', Bulg duma, 'word', duman, 'I speak' &c, the word is a Gmo loan word, fr dēm*, 'judgement' &c See doom Under the old régime, the Russian parliament or national legislative assembly, abolished by the Bolsheviks dumb (I), adj [1 dūm, 2 dām] OE & ME dumb, O Fr dumb, O N dumbr, Goth dumbe, O HG tumb, Mod Germ dumm, 'stupid' Origin & further connexions very doubtful 1 (of human beings) A permanently incapable of speech, unable to utter articulate sounds. dumb from birth, a dumb man, Phrs deaf and dumb, unable to speak because absolutely deaf, dumb animals, the lower creation, b silent at a given moment, not actually speaking to remain dumb, Phrs to be dumb concerning something, not to reveal, keep secret, to be (struck) dumb with horror, surprise &c; dumb despair, such that he who feels it is for the time incapable of vocal expression, c incapable of, slow at, ineffectual in, expressing ideas and emotions he's rather dumb in society, Phrs a dumb dog, a silent, taciturn fellow, dumb show, expressive action, unaccompanied by words 2 (of lower animals) Silent, not uttering their natural, characteristic ones 3 (of inanimate objects) a (of parts of musical instruments &c) Not producing the required musical sound this piano has several dumb notes, b (of inanimate nature, chiefly poet) giving vent to no noise or sound the forests, woods, rivers, hills &c were dumb dumb (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To make dumb, silence dumb-barge, n A heavy barge, without sails, depending on towing as means of movement dumb-bell, n, fr their shape & the movements of person using them, the exercise with these, formerly called 'ringing the dumb bells' (usually spoken of in pl) Pair of dumb bells, two round masses of iron of varying weight, connected by short thick bar which serves as a handle, held in the hand during performance of series of movements with the arms, to develop the muscles of arms and shoulders dumb bell exercises dumb crambo, n Game of dumb show, see orambo dumbfound, vb trans [1 dūmfound, 2 dāmfound] Blending of dumb & confound. To astound, dismay, strike dumb with amazement dumbly, adv [1 dūmli, 2 dāmli] dumb & -ly Without speaking dumbness, n [1 dūmnēs, 2 dāmnēs] dumb & -ness The state of being dumb dumb piano, n Set of keys resembling those of a pianoforte, which move on being struck by the fingers, but which are not connected with levers, hammers, wires &c, and which therefore produce no sound, used for exercising the fingers of a player without annoying others dumb-waiter, n A kind of table, with round top and lower shelf, fixed to, and revolving on a pedestal, for holding dishes &c, in a dining-room, also a kind of round tray supported by and revolving on a low short base, placed in centre of dining table, to enable persons on both sides of table to reach articles of food standing on it dumdum, n [1 dūmdom, 2 dāmdam], fr Dumdum, near Calcutta A bullet with a soft, or flat nose, which expands on impact dummy (I), adj [1 dūmi, 2 dāmi] See dumb & -y Sham, counterfeit, used in pretence dummy cartridge, empty one used for practice dummy (II), n, fr prec 1 A sham object representing, taking the place of, a real one, specul, a figure resembling the human form, clothed and exhibited tailor's dummy, barber's dummy, one placed in shop window to show off wigs &c, baby's dummy, rubber teat used by ignorant mothers to keep baby quiet, a comforter 2 A person who appears for show, but takes no real part 3 a (whist) A fourth hand without a player, exposed on the table and played by partner Dummy whist, dummy, whist played by three people and a dummy, double dummy, whist played by two people, with the two dummy hands exposed, b (bridge) one of the four hands, exposed on the table and played by the partner dump (I), n [1 dump, 2 damp] Found later than, & perh formed fr dump Something small, solid, and stumpy, a thirk, solid, shapeless lump, specul a an obsolete Australian coin, b a small leaden counter, c a knot made of twisted rope dump (II), vb trans & intrans, cp Dan dumpa, Norw dumpa, 'to fall down with a bump', prob imitative A trans 1 To set down abruptly, clumsily, and with a bump, esp to empty or tilt out things of no value, specul, to deposit rubbish from a town. 2 (commero) To place a quantity of goods at a low price upon the market, specul, to export goods to a foreign country and sell at a price below cost or below price of the home market, in order to undersell or to get rid of surplus goods without reducing price at home B intrans To drop down abruptly and heavily dump (III), n, fr prec A Place for depositing rubbish, b (mil) large concentration of stores, from which supplies are drawn as required, esp ammunition dump dumpiness, n [1 dumpines, 2 dāmpines] dummy & -ness The state of being dummy.

dumping, n [1 dāmping, 2 dāmpig] dump (X) & -ing The export of goods to foreign market below cost

dumping, n [1 dāmping, 2 dāmpig]

dump (I) & -ing a A small lump of suet and dough boiled in water stock &c; b apple enclosed in pastry and baked, apple dumping dump, n [1 dūmps, 2 dāmps] Cp Mod. Germ. dumpe, 'hollow, gloomy, musty', perh connected w damp A state of depression, low spirits Phrs in the dumps, doleful dumps dummy, adj & n [1 dūmpi, 2 dāmpi]. Origin unknown, earlier than dump (I)

1 adj Short and solid, stumpy, equat. 2 n One of a short-legged breed of hens dummy-level, n A spirit level with a short (dummy) telescope attached, used in land-surveying dun (I), adj & n [1 dūn, 2 dān] OE dunn, 'dun, dark brown', ME dunn, donn, Perh fr Celt., cp fr dunn, Gael donn 1 adj Of a dull, greyish-brown colour 2 n a Thus colour, b variety of artificial fly for fishing dun (II), vb trans Perh fr ME dunen, 'to resound, clamour', dial form for dun To demand of (person) with insistence the payment of a debt, to importune, clamour for payment from (person) dun (III), n, fr prec A creditor who constantly, clamorously, and insistently demands payment of a debt.

dun (IV), n Celt, 'hill' See down (I) & cp dune A hill, esp one with a strong hold or fort upon it, common in Scottish and Irish place-names, as Dundee, Dundalk &c dun-bird, n dun (I) & bird The pochar.

dunce, n [1 dūns, 2 dāns] Orig a Dunman, contemptuous term applied in 14th cent by the followers of St Thomas Aquinas to those of John Duns Scotus A stupid, ignorant person, incapable of learning or understanding, a child who is notably backward in his studies Dunce's cap, tall cone of paper worn in class, as a punishment, by stupid, idle children who refuse to learn their lessons dunderhead, n [1 dunderhēd, 2 dāndehēd]. Origin unknown. A stupid, wrong headed person, a dunce, a blockhead dunderheaded, adj [1 dúnderhēded, 2 dāndehēdid] Prec & -ed Stupid, thick-headed dune, n [1 dūn, 2 dʒūn], fr Fr, fr O D dūna, 'a hill', Celt loan-word, same as O E dūn See down (I) & dun (IV) Stretch or mound of sand, usually heaped up by wind, near seashore dung (I), n [1 dʌŋ, 2 daŋ] O E & O Frs dung, M E dunge, donge, M Du dunge, Swed dynge, 'muck', Dan dynge, 'heap, mass', O N dynge, 'a heap', perb connected w ding Cp dingy The excrement of animals, manure dung (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec a intrans To drop excrement, b trans, to manure (ground), to put manure on dungaree, n [1 dʌŋgare, 2 dʌŋgər] Hind. dungri Coarse, cotton fabric, used for sailcloth, or for sailor's trousers or overalls dung-beetle, n One of several kinds of beetle, whose larva develops in dung dung-cart, n Cart used for carrying manure dungeon (I), n [1 dʌŋjʌn, 2 dʌŋdʒən] M E dōjon, dōgeon, fr O Fr dōjon, fr. Low Lat dominion (-em), fr Lat dominus, 'lord' Seedom & cp dominion (I) Usually dōjon, q v the strongest, central tower of a castle, the keep 2 A dark, damp underground vault in a castle, used as a prison dungeon (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To shut up in a dungeon dung-fork, n A fork or prong used for throwing and spreading manure dunghill, n [1 dʌŋ-hill, 2 dʌŋbɪl] A heap of manure Dunghill cock, a barndoor cock, not pure bred dunivassal, n [1 dʌnɪvəsəl, 2 dʌŋɪvəsəl] Gael dūne, 'mau', & vassal, 'nobly born' A Highland gentleman, one who, though not himself a chief, is sprung from same ancestor as the chief dunlin, n [1 dʌnlɪn, 2 dʌnlɪn] See dun (I) & -ling (ornith) Kind of sandpiper, reddish and white in the summer, dull grey and white in the winter.

dunnage, n [1 dʌnɪ, 2 dʌndʒ] Etymol unknown Pieces of wood, branches, or other material, placed among cargo to prevent shifting, or in the bottom of the hold, under cargo, to prevent injury from water dunnoch, n [1 dʌnok, 2 dʌnək] See dun (I) & -ock (province) The hedge sparrow duodecimal (I), adj [1 dʌdɪsɪmɪl, 2 dʌdɪsɪmɪl] Lat duodecim, 'twelfth', & -al See duodecimo Of twelve, belonging to a system of reckoning by twelve, or twelfths duodecimal notation duodecimal (II), n, fr prec a & twelfth part, b (pl) system of numbers whose denomination rise in scale of twelves instead of tens duodecimo, n [1 dʌdɪsɪmɔ, 2 dʌdɪsɪmɔ] Lat, abl of duodecim, 'twelfth', fr duo, 'two' (see dual), & decimus, 'tenth' (see decimal) Cp Gk dddeka, dudeka, Sert dddeka a (abbr 12mo) Form of book for which the printer's sheet is folded into twelve, each page being about 4½ x 7½ inches, b book of this size duodenal, adj [1 dʌdɪnəl, 2 dʌdɪnəl] See next word & -al Pertaining to, situated in, the duodenum duodenal ulcer duodenary, adj [1 dʌdɪnəri, 2 dʌdɪnəri] fr Lat duodennarius, 'containing twelve', fr duodēns (distrib num), 'twelve each', fr duo, 'dec ans' See duodecimo & -ary, denarius In twelves, increasing by twelves duodenitis, n [1 dʌdɪnɪtɪs, 2 dʌdɪnɪtɪs] See next word & -itis Inflammation of the duodenum duodenum, n [1 dʌdɪnəm, 2 dʌdɪnəm] Med Lat See duodenary (anat) The upper part of the small intestine, opening directly from the stomach, so called from its length, of about 12 inches duologue, n [1 dʌlɒɡ, 2 dʌlɒɡ] Formed fr Gk duo, 'two', on the anal of monologue See dual & -logue A conversation between two people, esp for dramatic representation.

duomo, n [1 dʌwɒmɔ, 2 dʌwɒmɔ] Ital, = dome A cathedral in Italy dupability, n [1 dʌpəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 dʌpəbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity The quality of being dupable dupable, adj [1 dʌpəbl, 2 dʌpəbl] See dupes (II) & -able Capable of being duped dupe (I), n [1 dʌp, 2 dʌp], fr Fr écuyer unknown One who is misled, imposed upon, cheated dupe (II), vb trans See prec. To cheat, deceive, mislead trick.

dupery, n [1 dʌpəri, 2 dʌpəri] See prec & -ery The art or practice of deceiving duple, adj [1 dʌpl, 2 dʌpl], fr Lat duplus, 'double, twofold' See double (I) Double, (only in) a duple ratio, in which the first term is double the second, b (mus) duple time, with two beats in a bar duplex, adj [1 dʌplɛks, 2 dʌplɛks] Lat, 'twofold, double', cp Umbr tu plak, Gk diplaz, 'double' The first element is fr duo, 'two', see dual & do, the second is cogn w Lat plaga, Gk plagē, 'blow, stroke', in sense of 'time' (see plague) It is not connected w Lat plicare, 'to fold', & plectere, 'to twist, interweave' & do, the former of wh does occur in Lat explicare, 'to unfold' & do, see explicit, & wh lurks also in Lat duplus, 'double', see double Double, twofold, largely used in respect of the structure of parts of machines Duplex lamp, one having a double burner and two wicks duplicate (I), adj [1 dʌplɪkɪt, 2 dʌplɪkɪt], fr Lat duplīcat (um), P P type of duphēdre, 'to double, to enlarge', fr duphē, stem of duplex. a Double, b exactly resembling, or reproducing something else, being a duplicate of something, c (math) duplicate proportion, that of one square to another duplicate (II), n, fr prec An exact copy, or reproduction of something, identical with it in every detail duplicate (III), vb trans [1. dʌplɪkət, 2 dʌplɪkət] See duplicate (I) a To make double, twofold, increase by the same amount to duplicate expenses, b to make an exact copy of, reproduce duplication, n [1 dʌplɪkəsən, 2 dʌplɪkəsən] Prec & -ation The act or process of duplicating, state of being duplicated duplicator, n [1 dʌplɪkətər, 2 dʌplɪkətər] duplicate (III) & -or Machine for making copies of written or typewritten documents duplicit, n [1 dʌplɪsɪtɪ, 2 dʌplɪsɪtɪ], fr Fr, fr Lat duplicitat (em), 'the state of being double', fr duplex, stem of duplex, & -ity Double dealing, deception, bad faith durability, n [1 dʌrəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 dʌrəbɪlɪtɪ] See next word & -ity The quality of being durable durable, adj [1 dʌrəbl, 2 dʌrəbl], fr Lat durābilitas, 'lasting', fr durāre, 'to harden, to last', fr dūrus, 'hard', w dissimilation fr drūros*, 'as hard as wood', fr drūros* (cp Gk drūs, 'oak tree') & Sert dūrunas, 'hard, rough'. The same base, w different grade & other formative elements, occurs in O E trum, 'stroog', Lith drūtas, 'strong' See further under druid, dryad, tree, trim (of material and non-material things) Lasting, not perishable, able to resist wear and strain & do, a durable cloth, pair of boots, a durable friendship, peace & do durableness, n Prec & -ness Durability durably, adv See prec & -ly In a durable manner duralumin, n [1 dʌrəlɪmɪn, 2 dʌrəlɪmɪn] Invented word from Lat dūrus, 'hard', see durable, & aluminium Trade name for a light and strong aluminium alloy with admixtures of copper, manganese, and magnesium, except that it cannot be cast, the alloy serves many purposes of steel where lightness is important dura mater, n [1 dʌrə mātər, 2 dʌrə mātər] Lat, lit. 'hard mother', see durable & maternal, as being supposed to be the 'mother' or source of other membranes (anat) The tough outer membrane which surrounds the brain and spinal cord.

duramen, n [1 dʌramen, 2 dʌramen] Lat, 'hardness, branch of a vine' See durable (bot) The hard, tough heart of wood surrounded by the sap wood or alburnum durance, n [1 dʌrans, 2 dʌrans], fr Fr, fr durer, 'to endure', fr Lat dūrāre (em), Pres Part type of dūrāre, 'to harden, to last, to endure, be patient' See durable & -ance Confinement, imprisonment, esp in Phrs in durance, in durance vile duration, n [1 dʌrəʃən, 2 dʌrəʃən], fr L Lat dūrātō (em), fr dūrāt (um), P P type of dūrāre, 'to harden, to last, to endure' See durable & -ation a Continuance in time, durability, b length of existence, period of time during which a thing lasts the duration of the war, of short duration darbar, n [1 dərbar, 2 dābā] Hind darbar, 'the court of a ruler' State levee or reception of native princes in India held by the king as Emperor of India, or by the viceroy, as his deputy & do dure, vb intrans [1 dʌr, 2 dʌr] M E dūren, O Fr durer, 'to last', fr Lat dūrāre, 'to last' See durable (obs or poet.) To continue, last, endure duress (e), n [1 dʌres, dʌrés, 2 dʌres, dʌrés] M E duress, 'harm, hardship', fr O Fr duress, fr Lat dūrīta, 'hardness, harshness, austerity, insensibility', fr dūrus, 'hard'. See durable & -ess 1 Imprisonment, restraint of liberty 2 (esp legal) Constraint, compulsion, by threats of personal violence & do to do something under duress durian, n [1 dʌrian, 2 dʌrian] Malay word Fruit of the durio, a tree growing in the E Indian islands, the fruit is round or oval, has a prickly rind and a soft juicy pulp, which, in spite of its offensive smell, has an agreeable flavour during, prep [1 dʌrɪŋ, 2 dʌrɪŋ] Pres Part of dure, used in imitation of Lat. abl absolute construction 1 Throughout the duration, continuance of, all through the sun gives light during the day 2 In the course of, at some point of time within a shower of rain fell during the evening durio, n [1 dʌnɔ, 2 dʌnɔ] Malay dūrī, 'thorn' Tree growing in the E Indian islands, which bears the durian, q v durmast, n [1 dərmaʃt, 2 dɪməʃt] First element of unknown origin, the second is mast (II), 'fruit of beech and oak trees' A variety of oak, with the acorns growing in clusters, producing a hard, valuable wood durra, n [1 dʌrə, 2 dʌrə], fr Arab durrah A food plant, a kind of millet, known also as Indian millet durst, vb [1 dɜrst, 2 dɜst] O E, M E dorste Pres of dare dusk (I), adj [1 dʌsk, 2 dɛsk] O E doec, doz, 'dark coloured', M E dusk, dosh, cp O N dusk, 'mist', Swed duska, 'to be misty, drizzle', fr Aryan base dhus* ko, whence also Lat fuscus, 'dark, misty, dull brown', for dhusko*, & fuscus, 'dark brown, swarthy', for dhuswo* Further connexions are doubtful, that suggested w O E deor, 'dark', offers difficulty. Shadowy, obscure, dim, inclined to darkness, now only poet. and replaced by dusky dusk (II), n, fr prec The dim light just before darkness sets in, late twilight dusk (III), vb trans & intrans, fr dusk (I) (poet) To make, become, shadowy or dusky dusky, adv [1 dʌskɪ, 2 dɛskɪ] dusky & -ly Darkly, dimly, in a shadowy manner duskiness, n [1 dʌskɪnɪs, 2 dɛskɪnɪs] duskiness & -ness The state of being dusky, specif (of complexion) swarthy.

dusky, adj [1 dʌskɪ, 2 dɛskɪ] dusk (I) & -ish Fairly dusky dusky, adj [1 dʌskɪ, 2 dɛskɪ] dusk (I) & -y A Shady, shadowy, dim, dark a dusky thicket, b dark in colour, specif (of the complexion) swarthy, betraying black blood a dusky bride, a black lady dust (I), n [1 dust, 2 dast] O E dūst, M E dust, doust, cp M Dn domst, O H G tunst, Mod Germ dunst, 'steam vapour', O N dust, 'dust'. The base orig meant 'breath, vapour', then, 'dust as fine as vapour'. See further derivatives of this base under fume, beast, & daer 1 A Minute dry particles of mineral, or other matter, deposited on the earth or other surface, or suspended in the air, Phrs to bite the dust, to roll on the ground, to be killed, wounded, to kick the dust, to grovel, to show abject humiliation, to throw dust in a person's eyes, mislead, to shake the dust off one's feet, to depart in contempt and indignation, in the dust, humbled, to minute particles of gold washed out of auriferous deposit gold dust, hence (slang) dust, money 2 A cloud of dust the dust raised by a motor &c (colloq) Phr to make, raise, kick up, a dust, to make a disturbance, commotion 3 (poet and elevated style) The decayed and mouldered remains of the dead human body to be buried with the dust of one's ancestors Phr honoured dust, remains of the dead dust (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To sprinkle, cover with, a fine layer of some powdery substance to dust a cake with sugar &c 2 To remove dust from to dust furniture, a room &c Phr to dust a person's jacket for him, give him a thrashing B intrans 1 To perform the task of removing dust from furniture, floor &c 2 (of birds) To take a dust-bath.

dust-bin, n. Receptacle for ashes and other household rubbish dust-brand, n. Disease attacking eorn, smut dust-cart, n. A cart which goes from house to house in towns and removes rubbish from dust-bins.

dust-coat, n. A light overcoat worn to keep dust off the clothes, when travelling by road or rail.

dust-colour, n. A pale, dull brown duster, n [1 duster, 2 dast] dust (II) & -er 1 A person who dusts 2 A cloth for wiping and removing dust from furniture &c 3 Device for sprinkling sugar, pepper &c dustily, adv [1 dustily, 2 dastily] dusty & -ly With dust, accompanied by dust dustiness, n [1 dustiness, 2 dastiness] dusty & -ness The state of being dusty dusting, vbl n [1 dusting, 2 dastig] dust (I) & -ing 1 A Act of removing dust, by wiping, from exposed surfaces in a room, b (slang) a thrashing 2 Antiseptic powder used for wounds dustless, adj [1 dustless, 2 dastless] dust (I) & -less Without dust.

dustman, n [1 dustman, 2 dastman] 1 One whose employment is to remove rubbish from dust-bins &c 2 Sleepiness, genius of sleep in mythology of the nursery, cp and-ran dust-pan, n. Broad, half-covered shovel, into which dust is swept from the floor dust-proof, adj Impervious to, excluding, protecting from dust.

dust-shot, n. The smallest size of shot dusty, adj [1 dusti, 2 dasti] dust (I) & -y 1 Full of coated, covered, with, dust, Phr not so dusty, (colloq) not so bad, fairly good 2 Resembling dust in texture powdery, crumbly 3 Of the colour of dust.

dusty miller, n 1 The sanicula 2 A kind of artificial fly for fishing

Dutch adj & n [1 dock, 2 dast] M Dn duetich, 'Dutch, German', idetical w Goth duodila, adv, 'in beathen wise', O E þeodisc, 'Gentile' OS þiudisc, O H G diutal, 'belonging to the people', Mod. Germ deutsch, 'German' The first element is fr Gmc þeud*, 'people nation', the second is Gmc isk, q v under -ish. The first element is Common Gmc. O E þeod, O Fr thode, OS þioda, O H G diota, O N þiōd Outside Gmc the base appears in Lat. tōda, 'country', Ocean tōto, 'community', O Ir tath, 'people', See further under Tauton The term was used formerly of Germany and the Germans quite as much as of Holland and its language and people, and it was customary to distinguish between High and Low Dutch, meaning what we call respectively German and Dutch 1 adj Pertaining to Holland or its inhabitants, made in, invented in, Holland, characteristic of the Dutch Phr Dutch courage, see courage 2 n a The people of Holland the Dutch, b the language of Holland Phr double Dutch, unintelligible language

Dutch auction, n One at which the auctioneer gradually reduces the price named, until he obtains a bid.

Dutch barn, n A large, roofed shed, with open sides, for storing hay and straw

Dutch cheese, n Hard, round cheese made in Holland, usually coloured red outside

Dutch clover, n The white clover

Dutchman, n [1 duchman, 2 dastman] A native of Holland Phr Flying Dutchman, a spectral ship appearing, according to legends, near the Cape of Good Hope, b opera on this legend by Wagner (1843), c name given formerly to an express train on the Great Western Railway, running from Paddington to Cornwall

Dutch oven, n Device for roasting meat or game in front of the fire, consisting of a metal box with one open side within which the joint or bird is placed duteous, adj [1 dūtys, 2 dūtjes] See duty & -ous (of person or conduct) Animated by a sense of duty, showing proper obedience or respect, dutiful.

duteously, adv Prec & -ly In a duteous manner duteousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being duteous.

dutiable, adj [1 dūtiah, 2 dūtiah] duty & -able (of imported goods &c) Liable to duty at the Custom House dutiful, adj [1 dūtiful, 2 dūtiful] duty & -ful Rendering, showing, proper respect, obedience, service dutifully, adv Prec & -ly In a dutiful manner dutifulness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being dutiful duty, n [1 dūti, 2 dūtī] M E duit, deutē, fr O Fr duēte. See due & -ty 1 A Obligation, task, line of action or conduct, imposed by law, custom, morality, and conscience one's duty to God, to one's country, to one's parents &c, it is a good man's duty to serve his king, he only did his duty, b specific expression of respect, homage &c, esp in Phr present my humble duty to his Grace &c 2 A Task, work, attached to a particular post or office and bound to be performed by the holder the duties of an Archbishop are no light ones, a buller's duties are often exacting, to be on, off, duty, Phr to do duty for, serve instead of, b specif, the task of taking services in church as the rector is away the vicar of the next parish will take the duty in our church next Sunday 3 Payment which has to be made to the government on the importation, exportation, purchase &c of certain goods, or on certain legal transactions, transfer of property &c customs, excise, death duties &c 4 (mechani) Amount of work done by an engine &c in proportion to amount of fuel consumed 5 Amount of water required to irrigate an acre of land, known as the duty of water duty-free, adj (of goods) Not liable to customs duty duumvir, n [1 dūmver, 2 dūamvō] Lat. duumvir, 'a member of a Roman court or council of two people', fr Lat. duo 'two', vir a man See duo virile One of two officials holding office jointly duumvirate, n [1 dūmvirat, 2 dūmvirat] Lat. duumvirātus 'the office of a duumvir' See prec & -ate An office held jointly by two persons, council of two dwale, n [1 dwāl, 2 dweil] Of Scand origin. (obscure Nthn) The deadly nightshade dwarf (I), n [1 dwarf, 2 dweif] O E dweorg, M E dwergh, dwerf, cp O N dvergr, O H G twergr, zwerg, Du dwergr Etymol unknown 1 A person, animal, or plant, considerably below the usual size of the species 2 One of several varieties of small mythological beings, esp ooe of the small metal workers of Scandinavian mythology dwarf (II), adj, fr prec Of less than the usual size, belonging to a small variety, esp in names of plants dwarf beans, oak &c dwarf (III), vb trans, fr dwarf (I) 1 To hinder the growth of, stop mental or physical development of 2 To cause to look small by comparison a tiny church still further dwarfed by the large surrounding elms dwarfish, adj [1 dwōrīsh, 2 dwōfī] dwarf (I) & -ish. Like a dwarf, undersized, stunted, (of intellect) undeveloped.

dwarfishness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being dwarfish dwell (I), vb intrans [1 dwel, 2 dwell] Scand Cp O N dvelja, 'to dwell, delay, tarry, abide', the corresponding native word is O E dwellan, 'to lead astray, deceive', also dwehan, 'to lead astray, lead into error and wrong doing deceive, thwart, afflict, to lose right direction go astray, wander'. M E dwellen, 'to delay, dwell' Other close cognates in O E are dwohan, 'to stray, err', (ge)dwoola, 'error, heresy', also 'deceiver, heretic', dwoolung, 'insanity' So far as the earliest Engl meaning is concerned it is clear fr above that it was 'to wander, to err, to go astray, go out of one's way', & thence 'to go astray intellectually or morally' Cp also the related O E doel, 'foolish' (see dull)

The other Gmc languages, apart fr the Scand., appear to attach closely allied meanings to this base Goth duals, 'foolish', dwalpa, 'folly', OS dwehan, 'to err', O H G dwalyan, 'lunder, delay' This last sense is the connecting link between that of 'wandering' & 'dwelling', 'to wander, having lost one's way, to linger, delay, in doubt which way to go', & finally, 'to remain where one is' It is possible to reach a yet more primitive meaning fr the Gk. cognates tholos, 'mad, dirt', tholeros, 'muddy, troubled' (of water &c), hence, 'disturbed in mind, mad, passionate' The ideas of folly, error &c, so anciently & widely expressed by the base, may have come straight fr a primitive sense 'obscure, dark, lacking clearness', or they may be a secondary development fr the sense 'wander, stray' These last must have been orig 'to go astray in the dark' 1 (followed by at, in, on) To live, reside, make one's home to dwell at home, abroad, in the country &c, to dwell on the top of a hill In sense 1 the word is now largely replaced by live, reside 2 n (followed by on upon) To linger upon in thought, allow the mind to fix on, to brood over, ponder to dwell on old wrongs, to allow the mind to dwell on the pleasures of the past, b to linger over in speaking, pause to treat of, deal with the Prime Minister dwelt, in his speech, upon the state of India, c to linger over, pause while performing an act don't dwell so much on your stroke (in rowing &c) 3 (of a singer or speaker) To dwell on a note, on a word, to linger over, spin out, pause over dwell (II), n, fr prec A Short regular cessation of the motion of a machine, b hesitation, slight pause, of a horse before taking a jump dweller, n [1 dweīer, 2 dweīe] dwell (I) & -er 1 Inhabitant permanent resident dwellers in cities, town dwellers &c 2 A horse that hesitates at a fence dwelling, n [1 dweīlog, 2 dweīng] dwell (I) & -ing Place of human habitation, abode, residence house dwelling-house, n. A house for living in, as distinct from shop, public building, &c dwelling-place, n. Place of residence, abode.

dwindle, vb intrans [1 dwindle, 2 dwindle], fr stem dwīn as in OE -dwīnan, ME dwīnen, 'to become smaller, waste away, fade', & -lo, op also ON dwīna, M Du dwīnen, Dan tvine, 'to pine away' To grow smaller, shrink, diminish, to shrink and waste away from sickness or old age his great fortune dwindled rapidly, a dwindling reputation dwindler, n [1 dwindler, 2 dwindle], fr prec & -er A small, stunted, ill-nourished, ill-developed person or animal dwine, vb intrans [1 dwine, 2 dwain] See dwindle (provinc or archaic) To pine, fail in health and strength dyad, n [1 dyad, 2 dyad] Fr dyade, fr Lat, fr Gk dyad-, stem of duas, 'the number two', fr duō, 'two' See dual 1 Two units considered as one, a pair (2 chem) Radical, element with combining power of two atoms of hydrogen dyadic, adj [1 dyadic, 2 dyadic] See prec & -ic Pertaining to a dyad.
Dyak, n [1 dyak, 2 dyak] Malay, 'savage' One of the aboriginal races of Borneo dyarchy See diarchy dye (I), n [1 dye, 2 dye] OE deag, 'dye, colour', ME die, dēh, deah Origin uncertain A substance, colouring-matter, used for imparting colours to fabrics, &c., b colour obtained by dyeing Phr of the deepest dye, of the most atrocious character dye (II), v trans & intrans, fr OE deagan, 'to dye', fr deag, 'dye' See prec A trans 1 a To impart a colour to, esp by immersion in liquid colouring-matter, to stain, tinge Phr to dye in grain, in the wool, while the material is in a raw state, b (poet.) of natural process, to give colour to the sunset dyed the mountain tops a rosy pink, deep blues dyed her cheek B intrans To take on colour from the process of dyeing this material will not dye well dye-house, n A building in which process of dyeing is carried on dyeing, n [1 dyeing, 2 dyeing] dye (II) & -ing A the act or process of imparting colours to fabrics &c., b this considered as a trade, the business of a dyer dyer, n [1 dyer, 2 dyer] dye (II) & -er. One who makes a trade of dyeing fabrics dyer's broom, n A plant yielding a yellow dye dyer's weed, n A plant resembling mugwort, yielding a yellow dye dye-stuff, n Substance used for dyeing dye-wood, n Wood from which a dye is extracted. dye-works, n A building or group of buildings where the trade of dyeing is carried on dying, adj [1 dying, 2 dying] Pres Part of dye (II) 1 a At point of death, in process of passing away, of coming to an end, in process of ruin or decay a dying man, horse, the dying year, a dying cause, state, b associated with death, with the hour of death,

&c. one's dying words, wish &c, Phr ill one's dying day, all the rest of one's life 2 Languishing she gave him such a dying look 3 vbl n Act, process, of leaving this life, death Taylor's 'Holy Dying' dyingness, n Prec, 2, & -ness State of languor or languishing (Congreve) dyke See dike dyna-, pref, fr Gk dunamis, 'power, authority' &c., cp Gk dunastēs, 'strong, able', perh oogn w Lat bonus, 'good' (fr duenos*), see bounty, possibly also w OE &c tūn, 'enclosure, strong place', see town, & Celt dun, 'hill', see down (I) dynamic (I), adj [1 dynamic, 2 dynamic] Fr dynamique, fr Gk dunamis, 'power, strength, faculty, capability; authority' See prec & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to force in motion, opposed to static, b (med) functional, c pertaining to dynamics 2 a Producing physical energy, force, action, b possessing energy of character, forceful 3 (philos) Pertaining to dynamism dynamio (II), n, fr prec (rare) Motive power dynamical, adj [1 dynamical, 2 dynamical] dynamism (I) & -al Pertaining to dynamism, of force in operation dynamically, adv Prec. & -ly In a dynamical manner dynamics, n, pl used as sing [1 dynamics, 2 dynamics] See dynamic a The branch of physics which treats of matter in motion and of the energy causing motion, b the energy, force, or forces producing and regulating activity in any form. dynamism, n [1 dynamism, 2 dynamism] See dyna- & -ism (philos) School of thought which regards all the phenomena of the universe as resulting entirely from the action of natural forces dynamist, n [1 dynamist, 2 dynamist] Gk dunamis, 'power' &c See dyna- & -ist 1 A student of dynamism 2 An adherent of dynamism dynamite (I), n [1 dynamite, 2 dynamite] Gk dunamis, 'power' &c See dyna- & -ite A high explosive composed of nitro-glycerine mixed with some absorbent such as porous silica dynamite (II), vb trans, fr prec To blow up, destroy, with dynamite dynamiter, n [1 dynamiter, 2 dynamiter] Prec & -er One who uses dynamite, esp for criminal, revolutionary, purposes dynamitic, adj [1 dynamitic, 2 dynamitic] See dynamite & -ic Pertaining to dynamite, highly explosive dynamitism, n [1 dynamitism, 2 dynamitism] See dynamite & -ism School of political philosophy which advocates use of dynamite to effect its ideals dynamo-, pref Form fr Gk dunamis used in modern compound words expressing ideas connected with electricity See dyna-.

dynamo, n [1 dynamo, 2 dynamo] Machine which converts mechanical energy into electrical energy For dynamo electric dynamometer, n [1 dynamometer, 2 dynamometer] See dynamo- & -meter 1 A machine for measuring amount of force exerted (by an engine &c) 2 An instrument for measuring the magnifying power of a telescope dynast, n [1 dynast, dynast, 2 dynast, dynast], fr Gk dunastēs, 'a ruler' See dyna- Hereditary ruler, prince, member of a dynasty dynastic, adj [1 dynastic, 2 dynastic] See prec & -ic Pertaining to a dynasty dynastically, adv [1 dynastically, 2 dynastically] Prec & -al & -ly In accordance with dynastic descent, principles &c dynasty, n [1 dynasty, dynasty, 2 dynasty, dynasty] Fr dynastie, fr L Lat dynastia, fr Gk dunastia, 'lordship, sovereignty' Cp dynast & dyna- Succession of rulers belonging to same family dyne, n [1 dyne, 2 dyne] Fr, fr Gk dunamis, 'power' &c See dyna- (phys) Unit of force which, acting on a mass of one gramme, gives it in one second an acceleration of one centimetre per second dys-, pref, fr Gk duō, w pejorative force, 'bad', op Sort duō, Goth. tuz, OHG zur, OE tor-, prob oogn w Sort deōf, 'lack, want'. Found chiefly in Greek words or prefixed to words borrowed from Greek, giving a pejorative or negative sense dysenteric, adj [1 dysenteric, 2 dysenteric] See next word & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, dysentery dysentery, n [1 dysentery, 2 dysentery], fr O Fr dysenterie, fr Lat, fr Gk gasterenteria, 'dysentery', dys- & Gk entera, 'intestines' See entero- Severe inflammation of the mucous membrane of the large intestine, associated with diarrhoea and passage of blood dyslogistic, adj [1 dyslogistic, 2 dyslogistic] Formed w pref dys- on the anal of eulogistic Unfavourable, contrasted with eulogistic dyslogistically, adv [1 dyslogistically, 2 dyslogistically] Prec & -al & -ly In a dyslogistic sense dyspepsia, n [1 dyspepsia, 2 dyspepsia], fr med Gk dyspepsia, fr dys- & pēpsō, pēpsin, 'ripen, cook, digest' See pepsin & cook. Difficulty in digesting food, indigestion dyspeptic, adj & n [1 dyspeptic, 2 dyspeptic] See prec & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to, suffering from, dyspepsia, b arising from dyspepsia, gloomy, morbid 2 n A person suffering from dyspepsia dyspnoea, n [1 dyspnoea, 2 dyspnoea], fr Lat, fr Gk dyspnoia, 'difficulty in breathing', fr dyspnoos, 'short of breath', fr dys- & pnōs, 'breath'. See pneuma. Difficulty in breathing

E

E, e, [I ē, 2 I] The fifth letter of the Phoenician, Latin, Greek alphabets, hence also in English and other languages, for its use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary. (mus) The third tone in the modal major scale, and fifth in minor scale e-, pref Lat ex- before certain consonants each, pron & adj [1 each, 2 it] OE ēac, ēghwylc, ME each, ech Two forms existed already in Gmc ai-galil-, ai-gahwailil-, op OHG egilil, egihwailil The pref in both cases is Gmc aiw*, 'ever, always' (see aye) For Gmc galil* see like (I), for Gmc ga-hwailil* see under which. Every one of a group of two or more considered separately and regarded as individual members each of us, each and all, each other.

eager, adj [1 eager, 2 eager] ME eager, fr O Fr agire, fr Lat acer, nom acer, 'sharp, pointed, dazzling, piercing'; fig 'acute, penetrating, ardent, zealous' See acerbity, acrid. 1 Filled with earnest desire, keenly anxious to do something, impatient eager to begin, to be off &c 2 (obs, of physical conditions) Sharp, cutting 'A nipping and an eager air' (Shakespeare) eagerly, adv. Prec & -ly In an eager manner eagerness, n. See prec & -ness The quality or state of being eager, keenness, zest, zeal eagle, n [1 eagle, 2 eagle]. ME eagle, fr O Fr agle, fr Lat agula, 'an eagle', hence 'the standard of a Roman legion' The Lat word refers to the dark colour of the bird, & is fr Lat agulus, 'dark-coloured'. Probable cognates are Lett akla, Lith ailas, 'blind', cp aquiline 1 Large bird of prey, be longing to the falcon family, genus Agula, with hooked beak, powerful wings, and keen sight, of which the golden eagle, the bold headed eagle of N America, the sea eagle are the best known 2 A military standard of the Roman or French Empires bearing the figure of an eagle the eagles of Rome &c 3 A gold coin of USA, worth ten dollars 4 A figure of an eagle displayed as an heraldic or national emblem, esp the single-headed eagle of Imperial France, Germany, and the U.S.A., or the double-headed eagle of the former Austrian and Russian Empires, b name of two former Prussian Orders of Knighthood, the Black and Red Eagle.

eagle-eyed, adj Having keen sight, like an eagle eagle-owl, n The large horned European owl eaglet, n [1 ɛglət, 2 ɛglɪt] eagle & -et A young eagle eagle, n [1 ɛgər, 2 ɛgə] Etymol unknown The sudden rise of the flood in a tidal river, a tidal wave associated specially with the estuaries of Severn and Humber, a hare eam, n See erne ean, v trans [1 ɛn, 2 ɪn] Variant of yeon (of sheep and goats) To bring forth young
-ean, -ean, -ian, suff forming adj & ns, denoting 'belonging to, like', [ɪn] when stressed, [ɪən] unstressed From stem ea, as of Gk. adjs & ns, ae, of Lat. adjs & ns, & -an Pompeian, Tyrrhenean, Aegean Also fr Engl words ending in -ey: Bodleian earling, n [1 ɛərɪŋ, 2 ɪnɪŋ] See yearling Young lamb or kid. ear (I), n. [1 ɛr, 2 ɔ] O.E. ære, M.E. ere, op O Fris ære, OLG ära, ON eyra, Goth ausō, 'ear'. The base aus*, aus*, 'ear', appears in most of the Aryan languages, op Lat auris, 'ear', Gk. ōtē (fr aus* os), O Slav uš (dual), Ir ē, 'ear'. The word is cogn. w Lat audire, 'to hear, to learn, understand', for aus d*. See audible 1 A The organ of hearing, most often with special reference to its external portion, the outer ear (fig) To bring (something) about one's ears, bring crashing down, involve in ruin, set by the ears, set at variance, cause quarrel, in at one ear and out of the other, making no impression, over head and ears, deeply involved in, b sense of hearing, attention, Phrs to be all ears, attend eagerly, prick up one's ears, take notice of; have a person's ear, have his favourable attention, give ear to, listen, a word in one's ear, private word, whisper, send a person off with a flea in his ear, compel to listen to unpleasant truths about himself, to rebuff, (fig) an ear for music, aptitude for music, a power of distinguishing different musical or speech sounds, sense of tone to have a poor, good, ear, no ear 2 (not common) Any ear shaped object, as the small projecting handle of a jug or pot ear (II), v trans O.E. erian, M.E. ēren Cp O Fris era, OHG erren, ON erya, Goth arjan, 'to plough', cogn w Lat. arāre, Gk. arōō, 'plough, till' See further under arable (archaic or obs) To plough the land ear (III), n O.E. ear, M.E. ere, ear, 'ear of corn' Cp OHG ehr, ähr, Mod Germ ähre, M.L.G. är, Goth ahr, 'ear of corn', cogn w Lat acus, 'chaff, husk', as 'something sharp, pointed', op Lat acus, 'a needle', acer, 'sharp', qv under acrid, acerbity Spiked cluster of seeds, or grain of any cereal plant ear of corn, ear of barley &c ear-ache, n Pain in the internal ear ear-drum, n Sensitive vibrating membrane in inner ear which receives the impression of sounds, the tympanum eared, adj [1 ɛrd, 2 ɛəd] ear (I) or (III) & -ed Having ears a of men and animals, b of cups or other vessels, c of cereals earring, n [1 ɛrɪŋ, 2 ɛərɪŋ] ear (I) & -ing (naut) A small rope by which the upper corner of a sail is bent or reefed.
earl, n [1 ɛrl, 2 ɔ] O.E. eorl, M.E. erl, op OLG erl, ON garl, the orig sense is prob 'one who is quick, active, keen', & the word is in this case cogn w Lat eris, 'to rise', see origins, & w O.E. erman &c, 'to run', see run a Rank or degree, in British Peerage below that of marquess, b title borne by holder of this rank, c person holding this rank Earl Marshal, president of the College of Heralds, the officer of State who directs great ceremonials, as at a Coronation &c, the office is hereditary in the family of Howard, Dukes of Norfolk.
earldom, n [1 ɛrlɪdɪm, 2 ɔldɪm] Prec & -dom 1 The dignity or rank of earl with rights and privileges attached thereto to confer an earldom on 2 (obs) a Jurisdiction of an earl, b territory over which this extends earless, adj [1 ɛrləs, 2 ɔləs] Lacking ears a of men and animals (fr ear (I) & -less), b of plants (fr ear (III) & -less) earliness, n [1 ɛrlɪnəs, 2 ɔlɪnəs] early (II) & -ness State, quality, of being early early (I), adv [1 ɛrli, 2 ɔli] O.E. ærlite, M.E. erliche, erli, fr O.E. ær, 'before, early', see ere, & -ly 1 (in time) Near the beginning of a given period, soon early in the year, early in the day, in good time, early in life, while still young 2 a Near the beginning of a series of events or actions early in the proceedings, b among the first in a series or succession of individuals the name Henry occurs early in the list of English Kings since the Conquest early (II), adj, fr prec 1 Near to the beginning of a given period of time—day, season, year &c, early breakfast, an early riser, early tomatoes Phrs the early bird, one who arrives in good time, one's early days, youth, it is early days yet (to make up one's mind &c), too soon Early English Style, the first pointed Gothic style of English architecture 2 In advance of usual or expected time an early season, spring &c, something which shows its characteristic features before usual date, an early maturity of mind, an early death, occurring in youth or middle age earmark (I), v trans [1 ɛmɑrk, 2 ɪmɑrk] 1 To put mark, usually a notch, in ears of sheep or other animals whereby owners may recognize them 2 (fig) To mark the pages of a book by turning down the corners See dog-ear 3 (fig) To set aside, assign, money or other property for a specific use or purpose a large part of the benefaction is definitely earmarked for scientific research earmark (II), n a A distinctive mark, b corner of page of a book which has been turned down, dog ear earn, v trans [1 ɛrn, 2 ɪn] O.E. earnan, M.E. erinen, ernen, op OHG arnēn, 'to earn', fr arnjan*, cogn w Goth arēn, 'to earn', fr arnjan*, OHG arn, 'harvest', ON arn, 'work in the fields', O Frisian arn, 'harvest' The orig meaning seems to have been 'harvest', thence, 'proceeds of the harvest', thence, more widely, 'gains, earnings' Cp O.S. ana, 'toll, tribute', O Fris ena, 'reward' 1 A To gain (esp money, wages &c) by work to earn wages, one's livelihood &c, Phr to earn one's daily bread, b to gain by merit, to earn fame 2 Specif, to deserve what is earned he received many and rich rewards, but he had earned them earnest (I), adj [1 ɛrnest, 2 ɪnɪst] O.E. earnost, M.E. eruest Cp OHG ernust, Mod Germ ernst, 'serious' See next word 1 (of persons) a (i) Having serious, solemn cast of mind, (u) steadfast, determined of purpose an earnest worker, b specif, possessing sincere and deep religious convictions an earnest Christian 2 (of states and activities of mind) Serious, determined, strenuous, intense an earnest mind, an earnest endeavour &c earnest (II), n O.E. earnost, 'zeal, earnestness', OHG ernust, 'a struggle, firmness in word and deed', op Goth arns ba, 'firmly, securely', cogn w Sort drna, 'raging, agitated', & Gk arnēn, 'rouse, stir up' Chiefly in Phr in earnest, which is found already in O.E. on earnest, serious, determined, sincere, not jesting I am perfectly in earnest in what I say, I can't believe it, you are surely not in earnest earnest (III), n Unconnected w prec M.E. eruest, ernes, erles, erres, 'earnest money', fr Lat arrha, (arrabo), 'a pledge', through Gk. arrabōn, fr Heb arabōn, 'a pledge' Pledge, token, specif, money paid as instalment in token of bargain made an earnest of more to come, (also in full) earnest money earnestly, adv earnest (I) & -ly In an earnest manner earnestness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being earnest earning(s), n pl [1 ɛərɪŋz, 2 ɪnɪŋz] O.E. earnung, 'merit' See earn & -ing What is earned, any payment received for work done or services rendered. earring, ear-ring, n [1 ɛərɪŋ, 2 ɛərɪŋ] Metal ring worn in lobe of the ear, either plain or jewelled, or with jewelled pendant attached ear-shot, n ear (I) & shot The distance within which a sound can be heard within, out of, ear-shot earth (I), n [1 ɛərθ, 2 ɪp] O.E. eorpe, M.E. erpe, op OHG erda, OS ertha, O Fris erthe, ON örp, Goth airpa, Mod Germ erde, Do aard, prob cogn w Gk eraze, 'to earth' Other cognates outside Gmc are uncertain 1 a The world we live on regarded as a separate planet; the terrestrial globe the earth revolves on its axis, Phr how on earth &c, in what possible way, b the inhabitants of the globe 'The whole earth was of one language' (Genesis) 2 a The dry land of the planet as opposed to the sea 'The waters covered the face of the earth', b the material globe as contrasted with Heaven 'In six days the Lord made heaven and earth', Phr to move heaven and earth, make great efforts, c surface of the globe, the ground, as opposed to the air or sky the avirship crashed to the earth, Phr (fig) to come back to earth, to come back to practical realities from a state of dreamy speculation 3 a The actual material composing the surface of the globe, soil, mould to fill a pit with earth, b (fig) the lower, material part of human nature of the earth earthly 4 The hole or lair of a badger, fox &c Phr to take earth, run, go, to earth, of fox, to go into its hole, (fig) run to earth (trans), (i) pursue, trace something to its source, (u) to discover as a result of search to run a person, a reference, to earth, to stop an earth, to block it, after fox has left it, so that it cannot run to earth during the hunt 5 (elect) Communication with the earth as by an electric wire carrying current to the ground to complete a circuit 6 (chem) a (hist) One of the elements of the ancient philosophers and alchemists earth, air, fire, water, b in modern chemistry, term used of certain oxides, as alkaline earths, such as lime, an oxide of calcium, metallic or rare earths, metallic oxides, such as cerium, ytterbium &c, some of which yield radium earth (II), v trans, fr prec 1 (gen earth up) Cover with earth to earth up the roots of a tree when planting, to earth up potatoes, celery, bring earth some way up the stem of the growing plants 2 (special use) To put electric wire into earth to complete circuit earth-board, n That part of a plough which turns over the earth, the mould board earth-born, adj a Born, sprung, from the earth, or soil, autochthonous, b (mythol) emerging at birth from the ground, of certain deities &c, c human, mortal, concerned with earthly things earth-closet, n A privy, in which dry earth is used to cover and deodorize the contents earthen, adj [1 ɛərθən, 2 ɪpən] earth (I) & -en Cp O.E. erðen, erðen &c, 'of earth' Made of earth or of baked clay earthenware, n [1 ɛərθənweər, 2 ɪpənweər] Prec & -ware Utensils made of baked clay earthiness, n [1 ɛərθɪnəs, 2 ɪpɪnɪs] earthy & -ness State of being earthy earth-light See earth-shine earthliness, n [1 ɛərθlɪnəs, 2 ɪpɪlɪnɪs] See next word & -ness State of being earthly earthly, adj [1 ɛərθli, 2 ɪpli] earth (I) & -ly Belonging to the earth, esp contrasted with heavenly or spiritual earthly joys are transitory, (colloq Phrs) no earthly use, no use at all, (vulg slang) not an earthly, not an (earthly) chance earth-nut, n The edible, rather sweet tuber-like root of an umbelliferous plant, resembling a chestnut, also called pig-nut, ground-nut &c earth pillar, n (geol) A pillar or column of soft rock, clay &c, capped with a hard rock, left isolated by the wearing down by weather of the surrounding softer earth and rocks earthquake, n [1 ɛrthkwāk, 2 ɛpkwēk] 1 A tremor or convulsion of the surface of the earth due to volcanic activity, faults in the earth's crust &c 2 (fig) Any great social or political upheaval, disaster, or disturbance earth-shine, n Illumination of the moon by reflected light from the earth, seen just before or after the new moon earthward(s), adv [1 ɛrthwārdz, 2 ɛpwardz] Towards the earth earthwork, n [1 ɛrthwērk, 2 ɛpwi:k] Rampart, fortification made by throwing up a bank of earth, leaving a ditch in front and trench behind it earthworm, n [1 ɛrthwōrm, 2 ɛpwi:m] Segmented worm living in the soil, with round body and tapering ends and moving by numerous bristles attached to the segments, the commonest is Lumbricus terrestris earthly, adj [1 ɛrthli, 2 ɛpli] earth (I) & -y A Consisting of or resembling earth an earthly consistency, b gross, connected with lower nature of man, (contrasted with spiritual) of the earthly ear-trumpet, n Funnel shaped instrument, the thin end of which is placed in the ear, while being held so that the broad end collects the utterance of speakers, to assist deaf persons to hear more readily ear-wax, n Wax secreted by the glands of the ear, cerumen earwig, n [1 ɛrwig, 2 ɛwi:g] OE earwiga, 'earwig', fr OE ear, 'ear', & wiga, 'an insect, beetle', fr wegja, cp OE wegan, 'to move, carry' See way, vehicle Small dark-coloured wriggling insect, of the family Forficulidae, once popularly supposed to creep into the brain through the ear ease (I), n [1 ɛz, 2 ɛz] ME esc, fr OE ase, prob fr OE asance, surroundings of a house', fr Lat adjacentia See adjacent 1 (of physical states) a Comfort, freedom from constraint to take one's ease, b relief from pain 'For so to interpose a little ease' (Milton), specif c room, space, absence of tightness (in fit of clothes, boots &c) more ease across the chest, (mil) stand at ease, stand with legs apart and muscles relaxed in restful attitude—opposite of at attention 2 (of mental states) a Freedom from worry, trouble of mind, or anxiety be at ease, b freedom from constraint of manner, from embarrassment, or awkwardness, well bred elegance of manner to be at ease in society 3 (of worldly circumstances) Financial well-being, wealth, affluence, freedom from penury live at ease 4 Absence of physical or intellectual difficulty, arising either from ability and skill of the performer, or from the simplicity of the task to learn with ease, to walk twenty miles with ease, the ease with which the engine was started, or with which he started the engine, was remarkable ease (II), vb trans, fr pres 1 a To make looser, less tightly fitting to ease a coat under the arms, to ease a boot at the toe &c, b to loosen a door, drawer &c, which jams, make less tight, remove pressure from 2 a To mitigate, relieve (bodily pain), or (person) from this to ease the pain of a wound &c, b to give consolation, to relieve (mental pain, anxiety of mind), or (person) from these to ease one's anxiety, ease one's mind Ease down, trans, and intrans, to slacken, relax, lessen, speed, strain, effort. Ease off, 1 intrans, a to draw away, withdraw, move away slightly, b to relax effort, strain. 2 trans To pull away gradually, to push off (a boat) from the shore, &c easyful, adj [1 ɛzfool; 2 ɛzful]. ease (I) & -ful Providing, promoting, ease, characterized by ease ease, n [1 ɛzl, 2 ɛzl], fr 'Dn ezel, 'ass, 'easel' Cp similar use of horse See ass Upright framework, usually of wood, used to support picture during process of painting, or to display it when painted, ease picture, one of moderate size, suitable for display on an easel easeless, adj [1 ɛzles, 2 ɛzlis] ease (I) & -less A Devoid of ease, b incapable of being eased easement, n [1 ɛzment, 2 ɛzment] OE asement See ease (I) & -ment 1 (archaic) That which affords relief from suffering 2 (law) Right acquired by grant or prescription by a landowner over another's land, e.g. light, enport, right of way &c easily, adv [1 ɛzli, 2 ɛzli] easy & -ly a Without difficulty or inconvenience, b smoothly the engine was running easily easiness, n [1 ɛzines, 2 ɛzinis] easy & -ness 1 The quality of being accomplished with ease the easiness of a task 2 Freedom, unembarrassment, ease, of manner east (I), n [1 ɛst, 2 ɛst] OE east, ME east, est Cp OE Fr est, ME Dn oost, Mod Germ osten, ON austr, fr Gmc austr(a), 'eastwards', fr ausr, oogn w Lat aurora (fr ausō-*, 'dawn, daybreak', hence, 'the East', Gk hēōs, ēōs (fr ausō-*), Scrt uṣāḥ, 'dawn', Lith aušra, 'dawn' Cp also Lat auster, 'south wind', q v under austral, & op aurora 1 a That quarter of the sky in which the sun first rises, b one of the four cardinal points of the compass, 90 degrees to the right of North, o the east end of a church to turn to the east at the Creed 2 Specif (cap) the countries which lie in the eastern part of the globe, the orient, the Near East, Turkey, Balkans &c, Far East, China, Japan &c, Middle East, Persia, Mesopotamia &c east (II), adj, fr pres 1 Lying in the direction of the rising of the sun, situated in the east, coming from the east east wind 2 (of church) Toward that part of the chancel in which the altar stands, whether the church is correctly orientated or not the east end of a church east (III), adv, fr east (I) In easterly direction, towards the east to go east East End, n The poorer districts of London lying to the east, contrasted with West End East-Enders, n [1 ɛst ɛndə, 2 ɛst ɛndə] Inhabitant of the East End of London, one of the masses Easter, n [1 ɛstə, 2 ɛstə] OE Easter, Eostren (pl), ME ester, estern, prob fr Eastre, Eostre, name of goddess of light and spring Connected w Lat aurora, 'dawn' &c, & east Festival of the Christian Church, commemorating the Resurrection of Christ, held on the first Sunday after calendar full moon on or after March 21st Also attrib Easter Day, Easter Sunday, the first day of Easter week, Easter egg, natural or artificial egg, often dyed in bright colours, given and exchanged at Easter time, Easter-tide, season of Easter, Easter week, Easter week, that commencing with Easter Sunday easterly, adj [1 ɛstərl, 2 ɛstəl] Next word & -ly In, or coming from, direction of the east easterly gales eastern, adj & n [1 ɛstərn, 2 ɛstərn] OE ēasterne, ME esterne. east & adj suff -ern 1 adj a Looking toward the east eastern window, b connected with the east portion of the world the Eastern Church, the Orthodox, Greek Church, the Eastern Question, political problem of eastern European countries, esp of Turkey, in relation to Russia, expression has different significance since the political convulsions in both empires 2 n Member of one of the Oriental races an Eastern easternmost, adj superl. [1. ɛstərnɔst, 2 ɛstərnɔst] Pres & -most. In most easterly quarter or direction east & -ing

(naut) a Distance covered or gained by sailing in an easterly direction, b easterly course or direction eastward, adv & adj [1 ɛstwārd, 2 ɛstwəd], east & -ward. Towards the east easy (I), adj [1 ɛzi, 2 ɛzi], fr OE asid, Fr aisé, PP of aisier, 'to ease', fr ase, q v under ease (I) 1 a Simple, not difficult to do, capable of being accomplished with ease an easy task, b not difficult to understand, or to learn an easy problem, an easy language 2 (of physical conditions) a Characterized by, promoting, comfort, freedom from restraint, (of clothes &c) loose fitting, comfortable an easy coat, b free from pain, comfortable to feel easier since taking one's medicine 3 Specifio uses a (in commerce jargon) an easy market, one in which there is little demand, rubber, oils, are easy, not sought after, b (in card games) honours (are) easy, evenly divided between both parties 4 (of worldly circumstances) Wealthy, affluent, not straitened in easy circumstances 5 a (of mental states) Tranquil, calm, free from anxiety an easy mind, to feel easy about the future, b (of moral states) not strict, over tolerant, phant easy in one's morals, of easy virtue 6 Unbearable, not stiff or awkward, frank, affable easy manners, easy to get on with, very easy in conversation Phr free and easy, unrestrained in manners, casual easy (II), adv, fr pres Often used for easily in colloquial speech, various Phrs to go easy, not to exert oneself, I can do it easy, to take it, things, easy, not to exert oneself unduly, (mil) to stand easy, to stand with more freedom of movement than when 'at ease' easy (III), n, fr easy (I) (colloq) Brief period of cessation from strenuous physical or intellectual work, so also as command easy all!, stop rowing easy-chair, n Comfortable lounge chair, arm chair easy-going, adj Inclined to take things easily, not strenuous, severe, or censorious, placable, casual, careless eat (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ɛt, 2 ɛt] OE etan, ME eten, op OHG ezzan, OE Fr ita, OLG etan, ON eta, Goth etan, 'to eat' The word is found in this sense in most Aryan languages Lat edere, Gk edō, Scrt admi, Lith edu A trans To receive into the system as food through the mouth to eat a good breakfast, eat eggs at a sitting &c Phrs to eat one's words, take a statement back, recant, to eat one's heart out, brood over misfortune, to eat its head off, used of a horse which costs more to feed than it is worth, or than is proportionate to the work it does, to eat one's terms or dinner, qualify for the bar by eating the compulsory number of dinners in an Inn of Court, good to eat, wholesome, pleasant, as food B intrans 1 To partake of food to do nothing but eat and sleep, to be too ill to eat Phr to eat well, have a good appetite 2 (of food, vulg colloq use) To have a (good or bad) taste when eaten this venison has hung a month, it ought to eat well C Followed by prepositional or adverbial Eat away, trans, to gnaw into, consume gradually, as by eating the face of the corpse was eaten away by rats, frost and weather had eaten away the mortar &c Eat in, intrans, to penetrate by chemical action, to bite in Eat into, intrans, a to penetrate by chemical action, b to consume, waste portion of, by extravagance he had seriously eaten into his fortune by careless habits Eat up, trans, to devour, consume completely to eat up one's dinner Phr eaten up with pride, consumed with, overpowered by, pride eat (II), vb [1 ɛt, 2 ɛt] OE et, ME et, et Pret of pres Cp ate eatable, adj [1 ɛtabl, 2 ɛtabl] eat (I) & -able In a fit condition, of a suitable character, to be eaten, pleasant, or tolerable, to eat this egg is barely eatable.

estables, n [1 etabl, 2 itabl], fr preco (coll pl) Food, things to eat eater, n [1 eter, 2 ita] eat (I) & -or One who eats eating (I), vbl n [1 etang, 2 itang] eat (I) & -ing a The act of partaking of food fond of, given up to, eating and drinking, b that which is, or can be, eaten, food quais are excellent eating eating (II), adj, fr Pres Part of eat (I) Gnawing, corroding an eating sorrow at the heart eating-house, n. Shop where food is sold ready cooked for consumption and served on the premises, restaurant

Eau de Cologne, n [1 de kolon, 2 du de kolon] Fr, fr Lat aqua, 'water', qv under aquatic, & Pl-N Strong scent in spirituous form, manufactured at Cologne in Germany eau de vie, n [1 de ve, 2 du de vi] Fr, lit 'water of life' Name given to any strong spirit See preco & vital. Brandy eaves, n pl [1 evz, 2 ivz] OE yfese, efese ang, ME ese, 'edge, border, eaves' Cp MLG oese, O Frs ese, prob cogn w OE yfan, 'above', ofer, 'over' See over, above The edge of a roof which projects beyond the walls of the building Now felt, and used, as a plural noun, though historically a singular eavesdrop, vb intrans [1 evzdrop, 2 ivzdrop] To listen surreptitiously to private conversation, not intended for one to hear, in the hope of learning secrets, originally to stand under the eaves of a house near to the windows to listen to what is said within eavesdropper, n [1 evzdropper, 2 ivzdropper] Preco & -er One who listens secretly, and dishonourably, to private conversation eavesdropping, n [1 evzdropping, 2 ivzdropping] See preco & -ing The act of deliberately listening to private conversation ebb (I), vb intrans [1 eb, 2 eb] OE ebban, ME ebben, fr OE ebba, 'ebb' See next word. a (of the tide in sea or river) To flow back, retreat, b (fig, of blood, life, spirits, courage, light &c) to ooze out, decline, grow faint daylight was ebbing fast, often to ebb away his life was rapidly ebbing away ebb (II), n. OE ebba, op O Frs ebbe, 'ebb' Etymol. doubtful a The retreat, going down, or out, of the tide, contrasted with flood, b (fig) decline (of life &c) ebb-tide, n. Retreating tide Eblus, n [1 eblus, 2 ebliu], fr Arab iblis The prince of the fallen angels, Satan ebon, adj [1 ebun, 2 eban] ME eban, fr Lat (hebenus, fr Gk ebenos, an Egyptian loan word (poet) a Made of ebony, b resembling ebony in colour, perfectly black ebon lock ebonite, n [1 ebunit, 2 ebonast] ebony & -ite Hard, dark coloured substance composed of rubber combined with sulphur by heat, commonly used for electrical insulation purposes Also called vulcanite ebonize, vb trans [1 ebuniz, 2 ebonasz] See next word & -ize To stain and polish light-coloured wood, to make it resemble ebony ebony (I), n [1 ebum, 2 ebeni], fr Lat (hebenus, 'of ebony', fr (hebenus, 'ebony' See ebon a Heavy, hard, durable wood yielded by certain tropical trees, dark in colour, taking a fine polish and becoming jet black when treated, b thus as symbolical of blackness ebony (II), adj a Like ebony, made of ebony an ebony wand, b black as ebony ebriety, n [1 ebrieti, 2 ibrawiti], fr Fr ebriété, fr Lat ebrietas (em), 'drunkenness', fr ebrius, 'intoxicated' See next word & -ty State of intoxication, drunkenness ebrious, adj [1 ebrius, 2 ibrius], fr Lat ebrius, 'intoxicated', fr e-, 'out', used as intens, the second element is obscure Cp sober (rare) a Inclined to excessive drinking, b intoxicated ebullience, -cy, n [1 ebulliens(i), 2 ibullians(i)] See next word & -ence, -ency State of being ebullient, spontaneous overflow of high spirits ebullient, adj [1 ebulent, 2 ibulant], fr Lat ebullient (em), Pres Part type of ebullire, 'to boil, bubble up', to make a boisterous appearance', fr e- & bullire, 'to bubble, boil', fig 'to boil with rage', qv under boil Bubbling over with high spirits, full of life and vigour, exuberant ebullition, n [1 ebullitum, 2 ibullitum], fr Lat ebullitum (em), 'a bubbling up', fr ebullit (um), P.P type of ebullire, 'to boil or bubble up' (lit and fig) See ebullient & -ion. a Act of boiling up, b (fig) sudden outburst of some emotion ebullition of rage &c eburnine, adj [1 eburnin, 2 ebanin] Formed w suff -ine, fr Lat eburn (ue), 'of ivory', fr ebur, 'ivory', prob borrowed fr Egyptian ab, abu, 'elephant, ivory' Made of, or resembling, ivory ec-, pref, fr Gk ek, see ex- (II) ecarté, n [1 akarté, 2 ekarté] Fr, P.P of écarter, 'to discard', fr e- & carte, 'a card', qv under card (II) French card game for two persons played with thirty two cards, down to the sevens, having as its characteristic feature the discarding of certain cards in play, the king being the highest card ecbolic, adj [1 ekbolik, 2 ekblik], fr Gk ekbolic, 'a throwing out, abortion', fr ek, see ex-, & ballein, 'to throw', see balistic (med, of drugs) Causing abortion, abortifacient ecce homo, n [1 ekse bomo, 2 ekse hōmou] Lat, 'behold the man' See John xix 5 A picture, sculpture, of Christ crowned with thorns eccentric (I), adj [1 eksentrik, 2 iscentrik], fr L Lat eccentricus, fr Gk ekkentros, 'out of the centre, eccentric', fr ek, 'out of', see ex-, & kentron, 'centre' See centre 1 a (of circles) Not described from the same centre, not concentric, b (astron) (i) of orbit of planets, not circular, (ii) of planet, moving in an eccentric orbit 2 (fig) a Not conforming to the ordinary rules of action and conduct, out of the ordinary, odd, original, unconventional, whimsical, b (of persons) so odd, and different from others, as to be considered strange in the head, slightly crazy eccentric (II), n, fr preco 1 An eccentric person, an odd, quaint, unconventional fellow 2 A mechanical device for taking a back and forward motion from the revolving, driving shaft of an engine eccentrically, adv [1 eksentrikali, 2 iscentrikali] eccentric (I) & -al & -ly In an eccentric manner eccentricity, n [1 eksentritati, 2 iscentritati] eccentric & -ity State of being eccentric 1 (in physical senses) Deviation from the centre, specif, distance of the centre of the orbit of a planet from the centre of the body round which it revolves 2 (of persons &c) Oddity, deviation from ordinary or normal conduct eccentricity in dress, appearance, manner &c, we must overlook these little eccentricities echymosis, n [1 ekimosis, 2 ekimōsis], fr Gk ekchymōsis, 'extravasation, bruise', fr ekchymōsis, 'to pour out, extravasate', fr ek, see ex-, & chymē, 'to pour', see chyle (med.) A severe bruise, with black and blue discolouration of the skin ecclēsia, n [1 ekklēsia, 2 ikklēsia] Gk ekklēsia, 'an assembly of citizens, legislative assembly', in Late Gk, 'the church', fr ekklēsiā, 'call out, summon forth, to select, provoke', fr ek, 'out' (see ex-), & kallō, 'I call, summon', qv under calendar

1 Assembly of citizens for political purposes, in ancient Greek states (later) 2 A church, a the body of members, b the building ecclesiast, n [1 eklēstast, 2 ikklēstast], fr Gk ekklēstastēs, 'a member of the ecclesia', fr preco 1 (rare) A priest 2 Member of an ecclesia ecclesiastic, n & adj [1 ekklēstastik, 2 ikklēstastik] Preco & -ic a n One in Holy Orders in the Christian Church, b adj, ecclesiastical ecclesiastical, adj [1 ekklēstastik, 2 ikklēstastik] Preco & -al Pertaining to the Christian Church, its organization, authority, and character, contrasted with secular. ecclesiastical history, ceremonies, tradition &c Ecclesiastical Court, one having jurisdiction in purely ecclesiastical matters ecclesiastically, adv Preco & -ly In an ecclesiastical manner ecclesiasticism, n [1 ekklēstastiszm, 2 ikklēstastiszm] ecclesiastic & -ism. a The principles, customs, observances of the Christian Church, b exaggerated attachment to the external and formal side of ecclesiastical observances and discipline ecclesiological, adj [1 ekklēsiologik, 2 ikklēsiologik] See ecclesiology & -ical. Of, pertaining to, ecclesiology ecclesiologicalist, n [1 ekklēsiologist, 2 ikklēsiologist] See next word & -ist Student of ecclesiology ecclesiology, n [1 ekklēsiologi, 2 ikklēsiologi] ecclesia & -ology The science and study a of the history, nature, and constitution of the Church, b of the building and decoration of churches ecdysis, n [1 ekdisis, 2 ekdisis], fr Gk ekdysis, 'a putting off, getting out of, shedding', fr ekdysen, 'to put off, shed', fr ek, 'out' (see ex-), & duen, 'to sink, plunge, into, to penetrate' Perb cogn w. Sert ddaai, 'night, darkness' (zool) The shedding, sloughing of skin by snakes, shells by crustaceans &c, at certain periods echelon, n & vb trans [1 eshelon, 2 eshels, eshalm] Fr, fr echelle, 'ladder', fr Lat scala, 'a flight of steps, a ladder' See scale (V) 1 n Arrangement of troops drawn up in step like formation, consisting of a series of parallel bodies, no two of which are in the same line, and the front of each body being clear of those in advance to move forward in (en) echelon, also used of similar formation of ships or position of fortification, gun emplacements &c 2 vb To move, place (troops &c), in echelon echidna, n [1 ekidna, 2 ikidna], fr Gk ekhidna, 'a viper', fr an adj ekhidnōs, fr ekhis, 'a viper', cogn w OHG egala, Norw igle, 'leech', Aryan base egh-* An Australian ant eating, egg laying mammal, somewhat resembling a hedgehog, having spines as well as hair upon its skin and snout-like toothless jaws, also called porcupine anteater It forms with the duck billed platypus the group of animals known as Monotremata echinate, adj [1 ekinat, 2 ekinat] See echinus & -ate Set with bristles or prickles echinate, n. [1 ekinat, 2 ekinat] See echinus & -ate A fossil echinus or sea-urchin echino-, pref, fr echinus, used in forming compounds, signifying prickly, spiny &c echinocactus, n [1 ekhinokaktus, 2 ishinoukaktus] Preco & cactus (bot) A genus of S American flowering cacti, cylindrical in shape with ridged divisions and covered with spines echinoderm, n [1 ekhinoderm, 2 ikhinoderm] See echino- & derm (zool) A member of the class Echinodermata, which includes the star fishes, sea urchins &c echinus, n, pl echini [1 ekinus, -i, 2 ikinus, -ai] Lat, fr Gk ekchinos, 'hedgehog, sea-urchin', cogn w OHG igol, O Slav igol, Lith ezys, 'hedgehog', Aryan base egh-* a (zool) The sea urchin, esp the typical genus of sea urchins, b (archit) rounded moulding in the capital of a Doric and Ionic column echo (I), n [1 ekō, 2 ekow] Lat ekō, fr Gk ekō, 'a sound, noise, echo', op Gk ekē, 'noise', ēkēs, 'resound' Cognates in other languages are doubtful 1 (ap) In Greek mythology the nymph who personified the echo and whose voice this was supposed to reflect 2 a The repetition of a sound, reflected back when the sound waves strike appropriately situated opposing surfaces, b an effect obtained in poetry by the repetition of the vowel of the last syllable of one line near the beginning of the next line, verso echo 3 (fig) a Repetition of the opinions, imitation of the expressions, of another person the dictum of Wordsworth's early poems is an echo of Pope, b person who slavishly copies another or repeats his words, opinions &c echo (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans a (of reflecting surfaces) To repeat sounds the valleys echo the voices of the birds, b to repeat the opinions of another he echoes his wife in everything B intrans a To resound with an echo, to reverberate he made the valleys echo as he sang, b echo through, to ring out, fill with sound his voice echoed through the hall echoic, adj [1 ekóik, 2 ikóvik] echo (I) & -ic Of the nature of, resembling, an echo, hence (philol) imitative, onomatopoeic echoism, n [1 ekóizm, 2 ekóvizm] See prec & -ism The imitation of sounds, onomatopoeia éclair, n [1 áklár, 2 ekléa] Fr A small thin, long cake filled with cream flavoured with chocolate &c and covered with icing éclair, n [1 eklámpia, 2 íklámpia] Now Lat fr Late Gk éklampsa, 'a shining forth, brightness', fr éklampein, 'to shine forth', fr ek-, see ex-, & lampem, 'to shine' See lamp (med) a A form of epileptic fit or premonitory fit, marked by visual hallucinations of flashes of light, specif b a convulsive attack or series of fits, due to poisoning of the system, occurring during pregnancy or after childbirth éclat, n [1 ákláh, 2 eklá] Fr, 'noise, clap', fr éclater, 'to burst, burst out', of Gmo origin, op Ital schattare, 'to burst', fr a Gmo sklāi*, 'split, burst, slit' &c, op OS slitan, OE slitan, Pret slāt (fr slāt*) See slit Distinction, signal success or brilliance, applause he came out of the affair with éclat eclectic, adj & n [1 ekléktik, 2 íklektik], fr Gk eklektikos, 'picking out, selecting, electing', fr ek-, see ex-, & lekt-, stem of legein, 'to pick out, choose, gather, to count, reckon, to enumerate' Cogn w Lat legere, 'to pick up, gather, to choose, collect, read', see lecture, legend 1 adj a Belonging to ancient school of philosophers who selected the doctrines that suited them from various systems; b given to selecting, picking, and choosing, in matters of thought and taste, from various sources, not following exclusively a single school or authority 2 n a One who belonged to the school of eclectic philosophers, b one who follows eclectic methods in thought and art eclectically, adv [1 ekléktikah, 2 íklektikah] Prec & -al & -ly In an eclectic manner eclecticism, n [1 ekléktizm, 2 íklektizm] eclectic & -ism System, methods, of an eclectic eclipse (I), n [1 eklips, 2 íklips], fr O Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk éclipseis, 'abandonment, forsaking, eclipse, failure, cessation', fr ékleipein, 'to leave out, pass over, to forsake, to cease, to be eclipsed', fr ek-, see ex-, & leipein, 'to leave, to depart', q v under relinquish 1 Total or partial obscuration of the light of the sun, through the passing of the moon between it and the earth, b of the moon by the earth's shadow, c of a satellite by its primary's shadow 2 (fig) Extinction, obscurement of the mind, reputation &c his fame has suffered an eclipse eclipse (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 (of planets) To obscure the light of (another planet) by eclipse 2 (fig) To deprive of splendour, pre-eminence, throw into shade, outvie, surpass the queen's beauty appeared to eclipse that of every other lady present ecliptic, adj & n [1 eklíptik, 2 íklíptik], fr Gk ekleiptikós, see eclipse, which takes place on the line of an ecliptic 1 adj Pertaining to an ecliptic or an eclipse 2 n a The apparent orbit or great circle travelled by the sun from west to east through the heavens in the course of a year, b an apparent great circle on the globe corresponding to the sun's ecliptic eclogue, n [1 éklog, 2 éklóg], fr Lat ecloga, fr Gk eklogé, 'choice, selection, an extract from a book', fr eklegein, 'to pick out, select', fr ek-, 'out' (see ex-), & legein, 'to choose, collect, count, enumerate' See looture, legend Short poem of a pastoral character, the model of which was given by Virgil's Eclogues ecology See oecology economic, adj [1 ekonómik, 2 íkonómik] economy & -ic 1 Pertaining to the management of a household or estate 2 Pertaining to the management of the affairs of a community or state with reference to its sources of supply, and to its expenditure 3 Pertaining to the satisfaction of man's material needs, and to the practical application of science to this end economic botany, entomology &c 4 (popular) Economical economical, adj [1 ekonómik, 2 íkonómik] Prec & -al a (of persons) Careful and watchful of expenditure, tending to husband resources, thrifty, reverse of extravagant, also economical of one's time, not wasting it, b extended to material appliances, tending to save material resources an economical stove, engine &c, consuming small quantity of fuel in proportion to work done, c (of methods &c) promoting economy, preventing waste economically, adv [1 ekonómikah, 2 íkonómikah] Prec & -ly a In an economical, thrifty manner, b from an economic standpoint economics, n [1 ekonómiks, 2 íkonómiks] See economic The science and study of the general principles which govern the production and distribution of wealth, also political economy economize, vb intrans [1 ekonómiz, 2 íkonómiz] economy & -ize To manage resources well, avoid unprofitable expenditure, reduce expenditure, practise frugality economy, n [1 ekonómi, 2 íkonómi], fr Lat oeconomia, fr Gk oikonomia, 'the management of a household, administration, thrift', fr oikónóm(-os), 'one who manages a household, a steward, housekeeper', fr oikos, 'house, dwelling, place to live in, household affairs, house-property', for oikos*, cogn w Lat vīcus, 'village, hamlet, district', see vicinage, also w Sort vīcus, 'house', & vī-, 'habitation', op further Goth weiss, 'village', OE wīc, 'dwelling, village', see wick (II), the second element is nomos, 'managing', fr nēmen, 'to deal out, dispense, to hold sway, manage, to inhabit, to graze, pasture' See nomad 1 The principles of the management of a household domestic economy 2 A judicious management of wealth in any form, esp practice of thrift, frugality, avoidance of extravagance, b careful husbanding of time, labour &c, wise expenditure of these, c political economy, economics 3 (theol) a Dispensation the Mosaic economy, b specif economy of truth, such doctrinal interpretation as is befitting or suitable for the individual learner, hence, by transference, frugality, sparing use of truth ecru, adj [1 ákrú, 2 ékrú] Fr écru, 'unbleached', ex- & Lat crūd(-um), 'raw' See crude The light brown colour or finish of unbleached linen ecstasy, n [1 ékstasi, 2 ékstasi] O Fr extasis, fr L Lat ecstasis, fr Gk ekstasis, 'removal from the proper place, distraction of mind, astonishment, trance', fr ek-, 'from, out of' (see ex-), & stasis, 'a standing still, position, state, condition', fr Aryan stha-ti-, whence Gmc stadi, OE stede, 'place' (see stead) The Aryan base is stha-, stha-, 'to stand' See stand (I), state (I) a State of extreme emotional exaltation, rapture, b strong feeling, esp but not necessarily, pleasurable an ecstasy of delight, of grief, Phr in ecstasies over something, highly delighted, enthusiastic in praise of ecstatic, adj [1 ékstáti, 2 íkstáti], fr Gk ekstastikos, 'unstable, out of one's senses', fr ekstasis, 'removal from position, distraction, ecstasy' See ecstasy & -10 Of the nature of ecstasy, causing ecstasy ecstatically, adv [1 ékstátikah, 2 íkstátikah] Prec & -al & -ly In an ecstatic, enraptured manner ecto-, pref, fr Gk ektós, 'outside' See ex- First element in many compound words made, and chiefly used, by biologists ectoblast, n [1 éktóblast, 2 éktóvblast] Prec & Gk blastos, 'a sprout' Etymol uncertain See blastoderm (biol) Outer membrane of a cell ectoderm, n [1 éktódērm, 2 éktóvdam] ecto- & -derm. (biol) Outer membrane vesting a cell ectoplasm, n [1 éktóplazm, 2 éktóvplazm] ecto- & plasma (biol) a External layer of protoplasm in a cell, b a spiritualistic term for the supposed emanation of a psycho body from that of a medium écu, n [1 ákú, 2 éky] Fr, fr O Fr écu, fr Lat scutum, 'shield' See escutum An old French silver coin of the 17th and 18th cents, equivalent to about five francs ecumenic(al), oecumenical, adj [1 ékúmenik, 2 íkúmenik] The OED adopts, & editors recommend, the latter spelling, wh indeed follows the L Lat usage of oe for Gk oi, though in Engl the spelling e appears to be more usual in this word L Lat oecuménicus, fr Gk oikouménikos, 'universal', fr oikouménē, 'the inhabited world' First element is Gk oikos, 'house, dwelling', fr wōi-*, cogn w Lat vīcus, 'district, quarter, hamlet' See economy & vicinage General, universal, specif, embracing or representative of the whole Early Christian Church (now applied only to Roman Catholic Church) an oecumenical council eczema, n [1 ékzima, 2 ékzims] fr Gk ekzēma, fr ek-, 'out of' (see ex-), & zéma, 'that which is boiled', fr zéō, 'boil', cogn w Sort zéō, 'to boil', OHG zean, 'to ferment' Another grade of the Aryan base jes-, jos-, 'to bubble up', hence 'to boil' appears in Gk zéō, 'foam' See yeast Inflammatory disease of the skin of various kinds eczematous, adj [1 ekzématus, 2 ekzématus] Gr ekzemat- See prec & Lat suff -deus, see -ous Arising from, having character of, eczema

-ed PP suff of weak vbs OE -ed, -ad Used also to form adjs fr ns, e.g. armoured, 'covered, provided, with armour' edacious, adj [1 édášus, 2 íwéšus], fr Lat edāc (em), edax, 'voracious, devouring, destroying', fr Lat ed (ere), 'to eat' (see under eat), & adj suff -ac- & -ous a Pertaining to eating, voracious, devouring, b (fig) consuming, tending to swallow up edacious time

Edam, n [1 édam, 2 édam] Name of a village in Holland. Also Edam cheese, a round rich Dutch cheese, of yellow colour, usually with a rind dyed dark red

Edna, n [1 éda, 2 éda] ON The meaning & history of the word are quite clear The nearest cognates in ON are ēdr, 'mad, nearest', & ōdr, 'spirit, mind', & further in franto, & ōdr, 'spirit, mind', Edna is fr Prim sense of 'song, poetry', Edna is fr Prim Norse ēðþa*, whence w mutation, Edna The Gmo base is wōþ-* wh expresses the idea of 'exaltation of spirits' on the one hand, & 'poetry, song', &c on the other, ON loses initial w- before rounded vowel, & O E wōþ, 'sound, clamour, melody, song', O E wōþ, 'mad, frenzied', whence ME Edna & further wōd, 'mad, frenzied', whence ME Edna 100de, 'mad, frantic', so common in Chaucer, O H G wuot, 'madness', Mod Germ wuht, 'fury', willen, 'to be enraged'. Outside Game we have Lat vilis, 'soothsayer, prophet', also 'bard, poet'. This is said to be borrowed fr Celt, op O Ir faith, 'poet', & W gwaird, 'poem'. The same base occurs in Sert api valah, 'understands'. The word was originally applied only to the hook written by Snorri Sturlason (c 1241), containing mythological lore, and the rules of verse making, the term was later extended to ancient artificial poetry generally.

eddy (I), n [1 édu, 2 édu] M E ydy, fr O N ida, 'whirlpool'. A small circling wavelet, or series of these, miniature whirlpool in surface of water, b current of air, dust, must &c moving in a kind of spiral.

eddy (II), vb intrans, fr prec To move like an eddy, to move round in small circles, a of water, air, must &c, b (by extension) of bodies of people, to wander, drift about in circles.

edelweiss, n [1 édvís, 2 édvís] Germ edel, 'noble', & weiss, 'white'. Small Alpine rock plant growing only at the higher altitudes, bearing white, woolly, star shaped flowers.

edema See oedema.

Eden, n [1 édn, 2 ídn] Heb, 'delight'. A The garden in which Adam and Eve were placed at their creation, b (rare) any especially delightful place, or state of special happiness.

edentate, adj [1 édéntát, 2 ídnéte] fr Lat edentat (us), 'toothless, with the teeth knocked out', fr e- & dent, stem of dens, 'tooth' (see denti-), & -ate a Lacking teeth, toothless, b (specif, zool) of, belonging to, the lowest order, Edentata, of placental mammals, without incisors and canine teeth, including the armadillo, sloth, ant eater &c.

edge (I), n [1 ej, 2 edz] O E ecg, M E ecge Cp O Fris. eg, O L G egga, O H G ekka, O N egg, 'edge, point', egga, 'to provoke', see egg (II). Cogn w Lat acies, sharp edge, point, keenness (lit and fig), 'battle array of an army'. Aryan base ak-*, 'sharp'. Cp Lat acer, 'sharp', Gk. akaina, 'point, needle', akros, 'sharp'. See further under acrid, acute. 1 Sharp, narrow side or border of anything, a specul (of a cutting instrument, sword, knife &c) a sharp, keen edge, to put an edge on, take the edge off, a knife, inside, outside edge, (of a skate) of movement on either of these edges, Phrs to give the edge of one's tongue to, speak sharply to, scold, give an edge to, take edge off, one's appetite, to stimulate or deaden the freshness of appetite, take the edge off an argument, deprive it of force, set one's nerves on edge, irritate, exasperate, set the teeth on edge, give physical sensation of discomfort, as by a shrill scraping sound, b projecting ledge, top, or side, of other objects edge of a roof, of a mountain, an edge of rock, the sharp edge of a table &c 2 Boundary, extreme border, that part of surface of anything which is furthest from the centre, the part near to this border edge of a wood, either the part just inside or that just outside, edge of a lake, either the water near shore, or part of shore near the water, edge of a table, to sit on the edge of a chair, on extreme outer portion of seat near the front legs, edge of a page, either, the blank margin of unprinted paper beyond the line of print, or, the outer section in thickness of paper gilt edges, uncut edges &c, on the edge of a precipice, on the brink.

edge (II), vb trans, fr prec A trans 1 a To give cutting edge to, to sharpen, b to furnish with border to edge a path with box, hills edge the plain, c to impart a clean edge to, trim, clip to edge the border of a lawn 2 To form a border or edge, act as edging, to pass run, along edge or border a road edged with grass, a river bank edged with flowers B Followed by preposition or adverb

Edge away, sidle away, move away obliquely and cautiously Edge into, a trans, to introduce cautiously or with difficulty, intrans to edge oneself into the conversation, b intrans, to advance, move, gradually and indirectly Edge off, side away Edge out, to move out gradually and cautiously edge-bone, corrupt of atuch-bone

edge(d)-tool, n [1 éj(d) tól, 2 edj(d) tól] One having a cutting edge Phr to play with edge(d) tools, to engage in a course of action, unthinkingly or carelessly, which may prove dangerous, or have unpleasant consequences edgewise, adv [1 éjwíz, 2 edzwíz] edge (I) & -ways By the edge, side ways, with edge outwards Phr not to be able to get a word in edgewise, he prevented from speaking by the volubility of others edgewise, adv [1 éjwíz, 2 edzwíz] edge (I) & -wise Edgewise edging, n [1 éjng, 2 édzng] edge (I) & -ing Something used to form, or forming naturally, an edge or border an edging of lace, of flowers, clipped box &c edging-shears, n Gardener's shears with long blades used for trimming the grass at the edges of a lawn round beds, or bordering a path edging-tool, n. Sharp crescent-shaped blade, with long handle like that of a spade, fixed on upper side, used for shaping exterior edges of turf in lawns edgy, adj [1 éj, 2 edzj] edge (I) & -y a Having sharp edges, b (of drawings, paintings &c) having unduly sharp outlines edibility, n [1 édibilítá, 2 édibilítá] Next word & -ity Suitability for food, quality of being edible edible, adj [1 édibl, 2 édibl] fr L Lat edibilis, 'eatable', Lat edere, 'to eat', & -ible See eat Suitable for human food, wholesome to eat edict, n [1 édikt, 2 ídkit] fr Lat édicium, 'proclamation, ordinance, order, command' e- & dictio Order formally issued by authority, a decree edification, n [1 édifikáshun, 2 édifikéshun] Lat edificatio (em), 'a structure', fr edificat (um), P P type of edificare, 'to build', & -ion. See next word a Act of edifying, state of being edified, b building up, formation, of moral or spiritual nature, moral improvement and instruction edifice, n [1 édifis, 2 édifis] fr Fr, fr Lat edificium, 'a building', fr aedis, 'temple, house' (see aedile) & fic, unstressed form of fac (ere), to make' See -fic 1 A building, structure, especially a of a large public building, or a private mansion, also b of smaller erections an imposing, noble edifice &c, a humble edifice of timber &c 2 Something formed in the mind the whole edifice of his hopes and plans collapsed at once edify, vb trans [1 édifi, 2 édifis] fr Fr édifier, fr Lat edificare, 'to build, to raise, erect, to instruct, edify' See prec a (archaic, poet) To build, in material sense, b to build up, form, develop, moral, spiritual, and intellectual character of, to give moral instruction to, to improve edifying adj [1 édifi ing, 2 édifis ing] Prec Part of prec Promoting moral or spiritual improvement, instructive, uplifting edit, vb trans [1 édit, 2 édit] fr Lat édit (um), P P type of edere, 'to give, put, bring, forth, to publish, to relate, tell', fr e-, 'out', & dere, 'to give', q v under date (I) 1 a To prepare for publication the works of another author, or any documents, with care for exactness of text, critical notation, revision &c, b to pick out certain passages for publication omitting what is unsuitable, undesirable, or badly written this book will require some severe editing before it can be published 2 Specif, to edit a newspaper, journal &c, to direct, plan, and produce it, be responsible for what appears and generally supervise contents, to act as editor edition, n [1 édishun, 2 ídfshun] fr Lat éditio (em) See prec & -ion 1 a The shape, size, style, in which a book is issued pocket edition, cheap edition, library edition, edition de luxe (pron as Fr), sumptuous and expensive edition of a book, b (fig) a repetition of something in slightly different form, person who resembles another in appearance, character &c he's an inferior edition of his father 2 The total number of copies of a book, newspaper &c, issued from the press at the same time limited edition, first edition &c 3 The series in which, or press from which, a book is issued Aldine edition, Kelmscott edition 4 The issue or reissue of a book, or literary work, with critical and scholarly attention by another to the state of the text, elucidation of obscurities &c Chambers's edition of 'Beowulf' edito princeps, n [1 édishio prinsep, 2 ídfshio prinsep] Lat, 'first edition' See edition, and prince First printed edition editor, n [1 éditor, 2 éditá] Lat edit & -or 1 One who edits, prepares a book for publication, one who makes a critical edition 2 One who directs and conducts the publication of a newspaper, journal &c editorial (I), adj [1 éditóriál, 2 éditóriál] Prec & -ial Pertaining to an editor or editing editorial chair, office, capacity &c editorial (II), n, fr prec A leading article in a newspaper, esp one written by, or under direct supervision of, the editor, and assumed to express his views editorially, adv editorial (I) & -ly In the manner of, as, an editor editorship, n [1 éditorshíp, 2 éditáshíp] editor & -ship The position and authority of an editor editress, n [1 éditres, 2 éditris] editor & -ess A female editor educable, adj [1 édúkabl, 2 edukéabl] Lat educ (äre), 'to educate' (see educate) & -able Capable of being educated educate, vb trans [1 édúkát, 2 edjnést] fr Lat educat (um), P P type of educare, 'to bring up, rear, educate, to train, foster', fr educere, 'to lead out, bring out, to summon, to export, to bring up (a child), to raise, build up' See e- & duct 1 To train, develop, cultivate, instruct the mind of, to form the moral character of, a oneself, b another, applied both to the person and his mind to educate a child, to educate the mind of a child &c 2 To form and develop some particular faculty to educate a person's taste in literature, to educate the ear &c 3 To bear the expenses of another's education he educated his brothers after their father's death educated adj [1 édúkáted, 2 edjnéstid] fr P P of prec Highly trained, cultivated, intellectually and morally developed, specif, an educated man, one who has been systematically instructed and intellectually disciplined, contrasted with illiterate, uneducated an educated taste, mind &c education, n [1 édúkáshun, 2 edjnéstshun] fr Lat educatio (em), 'bringing up, training, education' See educate & -ion 1 Discipline, development, and training of the mind, character, and faculties 2 Specif a instruction and training of the young b organized system of instruction as existing in a given state educational, adj [1 édúkáshunál, 2 edjnéstshunál] Prec & -al a Connected with education, b having property of educating, instructing, developing the mind and character educationalist, n [1 édúkáshunálist, 2 edjnéstshunálist] Prec & -ist One concerned with the theory, practice, or organization of education educationally, adv [1 édúkáshunál, 2 edjnéstshunál] educational & -ly By education, from the standpoint of education educationist n [1 édúkáshuníst, 2 edjnéstshuníst] education & -ist Educationalist educative, adj [1 ēdūkativ, 2 ēdjukativ] educate & -ive (not of persons) Having the property of educating, developing, tending to promote mental or moral growth educate, vb trans [1 ēdūs, 2 ēdjūs] fr Lat educere, 'to draw, lead, bring, out, to summon, to send out, export, to draw up, raise, build up, to rear, bring up (a child)' From ē- & ducere, 'to lead' See duct & duke 1 To bring out, elicit, a latent quality of mind or character to educate all that is best in man 2 To infer, deduce, draw (a conclusion) from data 3 (chem) To separate, extract, from a compound substance educible, adj [1 ēdūsibl, 2 ēdjūsibl] Prec & -ible Capable of being educated educt, n [1 ēdukt, 2 ēdukt] fr Lat educt (um), P P type of educere, 'to lead, draw out' See educere (chem) Something separated out from a compound, by analysis eduction, n [1 ēduktshun, 2 ēduktʃən] fr Lat eductio (-em), 'a removal, going out' Prec & -ion The act of educating, that which is educated eduction-pipe, n Exhaust pipe of steam engine edulcorate, vb trans [1 ēdulkorāt, 2 ēdulkorēt] fr L Lat edulcorāt (um), P P type of edulcorare, fr Lat dulcor, 'sweetness', fr dulcis, 'sweet', see e- & dulcet & -ate To free from acid edulcoration, n [1 ēdulkorāshun, 2 ēdulkorēshən] Prec & -ation The act or process of edulcorating Edwardian, adj [1 ēdwardian, 2 ēdwardiən] Edward & -ian Of the time of any one of the Edwards, Kings of England an Edwardian castle, built in reign of Edward I, the Edwardian Prayer Book, of Edward VI, specif, of reign of Edward VII, as contrasted with Victorian and Georgian

-ee, suff forming ns, fr O Fr -e (P P of vbs in -er), fr Lat -ālus, see -ate In old words the suff expresses person who undergoes an action, or on whom some right is conferred lessee, grantee In modern words it is simply the Fr P P as in employee, or has a very general sense of connexion, e.g. bargee, man on, or in charge of, a barge eel, n [1 ēl, 2 ēl] ME ēl, OE æl Cogn w OHG āl, ON āl, Du aal One of a number of varieties of fresh water and sea fishes with a long, snake like, very agile body, covered with extremely smooth skin, and when cooked, exhibiting greasy, gelatinous flesh Phrs as slippery as an eel (lit and fig.), to wriggle like an eel eel-pout, n See pout & pout (1) a The burbot, b name of certain kinds of blenny eel-spear, n Instrument with barbed prongs for spearing eels e'en, n & adv [1 ēn, 2 in] Poetical variant of even (1) & (II)
-eer, suff, fr Fr -ier, fr Lat -arius See -ary Expresses an agent, one who makes, is concerned with, manages, drives, produces molecule, charcoal See also -ier, in recent formations often conveying derogatory sense profiteer e'er, adv. [1 ār, 2 ə] Poetical variant of ever eerie, eery, adj [1 ēr, 2 ēr] ME ēr, 'timid', apparently fr OE earg, earh, arg &, 'cowardly', wh is cogn w OHG arg, & ON argr, 'cowardly, wicked' a Inspiring a feeling of mystery and dread, ward, uncanny, b (only provino) timidly restless, uneasy eerily, adv [1 ērli, 2 ērli] Prec & -ly In an eerie manner eeriness, n [1 ērnes, 2 ērnes] See prec & -ness The quality of being eerie ef-, pref Lat ef-, by assimilation fr ex- before f efface, vb trans [1 ōfās, 2 ōfēs] fr Fr effacer, 'wipe out, destroy', fr ef- & Lat facere, 'form, shape, appearance, look' See face 2 (of maternal things) To erase remove from a surface, rub out, blur time has effaced the youthful curves of her features and figure 2 (of mental images) to blot out, render indistinct, obliterate to efface the memory of the past 3 (reflex) To efface oneself, render oneself inconspicuous, keep in the background, withdraw from observation effaceable, adj [1 ēfāsabl, 2 ēfēsabl] Prec & -able Capable of being effaced effacement, n [1 ēfāsmēt, 2 ēfēsment] efface & -ment a The act of effacing, b state of being effaced effect (I), n [1 ēfekt, 2 ēfekt] fr O Fr, fr Lat effectus, 'accomplishment, performance, effect, result', fr effect (um), P P type of efficere, 'to execute, accomplish, make, fashion, to produce, amount to', fr ef- & facere, 'to make, do' See fact 1 State of things, conditions, arising from, caused by, an action or a process, a result, affecting mind or body, or external nature suffering from the effects of heat, the effects of light upon the eye, on plants, the sleeping-draught produced a rapid and profound effect, fear of punishment has a deterrent effect on criminals, cheerful companionship has a good effect on the spirits, argument had no effect upon his stubborn mind Phrs of no effect, useless, in effect, in fact, for practical purposes, to take effect, to become operative, to result in what was intended 2 Impression produced upon the perceptive faculties a by deliberately planned artistic design some painters get their effects by striking contrast of colours, Pope produces infinite variety of effect by his skilful handling of the couplet, b by the phenomena of nature we get wonderful cloud effects in the English lake country 3 Impression produced upon the mind, direction given to the thoughts and feelings by a deliberate action, or utterance calculated to cause such a result to talk, do something for effect 4 Bearing, force, meaning the effect of this paragraph is to stultify what precedes 5 (pl) Goods and chattels, property they went leaving their personal effects behind, no effects, N/E, as marked by bank on dishonoured cheque for which there are no funds effect (II), vb trans, fr prec To bring about, cause to happen, produce as result of an action or process effective, adj & n [1 ēfektiv, 2 ēfektiv] fr Fr, fr Lat effectivus, 'productive, effective', effect (I) & -ive 1 adj a Producing a result, bringing about an intended result, productive of effect, competent to take effective measures, the treatment was effective, specif b (mil) capable of being employed for active service 2 Producing a striking impression an effective scheme of decoration 3 n (pl) Effectives, effective troops effectively, adv Prec & -ly a In an effective manner, b in effect, as a matter of fact effectiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being effective effectual, adj [1 ēfektūāl, 2 ēfektjuāl] fr O Fr, fr L Lat effectualis, fr effectus (see effect) & -al 1 Producing the effect intended, adequate the punishment was effectual and the offence was not repeated 2 Having legal force, taking effect, valid effectually, adv Prec & -ly In an effectual manner effectualness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being effectual effectuate, vb trans [1 ēfektjuāt, 2 ēfektjuēt] fr effectual & -ate To cause, accomplish, bring about effectuation, n [1 ēfektjuāshun, 2 ēfektjuēshən] Prec & -ion The act of effectuating, accomplishment effeminacy, n [1 ēfēminasi, 2 ēfēminasi] See next word & -acy The state of being effeminate effeminate, adj [1 ēfēminat, 2 ēfēminat] fr Lat effemināt (us), 'womanish, effeminate', P P of effeminare, 'to make womanish, enervate', fr ef- & fēmina, 'a woman' See feminine (of men) Unmanly, possessing qualities usually found in a woman, weak, womanish, lacking courage, firmness, hardness effeminately, adv Prec & -ly In an effeminate manner effendi, n [1 ēfēndi, 2 ēfēndi] fr Turk efendi, 'master', fr Gk authēntēs, 'a master, autocrat' See authentic Title given in Turkey, Egypt, &c, to an official or man of learning, or as polite mode of address to a gentleman effervant, adj [1 ēfērant, 2 ēfērant] fr Lat effervant (em), Pres Part of efferre, 'to carry out or away, bring forth, to spread abroad, publish', fr ef- & ferre, 'to carry' See bear (1) (physiol) Conveying, leading, outwards (from an organ &c), as blood-vessels, nerves &c, opposed to afferent effervesce, vb intrans [1 ēfērvēs, 2 ēfērvēs] fr Lat effervesce, 'to boil up, bubble', fr ef- & fervere, 'to be hot' See fervent 1 (of liquid) To give out bubbles, to liberate gas in the form of bubbles 2 (fig, of persons) To be in high spirits, be excited &c 3 (of gas) To come out in the form of bubbles, to rise in bubbles from a liquid effervescence, -cy, n [1 ēfērvēsens(i), 2 ēfērvēsens(i)] Prec & -ence & -cy Process of effervescing, state of being effervescent effervescent, adj [1 ēfērvēscent, 2 ēfērvēscent] Lat effervescent (em), Pres Part type of effervesce See effervesce & -ent (lit and fig) Bubbly, sparkling, giving out gas in bubbles effete, adj, [1 ēfēt, 2 ēfēt] fr Lat effetus, 'that has brought forth young, exhausted, worn out', fr ef- & fetus, 'that has brought forth' See toetus (gen in moral sense) Worn out, exhausted, incapable of producing anything, sterile an effete civilization, system of education &c effeteness, n Prec & -ness State of being effete efficacious, adj [1 ēfikāshus, 2 ēfikāsh] fr Lat efficaci, fr efficax, 'powerful, efficacious', fr efficere, 'to execute, accomplish', see effect, & -ous Capable of producing a desired result, having the effect intended efficaciously, adv Prec & -ly In an efficacious manner efficacy, n [1 ēfikāsi, 2 ēfikāsi] Lat efficax, fr efficax, 'powerful, efficacious' See efficacious & -y The quality of being efficacious, effectiveness efficiency, n [1 ēfikāshus, 2 ēfikāsh] See next word & -cy The state, quality, of being efficient, efficient power, specif (phys and mechan) the proportion of energy or work produced to that put in efficient, adj [1 ēfīshēt, 2 ēfīshēt] Lat efficient (em), Pres Part type of efficere, 'accomplish, carry out' See effect a Producing a result, effective, adequate, Phr efficient cause, the cause which actually or directly produces the effect; b (of persons) capable, able to perform an action and bring about the desired result, competent efficiently, adv Prec & -ly In an efficient manner effigy, n [1 ēfīgi, 2 ēfīdži] fr Fr effigie, fr Lat effigies, 'a likeness, portrait, a statue, image', Cp effingere, 'to form, fashion (artistically), to portray', & see ef- & figura A portrait, likeness, a figure representing a person, image to be burnt in effigy, to have one's image burnt, in mockery, indignation &c effloresce, vb intrans [1 ēfloreš, 2 ēfloreš] fr Lat efflorescere, 'to blossom', fig, 'to spring up, flourish', fr ef- & florescere, 'to begin to blossom' See flourescent a (hot) To come into flower, to blossom, (also fig), b (chem) to become covered with a crust due to chemical action efflorescence n [1 ēflorešens, 2 ēflorešens] ef- & flourescent The process of efflorescing efflorescent, adj [1 ēflorešent, 2 ēflorešent] ef- & flourescent Efflorescing, tending to effloresce.

- effluence, n. [1 éfluens, 2 éfluans] See eff- & fluency a The process of flowing, pouring out, b that which flows out 'Bright effluence of essence increase' (Milton, P. L.)
- effluent, adj. & n. [1 éfluent, 2 éfluant] eff- & fluent 1 adj Proceeding outwards, flowing forth 2 n a A river or stream flowing out of a larger river or of a lake, b body of water with its contents coming from a sewer, a factory &c, into a river or stream
- effluvium, n., pl effluvia [1 éfluvium, -ia, 2 éfluvia, -ia] L Lat effluvium, 'a flowing out, outlet', fr effluere, 'to flow out', cp Lat fluvius, 'a stream', the base is flu-* See fluent & flow Vapour, exhalation, tainted exhalation, odour
- efflux, n. [1 éflux, 2 éflux], fr Lat efflux (um), P P type of effluere, 'to flow out' See ef- & flux a (of material and non material things) The process of flowing out, b that which flows out, c (of time) passage, lapse, expiry
- effusion, n. [1 éfluxion, 2 éfluxion] See prec & -ion (rare) Efflux
- effort, n. [1 éfort, 2 éfort] O Fr effort, effort, formed fr vb effortier, 'make an effort' &c, fr Med Lat effortare, fr ex-, & Lat fortis, 'strong', lit 'a putting forth of strength' See fort 1 Powerful mental or physical exertion, strenuous action, employment of strength in performing an action, a strain climbing hills is too great an effort for old people. 2 Deliberate exertion of physical or mental force or strength with the intention, for the purpose, of accomplishing something, an attempt, endeavour efforts too feeble to be successful, to make an effort to learn, to rise &c 3 (colloq) Result of an effort, something accomplished his performance was rather a good effort
- effortless, adj. [1 éfortless, 2 éfortless] Prec & -less a (of persons) Making no effort, not exerting oneself, b (of actions) performed without effort
- effrontery, n. [1 éfronterie, 2 éfronterie], fr Fr effronterie, fr effronter, 'bold, shameless' (& -erie), fr Low Lat effronter (us), fr Lat effronter, 'shameless', fr ex- & fron-, 'forehead, brow, front, outside' See front Impudence, audacity
- effulgence, n. [1 éfulgens, 2 éfulgens] See next word & -ence Stream of brightness, radiance, splendour
- effulgent, adj. [1 éfulgent, 2 éfulgent], fr Lat effulgent (em), Prec Part type of effulgere, 'to shine forth', fr ef-, & fulgere, 'to shine, gleam, flash' See fulgent Sending out a beam of light, shining, radiant
- effulgently, adv Prec & -ly Radiantly
- effuse (L), vb trans & intrans [1 éflux, 2 éflux], fr Lat effus (um), P P type of Lat effundere, 'to pour forth spread abroad', fr ef-, & fundere, 'to pour forth, shed, to overcome, destroy' See fuso (L) (lit and fig) a trans To pour out, diffuse, b intrans, to issue, stream forth
- effuse (II), adj. [1 éflux, 2 éflux], fr Lat effus (us), 'poured or spread out' See prec (bot) Spread out (of types of plant)
- effusion, n. [1 éfluxion, 2 éfluxion] fr Lat effusio (em) 'a pouring forth, profusion, extravagance' effuse (L) & -ion 1 (of material things) The act of pouring forth to be guilty of effusion of blood, i.e. bloodshed, shedding loss esp to suffer from an effusion of blood 2 (of non material things) Rapid, emotional unrestrained expression in speech or writing esp poetical effusions
- effusive, adj. [1 éfluxiv, 2 éfluxiv] effuse (L) & -ive (of persons and modes of expression) Expressive, feeling without reserve, demonstrative, profuse effusive in one's gratitude
- effusively, adv Prec & -ly In an effusive manner
- effusiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being effusive demonstrativeness, unrestrained expression of cordiality of feeling
- eft, n [1 eft, 2 eft] O E efta, 'newt', M E efete, eule, efete &c Etymol unknown Variant of newt (archaic and province) A newt
- eftsoon(s), adv [1 eftsoon(s), 2 eftsoon(s)] O E eftsoon, M E eftsoon(s), 'immediately afterwards, very soon' See aft & soon (archaic) Immediately afterwards
- egad interj [1 egad, 2 igad] Prob for ah God See gad (I) (archaic and obsolete) Expletive equivalent to by Joe &c
- egg (I), n [1 eg, 2 eg] Scand, M E, fr ON egg, cogn w O E æg (whence M E ai), & w O H G ai, G imo egjom*, Aryan egjom*, 'egg', cp Lat ovum, 'egg' See ovum 1 a A rounded body, having a thin, brittle shell or an outer elastic coat, produced by birds, some reptiles, fish &c, containing the germ from which a new individual of the species is developed, ovum, hence, b the egg of a bird, esp of domestic fowl, as an article of food eggs and bacon, a poached egg &c Phrs to put all one's eggs into one basket, risk everything on one enterprise, to teach one's grandmother to suck eggs, instruct one who knows more than oneself, (colloq) a bad egg, a worthless person, (fig) in the egg, undeveloped, in the first stages, egg and anchor, egg and dart (archit), form of moulding consisting of an egg shaped ornament, alternating with one in form of spear head 2 (biol) Female reproductive cell in animals and plants
- egg (II), vb trans M E eggen, fr ON egga, 'to provoke, incite' Cogn w edge (II) (usually) To egg on, to incite, urge to egg a person on to do something
- egg-cup, n Small cup for holding a boiled egg at table
- egger, n [1 éger, 2 éger] Etymol unknown. Popular name of various moths, the larvae of which are destructive to foliage of trees &c
- egg-flip, egg-nog, n. Drink composed of eggs beaten up in milk, with sugar, and wine or spirits
- eggler, n [1 églér, 2 églér] (province) Itinerant buyer of, and dealer in, eggs
- egg-nog See egg-flip
- egg-plant, n An East Indian plant, with egg-shaped, purple fruit, eaten as a vegetable, the aubergine
- egg-shaped, adj Having somewhat the form of an egg, ovoid
- egg-shell, n Thin, brittle shell forming outer covering of a bird's egg Egg shell china, a kind of thin, transparent china
- egg-spoon, n Small spoon for eating a boiled egg out of its shell
- egg-tooth, n Small projection on unhatched bird's beak, with which it chips its way out of the shell
- eglantine, n [1 églantine, 2 églantine], fr fr, fr O Fr aglier & -ino, connected w Lat acus, 'needle' See acute The sweet-brier
- ego, n [1 égo, 2 égo] Lat ego, 'I', cogn w I That part of the individual which thinks consciously, contrasted with non ego
- egoism, n. [1 égoïsme, 2 égoïsme] Prec & -ism 1 (philos) Doctrine that self interest is the spring and motive of human action 2 a State or habit of mind in which self is the main preoccupation, self-centredness, selfishness, concentration of mind on one's own interests and advantage, reverse of altruism
- egoist, n [1 égoïste, 2 égoïste] ego & -ist 1 One who holds the philosophical doctrine of egoism 2 One whose mind is excessively centred in himself and his own interests
- egoistic(al), adj [1 égoïstik(al), 2 égoïstik(al)] Prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to an egoist, or to egoism
- egoistically, adv Prec & -ly In an egoistic manner
- egotism, n [1 égotisme, 2 égotisme] ego & -ism w intrusive 1 Habit of thinking and talking too much about oneself, self conceit, egotism
- egotist, n [1 égotiste, 2 égotiste] See prec & -ist One given to egotism
- egotistic(al), adj [1 égotist(al), 2 égotist(al)] Prec & -ic & -al Inclined to exalt and dwell on oneself, and one's doings
- egotistically, adv Prec & -ly In an egotistic manner
- egotize, vb intrans [1 égotiser, 2 égotiser] See egotism & -ize (rare) To play the egotist
- egregious, adj [1 égrégus, 2 égrégus], fr Lat egregius, 'distinguished, excellent, surpassing', orig 'chosen from the herd', fr e- & gregi, stem of grex, 'a herd, flock' See gregarious & -ous (now only in unfavourable sense) Distinguished from the rest of a class or group by undesirable qualities, remarkable for possession of bad qualities, notorious, outstandingly bad an egregious fool, egregious folly, error &c
- egregiously, adv Prec & -ly In an egregious manner
- egregiousness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being egregious
- egress, n [1 égres, 2 égres], fr Lat egressus, 'going away, departure, disembarking, digression', fr P P type of egredior, 'come out, ascend, digress, to surpass, exceed'. See e- & gradus 1 The act of going or coming out 2 The power or right of going or coming out 3 Way out, exit
- egression, n [1 égressum, 2 égressum], fr Lat egressio (em), 'a going or coming out, a digression' Prec & -ion The act of going or coming out
- egret, n [1 égrèt, 2 égrèt], fr O Fr egrette, angrelle, dimin of O Fr ogron, a variant form of O Fr havron See heron. 1 A Name of the lesser white heron or of other species of small herons which have long, delicate, white tail and back feathers during the breeding season, b a plume of these feathers, an egrette, qv 2 The soft, feathery seed crown of thistles, dandelions &c
- Egyptian, adj & n [1 égyptien, 2 égyptien], fr gypt (& -ian), fr Lat, fr Gk Aígyptios, 'the river Nile, Egypt' 1 adj Pertaining to Egypt 2 n a A native of Egypt, b (archaic) a gipsy, c (colloq) an Egyptian cigarette
- Egyptologist, n [1 égyptologist, 2 égyptologist] Next word & -ist A student of Egyptology
- Egyptology, n [1 égyptologie, 2 égyptologie] gypt & -logy The study of Egyptian antiquities, architecture &c
- eh, interrog interj [1 ä, 2 ei] a = What did you say? (not polite), b = don't you agree with me?
- eider, n [1 ider, 2 oida] Scand, Swed eider, O N edder, genit of eddr A large, wild duck, genus Somateria, living on the sea coasts in northern Europe &c, also eider-duck
- eider-down, n a The fine, soft down of the eider duck, b a bed quilt stuffed with eider-down
- eidograph, n [1 idograph, 2 idograph], fr Gk eidos, 'form, appearance', cogn w Gk idein, 'to see', fr the base weid-* &c, 'to see, know', qv under iden & wit, & -graph. An instrument for reproducing drawings on larger or smaller scale
- eidolon, n [1 idolon, 2 idolon], Gk eidolon, 'an image, phantom, idea' See idol. A phantom, apparition
- eight, adj & n [1 ät, 2 et] M E eight, O E achta, cogn w O H G, O L G ohlo, O Fr achta, O X atta, Goth ohlou cp L et, octo, Gk okto, 'eight', also O Ir ocht, n, lit acht Seri oid aidu 1 adj One more than seven, one less than nine 2 n a The figure representing the number eight 8, Roman viii, b a group set, team &c of eight The Eight, inter-collegiate boat-races at Oxford and Cambridge with eight oarsmen in each boat. Phrs figure of eight, figure cut on the ice by a skater, a piece of eight, a Spanish coin, dollar, of the value of 8 reals eighteen, adj. & n [1 átén, 2 estín] ME ehtere, eiztelene, OE eahltere, eahltere eight & -teen Eight plus ten eighteenth, adj. & n [1 átéth, 2 estín] Prec & -th Following seventeen others in a series eightth, adj. & n [1 átth, 2 estp] OE eahthepe, ME ehlepe, eslepe, op OHG ahtudo, ON áhtundi, Goth ahtuda eight & -th a adj. Following seven others in a series bn eighth part eightthly, adv Prec & -ly In the eighth place of a series eightieth, adj. & n [1 átéth, 2 éstip] Next word & -eth Following 79 of a series eighty, adj. & n [1 át, 2 ésti] ME ehht, OE eahhtig Cp OHG ahtozug eight & -ty (II) a adj. Ten times eight, b n, the number equal to eight times ten Phr the eighties (of such and such a century), the years eighty to eighty-nine inclusive eirenecon, n [1 íreñkon, 2 aifñskøn] fr Gk εἰρήνη, 'peaceful', fr εἰρήνη, 'peace'. Etymol uncertain Proposal, pronouncement, tending to, enjoining, peace, esp one issued by ecclesiastical authority eisteddfod, n [1 ástédhvod, 2 eistédvød] Welsh 'session', fr eistedd, 'to sit' Annual assembly of Welsh bards, held in various places, to preserve and encourage Welsh music, literature &c either, adj., pron., & adv [1 ídher, édhher, 2 díðs, íðs] ME eiper, eizper, OE ēgðer, ēgðwæper, fr ē-gihwæper*, fr Gmc aw*, 'ever, every' (see aye), & gihwæpar*, 'each' See whether 1 adj. a One of two et on either side of the table, either half of the cake, b each of two things curtains hanging on either side of the window 2 pron One of two things either will do 3 adv, conj a Implying a choice of alternatives either one thing or the other, b (with negative) also, together with another if he does not come I shall not either ejaculate, vb trans [1 ejákulát, 2 idžækju-let], fr Lat ejaculāt(-um), PP type of Lat ejaculārī, 'to shoot out, throw out', fr e- & jaculārī, 'to throw, hurl, cast, to assail, to aim at, strive for', fr jaculum, 'a dart, javelin', fr jacere, 'to throw' See jactitation 1 To pronounce suddenly, exclaim 2 To eject, discharge (liquids) suddenly ejaculation, n [1 ejákuláshun, 2 idžækju-let] Prec & -ation 1 The act of ejaculating 2 Something ejaculated, a a sudden exclamation, abrupt cry, b liquid &c suddenly ejected ejaculatory, adj [1 ejákulátóri, 2 idžækju-let] ejaculate & -ory 1 Of the nature of an ejaculation, pronounced swiftly and abruptly 2 (of duets) Fitted to the purpose of ejecting or throwing out eject (I), vb trans [1 ejekt, 2 idžekt], fr Lat eject(-um), PP type of Lat ejicere, 'to cast or drive out, expel, to rush out', fr e- & jacere, 'to throw' See jet & jactitation 1 a To turn, fling, out, dismiss, send off or away, cause removal of eject an agitator from a meeting, b specif (law) to dispossess, evict from property 2 To give or send out, discharge, emit to eject smoke &c eject (II), n [1 ejekt, 2 idžekt], fr prec Something inferred as existing in the consciousness of another ejection, n [1 ejekshun, 2 idžekshun] eject (I) & -ion The act of ejecting, estate or process of being ejected ejective, adj [1 ejektiv, 2 idžektiv] eject (I) & -ive 1 Pertaining to ejection, causing ejection 2 Pertaining to an eject ejectment, n [1 ejektment, 2 idžektment] eject (I) & -ment a Ejection, b (legal) an action for the recovery, possession, of land ejector, n [1 ejektor, 2 idžektor] eject (I) & -or One who, that which, ejects, specif, device for ejecting objects, as that part of the mechanism of a breech-loading rifle or gun which throws out the cartridge after discharge eke (I), adv [1 ek, 2 ik] OE ēac, ME ēke, ēc, cogn w OHG ouh, OLG oc, O Fris āc, ON auk, Goth aul, 'also', Gmc auk-*, cogn w eke (II) (archaic) Also, moreover A trainband captain eke was he, Of famous London town (Cowper) eke (II), vb trans ME ēlen, fr OE ēac(i)an, 'to increase', cogn w OHG ouhōn, ON auka, Goth aukan, 'to grow, increase', also w OE feccan, ēcan, 'to increase', fr aukjan* Cp Lat augēre, Sort dyas, 'power', O Ir ōg, 'whole, entire', Lith augu, 'grow', Lett augst, 'high', aulis, 'high' Aryan base aug-, aweg-, awog-*, 'to increase', whence also Sort vaksayati, 'grows', Gk αἰεῖν, 'increase' (fr auwela-*), Goth wahjan, 'to grow' See wax (III), auction, augment To eke out, to increase, add to, supplement, spin out to eke out one's livelihood

-el See -le elaborate (I), adj [1 eláborat, 2 eláborit], fr Lat elaborāt(-um), PP type of elaborāre, 'to exert oneself, endeavour, to labour on, work out', fr e- & laborāre, 'to work, labour, strive' See labour (II) Worked out in much detail, complicated an elaborate design, elaborate directions, an elaborate dinner elaborate (II), vb trans [1 eláborāt, 2 eláborit] See prec a To work out, produce by physical or mental work, b to design or execute in detail, to add detail, develop, make more elaborate just elaborate your proposals a little elaborately, adv [1 elaborath, 2 eláboritli] elaborate (I) & -ly In an elaborate manner elaborateness, n [1 eláboratnes, 2 eláboritnes] elaborate (I) & -ness The quality of being elaborate elaboration, n [1 eláboráshun, 2 eláboritshun] elaborate (II) & -ion The act or process of elaborating, of adding detail to, improving to spend time on the elaboration of a scheme elaborative, adj [1 elaborativ, 2 eláborativ] elaborate (II) & -ive Tending to elaborate elaeo-, pref, fr Gk elaion, 'olive oil, oil', see olive & oil, used to form compounds, as elaeometer [1 eléometer, 2 élomítr] instrument for measuring the density and purity of oils elan, n [1 élan, 2 eláf] Fr, 'impetus, impetuosity', fr vb lancer, 'to throw', e- & lancer, orig, 'to throw a lance, to throw' See lance, launch (I) Dash, impetuosity, vigour, enthusiasm eland, n [1 éland, 2 éland] Du eland, 'elk' Cp NHG elenther The largest of South African antelopes, Taurotragus oryx, horned and of very heavy build elapse, vb intrans [1 elaps, 2 élaps], fr Lat elaps(-um), PP type of Lat elabi, 'to slip away, glide away, escape, to pass, disappear', fr e- & labi, 'to slide, slip, to glide, pass, away' See lapse (of time) To pass, slip past, glide away elastic (I), adj [1 elastik, eláshstik, 2 éléstik, éléstik], fr Gk elastik(-ós), 'spontaneous, impulsive', fr elaunein, 'to drive, set in motion, to expel, strike, harass', fr ela um-ō*, op Gk elaen, 'to drive', Lat alacer, 'active', Goth alyan, 'zeal' See alacrity 1 a (of solids, gases, liquids) Having the property of resilience, tending to return to original shape, size, position, after being submitted to pressure or extension, capable of expansion, the typically elastic substance is rubber, b (of non material things) capable of adaptation, not rigid and limited let us make our regulations as elastic as possible 2 Flexible, yielding, pliant, springy an elastic cane, bones &c 3 (in moral sense) a Adaptable, buoyant, recovering easily from depression elastic temperament, b complaisant, easy, accommodating, not too scrupulous his sense of honour was rather elastic, he was blessed or cursed with an elastic conscience elastic (II), n, fr prec Cord or ribbon, manufactured from cotton, silk &c, with strands of rubber elastically, adv [1 olástikah, 2 éléstikah] elastic (I) & -al & -ly To so elastic state or condition or manner elasticity, n [1 élastisiti, 2 éléstisiti] elastic (I) & -ity The property of being elastic, resilience (in material and moral senses) elate (I), vb trans [1 elát, 2 élét], fr Lat elāt(-um), PP type of Lat efferre, 'to bring or carry out, to utter, publish, to raise, lift up, elevate, to rise, advance, be haughty', lat, is fr ilāt*, fr base el* See tolerate, thole To pot into high spirits, encourage, make proud elated by success &c elate (II), adj See prec Proud, uplifted in mind, elated elater, n [1 élater, 2 elaté], fr Gk elater, 'driver', fr elaunein, 'to drive', op elastic 1 (hot) A minute elastic filament in certain lowly organized plants, such as the liverworts &c, which disperses the ripe spores 2 (zool) The typical genus of the family Elateridae, which includes the click beetles &c elaterium, n [1 élaterium, 2 élaterium] Lat, fr Gk elaterion, neut sing of elateris, 'driving' See prec (mod) A strongly purgative substance obtained from the squirting or wild cucumber, used in cases of dropsy &c elation, n [1 éléshun, 2 éléshun], fr Lat elatiō(-em), 'a carrying out, a lifting up', fig 'transport, passion, exaltation, pride, elation', fr Lat elāt(-us), see elate, & -ion. The state of being elated, high spirits, exaltation, proud satisfaction elbow (I), n [1 élbō, 2 élbou] ME elbowe, fr OE elboga, 'elbow' Cp NHG ellenbogen, Du elleboog, ON el(h)boog, fr Gmc alan o*, 'the forearm', & hogo* n, a bow, curve See ell, bow (I) 1 o The joint between the forearm and upper arm, esp the pointed exterior of this Phr out of one's elbow, close to, more point to your elbow, expression of good wishes, b corresponding part of a sleeve Phr out at elbow, shabby, poverty-stricken 2 Anything shaped, bent, like an elbow, as a sharp bend in a pipe &c elbow (II), vb trans, fr prec To push, shove, thrust, with, or as with, the elbows to elbow one's way through a crowd, to elbow a person out of the way elbow-chair, n A chair with raised arms on which the elbows of the person sitting in it may rest elbow-grease, n Stronuous activity in rubbing and polishing elbow-room, n Space enough to move in elchee, n [1 élché, 2 élif] Turk elchi, 'representative of an il, a named tribe', hence 'an envoy' An ambassador, envoy eld, n [1 eld, 2 eld] ME elde, OE ēld, 'age', ep OHG ēli, alti, OLG ēld, ON elli, fr Gmc ald i*, 'age', fr ald*, 'old' See old (archaic) A Old age, b antiquity, days of yore, former times elder (I), adj & n [1 élder, 2 élda] OE eldre, 'older', ME eldre See old & -er, comper suff 1 adj (of two in same family) Born earlier, older, senior the elder brother, the elder of the two 2 n a (pl) Those of an earlier generation to oblige one's elders, b person with claims to respect and authority by reason of age and experience elder (II), n [1 élder, 2 élda] OE eldre, eldre ep MLG alder, alder. A genus, Sambucus, of trees and shrubs, with a flat clusters of white flowers which have a powerful, sickly odour Also called shin &c elder-berry, n The dark purple fruit of the elder elder-berry wine, n Wine made from elderberries elderliness, n [1 eliderines, 2 eliderinas] Next word & -ness The state of being elderly elderly, adj [1 elideri, 2 elideri] elder (I) & -ly Oldish, fairly old, approaching old age eldership, n [1 eldership, 2 eldersip] elder (I) & -ship The office of older in one of the Presbyterian Churches eldest, adj [1 eldest, 2 eldest] My eldest, O E eldesta, eldesta See old & -est. Now only used of first born, or oldest survivor, of a family of brothers and sisters eldest son, daughter, brother &c

El Dorado, n [1 el dorádō, 2 el dorádō] Span, 'the golden (country)' See dorado An imaginary country or city of gold, hence, on ideal land of wealth and plenty eldritch, adj [1 eldrich, 2 eldrich] Origm doubtful (Scots) [Ucanny, terrifying, hideous] Eleatic, adj [1 eleatik, 2 eleatik] fr Elea (Velia), ancient Greek colony in Italy Of, pertaining to, a school of Greek philosophy of the 6th cent B.C., of whom the principal doctrine was the unity of being, and its chief exponent Parmenides elecampans, n [1 elekampān, 2 elekampān] fr Mod Lat enula campana, fr Lat inula (campana), 'elecampans', metathesis fr Gk helénion, 'elecampans', fr hellos, 'a marsh, marshy ground', *perh. fr elios, oogn w Scrt sarad, 'lake, pool', & w O E sol, 'mud, muddy pool', see sully, the second element is prob L Lat. campana, 'a bell', see campanula, or fr Lat campana, 'of the fields', see champagne. A perennial, herbaceous plant with rayed yellow flowers, its pungent, aromatic root was formerly much used as a tonic drug and as a sweetmeat elect (I), vb trans & intrans [1 elék, 2 elék] fr Lat elect (um), P.P. type of eliger, 'to choose, pick out, to pluck up, weed', fr e- & legere, 'to gather, collect, to gather, pick, to extract, remove, to select, to behold, view, observe, to read' See legend, legible, lecture 1 trans To choose, select (a person for an office), by vote to elect a member of Parliament, a chairman &c to elect a person to the presidency, or to be president In this sense the word implies not merely choosing, but also appointing, a person to a post or office 2 intrans To decide, make up one's mind, to do something he elected to remain at home elect (II), adj See pre Specially selected, chosen, marked out, elected to some office &c, the word generally implies that the person elected has not yet entered upon the duties of his office, e.g. bishop elect, one not yet consecrated, and enthroned, bride elect, lady about to be, but not yet married elect (III), n, fr pre Chosen person, one selected for some particular position or privilege (esp. by God) God's elect, the home of the elect election, n [1 elékshun, 2 elékshun], fr Lat.

electio (em), 'choice, selection', fr elect (ue), 'chosen, selected' elect (I) & -ion The act of electing, state of being elected, specul. a (theol.) the predestination of certain persons to salvation in accordance with the will of God by election and grace, b (polit.) general election, election of members of Parliament by all parts of the country, by electors, elect on of member of Parliament to a single seat that has fallen vacant electioneer, vb intrans [1 elékshunér, 2 elékshunér] Pre & -or (polit.) To work on behalf of a candidate's election for Parliament

electioneering, n [1 elékshunéring, 2 elék shunéring] Pre & -ing Act of canvassing for votes speaking in public, and other wise promoting, the election of a particular candidate for Parliament elective, adj [1 eléktriv, 2 eléktriv] elect (I) & -ive 1 a (of an office &c) Elected, conferred, awarded by a process of election, b (of a body) constituted chosen, by election 2 Having the power to elect, for the purpose of electing an elective body, body of electors 3 (chem) Electric affinity, tendency in substances to combine with others electively, adv Pre & -ly In an elective manner

elector, n [1 eléktror, 2 eléktror] elect (I) & -or 1 One who elects, has the right to elect, specif. a one entitled to vote for a candidate for Parliament, b member of an electoral body, charged with selection of a candidate for a post or office 2 (hist, cap.) One of the princes of the ancient German or Holy Roman Empire who elected the Emperor (811 to 1803) electoral, adj [1 eléktroral, 2 eléktroral] Pre & -al 1 Pertaining to an elector or to election Electoral college, U.S.A., the body of Presidential electors of a State or of these bodies united 2 Pertaining to a German elector or electorate. Electoral cap, one of scarlet and ermine worn by the Electors, Electoral Prince, an Elector electorate, n [1 eléktrorat, 2 eléktrorat] elect & -ate 1 The whole body of those entitled to vote at Parliamentary elections 2 Office, jurisdiction, or territories of a German Elector electress, n [1 eléktrés, 2 eléktrés] elector & -ess The wife or widow of a German Electoral Prince

electric (I), adj [1 eléktrik, 2 eléktrik], fr Lat electrica, applied by William Gilbert (1544-1603) to substances which, like amber, attract other substances when rubbed, fr Gk. elektron, 'amber' See electron

1 Charged with, produced by, worked with, producing electricity electric lamp, iron, railway &c, worked by electricity, electric light, produced by electricity, electric shock Phrs electric blue, a brilliant blue, electric eel, a freshwater, eel-like fish, Gymnotus, found in S. America, capable of giving an electric shock, electric ray, torpedo fish, with same power as the electric eel, electric seal, trade name for rabbit fur dyed and treated to imitate true seal skin 2 (fig) Electrical, q.v., b electric (II), n, fr pre (obsolesc) A substance which can be electrified by friction, and which is a non-conductor of electricity.

electrical, adj [1 eléktrikal, 2 eléktrikal] electro (I) & -al. 1 Pertaining to, having to do with, electricity, b (fig) producing sudden and striking effect upon the mind electrically, adv Pre & -ly By means of electricity electrician, n [1 eléktrishun, 2 eléktrishun] electro (I) & -ian A student of electricity, b a mechanic who makes, manages, repairs, electro machinery electricity, n [1 eléktrishiti, 2 eléktrishiti] electro (I) & -ity A form of energy, the ultimate nature of which is unknown, exhibited in various phases as heat, light, chemical change, and mechanical power, b science which deals with these phenomena, c (colloq) supply of electricity in form of current for lighting, power &c electrification, n [1 eléktrifikashun, 2 elék trifikashun] See next word & -fication The act or process of electrifying, state of being electrified electrify, vb trans. [1 eléktrifai, 2 eléktrifai] electro & -fy 1 To charge with electricity 2 To introduce electricity as motive power to electrify a railway system 3 (fig) To startle, rouse, to cause sudden excitement in to electrify an audience electrize, vb trans [1 eléktriz, 2 eléktriz] electro & -ize Electrify electro-, pref Form of Gk. elektron, 'amber', used in compounds See electron. Pertaining to, produced by, electricity electro-biology, n [1 eléktró bíólógí, 2 elék tró bíólógí] The science of electricity in relation to living organisms electro-chemistry, n [1 eléktró kímístí, 2 elék tró kímístí] That branch of science which deals with the chemical changes produced by electricity electrocute, vb trans [1 eléktróút, 2 elék tróút], fr electro-, on the anal. of execute.

To put to death by means of electricity (specif. as capital punishment) electrocution, n [1 eléktróútshun, 2 elék tróútshun] Formed on anal. of execution Execution by electricity electrode, n [1 eléktród, 2 eléktród], fr electro- & Gk hodos, 'way, path, track', a voyaging, manner, method, system', see hodometer. Either of the two terminating points of a conductor from which an electric current passes into another medium See anode & cathode electro-dynamics, n [1 eléktró dinámiks, 2 eléktró dinámiks] Branch of physics dealing with all the phenomena of electricity in action electro-knetics, n [1 eléktró kinétiaks, 2 eléktró kinétiaks] The branch of physics which deals with electricity in motion, op electrodynamics electrolite, n [1 eléktrólítér, 2 eléktrólítér] Formed fr electro- on anal. of chandelier Hanging support for electric lamps, resembling a chandelier in form electrolyse, vb trans [1 eléktrólíz, 2 elék trólíz], fr next word To decompose a liquid by electricity electrolysis, n [1 eléktrólízis, 2 eléktrólízis] fr electro- & Gk lysis, 'a setting free, releasing, atonement, dissolution', fr lueri, 'to loose, unfasten, dissolve' See cognates under loose (I) Chemical decomposition by means of electric action electrolyte, n [1 eléktrólít, 2 eléktrólít] Substance decomposed by electric action, solution carrying an electric current.

electrolytic, adj [1 eléktrólítik, 2 eléktró lítik] Of, pertaining to, electrolysis.

electro-magnet, n [1 eléktró mágnét, 2 elék tró mágnét] Magnet which owes its power of attraction to an electric current passing through the wire wound round it electro-magnetism, n [1 eléktró mágnétizm, 2 eléktró mágnétizm] Pre & -ism A Magnetic force produced by means of electricity, b the study of this electro-metallurgy, n [1 eléktró metálarí, 2 eléktró metálarí] Branch of metal-lurgy in which electricity is used in various processes, e.g. smelting, welding &c electrometer, n [1 eléktróméter, 2 eléktró métr] electro- & meter An instrument for measuring minute differences of voltage electromotion, n [1 eléktrómóshun, 2 elék trómóshun] electro- & motion. A Motion of the electric current, b motive power obtained from electricity electromotive, adj [1 eléktrómótv, 2 elék trómótv] electro- & motive Of, pertaining to, electromotion, esp electro- motive force, abbr E.M.F., force set up by difference of potential in electric circuit, producing electric current electron, n [1 eléktron, 2 eléktron] Gk elektron, 'amber, also, a compound of gold and silver' Cp Gk. elektron, 'beaming, the sun', Elektra (pers name) Etymol doubtful 1 Alloy of gold and silver used by the ancients, also electron 2 Unit of negative electricity, one of the two elementary constituents of all varieties of matter, the positive unit being proton; an electron is calculated as 1/50,000 of the diameter of an atom electro-negative, adj [1 eléktró négatí, 2 eléktró négatí] (physical chem) Charged with negative electricity electro-plate (I), vb trans [1 eléktró plát, 2 eléktró plát] To coat metal with silver by an electric process electro-plate (II), n [1 eléktró plát, 2 eléktró plát] Metal articles, e.g. spoons, forks, dishes &c, coated with silver by means of an electric process electro-polar, adj [1 eléktró pólar, 2 eléktró pólar] electro- & polar Having electrical polarity, charged positively at one end and negatively at the other elude, vb trans [1 élúd, 2 ilyúd], fr Lat eludere, 'to cease playing, to escape or parry (a blow)', to deceive, frustrate, to make sport of, fr e- & ludere, 'to play'. See judicious 1 To escape from by strategy or guile, to dodge, avoid being caught by to elude pursuit, one's pursuers, payment, b to escape the mind or perceptions to elude observation, the meaning eludes me elusion, n [1 élúzhun, 2 ilyúžan], fr Lat elūsio-(um), PP type of eludere, 'to stop playing, to escape, to deceive' See elude & -ion The act of eluding elusive, adj [1 élúsv, 2 ilyúsv] See prec & -ive 1 a Inclined to evade, escape, elude an elusive person, b tending to escape the memory, difficult to grasp or retain an elusive argument 2 Tending to allow escape, not tenacious an elusive memory elusively, adv Prec & -ly In an elusive manner elusiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being elusive elusory, adj [1 élúsr, 2 ilyúsr] See elusion & -ory (of mental impressions) Tending to elip away, elusive elvan, n [1 élvan, 2 élvan] Origin unknown A kind of crystalline rock, sometimes appearing as veins in granite elver, n [1 élver, 2 élva], fr eel fare See eel & fare (III) A young eel elvish, adj [1 élvish, 2 élv] Variant of elfish

Elysian, adj [1 élizian, 2 élizian] See next word & -an Pertaining to, in, Elysium

Elysium, n [1 élizum, 2 élizum] Lat, fr Gk Élysion (pléion), 'Elysian (plain)' Elymol doubtful 1 (Gk mythol) The home of the blessed after death Hence, 2, a place or state of complete happiness elytron, elytron, n, pl elytra [1 élitrum, -on, a, 2 élitrum, -on, -a] Lat, fr Gk elytron, 'sheath, case', fr eluein, 'to roll round, unfold', q v under volute The hard, outer wing-case of coleopterous insect elzevir, adj & n [1 élzovër, 2 élzivrä] 1 adj a (of book) Printed by the 17th cent Dutch printers of the name, b (typog) of type used by, or similar to that used by, the Elzevirs. 2 n A book printed by the Elzevirs em-, pref Form of en-, used before p, b, m em, n [1 em, 2 em] (typog) Unit of measurement of printed matter on page, line & o, square of the body of a type, originally taken from space occupied by the letter m as printed emaciate, vb trans [1 émáshiat, 2 iméshiat], fr Lat emaciā-(um), PP type of emaciare, 'to waste away, make lean', fr e- & maciare, 'to make thin', fr macies, 'thinness', cp macer, 'thin', which is cogn w Gk makrós, 'long', also w OE mager, OHG magar, 'lean' Possibly also connected w Goth mag, OE mæg, 'I can, may' See may, macerate, meagre (very rare as vb) To reduce in weight, to cause to become excessively thin emaciated, adj [1 émáshiat, 2 iméshiat], fr PP of prec (of persons) Very thin, wasted and reduced in flesh by starvation or disease emaciation, n [1 émáshian, 2 iméshian], fr Lat emaciatio-(um), PP type of emaciare, 'to flow, spring from, proceed from', fr e- & manāre, 'to flow, run, distil, to spread, diffuse', fr mad-nāre*, cogn w madere, 'to drip' Cp Gk madós, 'become moist, milt', & madarós, 'loose' & o To flow, proceed from, issue forth, have origin in, chiefly a of non material things a subtle influence emanated from him, ideas emanate from the brain, the suggestion, hint, emanated in the first instance from Government circles, b of material things such as odours, fragrance, light, sounds, vapour, heat, c otherwise only in books emanating from a well-known press & o emanation, n [1 émánáshun, 2 émánéshun], fr L Lat émánātiō-(em), 'emanation', prec & -ion Something which emanates, a (material things) odour, vapour, fragrance & o unhealthy emanations from the river mud, b (of moral qualities) influence, outpouring, effluence emanative, adj [1 émánativ, 2 émánativ] emanate & -ive Of the nature of an emanation emancipate, vb trans [1 émánapāt, 2 imánapāt], fr Lat émancipāt-(um), PP type of émancipare, 'to declare (a person) free and independent, liberate a son from paternal authority, to transfer one's authority, to give up, surrender', fr e- & mancipare, 'to transfer property, to dispose of, to give up', fr mancip (is), genit of manceps, 'purchaser', cp mancipium, 'legal purchase, right of ownership' See manciple 1 (Rom law) To release a child from parental control. 2 a To give legal freedom to, set free from bondage or servitude to emancipate slaves, b to release from legal or moral constraint or control to emancipate oneself from the power of sin, from debt, from tedious duties & o emancipated, adj [1 émánapāt, 2 imánapāt], fr PP of prec a Set free from legal compulsion, b set free from political and moral restraint, c (special use) freed from restraint of social convention and custom, hence, unconventional, being a law to oneself an emancipated young woman emancipation, n [1 émánapáshun, 2 imánapáshun] Lat émancipātiō-(em), 'the release (of a son) from parental authority; transfer of property or authority' See prec & -ion The act or process of emancipating, state of being emancipated, setting free from restraint, removal of political or legal disqualifications speech, emancipation of the negro, Catholic emancipation emancipationist, n [1 émánapáshunist, 2 imánapáshunist] See prec & -ist One who advocates emancipation from political or religious disabilities emancipatory, adj [1 émánapáshun, 2 imánapáshun] emancipate & -ory Serving to emancipate emancipist, n [1 émánapist, 2 imánapist] See emancipate & -ist An ex-convict emasculate (I), vb trans [1 émáskūit, 2 imáskūit] Lat émascūlāt-(um), PP type of émascūlare, 'to emasculate' e- & masculus, 'male, manly, bold' See masculine & -ate 1 To deprive of male properties, to castrate 2 (fig) To weaken, deprive of vigour, lessen force of emasculate (II), gen emasculated, adj [1 émáskūit, -stet, 2 imáskūit, -ctia], fr prec Effeminate, lacking physical, moral, or intellectual vigour emasculation, n [1 émáskūlāshun, 2 imáskūlāshun] emasculate & -ion The act of emasculating, state of being emasculated emasculative, adj [1 émáskūlātiv, 2 imáskūlātiv] emasculate & -ive Tending to emasculate emasculatory, adj [1 émáskūlātōn, 2 imáskūlātōn] emasculate & -ory Emasculatory embalm, vb trans [1 embálm, 2 imbálm], fr Fr embaumer em- & balme 1 To preserve (a dead body) from decay by removing viscera and injecting with various preservative and disinfectant substances, originally with balm or other aromatic spices 2 (fig) To preserve memory of, cherish 'Tears eternal that embalm the dead' (Pope), i e preserve their memory 3 To impart a perfume to, make fragrant 'The circumambient air embalmed with flowers' embalment, n [1 embálmment, 2 imbálmment] Prec & -ment The act, or process, of embalming, state of being embalmed embank, vb trans [1 embángk, 2 imbángk] em- & bank (II) To keep within limits (a river & o) by construction of banks, walls & o, to construct a bank for embankment, n [1 embángkment, 2 imbángkment] Prec & -ment 1 The act of embanking, state of being embanked 2 a Structure of stone & o designed to keep a river & o from overflowing, or from washing away its natural banks, specif, The Embankment, particular stretch of road on the embankment of left bank of the Thames in London, b artificial bank, built up to carry a railway line or a road embargo (I), n [1 embárgo, 2 imbárgo], fr Span. embargo, fr em- & Low Lat barra*, fr barra, 'a bar, barrier' See barricade 1 An order of the Admiralty to prevent foreign ships from entering a home port, or to prevent any ships from leaving port 2 Temporary stoppage of trade, or particular branch of trade, by authority of the government to be under an embargo 3 Any prohibition to lay an embargo upon embargo (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To lay (ships, trade) under an embargo 2 To cease by authority of the state, requisition embark, vb trans & intrans [1 embárk, 2 imbárk], fr Fr embarquer, fr Low Lat embarcare, fr am- & barca, 'a small boat' See bar (V) A intrans 1 a To go on board a ship, b to start on journey 2 (fig) To start, to take part in, to engage in to embark upon a venture B trans To receive, take on board a ship to embark passengers and cargo embarkation, o [1 embárkāshun, 2 imárkāshun] See prec & -ation The act of embarking, taking, or going, on board ship embarkation of passengers; b that which is embarked embarras de richesse, n [1 embárah de rāshes, 2 árah de rāshes] Fr See next word Not now used in that language, the phrase in wh. is embarras du choix Superfluity of good things embarrass, vb trans [1 embaras, 2 imbaras], fr Fr embarrasser, fr em- & Span barras, 'bars' See bar (I) 1 a To hinder (movement), encumber, encumber, obstruct to embarrass one's movements, b (fig) special, to cause financial stringency his affairs had become embarrassed through unfortunate speculations 2 To throw into perplexity, cause confusion of mind, put out of countenance, cause feeling of constraint I was much embarrassed at meeting, at a dinner party, the man whose book I had just reviewed embarrassingly, adv [1 embarasāng, 2 imbarasāng] Prec Part of prec & -ly In an embarrassing manner, so as to cause embarrassment embarrassment, n [1 embárasment, 2 imbarárasment] embarrass & -ment 1 The act of embarrassing, state of being embarrassed, a in freedom of movement; b in financial affairs, c in mind, condition of being put out of countenance, awkwardness. 2 That which embarrasses, a cause of difficulty in moving, b source of financial distress, c cause of awkwardness, disconcerting circumstance or situation embassy, n [1 émási, 2 émási], fr O Fr ambassee, fr Low Lat ambascia*, f- Lat ambascia, 'service, duty' See ambassador ambascia, 'service, duty', or honorific, 1 An ambassador's staff, or household, body of persons connected by their duty with him 2 a The official residence of an ambassador in a foreign capital; b the office where he transacts his business 3 a Particular duty or mission with which an ambassador is charged, b any mission, set of negotiations, with which an agent is charged, particular message which he has to deliver embattle (I), vb trans [1 embátl, 2 imbátl] fr O Fr embattiller, fr em- & bataille, 'battle' See battle To prepare for conflict, put in order of draw up for battle (rare except in P.P.) See below embattle (II), vb trans, fr am- & M.E. batal, 'to embattle'. See battlement. To hold battlements on to embattle a wall, tower &c.

embattled, adj [1 embatld, 2 mhretld] PP of prec words a Formed, drawn up, in battle array embattled line, b (her) line formed like the battlements on a tower embay, b trans [1 embá, 2 imbéi] See am- & bay (I) 1 To shelter (a fleet &c) as thou in a bay 2 To form into bays embaymit, n [1 embámit, 2 imbémit] fr prec -ment Formation like that of a bay embed, used, vb trans [1 embéd, 2 imbed] fr u- & bed 1 (of material things) To imple a thing deeply and firmly in some other substance, so that it remains wholly or partially surrounded by this to embed a stone in masonry, a thorn embedded in the finger &c 2 (of non material things) To fix deeply in mind, memory, habits &c the facts are embedded for ever in my recollection embellish, trans [1 embelish, 2 imbelish] M.E. embelchen, fr O Fr embellir, Pres stem of embellir, 'beautify', fr em- & bel, 'beautifully' Lat bellus, 'pretty' See beauty, be 1 To render more beautiful, improve appearance of, to adorn, add ornaments 2 To touch up, improve (a story, nature &c) by adding striking incidents, hues of humour, pathos &c, generally, under more interesting, often at expense of veracity embellishment, n [1 embelishment, 2 imbelishment] v & -ment 1 The act of embellishing state of being embellished. 2 That which embellishes, adornment, artistic touch ember, n [1 em, 2 émba] O.E. Ember, 'embers', as M.E. emmeres, op O.N. emmyra, O emura Glowing fragments of wood &c, in a dying fire, embers, usually in pl ember days, n [1 embar, 2 imbar] fr embar, 'round, about', & days, 'course, running', see Regularly occurring days of prayer and fast at four seasons in the Church's year d, Fri, Sat after 1st Sunday in Lent after Whitsun, after Sept 14th (St. Lucy's Day), after Dec 13th (St. Lucy's Day) ember (goose), Narse emmer Sea-bird found in the loon ember-week, n m in which ember days occur embezzle, vb trans [1 embéz, 2 imbez] O Fr embesilles, besil, 'ill treatment' Etymol uncertain convert fraudulently to one's own use entrusted to one's charge embezzlement, n [1 embézlement, 2 imbezlement] Prec & -ment The act of embezzling embezzler, n [1 embézler, 2 imbezler] See prec & -er One who embezzles embitter, vb trans [1 embitter, 2 imbit] fr em- & bitter (a) To render bitter (of persons) To arc morose, disappointed, in, render feelings, relations &c (of the mind, to render worse with bitterness, aggravated, make more embitterment, n [1 embitterment, 2 imbitment] Prec & -ment The act or process of embittering, state of being embittered emblazon, vb trans [1 emblazon, 2 imblazon] em- & blazon To portray, as a shield &c with a coat of arms, to adorn proclaim fame of, extol 2 (fig) To emblazonment, n [1 emblazonment, 2 imblazonment] Prec & -ment Act of emblazoning, state of being emblazoned emblazoning, 2 That which is emblazoned emblazonry, n [1 emblazonry, 2 imblazonry] em- & blazonry Blazéleznri emblem (I), n [1 émblem, 2 émblem] fr Lat, fr Gk emblēma, 'something inserted or unaid', cogn em 'to throw in', put in, to make an unaid', fr em- & balloin, 'to throw, hurl, to strike', cp blēma, 'a throw (of dice)', a shot', & see ballistics Visible representation of an idea or quality, a symbol, a symbolic figure or device emblem (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To be an emblem of, be typical of emblematic, adj [1 émblematik, 2 émblik] fr Gk emblematik, stem of emblēma See prec & -ic Of the nature of an emblem, symbolical emblematically, adv [1 émblematikali, 2 émblikali] Prec & -al & -ly By means of an emblem emblemist, n [1 émblematist, 2 émbli- matist] See emblematic & -ist One who devises emblems or symbols emblemize, vb trans [1 émblematiz, 2 émbli- matiz] See prec & -ize To represent something by means of a emblem emblem(s), n [1 émblem(s), 2 émbli- maut(s)] fr O Fr emblemment, fr emblaer, 'to sow', fr Low Lat impladare, fr om- & Low Lat bladum for ablitum, 'carried away', that which was removed, or carried off the land, hence, by specializing process, 'wheat' Cp Fr b'e Lat litum, used as PP of ferre, 'hear', is for lit*, fr base tol*, qv under tolerate (usually pl) Crops sown on arable land, profits of such crops embodiment, n [1 embodiment, 2 imbodiment] See next word & -ment a The act of embodying, b that which embodies, or is embodied embody, vb trans [1 embodi, 2 imbodi] em- & body 1 To enclose in a body, to give a corporeal form to an embodied spirit 2 To give concrete form to, express a thought, emotion, attitude of mind &c in a concrete work of art to embody religious aspirations in a cathedral, in 'Paradise Lost' Milton embodied the ripe fruits of his genius, to embody one's views in a speech 3 a To make part of an organized body in 1870 the various German states were all embodied in the Empire, b to collect together, and include in a single instrument the book of statutes of a university embodies all the rules and ordinances under which it works embog, vb trans [1 embog, 2 imbog] em- & bog a To cause to become stuck in a bog, b (fig) to cause to become entangled in intellectual difficulties embolden, vb trans [1 embolden, 2 imbolden] em- & bold & -en To give courage and confidence to embolism, n [1 embolism, 2 émholizem] fr Gk. embol (os), 'something put in, a wedge', & -ism, cogn. em 'to throw, thrust in', am- & balloin, 'throw' See ballistics (med) Clot of blood obstructing a blood vessel embouppant, n [1 embouppant, 2 ébbupwé] fr en for en bon point, 'in good condition', hence n, 'stoutness' Cp Chaucer's in good point Stoutness, portliness of figure embosom, vb trans [1 embosom, 2 imbosom] em- & bosom a To take into one's arms, press to one's breast, b (of hills, woods &c) to surround, shut in emboss, vb trans [1 embos, 2 imbos] fr O Fr See em- & boss 1 To cover surface of, with designs in raised work, to adorn with figures, designs &c, in relief to emboss an object with a design 2 To execute a design in raised work upon a surface to emboss a pattern on metal embossment, n [1 embossment, 2 imbossment] Prec & -ment a Act of embossing, state of being embossed, b that which is embossed, design in relief embouchure, n [1 embouchure, 2 ébbusur] fr, 'mouth of a river, mouthpiece of musical instrument' &c, fr em- & bouche, 'mouth' (see dobouch), & -ure 1 Mouth of a river, estuary 2 a Mouthpiece of musical instrument, b mode of placing lips in playing a wind instrument embow, vb trans [1 embó, 2 embóu] em- & bow (I) (archaic) To bend into form of an arch, or bow embowed, adj [1 embóu, 2 embóu] fr PP of prec 1 Arched, curved, bent like a bow, vaulted 2 (her) Curved or bent like a bow, e.g. a dolphin embowed embowel, vb trans [1 embóuel, 2 im- bauel] fr O Fr emboueler, perh for eboueler em- & bowel Usually disembowel 1 To remove the entrails of, to eviscerate 2 To plunge into, embed in embower, vb trans [1 embóuer, 2 imhauu] em- & bower To enclose, lap round as in a bower a house embowered in trees embrace (I), vb trans [1 embrás, 2 im- bress] M.E. embracen, fr O Fr embracer, 'to take into one's arms', em- & O Fr braz, 'arm', fr Lat brachium See brace 1 a (of one person) To take, fold, clasp another in one's arms to embrace one's children, b used absol. of two persons they met and embraced 2 (fig) a To seize, avail oneself of to embrace an opportunity, offer &c, b to adopt to embrace Christianity, c to engage in, set out on to embrace the career of a missionary 3 a To include, comprehend, comprise his studies embraced many subjects, this book embraces the whole field of ancient Greek history, b to take in by perception he embraced the whole scene with one rapid glance embrace (II), n, fr prec A clasp, a hug, close, intimate, folding in the arms embracement, n [1 embrásment, 2 imbrás- ment] embrace (I) & -ment An embrace embracer (L), n [1 embráser, 2 imbráser] embrace (I) & -er One who embraces embracer (II), n, fr O Fr embraceur, 'instigator, corrupter', fr embraser, 'to set on fire, instigate' See em- & brase (law) One guilty of embezzlement embracery, n [1 embráseri, 2 imbráseri] Prec & -y (law) Attempt to corrupt, or influence by corrupt means, a court, jury &c embranchement, n [1 embráshment, 2 imbráshment] em- & branch & -ment A branching or forking out, ramification, esp of a river embrangle, vb trans [1 embrágg, 2 imbrágg] Bogus word, apparently a blend of embrol & entangle To mix up, entangle embrasure, n [1 embrázbur, 2 imbrázur] O Fr embraser, of unknown origin a (archit) Recessed opening, or splay, in interior wall for window or doorway, esp such an opening with sides bevelled so that the aperture is wider inside than outside, b (fort) similar opening in a rampart or fortified wall &c, through which guns &c, can be fired embrocate, vb trans [1 émbrókát, 2 em- broukát] fr Med Lat embrocāt (um), PP type of embrocāre, fr Gk. émbrókātē, 'fomentation', fr émbrókēin, 'to foment', em- & brókēin, 'to water, wet, cause to rain', perh for mregit* Cp Leit mergul, 'to rain gently', mergul, 'rain' To apply liquid remedies, lotions, externally in form of fomentation or by rubbing embrocation, n [1 émbrókashun, 2 émbrá- keishun] Prec & -ation Medicinal lotion, applied as fomentation or by rubbing into an affected part as sprain &c embroider, vb trans & intrans [1 embroider, 2 imbróide] M.E. fr em- & O Fr broder, 'border', 'to work the edge of', fr bord, 'edge, margin' See border A trans 1 To work designs with a needle, in silk, wool &c a to embroider a pattern, b to embroider a handkerchief with a pattern 2 To embellish, touch up, improve (a story &c), by adding fanciful details B intrans To carry out, perform, action of embroidery embroidery, n [1 embroider, 2 imbróderi] fr prec & -y n Ornamentation of fabric by needlework, b (fig) adornment, diversification of colour in nature, by flowers &c embroil, vb trans [1 embróil, 2 embróil], fr Fr embrouiller See em- & broil (II) 1 To draw into, entangle, cause to take part in (hostilities, disturbances &c) to become embroiled in a dispute &c 2 To make confused, bring into disorder, to muddle (business affairs &c) embrouilment, n [1 embróilment, 2 embróilment] See preo & -ment The act of embroiling, state of being embroiled embrown, vb trans [1 embróun, 2 embróun], fr em- & brown To impart a brown colour to, to make brown.

embryo (I), n & adj [1 émbró, 2 émbró], fr Med Lat embryo, fr Gk émbrúon, 'a newborn lamb, an embryo', cogn w bruin, 'to be full, to swell, to burst forth with', brúkkle, '(of Pan) the god of joviality', bruon, 'moss, a cluster of flowers', brúdeis, 'mossy, weedy, budding, flourishing'. Etymol doubtful, but see bryologist 1 n a An organism in the earliest stages of its development before birth, b (of material and non-material things) anything rudimentary, in an early stage of development, Phr in embryo, in an incipient stage, not yet developed 2 adj Rudimentary, not fully developed, embryonic embryo- (II), pref, fr preo Pertaining to an embryo or foetus embryogeny, n [1 émbrójení, 2 émbrójdžení] Preo & -geny a The formation and development of the embryo, b the science treating of this embryology, n [1 émbróloj, 2 émbróldž] embryo & -logy The science of the formation and growth of the embryo embryonic, adj [1 émbrónik, 2 émbrónik], fr Med Lat embryon (see), genit of embryo embryo & -ic. Pertaining to an embryo, resembling this; in an undeveloped state, rudimentary eme, n [1 ém, 2 ím] O E eam, cogn w Du oom, Germ oheim, Lat avunculus Cp atavisim (Soots or provins) Uncle, also friend, gossip emend, vb trans [1 é, eménd, 2 í, iménd], fr Lat emendāre, 'to correct, improve, amend', fr e- & menda, 'a fault, defect, blemish, an error, mistake', cp Sort mindd, 'physical blemish', O Ir mennair, 'blemish' Etymol doubtful, cp amend, fr Lat through Fr To correct a mistake in (a document, text &c), to suggest a reading different from that in text, on the ground that it makes better sense, and is more likely to be the original emendation, n [1 émendášun, 2 ímendéjén], fr Lat emendātion (em), 'a correction, amendment'. Preo & -ation a The act of emending, b an alteration made in a text with a view to restoring what seems likely to have been the original reading emendatory, adj [1 émendatori, 2 ímendatéri], fr Lat emendāt(-um), PP type of emendāre, 'to correct' See preo & -ory Of the nature of an emendation, tending to improve and amend emerald (I), n [1 émerald, 2 ém(ə)rold] ME emeraude, fr O Fr emeralde, emeraude, fr Lat emeraldum, (acc) fr Gk emarádos, máragdos, 'emerald', of Heb origin 1 A precious stone resembling the beryl, of a bright green colour, the Oriental emerald is a rare green variety of corundum, akin to the sapphire 2 The colour of the emerald, a vivid green 3 A variety of printing-type, intermediate in size between minion and nonpareil emerald (II), adj, fr preo a Made of, set with, emeralds an emerald ring &c b pertaining to, resembling, having the colour of, an emerald, Phr Emerald Isle, Ireland, from the colour of its grass and foliage emeraldine, n [1 émeraldín, 2 émraldín] emerald & -ine A kind of dark green dye emerge, vb trans [1 émérj, 2 ímájdž], fr Lat emergere, 'to come forth, rise up, to extricate oneself, get free', fr e- & mergere, 'to dip, immerse, sink, to drive or fix in, to overwhelm' See merge 1 (of persons and material things) a To come into view from obscurity or concealment to emerge from hiding, from retirement &c, b to come out of some enfolding medium, esp from water to emerge from the sea, c (fig) to pass from obscure, or humble circumstances to superior condition, come out of social obscurity many famous men have emerged from poverty and mean surroundings 2 (of non-material things) To come to light, become apparent, become known, to be eluded by inquiry and investigation no new facts emerged as a result of these researches, several striking ideas emerged in the course of his remarks emergence, n [1 émérjens, 2 ímájdžens] Preo & -ence Process of emerging emergency, n [1 émérjensi, 2 ímájdžensi] Preo & -y a sudden, unexpected event or happening, combination of circumstances calling for swift and decided action ready for all emergencies, a useful man in an emergency emergency ration, n Ration of concentrated food &c, issued to troops on active service, only to be used in emergency, also called 'iron ration' emergent, adj [1 émérjent, 2 ímájdžant] Lat emergent(-em), Pres Part of emergere See emerge Arising, coming forth, from that which surrounds or conceals in process of emerging emeritus, adj [1 émérítus, 2 ímérítas] Lat emeritus, 'a veteran, a soldier who has served his time', fr e- & meritus, PP of mereri, 'to earn, gain, acquire, to deserve, be entitled to' See merit Having retired or resigned after long and honourable service emeritus Professor, title conferred by a university on one who has retired from his chair emeroids, n pl [1 émérodz, 2 émérodz] O Fr emmeroides See haemorrhoids (Bibl and obs) emersion, n [1 éméršun, 2 íméršén], fr Lat emersum, PP type of emergere, 'to come forth, rise up, to raise oneself, get clear' See emerge & -ion Process of emerging, specif (astron) the reappearance of a heavenly body after eclipse emery, n [1 éméri, 2 émari], fr O Fr emeril, fr Low Lat emericulum, fr Gk émériz, émuris, 'emery-powder' Cp Gk (a) émuriz, 'to amount with perfumes', émuron, 'perfumed oil', cogn w Goth emaurpr, 'fatness' See emear A very hard, granular variety of corundum, used in the form of powder for grinding and polishing metal emery-bag, n Small bag of emery-powder, used for polishing and sharpening needles, by plunging them into it emery-cloth, -paper, n Cloth or paper with coating of emery powder, for rubbing and polishing metal emetic, adj & n [1 émétik, 2 ímétik], fr Gk émétikós, 'emetico', fr éméō for 'wem-jō', 'vomit' See vomit a adj Causing vomiting, b n, anything which, taken internally, causes vomiting, drug or other substance taken for this purpose éméte, n [1 émüt, 2 ímjüt] or [1 ámft, 2 émft] Fr, fr Lat émētum, -a, PP of émovere, 'to move away, upheave' See emotion, & e- & motion A not serious disorderly rising of the inhabitants of a town or district émigrant, adj & n [1 émigrant, 2 émigrant] Lat émigrant(-em), Pres Part of émigrāre See emigrate 1 adj a In the act of emigrating, about to emigrate, b pertaining to emigrants 2 n One who emigrates émigrate, vb intrans [1 émigrāt, 2 émigrest], fr Lat émigrat(-um), PP type of émigrāre, 'to move away, move out', fr e- & migrāre, 'to move, to change one's position or residence' See migrate a To leave one country or state in order to settle in another, esp in a colony &c, to change one's country of residence permanently many now are compelled to emigrate in order to make a livelihood, b (colloq) to move to a new place of residence (not necessarily in another country) émigration, n [1 émigrášun, 2 émigréjan] Preo & -ion The act of emigrating émigratory, adj [1 émigrātion, 2 émigrestari] émigrate & -ory (of jurds) In the habit of emigrating, migratory émigré, n [1 émigrā, 2 émigrest] (Fr PP) An emigrant, specif, a person compelled to leave France at the time of the Revolution éminence, n [1 émínens, 2 émíns] See next word & -ce 1 Something eminent, lofty, high, something which is above surrounding objects, a hill, cliff, in ground, rising to considerably higher level than that of country round it &c 2 Loftiness, superiority, of position, station, ph, office 'By merit raised to that had eminence' (Milton), a position of eminence in the world, b distinction of character, abilities, attainments, hence celebrity, fame a man eminence in the world of learning &c, his eminence was due to several important discoveries, c (cap) a title of honour given to cardinals in R O Church your his Eminence éminent, adj [1 émínent, 2 émínent], fr Lat émíent(-em), Pres Part of émínere, 'to stand out, project, be exalted', fr e- & mínere, 'to project' 1 adj a Outstanding, distinguished, of high position, position, famous an eminent statesman, soldier (of qualities of mind &c) Outstandingly conspicuous, clearly perceptible a man eminent goodness, impartiality &c, for eminent domain see domain émíently, adv Preo & -ly an eminent manner, esp in sense conspicuously émír, n [1 émér, 2 ímá] Arab amir, 'commander' See amir a Moham-medan title given to an abbot prince, chief &c, in Arabia &c, b descendant of Mohammed, entitled to certain privileges émíssary, n [1 émíšan, 2 émíšan], fr L émíssarius, 'one sent to give' (um), PP type of émítere, 'to give, to give out' See emit & -ary entrusted with delivery of a message, charged with conducting negotiations, of the Devil sinister implication an emissary of the Devil émíssion, n [1 émíšan, 2 émíšan], fr Lat émíssion(-em), 'a giving out', fr émítere (um), PP type of émítere, 'to give, to give out, emit' See e- & -ion 1 The act or process of emitting the emission of light, heat, odour &c, that which is emitted, in various senses (um) See emissive, adj [1 émíšan, 2 émíšan] See preo & -ive Having the property of emitting émít, vb trans [1 émít, 2 émít], fr Lat émítere, 'to give out, emit', fr e- & mítere, 'to send, to issue forth, raus' 1 a To give out, to send forth the sun to emit an odour, emit a sound, b to emit purulent matter to discharge, eject into circulation 2 To issue to emit paper money émítt, n [1 émít, 2 émít] OE émíte, émítt, of ant émíttent, adj & n Part type of Lat émíttent, fr e- & mítt (see), émíttre, 'to send' adj a Having 'soft' See ring and soothing, the property of b (fig) tending to making soft adj 2 n Medicinal mollify, soothing, one which softens substance whences émolument, n [1 émólument, 2 émólument] (um) for émolument, fr exertion, gain, profit, émolument, 'to gain out' advantage had in a mill' See e- & molus, salary, fees, derived from an of emotion, n [1 emóshun, 2 émóʃən], fr Lat émōl (um), P P type of émōtēre, 'to remove move away, shake, upheave', & -ion e- & motion 1 Stirring up, agitation, excite-ment of the feelings I cannot hear that song without emotion 2 Any of the feelings, contrasted with the mental processes of reasoning the feelings of joy, grief, hatred, love, fear &c Emotion, in popular language, refers to feelings arising from the heart, not from a rational activity of the intellect to appeal to the emotions rather than to the reason, a man of strong, feeble, emotions emotional, adj [1 emóshunəl, 2 émóʃə-nəl] Preo & -al 1 Pertaining to, connected with, seated in, addressed to, the feelings or emotions an emotional appeal 2 (of persons) a Having strong emotions, having feelings easily aroused an emotional nature, woman &c, b capable of expressing emotions an emotional actor 3 (of artistic expression) Deeply imbued with emotion, produced under stress of, and expressing strong emotion emotional music, poetry &c emotionalism, n [1 emóshunəlizəm, 2 émóʃə-nəlizəm] Preo & -ism Habit of encouraging and cultivating a highly sensitive, excited state of the feelings emotionalist, n, [1 emóshunəlist, 2 émóʃə-nəlist] emotional & -ist One who is a prey to emotionalism emotionality, n [1 emóshunəlti, 2 émóʃə-nəlti] emotional & -ity State of being emotional, emotional habit of mind emotionalize, vb trans [1 emóshunəlaiz, 2 émóʃə-nəlaiz] emotional & -ize To consider in emotional aspect, to treat emotionally to emotionalize history emotionally, adv [1 emóshunəli, 2 émóʃə-nəli] emotional & -ly In an emotional manner emotionless, adj [1 emóshunles, 2 émóʃə-nəles] emotion & -less Lacking, free from, emotion, not expressing emotion an emotionless nature, an emotionless voice emotive, adj [1 émótv, 2 ímótv], fr Lat émot (um), P P type of émōtēre, 'to remove' &c, & -ive See emotion a Causing, expressing, emotion the emotive side of human nature, b based on inspired by, consideration of emotion the emotive aspect of poetry emotively, adv Preo & -ly In an emotive manner emotivity, n [1 émótviti, 2 ímótviti] emotive & -ity Capacity for emotion, emotional quality empanel, impanel, vb trans [1 empá-nl, 2 ímpá-nl], fr O Fr empaneller See em- & panel. To form, call together, enrol (a jury) emperor, n [1 émpə-ror, 2 émpə-rə] fr O Fr empe-ror, fr Lat imperator, 'a ruler, commander, military commander, emperor', fr im-pēre, 'to hold supreme command', fr im- & parēre, 'to prepare, make ready, to direct, command' See pare & -or 1 The ruler of an empire, one holding supreme authority over more than one kingdom, specif a (hist) the head of the Roman Empire, West or East, and of the later Holy Roman Empire, b the King of England as Emperor of India &c 2 One of various kinds of butterflies, e.g. Purple Emperor, Grey Emperor &c emphasis, n [1 émfásis, 2 émfəsis] Gk emphásis, 'outward appearance, reflection, declaration, significance, emphasis', fr em- & phásis (fr phn & sis), 'accusation, information', fr same base as phainō, 'to show, make visible, appear' (for phn & yo) See phantasm, phrase 1 (of mental attitude) special importance, significance, weight, meaning, moral or emotional value attached to an idea, principle, feeling to lay special emphasis upon the study of languages in education, to place great emphasis upon sacraments in religious life 2 (of the expression of sense of importance &c) Any device or method used for calling special attention to importance of something expressed, or of one part of something compared with the rest, way of rendering specially significant, of calling attention to some particular thing, a (in speech) stress, accent, greater force, or higher pitch, with which a syllable of a word or part of a sentence is uttered to put too much emphasis on the last syllable, b (in pictorial art) special distinctness of outline or vividness of colour the emphasis in Constable's pictures is often on the foreground 3 An emphatic, categorical assertion I wish to say this with all the emphasis at my command emphasize, vb trans [1 émfáziz, 2 émfəsəz] Preo & -ize 1 To indicate and assert importance of something, to call attention to special significance, value, weight &c of something I must emphasize the necessity for immediate action, to emphasize the extent and variety of a man's work 2 To give special prominence, significance to, render distinct, outstanding from rest by contrasts of various kinds, a (in speech) to accentuate, lay stress on, utter with greater force than the rest, a syllable, or a part of a sentence to emphasize all the wrong words, don't emphasize the personal pronouns so much, b (in art) to render specially perceptible, or striking, to call attention to, enhance, by distinctness of line, vividness, and contrasts of colour in painting the painter has emphasized the right eye in a remarkable way, by differences of loudness, time, and so on in music &c emphatic, adj [1 émfátik, 2 ímfátik], fr Gk emphátikos, 'expressive, vivid, forcible' See emphasis Expressing, characterized by, emphasis (in all senses) 1 (or mental state or activity) Distinct, clear, positive an emphatic opinion 2 (of expression of these in speech and writing) Clear, definite, incisive, unambiguous an emphatic pronouncement, statement 3 (of mode of utterance) Characterized by marked contrasts, of strong and weak stress, of pitch &c, or by excessive care and clearness of articulation he is tedious to listen to his pronunciation is far too emphatic emphatically, adv [1 émfátikah, 2 ímfátik-ah] Preo & -al & -ly In an emphatic manner emphysema, n [1 émfiséma, 2 émfisəmə], fr Gk emphúsēma, 'inflation', fr emphúsein, fr en 'in', & phúsein, 'to blow', cp phúō, 'breath, blast', cogn w Mod Pers pūh, 'act of blowing', prob imit (med) An abnormal inflation produced by air in the cellular spaces of the lungs or respiratory passages empire (I), n [1 émpir, 2 émpaw], fr Fr, fr O Fr empe-ri, fr Lat imperium, 'command, authority, power', esp 'military command, dominion, sovereignty', fr im-pēre, 'to rule, govern, command, direct' See emperor; imperial 1 a Full and far-reaching sovereignty, supreme power over a wide domain, b (fig) moral sway, influence 2 The dominion of an emperor, group of independent states, kingdoms, duchies &c under the supreme rule of an emperor the Empire, the British Empire all lands under the British Crown, specif (hist) Holy Roman Empire, mediæval empire formerly consisting of part of the Roman Empire of the West together with the territory of Charlemagne, Eastern and Western Empires, the two portions into which the Roman Empire was divided in 395 empire (II) adj Of pertaining to, an empire, specif (of style of dress, furniture &c) of the first or second Napoleonic Empire of France

Empire Day, n May 24th, Queen Victoria's birthday, celebrated throughout the British Empire.

empiric (I), n [1 émpirik, 2 émpirik], fr Lat., fr Gk empeirikós, 'experienced (applied to certain doctors who based their methods on experience and not on theory)', fr em- & peira, trial, at'empt, experiment, & -ic See pirate 1 Member of an ancient sect of physicians who rejected all theory and relied upon experience alone 2 a One who is ignorant of scientific theory and principle and relies entirely upon practical experiment and experience, b unorthodox medical practitioner, a quack empiric (II), empirical, adj [1 émpirik(i), 2 émpirik(i)], fr preo (& -al) 1 Based upon experiment 2 Based upon experiment and practical experience alone, without any regard to theory empirically, adv, fr preo & -ly By experiment, according to experience to judge empirically empiricism, n [1 émpirizism, 2 émpirizəzəm] empiric & -ism Empirical method, quality of being empiric empiricist, n [1 émpirizist, 2 émpirizist] empiric & -ist One who employs empirical methods, an empiric emplacement, n [1 émplésmənt, 2 émplésmənt] em- & place & -ment a A situation, site, b precise position in which something (esp a building) is placed, c specif, platform for mounting heavy guns emplane, vb trans & intrans [1 émplān, 2 émplēn] em- & plane (V) a trans. To embark (passengers &c) on an aeroplane, b intrans, to embark on an aeroplane employ (I), vb trans [1 émploi, 2 émpló], fr Fr employer, fr Lat implēre, 'to enfold, fold up, include' See imply, implicate, pligate 1 a To make use of (a person's) services, to have working for one to employ a lawyer to draw up one's will, b to provide occupation for, give work to the new road will employ thousands of men, c (reflex.) occupy oneself, spend one's time, on, to engage in a pursuit how do you employ yourself of an evening?, d to spend, take up, time your time, leisure, might be better employed learning something useful 2 To make use of something as means or instrument, to use for a purpose, as a means of performing an action to employ a knife to cut up one's food, petrol to remove spots from clothes &c employ (II), n See preo 1 (obs or poet) Occupation, business, work, employment 2 Position of working for another, service to have many persons in one's employ employable, adj [1 émplóia-bl, 2 émplé-ia-bl] employ (I) & -able Capable of being utilized, capable of performing duties, work &c, worth employing employee, employee, n [1 émplóiyə, 2 émplóiyə], fr em-ployé, em-ployé Fr em- & -ee One who is employed by another to perform certain work this firm treats its employees very well employer, n [1 émplóiyə, 2 émplóiyə] em- & -er One who employs, one who engages others to perform certain work for him an employer of labour, the miners and their employers employment, n [1 émplóimənt, 2 émplé-mənt] employ & -ment 1 a Act of employing others, use of services of others the employment of labour, good workmen &c, b act of employing, or using a thing for a particular purpose the employment of steam-ploughs, employment of capital, c use of, manner of spending the employment of one's time 2 Work, occupation, provided for oneself or others out of employment, to lose one's employment empoison, vb trans [1 émpóizn, 2 émpóizn] em- & poison a To make poisonous, to corrupt, taint, b (fig) to instil feelings of anger into the mind, to poison emporium, n [1 émpóríum, 2 émpóríəm], fr Lat, fr Gk em-póron, 'a trading place, market', fr emporos, 'a traveller, voyager', hence 'trader, merchant', fr em- & póros, 'a passage, way, road, a means, method' Connected w Gk perain (fr per & ain), 'to pierce, to cross, traverse, make a way through' See fare (III), pirate a A place where trading is carried on, a centre of commercial activity London is the world's emporium, b (tradesman's usage) a large shop empower, vb trans [1 empōner, 2 empāra] em- & power To give power to, a to give a person capacity, enable, to perform some physical or mental activity, b to delegate authority to, authorize, give legal right I empower you to sign the document on my behalf empress, n [1 émpres, 2 émpre] fr O Fr emperesse, Lat imperātrix See emperor & -ess 1 a The wife of an emperor, b a woman ruling an empire in her own right 2 (fig) Woman exercising great authority or influence the empress of my heart empress cloth, n Woollen fabric resembling merino cloth empressment, n [1 omprésmen, 2 épréma] Fr. See impress a Zeal, eagerness, b exhibition of desire to please, or to make much of, another, cordiality there was no empressment on either side when they met emprise, n [1 empriz, 2 émpraz] fr O Fr emprise, fem type of PP of emprendre, fr Low Lat emprehendere*, 'to take, undertake', fr em- & prehendere, 'to take, seize, grasp' See prize (archaic and poet) Adventure, enterprise, undertaking emptiness, n [1 émphtnes, 2 émphtnis] Next word & -ness Condition of being empty empty (I), adj [1 émpht, 2 émpht] M F emti, amti, O E æm(e)lig, 'vacant, at leisure, unoccupied', fr O E æmella, 'leisure', & adj suff (see -y), prob fr a Gmc emōlja*, 'not occupied by business', hence 'at leisure, vacant, unoccupied', fr a deprivative pref æ-, & mōti, 'a meeting, assembly'. See moot The modern use of the word, in its application to material things, is derived fr the older, abstract meaning 1 (of material things) a Devoid of contents, containing nothing, having nothing inside it, holding or enclosing nothing an empty box, bottle, cupboard, envelope &c, Phrs on an empty stomach (after fasting), to feel empty, hungry, b not containing something which it habitually or usually contains, which is generally associated with it *an empty house, without occupants, with no one in it, without furniture or occupants, an empty street, with no people or traffic in it, an empty truck, without a load Phrs the town, London, is very empty, a few hundreds (or thousands) of the fashionable world are away, empty stomachs, hungry people, empty cupboards, lack of food 2 (of non-material things) a (of the mind &c) Not occupied by thoughts, ideas &c, vacant, b (of vbl expression) without sense, meaning, or sincerity empty words, promises &c, words empty of meaning, void, c unsubstantial, unsatisfying, devoid of worth or solidity *empty pleasures, frivolity &c empty (II), n, fr. prec Something that is empty, esp a box, crate, truck &c, emptied of the goods it contained returned empties empty (III), vb trans & intrans, fr. empty (I), op O E æmtian, 'to be vacant, to be at leisure' A trans 1 a To remove, take, or pour out, the contents of to empty one's cup, glass, spoon to drink up contents, to empty a box (by unpacking it &c); to empty a bucket, b to cease to come out of, leave, depart from the rain soon emptied the streets, the building was emptied in six minutes 2 To remove, take, or pour out, (contents) from a vessel, receptacle &c to empty water out of a glass, dust out of the dust-pan &c B intrans a To become empty, be deprived of contents the bath emptied very slowly, often reflex, b (of river) to empty itself into the sea &c, to flow, pour its water, discharge empty-handed, adj Bringing, taking away, nothing with one empty-headed, adj Shallow-minded, lacking ideas, ignorant empurple, vb trans [1 empérpl, 2 émpépl] See em- & purple To make purple or red empyema, n [1 émpéma, 2 émpéma] Gk empyēma, 'suppuration', op Gk pūs (for pūsion*), 'matter', & Lat pūs, pus,

'matter' See em- & pus Accumulation of pus in a cavity of the body, esp in or round the lungs empyemic, adj [1 émpémik, 2 émpémaik] Prec & -ic Connected with, of nature of, empyema empyrean, adj [1 émpiréa, 2 émpiréa] See next word & -al Formed of pure fire, pertaining to the empyrean as the region of fire empyrean, adj & n [1 émpiréan, 2 émpiréan] Med Lat empyreus, fr Gk émpyr-(os), 'of fire, in or on the fire, exposed to fire, heat, of or for a burnt-offering', fr em- & pyr, 'fire', see pyra, & -an 1 adj Pertaining to the empyrean, empyreal 2 n a The highest heavens, originally as the region of pure fire, later as the abode of God, b the upper air, sky, the visible heaven.

emu, n [1 émi, 2 émi] Etymol' doubtful, prob fr Port ema, 'ostrich' One of a species of Australian birds, with rudimentary wings and long, powerful legs The emu is second in size only to the ostrich, of existing birds, and is closely related to this emulate, vb trans [1 émulat, 2 émulat] fr Lat emulāt (um), P.P type of emulāri, 'to strive to equal', fr emulus, 'imitating, rivaling', for older aim-*, fr different grade of base seen in Lat im āgo, 'likeness', & imlāri, 'imitate' See image, imitate. To endeavour to equal, try to come up with, vie with, try to surpass, another in actions, character, or qualities to emulate the courage of one's ancestors emulation, n [1 émulāshun, 2 émulāshun] Prec & -ion a The act of emulating, b the desire to equal or surpass another's qualities or actions, rivalry a spirit of emulation emulative, adj [1 émulātiv, 2 émulātiv] emulate & -ive Connected with, characterized by, arising from, emulation emulous, adj [1 émulus, 2 émulus] fr Lat emul (us), 'rivaling', & -ous See emulate (of persons) a Anxious, striving, to equal or surpass another, in action, quality &c emulous of another's valour, b eager for, desirous of, seeking (without implying rivalry) emulous of success, fame &c emulously, adv Prec & -ly In an emulous manner emulsify, vb trans [1 émulisfi, 2 émulisfi] fr Lat émuls (um), P.P type of émulgere, 'to milk out, drain out', (& -fy), fr e- & mulgere, 'to milk', q v under milk To convert into milky fluid emulsion, n [1 émulshun, 2 émulshun] fr Lat émuls (um) (see prec) & -ion a An oily liquid resembling milk in colour and consistency, b specif (med) preparation of this kind designed for curative purposes emulsinize, vb trans [1 émulshuniz, 2 émulshuniz] See prec & -ize To make into an emulsion emulsive, adj [1 émulisv, 2 émulisv] Lat emuls (see emulsion) & -ive a Of the nature of an emulsion, b capable of emulsifying emunctory, adj & n [1 émun(k)ton, 2 émun(k)ton] fr Lat émunct (um), P.P type of émungere, 'to blow the nose', fr e- & mungere, 'to blow the nose' See mucus a adj Serving to carry off waste matter from the body, b n, a duct or organ which does this en- (I), pref (em- before lip consonants b, p, m), fr Fr, fr Lat in-, in-, q v under in- Besides occurring in O Fr words, en-, em- are used to form vbs. fr Engl words a fr. other vbs, w sense 'in, into, within', e.g. enlarge, unfold, enshroud, b fr in, w sense 'to put into', e.g. enshrine, embed, embody, c fr in & adjs, w sense 'to make, cause to become', e.g. embitter, endear, ennoble, enslave en- (II), pref Gk en- (em- before lip-consonants, e.g. prec), 'on, in' &c, in compounds has the force of a vbs 'near, at, in', e.g. enkhelasma, b w adj expresses a modified degree, like Engl -ish, or possession of a quality, e.g. enharmonic en- (I), old dimin suff O E -en, fr earlier -in, as in chicken, listen &c en- (II), old fem suff O E -en, fr -in, O E wyffen, 'she wolf', op O E wulf, wizen, O E fyzen, op fox en- (III) Now a suff used in pl of weak ns, ozen, brethren &c Formerly in all Aryan languages, in so called weak or n stems The case endings were originally added to this stem, op Lat homo (earlier homon-), also homin em &c In O E the base stem -an remains in the oblique cases, e.g. éage, 'eye', genit sing. &c, éagan In genit pl, however, an ending is suffixed to this stem, éagen a, 'of the eyes'.

en- (IV), Suff forming adjs fr ns, w sense of 'made of, composed of' It survives in many words, e.g. oaken, woollen, golden &c en- (V) Suff forming vbs fr adjs, w sense 'to make, or become', e.g. deepen, widen, soften. Only a few of these vbs. existed in O E, e.g. fastenian, 'make fast' &c, fasten, some are of ME & more of modern origin.

enable, vb trans [1 enābl, 2 enābl] See en- & able To make able, render capable, give the power or means to, give legal power or right to money enables one to do many things which cannot be done without it, the law now enables a wife to divorce her husband without having to prove cruelty enabling, adj [1 enābling, 2 enābling] fr Pres Part of prec In the terms enabling bill, enabling act, one which renders legal a certain action on the part of an individual, or a body; an act which gives new legal powers to an individual or body enact, vb trans [1 enekt, 2 enekt] See en- & act (I) 1 a To make into a law, to render a measure valid and legal by a legislative act, b to decree enacting clause, that clause in a parliamentary bill which specifically gives legal sanction to the provisions 2 a To act, play, perform (a part) to enact a play, a character in a play, b (fig, chiefly in pass, of events &c) to come to pass, take place the tragic scene where the murder was enacted enaction, n [1 enākshun, 2 enākshun] See prec & -ion The act or process of enacting a legislative measure enactive, adj [1 enaktiv, 2 enaktiv] enact & -ive Having the power to enact, the force of enacting enactment, n [1 enāktment, 2 enāktment] enact & -ment a Enaction, b that which is enacted, a measure having legal sanction and validity enamel (I), n [1 enāml, 2 enāml] M E enamayl, fr en- & omayle, enamel &c, fr O Fr esmail, op Ital emallo These are borrowed fr Gmc, op O H G emaltjan, 'to smelt', q v under smelt (I) 1 a Substance which being subjected to great heat melts, and on cooling forms a hard, smooth, glassy, brittle coating, applied in a thin layer to the surface of metals &c. for ornament or as protection, b a kind of paint or varnish, applied with a brush to wood &c, which, on drying, retains a high gloss and forms a very smooth surface 2 Hence, any smooth, hard surface-layer, the outer coating of a tooth &c enamel (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To coat, cover, with enamel, to inlay with enamel, b to represent (e design &c) in enamel 2 (poet) To cover with bright and variegated pattern, to give variety of colour to the surface of, esp fields enamelled with flowers &c enamoured, vb trans [1 enamur, 2 enamur] fr O Fr enamourer, fr en- & amour, 'love', fr Lat amōr-(em) See amorous (chiefly fr Lat amōr-(em)) to be enamoured of, to be in love with a person of opposite sex, be, fall, in love with a person of opposite sex, b (in more general sense) to be fond of, strongly attracted by to be enamoured of fame, of sport &c enarthrosis, n [1 énarthrosis, 2 énarthrosis] See en- (II) & Gk. arthr-(on), 'a joint', esp the ankle-joint, & -osis See arthritis A ball-and-socket joint, e.g. the hip-joint.

en bloc, adv [1 on blök 2 & blök] Fr As a whole, in the mass encaenia, n [1 enšēnia, 2 enšēnə] Lat, 'a dedication festival', fr Gk egkaina, 'a feast of reconsecration', fr en-(II) & laínōs, 'new, fresh, novel' See kainite Annual ceremony at Oxford, in commemoration of the founders and benefactors of the university, at which honorary degrees are conferred, also Commemoration, popularly Commem encage, incage, vb trans [1 enká, 2 inléidž] en- & cage To shut up in, or as in, a cage encamp, vb intrans & trans [1 enkámp, 2 inkámp] en- & camp 1 intrans To pitch a camp, to settle in a camp the troops encamped + o alley 2 trans To place in, cause to settle in, a camp to encamp troops encampment, n [1 enkámpment, 2 inkámpment] See prec & -ment 1 The act or process of encamping 2 A place where a military camp is, or has been, pitched, group of tents &c. forming a camp, b esp temporary shelter, whether of tents or covered waggon &c, for one person or for a party; site of such a resting place encase, vb trans [1 enká, 2 inká] fr en- & case To cover completely, enclose, as in a case encased in armour encasement, n [1 enkásmənt, 2 inkásmənt] See prec & -ment A The act of encasing, b that which encases encash, vb trans [1 enkáš, 2 inkáš] en- & cash To turn into cash, to receive in form of cash encaustic, adj & n [1 enkáwstík, 2 inkáwstík] fr Gk egkaustikós, 'burnt in', cp egkaios, fr egkaios, 'to burn in' See en-(II) & caustic 1 adj Burnt in encaustic file, one with coloured design burnt into it 2 n a Art of fixing colours and designs by burning them in, b material thus made and ornamented

-ence, suff fr O Fr -ence, or direct fr Lat -entia, forming abstract ns fr Pres Part stem ent See -ent, -ance, -ency encircle, adj & n [1 enšírl, 2 enšírl] Fr, fr Lat includo, PP of includere, 'to gird surround' See en- (or in-) & circum 1 adj (of women) With child, pregnant 2 n a An enclosure of fortifications, the main lines of defence of a fortified place, b space so enclosed encephalic, adj [1 enšefálik, 2 enšefálik] fr Gk egkephalós, 'the brain' (& -ic), fr en- & kephalé, 'the head' See cephalic Pertaining to the brain encephalitis n [1 enšefalitis, 2 enšefalitis] See prec & -itis (med) Inflammation of the brain, specif encephalitis lethargica, sleepy sickness enchain, vb trans [1 enčán, 2 inčán] fr O Fr enchaîner See en- & chain A To put into, fasten with, chains, to fetter, b (fig, of the mind, thought, feelings) to rivet, hold fast, keep fixed enchainment, n [1 enčáiment, 2 inčáiment] See prec & -ment The act of enchaining, process of being enchained enchant, vb trans [1 enčánt, 2 inčánt] fr Fr enchanter, fr Lat incantare, 'to sing, to say or chant a charm over, to bewitch' See incantation To cast a spell over, (chiefly in fig sense) to delight, charm, entrance, captivate enchanter, n [1 enčánter, 2 inčánter] Prec & -or One who enchants, specif a one who casts spells, a magician, b one who charms and delights enchanting, adj [1 enčánting, 2 inčánting] Pres Part of enchant Delightful, bewitching charming enchantingly, adv Prec & -ly In an enchanting manner enchantment, n [1 enčántment, 2 inčántment] enchant & -ment 1 The act of enchanting, state of being enchanted 2 That which enchants a magic, spell, incantation, charm, b (fig) delight, influence exerted by some enchanting, bewitching person or thing the enchantment of her smile enchantress, n [1 enčántres, 2 inčántres] See enchanter & -ess a A female magician, b (fig) a bewitching, enchanting, charming woman enchase, vb trans [1 enčás, 2 inčás] Fr enchâsser See chase (III), 1 To set, frame in diamonds encased in gold 2 To ornament by embossing encheiridion, encheiridion, n [1 enki, 2 enki] fr Lat encheiridion, 'handbook', en- & cheir, 'hand' See cheiro- A handbook, manual enchoriel, enchoriz, adj [1 enčóriel, 2 enčóriel] fr Gk egkhorizos, 'of the country, native', fr en- & khóra, 'place, country', see chorology Belonging to a country, native, common, popular, esp of the written characters or ancient Egypt, demotic encircle, vb trans [1 enšírl, 2 inšírl] en- & circle A To surround, form circle, or part of a circle, round a lake encircled by the loveliest woods, b to go, pass, round a wireless message encircles the globe in a few moments enclash, vb trans [1 enkláshp, 2 inkláshp] en- & clasp To take into one's clasp, to embrace, enfold in one's arms enclave, n [1 enkláv, 2 inkláv] Fr, fr enclaver, fr Low Lat includere, fr Lat in- & cludere, 'to fasten with nails, nail up', fr clavus, 'a nail', q v under clief A district, or territory, enclosed within, surrounded by, foreign territory enclitic, adj & n [1 enklítik, 2 inklítik] fr Lat, fr Gk egklitikós, 'throwing its accent back to the preceding word', fr en- & klítein, 'to lean' See climata, climax, clinical, lean (II), & -ic a esp Applied to a word or particle completely without stress in the sentence, and forming a mere suffix to preceding word, eg 'I'll' = I will, [aíl], b n, an enclitic pronoun, particle &c enclitically, adv [1 enklítikali, 2 inklítikali] See prec & -al & -ly As an enclitic enclose, vb trans [1 enklóuz, 2 inklóuz] en- & close 1 To surround completely, shut off from what has around to enclose a garden with a fence, a dot with a circle, the wall encloses the park 2 To shut up, insert, in a closed receptacle, as to enclose a jewel in a card, b to place inside a wrapper, cover, envelope, generally along with something else I enclose a cheque herewith (ie in this envelope), I'll enclose your letter (along) with mine (ie put in same envelope) enclosure, n [1 enklóžur, 2 inklóžur] fr O Fr enclos, PP type of enclore, 'to enclose' See prec & -ure 1 Act of enclosing, as by a fence &c, specif, enclosing of common land, and converting into private property, by statutes, Enclosure Acts 2 That which is enclosed, specif a land surrounded by a fence, wall &c, b anything enclosed with a letter, in same envelope 3 That which encloses, wall, fence &c enclothe, vb trans [1 enklódh, 2 inklódh] en- & clothe To clothe encloud, vb trans [1 enklónd, 2 inklónd] en- & cloud To envelop with cloud encomiast, n [1 enklómást, 2 inklómást] fr Gk egkomiastés, 'one who praises', fr egkomiazem, to praise, extol' See encomium One who writes, utters, composes, an encomium encomiastic, adj [1 enklómástik, 2 inklómástik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to an encomiast, or an encomium, of the nature of an encomium encomium, n [1 enklómium, 2 inklómium] Lat, fr Gk egkómiōn, 'a paegyric, eulogy', fr en- & lómos, a feast, banquet, revelry, merry making, an ode sung as part of festivities', q v under comedy A formal expression of praise, high commendation, a paegyrio encompass, vb trans [1 enkumpas, 2 enkumpas] en- & compass To be, stand, or go, round, to surround, to form or describe a circle round, a (lit) a castle encompassed with lofty walls, b (fig) encompassed with perils, to encompass with care and attention encompassment, n [1 enkúmpasment, 2 enkúmpasment] Prec & -ment The act of encompassing, state of being encompassed encore (I), interj [1 onkór, 2 dšó(r)] Fr, 'again, still, yet' (not used in Fr in Engl senses), Ital ancora, perh fr Lat in hanc hórā, 'to this hour' See hour (do it, sing it, play it) Again, as request from audience for repetition of performance encore (II), n, fr prec a A call (of word 'encore') from an audience at a concert &c for repetition of some part of the performance to get an encore, b song, or other performance, repeated at request of audience, also different song &c sung in response to request to sing three encores encore (III), vb, fr prec a To make request (by shouting 'encore') for repetition of part of a performance to encore a song &c, b to express approbation of a performer by requesting him to repeat part of his performance to encore a singer encounter (I), vb trans & intrans [1 enkóunter, 2 inkaúntə] fr O Fr encontrer, 'to meet', fr Low Lat incontrare, fr in- & contra, 'against' See contra- A trans 1 To meet face to face, come across to encounter a friend on the road 2 To meet in hostility a to encounter the enemy on the field, b (fig) to oppose he opposed by, in debate &c 3 To be beset, opposed by, find oneself confronted by to encounter difficulties and dangers B intrans To meet he and I have not encountered for years, implying a casual, unadvertent meeting, b opposition encounter (II), n, fr O Fr encontre. See prec A meeting, confrontation, of an indifferent character often unexpected encounter, b hostile meeting of opposing individuals or parties, conflict (lit and fig) encourage, vb trans [1 enkúry, 2 inkaúry] fr O Fr encourager, en- & courage 1 a (of human action) To put courage into a person, to inspire with confidence, give him fresh heart, to undertake something, or to continue a line of action, by expressing approval of him, his plans, his achievement your appreciation of my work encourages me greatly, b (of influence of circumstances) to incite, render confident and desirous to do, or to continue to do, something my success on a former occasion encourages me to repeat my experiment 2 To help a person to do, render him assistance in doing, something, to incite, try to induce, persuade, a person to pursue, or continue, a line of action, a (in good sense) to encourage a man in his efforts to improve, b (in bad sense) to encourage a man in his idleness and dissipation &c 3 To foster, promote, support, assist forward, further, a cause, an action, line of conduct &c, a (in good sense) to encourage learning and piety, b (in bad sense) to foment, aggravate &c indiscriminate charity is said to encourage thriftlessness and want encouragement, n [1 enkúryment, 2 inkaúryment] Prec & -ment Act of encouraging, source of moral or material aid, incitement, persuasion, stimulus, support, help to give encouragement to deservng and struggling students, praise judiciously bestowed acts as an encouragement to the young, grants for the encouragement of research encouraging, adj [1 enkúrying, 2 inkaúrying] fr Pres Part of encourage Tending to encourage (in various senses), inspiring confidence and hope for the future an encouraging report of progress made encouragingly, adv Prec & -ly So as to encourage encrimson, vb trans [1 enkrimzun, 2 enkrimzun] en- & crimson To make crimson encroach, vb intrans [1 enkrōch; 2 enkrout] ME encrocher, fr O Fr encrocher, 'seize upon', lit 'catch with a hook', fr croche, 'a hook'. See en- & crochet. Followed by upon, on, or absol 1 (in moral sense) To go, force oneself, beyond one's own legitimate province, usurp (rights, privileges, duties, position belonging to another), b (in physical sense) to go upon, make use of, territory belonging to another. you have encroached upon my land here, c (of the sea) to advance upon, pass beyond original limits, increase space occupied the sea has encroached (on the land) at many points 2 To trespass upon, take up time of another unduly; intrude to encroach upon one's leisure.

encroachment, n [1 enkrōchment, 2 enkroutment] See pro- & -ment. The act or process of encroaching, intrusion, infringement, b that which is gained by encroaching an encroachment of the sea.

encrust, incrusted, vb trans & intrans [1 enkrust, 2 inkrast], fr en- & crust 1 trans a To cover as with a crust, b to stud thickly with a crust encrusted with jewels 2 intrans To form, develop into, a crust encrustment, n [1 enkrustment, 2 inkrustment] See pro- & -ment. The act or process of encrusting encumber, vb trans [1 enkumber, 2 inkamba], fr Fr encombrer See en- & cumber. 1 (of physical action) a To get in the way of, embarrass, hinder, interfere with freedom of, be a burden to to be encumbered with a long cloak, b to fill, choke up, to crowd a passage encumbered with furniture. 2 (in moral sense) To obstruct the mind or its operations encumbered with doubts 3 To burden, embarrass financially encumbered with debts, an estate encumbered with mortgages &c encumbrance, n [1 enkumberans, 2 inkamberans] See encumber & -ance 1 a Anything that prevents or impedes action or movement, a hindrance, burden a heavy coat is an encumbrance in walking, b a mental or moral burden many of his old supporters he regarded as mere encumbrances 2 n (law) A claim or charge upon property, mortgage, jointure &c estate freed from all encumbrances, b a person, esp a child, dependent upon one for support wanted, n an old wife without encumbrances for domestic service.

encumbrances, n [1 enkumberans, 2 inkamberans] See pro- & -or. (law) A person who has a legal charge, mortgage &c on an estate

-ency, suff denoting quality See -ence & -y encyclic(al), n & adj [1 onsklik(l), 2 ensiklik(l)], fr L Lat encyclicus, fr Gk ekklēios, 'in a circle', fr en- & killos, 'a circle'. See cyclic 1 n An authoritative letter or message, circulated by the Pope to the whole Roman Church 2 adj Pertaining to such a document

encyclo(p)aedia, n [1 ensiklōpēdia; 2 en-asklōnpidja] en- & oyclopaedia. 1 A volume, or set of volumes, containing classified information on all branches of learning; b on one specific subject, e.g. encyclopedia of gardening, nit &c The contents are usually arranged alphabetically 2 Specif, The Encyclopédie, a French general encyclopedia produced by Diderot and D'Alembert shortly before the French Revolution.

encyclo(p)s(edic(al), adj [1 ensiklōpēdik(l), 2 ensiklōnpidjik(l)] See pro- & -ic & -al Of the nature of an encyclopedia, containing information upon a wide range of topics, all-embracing, comprehensive an encyclopaedic work, round &c encyclo(p)s(edist, n [1 ensiklōpēdist, 2 en-asklōnpidist] encyclo(p)s(edia & -ist. a One who writes, compiles, edits, an encyclopedia, b specif (with cap) one of the editors of the 18th cent. French Encyclopédie.

enclat, vb trans [1 enclat, 2 enclat] en- & cyst. To enclose, envelop, in a cyst.

encystation, n [1 enastistashun; 2 enastistashun] Pro- & -ation (zool) The process of becoming enclosed in a cyst en cystment, n [1 enistment, 2 enistment] en cyst & -ment. Encystation end (I), n [1 end, 2 end] OE & ME ende, OS enda, OHG anti, erti, Du ende, Goth ondens The only cogn outside Gmc appears to be Sert anta, 'boundary, limit, end'. In reference to space 1 (of material things) Point beyond which a thing is not extended, prolonged, continued, the final extremity, limit, termination the end of a line, road, piece of string &c, to sign one's name at the end of a letter Phras at a loose end, without settled occupation or fixed ties, to make both ends meet, to keep one's expenditures within the limits of one's income, at the end of one's tether, at the limit of one's patience, endurance, capacity &c 2 Referring to amount, mass, quantity &c a (of material things) shrinkage, dwindling, lessening, exhaustion end of supplies, stores, funds, resources, b (of non-material things) at the end of one's patience, endurance; at one's wit's end, harassed, perplexed 3 By extension of meaning a that part towards or near the final extremity the other end of the room, to live at the other end of the street, to sit p on the end of a cat's tail, at the end of the platform, to sit one at each end of the table, Phras odds and ends, remnants, candle ends, small pieces of candle left unburnt, rope's-end, short piece of rope used for flogging, the end of the table, the head of the table, the east, west, end, of a town, b remote, distant area, quarter the other end of the world, the ends of the earth 4 Part, especially that towards one extremity, of an object, specially shaped, or designed for particular purpose to stand a barrel on its end, to stand on end, stand upright, to put two things end to end, (colloq) the business end (of a stick &c) Phras end on, with the end facing one, two hours on end (fig, of time), consecutively the thin end of the wedge, (fig) first step leading to further developments, to get hold of the wrong end of the stick, to misapprehend, form wrong notion of something In reference to time 5 a Period, point of time, in which something ceases to exist, when it disappears, decays, dies, passes out of human ken; conclusion, close the end of the year, of a day, of an hour, the end of the world, the end of a story, 'of making many books there is no end', Phras in the end, finally, after all, to put an end to, make an end of, to cause to cease, to abolish, destroy, (colloq) no end (of a swell &c), very considerable, no end (disappointed) &c, immeasurably, b specif, the end of one's life, death to be near one's end, to hasten one's end, hence, the cause of death, destruction, downfall his recklessness will be the end of him, you'll be the end of me. Cf actions, processes, series of events 6 Concluding stage, final phase a (of an action) the end of a speech, the end of one's work; e.d of the piece, play; b (of a process) the end of oppression, end of litigation; c (of a series of events) the end of the festivities, end of a campaign 7 a That at which one aims, that which one hopes, or intends, to accomplish, aim, object purpose to gain one's ends, to that end we are and were created, the end justifies the means, b that to which events &c, tend, the result, issue, consequence the end of it all was that a violent quarrel took place, it is difficult to foresee the end.

end (II), vb intrans & trans. OE endan See pro- & -intrans. 1 To come to an end, to stop, to reach a limit, termination, a (of material things) the road ended in a field, b (of non-material things) when does the term end?, there the story ends. 2 To discontinue any action or process, to finish speaking &c. I end as I began, by thanking you. B trans 1 To bring to an end, cause to cease, to terminate, harsh that ended the argument. 2 To spend the concluding part of. to end one's days in the workhouse. C Followed by proposition or adverb End in, intrans 1 To have as its concluding portion, termination, a (of material things) a cow's tail ends in a tuft of hair, b (of non material things) her sentence ended in a shriek. 2 To result in the enterprise ended in disaster, it ended in his going off in a rage. Phr to end in smoke, come to nothing, have no result. End off, a trans, to finish off, complete, bring to an end, discontinue to end off a speech, book &c, b intrans, to come to an end, terminate, break off the story ends off rather suddenly End up, same as pro- Phr to play 'God save the King' to end up with End with, a trans, bring to an end in a certain way to end a lecture with a quotation, b intrans, to come to an end in a certain way the day ended with a storm.

endamage, vb trans [1 endām, 2 en-damēd] en- & damage To damage, cause damage to endanger, vb trans [1 endinjer, 2 endānrad] en- & danger To bring into danger, expose to risk, render precarious to endanger one's life, chance of success endear, vb trans [1 endēr, 2 endē], fr en- & dear To render dear, inspire affection for, attach his kindness of heart endeared him to all, to endear oneself to one's friends endearing, adj [1 endēring, 2 endēring], fr Pres Part of pro- Tending to attach, to captivate affections, attractive an endearing manner, smile &c. endearingly, adv Pro- & -ly In an endearing manner endearment, n [1 endēmment, 2 endēmment] endear & -ment. 1 The act of endearing, state of being endeared, affection term of endearment 2 Expression of affection in words or actions, caress, blandishment she got weary of his endearments endeavour (I), vb intrans [1 ende'ver, 2 endēvə] In ME the phrase was to put oneself in devoir, i.e. 'do one's duty', cp Fr se mettre en devoir In 16th cent. & later the vb was reflex. he endeavored him to please God, that is, 'regarded it as a duty, made it his business to' &c Prayer Book has phrase doily endeavour ourselves &c See en- & devoir a (usually followed by infin) To try, make an effort, esp to try hard, to do one's best to endeavour to do one's duty, to learn one's lessons, I'll endeavour to help you, b (more rarely absol) Is he improving at all? Well, he's endeavouring endeavour (II), n, fr pro- An effort, attempt to accomplish something to do one's best endeavours, our endeavours are too weak, all his endeavours were (in) vain endemic(al), adj [1 endēmik(l), 2 endēmik(l)], fr Gk en- (II) & dēmios, 'people', see demos, & -ic. 1 adj a (of disease &c) Peculiar to, prevalent in, usually found in a particular country, or area, or among a special class, contrasted with epidemic, b (of plants or animals) indigenous, belonging to a specific country, area &c; contrasted with exotic. 2 n An endemic disease endemically, adv [1 endēmikali, 2 endēmikali] See pro- & -al & -ly As an endemic endemic, adj [1 endēmik, 2 endēmik] en- & dēmia & -ic (med) Applied to, acting through, the skin ending, n [1 ending, 2 ending]. See end (I) & -ing 1 a Conclusion, final part of a story, with a tragic, happy, ending, b specif, end of life, death his ending was peaceful 2 Gmc. matheal suffix -est-endery, the ending of the verb endure, n [1 endir, 2 endir] Fr, fr Lat indure, -uri fr Gk ēdureō, prob of Semitic origin A herb, a kind of chervil with curly, pale leaves, used as a salad during winter endless, adj [1 endless, 2 endlis] OE endlic See end (I) & -less 1 a Lasting for ever the endlessness of eternity, b extended to infinity, limitless, boundless the endless mercy of God 2 (mechan) Endless chain &c., one with joined ends in form of a circle, running on pulleys &c 3 A very long, too long, lasting for an excessive length of time, interminable an endless sermon, lecture, argument &c., b frequently, constantly, repeated, making an unbroken series, innumerable, incessant endless attempts were made on his life, endless demands on one's time, this will have endless trouble endlessly, adv Prec & -ly Interminably, unceasingly, incessantly endlessness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being endless end man, n One at the end of a row, specif, one sitting at one end of a minstrel troupe, who leads the performance and makes facetious conversation with the performer at the other end endmost, adj [1 éndmōst, 2 éndmoust] end & -most Farthest off, remotest endo-, pref Form of Gk endon, 'within', used in compounds, fr en, 'in' (see en- (II)), & locative dom*, perh fr hase dom*, 'house' See dome endocarditis, n [1 éndokarditis, 2 éndou kárditis] See next word & -itis (med) Inflammation of the endocardium endocardium, n [1 éndokárdium, 2 éndou-kárdium] See endo- & cardio- (anat) Membranous lining of the heart endocarp, n [1 éndokárp, 2 éndoukárp] See endo- & carpel (bot) The inner layer of the seed vessel of a plant endocrine, adj & n [1 éndokrin, 2 éndoukrin], fr endo- & Gk krinein, 'to separate' &c See critic (physiol) 1 adj a (of certain glands) Secreting internally, such as certain ductless glands, as the thyroid, thymus gland &c, the secretion of which is absorbed directly by the vessels passing through them, b (of secretions) secreted internally 2 n A secretion from such gland, a hormone endoderm, n [1 éndodérm, 2 éndoudám] endo- & -derm a (anat and biol) The epithelial lining of the alimentary canal, the hypoblast of the embryo, b (bot) the inner layer of the cortex endodermic, adj [1 éndodérmik, 2 éndoudámik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, derived from, the endoderm endogamous, adj [1 éndogamus, 2 éndógamas] See next word & -ous Pertaining to, practising, endogamy endogamy, n [1 éndogam, 2 éndógam] endo- & Gk gamos, 'marriage' See gamo- (anthrop) Marriage only within the tribe or clan, contrasted with exogamy endogen, n [1 éndojén, 2 éndoudžén] endo- & -gen (bot) Name formerly given to a class of seed plants, such as palms &c, which were supposed to grow from within endogenous, adj [1 éndojénus, 2 éndídzanas] Prec & -ous (biol) Growing from within, developing internally, as spores or cells inside the original cell endolymph, n [1 éndólímf, 2 éndoulymf] endo- & lymph The fluid in the labyrinth of the internal ear endomorph, n [1 éndómorf, 2 éndoumōf] endo- & Gk morphé, 'form' See morphology (mineral) A mineral, esp crystal, enclosed in, or intrusive in, another, esp crystalline mineral endoparasite, n [1 éndópárasit, 2 éndoupárasit] endo- & parasite An internal parasite, such as a tapeworm endoplasm, n [1 éndóplazm, 2 éndouplazm] endo- & plasm The inner layer of protoplasm in a cell, also called endosome endorse, endorse, vb trans [1 indors, 2 indís] fr en- & Lat dors (um), 'back', cp M.E. endorse, fr O Fr endorser, fr Mod. Lat. indorsare, 'to endorse', fr in- & Lat dorsum See dorsal 1 To write on the back of (a document), esp to sign one's name on the back of (a cheque, bill &c), so as to assign or transfer it, or secure payment for it 2 To write (a note, comment, indication of contents) on the back of a document 3 (fig) To corroborate, confirm, to sanction, approve, ratify to endorse every thing that a speaker has said endorsee, n [1 indorsé, 2 indósf] Prec & -ee Person in whose favour a document, such as a bill &c is endorsed endorsement, indorsement, n [1 indorsment, 2 indósmént] See prec & -ment

1 a The act of endorsing, b something written on the back of a document, e.g. a note, or signature 2 (fig) Corroboration, approval, of a statement &c endorser, n [1 indórser, 2 indósf] endorse & -er Person by whom cheque, bill &c is endorsed endosarc, n [1 éndósark, 2 éndousáik] endo- & Gk sark (os), sarz, 'flesh' See sarco- Endopleum endoskeleton, n [1 éndoskélétum, 2 éndou-skélitén] endo- & skeleton The internal supporting bony framework of vertebrates, the true skeleton, as contrasted with the exoskeleton, as of crustaceans &c endosmosis, n [1 éndosmōsis, 2 éndosmōsis] endo- & osmosis The more rapid mingling of the less dense of two fluids or gases with the more dense, through a membrane &c, contrasted with exosmosis endosperm, n [1 éndóspérm, 2 éndouspām] endo- & sperm (bot) The nutritive matter stored up in the embryo of seed plants, formerly known as albumen endow, vb trans [1 endou, 2 endou], fr en- & Fr douer, 'to bestow' See dower 1 To bestow property upon, give or leave money, so as to provide permanent financial support for an institution, office &c 2 (osp in P P) To furnish, supply (a person) with qualities, talents &c endowed with genius endowment, n [1 éndoumēt, 2 éndau-mēt] Prec & -ment 1 a The act of endowing, state of being endowed, b property settled permanently on an institution, or person 2 Mental qualities, regarded as having been bestowed by nature or derived from ancestors mental endowments endowment policy, n A policy of insurance by which a fixed sum is to be paid at a fixed date, or at death should that occur before that date end-paper, n. Blank leaf at the beginning and end of a book end rhyme, n One at the end of verses endue, indue, vb trans [1 indú, 2 indjít], fr O Fr enduire, fr Lat inducere, 'to lead', see induce, with meaning confused with Lat inducere, 'to put on' See exuviae 1 (archaic and rare) a To put on, assume (a garment &c), b to clothe, invest (a person), followed by with 2 To bestow spiritual qualities and benefits upon, to furnish, endow with 'Endue him plentifully with heavenly gifts' (Prayer Book) endurable, adj [1 éndurábl, 2 indjórabl] endure & -able That can be endured endurance, n [1 éndúrans, 2 indjórans] endure & -ance The act of enduring, b the power of enduring endure, vb trans & intrans [1 éndúr, 2 in djú], fr O Fr endurer, fr Lat indurare, 'to harden, make hard', fr in- & durare, 'to harden' See durable A trans 1 a To bear with fortitude, bear up against, sustain learn to endure suffering, to endure without flinching the rigours of an arctic winter, b to sustain without breaking the frail structure could hardly endure the buffets of the storm 2 To tolerate, suffer, put up with, offer no resistance to she had to endure the horrid embraces of her captors Phrs not to be able to endure, to dislike extremely, detest, be unable to stand or put up with I can't endure cold mutton, she will never marry him, she can't endure him B intrans 1 To remain undestroyed, persist, continue in existence, to last his fame will endure for ever, as long as life endures 2 To remain firm, staunch, unmoved, in face of trial, pain, strain &c help cannot reach us, we must endure to the end enduring, adj [1 éndúring, 2 indjórng], fr Pres Part of prec Lasting, permanent an enduring fame, glory &c enduringly, adv Prec & -ly In a lasting and permanent manner enduringness, n See prec & -ness State, quality, of being enduring or lasting endways, adv [1 éndwéz, 2 éndwéiz] end & -ways With the end forward facing the spectator, on end endwise, adv [1 éndwíz, 2 éndwáiz] end & -wise Endways

-ene, suff [1 én, 2 in] Used by chemists to denominate certain hydrocarbons—benzene &c Origin doubtful enema, n [1 énéma, 2 éníma] Lat, fr Gk enema, fr emienai, 'throw, send, in' (see en-), hienai, 'send, project, throw', cogn w Scrt idhi, 'strive after', Lith vegti, 'to pursue' Injection of a fluid into the rectum, a clyster enemy, n [1 énemi, 2 éními], fr O Fr enemi, fr Lat inimicus, 'hostile, unfriendly, an enemy', fr in- & amicus, 'a friend' See amicable 1 One animated with hatred and malignity towards another, one who attempts to injure another in every way, a foe, opponent, specif, the old Enemy, the Devil Phrs how goes the enemy?, what time is it?, to be one's own enemy, to prejudice one's prospects by one's conduct &c 2 a A nation, state, army, at war with another, b part of a hostile force our fleet attacked the enemy at once, a attack the enemy fleet, &c 3 a A person whose aims, interests, ideals, and efforts are opposed to a cause, principle, method &c an enemy of freedom, of Free Trade, of progress &c, b a hostile force or factor, one force or influence that is injurious to another sunshine is the enemy of ill health energetic, adj [1 énérjetak, 2 énédžétik], fr Gk energētikos, fr energein, 'to work, to be strenuous, active' See energy (of person, action &c) Displaying energy, forceful, vigorously active and efficient energetically, adv [1 énérjetaké, 2 énédžetákelé] See prec, -al, & -ly In an energetic manner energetics, n [1 énérjetiks, 2 énédžétiks] The science of energy energic, adj [1 énérjik, 2 indžíjik] energy & -ic (rare) Energetic energize, vb trans & intrans [1 énérjíz, 2 énédžáiz], fr energy & -ize, 1 trans To fill with energy, to stimulate to activity, to stir up 2 intrans To display energy, to act with force and vigour energumen, n [1 énérđumen, 2 énégđumen], fr L Lat energūmenos 'one possessed of the devil', fr Gk energoumenos, fr Pass Part of energein, 'to work' See energetic a A demoniac, b a fanatic energy, n [1 énérpi, 2 énédžif], fr L Lat energia, fr Gk enérgeia, 'energy, efficiency', fr en- & ergon, 'work', for very* See ergon & work 1 a Power, force, whether exercised or latent, causing motion or action, inherent tendency to move or act mental, physical energy, b (in persons) inherent tendency to be active, strenuous, and to get things done, capacity for action and activity full of energy, to apply one's energies to something, c (in verbal or artistic expression) force, vigour, strength, effectiveness an excessive energy of phrase, line &c 2 a (mechan) Capacity for doing work, latent or potential, operative or kinetic, b (phys) one of the primary concepts of the material world, of time, space enervate (1), vb trans [1 énervát, 2 éná-vert], fr Lat énervāt (um), PP type of énervāre, 'to weaken, enervate', fr e- & nervus, 'a nerve, sinew' See nervo To reduce strength of, take the vitality out of, to weaken physically, mentally, or morally: an enervating climate, an enervated style.

enervate (II), adj See prec Weakened, deprived of vigour enervation, n [1 enervashn, 2 enervshn] See prec & -ation The act or process of enervating, state of being enervated enface, vb trans [1 enfas, 2 enfais] en- & face To write or print something on the face of a document enfant terrible, n [1 onfon terbl, 2 atf terbl] Fr, lit 'terrible child' Precocious child whose behaviour, questions, chatter &c cause embarrassment to its elders, an indiscreet, irresponsible person enfeeble, vb trans [1 enfēbl, 2 infēbl] fr O Fr enfeblir en- & feeble To render feeble, to weaken enfesoff, vb trans [1 enfēf, enfēf, 2 enfesf, enfif] fr O Fr enfesfer See en- & fief To grant lands in fee to, to invest with the fief or fee of an estate enfesoffment, n [1 enfesment, 2 infesment] See prec & -ment a The act or process of enfesoffing, state of being enfesoffed, b deed or instrument conveying lands in fee, c that with which one is enfesoffed enfetter, vb trans [1 enfēter, 2 enfets] en- & fetter To put fetters upon, bind with fetters, (in physical and moral senses) enfilade (I), vb trans [1 enfilād, 2 enfilād] fr Fr enfiler, & -ade See file (II) To rake the whole of a line of troops, or length of a trench, with gunfire; to command, with guns, the position occupied by troops in such a way as to be able to enfilade them enfilade (II), n, fr prec Enfilading fire enfold, *in*fold, vb trans [1 infōld, 2 infōuld] en- & fold a To fold or wrap up, to envelop, b to clasp in one's arms enforce, vb trans [1 enfōrs, 2 infōrs] fr O Fr enforcer, fr Low Lat infortiare See en- & force 1 To make effective, to demand, insist on, observance of to enforce a law 2 To secure observance of, compel action, by force, exact on pain of violent measures enforce obedience, where it is not given willingly 3 To urge strongly, present in a forcible manner, impress on one's hearers &c Dr. Johnson says that Watts did not see how corporeal action could enforce religious truth enforceable, adj [1 enfōrsabl, 2 infōrsabl] Prec & -able Capable of being enforced enforcement, n [1 enfōrsment, 2 infōrsment] enforce & -ment The act of enforcing, state of being enforced enfranchise, vb trans [1 enfrānchiz, 2 infrānchiz] fr O Fr enfranchir en- & franchise 1 To grant political privileges to, to constitute one a parliamentary elector women were enfranchised in 1918 2 To grant privileges to, to make into a parliamentary constituency to enfranchise a town &c 3 To convert into freehold to enfranchise leaseholds 4 To release, emancipate, set free to enfranchise slaves enfranchisement, n [1 enfrānchizment, 2 infrānchizment] Prec & -ment The act of enfranchising, state of being enfranchised engage, vb trans & intrans [1 engāj, 2 ingēdiz] fr Fr engager en- & gage A trans 1 a (often reflex) To bind oneself by a promise, pledge &c, to impose an obligation on, make an action obligatory for to engage oneself to do something, b to bind oneself to marry a particular person he had engaged himself to a charming girl 2 To obtain a claim on, gain a right to the use (of things) or services (of persons) by payment, agreement, contract, &c to engage a servant &c, b to cause to be reserved for one's use to engage a seat, rooms, a cab &c 3 a To occupy, fill up the time of, to employ (whether temporarily or as permanent occupation) engaged in letter-writing, to have one's time fully engaged, b to occupy, take hold of, retain, attract, secure to engage a person's attention, affections &c, c to draw into, cause to take part in to engage a person in conversation 4 To provoke to conflict, compel to fight by beginning hostilities with to engage the enemy 5 (mechan) To take hold of, fasten, interlock with two cogwheels engage each other B intrans 1 a To undertake, pledge oneself, promise, to do something I'll engage to find the money if you can find the right man, b to assert the truth of, make oneself responsible for the truth of a statement I'll engage that what he says may be relied upon 2 a To begin, provoke, hostilities by attacking the orders are, engage at once, b (fencing) to keep one's own sword in touch with opponent's sword C Engage in, to take part in, as a permanent business or profession to engage in teaching, in the hardware trade, b as temporary activity; to join in to engage in conversation, in a game of tennis engaged, adj [1 engājd, 2 ingēdizd] fr PP of prec Various senses (of persons) a having one's time occupied, being oneself occupied or busy, through some fixed arrangement I can't dine with you to-morrow, I'm engaged already, b betrothed an engaged pair, c (of things) bespoke, promised, hired this seat is engaged, every place in the theatre is engaged engagement, n [1 engājment, 2 ingēdizment] engage & -ment 1 a A binding pledge or undertaking an honest man will not break his engagements to his friends, b fixed arrangement to do something, go somewhere, meet someone, at particular time I have several engagements for tomorrow 2 Arrangement between two persons to be married, betrothal her engagement has been broken off 3 Encounter between military or naval forces, battle, combat an advance in force to bring about an engagement engaging, adj [1 engājng, 2 ingēdizng] fr Pres Part of engage Of a character to provoke affection, attachment, liking, attractive, charming an engaging smile, manner engagingly, adv Prec & -ly In an engaging, charming manner engarland, vb trans [1 engārland, 2 ingdland] en- & garland To adorn, deck, with garlands engender, vb trans [1 enjēndor, 2 indzēndz] fr Fr engendrer, fr Lat ingenere, 'to implant, produce, engender, to create, generate' See in- & generato (fig) a To bring into being, to cause, produce, be the source of pity often engenders love, b to excite, arouse, stir up poverty engenders misery, and too often, crime as well engine (I), n [1 ēnjn, 2 ēndzjn] fr O Fr engin, fr Lat ingenium, 'nature, natural quality, character, disposition, capacity, talent, ability, cleverness' See en- & genus & cp ingenium 1 (archaic) a A device, b an instrument of war, a machine used in warfare 2 a One of many types of machines for converting physical force or energy, as heat, into mechanical power, a prime mover, specif, as usually qualified by the power used steam-, oil engine, or method, construction &c internal combustion engine, b (specif) a locomotive 3 Any particular mechanical device or appliance fire-, beer engine engine (II), vb trans, fr prec To furnish with an engine, or with an engine of a certain type or horse power, esp in PP and qualified over-, under engine engine-driver, n Specif, one who drives a locomotive engineer (I), n [1 ēnjnēr, 2 ēndzjnēr] fr O Fr ingenieur, fr Low Lat ingeniātor (-em), fr ingeniā (-um), PP type of ingeniāre, 'to be skilful', fr Lat ingenium, 'nature, character, ability, skill' engine & -eer 1 A person engaged in one of the various branches of the engineering profession, one who is trained in the scientific principles of mathematics, physics, and mechanics, underlying the design, construction, and use, of all kinds of machines, or in the theory and practice involved in building roads, railways, bridges &c electrical, mining, sanitary engineer, civil engineer, general term for a member of any of the various branches of engineering other than military 2 a Member of a military corps, Royal Engineers, which constructs fortifications, field works, conducts siege operations, builds bridges, roads &c, and controls the communications by telegraph or telephone &c, b member of that branch of the naval service which controls the diving engines and machines of a ship of war 3 A mechanic engaged in the practical management of engines and other machines engineer (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To design, construct, direct construction of anything in the capacity of engineer to engineer a road &c 2 (fig) To devise, construct, plan, and carry out, some intricate series of negotiations to engineer a scheme, a plot &c B intrans To be occupied in engineering work engineering, n [1 enjnjēring, 2 ēndzjnēring] Prec & -ing a The science of the design, construction, and control, of engines, machinery &c, of the construction of military or public works &c, b the profession of an engineer enginery, n [1 ēnjnri, 2 ēndzjnri] See engine & -ery (rare) Engines, machines, collectively engine-turning, n Method of ornamenting metal &c with lines engraved by machinery engirdle, vb trans [1 engērdl, 2 ingērdl] en- & girdle To surround with, or as with, a girdle English (I), adj & n [1 ingghsh, 2 inggh] OE englisc, anglic, 'English', fr Engle, Angle, Germanic tribe settled in Britain, & -ish 1 adj a Pertaining to, belonging to, 'England' or the English, b in the English language 2 n a The people of England the English are a great people, b the English language Phrs King's English, standard, correct, English, plain English, intelligible style, not English, bad, undignified style 3 A size of type English (II), vb trans, fr prec To translate into English Englishman, -woman, n [1 ingghshman, -woman, 2 ingghshman, -woman] Person of English race and blood Englishry, n [1 ingghshri, 2 ingghshri] English (I) & -ry Collectively, a group of people of English descent, esp the English population of Ireland engorge, vb trans [1 engōrj, 2 ingēdizj] fr Fr engorger en- & gorge a To devour greedily and in large quantities, b (med) en gorged, congested engorgement, n [1 engōrjment, 2 ingēdizment] Prec & -ment The act of engorging, state of being engorged engraft, *in*graft, vb trans [1 ingrāft, 2 in grāft] en- & graft a To insert (a shoot) into the stem of another plant, to graft, b (fig) to introduce, implant, establish to engraft principles, maxims, virtues &c in the mind engrained, adj [1 engrāid, 2 ingrēid] PP fr ME engraulen, fr O Fr engreler, fr en- & grele, 'hail', fr OHG greslon, prob connected w grit, (har) Edged with small semicircles having the points turned outward engrain, *in*grain, vb trans [1 ingrān, 2 in grān] fr en- & grain (I) a (usually fig) To incorporate into the texture and fibre of a substance, to saturate with, so as to impart a lasting colour or tendency engrained habits, virtues, prejudices &c, b (in PP, of person) thorough, complete, inveterate an engrained scoundrel engrave, vb trans [1 engrāv, 2 ingrēv] en- & grave (I) 1 a To ornament, form a design or inscription on (metal, stone &c) by lines cut into it to engrave a tablet with an inscription, b to cut, carve, incise (lines, a design &c) on a hard surface to engrave an inscription on a tablet, c to reproduce a picture, by lines cut in a metal plate, for printing off impressions 2 (fig) To make a deep impression, imprint indelibly, fix firmly to engrave a scene upon one's memory engraver, n [1 engráver, 2 engráve] Preo & -er One who engraves, specif, one engaged in the art of engraving designs upon metal, stona &c engraving, n [1 engráving, 2 engráveŋ] engrave & -ing 1 The art of an engraver 2 A reproduction of a picture made from an engraved plate or block engross, vb trans [1 angrós, 2 angróse], fr A Fr engrosser, fr en- & L Lat gross (us), 'large, thick' See gross 1 a To write, copy (a deed, document &c), in a clear, large hand, to write out in legal form, transcribe in a formal, prescribed manner, b to draw up in formal order, express in legal, prescribed form 2 (archaic) To buy up large quantities, or whole available supply, of commodities, so as to control prices (Cp Fr acheter en gros, 'to buy wholesale') Whence 3 To take up, occupy exclusively, monopolize, absorb this business engrosses my whole time and attention engrossing, adj [1 angrósing, 2 angróseŋ] Preo Part of preo Tending to occupy one's time, having property of capturing and holding one's attention and interest, absorbing an engrossing task, novel, &c engrossment, n [1 engróment, 2 angrósement] engross & -ment 1 The act of engrossing, of writing in large formal script 2 Something that is engrossed, a deed, document engulf, vb trans [1 engúlf, 2 ingúlf] en- & gulf To plunge, absorb, as in a gulf, swallow up, overwhelm completely engulfment, n [1 engulfment, 2 ingúlfment] Preo & -ment The process of engulfing, state of being engulfed enhance, vb trans [1 enháns, 2 inháns] ME enhancen, enhansen, fr A Fr enhancer, fr O Fr enhancer, fr Low Lat 'inalidre, 'to ruse', fr in- & altus, 'high' See altitude 1 The old sense 'to raise' is obs except in heraldry, enhanced 2 (of non-material things) To heighten, intensify, add to, the characteristics or inherent qualities of something - to enhance the beauty, value, horror, difficulty, wickedness &c of enhanced, adj [1 enhánsed, 2 inhánsed], fr P P of preo (her) Of bearings placed above their usual position on the shield enhancement, n [1 enhánsment, 2 inhánsment] See preo & -ment The act or process of enhancing enharmónic, n & adj [1 enharmónik, 2 enhármónik] en- & harmónic (mus) 1 n An interval less than a semitone 2 adj Having intervals of this sort enharmónically, adv [1 enharmónikali, 2 enhármónikali] Preo & -al & -ly In an enharmónic manner, by means of enharmónics enhydrous, adj [1 enhídrous, 2 enhaidre] See en- & hydro- & -ous Of crystals, containing water enigma, n [1 enígmá, 2 inígmá], fr Lat, fr Gk ainigma, 'a mysterious saying, a riddle', fr ainisomas, 'speak in riddles', fr ainos, 'a tale, story, fable, allegory, a saying, proverb, praise' Cp w different formative suff, Goth ai-p & 'oath', see oath 1 A riddle, puzzle 2 (fig) a Situation or circumstance difficult to understand, b mysterious, baffling person enigmatic(al), adj [1 enígmátik(l), 2 inígmátik(l)] Through Lat fr Gk ainigmat (os), genit of ainigma, 'an ambiguous saying, a riddle', & -ic & -al See preo a Of the nature of an enigma, puzzling, ambiguous, obscure, b (of persons, character &c) mysterious, baffling, obscurely, difficult to understand enigmatically, adv Preo & -ly In an enigmatic manner enigmatize, vb trans [1 enígmátiz, 2 inígmátiz], fr Lat fr Gk ainigmat (os), genit of ainigma, 'a riddle', & -ize See enigmat To put into the form of an enigma, present as an enigma enisle, isule, vb trans [1 inísl, 2 inísl] en- & islo 1 a To make an island of, b to piece on an island 2 (fig) To isolate, set apart, render solitary enjoinment, n [1 enjoinment, 2 inídjémbment], fr Fr, fr enjoiner, fr en- & jamb, 'leg', & -ment See jamb (pros) The continuation of the sense and sentence beyond the end of the second line of a couplet enjoin, vb trans [1 enjóin, 2 inídjéin], fr Fr enjoign, stem of enjoindre, fr Lat injungere, 'to join, fasten into, to attach', fig, 'to occasion, inflict upon, to charge, impose upon' See injunction, join 1 a To impose (action, line of conduct &c) as an obligation, demand, insist on, give orders for to enjoin silence, obedience &c, to enjoin diligence upon a person, b also in construction to enjoin that 2 To instruct, command, put under an obligation, give directions to (persons) to enjoin a person to be obedient enjoy, vb trans & reflex [1 enjóit, 2 inídjéit], fr O Fr enjoyer, 'to cansa to enjoy', en- & joy A trans 1 (of mental and physical experience) To derive pleasure from, take delight in, experience feelings of satisfaction to enjoy a visit, a book, to enjoy listening to music, to enjoy one's food, walking, a cold bath &c 2 a To have, possess, have the use of to enjoy a modest income, to enjoy good health, specif b to possess sexually B Enjoy oneself, to experience feelings of pleasure, to have a pleasant experience, to have a good time enjoyable, adj [1 enjóyabl, 2 inídjéyabl] Preo & -able A Capable of giving enjoyment, pleasant, agreeable, b capable of being enjoyed enjoyableness, n Preo & -ness Quality of being enjoyable enjoyably, adv See preo & -ly In an enjoyable manner enjoyment, n [1 enjóiment, 2 inídjéiment] enjoy & -ment 1 a Act or state of enjoying (in all senses) enjoyment of health, rights, property &c, b sense of pleasure, delight, satisfaction to take enjoyment in festivities 2 That which affords, source of, pleasure, satisfaction &c, his visit was a great enjoyment to me enkindle, vb trans [1 enkindl, 2 inkindl] en- & kindle '1 (rare, of fire) To light, cause to blaze up, to flame 2 (in spiritual sense) To inflame, inspire, rouse, excite to enkindle a desire for liberty in the hearts of the people, to enkindle passion enlace, vb trans [1 enláse, 2 inlése], fr Fr enlacer, fr Low Lat enlacare, fr in- & laciare, 'to entangle, entwine', fr Lat laqueus, 'a noose, snare' See lace (I) To encircle, entwine, surround, unfold enlacement, n [1 enlásement, 2 inlésement] Preo & -ment The act of enlacing, state of being enlaced enlarge, vb trans & intrans [1 enlárg, 2 inlárg] en- & large A trans 1 (obs) To set at large, release from captivity 2 To make larger, increase the size, capacity, of, a (of material things) to enlarge one's house, a book, a coat, b specif (of photographs) to reproduce on larger scale 3 (of the mind and its capacities) To widen by instruction and experience, give greater breadth and range to to enlarge the mind, the heart, the sympathies, comprehension &c B intrans a To grow larger, b specif (of photographs) to be capable of enlargement, c enlarge upon, to express oneself at length upon, expatiate, give details concerning I need not enlarge further upon this point enlargement, n [1 enlárgment, 2 inlárgment] Preo & -ment 1 (physical and mental) Act or process of enlarging, state of being enlarged the enlargement of a house, of one's mind &c 2 That which is added by enlarging, an addition to build an enlargement to a theatre &c 3 (photog) A reproduction on larger scale enlighten, vb trans [1 enlíftn, 2 inlíftn] en- & lighten 1 (archaic and poet) To shed light upon, illuminate, give light to

2 (in moral sense) a To impart knowledge, perception, discernment to, give mental or spiritual understanding to, to free from prejudice, narrow mindedness, superstition &c to enlighten the ignorant, the heathen &c, b to give information, make meaning clear to to enlighten a person as to one's intentions enlightened, adj [1 enlífted, 2 inlífted], fr P P of preo (only in spiritual sense) a Instructed, informed, having mental and emotional faculties developed and widened, not bound by ignorance, prejudice &c an enlightened age, community &c, an enlightened understanding, intelligence &c, b specif, in state of understanding and comprehension arising from possession of all facts and information bearing on particular point or situation thoroughly enlightened upon the question enlightening, adj [1 enlíftening, 2 inlíftening], fr Preo Part of enlighten Tending to enlighten, a giving an insight into a person's character, thought, intentions, feelings &c his speech was not very enlightening as to his intentions, b tending to impart intellectual or spiritual instruction or understanding an enlightening discourse &c enlightenment, n [1 enlíftment, 2 inlíftment] enlighten & -ment a Act or process of enlightening to labour for the enlightenment of mankind, b state of being enlightened, of intellectual and moral advancement an age of enlightenment enlink, vb trans [1 enlíngk, 2 inlíngk] en- & link (lit and fig) To link together, join by links, connect, unite, link up enlist, vb trans & intrans [1 enlíst, 2 inlíst] en- & list (III) A trans 1 To engage, enrol, for naval or military service 2 To secure, obtain, assistance, support, sympathy, participation &c, in a cause, project, work &c to enlist a person, a person's sympathy, in an enterprise B intrans a To enter naval or military service voluntarily, to enrol one's name as a member of the army or navy, b (fig) to give one's support to, co operate, participate, in the work of, enter the service of to enlist under the banner of revolt enlistment, n [1 enlístment, 2 inlístment] Preo & -ment The act of enlisting, state of being enlisted, specif, enrolment in the army or navy enliven, vb trans [1 enlíven, 2 inlíven] en- & live & -en To give life and liveliness to, a to add gaiety, humour, interest to enliven the conversation, the proceedings &c, b to make more active, brisker, to enliven business, trade &c, c to cheer up, render less gloomy, remove dullness, depression of &c to enliven the dreary routine of duty by occasional bursts of dissipation enmasse, n [1 on máse, 2 á mas] Fr See m & mas (II) All together, as a whole enmesh, enmesh, vb trans [1 enmesh, emesh, 2 inmé, imé] en- & mesh (lit and fig) To entangle, as in meshes of a net enmeshed in difficulties enmeshment, n [1 enmésment, 2 inmésment] Preo & -ment The act of enmeshing, state of being enmeshed enmity, n [1 énmít, 2 énmít] ME enmye, fr O Fr enemiste, Lat inimicitia, 'hostility', fr inimic (us), 'an enemy' See inimical & enmity Hatred, hostile feelings, animosity, antagonism Phr at enmity with, opposed, antagonistic to enned, n [1 enéad, 2 évad], fr Gk ennead (os), genit of enneas, 'a group of nine', fr ennéa, 'nine', & -ad. Gk ennea (fr 'ennea') is cogn. w Lat novem Sert nava, 'nine', Goth nun Aryan base newm*, neum*, nouw*, 'nine' See nine A group of nine things (books, treatises, poems, points &c) ennoble, vb trans [1 ennóbl, 2 innóbl] en- & noble 1 To raise a person to the rank of a noble, create him a peer, make him a member of the nobility 2 (in moral sense) To make noble, to dignify, elevate a character ennobled by suffering ennoblement, n [1 ennoblement, 2 ennoblement] Prec & -ment The act of ennobling, state of being ennobled ennui, n [1 ennuï, 2 ennuï] Fr, fr O Fr ennui, fr Lat in odio, 'in dislike, enmity' See odium, & op annoy Weariness of mind, boredom, lack of interest enormity, n [1 enormity, 2 enormity], fr Fr enormité, fr Lat enormitas (em), 'huge, vastness', fr enormis, 'unusual, immoderate, immense', see next word & -ity 1 Outrageousness, extreme wickedness, inordinate iniquity the enormity of an offence 2 An outrageous crime, a criminal action enormous, adj [1 enormous, 2 enormous], fr Lat enormis (is), 'unusual, irregular, immoderate, immense', fr e- & norma, 'a rule, pattern', see norm, & -ous Very great, huge, immense, of extreme size, a (of material things) an enormous animal, building, meal, b (of non-material things) an enormous difference, the affair assumed enormous dimensions (The sense 'outrageous, wicked' & now obs) enormously, adv. Prec & -ly In an enormous manner, to a very great extent the place has changed enormously, enormously improved enormousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being enormous enough (I), adj [1 enuf, 2 enuf] OE enogh; ME enogh, enough, op OLG gnōg, OHG genug, ON gnāgr, Goth ganōhs Cogn w Goth ganah, OHG gnah, 'it suffices', fr Gmc pref ga- (see y-) & Aryan base nōk*, enōk-, enek-, 'to obtain, bring' Cp Gk enēkein, 'to carry', Sort abōh, 'to reach, obtain', našah, 'to reach', O Slav nesti, 'to carry', Gk ōglos, 'burden' As much as is required, necessary, desirable, forming the requisite amount, adequately meeting a need, desire, expectation, sufficient, a (of material things) to have enough bread, not enough heat to boil the kettle, b (of non-material things) he hasn't enough sense to realize his mistake, he does not take enough care of himself, time enough for the purpose enough (II), n, fr prec (of material and non-material things) a The required amount, as much as is necessary, advisable, a necessary quantity, plenty, a efficiency enough to eat, enough and to spare, more than enough, enough of everything, I have quite enough, b too much, the limit of what can be tolerated I've had quite about, enough of your impudence Phr enough of that!, say no more, be quiet, stop that, keep still!

enough (III), adv, fr enough (I) To the requisite degree, sufficiently the meat is done enough, not enough cooked, he is not conscientious enough Phrs sure enough, without any doubt, certainly, indeed, well enough, a passably, fairly well he plays well enough, b quite well she could do it well enough if she tried Phr it's not good enough, not worth while, not up to one's expectations enounce, vb trans [1 enouns, 2 induns], fr Fr enoncer, fr Lat enuntiare, 'to disclose, publish, report to say, declare', fr e- & nuntiare, 'to announce, declare, make known', fr nunt- (ue), 'announcing, proclaiming, declaring' See nuncio, enunciate a To express in words, to declare, proclaim, announce (a proposition &c.), b to enunciate pronounces, utter (words &c) enouncement, n [1 enouncement, 2 enouncement] Prec & -ment A Act of enouncing, b that which is enounced enow, adj, n, & adv [1 enou, 2 enau] Variant of enough ME enowe (archaic and poet) Same as enough en passant, adv [1 on pason, 2 a pasā] Fr en, 'in', & Pres Part of passer, 'to pass' In passing, by the way enquire, enquiry See inquire, inquiry enrage, vb trans & intrans [1 enrā, 2 enrādē], fr O Fr enrager en- & rage 1 trans To put into a rage, rouse to fury infuriate 2 intrans (rare) To get into a rage, become angry en rapport, adv [1 on rapōr, 2 a rapō(r)] Fr In sympathetic relation with, or to, having communication with enrapture, vb trans [1 enrāpčur, 2 enrāp-tjē] en- & rapture To delight, captivate, entrance, transport with joy or pleasure enravisish, vb trans [1 enrāvisish, 2 enrāvis-] en- & ravish To give great delight to, enrapture enregiment, vb trans [1 enrējiment, 2 enrédziment] en- & regiment To form into a regiment, to organize enregister, vb trans [1 enrējister, 2 enrédziste] en- & register To enter in a register, to enrol, to record en regla, adj & adv [1 on rēgī, 2 a rēgī] Fr See in & regular In order, according to rule, in due form, required by convention enrich, vb trans [1 enrich, 2 enrīč] en- & rich 1 To make rich, a add to material wealth and prosperity of enriched by commerce, by successful speculation &c, b to add to material value, or magnificence of an ornament &c, enriched with gems, with elaborate carving 2 (of soil) To make more fertile and productive by addition of chemical substances poor land needs to be considerably enriched before it will bear good crops 3 (of non-material things) a (of the mind &c) to store with knowledge, develop capacities of by education and experience, b (of any aesthetic creation) to add beauty, ornament, variety to, improve, enhance a style enriched with a lofty diction enrobe, vb trans [1 enrōb, 2 enrōub] en- & robe To invest, adorn, with, or as with, a robe enrol, vb trans [1 enrōl, 2 enrōul] en- & roll (I) 1 a To enter, make record of (a name) in a roll, list, register, b specif, to enter person's name as member of a body or organization 2 (fig) To record, preserve memory of, perpetuate their names are enrolled in the book of fame enrolment, n [1 enrōlment, 2 enrōulment] Prec & -ment Act of enrolling, registration en route, adv [1 on rōūt, 2 a rūt] Fr See in, route is fr Lat rupta via, 'a (road) broken, or out through (obstacles)' See rupture On the way ensample, n [1 ensāmpl, 2 ensāmpl] ME ensample, asample, O Fr essample See en- & sample (archaic) An example ensanguined, adj [1 ensāngwind, 2 ensāngwind] en- & Lat sanguin- (em), 'blood', see sanguine, & -ad a Blood stained, b red like blood ensconce, vb trans [1 enskōns, 2 enskōns] en- & sconce To establish, place, conceal, safely or comfortably ensemble, n [1 onsemb, 2 āsābl] Fr, 'together, total', fr Lat in simul, 'at the same time' See simultaneous, assemble 1 Also tout ensemble, something considered as a whole, the general effect, without reference to detail 2 (mus) Passage of music in which soloists and chorus combine enshrine, vb trans [1 eashrīn, 2 inšrdn] en- & shrine a To place, preserve in, or as in, a shrine, b (fig) to preserve and cherish, as in a shrine a memory enshrined in one's heart enshrinement, n [1 onshrīnment, 2 inšrdment] Prec & -ment The act of enshrining, state of being enshrined enshroud, vb trans [1 ensroud, 2 inšrdud] en- & shroud (lit and fig) To cover as with a shroud, to wrap, envelop, conceal enshrouded in mist ensign, n [1 ēnsīn, 2 ēnsīn], fr O Fr enseigne, fr Lat insignia, pl of insigne, 'mark, sign, signal, badge of office, standard', fr in- & signum, 'a sign, mark, token', &c See insignia, signa 1 A symbol, emblem, token, badge, of office, authority &c 2 Banner, flag, standard, national flag, colours of regiment, esp (British) red, white, or blue flag with Union Jack in corner red ensign, flag of merchant service, blue ensign, of naval reserve, white ensign, of Royal Navy 3 a (mil) Formerly, an infantry officer of the lowest commissioned rank, so called from his duty of carrying the regimental colours, now called second lieutenant, (USA navy) commissioned officer of the lowest rank ensigncy, n [1 ēnsīnā, 2 ēnsīnā] Prec & -cy Rank, commission, of an ensign ensilage (I), n [1 ēnsily, 2 ēnsilydē] See en- & sil- & -age a The process of storing and preserving green fodder in a silo without previously drying, b fodder stored thus ensilage (II), vb trans, fr prec To preserve (fodder) by ensilage ensile, vb trans [1 ensil, 2 ensil] Fr ensiler, fr Span ensilar en- & sil- To store (clover &c) in a silo enslave, vb trans [1 enslāv, 2 enslāv] en- & slave 1 To make a slave or slaves of, reduce to condition of a slave deprive of liberty 2 (fig) To dominate completely the mind, desires, passions, to enthral, bring into subjection intellectually or morally enslaved by beauty, one's passions &c enslavement, n [1 enslāvement, 2 enslāvement] Prec & -ment The act of enslaving, state of being enslaved enslaver, n [1 enslāver, 2 enslāver] en- & slave & -er One who enslaves, specif, woman who dominates a man by her allurements ensnare, vb trans [1 ensnār, 2 ensnār] en- & snare a To catch in a snare, take in a trap, b (fig) to obtain power or influence over by cunning, to allure, entrap ensoul, unsoul, vb trans [1 ensōl, 2 ensōul] en- & soul To bestow a soul upon ensphere, vb trans [1 ensfēr, 2 ensfēr] en- & sphere To enclose in a sphere, to surround, encircle ensure, vb trans & intrans [1 ensū, 2 ensū], fr O Fr ensurer, fr Low Lat insuerer, fr Lat insurgere, 'to follow, pursue, to strive after, to follow, succeed', fr in- & equi, 'to follow' See sequela & su suit (II) 1 trans (obs and Bib) To follow, pursue, strive after seek peace and ensure it 2 intrans To follow, result, appear, happen, as consequence, be consequent on the evils that ensue from lack of stable government ensuing, adj [1 ensūing, 2 ensūing], fr Pres Part of prec a Following, succeeding, coming next in time during the ensuing months, b following as a consequence the revolution and the ensuing economic collapse ensure, vb trans [1 easšūr, 2 easšūr], fr A-Fr enseurer, fr O Fr seur, 'sure, secure', en- & sure 1 To make safe, secure, guard, protect to ensure oneself against the cold, danger &c 2 a To make certain of, secure the certainty of, guarantee I cannot ensure his being there in time, b to secure us a certainty to ensure a post for a person enswath, vb trans [1 enswāth, 2 enswāth] en- & swathe (lit and fig) To wrap, bind, up, to enfold, bind round enswathement, n [1 enswāthment, 2 enswāthment] Prec & -ment A The act of enswathing, state of being enswathed, b something that enswathes, a wrappings, bandage ent, suff forming ns and adjs, fr Lat -ent, Pres Part stem of vbs. of 2nd, 3rd, & 4th conjugations e.g. regent, solent &c entablature, n [1 entablāchur, 2 entablāč] fr Ital intavolatura, fr intavolore, fr in- & tabula, 'a table, base', fr Lat tabula, 'a table, table' See table (archit) Structure, consisting of cornice, frieze, and architrave, immediately above, and supported by, a column and capital entablement, n [1 entablāment, 2 entablāment] Fr See en- & table & -ment 1 Entablature 2 Flat platform on which a statue stands, above the base and dado entail (I), vb trans [1 entail, 2 éntail] en- & tail 'imitation', fr O Fr tailler, 'to cut', Low Lat tahare, 'to cut', cp Ital tagliare, & see tailor 1 (law) To settle succession of an estate inalienably in a particular line of descent 2 To carry with it as a necessary accompaniment or consequence this plan will entail enormous labour upon those who carry it out, his mode of life entailed great expense entail (II), n [1 entail, 2 éntail], fr preo A act of settling succession of an estate in alienably on descendants of a particular person in a special order, b estate the inheritance of which is so settled entailment, n [1 entailment, 2 éntailment] Preo & -ment The act of entailing, state of being entailed entangle, vb trans [1 entangle, 2 éntangle] en- & twiggle 1 To arrest progress of by laying hold of, winding round, to catch entangle one's feet in trailing creeper &c 2 a fishing line gets entangled in bushes &c 2 (fig) a To involve in difficulties put into difficult position, surround with a network of unfavourable circumstances to entangle oneself in debt, b to entrap obtain power and influence over easily entangled by blandishments and flattery entanglement, n [1 entanglement, 2 in-tanglement] Preo & -ment 1 A act of entangling, state of being entangled, b (fig) a situation from which it is difficult to extricate oneself 2 Specif (mil) wire twisted and interwoven so as to form an obstacle, in which the enemy may become entangled entasis, n [1 entasis, 2 éntasis] Gk, 'a stretching', fr enteinai, 'to stretch', fr en- & teinai, 'to stretch', q v under tone (archit) A slight convexity in the shaft of a column or in a tall spire introduced to correct the visual illusion of concavity in a straight, upright object entelechy, n [1 entelechy, 2 éntelechy], fr Gk entelekhia, a term formed by Aristotle, fr en telos ekhein, 'to have in perfection', fr en 'in', telos, 'end, perfection', & ekhein, 'to have, hold' See teleology & epoch In Aristotelian and Scholastic philosophy, a term used to signify the perfect form attained by anything by reason of which it actually exists and realizes its true function, the actual as opposed to its potential cause entellus monkey, n [1 entellus mungki, 2 entelas mungki] So called prob fr name of a mythical Sicilian boxer and hero Scythio name of the langur or hanuman, the long tailed sacred monkey of India entente, n [1 ontent, 2 éntite] Fr, fr PP of entendre, 'to understand' &c, Lat intendere See intend An understanding between two governments, specif (entente cordiale) friendly understanding and relations established between England and France in 1905, less formal and strictly defined than an alliance enter, vb trans & intrans [1 enter, 2 énte] ME entren fr O Fr entrer, fr Lat intrare, 'to go into', formed fr Lat intra, 'within' See intra- A trans 1 (of physical action or movement) a To come, go, pass, inside, or within, an enclosed or covered space to enter a room house, cave, tunnel, tent field &c Phr (fig) to enter the lists (against), espouse a cause, engage in controversy, come forward as a champion for, or opponent of, b to penetrate, pierce and pass into or through (flesh &c) the bullet entered the skull behind the right ear 2 (of mental process) To occur, come into the mind be in the thoughts such an idea never entered my head 3 To go into, join, become a member, of a body, society, profession &c to enter a university, a club the Army, the Church 4 a To put down in writing add (name) to a list, enrol as a member, or future member, of a society &c to enter a boy's name, a boy, for a public school, b to make record or note of, to register to enter an engagement, an event, in a diary, to enter a sum in a ledger &c, Phr to enter a protest, lit, make official record of in books of deliberative body, (fig) to make a protest in general B intrans a To carry out action of entering, coming in at this moment the king entered, Phr (as stage direction) enter first murderer &c, b to penetrate the marl where the bullet had entered was quite visible C Followed by adv, *rh*s or prepositions Enter for, n trans, to put down the name of, obtain admission for, register as taking part in to enter a yacht for a race, b intrans, to enrol one's name, register, be admitted, as a competitor in to enter for a race Enter into, 1 a to engage in, begin to take part in, occupy oneself with to enter into conversation, negotiation, b to proceed to the discussion of, discuss, deal with to enter into particulars, details, c to engage oneself, bind oneself by, take upon oneself as an obligation, become a party to to enter into a compact, engagement, treaty, 2 to form part of, be a factor in, be a component of, a (of material things) water enters into the composition of all vegetables, b (of non material things) that possibility did not enter into our calculations, 3 a to sympathize with, be able to realize, appreciate, comprehend to enter into a person's feelings, ideas &c, to enter into the fun of the thing, b to share, take part in, partake to enter into all the amusements and gaieties of the place Enter up, to complete entries in, insert all necessary items in to enter up a ledger, an account in a ledger Enter upon, a to take possession of, begin to enjoy to enter upon an inheritance, b to begin, set out on, embark upon to enter upon one's duties, a career, a new life, to enter upon a new phase, stage enterable, adj [1 enterable, 2 énterabl] Preo & -able Capable of being entered enteric, adj & n [1 enteric, 2 énterik], fr Gk enterikos, fr enter (on) 'intestine', fr en- & compar suff (e)tro, cogn w Lat intus, 'inside', intra, 'within', Scrt antarā, 'interior', O Slav atro ba, 'entrails' See inter- a adj Of, pertaining to, the intestines enteric fever, typhoid, b o, enteric fever enteritis, n [1 enteritis, 2 énteritis] See preo & -itis A general term for various inflammatory conditions of the intestines entero- pref Form of Gk enteron, 'intestine', see enteric used in composition, in formation of words used in medicine, eg enterolith, 'stone in the intestines' enterprise, n [1 enterprise, 2 éntapraziz], fr O Fr entreprise, fr PP of entreprendre, 'to undertake', fr entre, 'between' (see inter-) & Lat pre(h)ndere, 'to take, lay hold of, seize, reach, attain' See prize (III) 1 Something undertaken, attempted, a plan, undertaking, project, scheme, esp n daring, difficult venture, a bold, adventurous scheme 2 Quality of mind which inclines to boldness and confidence in embarking upon new and difficult or risky ventures, capacity for initiating new lines of action a spirit of enterprise, to have no enterprise 3 Act of initiating and embarking upon new ventures many national movements begin with private enterprise enterprising, adj [1 enterprising, 2 éntapraziz] Preo & -ing a (of persons and their character) Inclined to adventurous activity, having capacity for starting new ventures b (of action) proceeding from, exhibiting, a spirit of enterprise enterprisingly, adv Preo & -ly In an enterprising manner entertain, vb trans & intrans [1 entertain, 2 éntertain], fr Fr entretenir, fr Lat inter- & tenere, 'to hold, to possess, to preserve, guard, to maintain, support, to have in the mind, know' See tenable & tend A trans 1 (archaic) To keep up, carry on, maintain (a correspondence &c) 2 a To have in one's mind, cherish, foster to entertain a hope, idea, b to reflect favourably on, consider, approve the possibility or desirability of I cannot entertain such a proposal 3 To give, show, hospitality to, receive as guest(s) to entertain a party at dinner Phr to entertain angels unawares 4 To amuse, divert, interest, occupy the mind of agreeably the play entertained us very much, to entertain the company with tricks B intrans To make a practice, be in the habit, of showing hospitality these people entertain a great deal entertained, adj [1 entertained, 2 éntertainé], fr PP of preo Amused, diverted, agreeably interested I was more entertained by watching the audience than by the performers entertaining, adj [1 entertaining, 2 éntertainé] Preo & -ing Amusing, diverting, agreeable, affording amusement or pleasant diversion an entertaining conversation, story, an entertaining talker entertainingly, adv Preo & -ly In an entertaining manner entertainment, n [1 entertainment, 2 éntertainment] entertain & -ment Act of entertaining, state of being entertained In various senses 1 a bestowal of hospitality, a party, reception to give an entertainment to one's friends, b hospitality in general a good house for entertainment Phr house of entertainment, hostelry, inn, public house 2 a Performance or exhibition designed to interest or amuse a theatrical, musical, entertainment, b amused, interested, state of mind, amusement, interest his antics were a perpetual source of entertainment enthral(l), vb trans [1 enthral, 2 inprál] en- & thrall 1 (rare and archaic) To hold in thrall, to bring into bondage, enslave 2 (fig, mental or moral effect) To obtain power over, captivate, charm, absorb, hold to be enthralled by a novel, by beauty &c enthraling, adj [1 enthraling, 2 inpráling] fr Preo Part of preo Of such a character as to absorb the attention and interest, possessing great and absorbing interest an enthraling occupation, story &c enthralment, n [1 enthralment, 2 inpráment] Preo & -ment The act of enthralling, state of being enthralled enthroned, vb trans [1 enthron, 2 inproun] en- & throne 1 To place (a king or bishop) on a throne, specif, to invest with regal or ecclesiastical dignity by a formal ceremony 2 (fig) To accord a position of importance and pre-eminence to, in one's judgement or affection the old Queen was enthroned in the hearts of her people enthronement, n [1 enthronement, 2 inpróment] Preo & -ment The act of enthroning, state of being enthroned, the ceremony of enthroning enthronization, n [1 enthronization, 2 inpróvanzéizán] enthroned & -ize & -ation (lit and fig) Enthronement enthuse, vb intrans [1 enthuz, 2 inprúz] fr next word (colloq) To become enthusiastic, express enthusiasm enthusiasm, n [1 entbúziám, 2 inprúz] zúziám, fr L Lat, fr Gk enthousiasmos, 'inspiration, enthusiasm', fr enthousiazein, 'to be inspired, in ecstasy, possessed by a god, divinely inspired', fr enthous, 'inspired, possessed, by a god', fr en- & theos, 'a god' See theo- 1 Intense admiration, zeal for, an object or cause enthusiasm for the King, for the war, for sport 2 Outward manifestations of zeal, approval, admiration his appearance was greeted with an outburst of enthusiasm 3 Religious or spiritual exaltation, pietism, mysticism, used disparagingly in 17th cent of the religious attitude of the Puritans, and in 18th of that of the Methodists enthusiast, n [1 entbúziast, 2 inprúzast] fr Gk enthousiastés, 'an enthusiast', fr enthousiazein, 'to be inspired' See preo 1 One who is animated by intense, fiery zeal for an object or a cause 2 Formerly in disparaging sense of certain types of religious zealots See preo 3 enthusiastic, adj [1 enthusiastik, 2 enthusiastik] Pres & -ly 1 a (of persons) Full of enthusiasm, ardent, zealous an enthusiastic supporter, b (of action, speech, conduct &c) expressing, characterized by, enthusiasm, cordial, eager, ardent an enthusiastic welcome, to give enthusiastic support to a cause 2 Formerly in disparaging sense, possessing religious enthusiasm, q v enthusiastically, adv [1 enthusiastikali, 2 enthusiastikali] Pres & -ly In an enthusiastic manner enthymeme, n [1 enthymēm, 2 enthymēm], fr Lat, fr Gk enthymēma, 'a thought, argument', fr enthymēsthai, 'consider, reflect on', fr en- & thymos, 'the mind, soul', q v under fume (log) A syllogism with one premise omitted, as 'we are beggars and therefore cannot be choosers', the major premise, 'beggars cannot be choosers', being unexpressed entice, vb trans [1 entis, 2 entis] ME entisen, fr O Fr enticer, prob orig 'to set on fire', hence 'to cause to desire ardently', op Mod Fr attiser, 'to stir a fire', fr en- & Lat titio, 'a burning brand' Cogn w Gk titō, 'day', Titōn, 'the sun god' Cp Titan To allure, tempt, persuade, to go somewhere or do something, by holding out an attraction, offering a bait, often entice away enticement, n [1 entisment, 2 entisment] Pres & -ment 1 The act of enticing, state of being enticed 2 Something that entices, an allurement enticing, adj [1 entising, 2 entising], fr Pres Part of entice Tending to entice, alluring, inviting, attractive an enticing prospect enticingly, adv Pres & -ly In an enticing manner entire, adj & n [1 entir, 2 entire], fr O Fr entier, fr Lat integrum, nom integer, 'undiminished, whole, unimpaired, unimpaired, fresh, new, honest, virtuous' See integer 1 adj Whole, complete In various senses a (of a set or collection) not broken into, having full number our best china tea-service is not quite entire, b not defective, unbroken, not cracked or flawed the plate is very nearly entire, merely having the edge slightly chipped, c full, perfect entire love, entire ignorance &c, d (of male animals) ungelded 2 n a Something unalloyed, unmixed, a substance having same quality and kind throughout specif (of beer &c) Droughty's entire, b an uncastrated animal, a stallion entirely, adv Pres & -ly a Completely, wholly, without qualification, not in part only entirely lost, forgotten &c, b solely, only, alone to be devoted entirely to money making entireness, n See pres & -ness The state of being entire entirety, n [1 entirta, 2 entirta], fr O Fr entiereté, fr Lat integritas (em), 'completeness, soundness, blamelessness, integrity' See integrity 1 The state of being entire, completeness, esp in Plur in its entirety 2 (law) Property of the whole of which two persons are jointly seized entitle, vb trans [1 entitl, 2 entitl], fr O Fr entiteler, fr Lat entitulare, 'to give a name to', in- & title 1 To give a title, name, appellation, to persons or things, to designate 2 To give, carry, imply, a right or claim to this ticket entitles the holder to a seat in the stalls, his age and learning entitled him to respect entity, n [1 entita, 2 entita], fr Fr entite, Lat entitas (em), fr enti stem of L Lat ens, 'a thing', Pres Part of esse, 'to be', on the anal of praezens, absens &c See esse A real thing in itself, distinct from its qualities and attributes, being, existence ento-, pref meaning 'within', fr Gk entō- (s), 'within, inside' Cogn w Lat intus, 'within, place whence', fr in-, as entophyte, entozoos &c entomb, vb trans [1 entōm, 2 entōm] en- & tomb (lit and fig) a To place, enclose, in a tomb, b to be a tomb for, enclose as in a tomb entombment, n [1 entōdment, 2 entōdment] Pres & -ment The act of entombing, state of being entombed entomiac, edj [1 entōmik, 2 entōmik] Next word & -ic Of, pertaining to, insects entomo-, pref meaning 'insect, of insects', fr Gk entōmōs (s), 'out up, out in pieces', so called from shape and structure, op insect, fr en- & tōmos, 'something cut off, a slice, section, a volume' See terms entomological, adj [1 entōmōlogik, 2 entōmōlogik] entomology & -ic & -al Pertaining to entomology entomologist, n [1 entōmōlogist, 2 entōmōlogist] entomology & -ist A student of entomology entomologize, vb trans [1 entōmōlogiz, 2 entōmōlogiz] Next word & -ize To study entomology entomology, n [1 entōmōlogi, 2 entōmōlogi] entomo- & -logy Scientific study of insects, also used to embrace the study of spiders &c, which scientifically are not insects at all, economic entomology, study of insect pests entomophilous, adj [1 entōmōfilus, 2 entōmōfilus] entomo- & -philous (hot, of plants) Attracting insects for purpose of fertilization, fertilized by insects entophyte, n [1 entōfit, 2 entōfit] ento- & Gk phylon, 'plant', see -phyte A vegetable parasite, such as a fungus or bacterium, living within the body of an animal or of another plant entourage, n [1 entōrahzh, 2 entōrahzh] Fr a Environment, surroundings, circumstances, b followers, retainers, circle of attendants entozoa, n pl [1 entōzōa, 2 entōzōa] ento- & Gk zōa, 'animals' See zoo- Internal parasites, such as intestinal worms entr'acte, n [1 entrakt, 2 entrakt] Fr a Interval between two acts of a play or opera, b an independent performance, interlude, performed during such an interval entrails, n pl [1 entrāls, 2 entrāls] ME entraille, fr O Fr entraille, fr Low Lat intrālia, fr Lat inter, 'within' See inter- Internal organs, viscera, guts, specif, intestines entrain, vb trans & intrans [1 entrān, 2 entrān] en- & train a trans To put into a train to entrain troops, b intrans, to get into a train entrammel, vb trans [1 entrāml, 2 entrāml] en- & trammel To hamper, trammel entrance (I), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (II), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (III), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (IV), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (V), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (VI), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (VII), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrance (VIII), n [1 entrāns, 2 entrāns] O Fr See enter & -ance 1 The act of entering, coming or going in, specif a the coming of an actor on to the stage, b the act of beginning a career, a new occupation, act of becoming a member of some organized body entrancingly, adv Pres & -ly In an entrancing manner entrant, n [1 entrānt, 2 entrānt] Fr, Pres Part of entrer, 'to enter' enter & -ant One who enters, one who is entering a profession, a society &c, one who enters for a contest, competition &c entrap, vb trans [1 entrāp, 2 entrāp] fr O Fr entraper en- & trap (rare in lit sense) a To catch, take, in, or as in, a trap, ensnare, b (fig) to get a person into one's power, to deceive by cunning, artifice, to ensnare, beguile, cozen to be entrapped into doing something entreat, vb trans [1 entrēt, 2 entrēt] fr O Fr entreater en- & treat 1 (archaic and Bib) To treat, behave to evilly entreated 2 To beg earnestly, express a fervent desire, beseech, implore entreaty, adj [1 entrētung, 2 entrētung] Pres Part of pres Conveying entreaty, imploring entreatingly, adv Pres & -ly In an entreating manner entreaty, n [1 entrētū, 2 entrētū] entreat & -y Urgent request, insistent demand, earnest prayer entrée, n [1 entrā, 2 entrā] Fr See entry 1 The privilege, right, of entering, right of admission to have the entrée of a house, social circle &c 2 A course at a meal, served between the fish and the joint entremets, n [1 entrēmā, 2 entrēmā] Fr, lit 'between the dishes' Side dish, extra dish served between two courses of a dinner entrench, vb trans [1 entrēnch, 2 entrēnch] en- & trench 1 a To surround, protect (a town, camp, forces &c) with entrenchments, b (fig) to entrench one self, to establish oneself firmly and securely in a position, 2 (rare) Entrench upon, encroach entrenchment, n [1 entrēnchment, 2 entrēnchment] Pres & -ment 1 The act of entrenching, state of being entrenched 2 (mil) A trench for defensive purposes, including parapet of earth entrou nous, adv [1 entrō nōs, 2 entrō nōs] Fr Between ourselves, speaking confidentially entrapot, n [1 entrōpōt, 2 entrōpōt] Fr, fr Lat interpositum, 'that which is placed between' See inter- & position A place where goods are stored until exported or distributed, a warehouse, distributing centre entreprenur, n [1 entrēprēnr, 2 entrēprēnr] Fr, op enterprise One who promotes, organizes, manages, an undertaking, specif, one who organizes theatrical or musical performances entresol, n [1 entrēsōl, 2 entrēsōl] Fr A story between the ground floor and first floor of a building entropy, n [1 entrōpi, 2 entrōpi] fr en- & Gk trōpē, 'a turn, change', & -y on anal of energy See trope (phys) Measure of the waste thermal energy, not available for conversion into mechanical work, symbol ϕ entrust, intrust, vb trans [1 intrōst, 2 intrōst] en- & trust 1 To put into the hands of, hand over to, give into care of to entrust (the care of) one's daughter to a faithful friend 2 To assign as a task or duty to be performed to entrust the duty of doing something to (a person), or to entrust a person with a duty &c entry, n [1 entrī, 2 entrī] fr Fr entrée, fr Lat intrāta, P P type of intrāre, 'to go in, enter, penetrate' See enter 1 Act of entering, of coming or going into, entrance

entry, n [1 entrī, 2 entrī] fr Fr entrée, fr Lat intrāta, P P type of intrāre, 'to go in, enter, penetrate' See enter 1 Act of entering, of coming or going into, entrance

entry, n [1 entrī, 2 entrī] fr Fr entrée, fr Lat intrāta, P P type of intrāre, 'to go in, enter, penetrate' See enter 1 Act of entering, of coming or going into, entrance

entry, n [1 entrī, 2 entrī] fr Fr entrée, fr Lat intrāta, P P type of intrāre, 'to go in, enter, penetrate' See enter 1 Act of entering, of coming or going into, entrance

entry, n [1 entrī, 2 entrī] fr Fr entrée, fr Lat intrāta, P P type of intrāre, 'to go in, enter, penetrate' See enter 1 Act of entering, of coming or going into, entrance weave, twine, together, interlace 2 To twist round, wreath, wind round a tree entwined with ivy, entwined by one another's arms 3 To make by twisting together to entwine a garland entwist, intwist, vb trans [1 intwist, 2 intwist] en- & twist a To make into a twist, b to twist together enucleate, vb trans [1 enúkliát, 2 inúkli-est], fr Lat enúcleat (um), PP type of enúcleare, 'to take out the kernel, remove from the husk', (fig) 'to make clear, explain', fr e- & núcle (us), 'a nut, kernel' See nucleus 1 To strip of ambiguity, make clear, bring to light 2 (surg) To remove (a tumour &c) from its covering sac enucleation, n [1 enúkliášun, 2 inúkli-eshen] Prec & -ion The act of enucleating enumerate, vb trans [1 enúmerat, 2 i, inúmerot], fr Lat enumerat (us), PP type of enumerare, 'to count, count out, to recount, relate, enumerate', fr e- & numerare, to count, number' See number (II) 1 To compute number of, count up one after another 2 To rehearse in order, go through a list of enumeration, n [1 enúmerášun, 2 inú-mereshen] Prec & -ion a The act of enumerating, state of being enumerated, b a list, detailed account, list of items mentioned singly enumerative, adj [1 enúmeratív, 2 inú-merotiv] enumerative & -ive Enumerating, pertaining to enumeration enunciate, vb trans [1 enúnsiát, -sát, 2 inúnsiét, -siet], fr Lat enúnciat (um), PP type of enúnciare, 'to disclose, report, tell, to express, declare, to pronounce', fr e- & núnciare, 'to announce, declare, make known', fr nunci (us), 'a bearer of news, messenger' See nuncio 1 To propound, declare, state formally and definitely enunciate a theory, doctrine &c 2 To utter action lately, pronounce enunciation, n [1 enúnsiášun, 2 inúnsi-eshen] Prec & -ion 1 The act of enunciating, state of being enunciated 2 Manner of enunciating enunciative, adv [1 enúnsiativ, 2 inúnsi-ativ] enunciative & -ive a Declaring, enunciating, declaratory, b pertaining to enunciation enure See inure

envelop, vb trans [1 envelop, 2 invelóp], fr O Fr envelop See en- & develop a (of material process) To wrap round, enfold, cover completely enveloped in flames, in mist, to envelop oneself in a blanket, b (fig, of action on non material things) to obscure, conceal, render difficult to know or understand the subject was enveloped in mystery envelope, n [1 envelóp, envelop 2 enveloup, enveloup, enveloup], fr Fr enveloppe, n, fr prec That in which something is folded, enclosed wrapped up, outer covering, wrapping, specif a case or cover of paper for enclosing letters &c, with gummed flap for closing, b the outer covering enclosing the gas bag, or bags, of a balloon or airship envelopment n [1 envelopement, 2 invelópment] envelop & -ment 1 The act of enveloping state of being enveloped 2 Something that envelops, a covering envenom, vb trans [1 envenum, 2 invenam] en- & venom a To make poisonous, apply venom to, infuse poison into, b (fig) to fill, imbue, with malice bitterness, malignity envenomed words, feelings &c, an envenomed tongue enviable, adj [1 enviabl, 2 enviabl] envy envious, adj [1 envious, 2 envious] fr O Fr envius, fr Lat invidiosus, 'full of envy, envious, exorting envy' See invidious 1 (of person or feeling) Animated by, experiencing, envious of another's luck 2 (of words, looks &c) Expressing envy, characterized by envy an envious glance enviously, adv Prec & -ly In an envious manner environ, vb trans [1 envirun, 2 invideran], fr Fr environner, fr O Fr environ See environs (lit and fig) To surround, encompass, form a circle round, encircle envi-roned by hills, environed by perils, (archaic) 'a damsel environed with a garland' (Spenser) environment, n [1 onvrunment, 2 inviderment] Prec & -ment 1 The act of environing, state of being environed 2 That which surrounds, specif (biol) surroundings and circumstances in which an organism lives, external conditions of life quick to adapt itself to its environment, (also fig) social, moral, and religious environment environs, n [1 envirun, envirun, 2 enviranz, invideranz], fr O Fr environ, fr en- & viron, 'around, going round, fr vire, 'to turn round' See veer District immediately surrounding, lying on the outskirts of, a place, ntlly suburbs, surrounding country Oxford and its environs envisage, vb trans [1 envizy, 2 invideriz], fr O Fr envisager en- & visage 1 To face, look in the face, confront envisage facts, realities, dangers &c 2 To visualize, bring before the mind's eye, contemplate envoy (I), n [1 envoi, 2 envoi] O Fr, fr envoyer, 'to send', fr en voie, 'on the way' See voyage Concluding, valedictory, stanza of an archaic type of poem, esp of the ballade, according to convention usually beginning—'Prince envoy (II), n, fr Fr envoyé, PP of O Fr envoyer, 'to send out' See prec a One entrusted with a mission, messenger, agent, representative, b specif, a diplomat representative, of rank below that of ambassador, minister plenipotentiary envy (I), n [1 envi, 2 envi] O Fr envie, fr Lat invidia, 'envy, jealousy', fr invidere, 'to look maliciously at, look askance at, to be prejudiced against, to envy, grudge' See invidious 1 Feeling of grudging ill will provoked by the superior talents, possessions, success, or other advantages enjoyed by another, combined with mortification at one's own deficiency in such qualities or advantages envy (II) vb trans, fr Fr envier, fr Low Lat invidiare, 'to envy', fr invidia, 'envy' See prec To have feelings of envy, excited by a person enjoying superior advantages &c, or by the advantages themselves, constructions a you are a very lucky man, I must say I envy you, b I envy your good fortune, o I envy you your pleasant rooms, Phr (with neg) I don't envy him his ugly, ill tempered wife, I'm glad she's not my wife enwind, vb trans [1 enwind, 2 inwind] en- & wind (IV) (of a thing) To wind, twist, coil (itself), round something else enwomb, vb trans [1 enwomb, 2 inwim] en- & womb To enclose, conceal, as in the womb enwrap, inwrap, vb trans [1 inráp, 2 inráp] en- & wrap (lit and fig) To wrap up, enfold, lap, surround, cover with wrapping enwreath, vb trans [1 enréth, 2 inréth] en- & wreath 1 To wind round, surround with, as with, a wreath. 2 To twist together, intertwine enzootic, adj [1 enzootik, 2 enzootik], fr en- & zoon, 'animal', see zoo-, & -ic Of diseases, affecting animals over a certain area or at specific season, corresponding to endemic in man enzyme, n [1 enzim, 2 enzum], fr Late Gk. enzymos, 'leavened', fr Gk en-, 'in', & zumé, 'leaven' See zymotic (biol) A chemical ferment, contrasted with yeast and other organic ferments eo-, pref, fr Gk ēōs, 'dawn', fr ēuōs* (see aurora), used to form technical terms in palaeontology and geology with force of 'very early or earliest known in time' eoanthropus, n [1 ēōanthrōpus, 2 lounen-proups] eo- & Latinized form of Gk. anthrōpos, 'man' See anthropo- One of the earliest and most primitive human types, definitely distinguished, however, from the highest type of anthropoid ape, typified by the skull found at Pildown, Sussex, hence also known as Pildown man eoene, adj [1 ēōsen, 2 lousin] eo- & Gk. laios, 'new, recent' See kainite & op recent (geol) Belonging to the earliest, lowest division of the Tertiary period.

echinops, n [1 ēōhipus, lounhips] eo- & Gk. hippos, 'horse' See hippo- An extinct animal, known by its fossilized remains, regarded as the earliest progenitor of the horse ecolith, n [1 ēōlith, 2 lounlith] See next word The earliest, very rudely formed flint implement, a rough stone, but slightly adapted from natural state, having much less elaboration than a palaeolithic implement ecolithic, adj [1 ēōlithik, 2 lounlithik] eo- & Gk. lithos, 'a stone' See litho- (geol and archaeol) Pertaining to the earliest part of the Stone Age or to a period preceding the Palaeolithic Age eon See aeon

eosin(e), n, [1 ēōsin, 2 lousin], fr Gk. ēōs, 'dawn' See eo- & -in(e) A pink, rose-coloured fluorescent dyestuff, used for staining microscopic objects

-eons, adjectival suff denoting 'of the nature of', fr Lat e (us) & -one a Added directly to Lat nouns igneous, aqueous, b to Fr nouns dulceous, beateous ep-, pref Gk epi- before vowels epact, n [1 ēpakt, 2 īpakt], fr Fr épacte, fr Lat, fr Gk epaktē, 'epact', fr epaktai (hēmerai), 'intercalary days', fr ēpdein, 'to bring in, bring forward', to add, intercalate, fr ep- & agēin, 'to do' See under agent 1 The excess of the solar year over 12 lunar months 2 The age of the moon on the first day of the year eparch, n [1 ēpark, 2 ēpark], fr Gk ēparkh (os), 'a commander, governor', fr ep- & arkhōs, 'a leader, chief' See arch- a Governor of an eparchy, b bishop of an eparchy eparchy, n [1 ēparkh, 2 ēparkh], fr Gk. ēparkhōs, 'province', prec & -y 1 A subdivision of the modern kingdom of Greece 2 (Gk. Ch.) A Russian diocese epaulment, n [1 ēpōlmon, 2 ēpōlmā] Fr, fr épauler, 'to support with the shoulder', fr épaul, 'shoulder' See next word & -ment (fort) a breastwork, thrown up to protect the side of a battery &c from a flanking fire epaulette, n [1 ēpolet, 2 ēpolet], fr Fr épaulette, dimin of épaule, 'shoulder', earlier espaule, fr L Lat spatula, spatula, dimin of spatula, 'a broad, flat wooden instrument, any broad, flat object' See spatula An ornamental piece on shoulder of military or naval uniform, worn only by officers in the British navy army officers now wear a shoulder strap with badge of rank.

epenthesis n [1 ēpenthesis, 2 ēpenthesis] Gk, insertion epi- & an- & thesis (gram) a A letter or syllable inserted in a syllable or word, b often misleadingly applied by extension from a mere graphic process, to describe a fact of pronunciation, specif, o g to the i, which often arises in Greek from the diphthonging of a vowel before a fronted, or 'palatalized' consonant, as in ἐξέρω, 'I ship, out', fr ἐξέρω*, where j first fronts the r, which in its turn diphthongizes the e by producing a glide sound between itself and the latter epergne, n [1 apérn, ápárn, 2 epán, espán] Said to be fr Fr épargne, 'a saving', the origin of wh is unknown. Large, branched, ornamental centre-piece of porcelain, silver, or gold, for table, for holding fruit &c, consisting of several divisions or receptacles combined, supported by a stand epexegesis, n [1 epexesis, 2 epexisidzsis] ep- & exegesis An added explanation, further elucidation epexegetical, adj [1 epexesjetikl, 2 epexisidzstikl] ep- & exegetical Of, pertaining to, epexegesis epexegetically, adv Preo & -ly By means of epexegesis eph-, pref Gk epi- before h ephebe, ephebus, n [1 efb, -ns, 2 efib, -as], fr Lat, fr Gk ephēbos, 'a youth', fr eph- & hēbē, 'youth, early manhood' See Hebe (in ancient Greece) A free born citizen between the ages of 18 and 20 ephemera, ephemeron, n [1 efēmēra, efēmēra, -ion, 2 efimara, efemēra, -ron], fr Gk ephēmeros, 'living only for a day, short lived, temporary', fr eph- & hēmēra, 'day'. By the side of the aspirated (Attic) form, other dialects have h-less forms, ēmēra, āmēra &c. The forms w h suggest a base ēm*, sām*, & a connexion w Sert sāmā, 'year', & Gmo sumar, 'summer' (see summer), but it is not certain that the h is not secondarily developed through factors not at present understood, & that the Aryan form was not āmer*. wh appears to be the base of Armen aur, 'day'. A insect, genus of insects, such as the may-fly, living only for a day, b a short lived thing ephemeral, adj [1 efēmēral, -emeral, 2 efimēral, -emēral] Preo & -al 1 Living, lasting, only for a day (of insects, flowers &c) 2 (fig) Fleeting, transitory, of short duration, soon passing away ephemeral pleasures, prosperity, beliefs &c ephemerality, n [1 efēmēraliti, efēmēraliti, 2 efimēraliti, efemēraliti] Preo & -ity The quality of being ephemeral ephemerid, n [1 efēmērid, 2 efēmērid], fr ephemera (a) and -id, fr Lat -idae, pl suff, 'family of' (zool) One of a family, Ephemeridae, of slender, delicate flying insects, such as the may-flies, which live but a few hours ephemeris, n [1 efēmēris, efēmēris, 2 efimēris, efemēris], fr Gk ephēmeris, 'a diary, journal, a calendar', fr ephēmer-(os), 'lasting for a day' See ephemera An astronomical calendar or almanac, a table giving the positions of a celestial body on successive days ephod, n [1 efod, 2 efod] Esh, fr āphād, 'to put on' a Outer, coloured, embroidered vestment of Jewish high priest, with shoulder-pieces bearing the names of the twelve tribes engraved on onyx, b a priestly garment connected with divination by lots ephor, n [1 efēr, 2 efēr], fr Gk ephor-(os), 'an overseer, ephor', fr eph- & horāem, 'to see, look, perceive', fr base uorā*, 'attention', cogn w OE waru, OS, OHG wara, 'attention', Lat vereor, 'observe with fear' See ware (II) 1 (in ancient Greece) One of five magistrates holding supreme power, in Sparta &c 2 (in modern Greece) Name of various administrative officials, e.g. Ephor of Antiquities &c epi-, pref Gk epi, 'at, upon, over, up to, on account of, beyond, besides', in composition, 'rest at, after, in time, addition, accompaniment, reciprocal action' Cogn w Sert epi, 'also, besides, on, at', op also Goth af-tuma, 'later' By the side of epi there was also opi, Gk opithen, 'from behind', Sert abhi, for first element of wh op ob-, & for the second by Epi appears to have assumed in part the functions of obi*, 'towards, on'

epiblast, n [1 epiblast, 2 epiblast] epi- & blast first element of blastoderm (biol) The outer germ layer of the embryo epio, n & adj [1 epik, 2 epik], fr Lat, fr Gk epik-(os), adj, 'epio', fr ep-(os), 'a word, a speech, tale, song, lay, epio poetry' See epos & -io 1 n A narrative poem, in primitive times one which was recited, describing a series of deeds and adventures of a hero who is the central figure 2 adj Pertaining to, connected with, of the nature of, an epio epical, adj [1 epikl, 2 epikl] Preo & -al Epic epically, adv Preo & -ly In the manner of an epic epicedium, n [1 episcidum, 2 episcidum], fr Lat epicēdium, fr Gk epikēdeion, 'a dirge, elegy', fr epi- & kēdeia, 'care for the dead, funeral', fr kēdos, 'care, concern for, trouble, sorrow, funeral rites' Cp Gk kēdeios, 'dear, precious', akēdēs, 'unfeeling, indifferent' Cogn w Zend ādāra, 'evil, unhappiness', Goth hatis, OE hate, hete, 'hatred, anger' The base kād*, kad*, -meant, apparently, 'strong feeling, disposition of mind', this might be favourable, cp the Gk senses, or unfavourable, as in those of the other languages See further under hate (I) A funeral hymn, dirge epicene, adj & n [1 episen, 2 episin], fr Lat epicoenus, fr Gk epikoin-(os), 'common, promiscuous', (gram) 'of both genders', fr epi- & ikos, 'common' See coeno- 1 adj a (gram) Of common gender, denoting either sex, b (of persons) having the characteristics of both sexes, c of indeterminate character, neither one thing nor the other 2 n One who, thing which, is epicene epicentrum, epicentre, n [1 episentrum, -sēter, 2 episētrum, -sēntē], fr Gk epikētros, 'at the central point' epi- & centre Area of the earth's surface immediately above the centre of origin of an earthquake epicure, n [1 epikūr, 2 epikūr], fr Lat Epicurus, fr Gk Epikouros, Gk philosopher who was regarded as teaching the doctrine that the pleasures of the senses are the highest good One who enjoys luxury and pleasure inordinately, esp one who understands, is fastidious regarding, and enjoys the pleasures of, delicate food and drink epicurean, adj & n [1 epikūrean, 2 epikūrean] Preo & -ean a adj Connected with an epicure and his tastes, b n, an epicure

Epicureanism, n [1 epikūreanizm, 2 epikūreanizm] Preo & -ism a The doctrines of Epicurus, b epicurism epicurism, n [1 epikūrizm, 2 epikūrizm] epicure & -ism The state of being an epicure, the cultivation of a delicate and fastidious taste in eating and drinking epicycle, n [1 episikl, 2 episikl], fr Gk epikuklos epi- & cycle A circle whose centre moves round the circumference of another and larger circle epicyclo, adj [1 episiklik, 2 episiklik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, an epicycle epicycloid, n [1 episikloid, 2 episikloid] epicycle & -oid Curve traced by a point on the circumference of a circle rolling upon the outer circumference of another circle epicycloidal, adj [1 episikloidl, 2 episikloidl] Preo & -al a Tracing an epicycloid, b having the form of an epicycloid epideictic, adj [1 epidiktik, 2 epidiktik], fr Gk epideiktik (os), 'for displaying, showing off, ostentatious' epi- & deictic a Serving to display, exhibit, show off, b designed for display, intended to be impressive, ostentatious epidemic (I), epidemic, adj [1 epidēmik (I), 2 epidēmik (I)], fr Fr épidémique, fr epi- & dēmia, fr L Lat, fr Gk epidēmia, 'staying at home, prevalence of an epidemic', fr epidēm-(os), 'at home, current, epidemic' epi- & dēmos, 'people' See demos & -ic & -al a (of disease) Prevalent among, affecting, a large number of persons in a community at the same time for a limited period, contrasted with endemic, b (fig, of ideas, fashions &c) generally prevailing, prevalent epidemic (II), n, fr preo An epidemic disease, also fig epidemic, adv [1 epidēmik, 2 epidēmik] epidemic & -ly As eo epidemic epidemiology, n [1 epidēmiologi, 2 epidēmiologi], fr Gk epidēmio (s), 'prevalent among the people', & -logy See epidemic The study of epidemics epidermal, adj [1 epidērmal, 2 epidērmal], fr Gk epiderm-(us) (see epidermis) & -al Pertaining to the skin epidermic, adj [1 epidērmik, 2 epidērmik], fr Gk epiderm (us) (see next word) & -ic Epidermal epidermis, n [1 epidērmis, 2 epidērmis] Gk epidermis, 'the outer skin', epi- & -derm The outer skin, cuticle, of animals, outer skin of the eggs of molluscs, external integument of seed plants epigastric, adj [1 epigastrik, 2 epigastrik] Gk epigastri (os), 'over the belly', & -ic See epi- & gastric (anat) Situated, lying on, or above, the stomach epigastrium, n [1 epigastrium, 2 epigastrium], fr Gk epigastrium See preo (anat) Epigastric region of the body epigene, adj [1 epijen, 2 epijen], fr Fr, fr Gk epigenē (s), 'growing upon or after' See epi- & -gen a (geol) Formed upon the surface of the earth, b (crystal) foreign, of forms not natural to the substances in which the crystals occur epigenesis, n [1 epigeoensis, 2 epidēnēsis] epi- & genesis (biol) Theory that each germ or embryo is a fresh creation, and not arising naturally from reproductive tendencies and processes epiglottic, adj [1 epiglōtik, 2 epiglōtik], fr Gk epiglōtt-(us) (see next word) & -ic Belonging to the epiglottis epiglottis, n [1 epiglōtis, 2 epiglōtis], fr Gk epiglōttis, 'epiglottis' epi- & glōttis The triangular cartilage situated at the base of the tongue, which closes the windpipe or larynx during the act of swallowing epigram, n [1 epigram, 2 epigram], fr Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk epigramma, 'an inscription, epigram' epi- & -gram Brief, pointed sentence, in prose or verse, expressing a witty, often a satirical, idea tersely and compactly epigrammatic, adj [1 epigramatik, 2 epigramatik], fr Gk epigrammatik, stem of epigramma (see preo) & -ic a Like, suitable to, an epigram, short, pointed, pithy, b characterized by epigrams, c (of persons) inclined to make epigrams epigrammatically, adv [1 epigramatikali, 2 epigramatikali] Preo & -al & -ly In an epigrammatic manner, as an epigram epigrammatist, n [1 epigrammatist, 2 epigrammatist] See epigrammatic & -ist One who frequently makes epigrams, one who makes a particular epigram epigrammatize, v trans & intrans [1 epigrammatiz, 2 epigrammatiz] See preo & -ize 1 trans To put into epigrammatic form 2 intrans To write or speak epigrammatically epigraph, n [1 epigraph, 2 epigraph], fr Gk epigraphē, 'an inscription' epi- & -graph 1 An inscription carved on stone or other hard surface 2 Inscription, motto &c prefixed to a book or chapter epigraphic, adj [1 epigraphik, 2 epigraphik] Preo & -ic Of an epigraph, of the nature of an epigraph epigraphist, n [1 epigraphist, 2 epigraphist] epigraph & -ist A student of epigraphy epigraphy, n [1 epigraphi, 2 epigraphi] epi- & -graph The study of (ancient) inscriptions on stone, metal &c epilepsy, n [1 epilepsi, 2 epilepsi], fr O Fr épilepsie, fr Lat, fr Gk epilepsia, 'epilepsy', fr epilambanein, 'to take, get', (of disease) 'to seize, attack', fr epi- & lambanein (fr s*lab), to get, take, grasp, seize, to receive, apprehend', fr Arran '()/y, 'to seize, take', ep Gk lízomai, 'I take', fr lan-jo-*. Cp catalepsy. Nervous disease characterized by intermittent fits during which the sufferer becomes unconscious and falls down, and is convulsed with muscular twitchings, called also the falling sickness. also in a milder form without convulsions but with a temporary loss of consciousness and a feeling of giddiness, called rumor, rashed, epilepsy or péti mal.

epileptic, adj & n. [1 épiléptik, 2 épiléptik] fr Fr, fr Gk epiléptik (ds), 'epileptic', fr epilépt, stem of epilépsia (see prec) & -ic 1 adj. Connected with, resembling, arising from, epileptic, b suffering from epilepsy 2 n. An epileptic person.

epilogist, n. [1 épilogist, 2 épilogist] Next word & -ist. Composer or speaker of an epilogue.

epilogue, n. [1 épilog, 2 épilog] Fr, fr Lat epilogus, fr Gk epilogos, 'peroration concluding part of a play' epi- & -logus 1 The concluding part of a speech, book, or other literary composition. peroration 2. Concluding speech, generally in verse, at end of a play, addressed to the audience and spoken by one of the actors.

epiphany, n. [1 epifani, 2 epifani] fr O Fr epiphanie, fr L Lat, fr Late Gk. epi-phania, fr Gk. epiphaneia (ep), 'manifestation', & -y Gk epiphaneia is fr epiphaneia, 'appearing, coming to light, manifest, evident', fr epi- & phainein, 'to bring to light, disclose' (fr phan-jo-*). See phantasm, phantasm. 1 (cap.) The manifestation of the Saviour to the Gentiles, symbolized by the visit of the Magi, b the festival of the Christian Church commemorating this celebrated on January 6th, Twelfth Night. 2. The bodily manifestation of a deity or superhuman being.

epiphyte, n. [1 epifit, 2 epifit] epi- & -phyto. A non parasitic plant growing on another plant, deriving moisture from the air, an air plant.

epiphytic, epiphytal, adj. [1 epifitik fitl, 2 epifitik, fortl] See prec & -ic & -al. Of the nature of an epiphyte.

episcopacy, n. [1 episkopasi, 2 episkopasi] fr Lat. episcop (us), 'bishop', & -acy. See next word. A principle and system of church government by bishops. b (with def art) the whole body of bishops, episcopate.

episcopal, adj. [1 epichopal, 2 episkopal] fr L. Lat. episcopalis (us), 'episcopal', fr episcop (us), 'an overseer', (eccles) 'a bishop', & -al. A loan word fr Gk episkopos, 'an overseer, guardian, a scout, a bishop', fr epi- & skopos 'one who watches'. See scope & bishop. Connected with pertaining to coming from, a bishop or bishops, or from episcopacy. episcopal orders, ordination, junctions, beneficium &c.

episcopalian adj & n. [1 episkoplian, 2 episkoplian] Prec & -ian. 1 adj. Pertaining to bishops and to episcopacy. 2. n. A member of an episcopal church, b one who believes in episcopacy.

episcopalianism, n. [1 episkoplianizm, 2 episkoplianizm] Prec & -ism. Doctrine that bishops are essential to the being of a church.

episcopalianism, n. [1 episkopalizm, 2 episkopalizm] episcopal & -ism. Doctrine that authority resides in the whole body of bishops and not in a single individual, contrasted with episcopism.

episcopally adv. [1 episkopali, 2 episkopali] episcopal & -ly. As a bishop, b by bishops.

episcopate n. [1 episkopat, 2 episkop(e)it] See episcopal & -ate. 1 A the office or dignity of a bishop, b a bishop's see. c a bishop's term of office. 2 The whole body of bishops.

episode, n. [1 episod, 2 episoud] fr Gk episod (-ia) 'episode', fr epi- & episod (as) entrance, place of entrance. fr eis, 'into to' (fr ens*, fr ei, 'in', q v under en- (II)), & hodos, 'a way, road'. See hodometer, sedinto sit, sent 1 (Gk drama) Part of a tragedy corresponding to an act, introduced between two choric songs. 2 A separate and independent narrative of events or actions, introduced into the body of a play or novel. 3 One of a series of events, esp an important incident or experience.

episodic(al), adj. [1 episodik(l), 2 episodik(l)] Prec & -ic & -al. Of the nature of an episode, occurring as an episode, incidental.

episodically, adv. Prec & -ly. In the manner of an episode.

epispassic, adj & n. [1 epispastik, 2 epispastik] fr Gk epispastik (ds), 'drawing out', fr epi- & epastik, 'drawing, absorbing', fr epast, 'to draw' (fr epastein*). See spasm. (med) 1 adj. Causing blistering of the skin. 2 n. Medicinal substance that produces a blister, vesicatory.

epistaxis, n. [1 epistaksis, 2 epistaksis] Gk, 'dropping', fr epistazein, 'to drop'. See epi- & staxis (med) Bleeding of the nose.

epistemology, n. [1 epistimologi, 2 epistimologi] fr Gk epistimé, 'knowledge, understanding, science', & -logy. The first element is fr Gk epistamai, 'I know how, understand, know', ong 'put oneself in the position appropriate for', fr epi- & sthai*, reduced grade of sthe*, 'to stand'. See stand, state. The theory of the basis and methods of knowledge.

epistle, n. [1 epist, 2 epist] fr O Fr epistole, fr Lat. epistola, fr Gk epistolé, 'something sent by a messenger, a message, a letter', fr epistellon, 'to send to, to send a message, to order, command', fr epi- & stellon, 'to put in order, put in position, to make ready, prepare, equip, to send out, to fetch, bring'. See stole. 1 A written communication, letter, addressed to a person or group of persons. esp one of a formal and instructive character, one written with care and elegance. 2. (eccles, cap) a One of the letters, or collections of letters, of St Paul, St Peter &c, included in the New Testament, b portion of one of these appointed to be read on a particular day, and forming part of the service of the Eucharist. Epistle side, that side of the altar from which the Epistle is read the south side.

epistolary, adj. [1 epistolari, 2 epistolari] fr Fr, fr L. Lat. epistolarius, 'epistolary', fr epistola, 'a letter'. See prec & -ary. Pertaining to, connected with, epistles or letters, a carried on by means of letters. epistolary communications &c, b adapted to, used in, letters. epistolary style &c.

epistoler, n. [1 epistoler, 2 epistole] fr Fr epistoler, see prec. Priest who reads the Epistle at the Eucharist, ep gospeller.

epistrophe, n. [1 epistroti, 2 epistroti] fr Gk epistrophé, 'a turning or wheeling about', epi- & strophe (rhet) The repetition of the same word at the end of several successive clauses or sentences.

epistyle, n. [1 epistil, 2 epistail] fr Lat, fr Gk epistylon, 'architrave', epi- & style (II). (archit) Architrave.

epitaph, n. [1 epitafi, 2 epitafi] fr Lat epitaph (um), fr Gk epitaphion, 'a funeral oration', fr epi- & toph (as) 'funeral rites of burial, grave, tomb'. Cp Gk taphros, a ditch, thaptein, 'to bury'. Etymol doubtful. 1 An inscription, on a tomb or monument, in memory of the dead. 2 A short poem or prose statement in memory of a dead person, written as if to be inscribed on a tombstone, usually containing a tribute to the deceased or moral reflections on the uncertainty of human life &c. epithalamial, adj. [1 epithalamial, 2 epithalamial] fr Gk epithalamion (on), 'bridal song', & -al. See epithalamium. Of, of the character of, an epithalamium.

epithalamus, adj. [1 epithalamik, 2 epithalamik] See next word & -ic. Epithalamus epithalamium, n. [1 epithalamium, 2 epithalamium] fr Lat, fr Gk epithalamion, 'a bridal song', fr epi- & thalam (as), 'bridal chamber'. See thalamus. A poem or song in honour of a wedding, bridal song.

epithelial, adj. [1 epithelial, 2 epithelial] See next word & -al. Pertaining to, of the nature of, the epithelium.

epithelium, n. [1 epithelium, 2 epithelium] fr epi- & Gk thélē, 'teat', & Lat ending um, cogn w Lat filare, 'to suck', filus, 'son', the same base dhē* also occurs in Lat femina, 'woman'. See filial, feminine. a (biol) Cellular tissue forming the superficial layer of the skin and mucous membrane, b (bot) thin epidermis lining inner cavities of plants.

epithet, n. [1 epithet, 2 epithet] fr Lat, fr Gk epithet (on), 'something added, an adjunct, adjective', fr epithēmi, 'I add', fr epi- & tithēmi, 'put, place'. See thème, thesis. 1 An adjective denoting some quality or attribute of the person or thing to which it refers. 2 A descriptive, significant name, an additional name or title expressing an attribute of the person or thing referred to.

epithetic(al), adj. [1 epithetik(l), 2 epithetik(l)] Prec & -ic & -al. Pertaining to an epithet, serving for, used as, an epithet. epithetically, adv. Prec & -ly. As an epithet.

epitome, n. [1 epitomi, 2 epitomi] fr Gk epitomé, 'an abridgment', fr epitēmnai, 'to cut short, abridge'. See epi- & tome. 1 A concise statement of the leading points of a book or other literary composition, a summary, abstract, digest, b a concise, condensed statement, report, of the main features of a series of events, or of a detailed scheme, argument &c. 2 (fig) A representation in miniature, a something exhibiting, on a small scale, the chief characteristics of an other object, b a person who combines in himself many different qualities and aptitudes. 'A man so various that he seemed to be Not one, but all mankind's epitome' (Dryden).

epitomist, n. [1 epitomist, 2 epitomist] Prec & -ist. One who makes an epitome. epitomize, vb trans. [1 epitomiz, 2 epitomiz] epitome & -ize. To abridge, summarize.

epizoön, n, pl epizoa [1 epizoon, -zoa, 2 epizoon, -zoa] fr epi- & Gk zōon, 'animal'.

See zoo- An external parasitic animal.

epizootic, adj. [1 epizootik, 2 epizootik] See prec & -ic. A Parasitic on other animals, specif b (of diseases) prevalent among animals, corresponding to epidemic, in man.

epoch, n. [1 épok, 2 épok] fr Low Lat epoche, fr Gk epokhē, 'a check cessation, a stoppage, pause', fr epēkein, 'to have hold of, hold on to, to keep back, withhold, to stop, pause', fr epi- & ēkein, 'to hold, have, possess'. Cp Gk olkhē, 'hold, contain, olkhē' 'cavern', cogn w Sert sahat, 'to obtain power over, master', sahas 'strength', Goth sigis, OE sig, 'victory' (fr seg-*). Cp also Gk akheleus, 'irresistible', akhas, 'anchor'. See also schemma. 1 Beginning of a new stage or period, a fresh departure, in history, life, knowledge &c. the publication of the 'Origin of Species' marks an epoch in biology. 2 Period of time, distinguished from others by a series of characteristic historical and political events. intellectual movements &c. an epoch of revolution, religious enthusiasm &c. 3 (geol) Minor division of geological time.

epochal, adj. [1 épokl, 2 épokl] Prec & -al. Belonging to, characteristic of, marking, an epoch.

epoch-making, adj. Constituting a new departure, marking a fresh epoch. an epoch-making discovery.

epode, n. [1 épōd, 2 épōd] fr O Fr, fr Lat. epodus, fr Gk. epōdē, 'last portion of an ode, a refrain'. ep- & ode. Kind of ancient lyric poem, used by Horace.

eponym, n. [1 éponim, 2 éponim], fr. Lat. fr. Gk epónym-(os), 'given as a name, named, surnamed', fr. ep- & ónoma, 'a name'. See onomatopoeia. Real or mythical person from whom a clan, family, nation, or place derives its name.

eponymous, adj. [1 epónimus; 2 epónimés] Prec & -ous Giving name to tribe, country &c. an eponymous hero, founder &c.

epopee, n. [1 épôpé, 2 épôpé], fr. Fr. épôpée, fr. Gk epopôia, 'an epic poem, epic poetry', fr. epopôis, 'an epic poet', fr. épo (s), 'a word, poetry' (see foll.) & poieîn, 'to make, produce, create'. See poem. An epic poem; epic poetry.

epos, n. [1 épos, 2 épos]. Lat. fr. Gk épos, 'a word, a speech, tale, a song, lay, heroic poetry; epic'; earlier wop-, fr. wok-, cogn. w. Sert uđas, 'word', uđk-, 'to say', Lat. vox, 'voice', vocâre, 'to call'. See further under voice, vocal. 1 Succession of events of epic character and importance. 2 Primitive epic poem, or poetry, not written, but handed down by verbal tradition.

Epsom salts, n. [1 épsom sálitis, 2. épsam sális], fr. Epsom in Surrey. White crystals of sulphate of magnesium, having the same chemical constituents as Epsom water, used medicinally as a purgative.

equability, n. [1. ékwalibilité, 2. ikwábilíté] Lat. æquābilitas (em) Quality, condition, of being equable.

equable, adj. [1. ékwal, ékwal, 2. ékwal, ikwábil] Lat. æquābilis, 'uniform, steady', fr. æquā-, see next word, & -bilis, see -bile. Steady, uniform, not given to sudden or great variation, not verging towards extremes. an equable climate, disposition, temper.

equal (I), adj. [1 ékwal, 2. ikwál] Lat. æquālis, 'even, level, smooth; steady, equal, like', fr. Lat. æqu-(us), 'level, equal, like', & adj. suff. -ilis, see -al. Etymol. uncertain, perh. cogn. w. Lith aukštie, 'flat surface', cp. Lat. æquor, 'a plain; the sea'. 1. (in physical sense) Of like amount, size, degree, quality &c., identical in respect of these two equal parts, several things of equal height, weight, magnitude, value &c., things which are equal to the same thing are equal to one another. Phr. to be equal to doing, able, competent, strong enough to do, to be equal to a dinner party three days running &c. 2. (of moral qualities, status &c.) Possessing same degree of force, capacity, scope. two friends possessed of equal affection for each other, two officers of equal rank, (absol.) all men are equal in the sight of God, neither higher nor lower than, superior nor inferior to, each other, Phr. on equal terms (of two persons or groups). 3. (of the mind and its condition) Equable, tranquil, unruffled to preserve an equal mind amid dangers and anxieties.

equal (II), n. & fr. prec. A person of, possessing, same standing, rank, intelligence, age, or other position and qualities as another, one neither superior nor inferior to another in any such respect. one's equals in age and experience, in learning, intelligence &c., specif. sense, of the same rank, or social class. some prefer to mix with their inferiors rather than with their equals.

equal (III), vb. fr. equal (I). 1 To be equal to, come up to, be level with, in possession of, any quality, to be as good as to equal another in intelligence, vigilance &c., this wine does not equal the first in flavour. 2 To be commensurate with, identical with, in quantity, number, magnitude.

equality, n. [1 ékwalité, 2. ikwálité] Lat. æquālitās (em) See equal (I) & -ity. State, condition, of being equal (in all senses). Phr. on an equality with, (of persons) on equal terms with, (of things) identical, to be judged by same standard.

equalization, n. [1 ékwalizáshun, 2. ikwálasizeshun] Next word & -ation. Process of equalizing; state of being equalized.

equalize, vb. trans. [1 ékwaliz, 2. ikwálasiz] equal (I) & -ize To make (things) equal equally, adv. [1 ékwal, 2. ikwál]. equal & -ly In an equal manner, to an equal degree.

equanimity, n. [1 ékwanimité, 2. ikwánimité] Lat. æquānimitās (em), 'evenness of mind, impartiality, patience, calmness', fr. æquus, 'even, level', see equal (I), & animus, 'soul, thought'. See animus. Calmness, tranquillity of mind, composure, serenity, imperturbability to bear the buffings of fate with equanimity.

equate, vb. trans & intrans. [1 ékwat, 2. ikwéit], fr. Lat. æquat (um), P.P. type of æquare, 'to make level' &c. See equal (I). a trans. To consider, represent, treat, as equivalent or equal. I am unable to equate your statement with my own observation of the facts; b intrans. (rare) to be equal, show equality with.

equation, n. [1. ékwaláshun, 2. ikwéishun] Lat. æquātiō-(em), 'an equalizing'. Prec & -ion. 1 Act or process of equalizing, or equating, state of being equalized or equated, (in various senses, as in astronomy, chemistry &c.) Phr. personal equation, allowance for individual differences and variations in quickness and character of mental and physiological processes. 2 (math.) The expression of equality between two quantities, usually as in algebra, involving known and unknown quantities, of various types, as quadratic, simultaneous equations &c.

equational, adj. [1 ékwaláshunal, 2. ikwéishunal] Prec & -al. Pertaining to, of the nature of, an equation.

equationally, adv. Prec & -ly By means of an equation.

equator, n. [1 ékwáter, 2. ikwéité], fr. L. Lat. æquator, lit. 'one who, that which, equalizes'. See equate & -or. A imaginary great circle round earth's surface, equidistant from the two poles, which divides the globe into two equal parts, the Northern and Southern Hemispheres, b (astron.) similar great circle of the celestial sphere, corresponding to the terrestrial equator.

equatorial, adj. & n. [1 ékwatórial, 2. ikwátórial] Lat. æquātor & -ial. See prec. 1 adj. At, near, pertaining to, the equator. Equatorial Africa, climate &c. 2 n. A telescope, also equatorial telescope, so mounted that it can follow a heavenly body from its rising to its setting.

equerry, n. now usually [1 ekwan, 2. ékwers], formerly, & still among some old fashioned speakers [1 ékwrén, 2. ikwéris], fr. Fr. écurie, O Fr. escurie, 'stable', fr. Low Lat. scúria, a Gmc. loan-word, cp. OHG scúr & scuro, 'shed, shelter'. The word is cogn. w. Engl. sky & show. Equerry has been associated w. & influenced by, the entirely different word Lat. equus, 'horse'. See equestrian & esquire. 1 Originally an officer in charge of a prince's stables, a master of the horse. 2 Officer of a Royal household, in personal attendance upon the King, Queen, or other member of the Royal family.

equestrian, adj. & n. [1 ékwestrian, 2. ikwéstrian] Lat. equester, stem equestri-, 'pertaining to a horseman', & -an. Equester is derived fr. equus, 'a horseman', & the suff. -er expressing an agent. Equus is connected w. equus, 'horse', see equine. 1 adj. Belonging to, concerned with, horsemanship, mounted, horsed. equestrian exercises, exercises performed on horseback, equestrian skill, horsemanship, an equestrian statue, one depicting a person on horseback. 2 n. A horseman.

equestrienne, n. [1 ákestríen, 2. áikestríen], bogus Fr. fr. prec. w. fem. suff. -enne. A horsewoman, specif. a professional female performer on horseback.

equi-, pref. fr. Lat. æquus, 'equal'. See equal, wh. sense it retains in compounds.

equiangular, adj. [1 ékwinggúlar, 2. ikwínggúlar] Having only equal angles, as the figure of a square.

Equidae, n. pl. [1 ékwidz, 2. ékwidí] Mod. Lat. fr. equus, 'horse'. See equine (zool.)

The horse family, including the horse, ass, zebra, and several extinct species.

equidistance, n. [1 ékwidistans, 2. ikwidistans] Equal distances.

equidistant, adj. [1. ékwidistant, 2. ikwidistant] (of several points in space) Separated by the same amount of distance.

equilateral, adj. & n. [1 ékwidlateral, 2. ikwidlateral] a adj. Having all sides equal, b n, an equilateral figure.

equilibrate, vb. trans. & intrans. [1. ékwalibrat, 2. ikwidibrat] Lat. æquilibra (um), P.P. type of æquilibrare, 'to balance'. See equilibrium. a trans. To cause (two things) to balance, b intrans., (of two things) to balance.

equilibration, n. [1 ékwalibráshun, 2. ikwílabrshun] Prec & -ion. Act of keeping, state of being, balanced.

equilibrant, n. [1 ékwalibrant, 2. ikwílabrant] Fr. équilibrante, 'balancer', sousif, 'tight-rope walker'; see equilibrium & -ist. One who performs tricks of balancing himself, or other objects, in unnetural and difficult positions.

equilibrium, n. [1. ékwalibrum, 2. ikwílabrum] Lat. æquilibrium, 'even balance', fr. æquus, see equal, & libra, 'balance, pair of scales'. See libra. A State of perfect balance, adjustment between opposing forces whereby a given position of a body is maintained, b (fig.) even balance and adjustment of conflicting interests, policies, motives. political equilibrium.

equimultiple, n. [1 ékwímúltipl, 2. ikwímúltipl] equi- & multiple. One of the products arising from multiplication of two or more numbers or quantities by same number or quantity.

equine, n. [1 ékwin, 2. ikwáin] Lat. equinus, 'pertaining to horses', fr. equus, 'horse', also equa, 'mare', wh. are cogn. w. Gk. hippos for ekhos; see hippo-, Sert akras, Lith. asvùs, Goth. astwa, OE ech, fr. chur, O.H.G. chu, O Ir. ech, W. ep. Further connexions are doubtful. Pertaining to, resembling, of the nature of, a horse.

equinoctial, adj. & n. [1 ékwi, ekwínókhal, 2. ikwí, ekwínókhal] Lat. æquinoctialis (em) See next word. 1 adj. Pertaining to, connected with, an equinox. equinoctial points, the two points where the equator and the ecliptic intersect, b occurring, happening at or near the time of the equinox.

equinoctial gales, 2 n. An equinoctial gale.

equinox, n. [1 ékwi, ekwínoks, 2. ikwí, ekwínoks] Fr. équinoxe; Lat. æquinoc (tum) 'equal night', fr. æquus, see equal (I), & nox, stem of nox, 'night'. See nocturnal & night. 1 Time of which the sun crosses the equator, and when its course coincides with one of the equinoctial points (March 20 and Sept. 22 or 23), at these times, day and night are of equal length. 2 (popular) A equinoctial gale or storm.

equip, vb. trans. [1 ékwp, 2. ikwíp] 16th cent. esquippe, fr. A.-Fr. esquipped, fr. ar- & ON skipa, 'set in order, arrange', perh. fr. skip, 'ship', & meaning orig. 'to fit out a ship, arrange (things, stores &c.) on a ship'. See ship. 1 a To fit out, provide, supply with what is necessary for particular purpose. to equip a ship for a voyage, an army for the field a person for a trip, expedition &c. b to dress, accoutre, with the clothes, ornaments &c. suitable for particular occasion. fully equipped in his armour. 2 (of mental action) To supply with training, learning, knowledge, for intellectual tasks. to equip one's son for life with a sound education &c.

equipage, n. [1 ékwpiz, 2. ikwípiz] Prec & -age. 1 A Retinue, train, travelling accessories, band of attendants &c. collectively. the Lord Mayor's equipage, b (archaic) a carriage, horses, and servants, turn out. a splendid equipage drove up to my door. 2 Collection of various small, convenient objects, suitable and useful for particular purpose. eg. a dressing equipage, collection of brushes, combs, mirrors, bottles, razors &c. esp. when fitted compactly into a receptacle with places for each article, tea equipage, tea table and appointments.

equipment n [1 ekwip'ment; 2 ekwip'ment]. equip & -ment. 1 a Act of equipping, b state of being equipped. 2 (often pl.) That which is used for equipping: the necessary equipments for a voyage, a soldier's equipment.

equipoise, n. [1 ekwipoiz; 2 ekwipoiz]. equi- & poise. Balance, equilibrium; in physical and moral sense.

equipollence, n. [1 ekwipolens; 2 ekwipolens]. fr next word & -ce. a Equality of force, value, meaning; b something which is equipollent.

equipollent, adj. & n. [1 ekwipo'ent; 2 ekwipo'ent]. Fr. fr Lat equipollens (-ens), 'of equal value or significance', fr equus, see equi- & Pres. Part. of pollere, 'to be powerful, able'; prob. cogn. w Lat. plenus, 'full', see plenum, w. Gk. plous, 'much', see pol- & full. a adj. Equal in force, equivalent, b n., that which is equipollent.

equiponderant adj. [1 ekwiponderant; 2 ekwiponderant]. fr stem of next word. w suff. -ant. Of equal weight.

equiponderate, vb. trans. [1 ekwiponderat; 2 ekwiponderat]. See equi-, ponder & -ate. To counterbalance.

equipotential, adj. [1 ekwipo'tential; 2 ekwipo'tential]. equi- & potential (phys). Having equal potential force at all points.

Equisetum, n. [1 ekwisetum; 2 ekwisetum]. Lat. fr equus, horse, see equine, & seta, scabrous, 'stiff hair, bristle', cogn. w O.E. seta, 'stung, stung', O.H.G. seta; cp. Mod. Germ. setz, a sting, see seta. (bot.) Genus of plants with jointed stems; also called horse-tail.

equitable adj. [1 ekwitable; 2 ekwitable]. Fr. équitable. See equity & -able. Possessing, exhibiting equity, just, fair, reasonable.

equitableness n. Prec & -ness. Quality, condition, of being equitable.

equitably, adv. See prec. & -ly. In an equitable manner; according to the rules of equity.

equitant adj. [1 ekwitant; 2 ekwitant]. Lat. equitans (-ans). Pres. Part. of equitare, to ride, formed fr equus, stem of equine, horseman. See equine (bot. of leaves) Having leaves which overlap each other.

equitation, n. [1 ekwitation; 2 ekwitation]. Fr. fr Lat. equitatio (-tio) 'horsemanship', fr equus. See prec. & -ion. Art of riding horseman.

equity, n. [1 ekwiti; 2 ekwiti]. Fr. équité, fr Lat. aequitas (-tas), 'conformity, symmetry, just conduct, fairness' fr aequus, level &c. See equal & -ity. 1 Fairness, uprightness, of mind; impartiality; justice in conduct. 2 (law) a System of justice, and body of rules outflow of and supplementary to Common Law which grew out of the administration of law by the King's chancellor b an equitable claim or right c way of redemption: right to redeem a mortgage by payment of capital sum and interest.

equivalence, n. [1 ekwivalence; 2 ekwivalence]. equi- & valence. Condition of being equal or equivalent: equality, identity of value, power, significance.

equivalent, adj. & n. [1 ekwivalent; 2 ekwivalent]. Fr. équivalent, fr Lat. aequivalens see equal, & equivalens. Pres. Part. of valere, to be strong, to be worth. See valiant. 1 adj. As to or of equal value in value amount, meaning &c. The two sums were not equivalent. 2 n. Some things which are equivalent: I consider him for my friend or as equivalent.

equivocal (IL) adj. [1 ekwivokl; 2 ekwivokl]. Lat. equivocus, of equal voice or of same sense, ambiguous. See equi- & vocal. 1 Capable of more than one interpretation, of double signification, ambiguous as equivocal sentence expression &c. 2 (of behaviour, actions &c.) Capable of being assigned to more than one kind of motive, giving rise to suspicion. 3 Dubious, ambiguous uncertain, not well assured: an equivocal success, an equivocal position.

equivocal (IL) n fr prec. (rare) An equivocal, ambiguous word or expression.

equivocally, adv. equivocal (IL) & -ly. In an equivocal, dubious, uncertain manner.

equivocalness, n. equivocal (IL) & -ness. Quality of being equivocal, ambiguity.

equivocate, vb. intrans. [1 ekwivokāt; 2 ekwivokāt]. fr L Lat equivocāt (um). P.P. type of equivocare. See equivocal. To make use of ambiguous terms, express oneself in words capable of more than one interpretation, with the deliberate intention to mislead, to palter with the truth to shuffle, to dodge.

equivocation, n. [1 ekwivokāshun; 2 ekwivokāshun]. Prec & -ion. Act of equivocating, a quibble, an evasion of the truth.

equivocator, n. [1 ekwivokātor; 2 ekwivokātor]. equivocate & -or. One who equivocates.

equivoque, n. [1 ekwivok; 2 ekwivok]. Fr. word or phrase used in a double sense. Lat. aequivocus. See prec. words. A verbal ambiguity a pun.

-er, suff. 1 Still a living and very productive suffix, fr O.E. -ere, W. Gmc. -ara-*, a used to form nouns denoting an agent, from verbs.

O.E. bæcere 'baker', fr baccan; added later to verbal bases driner, hanter &c., b used to form nouns from other nouns, denoting persons who make, or are associated with certain objects.

O.E. bocere, writer, scribe, fr boc, 'book', cp also later batter, poller &c.; c used to denote an instrument, when added to verbal stems: mower, roller, blower, gas-burner, pen-holder, poker, clapper &c., d indicating a resident in, or at.

Londoner, collager, waterer, villager &c., e in modern colloquial formations, used to denote things or actions connected with the idea of the basal word: driner, dining carriage on a tram, tenner, ten-pound note.

breather, time in which to breathe &c. 2 fr O. Fr. -er, A. Fr. -er, fr Lat. -arius, cogn. w. 1 b, and often indistinguishable from it, denotes person who does the action, makes the thing follows occupation, expressed by basal word: carpenter, poller, fruit-er, poller-er &c., have the suffix twice, the latter being perhaps English -er 1 3 Comparative suffix, O.E. -ra M.E. -er sooner &c. 4. Fr.

infinitive, in law terms, expressing action denoted by the verb: user disclaimer, rejoinder &c. 5 O.E. verbal formative element -ra turner, and later verbs glitter, shimmer, glimmer See also -ier -yer.

era n. [1 ēra; 2 ēra]. Lat aera neut. pl. (brass) counters; rems of a calculation, fr aera brass. See this base under ore.

1 Method of dating time from some particular point or event: Christian era. 2 Historical period, epoch.

eradication, n. [1 ēradikāshun; 2 ēradikāshun]. e- & radiation. Giving out, emission, a of light and heat, b of moral influence.

eradicate adj. [1 ēradikabl; 2 ēradikabl]. See next word & -able. Capable of being rooted out.

eradicate vb. trans. [1 ēradikāt; 2 ēradikāt]. Lat. ēradicāt (um), P.P. type of ēradicare, to root out e- & radix root. See radical, radix. To tear up by the roots, root out esp. in fig. sense, to extirpate, abolish, get rid of destroy.

eradication, n. [1 ēradikāshun; 2 ēradikāshun]. Prec & -ion. Act of eradicating, state of being eradicated.

eradicator adj. [1 ēradikātor; 2 ēradikātor]. See prec. & -or. Tending, serving to eradicate.

eradicator, n. [1 ēradikātor; 2 ēradikātor]. eradicate & -or. Instrument for uprooting weeds.

erase vb. trans. [1 ēraz; 2 ēreiz]. Lat. erās (um) P.P. type of erādere, to scratch, cut, scrape off, e- & rase 1 To scratch out, wipe, rub out or off, something written, drawn painted, cut &c. to erase an inscription, a name from a list. 2 (fig. of non-material things) To blot out, expose, dismiss from the mind &c. to erase a hope from one's mind.

erased, adj. [1 ērazd; 2 ēreizd]. fr P.P. of prec. 1 Effaced, blotted out (lit and fig.) 2 (ber) Represented with lower edge ragged, as though roughly torn.

eraser n. [1 ērazr; 2 ēreizr]. erase & -er. One who, that which erases, specif. an instrument, or a preparation of rubber, for rubbing out what has been written, drawn &c. erasure n. [1 ērazhun; 2 ēreizhun]. erase & -ion. Process of erasing, specif. (surg.) removal of diseased tissue by scraping.

Erastian adj. [1 ērastian; 2 ērastian]. fr Erastus, a German follower of Zwingli in 16th cent. & -ian. Belonging to, arising from, in accordance with, the principles of Erastus.

Erastianism, n. [1 ērastianizm; 2 ērastianizm]. Prec & -ism. Theory that in Church government the ecclesiastical should be subordinated to the secular power, that the State should direct and determine the affairs of the Church.

erasure, n. [1 ērazhur; 2 ēreizhur]. erase & -ure. A process of erasing, rubbing, blotting out, b something, word &c., rubbed out, c place in text where erasure has been made.

erbium n. [1 ērbium; 2 ērbium]. fr Ytterby in Sweden. (chem.) A rare metal, allied to yttrium and ytterbium.

ere, adv. & prep. [1 ēr; 2 ēr]. O.E. ēr, soon, formerly, before (in time), M.E. er, old compar. cp Goth auris, earlier.

adv & auris, fr aur, 'early', O.H.G. ēr, erus, O.E. has a new compar. ērra adj. Cp Gk. ēr, early in the morning' (archaic and poet.) 1 adv (coo) a (of time) Before.

come ere (it is) too late, b expressing preference, sooner, rather, than I would die ere I would consent 2 prep (of time) Before.

he died ere daybreak, ere long, before long, soon.

erect (I), adj. [1 ērekt; 2 ērekt]. Lat. erect (um), upright, lofty, elevate, noble, P.P. type of erigere, 'to put up put straight, raise', fr e- & regere, to stretch, keep or lead straight, to guide direct rule, cogn. w Goth rikan, 'to reach', & uf rikan to stretch, reach, also Goth rahts straight, O.E. riht, straight &c. See right (I).

Cp also Scrt gyah, he stretches; Gk. oregan, I reach out, extend, whence orektos, stretched out, prosected. See rectum & op regal. 1 a Straight upstanding, not lying down, curved, or stooping: an erect figure, b uplifted raised with head, hand &c. erect. 2. Bristling standing up with every hair erect. 3 (of the mind spirits &c.) Not depressed alert. 4 (ber of a charge) Naturally horizontal placed perpendicularly.

erect (IL) also erectly, adv fr prec. 10 an upright horizontal position to stand erect.

erect (III) vb. trans. fr erect (I). 1 To put raise, into an upright position to erect a flag-pole. 2 To construct build rear to erect a house tomb monument, a shed &c. 3 To establish, raise to more important status to erect a custom into a law.

erectile adj. [1 ērektl; 2 ērektl]. Prec & -ile. Capable of becoming erect specif. (physiol.) erectile tissue, becoming rigid from dilatation of the blood vessels it contains.

erection o. [1 ērekshun; 2 ērekshun]. erect (III) & -ion. 1 a Act or process of erecting b state of being erected. 2 Something which is erected a building the new bank was a handsome erection.

erective adj. [1 ērektiv; 2 ērektiv]. erect (III) & -ive. Tending to make erect.

erector n. [1 ērektor; 2 ērektor]. erect (III) & -or. One who that which erects, specif. (anat.) a muscle which raises, and maintains, a part in an erect position.

eremite, n [1 érimít, 2 érimait] variant of hermit, ME eremite, fr Lat heremita Religious recluse, hermit eremite(al), adj [1 érimítik(l), 2 érimítik-(al)] Prec & -ic (& -al) Connected with an eremite eremow, adv [1 érnou, 2 énanu] ere & now Before this time, heretofore erethism, n [1 éréthizm, 2 éripizam] Fr erethisme, fr Gk erethismós, 'irritation', fr erethan, erethizem, 'to rouse, stir', formed by addition of -dh- (Gk -th-), fr base er-, or, 'to rise', as in érnims, 'raise', Lat eror, 'rise' See orient (physiol) Abnormal irritability of an organ, tissue &c erewhile, adv [1 érwil, 2 éawail] ere & while A short time ago, a little before erg, n [1 érg, 2 ág] New coinage fr Gk ergon, 'work' See ergon (phys) The unit of energy, amount of work done by a force of one dyne acting for a distance of one centimetre ergo, adv [1 érgō, 2 ágou] Lat, 'therefore', op ergā, prep, 'opposite, towards', said to be fr ē repō, 'from the direction', fr an obs n connected w regere, 'to direct', q v under regal Therefore, chiefly colloquial and facetious ergon, n [1 érgon, 2 ágōn] Gk, 'work, notion', for werg*, cogn w Gmo werk* &c See work (I) a Work, in terms of beat, b erg ergot, n [1 érgot, 2 ágōt] Fr, 'spur of a cock, disease in cereals' Origin unknown 1 Disease caused by a fungus in cereals, esp in rye 2 a The fungoid growth which produces the disease, b drug made of this, used in midwifery to contract uterus after childbirth ergoted, adj [1 érgōtēd, 2 ágōtēd] Prec & -ed Infected with the ergot fungus ergotic, adj [1 érgōtik, 2 ágōtik] ergot & -ic Connected with, made from, ergot ergotic acid ergotin, n [1 érgōtin, 2 ágōtin] ergot & -in (pharmacol) Extract of ergot ergotism, n [1 érgōtizm, 2 ágōtizm] ergot & -ism Disease contracted from eating bread made from ergoted grain, or from overdoses of the drug ergotization, n [1 érgōtizisazion, 2 ágōtizisazion] Prec & -ation a Condition of being infected with ergot, b condition of suffering from ergotism ergotize, vb trans [1 érgōtiz, 2 ágōtavz] ergot & -ize To infect with ergot

Erica, n (in spite of Lat i pronounced by gardeners &c) [1 érika, 2 érika], fr Lat erice, fr Gk erikē, 'heath', fr werik-*, cogn w O Ir froech, Lith vėžis, 'beath' (bot) Heath, the typical genus of the family Ericaceae which includes also azaleas, rhododendrons &c

Erin, n [1 érin, 2 érin] Ir Éirinn, oblique case of Éire, Ireland Ancient native name of Ireland eristic, adj & n [1 éristik, 2 éristik] Gk eristikós, 'connected with strife', fr eristés, 'wrangler', fr éris, 'strife, debate' Etymol doubtful, possibly connected w Sort arist, hostile 1 adj Pertaining to, provoking, argument, controversial 2 n a A controversialist, b controversial argument ermine, n [1 érmīn, 2 ámin] ME ermin &c, fr O Fr (hermine, A-Fr hermine, Low Lat armellinus, 'ermine fur', the word is prob of Gmo origin, op OE hearna, field-mouse, dormouse, also LOE hearna-scennem, of ermine skins, O HG harmo, 'an ermine', w this is cogn Lith ezarmu, Aryan h-arm-, or h-orm- Another suggestion is that the O Fr &c, came fr (mús) Arménus, Armenian mouse If this be so then the O E & Lith words have nothing to do w our word 1 The common stoat, which in cold climates, as N Europe and Canada, has a very fine thick fur, in winter a pure white, with a jot black tip to the tail 2 Fur made from the winter coat of this animal, made up with the black tips of the tails arranged at regular intervals, thus forming a series of black points 3 (fig) The functions of a judge of the High Court, so called because the robes are trimmed with ermine to wear, assume, the ermine 4 (her) One of the recognized furs, depicted as a white field with black spots of peculiar shape ermine, n pl, fr prec (her) Fur represented by white spots on a black field, or field sable, powdering argent ermineois, n [1 érmīnois, 2 áminois] O Fr See prec (her) Fur represented by black spots on yellow or dotted field, otherwise, field or, powdering sable

-ern, adj suff representing OE ernc, Gmo rōn-*, op O HG -rōn, in nordarōn, 'northern' &c erne, n [1 érn, 2 án] OE earn, cogn w O HG aro, ON örn, Gk érnis, 'bird' See ornithology, The white tailed sea eagle erode, vb [1 érod, 2 úrod] Lat erodere, 'to gnaw away, consume' See e- & rodent To eat into, wear away, corrode, destroy, specif a of a disease which destroys tissues, b of the action of sea and weather upon land, c of action of acids erodent, adj [1 érodēt, 2 úrodēt] fr Lat erodēt (em), Pres Part of erodere, 'to gnaw away' See prec Tending to cause, causing erosion erogenous, adj [1 érógenus, 2 úróđinas], fr Gk erós, 'love', see erotic & -gen & -ous Productive of, tending to arouse, sexual desire erosion, n [1 érózhon, 2 úrouzan] Lat erōs (um), PP type of erodere, & -ion See erode Process of eroding, esp the action of disease, weather, and currents, and of acids, the condition of being eroded erosive, adj [1 éróšiv, 2 úróšiv] Lat erōs, see prec & -ive Eroding, causing erosion, having the property of eating, wearing, away erotic(al), adj [1 érótik(l), 2 úrtik(l)] Gk erōtikós, 'connected with amatory desire', fr erōs, stem erō-, 'love, desire, god of love', op éramai, 'I love, desire, long for' Relationships doubtful, perh connected w Sort arist, 'filled with desire, zealous' &c a Pertaining to, dealing with, sexual love and desire erotic poetry, b (of persons, temperaments &c) amative, amorous, given to sexual passion eroticism, n [1 érótizm, 2 úrtisizm] Prec & -ism. Erotic temperament, erotic habit of mind.

erotomania, n [1 érótománia, 2 úrótoméniā] See erotic & mania Excessive preoccupation with amorous thoughts, insanity arising from erotic passion err, vb intrans [1 érr, 2 á] Fr errer, 'to wander', Lat errare, 'to wander, stray about', to wander from the subject, to wander from the truth, mistake, err Cogn w Goth arrazas, 'astray, going astray', & arrazan, 'to lead astray, deceive', O HG irri, 'in error, wrong', OE terre, 'angry', Sort varyuht, 'be is enraged' 1 (obs) To wander out of one's way, go astray 2 To miss, depart from, intellectual truth, to be mistaken, make a mistake, to judge wrongly from imperfect knowledge men err'd greatly in believing that all languages were derived from Hebrew 3 a To depart from moral truth, to commit sin, to be guilty of an offence against the divine law of conduct 'To err is human, to forgive divine' (Pope), b to depart from the truth in religious faith, to hold wrong doctrines Protestants and Roman Catholics each think the others err in some of the essentials of belief errand, n [1 érand, 2 érand] OE ærende, 'message, tidings', ME érende, cogn w OS arundi, O HG arunt, fr OE ar, 'messenger', OS aru, Goth aruz 1 Particular business entrusted to an agent or messenger to go on, run, errands 2 A special business, mission with definite purpose I have come on an errand of mercy Phr a fool's errand, mission without a real object, one which is bound to fail errand-boy, n Youth employed by a shop or business firm, whose duty is to carry messages, letters, deliver goods to customers &c errant, adj [1 érant, 2 érant] Fr, Pres Part fr L Lat iterant (em), Pres Part of L Lat iterare, 'to go on a journey', fr iter, 'journey', op O Fr edter, later errer See iterate The word has been confused w Fr errer, fr Lat errare, q v under err 1 Wandering, travelling about on the look out for adventure and the opportunity to perform chivalric deeds, esp knight errant, q v 2 Going astray, (of thoughts) wandering from the point, (of conduct) deviating from correctness and good behaviour errantry, n [1 érantri, 2 érantri] Prec & -ry Principles and conduct of a knight-errant erratic (I), adj [1 érátik, 2 úrtik] Fr erratique, fr Lat erraticus, 'wandering, roving', fr errāt, PP type of errare, to wander &c See err & -ic 1 a (of conduct) Not governed by ordinary fixed standards, irresponsible, eccentric erratic behaviour, b (of the mind and affections) wandering, lacking fixed purpose, incapable of concentration on single object 2 (geol) Wandering, transported from original position to another, often remote, by natural forces, glaciers, currents &c an erratic boulder erratic (II), n, fr prec A person of erratic mind or conduct erratum, n, pl errata [1 érátum, s, 2 értá(m)] Lat, PP neut of errare, 'go astray' See err Mistake in writing or printing erring, adj [1 éring, 2 árip], fr Pres Part. of err Guilty of bad conduct, sinful, having been led astray erroneous, adj [1 éróneus, 2 érounas] Lat errōneus, 'wandering, straying', & -ous See err 1 Mistaken, based on, containing error, wrong, esp erroneous belief, opinions &c 2 Used partly in literal sense by Milton 'On th' Alexian field I fall, Erroneous there to wander and forlorn' ('P L') erroneously, adv Prec & -ly In a mistaken manner error, n [1 éror, 2 éra] O Fr, fr Lat errōr (em), 'a wandering or straying about, wavering, uncertainty, a departing from the truth, delusions' See err 1 a Mistaken belief, holding of what is spiritually or intellectually untrue, fault, mistake an error of judgement, of faith, b erroneous, mistaken, state of mind, delusion to be in error 2 Moral offence, something done amiss, wickedness errors of commission and omission 3 a (math and nat sci) Difference between observed or calculated position, movement, action, and the true one, b (law) mistake of law or fact in legal proceedings error of error, writ for reversal of judgement for error 4 Used literally in 17th cent of a wandering, irregular course error by sea

Erse, n [1 éra, 2 áš] Variant of Irish The ancient Celtic language of the Highlands of Scotland or of Ireland erst, adv [1 érst, 2 ást] OE ærest, superl of ere (archaic) Sooner, formerly erstwhile, adv [1 érstwíl, 2 ástwíl] Prec & while (archaic) At an earlier time, formerly erubescence, -cy, n [1 érubésens(i), 2 érubésans(i)] See next word & -ce & -y Process of becoming red, blush erubescence, adj [1 érubésent, 2 érubésant] Lat erubescens (em), Pres Part of erubescere, 'to grow red', fr e- & ruber, fr rubescere, 'to grow red', fr rubes* (see red & ruby), & inchoate est, see -ish Turning red, blushing eruct, vb trans & intrans [1 érókt, 2 érákt] Fr eructer, fr Lat See next word To belch, vomit out eructate, vb intrans [1 éróktát, 2 éráktát] Lat eructat (um), Pres Part of eructare, 'to belch forth', & eructare, 'to belch', formed fr (ē) ructum, PP of erigere, w same mean ing, cp Gk ereugomai, 'I vomit', erup, 'eruption', op also OE ed recan, 'to chew the cud', ed roc, 'rumination', in wh ed= 're'. See also ruminate. To expel wind upwards from stomach.

eruption, n [1 eruktášun, 2 irakter[an]] Prec & -ion Act or process of erupting.

erudite, adj [1 erudit, 2 erudait] Lat eruditus, fr PP type of erudire, 'to bring out of the rough, to polish, instruct', fr e- & rudis, 'rough, in natural state'. See rude. Highly cultivated in mind, well read, learned.

eruditely, adv Prec & -ly In a learned, scholarly manner.

eruditeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being erudite, learning.

erudition, n [1 erudisbun, 2 erudij[an]] Fr, fr Lat eruditio (em), 'instruction, education', formed fr erudit, PP type. See erudite & -ion. State of mind reached by painstaking instruction and study, scholarship, learning.

eruginous See aeruginous.

erupt, vb intrans [1 erupt, 2 irápt] Lat erupt (um), PP type of erumpere, 'to burst, break out'. See e- & ruptare. 1 To burst through, or out (of ashes from volcano, a crowd from a building &c). 2 (of volcano) To become active, break into eruption.

eruption, n [1 erupshun, 2 irap[an]] Prec & -ion 1 A bursting forth of ashes and lava from a volcano, of water from a geyser. 2 Outburst of passion or emotion. an eruption of rage, laughter, merriment &c. 3 (med) a rash, outbreak of pustules &c upon the skin, b also eruption of the teeth, breaking through, appearance.

eruptive (I), adj [1 eruptiv, 2 iraptiv] erupt & -ive 1 Inclined to burst out, break forth &c, produced by eruption. eruptive rock. 2 (med) Attended by, characterized by, a rash or eruption. an eruptive complaint.

eruptive (II), n, fr prec (geol) An eruptive rock one thrown up by an eruption.

eruptively, adv eruptive (I) & -ly As, in form of an eruption.

-(e)ry, suff ME & O Fr -erie, formed w suff (=Lat -ia) fr O Fr ier (cogn w er) or eur (see -or). Forming nouns expressing 1 Group of qualities, system of conduct, habits &c. tomfoolery, pedantry. 2 Trade, occupation, pursuit. pottery, carpentry, forgery. 3 Place where something is produced or made. piggery, bakery, place where an occupation is carried on. drapery, grocery. 4 A collection. jewellery, noperly &c.

eryngo, n [1 erínggō, 2 iríngow], fr Lat eryngion, fr Gk éruggon, dimin of éruggos, 'sea-holly'. Candel root of sea holly, formerly used for coughs.

erysipelas, n [1 erisipelas, 2 erisipelas, as] Gk erisipelas, fr eruthros, 'red', see under ruby, red, & pelas, 'skin', only found in composition, but an authentic word & cogn w Lat pellis, 'skin', see pelt (I), & w O E fell, 'skin', see fell (I), & filmen, see film. Acute inflammatory disease of the skin, accompanied by great reddening.

erythema, n [1 erithéma, 2 eripthma] Gk, 'reddening of the skin, flush', fr eruthros, 'red'. See prec. Abnormal redness of the skin due to congestion of the blood vessels.

escalade (I), n [1 eskalád, 2 eskaloid] Fr, fr Span escalada. See scale & -ade. A climbing, scaling, by means of ladders, specif, an attack on, with a view to penetrating and capturing, (a fortress or citadel) by this means.

escalade (II), vb trans, fr prec To scale a wall, penetrate into a fortress, by means of ladders.

escalator, n [1 eskalitor, 2 eskalito] Modern invented word. See escalade. An endless, moving staircase as used, instead of lifts, in underground railways.

Escallonia, n [1 eskalónia, 2 eskalónia], fr a Span traveller called Escallón. Genus of South American shrubs with white or red flowers growing in clusters.

escallop, n [1 eskalóp, 2 eskalóp] See scallop. Scallop shell.

escaloped, adj [1 eskalópt, 2 eskalópt] Prec & -ed (her) Indenture on shield in shape of scallop shell.

escapade, n [1 eskapád, -áhd, 2 eskapéid, dd] Fr, fr Span escapada, 'escape'. See escape (II) & -ade. A n adventurous, mischievous, merry prank, b daring achievement, c an action in defiance of the rules of conventional propriety.

escape (I), vb intrans & trans [1 eskáp, 2 iskép] ME escāpen, fr O Fr escaper, dialectal variant of eschaper, fr Lat ex- 'out', & cappa, lit 'out of one's cape, free'. See cape (I). A intrans 1 To set oneself at liberty, get free, get out of, break loose from, prison, a cage, or confinement of any kind. the prisoner, the tiger canary, has escaped, b to avoid, elude, a danger, punishment, disease, pain, or other ill. three members of this family were killed in the war, but one escaped. 2 To pass through, flow away or out, come through an opening or chink. pull out the plug and allow the bath water to escape, specif, the gas is escaping, is coming through the pipe when it is not lit. B trans 1 To avoid, evade, elude, not be affected by. to escape death, danger, sickness, unhappiness &c, b (in neg construction) to avoid forming an opinion, to resist, prevent oneself coming to, a logical conclusion. I am unable to escape the conviction that he is lying. 2 To be missed by, pass, get away unnoticed by, not to be perceived by, the senses. that object escaped me in my search, b to pass out of the mind of, be forgotten by. his name escapes me, escapes my memory for the moment, c not to be understood by. I'm afraid your point escapes me, not to be noted. to escape notice in the papers. 3 (fig, of verbal utterances, groans &c) To burst out suddenly, or with violence, from a dreadful oath. escaped him, a groan. escaped his lips.

escape (II), n, fr prec The act of escaping. In various senses 1 Evasion, getting out, getting free, from captivity or confinement of any kind. the escape of a prisoner. 2 Fortunate avoidance of disaster, suffering, misfortune, or danger of any kind, avoidance of evil consequences which might have ensued from some act, by not committing it, avoidance of such results, in spite of having done the act. I was prevented at the last moment from travelling by the ship I had fixed on, and it turned out that I had a lucky escape as she was wrecked, as he sat next a boy with mumps for several hours, his escape from infection was providential. 3 An outward trickle, flow, leakage of liquid, vapour, gas. an escape of steam, gas &c. 4 (mechan) An escape pipe or valve which carries off steam or vapour.

escapement, n [1 eskápmént, 2 isképmént] escape (I) & -ment (lit) Mode of escape, specif, one of various kinds of mechanical device connecting the revolving wheels in a clock or watch with the pendulum or balance, so called because by its movements the escape ment allows, at regular intervals, a tooth of the wheel to escape from a pallet.

escarbuncle, n [1 eskarbuncl, 2 eskarbuncl] O Fr Cp Mod Fr escarboucle, precious stone called carbuncle (her). Charge consisting of a central circular ornament with eight rays, intended to represent precious stones, supposed to have originated from the iron strips used to strengthen the shield, which were often studded with jewels.

escarp (I), n [1 esláp, 2 esláp] Span. escarpa. See escarp & sharp (fort) Steep bank sloping up to base of a rampart, contrasted with counterscarp, similar natural formation of the ground.

escarp (II), vb trans, fr prec To make into, provide with, an escarp.

escarpment, n [1 eskápmént, 2 eskápment] Prec & -ment. Wide area in form of an escarp, ground cut away, or naturally falling in a steep slope, from base of a fortification, similar natural formation.

-esce, vhl snff, as in effervesce &c, fr Lat -esc (ere), inchoative suff, also w Pres Part suff -escent, & as n -escence. See also -ish.

eschalot, n See shallot.

eschar, n [1 éskar, 2 eskā], fr Lat eschara, fr Gk eschara, 'hearth, a burn'. See scar (med) A dry crust, or scab, on a burn.

escharotic, adj & n [1 eskarótik, 2 eskarótik], fr Gk escharótikos. See prec & -io (med) a adj. Causing, tending to cause, an eschar, caustic, b n, a caustic substance.

eschatology, n [1 éskatoloji, 2 éskatolodži] Gk éskhatos, 'furthest, remotest, last', & -logy, fr ex, 'outside', see ex-, & adj snff -o*, & superl suff -io. The doctrine of the last things, theological teaching regarding death and the last judgement.

escheat (I), n [1 eschét, 2 est[et]] ME eschete, fr O Fr escheite, PP of eschier, 'to fall', fr Lat ex- & cadere, 'to fall'. See cadency, cheat (law) 1 A Reversion of land to the king or other feudal lord owing to failure of heirs, b forfeiture of land through attainer. 2 Land which thus reverts or is forfeited.

escheat (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans (of law) To revert by escheat. 2 trans To confiscate property.

eschew, vb trans [1 eschō, 2 is, est[et]] ME eschewen, eschuen, fr A-Fr eschuer, O Fr eschuer, 'to shun, avoid', Gmc loan-word, cp OHG scuhan, 'to fear'. See shy (I). To shun, avoid, keep away from, as something wicked or harmful.

eschewal, n [1 eschōal, 2 est[et]al] Prec & -al Act of eschewing.

eschscholtzia, n [1 eskoltsia, 2 eskoltsia] Derived fr surname of Russian botanist & -ia. Garden plant with yellow flowers, also called California poppy.

eschandre, n [1 esklondr, 2 eskládr] Fr, earlhor escandale, fr Lat scandalum. See scandal & slander. A scandalous, disreputable affair.

escort (I), n [1 eskort, 2 eskót] Fr escorte, fr Ital, scorta, formed fr scorgere, 'to perceive, lead', fr Lat ex- & correre, 'to correct'. See correct. 1 A Body of armed troops accompanying an unarmed body, or an individual, to afford protection, or as a guard of honour, b ship or ships of war accompanying an unarmed or less powerful vessel as a means of protection. 2 A person, or number of persons, who accompany another on a journey, for company or as a matter of politeness.

escort (II), vb trans [1 eskort, 2 eskót], fr prec To act as an escort to, to accompany, attend upon, with a view to give protection, as a matter of ceremony or from courtesy.

escritore n [1 eskrítwar, 2 eskrítwa] Fr, 'a writing-desk, writing table', fr Lat scriptorium, 'place for writing'. See script & -ory. A writing table fitted with drawers and pigeon-holes, and often made to close with a flap on hinges.

escrow, n [1 eskró, 2 eskróu], fr O Fr escroe, escroue, 'roll of papers, book'. See escroll. (law) An engagement in writing, as a bond or deed to do something, handed to a third party to keep until some condition has been performed, and only taking effect after this has been fulfilled.

escudo, n [1 eskdód, 2 eskdódou] Span. & Port, fr Lat scutum, 'shield'. See escutcheon. 1 (hist) A gold and silver coin of Spain and Portugal and their former dependencies in S America. 2 The monetary unit of Portugal, of nominal value of 48 ód, silver coin of this value.

esculent, adj & n [1 éskulent, 2 éskulant] Lat esulentus, 'good to eat, eatable', fr esca, 'food', fr eds l'a*, fr base ed(e)s*, fr ed*, 'to eat'. See edible, eat. See also -lent. 1 adj. Fit for food, edible. 2 n. Something suitable for human food.

escutcheon, n [1 eskučhun, 2 es, iskát[an]] O Fr eschuchon, dialectal variant of escuchon, whence Mod. Fr écusson, 'coat of arms', fr

Low Lat scūtūn (-em), fr scūtum, 'shield'. This word is prob connected w Lat cūtis, 'skin, hide', & meant orig 'shield of leather'. See cūtis (her) Figure in form of a shield upon which armorial bearings are depicted. Phr a blot on one's escutcheon, a stain on one's honour or reputation.

-ese, suff [1 éz, 2 iz] O Fr -es, Lat -ensis. Suffix used to form adjectives or, more commonly, nouns, expressing a name of nations—Portuguese (also 'adj'), b language, or other attributes of persons, inhabitants of particular places, and peoples—Japanese, Londonese, esp used to denote literary style and diction characteristic of particular writers.

Esquimaux, Esquiman, n [1 ésker, 2 éska] Ir esora (geol), Deposit of gravel left by stream coming from glacier.

Eskimo, Esquiman, n & adj. [1 éskimō, 2 éskimou], fr N American (Algonquin) Indian name eskimantuk, 'eater of raw flesh'. 1 n a Member of N American Indian race inhabiting Arctic America and Greenland, b their language, c an Eskimo dog. 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Eskimos. Eskimo dog, variety of dog bred & trained by the Eskimos to draw their sledges.

esophagus. See oesophagus.

esoteric, adj & n [1 ésotérík, 2 ésotérík]. Gk esotērós, 'inner', fr esōterōs, 'inner', compar of esō, 'in, within', op Gk eis, 'into', fr ēns. See en-(II). 1 adj a (of doctrine &c) Intended for, understood by, those only who are initiated into the inner mysteries and secrets, contrasted with exoteric, b secret, private, confidential. 2 n An initiate.

esoteric, adj [1 ésotérík, 2 ésotérík]. Prec & -al Esotero, adj.

esoterically, adv. Prec & -ly. In an esoteric manner, secretly.

espagnolette, n [1 espányölét, 2 espányjélét]. Fr, fr espagnol, 'Spanish', & -ette. Bolt for a French casement window, consisting of a long rod with fastenings top and bottom, worked by a handle.

espallier, n [1 espállier, 2 espállia]. Fr, fr ital espalliera, fr spalla, 'shoulder'. Cp Fr épaule, 'shoulder', fr Lat epula, 'shoulder' (of animal). See spatula (hort) & A railing, or framework, with uprights at intervals, and bars or wires placed across these one above another about a foot apart, b a fruit tree trained along such a framework, or grown as though to be so trained, with branches springing from either side of a central stem, and usually kept at right angles to this.

esparto (grass), n [1 ospártō, 2 espartou]. Span, fr Lat spartum, fr Gk spartos. Tough kind of Spanish rush from which oord, baskets, rough cloth, paper, and other articles are made.

especial, adj [1 espéshel, 2 ispéshel]. M E, fr O Fr. See special. Outstanding, remarkable, marked out from others, principal, particular. my especial aversion, an especial favourite.

especially, adv. Prec & -ly. To a marked degree, in an especial manner, in particular.

Esperantist, n [1 esperántist, 2 esperántist]. Next word & -ist. User of Esperanto.

Esperanto, n [1 esperántō, 2 esperántou]. The pseudonym of the author, fr Span esperanza, 'hope'. Artificial language invented by Dr Zamenhof, and first advocated and described in 1887. The simplicity of the grammar and the fact that the pronunciation and accentuation are regular, and easy to acquire, while the vocabulary is based upon the commonest words in the best known European languages, are supposed to make this language suitable as a means of international communication.

espionage, n [1 espionážh, 2 espionážh]. Fr, 'spying', fr espion, 'spy', fr Ital spione, & -age. See espy, spy. Practice of spying, system of employing spies to observe and report on what is being said and done by individuals or groups, esp systematic use of this means by governments for discovering the political and military secrets of other nations.

esplanade, n [1 éspanád, 2 éspanéad]. Fr, fr Span esplanada, 'levelled place', fr P P, Lat explanāre, 'to flatten'. See explain. Levelled terrace or embankment, esp one for public walking and driving, a promenade, often one along a sea front.

épousal, n [1 espouzal, 2 espudz(a)l]. O Fr espousailles, Lat sponsa See spouse. 1 a Act of plighting troths, whether in betrothal or in actual marriage, b (in pl) a wedding. 2 (fig) Act of espousing a cause. épouse, vb trans [1 espouz, 2 espudz]. O Fr épouser, Lat sponsare. See spouse. sponsor. 1 To take in marriage, usually said of a man. 2 To take np, give adherence and support to, (a cause &c).

espressivo, adv [1 éspresvō, 2 éspresvō]. Ital (mus) With expression.

esprit, n [1 esprē, 2 esprē]. Fr. See spirit. Wit, lively intelligence.

esprit de corps, n [1 esprē de kōr, 2 esprē de kō]. See prec & corps. The spirit of loyalty and devotion to the body to which one belongs, and to its honour and well being.

espy, vb trans [1 espi, 2 espi]. M E espion, fr O Fr espier, Gmc loan-word. See spy. To catch sight of, perceive (with the eyes), detect.

-esque, suff [1 esk, 2 esk]. Fr, fr Ital -esco, borrowed fr Gmc -isk. See -isk. Adjective suffix expressing style, manner, resemblance. Milonesque, arabesque &c.

Esquiman. See Eskimo.

esquire, n [1 eskwr, 2 iskwria]. Full form of squire, M E esquier, fr O Fr escuyer, fr L, Lat scūtarius, 'shield bearer', fr scūtum, 'shield'. See escutcheon. Originally a gentleman entitled to bear arms, now chiefly used as polite or respectful addition after the name of a gentleman, esp on a letter addressed to him, or in a description in a formal document. Abbreviated to Esq or Esq^r.

-ess, suff, fr Fr -esse, L Lat essa, fr Gk Suffix used to form feminine from masculine nouns. poetess, mayoress &c. ess, n [1 es, 2 es]. Object shaped like an S, esp Collar of ess. See essos.

essay (I), n [1 ésā, 2 ésā]. Earhor essay, Fr essai, fr Lat exagium, 'weighing, trial of weight', ex- & agere, 'to do, drive' &c. See agent. 1 An attempt. 2 A short treatise or excursus upon a particular subject.

essay (II), vb trans & intrans [1 esā, 2 esā]. See prec & essay. 1 trans To make trial of, test, prove. 'I must essay the quality of the new poet'. 2 intrans To attempt, try, make an effort to do something. 'Thrice he essayed (to speak)' (Milton).

essayist, n [1 ésāist, 2 essāist]. essay (I) & -ist. A writer of essays.

esse, n [1 ésā, 2 ésā]. Lat, 'to be'. The base as, 'being, existence', occurs in various forms in all Aryan languages, Scrt as mi, 'I am', Gk emi for es mi, further, in Lat es, 'thou art', est, 'he is', Goth im, 'am', OE em &c. See am, essence, sooth, &c. Being, 'actual, very existence'. It is an old controversy whether bishops are of the esse, or merely of the bene esse of the Church.

essence, n. [1 ésēns, 2 ésēns]. Fr, fr Lat essentia, 'being or essence of a thing', fr essent, stem of Pres Part of esse, 'to be'. See prec. 1 (scholastic philos) A Thet by which a thing exists, b essential, fundamental, nature or character of a thing. Most other usages are derived from this. 2 Existence, fact of being. 3 The ultimate, intrinsic nature and character of anything. content is the essence of happiness. 4 A substance considered to comprise all the fundamental ingredients and qualities of that from which it is prepared, a concentrated solid substance 'extracted or decocted from a much larger mass, and supposed to contain all the chemical proportions of this; an extract. essence of beef, b a highly volatile, spirituous liquid prepared by distillation, a scent or perfume of this character, c strong potable liquor.

Essene, n [1 ésēn, 2 ésēn]. Gk. Essēnos. Origin doubtful. Member of ancient Jewish sect of mystics.

essential, adj [1 esēshāf, 2 esēshāf]. Lat essenti, see essence, & -al. 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, the essence, or ultimate character of anything, distinctive, fundamental, elemental. love of fair play is an essential part of the English character. 2 Not to be suppressed or eliminated, indispensable, required. honesty is essential in a good servant. 3 Pertaining to, derived from, having the character of, an essence. an essential oil. 4 (mus) Essential notes, those which constitute a chord.

essentiality, n [1 esēshāhiti, 2 esēshāhiti]. essential & -ity. Quality of being essential.

essentially, adv [1 esēshāh, 2 esēshāh]. essential & -ly. In an essential manner, in essence, characteristically.

esses, n [1 ésāz, 2 ésāz], fr the two interlinked letters S. Collar of esses or SS, collar or chain formed of a series of two interlinked gold letters, S, usually with other devices, such as knots and roses, between them, worn by the Lord Chief Justice of England, the Lord Mayor of London, various officials of the College of Heralds &c, the origin and meaning of the letters being obscure.

essonite, n [1 ésōnit, 2 ésōnit], fr Gk. hesson, 'inferior to', compar of hēla, 'faintly', cogn w Lat seignis, 'slow, idle', fr base sek*, 'slow, weak'. Cinnamon stone.

-est, suff. O E est, -ost (-ost), Gmc & Aryan superl suff of adj & adv.

establish, vb trans [1 estāblish, 2 estāblish]. M E establischen, fr O Fr vb stēmer établir, fr Lat stabilire, 'to make firm', fr stabilis, 'firm' &c. See stable (I). 1 a To found, create, and place (system, institution, household, business, belief) on firm and permanent basis, to settle to establish a government, a university, a religion &c, b specif (of a church) to make national, connect intimately with the state, c (of animals and plants) to introduce from a different area and make permanent among the species which flourish and propagate. 2 Applied to persons a to settle, install, in a position, office, business, career &c to establish one's son, oneself, in trade, in a new mode of life &c, to establish a person as governor &c, b to place, settle, ensconce in a particular locality, dwelling, seat to establish oneself in the country, in a new house, comfortably established in a good seat. 3 Applied to non-material things a (of doctrines, conclusions, arguments) to prove beyond doubt, demonstrate truth of, gain acceptance for the law of gravity was conclusively established by Newton, to establish a theory, a view &c, b (of claims) to make good, prove validity of, gain recognition of to establish a claim to an ancient peerage, c (of personal character, renown &c) to render unassailable, gain general confidence in, win undisputed acceptance of to establish one's reputation as a surgeon, 'an established repute', 'his honesty, and integrity are well established'.

established, adj [1 estāblisht, 2 estāblisht]. Prec & -ed. Firmly founded, permanent, specif a Established Church, one that is national, recognized, protected, often supported by, and closely connected with, the civil government of a state, b (biol, of animals and plants) firmly and permanently fixed among the species in an area.

establishment, n [1 estāblishment, 2 estāblishment]. establish & -ment. 1 Act (hymn) establish, state of being or process of establishing, state of being established. 2 Something established, a place where definite activities are carried on, a household, thought of as a particular house.

and all the business of conducting it to keep a handsome, well ordered establishment. Phr a second, separate, establishment, one kept secretly, for an irregular, extra matrimonial connexion; b the Established, national, Church 3 A department of state, maintained for specific purposes, the totality of persons belonging to such a department the Naval, Military, Civil Service, Establishment establishmentarian, n [1 establishmentarian, 2 establishmenterian] Preo & -arian Supporter of the principle of an established church estate, n [1 estât, 2 étât] ME estat, fr O Fr estat, fr Lat stātum, PP of stare, 'to stand' See state (I) 1 a Stage, condition, period of life, in Phr (to reach) man's estate, estate of manhood, b (arohaic) social, political, circumstances, status, mode of life the holy estate of matrimony 2 Political or social group and class, political division of inhabitants of a state the three estates of the realm, the Lords Spiritual, Lords Temporal, and the Commons the fourth estate, the press, a humorous application 3 (law) Possessions, belongings, property owned, whether an interest in land and tenements, which are real estate, or b money, valuables, securities, and all property other than land, which are known as personal estate 4 Condition, circumstances, of worldly prosperity - mind, body, and estate, to suffer in one's estate 5 Specific pieces of property in land to own an estate in the country esteem (I), vb trans [1 estâm, 2 istâm] ME estemen, O Fr estimer, fr Lat aestimare, earlier aestimare, 'to value, appraise, to assess damages, to consider, value highly, to honour', ep Gk aidōios for 'awe', regarded with awe and reverence, venerable, august, whence aidōmatos, 'I fear, respect, reverence', also cogn w Goth aiulan, 'to dread, reverence' The base aid-* is perhaps an amplification of ais*, 'honour', whence OE ār, fr ariz*, OHG ara, Mod Germ ehren, respect, honour, & d, fr base dā* &c 'to give', q v under date (I), donation &c Cp hier- 1 To feel respect for, hold in respect, consider highly, regard as worthy of honour and respect, to venerate I like but cannot esteem him, or qualhnd, to esteem highly 2 To consider, regard, judge I esteem riches a worthy aim esteem (II), n, fr preo 1 (arohaic) Judgement appraisement of merit, estimation a poor creature in my esteem 2 Favourable judgement, respect - to hold (a person or thing) in (high) esteem ester, n [1 ester, 2 ésta] Invented by German chemist Gmelin to distinguish such substances from ethers (ohem) A compound ether formed by the union of alcohols and acids with elimination of water estimable, adj [1 estimabl, 2 estimobl] Fr fr Lat aestimabilis 'valuable' See esteem (I) & -able Worthy of esteem and respect estimableness, n Preo & -ness Quality of being estimable estimably, adv See preo & -ly In an estimable manner estimate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 estimât, 2 estimet], fr Lat aestimâ (um), PP type of aestimare See esteem (I) 1 trans To compute, form a judgement as to (money) value of something appraise at a certain value put a price upon, a (lit) I cannot estimate the value of your property without further investigation, I estimate my losses at a thousand pounds, b (if non material things) to estimate a man's character, intellect, very high (ly) 2 intrans To make, form, draw up, an estimate, chiefly in trade usage a contractor estimates for repair of a house estimate (II), n [1 estimât, 2 estimet] See preo 1 a Judgement, computation, of value, size amount, quality, b specif, computation, in advance, of approximate cost -I doing making, something in a certain way my builder has greatly exceeded his estimate, c the Estimates, forecast made each year by Chancellor of Exchequer of probable national revenue and expenditure for coming year 2 A considered and careful judgement of moral or aesthetic values, or of a man's character, a summing up of this an estimate of Pope's place as a poet, an estimate of a man's qualities as a general estimation, n [1 estimâshun, 2 estimet[sən] Lat aestimâtio (em), '(money) value, valuation of a thing, respect' See estimate (I) & -ian 1 Judgement, opinion in my estimation 2 Estimate, computation (of value, size, amount, distance &c) n hasty estimation of one's available resources 3 Favourable judgement, esteem, respect -I to win a person's estimation, held in high estimation estival See estival estolê, n [1 ostôl, 2 estôl] O Fr, fr Lat stella, 'star' See stellar (her) Star with six or eight points, alternately straight and wavy.

estop vb trans [1 estôp, 2 estôp], fr O Fr estopere See stop (law) To bar by estoppel estoppel, n [1 estôpel, 2 estôpel] Preo & -ol, O Fr estoupail, 'stopper, bung' (law) Preclusion of a statement or denial on account of some previous action or statement of same party which denies what is now attempted to be alleged, or alleges what is attempted to be denied.

estovers, n pl [1 estôverz, 2 estôverz], fr O Fr estover, estovoir, 'necessaries, provision', properly an infinitive, 'to be necessary', used as n; etymol doubtful, possibly connected w Lat studere, 'to study, desire', tho word occurs also in Engl as stovor, 'fodder for cattle', now obs (law) a Wood which a tenant or copyholder has the right to cut from his holding, for the specific purposes of the holding, as for firewood, repairs of house and hedges &c, b the right to cut such wood The proper English word was bole, OE bôl, see bont (III), and the rights were distinguished as firebole, houdebole, hedge bole &c estranger vb trans [1 estrânj; 2 estrândj] O Fr estranger, 'foreigner', Lat extrahere, to treat as a stranger' See strange a To alienate, separate, divide, in feeling and sympathy the two brothers had lately become estranged, b to alienate, destroy, affection of, to hurt feelings of, offend his behaviour had estranged all his best friends, c to alienate, divert, turn away to estrange a person's love, affection &c estrangement, n [1 ostrânjment, 2 ostrândjment] Preo & -ment Cancellation, cooling off, of affection between two persons &c estray, n [1 estrâ, 2 estrâ], fr O Fr estrayer See stray (law) A strayed domestic animal estreat, vb trans [1 ostrêr, 2 ostrêr] O Fr estrate, fr Lat extractum See extract (law) a To make an extract from records of a Court of Law, and return to Court of Exchequer, for purposes of prosecution, b to exact as a levy or fine, for Court of Exchequer estrepement, n [1 estrêpment, 2 estrêpment] fr O Fr estrepere, 'to damage, commit waste', etymol uncertain, possibly fr Lat ex(s)trypare. See extirpate (law) Waste committed by a tenant for life on lands, woods, or houses, to the damage of the reversioner estuary, n [1 estjâr, 2 estjâr] Lat aestuarium, 'tide place, creek, estuary', fr aestus fr aidh(a) tux*, 'ebb and flow of the tide tho tide The orig meaning of the base aidh* is 'to burn' &c, whence to boil, that which boils' Thus aestus is ultimately 'the boiling, foaming sea', hence 'movement of the tide' See further under aedile, nestrvate, edifice, ether Broad mouth of a river (into which the tide flows) when it widens out before reaching the sea, in many cases an estuary is practically the sea, esp at high tide esurience, -cy, n [1 esuriens(i), 2 esjôrens(i)] esuriens & -cy Hunger, greed, voracity esurient, adj [1 esuriens, 2 esjôriens] Lat esuriens (em), Pres Part of esurire, 'desire, to eat', fr es, PP type of edere, 'to eat' See edible, eat Eagor to eat, very hungry, voracious, grasping

-et, suff Fr, O Fr et, elle, Ital ella, ella Formerly dimin suff, & still felt as such in seal, & slightly perh in pullci, but having no such force now in hatchet, packet, packet &c Origin of suff unknown, recent discoveries have traced it in Cretan etacisri, n [1 etasizm; 2 etasizem], fr name of Gk letter ε (êta) Pronunciation of Gk ê as [é] or [â], instead of in usual English way [i] étagère, n [1 étahzhâr, 2 etâzé] Fr, fr étage, 'shelf' A piece of furniture, a cabinet with unenclosed shelves, for exhibition of small articles of artistic value &c état, n [1 étah, 2 eta] Fr See estate State, estate of the realm; tiers état, third estate, that of the citizens or bourgeoisie état major, n [1 étah mahzhôr, 2 éta mahjôr] Fr (mil) Staff et cetera, etcetera [1 ètsetera, 2 ètsetera] Lat, 'and the other, the rest', neut pl of ceterum The etymol of cetera is disputed, but, as Waldo suggests, it is prob cogn w Gk idê, 'and', the second element is apparently cogn w Gk heteros, 'the other' See hetero- 1 And the rest, and so forth, and so on, abbr etc of &c 2 n pl Et ceteras, additional things, sundries, odds and ends a dinner of five courses and etceteras etch, vb trans & intrans [1 ech, 2 etj] 17th cent, fr Du etsen, 'etch', fr Germ ätzen, 'to feed, bait, to eat into with corrosives' The base is Gmc et*, a gradational variant of et*, eat 1 trans a To trace designs and pictures upon a metal plate with acids, which eat into the surface and make a negative, whence copies can be printed, b to produce design &c by this means 2 intrans To practise the art of an etcher etcher, n [1 êcher; 2 etj] Preo & -er An artist who etches designs and pictures on copper etching, vhl n [1 êching, 2 êtjng] etch & -ing 1 The art of the etcher 2 Design or picture produced by this art eternal (I), adj [1 etêrnal, 2 stârnal] Lat aeternus (us), 'everlasting', & -al The first element is fr aewitern*, fr aewum, 'space of time' See aewon, agê, aye adv 1 Without beginning or end, of infinite duration, everlasting eternal life Phr the Eternal City, Rome 2 a Without intermission, unceasing, b (collng) too often repeated, too frequent eternal chatter 3 Enduring, based upon immutable principles the eternal principles of art, justice &c

Eternal (II), n, fr preo (cap) Appellation of the Divinity eternally, adv eternal (I) & -ly a Lasting throughout eternity, b immutably, c (too) frequently eterne, adj [1 etêrn, 2 stân] Fr, fr Lat aeternus See eternal (post) Eternal eternity, n [1 etêrniti, 2 stâniti] Fr eternité, fr Lat aeternitâs (em) See eternal & -ity 1 Duration without beginning or end 2 Condition which begins after earthly life, that state which will last for ever, the next world to hover between this life and eternity 3 A period of time which is so long that it appears endless the sermon seemed to last an eternity eternize, vb trans [1 eterniz, 2 stâniz] eternize & -ize 1 To make eternal, cause to last for eternity 2 To give immortal fame to, to render (memory, name &c) immortal etesian, adj [1 etêzian, etêzhan, 2 itêzian, itêzhan] Lat etivae & -an, fr Gk etivai, n, 'winds that prevail annually in Aegean, at midsummer', Lat adj etivai, pertaining to these, fr Gk etnos, 'annual', fr Gk etos, 'year', for earlier ednos*, cogn w Lat vetus, veteris &c, 'aged, long standing'. See veteran, wether, veal Annual, applied to periodical winds from the north, prevailing in Aegean during the summer ethane, n [1 ethan, 2 epən], fr ether & -ane (chem) A colourless, odourless gas, found in gases from oil wells &c, ethyl hydride ether, n [1 ether, 2 fpa] Lat aether, fr Gk aitēr, 'the upper, purer, air', fr base asdh-*, 'to burn' &c. See aedile, estuary 1 The substance of which, according to the ancients, the heavenly bodies are composed, the upper air, higher regions of space 'An ampler ether, a diviner air' (Wordsw, 'Laod' 105) 2 (phys) Hypothetical medium, supposed to fill space, by means of vibrations in which light and other forms of radiation are transmitted 3 (chem) Highly volatile liquid got from alcohol, used as anaesthetic ethereal, adj [1 ethereal, 2 fpaɪəl] Preo & -al 1 Of, connected with, pertaining to, the ether 2 A very light, like air, b hoarse (fig), suggesting something finer, lighter, more spiritual than things of earth, spirit-like ethereal beauty, purity &c etherality, n [1 ethereality, 2 fpaɪəli] Preo & -ity Quality of being ethereal etheralization, n [1 etheralizashun, 2 fpaɪəlaɪzəʃən] Preo & -ation Act or process of etherizing etherize, vb trans [1 etherealize, 2 fpaɪəlaɪz] etherize & -ize 1 To spiritualize, regard, treat, as being ethereal 2 To convert into ether 3 etheric, adj [1 ethērik, 2 fperik] ether & -ic (phys) Connected with, by means of, the ether etheric telegraphy etherification, n [1 ethērifikashun, 2 fperifikəʃən] ether & -fication Process of converting alcohol into ether etherify, vb trans [1 ethērifi, 2 fperifai] ether & -fy To convert (alcohol) into ether etherism, n [1 etherizam, 2 fperizam] ether & -ism (med) Condition produced by excessive administration of ether etherization, n [1 ethērīzashun, 2 fparəzəʃən] Next word & -ation A Administration of ether as an anaesthetic, b condition of anaesthesia produced by ether etherize, vb trans [1 etheriz, 2 fparəz] ether & -ize 1 (med) To reduce to a state of anaesthesia by administering ether 2 (chem) To convert into ether ethic(al), adj & n [1 ethik(l), 2 epik(l)] Lat ethicus, Gk ēthikos, 'pertaining to morals', fr ēthos, also ēthos, 'custom, usage', wh comes fr swedh-, swedh-, cogn w Sort swadha, 'essential quality, habit, dwelling', & swa, 'self', Lat suācere, fr swedh skō*, 'to accustom oneself', Goth swēa, 'one's own', & perh Goth swāda, O E swā, 'custom' &c. See consuetude & ethmic 1 adj Generally ethical, connected with moral action, connected with duties, moral feelings, morality 2 n Ethics, system of morality, systematic study of moral action ethically, adv [1 ethikali, 2 epikali] Preo & -ly From a moral or ethical standpoint, according to ethics ethicize, vb trans [1 ethisiz, 2 epreiz] See ethic & -ize To make ethical, to treat in relation to ethics ethico-, pref Form of ethic used as pref Expresses relation to ethics ethics, n [1 ethiks, 2 epiks] See ethic & -ics Morality, science of morality ethmoid(al), adj [1 ethmoid, ethmoidl, 2 epmoid, epmoidl] fr Gk ethmoideēs, 'like a sieve', fr ēthmos, 'sieve', fr ēthēim, 'to sift' (fr sēth*), & -oid & -al Cp M I nithlad, 'sifting', O N sold, O Slav sito, 'sieve' (anat) Of, pertaining to, the bone of the nose through which pass the olfactory nerves ethmic (X), ethmical, adj [1 ethnik(l), 2 epnik(l)] Gk ethnikos, adj, fr ethnos, 'race', ēthnē, 'the nations, heathens, gentiles' Ethnos is fr swedh-nos*, & is ultimately fr same base as that of ethic, op (w different formative elements) Sort sabhd, 'relationship, community', & Goth stiba, 'relationship', the ultimate meaning is 'one's own, what is connected', this is the base in Lat suus, 'his' &c Cp sui-

1 Connected with, characteristic of, a race, related to the moral and physical characters distinctive of a particular race 2 Heathen, gentile, contrasted with Christian or Jewish ethmic (II), n, fr piec (obs) A heathen ethnically, adv [1 ethnikali, 2 epnikali] ethnical & -ly According to race, or racial characteristics ethno-, pref Form of Gk ethnos, 'race', used in composition See ethmic (I) ethnography, n [1 ethnografi, 2 epnografi] ethno- & -graphy Systematic, scientific, description of races, including physical, mental, and moral features ethnologist, n [1 ethnolōgist, 2 epnolōgist] Next word & -ist Student of ethnology ethnology, n [1 ethnolōgi, 2 epnolōgi] ethno- & -logy Science of racial characteristics, and of the distribution and classification of races ethologist, n [1 ethnolōgist, 2 epnolōgist] Next word & -ist Student of ethnology ethology, n [1 etholōgi, 2 epnolōgi] Next word & -logy The study of ethos ethos, n [1 ēthos, 2 fpos] Gk ēthos, 'disposition, temper, character' Same word as that discussed under ethic Characteristic and prevailing temper and disposition of, moral atmosphere within, a community ethyl, n [1 ēthil, 2 ēpil] ether & -yl a (chem) Basis of alcohol, the organic hydrocarbon radical of alcohol compounds, ethyl alcohol, the active, intoxicating principle of all alcohols, b a name given, commercially, to a kind of petrol, containing a lead tetrahyde etiolate, vb trans [1 etiolat, 2 etiolat] fr Fr etioler, O Fr estuler, perh formed fr Lat stipula, 'a stalk' See stipule 1 (bot) To cause to wither and pine away by deprivation of light and air 2 (fig) To render poor, withered, shrunken, discoloured, feeble, as though from lack of air, food &c etiolated, adj [1 etiolated, 2 etiolated] etiolate & -ed Withered, faded etioloation, n [1 etioloashun, 2 etioloʃən] etiolate & -ion Process of etiolating, results of this etiology See aetiology etiquette, n [1 etiket, 2 etiket] Fr, 'a label', of Gmc origin, cp LG stikke, 'to stick on' See stick (I), & op ticket

Procedure, manners, forms, ceremonies prescribed by convention and custom a breach of etiquette, not etiquette to do so and so etna, n [1 ētna, 2 ētna] fr name of the volcano in Sicily Device for boiling water, consisting of a metal vessel the base of which is fixed in a kind of cup containing spirit which is lighted

Eton clothes See Etons

Eton coat, n [1 ētn kōt, 2 itn kōrt] fr Eton College Short black coat worn by boys, reaching to waist, not made to button, having broad lapels like those of a man's swallow-tail coat

Eton collar, n Broad white linen collar worn with, and outside, an Eton coat Eton crop, n Very closely cropped hair as worn by women, resembling that of a boy

Etonian, n [1 ētdmən, 2 tdmən] Boy at Eton College, Old Etonian, former member of College

Eton jacket, n Eton coat

Etons, n pl [1 ētnz, 2 itnz] Eton coat, black waistcoat, and suitable trousers Phr to go into Etons, wear them for the first time, start wearing them et seq(g) [1 et sek, 2 et sek] For et sequentes or et sequentes Lat See et sequentes And the following (words, pages &c) -ette, suff [1 et, 2 et] Fr fem suff, also sometimes dimin Used in more recent introductions fr Fr Seo-et 1 Diminutive force preserved in statuette, lost in wagonette and almost in cigarette 2 Expressing a woman engaged in, interested in, something suffragette 3 Expressing an imitation leatherette, sham leather étui, n [1 ētwé, 2 etwí] Fr, O Fr estui, etymol unknown Small case, needle case etymologic(al), adj [1 etimolōgikl, 2 etimolōdzikl] etymology & -ic & -al Connected with, according to principles of, etymology etymologically, adv Preo & -ly a According to the principles of etymology to trace a word etymologically, b by etymology, by having common origin words etymologically related etymologicon, n [1 etimolōgikon, 2 etimolōdzikon] Gk See etymology Etymological dictionary etymologist, n [1 etimolōgist, 2 etimolōdzist] etymology & -ist Student of etymology etymologize, vb intrans [1 etimolōgiz, 2 etimolōdzənz] Next word & -ize To study etymology, to make etymologies etymology, n [1 etimolōgi, 2 etimolōdz] Gk etymologia, 'analysis, derivation of a word', lit 'true account'. See etymon & -logy 1 Systematic tracing of a word back as near as possible to its original form and meaning, by the methods of comparative philology, and by applying what is known of the history of the particular language in which it occurs 2 Branch of philology concerned with this process etymon, n [1 ētimon, 2 ētimon] Gk etymon, 'what is true', neut of etymos, 'true', connected w etdes, 'true, real, genuine', fr setewos*, op Sort satya, 'true' The base is set*, connected w Lat es, 'is', Gk esmi for es mi*, 'am' &c The full base is set* See other forms under am, is, esse, sooth. Primitive word form whence derivatives are formed, an etymological base eu-, pref Gk, 'well', neut of eus, 'good, noble, brave', in Gk compounds has the sense of great, abundant, easy &c eu is for earlier swu-, & is fr base sw, 'existing', &c

See esse In modern English connotes, the prefix means 'well', and expresses satisfaction, advantage, completeness &c Contrasted with dys-

eucalyptus, n [1 ēkaliptus, 2 jūkaliptas] Gk eu- & kaluptos, 'covered', PP of kaluptein, 'to cover, conceal', cp also Gk kaluptira, 'woman's veil' The Gk kal stands for Aryan kall*, a form of the base kel*. See second element of conceal, occult, also hole 1 (bot) Large genus of trees indigenous to Australia, often called gum trees, from some species of which pungent oils, gums, tars are obtained, while others yield excellent timber 2 Eucalyptus oil &c, used for medicinal purposes eucharis, n [1 ēkharis, 2 jūkharis] Gk, 'pleasant, agreeable' See next word

American plant with white flowers, Amazon lily

Eucharist, n [1 ēkharist, 2 jūkharist] fr Gk eukharistia, 'thankfulness, gratitude', cp eukharistos, 'agreeable, pleasant, thankful', fr eu- & khōris, 'favour, grace', fr same fr eu- & khōris, 'to rejoice', fr jhar jo* base is Gk khōrein, 'to rejoice', fr same

With different formative element, fr same base, is Goth gorayon, 'to desire', O E. german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

See further under yearn Lit, german See further under yearn Lit, german

a To defeat (opponent) at the game, b (fig. slang) to defeat purpose of, foil Eucled, n [1 éukléd, 2 júkled] Gk, personal name Eukleides, Gk geometer, c 300 B.C. System of geometry based on Euclid's treatise eud(a)emoniac(al), adj [1 éudémónik(l), 2 júdmónik(l)] eu- & demoniac & -al, & cp daemon Producing happiness eudemones, n pl [1 éudémóniks, 2 júdmóniks], fr prec Eudemonism, means of attaining happiness eudemism, n [1 éudémunizm, 2 júdmónizm] Gk eudaimonismós, 'act of regarding as happy' eu- & demonism. Ethical system which judges moral value of actions by their tendency to produce happiness eudiometer, n [1 éudiometer, 2 júdúdmístá] Gk euides, 'fine, serene', eu- & dios, genit of Zeus, 'God of the sky', & -meter Instrument for measuring and determining the constituents of gases, originally, the amount of oxygen in the atmosphere engenic, adj [1 éyénik, 2 júdžénik] Gk engénés, 'well born', & -ic See eu- & genesis Connected with improvement of stock or race, tending to promote engenes, q v engenes, n pl, fr prec Study of best means of improving the race by careful selection of the parents enhemerism, n [1 énhémérizm, 2 júhémérizm] Gk name Euhémeros, a philosopher of about 300 B.C., & -ism Theory that myths arise from an enhancement of traditional account of human beings and their actions enhemerist, n [1 énhéméríst, 2 júhéméríst] See prec & -ist One who believes that myths originate in traditions of human actions enhemeristic, adj [1 énhémérístik, 2 júhémérístik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, based on, enhemerism enhemerize, vb trans [1 énhéméríz, 2 júhéméríz] See prec & -ize To interpret (myths) according to the principles of enhemerism eulogist, n [1 éulogíst, 2 júldžíst] eulogy & -ist Person who praises, who pronounces a eulogy eulogistic(al), adj [1 éulogístik(l), 2 júldžístik(l)] Prec & -ic, & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, eulogy, laudatory eulogistically, adv Prec & -ly In a eulogistic manner eulogium, n [1 éulójum, 2 júldžúzám] L Lat, fr Gk See eulogy Eulogy eulogize, vb trans [1 éulójíz, 2 júldžúzíz] Next word & -ize To praise highly, speak well of, utter a eulogy concerning eulogy, n [1 éulój, 2 júldžíz] Gk eulogia, 'fair speaking, praise' eu- & -logy 1 An utterance, pronouncement, oration, statement, whether written or spoken, in praise of a person or action 2 To pronounce a eulogy upon the dead 3 Praise, expression of favourable opinion, high commendation eunuch, n [1 éunúk, 2 júnak], fr Lat eunuchus, fr Gk eunouchos, lit 'guardian of the bed', thence 'chamberlain', fr euné, 'couch, bed', & o/h, grade of ekhen, to hold, keep The original meaning of euné is, 'fair, sleeping place, retreat for shelter', also 'a tomb' (see development of meaning in bed), the most primitive senses of the base are found in Zend éna, 'hole, crevice, in the ground', & O Slav jama, 'ditch', fr óm*, fr ouma*, ekhen, 'have, possess' &c, is fr Aryan segh*, 'to seize, master, be master of', cp Goth sigis, 'victory', OE sigu &c See epoch 1 A male person who has been emasculated 2 Such a person, formerly employed as an officer of state by Eastern potentates 3 A timid, spiritless, feeble man, lacking courage and robustness of character eponymus, n [1 éponímus, 2 júpnám] Lat form of Gk epónymos, 'of good name, propitious', also name of the spindle tree, fr eu- & ónoma, énoma, 'name' See onomatopoeia Genus of evergreen shrubs, including the spindle tree eupepsia, n [1 éupépsia, 2 júpépsia] Gk eupépsia, 'good digestion' See eu- & pepsin, peptic Good digestion Converse of dyspepsia eupaptic, adj [1 éupéptik, 2 júpéptik] eu- & peptic 1 Having a good digestion. 2 Promoting digestion, easy to digest euphemism, n [1 éufémizm, 2 júfémizm] Gk euphémia, 'use of words of good omen, and avoidance of bad ones', fr euphémia, 'to use good words', & -ism, fr Gk eu- & phém, 'I speak', cogn w Lat fāma, 'talk, rumour, report' See fame An elegant, refined, often indirect, or veiled, expression or word, used in the place of one which is coarse, obscene, brutal, unrefined, or merely blunt Safeguarding is a mere euphemism for Protection, cp use of ad-venturer, as=evindler, one who lives by his wits euphemistic(al), adj [1 éufémístik(l), 2 júfémístik(l)] Prec w substitution of suff -ist, & -ic Characterized by euphemism euphemistically, adv Prec & -ly In a euphemistic manner euphemize, vb trans & intrans [1 éufémíz, 2 júfémíz] See euphemism & -ize a To refine one's mode of expression by use of euphemisms, b to use euphemisms euphonic(al), adj [1 éufónik(l), 2 júfónik(l)] euphony & -ic & -al Connected with, in accordance with euphony euphonomically, adv Prec & -ly In a euphonomical manner euphonomus, adj [1 éufónus, 2 júfónús] euphony & -ous Pleasant, smooth, sweet sounding euphonomously, adv Prec & -ly In a euphonomous manner euphonum, n [1 éufónum, 2 júfónúm] Formed on Lat pattern fr Gk euphónos, 'sweet voiced' See next word Small brass bass instrument with loud tone, resembling a saxhorn euphony, n [1 éufóni, 2 júfóni] Gk euphónia, 'sweetness of sound, or voice', fr eu-, 'well', & phóné, 'sound, tone, voice' See phone 1 Sweetness of sound, harmony, such character and combination of sound as produces a pleasant effect to the ear 2 In obsolete philological works, certain sound changes were said to be made, 'for the sake of euphony', or sometimes 'for greater ease of utterance', the theory of the nature of language upon which the view expressed in such statements was based has completely passed away

Euphorbia, n [1 éufórbia, 2 júfóbía], fr Gk euphorbia, an African plant, called after Euphorbos, a Greek physician (bot) A genus of shrubs and herbs, the type of the family Euphorbiaceae, which includes epurges, box, castor oil plant &c enphrasy, n [1 éufraz, 2 júfraz] Gk euphrasia, 'well mindedness, delight' eu- & phras, form of base of wh. better known type is phrén, 'mind', q v under first element of phrenology A herb also called eyebright euphuism, n [1 éufúizm, 2 júfúizm], fr Euphuus, title of a sort of novel by John Lyly (1680), the style of which was very artificial, with carefully balanced sentences, abounding in antithesis, and remarkable for a high flown, often far fetched diction, & -ism 1 Originally the style of writing and speech affected by the imitators of Lyly 2 Any high flown, artificial precious style of writing and speaking euphuist, n [1 éufúst, 2 júfúst] See prec & -ist a Lyly and his imitators in style, b one who affects a style of speech and writing which is artificial, precious, and abounding in rare words, epithets, and phrases &c euphuistic(al), adj [1 éufústik(l), 2 júfústik(l)] Prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to, characterized by, euphuism euphuistically, adv Prec & -ly In a euphuistic(al) manner

Eurasian, adj [1 úrážhan, -ázian, 2 júrežan, -ezian] Euro-, fr Europe, & Asian Person, esp in India, of mixed European and Asiatic parentage or descent, those of British parentage prefer the name 'Anglo Indian', which is now the recognized name for these people eureka, interj [1 úréka, 2 júreka] Gk, 'I have found', perf of heuriskó, 'I find' See heuristic Exclamation of triumph, 'I've got it' the difficulty is solved &c eurhythmics, n pl [1 úríthmiks, 2 júríthmiks] eu- & rhythmic The art of expressing harmony by gesture in which physical movement is made to reflect musical notation ensol, n [1 ésol, 2 júsol] eu- & first syll. of solution (mod) A solution of chlorinated lime, bleaching powder, and boracic acid, used as an antiseptic lotion for wounds, bruises &c

Eustachian, adj [1 ústákian, 2 jústéikian], fr Eustachio, Ital physician, d 1674, & -an (anat) Named after, discovered by Eustachio, specif, Eustachian tube, air passage leading from the ear drum cavity to the back part of the mouth ethanasia, n [1 éthanázia, 2 júpénézia] Gk, 'easy dying', fr eu- & thanatos, 'death', see thanato- fr duine, 'mortal, man'; W dyn, are perh cogn 1 Easy, desirable mode of death, one devoid of suffering 2 Practice (sometimes advocated) of putting to death, by painless methods, persons who are stricken with incurable disease, to avoid prolongation of suffering evacuant, adj & n [1 évakúant, 2 ívakúant] Lat evacuans (em), Pres Part type of evacuare See next word a adj Causing evacuation, esp of stomach, bowels &c; b n, that which promotes, causes, evacuation evacuate, vb trans [1 évakúat, 2 ívakúet], fr Lat evacuā (um), PP of evacuare, 'to empty out, purge' See e- & vacant 1 To empty out, rid of contents, spoof (med.) evacuate the bowels 2 (mil) To clear out, withdraw, troops from (a position, fortress) evacuation, n [1 évakúášun, 2 ívakúášun] Prec & -ion a Act or process of evacuating in either sense, b matter which is evacuated, esp from bowels evade, vb trans [1 évád, 2 íverd], fr Lat evadere, 'to go out, get away, escape' e- & videre, 'make one's way, rush', cp Lat vadum, 'a shallow, ford', fr Aryan uđdh*, whence also OE uadan, 'go' &c. See wade 1 a To escape, get away, from, elude, throw off, baffle to evade one's pursuers, to evade pursuit &c, b to avoid deliberately, go aside so as not to meet to evade a bore at a party 2 To avoid answering, equivocate concerning, dodge to evade a straight question 3 a To disregard, manage to shirk avoid discharge of evade a duty, debt, obligation &c, b to get round, dodge, escape full intention of by trickery to evade the law, the rules &c evaginate, vb trans [1 évajunát, 2 ívadžinát] Lat evaginā (um), PP of evaginare, 'to draw (sword) out of a sheath', fr e- & aginare, 'sheath' To turn a tube, or tubular organ inside out, to evert evagination, n [1 évajúnášun, 2 ívadžúnášun] Prec & -ion Act of evaginating evaluate, vb trans [1 évalúet, 2 ívaljuet] See e- & valuation To ascertain value or amount of, to appraise evaluation, n [1 évalúášun, 2 ívaljuášun] Prec & -ion Act or process of evaluating, result of such act or process evanesce, vb intrans [1 evanés, 2 évanés] Lat evanescere, 'to pass away, vanish' See e- & vanish To disappear, vanish, melt away evanescence, n [1 evanesens, 2 évanésens] Next word & -ce Disappearance, process or fact of vanishing away, transitoriness evanescent, adj [1 évanésent, 2 évanésant] Lat evanescent (em), Pres Part type of evanescere, 'to vanish away' See evanesce & -ent Liable to fade, or pass away, transitory, fleeting evangel, n [1 évanjel, 2 évándžel] Lat evangelium, 'gospel', fr Gk euaggelion, 'reward of good tidings, glad tidings, the gospel', fr eu-, 'well, good', & aggcha, 'message, tidings', op aggelos, 'messenger, angel' See angel a Good tidings, specif, the message of Christianity, the Gospel, b one of the four Gospels evangelic(al) (I), adj [1 évanjélik(I), 2 évándžélik(I)] Prec & -ic & -al 1 Pertaining to, based on, the Gospel and its teachings evangelical preaching 2 Connected with a school of thought in the Church of England which emphasizes the doctrine of the necessity of man's redemption by faith, rather than the sacramental aspect of Christianity, belonging to what is also known as the Low Church party; distinctively Protestant in attitude, as contrasted with the High Church, or Anglican, Anglo-Catholic party evangelical (II), n An adherent of the evangelical or Low Church party in the Church of England evangelicalism, n [1 évanjélikahizm, 2 évándžélikahizm] Prec & -ism System of thought and doctrines held by evangelicals evangelist, n [1 évanjelist, 2 évándželist] Gk euaggelistsés, 'messenger' evangel & -ist 1 The writer of one of the four Gospels 2 Any preacher of the Gospel, a (in Early Church) one who first preached the Gospel to a nation, b (in mod. times) a travelling preacher, not usually a regular minister in any Church, one who holds religious meetings, often in the open air, and preaches to any who care to listen evangelistic, adj [1 évanjelistik, 2 évándželistik] Prec & -ic Belonging to, connected with, an evangelist, or evangelists evangelization, n [1 évanjelizshun, 2 évándželizshun] Next word & -ation Act, process of evangelizing; condition of being evangelized evangelize, vb trans & intrans [1 évanjeliz, 2 évándželiz] evangel & -ize 1 trans. a To preach the Gospel to, & spread the knowledge of the Gospel among St Augustine and his monks evangelized the South of England in the 7th cent. b to imbue with the teachings and principles of the Gospels 2 intrans To practise preaching, to preach the Gospel evanish, vb intrans [1 évánish, 2 ívénish] O Fr evanir e- & vanish. To disappear, fade away, vanish evanishment, n [1 évanishment, 2 ívénishment] Prec & -ment Process of vanishing, disappearance evaporate, vb intrans & trans [1 évapórat, 2 ívapóreit] fr evaporat (um), PP type of Lat évaporare, 'to disperse in vapour' See e- & vapour A intrans 1 (of liquid, moisture) To pass away in the form of vapour, to become vapour and disappear 2 (fig, of non-material things) To disperse, disappear, fade his hopes evaporated at the touch of eternal reality B trans To cause to disperse in form of vapour evaporation, n [1 évapóráshun, 2 ívapóréishun] Prec & -ion Process of evaporating, act of evaporating evaporative, adj [1 évapórativ, 2 ívapórativ] evaporate & -ive Connected with, tending to cause, evaporation evasion, n [1 éváshun, 2 ívéshun] L Lat evasio-(em), 'a going out', fr Lat evadere-(um), P.P. type of Lat évadere, & -ion. See evade Act of evading 1 Escape 2 a Act of avoiding, eluding, shirking evasion of one's responsibilities, duties, &c. b act of dodging, paltering with, the truth &c., equivocation, sophistry his answer was a mere evasion evasive, adj [1 éváshiv, 2 ívéshiv] Lat evadere (see prec) & -ive. (chiefly of non-material things) 1 Tending to escape one, elusive, difficult to grasp or retain the precise meaning of philosophical writers is often evasive, human joys are too often evasive 2 Designedly ambiguous, equivocal, shuffling, disingenuous, shirking the real point an evasive answer &c evasively, adv. Prec & -ly In an evasive manner, equivocally to answer evasively evasiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being evasive, a elusiveness, transitoriness the evasiveness of human happiness, b ambiguity, disingenuousness, equivocation an evasiveness in answering questions eve (I), n [1 év, 2 ív] M E éve Variant of even (I) 1 (post) Evening 2 a Time just before an event or action the eve of great events, on the eve of happiness &c., b specif (eccles) the day before a festival Easter Eve, St John's Eve &c

Eve (II), n Proper name of the first woman, Heb Havvah, Khanvach, 'life, living' Symbolically used for women generally, who are supposed to inherit the characteristics of curiosity and other frailties possessed by our ancestress Phr daughters of Eve, women evection, n [1 évékshun, 2 ívekshun] L Lat evectio-(em), 'a flying upwards', fr evect-(um) P.P. type of evectere, 'to carry, convey out', fr e- & vehere, 'to carry' &c See vehement, vehicle, weigh. (astron) Irregularity of the moon in its orbit, due to the action of the sun even (L), n [1 éven, 2 ívan] O E æfen, M E even, op OS aband, OHG aband, Mod Germ abend The Scand type, wh may not be related to the W Gmc forms, is ON aplán, Mod Swed afón, Dan afón No light has so far been shed upon the origin of the word (poet) Evening.

even (II), adj O E efen, 'level, even, equal', adv 'equally', M E even, OS edan, OHG eban, ON jafn. There are no certain cognates outside Gmc, relationship has been suggested w Lat aemuläre, 'to strive to equal' (see emulate), smüär, 'to represent, copy' (see imitate), & smägo, 'copy, likeness', see image This relationship, however, at present seems improbable 1 (in material sense) Without irregularities, uniform, a (of surfaces) smooth, not undulating, flat, b (of lines) straight, parallel, in same plane with even with the ground, c (of amounts, distances, heights) equal, identical, Phr even date, (commerce vulgarism) the same date, to get, be even with a person, have one's revenge, requite him, odds are even, the same whether for or against, d (of motion) regular, rhythmical, not intermittent the even beat of the heart 2 (of non-material things) a (of the mind and temper) The same under varying circumstances, and at all times, placid, equable, b (of justice, moral judgement &c) impartial, fair, c (of conditions of human life) undiversified, monotonous, uneventful 3 (of numbers) Capable of division by two without remainder, contrasted with odd even (III), adv Same as prec 1 Evenly the two horses ran even 2 Just as, precisely, to the extent, in the degree or way stated it has turned out even as I expected 3 Just at the moment, at the same time as even as he was speaking a shot rang out 4 With force of intensive particle in various phrases, expressing the extreme limit of what is possible, or expected I even lent him my own books, I will forgive you all, even your insults, even now it is not too late &c Even if, notwithstanding that, although even (IV), vb trans To make even, also even up even-handed, adj Impartial, fair, unbiassed, esp in Phr even-handed justice evening, n [1 évmng, 2 ívmng] O E æfning, fr æfen, see even (I), M E evening 1 That part of the day during, and shortly after, sundown, the early part of the night 2 Part of the night spent in a particular way musical evening Evening clothes, those of the conventional cut and make to be worn at night, evening coat, one customarily worn in the evening, evening dress, evening clothes evening primrose, n A biennial plant, Oenothera, with pale yellow flowers, which open towards evening evening star, n The planet specially noticeable in the west after sunset, usually Venus evenly, adv [1 évni, 2 ívni] even (II) & -ly In an even manner, equally &c even-minded, adj With even mind calm, equable evenness, n [1 évnnes, 2 ívnnes] even (II) & -ness Quality of being even evensong, n [1 évnson, 2 ívnson] O E æfensung even (I) & song 1 Sixth of the seven hours in R.C. Church 2 a Office of Evening Prayer in Church of England, b service at which this is said event, n [1 évént, 2 évént] O Fr, fr Lat eventus, 'occurrence, event', fr even (um), P.P. type of evenire, 'to come forth, happen' e- & venire, 'to come' (see venue), wh is fr Aryan base *g^{em}- & cogn w come 1 Something which comes to pass, befalls, happens, an incident, occurrence the various events of a long and adventurous career 2 Result, consequences of actions, processes &c, the way in which a series of occurrences turns out, issue his plan of action, though carefully designed and attended with high expectations, was unhappy in the event Phrs in the event of his death, should he die, in the event of my being unable to do, if I am unable, at all events, in any case 3 (sporting) An item in a programme of races, athletic sports &c, a particular race, or other contest eventful, adj [1 événtfúul, 2 ívéntfúul] Prec & -ful Packed with, diversified by, abounding in, events eventfully, adv Prec & -ly In an eventful manner eventfulness, n See prec & -ness Fact, property, of being eventful eventide, n [1 évntid, 2 ívntid] O E æfntid even (I) & tide Evening, the time of evening eventual, adj [1 événchúal, 2 événtjüal] See event & -al Happening as result of a series of events, ultimate eventuality, n [1 événchúaliti, 2 événtjüaliti] Prec & -ity Event which may happen as a consequence or contingency eventually, adv [1 événchúoah, 2 événtjüah] eventual & -ly Ultimately, finally eventuate, vb intrans [1 événchúoat, 2 événtjüat] See eventual & -ate To happen, come to pass as result, to result in ever, adv [1 évér, 2 éva] O E æfre, M E euere &c, the etymol is quite obscure, prob related to O E æ, 'always, ever', op Goth awar, 'an age', stem awon See aeon & age, aye, adv 1 (socratic or poet) a Always, continuously I have ever kept my word, b repeatedly, incessantly he repeated ever the same words 2 (in neg, conditional, or interrog sentence) At any time, on any occasion did you ever hear such nonsense?, not that I ever met him, as if I should ever promise such a thing! 3 Expressing degree as much, as little, as ever I can Idiomat Phrs ever and anon, repeatedly but intermittently, from time to time, for ever (and ever), for ever and a day, eternally, (colloq) ever such a nice man, ever so much, a great deal, ever such a nice man, very nice, what ever do you mean?, why ever don't you eat your dinner? &c everglade, n [1 évəglád, 2 évəgléd] ever & glade Large tract of marshy ground, with patches of tall grass, esp the ground, with patches of tall grass, esp the evergreen, adj & u [1 évəgrén, 2 évəgrín] 1 adj (of shrubs and trees) Not losing foliage in winter, remaining green all the year round, and contrasted with deciduous 2 n Tree or shrub of this description, e.g. most conifers, ivy, yew &c everlasting, adj & n [1 ēverlāsting, 2 ēv lāsting] 1 adj a Lasting for ever everlasting glory, fame &c, b lasting for a long time, durable everlasting colours, c lasting too long, repeated until one is sick of it I cannot stand his everlasting jokes and foolish laughter 2 n Everlasting flower everlasting flower, n A flower which on drying retains its petals and the colour of these, the immortelle, Helichrysom everlastingly, adv everlasting & -ly For ever, for a very long time everlastingness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being everlasting evermore, adv [1 ēvermōr, 2 ēvəmōl] ever & more Eternally, for ever, from now onwards for ever eversion, n [1 ēvērahun, 2 ivā[ən] Lat ēversio (em), 'overthrowing, subversion', fr vers (um), P P type of ēvertēre e- & version Act of everting, state of being everted evert, vb trans [1 ēvērt, 2 ivāt] Lat ēvertēre, 'to thrust out, twist' See prec To turn onwards, turn inside out, chiefly of eyelids, intestines &c every, adj [1 ēvērī, 2 ēvārī] M E euerech, euers, fr OE ēfre, 'ever', & ēlc, 'each' See ever & each 1 Each one, not omitting any, all, a (of a group) every face was wreathed in smiles, I tried every horse I saw, till I got one to suit, every day, each day in succession, b (of an indefinite number) I enjoyed every hour, with every good wish 2 With numbers a cardinal numbers, every four days, on the fourth of every group of four, b with ordinal numbers, every second man (in line), each alternate man Phr every now and then, and again, at intervals, from time to time everybody, n [1 ēvərbōdī, 2 ēvərbōdī] every & -body Each person, all people (with sing vb) everyday, adj [1 ēvērīdā, 2 ēvērīdā] Com mon, familiar, usual, habitual an everyday occurrence everyone, n [1 ēvērīwun, 2 ēvērīwun] every & one (II) Everybody everything, n [1 ēvērīthīng, 2 ēvērīthīng] a All, each thing or circumstance, omitting nothing to know everything, to tell one everything, everything interests me b what is of chief importance, the chief thing to be considered wealth is not everything, leisure is everything to me everywhen, adv [1 ēvērīwēn, 2 ēvērīwēn] (rare) At all times, always everywhere, adv [1 ēvērīwēr, 2 ēvērīwēr] In all places evict, vb trans [1 ēvīkt, 2 ivīkt] fr Lat ēvinc (um), P P type of ēvincere, 'to overcome completely, to prevail' See e- & victor 1 To turn a tenant out of property by virtue of legal powers 2 To recover property by virtue of superior legal title eviction, n [1 ēvīkshun, 2 ivīkshun] prec & -ion Act or process of evicting evidence (I), n [1 ēvīdēns, 2 ēvīdēns] Fr, fr Lat ēvidētia, 'clearness, distinctness', fr ēvidētī, fr e- & prec Part type of vidēre, 'to see' See vision & wit 1 State of being evident 2 (law) Testimony, statement made on oath by a witness in a Court of Justice, concerning what he has seen, heard, or otherwise knows of his own knowledge, tending to prove a fact to give evidence, hear, call, evidence, cp circumstantial evidence and king's evidence 3 Something which makes evident, fact, occurrence, statement, which proves, or establishes strong probability, that something else happened, has existed, was done &c evidence (II), vb trans, fr prec To prove evidence by evidence evident, adj [1 ēvīdēt, 2 ēvīdēt] See evidence (I) Plain, visible to the eyes, clear to the mind, manifest, obvious evidential, adj [1 ēvīdēnshāl, 2 ēvīdēnshāl] Lat ēvidētī, see evident, & -al Connected with, affording, of nature of, evidence evidentially, adv prec & -ly By means of evidence evidentiary, adj [1 ēvīdēnshārī, 2 ēvīdēnshārī] See evidential & -ary Evidential evidently, adv [1 ēvīdēntlī, 2 ēvīdēntlī] evident & -ly Plainly, manifestly, in an evident manner, obviously evil (I), adj [1 ēvīl, 2 ivīl] OE yfel, adj, M E ruel, evil &c, OHG upl, Mod Germ übel, Goth ubila The etymol is entirely obscure, but a connexion has been suggested w over & up, evil being thus something 'over', or 'exceeding the limits' Now chiefly in moral sense Such uses as evil fruit, evil heart &c are obs 1 Bad, reverse of good; esp morally wicked, filled with malice, depraved evil men, evil devices, an evil life, evil speaking, lying and slandering Phr the Evil One, Satan 2 Unfortunate, ill-omened, boding misfortune, misapportioned fallen on evil days Phr the evil eye, one supposed to bring misfortune by its glance evil (II), n OE yfelu &c 1 The negation of good, anything which is opposed to well being, health of body or mind, physical disease, moral depravity, intellectual blindness and ignorance, political unrest, are various types of evil, king's evil, scrofula 2 Misfortune, ill luck, disaster to wish one evil, to bode evil evil (III), adv, fr prec Badly, ill Now rare, ill being usual evil-doer, n A wicked person, one who does evil evil-eyed, adj Having the evil eye evilly, adv [1 ēvīl, 2 ivīl] evil (I) & -ly In an evil manner evil-minded, adj Wicked, malicious, ill-disposed evince, vb trans [1 ēvīns, 2 ivīns] Lat ēvincere, 'to vanquish', wh appears to have no connexion w present meaning Cp evict The word appears to derive its present sense from evidence (II) 1 To show, give evidence of possessing, feeling, &c to evince great sorrow of parting 2 (rare and archaic) To prove, make manifest to evince the truth evirate, vb trans [1 ēvīrāt, 2 ivīrāt] fr Lat ēvirāt (um), P P type of ēvirare, 'to castrate', e- & vir, 'man' See virile To deprive of manhood, to castrate eviration, n [1 ēvīrāshun, 2 ivīrāshun] prec & -ion Act or process of evirating, state of being evirated, specif (med) loss of male characteristics eviscerate, vb trans [1 ēvīserāt, 2 ivīserāt] Lat ēviscerāt (um), P P type of ēviscerare, 'to take the bowels out of' See e- & viscera a To disembowel, b (fig) to take the point, force, essential character, from anything evisceration, n [1 ēvīserāshun, 2 ivīserāshun] prec & -ion Act or process of eviscerating, state of being eviscerated evocation, n [1 ēvōkāshun, 2 ivōkāshun] Fr, fr Lat ēvocāshun (em), fr ēvocāt (um), P P type of ēvocare See evoked Act of calling up, a summons, esp evocation of spirits, evocation of emotion &c evocative, adj [1 ēvōkātīv, 2 ivōkātīv] Lat ēvocāt, as in prec, & -ive Tending to evoke evoke, vb trans [1 ēvōk, 2 ivōk] Fr ēvoquer, fr Lat ēvocāre, 'to call out, call forth' e- & vocare, 'to call', q v under vocal, vocation, voice 1 To call up, summon, cause to appear to evoke spirits from the other world 2 To call up, produce to evoke an image an emotion in the mind, memories, to evoke admiration applause &c evolute, n [1 ēvōlūt, 2 ēvōlūt] Lat ēvolut (um), P P type of ēvolvere, 'to unroll' See next word. (math) Special form of curve evolution n [1 ēvōlūshun, 2 ivōlūshun] Lat ēvolūshun (em), 'an unrolling of a scroll, opening of a book', fr ēvolūt (um), P P type of ēvolvere, 'to unroll, unfold', fr e- & tolere, 'to roll, turn about' &c See volume, volute, also helix, well (II) 1 An unrolling, unfolding, esp by a gradual and natural process, applied to the process of gradual development wherever exhibited, esp the evolution of a drama, the gradual unfolding of the plot as expressed in the action 2 (hol) a The course of development by natural processes, as seen in the animate world of nature, whether it affects the growth of the individual organism or that of the species, the doctrine of evolution is opposed to the creationist view, the latter holds that each variety in the vegetable and animal kingdoms was produced by a special creative act, whereas the doctrine of evolution is that all the innumerable varieties, species, and genera were gradually developed, or evolved, from a few simple ancestral forms or types, b the doctrine concerning this process 3 (often pl) The movements of a part of a machine, revolutions 4 (mil and nav) Organized, concerted movements of a body of troops, or of a number of ships, manœuvres evolutional, adj [1 ēvōlūshunāl, 2 ivōlūshunāl] prec & -al Connected with, produced by, evolution evolutionally, adv prec & -ly By means of in accordance with, a process of evolution evolutionary, adj [1 ēvōlūshunārī, 2 ivōlūshunārī] evolution & -ary Evolutional evolutionism, n [1 ēvōlūshunizm, 2 ivōlūshunizm] evolution & -ism Theory and doctrines of evolution, opposed to creationism evolutionist, n & adj [1 ēvōlūshunīst, 2 ivōlūshunīst] evolution & -ist 1 n Adherent of doctrine of evolution in nature 2 adj Connected with the doctrine of evolution evolutionistic, adj [1 ēvōlūshunīstīk, 2 ivōlūshunīstīk] prec & -ic Evolutionist, adj evolute, adj [1 ēvōlūtīv, 2 ivōlūtīv] See evolution & -ive Tending to evolve, tending to promote process of evolution evolve, vb intrans & trans [1 ēvōlv, 2 ivōlv] Lat ēvolvere, 'to unfold' &c See evolution 1 intrans To unfold, develop by natural and gradual process of growth. Various senses a of plot of a story or drama, b of a living organism, species &c, c of political institutions, d of the mind and ideas &c 2 trans To cause to evolve, to produce by gradual process, esp of mental processes to evolve a plan, theory &c evulsion, n [1 ēvulsun, 2 ivulsun] Lat ēvulsio (em), 'a pulling out' (of teeth &c), fr ēvuls (um), P P type of ēvellere, 'to pluck, tear out', e- & vellere, 'to pull, pluck, off' For the base vel, 'w' &c see vellicate A plucking out, rooting out ewe, n [1 ū, 2 jū] OE ewu, M E ewe, cp Goth auwēn, 'flock of sheep', OE ewestre, Goth auwīr, 'sheep fold', cogn w Lat ovis, 'sheep', Gk oīs, 'sheep', Sert avis Lath avis See ovine Female of the sheep ewe-necked, adj [1 ū nekt, 2 jū nekt] (of horses) Having a thin, poorly arched neck ewer, n [1 ūer, 2 jūer, jūer] In M E, fr A. Fr ewere, O Fr aguerre, 'water vessel', fr Lat aquāria, fem adj, fr aqua, 'water' See aquatic & aquarium A jug; pibber, specif, large water jug used in bedrooms ex prep [1 eks, 2 eks] Lat See next word In various phrases 1 Ex officio, by virtue of one's office, not by election 2 (commerce) Ex dividend, (of stocks) not giving holder a right to, excluding, next dividend, ex ship, store &c, (of goods) not subject to payment until removed from ship, store &c ex- (I) pref Lat pref fr prep ex, m composition ex remains, as a rule, unaltered before words beginning w vowels, & before the cons h, c, p, g, z, t, becomes ef before f, t before other cons Ex is cogn w Gk ex, ek (see ex- (II) & ec-) The Lat prep has the following main senses a (epee) m downward direction, from, off, down from b (of time) from, since, after, c (other relations) taking and receiving, physically and mentally, from,

Everglades, in Florida

exanimate, adj [1] eksanimat, 2 eksanimat fr Lat exanimāt(-um), P.P type of exaumalre, 'to deprive of air, to deprive of life, to put out of one's senses, agitate, terrify', fr ex- & anima, 'air, breath, life' See animus a Deprived of life, dead, lacking spirit, or animation, inert, lifeless exanthema, n., pl exanthemata [1 eksan-théma, mata, 2 eksanpíma, -mata], fr Gk exanthēma, 'bursting into flower, eruption', fr exanthēma, 'to burst into flower', fr ex- (II) & anthos, 'flower' See anthology (med) An eruption accompanied by fever, as in small pox, scarlet fever &c exanthematous, adj [1 eksan-thématus, 2 eksanpímatas], fr Gk exanthēmat (os) See prec & -ous Of, pertaining to, displaying, attended by, exanthema exarch, n [1 eksark, 2 eksásk], fr Lat, fr Gk exarkhōs, 'a superintendent, governor', fr ex- (II) & arkhōs, 'a guide, leader' See arch- 1 (in Byzantine Empire) Governor of a province 2 (Gk Ch) a patriarch, b a patriarchal legate, specif c the supreme head of the Bulgarian Church, not under the authority of the Greek patriarch exarchate, n [1 eksarkát, 2 eksásket] Prec & -ate The office or jurisdiction of an exarch exasperate, vb trans [1 egzásperát, 2 egzmes-porest] fr Lat exasperā (um), PP type of exasperāre, 'to roughen, to provoke, irritate', fr ex- & asperare, 'to make rough, uneven, to rouse up, excite', fr asper, 'rough, uneven, harsh, sour', fig 'hard, harsh fierce, savage' See asperity 1 (of persons) To rouse the anger of, excite the wrath of, to provoke, irritate, infuriate 2 a (of disease, pain &c) To intensify, increase the violence of, make worse b (of anger, ill feeling &c) to inflame, provoke, heighten, aggravate exasperating, adj [1 egzásperát, 2 egzmes-porest] fr Prec Part of prec Tending to exasperate, provoking, irritating exasperatingly, adv Prec & -ly In an exasperating manner exasperation, n [1 egzásperashun, 2 egzmes-porestshun] exasperate & -ion The act of exasperating, state of being exasperated, great irritation of mind, anger exambion, n [1 eksámshun, 2 eksámshun] fr Low Lat exambion, fr ex- & cambium See change (Scott law) Exchange barter, of a piece of land for another, allowed in the case of settled property ex cathedra adv & adj [1 eks káthedra, -á, 2 eks káthedra, -ei] Lat, 'from the teacher's chair' See cathedral 1 adv Authoritatively, as from a seat of authority which cannot be questioned, specif (of the Pope) to speak ex cathedra, to pronounce an infallible judgement on questions of faith or morals 2 adj Authoritative and final an ex cathedra pronouncement excavate vb trans [1 ekskavát, 2 ekskavóit] fr excava (um) PP type of excavāre, 'to hollow out', fr ex- & cav (us) 'a hole, hollow, cavity' See cavo (I) 1 a To hollow out, make a cavity in a rock, b to dig out, remove soil by digging, c to form or shape by digging, hollowing 2 to excavate a cave, trench 2 To dig up, bring to light, unearth by digging 2 to excavate a buried tomb excavation, n [1 ekskaváshun, 2 ekskavéshun] Prec & -ion 1 The act of excavating, state of being excavated 2 A hollow, cavity, channel &c formed by excavating 3 (archaeol) Something dug up, brought to light by excavation e.g. tomb, building &c which had been buried excavator, n [1 ekskavátor, 2 ekskavéstor] excavate & -or a Person engaged in excavating b (metallurg) used in excavation exceed vb trans & intrans [1 ekséd, 2 ekséid] fr Fr, fr Lat excedere, 'to go away, depart, to go beyond, to surpass', fr ex- & cedere, 'to go away, depart, to go beyond, to surpass' See cede A trans 1 To go beyond a limit, do more than is permitted by law or regulation as to exceed one's restrictions, &c, to exceed the speed limit &c 2 To do more, be better, or worse than, reveal some quality to greater extent than was expected to exceed one's wildest dreams, anything one could have hoped, all anticipations 3 To surpass, be greater than, superior to, a (in physical attributes) to exceed another in height, beauty, strength &c, b (in moral qualities) to exceed another in courage, in villainy &c B intrans 1 To pass beyond recognized limits, be guilty of excess, specif, to eat or drink immoderately 2 To have superabundance of some quality 'This one in beauty, that in strength exceeds'

exceeding, adj & adv [1 ekséd, 2 ekséid] fr Prec Part of prec 1 adj Great, surpassing, extreme, extraordinary a scene of exceeding beauty 2 adv (archaic) Exceedingly exceeding great exceedingly, adv Prec & -ly Extremely, extraordinarily, to a very high degree excel, vb trans & intrans [1 eksel, 2 eksel] fr Fr, fr Lat excellere, 'to rise, raise oneself, to be eminent, excel' Cp Lat collis, 'hill', column, 'summit', gable, pillar See column A trans To rise above, surpass, be superior to to excel another in courage, virtue &c, in commanding men &c, not to be excelled, he made a great effort and won the race B intrans To be superior, surpass others in, be distinguished for, to be pre eminent in possessing or doing, to shine to excel in strength, in reading aloud, as an orator excellence, n [1 ekselens, 2 ekselens] fr Fr, fr Lat excellētia, 'excellence, superiority' excellent & -ce 1 The quality of being excellent, superiority, surpassing merit, extreme goodness 2 That in which a person excels, some surpassing quality his excellence as a rider and shot excellency, n [1 ekselēnsi, 2 ekselēnsi] fr Fr, fr Lat excellētia, 'excellence, superiority' See excel 1 (archaic) Excellence 2 Title given to ambassadors, viceroys, governors of colonies, and their wives Your, His, Her Excellency, their Excellencies excellent, adj [1 ekselēnt, 2 ekselēnt] Fr, fr Lat excellētia (em), Prec Part of excellere See excel Having quality of excelling, very good, of great merit, value &c excellently, adv Prec & -ly In an excellent manner excelsior, interj [1 eksélsior, 2 eksélsior] Lat, compar of excelsus (us), 'lofty, high, noble, sublime', PP of excellere, 'to excel' See excel (lit) Higher, as motto, or watchword, implying aspiration towards progress and improvement except (I), vb trans & intrans [1 eksépt, 2 eksépt] fr Fr, fr Lat excepere (um), PP of excepere, 'to take or draw out, to except, make an exception of' ex- & capere, 'to take' See captivo A trans To make an exception of, exclude, leave, keep, out (of a specified number, group &c), to set apart from a general statement, leave out of account, omit to except certain names from a list, to except some persons from a general censure &c B intrans (followed by against) To make an objection, protest to except against a witness, statement &c except (II), prep, fr Lat excepto (o), fr PP exceptum (see prec) used in abl absol construction Omitting apart from, not in cluding, with the exception of everyone is ready except you Phr except for, but for allowance being made for a charming book except for a few blunders except (III), conj, fr prec, (archaic and bib) Unless 'except the Lord keep the city, the watchman will be in vain' (Isaiah) excepting, prep [1 eksépt, 2 eksépt] fr Prec Part of except (I) With the exception of, except excluding exception, n [1 ekséptshun, 2 ekséptshun] fr O Fr, fr Lat exceptio (em) 'exception, restriction, limitation' except (I) & -ion 1 Some c, something, excepted or excluded from a number of things or persons under consideration I make no exceptions, without exception, everyone Phr to take exception to, to make objection to, demur to, protest against 2 Something which does not conform in behaviour or character to a series of observed phenomena, something different from others of the same class, something which shows a deviation from the ordinary and expected course of events an exception to a grammatical rule, to the ordinary run &c Phr the exception proves the rule (a rather meaningless formula) exceptionable, adj [1 ekséptshunabl, 2 ekséptshunabl] Prec & -able Open to objection exceptional, adj [1 ekséptshunabl, 2 ekséptshunabl] exception & -al Of the nature of an exception, a out of the ordinary, hence, remarkable, rare, better or worse than ordinary exceptional advantages, exceptional misfortunes &c, b constituting a deviation from usual course, usage &c, not conforming to, contravening, ordinary experience an exceptional occurrence, an exceptional use of a word &c exceptionality, n [1 ekséptshunáliti, 2 ekséptshunáliti] Prec & -ity Quality of being exceptional exceptionally, adv [1 ekséptshunabl, 2 ekséptshunabl] exceptional & -ly As an exception, in an exceptional manner it happened quite exceptionally, b to an exceptional degree, unusually, uncommonly an exceptionally handsome man, exceptionally bad harvest exceptive, adj [1 ekséptiv, 2 ekséptiv] except (I) & -ive a Of the nature of an exception, b expressing, indicating, an exception excerpt (I), vb trans [1 eksépt, 2 eksépt] fr Lat excerpi (um), PP type of Lat excerpere, 'to pick out, to choose, select, gather, extract', fr ex- & carpere, 'to pick, pluck, gather' See carpel To pick out, select, extract, a passage &c for quotation from a book &c excerpt (II), n [1 eksépt, 2 eksépt] fr Lat excerpi (um), 'an extract, selection, from a book or other writing', fr PP of excerpere, 'to pick, select, extract' See prec Something excerpted, an extract, passage quoted, from a book, speech &c excerptible, adj [1 ekséptibil, 2 ekséptibil] excerpt (I) & -ible Capable of being excerpted excerption, n [1 ekséptshun, 2 ekséptshun] except (I) & -ion A act of excerpting, b something excerpted, an excerpt excess, n [1 eksēs, 2 eksēs] fr exces, fr Lat excess (um), PP type of excidere See exceed 1 A Superabundance, redundancy, more than normal, more than is expected or required, too much an excess of animal strength and spirit, excess of blood to the head, an excess of kindness, zeal, harshness &c, b specif, immoderation, blameworthy lack of measure or circumspection in action or behaviour, intemperance too great indulgence, esp in eating and drinking, often in pl excesses, course of intemperances &c, Phrs to excess, to too great an extent, or degree, in excess of more than, beyond a certain limit 2 Amount over and above a certain fixed quantity, sum or amount by which one sum or amount exceeds another an excess of income over expenditure an excess of industry over intelligence Excess baggage, that which is over and above what is allowed free by a railway, steamer &c Excess fare, additional sum due on a ticket beyond what has been paid, on account of some advantage enjoyed by traveller (on railway) Excess profits duty, tax levied on business profits made in excess of the average profit during three years before outbreak of the Great War excessive, adj [1 ekséshiv, 2 ekséshiv] Prec & -ive Characterized by, showing, excess of any kind.

excessively, adv Prec & -ly To an excessive degree, inordinately, (colloq as mere intens) excessively fond of mutton &c, very fond exchange (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ekschánj, 2 ksčjéndž], fr O Fr eschanger, fr ex- & L lat cambiare, 'to exchange, barter' See change A trans 1 a To give one thing and receive another in place of it to exchange English money for French, b to give up, leave, quit (one place, possession, condition &c) for another to exchange the bad weather of England for that of foreign countries 2 To give and receive, give in return for something similar, interchange to exchange greetings, blows, hats, seats &c B intrans 1 To carry out process of exchanging, make an exchange 2 Exchange into, leave a position, post &c and go into another, specif (mil) exchange into another regiment exchange (II), n, fr O Fr exchange, fr L ex- & cambium, 'an exchange' See change (II) 1 The act of exchanging, that which is exchanged a the exchange of money for goods, a good exchange, b a give and take exchange of prisoners, exchange of civilities 2 (financ) a Method of settling debts between individuals in different countries by exchanging drafts or bills of exchange, b relation in value between the currencies of different countries rate of exchange 3 (commerc) Building, set of offices, market, in which certain kinds of business are transacted Cotton Exchange, Stock Exchange 4 Central telephone office of a specific district, at which connexion is made between subscribers and between various areas or districts exchangeability, n [1 ekschánjabiliti, 2 ksčjéndžabiliti] See next word & -ity The state of being exchangeable, exchangeable value exchangeable, adj [1 ekschánjabl, 2 ksčjéndžabl] exchange (I) & -able Capable of being exchanged exchequer, n [1 eksčéker, 2 ksčjéka], fr O Fr exchequier, fr Med Lat scaccarium, 'chess-board'. See chequo, chequer, chess, accounts were orig made by counters arranged on a chequered board 1 The State administrative department controlling all matters connected with public revenue and finance, Chancellor of the Exchequer, the finance minister of the Cabinet, see also treasury, Exchequer Bill, an interest-bearing promissory note or bill issued by the Treasury under authority of Parliament for the payment of current expenditure of the State 2 a Treasury of a state, b (by extension) finances, funds, resources, of a person, group of persons, commercial firm &c 3 (legal hist) An old judicial court, now merged in the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of Judicature excisable, adj [1 eksčabl, 2 ksčsazabl] excise (III) & -able Subject to excise, dutiable excise (I), vb trans [1 eksčz, 2 ksčsaz], fr Lat excis-um, PP type of excidere, 'to cut out, cut off, to lay waste, demolish', fr ex- & caedere, 'to cut' See cement To cut out, remove, cut away excise (II), n [1 eksčz, 2 ksčsaz] Prob fr M Dn excys, fr Low Lat accens-us*, fr accensare, 'to tax', fr ac- & census, 'a register, census' See census a Duty, also Excise duty, payable to the revenue of a state, on articles manufactured within the country, also on licences, specif, duty paid on beer and spirits, licences for sale, manufacture &c, b the Excise, branch of Inland Revenue dealing with the collection of excise excise (III), vb trans, fr prec To levy a tax on, put an excise duty on a home product exciseman, n [1 eksčzman, 2 ksčsazman] excise (II) & man Government official who collects excise duties excision, n [1 eksčizhun, 2 ksčsčžn] excise (I) & -ion The act of excising or cutting out, removal of objects by cutting excitability, n [1 eksčitabiliti, 2 ksčsčtibiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being excitable excitable, adj [1 eksčitabl, 2 ksčsčtabl] excite & -able Capable of being easily excited, susceptible to stimulation excitant, adj & n [1 eksčtant, 2 ksčsčtant] excite & -ant 1 adj Tending to excite 2 n Substance having the property of stimulating the function of an organ, the nervous system &c excitation, n [1 eksčtášhun, 2 ksčsčtášfən] excite & -ation The act or process of exciting, state of being excited excitative, adj [1 eksčtatív, 2 ksčsčtatív] excite & -ative Tending to excite, of an exciting nature excitatory, adj [1 eksčtator, 2 ksčsčtator] excite & -ory Excitative excite, vb trans [1 eksčt, 2 ksčsčt], fr Fr exciter, fr Lat excitare, 'to call out, bring out, wake, rouse up', to arouse, excite, stimulate', fr ex- & cit-um, PP type of ciere, 'to put in motion, to rouse up, summon, to call by name, to produce, effect' See cite To cause activity, stimulate, stir, disturb, arouse, provoke In various applications 1 (as affecting human beings, mental processes, faculties &c) a To cause excitement to, or in, rouse, call out of quiescence the patient must not be excited, excite affection, jealousy, hatred &c, b to cause, attract, awaken to excite attention, interest, c to provoke, call into existence to excite rebellion, riot &c 2 (of various physical processes) a To excite a nerve, to stimulate it, cause it to react, induce it to respond, b to excite a dynamo, energize it excited, adj [1 eksčtéd, 2 ksčsčtéd], fr PP of prec a (of persons) Strongly moved or disturbed emotionally, b (of feelings) wrought up, disturbed, agitated excitedly, adv Prec & -ly In an excited manner excitement, n [1 eksčtément, 2 ksčsčtément] excite & -ment 1 State of being mentally excited, agitation, disturbance, a pleasurable animation his good fortune caused great excitement in the family, b unhealthy stimulation, exaltation, agitation, of mind the bad news threw her into a state of great excitement 2 Something which causes excitement a life full of excitement, the excitement of town life exciting, adj [1 eksčtíng, 2 ksčsčtíng], fr Pres Part of excite Tending to cause excitement, arousing intense interest, agitating an exciting book, scene, exciting news exclaim, vb intrans & trans [1 eksčlám, 2 ksčsčlém], fr O Fr exclame, pres sing stem of exclamer, fr Lat exclamare, 'to call out, to say aloud, exclaim' ex- & claim (I) 1 intrans To cry out suddenly, vehemently, esp under stress of emotion or passion, utter a word or words on a sudden impulse Exclaim against, speak, protest, vehemently against 2 trans To utter (words) as an exclamation exclamation, n [1 eksčlámášhun, 2 ksčsčlámášfən], fr Lat exclamatio (em), 'a calling or crying out', fr exclamare (um), PP type of exclamare, 'to cry out, exclaim', & -ion See exclaim 1 Act of exclaiming 2 Sudden, emphatic, vehement, passionate utterance, whether of words, or of a mere cry, expressing emotion an exclamation of pain, sympathy &c, note of exclamation, mark of punctuation (!) put after a written or printed exclamation exclamatory, adj [1 eksčlámator, 2 ksčsčlámator] See prec & -ory a (of persons) (metaph) See prec & -ory a (of persons) Given to frequent use of exclamations, b (of style, speech) characterized by, filled with, exclamations Exclamatory sentence, one consisting of an exclamation, e.g. 'Would I had died for thee!'

exclude, vb trans [1 eksčlúđ, 2 ksčsčlúđ], fr Lat excludere (ere), 'to shut out, to remove, separate, to except, hinder, prevent', fr ex- & cludere, claudere*, 'to shut up, close' See clause, close (I) 1 To shut (a person)

out, keep out from, refuse to admit to prevent from entering, a from a place, house, room &c, b from a post, position, rank, status, membership of a society &c 2 (of action on non material things) a To reject, refuse to admit, disallow, bar (evidence &c), b to prevent, make impossible, forbid, cut out to exclude the possibility of exclusion, n [1 eksčlúđhun, 2 ksčsčlúžn], fr Lat exclusio (em), 'a shutting out, exclusion', fr excludere (um), PP type of excludere, 'to shut out', & -ion See exclude The act or process of excluding, state of being excluded Phr to the exclusion of, so as to exclude exclusive, adj [1 eksčlúđsív, 2 ksčsčlúđsív], fr Lat exclusivus (um) & -ive See exclude Tending to exclude, specif a reserved for particular group or class, not accessible to others exclusive privileges, b (i) (of persons) keeping themselves remote from, unapproachable by, others who are judged to be inferior in birth, social standing, wealth, or talents somewhat exclusive in manner, (ii) (of some things) not to be easily entered the most exclusive circles, an exclusive club, c tending to exclude other tastes, occupations, predilections exclusive hobbies, employment exclusively, adv Prec & -ly In an exclusive manner, by exclusion of all others, only, solely exclusiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being exclusive exclusivism, n [1 eksčlúđsívizm, 2 ksčsčlúđsívizm] exclusive & -ism The quality of being exclusive excoctate, vb trans [1 eksčkótát, 2 ksčsčkótát], fr Lat excoctare (um), PP type of excoctare, 'to find out by thinking; to contrive, devise' ex- & cogitate To think out, invent, devise excoctation, n [1 eksčkótášhun, 2 ksčsčkótášfən] Prec & -ion The act of excoctating, something excoctated excoctative, adj [1 eksčkótatív, 2 ksčsčkótatív] excoctate & -ive Of the nature of, pertaining to, excoctation excommunicate (I), vb trans [1 eksčkómúnikat, 2 ksčsčkómúnikat], fr L Lat (eccles) excommunicat (um), PP type of excommunicare, 'to excommunicate' ex- & communicate To place under a ban or anathema the effect of which is to deprive of right to participate in the sacraments, or in any privileges enjoyed as a member of the Christian Church excommunicate (II), adj [1 eksčkómúnikat, 2 ksčsčkómúnikat] See prec Excommunicated excommunication, n [1 eksčkómúnikášhun, 2 ksčsčkómúnikášfən] excommunicate (I) & -ion Act of excommunication, state of being excommunicated Major excommunication, total deprivation of all privileges pertaining to a member of Christian Church, exclusion from all sacraments, and from social intercourse with other Christians, Minor excommunication, exclusion from participation in the sacraments excommunicative, adj [1 eksčkómúnikatív, 2 ksčsčkómúnikatív] excommunicate & -ive Pertaining to excommunication, pronouncing a decree of excommunication excoriate, vb trans [1 eksčkóriát, 2 ksčsčkóriát], fr Lat excoriare (um), PP type of excoriare, 'to strip off' ex- & corium, 'skin, hide, leather' See corium & cortex a To flay, b to graze, abrade, the skin excoriation, n [1 eksčkóriášhun, 2 ksčsčkóriášfən] Prec & -ion (i) Act or process of excoriating, (ii) state of being excoriated, (iii) a graze, abrasion of the skin excoriate, vb trans [1 eksčkóriát, 2 ksčsčkóriát], fr Lat excoriare, fr ex- & cortex, 'rind, bark' See cortex & -ate To strip off the rind, bark, skin excoriation, n [1 eksčkóriášhun, 2 ksčsčkóriášfən] Prec & -ion Process or act of excoriating excrement, n [1 ékshremént, 2 ékshremént] Lat excrementum, 'what is sifted out, refuse', fr ex- & crē, as in crētum, 'sifted', P P of cernere, see discern, & -ment, base kṛē*, kṛi* &c See certain, critic, riddle excremental, adj [1 ékshreméntal, 2 ékshreméntal] Prec & -al Connected with, having nature of, excrement excrementitious, adj [1 ékshreméntishus, 2 ékshreméntif[us] excrement & -ous Excremental excrecence, n [1 ékshrésens, 2 ékshrésens] excresoent & -ce 1 A something growing out from something else, a natural, normal growth hair is an excrecence from the scalp, b pathological growth a wen or excrecence on the head 2 A projection his nose formed a slight excrecence in a large face, b (fig) the house seemed a mere unsightly excrecence in the landscape 3 Outgrowth, secondary development or outcome this standing committee was an excrecence from the main body excreescency, n [1 ékshrésens, 2 ékshrésens] Prec & -cy Excrecence, specif an abnormal pathological growth, b an unsightly, redundant projection excrecent, adj [1 ékshrésént, 2 ékshrésént] fr Lat excrecent (em), Pres Part of excrecere, 'to grow out, rise up'. See ex- & crescent Forming an excrecence, growing out, forming an abnormal addition In unsentific and maourate phonetic terminology a sound which has developed from, and (only apparently) as an addition to another, is said to be excrecent, e g d in ground, from govon The expression is meaningless and quite misleading excreta, n pl [1 ékshkrétá, 2 ékshkrétá] Lat, neut pl, fr excreti (us), P P of excernere, 'to sift, separate out' See excrement (physiol) a Waste products eliminated from body, specif b faecal matter, excrement excrete, vb trans [1 ékshkrét, 2 ékshkrét] fr Lat excrei (um), P P type of excernere, 'to sift out' &c See prec (physiol) To separate out, and eliminate by discharge, waste, deleterious products from bodily tissues, cp secrete excretion, n [1 ékshkrétshun, 2 ékshkrétshun] Prec & -ion A Process of excreting, b that which is excreted, waste product excreted, cp secretion excretive, adj [1 ékshkrétiv, 2 ékshkrétiv] excrete & -ive a Having function of excreting, b tending to encourage excretion excretory, adj & n [1 ékshkrétón, 2 ékshkrétón] excrete & -ory 1 adj Serving to excrete an excretory organ 2 n Excretory organ excruciate, vb trans [1 ékshkrúshíat, 2 ékshkrúshíat] fr Lat excruciāre (um), P P type of excruciāre, 'to torture severely, distress', fr cruc (em), cruc, 'cross' See crucify a To torture, cause bodily suffering to, b to distress, cause anguish of spirit to excruciating adj [1 ékshkrúshíat, 2 ékshkrúshíat] Prec & -ing Causing severe bodily or mental pain, agonizing, torturing excruciatingly, adv Prec & -ly In an excruciating, agonizing manner excruciation, n [1 ékshkrúshíashun, 2 ékshkrúshíashun] excruciate & -ion A Act or process of excruciating, b result of such act or process, torture exculpate, vb trans [1 ékshkulpát, 2 ékshkulpát] Lat, fr ex- & culpā (um), P P type of culpāre, 'to reproach, blame', fr culpā, 'fault, blame' See culpable To free from blame, acquit of fault, hold and pronounce guiltless exculpation, n [1 ékshkulpáshun, 2 ékshkulpáshun] Prec & -ion Act of exculpating, state of being exculpated exculpatory, adj [1 ékshkulpátory, 2 ékshkulpátory] See prec & -ory Tending to, of a nature to, exculpate from imputed fault, tending to establish innocence excurrent, adj [1 ékshkurent, 2 ékshkurent] fr Lat excurrent (em), Pres Part of excurrere, 'to flow, run, out' See ex- & current (1), & cp excursum Running, flowing, out, specif (hot) radiating, ramifying from central axis or stem excuse, vb intrans [1 ékshkúra, 2 ékshkúra] Lat See excursus (rare) a To make an excursion, b (fig) to wander from the point, digress excursion, n [1 ékshkúrahun, 2 ékshkúrahun] Lat excursiō (em), 'running forth, rally, inroad' See excursus & -ion 1 A going out, a journey, specif, a pleasure trip an excursion into the mountains, to the seashore 2 (fig) A deviation, a wandering from the point, a digression alarms and excursions excursional, adj [1 ékshkúrahun, 2 ékshkúrahun] Prec & -al Connected with, of the nature of, an excursion excursionist, n [1 ékshkúrahunist, 2 ékshkúrahunist] excursion & -ist One making an excursion, specif, one out on a party of pleasure, esp for a brief period, a tripper excursive, adj [1 ékshkúrsiv, 2 ékshkúrsiv] Lat excursus, as in excursus, & -ive Given to digression, digressive, going far afield (lit and fig) excursiveness, n Prec & -ness Quality, habit, of being excursive, tendency to digress; long windedness excursus, n [1 ékshkúrsus, 2 ékshkúrsus] Lat, 'a running out', fr excursus (um), P P type of excurrere See ex- & course A treatise, esp a detailed essay on, or investigation of, some aspect of a subject dealt with more generally in a larger work, to which it is added as an appendix excusable, adj [1 ékshkúrabl, 2 ékshkúrabl] Next word & -able Deserving to be excused, pardonable, justifiable an excusable error, oversight &c excuse (1), vb trans & intrans [1 ékshkúrs, 2 ékshkúrs] M.E. ex, excūsen, fr O Fr excuser, fr Lat excūsāre, 'to release a person from a charge, free from blame, to apologize, plead excuse, for a fault committed', fr ex- & causa, 'charge' &c See cause (1) A trans 1 A To attempt to exonerate (a person), allege extenuating circumstances for, to pardon, free (a person) from penalty for a fault I excuse him by assuming his conduct to be due to a lapse of memory, I will excuse you this time, next time you will be punished, b release, absolve, exempt, from obligation to excuse a person from attendance at a meeting Phrs (various polite formulas) excuse me, form for breaking into a speech or conversation with disagreement, pretext &c, at what has been said, 'if you'll kindly excuse me, I'm afraid I must go now' 2 A To find, allege, extenuating circumstances for (another's fault), to minimize (a fault), to pardon, overlook (a fault, injury &c) I find it hard to excuse his conduct, I can understand, but cannot excuse, his idleness, bad temper, untidiness &c, pray excuse my interruption, ap parent rudeness &c, b to cancel, remit (an obligation) your attendance today is excused 3 To excuse oneself, a to make excuse for, attempt to extenuate, allege justification for (one's conduct), b to apologize for omitting to do something, beg to be let off or excused to excuse oneself from being present, coming &c B intrans. (rare) To practise forgiveness I can't forget, and I won't excuse excuse (II), n [1 ékshkús, 2 ékshkús] fr prec a Plea in justification, explanation given in defence of conduct, apology to make a poor excuse; to stammer out an excuse, please make my best excuses to Mrs Jones, b reason, ground alleged in extenuation of, motive assigned for, conduct, pretext my excuse must be that I did not know, have you no better excuse to give?

exeat, n [1 ékshíat, 2 ékshíat] Lat, 3rd pers pres subj of exire, 'to go out, away', 'let him go, he may go' See ex- (1) & itinerant Short holiday of a few days granted to boys at public schools during term time execrable, adj [1 ékshkrabl, 2 ékshkrabl] Fr, fr Lat execrābilis, execrā, as in execrate, & -able Worthy of execration, detestable, abominable execrableness n Prec & -ness Quality of being execrable execrably, adv See prec & -ly a In an execrable, detestable manner, b (colloq) very badly she sang execrably execrate, vb trans & intrans [1 ékshkrát, 2 ékshkrát] fr Lat execrāre (um), or execrāt (um), fr execrāre, 'to curse', fr ex- & acrāre, 'to consecrate, set apart as holy', see sacred, execrāre was to reverse this process 1 trans To regard, and denounce, as abominable, detestable, to detest, loathe 2 intrans To utter imprecations, to curse and swear execration, n [1 ékshkráshun, 2 ékshkráshun] Prec & -ion A Act of execrating, b an imprecation, curse, c (rare) that which is execrated, cause of execration execrative, adj [1 ékshkrátiv, 2 ékshkrátiv] execrate & -ive, Of the nature of an execration execratory, adj [1 ékshkrátory, 2 ékshkrátory] execrate & -ory Execrative executant, n [1 ékshkútánt, 2 ékshkútánt] execute & -ant One who executes, carries out, performs, specif, one who performs on a musical instrument execute, vb trans [1 ékshkút, 2 ékshkút] fr Lat execūt (um), P P type of exsequi, 'to follow to the end, pursue, carry out', fr ex- & sequi, 'to follow' See sequela 1 a To perform, carry out, bring to completion to execute a piece of work, a task &c, a purpose, b (law) to complete a legal instrument, fulfil all conditions necessary to its validity to execute a deed, will &c 2 To perform an action in conformity with, in obedience to, instructions to execute a person's orders, commands &c 3 a To carry out, give concrete shape to (plans, designs), in production of artistic work, or works of craftsmanship this picture, statue, cabinet &c was admirably designed, but the work is poorly executed, b specif (mus and drama) to perform by singing, playing, acting the song, part in a play &c, was admirably executed 4 To carry out a death sentence upon, deprive of life in accordance with a judicial sentence to execute a murderer execution, n [1 ékshkúshun, 2 ékshkúshun] Lat executiō (em), 'performance' See prec & -ion Act of executing (in any sense) Specif 1 a the carrying out, accomplishment, completion, of a piece of work, a task, scheme &c, b completion of a legal instrument, c production of something from a design engaged in the execution of a statue, picture &c 2 a Way in which a piece of work is carried out the execution leaves much to be desired, though the idea is good, b specif, degree of skill, dexterity in performing a musical composition, vocally or instrumentally a great deal of execution, marvellous execution 3 Fruitful result of work, effective action, esp in Phr to do great execution, often used with implication of destructive action the guns did great execution; he did great execution among the sandwiches, eat a good number 4 Carrying out of death penalty upon a person, act of killing a person in obedience to legal sentence execution dock, n Place in the London Docks where sailors, guilty of piracy or other capital offences, were hanged executioner, n [1 ékshkúshuner, 2 ékshkúshuner] execution & -er Official who carries out judicial executions, a hangman executive, adj & n [1 ékshkútiv, 2 ékshkútiv] execute & -ive 1 adj Concerned with, having the authority, power, and capacity for, executing, carrying out certain duties and functions, specif, having function of carrying on the duties of the government and the management of states or other directing bodies an executive officer, duties, the executive branch of the legislature &c 2 n Executive body in, branch of, a government executor, n [1 ekzekjutor, 2 ekzekjutor, -jtor] Lat ex(ē)cutor, 'performer' execute & -or Person appointed by another to enforce, and carry out, the provisions of his will executorial, adj. [1 ekzekjutorial, 2 ekzekjutorial] Prec & -ial Pertaining to an executor executorship, n [1 ekzekjutorship, 2 ekzekjutorship] executor & -ship Office and duties of an executor executrix, n [1 ekzekjutrīks, 2 ekzekjutrīks] executor & -ix Woman executor exegesis, n [1 eksejzīss, 2 eksejzīss] Gk exēgēs, 'statement, narrative, explanation', fr exēgeomai, 'I lead, show the way, explain', ex- (II) & hēgeomai, 'I lead, guide, direct' See hegemony Explanation, specif, interpretation of the Holy Scriptures exegetic(al), adj [1 eksejētik(l), 2 eksejētik(l)] Prec & -ic & -al Connected with, of the nature of, an interpretation, explanatory, expository exegetically, adv Prec & -ly By way of, in the manner of, an exposition or interpretation exegetics, n pl [1 eksejētiks, 2 eksejētiks] See exegetic(al) Science of Biblical or other criticism and interpretation exemplar, n [1 egzemplar, 2 egzemplar] Lat, 'pattern, model', fr exempli, as in exemplum, & -ar See example One who, that which, serves as a model and example, esp in spiritual sense exemplary, adj [1 egzemplari, 2 egzemplari] Prec & -y Serving as a model, deserving to be followed, hence, worthy, commendable exemplification, n [1 egzemplifikāshun, 2 egzemplifikāshun] See exemplify & -fic & -ation A act or process of illustrating by example, b something which illustrates, exemplifies exemplify, vb trans [1 egzemplifi, 2 egzemplifi] Lat exemplum, see example, & -fy 1 To serve as, furnish, an example, to illustrate by example 2 To make an official copy of a document exempt (I), vb trans [1 egzēmt, 2 egzēmt] Lat exempti (um), PP type of eximere, fr ex- & emere, 'to take, receive, buy', op Sert yamati, 'holds, keeps together' Further connections very doubtful To release, excuse a person, from a duty or obligation to exempt a man from military service exempt (II), adj Same as prec Free, excused, released, quit of exemption, n [1 egzēmpshun, 2 egzēmpshun] Lat exemptioni (em) See exempt & -ion Act of exempting, state of being exempted, immunity exemption from taxation exenterate, vb trans [1 eksēnterāt, 2 eksēnterāt] Lat exenterāt (um), PP of exenterāre, 'to disembowel', Gk loan-word, ex- (II) & enteron, 'intestine' See enteric (rare) To disembowel exequatur, n [1 eksekjatur, 2 eksekjatur] Lat, 'he may perform (his duties)', 3rd pers pres subj of exsequi See execute Official document of recognition issued to a consul in a foreign country by the government of the country to which he is accredited exequy, n Usually in pl exequies [1 eksekwi(z), 2 eksekwi(z)] Lat exequiae, or exsequiae, 'funeral procession', fr exsequi, 'to follow out' &c See execute Funeral rites, ceremonies, funeral procession exercisable, adj [1 ekserizabl, 2 ekserizabl] exercise (II) & -able Capable of being exercised, esp in sense 1, below exercise (I), n [1 ekseriz, 2 ekseriz] Fr, fr Lat exercitum, fr exerci (um), PP type of exercere, 'to drill, train, to practise, follow an employment' &c See exercise (II) 1 A series of bodily movements involving natural activity in use of body and limbs, healthy activity of body to take exercise, suffering from lack of exercise, riding, walking, digging, rowing are all healthy forms of exercise, Phr carriage exercise, driving out in a carriage, b any regular series of bodily movements designed to strengthen, develop, or train some particular muscle or organ, to render it supple, or to make some special use of it easy and habitual a gymnastic exercise, dumb-bell exercises, vocal exercises, c series of repeated movements designed to give facility, dexterity, skill in handling and using some particular instrument five-finger exercises (for the piano), exercises on the harp, flute &c, d collection of written instructions, describing, illustrating, setting forth exercises designed for developing some particular function or form of dexterity book of exercises for the piano &c 2 Series of concerted movements executed by bodies of troops, or groups of ships 3 A Mental exertion or series of exertions which train, discipline, develop, the mental faculties, any effort or activity of mind which does this exercises in logic, mathematics &c, an exercise in clear thinking, of the memory, b systematic practice in, attention to, attempt to solve, a set of problems in order to gain, increase, or test proficiency in some particular branch of knowledge exercise in French grammar, a Latin exercise; c collection of written examples, passages for translation &c, designed to form basis for such practice 4 (of mental faculties or qualities) The use, employment, calling into activity, or being the exercise of imagination, of will-power, patience &c 5 Religious practice and observance 6 Series of acts, duties, obligations, esp attendance at courses of instruction and passing of examinations or presentation of a thesis, imposed by a university as qualifications for attainment of a particular university status to perform the exercises required for the degree of D D &c exercise (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec Op Lat exercere, 'to train, drill, to practise, employ oneself in', fr ex- & arcere, 'to enclose, hold, to keep in order' &c, fr arca, 'a box, chest' &c See arcanum & ark A trans 1 To employ, make use of, exert, a (of bodily functions) to exercise one's strength, sight, b (of mental and spiritual faculties) to exercise patience, judgement, prudence, intelligence &c, c to make use of powers, privileges &c to exercise one's rights as a rate payer &c 2 (of physical activities) a To move actively, cause to take exercise to exercise one's arms and legs, to exercise a horse, dog &c, b to execute, or cause to execute, movements, train, for purpose of gaining, or imparting, skill in, or familiarity with, some particular form of activity, to practise to exercise boys in swimming, to exercise oneself in fencing 3 To occupy the mind or mental faculties painfully, to tax, concern, perplex, afflict I am greatly exercised (in my mind) by his strange behaviour, I'm exercised about his future &c B intrans To give, take, exercise, engage in bodily activity my horse is out exercising for the race exerciser, n [1 ekserizer, 2 ekserizer] Prec & -er Mechanical device, apparatus, for taking certain forms of exercise exercitation, n [1 ekseritāshun, 2 ekseritāshun] Lat exercitatio (em), 'exercise, practice', fr exercitatio (um), PP type of exercitare, freq of exercere, qv under exercise (II), & -ion Exercise, practice exergue, n [1 ekzērg, 2 ekzērg] fr Gk ex- & ergon, 'work' See ergon A Space between the bottom of the design on a medal or coin and the rim, often containing a date, design, the initials &c, b that which is engraved in this space exert, vb trans [1 egzert, 2 egzert] Lat ex(ē)rt (um), PP type of ex(ē)rtare, 'pnt out, put forth, thrust out', fr ex- & serere, 'to put in a row, connect, join, entwine' &c See series 1 To put forth, use, bring to bear, any mental or physical faculty to exert intelligence, influence, pressure, strength &c 2 (reflex) To exert oneself, to make an effort, endeavour to accomplish something he doesn't exert himself much, is slack, to exert oneself in a matter exertion, n [1 egzērāshun, 2 egzērāshun] Prec & -ion 1 Act or process of exerting a wonderful exertion of will power 2 Effort, output of force, esp one which involves mental or physical strain mountain climbing entails serious exertion, it was no exertion to him to speak for three hours on end exeunt, vb intrans [1 eksēunt, 2 eksēunt] Lat, 3rd pers pl pres indio of exire, 'to go out' See exeat (stage direction to actors) They go out, or off (the stage) exfoliate, vb intrans & trans [1 eksfoliāt, 2 eksfoliāt] Lat exfoliāt (um), PP type of exfoliāre, 'to strip off leaves', ex- (I) & folium, 'a leaf' See folio 1 intrans (of bodily tissues) To flake off, come off in strips or scales 2 trans (rare) To strip off exfoliation, n [1 eksfoliāshun, 2 eksfoliāshun] Prec & -ion Process of exfoliating, state of being exfoliated exhalation, n [1 eksalāshun, 2 eksalāshun] Lat exhalatio (em), 'vapour' exhale & -ation 1 Act, process, of exhaling, breathing out, expiration, evaporation 2 That which is exhaled, must, vapour, fume, emanation, effluvia exhale, vb trans & intrans [1 ekzāl, 2 ekzāl] Lat exhalāre, 'to breathe out', fr ex- & halāre, 'to breathe, breathe out', the h is not orig, & the word is fr halum, (allium), 'garlic', wh stands for 'an alo, 'an meaning 'breath' &c See allaceous, ammus, animate A trans 1 To breathe out, expel (air) from the lungs 2 To give off vapour, emanation, effluvia B intrans To evaporate, pass off, away, in vapour, to vanish away exhaust (I), vb trans & intrans [1 egzawst, 2 egzawst] Lat exhausti (um), PP type of exaurire, 'to draw out, empty', fr ex- & aurire, 'to draw out (water), to breathe, drink in' This word is fr base (h)aur-*, op Gk αὔω, fr αὔω, 'I dry, wither'; perh also cogn w Sert phasni, 'injures', for wh see hoist (I), cp also O N awa, 'to draw off water &c' A trans 1 To drain off, use up, consume to exhaust the water in a vessel 2 (of non-material things) a To use up, consume &c to exhaust one's health, strength, forbearance, patience, b to treat fully, leave no part undealt with to exhaust a subject B intrans To empty, discharge the extern exhausts into the drain exhaust (II), n See prec Contrivance in machines for discharging waste or superfluous steam, gas, water &c, (also attrib) exhaust pipe, valve, steam &c exhausted, adj [1 egzawstid, 2 egzawstid] exhaust (I) & -ed A emptied, used up, consumed our provisions are exhausted, b (of persons and animals) tired, fatigued, wearied, to excess, worn out to feel quite exhausted, c (of non material things) my patience, power of endurance &c, is exhausted exhaustedly, adv Prec & -ly As though tired out exhaustedness, n See prec & -ness State of being exhausted, tired out exhaustibility, n [1 egzawstibiliti, 2 egzawstibiliti] Next word & -ity Capacity for being exhausted exhaustible, adj [1 egzawstibil, 2 egzawstibil] exhaust (I) & -ible Capable of being exhausted exhaustibleness, n See prec & -ness Property of being exhaustible exhausting, adj [1 egzawsting, 2 egzawsting] fr Pres Part of exhaust (I) Tending to exhaust, tiring, fatiguing exhaustingly, adv Prec & -ly In an exhausting manner, so as to exhaust exhaustion, n [1 egzawstshun, 2 egzawstshun] exhaust (I) & -ion 1 Act or process of exhausting 2 State of being exhausted, specif a complete consumption exhaustion of wealth, supplies, resources &c., b (of bodily or mental powers and faculties) intense fatigue, great weariness, draining away of vigour &c exhaustion of brain, a state of exhaustion exhaustive, adj [1 egzawstiv, 2 igzastiv] exhaust (I) & -ive Having pro, erty of exhausting, specif (of mental activity and its results) thoroughgoing, leaving nothing more to be done an exhaustive inquiry, an exhaustive treatment of a subject &c exhaustively, adv Prece & -ly In an exhaustive manner exhaustiveness, n See prece & -ness Quality of being exhaustive exhibit (I), vb trans & intrans [1 egzibit, 2 igzibit] Lat, fr exhibit (um), PP type of exhibere, 'to hold out present, to display, to show oneself in a certain light, or character', fr ex- & habere, 'to have, hold, possess' See habit (I) A trans 1 To show, display, set out, expose, for public inspection (pictures and other works of art, museum specimens, live stock, articles for sale &c) 2 To make manifest, give evidence of, a (of physical process) the building exhibited signs of dilapidation, the body exhibited traces of decay, b (of action respecting mental and moral qualities) to show signs of possessing, reveal, make use of to exhibit courage, patience, acuteness of mind &c B intrans To show, offer objects &c for public inspection he exhibits in all the galleries, in most of the agricultural shows &c exhibit (II), n, fr prece a Something exhibited at a show, gallery, museum &c, b an object, document, put in as part of the evidence in a law case exhibition, n [1 eksibishun, 2 eksibishun] exhibit (I) & -ion 1 Act of exhibiting to have an opportunity for the exhibition of one's best qualities 2 A collection of goods exposed and offered for sale, of pictures, curiosities &c exposed for inspection, of animals, plants &c shown in competition for prizes &c, b some thing or quality shown or manifested, which is absurd, grotesque, objectionable, contemptible to make an (a regular) exhibition of oneself 3 Annual grant made to meritorious student by a school or college, in aid of his support exhibitioner, n [1 eksibishuner, 2 eksibishun] Prece & -er One holding an exhibition at a school or college exhibitor, n [1 egzibitor, 2 eksibitor] exhibit (I) & -or One who exhibits, esp one exhibiting at an exhibition of pictures &c, or at show of live stock &c exhilarant, adj [1 egzilarant, 2 igzilarant] Lat. exhilarant (em), Pres Part of exhilarare, 'to gladden, make merry' See next word Tending to cause mirth, exhilarating exhilarate, vb trans [1 egzilerat, 2 igzilerat] Lat, fr exhilarat (um) PP type of exhilarare, 'to gladden, cause to be merry &c' ex- & hilarity, hilarious To cheer, raise spirits of, enliven, cause to become merry and cheerful exhilarated, adj [1 egzileratid, 2 igzileratid] Prece & -od. Lively, cheerful, slightly intoxicated exhilarating, adj [1 egzilerating, 2 igzilerating] fr Pres Part of exhilarare Tending to exhilarate, cheering exhilaratingly, adv Prece & -ly In an exhilarating manner exhilaration, n [1 egzilarashun, 2 igzilarashun] exhilarate & -ion Process of enlivening exhilarating state of being exhilarated exhilarative, adj [1 egzilerativ, 2 igzilerativ] exhilarate & -ive Having property of causing exhilaration exhort, vb trans & intrans [1 egzort, 2 igzort] Fr exhorter, fr Lat exhortari 'to incite, encourage' See ex- & hortatio 1 trans To entreat, beg earnestly, encourage to do, to warn, admonish. 2 in trans To practise exhortation.

exhortation, n [1 eksortashun, 2 eksortashun] Lat exhortatio (em) See prece & -ation A act of exhorting, b earnest entreaty, admonition, warning exhortative, adj [1 egzortativ, 2 igzortativ] ex- & hortative Of the nature of an exhortation exhortatory, adj [1 egzortetori, 2 igzortetori] ex- & hortatory Exhortative exhumation, n [1 eksiumashun, 2 eksiumashun] Low Lat, 'unearthing' exhumare & -ation Process of exhuming, act of digging up what has been put into the earth exhume, vb trans [1 ekzum, 2 ikzum] Fr exhumare, fr Low Lat exhumare, fr ex- & humus, 'ground, soil' See humus To dig up, unearth, esp to dig up a body that has been buried exigent, adj [1 eksijent, 2 eksidzient] also [1 elzeshon, 2 elzish] Fr, fr Pres Part of exigere, fr Lat exigere, 'to drive out, search out', fr ex- & agere, see agent (of persons) Exacting, making great and severe demands See exigent exigence, -cy, n [1 eksijens(i), 2 eksidzans(i)] Lat exigent (em), Pres Part of exigere See prece State of being exigent, state of urgency demanding instant attention and action exigent, adj [1 eksijent, 2 eksidzient] Lat exigent See prece (of conditions and circumstances) Requiring immediate action, pressing, critical, urgent exigible, adj [1 eksijibl, 2 eksidzibl] Lat exig (ere), see prece, & -ible Capable of being exacted or demanded exiguity, n [1 eksigiti, 2 eksigiti] Fr exiguite, fr Lat exiguitas, 'scantiness, smallness' See exiguous & -ity State of being exiguous, smallness, scantiness exiguous, adj [1 elziguus, 2 elziguus] Lat exigui (us), 'scanty, small, petty', fr exigere, 'to weigh' See exigent & -ous Small, trifling, scanty, esp in amount exiguously, n Prece & -ness Condition of being exiguous, scanty exile (I), n [1 eksil, 2 eksil] ME, fr Fr exil, fr Lat exilium, exilium, 'banishment', ep exul, 'banished person', first element ex- The origin of second element is doubtful In exul, exul is prob fr solum, 'soil', see soil, but the form -ilium seems to suggest a connection either orig or by association of ideas, w ex(s)ilire, 'to spring forth', in wh the second element is fr exilire, 'to leap' See salient A Banishment from one's own country to go into exile, b place of banishment exile (II), n Lat exul See prece Person banished, driven away, from his own country exile (III), vb trans [1 eksil, egzil, 2 eksil, egzil] See exile (I) To make an exile of, to banish, keep (a person) out of his own country, esp as a punishment exilian, exilic, adj [1 egzilien, egzilik, 2 egzilian, egzilik] exile & -an, or -ic Relating to the exile of the Jews in Babylon exility, n [1 okziliti, 2 ekziliti] *Lat exilitas (em), 'meagreness, thinness', fr exilis, 'small, meagre, feeble' Origin doubtful, prob fr exilis & connected w exiguus See exiguous Slenderness, meagreness.

exist, vb intrans [1 egzist, 2 igzist] Fr exister, fr Lat ex(s)istere, 'to stand forth, emerge, appear', fr ex- & sistere, 'to set, place' &c, freq of stare, 'to stand' See sisto (I) & stand (I) 1 To have actual being, in the material universe as spirit, or in the human mind God exists, good and evil exist, such things do not exist 2 To be, occur, under specified conditions or in certain places live exists in many soils, certain revolutionary tendencies often exist in youthful minds 3 To live, have vital functions even cannot exist without food and warmth existence, n [1 egzistens, 2 igzistans] Fr See prece & -ence Act or act of existing, being, life.

existential, adj [1 eksistensial, 2 eksistensial] Prece & -ial Involving, connected with, existence existing, adj [1 egzisting, 2 igzisting] fr Pres Part of exist Having existence, in existence existing forms of life exit (I), vb [1 eksit, 2 eksit] Lat, 3rd pers sing pres indic of exire, 'to go out, away' ex- & ire, 'to go' See itinerant (stage direction) He goes out, or off exit (II), n Lat exitum, 'a going out, a way out', fr exit (um), PP type of exire See prece 1 Mode of egress, way out 2 A going out, departure to make one's exit ex-libris, n [1 eks libris, 2 eks libris] Lat, 'from the books of' See ex- (I) & library A book plate, consisting of the owner's name, and some device, armorial bearings &c, stamped on a sheet of paper which is pasted inside the cover of a book exo-, pref Gk exo, 'outside' See ex- (II) exoderm(is), n [1 eksoderm, eksodermis, 2 eksodam, eksodamis] Prece & -derm (bot) External layer in roots exodus, n [1 eksodus, 2 eksodes] Gk, fr ex-, 'out', & hodos, 'way, road, journey', oogn w O Slav choditi, 'to go', also w Lat eed, 'sit', see sedentary, & cedere, 'go', see cede & hodometer Orig sense of *sed- is 'to piece, place the foot down' 1 A An onward march, going out, flocking out an exodus takes place from London in summer, b specif, the departure of the Israelites from Egypt 2 (cap) The second book of the Old Testament, which records the going out from Egypt ex officio, adv & adj [1 eks ofisio, 2 eks ofisio] Lat, 'by virtue of office' a adv To be present at a committee ex officio, b adj, ex officio member exogamic, exogamous, adj [1 eksogamik, eksogamus, 2 eksogamik, eksogamus] exogamy & -o & -ous Exhibiting, connected with, exogamy exogamy, n [1 eksogami, 2 eksogami] Gk. exo- & gamos, 'marriage' See gamo- Custom prevailing among some primitive peoples of marrying only outside the tribe, opposite of endogamy exogen, n [1 eksogen, 2 eksodzen] exo- & -gen (bot) A seed plant which grows by additional layers or rings on the outside, contrasted with endogen exon, n [1 elxon, 2 elxon] fr Fr exempt One of four officers commanding the Yeomen of the Guard, one of whom is always in attendance at Royal functions, state processions &c exonerate, vb trans [1 ekzonerat, 2 ekzonerat] Lat exonerat (um), PP type of exonerare, 'to free from a burden', ex- & onerare, 'to load', fr oner, stem of onus, 'load, burden' See onerous To clear from imputation of guilt, to free from a charge, free from blame exoneration, n [1 ekzonerashun, 2 ekzonerashun] Prece & -ion Act of exonerating exonerative, adj [1 ekzonerativ, 2 ekzonerativ] exonerate & -ive Tending to exonerate exophthalmia, n [1 eksophthalmia, 2 eksophthalmia] Gk ex-, 'out', & ophthalmos, 'eye' See ophthalmia Abnormal protrusion of the eye balls, due to disease exophthalmic, adj [1 eksophthalmik, 2 eksophthalmik] Prece & -ic Connected with, of the nature of, exophthalmia, esp exophthalmic goitre, Graves' disease, q v exophthalmos, -us, n [1 eksophthalmos, 2 eksophthalmos, -us] Gk. See exophthalmia exorbitance, -cy, n [1 okzorbians(i), 2 ekzorbians(i)] Next word & -cy Excess, extravagance esp in claims, demands &c The sense of moral extravagance, abnormality &c is now obsolete exorbitant, adj [1 ekzorbitant, 2 ekzorbitant] Lat exorbitant (em) Pres Part of exorbitare, 'to go out of the track, deviate', fr. ex- & orbita, 'wheel-track, rut' See orbit 1 (formerly, of conduct, ideas &c.) Passing ordinary bounds, eccentric, extravagant, immoderate &c (obs) 2 (now chiefly of desires, claims demands) Immoderate, extravagant exorbitantly, adv Prec & -ly In an extravagant, exorbitant manner exorcism, n [1 éksorsizm, 2 éksorsizm] See next word & -ism a Act or process of exorcizing, b spell, ritual, used for this purpose exorcist, n [1 éksorsist, 2 éksorsist] Next word & -ist One who exorcizes exorcize, -ise, vb trans [1 éksorsiz, 2 éksorsiz] Fr exorciser, fr Gk exorhizein, 'to bind by an oath, to banish an evil spirit', fr ex- (II) & horkizein, 'to make to swear', fr horkos, 'an oath', for sorkos*, cogn w Gk hérkos, 'hedge, enclosure, fence', for serk-* The orig sense is 'something woven, plaited, a hurdle', cp Lat carisma, 'bundle, package', & sarcire, 'to patch, restore, mend', cp also Lat sartor for sarc-tor*, 'tailor' See further under sartorial. 1 a To drive out an evil spirit by performance of magic rites, utterance of charms &c, to expel evil spirit, or quiet a troubled spirit by religious ceremonies, esp by utterance of the Holy Name, b to lay a ghost 2 To summon, conjure up, a spirit exordial, adj [1 egzórdial, 2 egzórdial], fr Lat exordi- See next word & -ial Connected with, having character of, an exordium exordium, n [1 egzórdium, 2 egzórdium] Lat, 'beginning of a web, warp, beginning, generally, esp of a speech', fr exordior, 'begin a web, lay the warp, begin esp a speech', ex- & ordior, 'lay a warp, begin', same base as error, 'rise, become visible, appear'. See orient, origin, order Beginning, introductory part of a speech, sermon &c exoskeleton, n [1 éksoskeleton, 2 éksoskeleton] exo- & skeleton (zool) a The bony external skeleton or covering of invertebrate animals, as shell of crustacea &c, b the horny plates, nails, hoofs &c of vertebrates exosmosis, n [1 eksosmózis, 2 éksosmózis] ex- & osmosis The outward slow flow, or osmosis, of a denser liquid or gas into a less dense liquid through a membrane, contrasted with endosmosis exoteric, adj [1 eksotérík, 2 éksotérík] Fr exotérique, fr Lat, fr Gk exotéríkan, 'external', exo-, w comp suff Cp inter- (of religious or philosophical doctrine) External, capable of being understood by, suitable for, the public Contrasted with esoteric exoterical, adj [1 eksotéríkl, 2 éksotéríkl] Prec & -al Exoteric exoterically, adv Prec & -ly In an exoteric manner exotic, adj, [1 egzótík, 2 ígzótík] Fr exotique, Lat exótíkus, fr Gk exotíkos, 'foreign, alien', Eccles Gk, 'heathen' exo-, 'outside' Not native, imported from abroad, foreign exotic fruits and flowers, an exotic cast of features exotical, adj [1 egzótíkl, 2 ígzótíkl] Prec & -al Exotic exotically, adv Prec & -ly In a strange manner, like a foreigner exotikness, n [1 egzótíknes, 2 ígzótíknes] See prec & -ness Quality of being exotic expand, vb, trans & intrans [1 ekspánd, 2 íkspánd] Lat expandere, 'to spread out, unfold', fr ex- & pandere, 'spread out, extend' &c, prob fr form of base in pātere, 'to lie open' See patent A trans 1 To spread out, unfold and stretch out to expand the wings, a plant expands its leaves, a flower its petals &c 2 To stretch, cause to occupy more space by distension, to cause to puff, swell, out to expand the chest 3 a To amplify, extend, increase bulk and scope of to expand a pamphlet into a book, b to increase in breadth and range to expand a child's mind by education B intrans To become expanded, specif 1 (of material objects) a to dilate, increase in volume water expands with heat &c, b to become spread out, widely opened the flower buds have not yet expanded, c (fig) to be extended, increased in size, to cover more space the building can only expand to the north 2 (fig, of non-material things) To grow wider, more comprehensive the mind expands with knowledge and experience, one's interests expand with opportunity expansé, n [1 ekspáns, 2 íkspáns] Lat expansum, PP of expandere. See prec 1 Broad, extended area in space, wide, open tract of the earth's surface an expansé of sky, of field, lake &c 2 Expansion expansibility, n [1 ekspánsibilitá, 2 íkspánsibilitá] See next word & -ity Capacity for expansion expansible, adj [1 ekspánsíbl, 2 íkspánsíbl] expansé & -ible Capable of expanding or of being expanded expansile, adj [1 ekspánsíl, 2 íkspánsíl] expansé & -ile a Expansible, b tending to expand, characterized by expansibility expansion, n [1 ekspánszun, 2 íkspánszun] Lat expansum, PP type of expandere See expand & -ion Process of expanding, state of being expanded (in various senses) expansive, adj [1 ekspánsív, 2 íkspánsív] Lat, fr expans See prec & -ive a Tending to expand, capable of expansion, b (of persons, character, expression) unreserved, frank, communicative, free, open expansively, adv Prec & -ly In an expansive, frank, manner expansiveness, n See prec & -ness Property, quality, of being expansive ex parte, adv & adj [1 éks párté, 2 éks párté], Lat ex-, 'from' & abl sing of pars, 'part, side, party' &c, see part a adv As from, in interests of, one side only (in a dispute &c), b adj, one sided, biased, interested, esp an ex parte statement expatiate, vb intrans [1 ekspáshút, 2 ekspéshút] Lat expatiari (um), PP of expatiari, 'to spread out, extend, digress', fr ex- & spatiari, 'to walk about, go along, to spread out, expand', fr spatium, 'space, room, dimension' See space 1 To range, roam at large (now rare) 2 Expatiate upon, to dwell at length upon, speak at length upon, treat at length, dilate, enlarge upon expatriation, n [1 ekspáshúshun, 2 ekspéshúshun] Prec. & -ion Act of expatiating expatriatory, adj [1 ekspáshutori, 2 ekspéshutori] expatiate & -ory Characterized by expatiation, diffuse expatriate, vb trans [1 ekspáshrát, 2 ekspéshrát] L Lat expatriari (um), PP of expatriare, 'to expel from one's native land', formed fr ex-, 'out', & patria, 'father-land, native land', fr pater, 'father' See patrian, patriot 1 To drive out, banish, expel (a person) from his native land 2 (reflex) Expatriate oneself a voluntarily to quit one's own country, b specif, to divest one self of the status and privileges of a citizen of one's native country, gave up one's nationality expatriation, n [1 ekspáshrátshun, 2 ekspéshrátshun] Prec & -ion Act of expatriating, state of being expatriated expect, vb trans & intrans [1 ekspékt, 2 íkspékt] Fr expecter, Lat expectare, 'to look out for, await, to desire, hope, to fear', fr ex- & spectare, 'to look at, behold' &c, fr specere, 'to see' See this base under spectacle & species This word never expresses now the physical action of looking, it always refers to an attitude of mind To look out for, await, look forward to, anticipate, generally implying belief that an event will happen, that a person will do something, that person or thing will appear A trans 1 (applied to persons) To await coming, appearance, of, be on the look out for, believe that a person is coming I expected you yesterday, I've been expecting you all the morning, don't expect me till you see me 2 (applied to events) To believe that they will happen, to await the anticipated occurrence of I expected the war for years, I was expecting a thunderstorm at any moment 3 (applied to material and non-material things and events) a To foresee, look forward to with hope and confidence, to desire and feel certain of securing your kindness is only what I expected from you, you expect too much from him, I expect nothing from such people, I never expected such treatment, b (implying preparedness, or, in neg sentences, unpreparedness) when we attacked we found the enemy were expecting us, I was unable to answer, as I never expected that question B intrans To believe, think likely, to be prepared to find &c will he come today? I don't expect so expectance, -cy, n [1 ekspéktans(i), 2 íkspéktans(i)] expectant & -co, -cy State of mind in which one expects, specif a anxious, eager anticipation, condition of waiting for something to happen, generally implying hope that it will happen, b confident anticipation of receiving something in the future expectant, adj & n [1 ekspéktant, 2 íkspéktant], fr Lat expectant (em), Pres Part of expectare, 'to look out for' See expect 1 adj a In a state of expecting, in expectation, b pregnant expectant mother, c in position of an onlooker, waiting on events but doing nothing 2 n One who expects, specif, one waiting for, and expecting to receive, something expectantly, adv Prec & -ly In an expectant manner expectation, n [1 ekspéktáshun, 2 íkspéktáshun] Lat, fr expectat (um), PP type of expectare & -ion See expect 1 a Act of expecting, b expectant state of mind, an awaiting, looking forward to contrary to, according to, expectation 2 Something which is expected, a a probability based on certain grounds, conjecture expectation of life, b future prospects to have brilliant expectations expectative, adj [1 ekspéktatív, 2 íkspéktatív] See prec & -ive Connected with, constituting, an object of expectation expectorant, n [1 ekspéktorant, 2 íkspéktorant] Lat, fr expectorant (em), Pres Part of expectorare, 'to drive from the breast' See next word Medicine which promotes, or facilitates, expectoration expectorate, vb trans & intrans [1 ekspéktorát, 2 íkspéktorát] Lat expectorare (um), PP type of expectorare, 'to drive from the breast, or mind', formed fr ex- & pector, stem of pectus, 'breast, chest' See pectoral 1 trans To cough up, spit up, clear chest and throat of to expectorate phlegm &c 2 intrans a To cough up, blood, phlegm &c from the lungs b to eject saliva from the mouth, to spit expectoration, n [1 ekspéktorátshun, 2 íkspéktorátshun] Prec & -ion a Act of expectorating, b that which is expectorated expedience, -cy, n [1 ekspédients(i), 2 íkspédients(i)] expedient & -co, -cy 1 What is expedient, fitness, suitability, convenience 2 Interested motives, sense of self-interest, policy a matter of expediency expedient (I), adj [1 ekspédíent, 2 íkspédíent], fr Lat expedient (em), Pres Part of expedire, lit 'to free one caught by the feet, to extricate, disengage', fr ex- & pēd, stem of pēs, 'foot' See pedal (obscure pred) 1 Suitable, convenient, adapted to the circumstances such action is hardly expedient at the present moment 2 Advantageous, adapted to actual situation, based on hope of advantage rather than on principle, politic the execution of Queen Mary of Scotland was rather expedient than just expedient (II), n, fr prec A means to an end, mode of accomplishing something, shift, device expediential, adj [1 ekspédienšal, 2 ekspédienšal] expedient & -ial Based on, directed by, expediency expediently, adv [1 ekspédientli, 2 ekspédientli] expedient (I) & -ly In a suitable, convenient, manner expedite (I), vb trans [1 ekspedit, 2 ekspedit] Lat expedit (um), P P type of expedire, q v under expedient 1 To hasten, speed up, render progress of easy, facilitate rapid progress of to expedite a negotiation, to expedite matters 2 (not genuine Engl) To send off, dispatch to expedite one's luggage, op Fr expédier expédite (II), adj, fr preo Unhindered, rapid, prompt expeditely, adv Preo & -ly Promptly, rapidly expedition, n [1 ekspedishun, 2 ekspidishun] Lat expeditum (em), 'a warlike enterprise', fr expedit (um), P P type of expedire, & -ion See expediant 1 a A setting forth, a journey, an onward march, esp of armed men, a warlike undertaking, b a journey undertaken for some particular purpose, such as exploration, or pleasure an expedition to the North Pole, a hunting expedition 2 The company of those who go on an expedition 3 Activity, promptness this must be done with expedition expeditionary, adj [1 ekspedishunari, 2 ekspidishunari] Preo & -ary Connected with, of the nature of, an expedition expeditious, adj [1 ekspedishus, 2 ekspidishus] expedite & -ous Cp Lat adv expeditè, 'promptly', formed fr expeditum Swift and effective in movement or action, rapid, prompt expeditiously, adv Preo & -ly Promptly, rapidly expel, vb trans [1 ekspel, 2 ekspel] Lat expellere, 'to thrust out, drive away', fr ex-, 'out', & pellere, 'to push, strike' The base, another form of which is pul as in pulsus, P P of pellere, & pulsus, 'stroke', is discussed under pulse (I), cp compel, impel & anvil 1 To drive out by violent means, cause to leave by exerting force a to expel an enemy from a trench, b to expel a disease by medical treatment 2 a To dismiss, eject, (a person) from an office, b to turn (a person) out, deprive of membership, of a community or institution to expel a member from a club, specif, to dismiss (a boy) from school for grave misconduct expellent, adj & n [1 ekspéltent, 2 ekspéltent], fr P P Part of expellere See preo 1 adj Serving to expel 2 n An expellent medicine expend, vb trans & intrans [1 ekspénd, 2 ekspénd] Lat expendere, 'to weigh out, weigh out money, pay down', fr ex- & pendere, 'to suspend, hang down, weigh, weigh mentally, ponder' See spend & pendant, ponder A trans 1 To give out, pay out, spend (money or wealth) Spend is more commonly used in this sense 2 (of non material things) To give out, make a call upon, use to expend time, trouble, thought, care &c on something B intrans (rare) To spend money to prefer to expend rather than to save expenditure n [1 ekspéndichur, 2 ekspénditʃə] expend & -ure n Act of expending, b that which is expended, (of money, time, care &c) expense n [1 ekspéns, 2 ekspéns] Lat expens (um), P P of expendere See expend a Act of expending, b (chiefly in pl) that which is expended to cut down one's expenses, my expenses are heavy just now, Phils at my expense, I having to pay (hit and fig), at the expense of one's self respect &c., with loss of, o source of expense the education of a large family is a great expense expensive, adj [1 ekspénsiv, 2 ekspénsiv] Preo & -ive a Causing expense, demanding, involving outlay of money &c, costing much money, dear expensive doll cr, mode of living, b making demands on time, labour &c expensively, adv Preo & -ly In an expensive manner expensiveness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being expensive experience (I), n [1 ekspériens, 2 ekspériens] In ME, fr Fr expérience, fr Lat experientia, 'trial, proof, experiment', formed fr experiri (em), Pres Part type of experiri, 'to try, prove, put to the test', fr ex- & base peri(t)- as in peritus, 'experienced, practiced, skilful' See this base under peril 1 (archaic or obs) Trial, test to make experience of 2 Process of acquiring knowledge of, familiarity with, insight into, expertness and skill in, some subject, mode of life, form of occupation &c, by actually living through certain events, or under certain conditions, or by actually doing, or observing, certain things to have, undergo, practical experience of life in the colonies, experience of teaching, of fighting, farming &c, nothing but actual experience can make a good soldier, to learn by experience 3 Knowledge and familiarity, insight, skill, practice acquired by actually living in a certain way, dealing with certain facts, circumstances &c, by personal observation, by doing certain things, and engaging in certain pursuits to gain experience in commanding men, in managing an estate, to have the necessary experience for a post, for doing a piece of work &c 4 The sum total of what has been observed, perceived, thought, felt, by the individual or by the race these things are entirely outside human experience, religious experience 5 Something experienced, some event actually witnessed or lived through, an adventure, particular phase of mental or emotional activity to have a strange, interesting, experience, conversion is a peculiar spiritual experience 6 Experiences, an account, narrative, description, of a series of experiences, adventures &c experience (II), vb trans, fr preo To have experience of, to undergo, endure, meet with to experience great hardships, difficulties, kindness, cruelty &c experienced, adj [1 ekspérienst, 2 ekspérienst] experience (I) & -ad Having experience, specif, instructed, made skilful, judicious, competent, by personal observation, and by practice in particular kind of action &c an experienced general, teacher, speaker, writer &c experience table, n. Table showing probable mortality, or chances of life, at particular age, arrived at from the experience of insurance companies experiential, adj [1 ekspérienšal, 2 ekspérienšal] See experience & -al Pertaining to, based on, experience, empirical experientialism, n [1 ekspérienšalizm, 2 ekspérienšalizm] Preo & -ism Doctrine that all knowledge is derived from experience experientalist, n [1 ekspérienšalist, 2 ekspérienšalist] experiental & -ist Adherent of experientialism experiment (I), n [1 ekspérimént, 2 ekspérimént] Lat experimentum, fr experiri, as in experience, & -ment 1 a (nat sci) A test trial, carried out under certain strict conditions, in order to discover the result of combining certain substances under these conditions, or the behaviour of certain organisms under certain conditions a chemical experiment, an experiment in biology, b any test or trial to establish, one way or another, something the issue of which is unknown or doubtful, esp to the experimenter, a testing of alleged truths or facts to appoint so young a man was a bold experiment, a new experiment in education 2 Act of making experiments, or an experiment, act of testing experiment (II), vb intrans, fr preo To make try, experiments experimental, adj [1 ekspériméntal, 2 ekspériméntal] Preo & -al 1 Connected with, based on, of the nature of, an experiment 2 Relating to, based on, experience experimentalism, n [1 ekspériméntalizm, 2 ekspériméntalizm] Preo & -ism Doctrine, practice, of relying upon experiment, empiricism experimentalist, n [1 ekspériméntalist, 2 ekspériméntalist] experimental & -ist Believer in experimentalism experimentalize, vb intrans [1 ekspériméntaliz, 2 ekspériméntaliz] experimental & -ize To make experiments experimentally, adv [1 ekspériméntali, 2 ekspériméntali] experimental & -ly By means of experiment experimentation, n [1 ekspériméntášun, 2 ekspériméntášun] experiment & -ation Practice of experimenting experimentize, vb trans & intrans [1 ekspériméntiz, 2 ekspériméntiz] experiment & -ize a trans To submit to experiment, try experiments upon, b intrans, to experiment expert (I), adj [1 ekspért, 2 ekspát] Lat expert (us), 'tried, proved, experienced in', P P of experiri, 'to test' &c See experience (I) 1 (of persons) a Possessing physical agility, skill, dexterity, deft, skilled in some handicraft, or manual work an expert fisherman, rider &c, an expert glass blower, carpenter &c, to be expert in, at, carving, driving a motor &c, b possessing special knowledge or experience, learned in, well acquainted with, some particular branch of knowledge an expert palaeographer, botanist, writer of verses 2 (of work) Performed by an expert craftsman, deftly, skilfully done expert (II), n [1 ekspért, 2 ekspát], fr preo Person specially trained and practised in some branch of work or knowledge, one possessing special experience, knowledge, information, a specialist a linguistic expert, chemical expert, mining expert expertly, adv [1 ekspérthi, 2 ekspátli] expert (I) & -ly In a deft, skilful manner expertness, n [1 ekspértneš, 2 ekspátneš] expert (I) & -ness Quality of being expert, dexterity, skill expiable, adj [1 ekspiebl, 2 ekspiebl] Fr expiable, see next word & -able Capable of expiation, of being expiated expiate, vb trans [1 ekspiat, 2 ekspieit], fr Lat expiat (um), P P of expiare, 'to make satisfaction for, atone for, to make amends for', fr ex- & piare, 'to appease by sacrifice, to atone for', fr pious, 'devout, righteous' See pious To make amends for, make complete satisfaction for, by undergoing punishment, pay the penalty of expiate sin, guilt, crime expiation, n [1 ekspiašun, 2 ekspieišun] Preo & -ion Act of expiating, atonement made, satisfaction given, amends, for guilt, sin &c, by suffering penalty expiatory, adj [1 ekspiašori, 2 ekspieišori] expiate & -ory Of the nature of expiation, tending to expiate, having property of expiating expiration n [1 ekspiašun, 2 ekspieišun] Lat expiratum (em), 'a breathing out, exhalation', fr expirari (um), P P type of expirare, 'to breathe out, give out, lose, emit' See expire 1 Act of breathing out 2 Completion, termination, expiry, of a period of time, of a lease, lease &c expiratory, adj [1 ekspiašori, 2 ekspieišori] fr Lat expirari as in preo, & -ory Connected with, producing, the emission of air from the lungs an expiratory movement expire, vb intrans & trans [1 ekspir, 2 ekspia] fr Fr expirer, Lat expirare, 'to breathe out, to breathe one's last die', fr ex- & spirare, 'to breathe' See spirit A intrans 1 To breathe out air, exhale 2 To breathe one's last, to die 3 (fig) To die down, die out (of fire, light), to come to an end, terminate (of time, or anything measured in periods of time) my lease, term of office &c has expired B trans (rare) To breathe out to expire air, breath, from the lungs expiry, n [1 ekspliri, 2 ikspári:] Preo & -y Termination, conclusion, of a period of time expiry of a lease, appointment, truce &c explain, vb trans & intrans [1 eksplán, 2 iksplán:] Lat explānāre, 'to spread out, flatten, to make clear', fr ex- & plānus, 'level, flat, open, clear, distinct, intelligible' See plain (I) A trans 1 a To make clear, intelligible to explain obscurities, b to clear away difficulties from, make meaning of clear, interpret, expound to explain a passage in a book, a statement, to explain the meaning of, to explain a situation 2 a To justify by explanation to explain one's conduct, b (reflex) to explain oneself, to give an explanation in justification of one's apparent misconduct 3 Explain away, to give such reasons, explanations, in justification of (a fault, error, difficulty) &c, as to cause the fault &c to seem less, and the difficulty to disappear B intrans To give an explanation. when you are wrong, never explain explainable, adj [1 eksplánabl, 2 iksplánabl] Preo & -able Capable of being explained explanation, n [1 eksplánashun, 2 iksplánashun] Lat explānātiō (em), 'a making plain', fr explānāt-(um), PP type of explānāre See explain & -ation 1 A act or process of explaining, b statement made to make (meaning, difficulties &c) clear, plain, intelligible, an exposition, manifestation of what is obscure 2 Interpretation given in explaining, sense, meaning, interpretation, attributed to that which is explained to find a complete explanation of a mystery explanative, adj [1 eksplánativ, 2 iksplánativ] Lat explānātiv, see prec & -ive Explanatory explanatorily, adv [1 eksplánat(ori)li, 2 iksplánat(ori)li] Next word & -ly By way of, as an, explanation explanatory, adj [1 eksplánat(ori)n, 2 iksplánat(ori)n] Lat explānāt-, see prec & -ory Tending to explain, providing an explanation explicative, adj & n [1 eksplétiv, 2 iksplítiv] Lat, fr explā (um), PP type of explāre, 'to fill up' &c, & -ive, fr ex- & plēre, 'to fill', fr base plē, 'full', as in Lat plēnus See plenum, also second element in complete 1 adj Helping to fill up, used merely to fill up, superfluous 2 n Word used with no specific meaning in sentence, empty, a meaningless profanity, an oath explicate, vb trans [1 eksplikāt, 2 eksplikāt:] Lat explīcat-(um), PP type of explīcare, 'to unfold', fr ex- & plīcare, 'to fold', see plicate & ply (I) Cp explicit To unfold, unravel, esp to develop, unfold, an argument, make clearer what is implied in it explication, n [1 eksplikāshun, 2 eksplikāshun] Preo & -ion 1 Natural unfolding, eg of flowers 2 Explanation, exposition, interpretation 3 Detailed, analytical account of what is implied in a statement explicative, adj [1 eksplikativ, 2 eksplikativ] explicate & -ive Tending, serving to explicate explicatively, adv Preo & -ly In an explicative, explanatory manner explicatory, adj [1 eksplikatori, 2 iksplikatori] explicate & -ory Explicative explicit (I), vb [1 eksplisit, 2 iksplicit] Lat, treated as 3rd pers sing pres, orig shortened form fr PP explīcatum 'stated fully set forth' &c, variant of explīcatum, see explicate At end of a book.—Here ends explicit (II), adj Fr explícite, fr Lat explīcat-(um). See explicate Clearly stated, detailed, having whole meaning fully expressed, having nothing merely implied, opposite of implicit an explicit statement, to be quite explicit on a point explicitly, adv Preo & -ly In an explicit manner.

explode, vb intrans & trans [1 eksplód, 2 iksplood:] fr Lat explōdere, 'to drive out, or off (the stage) by clapping or hissing, to hoot off', variant of explaudere, ex- & plaudere, 'clap, strike, beat' See plaudit, applaud A intrans 1 To burst, expand, suddenly and violently with loud report, a of gunpowder and certain chemical combinations, b of receptacles containing vapour &c at high pressure 2 a (of strong emotion) To burst forth, express itself suddenly and noisily (of laughter, anger), b (of persons) to give vent suddenly to violent and noisy emotion to explode with rage, laughter &c B trans 1 To cause to explode, cause to expand suddenly and violently to explode a charge of gunpowder 2 To destroy, shatter, dissipate, by showing baselessness or infidelity of to explode cherished beliefs, (often in PP as attrib adj) an exploded superstition, custom &c exploit (I), n [1 eksplóit, 2 eksplóit] ME, 'success', fr O Fr, also expleit, fr explīcatum, PP of explīcare, 'to unfold, display' &c See explicate A bold, adventurous, famous, deed exploit (II), vb trans [1 eksplóit, 2 iksploit] O Fr exploiter, exploiter, Mod Fr exploiter, fr preo 1 To make full use of, get value out of, utilize profitably to exploit a firm, a business &c 2 (applied to persons) a To make an illegitimate use of, to turn a person's services, skill, knowledge &c to one's own advantage by employing them to further one's own ends, to use (a person) so as to make a profit at his expense to exploit one's subordinates, b specif as term applied by socialists to all employment of labour under a capitalist system.

exploitable, adj [1 eksplóitabl, 2 iksploitabl] Preo & -able Capable of being used, worked, with profit exploitation, n [1 eksplóiti, 2 iksploitid:] exploit (II) & -age Use for profit whether legitimate or the reverse exploitation, n [1 eksplóitashun, 2 iksploitashun] Fr, fr Lat exploit (II) & -ation Act of exploiting, state of being exploited, exploitation exploiter, n [1 eksplóiter, 2 iksploit:] exploit (II) & -er One who exploits in a bad sense exploration, n [1 eksplórāshun, 2 eksplórashun] Lat explóratiō (em), 'examination', fr explórāt (um), PP type of explórāre, 'to search out, examine, investigate, to try, test', fr ex- & plórāre, 'to weep, lament', the onnexion in meaning of the compound vb is the simple vb is not obvious. It is said that explórāre means orig 'to cause to flow', hence 'to bring out, elicit' The base plō(w)* means 'to flow' For cognates see flow See also implore Act of exploring Specif 1 act of travelling into an unknown region and investigating it from point of view of geology, fauna and flora, geography, ethnology &c 2 Examination of, inquiry into, a question, problem &c explore, vb trans & intrans [1 eksplór, 2 ikspló:] fr Fr explorer, fr Lat explórāre See prec A trans To investigate, search into, examine thoroughly Specif 1 a to travel into, through, a strange region and investigate its geology, geography, fauna, peoples &c to explore new countries &c, b to test, try to explore a channel, passage &c 2 To investigate, examine, (a question, possibility &c) 3 (med and surg) To probe, investigate, depth, condition &c of a wound B intrans To carry out exploration.

explorer, n [1 eksplórer, 2 iksplóre] Preo & -er One who explores, specif, one who visits unknown parts of the world for purposes of exploration.

explosion, n [1 eksplózhun, 2 iksplóuzhən] Lat explōsiō-(em), 'a driving away with clapping or hisses', explōs (um), PP type of explōdere, & -ion. See explode 1 Act or process of exploding, a loud violent noise or report a an explosion of gunpowder, b an explosion of anger, laughter &c 2 (antiquated phonetics) The off glide, or puff of air made on opening a stop consonant 3 Outburst of gas or compressed air explosive, adj & n [1 eksplósv, 2 iksploúsv] Lat explōs (um), PP type of explōdere, & -ive See prec & explode 1 adj a Tending to go off, or explode, with noise and violence, b (fig) tending to explode with anger or other strong emotion, hot tempered, fiery 2 n a Substance which has the property of exploding, b (phon) rather antiquated term for one of a class of consonantal sounds better called stops, or stop consonants explosively, adv Preo 1, & -ly In an explosive manner explosiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being explosive exponent, adj & n [1 ekspónent, 2 ikspónent] fr Lat expōnēt (em), Preo Part of expōnere, 'to set out, expose, display, exhibit, to explain', ex- & pōnere, 'to place' See deponere & position 1 adj Serving to set forth, to explain, expound, meaning of 2 n a One who expounds, explains, interprets Huxley was a great popular exponent of evolution, b (alg) a symbol written above and to the right of another to indicate to what power the latter is to be taken, eg in *x*² the small figure is the exponent exponential, adj [1 ekspónenshal, 2 ikspónent(t)shal] Preo & -ial (math) Relating to exponents export (I), vb trans [1 eksport, 2 ikspó:] Lat exportāre, 'to carry out, away', fr ex- & portare, 'to carry, bear, convey' See port (IV) To carry out, specif, to send (goods, merchandise) out of a country in the course of trade export (II), n [1 eksport, 2 ikspó:] fr preo 1 Act, operation, of exporting goods to be engaged in export 2 Something exported, article of merchandise sent from country of production into a foreign country balance of imports and exports, invisible exports, such services as shipping, insurances, capital invested abroad &c, which are not included in the trade returns of a country exportation, n [1 eksportāshun, 2 ikspótiashun] Lat exportātiō (em), 'act of exporting, banishment', fr exportat-(um), PP type of exportāre See export (I) & -ion Act or process of exporting exporter, n [1 eksportér, 2 ikspóti:] export (I) & -er Trader who sends out articles of merchandise to foreign countries exposal, n [1 ekspózal, 2 ikspouzəl] Next word & -al Act, process, of exposing, state of being exposed, exposure expose, vb trans [1 ekspóz, 2 ikspóuz:] Fr exposer, fr Lat ex- & pos, PP or Part type of pōnere, 'place' See position 1 To leave unprotected, to deprive of protection, shelter, or guard, to lay open to attack, injury, danger &c, to allow to play upon a to expose troops to gun fire, to expose the eyes to sunlight, to expose one's head to the rain, a situation exposed to every wind, to expose oneself to risk, danger, also b (of non material things) to expose one's character to attack, to expose oneself to unfavourable comments 2 Specif, to turn out and abandon to hunger and death, leave at the mercy of the elements to expose a child (as is regularly done by certain tribes) 3 Specif (in photog) to allow sun light to fall upon for particular purpose to expose a film, a sensitive plate. 4 a To display for inspection, set out as an exhibit to expose articles for sale, b (card games) to allow to be seen, turn up to expose a card 5 To make manifest (villany &c of), to unmask, reveal guilt of to expose a plot, rascally &c, to expose a rogue.

exposed, n [1 ekspózā, 2 ikspóuzəl] Fr, PP of exposer See prec An unmasking, revelation, making public of a scandal, discreditable conduct &c hitherto kept secret exposed, adj [1 ekspozəd, 2 ekspozəd], fr PP of expose a Unprotected, open, liable, to attack, danger &c, specif b open to the wind and weather &c a house in an exposed position exposedness n Prec & -ness Condition of being exposed exposition, n [1 ekspozishən, 2 ekspozishən] Lat expositio (em), 'a showing forth', &c, fr exponi (um), PP type of exponere, & -ion See expose 1 A showing forth, elucidation, explanation of, commentary upon, as of meaning, theory, plan &c 2 Exhibition, show, public display, of objects of art &c (Not strictly English sense, borrowed from French) expositive, adj [1 ekspozitiv, 2 ekspozitiv] Lat expositiv, as in preo, & -ive Of the nature of an exposition or explanation, tending to explain or expound expositor, n [1 ekspozitor, 2 ekspozitor] Lat expositor as in preo & -or One who expounds expository, adj [1 ekspozitori, 2 ekspozitori] Lat expositiv as in preo & -ory Expositive ex post facto, adv & adj [1 eks post faktō, 2 eks post faktō] Lat, 'from what is done afterwards' Retrospectively, retrospective expostulate, vb intrans [1 eksposchulāt, 2 eksposchulāt] Lat expostulā (um), PP type of expostulare, 'to demand urgently, vehemently' See ex- & postulate a (followed by with) To reason seriously with a person, pointing out, and protesting against, the impropriety of something which he has said or done, to remonstrate, b (absol) to utter a protest against something said or done to expostulate in vain expostulation, n [1 eksposchulāshun, 2 eksposchulāshun] Prec & -ion A Act of expostulating, remonstrating, b speech, words, uttered by way of expostulating with a person my expostulations were vain, he persisted in his conduct expostulative, adj [1 eksposchulātiv, 2 eksposchulātiv] expostulate & -ive Of the nature of an expostulation expostulatory, adj [1 eksposchulātori, 2 eksposchulātori] expostulate & -ory Expositive exposure, n [1 ekspozshur, 2 ekspozshur] exposere & -ure 1 A Act of exposing, of laying bare leaving unprotected &c exposure of the bare head to the sun is very dangerous for Europeans in hot climates, the exposure of children is produced among some savage tribes, b (in moral sense) act of unmasking, showing up, revealing, guilt, rascality, folly &c those fearing exposure on account of some past indiscretion often fall a prey to blackmailers 2 State of being exposed (in various senses) exposure to the air, rain, sun, to die of exposure, exposure to risk, danger, anxiety &c 3 Manifestation, act of showing, of allowing to be seen a (revels) exposure of the Host, b exposure of a card, c (photog) act of allowing sunlight to fall upon a sensitive plate &c 4 Aspect, direction in respect of the points of the compass, to which a house &c, looks or from which the sun shines upon a given spot a north(erly) exposure, exposure &c expound, vb trans & intrans [1 ekspaund, 2 ekspaund] ME exponen (den), fr Lat exponere to set forth, explain &c See exponent & expose 1 trans To state, explain at length make exposition of to explain one's views on the Scriptures &c 2 intrans To make an exposition expounder n [1 ekspaundər, 2 ekspaundər] Prec & -er Person who expounds express (I), adj [1 eksprɛs, 2 eksprɛs] Fr exprime fr Lat expressus 'prominent, distinct, clear, plain', PP of exprimere 'to squeeze out, to form by pressure, model, portray, to imitate, copy, describe in words', &c fr ex- & primere, 'to press' See press (I) 1 A (of statements &c) Clear, distinct, explicit, unequivocal, not merely implied, but specifically stated an express command, utterance &c, b (of purpose &c) of particular kind, clearly and specifically defined in the mind - with the express intention, desire, purpose &c 2 Designed for specific and particular function and purpose, hence, a sent on particular errand an express letter, messenger, b dispatched, travelling, with increased speed an express train, speed is also implied in a 3 Exactly like, reproducing perfectly 'the express image of his person' (NT) express (II), adv, fr preo 1 On purpose, expressly 2 By express (train) to travel express express (III), n See express (I) 1 A A special messenger, or mode of conveyance, b message sent by either of these means 2 A Method of rapid transit of goods, b business company carrying on such a system 3 An express train express (IV), vb trans See express (I) 1 To press out (archaic or obs) 2 A To reveal, make manifest, declare, meaning, emotion, mental impression &c, by means of symbols, whether by words, as in speech, by visual images drawn or painted, by plastic form, or any other method, to depict, represent, signify, body forth, b (reflex) to express oneself, make one's meaning, thoughts, feelings, known, say what one means unable to express oneself 3 To send by express messenger, post &c to express a letter expressible, adj [1 eksprɛsəbl, 2 eksprɛsəbl] Prec & -ible Capable of being expressed expression n [1 eksprɛshən, 2 eksprɛshən] express (IV) & -ion 1 Act of expressing in all senses, specif a representation of what is in the mind by language, or in artistic form of any kind to have the gift of verbal, pictorial, expression, b mode of symbolizing, representing, something writing is the expression of sounds by graphic symbols 2 A A particular mode of verbal expression, a combination of words, sentence, phrase, idiom he made use of a strange expression in conversation, a vulgar, clumsy, expression &c, b inflexion of voice, various modes of using voice expressive of emotion, in singing, reading &c, c mode of expressing varying emotion in playing musical instrument, suggestion, manifestation, of feeling by this means 3 Cast of countenance, aspect of features, esp considered as indicating a mood, a passion, an emotion, the character &c expressional, adj [1 eksprɛshənəl, 2 eksprɛshənəl] Prec & -al Relating to, connected with, expression expressionless, adj [1 eksprɛshənles, 2 eksprɛshənles] expression & -less Devoid of, lacking, expression, a of the face, b of singing, reading, playing expressive adj [1 eksprɛsiv, 2 eksprɛsiv] express (IV) & -ive 1 Expressing, indicating, making manifest a countenance expressive of the deepest misery 2 Full of expression, betokening revealing intelligence, feeling, hidden meaning &c an expressive face, smile, glance, voice &c expressively adv Prec & -ly In a manner expressing feeling &c, in an expressive manner expressiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being expressive exprobation, n [1 eksprɔbrəshən, 2 eksprɔbrəshən] Lat exprobatio (em), 'a reproaching', fr exprobrare (um) PP of exprobrare, 'to accuse of something disgraceful to uphold', fr ex- & probrum, 'shameful act, shame, disgrace' See opprobrium Censure reproach expropriate vb trans [1 eksprɔprɪt, 2 eksprɔprɪt] Low Lat expropriat (um), PP expropriare, fr ex- & proprius, 'one's own' See proprio a To deprive of possession of, b to transfer (property) from one owner to another expropriation n [1 eksprɔprɪshən, 2 eksprɔprɪshən] Prec & -ion Act of expropriating, state of being expropriated expugn, vb trans [1 ekspʊn, 2 ekspʊn] Lat expugnare, 'to take by storm', fr ex- & pugnare, 'to fight, give battle', fr pugna, 'a fight' See pugnacious To take by storm, to vanquish expugnable, adj [1 ekspʊgnabl, 2 ekspʊgnabl] Prec & -able Capable of being taken by storm expulsion n [1 ekspulshən, 2 ekspulshən] Lat expulsio (em), 'a driving out', fr expuls (um), PP type of expellere, & -ion See expel 1 Act or process of driving out, expelling, forcing out, a the expulsion of a cork from a bottle &c, of the enemy from a trench &c, b dismissal, turning out from, deprivation of membership of the expulsion of a boy from a school, of a member from a club &c 2 State of being expelled expulsive, adj [1 ekspulshiv, 2 ekspulshiv] Lat expuls, as in preo & -ive Tending to expel, having property of expelling an expulsive force expunction, n [1 ekspʊnshən, 2 ekspʊnshən] fr Lat expuncti (um), PP type of expungere, 'to prick out, erase', & -ion. See next word Act of expunging, state of being expunged expunge, vb trans [1 ekspʊn, 2 ekspʊndɪ] fr Lat expungere, 'to prick out, put dots above or below to indicate erasure, to erase', fr ex- & pungere, 'to prick, puncture' &c, fr base pung* See pungent To wipe out, erase, delete to expunge a word from a sentence, a name, an entry, from a list &c expurgate, vb trans [1 ekspergāt, 2 ekspergāt] fr Lat expurgat (um), PP type of expurgare, 'to purge out, cleanse, purify', fr ex- & purgare, 'to clean, purify' See purge To clear, purify (a book) of what is offensive, obscene, improper, erroneous &c expurgation, n [1 ekspergāshən, 2 ekspergāshən] Prec & -ion Act of expurgating, state of being expurgated expurgator, n [1 ekspergātor, 2 ekspergātor] expurgate & -or One who expurgates expurgatory, adj [1 ekspergātori, 2 ekspergātori] See prec & -ory Of the nature of, pertaining to, expurgation, serving to purify exquisite, adj & n [1 ekskwɪzɪt, 2 ekskwɪzɪt] Lat exquisit (um), PP type of exquirere, 'to seek out thoroughly', the PP used as an adj has sense of 'carefully sought out, ripe, considered, choice, excellent', fr ex- & querere, 'to search for' See query, quest 1 adj Select, choice, highly refined, delicate, brought to a high pitch of perfection. 2 n A man who possesses, or affects to possess, a hypersensitive taste and sensibilities, one who is fastidious to absurdity about his dress and habits, or who professes great delicacy and refinement of taste in art and literature, term usually applied to a mining, financial, affected connoisseur exquisitely adv Prec 1 & -ly In an exquisite refined, manner, delicately, beautifully to perfection exquisiteness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being exquisite exsanguinate, vb trans [1 eksangwɪnāt, 2 eksangwɪnāt] Lat exsanguinat (us), 'bloodless', fr ex- & sanguis (em), 'blood' (nom sanguis) See sanguine (rare) To render bloodless, deprive of blood, drain blood away from exsanguination, n [1 eksangwɪnāshən, 2 eksangwɪnāshən] Prec & -ion Act or process of exsanguinating, state of being exsanguinated exsanguine, adj [1 eksangwɪn, 2 eksangwɪn] See ex- & sanguis Bloodless exscind, vb trans [1 eksɪnd, 2 eksɪnd] Lat exscindere, 'to tear down, extirpate', fr ex- & scindere, 'to split, tear, cut asunder', of these forms of this base without n, appear in the perf ex- & the PP ex- ex- ex- See further discussion under the Gk. cognates schisma & schist, & the Engl. cogn shed (I) To cut out, extirpate exsert, vb trans [1 eksért, 2 eksát] New formation fr Lat exsertum, q v under exert (bot) To thrust out, put forth exserted, adj [1 eksértid, 2 eksátid] Preo & -ad (bot and zool) Projecting, shoking out exsertion, n [1 eksérshun, 2 eksátshun] oxsert & -ion Protrusion ex-service, adj Having served formerly in the army, navy, or air force especially during the Great War exsiccate, vb trans [1 eksikát, 2 eksikéit] Lat ex- & siccāre (um), P P type of siccāre, 'to dry up, make dry, drain', fr siccus, 'dry', wh is fr sisk-*, prob cogn w O E sēar, op sēar (I) See desiccate

To dry up, render dry, drain moisture out of extant, adj [1 ékstánt, ékstánt, 2 ékstánt, ékstánt] Lat exstāns (am), Pres Part of exstāre, fr ex- & stāre, 'to stand' See ecstasy & stand (I) Still in existence, still surviving extasy, n See ecstasy extemporaneous, adj [1 ékstemporáneus, 2 ékstemporéneus] extempore & -aneous

Extempore

extemporaneously, adv Preo & -ly Extempore extemporaneousness, n See preo & -ness

Quality of being extemporaneous extemporarily, adv [1 ékstemporarí, 2 ékstemporarík] Next word & -ly Extempore extemporary, adj [1 ékstemporári, 2 ékstemporarík] Next word & -ary Extempore extempore, adv & adj [1 ékstémperi, 2 ékstémprí] Lat extempore, 'out of the time' See temporal 1 adv (of speaking, preaching &c) Without notes, without preparation, or apparently so to preach extempore 2 adj An extempore sermon &c extemporization, n [1 ékstemporizáshun, 2 ékstemporázeishun] Next word & -ation

An act of extemporizing, b something done, said, played, without premeditation, on the spur of the moment extemporize, vb trans & intrans [1 ékstémpríz, 2 ékstémpráze] extempore & -ize To do something without preparation or premeditation, to make up a speech, song, piece of music, on the spur of the moment extend, vb trans & intrans [1 éksténd, 2 ékstánd] Lat extendere, 'stretch out' See ex- & tend (II) A trans 1 To stretch out, reach out, straighten outwards from the body to extend the hand 2 To stretch between two points to extend a wire from post to post 3 To prolong, continue, carry further, a (in space) to extend a railway line, road &c to the next town &c, b (in time) to extend one's visit for a few days longer 4 a (as affecting material things) To amplify, make larger, increase size of, cause to cover or enclose more space to extend the boundaries of a park, to extend a building, b (affecting non-material things) to enlarge the field of, to give more scope to, to diffuse more widely, cause effects to be more widely felt to extend one's influence, power, c to diffuse so as to reach to extend one's operations to wider circles, d to give fuller or further meaning to to extend the force of a word or phrase 5 To offer, bestow, confer to extend sympathy and kindness to one's neighbours B intrans To stretch, continue, to run, a (in space) the road extends for miles, b (in time) to last, persist &c the tourist season extends from May till October extended, adj [1 éksténdid, 2 éksténdid] fr P P of preo Stretched out, spread out, amplified, covering wide ground, lasting considerable time an extended inquiry, argument, discussion extensibility, n [1 ékstensibíliti, 2 ékstensibíliti] Next word & -ity Capacity for being extended extensible, adj [1 ékstensíbl, 2 ékstensíbl] Lat extens (um), P P type of extendere See extend & -ible Capable of being extended, chiefly in material sense extensibility, n Preo & -ness Property of being extensible, extensibility extension, n [1 éksténsiún, 2 éksténsan] fr Lat extens (um), P P type of extendere, 'to stretch out' See extend & -ion Act of extending, state of being extended (in many senses) 1 A stretching out, broadening, amplification, continuation, diffusion the extension of a limb, the opposite of flexion, busy with the extension of one's premises, also fig, the extension of knowledge, the extension of influence 2 Something extended a (of material things) enlargement, increase to build an extension to one's house, continuation, lengthening to put an extension to riding breeches, b (of non-material things) continuation in time for further period an extension of leave of absence, university extension, system which provides instruction of a university character for persons who are not members of a university, widening of significance extension of meaning of a word 3 Amount, degree, by which a body can be stretched, extensible capacity 4 (logic) All the objects to which a term applies, op intension extensional, adj [1 éksténsiúnal, 2 éksténsanál] Preo & -al Relating to, connected with, extension extensive, adj [1 éksténsiv, 2 éksténsiv] Lat extens (um), P P type of extendere See extend & extension & -ive a (in material sense) Broad, widespread, spacious, covering wide area extensive domains, extensive fields of crops, b (of non-material things) far-reaching, comprehensive, thorough, made in, drawn from, many quarters extensive information, extensive inquiries, operations &c extensively, adv Preo & -ly In an extensive manner extensiveness, n See preo & -ness

Quality of being extensive extensor, n [1 éksténsor, 2 éksténs, -s] Lat extens, as in extension & -or. One who, that which, extends Specif (anat) a muscle which serves to stretch, straighten out, a limb &c Contrasted with flexor extent, n [1 ékstént, 2 ékstént] O Fr estente, Low Lat extētia, fr extendere See extend 1. a Area over which anything extends, size, length, height, bulk the extent of a park, the vast extent of St Peter's at Rome, b (also of non-material things) scope, limits the extent of one's patience, I learnt too late the full extent of his goodness 2 Degree, measure to exert oneself to the utmost extent, I hardly know to what extent he can be trusted 3 (law) A valuation of lands for purposes of taxation 4 (law) Writ of extent, writ under which the person and goods of a debtor can be seized extenuate, vb trans & intrans [1 éksténúat, 2 éksténúat] Lat extenuat (um), P P type of extenuare, 'to make thin, to weaken, to make light of', fr ex- & tenuis, 'thin' See tenuis & thin A trans 1 To weaken, diminish, reduce in magnitude, esp to lessen magnitude of (guilt), to take off from heinousness of (a crime or offence) 2 To offer explanation in reduction of apparent culpability, to palliate, represent as less than appears or is alleged, to minimize I am not trying to extenuate a crime &c B intrans To attempt, practice, extenuation extenuating, adj [1 éksténúatíng, 2 éksténúatíng] fr Pres Part of preo Tending to extenuate, serving to reduce heinousness of an offence, esp extenuating circumstances extenuation, n [1 éksténúatíshun, 2 éksténúatíshun] extenuate & -ion A Act of extenuating, act of palliating, of attempting to lessen guilt, b state of being extenuated, palliation, reduction of culpability to plead poverty in extenuation of a theft extenuatory, adj [1 éksténúatóri, 2 éksténúatóri] extenuate & -ory Serving to extenuate, of the nature of an extenuation exterior (I), adj [1 ékstériór, 2 ékstériór] Lat, comp of exter, exterius, 'on the outside, external' See extra 1 a External, belonging to the outside, outermost an exterior wall, coat of paint &c, b (fig) remote from, outside of exterior to one's real character 2 Pertaining to the physical side of nature, as contrasted with the inner mind or spirit the exterior man, the visible body 3 (polit) Connected with matters external to the country, relating to foreign affairs exterior policy exterior (II), n, fr preo 1 a (material) The outer surface, outside, of anything the exterior of a house, box &c, b (non-material) outer form, ceremony the exterior of royalty, religion &c 2 Outward appearance, physical, visible semblance a good man with a rough exterior 3 Representation in a picture, or theatrical scenery, of a scene out of doors exteriority, n [1 ékstérióríti, 2 ékstérióríti] exterior (I) & -ity, Condition, property, of being exterior exteriorize, vb trans [1 ékstérióríz, 2 ékstérióríz] exterior & -ize To make exterior, to conceive of, and represent as a material reality exterminate, vb trans [1 ékstérminát, 2 ékstérminéit] Lat exterminat (um), P P type of exterminare, 'to drive beyond the boundaries, to put away, remove', fr ex- & terminare, 'to set bounds to, limit' See terminate To destroy, bring to an end, close existence of, to wipe out, exterminate to exterminate blackmailers, to exterminate garden pests, rats &c extermination, n [1 ékstérminatíshun, 2 ékstérminatíshun] Preo & -ion Act of exterminating, state of being exterminated exterminative, adj [1 ékstérminatív, 2 ékstérminatív] exterminate & -ive Tending to exterminate, exterminatory exterminator, n [1 ékstérminátor, 2 ékstérminatór] exterminate & -or One who, that which exterminates exterminatory, adj [1 ékstérminatóri, 2 ékstérminatóri] exterminate & -ory Tending, serving, to exterminate external (I), adj [1 ékstérnal, 2 ékstérnal] Lat extern (us), 'outward, external', & -al See ex- & exterior 1 Outward, being on the outside the external husk of a fruit 2 a Outward and visible, material, as distinct from what is inward, spiritual, or mental to have every external grace and accomplishment, b specif, relating to the outside of the body lotion for external application only 3 a Exist ing apart from one's actual perception external nature, the external world, b external evidence, that obtained from independent sources 4 (theol) Consisting of corporeal acts, of outward forms and ceremonies, contrasted with inner, spiritual acts or conditions external religion, external observances 5 (polit) Connected with international, foreign, affairs external relations, politics external (II), n, fr preo Something external, something visible, (esp pl) outward show, appearance, deportment, manner &c, as distinct from that which is of the heart, intellect, character to attach too much importance to, judge by, externals externalism, n [1 ékstérnalízam, 2 ékstérnalízam] Preo & -ism Quality of being external, of appealing to the senses, external forms externalist, n [1 ékstérnalíst, 2 ékstérnalíst] external & -ist One attached to externalism, one paying great regard to externals externality, n [1 ékstérnalítati, 2 ékstérnalítati] external & -ity State of being external externalization, n [1 ékstérnalízatíshun, 2 ékstérnalízatíshun] Next word & -ation

Act or process of externalizing externalize, vb trans [1 ékstérnalíz, 2 ékstérnalíz] external & -ize To conceive of as having external existence externally, adv [1 ékstérnalí, 2 ékstérnalí] external & -ly On, from, the outside extraterritorial, adj [1 ekstrit'ritórial, 2 ekstrit'ritórial] ex- & territorial a Outside limits of a given territory, b not reckoned as belonging to, not subject to, the jurisdiction of a country; esp of diplomatic personnel &c, in a foreign country extraterritoriality, n [1 ekstrit'ritórialita, 2 ekstrit'ritórial'st] Preceded by -ity State of being extraterritorial, freedom from jurisdiction, of diplomatic personnel extraterritorially, adv [1 ekstrit'ritóriali, 2 ekstrit'ritórial'st] Preceded by -ly In an extraterritorial manner extinct, adj [1 okstíngkt, 2 íkstíngkt] Lat extinctus (um), P P type fr extinguere, 'to put out, quench', fr ex- & stingere, 'to quench' Etymol uncertain 1 a (of light, fire) Having died down, quenched, extinguished, no longer bright or burning, b (of a volcano) no longer active, not given to eruption, Phr (fig) an extinct volcano, a person who has ceased to take an active part in life and affairs, c (fig, of passions and emotions) dead, no longer felt 2 a (of life) Having ceased, b (of species of animals and plants, races &c) having died out, no longer living and propagating, c (of families) having no living descendant or representative 3 (of hereditary titles) Having ceased to exist through failure of heirs extinction, n [1 okstíngkshun, 2 íkstíngkshun] Preceded by -ion 1 Act of extinguishing, state of being extinct (in all senses) 2 Specific (law) wiping out, paying off, satisfaction, or other suppression of a debt or claim extinctive, adj [1 ekstíngktiv, 2 íkstíngktiv] Preceded by -ive Tending to extinguish extinguish, vb trans [1 ekstínggwísh, 2 íkstínggwísh] Lat extinguere, 'to quench' See extinct & -ish 1 To put out, quench, stifle, put an end to to extinguish a fire, light, b life, c passions, emotions (love, hope &c); Phr (fig) he was quite extinguished by (the side of) his brother &c, his merits, brilliancy &c, were thrown into the shade in comparison 2 (law) To extinguish a debt, claim, mortgage &c, to wipe out, pay off extinguishable, adj [1 ekstínggwíshabl, 2 íkstínggwíshabl] Preceded by -able Capable of being extinguished extinguisher, n [1 ekstínggwísher, 2 íkstínggwísher] extinguish & -er That which extinguishes Specific a conical, hollow object of metal or china placed over wick of lighted candle to put it out, b device for putting out flame of lighted lamp, c (fig) dreary, lugubrious, gloomy person, who acts as a deterrent to others' mirth or happiness extinguishment, n [1 ekstínggwíshment, 2 íkstínggwíshment] extinguish & -ment Act of extinguishing, state of being extinguished extirpate, vb trans [1 éksterpát, 2 éksterpát] Lat extirpare (um), P P type of extirpare 'to pluck out by the root', fr ex- & stirps stock, stem, root, scion Etymol unknown To tear up by the roots, root out, destroy, abolish In various applications a to extirpate weeds, noxious plants &c, b to extirpate a family tree, c to extirpate a nuisance, a social evil, a heresy &c, d (med.) to extirpate an organ, a tumour &c, remove it wholly extirpation, n [1 éksterpáshun, 2 éksterpáshun] Preceded by -ion Act or process of extirpating, state of being extirpated extirpator n [1 éksterpátar, 2 éksterpátar] extirpate & -or One who extirpates extol vb trans [1 ekatól, 2 íkától] Lat extollere 'to lift up, raise exalt' (lit. and fig) fr ex- & tollere, 'to lift raise', fr ex- & tollere, 'to bear' See tollato, thole (X) To proclaim the merits and virtues of, to praise highly to laud extort vb trans [1 ekstórt, 2 íkstórt] Lat extorere (um), P P type of extorere, 'to twist out, wring out', fr ex- & tollere 'to twist, turn' W D The base extor- 'twist, turn' &c, is found also in Lat extorere, 'wring out, torment', fr tormentum*, 'instrument for turning, windlass' &c (see torment), torque, 'twisted neck chain' (see torque), torus, 'twisted' (see tort, tortuous) See further details under these words, esp torque Extort from, to wring, twist out of (a person), exact, obtain from, force out of, by physical compulsion, threats, fraud, or other means, legal or illegal to extort money from, to extort a confession, promise, from extortion, n [1 ekstórshun, 2 íkstóshun] Preceded by -ion Act or process of extorting, a process of exacting money &c, by force, threats, or other illegal means, b act of demanding an exorbitant price for an article offered for sale, overcharge, rapacity extortionate, adj [1 ekstórshunat, 2 íkstóshunat] Preceded by -ate In the nature of, characterized by, extortion, rapacious, exorbitant an extortionate charge, demand &c extortioner, n [1 ekstórshuner, 2 íkstóshuner] extortion & -er One given to, practising, extortion extortive, adj [1 ekstórtiv, 2 íkstórtiv] extort & -ive Connected with extortion extra (I), adj [1 ékstra, 2 íkstra] Lat extra, adv, 'on the outside, without, except', prep 'outside of, beyond' Connected with Lat exterior, exterior &c, fr ektero*, 'unfurnished by ex-; see exterior Additional to, over and above what is normal, or was originally expected, arranged, provided for extra work, demands extra pay, extra food, extra charge &c, dinner &c, and wine extra extra (II), adv Same as pre Additionally, exceptionally, specially to work extra, try extra hard, extra good wine extra (III), n Same as pre Something additional, something extra, beyond what is customary, expected, bargained for; esp something for which an extra, additional, charge is made the lodgings are five guineas a week, service, fire, light, and use of piano bring extras extra-, pref See extra (I) Prefixed to adjectives, implying a outside of, situated outside of something extra mural, outside the walls, b not within, outside, beyond, the scope of extra judicial, outside the scope of the law, outside the functions of a judge, &c extra-canonical, adj Outside, not included in, the canon, or canonical books extract (I), vb trans [1 ekstrákt, 2 íkstrákt] Lat extrahere (um), P P type of extrahere, 'to draw out', fr ex- & trahere, 'to draw' See under tract (I), traction 1 To draw, pull, out, cause to come forth (of material action) to extract a cork from a bottle, to extract a tooth 2 To distil, nut, docket, the essential principle from by a chemical or other process to extract poisons from plants, to extract the nutritive properties of beef &c 3 a To excerpt, to select, pick out, special words, passages &c, from, a book or document to extract forms, examples, rules &c, from a book, b to submit (a document) to the process of exception or extraction 4 a To derive, obtain, elicit (from persons) I could extract nothing, no information, from him, b to pick up, collect, get hold of (from books, systems &c) I have extracted several important principles from this sermon, to manage to extract some moral lessons from religious formulae extract (II), n [1 ekstrákt, 2 íkstrákt] fr pre, a Something extracted by chemical or mechanical process extract of roots of beef &c, b something taken out, culled, selected, quoted, from a document a critical extract on poetry with illustrative extracts extractable, adj [1 ekstráktabl, 2 íkstráktabl] extract (I) & -able Capable of being extracted extraction, n [1 ekstrákshun, 2 íkstrákshun] extract (I) & -ion 1 Act or process of extracting In various senses a pulling out the extraction of teeth, coral &c b (chem.) the extraction of the essence of substances, c eliciting the extraction of information 2 Some thing extracted, an extract 3 Place, source, of origin, lineage, descent a man of humble extraction, of foreign extraction extractive, adj & n [1 ekstráktiv, 2 íkstráktiv] extract (I) & -ive 1 adj a Tending to extract, b capable of being extracted 2 n a An extractive substance, b an extract extractor, n [1 ekstráktor, 2 íkstráktar] extract (I) & -or a Person who extracts, b mechanical device for extracting anything extraditable, adj [1 ekstráditabl, 2 íkstráditábl] Next word & -able a (of persons) Liable to extradition, b (of an offence) rendering liable to extradition extradite, vb trans [1 ekstrádit, 2 ekstrádit] Derivative fr extradition To hand over a foreign fugitive criminal, or foreigner suspected of a crime, to the authorities of justice of his own country extradition, n [1 ekstrádishun, 2 íkstrádishun] Lat, fr ex- & traditio (em), 'a delivering up, surrender' See tradition Surrender of a criminal who has taken refuge in a foreign country, to the justice of his own country, in accordance with the terms of an extradition treaty between the countries extrados, n [1 ekstrádos, 2 ekstrádos] Fr, fr extra- & dos, 'back', fr Lat dorsum See dorsal The exterior curved surface of an arch extra-mural, adj Lat See extra- & mural Lat, outside the walls, e.g. a extra mural burial; specific b relating to teachers and teaching, connected with, but not actually under the direct jurisdiction of, a university extraneous, adj [1 ekstráneus, 2 ekstráneus] Lat extraneus, 'external, strange', see extra (I) & -ous See also strange a Not related to, unconnected with, external to, different from, strange, foreign to wash extraneous matter away from gold, b (of non material things) not germane to, unrelated to that question is extraneous to the matter in hand extraneously, adv Preceded by -ly In an extraneous manner extraneousness, n See pre & -ness Quality of being extraneous extraordinarily, adv [1 ekstrórdirari, 2 íkstrórdirari] extraordinary & -ly In an extraordinary manner, to an extraordinary degree extraordinariness, n [1 ekstrórdirariness, 2 íkstrórdirariness] extraordinary & -ness Quality of being extraordinary, a remarkable, rare, eccentric, feature or quality extraordinary, adj [1 ekstrórdirari, 2 íkstrórdirari] Lat extra ordinarius, 'out of the common order' See extra- & ordinary 1 Out of the common run or order, remarkable, noteworthy, so strange as to arrest attention, and to call for remark, a (in favourable sense) outstanding, beyond the ordinary in excellence &c extraordinary genius, beauty, piety, goodness, b (in unfavourable sense) unexpected, strange and causing misgiving, incomprehensible it is most extraordinary that he has not written, c peculiar, eccentric an extraordinary mode of dress, an extraordinary appearance, d surprising, uncalled for, calling for excuse or explanation that is an extraordinary thing to say! 2 (special usage) pron [1 ekstrórdirari, 2 íkstrórdirari] ambassador, envoy, extraordinary ambassador, one employed on special mission, or under exceptional circumstances extra-parochial, adj Outside the boundaries of a parish extra-territorial, adj Outside territorial jurisdiction, extraterritorial extra-territoriality, n Extraterritoriality extravagance, -cy n [1 ekstrávgans(i), 2 íkstrávgans(i)] extravagant & -ce, -cy Quality of being extravagant In various senses 1 Profusion in spending, lavish wastefulness in expending money and substance thoughtless excessive, prodigal expenditure of money 2 Lack of moderation and propriety in conduct or expression, undisciplined excess in behaviour and speech 3 Specific instance of prodigality or excess in expenditure, conduct &c it is a sheer extravagance to ride such expensive horses, your expression is a mere colloquial extravagance extravagant, adj [1 ekstrávagant, 2 ekstrávagant] Fr, fr Lat extra- & vagant(-em), Pres Part of vagari, 'to wander, ramble, roam about' See vagary & vague Exceeding normal and reasonable bounds and limits, lacking moderation 1 (in conduct and expression) Immoderate, unrestrained, wild, excessive extravagant behaviour, extravagant laughter, to load a person with extravagant praise, extravagant abuse 2 a (of expenditure) Profuse, excessively lavish, prodigal, wasteful, thriftless, reckless, b (of persons) given to prodigal, wasteful, reckless expenditure 3 a (of demands, claims &c) Unreasonably exacting, wild, passing the limits of what is just and reasonable, b (of price asked) excessively high, out of proportion to value, exorbitant extravagantly, adv Prec & -ly In an extravagant manner (in all senses) extravaganza, n [1 ekstrávagánza, 2 ekstrávagénza] Ital stravaganza, influenced by extravagance A musical or non musical burlesque or farce characterized by wildly irregular and improbable action extravagate, vb intrans [1 ekstrávagát, 2 ekstrávagant] Lat, extra- & vagat(-um), P.P. of vagari, 'to wander about' See extravagant Not common a To wander aimlessly or widely, b to be extravagant extravasate, vb trans & intrans [1 ekstrávasát, 2 ekstrávasat] Lat, extra- & vās, 'vessel', see vase, & -ate (of action on blood, lymph &c) 1 trans To force out otherwise than through the normal channels 2 intrans To ooze, filter out (from a vein or artery), into surrounding tissue of the body, as result of bruise extravasation, n [1 ekstrávasášun, 2 ekstrávasášon] Prec & -ion Process of extravasating, result of this, as seen in a bruise extreme (I), adj [1 ekstrém, 2 ekstrím] Fr, fr Lat extrēmus, superl of exterus, 'outside, outward, external' See exterior & extra (I) 1 (relating to space) Furthest off, most remote, a at or near the edge of a flat surface the extreme border of a field, extreme limit of an area of land, b nearest to either end of a line the extreme end of a line, of a rope &c 2 (relating to time) Earliest, or (more commonly) latest, most remote from middle point of a period extreme youth, extreme old age, in one's extreme moments, just before death, extreme union, sacrament of anointing shortly before death 3 (of quality or degree) Very highest, most intense, greatest degree obtainable extreme good sense, extreme kindness, cleverness, patience, clearness &c 4 a (of opinions, temper &c) Very advanced along a particular line, immoderate in any direction to hold extreme views in politics, on Baptism, the Eucharist &c, b (of persons) holding extreme views, going beyond what the majority consider reasonable the extreme men of one generation are often considered the moderates in the next 5 (of action and expression) Very severe, going to the last limit of severity very drastic, uncompromising what he did was rather extreme, but circumstances required it, extreme measures, extreme punishment, an extreme thing to say Phr the extreme penalty (of the law), capital punishment extreme (II), adv, fr prec Now obs For extremely Such phrases as an extreme fine woman &c were common in 17th and 18th centuries extreme (III), n, fr extreme (I) 1 The extreme limit, utmost verge, extremity, now used almost entirely in non-material sense, except in the extremes of north and south and a few such phrases 2 Utmost possible, tolerable, or conceivable degree extremes of heat and cold, an extreme of fashion Phr extremes meet, used in various, often vague, senses 3 a An extreme condition, apocryphal, danger, misery, disaster &c to be constantly in extremes, b action demanded by extreme, stringent conditions to go to extremes extremely, adv extreme (I) & -ly 1 In an extreme manner, to an extreme degree it pains me extremely to have to say this 2 (colloq, used as mere intensifier) Very an extremely nice young man extremism, n [1 ekstrémizm, 2 ekstrímizm] extreme (I) & -ism The state of being extreme in opinions, the holding of extreme views extremist, n [1 ekstrémist, 2 ekstrímist] extreme (I) & -ist One who favours extreme views, esp in politics, religion &c extremity, n [1 ekstrémít, 2 ekstrímít] Fr extrémité, fr Lat extrēmítas (cm) See extreme (I) & -ity (of material things) 1 Remotest part, furthest confines of an area the furthest extremity of Africa 2 a The hands or feet his extremities grew cold as death approached, b the end, or point, of some other part of the body a pimple at the very extremity of the nose (of non material things) 3 a Very highly developed condition, greatest, most intense degree an extremity of pain and misery, b last, most severe and aggravated, degree of discomfort, suffering, poverty, embarrassment, misfortune &c to be in a dire extremity, I turn to you for help in my extremity 4 An extreme measure, drastic, severe course of action as all else has failed I must now proceed to extremities extricable, adj [1 ekstríkabl, 2 ekstríkabl] See next word & -able Capable of being extricated extricate, vb trans [1 ekstríkát, 2 ekstríkát] Lat extricāre (um), P.P. type of extricare, 'to disentangle', fr ex- & tricare (pl), 'trifles, nonsense, hindrances, perplexities', prob fr Aryan *treik- & connected with base *trek-, *terek- &c, 'to twist, wind', q v under torque, & cp torquere, 'twist' &c, fr form *trik- of this base, q v also under tort, extort 1 To disentangle, release from restraining meshes, hindrances &c the lion managed to extricate itself from the net 2 (fig) To free (a person) from perplexities, difficulties, embarrassments, dangers &c extrication, n [1 ekstríkášun, 2 ekstríkášon] Prec & -ion Act of freeing from difficulties &c, disentanglement extrinsic(al), adj [1 ekstrínsk(l), 2 ekstrínsk(l)] or, when contrasted with intrinsic [1 ekstrínsk, 2 ekstrínsk] Fr extrínseque, fr Lat extrínseque, 'from without, from abroad', fr exter-, 'outward' &c, see exterior, & secus, 'by, beside, along', orig 'following', & fr Lat base sequ, as in sequor, 'I follow', q v under second & sequela Cp also intrinsic External, lying outside, not belonging to the real character or essence, not inherent good manners are not wholly extrinsic to a refined nature and noble character extrinsically, adv Prec & -ly In an extrinsic manner, as something extrinsic extrorse, adj [1 ekstrórs, 2 ekstrórs] Lat extrorsus, 'in an outward direction', fr extra- & versus, 'turned', P.P. of vertere See version, verse, versus (bot, of anthers) Turned outwards, facing away from axis extroversion, n [1 ekstróvērshun, 2 ekstróvērshon] See prec extra- & version Act of turning outwards, condition of being so turned, specif (eurg) extroversion of the bladder &c, state of being turned inside out extrovert, n [1 ekstróvēr, 2 ekstróvēr] See prec Person psychologically averse from or not accustomed to introspection, as distinguished from introvert extrude, vb trans & intrans [1 ekstrúód, 2 ekstrúód] Lat extrudere, 'to thrust out, drive away', fr ex- & trudere, 'to push, shove', fr Aryan base *treud-, *trud-, whence also OE þreotan, 'to weary', & þreotan, 'to urge on, press, afflict, threaten' &c See further thrust & thrust 1 trans To thrust out, push away, to drive out, expel 2 intrans To be extruded extrusion, n [1 ekstrúózhun, 2 ekstrúózhun] fr Lat extrusio (um), P.P. type of extrudere See prec & -ion Act of extruding, state of being extruded, expulsion extrusive, adj [1 ekstrúósv, 2 ekstrúósv] Lat extrus-, as in prec, & -ive 1 Tending to extrude 2 (geol) Appearing on surface of the ground, as though thrust out extrusive rock exuberance, -cy, n [1 ekstrúberans(i), 2 ekstrúberans(i)] Fr exuberance, Lat exuberantia. See exuberant & -ce Quality of being exuberant, abundance, copiousness, state of overflowing (of material things) an exuberance of vegetable growth, (in non material sense) an exuberance of feeling, delight, mirth &c exuberant, adj [1 ekstrúberant, 2 ekstrúberant] Lat exuberant(-em), Pres Part of exuberare, 'to come forth in abundance, grow luxuriantly, to abound', fr ex- & uber, 'udder, fertility' See uberous & udder 1 (of material things) A growing copiously, abundantly, existing, occurring, in great abundance, excessively fertile, luxuriant exuberant growth, foliage, b (of persons) overflowing with life and spirits, (of conditions) suggestive of life and vigour exuberant health 2 (of non-material things) a Full of life, brimming over with, expressing, gaudy and good humour exuberant spirits, b (of manner) offensive, flamboyant, c (of speech and style) immoderately copious, flowery, unrestrained, too rich in ornament, d (of the mind and its processes) productive, fertile exuberant genius, imagination &c exuberantly, adv Prec & -ly In an exuberant manner, lavishly, abundantly, copiously exuberate, vb intrans [1 ekstrúberát, 2 ekstrúberát] Lat exuberat (um), P.P. type of exuberare See exuberant (rare) To abound, be exuberant exudation, n [1 ekstrúdáshun, 2 ekstrúdáshon] fr Lat exsudat (um), P.P. type of exsudare, 'to come out by sweating', & -ion See exude Act or process of exuding, that which exudes, sweat or other humours exudative, adj [1 ekstrúdatív, 2 ekstrúdatív] Lat exsudat, as in prec, & -ive Connected with exudation exude, vb intrans & trans [1 ekstrúód, 2 ekstrúód] fr Lat exsudare, 'to come out by sweating', fr ex- & sudare, 'to sweat', fr sudor, 'sweat', this is fr Aryan *soud-, & is preciously cogn with Gmc *sweat-, OE sweat, 'sweat', n, whence sweat, 'to sweat', fr sudāre See sudorific & sweat 1 intrans To come out as sweat, or like sweat, to ooze, flow out, through the pores of an animal, or through corresponding organs of a plant sweat exudes from the pores, matter from a wound, sap, moisture from leaves 2 trans To pass out through the pores &c to exude sweat, moisture &c exult, vb intrans [1 ekstrúlt, 2 ekstrúlt] Lat exultare, 'to leap about, to leap for joy, to rejoice, triumph', fr ex- & altare, 'to leap', freq of salire, 'to bound, jump' See salient To rejoice greatly, to be in high spirits, to be jubilant, to triumph gleefully to exult at, over, one's success exultancy, n [1 ekstrúltans, 2 ekstrúltans] exultant & -cy State of exulting, jubilation, triumph exultant, adj [1 ekstrúltant, 2 ekstrúltant] Lat exultant(-em), Pres Part of exultare See exult Jubilant, gleefully triumphant exultantly, adv Prec & -ly In an exultant manner, triumphantly exultation, n [1 ekstrúltášun, 2 ekstrúltášon] Lat exultat (um), P.P. type of exultare. See exult & -ion Act of exulting, jubilation, triumphant mirth exuviae, n. pl. [1 ekzúvîs, 2 ekzúvî] Lat., 'what is stripped off, clothing, cast, or stripped off skin of an animal, slough', fr same base as exuvare, 'to pull, strip, off', fr ex- & euw*, wh occurs also in Lat. induvire, 'to pull on, put on (clothes &c)' Walde suggests that a form of the same base, reduced to u- & w amplification, occurs also in Lat. vestis, 'garment', wh wd. represent vest-* fr a full grade ewes*! But the etymol. is obscure See vest Outer coverings of animals which have been cast, such as skins of snakes, shells of crustaceans &c exuvial, adj [1 ekzúvîal, 2 ekzúvîal] Pres & -al. Pertaining to, consisting of, exuviae exuviate, vb intrans [1 ekzúvîat, 2 ekzúvîat] exuviae & -ate To cast the skin, as does a snake exuviation, n. [1 ekzúvîashun, 2 ekzúvî-ei[shun]] Pres & -ion Act or process of exuviating, cast-off skin or shell ex voto, adv & n [1 eks vótô, 2 êks vótout] Lat., 'as, in fulfilment of, a vow' See voto (I) a adv In pursuance of a vow, b n, something offered on account of a vow, esp thank-offering placed in a church after safe return from a voyage, recovery from illness &c eyas, n [1 ías, 2 días], for a nius, fr Fr, 'nestling', fr Low Lat. nidus em* fr Lat. nidus, 'nest' See nidus A nestling, specif, a young hawk taken from the nest eye (I), n [1 í, 2 aî] OE éage, ME eye, íze, ýe. The Gmo type was augôn*, as is shown by the OE, & further by OS ôga, OHG ouga, Mod. Germ. auge Goth augô, stem augôn The cognates outside Gmc show that the diphthong is peculiar to Gmo, e.g. Lat. oculus, Gk. ôlos, 'eye', Scrt. ákṣ, O Slav oko, O Prussian akis &c The au in the Gmo type of this word may be best accounted for by assuming that it has been influenced by the word for ear, Goth ausô, OE ears &c, where the au is orig., see ear (I) The close association in mind & speech between eye & ear is quite sufficient to explain the influence of the old form of the latter upon the former See ocular, oculist optic 1 A The organ of sight to look an eye, b (hytransf) the eyesight itself to injure one's eyes, to have sharp, weak, eyes, c that part of the head or face around, or near the eye to hit a man give him one, in the eye, a black eye Phrs, to keep one's, an, eye on, to observe, look after, to keep one's, both, eyes wide open, to be on the alert, (colloq) to do in the eye, to cheat, all my eye, all nonsense, up to the eyes in (business &c), much occupied, overwhelmed with, mind your eye, look out, be careful, in the eye of the law, as the law regards it, oh my eye!, exclamation of surprise &c, the mind's eye, memory, in the eye of the wind, dead against this wind, to see something with half an eye, see it easily because it is obvious, to clap eyes on, to look at, see, to make a person open his eyes, surprise him, to open a person's eyes to something, make him aware of it, bring it to his notice, to feast one's eyes on, to look at with delight, to run one's eye over, glance at, survey, hastily, to be unable to take one's eyes off, fascinated by, view with admiration, one in the eye (fig), a snub, rebuff, with the naked eye, without the help of glasses. 2 The external, visible portion of the eye, considered as a feature, specif, the iris to have lovely eyes, blue eyes &c Phr to make eyes at, to look meaningfully at, to ogle, sheep's eyes, amorous glances 3 Power of observation by eye, keenness of visual perception to have an eye for colour, for a pretty girl, where are your eyes? Phrs to have an eye in one's head, an eye for business, for the main chance, the eye of a painter &c 4 One of various objects resembling, or supposed to resemble, an eye, a bud, shoot on a plant, spot in a potato tuber whence new plants arise, b small metal loop for fastening clothes &c hook and eye, c loop, often having metal lining, at the end of a rope, d hole drilled in a needle, for holding thread, e the glass of a pair of spectacles eye (II), vb trans, fr free To look at, survey, carefully and narrowly, to stare at, to glance at frequently eyeball, n [1 íbawí, 2 aíbí] The globular body comprising the eye and all the structures enclosed in the cornea eyebright, n [1 íbrít, 2 díbrat] Small white flower, the suphrasy eyebrow, n. [1 íbrú, 2 díbrú] a Bony ridge over the eye, b the arched row of hairs growing thereon eyed, adj [1 íd, 2 aíd] eye (I) & -ed Having eyes, furnished with spots like eyes eyeglass, n [1 íglah, 2 díglah] Any of various contrivances with lenses for assisting the sight, a a single glass for fixing in the eye orbit, monocle b usually eyeglasses, pair of lenses connected by bar which passes across or rests upon the top of the bridge of the nose, pince nez, spectacles, c the eye piece of telescope, field glass, or microscope eye-hole, n 1 The eye orbit 2 Hole in anything through which the eye looks eyelash, n [1 ílash, 2 dílash] One of the hairs which fringe the eyelids, eyelashes, the whole of those collectively eyeless, adj [1 íles, 2 aíl] eye (I) & -less Looking eyes, blind 'Eyeless in Gaza, at the mill with slaves' (Milton, 'Samson') eyelid, n [1 ílet, 2 aílít] ME oileit, O Fr oileit, 'little eye', fr oíl, 'eye' The spilling influenced by eye a Small hole worked in the material of a garment, through which a cord or hook is passed for fastening garment, b hole strengthened with metal ring, in a sail, neck sheet &c, through which a rope is passed, c metal ring which lines this hole eyelid, n [1 ílíd, 2 aílíd] Movable flap of tissue which protects the eye eyemark, n [1 ímark, 2 aímák] Mark for the eye, a spectacle eye-opener, n (colloq) a A surprising event, action, or narrative of such, which startles and disconcerts, b something, an action or event, which reveals some fact, circumstances, or state of mind hitherto unknown, something which opens one's eyes to facts &c eye-piece, n The lens or combination of lenses in a telescope, microscope &c, through which the eye looks directly eye-service, n That performed only while the master is watching eyeshot, n. [1 íshot, 2 díshot] Reach of eye, range of vision within eyeshot Cp earshot eye-sore, n. Something unpleasant or offensive to the eye eye-splice, n One made in forming a loop with the end of a rope eye-tooth n One of the so called canine teeth in upper jaw eyewash, n [1 íwash, 2 díwash] a Lotion for the eyes, b (elarg) something done to impress an observer, which is either not done at all except under inspection, or which is of no practical utility eye witness, n Person who actually sees an action performed, or an event happening eyot n [1 áit, 2 aít], also aít OE ígeod, spelt eyt in early ME, 'little island', dimin of OE éy, íy, 'island' The suff is apparently influenced by O Fr dimin -ot Small island, esp in the Thames eyre, n [1 ár, 2 aý] ME, fr O Fr ere, 'journey, circuit, way', op O Fr erir, 'to journey', fr L Lat iterare, fr itinerare, iter, 'a journey' See iterate Journey, circuit, used chiefly in connexion with the itinerant justices of Henry II, known as Justices in Eyre eyrie eyry n See asrie

F

F, f [1 ef, 2 af] The sixth letter of the alphabet, for use in abbreviation, symbols &c see end of Dictionary, (mus) fourth note in scale of C major fa, n [1 fah, 2 fâ] Fourth of the syllables used in solmization, q v, the fourth note of the scale fabaceous adj [1 fabíashus, 2 fóbí[es]] fr Lat fabaceus, fr faba, 'bean', cogn w O Slav bobí, O Prussian babo, 'bean', relation w bean doubtful (bot) Of, pertaining to a plant family, Fabaceae, more or less identical with Leguminosae, of which the typical species is Faba vulgaris, the broad bean Fabian, n & adj [1 fábian, 2 fébian], fr Lat Fabianus fr the name of the Roman general Quintus Fabius, styled Cunctator, the delayer, one of the commanders against Hannibal 1 n. Member of socialist society founded in England in 1884, which advocates the gradual spreading of socialist principles by peaceful means 2 adj a Employing, characterized by, cautious and dilatory methods to attain desired object (of military tactics and also of methods generally), b connected with, pertaining to, Fabians and their society Fabian Society fable (I), n. [1 fábl, 2 fébl], fr Lat fábula, 'narrative, account, story', fr base of fari, 'to speak', & fama, 'a report', Aryan bha*, 'to speak' See fame, fate 1 A short tale intended to convey a moral, usually with animals or inanimate objects as actors Aesop's Fables 2 A historical legend or myth 3 A statement having no basis in fact, a fiction, fantastic report, trumped up story 4 (rare, archaic) The plot of a drama, epic &c fable (II), vb intrans, fr O Fr fabler, fr Lat fabulārī, 'to speak', fr fábula, 'a speech, tale' See prec To invent fictions, relate, and spread fictitious tales, to romance fabled, adj [1 fáblíd, 2 féblíd] fr PP of prec Invented, fictitious, mythical, legendary fabian, n. [1 fábbí, 2 fáblíou] fr Low Lat fabulillus*, dimin of fábula, 'story' &c See fable Medieval French tale in verse, of a humorous and often of a coarse character fabric, n. [1 fábrík, 2 fábrík] fr Fr, fr Lat fabrica, 'a workshop, something constructed by a skilled workman, a building', fr faber,

'a worker in wood, stone &c, an artificer' Lat fab is fr Aryan base dhabh*, dhabh*, 'to make suitable, fit together make beautiful' &c, fr same base comes Gmc dab*, as in Goth gadaban, 'to suit', & OE ge dafnan, to be fitting, becoming, also ge dafen, suitable, fitting, right', & ge dafle, 'gentle meek' See further under daft & deft The general meaning is something put together, from originally separate elements, with plan and design, so as to form a unity, something having construction 1 a A building, structure 'From the earth a fabric huge Rose like an exhalation' (Milton) b The actual construction, framework walls &c of a building as distinct from its decoration 2 (of non material things) Mode of construction, framework, essential character of an institution, system &c the fabric of society 3 a Woven material of silk, wool, cotton &c silk and woollen fabrics, b the manner in which material is woven, quality, texture a cloth of expensive fabric, (also attrib) fabric gloves, gloves made of textile, woven material, as cotton &c.

fabricate, vb trans [1 fábríkat, 2 fábríkest], fr Lat fabricāre (um), PP type of Lat fabricāre, 'to make, construct', fr fabrica, 'construction'. See proo 1 a To construct, make, manufacture, to put parts together to form a complete object, b to imitate with intent to deceive, fake, forge to fabricate a false will, to fabricate sham flint arrow heads &c 2 To invent falsely, trump up, concoct to fabricate a charge fabrication, n [1 fábríkashun, 2 fábríkéisən] Prec & -ion 1 The act of fabricating, state of being fabricated 2 Something fabricated, a (of material things) a forgery, sham, counterfeit, b an invention, fictitious statement his story was an entire fabrication fabulist, n [1 fábulíst, 2 fábulíst], fr Fr fabuliste, fr Lat fabula, 'a speech, tale', see fable (I), & -ist 1 A composer, inventor, of fables 2 (rarely) One who invents false tales and reports, a liar fabulosity, n [1 fábulositi, 2 fábulósiti], fr Lat fabulosus (us), 'fabulous' (& -ity), fr fabul (a), 'a speech, fable', see fable (I), & -ous The quality of being fabulous fabulous, adj [1 fábulus, 2 fábulús], fr Lat fabul (a), 'a speech, story'. See fable & -ous 1 Belonging to, resembling, a fable, unhistorical, legendary, mythical a fabulous story, the unicorn, griffin, and other fabulous beasts 2 Beyond the limit of belief, incredible, exaggerated, hence, very large, extensive fabulous wealth, a house of fabulous size 3 Given to the composition of fables a fabulous writer &c fabulously, adv Prec & -ly In a fabulous manner, as a fable fabulousness, n See proo & -ness The quality of being fabulous facade, n [1 fasád, 2 fasád], Fr, fr face (I) & -ade The front, principal face, of a building face (I), n [1 fás, 2 fás], fr Fr, fr Low Lat facia, 'face, appearance', fr Lat facies, 'form, figure, shape, face, visage, outward appearance, look, aspect'. The word is fr same base as Lat fax, 'torch', stem fac-, 'to shine'. See also facet & facetious 1 A front of head, esp of human head, from top of forehead to point of chin, including cheeks and features, countenance, Phrs to fly in the face of, defy rashly, to look a person in the face, look steadily at, (fig) to be unable to look one in the face, to feel shame in presence of, to save (one's) face, escape shame, disgrace, or humiliation, to show one's face, appear, face to face with, in the presence of, confronting, in the face of, in the presence of, confronting, in spite of, to one's face, openly, in one's presence, to set one's face against, disapprove of, oppose, b expression, look, cast of countenance a sad face, a face of anger, Phrs to make, pull, a face, to grimace, to pull a long face, to look dismal, disapproving &c, to put a bold face on (a situation &c), carry off boldly and with a confident manner 2 (fig) Audacity, impudence, impertinence, chiefly in such Phr as, to have the face to say, do &c, be impudent enough to 3 (of circumstances, situations) Outward appearance, first impression gained by superficial examination Phrs on the face of it, judging by appearances, at the first blush, to put a new face on a matter, cause to appear different, cause to produce different impression 4 a Surface, outer part on the face of the earth, face of a door, of cloth &c, b speed, hard, smooth outer surface out on dressed stone 5 a The right side, most important side or surface, of anything, that side of an object which is designed for some special purpose the face of a building, house, face of a card, the side on which the marks of value are, Phr to lie on its face, wrong side up, b speed (printing) that surface of type with which the impression is made 6 Dial of a clock or watch face (II), vb trans & intrans, fr proo A trans 1 a (of persons and other living beings) To be turned towards, have one's face and gaze directed towards, be opposite to the man now facing me is the one I mean, to face the enemy, Phr to face the music, be ready to undergo examination, trial &c, b (of inanimate objects) to be oriented, turned towards, to look in particular direction the house faces the south, the window faces the street, sea &c, the illustration should face p 30 of the book 2 a To dare, have courage, to come face to face with, to confront, oppose to face an opponent boldly, and refute him, also face up to, to face a lion and put him to flight, b (fig) to undergo with courage, to brave, stand up to, not to be afraid of, or disconcerted by he had faced risks, dangers, and death a hundred times, I can't face the disgrace of failure 3 To recognize existence of, and be prepared to meet we've got to face facts, the new circumstances must be faced, also face up to 4 To put a facing on to, a to apply, fasten, a layer of a different material on to outer surface of to face a building with marble, a cabinet with a veneer of rose wood &c, b to attach facings, trimmings, ornaments to to face a coat with gold braid 5 To put a hard, smooth outer surface on (stone), to dress this stone has not been properly faced B intrans 1 To be oriented, look, be turned How does your house face? It faces (to the) north 2 (mil) To turn the body in given direction, using heels as a pivot, without shifting one's ground right face!, word of command

-faced, adj [1 fást, 2 fást] face (I) & -ed Having a face of specified character, shape &c double-faced facer, n [1 fásér, 2 fásér] face (I) & -er a severe blow in the face, b hence, anything that disconcerts, a sudden difficulty, problem facet, n [1 fásét, 2 fásét], fr Fr facette face (I) & -ette a One of many small plane surfaces into which precious stones are cut, and which many crystals have naturally, b similar surface in compound eye of insect faceted, adj [1 fáseted, 2 fáseted] Prec & -ed Having facets facetiae, n [1 fáséhí, 2 fásíj] Lat, plur of facies, 'jest, witicism', fr facies, 'elegant, courteous, polite, witty, humorous' See facetious 1 Pleasantries, witticisms 2 Booksellers' term for books of a coarse or obscene character facetious, adj [1 fásíshus, 2 fásíj] fr Fr, fr Lat faci (us), 'elegant, polite, witty', see proo & -ous From same base as Lat fax, 'torch', & facies, 'countenance' Cp face (I) The orig meaning of the base is 'shining, brilliant' Jocular, waggish, playfully humorous facetiously, adv Prec & -ly In a facetious manner facetiousness, n See proo & -ness The quality of being facetious facia, n [1 fásba, 2 fásba] See fascia Flat plate or board on shop front, exhibiting owner's name &c facial, adj [1 fásíal, 2 fásíj], fr Med. Lat faciālis (us), fr Lat faci (us), 'face, appearance' See face (I) & -al Of, pertaining to, the face facial expression, contour &c facial angle, n (anthrop) That formed by intersection of a line drawn from base of skull outwards to base of nostril, with another drawn so as to pass from outside most prominent part of forehead to base of nostril

-facient, suff representing Lat -facient (em), Pres Part of -facere, 'to make', added to intrans vbs in -s(re), to give trans meaning, 'to cause to become', forms adjs lique-facient &c See fact facile, adj [1 fásíl, -il, 2 fáséál, -il], fr Fr, fr Lat facilis, 'easy, yielding, compliant', ultimately the word means 'doable' & is fr base fac-, as in facere, 'to make, do' &c See fact 1 Easily done, easily gained a facile victory 2 (of work, expression &c) Not requiring strenuous effort, showing signs of easy, rapid performance, hence, a fluent, easy, ready a facile style, facile verse &c, b (in unfavourable sense) hasty, superficial, glib, c (of persons) capable of producing facile work (in both senses) 3 (of persons) Phlegm, easily swayed, easy-going facile princeps, adj [1 fásíl prínsép, 2 fásíl prínsép] Lat Easily first, or pre-eminent facilitate, vb trans [1 fásilitát, 2 fásilitat], fr Lat facilit (as), 'easiness, facility'. See facility & -ate To make easy, lessen difficulty of, further, promote facilitation, n [1 fásilitáshun, 2 fásilitésən] Prec & -ion The act or process of facilitating facility, n. [1 fásilita, 2 fásiliti], fr Fr facilité, fr Lat facilitat (-em), 'easiness, fluency, willingness, affability', fr facil (is), 'easy'. See facile & -ity 1 (somewhat rare) Absence of difficulty, ease 2 a Quality of mind which makes understanding and learning easy, aptitude, special talent to have great facility in learning languages, b physical dexterity, deftness he showed marvellous facility in playing difficult music 3 Circumstances conducive to the easy accomplishment of an object, opportunity, assistance my way of life offers no facilities for study, the accused was accorded every facility for producing evidence in his favour facing, n [1 fásing, 2 fásíj] face (II) & -ing 1 Outer layer, coating, of different material a brick wall with a facing of stone 2 (pl) a Trimmings, ornamentation &c, fastened on to a garment, made of different colour or material from thus a black coat with red silk facings, specul b regimental facings, distinctively coloured collars, collar &c 3 (pl, mil) Turning movements carried out by soldier in drilling Phr to put soldiers through their facings, to test their knowledge of, and smartness in, drill, (fig) to put a person through his facings, test his readiness, knowledge of, anything facinorous, adj [1 fásínorus, 2 fásínoras], fr Lat facinorosus, fr facinus, 'a deed', esp 'a wicked deed, crime', fr facere, 'to do'. See fact & -ous (archaic or rare) Wicked, criminal, atrocious facsimile (I), n [1 faksímil, 2 faksímil] Lat fac, imperat aug of facere, 'to make', see fact, & simile, nent of similis, 'like', see similar An exact copy, absolutely accurate reproduction a facsimile of a manuscript, picture, seal &c, a facsimile edition of a manuscript, book &c Phr in facsimile, exactly, accurately facsimile (II), vb trans, fr proo To reproduce in facsimile fact, n [1 fák, 2 fák], fr Lat fact (um), 'something done, a deed, act', fr PP type of facere, 'to do, make', fr Araya base dhē*, dhā* &c, 'to place, put'. From this base comes also Gk ti-thēmi, 'I put, place', Sort a dhām, 'I put', OE dēn, 'to do' &c See do, deed, thesis The base is extended by the formative element i in Lat facere &c, op also perf fēc, w wh cp Gk thēlē, case to put something in', Sort dhākaś, 'place where something is kept', all fr type dhēl* 1 Something done, a deed, act, something that has happened, an event, now only in Phr before, after, the fact, to confess the fact 2 Something, some object, or condition that actually exists in space, an event, mental or physical, that has actually occurred, something which has been experienced poverty and crime are solid facts which have to be reckoned with 3 An event asserted to have happened, action alleged to have been done, something alleged as a truth the facts are as follows, it is not a fact that Scotsmen cannot see a joke, b the statement of such assumed events I dispute all your facts 4 The quality of being actual, reality, actuality, quality of being established by actual experience, as distinguished from theory, speculation, or the creation of fancy a story founded on fact c to distinguish fact from fiction Phrs as a matter of fact, in point of fact, in fact, really, actually, the fact of the matter is, the truth about the matter is 5 (law) A circumstance presented as part of a case in a court of law as having actually occurred, and proved by evidence, as distinguished from the legal effect or bearing of such occurrence questions of fact are for the jury, questions of law for the judge to decide faction, n [1 fákshun, 2 fákshən], fr Fr, fr Lat factiō (em), 'a making, preparing, a company, class, set, a political party', fr fact (um), PP type of facere, 'to make' See fact & -ion 1 A group of persons within a larger community, who dissociate themselves from the opinions and ideals commonly held, especially a discontented section, clique, cabal, within a political party the petty factions into which a once great party has split 2 Spirit, principle, of dissension, party or sectional strife serious political controversy degenerated into mere faction

-faction, suff forming ns, fr Lat vbs in -facere, fr PP type -fact (um) & -ion satisfaction, stupefaction &c Occasionally forming ns fr Lat vbs in -ficare, e.g. peirifaction, instead of -fication factional, adj [1 fákshunl, 2 fákshənl] faction & -al Pertaining to faction, or to a faction factious, adj [1 fákshus, 2 fákshəs], fr Lat factios (us), factious, seditious, fr factio (nem), see faction, & -ous Addicted to faction, tending to promote dissension, seditious factiously, adv Preo & -ly In a factious manner factiousness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being factious factitious, adj [1 fákshus, 2 fákshəs], fr Lat factici (us), 'made by art, artificial', fr fact (um), PP type of facere, 'to make' See fact & -ous 1 Artificial, as contrasted with natural, sham, unreal, spurious factitious enthusiasm 2 Arising from, adapted to, a conventional, artificial standard factitious taste factitiously, adv Preo & -ly In a factitious manner factitiousness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being factitious factitive, adj [1 fákshiv, 2 fákshitiv], fr Lat factit (äre), 'to do frequently, practise, to make, declare, a person something', freq vb fr fact (um), PP type of facere, 'to make' See fact & -ive (gram) Causal, factitive verbs are those expressing the ideas of calling, making, thinking, speaking generally, these verbs express result of an action which produces a new condition, whether in reality or in thought he made his brother king, to call a man a fool, to think one's wife an angel factitively, adv Preo & -ly As a factitive verb factor, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto], fr Fr, fr Lat factor, 'a maker, doer, performer', fr fact (um), PP type of facere, 'to make, do' See fact & -or 1 A An agent, deputy, representative, b one who transacts business for others, on commission, c (Scots) a land agent, steward of estate 2 (math) Any of the numbers or quantities which, when multiplied together, form a product 3 A An element constituent ingredient which enters into the composition of anything, especially something non material wealth may be a factor of happiness, b something which helps to bring about a particular result, an element, influence, contributing force, determining cause, in a process evolutionary factors factorage, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto] Preo & -age Commission payable to a factor (1, b) factorial, n & adj [1 fákto, 2 fákto] factor & -ial 1 N The product of a given series of consecutive integers from 1 upwards 2 adj Pertaining to a factorial factory, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto] factor & -y 1 (orig sense) Merchant's or factor's trading station in a foreign country 2 A building or group of buildings where articles of commerce are manufactured, a manufactory, workshop, Factory Acts, statutes dealing with and regulating conditions of work, such as ventilation, safety of machinery, fire protection, working hours &c, in the interests of those employed factotum, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto] Med Lat, fr Lat fac, imper sing of facere, 'to do', see fact, & totum, neut sing of totus, 'all', see total A servant who performs duties of the most varied kind for his master, a man of all work, handy man factual, adj [1 fákto, 2 fákto] fact & -al on anal of actual Pertaining to facts, of the nature of a fact factum, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto] Lat See fact Statement of facts, memorandum summarizing the chief points in a case (French legal term) facula, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto], fr Lat facula, 'a little torch', dimin fr fac, the base of fax, 'a torch' See fac (X) & -ule One of the brilliant streaks on the sun's disk facular, adj [1 fákto, 2 fákto] Lat facula, 'a torch', see preo, & -ar Pertaining to a facula faculous, adj [1 fákto, 2 fákto] See preo & -ous Facular facultative, adj [1 fákto, 2 fákto] Fr, fr Lat facultat (em), 'power' See next word & -ive Optional, permissive, contingent (A French usage) faculty, n [1 fákto, 2 fákto], fr Fr, fr Lat facultät (em), 'capability, power, abundance, plenty', fr Lat facil (is), 'easy' See facile & -ty 1 (archaic) Capacity, aptitude, for any form of action or performance 2 Special inherent gift, proficiency, aptitude, of mind or character to have a, or the faculty of making friends, of making oneself agreeable, for doing and saying the right thing, intelligence the mental faculties 3 A Natural function of a particular organ of the body the faculty of vision, touch &c, b one of the powers or special functions of the mind the faculty of speech 4 A One of the great, main divisions of knowledge (formerly Divinity, Law, Medicine, Arts) which make up the studies of a university, b the organized body of recognized teachers, of all ranks, who represent each of these, and similar divisions or branches of knowledge, in a university, c (popular) the faculty, the medical profession. 5 (law) Dispensation, license, authorization to do something, specif (schools) such authorization granted by the Chancellor of a Diocese fad, n [1 fed, 2 fad] Etymol unknown A whim, craze, a fanciful, unreasoning enthusiasm for something, a queer notion strongly held for a short time, a fussy insistence on some habit or custom, a crotchety to have a fad for keeping pigs, the present taste in poetry among the young is a mere passing fad, to be full of fads and fancies faddiness, n [1 fadness, 2 fadness] faddy & -ness The quality of being faddy faddish, adj [1 fadish, 2 fadish] fad & -ish Inclined to be faddy faddishness, n Preo & -ness The quality of being faddy faddism, n [1 fadizm, 2 fadizm] fad & -ism Faddiness faddist, n [1 fadist, 2 fadist] fad & -ist One who is given to fads faddy, adj [1 fadi, 2 fadi] fad & -y Given to fads, exaggeratedly insistent upon one's whims and fancies fade, vb intrans & trans [1 fad, 2 fed], fr O Fr fader, fr fada, 'dull', prob fr Lat rapidum, lit 'that which has emitted steam, which has lost its spirit, flat, insipid', connected w vapor, 'exhalation, steam', See vapid & vapour A intrans 1 (of living things) To lose strength, vigour, freshness, droop, wither, to wane the flowers have faded, beauty fades, faded youth 2 (of sensuous impressions) To become weaker, fainter, less distinct, disappear gradually, a (of visual impressions) to become dim, less visible, less bright the vision, light, glow, outline, has faded, the colours fade into one another, pass by imperceptible gradations one into another, become blended, b (of sounds) to grow less loud or clear, become inaudible, die away the music, tones of the voice, faded in the distance 3 (of colour and coloured things) To lose intensity, become paler and less vivid, to lose colour 4 (of mental and emotional impressions) To become faint, to be eliminated, pass away from the consciousness love had faded from his heart, the idea has faded from my mind, all memory of the past has faded B trans To cause to lose intensity of colour, to take the colour out of the sun has faded the (colour of the) curtains fadeless, adj [1 fädles, 2 fädles] Preo & -less A Unfading, not liable to fade, b incapable of being faded fadelessly, adv Preo & -ly So as not to fade or become faded faecal, adj [1 fäkal, 2 fäkal], fr Lat faec, stem of faex, 'grounds, sediment, dregs' See next word & -al Pertaining to faeces, chiefly in expression faecal matter faeces, n [1 fäsez, 2 fäsez] Lat, pl of faex, 'grounds, sediment, dregs' Origin unknown. Waste matter, excrement, from the bowels faeces, faery, n & adj [1 färi, 2 färi] Old spelling of fairy M E faerie means 'enchantment' See fay 1 n Fairyland, enchantment 2 adj a Of the faeries, fairylike, b imaginary, visionary flag (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fag, 2 fag] Origin unknown Skeat suggests that the word is a variant of flag (I), 'to droop' &c A trans 1 To weary, fatigue, exhaust to be flagged out 2 (at public schools) To employ (boy) as a flag B intrans 1 To work laboriously, toil, slave to flag (away) at accounts 2 (at school) To act as a flag flag (II), n See preo 1 A Laborious work, toil, tedious or exhausting occupation what a flag!, it's too much (of a) flag, b fatigue, weariness, exhaustion 2 (at public school) Lower form boy who performs certain tasks for a senior 3 (slang) Cigarette In this sense back formation from flag end flagaceous, adj [1 fagshus, 2 fagshəs], fr Lat fagus, 'beech', & -aceous, for stymol & cognates see beech (bot) Of, pertaining to, the Fagaceae, the order of plants which includes the beech, typical genus Fagus, the oak and chestnut flag-end, n Last and inferior part of anything, remnant faggot (I), fagot, n [1 fägot, 2 fägot], fr Fr fagot, Ital fagotto The hase is fag, the ending being a dimin suff Meyer-Lübke suggests that fag is a back formation fr Gk phakēlos, 'humble', the etymol of wh is uncertain A A bundle of sticks for use as fuel, b a bundle of iron or steel rods, c kind of savoury rissole sold at pork butcher's faggot (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans To bind up into faggots 2 intrans To make faggots faggot-vote, n One obtained by a person who not having the necessary property qualification, bed sufficient property conveyed to him temporarily to enable him to vote faggot-voter, n Person using a faggot-vote Fahrenheit, n [1 färehait, 2 färehait], fr name of inventor Type of thermometer principally used in England, in which freezing point is reckoned at 32°, and the boiling point 212° faience, n [1 fähyóns, 2 fävis] Fr, fr name of Italian town, Faenza A kind of glazed and painted porcelain fail (X), n, [1 fäl, 2 feil], fr O Fr faile, n, fr faillir, 'to fail, deceive' See next word. Failure, only in Phr without fail, for certain.

fail (II), vb intrans & trans, fr O Fr faillir, fr Low Lat fallere, fr Lat fallere, 'to deceive, cheat, disappoint, fail'. Prob cogn w Gk. phélos, 'decentful', phélos, 'I deceive', other cognates are doubtful, but see false A intrans 1 To be insufficient, inadequate, in amount, to come short of normal or expected supply the potato crop has failed this year, our water supply has failed Phrs (with indirect object) time would fail me, would be too short, my heart failed me, I grew frightened, words fail me, I don't know what to say or how to say it 2 A To grow weak, lose vigour, deteriorate, diminish in strength his health, sight, has failed sadly of late, b (of persons) to grow feeble, become languid and weak in health, lose vitality he is very old and failing rapidly 3 To come short of, be wanting, defective a in performance of an obligation he fails greatly in the respect due to his elders, b in possession of some mental or moral quality he has plenty of ability, but fails in truthfulness Phr don't fail to let me know when you return &c, don't omit to 4 A To be unable to do something which one has attempted, to be unsuccessful in doing something or attaining some object in spite of our efforts we failed to reach the top of the mountain, he failed to obtain the post he sought, Phr I fail to see, am unable to understand, b spoof, to be unsuccessful in passing, be ploughed in, a test or examination to fail in the degree examination 5 To be unable to meet one's financial obligations, to become bankrupt B trans 1 To disappoint person's hopes, not to render a person services expected, be lacking in one's support of, desert as usual he failed me at the last minute 2 (colloq, of examinee) To cause to fail in an examination, to decide and declare a candidate that is unsuccessful in an examination the examiners have failed half the candidates failing (I), n [1 fáilg, 2 fáilg] Preo & -ing Weakness, defect, imperfection, fault, shortcoming we all have our little failings failing (II), prop, fr Pres Part of fail (II) Used in absolute construction Without, in default of failing an answer to my letter by tomorrow I shall telegraph failure, n [1 fáilr, 2 fáilr] fail (II) & -ure 1 A Shortage, a running short, inadequacy, insufficiency failure of crops, of supplies, b a dwindling, diminution, falling off in vigour and vitality a failure in health 2 Lack of success, fact of not attaining one's object, of not succeeding in an attempt all his efforts met with, ended in, failure 3 A Action which does not attain its object, an unsuccessful effort the attack was a failure, b thing which does not fulfil expectations, which does not answer its purpose my new electric pump has turned out a failure, a person who fails, is unsuccessful in what he attempts Gray was a failure as a professor at Cambridge 4 A Non performance of action which was necessary, expected, incumbent upon one a failure to do what one has promised, b neglect, omission, dereliction a failure in duty 5 Financial inadequacy, inability to meet liability, bankruptcy fain (I), adj [1 fán, 2 fén] O E fágen, 'glad, rejoicing', M E fain, 'joyful', fr Gmc fag-, fax-, op Goth fah eps, 'joy', & Goth fag inon, 'to rejoice', related to O E (ge) féon, fr feh on*, 'to rejoice', op O H G (gu-) fekan, 'to rejoice', this group of words is related more or less closely to a very large group in Lat somewhat differentiated in meaning See further on the Gmc type under fair (II), fang, & on the Lat &c under pax & pact 1 (pred, chiefly poet) Inclined, disposed, ready, willing, glad our hearts were fain 2 (pred followed by to) Compelled, forced, under the necessity of he was fain to comply with their demands fain (II), adv, fr preo Gladly, with joy, only with would in such Phr as he would fain depart, would be glad to fain (III), fains, vb Etymol unknown In schoolboy formula, fain I Supposed to secure exemption from some undesired task or duty for those who utter it soon enough, e.g. fain I keeping goal &c fainéant, adj & n [1 fáinon, 2 féinead], fr Fr fainéant, as though fr foi(re), 'to do', & O Fr neant, 'nothing', in reality by popular etymol fr O Fr foignant, 'idler', fr foindre Sss feign 1 adj Idle, in active, inefficient 2 n An inactive, inefficient person faint (I), adj [1 fánt, 2 féint] M E faint, feint, O Fr feint, P P of feindre, 'to feign' Sss feign 1 a (of actions) Feeble, impotent, weak, ineffectual to make a faint struggle, effort, attempt, b (of character) timid, lacking in vigour, courage, unenterprising Phr faint heart never won fair lady, nothing valuable can be secured without courage and confidence 2 (of movement and bodily powers) a Weak, exhausted, faltering, failing his strength ebbed and grew faint, the beating of the heart, the breathing, became fainter, b spoof, dizzy, on the point of fainting to feel faint 3 a (of anything affecting the bodily senses) Lacking in distinctness, not making a vivid impression, dull, dim, indistinct a faint tinge of pink, a faint sound, a faint resemblance, Phr ruled faint (also feint), of paper with fine faint rulings to guide the writing, b (of mental processes) vague, dim, slight to have a faint, not the faintest, idea of, faint praise, not the faintest hope faint (II), vb intrans, fr preo 1 (archaic) To lose heart, be discouraged, grow weak. 2 A To languish and droop, grow weak and nerveless from overstraining, fatigue, hunger &c, b spoof, to be seized with temporary failure of heart's action, to experience vertigo, nausea, to become temporarily unconscious, to swoon faint (III), n, fr preo The act of fainting, fainting fit, swoon Phr a dead faint, complete unconsciousness from fainting faint-hearted, n A faint-hearted person faint-hearted, adj faint (I) & hearted Timid, timorous, cowardly, feeble, poor-spirited faint-heartedly, adv Preo & -ly In a faint-hearted manner faint-heartedness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being faint-hearted faintish, adj [1 fántsh, 2 féintsh] faint (I) & -ish Somewhat faint faintly, adv [1 fántli, 2 féintli] faint (I) & -ly In a faint manner faintness, n [1 fántnes, 2 féintnes] faint (I) & -ness The state of being faint faints, n [1 fánts, 2 fénts], fr faint (I) Impure spirit appearing at beginning and end of distillation fair (I), n [1 fáir, 2 féar], fr O Fr seire, Mod Fr. seire, fr Lat seire, 'holidays, festivals', prob fr earlier fes*, wh occurs also in Lat festum, 'holiday, festival', q v under feast See also fane a Gathering, accompanied by entertainments and merry-making, which takes place at fixed periods and in fixed places, authorized and determined by statute, for sale of cattle, agricultural produce, and articles of various kinds which are generally specially brought together for the purpose by farmers and traders from different parts, Phr a day too late for the fair, too late for some important event or occasion, b sale of small fancy articles in aid of some charitable or religious purpose fair (II), adj O E fáger, 'beautiful, pleasant, sweet', M E seire &c, cogn w O H G fagar, Goth fagars, 'fair, beautiful' The orig sense seems to be 'well put together, well fitted, justly proportioned' The above forms are all fr Gmc type fag-, related to wh, w different vowel grade, is Gmc fög, whence O E (ge-) fagan, 'to join together, put together, unite, fix', fr fög* join, O H G fuogen, 'join, unite' Gmc fag*, fög*, represent respectively Aryan pak-, pák, meaning perh orig 'to twine, weave, bind', whence Lat pác (em), 'peace, union, agreement, concord', fr pác, q v under pax, also pactum, 'agreement, covenant', see pact Side by side w the bases ending in -k, there seem also to have existed types pag-, póg- &c, as in Lat págus, 'country district, village', orig 'a limited space', w the idea of 'containing, grouping together', see further under pagan Another related word is Lat página, 'page of a book', lit 'something bound, put, together, with others', see page (II), op Gk. pég nemi, 'I fasten together, make firm, build' Cp also fain (I) 1 a (chiefly poet) Beautiful, lovely *would that all men were brave, and all women fair, how fair the scene on which we gaze, Phr the fair sex, for one, a beautiful and beloved woman, (poet, archaic) the fair, (i) woman kind, (ii) some specific woman, b clear, clean, fresh, unsullied, free from blemish fair water, a fair copy, a clean end and perfect one, (also fig) fair name, fame, c (of the weather) fine, bright, dry, as distinct from wet, rainy, cloudy, d favourable, propitious, promising, advantageous, Phr to be in a fair way to, be likely to, have a reasonable chance of, e specious, persuasive, plausible he gives us fair words, but does little 2 a (of the mind, judgement, character) Impartial, just, imbued with justice, b (of action and conduct) inspired by, proceeding from, a just and impartial mind, equitable for play, straight forward honest conduct, c (of human beings) having an impartial, just mind, acting in just, equitable, honourable manner strict but fair 3 Moderate, pretty good, tolerable, passable a fair chance of success, his knowledge is fair, but by no means perfect 4 a Light coloured, blond, contrasted with dark fair hair, complexion &c, b (of persons) having fair hair &c* fair (III), adv, fr preo 1 Honestly, in accordance with what is just and equitable, according to the rules of the game &c to play, fight, fair Phr to bid fair to, show likelihood of 2 Politely, courteously, persuasively to speak a person fair 3 Straight, directly to strike a man fair on the chin fair-haired, adj fair (II) & haired Having fair, light coloured hair fairly, adv [1 fárlí, 2 féarlí] fairly & -ly In a fairly-like manner fairing, n [1 fáring, 2 féaring] fair (I) & -ing Gift bought at a fair fairish, adj [1 fárish, 2 féarish] fair (II) & -ish Moderate, tolerable fairly, adv [1 fárlí, 2 féarlí] fair (II) & -ly 1 Justly, impartially to act fairly by all men 2 Moderately, tolerably fairly good, to hear fairly well 3 Completely, thoroughly once the boat was fairly under way, they made good progress fairness, n [1 fárnnes, 2 féarnnes] fair (II) & -ness The quality of being fair (in all senses) fair-spoken, adj [1 fáir spókes, 2 féair spóken] Polite, civil, urbane, persuasive fairway, n [1 fáirwá, 2 féairwá] a Navigable channel in river, roadstead &c, b (in golf) the stretch of trimmed turf, between tee and green, free from hazards and distinguished from the rough or natural ground on either side fair-weather, adj (fig) Only of service in pleasant, easy circumstances, not in time of danger or stress fair weather friends fairy (I), n [1 fáirí, 2 féairí], fr O Fr faerie, 'fairyland, enchantment', fr fae, 'fairy' See fae Small supernatural being in human form fairy (II), adj, fr preo 1 Of, pertaining to, belonging to, fairies fairy wand, fairy voices &c 2 Fairy like, airy, dainty, delicate a fairy shape fairydom, n [1 fáirdom, 2 féairdom] fairy (I) & -dom The country, domain, of the fairies.

fairyhood, n [1 fáirbood, 2 féaríhúd] fairy (I) & -hood (rare) The condition of being a fairy fairyism, n [1 fáiruzm, 2 féarízəm] fairy (I) & -ism (rare) Belief in fairies fairyland, n [1 fáirlánd, 2 féarilrond] a The country of the fairies, an imaginary land of dreams, b a lovely, pleasant place or scene, c a region of marvels fairylands of science (Tennyson) fairy-like, adj Like a fairy fairy-ring, n Circle of darker green on grass land, formed by fungoid growths, but popularly attributed to fairy dancers fairy-tale, n a Story about fairies, b a marvellous, fictitious, incredible tale fait accompli, n [1 fát alómpli, 2 féit akshpi] Fr See fact & accomplish Something already done and settled faith, n [1 fáih, 2 féip] ME feith, fr O Fr fei, feith, fr Lat fides, 'trust, belief' See fidelity & -th 1 Trust, confidence, belief, reliance to have faith in 2 a Personal realization of the truth of divine revelation to have faith in God, Phr faith can remove mountains, b a system of belief, religious doctrine the Christian, Catholic, faith, Phr Defender of the Faith (Lat Fidei Defensor), title granted to Henry VIII in 1521 by Pope Leo X, and since borne by kings of England 3 Honesty, sincerity I ask you to believe what I say on the faith of an honest man Phrs in good faith, with sincerity, bad faith, deceit treachery, Punio faith, treachery 4 Promise, pledged word, undertaking to plight one's faith, to keep, break, faith with faithful, adj & n [1 fáithfool, 2 fáipfal] Free & -ful 1 adj Keeping faith, loyal, true, retaining allegiance to, trust in faithful friends, supporters &c 2 adj a Reliable, promise, principles &c 2 adj a Reliable, trustworthy, veracious, accurate to give a faithful account of the course of events, b so accurate, exact a copy faithful in every detail 3 n The faithful, true believers, esp Mohammedans faithfully, adv Free & -ly In a faithful manner, in good faith Phr yours faithfully, formula concluding letter faithfulness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being faithful faith-healing, n Alleged curing of disease by belief in efficacy of prayers offered with that intention, without assistance from a physician faithless, adj [1 fáithles, 2 fáiples] faith & -less (I) (rare) Without faith, unbelieving 2 Not keeping faith, not adhering to allegance, promises, duty, false, treacherous faithlessly, adv Free & -ly In a faithless manner faithlessness, n See prec & -ness a The quality of being faithless, b an act of treachery, a breach of faith fake (I), vb trans [1 fák, 2 fók] Etymol doubtful a To fabricate (a thing) in imitation of something else, esp to counterfeit a rare, valuable easily article with intent to pass it off as the genuine thing, b to alter (an object, document &c), tamper with, touch up the picture is a genuine Corat, but parls have been faked fake (II), n, fr free An imitation, a sham, a fabrication a forger-y fakir, n [1 fakér, 2 fakíe] fr Arab fakir, 'a poor man' Hindu or Mohammedan ascetic beggar regarded in the East as a holy man falbala, n [1 falbalah, 2 falbalah] Etymol doubtful Flounce frill falcate, adj [1 fálkät, 2 fálkest] fr Lat folcat (us) 'sickle shaped hooked, curved', fr fol (em) falz, 'a sickle, scythe', & -ate Prob cogn w Gk phalkēs, 'rib of a ship', Lat flectere, 'to bend, curve' See flec (bot, zool) Curved like a sickle, hooked falcated, adj [1 fálkäted, 2 fálkätend] Free & -ed (astron) Sickle shaped falcon, n [1 fáwləhən, 2 fál(t)ən] ME fauchoun, fr O Fr fauchon, fr Low Lat *faledn (em), fr Lat folc (em), 'a sickle' See falcate & -ion A short, broad, curved sword falconiform, adj [1 fálsiform, 2 fálsifəm] fr Lat falci (s) genit of falx, 'a sickle' See falcate & -form (anat) Sickle shaped falcon, n [1 fáw(ɪ)lən, 2 fál(ɪ)kən] ME fauchoun, fr O Fr fauchon, fr L Lat falcōn (em), 'a falcon', according to Waldo a loan word fr Gmo, sp OHG faleho, 'falcon', but there was surely an association

w falz, 'sickle' (see falcato) fr shape of beak The Gmo word itself may ultimately come fr Lat 1 (ornith) A sub family of diurnal birds of prey, allied to the hawks, lites, and eagles, characterized by short, strong, curved beak, long talons, pointed wings, and the dark iris of the eye, it includes the peregrino falcon, goshawk, merlin, hobby, kestrel, and, sometimes, the hawk 2 Species, one of these birds, esp female, trained to hunt game in the ancient sport of hawking or falconry 3 (by transf) Form of light cannon of the 15th and 16th cents falconer, n [1 fáw(ɪ)lənər, 2 fál(ɪ)kənər] Free & -or 1 One who trains falcons for hunting 2 One who hunts with falcons falconet, n [1 fáw(ɪ)lənət, 2 fálkənət] fr Ital falconello, dimin of falcone, 'falcon', q v 1 A small Asiatic falcon 2 (hist) A type of very small cannon of the 15th and 16th cents falconry, n [1 fáw(ɪ)lənri, 2 fál(ɪ)kənri] falcon & -ry a The sport of hunting with falcons, b the art of training and flying falcons in pursuit of game faldorl, n [1 faldorál, 2 faldoról] 2 faldorl, faldoról a A refrain, common in old songs, b a useless trifling, rubbish faldstool, n [1 faldstól, 2 faldstál] fr Med Lat faldstolium, fr OHG faldstul, fr fald (on), 'to fold' (see fold), & stul, 'chair' (see stool) 1 Chair without arms, properly a portable one, made to fold up, and used by a bishop in a cathedral other than his own, or when visiting a church in his diocese 2 Desk with stool attached for kneeling on, esp litany desk

Falerian, n [1 fáleríən, 2 fáleríən] fr Lat (vinum) Faleri (um) & -an, fr name of mountain in Campania Wine made at Faleria in Italy, very celebrated in ancient times fall (I), vb intrans [1 fáwl, 2 fál] OE f(a)llan, ME fallen, op OHG, OS fallan, O Fris, ON falla, cogn w Lith paliti, 'to fall', & in spite of the s pref, also, apparently, w Gk spállēn, 'cause to fall, throw down, to tumble, fall, to be baffled'

A 1 a To pass through space, unimpeded, from higher to lower level, to drop the apple falls from the tree, the meteorite falls from the sky, rain falls, Phrs his eyes fell, were directed lower, his face fell, expressed embarrassment, disconcertment &c, the curtain falls, is lowered before stage to mark a break in, or conclusion of, the action of a play &c, b (of mercury in thermometer or barometer) to occupy a lower position, reach lower point in the tube, hence, Phr the glass has fallen, i a registers lower position of the mercury, also extended to temperature indicated by this the temperature has fallen, it has grown colder 2 (of tall objects) To pass to horizontal position from vertical bend from upright position to one in which the object lies flat, to collapse many trees fell in the storm, steeples and houses fell in the earthquake Phrs to fall in battle, be killed, to fall flat, to fail to produce desired effect the joke fell flat, the fortress fell, was taken 3 (of men and animals) To stumble, trip, lose footing, so that part of the body strikes the ground &c with force to come down to fall up, downwards, to fall over a chair in the dark, my horse fell going downhill 4 a To flow, roll, rapidly to lower level the river falls into the sea, over the cliff, b (of drapery, hair &c) to hang down her golden hair fell in masses over her shoulders, drapery falling to the feet 5 To abate grow milder and less violent, (con expressing diminution of intensity) a the wind has fallen during the night, b (of states of mind) become sadder, quieter, less buoyant my spirits fell at the news of the disaster, c to diminish in value or amount prices have fallen 6 To succumb to temptation, yield to persuasion, be guilty of a moral lapse the serpent tempted Eve and she fell spoil, a fallen woman, one guilty of incontinuity 7 To come upon, as though descending upon a sleep fear, fell suddenly upon them, b of certain processes of nature darkness fell, evening, night, is falling fast 8 To alight, strike, impinge upon the sunlight fell upon the highest mountain peaks 9 To pass into a particular condition a to fall asleep, b implying change to a worse condition of health fortunes &c to fall into a decline, 'fallen on evil days' (Milton, 'P L') Phrs to fall foul of a (naut) to come into collision with, b to quarrel with, arouse hostility in, to fall short a to prove insufficient provisions fell short, b fail to reach required point the arrow fell short, c fail to reach required standard the result fell short of his expectations 10 a To come by natural process, to lapse, revert in the absence of his superior the duty fell to him, the estate falls to the Crown, b (of times and seasons) to come, occur, he Christmas falls on Tuesday this year 11 (of speech) To be uttered not a word fell from his lips, I agree with what has fallen from the last speaker, with what he has said B Followed by adverbs and prepositions Fall a (followed by rel n), to begin to fall a crying Fall among, to come by chance, happen to come into the midst of to fall among thieves Fall astern, to drop behind, pass to the rear Fall away, a to draw back from friendship, allegiance &c one's supporters fall away, b to grow thin, emaciated Fall back, to withdraw, retreat, give way Fall back upon, n (mil) to retreat to (a position, support &c), b to have recourse to Fall behind, to drop to the rear, lose ground Fall in, a to tumble inwards, give way the roof, house &c, fell in, b (esp mil) to take up appointed positions, in rank &c, c to lapse, to terminate the lease falls in Fall in with, a to come by chance among, to come across, to light upon, b to comply with, agree to, yield to Fall off, a to decrease in number or amount, withdraw, diminish his supporters are falling off, b (naut of ship) to fail to answer the helm Fall on, a to begin operations (of fighting, feeding &c), b to attack, set upon, Phr to fall on one's feet, his fortune, happily circumstanced, have good luck &c Fall out, a (mil) to abandon position in ranks &c, b to happen, turn out, result, c to quarrel Fall through, to come to nothing the scheme fell through Fall to, a to begin, set to b to begin an attack (esp on enemy or food they fell to with good appetite) Fall upon, trans, to attack fall (II), n, fr free 1 The act of falling, a drop, unimpeded descent the fall of an apple, a fall from one's horse 2 The act of passing from vertical to horizontal position, collapse, prostration the fall of a tower, building, tree &c 3 (of persons and animals) The act of falling, tripping a stumble to be injured by a fall 4 (of fortified town &c) Surrender, capitulation, submission the fall of Troy 5 A reduction, diminution, in value, amount a fall in prices 6 A wrestling bout, b a method of throwing one's opponent in wrestling, Phr to try a fall with, engage in a wrestling match (lit and fig) pit oneself against an opponent 7 (in moral sense) A moral lapse, yielding to temptation, specif, the Fall of Man, the sin of Adam and Eve 8 (USA) Autumn 9 Amount of something that falls at one time, as a single process a heavy fall of snow 10 (usually pl) Body of water falling over cliff &c, cataract, cascade the Victoria Falls

mauder and less violent, (con expressing diminution of intensity) a the wind has fallen during the night, b (of states of mind) become sadder, quieter, less buoyant my spirits fell at the news of the disaster, c to diminish in value or amount prices have fallen 6 To succumb to temptation, yield to persuasion, be guilty of a moral lapse the serpent tempted Eve and she fell spoil, a fallen woman, one guilty of incontinuity 7 To come upon, as though descending upon a sleep fear, fell suddenly upon them, b of certain processes of nature darkness fell, evening, night, is falling fast 8 To alight, strike, impinge upon the sunlight fell upon the highest mountain peaks 9 To pass into a particular condition a to fall asleep, b implying change to a worse condition of health fortunes &c to fall into a decline, 'fallen on evil days' (Milton, 'P L') Phrs to fall foul of a (naut) to come into collision with, b to quarrel with, arouse hostility in, to fall short a to prove insufficient provisions fell short, b fail to reach required point the arrow fell short, c fail to reach required standard the result fell short of his expectations 10 a To come by natural process, to lapse, revert in the absence of his superior the duty fell to him, the estate falls to the Crown, b (of times and seasons) to come, occur, he Christmas falls on Tuesday this year 11 (of speech) To be uttered not a word fell from his lips, I agree with what has fallen from the last speaker, with what he has said B Followed by adverbs and prepositions Fall a (followed by rel n), to begin to fall a crying Fall among, to come by chance, happen to come into the midst of to fall among thieves Fall astern, to drop behind, pass to the rear Fall away, a to draw back from friendship, allegiance &c one's supporters fall away, b to grow thin, emaciated Fall back, to withdraw, retreat, give way Fall back upon, n (mil) to retreat to (a position, support &c), b to have recourse to Fall behind, to drop to the rear, lose ground Fall in, a to tumble inwards, give way the roof, house &c, fell in, b (esp mil) to take up appointed positions, in rank &c, c to lapse, to terminate the lease falls in Fall in with, a to come by chance among, to come across, to light upon, b to comply with, agree to, yield to Fall off, a to decrease in number or amount, withdraw, diminish his supporters are falling off, b (naut of ship) to fail to answer the helm Fall on, a to begin operations (of fighting, feeding &c), b to attack, set upon, Phr to fall on one's feet, his fortune, happily circumstanced, have good luck &c Fall out, a (mil) to abandon position in ranks &c, b to happen, turn out, result, c to quarrel Fall through, to come to nothing the scheme fell through Fall to, a to begin, set to b to begin an attack (esp on enemy or food they fell to with good appetite) Fall upon, trans, to attack

fall (II), n, fr free 1 The act of falling, a drop, unimpeded descent the fall of an apple, a fall from one's horse 2 The act of passing from vertical to horizontal position, collapse, prostration the fall of a tower, building, tree &c 3 (of persons and animals) The act of falling, tripping a stumble to be injured by a fall 4 (of fortified town &c) Surrender, capitulation, submission the fall of Troy 5 A reduction, diminution, in value, amount a fall in prices 6 A wrestling bout, b a method of throwing one's opponent in wrestling, Phr to try a fall with, engage in a wrestling match (lit and fig) pit oneself against an opponent 7 (in moral sense) A moral lapse, yielding to temptation, specif, the Fall of Man, the sin of Adam and Eve 8 (USA) Autumn 9 Amount of something that falls at one time, as a single process a heavy fall of snow 10 (usually pl) Body of water falling over cliff &c, cataract, cascade the Victoria Falls

ful, treacherous to be false to one's trust a Not genuine, sham, counterfeit false coin, b artificial, as distinct from natural false hair, teeth &c false (II), adv, fr preo Only in Phr to play one false, to disappoint, betray, deceive false-hearted, adj Treacherous, disloyal, deceitful falsehood, n [1 fāwls hood, 2 fōlshud] false (I) & -hood 1 An uttered untruth, a lie to tell a falsehood, to utter falsehoods 2 (rather rare) The state or quality of being false, falseness falsely, adv [1 fāwlish, 2 fōlshi] false (I) & -ly In a false manner falseness, n [1 fāwlsness, 2 fōlsnis] See preo & -ness The quality of being false (esp in moral sense), deceitfulness, treachery, disloyalty falseness of heart falsetto, n & adj [1 fāwlsētō, 2 fōlsetōw] Ital dimin of false, 'false' See false (I) 1 n a Male voice lacking virile quality and resembling a woman's voice in timbre, b notes of normal male voice produced so as to imitate effect of a woman's treble 2 adj (of voice, or tones produced by voice) Having the quality of falsetto falsification, n [1 fāwlsifikāshun, 2 fōlsifikēshn], fr Low Lat falsificāre (are), 'to falsify', & -ation See next word The act of falsifying, state of being falsified falsify, vb trans [1 fāwlsifi, 2 fōlsifi], fr Fr falsifier, fr Low Lat falsificāre, 'to falsify' false (I) & -fy 1 To misrepresent, give false impression of to falsify evidence 2 To disappoint, prove to be baseless or erroneous my hopes have been falsified 3 To alter (doctrines, statements &c) so as to cause to convey different meaning, or one opposed to original sense, to tamper with, fake, with intent to deceive falsity, n [1 fāwlsiti, 2 fōlsiti] false (I) & -ity The quality of being false, a (of statements) untruth, of nature of a lie, b (of character) deceitfulness, dishonesty, untruthfulness, c (of conduct) treachery, disloyalty, double dealing falter, vb intrans [1 fāwlter, 2 fōlte] ME falteren, origin obscure, perh Scand, op O.N. faltra(st), 'to be encumbered, embarrassed' 1 a (of bodily movement) To move unsteadily and hesitatingly, to stumble, totter, be unsteady, b (of speech) to utter words with tremulous, broken voice, to hesitate, stammer, in speaking, as though under influence of strong emotion, falter out, trans, to utter with broken, hesitating voice 2 (of action) To hesitate, draw back, be daunted, to act half-heartedly faltering, adj [1 fāwlterng, 2 fōltern] fr Pres Part of preo Hesitating, unsteady, stumbling faltering steps, faltering voice, tongue falteringly, adv Preo & -ly In a faltering manner fame, n [1 fām, 2 fēam], fr Fr, fr Lat fāma, 'report, rumour, public opinion, reputation', cogn w Gk phēmē, 'a voice, a report, rumour, reputation', w suff -m, fr Aryan base *bhā, *bhō, *bha, 'to speak, say' Cp Gk phē mī, 'I say, declare', phēmē, 'voice' (see phone (I)), phātus, 'speech, saying', Lat fārī, 'to speak', fātor, 'I confess', fabula, 'speech, saying' (see table), fatum, 'an utterance, a prediction, oracle, fate, destiny' (see fate), O.N. bām, 'request, prayer' (see boon) 1 Rumour, common estimation, opinion generally held the fame of these things was widely spread, to enjoy an ill fame, specif uses house of ill fame, brothel, woman of ill fame, prostitute 2 Good repute, high reputation, glory, renown Gray's fame as a poet was at once established by the Elegy, some men are greedy for fame, others are indifferent famed, adj [1 fāmd, 2 fēmd] Preo & -ed a Reputed, reported, commonly believed 'the fancy cannot cheat so well as she is famed to do' (Keats), b celebrated, made famous a hero famed by poets, o famed for, famous, renowned Liverpool is famed for its docks familiar (I), adj [1 familiyər, 2 fami'ljə], fr O Fr familiär, fr Lat familiāris, 'pertaining to a household, domestic, friendly, intimate' family & -ar 1 (archaic) Pertaining to one's family, domestic, private 2 Having close acquaintance, intimate on familiar terms, a familiar friend, Phr familiar spirit, demon supposed to attend on magician &c 3 (of persons, manners, modes of expression) Exhibiting, expressing, a vulgar heartiness or cordiality towards others, esp evincing, and appearing to claim, greater degree of intimacy than is warranted by length of acquaintance with or by one's standing relative to, another, forward, impudent, presuming his manner was ill bred and familiar 4 A Well known, accustomed, recognized to hear a familiarity, i.e., b ordinary, common, usual, common place a man who has lost a leg is a familiar sight since the Great War 5 (of relations of persons to things) Acquainted with, well versed in, conversant with to be familiar with the facts, with a subject, with a name, a language &c familiar (II), n, fr prec 1 Particular official in household of Pope or Roman Catholic bishop 2 A intimate friend, close acquaintance, b familiar spirit familiarity, n [1 famili'əriti, 2 fami'leri'ti] familiar (I) & -ity (of relations between persons) 1 A Intimacy, closeness of friendship or acquaintance on terms of familiarity with, b expression of intimacy by speech or manner, affability, cordiality he treated his friends with a kind and gentle familiarity, o undue, forward, impudent, presuming unceremoniousness in speech or manner he behaved with a familiarity which disgusted everyone 2 Specific act, gesture, career, expressing intimacy of relations to indulge in harmless familiarities with 3 (of relations of persons to facts and things) Knowledge, acquaintance, state of being aware of, conversant with, well instructed in, experience of to show thorough familiarity with a subject, a language &c, his familiarity with conditions of life among the poor was remarkable Phr familiarity breeds contempt familiarization, n [1 famili'ərizə'shun, 2 fami'li'zeizə'sən] Next word & -ation The act of familiarizing, state of being familiarized familiarize, vb trans [1 famili'əriz, 2 fami'li'zeiz] familiar (I) & -ize a To render something familiar, well known, habitual, to a person, to accustom a person to something, to make person familiarly acquainted with something to familiarize a boy with the use of the rod and gun, to familiarize a person with the manners of society, b (reflex) to accustom oneself to, to grow familiar, acquainted, with, become habitually conversant with to familiarize oneself with a foreign language, with the use of the axe, with the views of one's opponents familiarly, adv [1 famili'əli, 2 fami'ljəli] familiar (I) & -ly In a familiar manner family (I), n [1 famb, 2 famli], fr Lat família, 'household, domestic servants, estate, property', fr famul (us), 'a servant', & -y The etymol of famulus is very doubtful The word may have meant one 'dweller in a household', & be cogn w Sert dhaman, 'dwelling', wh is prob fr an Aryan base *dhō, *dhē, *dho &c, 'to place, do, make, construct' See do, fact, & words there referred to 1 (archaic) Group of persons living under same roof including both those actually related by blood, and all the others, dependents, friends &c, forming the household 2 A Group of persons consisting of two parents and all their children, b all the children of the same parents to have a large family, the eldest of the family Phr in the family way, pregnant 3 A All that group of persons, living or dead, descended from a common ancestor my family has been in Devonshire since the Conquest

h group of persons related by blood or marriage 4 High, ancient, illustrious, lineage 4 man of family, of no particular family 5 Group of living things having a common origin, a (bot, zool) group of animals or plants descended from a common stock, a division of an order; h group of languages developed from a common parent language family (II), n used attrib, fr prec 1 Connected with, pertaining to, characteristic of, a family the family pride, features, a family likeness, family failing 2 Belonging to, possession of, held by, a family family estate, pictures, jewels &c 3 a Domestic, dealing with, providing for, private families family butcher, lawyer, doctor, h suitable for private families family hotel 4 Concerned with, related to, a particular family or household a purely family affair, family relations Family Bible, large Bible containing a record of the names, dates of birth, and of marriage of a man and his wife, and of those of their children Family circle, group of closely related persons, and their intimate and constant associates Family friend, friend of all members of a family, esp one who is a friend of more than one generation Family living, ecclesiastical benefice the patron of which is the head for the time being of a particular family Family man, a man who has a family, h man of domestic habits Family name, a hereditary surname of a particular family, h Christian name, current, or frequently bestowed in a particular family Family tree, a descent, series of steps in descent from an ancestor, or from several ancestors, h plan, diagram, table, exhibiting such descent, pedigree famine, n [1 fámin, 2 fámin], fr Fr, Low Lat *famīna, fr Lat fam (es), 'hunger', & -ine The element fa is prob identical w that in Lat fa fīdē, 'to exhaust, tire' &c See fatigue 1 a Serious, acute, shortage of foodstuffs in a given area, at a particular time, h (hy extension) shortage, lack, of particular article water famine 2 Lack of bodily nourishment, starvation famish, vb trans & intrans [1 fámuš, 2 fámuš], fr obs fame, 'to starve', fr Lat fam (es), 'hunger' See prec & -ish A trans To cause to suffer hunger, starve B intrans 1 To starve, suffer extreme hunger, colloq Phr to be famishing, be hungry 2 To suffer great pain and exhaustion from cold famishing, adj [1 fámušing, 2 fámušing], fr Pres Part of prec a Causing hunger and starvation, h causing suffering and exhaustion from cold a famishing wind, winter &c famous, adj [1 fámus, 2 fámus], fr O Fr fameus, fr Lat famosus, 'much talked of, renowned notorious' fame & -ous 1 Possessing fame, well known, celebrated, noted, renowned 2 (colloq) Very good, excellent, satisfactory, capital to make a famous dinner, to have a famous appetite famously, adv famous 2, & -ly (colloq) Excellently, very well to get on famously with one's work famulus, n [1 fámulus, 2 fámulus] Lat famulus, 'a servant' See family An attendant on a magician fan (I), n [1 fan, 2 fæn] O E fann, ME fan, fr Lat vannus, 'winnowing fan', op Lat ventus, 'wind', Aryan base *van, *un, 'blowing, wind' See wind (I), ventilate 1 An instrument or implement for agitating the air, or driving an air current in a particular direction, specif a winnowing fan, h instrument rotated by electricity &c, for ventilating a room &c by stirring up the air 2 Specif, object of silk, feathers, paper &c, usually a sector of a circle, and made to fold up, held in the hand, by part forming apex of sector, and used by women, for agitating, stirring, the air, by backward and forward motions of wrist, so as to cool the face 3 (archit) A fan-shaped ornamental vaulting with lines diverging from a point 4 Small sail on windmill, the function of which is to keep the large sails at right angles to the wind. fan (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 To separate grain from chaff by driving air upon, to winnow 2 To cause an air current in given direction, upon particular object by means of a fan held in the hand to fan oneself, Phr to fan the flame, cause excitement, emotion &c, to become more intense 3 (poet, of air) To play, blow gently, upon, breathe on 'cool gales shall fan the glade' (Pope) fan (III), n Origin doubtful, either shortened form of fanatic, or fr fan (II), as one who 'fans the flames', rouses enthusiasm &c (USA slang) An enthusiastic supporter of some sport, form of entertainment &c a base ball fan, film fan &c fanatic, n & adj [1 fanatik, fanatik, 2 fane tak, fanetik], fr Lat fanatic (us), 'pertaining to a temple, inspired, enthusiastic', fr fān (um), 'a temple' See lane & -atic 1 n A person having a stubborn, unshakable, violent, and unreasonable belief in, or enthusiasm for, some opinion, cause, or doctrine 2 adj Of, resembling, a fanatic fanatical, adj [1 fanatikl, 2 fanetikl] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, resembling, a fanatic, imbued with fanaticism fanatically, adv Prec & -ly In a fanatical manner fanaticism, n [1 fanatizem, 2 fanetisizem] fanatic & -ism Violent and excessive enthusiasm, the unreasonable, stubborn opinion, or belief, of a fanatic fanaticize, vb trans & intrans [1 fanatiz, 2 fanetisiz] fanatic & -ize 1 trans To make into a fanatic 2 intrans To become a fanatic fancier, n [1 fānsier, 2 fānsia] fancy (II) & -er One who has special knowledge, esp of some class of animals, a judge, connoisseur a dog fancier, pigeon fancier &c fanciful, adj [1 fānsifool, 2 fānsifull] fancy (I) & -ful 1 (of persons) a full of fancies, capricious, whimsical, faddy, h imaginative 2 (of mental processes and conceptions) Springing from, directed by, fancy and whim, rather than by reason and experience, visionary, unreal, unsubstantial 3 Fantastic, quaint fanciful drawings fancifully, adv Prec & -ly In a fanciful manner fancifulness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being fanciful fancy (I), n [1 fāns, 2 fēnsi] Contracted fr fantasy 1 Faculty of forming mental pictures of things not present, power of combining these into more complex pictures, and of relating such images to each other, or of perceiving relations and resemblances between them and other objects real or imaginary, imagination Fancy is, however, sometimes used for a more or less passive process of mental vision, imagination being used for a more definitely creative mental act 2 An image, or idea produced by the process of fancy the fancies of a poet 3 An opinion or belief formed without rational foundation, one which results from emotion or caprice, rather than from thoughtful reflection, a whim, vagary there are mere fancies, not convictions based upon reason, to have a fancy that 4 a Likening, fondness, partiality for to take a fancy to (a person or thing), Phr to take, catch (my, his &c) fancy, attract, please, h inclination, desire for a passing fancy, I have a fancy for some hock with my dinner 5 The fancy, used collectively of those addicted to, or interested in, some particular sport, pursuit, or hobby, esp of those connected with pugilism fancy (II), adj, fr prec (only attrib) 1 Based on, formed by, the fancy, not based upon facts and reality, fanciful, imaginary a fancy portrait 2 Elaborate, ornamental, decorated, not plain or ordinary fancy cakes, fancy goods 3 Fantastic, extravagant. Phr at a fancy price, unreasonably

dear & (of animals &c) Bred to a special type fancy dogs fancy (III), vb trans, fr fancy (I) 1 To call up a mental image of, present to one's mind, imagine, conceive of somehow I can't fancy him as a soldier, fancy his doing a thing like that! 2 a To have a fancy for, to feel inclined for, have an inclination for I don't fancy this place at all, I could fancy a devilled kidney, h to take a fancy, or liking to, be favourably impressed by he's not at all the kind of man I fancy, I looked at the lodgings but didn't fancy them, Phr to fancy oneself, to have a high opinion of oneself, to be conceited 3 To believe, be inclined to believe, he under the impression that, implying something short of absolute certainty I rather fancy that he is a widower 4 To believe without adequate grounds, be under the delusion that he fancies he can rise in his profession without hard work fancy-dress, n Fantastic, or picturesque, clothes worn at a masquerade &c fancy-dress ball, one at which fancy-dress is worn fancy fair, n Sale of work &c, combined with various entertainments, usually for some charitable object, at which the sellers are picturesquely dressed up, or disguised.

fancy-work, n Embroidery fandangle, n [1 fandāngl, 2 fændənggl] Sham word fr following Fantastic, fanciful ornament fandango, n [1 fandānggō, 2 fændānggou]. Span a A Spanish dance, with movements varying from stateliness to extreme liveliness, h tune for such a dance fane, n [1 fān, 2 fēn] Lat fānum, 'a temple' Prob for earlier *fas nom, 'consecrated place', fr an O Lat stem *fēs, *fās, 'holy, consecrated', op Lat fēvae, 'holy day, festival' (see fair (I)), fēstus, 'festive' (see feast), & further Scrt dhī-nyat, 'gods' The word is prob connected w the Aryan base *dhē, *dhe, 'to place, make, do', hence 'that which is ordained, decreed, established', op Scrt dhāman-, 'law' See do, fact, thesis (poet) A temple 'fanes of fratiles prayer' (Tennyson) fandare, n [1 fānfār, fōnfār, 2 fānfēa, fāfā(r)] Fr, prob imitative See flam. A flourish of trumpets, bugles &c fandaronade, n [1 fānfaronād, 2 fānfaronād], fr Fr fandaronade, fr fanfaron (fr prec & -oon) & -ade 1 Fanfare 2 Boasting talk, bluster, arrogance fang (I), n [1 fang, 2 fəp] O E fang, 'a catching, seizing', op O Fris, O N, M H G fang, O H G fangōn, O N fanga, O E fōn (or Gmo *fangjan), 'to seize', w mixed -n fr Aryan base *pāk-, *pāk-, *pāg-, *pāg-, 'to make firm, fasten together, fix', Cp Lat pangere, 'to fix', pax, 'peace' (see pax), Gk pēgnum, 'I strengthen', pēpōs, 'firm', Goth fagra, O E fæger, 'beautiful', see fair (II), Scrt payrad, 'strong, fine', pātāt, 'noose' See further page (II), pale (I), pagan. 1 Long pointed tooth for seizing or holding, specif a canine tooth of carnivorous animal, h long hollow or grooved tooth of poisonous snake, for injecting venom 2 a The spike or tang of a tool &c, which is fixed into the handle, h the root of a tooth fang (II), vb trans fr prec To pour water into a pump to make it start working, to prime (a pump) fanged, adj [1 fāngd, 2 fəp] fang (I) & -ed Provided, furnished with fangs fangless, adj [1 fāngles, 2 fəp] fang (I) & -less Without fangs fan-light, n fan (I) & light Fan shaped window, esp one over a door fanner, n [1 fāner, 2 fāne] fan (II) & -er A machine for winnowing grain fanon, n [1 fānun, 2 fānan] Fr, fr Med Lat fano, fr O H G fano, Mod Germ fahne, 'flag', op gonfalon & see vane An ornamental scarf worn over the left arm by the Pope when celebrating Mass fan-tail, n A variety of pigeon, with fan-shaped tail fan-tan, n [1 fán-tán, 2 fán-tán] Chinese a gambling game played by guessing number of coins hidden under a bowl, b a gambling game played with cards fantasia, n [1 fán-tá-zia, fán-tá-zia, -á-zia, 2 fán-tá-zia, fán-tá-zia, -á-zia] It! See fantasy 1 A musical composition of irregular form, which follows no fixed plan but includes variety of aus and movements 2 An Arab or Moorish exhibition of riding with much firing of guns fantast, phantast, n [1 fán-tást, 2 fán-tást], fr Mod Lat, fr Gk phantastés, 'a boaster', fr phantosomē, 'to make visible, to present to the mind, imagine, to make a show' See under phantasm A visionary, a person with fantastic ideas fantastic(al), adj [1 fán-tástik(l), 2 fán-tástik(l)], fr Mod Lat fantastic(us), fr Gk phantastikos, 'able to present to the mind, imagine, showing, presenting, making a show', fr phantastēs (s), 'one who makes a show' (see preo) & -to & -al (a of objects) Odd, quaint, grotesque, eccentric fantastic shapes, b (of ideas &c) extravagant, fanciful, capricious, unreal, imaginary, visionary fantasticity, n [1 fán-tástiká-ty, 2 fán-tástiká-ty] Preo & -ity The quality of being fantastic fantastically, adv [1 fán-tástiká-ly, 2 fán-tástiká-ly] See preo & -ly In a fantastic manner fantasticness, n [1 fán-tástiká-nis, 2 fán-tástiká-nis] See preo & -ness The quality of being fantastic fantasy, phantasy, n [1 fán-tá-zi, 2 fán-tá-zi], fr O Fr fantasie, fr Lat, fr Gk phantasia, 'look, appearance, imagination, vision, image' See under phantasm 1 Fancy, imagination 2 Product of the imagination, a an illusion, delusion, hallucination, b an artistic imaginative creation fantoccini, n pl [1 fán-toch-ni, 2 fán-toch-ni] Ital, dimin of fante, 'child' See infant a Marionettes, puppets, b a puppet show fan-tracery, n fan (I) & tracery Fan-vaulting fan-vaulting, n See preo & vaulting (archit) System of vaulting in which the ribs spread out like a fan, typical of late period of Perpendicular Gothic fakur See fakir far (I), adv [1 fár, 2 fā] O E feorr, ME fer, op OLG ferr, O Fris fur, O HG ferr, ON fiarr, fiorr, Goth fairra, Gmc ferr-*, cogn w Gk perá, 'beyond', Sort perá, 'paró', 'away, behind', Lat porro, 'further, forward, henceforth', Gk porrō, porō, 'bo fore, henceforth', Aryan base per-, por Op further Aryan per-*, Lat per, 'through, over, about' (see per), Sort pori, 'around', Gk peri, 'around' (see peri-) 1 (expressing rest, usually followed by adv or advbl phrase) At a distance, remote, removed by a considerable interval, a (of space) far beyond the sea, for above the trees, for ahead, for off, for from the town, b (of time) far back in the past, o remote in fact for from a solution, for from completion, Phr far be it from me to, I have not the audacity to, no desire to 2 (expressing motion) To a distance, to a remote point, a (of space) To travel far and wide, to swim far out, how far can you wail?, that is too far for me, to throw a ball for into the air, b (of time) to look far into the future, far luck into the past, c (of degree) so far, to that extent, up to that point, how far, to what extent, so far as, in so far as, to the extent that, to go far, reach an advanced stage, accomplish much, have success in undertakings 3 To a great degree, very much, considerably for better, for the best, far beyond my powers Phr for and away, very much, considerably far (II), adj, fr preo a Distant, remote, not near from a far country, Phr o for cry, a long way, b more distant, farther at the far side of the room, Phr few and far between, rare, occurring at infrequent intervals far (III), n, fr preo In certain phrases a a distant place to come from far, b a great degree by far the best farad, n [1 fárád, 2 fárád], fr name of Michael Faraday, electrician (1791-1867) Unit of electric capacity faradaic, faradic, adj [1 fárádik, fárádik, 2 fárádik, fárádik] See preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, induced electrical currents, produced by inductive apparatus far-away, adj a Distant, remote, b absent, abstracted a far away look farce (I), n [1 fars, 2 fās], fr Fr force, fr O Fr farce, 'stuffing', fr Lat farcire, 'to stuff, cram', fartim, 'closely, densely', op frequens, 'pressed full, crowded, crammed, numerous, recurring often', Gk phrassomai, 'to press', Lith brukti, 'to press into, cram', O Ir barr, 'superfluity', Aryan base bhr-, bhj-, 'to press, cram' See frequent The term farce was applied first to dramatic interludes 1 a A style of drama characterized by extravagant, boisterous humour, b a play of this character, a ludicrous comedy 2 a An absurd and ludicrous proceeding or situation, b something unreal, a sham, a fiction his pretence at work was a mere farce farce (II), vb trans, fr O Fr farsir, fr Lat farcire, 'to stuff, cram' See preo (archaic, in cookery) To stuff, season (also fig) farceur, n [1 farsér, 1 fosá] Fr faros & -eur A joker, humorist farcical, adj [1 fársik, 2 fásik] farce (I) & -ic & -al a Resembling a farce, extravagantly comic, b absurd, unreal, sham farcicality, n [1 fársiká-ty, 2 fásiká-ty] Preo & -ity The quality of being farcical farcically, adv [1 fársiká-ly, 2 fásiká-ly] See preo & -ly In a farcical manner farcy, n [1 fars, 2 fás], fr Fr farcin, fr Lat farcinnum, 'a disease in horses', fr farc (ire), 'to stuff, cram' See farce (I) A disease of the horse affecting the skin and blood-vessels, a kind of glanders farcy-bud, -bunton, n A small swelling, symptomatic of farcy fardel, n [1 fárdl, 2 fídl], fr O Fr fardel, dimin of forde, 'burden', possibly fr Arab fardē, 'package' (archaic) Cumbersome burden fare (I), n [1 fár, 2 fā] O E far, 'journey, road', fr Gmc stem far-*, 'to go' See fate (III) a Sum charged for conveyance of passenger, b one who pays a fare for being carried in a hired vehicle fare (II), n O E fora, 'journey, expedition, troop, companions, baggage', fr Gmc for-*, 'to go' See next word Diet, food and drink simple, homely fare fare (III), vb intrans O E foron, ME faren, 'to go, travel', op O HG, OLG, Goth foran, ON, O Fris fora, 'go, travel', also O E ferran (fr ferron*), O E G fuoren, OS fōrian, 'to go, to carry', cogn w Gk phōros, 'passage, way, track' (see pore), perasin, 'press through', pelrein (fr per jō*), 'to prostrate', O Bulg (na-) perja, 'penetrate', Sort pitporh, 'leads', pūrayati, 'transports' Aryan base per-, pōr-, 'completion of a forward movement' See further port (IV), porter, ford, per, & words there referred to 1 (poet) To go, travel, make one's way to fore forth on one's journey 2 To get on, to achieve certain results as the consequence of action, prosper how did you fore in London?, it has fared ill with him, the undertaking has fared ill, Phr you may go further and fore worse, be content with what you have fare (IV), vb intrans, fr fare (II) To be supplied with, enjoy, food and drink, to feed fore sumptuously every day farewell (I), intory [1 fār-wél, 2 fā-wél] Imperat of fare (III) & well (III) (as parting wish) May you prosper, good-bye Phr farewell to, enough of, no more of farewell (II), n, fr preo a The act of taking leave, parting, departure, b parting salutation, last words spoken &c, ou departure, final salute to make one's farewells farewell (III), adj [1 fār-wél, 2 fā-wél] fr preo Pertaining to, spoken in, farewell a farewell speech far-famed, adj Widely celebrated, well known, world famous far-fetched, adj [1 fār-fécht, 2 fā-fétst] Not occurring naturally, forced, stained o for fetched analogy, his jokes were rather for fetched far-flung, adj Widely spread or extended far flung British Empire farina, n [1 farina, farēna, 2 farāna, fārna] Lat farina, 'ground corn, meal, flour, dust, powder', earlier ferrina*, fossina*, op O Slav brašeno (fr borsino*), 'food, meal', Goth barreins, 'of barley', op also Lot far, farr, 'corn', ON barr, O E bere, 'barley', Russ bera, 'barley' See also barley 1 a Meal, flour ground from corn, roots &c, hence, b powdery substance, specif (bot) pollen 2 (pharm) Starch farinaceous, adj [1 fārnāshus, 2 fārnāshus] Preo & -aceous Resembling, containing, flour or meal, from cereals farinose, adj [1 fārūsh, 2 fārnous] farina & -oso a Yielding, composed of, farina, b sprinkled with meal, powder &c farl, n [1 farl, 2 fā], fr obs fordel, 'quarter', fr O E feorban dēl, 'fourth part' See fourth & deal (II) (province) Thin oatmeal cake, quarter section of round cake farm (I), n [1 farm, 2 fām] ME ferme, 'farm, rent', fr O Fr ferme, fr Mod Lat firma, 'fixed payment', fr Lat firmare, 'to strengthen, fortify, to fix, establish', fr firm (us), 'strong, stable, fixed, immovable' See firm (I) 1 Portion of land forming a single complete property, owned or rented by one person or group of persons, and worked as a unity for agricultural purposes home farm, single farm worked for owner of estate for household supplies, in distinction to farms which are let to tenants, or worked by owner as a commercial undertaking 2 House on farm in which the farmer lives, farm house farm (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To devote (land, etc) to agricultural uses, dairying, cultivation of crops, raising of stock &c to farm 500 acres 2 a To obtain control of and profits from (tax &c) by making a fixed payment, b also farm out, to grant control of and profits derived from (land, revenue, tax &c) on payment of a fixed sum, o to undertake care of (children &c) for a fixed sum B intrans To cultivate land, use land for raising crops, stock &c, and for dairying, be a farmer 1 farmed in Australia for many years

farm-bailiff, n One managing a farm for the owner farmer, n [1 fārmer, 2 fāma] farm (II) & -er One who farms, specif a one who cultivates land that he owns or rents, b one who farms taxes &c farm-house, n House designed as residence of the occupant of the farm on which it stands farming, n [1 fārmog, 2 fārm] farm (II) & -ing The business of a farmer, agricultural pursuits, agriculture farmstead, n [1 fārmsted, 2 fārmsted] farm (I) & stead Farm house, together with barns and other buildings associated with it farm-yard, n Enclosure formed by farm buildings faro, n [1 fārō, 2 fārou], fr name Pharaoh A gambling card game played against a 'bank' far off, adj [1 fār awf, 2 fār āf] Remote, distant (in space or time) farouche, adj [1 fāroush, 2 fārūf] Fr, fr Lat ferocē (em), ferax, 'wild, daring, fierce' See ferocious Shv, wild, awkward far off, adj [1 fār awf, 2 fār āf] Remote, distant (in space or time)

farouche, adj [1 fāroush, 2 fārūf] Fr, fr Lat ferocē (em), ferax, 'wild, daring, fierce' See ferocious Shv, wild, awkward

far off, adj [1 fār awf, 2 fār āf] Remote, distant (in space or time)

farouche, adj [1 fāroush, 2 fārūf] Fr, fr Lat ferocē (em), ferax, 'wild, daring, fierce' See ferocious Shv, wild, awkward and repellent in manner, as though nursed to, and unwilling to adapt oneself to, social conventions.

nective tissue 3 Plate, band of metal or wood, over a shop front, bearing name & of the proprietor, also foria fasciated, adj [1 fash'iāted, 2 fash'ietid], fr Lat fasciātūm, PP type of fasciāre, 'to avathe', fr fascia, 'a band' See preo & -ed 1 (bot) Untied by connective tissue, grown together 2 Having transverse stripes fasciation, n [1 fash'iāshun, 2 fash'iet[sən] See preo & -ion The state of being fasciated fascicle, fascicula, n [1 fash'ikl, hāl, 2 fash'ikl, fash'ikjūl], fr Lat fasciculū (ua), 'a small bundle, bunch', fr fasci (s), 'a bundle' See fascos & -cula 1 (bot) A small bunch, clinster 2 A single number of a book published in parts fascicular, adj [1 fash'ikūlar, 2 fash'ikjūl] Preo & -ar (bot) Pertaining to, forming, a fascicle, clustered together fasciculate, adj [1 fash'ikjūlat, 2 fash'ikjūlet] fasciculate & -ate fasciculation, n [1 fash'ikjūlāshun, 2 fash'ikjūlejšən] Preo & -ion The state of being fasciculate fascinate, vb trans [1 fash'nāt, 2 fash'neit], fr Lat fascinātū (um), PP of fascināre, 'to enchant, bewitch, charm', fr fascin (um), 'a charm, witchcraft', op Gk baskanos, 'sorcerer', baskainein, 'to use ill words to another, to bewitch', prob fr Aryan *bhas, *bhas, 'to speak' See fable a To exercise an irresistible influence over, to enbnd, deprive of power of movement, by fixed gaze the snake fascinates its victim, b to enchant, bewitch, captivate fascinating, adj [1 fash'inating, 2 fash'neit[ŋ]] fr Prei Part of preo Exercising fascination, strongly attractive, charming, bewitching enchanting fascinatingly, adv Preo & -ly In a fascinating manner fascination, n [1 fash'nāshun, 2 fash'neit[sən] fascinate & -ion 1 Act of fascinating, state of being fascinated 2 Power to fascinate, powerful attraction, witchery, charm fascinator, n [1 fash'nātor, 2 fash'notə] fascinate & -or 1 One who, that which, fascinates 2 (archaic) A kind of light show or wrap fascine, n [1 fash'n, 2 fash'n], fr Fr, fr Lat fascina, 'faggot', fr fave (u), 'a bundle' (see fascos) & -ine Faggot of brushwood used in military engineering for filling ditches, supporting the sides of trenches &c fascine dwelling, n Prehistoric hut built near the shore of a lake upon a kind of platform rising to surface of the water, formed by faggots piled on the bottom and kept in place by upright wooden piles Fascism, a [1 fash'izm, 2 fash'izəm], fr Ital Fascismo See next word & -ism The principles of the Fascists theory and practice of state government adopted by the Fascists Fascist, n & adj [1 fash'ist, 2 fash'ist], fr Ital Fascista pl Fascisti [1 fash'istəz, 2 fash'istəz], member of a fascist political group of persons bound together by an oath & pledged to certain principles, fr Lat fascis, 'bundle' See fascos 1 n A member of an Italian political party, organized on military lines by Benito Mussolini in 1919 to combat Bolshevism and Communism and establish a strongly centralized government not based on parliamentary elections and principles This succeeded in its aims in 1922 2 adj Of pertaining to the fascists or fascism fash vb [fash & trans] [1 fash', 2 fash'] f- [1] Fr fa, eter, 'to trouble', fr Provenc fa fer, 'to become annoyed, worried', fr Lat fave (u), d vis 'a distrust, aversion', wh is prob fr fave, fr Aryan *gher, *gher, also OHG gerr, 'rained, spelt', op Ved Gurm gerr 'fort, unclean' Cf studious (Scotts) 'Gaul-rally-fash' gerr to worry, be anxious become excited and angry also b trans, to worry, ennuoy annoy gerr to, render - angry and excited fashion (I), n [1 fəʃən, 2 fəʃən], fr A-Fr. fashion, O Fr fason, fr Lat fāciō (em), 'the act of making a faction' See fact- tion 1 The manner, way, mode in which a thing is made or done, manner, make, shape, style, cnt, external appearance to behave in a strange fashion, I don't like the fashion of his speech, to do a thing in one's own fashion, two things made after the same fashion, Phrs after a fashion, in a fashion, in a way not particularly well, after the fashion of, like, in imitation of 2 That style, mode, habit, custom, generally prevailing, most in repute, and by convention regarded as the best and most admirable at a given period, or in given place, vogue, specif a (of dress) the latest Paris fashions, wide trousers were all the fashion then, 10 reputed, considered, smartest, to set, follow, the fashion in dress, b (in manners, conduct, thought, speech &c.) it is no longer the fashion to get drunk after dinner, there are fashions in pronunciation as in dress, Phr to be in the fashion, behave &c., in accordance with this, o (of persons &c.) to be the fashion, be admired, regarded as a model, be popular and sought after, a man of fashion, one moving in high social circles, and following in all respects the conventions there recognized as polite fashion (II), vb trans, fr prec To form, shape, mould, contrive, make, a (of material things) some savages fashion boats out of tree trunks, to fashion a vase from clay, b (of non material things) to fashion a tribal song fashionable, adj [1 fəʃənəbl, 2 fəʃənəbl] fashion (I) & -able a (of objects) In accordance with, conforming to, following, the fashion, in form, size, colour &c fashionable clothes, furniture &c, b (of persons) following, guided by, conforming to, the fashion of upper classes, o (of habits, customs, pursuits) prevailing in, characteristic of, much in vogue in, a specific period and place a fashionable amusement, d resorted to, patronized by, people of fashion a fashionable dressmaker, watering place &c, Phr (facetious) a fashionable complaint, one rise at given period, one from which several well known and fashionable persons have suffered fashionableness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being fashionable fashionably, adv See prec & -ly In a fashionable manner, in accordance with the prevailing fashion fashion-plate, a Engraved, often coloured picture, of human beings wearing clothes of latest designs, intended to show the fashions of the moment in dress fast (I), adj & adv [1 fəst, 2 fəst] O E faest, ME fast, cf OLG fast, ON fasti, OHG festi, O Fris fest, o Goth fastan 'to hold fast, to keep, observe', prob cogn w Scrt pas'd, 'house, established dwelling place' The etymol is obscure, but it is possible that the t is a reduced form of the base of stand, or of the base *sed, 'sit' &c See sit & nest 1 adj a firmly fixed, established, not easily moved to sit c o fast hold of something, to m-c a boat fast 2 adj firmly, b (fig) firm devoted loyal, sure a fast friend, c (of colours) not easily faded 2 adv (O E fa-ste, fr prec) In a firm, sure manner, in such a way as to ensure immovability, firmly, a, fixtr firmly, sc, wtr, fixtr to be fa-ly bound by the feet, to hold fast by a rail, Phrs fast asleep, in profound sleep, sound asleep, to sta-da fa i, not to move, esp so. to remain stand firm, fast shut completely, firmly closed, to play fast and loose, b, h, w inconsistently, with no fix i, mch'o 'to be unreliable and inconstant' fast (II) adj & adv Same word as prec The sense of 'rapid' is fr Scand, cf ON fast fast, follow fast' The adv fa-ly, 'rapidly', is found in Chaucer The new sense must have arisen in such phrases as above w first meant to 'be' firmly, with determination, in 'stead', & so on Cp the new archaic to follow fast upon o f from's tracks 1 adj

* Rapid, swift in movement, moving with speed, quick a fast horse, fast trot, Phr a fast train, one which does a given journey in a short time and stops at but few stations, b acting, doing something, rapidly, prompt, hurried a fast worker, a fast reader, speaker, fast bowler, one who sends down fast balls, c in such a condition as to cause, promote, rapid movement, brisk a fast billiard table, tennis-court &c, in which the balls rebound from cushion or ground with great swiftness 2 (of persons) Given to seeking amusement and pleasure, leading a feverish life, rushing from one form of excitement to another, restless, hence, dissipated, profligate, immoral, Phr a fast woman, one of loose morals, to lead a fast life, one of dissipation and immorality 3 adv a Rapidly, swiftly, hurriedly to run, speak, fast, b in rapid succession, thickly, frequently her tears fell fast fast (III), vb intrans, fr OE faestan, 'to abstain from food', ME faesten, op OHG faستن, Goth fastan, 'to keep, to fast', ON fasti, O Fris fastia, 'to fast' Thus word has same origin as fast (I) The orig meaning of the vb was 'to hold firmly', then 'to hold, restrain' &c, hence, 'restrain oneself, keep oneself from, abstain', finally, specifically, 'abstain from food' a Specul, to go without all, or certain kinds of, food as a religious discipline, form of self denial &c, b (in gen senso) to refrain from food, not to eat I have been fasting from breakfast till late at night fast (IV), n, fr preo 1. The act of fasting, abstinence from food; Phr to break one's fast, to take food after interval of fasting 2 Period or day appointed for fasting fast-day, n Day appointed for fasting fasten, vb trans & intrans [1 fāsten, 2 fāsn] OE faestan, 'to fasten, fix, conclude (posco), ratify (treaty &c)', ME fasinen, fasnen, op O Fris fastna, OLG fastinān OHG fastinān fast (I) & -en 1 trans To make fast, firm, secure, to tie, attach, fix in position to fasten a door, a glove, to fasten a rope; to fasten a boat to a tree by a rope, to fasten two things together 2 intrans To become fastened, catch the lock, door, window &c will not fasten 3 Followed by various adverbs and prepositions Fasten off, trans, (of stitch, thread &c) to make firm, secure, prevent from slipping Fasten on, upon, a trans, (fig) to cause to be imputed to, assigned to, to fix, cause to cling to to fasten a crime, a nickname, on a person, Phr to fasten one's eyes on, gaze fixedly at, b intrans, (lit and fig) to clintob at, seize upon, take firm hold of (1) to fasten upon one's prey, (ii) to fasten upon an idea, suggestion, pretext &c Fasten up, trans, to close and make secure, make fast by a bond, catch &c, to up, nail up to fasten up a parcel, box &c fastener, n [1 fāhsener, 2 fāsn-a] Preo & -er A person who fastens, b object, device, contrivance, for fastening things together paper-fastener fastening, n [1 fāhsening, 2 fāsn-n] fasten & -ing 1 The act or manner of making fast 2 That by which anything is fastened, a clasp, catch, bolt, latch, band &c fasti, n pl [1 fāsti, 2 fāstai] Lat fasti, 'a day on which courts could be held and judgements pronounced, a onalder of festivals and events', fr fās, 'divine law', hence, 'that which is permitted, lawful', fr Aryan base bhā*, 'to speak' See fable, fate, fame Record of events in chronological order, with date upon which each occurred fastidious, adj [1 fastidyus, 2 fastidyus, fr Lat fastidiosus-(us), 'full of disgust, scornful, disdainful, squeamish', fr fastidi (um), 'loathing, disgust, contempt, pride', & -ous Possibly fr earlier farstid* 'm, cogn w M H G garst, 'spoil, sour', Mod Germ garstig, O N gersta, 'to spoil', Lith grasta, 'repulsive' See fash A given to picking and choosing, full of likes and dislikes, difficult, particular, hard to please, b sensitive, refined, highly cultivated, critical, discriminating a fastidious taste in art fastidiously, adv Preo & -ly In a fastidious manner fastidiousness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being fastidious fastigate, adj [1 fastigiat, 2 fastidiat], fr Lat fastigi (um), 'gable end, top of a gable, top, summit, slope, descent, highest degree, rank', & -ate Earlier farstid*, cogn w Sort bhstid, 'point, peak, angle', O H G, O N burst, O E byrst, 'bristle' (see bristle), O N barr, 'needle', O E brord, 'point', Aryan base bher-s*, bhr* s, 'something pointed' Sloping towards a point or ridge, inclining upwards fasting, n [1 fāhsting, 2 fāsting] fast (III) & -ing Abstinence, self denial in food, esp as a religious observance fastish, adj [1 fāhstish, 2 fāstish] fast (I) & (II) & -ish Fairly fast fastness (I), n [1 fāhstnes, 2 fāstnes] fast (I) & (II) & -ness The quality of being fast fastness (II), n O E faesten, 'fortress, castle', ME faistes, formed, w addition of -ness, fr fast (I) Stronghold, fortress, secure and remote retreat fastuous, adj [1 fāstūs, 2 fastuous] Fr fastuosus, fr Lat fastus, 'pride, arrogance', & -ous, fr Lat usus Etymol doubtful (rare) Proud, ostentatious fastuously, adv Preo & -ly Arrogantly, ostentatiously fastuousness, n See preo & -ness Arrogance, ostentation, pomp fat (I), adj [1 fāt, 2 fāt] OE fāt, 'fat, obese, greasy, fertile, productive, rich', ME fāt, op ON feitr, M Du vet, O H G feist, fr P P of Gmo fatjon-*, 'to fatten', fr fato*, 'fat' Cogn w Gk piduein, 'to gush forth', O Slav piti, 'to nourish, feed', further, Lat olpinus, 'fat, well-nourished, fertile, rich', pinquus, 'fat' (see pinguid), Gk pinelē, 'fat', plōn, 'fat', Scrt pinān, 'swelling', pinarā, 'fat', pinā, 'fat' Aryan base pā-, pā-, 'to swell out, gush out (of liquids, grease &c)' See pino (II), pituitary 1 A Covered with fat, corpulent, obese, plump, stout, full-bodied you are getting too fat, fat cheeks, Phrs fat woman, one of excessive corpulence, exhibited as a show, laugh and grow fat, b specif, fattened, fattened by special feeding for exhibition, or for food a fat oz, sow &c, o (of meat) having considerable quantity of fat attached in proportion to lean this mutton is too fat for me 2 (of food) Abounding in fat, oily, greasy, unctuous fat soup, a fat diet 3 A Thick in proportion to length and breadth, stumpy, lumpy fat fingers, a fat shes, b swelled out, plump, full the pods of the peas are getting fat, Phr (vulg) a fat lot you care, (ironical) you don't care at all 4 Rich, prolific, fertile, productive fat pasture, fat soil 5 Yielding a good income, profitable a fat job, a fat benefice fat (II), n OE fāt See preo 1 A Greasy, soluble substances found in many parts of animal body, adipose tissue, also similar substance found in certain seeds, op oil, Phrs the fat is in the fire, a step has been taken, something done, which commits to further action, or will produce excitement, indignation &c, to live on one's own fat, consume one's capital, financial or intellectual 2 A The richest, best part of anything, Phr to live on the fat of the land, to enjoy every luxury, b (theatr slang) an important part in a play, c striking, attractive, impressive, pregnant, passage in a literary composition fat (III), vb trans & intrans OE fāthōn, 'to grow fat' 1 trans Also fat up, to cause to become fat, fatten to fat (up) a beast for market, Phr to kill the fatted calf, hold joyful celebration, prepare a hospitable welcome, from Parable of Prodigal Son

2 intrans To respond to the process of fattening these beasts are fatting up well fat (IV), n Variant of vat (archaic and obs except in Authorized Version of Bible) A receptacle, vessel 'dugged a place for the wine fat' (Mark xii 1) fatal, adj [1 fātāl; 2 fātāl], fr Lat fātāl (is), 'ordained by fate, destructive, deadly', fr Lat fāt (um), 'fate' (see fate), & -al 1 (rare or obs) Connected with, arising from, due to, decreed by, fate or destiny the fatal hour has struck Phr the fatal sisters, the Fates 2 Causing death, inimical to, destructive of, life, mortal his wound proved fatal, a fatal explosion, the great heat was fatal to many persons 3 Destructive, causing calamity, decisively disastrous, involving loss and ruin the event was fatal to my hopes, a fatal blunder, the hesitation and weakness of the general were fatal to the success of the attack fatalism, n [1. fātālizm, 2. fātālizm] Preo & -ism 1 The doctrine that all events are pre-ordained by fate, and inevit- able 2 Belief in fatalism, acceptance of every event as inevitably determined by destiny fatalist, n [1 fātālíst, 2. fātālíst] fatal & -ist A believer in fatalism fatalistic, adj [1 fātālístik, 2. fātālístik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, founded on, fatalism, inclined to fatalism fatalistically, adv [1 fātālístikali, 2. fātālístikali] Preo & -al & -ly In a fatalistic manner fatality, n [1 fātāliti, 2. fātāliti], fr Fr fatalité, fr L Lat fātāliti (em), 'fatal necessity', fatal & -ity 1 The state of being fatal 2 Something, especially of an unfortunate, unfavourable character which is destined by fate to happen, some inevitable (undesired) event, occurrence, circumstance there seems to be a fatality connected with my undertakings 3 A calamity, disaster, esp one which results in death fatalize, vb intrans & trans [1 fātēliz, 2. fātēliz] fatal & -ize 1 intrans (rare) To be inclined to fatalism 2 trans (rare) To cause to become a fatalist fatally, adv [1 fātāl, 2. fātāl] fatal & -ly In a fatal manner, a inevitably, as though decreed by fate, b so as to cause, or result in, death fata morgana, n [1 fāhta morgāna, 2. fāhta morgāna] Ital, 'Morgan the Fairy', an enchantress who figures in Romances of the Round Table A mirage, regarded as the work of fairies, visible in the Straits of Messina fate, n [1 fāt, 2. fāt], fr Lat fāt (um), 'that which is spoken, prediction, oracle, that which is ordained, fate, destiny, ill fate, calamity', fr P P of fōr, 'to speak, to foretell, predict' Op Lat fatua, 'speech, saying', see fable, foretell, '1 confers', fōma, 'report' See farno 1 A supposed irresistible power controlling the course of all events fat's had decided otherwise, Phr as sure as fate, quite certain 2 One through whom the power of fate is exercised, specif, the Fates, three Greek goddesses controlling human destiny 3 That which is decreed, ordained by fate, a one's lot, condition, destiny, state my fate has been a happy one, b evil fate, doom, destruction to go to one's fate, the murderer met his fate with fortitude Phrs to seal, decide, a person's fate, to determine what is to happen to him, to meet one's fate, meet a lady with whom one falls in love and to whom one subsequently becomes engaged fated, adj [1 fātēd, 2. fātēd] Preo & -ed 1 Appointed, decreed, ordained by fate, one's fated lot 2 Doomed, pre-ordained, destined to be fated to be hanged, o schemer fated to fail fateful, adj [1 fātēfūl, 2. fātēfūl] fated & -ful Determining, fraught with, fate, involving future destiny, decisive, irrevocable fatefully, adv Preo & -ly In a fateful manner fathead, n [1 făt-hed, 2 făt-hed] fat (I) & head Dull, stupid, slow-witted person father (I), n [1 făt-hed, 2 făt-hed] OE fader, 'father', ME fader, O Frs fader, O HG fater, Goth fader, ON födr, cogn w Lat pater, Gk pater, Serb otac, O Ir athir, Aryan base pater*, 'father'. See pater 1 Male parent, hence (by extension) a stepfather, b adoptive father, c father-in-law Phrs the wish is father to the thought, one tends to believe that which one wishes to be true or to happen, to be a father to, behave like a father, be kind to, protect and support 2 One who stands in the position of a parent and protector, one who is regarded as a father the king is the father of his people, the father of his country, specif, the Father, God the Creator 3 a Ancestor, progenitor, forefather, Phrs to be gathered to one's fathers, to die, to sleep with one's fathers, be dead, b the founder, originator, of anything, leader, author Boyle was described as the father of chemistry and brother of the Earl of Cork The Early Fathers, Fathers of the Church, early Christian teachers and writers Father of lies, the devil, Father of the Faithful, the caliph, Pilgrim Fathers, one of those who sailed in the Mayflower from England and settled at Plymouth, in America, in 1620 4 One to whom reverence is due on account of position, age, seniority &c, specif a Holy Father, the Pope, b Right Reverend Father in God, title of bishop, c Most Reverend Father in God, title of archbishop, d Roman Catholic priest who is a member of a religious community, e title of secular priest, father confessor, one to whom confession is made, f oldest member of a class, body &c, Father of the House, member who has sat the longest without interruption, g as title, expressing veneration, Phrs Father Time, Father Thames, Father Christmas &c, personification of these, h Conscript Fathers, members of ancient Roman senate father (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To be the father of, beget, b (fig) to be the author, originator, of 2 a To acknowledge oneself as the father of, b (fig) to assume responsibility for (a book, a parliamentary Bill &c) 3 (father on, upon) a To charge with the paterality of, b (fig) to saddle with responsibility for 4 To be a father to, care for, provide for, as a father fatherhood n [1 făt-hedhood, 2 făt-hed] father & -hood The state of being a father father-in-law, n [1 făt-hed in law, 2 făt-hed in lə] Wife's or husband's father fatherland, n [1 făt-hed-land, 2 făt-hed-land] Not a native word, translation of Germ Vaterland, as this is of Lat patria, 'native country', Native country fatherless, adj [1 făt-hed-les, 2 făt-hed-les] father (I) & -less Without a father living fatherlike, adj [1 făt-hed-lik, 2 făt-hed-lik] father (I) & -like Like a father fatherliness, n [1 făt-hed-lesness, 2 făt-hed-lesness] Next word & -ness The quality of being fatherly fatherly, adv [1 făt-hed-ly, 2 făt-hed-ly] father (I) & -ly a Belonging to a father fatherly responsibility b like that of a father, kindly, protective, benevolent o fatherly smile fathom (I), n [1 făt-hum, 2 făt-hum] OE fæthm, 'embrace, the outstretched arms, fathom measure', M L fæthm, 'fathom, embrace', op OS fæthm, pl, 'the outstretched arms, embrace', O HG fadum, 'length of thread', ON fæthm, 'embrace, thread', Goth fafa, 'something that surrounds, a hedge, enclosure', op further, Gk pelanāma, 'I spread out', pelalon, 'leaf, metal plate' (see petal), Lat patere, 'to be open' (see patent), Aryan base petē*, 'to spread' 1 A measure of length or depth, six feet used principally of depth of water 2 A quantity of lumber whose cross section is six feet square fathom (II), vb trans O L fæthman, 'to embrace', see prec To plumb, sound, measure depth of, (chiefly of mental action) to understand, get to the bottom of, penetrate I cannot fathom his thoughts, intentions, meaning &c fathomless, adj [1 făt-hum-les, 2 făt-hum-les] inathom (I) & -less (lit and fig) Impossible to fathom, very deep, unplumbed the fathomless depths of the sea fathomlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a manner, to an extent, impossible to fathom fathom-line, n Sailer's line marked in fathoms, for taking soundings fatalistic, adj [1 făt-ist-ik, 2 făt-ist-ik] Lat fatalis (us), 'predicting future events, prophesying', & -al, fr Lat fāt (um), 'prophetic saying, prophecy, destiny' (see fate), & dic (ere), 'to say' (see diction) (rare) Able to foretell the future, prophetic fatigue (I), n [1 făt-eg, 2 făt-eg] fr Fr fatigue, fr vb fatiguer 'to weary' See next word 1 Weariness, exhaustion, of body or mind 2 (mechan) Weakness in metal or wood caused by long-continued strain 3 a That which causes fatigue, wearisome toil, tiring occupation, exertion, b (mil) non military work performed by soldiers Also fatigue duty fatigue (II), vb trans, fr Fr fatiguer, fr Lat fatigare, 'to weary, to vex, hinder', fr earlier fat-ago*, cp (of) fatim, 'abundantly, exhaustively', fatiscere, 'to gape open, fall apart, be weary', fr fatia*, 'exhaustion', cogn w Lat fames, 'hunger', Gk phainō (fr khan jō*), 'I yawn, gape open', khēnes, 'the open mouth, gulf, chasm', khēma, 'yawning gulf' (see obscure), khēmē, 'a yawning', Aryan base ghē*, gha*, 'hunger, the open mouth' (see famine & faucal) To tire out, cause exhaustion to, to weary by bodily or mental work or strain fatiguable, adj [1 făt-eg-able, 2 făt-eg-able] fatigue (I) & -less Incapable of being fatigued, unwearied, unwearied fatigue-party, n Military party told off for fatigue duty fatiguing, adj [1 făt-eg-ing, 2 făt-eg-ing] fr Pres Part of fatigue (II) Causing fatigue, exhausting, tiring fatiguing work, a fatiguing day, hard work in great heat is very fatiguing fatiguingly, adv Prec & -ly In a fatiguing manner fatless, adj [1 făt-les, 2 făt-les] fat (I) & -less Without fat fatling, n [1 făt-ling, 2 făt-ling] fat (I) & -ling Young animal that has been fattened fatness, n [1 făt-ness, 2 făt-ness] fat (I) & -ness The quality, state, of being fat fatten, vb trans & intrans [1 făt-n, 2 făt-n] fat (I) & -en 1 trans a To make fat, esp animals for slaughter, b to make fertile, enrich (land) 2 intrans To become fat fatish, adj [1 făt-ish, 2 făt-ish] fat (I) & -ish Fairly fat fatty (I), adj [1 făt-i, 2 făt-i] fat (I) & -y a Like, or containing, fat fatty tissue b characterized by excessive fat fatty degeneration fatty (II), n, fr prec Fat child or person, esp as familiar form of address fatuity, n [1 făt-ū-ty, 2 făt-ū-ty] fr Lat fatuus (us), 'foolish, silly', see fatuous & -ity The quality of being fatuous, foolishness, insanity fatuous, adj [1 făt-ū-ous, 2 făt-ū-ous] fr Lat fatuus (us), 'foolish, silly, awkward', & -ous The orig meaning seems to have been 'abject, depressed, debased by stupidity', in this case the word is fr the Aryan base bhāu*, 'to beat down', cp Goth bauþs, 'deaf, stupid' See beat, also second element of confute & a (of persons) Silly, foolish, self-satisfied and naive b expressing folly, imbecility, stupidity a fatuous smile, c (of action) arising from, inspired by, folly &c, futile o fatuous attempt fatuously, adv Prec & -ly In a fatuous manner fatuousness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being fatuous fat-witted, adj [1 făt-wit-ed, 2 făt-wit-ed] Stupid, dull faubourg, n [1 fə-buor, 2 fə-buor] Fr, earlier forbourg, fr forbourg The first element fr Lat foris, 'out of doors, outside', fr foris, 'a door', cp foram & door The second element is Gmc, 'town' &c, see borough Quarter, district, outside a town, suburb, often surviving as a name in the town itself faucal, adj [1 fə-wk-l, 2 fə-wk-l] fr Lat fauc (ē), 'throat, narrow passage' Perh cogn w O HG guomo, ON gōmr, OE gōma, 'palate' (see gum (I)), Lett gāmura, 'windpipe', Lith gomurys, 'palate', Aryan base ghēu*, ghōu*, 'to gape open', op the base ghē*, gha*, in Lat fomes, 'hunger' (see famine), Gk khēnes, 'the open mouth', khēmē, 'yawning' Op fatigue Portaming to, produced in, the back of the throat faucet, n [1 fə-wet, 2 fə-wet] fr Fr faucet, 'vent-pog' Perh fr Lat falsare, 'to falsify' See false Tap for drawing liquid from barrel or vessel faugh, interj Combination of letters used by writers, in representing conversation, as an exclamation expressive of disgust or contempt, but not corresponding apparently to any reality of utterance fault (I), n [1 fə-wt, 2 fə-wt] ME faute, fr O Fr, fr Low Lat folia*, PP of fallere, 'to deceive, to fail' See fail (II) 1 Something that destroys perfection, flaw, defect, failure, imperfection a (of character) overgenerosity is his greatest fault, one cannot help liking him in spite of his many faults, b (of conduct) to acknowledge one's faults Phrs to find fault with, (i) complain of, (ii) to ro huke, scold, to a fault, excessively, so as to amount to a defect 2 Responsibility, culpability, liability to blame, for something wrong or undesired the fault is his own, it was my fault that they were late 3 Various specific uses a flaw in metal, b (geol) displacement of part of strata causing loss of continuity of the strata, c (elect) leakage in a circuit, d (hunting) loss of the scent Phr to be of fault, (i) to lose the scent, (ii) (fig) to be at a loss 4 a A mistake, error, something done wrongly this exercise has many faults of grammar, b specif (law-terms) ball wrongly placed by server, also foot fault, error in position of the feet of server fault (II), vb intrans, fr prec (geol, of strata of rock) To become displaced faultfinder, n [1 fə-wt-finder, 2 fə-wt-finder] One given to finding fault faultfinding, adj & n [1 fə-wt-finding, 2 fə-wt-finding] 1 adj Given to finding fault, critical 2 n Complaint, harsh criticism faultily, adv [1 fə-wt-ly, 2 fə-wt-ly] faulty & -ly In a faulty manner faultiness, n [1 fə-wt-ness, 2 fə-wt-ness] faulty & -ness The quality of being faulty faultless, adj [1 fə-wt-les, 2 fə-wt-les] fault & -less Without a fault, absolutely perfect faultlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a faultless manner, perfectly, to perfection faultlessness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being faultless, perfection faulty, adj [1 fə-wt-i, 2 fə-wt-i] fault (I) & -y a Guilty of a fault, blameworthy, wrong, culpable, b defective, imperfect faun, n [1 fə-wn, 2 fə-wn] fr Lit Faunus, a god of agriculture, later identified w Pan fr earlier foveno*, 'favourable, propitious', cp favere, 'to be favourable' See favour (Roman mythol) One of a class of deities of the woods and fields represented with horns, goat's feet, and pointed ears fauna, n [1 fə-wn, 2 fə-wn] fr Lat Fauna, a goddess in Roman mythology, sister of Ianus See prec 1 The whole group of animals existing within a certain area, or during a specific geological period the fauna of Britain, of the Ice Age 2 A treasure on the fauna of a specific region or period.

faunal, adj [1 fáwnal, 2 fónal] Preo & -al Pertaining to fauna faunist, n [1 fáwníst, 2 fóníst] fauna & -ist A student of fauna faunistic(al), adj [1 fáwnístik(l), 2 fónístik(l)] Preo & -ic & -al Pertaining to fauna or to faunists fauteuil, n [1 fótéi, 2 fótái] Anghized pronunciation of Fr, O Fr fauteuil, fr O H G fallstool See faidstool a An armchair, b a stall in a theatre faux pas, n [1 fô pái, 2 fou pá] Fr, 'false step' a A blunder, indiscretion, in speech or behaviour, an ill-judged, untimely utterance or action, esp one which causes embarrassment to others, b breach of social usage and etiquette to make, commit, a faux pas, c a moral lapse, fall from virtue, indiscreet, reprehensible conduct favour (I), n [1 fávur, 2 févur], fr Fr, fr Lat favōr(-em), 'good-will, partiality, expression of favour, acclamation, applause', fr fav(-ere), 'to be well disposed towards, to be favourable to, befriend' Prob ultimately connected w the base h₂ewd-, h₂h₁ &c, 'to exist' See be, future, & physio- 1 a An inclination, desire, disposition, readiness, to aid, protect, show kindness to, good graces, countenance, support, good-will, approval to win a person's favour, to look with favour on a person, a project &c, Phrs to find favour in one's eyes, please, to stand high in a person's favour, b excessive, unfair partiality I must decline to show favour to any of the candidates 2 a A kindly, gracious, obliging act, esp one done from kindness, and without any obligation may I ask a favour of you?, to do something as a favour, I regard this as a very great favour, may I ask for the favour of a reply?, Phrs your favour of yesterday, your letter (vulg or commero), by your favour, with your permission, b undue advantage granted or obtained through partiality he gained his position more by favour than merit, c (a woman's) consent to sexual intimacy (pl) she granted her favours to all and sundry, many besides the king enjoyed the favours of Barbara Villiers, Phr the last favour, possession (of a woman) 3 Kindness, benefit, evidence of generosity, token of favour or esteem to receive, be grateful for, favours, to heap favours upon 4 Advantageous circumstances, or conditions, something favourable the evidence is in his favour Phrs in favour of, (of persons) favourable to, in sympathy with, desirous of I am quite in favour of a change, (of things and actions) on behalf of, to the advantage of to withdraw in favour of another, to draw a cheque in a person's favour, under favour of the darkness, under cover of 5 An ornament, decoration, generally in form of ribbons, rosette, or badge, worn in honour of some event wedding favours, or as sign of membership of a society or party the Tony candidate and his supporters wore blue favours favour (II), vb trans, fr O Fr favorer, fr Med Lat favōrāre See preo 1 To show favour to, support, approve of to favour a proposal 2 To show undue and unfair partiality to, give advantages to, to detriment of others he could never have risen to his present post had he not been favoured by the powers that be 3 (of circumstances) To be advantageous for, tend to promote, encourage revolution always favours the rise of unscrupulous scoundrels to power 4 (archaic) To resemble, be like, have similar features to the child favours his father favourable, adj [1 fávurabl, 2 févurabl] favour (I) & -able 1 (of persons) Well disposed towards, inclined to in favour of to be favourable to a scheme 2 (of material things and conditions, times &c.) Suitable, propitious, advantageous the tide, wind, is favourable for a start, the moment is not favourable for speculations, a favourable opportunity now presents itself, favourable answer, the one desired, consent to request &c, favourable report, satisfactory report, one in favour, in commendation of person, thing, action favourableness, n Preo & -ness Condition, quality, of being favourable favourably, adv See preo & -ly In a favourable manner favoured, adj [1 fávurd, 2 févurd], fr PP of favour (II) Fortunate, enjoying favour, specially happy this favoured clime, a favoured mortal -favoured suff Of specific type or cast of countenance or features well, all favoured favouring, adj [1 fávurng, 2 févurng], fr Pres Part of favour (II) Favourable, propitious favouring winds favourite (I), n, adj [1 fávurit, 2 févurit], fr O Fr favorit, PP of favorir, 'to favour', variant of favorer See favour (II) Regarded with special favour, preferred, most liked my favourite novelist is Scott favourite (II), n, fr preo 1 a (i) Person who is preferred above another or others the elder of the two brothers is my favourite, (ii) person who is much and widely liked a general favourite, b (in bad sense) (i) person who is unduly favoured, (ii) one who is beloved and pampered from base motives, esp by a highly placed individual, a minion, (iii) one who is specially, and unfairly favoured to the detriment of others 2 a Thing which is preferred to others that book is a great favourite of mine, b speed, the favourite, horse considered most likely to win a race favouritism, n [1 fávurítizm, 2 févurítizm] Preo & -ism A practice of showing excessive and unfair partiality to favourites, b system under which rewards, promotion, and other advantages are gained by favourites favus, n [1 fávus, 2 févus] Lat, 'honeycomb', prob orig 'a building', fr base h₂h₁-, h₂ewd- &c, 'to be, to dwell, to build' See be, build A skin disease, chiefly affecting the scalp, due to a parasitic fungus, the name is due to the small pits or depressions left on the scalp fawn (I), n [1 fáwn, 2 fón], fr O Fr faun, fr Med Lat fēōn(-em), fēō, fr Lat fāvus, foetus (see foetus), 'birth, bringing forth, offspring, a fawn' 1 A young deer, fallow deer of first year Phr in fawn, pregnant (of does) 2 The colour of a fawn fawn (II), adj, fr preo Pale grayish brown fawn (III), vb trans & intrans, fr fawn (I) (of deer) 1 trans To give birth to (a fawn) 2 intrans To bring forth young fawn (IV), vb intrans O E fagenan, fahnan, ME faunen, 'to rejoice, to flatter', Cp O H G faginōn, Goth faginōn See fain (I) 1 (of dogs &c) To show affection by leaping upon, licking hands of, pressing against, grovelling at feet of, a person 2 Fawn upon, on, to cringe to, flatter, act servilely towards, with a view to gain favour fawn-coloured, adj fawn (II) Of a pale grayish brown fawning, adj [1 fáwnng, 2 fónng], fr Pres Part of fawn (IV) a (of dogs) Demonstrative, expressing affection by wagging tail, licking master's hands &c, b (of persons) servile, flattering a fawning courtier fawningly, adv Preo & -ly In a fawning manner fay, n [1 fá, 2 fái], fr O Fr fae, fr Lat Fāta, 'the Fates' See fate A fairy, a fragile, graceful, delicately beautiful child or girl fealty, n [1 féltá, 2 féltá], fr O Fr feaulte, fr Lat fidelitās(-em), 'fidelity' See fidelity 1 Specific, fidelity owed by a vassal to his feudal lord, obligations implied thereby to swear, do fealty (to, for) 2 (poet or archaic) Faith, fidelity, loyalty in general fear (I), n [1 fē, 2 fí] O E fēr, 'danger', ME fēre, Cp O N fār, O H G fara, 'danger', Goth fērja, 'puruer', cogn w Lat periculum, trial, experience, danger, q v under peril 1 a Emotion, state of mind, caused by a sense of impending danger, misfortune, pain &c, terror, dread to be overcome by fear, to feel no fear in the midst of battle, I daren't enter for fear of the dog, Phr to go in fear of one's life, b a specific access of terror, grave anxiety, sinister anticipation grave fears are entertained for his safety, the fear of death was upon him 2 Slight feeling of anxiety, solicitude, foreboding, anticipation of some comparatively trivial risk, annoyance, disappointment I had a fear that you had lost the train, I have no fear that trout will be scarce this year 3 Likelihood, probability, risk, chance, of some undesired event happening there is not the slightest fear of rain today, is there any fear of dinner being late? Phrs for fear of (accident &c), in case of, (vulg) no fear, certainly not 4 Awe, veneration, respectful dread and reverence the fear of God, Phr to put the fear of God into (a person), to bring him to his senses, render him respectful and humble, to overawe fear (II), vb trans & intrans O E fēran, ME fēren, fr O E fēr, 'danger, fear' See preo A trans 1 To feel fear for, be frightened, terrified of, or by to fear death, I do not fear his threats 2 To look forward to, anticipate, expect (some disaster) to fear the worst 3 To regard with awe, veneration, reverse fear God, honour the king & (archaic & poet) To cause fear to, to frighten, terrify bugs to fearful babes (Spenser, 'F Q' II xii 25), 'not a slope up which he had not feared the antelope' (Keats, 'Endym' iv 702) B intrans 1 To be afraid, feel fear, be oppressed by terror 2 To be nervous, anxious, solicitous, be uneasy last I fear it's too late, Phr never fear, don't be anxious fearful, adj [1 fērful, 2 fíful] fear (I) & -ful 1 (archaic) a Feeling fear, timid, timorous, shrinking, frightened, b anticipating with fear, apprehensive, filled with misgiving, afraid to be fearful of falling, lest one fall, c feeling awe, dread, reverence, 'Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take' (Cowper) 2 a Cansing, inspiring, fear, awful, terrible, b (colloq) very great, extraordinary, extreme a fearful bore fearfully, adv Preo & -ly In a fearful manner, to a fearful extent, often colloq as mere intens fearfully pleased &c fearfulness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being fearful fearless, adj [1 fērlēs, 2 fírlēs] fear (I) & -less Without fear, dauntless, courageous fearlessly, adv Preo & -ly In a fearless manner, courageously fearlessness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being fearless, courage, bravery fearnought, n [1 fērnawt, 2 fírnawt] fear (II) & nought A thick, tough woollen cloth, coat made from this fearsome, adj [1 fērsam, 2 fírsam] fear (I) & -some Inspiring fear, terrible, grisly fearsomely, adv Preo & -ly In a fearsome manner fearsomeness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being fearsome feasibility, n [1 fēzibiliti, 2 fízibiliti] Next word & -ity The quality of being feasible, practicability feasible, adj [1 fēzibl, 2 fízibl], fr O Fr faas, imperfect stem of faire, 'to do', fr Lat facere (see fact), & -ible Capable of being done or carried out, possible, practicable feast (I), n [1 fēst, 2 físt], fr O Fr feste, fr Lat festā, 'festival, holiday, festival banquet', fr festus, 'solemn, festive, joyous, quiet', op Lat festāe, 'festival' (O Lat festāe, see fax (I)), fanum, 'holy place', fr fas nom, see fane, fr O Lat stem fes-, fas, 'sacred', prob fr Aryan base h₂h₁-, h₂ewd-, 'to make, do', Cp Gk themis, dhē*, dhō*, 'to make, do', 'that which is appointed, set', dhāman, 'that which is appointed, set', dhāman, 'that which is appointed, set', fixed, law' See do, & words there referred to 1 a Day of rejoicing, day or period of to 1 a Day of religious commemoration of some annual religious commemoration of some important event the Feast of the Epiphany, Feast of Pentecost, Phrs movable feast, varying in date, within certain limits, immovable feast, occurring on the same date each year, b day or period of secular rejoicing, festivity, annual festival 2 a Splendid, abundant, sumptuous, repast, esp a public banquet, Phr a feast of fat things (lit and fig), b (fig) abundant, copious supply of delightful and enjoyable things an intellectual feast feast (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To partake of a feast, to fare sumptuously, abundantly 2 trans a To give a feast to, feed sumptuously, b to give pleasure to, regale, delight to feast one's eyes on a landscape &c feast (I), n [1 fēt, 2 fīt] ME feet, fast, fr O Fr feet, fest, fr Lat foet (um), 'deed' Variant of fact An action exhibiting unusual courage, endurance, strength, skill &c, an exceptional deed, exploit a feat of strength oghliv &c, feats of arms, his per- formance was a regular feat feat (II), adj, fr O Fr feist, fout, 'made', fr Lat foet (us), P.P of Lat fovere, 'to make' See prec (archaic) Neat, delf, dexterous feather (I), n, [1 fēðer, 2 fēls] OE fēðer, ME fēder, OHG fēdera, OLG fēðera, ON fēðr, 'feather'. Cogn w Sort pēðra-m, 'wing, feather', Lat pēter, 'to go, travel, fly', also (accipiter, 'hawk', Gk ptērōn, 'wing' (see ptero-) Aryan base pe(e)l-, pe l-, w suff r, fr base pe-*, 'to fly', op Gk pēdomai, 'I fly', poie, 'flight', ptōma, 'flight', Sert patati, 'to fly' See also pen (III), impetus, pottition. 1 a One of the external growths covering body of, and forming plumage of a bird, Phr as light as a feather, very light, to show the white feather, turn tail, show cowardice, birds of a feather, persons of similar character, in high feather, in good spirits, you might have knocked me down with a feather, implying I was so much amazed, agitated &c b part of feather fastened to arrow to guide its flight, c a plume tuft, bunch &c of feathers, worn as ornament, Phr a feather in one's cap, achievement to be proud of, source of credit, kudos.

 2 Something resembling a feather in appearance, e.g. flaw in a gem, glass &c 3 Action of feathering an oar in rowing, position of blade of oar when this is done feather (II), vb trans & intrans OE (ge)fēðeran, 'to supply with feathers', fr OE fēðer, fēder, 'feather' See prec A. trans 1 To cover with feathers, to fasten feathers to, adorn with, supply with, feathers to feather an arrow Phr to feather one's nest, to make provision for the future, fill one's pocket, enrich oneself 2 To form a feathery fringe or covering for doughs feathered with frost 3 (various specific uses) a (rowing) To turn an oar in a stroke so as to allow the water to slide off in a thin feather-like sheet, b (shooting) to hit (a bird) without killing it, but so as to cause feathers to fly from it B intrans To perform act of feathering an oar feather-bed, n. Mattress filled with feathers feather-brain, n. A frivolous, shallow, foolish person.
feather-brained, adj [1 fēðer brānd, 2 fēð brend] Silly, foolish, insane feather-brush, n Brush consisting of a tuft of feathers on a long handle, a Turk's head feathered, adj [1 fēðerd, 2 fēðed] feather (I) & -ed. Having feathers the feathered tribes, birds provided with feathers, in form of a feather feathered spray feather-edge, n Edge (of a board &c) shaped like a fine wedge feather-head, n Feather brain. featheriness n [1 fēðernes, 2 fēðrines] feathery & -ness The quality of being feathery feathering, n [1 fēðering, 2 fēðrɪŋ] feather (II) & -ing 1 a A bird's feathers, plumage *b the feathers of an arrow 2 Anything resembling a feather, feathers, a feathery like fringe &c, on animal's coat, tail &c, b (archit.) cusp in tracery of a window &c. featherless, adj [1 fēðerles, 2 fēðeles] feather & -less Without feathers featherlet, n [1 fēðerlet, 2 fēðelet] feather (I) & -let A small feather feather-stitch, n & vb trans Embroidery stitch forming a central line with short branches on either side feather weight, n A very light person or thing, specif, boxer weighing less than 9 stone feathery, adj [1 fēðeri, 2 fēðeri] feather (I) & -y a Covered with, adorned with feathers, b resembling feathers, soft and light feathery snow feathily, adv feath (II) & -ly (archaic) Daintily, dexterously feature (I), n [1 fēçer, 2 fētç], fr O Fr façure, fr Lat faciō, 'something made', fr foet (us), P.P type of foe (ere), 'to make' (see fact) & -ure 1 One of the individual parts of the face, the eyes, nose, mouth, ears handsome, poor, striking, features 2 a (of material things) Part, element, of something, esp a striking, distinguishing characteristic a laile is an important feature in a landscape, b (of non material things) outstanding characteristic, typical, striking point the speech contained some excellent features 3 The word is used by Milton in the sense of 'creature' or 'monster', referring to Death 'the grim features' (P.L. x 279) feature (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To have a prominent feature of, be distinctive of 2 To portray, represent features of, esp in recent usage referring to cinema actors and actresses featureless, adj [1 fēçerles, 2 fētçles] feature (I) & -less Without features, without anything distinctive or striking a featureless landscape febrifugal, adj [1 fēbrɪfʊgəl, 2 fēbrɪfʊgəl] Next word & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, a febrifuge febrifuge, n [1 fēbrɪ, fēbrɪfʊ, 2 fēbrɪ, fēbrɪfʊdʒ], fr Fr fēbrifuge, fr Lat fēbris, 'fever' (see febrile), & fug (ero), 'to put to flight' (see -fuge) A remedy for fever febrile, adj [1 fēbrɪl, 2 fēbrɪl], fr Fr, fr Lat fēbrilis, 'feverish', fr fēbr (us), 'fever', & -ile, fēbris is prob related to Lat favilla, 'glowing ash', fr fovilla*, whose f- is fr Aryan dh*, op Sert dahati, 'it burns', fr dhagha*, op also Sert dahat, 'ember, heat', Lith dāgas, 'harvest', Goth dagis, 'day' See further under day Connected with, arising from, of the nature of, fever, feverish February, n [1 fēbrʊəri, 2 fēbrʊəri], fr Lat Februarius, 'the month of expiation (in which the feast of purification was held)', fr fēbru (um), 'means of purification', op Lat fēbrūre, 'to purify', fr base dheue* &c, 'breath, steam, smoke' &c See further under fumus, dust, beast The second month of the year fecal, feces See faecal, faeces fecit, vb [1 fēst, 2 fīst] Lat fēcit, 'made', perf (3rd sing) of facere, 'to make, do', See fact Mode of signing a work of art John Jones fecit=did, made, thus feckless, adj [1 fēkles, 2 fēkles] Etymol doubtful, Scots & Nthn feck, 'worth, value', possibly for effect, & -less (provinco) Thoughtless, careless, irresponsible fecklessly, adv Prec & -ly In a feckless manner fecklessness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being feckless feculence, n [1 fēkʊləns, 2 fēkʊləns], fr Lat faeculentia, 'dregs', fr faecul (entus), 'abounding in dregs' See faeces & -ence 1 The state or quality of being feculent 2 Dregs, sediment feculent, adj [1 fēkʊlənt, 2 fēkʊlənt], fr Lat faeculent (us), 'abounding in dregs', fr faec, stem of faer, 'dregs, sediment' See prec & -ent Muddy, turbid, foul fecund, adj [1 fēkʊnd, 2 fēkʊnd], fr Fr fecund, fr Lat fecund (us), 'fruitful, fertile', op fē nūc, 'proceeds, increases', connected w fēlūre, 'to suckle', also w Gk thēlē, 'mother's breast', also Lat fēmina, 'woman' See feminine The base dhē*, 'to suckle', is used to express 'plenty, fruitfulness, propority', as in Lat fēlix, 'fruitful, auspicious', lucky, successful, happy' See felicity Fruitful, fertile, prolific (lit and fig) fecund beasts, soil, mind &c fecundate, vb trans [1 fēkʊndāt 2 fēkʊndet] Prec & -ate a To make fertile, fruitful, b to impregnate fecundation, n [1 fēkʊndāshn, 2 fēkʊndesjən] Prec & -fon The act of fecundating, state of being fecundated fecundity, n [1 fēkʊndɪtɪ, 2 fēkʊndɪtɪ] fecund & -ity The quality of being fecund, prolific, fertility, productivity fed, vb [1 fēd, 2 fēd] OE fēdde, (ge)fēdd, ME fēdd(e) Pret & P.P of feed federal (I), adj [1 fēdərəl, 2 fēdərəl], fr Fr fédéral, fr Lat foeder, stem of foedus, 'compact, treaty', fr foed*, connected w Lat fīdare, 'to trust, put confidence in', fīdus, 'trustworthy, faithful', fr foed*. The Aryan forms are bhōidh*, bhēidh*, bhīdh*, 'to persuade', be persuaded, to trust', whence Gk peithein, 'to persuade', in pass sense, 'to be won over, to believe, trust' Further cognates are Goth bidjan, 'to beg, pray', OE biddan, q.v. under bid (I), & perh Goth baizjan, 'to compel', OE bēdan 1 (polit and hist) Connected with, based upon federation federal government, a federal state 2 (theol) Federal theology, a system based upon the doctrine of certain covenants between God and man federal (II), n, fr prec a A federalist, member of a federal state, b one of the states of a federation federalism, n [1 fēdərəlɪzəm, 2 fēdərəlɪzəm] Prec & -ism. The doctrine of federal union federalist, n [1 fēdərəlɪst, 2 fēdərəlɪst] federal & -ist. A supporter of federalism, esp a member of the Northern or Federal States during the American Civil War federalization, n [1 fēdərəlɪzəshən, 2 fēdərəlɪzəʃən] Next word & -ation The act of federalizing, state of being federalized federalize, vb trans [1 fēdərəlɪz, 2 fēdərəlɪz] federal & -ize To form (states &c) into a unity under a federal government federally, adv [1 fēdərəlɪ, 2 fēdərəlɪ] federal & -ly In a federal manner, by means of federalization federate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fēdərət, 2 fēdərət], fr Lat foederāt (um), P.P type of foederare, 'to establish by treaty', fr foeder, stem of foedus, 'a treaty' See federal To unite independent states into a league under a central, federal government federate (II), adj [1 fēdərət, 2 fēdərət] fr Lat foederāt (us), 'leagued together, allied' See prec United under a common federal government federation, n [1 fēdərəshən, 2 fēdərəʃən] Prec & -ion. 1 The act of federating, state of being federated, that form of government in which several states, each keeping an internal independence, are joined into a union for foreign affairs and certain other common objects 2 a A group of states forming a federal union, b federated body, league, association, society federationist, n [1 fēdərəshənɪst, 2 fēdərə-ʃənɪst] Prec & -ist. An advocate of federation

federative, adj [1 fēdərətɪv, 2 fēdərətɪv] federate & -ive Pertaining to federation, federal federatively, adv Prec & -ly In a federative manner federally fee (I), n, [1 fē, 2 fī] ME fee, 'payment', fr O Fr fē, fū, feu, fr Med Lat feudum, 'fief' (see feudal), prob of Gmc origin, op OHG fihu, 'cattle, property, payment', cogn w OE feoh, 'cattle, money, property' No 3 below may be either fr the O Fr, or may be direct fr, or at least influenced by, OE feoh This word, fr Gmc fo(x)u*, fr

Aryan peh-*, is cogn w Lat pecus, 'flock (of sheep)' & pecunia, 'money' See further under fight & pecuniary 1 (fendal law) Land held from a superior lord on consideration of service, fendal benefice, fee, fee-farm, land held in fee, at an annual rent, a form of fee simple subject to a perpetual rent, fee-simple, estate inheritable without limitation, equivalent to freehold, fee-tail, estate inheritable only by direct, or specific class of heirs 2 Homage due from a vassal to a superior lord 'once did she hold the gorgeous East in fee' (Wordsworth, of Venice). 3 Payment made, sum charged for services rendered, or privileges granted, a hy professional men lawyer's, doctor's, fee, b by a public body official's fees, o hy school, college, university entrance fee, terminal, school, degree, fees & fee (II), v trans, fr. prec 3 To pay a fee to to fee a doctor.

feeble, adj [1 fēbl, 2 fībl], ME feble, fr O Fr feble, Mod Fr faible, fr Lat fiēbils, 'to be wept over, lamentable, weeping, tearful', fr Lat flē (re), 'to weep', & -ilis (see -ble) The base of Lat flē is Aryan bhlē*, imitative word, op O Slav blęa, 'I bloat', & OE blęan (see bloat) 1 (of living things and their bodily functions) Weak, lacking physical strength or health, devoid of vigour a feeble creature, a feeble body, a feeble grasp, a feeble pulse 2 (of persons and mental powers) Intellectually weak, not mentally vigorous, deficient, imbecile a feeble mind, brain 3 (of actions) Lacking energy and vigour, hesitating, weakly and ineffectively carried out, futile a feeble attempt, effort, attack, speech & 4 (of material objects) Frail, incapable of resistance to weight or strain, easily broken down, or upset a feeble barrier, a feeble fortress feebleness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being feeble, weakness, inefficiency feeblish, adj [1 fēblish, 2 fīblish] feeble & -ish Rather feeble feebly, adv [1 fēbli, 2 fībli] feeble & -ly. In a feeble manner feed (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fēd, 2 fīd] OE fēdan, ME fēde, op Goth fōdan, Gmc fōdjan*, fr fōd*, 'food' See food. A trans 1 a To give, administer, food to, place food before, within reach of to feed the pigs, horses & to feed a baby; b (reflex) to feed oneself, to put food into one's mouth with one's own hand the invalid is too weak to feed himself 2 To nourish, to supply, provide, with bodily sustenance to be well, poorly, fed, feed one's family, God feeds the beasts of the field 3 To supply with material, keep supplied, or filled to feed a machine, a river fed by tributaries, to feed the flames (fig) Phr to feed the flames (of jealousy) & to excite, stimulate, promote, render more acute 4 To give as food to feed turnips to cattle B intrans a (chiefly of animals) To consume food, to eat the cows are feeding in the pasture, b (of persons, vulgar or facetious) to take a meal, consume food we feed of s o'clock C Followed by adverbs and prepositions Feed on, a to consume, take as food, use habitually as nourishment cattle feed chiefly on grass, b to give to as food I feed my dogs on biscuits and broth Feed up, to give extra nourishment to, bring to high pitch of health by giving plentiful food to, to fatten this child needs feeding up Phr (colloq) fed up, having had enough of something, bored, wearied, antirated feed (II), n, fr prec 1 The act of feeding. let the horse have a feed, (vulg) to have a good feed Phr (colloq) off one's feed, suffering from loss of appetite 2 a Maternal giron or talcoo as food, esp of domestic animals, fodder, b amount of food given at one time to give a horse a feed of oats 3 a Means, channel, by which material is conveyed to a machine & c b material supplied to a machine, to be operated on feeder, n [1 fēder, 2 fīder] feed (I) & -er 1 (of animals and plants) One that feeds, esp one that feeds in a specified manner a large feeder, a grass feeder 2 A tributary stream 3 Device for supplying material to a machine 4 Naphin tied round child's neck to keep its clothes clean at meal times, bib feeding, adj [1 fēding, 2 fīding], fr Pres Part of feed (I) Feeding storm, one gradually increasing in violence feeding-bottle, n Glass vessel from which liquid food is sucked by infants feed-tank, n Tank supplying water to an engine fee-farm, n See fee (I) fee-faw-fum, interj & n [1 fē fāw fūm, 2 fī fāw fūm] Utterance expressing rage and fury, attributed to ogres in fairy tales, hence, meaningless words of anger and threatening uttered by an arrogant person with intent to overawe his hearers feel (I), v trans & intrans [1 fēl, 2 fīl] OE fēlan, ME fēlen Cp O Frs fēla, OHG fuolan, OLG (g) fūhan Cogn w Sort 5-sphālayah, 'strikes', Gk psēlaphān, 'to grope', psallēn, 'to pluck, pull, twitob', to strike (the strings of a musical instrument), psalmōs, 'harp playing' (see psalm), Lat palpāre, 'to touch, caress', palpitāre, 'to agitate, beat' (see palpitate), O Slav palciti, 'thumb'. Aryan base *(s)phēl, *(s)ph(h)l, 'to strike gently' See further palpable, palpebral, psalter A trans 1 a To have physical sensation of, to experience, be conscious of, any kind of sensuous stimulus to feel heat and cold, to feel pain, b to experience emotion, to have a moral, emotional, intellectual, sense of; to be animated by to feel sorrow, compunction, fear, delight 2 To touch with the hand so as to test, or try, by tactile experience, to explore, test by touching with the fingers just feel how cold my hand is, to feel the edge of a knife Phr to feel one's way, (1) advance cautiously, and by groping, as a blind man, or one in the dark, (u) (fig) to act with caution, tact, deliberation 3 a To have an acute sense of, be very sensitive to, suffer from, be oppressed by, physical facts or processes I don't feel the heat at all, I like it, infants feel the cold very much, b to have acute emotional and moral sensitiveness to, to experience sorrow at, to resent, be grieved by I felt the insult deeply, to feel a friend's death 4 a To discriminate exactly between various qualities of, to have a just and delicate sense of, to be emotionally stirred by to feel poetry, music, to feel the beauty of a landscape, b to appreciate intellectually, to be alive to rational appeal of to feel the force of an argument, the truth of what is said & 5 a To entertain a notion that, to be of the opinion that, to hold, consider, be persuaded that I feel that I ought to say no more at present, b to have a premonition, an intuition that, be persuaded that it is likely that to feel that some disaster is impending B intrans 1 To be sentient, to be capable of sensation the dead cannot feel 2 a To have a specific sensation, to experience within oneself to feel cold, ill, comfortable, hungry & to be in a certain moral or emotional state to feel sad, depressed, happy & c, Phr to feel strongly about, hold strong, definite opinions; to feel for, have sympathy with (a person), c to be in a specific intellectual state, or frame of mind to feel doubtful, certain Phr to feel like (eating & c), to be inclined for 3 To impart, give rise to, a specific sensation when touched, to produce a specific physical impression how cold your hand feels Phr it feels like rain & c, gives the impression that there will be rain feel (II), n, fr prec 1 Sensation imparted by touch; sensation experienced by one who touches, feeling this handle has a sticky feel, I know this is silk by the feel, the cool feel of dewy grass 2 Sense of touch rough and coarse to the feel 3 Tact, instinctive feeling, flair to have a feel for good poetry feeler, n [1 fēler, 2 fīler] feel (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, feels, specif (tool.) an organ of touch in certain animals 2 An action, or utterance, of a cautious, tentative character, an experimental act, or speech, carried out or made in order to elicit fuller information, to test the state of affairs, or of opinion, before defining one's views, outlining a policy & c, a halloo d'essai feeling (I), n [1 fēling, 2 fīling] feel (I) & -ing 1 Physical sensation, sentience, power of, and capacity for, experiencing sensation to lose all feeling from a sudden blow 2 a A specific bodily sensation a feeling of discomfort, of well-being & c, b a specific emotion or sentiment a feeling of joy and gratitude, c a premonition, intuition to have a feeling that something is going to happen 3 (often in pl) a The emotions, the emotional side of human character to appeal to the feelings rather than to the reason, to rouse the feelings, Phrs to speak with feeling, so as to express emotion, a man of feeling, sentimental person, good feeling, friendliness, all feeling, animosity, to hurt the feelings of, to offend, wound, b specif, kindly, generous, sentiment, affections, sensitive, emotional, nature a man without any feeling(s) 4 Excitement of mind, esp angry, offended, ruffled, sentiment, hostile frame of mind the speech aroused strong feeling on all sides, I have really no feeling about his attack on me, feeling ran high at the time 5 Intuitive aesthetic appreciation, delicate and just sensibility, discriminating taste to have a feeling for beauty in nature and in art feeling (II), adj, fr Pres Part of feel (I) Having, animated by, expressing, strong feeling and emotion a feeling heart, speech, remark & c feelingly, adv Prec & -ly So as to express emotion, as though animated by strong feeling to speak feelingly fee-simple, fee-tail, n See fee (I) feet, n See foot

fehmgerecht, fehmiue See vehmgerecht & fehmiue, fr trans & intrans [1 fān, 2 fōn] ME feinen, fr O Fr feindre, fr Lat finire, 'to form, shape, to invent', w mixed -n, fr Aryan base dheigh*, 'digh', 'to put together, form, shape' See figure, actile, dough A trans 1 a (archaic and poet) To imagine, invent, fable tales such as poe's feign, b to invent, make up, fabricate to feign an excuse 2 To pretend, assume, simulate to feign indifference B intrans To dissemble, make false representations feint (I), n [1 fānt, 2 fēint], fr O Fr feinte, fr PP of feindre, 'to feign' See prec. Lat 'something feigned, or simulated' a A misleading appearance, pretence, ruse blanco to make a feint of doing something, b an action intended to mislead, esp a pretended attack in fencing, or in military operations, made to distract attention of opponent from real point of attack feint (II), vb intrans, fr prec To make a feint feint (III), adj & adv See faint. 1 adj Indistinct, only in feint (also faint) lines (ruled on paper) 2 adv Indistinctly, feintly (of paper) fel(d)spar, n [1 fēl(d)spar, 2 fēl(d)spar] Imitated fr Germ feldspath, fr feld, 'field', q v, & spath, 'spar' See spar One of several kinds of crystalline mineral, of various elements and colourings fel(d)spathic, adj [1 fēl(d)spathik, 2 fēl(d)spathik], fr Germ feldspath (see prec) & -ic Consisting of, containing, feldspar felicidae, n [1 fīlind, 2 fīlind], fr Lat felis, stem of fēle, 'a cat'. See solid & -idae The killing of a cat.

felicidae, adj [1 fēlissit, 2 fīlissit] fr felis (see prec) & -ic 'making happy', fr fel, 'happy' of felix, 'happy' See felicity & -ic. (rare) Producing, leading to happiness felicitate, vb trans [1 fēlissat, 2 fīlissat] felicity, fr Lat felicitas, 'happiness'. See felicity & -ate 1 (rare) To make happy 2 To wish happiness to, congratulate felicitation, n [1 folitshun, 2 felisitʃən] Prec & -ion Expression of good wishes felicitous, adj [1 folitʃus, 2 felisitʃəs] fr Lat felicit (us) See felicity & -ous 1 (rare) Happy, causing happiness 2 Happy, apt, opportune, suitable and pleasing in a particular connexion a felicitous remark, phrase, allusion &c felicitously, adv Prec & -ly In a felicitous manner felicity, n [1 felitʃi, 2 felisitʃi] fr O Fr felicité, fr Lat felicitas (em), 'fruitfulness, happiness, good fortune', fr felix, stem of felix, 'fruitful, productive favourable, propitious, lucky, fortunate, happy', & -ity Fr luz is prob to be connected w fecundus, 'fruitful', fe nus, 'proceeds, interest', fe tus, 'a bringing forth, offspring' Cp also Sert dhandā, 'crops', Aryan base dhē*, 'fruitful' See fecund & fecundus A state of happiness, contentment, blissfulness, prosperity felid, n [1 fēld, 2 fild] fr Lat fel (es), 'cat, marten, pole cat', & -id The etymol of the word is very doubtful It is possibly cogn w W felc, 'marten' An animal of the cat-family, Felidae, which includes the lion, tiger, leopard &c feline, adj & n [1 fēlin, 2 fīlin] fr Lat felinus, 'of a cat, cat-like', fr fel (es), a cat', & -ine See prec 1 adj A Connected with a cat, or with cats, resembling, having the characteristics of, a cat, b (fig) cat like, spiteful, treacherous 2 n An animal belonging to the cat-tribe, felid felinity, n [1 felinit, 2 felinitʃi] Prec & -ity The quality of being feline fell (I), n [1 fēl, 2 fēl] OE, ME fell (f), OLG, O Frs, OHG fel, ON fell, Goth -fil, 'hide, skin' Cogn w Lat pellis, 'hide, skin, leather', Gk pella, 'skin', pélma, 'sole', Lat plēnē, 'thin skin' Aryan base pel*, pl*, 'skin' See further filum, pellucē, erysipelas 1 A Animal's hide and hair, hence, b human skin 2 Rough, thick mass of hair fell (II), n ME fell, fr ON fell, prob cogn w OHG felis, 'rock' (Mod Germ fels), Gk pella, Sort pēdēdē, 'stone, rock', Aryan base pels*, 'rock' Rocky upland, lofty, bare mountain slope, mountain fell (III), adj OE, ME fel, 'fierce, cruel', cp O Frs, M Du fel, fr Low Lat fello, 'felson' See felson (archaic and poet) Cruel, fierce, dire, ruthless fell (IV), vb trans OE (non W S) fellan, ME fellan, cp OLG fellan, OHG fellan, causative vb, fr felljan*, 'to fall' See fall 1 A To cause to fall, to cut, strike, hurl down to fell an ox, to fell a man with a single blow, specif b to cut down trees, timber 2 To turn and stitch down material left projecting beyond a seam to fell a seam fell (V), vb OE feoll, ME fell Pret of fall fellah, n, pl fellahim [1 fēl, fəlahʃn, 2 fēl, fəlahʃn] Arab, 'ploughman' Egyptian peasant, labourer felloe, felly, n [1 fēl, 2 fēl] OE felg, felge, ME fel, felwe, feloue, cp OHG felga, M Du velge A The rim of a wheel, in which the spokes are inserted, b a segment of the rim of a wheel between the spokes fellow n [1 fēlb, 2 felou] OE feolaga, ME felawe, translated fr ON felagi, 'one who lays down money', hence partner, fellow, companion', cp also ON felag, 'companionship', lit 'laying together of property' See fee (I) & lay 1 Partner, sharer, participator in an action, commonly in unfavourable sense, an accomplice fellows in crime &c (generally of men, rarely used of women) Phr to be hail fellow well met with, on friendly, cordial terms with 2 n Companion, associate one sharing the same conditions, undergoing same experiences, as another fellows in misery, good fortune &c, (also attrib) fellow citizen, fellow creature &c, b a contemporary, equal a member of the same corporation we were fellows at school 3 A Person of inferior rank, formerly used as mode of address to such, (obs) b a rough, coarse, uncultivated man, a boorish lout 'lewd fellows of the baser sort', 'Worth moles the man, the want of it the fellow' (Pope), c general, colourless term for a male person, equivalent to man, obsap a very pleasant fellow, an able, a stupid, fellow Phrs a good fellow, an honourable, sociable, agreeable man, my dear fellow, intimate and friendly mode of address & (cap) a member of the governing body of a college at Oxford or Cambridge, or of Trinity College, Dublin, who receives certain emoluments and allowances, b graduate elected as member of the governing body of University of London, c associate, member, of one of several learned societies (elected in recognition of services to science or learning), or professional bodies (appointed by examination) fellow of the Royal Society (F R S), of the British Academy (F B A), of the Royal College of Surgeons (F R C S) &c 5 One of a pair of similar or identical objects, which match in design, colour, size &c I've found one of my gloves, but the fellow is missing fellow-feeling, n A feeling in common, a sentiment or emotion shared by two persons, sympathy fellowship, n [1 fēlʃɪp, 2 fēlouʃɪp] follow & -ship 1 n The state of being fellows, sharing participation, joint experience o fellowship in sorrow, b companionship, association, friendly intercourse to enjoy a cordial fellowship with one's friends 2 A group of persons united by a common ideal, cause, belief, or interest, a band, company, brotherhood, guild 'the goodly fellowship of the prophets praise Thee' 3 A Status, rank, dignity, of n College Fellow, b status of a Fellow of a learned or professional body &c felly, n See felloe felo de se, n [1 fēld di sē, 2 fēlou di sē] Low Lat, lit 'murderer of himself', see next word 1 One who is guilty of his own death 2 Suicide, self murder felson (I), n & adj [1 fēlʃn, 2 fēlʃn] ME felun, O Fr felon, 'wicked man, traitor', Low Lat fellōn (em), 'a criminal', connected w fell (III) Origin unknown 1 n a (law) A criminal, one who has committed a felony, b a degraded ruffian. 2 adj (archaic and poet) Criminal, wicked, treacherous a felson deed, blow &c felson (II), n Perh same word as prec Painful swelling and inflammation of the finger, an abscess on the finger, whitlow felonious, adj [1 fēlʃnʃs, 2 fēlouʃnʃs] felony & -ous a (law) Pertaining to, involving, felony, b criminal, wicked feloniously, adv Prec & -ly In a felonious manner feloury, n [1 fēluri, 2 fēluri] felson (I) & -ry Felons considered as a class, a body of felons felony, n [1 fēlɒni, 2 fēlɒni] felson (I) & -y (law) Any of the gravest kind of offences, formerly involving total forfeiture of all property, such as murder, rape, arson &c, now, such crime so designated by statute or regarded in common law as more heinous than a misdeamour felste, n See felstone felspar, n See fel(s)par felstone, n [1 fēlstun, 2 fēlstən] Imitated fr Germ felsstein, fr fels, 'rock' (see fell (I)), & stein, 'stone' See stone A kind of rock containing a mixture of quartz and feldspar, felate felt (I), n [1 fēlt, 2 fēlt] OE, ME felt, cp M Du felt, OHG filz, 'felt' The orig meaning seems to have been 'something beaten, pressed, together' In this case the word is prob connected w OE anfilz, OHG anvalz, 'anvil' (see anvil), Lat pellere, 'to beat strike, drive' See expel, pulse, & ap filter A fabric made by pressing wool, hair &c, mixed with glue, into a compact, tough mass, b (attrib) made of felt a felt hat felt (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To make into felt, to mat. 2 To cover with felt B intrans To become matted felt (III), vb Pret & PP of feel felucca, n [1 feluka, 2 fīluka] Ital, fr Arab A small Mediterranean coasting-vessel, with lateen sails, usually three masted female (I), adj [1 fēmal, 2 fīmel] fr ME femelle O Fr femelle, fr Lat femella, dimin of femina, 'a woman, female animal', the second syll influenced by mole See feminine 1 Characterized by the opacity of bringing forth young the female sex 2 Belonging to the female sex a female child, mammoth, insect &c 3 Pertaining to females or women female character, dress, education & (hot) Having a pistil and no stamens, capable of being fertilized and bearing fruit 5 (moohan) Having a part constructed to receive a corresponding part female (II), n, fr prec A A female person or animal, b (disparatory) a woman feme covert, n [1 fēm kōvert, 2 fēm kōvət] A Fr, see covert (II) (law) A married woman feme sole, n [1 fēm sōl, 2 fēm sōl] A Fr, 'woman alone' (law) A unmarried woman, widow, spinster, b a married woman who has property rights independent of her husband feminality, n [1 fēmināliti, 2 fēminēliti] fr O Fr feminal, fr Lat femina, 'a woman', see feminine & -al & -ity The quality of being female, feminine character feminine, n [1 fēminēti, 2 fēminēliti] fr Lat femina (us), 'feminine, effeminate', & -ity, fr femina, 'a woman' See feminine 1 The quality of being feminine womanliness 2 Womanishness, effeminacy feminine, adj [1 fēminin, 2 fēminin] fr O Fr, fr Lat feminin (us), 'feminine', fr femina (a), 'a woman', & -ine The word apparently meant orig 'she who smokes', & comes fr an Aryan base dhē* (s), dhē*, dhē* (s), 'to smoke', whence also Lat fēlare, 'to smoke', filus (fr filos*), 'son' (see filial) Cp also Gk thēlē, 'female breast', & see fecund 1 A Pertaining to women, b characteristics of a woman a feminine nature, voice &c, o (of males) resembling a woman, womanish, effeminate his feminine airs and graces 2 (gram) Having the form used in referring to females 3 (pros) a feminine caesura, following an unstressed syllable, b feminine ending, having the accent on the last syllable but one, c feminine rhyme, a double rhyme consisting of a stressed followed by an unstressed syllable femininely, adv Prec & -ly In a feminine manner feminineness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being feminine feminism, n [1 fēminizm, 2 fēminizəm] See prec & -ism A Tendency to be feminine or effeminate, b a feminine idiom or expression femininity, n [1 fēmininit, 2 fēmininitʃi] feminine & -ity The quality or state of being feminine, womanliness feminism, n [1 fēminizm, 2 fēminizəm] fr Lat femina (a), 'woman', see feminine, & -ism The advocacy of women's rights, movement for complete equality between the sexes in all respects feminist, n [1 fēminist, 2 fēminist] See prec & -ist Advocate and supporter of feminism feminuity, n [1 fēminiti, 2 fēminiti] fr O Fr feminuité, fr Lat femina (a), 'a woman', see feminine, & -ity Femininity feminization, n [1 fēminizashun, 2 fēminizashun] See next word & -ation The act or process of making womanly, or womanish feminize, vb trans & intrans [1 fēminiz, 2 fēminiz] fr Lat femina (a), 'a woman', see feminine, & -ize 1 trans To render feminine, endow with womanly character 2 intrans To become womanly esp to conduct, utterances &c, which are out of keeping with, and unsuitable to, a boy's position in the school, or the length of time he has been there festively, adv. Prec & -ly. In a festive manner festivity, n [1 festiviti, 2 festiviti], fr O Fr festivité, fr Lat festivitas (-em), 'gaiety, pleasantness, kindness, feast, festival' festive & -ity 1 The quality of being festive, gaiety, merriment, joyousness 2 Festive action, cheerful proceeding, merrymaking to celebrate an event &c (often pl) festoon (I), n [1 festoon, 2 festoon], fr O Fr feston, fr Ital festone, prob fr fiesta, 'feast', fr Lat festum See feast & -oon a Strip of material, or a garland, wreath, of flowers &c, suspended from either end, and hanging in a curve, b carved, sculptured, representation of this, a swag festoon (II), vb trans, fr prec a To cause to hang in a festoon, form into festoons, b to hang with, decorate with, festoons festoonery, n [1 festoonery, 2 festoonery] festoon & -ery Collection of festoons, drapery &c, forming a decoration for a person, building, or other object fetal See foetal

fetch (I), vb trans [1 fech, 2 fet] OE fecan, earlier fehan, 'to fetch, summon, bring' Etymol quite uncertain 1 To go to another place from that in which one is before starting the action, and bring something back with one, or summon a person and conduct, or accompany him back to fetch a book from another room, to fetch the doctor from the next village &c Phr to fetch and carry, a trans, news, a report &c, to retail, disseminate, b intrans, to bustle about, be occupied with trivial, petty duties 2 To bring out, produce from, procure, evoke to fetch water from a rock, to fetch tears from a person's eyes 3 To produce by a physical act to fetch a sigh 4 To strike a blow, execute a violent bodily movement to fetch a man a blow, one, on the nose 5 To captivate, charm, fascinate the girl's beauty fetches him completely 6 To yield a price, be sold for, bring in the pictures fetches excellent prices, this won't fetch much fetch (II), n, fr prec An artifice, trick, dodge fetch (III), n Etymol unknown An apparition, yraith, spectre, a person's double fetching, adj [1 feching, 2 fet] j, fr Pres Part of fetch (I) (collōq) Attractive, fascinating fête (I), n [1 fât, 2 fet] Fr fête, fr O Fr fieste, 'feast, festival' See feast A festival, a cheerful entertainment a fête and gala fête (II), vb trans, fr prec To honour (person) with celebrations, arrange festivities in honour of, to entertain splendidly fête-champêtre, n [1 fât shompât, 2 fet j, fr châpêtre] Fr Entertainment out of doors, a kind of elaborate picnic fête day, n Day on which a fête is held fetial (I), adj [1 fëshl, 2 fifl], fr Lat fetialis (-is), 'belonging to the fetials' See next word Fetial Law, relating to international affairs, treaties of peace, and declarations of war fetial (II), n, fr Lat fetialis (-es), 'a Roman college of priests', fr feti* (s), cogn w Scrt dāta, 'law', Aryan dhē-t-s*, 'edict, pronouncement', fr base dhē*, dhē*, 'to make, do' See do, fact (Rom antiq) One of a body of twenty priests who acted as heralds, and conducted the ceremonies at the beginning and end of a war fetid, fetid, adj [1 fétid, 2 fítid], fr Lat foet-, feti (us), 'stinking, disgusting', fr fēt-, foet (ere), 'to stink' Possibly fr earlier dhū* it, PP type of Aryan dhū yō*, 'to smell', whence Lat (suff)ire, 'to fumigate', f-mus, 'dung' See also fetor Having an offensive smell, stinking fetidly, adv. Prec & -ly In a fetid manner fetidness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being fetid fetish, fetich (s), n [1 fétish, fétish, 2 fítish, fetis], fr Fr fétiche, fr Port fetico, 'charm, magic', fr Lat facillus, 'made by art' See facitious a A material object believed to be inhabited by a subservient spirit, b hence, anything regarded with exaggerated devotion, and exaggerated veneration he makes a perfect fetish of cricket fetishism, n [1 fétishism, 2 fítishism] Prec & -ism Belief that the services of a spirit may be appropriated by its material embodiment fetishist, n [1 fétishist, 2 fítishist] fetish & -ist One attached to fetishism fetishistic, adj [1 fétishistik, 2 fítishistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to a fetish fetlock, n [1 fetlok, 2 fetlok] ME fellal, filok, cp Germ fieslock Etymol doubtful Projecting cushion-like structure, bearing tuft of hair, on hinder side of a horse's leg just above the hoof, the joint of the leg nearest this fetor, foetor, n [1 fétur, 2 fít], fr Lat foetor, 'stench', fr foet (-ere), 'to stink', & -or Cp Lat fumus, 'dung, excrement' Perh. ultimately related to Lat fumus, 'smoke, vapour' &c See fetid, fume & words there referred to Powerful, oppressive, offensive stench fetter (I), n [1 féter, 2 fét] OE fetor, ME feter, cp OLG feter, OHG fecera, ON fǫturr, cp also Lat pedica, 'shackle, fetter, snare', (expedire, 'to extricate, disentangle, to make ready, prepare' (see expedite), (impedire, 'to tangle, ensnare, hamper, hinder, detain' (see impede), Gk. pedē, 'fetter', Aryan ped-, 'fetter, snare, hindrance', fr the base ped-, pod-*, 'foot' See foot, pedal a Chain, shackle, for the feet, intended to prevent, or hinder, movement, b (fig, usually pl) anything that hinders action or progress, a restraint, restriction, bonds, captivity fetter (II), vb trans, fr prec a To fasten, bind, with fetters, put in irons, to hinder, hamper, b (fig) to check, impede, restrain fettered by convention fetterless, adj [1 féterles, 2 fétals] fetter (I) & -less Without fetters, free fetterlock, n [1 fetelok, 2 fetelok] fetter (I) & lock (I) (her) Figure of a shackle for a horse, used as a charge fettle, n [1 fetl, 2 fetl] ME fellen, vb, formed fr OE fetel, 'girdle, belt' Orig sense prob to gird up, prepare for action Physical, or, more rarely, mental, condition, state, trim to be in good fettle, in fine fettle fetus, n See foetus

fetwa, futwa, n [1 fétwa, futwa, 2 fétwa, fatwa] Arab fatwa Judicial pronouncement of Mohammedan legal authority feu (I), n [1 fū, 2 fū] O Fr feu, fé See fee (Scots law) 1 a Tenure of land according to which the holder pays rent instead of performing military service, b a perpetual lease granted in return for fixed annual rent 2 Land held on condition of payment of rent feu (II), vb trans, fr prec (Scots law) To grant lease of (land) on feu fenar, n [1 fār, 2 fār] feu (I) & -ar (Scots law) Person holding a feu fend (I), n [1 fūd, 2 fūd] ME feide, fede, fr O Fr fede, fr OHG fēhida, 'enmity', Mod Germ fēhde, cogn w OE fāhp, 'enmity', Gmc fashpō*, 'enmity', cp OE fāh, 'enemy', qv under foe a Enduring, hereditary, invincible enmity between two families, parties, clans &c inspired by desire for revenge for previous injuries, b enmity, quarrel which is kept up over long period between individuals fend (II), n, fr O Fr feud, fr Med Lat feudum, feodum Prob of same origin as fee & fief (legal hist) a Feudal benefice, a right which was heritable although held at the will of a superior lord feudal, adj, [1 fūd, 2 fūd] fr O Fr, fr Med Lat feudal (is), fr feud (um), 'fee, fief' See feud (II) & -al 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, relating to, a feud (see prec.) feudal tenure, feudal service 2 Pertaining to the tenure by which feuds and fiefs were held feudal system, feudalism, qv 3 Connected with the feudal system feudal law, feudal barons feudalism, n [1 fūdālizm, 2 fūdālizm] feudal & -ism System prevailing in the Middle Ages over the greater part of Europe, which determined the relations, relative rights, and duties &c, of lord and vassal, the basis of which was the tenure of land in exchange for certain military services performed by the latter for the former feudalist, n [1 fūdālist, 2 fūdālist] feudal & -ist A student of feudalism feudalistic, adj [1 fūdālistik, 2 fūdālistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, feudalism feudality, n [1 fūdālit, 2 fūdālit] feudal & -ity 1 The state or quality of being feudal 2 Land held in fee, fief feudalization, n [1 fūdālizāshun, 2 fūdālizāshon] Next word & -ation Act or process of imposing or establishing the feudal system, or one resembling it in character, act of introducing the principles and ideals of feudalism feudalize, vb trans [1 fūdāliz, 2 fūdāliz] feudal & -ize To make feudal, establish feudal system in feudally, adv [1 fūdāl, 2 fūdāl] feudal & -ly According to the feudal system, by feudal tenure feudatory, adj & n [1 fūdatori, 2 fūdatori] fr Med. Lat feudat (us), PP of feudare, 'to enfeoff', fr feud (um), 'fief' See feud (II) & -ory 1 adj a (of persons) Holding land by feudal tenure, b (of land) held in fee 2 n Vassal holding land in fee feu de joie, n [1 fō d'zhwa, 2 fō d'zhwa] Fr, 'fire of joy' Public bonfire kindled in token of rejoicing, guns fired in salute for same purpose feuilleton, n [1 fēiton, 2 fōit] Fr, fr feuille, 'leaf' See folio Serial story, or literary article, published in a newspaper fever, n [1 fēver, 2 fīva] OE fēfor, fēfre, ME fevre, fr Lat febris, 'fever' See febrile Prob cogn w Lat funilla, 'embers' (fr fovilla*), fr Aryan base dhōgh-, dhēgh-, 'to burn', whence also Scrt. dahati, 'burns', O Prussian dagis, 'summer', &c The same base occurs in day 1 a A disordered condition of the system, characterized by abnormal rise of temperature, b one of several diseases characterized by fever scarlet fever, rheumatic, yellow, fever &c 2 a Highly excited mental state, extreme nervous agitation to be in a fever of impatience, b excessive interest in, devotion to, an object or occupation, craze fevered, adj [1 fēverd, 2 fīvd] Prec & -ed 1 Affected by fever, feverish 2 Disordered by fever, affected by extreme mental excitement and agitation fevered imagination feverfaw, n [1 fēverfū, 2 fīvafū] OE feferfuge, fr Lat febrifugia, 'a kind of herb', fr febris (s), 'fever', see fever, & fug (are), 'to pnt to flight' See fugitive A white flowered herb of the aster family, Pyrethrum, possessing medicinal properties, allied to the camomile fever-heat, n a Abnormally high bodily temperature, b extreme intensity the excitement rose to fever heat feverish, adj [1 fēverish, 2 fīvafū] fever & -ish 1 a With abnormally high temperature, affected by fever feverish conversation, hands &c, b caused by irritation, feverish dreams 2 (fig) Excited, agitated, restless a feverish desire for pleasure 3 (of climate &c) Liable to cause fever feverishly, adv. Prec & -ly In a feverish manner feverishness, n See prec. & -ness The state of being feverish feverous, adj [1 fēverus, 2 fīverus] fever & -ous (rare) A liable to cause fever, infected with fever, b excited, agitated fever tree, n The oncalyptus few (I), adj [1 fū, 2 fū] OE fewa, ME fewe, op O Frs fē, OLG fāh, OHG fao, fōh, Goth fawai (pl), cogn w Lat paucus, 'few, little' see (paucity), pauper, 'poor' (see pauper), Gk pauros, 'few, little, small' Aryan base paul* (w), 'few, little' 1 Not many, of a restricted number, (contrasted with many, op a few) few people are able to understand him, his friends are few, he has but few chances of success, to speak in few words Phrs every few hours, days, years &c, once in a group of a few hours &c, some few, a fair number of 2 A small number of, (contrasted with none) a few people were present, the chairman said a few words, to buy something for a few pence few (II), pron & n, fr prec. 1 Not many, a small number few are capable of such an achievement, few of the inhabitants were to be seen Phr the few, the minority 2 A small number I saw a few of my friends, only a few grasped his meaning Phr (colloq) a good few, a considerable number fewness, n few (I) & -ness The state of being few few, adj [1 fū, 2 fēi] OE fēge, ME fewe, 'doomed to death', OLG fēg, ON fēgr, OHG fēgr, MHG fēge, 'doomed to death', Mod Germ fēge, 'cowardly', Gmo fug*, 'injury, death', op Gmo fau-*, 'enemy' (see foe), cogn w Lat piger, 'it irks one, is troublesome', Sert pīgnas, 'evil minded, treacherous', Lth peikī, 'to blame', O Prussian paikēmas, 'to deceive', M Ir dech, 'enemy' Aryan base pei* l, pei* g, pei* g, 'evil, enmity, treachery' Cp further OE facen, OHG fēthan, 'cunning', OE fēal, 'inconstant' See fickle Fated, doomed, to die, about to die, esp in an abnormally gay and confident state of mind, supposed to precede sudden death fez, n [1 fēz, 2 fēz] fr Turk fes; prob fr Fez, town in Morocco, as made there Moslem law, tapering cap of red felt, flat topped, with a tassel fiacre, n [1 fēobkr, 2 fākr] Fr, fr Hôtel St Fiacre, inn in Paris, where carriages were first kept for hire, fiacre (Fiachra) was a Celtic saint of the 7th cent A French hackney cab fiand(e), n [1 fēihnas, 2 fānas] Fr fiance(e), 'affianced, betrothed' See affiance Person to whom one is betrothed (c masse, c ferm) fiars, n pl [1 fēarz, 2 fāz] fr O Fr fuar, 'price', fr Low Lat forum, 'price' See forum (Scots) Usually fiare prices, average prices for grain, fixed each February, governing rents, payments to clergy &c, based on the value of or originally paid in grain fiasco, n [1 fēaskō, 2 fāskow] Ital fiasco, 'bottle' See fiask, origin of meaning obscure Complete failure, a break down, attempt that comes to nothing, course of action which has to be discontinued from lack of means or ability to carry it to a conclusion fiat, n [1 fīat, 2 fāet] Lat fīat, 'let it be done', 3rd pers sing of subj of fieri, 'to be done, to be, become', fr Pres stem fī o &c, fr Aryan bhū* yō, fr base bhū-, bheū-, 'to be, become', op Lat fu, 'I was' (see under future), Sert bhāvati, 'is, becomes, happens', Gk phaino, 'nature' (see physio-) See also build, favour A command, decree, authoritative order fib (I), n [1 fīb, 2 fīb] Etymol dubious A mild tampering with the truth, a statement which is untrue but not important enough, nor constituting a sufficient deviation from the truth, to be called a lie fib (II), vb trans, fr prec. To tell a fib, to lie fiber, n [1 fīb, 2 fīb] Fiber & -er One who tells fibs, a petty liar fibres, n [1 fīb, 2 fīb] fr Fr, fr Lat fibra, 'fibre, filament, entrails' Etymol doubtful 1 A single slender thread or filament combining with others to form animal or vegetable tissue, b anything of a thread like character, resembling a fibre 2 A substance, structure, composed of fibres, esp one that can be separated into threads or fibres for spinning &c 3 (fig) Character, nature, inherent quality a man of fine, coarse, fibre fibresless, adj [1 *fīb*erless, 2 *fāib*erless] Fiber & -less A without, free from, fibre, b lacking fibre (in fig sense), devoid of strength of character fibriform, adj [1 *fīb*riform, 2 *fāib*riform] Fiber & -form Resembling, of the nature and structure of, fibre fibril, n [1 *fīb*ril, 2 *fāib*ril] Dimin of fibre 1 A minute filament, a component part of a fibre 2 A minute rootlet fibrillar(y), adj [1 *fīb*ril(ar), 2 *fāib*ril(ar)] Fiber & -ar, -ary Pertaining to, composed of, fibrils fibrillate(d), adj [1 *fīb*rilāt(ed), 2 *fāib*rilāt(ed)] fibril & -ate (& -od) Composed of fibrils, fibrous fibrillation, n [1 *fīb*rilāshun, 2 *fāib*rilāshun] Fiber & -ion The state of being fibrillate fibrilliform, adj [1 *fīb*riliform, 2 *fāib*riliform] fibril & -form Having the form of fibrils fibrillose, adj [1 *fīb*rilōs, 2 *fāib*rilōus] fibril & -ose Composed of, resembling, fibres fibrin, n [1 *fīb*rin, 2 *fāib*rin] Fiber & -in 1 A coagulable protein found in blood 2 A nitrogenous substance found in vegetable tissue fibrinous, adj [1 *fīb*rinus, 2 *fāib*rinus] Fiber & -ous Composed of, resembling, of the nature of fibrin fibre-, pref fr fibre In compound words denoting 'fibrous, of fibre' fibroid, adj & n [1 *fīb*roid, 2 *fāib*roid] Fiber & -oid 1 adj Of, pertaining to, or resembling, fibre 2 n A fibrous tumour fibroun, n [1 *fīb*roun, 2 *fāib*roun] Fiber & -in The substance of which raw silk and spiders' webs are chiefly composed fibroma, n [1 *fīb*roma, 2 *fāib*roma] Mod scientific Latin A fibrous tumour fibrous, adj [1 *fīb*rus, 2 *fāib*rus] Fiber & -ous Composed of, resembling, fibre fibrously, adv Fiber & -ly In a fibrous manner, as fibre fibrousness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being fibrous fibula, n [1 *fīb*ula, 2 *fāib*ula] Lat, 'a brooch, clasp, buckle', op fi gere, 'to stick, fasten, fix' See fix 1 (archaeol) A brooch 2 The thin outer bone of the leg fibular, adj [1 *fīb*ular, 2 *fāib*ular] Fiber & -ar Of, pertaining to, near, the fibula

-fic, (-ific), suff representing Lat fīc (us), or Fr figue, edj suff consisting of the unstressed form of the vbl stem fīc (ere), 'to make, do' See fact The suff denotes 'making, causing to become', & forms adje a fr us pacific, specific, b fr adjs beatific, scientific, c fr vbs terrific Many of these edjs are derived fr Lat direct or through Fr, others are modern formations

-fication, suff representing Lat fīctiō (em), forming ns denoting action fr vbs in fīcere, see -ity The suff in Engl forms ns fr vbs in -ify corresponding to Lat vbs in fīcare pacification, glorification &c Cp faction ficelle, adj [1 *fī*cel, 2 *fā*cel] Fr, 'string, thread, cord' String coloured (recent, shop-keeper's word) fichu, n [1 *fī*shū, 2 *fā*shū] Fr A small, light, triangular garment, often like a folded handkerchief, worn by women round the neck and partly covering the shoulders fiddle, adj [1 *fī*dl, 2 *fā*dl] OE fīol, ME fīel, op OHG fēihhan, OE fācen (Gmo fai*l), 'cunning', fr Aryan base pei* g, pi*g, 'evil, enmity' Op Lat pīget, 'it is irksome', fr same base are fey, toe

See -le Changeable in the affections, in intentions, purpose, capricious, inconstant, unstable fickleness, n Fiber & -ness The quality of being fickle fictile, adj [1 *fī*ktīl, *fī*ktīl, 2 *fī*ktas, *fī*ktīl], fr Lat fīcīl (us), 'made of clay, earthen', fr fīc (us), P P type of fingere, 'to touch, handle, to form, shape, to mould, model, to form mentally, conceive, imagine' Aryan base dheigh*, dhoigh*, dhigh*, 'to form, mould' See foign, figure, dough, effigy, paradise A Capable of being moulded, plastic, b made of clay, moulded, c pertaining to pottery fiction, n [1 *fī*shun, 2 *fā*shun], fr Lat fīctiō (em), 'a making, formation, a supposition, fiction, a fictitious assumption', fr fīc (um), P P type of fingere, 'to fashion, form, mould, to imagine, conceive', & -ion See prec. & words there referred to 1 A Something imagined, feigned, invented, as distinct from fact or truth fact is stranger than fiction, b an imaginary, fictitious statement, account &c 2 A Literary compositions consisting of fictitious narrative of events, the representation of imaginary persons, their characters and actions, and the interplay of these, especially in novels, romances, dramas, b the art and practice of such creations 3 (law) A legal fiction, something assumed to be a fact, irrespective of whether it is so or not, in order to avoid some technical difficulty fictional, adj [1 *fī*shunel, 2 *fā*shunel] Fiber & -al Pertaining to, belonging to, of the character of, fiction fictionist, n [1 *fī*shunist, 2 *fā*shunist] Fiction & -ist A writer of fiction fictitious, adj [1 *fī*ktīshus, 2 *fī*ktīshas], fr Lat fīctīus (us), 'not genuine, feigned', Lat fīc (us), P P type of fingere, 'to make, fashion, to imagine' fictile & -itious A Created by the fancy, imaginary, unreal, invented, not based on fact, not actually existing a fictitious narrative, fictitious characters, qualities &c, b not genuine, false, counterfeit, assumed a fictitious name, c assumed as true by a legal fiction fictitiously, adv Fiber & -ly In a fictitious manner fictitiousness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being fictitious fictive, adj [1 *fī*ktiv, 2 *fā*ktiv], fr Fr, fr Lat fīc (um), P P type of fingere, 'to form, shape, to imagine', & -ive See fictile Imaginary, invented, pertaining to fiction fid, n [1 *fī*d, 2 *fā*d] Etymol doubtful 1 Bar of wood or metal used as support, (naut) cross piece for supporting topmast 2 Thick lump or slice of food &c fiddle (I), n [1 *fī*dl, 2 *fā*dl] ME fībele, 'fiddle', op OHG fīdula, fr Low Lat vitula, fr Lat vitulari, 'to celebrate a festival, be joyful' Cp Vitula, name of goddess of victory The meaning of the vb is 'to shout vi', that is a cry of joy or exultation, cp Gk euei The second element is fr tolere, 'to bear, raise', op tul, used as perf of ferre, 'bear' See this base under tolerate & thole 1 A instrument with hollow body, a neck with screws to which the four strings are attached, played with a bow, the notes being formed by the fingers pressing on that part of the strings close to the screws, violin, Phrs fit as a fiddle, in perfect health, to play second fiddle, occupy a subordinate position, a face as long as a fiddle, having an anxious, gloomy expression, fiddle pattern, with handles shaped like a fiddle (of spoons and forks), b any instrument of the fiddle family, viola, violoncello, double bass 2 (naut) Wooden framework fixed on tables on board ship in rough weather, to keep plates &c from sliding off 3 Short flat piece of wood with a hole at either end, used for holding guy ropes taut fiddle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec. A trans To play (an air &c) upon the fiddle to fiddle a tune. B intrans 1 To play the

- fiddle 2 a To waste time, spend one's time over trifles, esp to fiddle about doing nothing &c, b to fidget, play aimlessly to fiddle with a tool, piece of string &c
- fiddle-bow, n Bow for playing the fiddle
- fiddle-case, n Leather or wooden case for holding fiddle
- fiddlededee, interj & n [1 fiddledē, 2 fiddl-dē] Nonsense, rubbish
- fiddle-faddle, vb intrans, adj, & n [1 fiddl fadl, 2 fiddl fadl] 1 vb intrans To trifle, talk or spend time aimlessly 2 adj Unimportant, trifling, petty 3 n Triviality, nonsense, unimportant trifle
- fiddle-head, n Carved scroll-work above bows of ship
- fiddler, n [1 fiddler, 2 fiddle] fiddler (II) & -er 1 One who plays the fiddle 2 A kind of crab
- fiddlestick, n [1 fiddl-stik, 2 fiddl-stik] Bow for playing the fiddle
- fiddlesticks, interj Rabbish, nonsense
- fiddley, n [1 fiddl, 2 fiddl] Etymol doubtful (naut.) Iron framework round hatch leading to the stokehole
- fiddling, adj [1 fiddling, 2 fiddling] fiddle (II) & -ing Useless, trifling, futile
- fidelity, n [1 fiddliti, 2 fiddliti], fr Fr fidélité, fr Lat fidelitatem (em), 'faithfulness, fidelity', fr fidel (is), 'true, faithful, sincere', fr fid ēs, 'faith, confidence, belief', op Lat fidelicia, 'trust' (see fiducial & faith), fidere, 'to trust, confide in', fidus, 'faithful', foedus (earlier foed-), 'treaty, compact', Aryan base bheidh-, bhoi-, bhidh, 'persuade, win confidence of, win over', whence also Gl. peithō, 'persuade' (perf. pepoitha), pietis, 'faith', Goth bidjan, OE bidan, 'to beg, pray, to command' (see bid) 1 Faithfulness, loyalty, devotion, firmness in allegiance fidelity to a cause, person, leader, principle &c 2 Strict adherence to fact, accuracy, exactitude to report a debate with fidelity, the facsimile reproduces the MS with complete fidelity
- fidget (I), n [1 fidget, 2 fidget], fr obs fidge, 'to jump, twitch' Op O Swed fikka, 'to hurry about, to move restlessly, fidget' 1 A Bodily restlessness causing frequent nervous movements to be in a fidget, Phr the fidgets, sit of restlessness, b restless, anxious, mental state, state of worry and restlessness, fussiness 2 A person who fidgets physically, or mentally
- fidget (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans A To move frequently, restlessly, nervously, and spasmodically, make idle, purposeless movements sit still and don't fidget, to fidget with a pencil, b to be in a restless, nervous, anxious state of mind, to worry, be anxious, to fuss, to be unable to concentrate attention 2 trans To make (a person) restless, nervous, disturb, worry it fidgets me not to know where he is
- fidgetiness, n [1 fidgetness, 2 fidgetness] Next word & -ness State of being fidgety
- fidgety, adj [1 fidgety, 2 fidgety] fidget (I) & -y a Having the fidgets, inclined to fidget, physically restless, uneasy, b inclined to worry, anxious, nervous, crotchety, faddy, pernickety, fastidious
- fidibus, n [1 fidibus, 2 fidibus] Etymol unknown A paper spill for lighting pipes &c
- fiducial, adj [1 fidishal, 2 fadydjal], fr Lat fiducialis (us), 'reliable', fr fiducia, 'trust, faith, reliability', & -al Op Lat fidere, 'to trust' (see confide), fidēs, 'faith', & see other cognates under fidelity 1 (astron., surveying &c) Fiducial line, point, one from which measurements are made, or which is taken as the basis of calculation, comparison &c 2 (rare) Of the nature of a trust, fiduciary
- fiduciary, adj & n [1 fidishari, 2 fadydjar], fr Lat fiduciarius (us), 'relating to a thing held in trust, holding a thing in trust', fr fiducia, 'trust, reliance' (see prec), & -ary 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, one who holds a thing in trust, of a trustee, b held in trust, c (of paper currency) deriving its value from the confidence of the public 2 n One who holds a thing in trust, a trustee
- fidus Achates, n [1 fidus akátēs, 2 fides aketiz] Lat fidus, 'faithful' (see under fidelity), Achates, a companion of Aeneas A devoted follower, companion
- fie, interj [1 fi, 2 fat] Expressing disapproval, disgust, impatience (often ironical) Phr fie upon you, shame on you!, fie, for shame!
- fief, feoff, n [1 fēf, fof, 2 fīf, fef] O Fr seof, fief, fiu, fē, fr Med Lat feudum, feodum, 'fief' See fee Land held by feudal tenure, fee, feud
- field (I), n [1 fēld, 2 fēld] OE, ME fēld, op O Fris feld, fēld, OLG fēld, O HG fēld, 'field, plain' Cp further OE folde, OS folde, 'earth, land', ON fold, 'meadow', O Bulg polje, 'expense, field', Russ polyn, 'open', Lat palam, 'openly', plānus, 'flat, level', Aryan base pelā*, pelē*, plā* &c, 'to spread out' See plain (I) 1 a Open country flowers, beasts, of the field, hence, b any wide expanse 'The realms of ocean, or the fields of air' (Dryden), c (esp in compounds) a wide stretch, broad tract ice field, snow-field 2 a Ground work, background, of a flag, coin &c, b (her) whole surface, background, of a shield, or of single section of a quartered shield 3 a A specific piece of meadow or arable land enclosed by a boundary, such as a hedge, ditch, bank &c, b crop grown in a field a field of wheat 4 Tract of land yielding specified product gold fields, coal-fields &c 5 a Scene of battle, locality where battle takes place, battle-field the field of Agincourt, b a battle a hard fought field, c a campaign, Phr in the field, on campaign, on active service, to take the field, begin a campaign, to keep the field, continue operations, hold the field, hold one's ground. 6 Area of observation field of vision, field of a microscope, telescope &c 7 Area of operation, area over which a force is exerted magnetic field 8 Scope of study, research, province, department, region, realm, of knowledge or of action pre eminent in one's own field, to cover a wide field of inquiry, a field of effort &c 9 A specific group of persons &c, a all competitors in a contest, b all competitors in a horse race excepting the favourite, c (hunting) persons taking part, those following bounds on a given occasion, d (cricket) the side not batting, a member of this side, a fielder
- field (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans (in cricket, baseball &c) To stop (ball) and return it 2 intrans To act as fielder
- field-allowance, n (mil) Officers' extra pay while on active service
- field-artillery, n Light, movable artillery for use on campaign
- field-day, n a (mil) Day on which operations in the field are practised, b (fig) day on which some noteworthy event takes place, or some interesting and notable action is performed
- fielder, n [1 fēlder, 2 fēldē] (cricket &c) One who fields
- fieldfare, n [1 fēldfār, 2 fēldfār] OE, ME feldfare, fr OE fēld, 'field', qv It is doubtful whether second element is connected w fare (III) 'to go' A species of thrush of Northern Europe, visiting England in flocks in the winter
- field-glass, n a Small portable binocular telescope, b the inner lens of a telescope or microscope
- field-grey, n Germ feldgrau A greyish-green colour, as of the uniform of the German army in the Great War, corresponding to British khaki
- field-gun, n Easily-moved cannon for use in the field, as distinct from siege guns and light horse artillery
- field-hospital, n Temporary hospital on or near field of battle, dressing station
- field-ice, n Large expanse of flat floating ice, as distinct from icebergs
- field-marshal, n Highest rank in the British and some other armies
- field-mouse, n Small variety of mouse living in the open, harvest mouse
- field-officer, n Commissioned army officer of the rank of major, lieutenant-colonel, or colonel
- field-piece, n A field gun
- field-preacher, n Irregular evangelist who holds services in the open air
- fieldsmen, n [1 fēldzman, 2 fēldzman] One who fields, in cricket, baseball &c
- field-sports, n Those carried on in the open, esp hunting, shooting, and fishing, b athletic sports, such as the high and broad jump, putting the weight &c, which are not held on the track as are the various races
- field-telegraph, -telephone, n Portable telegraph, telephone, for use in the battle field
- field-ward(s), adv [1 fēldward(s), 2 fēldwad(s)] field & -ward(s) Towards the fields
- fieldwork, n [1 fēldwērk, 2 fēldwīrk] Temporary earthwork
- fiend, n [1 fēnd, 2 fēnd] OE fēond, 'enemy', lit 'the hater', ME fēnd Op OLG fjond, O Fris fjand, O HG fiant, ON fjandi, Goth fjandi, fr fjan, 'to hate' The ending is that of Pres Part, fr Gmc fj-*, 'to hate', op OE fēon, Goth fjon, ON fia, fr Aryan base pē(i), pī, 'to hate, harm', cogn w Goth fisan, 'to blame', Gk pēma, 'suffering', pēds, 'disabled', Sert pāpāi, 'bad', pīyali, 'injures' A An evil spirit, demon, specif, the Devil, as the Arch Enemy, b a person of intense wickedness, malice, c (journalist) one excessively devoted to some particular thing or habit &c a fresh-air fiend, a drug fiend
- fiendish, adj [1 fēndish, 2 fēndiʃ] Prec & -ish. Like a fiend, intensely evil, cruel, malevolent
- fiendishly, adv Prec & -ly In a fiendish manner
- fiendishness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being fiendish
- fiendlike, adj [1 fēndlik, 2 fēndli:k] fiend & -like Like a fiend
- fierce, adj [1 fērs, 2 fērs] ME fors, fiers, fr O Fr fier(s), fr Lat ferus, 'wild, untamed, barbarous' See ferocious, feral 1 a (of living beings) Savage, wild, untamed, cruel, having or expressing a violent and fiery temper a fierce fighter, fierce dog, fierce expression of countenance, b (of the elements &c) wild, unrestrained, raging, violent a fierce tempest 2 Eager, intense, ardent, vehement fierce hatred, a fierce desire
- fiercely, adv Prec & -ly In a fierce manner
- fierceness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being fierce
- fieri facias, n [1 fīri fāsias, 2 fīri fāsias] Lat, 'cause it to be done', abbr fi fa Name of writ issued to a sheriff commanding him to see that satisfaction is made to one who has obtained judgement for a debt
- fierily, adv [1 fīrih, 2 fīrih] fierily & -ly In a fiery manner
- fieriness, n [1 fīrienes, 2 fīrienes] Next word & -ness The quality of being fiery
- fiery, adj [1 fīri, 2 fīri] fire & -y 1 Made of, containing, fire, burning, flaming a fiery furnace 2 Resembling fire, a (to the sight) glowing, flaming, glaring a fiery sky, fiery eyes, fiery red, b (to the touch, taste) hot, burning, scorching fiery touch, fiery spirit, fiery taste 3 (fig) a (of heat, fiery spirit, fiery taste 3 (fig) a (of person or character) Eager, impetuous, hasty, passionate, easily roused, irritable, hasty, choleric a fiery disposition, b (of expression of feeling) vehement, passionate, expressing keenness of emotion, enthusiastic, fervent a fiery speech, c (of horses) spirited, mettish, some Phr fiery speed, spirited horse 4 (mm, of gas &c) Inflammable, liable to explode
- fiery cross, n Wooden cross with arms charred or dipped in blood, formerly sent among the members of a Highland clan as a call to arms.

fife (I), n [1 fif, 2 fist] fr Fr ffife, 'pipe, pipe', fr O H G pfifari, 'pipe', fr pfifa, fr Lat pipa, q v under pipe 1 A small, shrill, flute like wind instrument used in military bands a drum and fife band 2 A fife player, fifer watch the drums and fifes march by fife (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec Rare 1 trans To play (a tune &c) on the fife. 2 intrans To play the fife fifer, n [1 fifer, 2 fists] Prec & -er One who plays the fife fife-rail, n Supposed to be so called as seat for a fifer who played while anchor was weighed (naut) Rail round the mainmast for holding belaying pins &c fifteen, adj & n [1 fifteo, 2 fiftin] O E fifteen, M E fifteen. five & -teen 1 adj Cardinal number, five and ten, one more than fourteen 2 n A group of fifteen persons, esp a Rugby football team, b the Fifteen, Jacobite inscription in 1715 fifteenth, adj & n [1 fifteenth, 2 fiftin] Prec & -th 1 adj Following fourteen others in a series 2 n A fifteenth object &c in a series, b one of fifteen equal parts fifth, adj & n [1 fifth, 2 fif] O E fifta, M E & Tudor Engl fifte (later fif), by anal w fourth &c) Cp O Frs fifta O H G fimfta, O N fimte, cogn w Gk pentaplas, 'fifth' (fr pent-*) Lat quintus (see quint), Lith penktas, O Slav peti, Serb. pancahd, O Ir coiced fr Arjan pepl-*, 'five' See five

1 adj a Following four others in a series, Phrs fifth wheel extra wheel of vehicle, for support or emergency, hence, anything superfluous or rarely used fifth monarchy men, sect or fanatics in the middle of the 17th cent, who expected the immediate coming of Christ to establish a fifth universal empire, b forming one of five equal parts into which a thing is, or is considered as being, divided a fifth part 2 n a Fifth object &c in a series, b one of five equal parts, c (mus) an interval of three tones and a semitone, concord of two notes at this interval.

fifthly, adv Prec & -ly In the fifth place fiftieth, adj & n [1 fiftieth, 2 fiftip] fifty & -th. 1 adj a Following forty-nine others in a series, b forming one of fifty equal parts 2 n a Fiftieth object, person &c in a series, b a fiftieth part fifty, adj & n [1 fifti, 2 fifti] O E fiftig, M E fifti five & -ty 1 numeral adj Five times ten. 2 n a The number equal to five times ten, symbol representing this number, b a group or set of fifty persons or things Phrs the fifties, the years fifty to fifty nine inclusive in a century fifty fifty (colloq), equal shares, to go fifty fifty with a person, to share equally with, in losses &c fiftyfold, adj & adv [1 *fifti*fold, 2 *fifti*fold] Prec & -fold Multiplied by fifty fig (I), n [1 fig, 2 fig] fr Fr figue, fr Low Lat fica*, fr Lat ficus, 'fig tree fig', wh, together w Gk silon, is prob borrowed fr some Mediterranean dialect a A fruit shaped somewhat like a pear, with thick, juicy, green rind, sweet pulpy flesh full of seeds, eaten fresh or dried green figs, fresh, ripe figs, pulled figs, dried Turkish figs, Phr I don't care a fig for (contemptuous) nothing at all, b tree bearing this fruit fig (II), n, fr figure a Array, dress, Phr in full fig, full dress, b condition, spirits to be in good fig fig (III), vb trans, fr prec To dress up, give a fine appearance to, make handsome or elegant to fig out a horse, a person fight (I) vb trans & intrans [1 fit, 2 fist] O E fehtan M E fehten, ep O Frs fuchta, O H G fehian, 'fight' The word is prob cogn w Lat peten comb', petere, 'to comb', Gk lieas, genit liends (fr plien*), 'a comb' hence 'anything pointed, a rake, harrow' &c, Aryan base peh-, plien, 'a comb', see etimoid. The meaning seems to be generalized in Gmc to 'anything pointed', & subsequently specialized to a 'weapon', hence, the vb fehtan*, 'to use weapons, to fight The Aryan base peh-* &c is expanded fr the base pek-*, 'wool, hair', fr same base are Gk pelos, 'fleece, wool', pokos, 'wool, lock or tuft of wool', Serb palkman, 'eyebrows, hair', O H G fahs, O E feaz, 'hair', O N faz, 'mane' Cp further Aryan base peku*, 'animal valued for its wool', hence 'any domestic animal', Lat pecus, 'cattle', Serb pasu, O H G fihu, O D feoh, 'cattle', hence 'property, money' See pecuniary, peculiar A trans 1 a To contend against bodily, with violence, by means of weapons, to attempt to kill, or render incapable of further resistance to fight the Germans, to fight a battle, take part as a combatant in a battle, b to oppose by action or argument, contend hotly with, otherwise than by personal violence to fight the opposition candidate in an election Phr to fight it out, fight with weapons or arguments until decision is reached 2 To defend, uphold, maintain, by fighting to fight a case Phrs fight one's way, make advance possible by fighting those who oppose it, (fig) fight one's way in life, in the world &c, contend with, and overcome, difficulties 3 To manage, guide, control, manoeuvre, in battle to fight a ship, fight a gun, fire it, or direct its fire, in battle 4 To cause to fight, set on to fight (cock &c) B intrans 1 a To enter into a physical combat or contest, to engage in bodily struggle, contend in battle too proud to fight, the dogs are fighting Phrs to fight shy of, to avoid, keep away, hold aloof from, fight to a finish, until a decision is reached, b to engage in wordy combat, offer opposition by argument &c, to enter into dispute C Followed by adverbs and prepositions Fight against, with, to strive, struggle, contend, against, strive to overcome to fight with an opponent, fight against overwhelming odds, to fight against temptation, fight with the temptation to &c Fight off to drive off, repel, expel, by fighting fight (II), n. O E gefeht, M E fiht &c See prec 1 The act of fighting, specif a contest, physical struggle, combat, with weapons or fists, between two persons or parties or between two or more armed ships, a battle, a struggle with teeth, claws, hoofs &c between animals fight by land and sea, a dog fight, prize fight, pugilistic contest, Phrs a free fight, confused struggle with no well defined sides, to put up a good fight, to fight with spirit and courage, b a contest of argument, a vigorous attempt to carry one's point, realize one's aims &c against opposition the bill was passed after a stubborn fight in the House 2 Capacity, spirit, inclination, to fight, pugacity, fighting spirit to have plenty of fight left in one Phr to show fight, give proof of readiness to fight fighter, n [1 fiter 2 fists] fight (I) & -or One who fights, one who is able, inclined, eager, to fight fighting, adj [1 fiing, 2 fistig] fr Prec Part of fight (I) 1 A ble, ready, to fight, accustomed, inclined, to fight to come of a fighting family b pertaining to, suitable for, fight fighting qualities Phr a fighting chance, an opportunity for, possibility of, success after a struggle fighting-cock n A game cock trained to fight Phrs to live like a fighting cock, live on luxurious food, feel like a fighting cock, feel fit, in good condition fighting-men, n Soldiers fig-leaf, n 1 The leaf of the fig tree 2 (fig) Device for hiding what is indecorous, from use in classical statues, also with allusion to Adam and Eve figment, n [1 figment 2 figment] fr L Lat figmentum, 'formation, a figure, image, a fiction' Cp Lat figura, 'something made, figure, shape' See figure & -ment 1 Something invented, feigned, fictitious statement 2 Something imaginary, lacking reality and substance, a creation of the imagination a figment of the mind fig tree, n A tree that bears figs figurant(e) (I), n [1 figurant, 2 figurant], fr Fr figurant(e) A ballet dancer, male or female figurante (II), n, pl -s [1 figürante, -s, 2 figüranti, -i] fr Ital figurante Figurant figuration, n [1 figürdshun, 2 figürsfen] fr Fr, fr Lat figürätio (em), 'shape, form, imagination, fancy, figurative mode of speaking' See figure (I) & -ation 1 A The act of forming, shaping, fashioning, giving shape to, b the act of marking or ornamenting with figures 2 Appearance given by shaping, form, fashion, conformation figurative, adj [1 figürativ, 2 figürativ] fr L Lat figürätiv (us), 'pertaining to the figurative mode of speaking', fr figürät (um), PP of figüräre, 'to fashion, shape, to imagine, picture, to adorn with figurative language', fr figürä, 'form, shape, quality, kind, figure of speech' See figure (I) & -ive 1 n Not literal, having a symbolical meaning, metaphorical the figurative use of a word, in a figurative sense, b (of speech, writing &c) adorned by, abounding in, figures of speech a figurative style, o (of person) given to using figures of speech a figurative writer 2 Representing an idea by means of a symbol, emblematic, symbolic, typical a figurative design, object &c 3 Pertaining to pictorial or plastic representation of form or figure figurative art figuratively, adv Prec & -ly In a figurative manner, metaphorically figurativeness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being figurative figure (I), n [1 figer, 2 figs] fr Lat figura, form, shape, nature, kind, species, figure of speech, cp Lat figere, 'to shape, form' (see feign fictio, fiction), figulus, a potter, figulum (fr figulom*), 'form, onward shape', Aryan base deugh*, deigh*, 'to mould, to form out of clay, to model, mould, to shape, form' See further derivatives fr this under dough 1 Human form specif a considered with regard to shape, outline, proportions a bad, good, handsome, figure, Phr a fine figure of a man, a man of well developed figure, b a person having a fine, stately form and bearing he made an imposing figure in the procession 2 A person's appearance on a particular occasion, Phr to cut a poor figure, make an undistinguished, ignominious appearance, impression, b a person considered in the light of the effect produced by his actions and career, personality, influence one of the great figures of his age 3 Representation, esp of human figure, a carved or moulded representation of human or animal form a figure of an apostle in a niche, the figure of Juno, person of ludicrous appearance, b pictorial representation, image, of human or other figure &c a wall decorated with figures of cupids, birds, flowers 4 A device, artistic decoration, design, tracery &c, carved ornamentation, b representation, illustration, of some object, esp in a book, diagram 5 a (rhet) Imaginative, metaphorical, phrase or expression, also figure of speech, b (gram) deviation from ordinary usage for the sake of ornament, e.g. pleonasm, zeugma 6 A graphic symbol, esp one representing a number, b specif, figure out on ice by skater 7 Number, amount, thought of as represented in figures to buy at a high, low, figure 8 (n) The art of dealing with numbers, arithmetical to be a poor hand at figures 9 Specif uses a (astro) a horoscope, b (dancing) part of a square or country dance, distinguished by a specific series of steps and movements, o (log) form of the syllogism, d (mus) short series of notes or chords which produce the effect of a unity figure (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To represent in concrete form, as a picture, model, image &c, to depict, give form to, delineate, portray, b to represent mentally, imagine, fancy, form in the mind to figure something to oneself, c (mae) to indicate the accompanying chords, by writing the figures, under or over the bars figured bass B intrans 1 To play part, be prominent, appear to figure largely in an account, a narrative &c., to figure as a king in a pageant 2 To make calculations, compute, reckon, do arithmetic C Followed by adverbs Figure out, a to calculate arithmetically, to arrive at a result by arithmetical calculation, b think out, exogitate Figure up (rare), to calculate, compute, add, reckon up figured, adj [1 figerid, 2 figid] figuro (I) & -ed 1 Marked, engraved, printed, adorned, with a pattern, design figured silk 2 Figurative 3 (hor) Of hearings, depicted with a human face

figure-dance, n A dance with complicated figures and evolutions

figure-head, n 1 A carved representation of human or other figure or of a head alone, placed so as to project as ornament from bow of ship, hollow hewn, generally symbolizing name of this, b hence (faet), a person's face 2 (fig) Nominal head or leader with no real authority or influence, one chosen to fill a position on account of his name, rank, appearance, or some quality other than intellectual ability figure, n [1 figürin, 2 figurin], fr Fr, fr Ital figura, dimin of figura, 'a figure' See figure (I) A small figure or group modelled in terra cotta &c., statuette

filament, n [1 filamont, 2 filamēt] fr L Lat filā (re), 'to spin', fr fil (um), 'thread' See file (III) & -ment A fine, slender thread or thread-like structure, fibre, spool a (hot) the thread like part of the stamen of a flower, b fine, metallic thread of high electric resistance used to produce light in electric lamp bulbs and to give off electrons in wireless valves filamentary, adj [1 filamētari, 2 filamētari] Preo & -ary Made of, resembling, a filament, furnished with filaments filamented, adj [1 filamētōd, 2 filamētōd] filament & -ed Supplied with filaments filamentous, adj [1 filamētus, 2 filamētus] filament & -ous Thread-like Filaria, n, pl Filarias [1 filāria, -s, 2 filārīa, -j] Neo Lat, fr Lat fil (um), 'thread' See prec words & file (III) (zool) The name of a genus or group of thread like parasitic worms, injected into the blood of animals or man by the agency of mosquitoes and causing such diseases as elephantiasis &c filariasis, n [1 filārīas, 2 filārīasīe] Preo & -asis (pathol) Name of diseases caused by Filaria filature, n [1 filāhur, 2 filōfō], fr Fr, fr L Lat filā (um), PP type of filāre, 'to spin', see filament & -ure 1 The process of reeling off raw silk from cocoons 2 A machine or establishment for this process filbert, n [1 filbert, 2 filbet], fr Fr noix de Filbert, 'nut of St Philibert' a The edible nut of the cultivated hazel, b the hazel tree filch, v trans [1 filoh, 2 filt] Etymol unknown To steal, pilfer file (I), n [1 fil, 2 fail] OE feoh, fil, ME file Op OHG fila, filala, Du vyl Fröh cogn w Gk poikilos, 'variegated, embroidered, mixed', Serb pišiti, 'to adorn, to cut', Lith pišinti, 'to engrave, write', OE fah, 'variegated' Aryan base pek-, pek-, 'to adorn, whether by painting or carving', hence, on the one hand, 'to colour', on the other, 'to cut, carve, chisel' Op the similar base peig-* (with the same meaning as pek-*), whence Lat pingere, 'to paint, embroider' See picture, also pigment, finch, picric 1 Tool of hard steel with rough, serrated, grating surface, used for smoothing roughness on metal surface, and for cutting through metal bands, rings &c by grating 2 (fig) That which smooths, polishes, or perfects, esp of literary work It needs the file 3 (vulg) A person, esp one who is shrewd, cunning, artful file (II), v trans, fr preo 1 To use a file upon, to smooth or cut through with a file Hence, 2 (fig) To polish, remove defects from (literary style, compositions &c) file (III), n, fr Fr fil, fr Lat filum, 'thread' Fröh fr Aryan ghnala*, whence also Lith gysla, O Prussian gysla, O Slav zila, 'voin' It is possible that Lat filus, 'rope, line, cord', is fr another form of same base, w different suff See funicular 1 A device for threading or transferring papers, so as to keep them together, b also, generally, any method of keeping documents in classified order for convenient and easy reference 2 Collection of papers, cards for reference, and other documents kept in or on a file file (IV), v trans, fr preo a To arrange letters, papers &c systematically in a file, b specif, to place documents among others in a public record office file (V), n, fr next word 1 (mil) A front-rank man and the corresponding rear rank man Phrs blank file, with no rear-rank, a file of men, a file detached for some special purpose, to march in file, in double columns, half a file, one man, single, Indian, file, one behind the other in single line, rank and file, a privates and corporals, b (fig) ordinary people, as distinct from those of distinction or importance 2 A row of persons or objects one behind another, b (poess) single row of equares forming a vertical line across the board file (VI), v intrans & trans, fr Fr filer, fr L Lat filāre, fr Lat fil (um), 'thread' See file (III) 1 intrans To march, move, in file, esp to file in, file out, (of several persons) to enter or quit a building, assembly &c one after another, to file away, off, march off in file 2 trans To cause, order, to move in files file-fish, n A tropical sea fish, with rough prickles instead of scales and a file like dorsal fin, one kind is known as the trigger fish filemot, adj & n [1 filemot, 2 filemat], fr Fr feuille morte, 'dead leaf' 1 adj Of the colour of a faded leaf, yellowish brown 2 n Dead leaf colour filial, adj [1 filyal, 2 filjal], fr L Lat filial (is), 'filial', fr Lat fil (us), 'a son', & -al Filius (fr filios*), orig 'n suckling', is cogn w filāre, 'to suck', op Gk thēle, 'breast', Serb džaru ž, 'suckling', Aryan base dheh-, dheh-, expanded fr the base dheh-, dheh-, 'to suck' See lactamine Pertaining to a son or daughter, becoming, suitable to, due from, a son or daughter filial obedience filially, adv Preo & -ly In a filial manner filiate See affiliate

filiation, n [1 filāshun, 2 filēshən] fr Fr, fr Mod Lat filiation (em), fr filāre, 'to give birth to' See filial 1 n The state of being a child, filial relation, b the state of being a descendant, descent from 2 The formation, adoption, of new branch of a society &c, affiliation filibeg, philibeg, n [1 filibeg, 2 filibeg], fr Gael feileadh beag, 'small fidd' The kilt filibuster (I), n [1 filibuster, 2 filibastē], fr Span filibustero, form of Du crijbuster See freebooter 1 An irregular combatant against a foreign state, a pirate, freebooter 2 (polit slang, USA) a A member of a legislative chamber who deliberately obstructs business by talking &c in order to defeat a bill, b instance of such political obstruction filibuster (II), v intrans, fr preo To act as a filibuster, in both meanings of the word

Filicales, n pl [1 filikālīz, 2 filikēlīz] Neo Lat, fr Lat filic (em), filix, 'fern' etymol doubtful, & -al (hot) The order of Pteridophyta which includes the true ferns, as distinguished from the horsetails and lycopods filigree, n [1 filgrē, 2 filgrī], fr Fr filigrane, fr Ital filigrana, fr Lat fil (um), 'thread', see file (III) & grān (um), 'grain', see gram 1 A Ornamental, lace like tracery of gold or silver wire, b any fine metal open work, anything resembling this in form or device 2 A frail, delicate, creation of the mind filigreed, adj [1 filigrēd, 2 filgrīd] Preo & -od Adorned with filigree filig, n [1 filig, 2 fidig] file (II) & -ing Particle of metal removed with a file fill (I), v trans & intrans [1 fil, 2 fill] OE fyllan, ME fillen Op ON fylla, O Fris fella, Goth fulljan, fr Gmc full*, 'full' See full (I) A trans 1 a To put into (a vessel or enclosed space) as much of something as it will conveniently contain or is intended to hold, to put in a considerable amount, supply, of something to fill a cup, to fill a room with books, to fill a church with people, pockets filled with money, b to put, pour, into, (something) as much as it can contain, to pack, stuff, cram, to utmost capacity, to cause whole space of to be occupied to fill a glass with water, a box with books &c 2 In various figurative uses a (mental) To acquire or impart information, knowledge to fill one's mind, b to cause to become full, to instil into, imbue to fill one's heart with hope, to fill one with dismay 3 To occupy, be in, a space, pervade, a (of material substances) smoke filled the room, the rail ex-actly filled the gap in the fence, b (of non-material things) an idea fills one's mind to the exclusion of everything else, sorrow fills one's heart 4 a To occupy a place, position he fills the office satisfactorily, b to put a person into, appoint him to, a position, post, office &c to fill an office, his place will not be easily filled B intrans To become full, a (of material things) the church filled rapidly, the cistern is empty but will soon fill again, the sails filled with wind, b (of non-material process) my heart fills with pleasure C Followed by various adverbs Fill in, trans, a to add, insert, something lacking in a document &c to fill in one's name, a date &c, b to fill up, fill completely (a hollow, excavation &c) Fill out, trans, a to become enlarged to normal or required limit, expand, be distended the balloon filled out as the gas was pumped into it, b to become fat, put on flesh his cheeks have filled out since I last saw him Fill up, 1 trans, a to fill completely, make full to fill up one's cup, b to make too full, overabundant, crowd to fill up one's room with furniture Phr to fill up on official form, to complete by making necessary additions, by inserting particulars in spaces left for the purpose 2 intrans To become full the theatre filled up rapidly fill (II), n, fr OE fylla, ME file, op OHG fulli, Goth fuller, fr Gmc ful*, 'full' See full (I) 1 a (of material things) That which fills, satisfies, a full supply, as much as is required to eat, drink, one's fill, b (of non-material things) a considerable amount, abundant supply, full allowance to weep one's fill, to have one's fill of sorrow 2 That which fills a given space a fill of tobacco, as much as fills a pipe fill de chambre, n [1 fēi d' shombr, 2 fī dē šabr] Fr Chambermaid fill de joie, n [1 fēi d' zhwah, 2 fī dē zwā] Fr, lit 'daughter of joy' Disreputable woman, prostitute fillet (I), n [1 fillet, 2 filit], fr Fr fillet, fr Lat fil (um), 'thread', see file (III) & -et A narrow band, strap, esp narrow band for encircling the head, or binding the hair Various specific uses a Thick slice of meat, esp cut from under part of sirloin of beef, or from thick part of leg of veal or mutton, b flat slice of fish, cut lengthwise and without bone, c (nreht) narrow band between two mouldings, narrow flat strap separating two flutes of a column, d (hor) narrow horizontal band across base of the chief and occupying a fourth of its width fillet (II), v trans, fr preo 1 To bind with a fillet 2 To remove bones of a fish and cut it into slices before cooking filling, n [1 filɪŋ, 2 fɪlɪŋ] fill (I) & -ing That which is used to fill something, specif (dentist's word) gold &c used to stop a tooth fillup (I), n [1 fɪlɪp, 2 fɪlɪp] Proh imitative 1 a Sharp jerk, or flap, made by a finger when released suddenly from being tightly pressed by the thumb, b light blow given by finger thumb released 2 Slight mental or physical stimulus, spur, incentive, tonic a fillup to the memory, champagne gives a useful fillup on occasion 3 Trifle, thing of no importance fillup (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To give a fillup to, strike as by a fillup, b to drive along, cause to move, by a fillup, c to stimulate, rouse, urge to action 2 intrans To make a fillup fillister, n [1 fɪlɪstə, 2 fɪlɪstə] Etymol unknown a A kind of plane for grooving, b a groove on outer edge of window sash filly, n [1 fɪli, 2 fɪli] Prob fr ON fylla, fr Gmc fuljō*, fem of ful*, 'foal' See foal 1 Female foal, young mare, corresponding to male colt 2 A lively young girl film (I), n [1 fɪlm, 2 fɪlm] fr. OE filmen, 'membrane', ME filme, cogn w Gk pelma, 'sole of foot or shoe', Aryan base pel m*, 'skin', cp (fr pel n*) Lat pellis, 'skin, hide', see pellicle, O HG fel, OE fell, 'skin', see fell (I) 1 A skin, thin, delicate layer, skin, coating a film of oil, glaze, dust Phr eyes covered with the film of death, having lost natural brightness and appearing to be covered with a film 2 Fine, delicate filament a film of gossamer 3 (photog) Flexible sheet of gelatine or similar material made to roll, with sensitized surface upon which the photograph is taken, the film thus becomes the negative, esp used in cinematography, hence, the films, a cinema show, the pictures &c, also attrib a film play, film actor &c film (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A. in trans film over, to become covered with a film B trans 1 To cover with a film 2 (photog) To reproduce on a film, to take a photograph of, esp to take series of instantaneous photographs of, for cinematograph filmness, n [1 fɪlmnes, 2 fɪlmnes] Next word & -ness The quality of being filmy filmy, adj [1 fɪlmi, 2 fɪlmi] film (I) & -y Like a film in structure or appearance, thin, gauzy, delicate filmy clouds, a filmy veil filoselle, n [1 fɪləsəl, 2 fɪləsəl] Fr, fr Ital filosella, cp Lat filum, 'thread', q v under file (III) A kind of floss silk filis, n [1 fɪs, 2 fɪs] Fr, fr Lat filius, 'a son' See filial. Son (used after name to distinguish father from son) Dumas fils filter (I), n [1 fɪltə, 2 fɪltə], fr O Fr filtrer, fr Med Lat filtrum, filtrum, 'a strainer' Same word as felt (I) this substance being used for straining liquids 1 a A device, machine, for straining impurities out of liquids, b specif, device for straining purifying clarifying, water 2 Porous substance such as charcoal, gravel &c, which acts as a filter filter (II) vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To strain liquid, pass it through a filter, b (of filter itself) to eliminate impurities from 2 intrans a Often filter through, to pass through flow as through a filter to percolate to filter through the sand b (fig) of news rumours &c to become known, leak out filterable, adj [1 fɪltərəbl, 2 fɪltərəbl] Prec & -able Capable of being filtered able to pass or percolate through a filter filter-bed n Reservoir with artificially coostructed bot'om of sand gravel, or other pore substance for filtering water, sewage &c filter-paper, n Porous kind of paper used as a filter esp in chemistry filth, n [1 fɪlθ, 2 fɪlθ] OE fylð ME filpe &c O HG filtha fr Gmc fil*, 'foul' (see foul) & fil þa See-th a Anything filthy, substance that defiles in a disgusting manner, nasty and revolting dirt, b (fig) moral impurity or defilement, obscenity, corruption filthily, adv [1 fɪlθli, 2 fɪlθli] filthy &

-ly In a filthy manner filthiness, n [1 fɪlθnes, 2 fɪlθnes] Next word & -ness The state or quality of being filthy, something physically or morally filthy, defilement, filth filthy, adj [1 fɪlθi, 2 fɪlθi] filth & -y a Of the nature of, full of, covered with, filth, foul, unclean, loathsome, b (in moral sense) impure, obscene, corrupt filtrate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fɪltreɪt, 2 fɪltreɪt] filter (I) & -ate To filter filtrate (II), n See prec Liquid obtained by filtering filtration, n [1 fɪltreɪʃən, 2 fɪltreɪʃən] filtrate (I) & -ion The act or process of filtering, percolation fimbriate (d), adj [1 fɪmbreɪt(ed), 2 fɪm-breɪt(ed)] fr Lat fimbria, 'thread, fibra, fringe', & -ate & -ed Possibly fr find-* eriā, 'something split up', fr findere, 'to split' See fissile & cp fringe 1 (hot, zool) With a border or fringe of fibre, hairs &c 2 (ber) An ordinary having a narrow border of a different tincture (colour) is said to be fimbriated.

fin, n [1 fɪn, 2 fɪn] OE finn, ME finne Cp M Dn vinne Prob fr Aryan pid na*, 'something pointed', cp Lat pinnā (fr pid (s)nā*), 'a pinnae, fin', Aryan base pid*, pid*, 'a point, spike' See spica & words there referred to 1 a One of several flat membranous projections from the body of a fish, used for balancing, steering, and propelling, b similar organ in cetaceans, c a small, vertical device resembling the fin of a fish attached to parts of aircraft to secure stability 2 (slang) Hand Phr tip give us your fin, shake hands finable, adj [1 fɪnəbl, 2 fɪnəbl] fin (II) & -able Capable of being fined, liable to a fine

final (I), adj [1 fɪnl, 2 fɪnl], fr Fr, fr Lat finalis (d), 'final', fr Lat fin (d), 'limit, boundary, end, extremity' See finis & -al 1 Pertaining to the end, at the end, last, concluding the final chapter of a book 2 Conclusive, decisive, determining, admitting of no further argument my decision is quite final, a final issue, judgement &c 3 Final cause, the ultimate cause, starting-point, agency which initiates final (II), n, fr prec Something that is final, concluding act or event of a series a university examination for degree the law final, b (also pl) to run, play, in the finals, last heat of a race, decisive set or game in a match &c finale n [1 fɪnəle, 2 fɪnəli], fr Ital, fr Lat, dat sing of finalis, 'last, concluding' See prec 1 (mus) Last movement of a symphony, sonata &c, concluding number of an act of an opera. 2 That which concludes, winds up, a work, series of acts &c finalist, n [1 fɪnəlɪst, 2 fɪnəlɪst] final (II) & -ist Competitor who is in the finals of a race game &c finality n [1 fɪnəlɪti, 2 fɪnəlɪti] fr Fr, fr L Lat finalitas (em) 'the state of being final' final (I) & -ity 1 The state or quality of being final, settled, complete conclusiveness, completeness to speak with finality to claim finality for a statement conclusion, theory Phr an air of finality, one which gives the impression that everything is settled, that there is nothing more to be said, no further appeal 2 Something that is final; a final, conclusive, finishing, action, statement, arrangement &c finally adv [1 fɪnəl, 2 fɪnəli] final (I) & -ly 1 Lastly, in conclusion, in, at, the end finally, I have to say a few words on 2 Completely, irrevocably the matter is finally settled

finance (I) n [1 fɪnəns fɪnəns, 2 fɪnəns, fɪnəns], fr O Fr fin (er), 'to settle a debt dispute', fr fn, 'end, settlement' See fine (I) & -ance 1 The science and methods of the raising and control of public revenue and expenditure, the management of money affairs a student of finance, a system of finance, (also attrib) Finance Act, the act putting in force the budget of the year 2 (pl) Revenue, pecuniary resources, funds the finances of the country, of a person &c finance (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To furnish, supply, funds for, provide capital for to finance a commercial undertaking, an exploring expedition, to finance a young man at the university 2 in trans (rare) To engage in financial affairs, deal in finance financial, adj [1 fɪnənsɪəl, fɪnənsɪəl, 2 fɪn-ənsɪəl, fɪnənsɪəl] finance (I) & -ial Pertaining to finance, money matters, revenue financial year, period of one year at the end of which the public accounts are balanced.

financially, adv Prec & -ly In a financial manner, as regards finance financier (I), n [1 fɪnənsɪər, fɪnənsɪər, 2 fɪnənsɪər, fɪnənsɪər] finance & -er 1 One who is skilled in the raising and control of public money, or in the theory of revenue 2 One who engages in important operations involving finance financier (II), vb intrans [1 fɪnənsɪər, fɪnənsɪər, 2 fɪnənsɪər, fɪnənsɪər], fr prec (rare) To engage in financial operations, act as a financier finback, n [1 fɪnbæk, 2 fɪnbæk] A species of whale, the narwhal finch, n [1 fɪnʃ, 2 fɪnʃ(t)] OE fino, ME finch Cp O HG finco Proh (w. the meaning 'brightly coloured') cogn w Lat pingere, 'to paint' (see picture), Gk pig- galos, 'a lizard', Serb pinjarač, 'reddish yellow', pinjgas, 'reddish-brown', w in fixed -n fr Aryan base peig*, pig*, w also peik*, pik*, 'to adorn by painting or engraving' (see pigment, file (I)) One of various species of small passerine seed eating birds, family Fringillidae See goldfinch, chaffinch, greenfinch, bullfinch &c find (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fɪnd, 2 faɪnd] OE findan, ME finden Cp OLG, OHG findan, ON finna, Goth finpan

The orig meaning was 'to come upon, come up to', Aryan base pent*, pnt*, 'to come, go' Cp Serb pōniti, 'path, way', Gk patēō, 'I stop', patos (fr pti*), 'path, step', O Prussian pīntha, 'road', Lat ponitem, 'bridge' (see pons), Gk pōnatos, 'open sea' O HG funden, 'to hasten', fendo 'podestran' A trans 1 To discover as result of deliberate search, a to discover for the first time after months of digging they found very little gold, b to come upon, recover, regain possession of, something which has been lost I can't find my knife anywhere Phrs to find one's way, discover which way to go, to find one's way home in time for dinner, to go, reach, home, rivers find their way to the sea &c, go, get to, to find one's place, (in a book) turn to the required page &c, to find Christ, become convinced by spiritual experience of the truth of Christianity, to find oneself, discover one's real ideals, bent, walk in life &c, I could find it in my heart to I am inclined to 2 To learn, discover, become informed of, a fact by experience to find reading tedious, to find lobster indigestible, to find the night air pleasant, I hope you found your bed comfortable, to find a house in a filthy state, to find that one was mistaken 3 To discover, invent, produce, as result of mental activity to find nothing new to say 4 a To provide to find the money for a commercial undertaking, forty pounds a year and all found, b to provide furnish, equip with to find one's son with everything requisite for farming abroad, the house was well found in plate and linen c to equip mentally, instruct in to be well found in classical learning 5 (law) To judge consider as a result of deliberation to find a prisoner guilty, that the deceased had been murdered by a person unknown. B intrans

1 (law) To come to a certain legal decision, return a verdict the jury found for the plaintiff 2 (hunting) To discover game find (II), n, fr preo Something found, a discovery, esp a valuable or gratifying discovery I had made a great find in an old book shop yesterday, this hotel is a regular find findable, adj [1 findabl, 2 findahl] find (I) & -able Capable of being found finder, n [1 finder, 2 findr] find (I) & -er One who, that which, finds, specif a lens on the outside of a camera for finding position of object to be photographed, b small telescope attached to larger one for finding position of object of observation fin de siècle, adj [1 fán d' syék, 2 fás d' syék] Fr, 'end of the century' (of persons, ideas, conduct, works of art &c) Belonging to, typical of, the end of the 19th cent, said in reference to anything considered especially advanced, or progressive, at that date, hence often, cynical, devoid of the old fashioned ideals and principles, lacking belief in traditional codes of morality &c finding, n [1 finding, 2 findind] find (I) & -ing (law) Conclusion arrived at by court of justice, by a judge or jury fine (I), n [1 fin, 2 fain] ME fin(e), fr O Fr fin, 'end, settlement', fr Lat finis, 'limit, boundary, end, extremity' See finis End, conclusion, only in Phr in fine, finally, in conclusion, in short fine (II), n Same word as preo 1 Sum of money demanded by legal authority as a penalty for an offence which, when paid, settles the matter 2 a Sum paid to the king or other feudal lord by holder of land, an alienation, b payment made to lessor on renewal of a lease, fine and recovery, old fictitious action for conveyance of land fine (III), vb trans & intrans, fr preo To exact a fine from, punish by a fine to fine a person half a crown fine (IV), adj, fr Fr fin, fr Romance fino, etymol doubtful, perh a back-formation fr Lat finire, 'to finish' (see finish), Germ fein is fr Romance 1 a Slender, thin, delicate fine thread, wire &c, b of slender proportions a fine ankle 2 a Sharp, keen, thin a fine edge, a fine point, b having a fine point or edge a fine pen 3 Minute, consisting of very small particles fine rain, dust, flour, powder &c 4 (of gas &c) Rare, not dense 5 Of delicate texture fine linen, lace &c, a fine skin 6 Free from impurities, refined fine gold &c, (also of coinage) having a stated proportion of pure gold &c in it 7 Healthy, bright, salubrious fine climate, air &c 8 (of weather) a Bright, clear, pleasant, b free from rain, temporarily not raining Phrs one, some, fine day, one of these fine days, at some indefinite date 9 Large, extensive, striking, imposing a fine view, a fine expanse of ocean 10 a (of persons, or the human form) Well-developed, large, of striking proportions a fine woman, a fine child for his age, a fine head and shoulders, b (of animals and animal products) well grown, in good condition, perfect a fine bullock, goose, &c, a fine tiger-skin, a fine ham, a fine pair of horns, o (of plants and vegetable products) large, well-grown, without blemish, well proportioned a fine cedar, sweet-pea &c, a fine tomatoe 11 a Good of its kind, excellent, desirable, above the average a fine specimen, a fine example of early printing, b (colloq) thoroughly satisfactory to have a fine time, a poker makes a fine weapon against a burglar, it will be a fine thing for him, (often ironically) to lead a person a fine dance, that's a fine excuse, a very poor one 12 Perfect finished, well trained, artistic, a (of person) a fine performer, b (of mode of expression) fine singing 13 Elegant, ornate, handsome fine clothes Phr fine feathers, elegant attire 14 Ostentatious, showy, over-refined, pretentious she is too much of a fine lady for me 15 Fine arts, those appealing to one's sense of beauty, not merely utilitarian 16 a (of intellectual qualities) Keen, subtle, acute a fine mind rather than a powerful one, b (of moral qualities) noble, elevated, exhibiting probity a fine character 17 Eminent, excellent, distinguished, highly accomplished a fine singer, poet &c 18 a Discriminating, delicate in perception, subtle a fine sense of humour, b requiring discrimination, delicate, subtle a fine distinction 19 (of products of intellect) a Polished, finished, elaborated a fine piece of writing, fine compliments, b over-elaborate, pretentious, ostentatious, showy, distinguished by meretricious ornament in Phr fine writing 20 Delicate, of careful, detailed, and intricate workmanship a fine design, fine tracery fine (V), adv, fr preo Finally (in various senses), esp in Phr to run, cut, it (rather) fine, leave oneself, provide oneself with, barely enough of anything (esp of time), that will suit me fine, very well fine (VI), n, fr fine (IV) Fine weather to get home in the fine fine (VII), vb intrans & trans, fr fine (IV) 1 intrans a (of liquid, also fine down) To become clear, he purified, b to become slenderer, more delicate, in form &c 2 trans (also fine down) To clarify, refine (liquid &c) fine-draw, vb trans 1 To join the edges of two pieces of material, or two edges of a tear in woven material, in such a way that the stitches of the join are invisible 2 To draw out (wire &c) to a very high degree of fineness fine-drawn, adj 1 (of a rent in cloth &c) Having the edges drawn together and sewn in such a way that the stitches are invisible 2 a (of wire) Drawn out very thin, b (of arguments) invented, stated, with ingenuity and subtlety finely, adv [1 finh, 2 fainh] fine (IV) & -ly In a fine manner fineness, n [1 finnes, 2 fainnes] fine (IV) & -ness 1 The quality of being fine (in various senses), a thinness, slenderness fineness of thread &c, b delicacy, softness, suppleness fineness of a fabric, o (of gold, silver) purity, high proportion of pure gold or silver in a coinage 2 (of form) Slenderness, elegance, shapeliness, delicacy 3 (of quality in material things) Excellence, perfection 4 (of the quality of the mind and its activities) Acuteness, subtlety, justness, exactitude, accuracy fineness of intellect, fineness of observation 5 (of the senses) Acuteness, keenness, sensibility finery (I), n [1 finer, 2 fainer] fine (IV) & -ery Something that is fine, esp elaborate personal adornment, gay clothes, ornaments, and other additions to the dress, designed to give a gay, elegant appearance Also the garden in its summer finery finery (II), n, fr Fr, fr finer, 'to refine', fr Romance finire, fr Lat fin (vs), 'end' See finis Charcoal hearth for making cast-iron malleable, or for making steel from pig-iron fine-spun, adj a Drawn out to extreme fineness, thinness, fragile, delicate, b (fig) over-subtle, over elaborated finesse (I), n [1 fines, 2 finés], fr Fr fine (IV) & -oss 1 Careful, subtle, delicate action, skilful, adroit handling of a situation, so that a purpose is gained without arousing hostility and opposition 2 (in unfavourable sense) Artfulness, cunning, action intended to mislead as to one's real intentions and aims 3 (whist &c) Attempt to take trick with, or by playing, a low card, while holding a higher card of the same suit finesse (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans 1 To make use of finesse 2 (whist &c) To attempt to take a trick by means of finesse 3 trans 1 To overcome by finesse 2 (whist &c) To play (a card) as a finesse finger (I), n [1 finger, 2 fingr] OE, finger, OHG finger, ON finger, Goth fingrs Gmo fing-ra*, Aryan penl-ro*, 'group of five', fr base penl-ro*, 'five' See five & list 1 a One of the five separate members forming the extremity of the hand, b any one of these members excluding the thumb Phrs by a finger's breadth, by a very narrow margin, the finger of God, the direct intervention of Providence, to have (I now ledge &c) at one's fingers' ends to know thoroughly, be familiar with, to one's finger tips, completely, thoroughly, to have a finger in the pie, to be concerned with, take part in, an affair, his fingers are all thumbs, he is clumsy in using his hands, to lay a finger on, to touch, with hostile intent, to put one's finger on, indicate precisely, to let slip through one's fingers, to allow to escape, my fingers itch to do so and so, I am eager, impatient, to do it, not to lift, stir, a finger to help, to make not the slightest effort to help, to be able to twist (a person) round one's (little) finger, to have great influence over, dominate unduly 2 Part of glove covering a finger 3 Any thing shaped like a finger, a a small, narrow piece a finger of cake &c, b a small, projecting piece (in a machine &c) resembling a finger 4 The breadth of a finger, as a measure of depth (of liquid &c) 5 One of the pointers or hands of a clock or watch finger (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 a To touch, handle, with the fingers, b to touch, take, accept wrongfully to finger a bribe 2 (mos) a To play (an instrument) with the fingers, b to play (a passage &c), using specified fingers, c to indicate on (written or printed music) a specific order of using the fingers finger-alphabet, n Series of positions of the hands and fingers used as symbols for letters in communicating with the deaf and dumb finger and toe, n A disease of various roots, esp turnips, dactylorhiza finger-board, n a That part of a violin or other similar musical instrument upon which the fingers press the strings in forming the notes, b keyboard, manual, of a piano finger-bowl, n Small bowl containing water placed by each person at luncheon or dinner, for cleansing the fingers after dessert -fingered, adj [1 fingerd, 2 fingd] finger (I) & -ed Having fingers of a specified kind light fingered, having light, nimble fingers, esp light fingered gentry, pick pockets finger-fish, n A star fish finger-glass, n Finger bowl fingerling (I), n [1 fingerling, 2 fingerl] finger (II) & -ing An Order of using the fingers in playing a musical instrument, b signs on written or printed music indicating this order fingerling (II), n Earlier fingram, prob fr Fr fin grain See fine (III) & grain Fine kind of wool for stockings &c finger-language, n Finger alphabet fingerless, adj [1 fingerless, 2 fingrless] finger (I) & -less Without fingers finger-mark, n Impprint, stain, left by finger on a surface finger-nail, n Nail at end of finger finger-plate, n Flat plate fixed on door near handle to protect it from finger marks finger-post, n Post erected at cross road &c to indicate direction, sign post finger-print, n Impression made by, o taken from, the pad or cushion of the finger tips, used as a means of identifying criminals finger-stall, n Small cover, like the finger of a glove, worn to protect injured finger final, n [1 final, 2 finrl], fr Lat fin (vs), 'end' See finis & -ial (frcit) Projecting ornament at the apex of a gable, pinnacle &c final, adj [1 finhl, 2 finhl] Etymol doubtful Cp finicking a (of persons) Over fastidious, trivial, fussy, full of pettiness and crotchets, b (of things) excessively elaborated, with much unimportant detail finality, n [1 finalita, 2 finaklita] Preo & -ity The quality of being final finically, adv [1 finikali, 2 finikeli] finical finnan-haddock, n [1 finan bádok, 2 finan hádak] Said to be fr Findhorn, fishing port in Scotland Haddock cut open, salted, and cured with peat smoke finer, n [1 finer, 2 fina] fin & -er The fin back or roqual finne, adj [1 finik, 2 finik] Fin & -ic Pertaining to the Finns, to their language, or to the family of languages to which this belongs Finnish, adj & n [1 finish, 2 finis] Fin & -ish 1 adj Pertaining to the Finns or their language 2 n The language of the Finns Finno-Ugrian, n & adj [1 finó úgrian, 2 finou úgrian] See Ugrian finny, adj [1 fini, 2 fini] fin & -y 1 Ha-ving fin finny tribes, (poet) fish 2 (poet) Abounding in fish Finsen light, n [1 finen lit, 2 finen lät] After Niels Finsen, Danish doctor A special form of electric light, enabling ultra violet rays to be concentrated on surface exposed to it, used in treatment of lupus &c fjord, fjord, n [1 fjord, 2 fjöd] Norw Cogn w OE ford See ford, firth, & frith A long narrow arm of the sea, between high, rocky cliffs, esp in Norway florin, n [1 florin, 2 flarwin] Ir fiathran A kind of meadow grass fir, n [1 fär, 2 fä] OE fyrh* (not recorded), mutated form corresponding to furh (wudu), 'fir wood', ME firs Cp ON fura, OHG foraha, 'fir', also OHG ferah (esh), 'mountain oak' The Aryan type was perh²a*, whence also Lat querula, 'oak' (cp Quercus), fr perh²as* 1 One of numerous varieties of pineous trees (Abies or Picea), they are mostly evergreen, resinous, and coniferous, and have the needles arranged singly on the shoots, cp pine 2 The wood of the fir fir cone, fruit of the fir, more rarely fir apple fire (I), n [1 fir, 2 fiar] OE fyr, ME für, OHG für, für, ON (post) furr, fire, Gk pur, 'fire', Aryan base p²*, 'bright, shining, clear, pure', the meaning has, on the one hand, been specialized to 'fire', on the other hand, to 'clean, pure', cp Lat pürus, clean, purpure, 'to purify' (see pure, purge), Sort pülat, 'pure', pundit, 'purifies' (see pyre) 1 (anc) phrs and popular usage One of the four elements which compose the universe 2 The principle present in combustion, producing heat and light, flame Phrs to set fire to, to set on fire, to cause to burn, to ignite, to set the Thames on fire, to achieve something remarkable, to catch, take, fire, to be ignited, to begin to burn, on fire, (i) burning, ignited, (ii) (fig) eager excited, roused, to strike fire, to produce a spark or fire by concussion, to play with fire, to trifle with something likely to prove dangerous 3 a Conflagration, destructive burning to insure against fire, Phr to go through fire and water, endure perils of all kinds, b a specific conflagration, burning the fire spread rapidly from house to house 4 Small portion, collection, of glowing, smouldering, or blazing material, wood, coal &c, used to produce heat, for warming and cooking to have a fire in one's room, it is too warm for fires Phrs to lay a fire, arrange fuel in position for lighting, out of the frying pan into the fire from one predicament to another, from bad to worse 5 (of mental quality) Animation, strong feeling, spiritual energy, fervour, ardour His was the bard's immortal name, His was the hero's soul of fire (Scott, 'Last Minstrel', vi xii) eyes full of fire, fierce flashing, strong bright glance 6 Firing shooting, discharge of fire arms exposed to enemy's fire Phrs under fire being shot at to open fire, begin shooting, cease fire, stop shooting, between two fires shot at attacked, from two directions running fire, rapid succession of shots, (fig) swift succession of criticisms &c fire (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To set fire to, ignite, cause to begin burning to fire a house, to fire the grass &c 2 To submit, object, to heat, specul, a to bake (breaks &c), b to dry, cure (tea &c), c (veter surg) to cauterize 3 To tend, feed, supply (a furnace &c) with fuel 4 a To discharge, cause to go off, explode (fire-arms) to fire a pistol, (also slang) to discharge from service, to seek, b to discharge fire arms in a specific manner, for a specific purpose to fire a volley, a salute, a broadside &c, c (fig) to address, direct at, suddenly to fire questions at a person, 5 (of action on the mind) To animate, excite, arouse, stimulate, inflame to fire the imagination, blood &c B intrans 1 (of explosives) To catch fire, be ignited 2 To discharge fire arms to give the order to fire, to fire at, on, upon, the enemy C Followed by adverbs and prepositions Fires away, a intrans, (colloq) to begin, start off, go ahead, b trans, to expend, use up, by firing to fire away ammunition Fires off, trans, to discharge (lit and fig) to fire off a gun, questions &c Fire out, trans, (slang) to dismiss, send off, eject, expel Fire up, intrans, to become suddenly excited, indignant when he sneered at her son, she fired up at once fire-alarm, n Apparatus for announcing an outbreak of fire fire-arm, n A weapon from which a missile is propelled by an explosive fireback, n [1 firbak, 2 fiarbak] 1 A kind of East Indian pheasant, part of the back of which is fiery red 2 Plate of iron, fire clay, or brick at the back of a grate, the purpose of which is to reflect heat into the room fireball, n [1 firbawl, 2 fiarböl] 1 A meteor 2 (mil) A bag filled with combustibles and used for lighting or causing conflagration fire-balloon, n Balloon filled with hot air, supplied by fire burning at its mouth fire-blight, n A disease of hops fire-box, n That part of an engine in which the fuel is burnt fire-brand, n a A piece of burning wood, b (fig) a person who excites the minds of others, one who stirs up strife, revolt, discontent &c fire-brick, n Fireproof brick used in fire-places fire-brigade, n Organized body of men for extinguishing conflagrations fire-bug, n U.S.A. A firefly, b (slang) an incendiary fire-clay, n A special kind of clay, capable of sustaining great heat, used in making fire-bricks fire-control, n Control from a central position by various systems, mechanical or otherwise, of the fire of the guns of a warship fire-damp, n An explosive gas generated in coal mines fire-dog, n Metal support for logs of burning wood on an open hearth, andiron fire-drill, n A Fire brigade practice, b organized practice and instruction for school children &c in proper action in case of fire fire-eater, n a Juggler who claims to eat fire, b person who is always eager for a fight, a hot-tempered, quarrelsome person fire-engine, n Combination of vehicle and machine, in former capacity carrying firemen, ladders, hose pipes &c to the scene of a fire, the machine is a powerful pump for throwing a stream of water with considerable force and for some distance through the hose upon the flames fire-escape, n a Device consisting of ladders, and a long canvas tube fixed to a tall portable frame, down which people escape from a burning building b iron staircase on exterior of building, esp for use in emergency fire-extinguisher, n A portable metal container, from which a chemical liquid can be readily discharged at early stages of a fire firefly, n [1 firli, 2 fiowli] An insect emitting a phosphorescent light from some part of its body, esp one of several varieties of American and W Indian beetles, esp the click beetle, family Elateridae fire-guard, n Metal framework or grating round a fireplace fire-hose, n Hose for conveying water and discharging it upon the flames of a conflagration fire-insurance, n Insurance against loss by fire fire-irons, n Instruments for tending fire, poker, tongs, and shovel fireless, adj [1 fiɹlɪs, 2 faiɹlɪs] fire (I) & -less Without a fire fire-light, n Light cast by a fire, esp by one burning in a grate fire-lighter, n Small object made of highly inflammable material, used to facilitate the kindling of a fire in a grate firelock, n [1 fiɹlɒk, 2 faiɹlɒk] Obsolete kind of musket fired by sparks produced by a steel hammer striking a piece of flint fireman, n [1 fiɹmən, 2 faiɹmən] 1 Member of a fire-brigade 2 Man who feeds the fire of a steam engine &c with fuel, stoker fire-office, n Office of a fire-insurance company fire-pan, n Pan for holding burning fuel fireplace, n [1 fiɹplɪs, 2 faiɹplɪs] Specially constructed part of a room, in which a fire may be lighted, generally including the grate, the cavity in the wall in which this is fixed, and the ornamented structure surrounding the opening fire-plug, n Metal pipe connected with a water-main, provided with a movable cap screwed down on it when not in use, and made so that a fire hose can be attached fire-policy, n Document setting forth the terms of a fire-insurance contract fireproof, adj [1 fiɹpru:f, 2 faiɹpru:f] Proof against fire, not liable to be destroyed or affected by fire, non inflammable fire-screen, n One intended to give protection against the heat of the fire in a room fire-ship, n Ship filled with combustibles, ignited, and allowed to drift so as to set fire to enemy shipping fireside, n [1 fiɹsaɪd, 2 faiɹsaɪd] a Part of room near fireplace, (fig) b home, family life fire-step, n Step in a trench allowing soldier to fire over the parapet fire-stick, n One of two pieces of wood used by primitive races to make fire by friction fire-stone, n Kind of fireproof stone fire-trap, n Building dangerous in case of fire by reason of its inflammability or its lack of proper exits fire-warden, n Forest official whose chief duty is to prevent or check fires fire-water, n Name supposed to be used by American Indians for ardent spirits firewood, n [1 fiɹwud, 2 faiɹwud] Wood for fuel firework, n [1 fiɹwɜ:k, 2 faiɹwɜ:k] Device for producing various effects of lighting by means of combustibles, explosives &c used for display, as signal &c fire-worship, n Worship of fire as a deity, or as the symbol of a deity firm, n [1 fiɹm, 2 faiɹm] fire(II) &-ing 1 The discharge of fire arms 2 Material for feeding a fire, fuel firm-line, n That area of a zone of military operations within effective range of the enemy, the troops within such an area firm-party, n Small party or squad of soldiers detailed for duty, a for shooting soldier condemned by court martial, b for firing a volley over the grave of soldier buried with military honours firm, n [1 fiɹkən, 2 faiɹkən] Earlier ferde-kən, prob fr M Dn verde, 'fourth', cogn w fourth, &-kən A small barrel, for holding liquid, butter &c, having a capacity of 8 to 9 gallons firm (I), adj [1 fɜ:m, 2 fɜ:m] (influenced by Latin spelling), fr O Fr ferme, fr Lat firmus, 'steadfast, stable, strong, constant, faithful'. Cp Lat ferē, fermē, 'nearly', firmus, 'relying on', Sort dharayath, 'holds, supports', dharma, 'custom, law', Lith dērmic, 'creaky', Gk. thrōnos, 'seat' (see throne), thrānos, 'stool', Aryan base dher-* dher*(s), dhrē*, 'to hold, support' Cp fort & words there referred to 1 (referring to material consistency) Solid, compact, not yielding to pressure, closely knit firm flesh. Phrs firm ground, the land as opposed to the sea, (fig) to be on firm ground, sure of one's facts 2 (of degree of material stability) Not easily shaken, upset or moved, fixed, rigid, stable, fast roots firm in the earth, firm on one's legs Phr as firm as a rock 3 a (of the mind and character) Resolute, steadfast, determined, inflexible, b (of thoughts, beliefs, aspirations) unshakable, strongly fixed a firm faith, hope, conviction 4 (of behaviour and conduct) Resolute, showing decision of character and purpose, not easily swayed, stern, unyielding firm government, management; firm treatment of children, firm measures 5 a (of effort) Strongly, steadily, and consistently continued and exerted or applied firm pressure, b (of bodily action) vigorous, steady, unwavering a firm step, tread, voice, glance &c Phr a firm offer, one that one is prepared to stick to 6 (of markets and prices) Not fluctuating, steady at one rate or value firm (II), adv, fr prec Firmly, fast to stand firm firm (III), vb trans. & intrans, fr firm (I) (rare) 1 trans n To make firm, solid to firm the ground after planting, b to fix firmly 2 intrans 'To become firm, solidify firm (IV), n, fr Ital firma, 'confirmation, signature', op L Lat firmāre, 'to sign, confirm', fr Lat firmus See firm (I) firm, n Group of persons associated as partners for the conduct of a business undertaking &c firmament, n [1 fɜ:rmənt, 2 faiɹmənt], fr Lat firmamentum, 'a support, the sky fixed above the earth' firm (I) &-ment The whole expanse of the sky firmamental, adj [1 fɜ:rməntəl, 2 faiɹməntəl] Prec &-al Of, pertaining to, the firmament firmman, n [1 fɜ:rmən, 2 faiɹmən], fr Pers ferman Decree, sanction, licence, authority to travel &c given by Oriental sovereign firmly, adv [1 fɜ:mlɪ, 2 faiɹmlɪ] firm (I) &-ly 1 In a firm manner, solidly, immovably, fixedly to fix a post firmly in the ground 2 With decision, resolutely, unwaveringly to speak firmly firmness, n [1 fɜ:rnɪs, 2 faiɹnɪs] firm (I) &-ness The quality of being firm (in various senses), a solidity of consistency, b stability, c resolution, determination of character, conduct &c firmy, adj [1 fɜ:ri, 2 faiɹi] fir &-y A-bounding in fire first (I), adj [1 fɜ:st, 2 fɜ:st] OE fyrist, ME first(e), superl fr Gmc stem fur* (see fore, former), OHG furisto, 'first', cogn w Lat primus, 'first' (see prime, primary) 1 Ordinal number of one, expressing, denoting, that which begins a series, occurring, doing something, before others the first month of the year, the first man to cross the Atlantic, the first guests to arrive, Edward the First, a first coat (of paint &c), First Day, Quaker's term for Sunday, the first Empire, that of France under Napoleon I, first floor, storey, that over the ground floor (USA, ground floor), first night, earliest performance of play Phrs first blood, first wound given in duel or other combat, in the first place, before one does anything else, at first sight, at the first superficial or hasty inspection or consideration, first thing, at the earliest possible moment - I will do it (the) first thing tomorrow 2 Earliest in time, most forward the first son to be born to him, precocious the first flowers of spring 3 Foremost in position, occupying position in advance of all others, earliest met with, seen &c in advancing from, or towards, a given direction the first house you come to, the first land sighted on the return voyage, the first man I saw on arrival 4 (of persons) Occupying the chief rank, principal, a (in social position) the first subject of the king, the first gentleman in Europe, b (often caps, in a hierarchy, in an organized body of persons) the first officer of a ship, First Lord of the Admiralty, of Treasury, First Secretary of Legation, first violin, leading violinist in an orchestra, c (in attainments, achievements, reputation) the first scholar of his day, the first general in Europe 5 (of things) a Primary, of most importance the First Cause, the primordial cause of all causes, first cost, original cost apart from incidental expenses, such as carriage &c, b of first quality a diamond of the first water first (II), n, fr prec 1 Beginning at (the) first, from the first, from first to last, from beginning to end 2 In various elliptical Phrs the first of August, first day, the first of Victoria, first regnal year, to take a first, place in the first class in examination, he got a first at Oxford, took a first class in an Honour School, first of exchange, first copy of bill of exchange 3 (mus) Highest voice in part singing, leading instrument of its kind in orchestra 4 Firsts, commodity, such as butter, of best quality first (III), adv OE fyrist, ME first See first (I) 1 Before everything else, at the beginning or head, first in time, place, or degree he first asked my name, to stand, rank, first Phrs first and foremost, emphatic for first, first and last, altogether, all included, first or last (archaic or rare) sooner or later 2 (referring to time) a Before the occurrence, performance &c of something specified or implied I can't go out yet, I have many things to do first, b for the first time I first met him ten years ago 3 Sooner, rather, preferably when called upon to reveal the names of his accomplices he said he would die first, (colloq) I'll see him hanged first first-aid, n Preliminary, esp skilled, help given to injured person before arrival of doctor a first-aid class first-begotten, adj [1 fɜ:st beɹɒtən, 2 faiɹt beɹɒtən] Begotten before any other children first-born, adj & n a adj Born before any other children in a family, eldest my first born child, b n, first-born son or daughter first-chop, adj See chop (IV) in sense of trade mark, seal Of the finest brand, the best first-class, adj & adv [1 fɜ:st klɪs, 2 faiɹt klɪs] when predicative; [1 fɜ:st klɪs, 2 faiɹt klɪs] when before n 1 adj a Belonging to the first, highest, or best class, having the best qualities of the kind, superior a first class hotel, tailor, cricket match, the weather was first class, b of best accommodation in train, steamer &c first class carriage, berth &c 2 adv a (colloq, rather vulg) Excellently, splendidly, very well he plays first-class, to feel first-class, in the best health, b by the first class on a train, ship &c to travel first class first-foot, n (Scots usage) Person who first crosses threshold of a house at the New Year first-fruits, n, pl 1 a Earliest produce of the season, esp when dedicated to God by ancient religious custom, b (fig) earliest product of labours this book is the first-fruits of many years' study 2 (hist) First year's revenue from tenant-in-chief or holder of ecclesiastical benefice, annates first-hand, adj & adv [1 fɜ:st hænd, 2 faiɹt hænd, 3 faiɹt hænd] 1 adj Obtained directly from the source first hand information. Phr at first hand 2 adv Directly from the source, maker &c to learn something first hand firstling, n [1 fɜ:stlɪŋ, 2 faiɹstlɪŋ] first (I) &-ling (archaic, bib) First born domestic animal firstly, adv [1 fɜ:stli, 2 faiɹstli] first (I) &-ly In the first place, coming into common use instead of first, but often objected to, it occurs especially in enumeration, through influence of secondly &c first-nighter, n [1 fɜ:st nɪtə, 2 faiɹt nɪtə] (colloq) Person who habitually attends first performances of plays.

first-rate, adj, r, & adv [1 fɪrst rɪt, fɪrst ræt, 2 fɪst rɪt, fɪst rɛt] 1 adj (a naval hist) Belonging to the class of largest and most powerful ships, hence, b belonging to the first class or order, of superior kind, excellent a first rate dinner, his acting was first rate 2 n (navel) First rate ship 3 adv (colloq) In a first rate manner, extremely well he is getting on first rate fish, n [1 fɪʃ, 2 fɪʃ] M Scots, fr ON fisk, stem of fiskr, 'fisc', cogn w Lat portus, 'harbour', fr Aryan base *per, 'to proceed' Variant of frith (in Scotland) Estuary or long narrow inlet of the sea fish, n [1 fɪʃ, 2 fɪʃ] Fr, fr Lat fishis, 'woven basket, purse, treasury', op Lat fishma, 'basket', etymol doubtful State treasury, rare, except a (Rom hist) treasury of the Republic later, Emperor's privy purse, b (Scots, usually fish) Crown treasury the estate attached to the fish fiscal, adj & n [1 fɪʃəl, 2 fɪʃəl] Fr, fr Lat fiscālis (u) Prec & -al 1 adj Pertaining to the public revenue Procurator-fiscal, public prosecutor for minor criminal offences in Scotland. 2 n (in various foreign countries) A high legal official, (in Scotland) Procurator fiscal fiscally, adv Prec & -ly In a fiscal relation fish (I), n [1 fɪʃ, 2 fɪʃ] OE fisc, M E fish, O S, OHG fisc, Mod Germ fish, Goth fisks, ON fiskr, Common Gmc cogn w Lat piscis, O Ir iasc for pisc*. W pyg & is a fresh borrowing fr Lat Further connections are doubtful, but two suggestions have been put forward (1) relationship w Lat pinnā, 'fin', O E finn, see fin, (u) w Scrt pičhā, 'alume', pičhala, 'slimy' Pl fishes, often fish, esp as food, fr collective use 1 a Cold blooded vertebrate animal, living entirely in water and breathing by gills, having no limbs except in the modified form of fins, Phrs to drink like a fish, drunk to excess, as drunk as a fish, very drunk, to feed the fishes, to see sea sick, to be drowned, to land one's fish, to secure what one has worked or intrigued for, a fish out of water, person in strange unfamiliar surroundings, b (loosely) animal living in the water, esp those sold for food, as crabs or oysters &c, (also in compounds) shellfish, starfish, c the flesh of fishes as an article of food or com merce to eat fish on Fridays, fish is cheap, d fishes in the moss, esp as living in particular body of water to catch fish, there are lots of fish of many kinds in the lake, Phrs all is fish that comes to his net, he takes everything without discrimination, to have other fish to fry (colloq), something else to do, more urgent business to attend to, there are (or is) as good fish in the sea as ever came out of it, what is lost or missed can be replaced, neither fish, flesh, nor fowl (nor good red herring), (colloq) thing unsatisfactory because indeterminate, nondescript, a pretty little of fish, (colloq) a fine mess, complication &c, to cry stinking fish, to disparage one's self or one's own work e (fig, slightly contempt), person, with qualifying adjective a cool, dull, loose, odd, queer, poor fish 2 (attrib) Consisting of, concerned with, fish a fish dinner, market Phr a fish story, living, boastful tale, properly of one's angling prowess 3 Counter shaped like a fish, used in card games &c Probably originally from French, see fish (III) fish (II), v, intrans & trans OE fiscian, 'to catch fish' See prec A intrans 1 To catch, or attempt to catch, fish with a net, baited hook, or artificial fly &c, to practice the occupation of fishing as a business or for sport to fish in the sea, to fish for a livelihood, to go out fishing Phr to fish in troubled waters, to make a profit out of a disturbed situation 2 (fig, often followed by for) To throw out covert hints, feelers, in order to obtain a compliment, an advantage, to extract information, get knowledge of secrets &c he came round fishing for an invitation, I could see that he was merely fishing for information 3 Fish for, to seek for certain things (coral, pearls, oysters &c) which are found in the sea, lakes &c B trans 1 To attempt to catch fish in, to use means for catching fish in you must come and fish my lake, this stream has been over fished, to fish the mouth of a river 2 To attempt to catch by fishing I think it's better sport to fish trout than salmon C Followed by preposition or adverb Fish out, trans, a to exhaust supply of fish in (a piece of water) by excessive fishing the stream is quite fished out, b to bring up, produce, pull something up or out, from an obscure place to fish half a crown out of one's pocket, he fished out an old coat from the wardrobe Fish up, trans, a come as preceding b, b to pull up out of the water to fish up a dead dog from the pond fish (III), n & v trans Fr fiche, 'a fixing, stake, pin, peg, counter in games', fr ficher, 'to fix, fasten, drive in', fr Romance type ficcāre*, for Lat figere, q v under fix (I) The n has prob been associated w fish (I) fr supposed resemblance in shape 1 n a Piece of wood or iron used as longitudinal clamp to strengthen another, or to join two pieces together, fishplate on railway line, b counter, often shaped like a fish, in certain games, see fish (I) 2 v trans To strengthen or join together by means of a fish fishable, adj [1 fɪʃəbəl, 2 fɪʃəbəl] fish (II) & -able Capable of being fished a fishable stream fishball, n [1 fɪʃbɔːl, 2 fɪʃbɔːl] Fried cake of shredded fish and potato fishbolt, n [1 fɪʃbɔːlt, 2 fɪʃbɔːlt] fish (III) & bolt (I) Bolt fastening two fish plates to rail, or fish to mast &c fishbone, n [1 fɪʃbɔːn, 2 fɪʃbɔːn] Bone of a fish, esp one of the small, slender bones found in herrings &c, liable to lodge in the throat fish-carver, n Fish slice fisher, n [1 fɪʃər, 2 fɪʃə] OE fiscere, M E fishere fish (II) & -er a Person who fishes, b fishing vessel, c animal that catches fish, specif, kind of N American weasel fisherman, n [1 fɪʃərman, 2 fɪʃəmən] a Man whose occupation is to catch fish, b one who fishes for sport, angler a keen fisherman, c one skilful in the angler's art I fear he will never make a fisherman fishery, n [1 fɪʃəri, 2 fɪʃəri] fish (I) & -ery a Action, business, or industry of fishing, b legal right of fishery in particular waters, c region, part of the sea &c where fishing is carried on fish-globe, n More or less globular glass bowl in which live fishes are kept fish-glue, n Powerful adhesive substance made from the bones of fish boiled down fish-hawk, n Osprey fish-hook, n Barbed hook attached to line, used to catch fish fishy, adv [1 fɪʃli, 2 fɪʃli] fishy & -ly In a fishy manner fishiness, n [1 fɪʃɪnəs, 2 fɪʃɪnəs] fishy & -ness Quality of being fishy fishing, n [1 fɪʃɪŋ, 2 fɪʃɪŋ] fish (II) & -ing 1 Action or process of catching fish, whether as a business or as a sport to earn one's livelihood by fishing, to be fond of fishing, also attributive as fishing rod, net, tackle &c 2 Legal rights to fish in certain waters to own, let, the fishing in a lake, or river 3 That piece of water, stretch of river &c, over which rights of fishing are enjoyed to take a fishing in Scotland fish-lettle, n Large little or pot, in which fish can be boiled whole fish-knife, n Knife with silver or plated blade, for eating fish fish-ladder, n Flight of steps enabling salmon &c to ascend falls of a river fishlike, adj [1 fɪʃlɪk, 2 fɪʃlɪk] Resembling, suggesting, fish or a fish A very ancient and fish like smell (Shakespeare), said also of a cold, unemotional, listless person fishmonger, n [1 fɪʃmʌŋɡər, 2 fɪʃmʌŋɡəl] fish (I) & -monger Dealer in fish, and other edible products of the water fishplate, n [1 fɪʃplæt, 2 fɪʃplæt] fish (III) & plate (I) One of pair of steel plates or fishes by which two rails on railway are bolted together fishpond, n [1 fɪʃpɒnd, 2 fɪʃpɒnd] Pond in which fish are bred, and kept for food fishpot, n [1 fɪʃpɒt, 2 fɪʃpɒt] Wicker trap for catching lobsters, crabs, eels &c fish sauce, n [1 fɪʃ sɑːs, fɪʃ sɔːs, 2 fɪʃ sɔːs, fɪʃ sɔːs] a Sauce used to flavour fish, b sauce made of fish fishskin, n [1 fɪʃskɪn, 2 fɪʃskɪn] 1 Skin of a fish, specif, prepared rough skin of some kinds of shark, used for polishing wood. 2 (med) Rough, scaly condition of skin fish-slice, n [1 fɪʃ slɪs, 2 fɪʃ slɪs] Broad-bladed knife of silver, or plated metal, for carving and serving fish, utensil for handling fish when cooking fishtail, adj [1 fɪʃteɪl, 2 fɪʃteɪl] Shaped like the tail of a fish fishtail burner, gas burner with flat jet, fishtail wind, shifting wind blowing down into range fishwife, n [1 fɪʃwɪf, 2 fɪʃwɪf] Woman who sells fish retail, female hawk of fish fishy, adj [1 fɪʃi, 2 fɪʃi] fish (I) & -y 1 Consisting of, abounding in, fish a fishy diet 2 Pertaining to, resembling or suggesting, fish, a in smell, b like a fish's eye, dull, lustreless, expressionless, vacant a fishy diamond, eye, stare 3 (colloq) Questionable, dubious, suspicious a fishy transaction, tale fisk n Variant spelling of fisc fisst-, pref Lat See next word Form used in compounds of Latin origin, denoting a left, divided, as fistidactyl, having separate digits, b by fission, as fissiparous, reproducing by fission fissile, adj [1 fɪsəl, 2 fɪsəl] Lat fissil-(us), 'that may be cleft or split', fr fias (um), PP type of findere, 'to cleave', cogn w Scrt bhidyañ, 'to cleave, disjoin', see further under bite (I) & -ile Capable of being cleft or split, easily splitting fissility, n [1 fɪsɪlɪti, 2 fɪsɪlɪti] Prec & -ity Quality of being fissile fission, n [1 fɪsɪən, 2 fɪsɪən] Lat fission-(em), 'a cleaving', fr base fias (um) See fissile & -ion Process of cleaving, splitting off, repeat (biol) reproduction by fission by division fissure, n [1 fɪʃər, 2 fɪʃə] Fr, fr Lat fissūra, 'a cleft, chunk', fr base fias, see fissile, & -ure a Cleft, crack, chink, in ground, rock &c, specif b (anat &c) narrow opening between lobes, or parts, of an organ, e g 10 brain or liver, c split or crack in bodily tissue fissured, adj [1 fɪʃəd, 2 fɪʃəd] Prec & -ed Cracked, cleft, split open, having a fissure or fissures a fissured rock fit, n & v trans [1 fɪt, 2 fɪt] O I fist, M E fist, fit, op OHG fist, Mod Germ faust &c, Gmc type fistaz*, fr fuyx* s i z, 'collection of five (fingers)', cogn w O Slav pešt, Russ piast, 'fist', fr Aryan base peṃs*, q v under five & finger Cp further Gk puz, 'with the fist', pug me, Lat pug-nus, 'fist', wh may be cogn See pugnacious A n 1 a Hand clenched or tightly closed, with fingers bent, as for striking, b (colloq) hand give us your fist, shake hands 2 Handwriting to write as ugly fit B v trans A To strike with the fist, b (chiefly naut) to grasp, handle -fisted, adj [1 fɪstəd, 2 fɪstəd] Prec & -ed Form used in compounds, denoting having a (particular kind of) fist, as close fist, hard-fisted fistic(al), adj [1 fɪstɪkəl, 2 fɪstɪkəl] fit & -ic (& -al) Popular colloquialism, used in reference to boxing, relating to, fought with, fists fistic skill, contest &c flagolet (II), n [1. flagolét, flagolét, 2. flagolét, flagolét] Fr, fr O Fr. flagolet, dimin of flagol, fr Lat flagellus, dimin of flagellus, fr Gk phaselos, 'a kind of bean'. A kind of kidney-bean flagging, n [1. flagging, 2. flagging] flag (VII) & -ing a Process of laying flagstones, b pavement of flagstones flaggy (I), adj [1. flaggy, 2. flaggy] M E flaggy flag (II) & -y Abounding in the plants called flags flaggy (II), adj flag (VI) & -y Portaining to, resembling, flagstone flagitious, adj [1. flagitious, 2. flagitious] fr Lat flagitiosus (us), 'disgraceful', fr flagiti (um), 'passionate or furious demand', hence 'shameful deed', fr flagitare, 'to demand passionately', cp flagrare, 'to flame, blaze'. See flagrant (of person or action) Atrociously wicked, criminal, disgraceful, shameful flagitiously, adv Preo & -ly In a flagitious manner flagitiousness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being flagitious, atrocious wickedness flag-lieutenant, n Flag officer's aide de camp flag-list, n Roll of flag officers flagman, n [1. flagman, 2. flagman] Man who signals with a flag, esp in horse-racing flag-officer, n Naval officer (admiral, vice-admiral, rear admiral) commanding fleet or squadron and flying his own flag flagon, n [1. flagon, 2. flagon] O Fr flagon, flagon, Mod Fr flagon, fr Low Lat flagon (em), augmentative (see -oon) of flascus, flasca, flask a Vessel for serving wine at table, with narrow neck, a handle, and spout, espec, that used for the Eucharist, b (trade word) large vessel with flattened sides, holding about one or two quarts flagrancy, n [1. flagrancy, 2. flagrancy] See next word & -cy Cp Lat flagrantia, 'a burning, ardour' Quality of being flagrant, notoriety, glaring, scandalous character (of an action) flagrant, adj [1. flagrant, 2. flagrant] Fr, fr Lat flagrant (em), Pres Part type of flagrare, 'to blaze, burn, be inflamed with passion', fr Lat base flag, 'blaze', in grade relation to fulg etc, 'to shine' (see refulgent, fulminate), cogn w Sort birā, 'to shine', Gk phlegon, 'to burn', phlox, 'flame' (see phlox), also w bleach, blank, bright a (of action) Notoriously, obtrusively, evil, glaring, scandalous a flagrant offence, crime, b (of persons) guilty of such crime, or offence a flagrant sinner flagrante delicto, adv [1. flagrante delicto, 2. flagrante delicto] Lat In open act of committing a crime or offence flagrantly, adv [1. flagrantly, 2. flagrantly] In a flagrant manner flagship, n [1. flagship, 2. flagship] Ship flying the flag of the admiral commanding fleet or squadron flagstaff, n [1. flagstaff, 2. flagstaff] Staff from which a flag is flown flagstone, n [1. flagstone, 2. flagstone] Large flat stone used as flag for paving flagwagging, n [1. flagwagging, 2. flagwagging] a (mil, colloq) Action of signalling with flag, b (fig) bellicose, provocative, bragging talk flail, n [1. flail, 2. flail] OE figel, OHG figel, but M E flail, flail, whence present form, is more directly due to O Fr flail (el) (cp Mod Fr flail), all fr Lat flagellum, 'scourge'. See flagellum Implement, now rarely used, for threshing grain by hand, consisting of stout stick attached to end of handle so as to swing freely flair, n [1. flair, 2. flair] Fr, 'power of scenting out, right instinct for', fr vb flairer, 'scent out', fr Low Lat flagrare, 'scent (out)', by dissimilation fr Lat fragrare, 'to have a smell'. See flagrant & fragrant Instinctive discernment a flair for good poetry flake (I), n [1. flake, 2. flake] M E, prob of Scand origin, cp ON flaki, 'flake', Swed flake, 'plate' (cattle), 'icefloes', Norw flak, 'shoe', Du flage, 'snowflake', IceL flakna, flagnaz, 'to flake off', cogn w flag (VI) flae, flaw, & perh flay. Prob fr Aryan base plag*, 'to heat'. See plague 1 a Thin, flat piece that splits, or scales off, or is chipped or peeled from anything a flake of stone, flint, fish, orange peel, b (perhaps confused with flake) small light mass of flake of snow, (more rarely) of burning material 2 Kind of ornament with striped flowers.

flake (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 To form or gather into flakes, to split out into flakes the frost flakes the stone 2 To cover, sprinkle, with flakes, to flock B intrans 1 To split or fall away in flakes, to scale, also, flake off or away 2 To fall in flakes (of snow &c) flake (III), n Cp ON flake, Du vlaal, 'paling, hurdle' a Rack or stage on which goods are stored or dried, b light platform hung over ship's side for workman flake-white, n White pigment made of scales of white lead flakiness, n [1. flakiness, 2. flakiness] flaky & -ness Quality of being flaky, tendency to flake flaky, adj [1. flaki, 2. flaki] flake (I) & -y Having the nature of a flake or flakes, in form of a flake flam, n & vb trans [1. flam, 2. flam] Shortened fr obs & provino flamfau, 'gawgaw, trifle', fr obs Fr fanfelue (Mod Fr fanfeluche) in same sense, fr Low Lat type fanfaluca*, fr Gk zompholuz, 'air-bladder', cp Span fanfarria, 'idle boasting'. See fanfare, flumflam 1 n a Sham, deceitful trick, lie, nonsense, b kind of flourish on drum 2 vb To trick, deceive, cheat to flam one off with lies flambé, adj [1. flambé, 2. flambé] Fr, P.P. of flamber, 'to blaze, singe'. See flame (of porcelain &c) Decorated with irregular splashes of coloured glaze flambeau, n [1. flambeau, 2. flambeau] Fr, fr Low Lat flambellum, dimin of flamma, flame Large torch with several waxed wicks, used on ceremonial occasions flamboyance, -cy, n [1. flamboyance, 2. flamboyance] See next word & -ce or -cy Quality of being flamboyant in sense 2 flamboyant, adj [1. flamboyant, 2. flamboyant] Fr, Pres Part of flamboyer, 'to flame', fr O Fr flambe, 'flame', fr Lat flamma, q v under flame (I) 1 Specif (archt) pertaining to the latest phase of continental, esp French, Gothic, characterized by flowing, flame like tracery, and florid ornament 2 (of taste, style, person) adornment &c) Excessively ornate, highly coloured, florid, too conspicuous flame (I), n [1. flame, 2. flame] M E flamme, flame, fr O Fr flame (m), fr Lat flamma, prob for flag ma*, fr base flag*, 'to blaze, burn', & substat formative -m- See under flagrant, phlegm, phlox, & cp etymol of black 1 Luminous, incandescent heat, mass of burning gas or vapour, rising from burning matter &c, such masses collectively Phrs to commit to the flames, to burn, in flames, flaming, blazing, to burst into flame(s), to blaze up suddenly 2 Lurid brightness resembling flame, fiery glow, blaze of light or colour the flames of sunset 3 (fig) a Burning, ardent passion, or emotion flames of wrath, love, zeal, to fan the flame, to intensify passion or emotion, b intense, powerful, mental activity the flame of his intellect, imagination &c 4 (familiar and colloq) Beloved person, sweetheart esp an old flame (of his)

flame (II), vb intrans M E flam (m), fr O Fr flam (m), fr Lat flammare See preo 1 To emit a flame or flames, to burn as a flame, to blaze 2 To produce effect resembling flame, to glow brightly, with luminosity or colour, to flare, glare, to have a fiery red or yellow colour the western sky flames, the garden flames with tulips, b (of human beings) to blush deeply or suddenly her face flamed with excitement, c to become violently excited, show vehement passion or fervour to flame with indignation Flame out, intrans, a to burst out with flames, b (of temper &c) to be suddenly and forcibly expressed Flame up, intrans, a to rise up in flame, blaze up, b to become suddenly and violently angry or excited, c (of passion &c) to become roused flame-coloured, adj Having the colour of flame, bright scarlet flame-flower, n Flower popularly called red hot poker, Kniphofia or Tritoma flameless, adj [1. flameless, 2. flameless] flame (I) & -less Devoid of flame flamen, n [1. flamen, 2. flamen] Lat flamen, perh orig 'blower' (of the sacrificial fire), fr flare, 'to blow', & formative men, denoting agent, or for flag men*, 'burner'. See flagrant, flame Ancient Roman priest of a particular deity flame-projector or -thrower, n Cp Germ flammenwerfer, 'flame thrower' War engine which pumps blazing liquid or flame into enemy trenches &c flaming, adj [1. flaming, 2. flaming] flame (II) & -ing 1 In a condition of burning with flame, throwing out flames, blazing 2 Very bright and hot a flaming August 3 Glaring, very gaudy or bright in colour flaming colours 4 (of feelings) Intensely ardent, fervent flaming patriotism flamingly, adv Preo & -ly So as to emit flames, so as to glow with colour flamingo, n [1. flamingo, 2. flamingo] Formerly flamengo, fr Port, op Span flamenco, fr Provenc flamenc, fr flama, 'flame', & enc, fr Gmc -ing See -ing Member of a widely distributed family of aquatic birds with very long legs and necks and webbed feet, so called from the scarlet colour in the wings flamy, adj [1. flami, 2. flami] flame (I) & -y Pertaining to, resembling, flame.

flan, n [1. flan, 2. flan] or as Fr M E fla (u), flaum, fr O Fr flaon, fr Mod Lat fladonem, fr O.H.G flado, 'flat cake'. Shell of pastry filled with fruit &c.

flanch, n [1. flanch, 2. flanch] O Fr flanche See flange & flank (her) One of two segments of a circle, curving towards the centre of the shield and placed opposite each other at either side of this flâneur, n [1. flâneur, 2. flâneur] Fr See next word Idling, loafing flâneur, n [1. flâneur, 2. flâneur] Fr, fr flâner, 'to idle'. See flaunt Gentle, dreamy loafer, esp one who idles about the streets flange (I), n [1. flang, 2. flang] Provincial E flanch, 'projection', fr O Fr flanche, fem variant of flanc, 'side'. See flank (I) 1 a Projecting rim, edge, or rib on wheel, rail, girder, pipe &c, b attach, as flange coupling, joint, rail. 2 Founder's tool for making flanges flange (II), vb trans, fr preo To furnish with a flange a flanged wheel flank (I), n [1. flangk, 2. flangk] M E flanka, fr O Fr flanc, of Gmc origin, op OHG hlanca, 'loin, side'. See lank

1 Fleishy part of the side of human or animal body between ribs and hip, esp as butcher's term flank of beef 2 a Side of a mountain or hill, of a fortification or other building, b (mil, nav) right or left side of an armed force to cover, expose, the flanks Phr in flank, at the side 3 attrib adj (mil, nav, from preo) Pertaining to a flank Phr flank attack, one made on the enemy's flank, flank march, one parallel to that of the enemy, flank movement, one made with the object of turning the enemy's flank flank (II), vb trans & intrans Fr flanquer See preo A trans 1 a To be situated on the side or flank of, b to place on the flank, at the side of 2 (mil, nav) a To protect the flank of, b to pass along the flank of, c to attack or threaten in flank, to enfilade B intrans To be situated at the side of, border on.

of 3 per cent, a unqualified, absolute, plain, downright to give a flat denial, flat lunacy, blasphemy Phr that's flat, that is my last word 7 (mus) Lower than the 'natural' note, opposed to sharp his singing is flat, the piano is flat, A flat, note or semitone lower than A natural, denoted by symbol \flat 8 (phon) Flat vowel, one in the articulation of which the tongue is kept relatively level, so that neither the back nor the front has a greater elevation, e.g. [A] in bird &c flat (II), adv, fr prec 1 So as to be flat, prone, recumbently to fall, lie, flat, on one's face, on the ground Phr (fig, of remarks &c) to fall flat, to fail to win applause, 2 Entirely, directly, altogether to go flat against orders 3 (colloq) Bluntly, positively, absolutely I told him flat 4 (mus) In a flat manner to sing flat, below the proper pitch 5 (finance) Without interest the bonds are sold flat flat (III), n, fr flat (I) 1 A Flat surface to represent an object in the flat, in two dimensions, as by drawing, distinguished from in the round, to draw from the flat, from a pictorial copy, 2 flat part of a thing the flat of one's sword, of the hand 2 a Tract of flat land, esp low-lying marsh, broad, level foreshore mud-flat, b shoal, shallow 3 Flat object (in many technical senses), flat-bottomed boat, flat, shallow basket, American platform car, theatrical scenery on flat frame, pushed on from wings, &c 4 (mus) a Note a semitone below natural, b symbol (\flat) for this, c black key in piano by which flat note is produced 5 (colloq) Stupid person easily tricked or gulled, dupe flat (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr flat (I) 1 trans (rare) To render flat, flatten 2 intrans (rare) To become flat, insipid, or dull flat (V), n Cp OE, ME flat, 'ground, floor', ME, 'apartment', OS, ON flat, OHG flazz, 'floor', Germ flöz, 'stratum'. This Gmc base is doubtless cogn, though w quite different formative elements, w Lat planus, 'flat', q v under plain (I) a Storey or floor in a house or other building, b floor of a house, or part of it, arranged as separate, self-contained dwelling, (pl) house divided into a number of such independent dwellings flat-boat, n Flat-bottomed boat used for transporting bulky objects flatfish, n [1 flatfish, 2 flatfish] One of a number of fish, such as the turbot &c, having both eyes on the same side of the skull, and a superficial area of considerable size relative to the thickness of the body flatfoot, n [1 flatfoot, 2 flatfoot] Condition of being flatfooted flatfooted, adj [1 flatfooted, 2 flatfooted] Having feet with flat soles and lacking an arched instep flathead, adj & n [1 flat-head, 2 flat-head] 1 adj Having a flat head, either naturally so or from artificial deformation 2 n a A North American snake, b one of several Australian fishes flat-iron, n Iron implement used when heated for smoothing clothes &c, consisting of a flat, heavy, smooth plate with a handle above flatting, adv & adj [1 flatting, 2 flatting] flat (I) & -ing (II) (archaic) a adv (1) In a flat position, (u) with the flat part (of sword &c), b adj, lying, falling flat, struck with the flat a flatting blow flatly, adv [1 flatly, 2 flatly] flat (I) & -ly In a flat manner (in various senses) flatness, n [1 flatness, 2 flatness] ME flatness flat (I) & -ness Condition or quality of being flat flatten, vb trans & intrans [1 flatten, 2 flatten] flat (I) & -en 1 trans To make, render, flat (lit or fig), to render dull or vapid, to lower the musical pitch of, flatten out, a to flatten by spreading out, as by rolling or hammering, b (fig) to strike with dismay, to disconcert 2 intrans To become flat (lit or fig) flatter (I), n [1 flatter, 2 flatter] flat (IV) & -er Implement for flattening or flattening, used in metal working flatter (II), vb trans [1 flatter, 2 flatter] ME flateren, prob formed fr O Fr flaterie, q v under flattery Ultimately fr Gmc source, in sense of 'to smooth down' See flat (I) 1 To praise insincerely, adulate, fawn upon, to pay insincere and unmerited compliments to, esp with a view to ingratiating oneself 2 To represent in too favourable a light (not necessarily from insincerity) a by attributing moral or intellectual qualities in excess of those actually existing, b by depicting as possessing beauty of face and form greater than the reality the painter has flattered his model, this portrait certainly does not flatter you, c polite formula of self-disparagement in reply to a compliment oh, you flatter me 3 (reflex) To flatter oneself that, to congratulate oneself on, be glad to know, be convinced that, and acknowledge some self-satisfaction in the fact I rather flatter myself I can tell a genuine piece of Chippendale when I see it 4 To please, soothe, gratify everything that can flatter and delight the senses flatterer, n [1 flatterer, 2 flatterer] Prec & -er Person who flatters, a a sycophant, toady, b (in unobjectionable sense) one who pays compliments, who says pleasant things flattering, adj [1 flattering, 2 flattering] fr Prec Part of flatter (II) a Ingratulating, wheedling, adulatory a flattering tongue, b conveying an exaggerated impression of merit, beauty &c a flattering likeness, a flattering review, biography, c pleasing, delightful flatteringly, adv Prec & -ly In a flattering manner, so as to flatter flattery, n [1 flattery, 2 flattery] ME, O Fr flaterie, Mod Fr flaterie, fr O Fr flater, 'to smooth, flatter', fr a Gmc source (see flat (I)) & -ery Cp flatter (II) Excessive, insincere praise, adulation flattening, n [1 flattening, 2 flattening] flat (IV) & -ing Process of making flat (in various technical senses), specif a process of rolling out metal into thin sheets, attrib, flattening mill, b process of applying paint or gilding without gloss, or of removing gloss flatish, adj [1 flatish, 2 flatish] flat (I) & -ish Rather flat flatulence, flatulency, n [1 flatul-, flatulency(1), 2 flatul-, flatulency(2)] See next word and -ence, -ency 1 Wind, gas, in the stomach or bowels 2 Quality of being flatulent (in non-material sense) flatulent, adj [1 flatul-, flatulent(1), 2 flatul-, flatulent(2)] Fr, fr Low Lat flatulent (us), fr Lat flat-us, 'a blowing'. See flatulency 1 Pertaining to, affected with, flatulency or wind in the stomach or bowels 2 (fig, of speech) Windy, empty, vapid a flatulent harangue, speaker flatulently, adv Prec & -ly In a flatulent manner flatulency, n [1 flatul-, flatulency(1), 2 flatul-, flatulency(2)] See next word and -ence, -ency 1 Wind, gas, in the stomach or bowels 2 Quality of being flatulent (in non-material sense) flatways, flatwise, adv [1 flatwāz, -wiz, 2 flatweiz, -wawz] flat (I) & -ways, -wise So as to lie flat flaunt (I), vb intrans & trans [1 flaunt, 2 flaunt] Provino Engl flant, 'to gad about, esp in finery', prob preserves the orig sense, of Scand origin, op Norw flanta, 'to gad about', extended fr flana, 'to clumb, rove about', Dan flone, 'to flirt', flane, 'a giddy girl', also Fr (fr Scand) flāner, 'to loaf, stroll, idle', cogn w Gk planē, 'wandering' Soeplanet 1 intrans To move about, wave, flutter, proudly, ostentatiously, or impudently, to make a display or parade, esp in fine clothes or gaudy colours banners flaunt in the breeze, overdressed women flaunt through the streets 2 trans a To flourish, wave proudly or in solently to flaunt a flag, b to parade, make a display of to flaunt one's wiles flaunt (II), n, fr prec a Action of flaunting, parade, b (obs or rare) thing displayed or paraded (Shakespeare) flaunting, adj [1 flaunting, 2 flaunting] Prec Part of flaunt (I) Ostentatious, showy flauntingly, adv Prec & -ly In a flaunting manner, ostentatiously flaunty, adj [1 flaunty, 2 flaunty] flaunt (II) & -y (rare) Flaunting, showy flautist, n [1 flautist, 2 flautist] It flautista, fr Low Lat flauta, 'flute', see flute, & -ist Flute-player flavescence, adj [1 flavescence, 2 flavescence] Lat flavescens (-em), Pres Part of flavescere, 'to become yellow', inceptive vb fr flav (us), 'yellow' Aryan base ghel*, 'yellowish, greenish', whence also OE geolu See further under gold & yellow Turning yellow, tending to acquire a slightly yellow tint flavine, n [1 flavin, 2 flavin] fr Lat flavus, 'yellow' See prec & -ine A yellow, artificial dyestuff flavorous, adj [1 flavorus, 2 flavorus] Next word & -ous Having an agreeable flavour flavour (I), n [1 flavour, 2 flavour] In early use often, if not always, 'odour, scent', ME flavor, fr O Fr flavour, prob altered on the anal of savour, 'savour', fr flor, flaur, fleur (two sylls), 'odour', perh fr a Low Lat type flāūr* -em, lit 'blower', agent n fr flāre, 'to blow' (see flatus), op It flare, 'bad smell' 1 (archaic or obs) Fragrance, aroma 2 Taste, quality which gives a distinctive taste to a thing, savour, mixed sensation of taste and smell, relish, smack 3 (of non material quality) Distinctive quality affecting the aesthetic taste or feeling, savour, spice a flavour of adventure, of romance, about the affair flavour (II), vb trans, fr prec a To give a flavour or relish to (dish &c), to season to flavour soup with onions, b (fig) to add savour or zest to, to furnish with a distinctive quality flavouring, n [1 flavouring, 2 flavouring] Prec & -ing a Substance with a distinct, characteristic flavour, essence, spice, or herb, used to give relish to food, b feature giving characteristic aesthetic or moral quality flavourless, adj [1 flavourless, 2 flavourless] flavour (I) & -less Lacking distinctive flavour or character flavoursome, adj [1 flavoursum, 2 flavoursum] flavour (I) & -some (rare) Having a flavour flaw (I), n [1 flaw, 2 flaw] ME floue, flaw, 'flake of snow or fire', op Swed flage, 'flaw, crack, bresch, flake', ON flaga, 'slab', also flag (VI), flake, & perh flay 1 Defect, blemish, usually in form of a slight fissure or rift, in material, esp in the texture of metal that has been cast, which renders the material liable to break 2 a Visible, natural defect, blemish, disfigurement, spot, fleck, in an object, specif in precious stones, b defect, fault, in a manufactured article, due to error or carelessness of workmanship 3 (in non material sense) a Moral, or logical defect, error, lapse from correctness, blemish in character, weak point in reasoning &c a flaw in an argument, in an otherwise perfect character &c, b an error in conduct or action 4 (law) Something omitted, or incorrectly stated, which invalidates a legal instrument flaw (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) a To make a flaw or rift in, b to invalidate flaw (III), n Cp Du vlag, Norw, Dan flage, 'gust of wind', perh fr Gmc base flax*, 'to strike' See flay Sudden gust of wind, equal, brief storm of wind with snow, hail, or rain flawless, adj [1 flawless, 2 flawless] flaw (I) & -less (in material and non-material senses)

Free from defect or blemish, perfect, irreproachable a flawless diamond, his work was flawless, flawless manner and behaviour flawlessly, adv Free & -ly In a flawless manner flawlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality or state of being flawless, perfection flax, n. [1 flaks, 2 flaks] OE flax, ME flax, O H G flachs, Mod Germ flachs, Gmc base flex*, 'to plait, weave', op Goth flah ta, 'plaiting of hair', Gorm flechten, 'to plait', cogn w Gk plélein, Lat plectere, 'to plait, weave', Lat plicare, 'to fold' See fold (I), plait, ply (I) a Slender herb, Linum, with blue flowers, narrow leaves, and tough stalk, cultivated for its fibre from which linen is made, and for its seeds which produce linseed oil, b fibre of this prepared for spinning flax-brake, n. Machine for separating the fibrous part of flax flax-comb, n. Heekle for dressing flax flax-dresser, n. Person who prepares flax for spinning flaxen, adj [1 flaksen, 2 flaks(en)] OE flæxen flax & -en a Made of, pertaining to, flax, b having the colour of unbleached flax, pale yellowish, straw coloured flaxen-haired, adj Having flaxen hair flax-lily, n. New Zealand plant of lily family, producing tough fibre used for weaving flax-seed, n. Seed of the flax plant, linseed flaxy, adj [1 flaks, 2 flaks] flax & -y Pertaining to, like, flax flay, vb trans [1 flā, 2 flā] OE flēan fr flah-an*, op PP flag-en, flagen, O N flā (PP flēan), cogn w Germ flach, 'flat flake' (I), op Lath plak-u, 'I strike', Lat plaga, 'a stroke', Lat plangere, 'to beat the breast' &c See flag (VI), plague 1 To strip off the skin or hide from, to skin 2 (fig) a To extort money or goods from, to reduce to penury by unjust exactions, to pillage, plunder, fleece, b to criticize savagely or pitilessly flay-lint, n [1 flālint, 2 flālint] (rare) Linen, abundant flea n [1 flā, 2 flā] OE flēah, fr Gmc flaux*, ME flea, op Du vloot, Germ floh, O N flō, prob related to flee a Small wingless, leaping, blood sucking insect, Pulex, infesting the coats of animals, and biting human beings on occasion, Plur a flea in one's ear, a sharp rebuff, snub, b small flea-like animal, esp flea beetle &c, in compounds eard flea, water flea, minute crustaceans fleabane, n [1 flēbān, 2 flibēn] Strong-smelling composite British plant, said to drive away fleas flea-beetle, n. One of several small leaping beetles infesting plants flea-bite, n. 1 a Small red spot on human skin, caused by bite of a flea, b (fig) trifling pain or inconvenience, trifle the cost is a mere flea bite. 2 Small patch of reddish hair on white horse flea-bitten, adj a Bitten by a flea or fleas, b (of horse) having light coat sprinkled with small patches of reddish hair flea-hopper, n Garden pest infesting beans flea-louse, n Garden pest infesting pear trees fleam, n [1 flēm, 2 flīm] O Fr flème (Mod Fr flamme) fr Low Lat fledomum, fledoma, fr Lat phlebotomus, fr Gk phlebotōmos, 'lancet' See phlebotomy Lancet for bleeding cattle or horses fleawort, n [1 flēwärt, 2 flwärt] Kind of plantain the seeds of which are used medicinally one of various plants which are supposed to destroy fleas fleche n. [1 flāsh, 2 flā] Fr lit. 'arrow', prob of Celt. origin, op O Ir flēst, 'rod, wand' (arbut.) Slender espire over inter section of nave and transept of Gothic church fleck, n & vb trans [1 flæk, 2 flæk] ME flefeld P.P., op Du vleel, Germ fleck, O N flelfr, 'spot' O N flēkka, 'to spot', fikka, 'a patch', Germ flecken, 'to patch' &c Prob cogn w flake 1 n. a Spot small patch flocks of swallows, b freckle, o speck, particle a flock of doves 2 vb To spot, sprinkle with flocks, dapple flecker, vb trans [1 flēker, 2 flēks] flock, vb, & freq -er To fleck, scatter spots or specks over fleckless, adj [1 flēkles, 2 flēllis] fleek, n, & -less Having no fleck, spotless flection See flection.

fled vb [1 flēd, 2 flēd] ME fledde, Pret & PP of flee fledge, vb trans & intrans [1 flēj, 2 flēdž], fr obs. adj fledge, 'fledged' (Hilton), fr ME fledge, orig a Kentish or Essex form of fligge, fr OE (un)flyge, (un)fledged', op M Dn flugge, O H G fluechi, Mod Germ (fr L G) flügge, fr Gmc type flugja*, fr flug-, another grade of flegu, 'to fly' See fly (II) 1 trans a (of young bird) To grow feathers on (itself), b to rear (young bird) until it is fledged, o (fig) to grow hair on (chin &c), d to furnish with feathers to fledge an arrow, a nest 2 intrans To acquire full plumage, to become able to fly fledged, adj [1 flējd, 2 flēdž], fr PP of prec (of young bird) Having the wing feathers developed, able to fly fledgeless, adj [1 flējles, 2 flēdžlis] fledge & -less Unfledged fledgeless, n [1 flējing, 2 flēdžing] fledge & -ling a Young bird just fledged, b (fig) a child, young, tender, inexperienced person fledgy, adj [1 flēj, 2 flēdž] fledge & -y (rare) Feathered, downy (Keats) flee, vb intrans & trans [1 flē, 2 flī] OE flēan, flion (strong), for flehan*, ME fleen, O S, O H G fliehan, O N flīja, 'to fly from pursuit, put to flight', Goth fluhan, if the same word (wh is unproved in spite of identity of meaning), is an unexplained eccentricity, & in any case affords no proof that b was the orig Gmc initial cons, or that the Aryan began w t No cognates exist outside Gmc apparently, unless we may connect w Lat pluma, 'feather', q v under plume (I) See fly (II) The pres is now archaic or only in liter use, being replaced in common speech by fly (I) A in trans 1 a To fly from pursuit, run or hasten away, depart hurriedly, retreat as from an enemy the troops fled in disorder, b to avoid by departure to flee from the plague, c (in moral sense) to eschew, avoid to flee from temptation 2 (only in Past and PP) To vanish, pass away life had fled or was fled, (archaic in pres or infin) 'sorrow and sighing shall flee away', Psalm, 35, 10 B trans To hasten away from, to avoid, shun, to forsake to flee the haunts of men fleece (I), n [1 flēs, 2 flūs] OE flēas, flīas &c, ME flees, op Dn vlees, M H G clius, Mod Germ flees, Gmc type flīus*, the first part of wh is prob cogn w Lat plūma, 'soft feather, down', q v under plume a Mass of wool growing over body of sheep or other animal, or shorn from it, the Golden Fleece, Austrian and Spanish order of knighthood (from the Greek myth of Jason), b (fig) soft mass resembling wool, covering anything, as woolly or curly head of hair, sheet of soft snow &c fleece (II), vb trans, fr prec a (archaic and rare) To shear fleece from (sheep), b (fig) to despoil, beggar, plunder, by extortion, or trickery, to swindle to fleece a person of all he possesses, fleece by card sharpers, op such expressions as to flay (in fig sense) fleeceable, adj [1 flēasbl, 2 flūsbl] prec & -able Capable of being *fleece*d, gullible fleecey, adj [1 flēs, 2 flūs] fleece (I) & -y a Bearing a fleece or fleeces fleecey flocks, b like a fleece, in appearance or texture, soft, flocculent fleecey hair, a fleecey cloud, snow-drift fleer, vb intrans & n [1 flēr, 2 flī] ME fleren, flēra, Scots dual flēyr, fr Scand, op Norw flira, flisa, 'to titter, guggle, grin', of unknown origin (provin) 1 vb intrans To grin, leer, grimace or laugh contemptuously, to jeer, sneer to fleer at one.

2 n Contemptuous or mocking grimace, laugh or speech.

